Russians Accuse Allies Of Italian Peace Violation

Charge Invitation To Sign Atlantic Pact Violation Of Treaty Terms

London, July 20 (AP)—Russia accused the big three western powers today of getting Italy to violate the terms of her peace treaty by inviting her to sign the North Atlantic pact.

The Moscow radio said that in notes to the United States, Britain, France and Italy herself, Russia has charged that Italy had violated the terms of her peace treaty when she signed the Atlantic document by invitation of the big three.

The Soviet note said that in the midst of Italian debate on ratification of the Atlantic charter, ratification currently is under discussion in Italy's Chamber of Deputies where a majority of Christian Democrats is expected to win quick approval.

In the Italian Senate, the Christian Democrats, largest group in that body are expected to gain enough backing from liberals and anti-Communist socialists to insure ratification.

The Soviet note charged that the North Atlantic treaty is an aggressive instrument aimed at Russia and the "peoples' Democracies."

Italy signed a peace treaty with the big four and 16 other nations in Paris, on Feb. 10, 1947. She signed the North Atlantic pact in Washington last April 4 along with the U. S., Britain, France and eight other nations.

The Russian note said that in joining this alliance Italy broke the peace treaty clauses which (1) pledged her "to abstain from undertaking any actions directed against states with which that treaty was signed and consequently not to join any alliances or other groupings pursuing aggressive aims" and (2) which limited her army, navy, air force and war industry.

"Having joined the North Atlantic pact," the Soviet note said, "Italy has entered a military grouping of states which is of an aggressive nature and directed against the Soviet Union and other countries of the 'Peoples' Democracy.'"

The Atlantic pact cannot be justified because none of the signatory nations is threatened with attack, the communication said.

Missing Atomic Employe Found

Santa Fe, N. M., July 20 (AP)—Tracy Snelling, missing public information director at the Los Alamos atomic project, today appeared voluntarily at FBI headquarters in Dallas, Tex., the atomic energy commission announced.

Rodney Southwick, acting information chief, said he has no further details until a report was received from the FBI.

"He may be taken to a hospital," Southwick added. "We'll see what the family wants."

Snelling, 37, has been missing since Wednesday.

Fishing Boat Is Victim Of Fire

Morehead City, N. C., July 20 (AP)—A menhaden fishing boat, the Minnion, of Beaufort, burned four miles off Atlantic Beach today. Her crew of 22 was taken off by nearby fishing boats and the Coast Guard.

The ship's engine apparently exploded and started the fire. Smoke was visible to vacationists along the beach.

His 'Responsibility'

Jackie Robinson Provides An Inspiring Declaration Of Faith In His Country Before House Un-American Activities Committee; a Difficult Task; What He Had to Say

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

A salute to Jackie Robinson, former noted college athlete and now the Brooklyn Dodgers' star second baseman, for his inspiring declaration of faith in our country before the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives.

That declaration constitutes a moving human document—a notable chapter in the history of our troubled times. It was a difficult task for this young Negro to take the stand and voice an opinion regarding Paul Robeson's statement in Paris that American Negroes wouldn't fight against Russia because they love that country so much.

Robinson had been urged by many people, mostly Communists not to comply with the committee's request that he appear before it. Why then did he do it? In his straightforward way he told the congressmen it wasn't easy to find the answer, but he resolutely "holla down to a sense of responsibility."

Jackie said that if Robeson made the statement attributed to him, it sounded "very silly." The witness declared that "most Negroes—and Italians and Irish and Jews and Swedes and Slavs and other Americans—would act as all these groups did in the last war. They'd do their best to help their country stay out of the war; if unsuccessful they'd do their best to help their country win the war—against Russia or any

Second Secret Session On Atomic Policy Held

Washington, July 20 (AP)—A second high level closed door conference on sharing the nation's super-secret atomic weapon set for Capitol Hill today.

Does the administration propose to share fully the nation's postwar atomic secrets and "know how" with Great Britain and Canada? Will such a step, if undertaken by the executive branch, be done through executive agreement, or by action of Congress? Is there a "squeeze play" on involving the nation's uranium supply—the lifeblood of the atomic enterprise?

These and other questions circulated freely at the joint Senate-House Atomic Commission prepared to sit down (1:30 p.m. EST) with State, military and atomic leaders to explore the "continuing problem" of relations with Britain and Canada in the atomic field.

The conference was announced yesterday by Chairman McMahon (D-Conn.) as a sequel to the Blair House meeting last Thursday night. McMahon partially lifted the secrecy veil on that meeting by saying that the 16 State, military, Congressional and atomic leaders had at that session discussed with President Truman British-Canadian relations in the atomic field.

But neither McMahon nor other Congress members who took part in the discussion would disclose the details.

And none would elaborate on the bare announcement that today's meeting will be a discussion about "the problems which lie ahead in our relations with the United Kingdom and Canada in this atomic field."

The joint committee thrashed over the problem for an hour and a half yesterday, following which McMahon told reporters only that the committee "discussed our international relationships and policy with regard to atomic energy."

Meanwhile, the administration was reported to have sounded out lawmakers on the question of sharing atomic secrets with Britain by executive (presidential) agreement.

The allocation to Britain was partially offset by a reduction of $268,000 in prior allocations for U. S. fruits and agricultural tractors. The day's transactions resulted in a net increase of $19,732, 000 in total aid to Britain.

Manufacturing Profits Slide

Washington, July 20 (AP)—Manufacturing corporations' profits nosed sharply downward during the first three months of this year, a government report shows.

Last night passed quietly despite some fears that darkness would again bring armed mobsters shooting and burning their way through Negro areas.

Last night passed comparatively quietly. Warning shots were fired at two men—one a white robed Klansman—and several cars approaching the town were halted.

The night was in marked contrast, though, to Monday night, when armed mobsters shot and burned their way through Negro areas. Then, three Negro houses were set afire, and a heavily armed mob of white men was scattered by a tear gas bomb.

Pick Jurors For Streeton Trial

High Point, July 20 (AP)—Two more jurors, a man and a woman, were selected today in the first degree murder trial of Charles G. Streeton, 49, of Jamestown, a restaurant cook, making a total of eight jurors seated. The jury was expected to be completed this afternoon.

Lawyers had examined a total of 96 tallies by noon today and had begun questioning on a second panel of 100 prospective jurors. Streeton is charged with shooting his crippled brother-in-law to death last March 14 and then sending a note demanding $5,000 ransom to the victim's parents.

Boxscore

Raleigh, N. C., July 20 (AP)—The state motor vehicle department's report on 24-hour accidents during the 24-hour period ending at 10 a. m. today:

Killed—3. Injured—13. Killed to date—412. Killed to date in 1948—356. Injured to date—4,681. Injured to date in 1948—3,829.

Crashing Plane Hits Five Homes In Seattle Area

Seattle, July 20 (AP)—A non-scheduled two-engine C-46 airplane fluttered on a single motor last night plunged through a series of utility lines and smashed in flames among the wreckage of five south end homes.

The coroner's office reported early today it has six unidentified bodies in the morgue, and that men and bulldozers still were searching the debris for victims.

Seventeen of the plane's 28 passengers and four crew members were hospitalized with injuries. Eight others were treated and released. Three were unhurt and four were unaccounted for.

Seven residents of the damaged homes also were injured, and four firemen were hospitalized when gasoline tank exploded three and a half hours after the crash.

The 50-passenger plane crashed seconds after it took off from Boeing Field on a non-scheduled flight to Chicago, for Air Transport Associates, Inc.

Amos E. Heacock, company president and a passenger on the plane, said both engines checked out "without a sputter" at the end of the runway.

"But soon after we got into the air one motor began sputtering and the pilot evidently thought it best to continue. A few seconds later he pulled back on the throttle, apparently intending to land," Heacock said.

"Then he perceived almost immediately that he could not land and pulled throttle again, continuing to climb with a sputtering engine."

Another witness said the right motor of the plane sputtered, then cut out. The plane failed in its climb and began clipping the tops of utility poles.

Power lines and telephone wires were clipped, plunging the area into darkness and disrupting communications.

Its wide wings cutting swaths through frame houses, the plane ripped through five Georgetown homes. It buried its nose in one structure.

About two minutes later it exploded. During that short interval, passengers jumped or were thrown from the tail of the plane which had been sheared off in the crash.

Two hundred National Guardsmen formed lines to hold back a crowd of thousands endangered by writhing electric wires. Flames were visible for miles.

Many of the plane's passengers were servicemen returning home on furlough.

The bodies, badly burned, made identification difficult.

Uneasy, Bayonet-Backed Peace Kept In Groveland

Groveland, Fla., July 20 (AP)—An uneasy, bayonet-backed peace settled today over this community racked by mad terrorism of Negroes.

Lanier Endorses Work Of Tobacco Associates

J. Con Lanier of Greenville, executive secretary of Tobacco Associates Inc., today replied to state legislators made Monday by Frank Hancock of Oxford naming Tobacco Associates as a "useless" organization and calling for its discontinuation.

Lanier, in a statement to the Daily Reflector, said, "In my opinion Tobacco Associates is doing excellent work in promoting export markets for flue-cured tobacco and also keeping growers informed as to the trends in consumer taste of tobacco products."

Hudson, president of Tobacco Associates, is one of the best informed men in the country on world conditions affecting tobacco.

"Tobacco Associates is not a selling organization, and therefore it is hard to point to tangible results. However, we must continually strive to maintain and enlarge the export markets, and Mr. Hudson and his organization have cooperated to the fullest extent with the tobacco exporters in finding new markets and in enlarging old markets in foreign countries."

Farmers will vote Saturday whether to continue a tax of 10 cents per acre for Tobacco Associates to be used for the development of foreign markets for flue-cured tobacco.

Hancock, a former congressman and former head of the Commodity Credit corporation, said in his statement Tobacco Associates is of no benefit to growers, and called the association an "unconstitutional and unnecessary burden" on the growers.

Lanier in his statement said, "From my own contact with Tobacco Associates I am convinced it is being intelligently managed and deserves the support of tobacco growers. I am a grower of flue-cured tobacco and I'm going to vote for continuation of Tobacco Associates."

Commenting on the British situation, Lanier said, "I find no cause for alarm in the announced intentions of British in respect to this crop. As indicated last week, the English will certainly buy from the auction, more than twice as much tobacco as they bought in 1948, and this additional buying power should stimulate the markets."

Struck Power Lines, Fell In Flames; Six Unidentified Bodies Found

Steps Taken To Halt Hog Loss

Raleigh, N. C., July 20 (AP)—Steps have been taken to halt a loss of hogs on prison farms that totalled 1,200 hogs in the past 12 months, Governor Scott said yesterday.

An inventory showed about 2,400 hogs were raised at Caledonia prison farm in Halifax County and about the same number on others of the more than 800 farms in the prison system, he said.

Only half the meat from the hogs raised at farms other than Caledonia could be accounted for after the hogs were killed, Scott declared. Officials were told, he added, that spoilage accounted for the loss.

Damage Suits Total $130,000

Southport, N. C., July 20 (AP)—Damage suits totaling $130,000 growing out of a Memorial Day traffic accident in which seven were killed, have been filed in Brunswick County Superior Court.

Sam T. Bennett, clerk of court said the four suits were filed by three Brunswick residents suing as paupers.

The automobile accident in which seven were killed near Shallotte involved former Brunswick residents and three residents of Pantego.

The defendant in all cases is John H. Benson, administrator of the estate of A. N. Houston, driver of one of the death cars.

Sheriff Figures Embezzled Funds

Chadbourne, N. C., July 20 (AP)—Funds which former Chief of Police Woody Hall of Chadbourne is charged with embezzling during his office amounted to "between $400 and $500," it was revealed today.

Sheriff Herman Stanley announced the approximate figure at which time he said that Hall, who disappeared several weeks ago "without a trace," has not been found.

'Mentioned'

Richmond, Va., July 20 (AP)—The Richmond News Leader said today Chief Justice John J. Parker of the Fourth United States Circuit Court of Appeals has been mentioned for appointment to the Supreme Court to succeed the late Justice Frank Murphy.

Justice Parker was among those mentioned in 1948 for an appointment which went to Senator Harold H. Burton of Ohio to succeed Justice Owen J. Roberts, resigned. Parker's name again was mentioned in 1946 when Fred M. Vinson was named to succeed Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone.

A North Carolina Republican, Judge Parker has been on the Circuit Appeals bench for 34 years.

He was nominated by President Hoover in 1930 to the Supreme Court to succeed Justice E. T. Sanford but was refused confirmation in the Senate on a 41-39 vote.

He served on the Allied military tribunal which tried Axis war criminals.

President Pledges Force For Peace

Scott Promises Action To Meet Utilities Needs

Criticizes Private Companies For 'Negative Approach' In Radio Talk

Raleigh, N. C., July 20 (AP)—Governor Scott last night appealed to North Carolinians who need phones and electricity "to write in here and tell me about it."

He promised "we'll put an investigation behind (the utilities companies) and see what is the matter. Let the letters come in. North Carolina is greater than any organization of utilities companies."

The governor made his statements in a statewide radio broadcast over more than 40 stations. His drive to see that power and telephone deficits are overcome, he said, is "surprise" he promised more than a month ago.

Scott criticized private utilities for their "negative approach" and declared the time has come to get on with the "unfinished business" of putting telephones and electricity into rural areas.

Besides cracking down on the utilities in the 15-minute extemporaneous broadcast from his office, the governor also promised:

To eliminate "dead wood" from among state employes and membership of state boards and commissions; and

That the $200,000,000 secondary road program would "get under full steam as soon as we can get the equipment."

Scott said he is asking the State Utilities Commission and the Rural Electrification Authority to call upon each utilities company and cooperative for a study of their unneeded areas. From these studies, an estimate will be made of the cost to finish the rural electrification job, he declared.

He said there are 268,000 farm families in North Carolina who need electricity but can't get it, and 100,000 families who are waiting for telephone service.

"If the private companies won't supply them," he warned, "the government will have to."

The utilities companies, he said, "have long tried to impede progress. I definitely feel that the people in the utilities field have too long had a negative approach. Instead of fighting everything, they need to get a positive approach and do something about filling these needs."

Monday Marks Probable End Of '52-20' Club

Washington, July 20 (AP)—Next Monday marks the likely end of veterans unemployment benefits—the famous "52-20" Club.

With the expiration date at hand, there appeared little likelihood of disposition on the part of Congress today to extend the system. Payments under it in the last five years have passed the three- and a half billion dollar mark.

The servicemen's readjustment act which became law in June of 1944, provides for maximum readjustment allowances (jobless' pay) of $20 a week for a total of 52 weeks.

President Truman has asked for a year's extension of the law, but the situation in Congress offered little, if any chance.

Frank Murphy's Place

How Great A Man Was The Supreme Court Justice Who Died Yesterday? Opinions Vary; His Concern For Individual Rights; Special Talents As A Crusader

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, July 20 (AP)—There are mixed opinions on the stature of Justice Frank Murphy, who died yesterday.

But if any epitaph is needed for him this one would be true: He wrote well and he thought in terms of people.

His opinions had life and feeling. Compared with some Supreme Court opinions that have been handed down, his were clear and easy to read.

It is easy for a man, elevated to the great eminence of the Supreme Court, to grow far away from people and think of abstract principles.

Murphy kept his eyes on human beings. He had great concern for the rights of individuals.

This, perhaps, sums up his philosophy as well as anything:

"The immutable rights of the individual, including those secured by the due process clause of the fifth amendment, belong not alone to the members of these nations that swell on the bestfield or that subscribe to the democratic ideology.

"They belong to every person in the world, victor and vanquished, whatever may be his race, color or beliefs. They rise above any status of belligerency or outlawry.

"They survive any popular passion or frenzy of the moment. No court or legislature or executive, not even the mightiest army in the world, can ever destroy them.

"Such is the universal and inde-

Off The Cuff Address At Shrine Dinner Assures Struggling Democracies Of U.S. Leadership To Keep Peace Despite Broken Soviet Promises

Chicago, July 20 (AP)—Struggling democracies had President Truman's assurance today of United States leadership to provide "enough force" to maintain peace in a world he said is endangered by broken Russian promises.

With the United Nations charter signed and the collapse of Japan, he said, the peace for which the world had prayed "didn't come—it didn't come."

"For we found that we had an ally, an ally whose habit it is, and whose habit it has been since 1917, to make agreements for the purpose of breaking them," he declared.

"Now it is absolutely necessary that we assume the leadership among the democracies of the world, so that there will be enough force in this world to maintain the peace."

Mr. Truman's remarks were delivered off the cuff at a shrine dinner at the Stevens hotel last night following a formal address earlier in the day at Soldier field. At the big lake front stadium he reported apparently increasing "tensions and conflicts" behind the iron curtains.

Talking to 2,000 nobles and their ladies, he said if the United States had stayed out of the United Nations "the only thing left for us would be to criss into our shells and prepare for the destruction of the world, and ourselves with it."

Contrasting current expenditures with those of the war, Mr. Truman said the 1946 fiscal year budget called for spending $103,000,000.

He said that the month after Japan folded up in September, 1945, he cancelled $60,000,000 in war contracts "and made a recession in expenditures of $83,000,000."

He thought spending could be brought down to "where we could stand it," he said, "and then came the cold war—and the European recovery program."

All he has asked, he said, is that the country spend less than one-third of the $60,000,000 in war contracts "and revive Europe and Asia for peace."

"Which is better," he asked "to spend three or four or five billion a year for peace or to spend a hundred billion dollars a year for another war?"

And he again served this warning: "We are going to maintain the peace and make the United Nations a going and militant organization for the welfare of the world as a whole."

The President did not mention directly his prospective call for funds to rearm western Europe to implement the Atlantic pact on which the Senate votes tomorrow.

But in his Soldier field speech, he forecast ratification of the pact in line with what he said was "overwhelming" sentiment for it.

"Within the circle of its control today, tensions and conflicts appear to be increasing. It may have temporary triumphs, but in the long run it must either destroy itself, or abandon its attempt to force other nations into its pattern."

Wholesale Food Price Index Up

New York, July 20 (AP)—The Dun & Bradstreet Wholesale Food Price Index this week advanced to $5.68 a week ago. It was 21.8 per cent below the year-ago level of $7.30.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of a pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Structure Nature Of The Rights Which The Fifth Amendment Recognizes And Protects When Life Or Liberty Is Threatened By Virtue Of The Authority Of The United States

He wrote that in a caustic dissent when a majority of the Supreme Court upheld a U. S. Army commission's death sentence for the captured Japanese general, Tomoyuki Yamashita, in 1946.

The Washington Post, which today discussed Murphy's place in Supreme Court history, acknowledged his concern for the rights of individuals but thinks he falls a good deal short of greatness. It says:

"In spite of his devotion to the cause of civil rights and his humanitarian spirit, Murphy can not be regarded as one of the great men of the American judiciary."

"His special talent was not that of the judge but that of the orator, and his record might well have been more notable if he had not attempted to romanticize his humanitarianism with a judicial robe."

It's probably too soon to call the shot on Murphy. He was certainly sensitive to the times he lived in when the maintenance of civil rights every day becomes more of an issue.

He'll be quoted from time to time for years by lawyers, which is about the best legal immortality a justice can hope for although the passing years are unlikely to turn him into

"Such is the universal and inde-

Dear Judge,

As the summer moves along in all its glory, young misses look prettier and prettier as they grow tanner and browner. Little robins and blue jays peer down from their trees at picnic groups, sandpipers and herons watch swimmers. . . all youth wishes play seasons could go on forever.

But it wouldn't be fun now, would it, if all the time we had was just playtime. Then play would be work just trying to think up ways to have fun. It's better to have fun than to grow bored.

Strapless bathing suits are flattering and almost every girl has one. . . those that have are smart enough to wear 'em with straps or built-in bras. . . sunburn leaves its burning brand, more noticeable when suits have straps.

Nosegays to girls who whip up their own cute fillip to ordinary design, such as sewing their initials to canvas-beach shoes. . . tacking a bunch of pretty artificial posties to straw pocketbooks. . . applying their names on bathing suits. . . making anklet bracelets of cute little sea shells. . . wearing denim shorts made from long blue jeans, adding a cowgirl belt for glamor. . . taking dad's old bow ties, shortening them in back, crisscrossing them at the neck-line of a T-shirt or a dress-up summer suit. . . making a terry cloth "sandwich packet" by sewing together two towels at one end, leaving an opening for the head (sides are left unsewed) and wearing a knitted or cotton belt around the middle.

Smart is the girl who doesn't let a summer romance throw her for a loss. So many girls go on vacation and meet boys from different neighborhoods who have had, perhaps, more mature experiences and who know that girls are impressionable when they are smothered with kindness.

Most of these seabeerz Romeo work to their best advantage in a new setting. In their own home towns, nice girls probably avoid them. There are several tests you can make to determine whether you are making a mistake in encouraging the friendship of a new-found male acquaintance. Here are a few:

1. See if he is interesting in other things besides holding hands in the moonlight. Try to get him to discuss his family—sisters if he has any. Observe his attitude and respect when he talks about them.
2. Find out if he likes to play other than wolfing games. He should be interested in some sport or have a hobby of some kind if he is normal.
3. After you have determined that he has other interests besides girls, see if he enjoys describing them to you or if he just sets you apart for prospective necking parties.

4. Does he ogle every girl he passes, and become distracted in your presence when a more attractive girl is around?
5. If his chief topic of conversation is sex, don't waste your time with him.

6. Don't let him control your interest completely while you are on vacation. Remember there might be nicer pebbles on the beach and you'll never get acquainted if you sell out wites to the first bidder.

Executives Club Elects Officers

Dr. John D. Messick, president of East Carolina Teachers College, was re-elected president of the Pitt County Executive club yesterday at a meeting of the board of directors of the organization.

Other officers elected are Sam D. Bundy, first vice president; J. H. Waldrop, second vice president; and N. C. Brooks, secretary-treasurer. Sam D. Bundy, S. M. Edwards and Leo W. Jenkins were named to the board of directors.

Committee appointments made for the coming year by the board of directors included Arrangements Chairman Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, Membership Chairman J. W. Waldrop, Publicity Chairman D. J. Whichard III, Courtesy and Host Chairman Dr. H. C. Haney, J. H. Mays, secretary-treasurer of the Pitt county Executives club last year, said the club expects to maintain its limit of 175 members for the coming year. At the present time 139 of last year's members have indicated they will remain in the club, and 15 new applications for membership have been received by the organization, Mays said.

Ten Thousand Voters In Pitt Is Goal For Leaf Referendum

Officials of the Pitt County Agricultural Conservation Association have set 10,000 voters as the county goal for Saturday's election in which tobacco growers will decide whether to continue acreage control on the leaf crop for one year, three years or discontinue control altogether.

In the 1946 election when the control program was adopted for a three year period, 8,545 tobacco growers in Pitt County voted in the election. A total of 8,525 voted in favor of control for a three year period, 11 voted for control for a one year period, and nine voted against control.

The polls will open at 6 a. m. and remain open until 7 p. m., an official of the Pitt County office said. Tenants as well as landowners who have an interest in a tobacco crop are eligible to vote in the election.

The polling places in Pitt County are: Ayden A. Town Hall in Ayden; Ayden B. Town Hall in Ayden; Beaver Dam, Mack Smith's Store at Bell Arthur; Belvoir, Dupree Bros. Store at Belvoir; Bethel, Town Hall in Bethel; Carolina, School Building in

Stokes; Chicod A. Mr. Heber Porter's Store at Simpson. Chicod B. Town Hall in Grimesland; Chicod C. Barber Shop at Black Jack; Chicod D. L. C. Gambler Shot In Ambush By Gang

Los Angeles, July 20—(AP)—Gangsters' bullets early today cut down gambling czar Mickey Cohen and three other persons—including a state-appointed bodyguard for the dapper hoodlum—as the party left a smart Sunset Strip cafe.

None of the party was killed but Harry Cooper, a special bodyguard assigned to Cohen by the California attorney general, was critically wounded.

The other victims were Miss Dee David, a blonde, and Edward (Neddie) Herbert, a Cohen henchman. Herbert escaped 11 gangland bullets only a month ago as he was entering his apartment. They had Cohen were reported in a serious condition.

Cohen is a key figure in the stinging grand jury inquiry into police vice tieups which already has resulted in a wholesale shakeup of the Los Angeles police department.

Only yesterday Attorney General Fred Howser disclosed that he had assigned Cooper to guard Cohen, presumably because Cohen had expressed fear that eastern gangsters were in town to assassinate him.

Barney Ruditsky, co-owner of Sherry's Restaurant, where the shooting took place, said everybody was leaving the place when the shotgun charges rang out. The time was approximately 4 a. m., PST.

Business Men In Friday Meeting To Plan Program

A meeting of all the business and professional men of Greenville has been called for 8 o'clock Friday night in the court room of the municipal building for a discussion of a Farmers' Day program for Greenville.

A Farmers' Day steering committee composed of representatives from all the civic and business organizations in Greenville was appointed several weeks ago, and since that time has worked out tentative plans for a Farmers Day celebration to be held here this fall.

V. C. Fleming, Jr., chairman of the steering committee, said the meeting Friday night will be to make definite decisions in regards to the Farmers Day program.

"It is very important that all business and professional men of Greenville attend this meeting," Fleming stated. "It is a city-wide project which is being sponsored by all the civic and business organizations in Greenville. A committee composed of representatives from all civic and commercial organizations has now worked out a plan for Farmers Day which will be submitted for approval at this meeting."

Joe Kirkwood In Support Suit

Worcester, Mass., July 20—(AP)—R. Joseph Kirkwood, Jr., 28, the movie "Joe Palooka" and a prominent golf star, was freed in $1,000 bail today on a charge of failing to support the six-year-old illegitimate twin sons of an attractive theater cashier.

Kirkwood was granted a continuance until Friday at a private session before District court Judge Walter D. Allen yesterday.

The screen star declined comment. He has not been adjudged father of the children, nor has he admitted parenthood.

Legion Joins In Work To Promote Highway Safety

Pitt County Post 39 of the American Legion at its regular supper meeting last night appointed a committee to work with organizations in Greenville and in the county to promote a safety program on the highways of Pitt county.

The action was taken by the Legion members following a talk to the group by Highway Patrolman Guy Langston. Langston in his talk to the Legionnaires pointed out the increase loss of life in Pitt county this year due to highway accidents, and also the increase in injuries and property damage caused by motor vehicles.

During the business portion of the meeting several matters were acted on by members of the Post, and Legionaire Quinn Bostic appointed sergeant-at-arms for the evening by Commander T. I. Wagner, who presided at the meeting.

Name President For Rail Union

Cleveland, July 20—(AP)—A Canadian-born railroader, who once worked as a news butcher, will head the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen until its 1950 convention. William Kennedy, 57, was selected last night by the Independent Union's directors to fill the vacancy created by the death Saturday of A. F. Whitney.

The new leader of the 215,000 member union moved to Cleveland two years ago after he was named general secretary and treasurer. He has been active in Brotherhood affairs for 35 years.

To fill Kenedy's place, the Brotherhood selected Donald A. MacKenzie, 67, of Cleveland. MacKenzie has been assistant president and is a former resident of New Mexico and Los Angeles.

W. L. Reed, a vice president of East Mauch Chunk, Pa., succeeds MacKenzie. C. J. McClain, Brotherhood general chairman for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, was moved up to take Reed's job. Although Kennedy's term will expire at the convention in September, 1950, Brotherhood sources predicted the union would continue him in office.

Tax Collections For Year Drop Over Billion Dollars

Washington, July 20—(AP)—The Treasury Department said today tax collections for the year ending June 30 totaled $40,448,498,370, a drop of $1,416,945,925 from the $41,864,542,295 of the preceding 12 months.

Populous New York, as usual, led all states by paying a total of $7,367,802,709. This amount, however, was $607,711,007 less than the state's 1948 federal tax bill of $7,975,513,716.

Other leaders (with 1948 figures in brackets followed New York in this order): Illinois, $3,557,241,482 ($3,785,815,370); Pennsylvania, $3,207,990,099 ($3,222,789,298); California, $2,941,162,262 ($3,103,679,127); Ohio, $2,623,734,774 ($2,665,707,099); Michigan, $2,548,017,029 ($2,252,280,551); Texas, $1,378,843,163 ($1,285,123,045); North Carolina, $1,166,217,593 ($1,238,861,994); Massachusetts, $1,228,117,503 ($1,347,064,092); New Jersey, $1,150,378,790 ($1,272,223,652); and Missouri, $1,924,366,498 ($1,114,993,503).

The individual income tax collections, including tax withheld by employers, represented the government's largest single source of revenue—$18,029,745,504 this year compared to $20,997,780,099 in the last 12-month period.

Corporation income and "profits taxes" were $11,568,283,478 ($10,174,409,833); employment taxes, $2,475,980,012 ($2,381,342,352); and miscellaneous internal revenue, $8,374,389,374 ($8,311,009,609).

Total collections by states included Georgia $403,063,023 ($439,033,999); South Carolina, $204,886,949 ($207,471,906); Virginia $769,884,926 ($768,646,376).

Not So Hot

The weather in Greenville yesterday was not so hot.

The Weather Bureau thermometers registered as the highest 88 degrees. The public will understand that "it's not so hot now," since the temperature in Greenville a year ago today was at 98 degrees and rising until a shower came along.

Lowest temperature last night was 70, with breezes from the southwest. At 8 a. m. today the mercury stood at 76 degrees and was climbing.

Rainfall during this month has been general over the area. The precipitation has been spread over 10 of the 18 days of July. Total rainfall was 2.27 inches. Mrs. C. E. Malden, local observer for the U. S. Department of Commerce Weather Bureau, reported today.

Strength FOR THE DAY

FRIENDS WHO HURT US
You say you don't like such and such a person. Have you ever stopped to ask the reason why? You may say that you dislike his selfishness, his stubbornness, his inconsiderateness, his vacillating and unstable disposition, his vacillating and unstable disposition. But how about this for a reason—he doesn't feed your ego. We can be quite tolerant of people's faults, but what we can't stand and what makes us clench our fists and bear our hair and stamp our feet and declare we won't stand it is the fact that certain people do not feed our ego. They do not flatter us. They do not slap us on the back every time we pass them and declare that it's a swell day, even though it may be the most wretched day imaginable.

We like the people who cheer us up when we are down. We like the people who really are, who by their attitudes give us a sense of self-sufficiency. But all such people are bad for us. What we need to do in this life is to face the truth, and the friend who is a friend indeed often holds a looking-glass before our faces and calls upon us in the name of God to take one look and grow sick with revulsion and shame.

Good friends often leave scars and these scars are the badges of their friendship. The cheerful fellow who carries with him plenty of ingredients to lubricate every situation and make life easy is Satan's most sinister messenger sent to devastate our souls.

AN APPEAL TO OUR NEGROES

In view of the propaganda campaign now under way under the guise of aid for the Daniels cousins who were convicted of a murder charge, we urge our Negroes to use some common sense and not be sucked in by a group of professional agitators whose chief interest, we believe, is the money they can fleece from the public.

Governor Scott, this week, rightly rapped the acts of those who are spreading a lot of lies with reference to the trial and conviction of the Daniels boys and are using it as a means to solicit contributions.

At the present time one organization with headquarters in Durham is appealing for funds in behalf of the Daniels case and another organization in Winston-Salem is making similar appeals for the Daniels case and a Martinsville, Virginia, case.

The untruthful propaganda being spread by these two organizations tends to create race prejudice and thereby rally the Negroes into dropping their hard earned money into the hat. Already too much money has been taken from our Negroes under one pretense or another by professional agitators and we sincerely hope that in this particular instance our Negroes will show common sense and refuse to be fooled into turning loose their money for the benefit of professional agitators.

The publicity being sent out about the organization and the meetings, lists Cornelius Simmons, Greenville Negro, as one of the officials and one of the chief speakers for the occasion.

Let's look into Simmons' record of late and see whether he's representative of his race and a good one to follow. Simmons was one of the main stalwarts of the organization of the CIO unions in Greenville under the sponsorship of outside agitators of foreign descent who could not even speak good English. Simmons was also one of the stalwarts of the Wallace third party organization in this state and it was he who made the unfounded charge that qualified Negroes were being prohibited from registering to vote in Pitt County. Simmons has also been the subject of a federal investigation as the possible writer or instigator of anonymous letters received by some public officials.

We mention these things just to give you an insight into the background of these agitators who are trying to fool you into turning your money over to them under the plea that it will be used to procure justice for the Daniels boys.

Governor Scott has already emphasized that the campaign now being waged will not help obtain justice for the Daniels boys and on the other hand might tend to hinder it.

In view of these circumstances we urge our thinking Negroes to consider this matter carefully and don't let a bunch of professional agitators whose chief interest is getting something for themselves, dupe you into giving Somebody Told Me...

By I. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR.

The student of a medical college is a wonder to behold. In the first place, he sleeps only a few hours a week. His grueling schedule keeps him pale and run-down. Also, he is the world's greatest hypochondriac. As he studies the worst diseases known to man, he catches them one by one, losing them in time to catch the newest one on the study schedule.

One day at the University of North Carolina I was discussing the common cold with one of the medical students there. He admitted that medical science has failed to find a cure for the world's most common ailment, the cold. This student had out-smarted everyone else in the field. His prescription: breathe 3,569,544 times. By this time five days will have elapsed and the cold germ will have killed itself.

If you sat around and chatted about the trials and tribulations of life you would often catch yourself saying, "That's what makes the world go around." Many things come under that heading, but today I nominate the variety of our interests as the thing that makes the world go around.

That statement was inspired by a tobaccoist who asked me to make a stand in print against the children of Greenville who shoot birds. This citizen also wants to encourage the building of bird baths. He says that he finds it necessary to fill his bath three times a day because the birds in Greenville are so anxious to keep clean. Regardless of the weather, the birds will safeguard themselves against BO by bathing regularly. Unless the water is frozen, the birds will make the best use of it.

From the Wall Street Journal: "The keeper of the Celestial Gate, from within, asked the first applicant to identify himself. 'It's me,' a voice replied, and St. Peter bade him come in. Another knock, and another question, 'Who's there?' 'Another answer, 'It's me!' Then another sharp rap. 'Who's there?' asked St. Peter. 'It is I!' a voice replied. 'Here comes another one of those darned school teachers!' grumbled St. Peter. And I thank you.

and commissions. SYMPATHY — The governor told the boards that they should not let personal friendship or sympathy influence them to keep on the job men and women who have grown too old, or suffered ill health, or for any other reason have not been able to render full service. He said the past two general assemblies had made available enough money to assure adequate support of the state institutions, and the taxpayers were looking for efficiency rather than for sympathy. He added that the retirement system had been set up to take care of superannuates. (One fact the governor did not point out, is that the retirement plan came along too late to do much for the current crop of old employees.) He did not mention, either, which he might have done in support of his statement he did not want to appear hard-boiled, that he had approved retirement for Judge Hamilton on account of ill health, and had also approved a plan whereby Buren Journey, replaced as industrial commissioner can come back into some other state job and get the full amount of his accrued retirement benefits.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

New York, July 20.—(P)There is one sure and simple formula for making a profit in America. It is to ask a large number of people what they want—and then mass produce it and sell it to them at a price they can afford.

I would be rich myself by following this easy formula except for one thing. Every time I ask people what they would most like to have they all say:

"Money!"

And I'll be darned if I can think up a way to manufacture money cheaper than the government.

But up in Brockton, Mass., there is a plain-spoken 53-year-old Yankee who was cagey enough ten years ago to ask this innocent question: "Would you like to be taller?"

And one out of eight men said "yes."

So Ben Stone did something for the "little man." He put a height-increasing shoe on the market. Now he helps grow up people grow up more—about two inches more.

It really wasn't a new idea. They say that Alexander the great, who whipped the world and died trying to surround a wine jug, padded his sandals. They also say that Napoleon, a small fry with big fry ideas, fixed his boots so that there was considerable leather between his feet and the necks he sometimes walked on. And—sh-h-h!—Hitler hiked up his heels, too.

"But of course we don't like to mention Hitler wore height-increasing shoes," said Stone. "We'd rather mention George Raft, Frank Sinatra, Humphrey Bogart, Rudy Vallee and Dick Powell."

Stone says he has put his "elevators" on these gentlemen, and had appointed Ferd Davis Zebulon to the board of conservation and development and Sanford Martin of Winston-Salem was reappointed on the state board of education.

FAMILIES — Reappointment of Henry Kendall as employment security chairman and appointment of Wiseman Kendall to the hospital board brings two brothers into important state positions. Another important state position is held by Dan as chairman of the highway commission and Everett Jordan as state Democratic chairman. The governor had previously named Harry Caldwell to the advisory budget commission and Mrs. Caldwell as a trustee of Appalachian State Teacher College. He reappointed his own brother, Henry Scott, to the board of trustees of A and T College, and named another brother, Ralph Scott, as a director of the North Carolina railroad. The governor this week handed important assignments to two editors, Staley Cook of the Burlington Times-News on the ports authority, and Wiseman Kendall of Greensboro on the hospital board. Previously he some 1,000,000 others in the last decade. He did it by perfecting a shoe which looks like normal footwear but has a thick cork heel that makes a midget feel like calling Carnera "sonny."

Actors like to wear them because overhead stage lights tend to foreshorten the body and give a small man a sack-of-potatoes look.

But once he began mass producing his built-up shoes Stone was pleasantly surprised to find they had more than Hollywood and Broadway appeal. He discovered cowboys for example, liked to wear them on semi-formal occasions when they couldn't wear their high-heeled boots. They helped a man from Texas really feel like he was from Texas.

"Oddly enough," said Stone, "it isn't the really small man who ordinarily wants to add a couple of inches to his height. A five-foot-two fellow adjusts himself psychologically to his height. He figures he is what he is—and that's all he is."

"Most people who wish to be taller are men of average height—from five-feet-seven to five-ten. Often as not they are going with a girl who is an inch or so taller than they are, and they just want to get even with her. Or they want her to look up to them."

"It is purely a matter of vanity—but to them it is important."

"How tall are you?" I asked.

"Five-feet-ten-a-half," said Stone who stands up very straight. And he added carefully:

"In my stocking feet."

System Of Tobacco Marketing Quotas At Stake On Saturday

Raleigh, N. C., July 20—(P)—Flue-cured tobacco growers of North Carolina will say Saturday whether they want marketing quotas continued.

Along with producers in the five other flue-cured states, the Tar Heels will mark ballots bearing three questions:

1. For continuance of quotas for three years—1950, 1951 and 1952.
2. For no quotas at all.
3. In addition, North Carolina producers—along with South Carolina—will say whether they want to continue for three more years an assessment of 10 cents per acre to support Tobacco Associates, Inc.

To remain effective, marketing quotas must be approved by two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum. If two-thirds vote for three-year quotas, they will continue. The one-year quota will be set up if the combined vote for one-year and three-year quotas adds up to a two-thirds majority.

Quotas will end if more than one-third of the growers voting cast ballots for no quotas at all.

The voting will be conducted by production and marketing administration county committees. The state PMA office estimated that 300,000 Tar Heel growers are eligible to vote.

About 1,200 polling places will be open in this state. The voting hours will vary. Some places will open at 7 a. m. and others at 8 a. m. Some will close at 7 p. m. others will remain open until 9 p. m. The matter of hours was left to the county committees.

The same growers eligible to vote on quotas will be eligible to vote on the assessment for Tobacco Associates. The organization, established three years ago, promotes Foreign markets for flue-cured tobacco.

In a marketing referendum on July 12, 1946, 96.1 per cent of the 256,735 flue-cured growers who voted favored quotas on the 1947, 1948 and '49 crops.

In 1947, growers favoring the assessment for Tobacco Associates tallied more than 136,000 in North Carolina and South Carolina. Opposition votes tallied 1,191.

Messick To Fly To Florida For Air Exercises

Dr. John D. Messick, president of East Carolina Teachers College, has accepted an invitation from Brig. Gen. Ralph A. Snively to attend the Air Force ROTC camp commencement exercises at Orlando, Fla., air base on July 23.

Gen. Snively informed Dr. Messick that a C-47 type aircraft will pick him up at the Greenville municipal airport at 7:30 Thursday morning and will go by way of Columbus, Miss., to Orlando. Dr. Messick will return to Greenville on a C-47 Saturday evening following the exercises at Orlando and a tactical air demonstration at the Eglin air force base.

Thirty-one air ROTC students from East Carolina Teachers College have been in summer camp in Orlando since early June.

Thousand Lions To See UN Site

New York, July 20—(AP)—A thousand Lions headed for United Nations headquarters at Lake Success today to inspect the layout.

Another big contingent of the Lions convention delegates will attend the Giants-Reds baseball game at the Polo Grounds. They will honor Giant outfielder Willard Marshall, a member of the Fort Lee, N. J., Lions club.

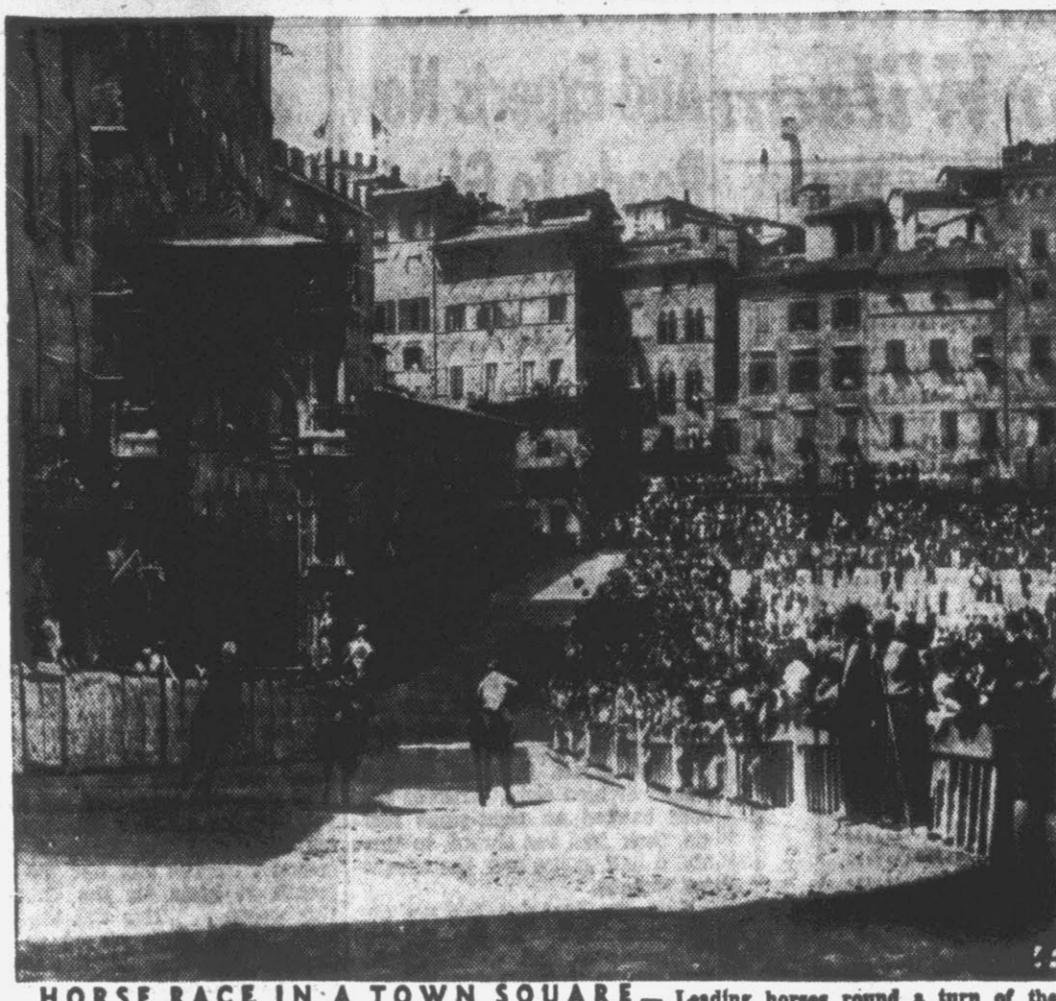

The "Queen of the Lions" was crowned last night in a highlight of the 32nd annual convention of the International Association of Lions Clubs.

The International Queen is Janice Harvell, 17, of Carolina Beach, North Carolina—green eyes, ash blond hair, 105 pounds, five feet four inches, a cute figure and Southern accent. She was graduated from high school this year, and plans to enter college in the fall.

Miss Harvell, who won out over contestants from four other countries, was crowned at Madison Square Garden by Dr. Eugene S. Briggs, of Enid, Okla., outgoing president of Lions International.

He placed on her head a gold crown encrusted with diamonds, rubies and pearls. The Queen, wearing a white dress, nervously accepted the applause of the crowd of 20,000.

The Lions club of Lima, Peru, presented the Queen with a silver jewel case; the American Lions club, a gold medal with rubies and diamonds; and the Philadelphia club, black orchids.

Minister Is Arrested As Member Of Flogging Mob

Birmingham, Ala., July 20—(AP)—A 46-year-old Assembly member of God minister was arrested yesterday in Alabama's campaign against hooded hoodlums.

A victim of a mob flogging accused the pastor of praying over him just before the lash bit into his bare back.

The Rev. R. C. Lyons was jailed on a charge of burglary. He denied the charge to newsmen.

Jack Alexander said the minister was one of the men who forced their way into his home May 20 and took him out and whipped him. Entry into the house was the basis for the burglary charge.

The lash victim said Lyons knelt at my head and prayed that God would teach me what was right. Alexander was stripped of the waist and pinned to the ground at the time. The lashing came a moment later.

Alexander said a member of the mob told his mother 'We're the Ku Klux Klan.'

Lyons denied Klan membership. "All I know about the Klan is what I read in the newspaper," he declared. He added that he formerly was a coal miner, but was "saved six years ago, and have been preaching for three."

Lyons is the 18th man jailed on charges arising from the recent wave of masked violence in this area. The other 17, all now free on bond, were indicted by a Grand Jury July 9.

Alexander said the warrant for Lyons resulted from a chance meeting at Grayville, Ala., near where both men live.

He said he had gotten "a good look at the man praying," during the mob action, "because he had no mask on."

The library will be closed each Wednesday afternoon during the summer. Hours from 2 to 8 p. m. daily.

Graft Board Is Short-Lived In Thai Government

Bangkok—(AP)—The life of the 23-man committee set up to clean up corruption in the Thailand department of communications was brief, indeed.

The anti-graft body hadn't even completed investigation of 20 alleged corruption cases presented to it when the Ministry of Communications advised the Cabinet Council the committee should be disbanded.

No official explanation was given for the request to end the anti-graft probe, but it was reported that expenses of the committee were running much higher than the money that could be saved.

In another government department, the Immigration Division three officials were suspended following charges that they were involved in the issuance of immigration licenses to 200 Chinese and 20 Indians.

Czechs Line Up To See Old-New American Films

Prague—(AP)—The biggest queues in town these summer days—dwarfing even those before the free market food shops—stand before the few American and French movies the Communist government allows shown here. Such Hollywood odes as "Arabian Nights" and "Robin Hood" are packing them in along with the French "Silence Is Golden."

On the other hand, Russian films of which the Czechs get plenty, do slim business. Products of the Czech film industry also do poorly at the box office against the western products.

And it is no accident that the few available American films are saved up for the summer months. Both spectators and exhibitors will tell you why. It is because there is no trick to filling theaters in the winter, when people often go to keep warm or to avoid boredom.

Liquor Sales In June Show Drop

Raleigh, N. C., July 20—(AP)—June liquor sales in the state's ABC areas tallied $3,063,077, the state ABC board reported yesterday.

This was five per cent less than the $3,203,338 reported for June, 1948, and continued a downward trend of several months. ABC Chairman R. W. Winston said the decrease reflects the general business trend.

Italian Children Visit Denmark

Rome—(AP)—Five hundred Italian children will spend their holidays in Denmark under the International Union for the Protection of Children. The Union is an independent organization "which looks after children not eligible for help under other existing schemes," said Miss Claire Wenner, delegate for the organization for Italy.

The 500 children will be the third batch of young Italians to spend their vacations in Denmark. In 1947 one thousand were sent there and last year another 500.

Berlin Girls Go For Blue Hair

Berlin—(AP)—"Corn-flower-blue" is a popular German expression to describe intoxication. But now there is corn-flower-blue hair, too. The fad was started by a young girl in Kiel, the Baltic Sea port.

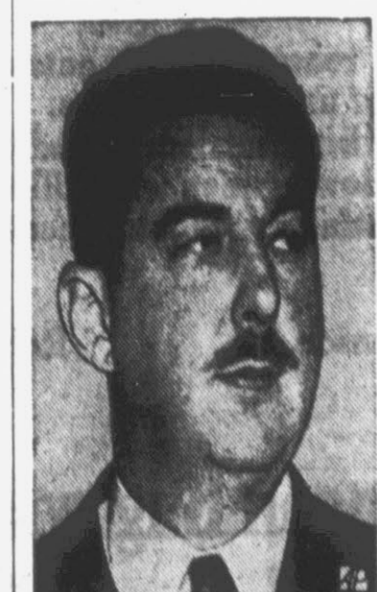

A newspaper described the new color as "by no means a blue such as sometimes appears in natural blue-black hair, but a bright blue so far reserved to the sea and the corn-flower."

Payment of interest on checking accounts in any insured bank is prohibited by law or regulation. The reason is that the bank can pay interest on deposits only out of earnings from the investment of those deposits. Inasmuch as checking account funds can be withdrawn on demand, cash reserves must be larger to meet withdrawals, therefore the amount available for investment is smaller and the investment period shorter.

Grand-Slam Homer In Tenth Wins Tight Game For Wilson

See-Saw Contest Comes To Smashing Close In Overtime Inning With Four Big Runs

By BERT MOYE

Emmett Cheek's grand-slam home run in the tenth inning provided the Wilson Tobs with their margin of victory here last night with a 10 to 7 win over the Greensies.

The Tobs went out in front 4 to 3 in the third frame by scoring four markers in the top of the third frame. Singles by Fred Pittman and Irv Dickens, together with three walks, two errors and a wild pitch gave the Tobs their four runs.

The Greensies scored one run in the second frame when Pappy Williams doubled, stole third and then came on home when Catcher Aycock threw wild to third in an effort to head him off. Two more runs came across the plate for the Greensies in the third frame on singles by Frank Mauney, Steve Denier and John Tepedino and Willie Mauney's infield out.

The Greensies came back in the seventh frame to knot the count at five-all after two men had been retired. Steve Denier doubled and Willie Mauney angled to bring him home.

The Tobs took a 6 to 4 lead in the ninth frame by showing across two markers. Dale Sanner led off with a homer over the left field wall and three successive singles gave the Tobs their other run this frame. The Greensies, in their half of the ninth, knotted the score at 6-6 with two runs as the result of a double by Mustian, single by Steve Denier and an infield out.

The Tobs, not to be outdone, came back in the tenth frame and gave Preacher Mustian a warm welcome after he had retired the men in order the previous inning. Three successive singles with Cheek's homer came off his offering to give the Tobs their win against the Greensies.

Fred Pittman went the route for the Tobs, giving up a total of 12 hits, which he scattered very effectively. Steve Denier with a double and two singles in five trips led the Greensies' attack.

Four Greeneie hurlers gave up a total of 16 hits, six walks, and struck out two Tobs batters, with Mustian being credited with the loss.

Dale Sanner with a homer and two singles, Al Rhem and Bob Mitchell with three singles each, were the big guys in the Tobs' 16-hit attack off the four Greeneie hurlers.

The Greensies journey over to Roanoke Rapids tonight to meet the Jays in the first of a two-game series. The two clubs will meet here Thursday night in the second game.

Fountain Splits Doubleheader Over Weekend

Fountain — Fountain's entry in the Tobacco Belt League lost to Young Spring in the first game of a doubleheader Sunday by a 1-0 score, and came back in the nightcap for a 14-4 victory.

D. Flora, pitching for Fountain, gave up four hits in the first game and struck out eleven.

Jefferson hurried for the locals in the second game and Fountain picked up sixteen hits off three opposing pitchers. T. Owens led the locals at bat with 4 hits.

Saratoga plays in Fountain Sunday for a doubleheader, and the clubs again meet in Saratoga Sunday.

R. Webb still leads Fountain batters, with an average of .444; T. Moseley has a .404 average and B. Wooten is third with a .399. Fountain has won seventeen of their twenty-five games.

Labrucherie To Coach Caltech

Los Angeles, July 20—(AP)—Bert Labrucherie, who tutored the UCLA Bruin football team into the Rose Bowl Jan. 1, 1947, will coach the Caltech Engineers of Pasadena.

Caltech, strong on scholarship but generally weak on the gridiron, is a member of the Southern California Conference.

La Brucherie resigned from UCLA, under pressure, last year and was succeeded by Red Sanders of Vanderbilt.

Sidelights—The loss for Preacher Mustian was his second of the season as against one win. The win for the Tobs last night now gives them an even break in their 14-game series with the Greensies—they have won seven and lost seven. The win for Fred Pittman was his first over the Greensies this season. The loss was the sixteenth at home for the Greensies extra inning game played by the Greensies and thus far this season the Greensies have won only two of them. Last night was number eight in overtime games. Guess it happens in the best of families—Greenville did the same thing to Rocky Mount last Saturday night here when Sid Varney hit a grand-slam homer to win the game against the Leafs.

Jaycees Topple Rotary By 14-3

The Junior Chamber bounced back into winning ways last night in a 14-3 win over Rotary. Tom Dill, the fast-ball artist, pitched a four-hitter and his mates backed up his efforts with twelve solid blows. The game was called at the end of the sixth because of darkness.

In tonight's game, VFW and Carolina Dairy will be battling for undisputed possession of third place in the Industrial League race.

Jaycees Place 8 On All-Star Team

Reports from three other League sports writers for the mythical Coastal Plain All-Star team shows that all three of them named John Tepedino for shortstop position and Sid Varney for the catching position. Also other Greenville players listed were "Pappy" Williams at first base and Junior Yohn as choice for one of the pitchers. Joe Antolick, manager of the Tarboro Athletics, has been named on all but one of the ballots by the sports writers.

'Kitten' Wins In Honolulu Race

Honolulu, July 20—(AP)—Kitten, a sleek little sloop from Newport Harbor, Calif., won the 1949 Los Angeles-Honolulu yacht race late last night—standing off a valiant, last-minute spurt by the San Francisco Sea Witch.

The 46-foot handicapped Kitten, sailed by Owner Fred W. Lyons and a crew of six, beat 22 other entries and covered the 2,225-mile course in the corrected time of nine days, 10 hours, 24 minutes and 40 seconds.

The Chicago White Sox have not won the American League flag since 1919, longest drought for any team in the junior league.

Gus Lesnevich Again Aims For Heavyweight Meeting

Summit, N. J., July 20—(AP)—Better late than never. That's Gus Lesnevich's motto as he prepares for a delayed shot at the world heavyweight championship—NBA version.

Durable Gus, now 34, started training yesterday for his August 10 Yankee Stadium date with Edward Charles, the NBA king from Cincinnati.

"Fighting for the heavyweight title is the dream of all fighters," he said, as might be expected, "I was all set to fight Joe Louis last year until that Mills thing happened."

"That Mills thing" was a 15-round bout at London last July in which Gus lost his world light heavyweight crown.

"How come you and Charles never got together when he was a light heavyweight contender?" Gus was asked.

"Manager trouble," he answered, "we were going to fight one at Cincinnati but they wanted to shift it to Cleveland and Joe (manager Joe Vella) wouldn't go for that."

"I've seen him fight several times, I saw him against Jersey Joe Walcott at Chicago the night he won the title. You couldn't tell much about him that night because of Walcott's strange style."

Pirate Gridders Plan Ten Games

The East Carolina Teachers College football team will play a 10-game schedule next season, Director of Athletics Dr. N. M. Jorgenson announced today.

The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 17—Cherry Point Marines, away.
Sept. 24—Lenoir Rhyne (N) home X.
Oct. 1—Hampton-Sydney (N) away.
Oct. 8—Mon (Homecoming) away X.
Oct. 15—Western Carolina (N) away X.
Oct. 21—Newport News App. (N) away.
Oct. 28—Edenton Flyers (N) home Nov. 5—Appalachian (N) home X
Nov. 12—High Point (N) away X
Nov. 19—Atlantic Christian (N) away X.

X indicates North State Conference games.
(N) indicates night games.

Boys' League Baseball

Dodgers vs. Reds
In a free hitting game at Third St. Park yesterday the Reds of W. Greenville outscored the Dodgers 14 to 11. The game had to be called at the beginning of the last frame on account of rain. Errors again proved the downfall of the Dodgers. Joseph with three singles and Billy Teel with a double and triple were the top hitters for the Dodgers. Jimmy Cheatham, a newcomer to the Dodgers, hit for the circuit. Jerry Phillips with three singles and Bob Howell, Gene Hudson and Catlette with two hits each led for the Reds.

BORN of the STORM

By Sidney B. Carter

Chapter 15
Priscilla had worked for the finance company less than a month when she discovered that she might be able to work only a few months longer. Impelled to speak with someone she could trust, she called her friend.

"Something's happened, I think," she blurted out as soon as she heard Gertrude's voice. "I don't know whether to be happy or frightened about it."

"Happy or frightened?" exclaimed Gertrude. "Don't tell me," she continued, "you've found a new love-lit?"

"Of course not," said Priscilla impatiently. "It's just that... that I think I'm going to have a baby."

"No!" Gertrude was silent for a moment. "Look," she said finally, "have you told Kenneth or your loving mother-in-law yet?"

"No," said Priscilla. "I don't know how to... well, Kenneth isn't home and..."

"Good," said Gertrude briskly. "Now don't tell them until I see you again. I think I can arrange for you to go to the doctor who fixed Nancy up..."

"But, Gertrude," she interrupted, "suppose I want to have a baby. I don't know..."

Gertrude was silent again for a moment and when she spoke she seemed to be measuring her advice. "Don't be a fool, honey," she said. "Deprived of the reassurance she had hoped to get from Gertrude, Priscilla decided to walk over to Viola's."

"Pris," said Viola soberly. "It may be that, under these conditions, Gertrude is not so far wrong." Viola began recounting her experiences with the Kent family. Fortunately, like Priscilla, to live with them, Daniel owned a modest garage business and they had been able, from the first, to afford their own place.

"I hate to say this, Pris," declared Viola. "but it is better to know what you are facing. As a result of having run wild during his formative years, Ken is lazy, headstrong, and inconsiderate. Daniel took him into his business and tried his best to develop him but had to give him up as a bad job. Honey, I... Perhaps you may make a man of him."

Priscilla felt the tears gather in her eyes. "Oh, Viola, I hope so. For... for the baby's sake, I hope so," she whispered.

The following Saturday night Priscilla and Kenneth drove to a Fourth Avenue party, and their being alone together in the car afforded just the privacy she wanted. "I really shouldn't dance tonight. You see, dear, we're going to have a baby," she said demurely, her eyes watching him out of the corners.

"Going to have what?" he exploded, almost losing control of Betty.

"Are you glad, Ken?"

"Well, I ain't exactly glad. But you got to give me time to get used to the idea. Mom'll be tickled. I guess. Maybe you'll get along better."

When they got back, Kenneth, suddenly hilarious, shouted up the stairs. "You wanna hear sumpin' funny, folks? We're gonna have a baby!"

Priscilla flinched under the impact of his coarseness.

"His father came down and congratulated them both, but Mrs. Kent seemed little pleased and her only comment was marked by her usual sarcasm.

"She ain't never home. Maybe after the baby comes things'll be different," she snarled.

Several days later she was trying to decide whether to go to work late or to make a visit, instead, to a good obstetrician, when she heard the phone ring. Assuming that it was Kenneth, she ran down the steps. Apprehensively Priscilla took the telephone. Don't go away on another trip now, said her heart. Don't go away and leave me with your mother. Is it really business taking you away or is it... something else?

"But, Gertrude," she interrupted, "Kenneth's warm tone of voice reassured her. He said that the company was sending him on a three weeks' trip to Omaha and back. He was telling the truth... this time, she felt sure. Of course, she did want him to stay, but if he had to go..."

"Don't worry, Babe. I'll be back before you know it. Just be a good girl and stop fightin' with Mom," he cautioned. He seemed about to ring off.

"Oh, Ken," said Priscilla. "I think maybe I should go to an obstetrician today."

There was silence for a moment. "I don't get it," said Kenneth finally. "My God, it's only been a couple of months. How much money do you think I have to spend on doctors?"

"But..." Priscilla began.

"No buts about it," said Kenneth roughly. "Give me a woman that ain't a weakling. Going to the doctor this early in the game. Huh!" He slammed down the telephone in her ear.

For a week after Kenneth's departure there was a precarious truce between Priscilla and her mother-in-law. Finally a letter came from Kenneth addressed to his wife.

Priscilla found the letter on the table in the living-room and took it to her room to read. It was just a short note. He sent his love to her and his parents and sister. The letter was not very exciting—certainly not a love letter. She ran down the steps light-heartedly to convey the message to Mrs. Kent.

"I have a letter from Ken," she said cheerfully. "He sends you his love."

She began to read it aloud, when Mrs. Kent turned around and snatched the letter from her hand. "I kin read," she asserted hotly. "It's too bad my own son has to send me his love by somebody else. I guess ya told him to send his letters to you insteaded me."

"Why, I didn't tell him anything of the kind," protested Priscilla.

"Don't tell me!" raged the older

Sample Low-Cost House May Fill Military Needs

Washington, July 20—(AP)—Federal rent director T. H. Woods has built a modest $6,750 home which he thinks may help solve the military's housing difficulties.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House Armed Services committee thinks so too. Vinson said today he is going to take Woods up on his invitation to look at the house, near the army's Fort Bevoir, Va., about 17 miles from Washington.

Woods sent the invitation by letter yesterday as the committee neared the end of hearings on a military construction bill. It would authorize the army, air force and navy to spend $149,685,500 building quarters for 7,798 service families.

The bill would limit homes in this country to an average cost of $16,000 each, but there would be no limit on those built overseas.

"No man making $10,000 a year or less can afford a $16,000 home," Vinson said. "That's a heap of money. Just try to save it on any salary, and see how long it takes you."

An associate of Woods described the rent chief's house to reporters. It cost $5,900 to build, and the cost of a half-acre lot brought the price up to $6,750.

Woods hired an architect to design the house, and used a local contractor and local labor to build it. The house is finished with redwood siding outside, and plywood inside.

It has one bedroom, but the living room can be used as an auxiliary bedroom and the plan allows for the addition of another full

Cruising Down To Ocracoke Is Thrilling Trip

By CHESTER WALSH
"Cruising down to Ocracoke," on the outer banks of the North Carolina coast, is a wonderful experience in a four-place Stinson airplane, and coming back to the mainland provides thrills in observing in the shallow waters of the sound all kinds of fish and passing boats.

Hospitality on Ocracoke is superb. Circling over the island was a signal for Jake Allgood and his son, Jake Allgood, Jr., to ride out in a jeep to the plane near the shore to transport the pilot, Leon R. Bridgers of Ocean View Airways, and passengers to the Wahab Village Hotel, a modernly equipped 14-room hotel, with excellent cuisine facilities and other convenient accommodations.

A panoramic view of Ocracoke from the air is "never-to-be-forgotten experience." A visit there is never complete without a visit to Silver Lake Inn, with Ansley O'Neal as master of ceremonies, who knows thousands of people from all parts of the United States.

Cruising down to Ocracoke was doubly pleasant with two other congenial passengers, Mrs. Floyd Rader of Salisbury and Mrs. Bleeker White of Charlotte, delegates to a convention at Atlantic Beach.

The Stinson plane took off from the airfield at Beaufort, where Piedmont Airlines planes come in and go out on regular schedule for the west. The airline business at Beaufort is an important asset to this section of the state, city officials of Beaufort and Morehead City said.

bedroom. The overall size of the house is 15 feet by 38. The price includes the cost of a sewer and water system.

Rosalie Brown In Dramatics At New England Colony

Miss Rosalie Brown, pleasantly remembered here as a student at the Greenville High School and East Carolina Teachers' College and as a participant in various community entertainments, is spending the summer at White Horse Beach, Mass. She is taking part in some of the summer stock shows presented there.

Miss Brown, who has taught school at Kinston, Fayetteville, Fort Bragg and various other places during the past several years, has achieved a marked degree of success in her dramatic ventures. She is a member of the staff of the Plymouth Drama Festival, has participated in two plays and is generally active in the summer colony's community presentations. She contributed much to the dramatics of the Greenville High School and East Carolina Teachers College, officials of both institutions stated.

C. Cletas Jackson Dies Suddenly Today

Mr. C. Cletas Jackson, 54, died suddenly at the home of his son, Graydon Jackson, near Winterville this morning at 9:30 o'clock after suffering a heart attack. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Mr. Jackson, son of the late Allen and Louvenia Dall Jackson, was born near Ayden, moving to the Winterville community in 1900. He had lived there since that time except during the years 1944-1948, when he served as deputy sheriff of Pitt County. He was married to Miss Geneva McLawhorn of Pitt County May 6, 1914. He was a member of Reedy Branch Free Will Baptist Church and a deacon of the church. He was also a member of the Improved Order of Red Men of Winterville, Mohican Tribe No. 56.

Surviving are his wife; four sons, George C. and Graydon F. of the Winterville community, Cletas Jr. of the U.S. Army, now stationed in Panama; four daughters, Mrs. Lester Allen of the Winterville community, Mrs. Marshall Joyner of near Greenville, Mrs. Charles Alford Forbes of Stokes, and Miss Nancy L. Jackson of the home; a brother, C. Amos Jackson of Washington, D.C.; two sisters, Mrs. John Garris and Mrs. Matthew Sermons of the Winterville community; and eleven grandchildren.

Frank Murphy's . . .

(Continued from page one) a giant like Justice Holmes. References to him among laymen will grow infrequent in a few months. Most of them within a couple of years probably will forget the year in which he died.

And in a few years more his name most likely will slip out of the memory of the big majority of living Americans. And if you doubt this, ask yourself: Who are the other eight justices left on the court now? Can you remember the names of all the Supreme Court justices of the past 15 years?

His . . .

(Continued from page one) fusion that the public still suffers from. x x x I can't spare for any 15,000,000 people any more than any other person can, but I know that I've got too much invested for my wife and child and myself in the future of this country, and I and other Americans of many races and faiths have too much invested in our country's welfare, for any of us to throw it away because of a siren song sung in bass.

ASK INTERVENTION

Rockingham, N. C., July 20—(AP)—The Federal government has been asked to act in a dispute over the sale of mill village houses which has shut down the Aleo Manufacturing Company textile plant in East Rockingham.

School teachers in New England once were generally paid two hours in exchange for a year's tuition in arithmetic.

Greensboro Man Ran Gauntlet In Passing Through

A respected and well known Negro citizen of Greensboro, while passing through Greenville in a car last Sunday, evidently thought he was "on the rocky road to Kansas" when persons at a filling station on the Bethel highway reported to authorities that he was James Diggs, 36-year-old Negro of Norfolk, who is listed as an outlaw by state authorities and wanted for the shooting of a Hamlet, N. C., police officer several weeks ago.

When sheriff's deputies accosted him and said "Put 'em up," he responded quickly and easily identified himself, and the officers knew he was not the man they were seeking. He went on his way. While passing the Greenville fire department building some of the firemen noted his resemblance to Diggs and went to the front. The traveling motorist, politely and with assurance, said: "I'm all right. Officers already have checked on me and I'm not Diggs, the much-wanted man."

Pitt Forest Warden Gives Good Report Woods Fire Control

N. S. Tyson, Pitt County forest warden, today expressed appreciation of the excellent cooperation farmers and other landowners have given toward preventing forest fires in this area. Pitt County's record this year is among the best in the state, the forest warden said.

Farmers and other landowners have given notice when they were about to burn brush. Whenever there was a woods fire, nearby residents have given their best help, and big woods fires have been averted.

Shriners Plan To Repeat Show

Chicago, July 20—(AP)—Tireless Shriners, after staging one of the biggest and most colorful parades in Chicago's history, are to put on a repeat performance tonight.

Yesterday's dazzling five-hour long parade by some 15,000 Shriners was viewed by hundreds of thousands and an equally big turnout was expected to watch tonight's spectacle.

A pageant will be staged at Soldier Field to wind up the colorful ceremonies of the Diamond Jubilee Convention of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

The Great New SPACE MAKER REFRIGERATOR

Before you buy any refrigerator, come in and look at this spacious beauty! Look at the features: Butter conditioner . . . BIG freezing compartment . . . ample bottle space . . . deep fruit, vegetable, and meat drawers . . . dependable G-E scaled-in refrigerating system! What a refrigerator! What a value! Convenient terms available.

EASY TERMS

Holds 1/4 more food under refrigeration, in the same kitchen floor space as the previous smaller-sized model! No wonder it's "the refrigerator most women want most."
