Moscow Assails Vatican Decrees Against 'Peace'

Excommunication Order Said Contribution To War Against Democracy

London, July 22—(AP)—The Moscow radio charged today that Roman Catholic excommunication of Communists was a contribution to the cold war that Anglo-American reactionaries are waging against the camp of peace and democracy.

It said the ban was intended "to split the United front of people fighting for peace against the Anglo-American war-mongers," and added that it was bound to fail.

The English-language broadcast by Commentator Boris Isakov was the first public Russian reaction to the excommunication decree of July 13.

Isakov declared that by the decree "all the enormous ramified propaganda machinery of the Catholic church is placed at the service of the cold war" that Anglo-American reactionaries are waging against the camp of peace and democracy.

The broadcast accused Catholic clergy of "preying on the religious traditions and feelings of many plain people in an attempt to disarm them morally to weaken their will to resist the danger of a fresh aggression which is threatening the world."

"But this maneuver is doomed to failure," the Moscow radio said. "The broad masses of the people have come to see very clearly that they can uphold peace only by drawing closer to each other; only through a staunch fight waged by a United front of working people irrespective of their religious convictions."

Earlier, J. Monroe Johnson, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, called on the President with Ashton H. Williams recognized by National party leaders as South Carolina Democratic National committeeman, to invite Mr. Truman to South Carolina.

"We want the President to come down and visit with us some time during the last two weeks in September or the first two weeks in October," Johnson said.

Mr. Truman recently told a news conference he would like to pay a visit to South Carolina and that he had a number of invitations.

Warns Pay Cut Is Alternative

Raleigh, N.C., July 22—(AP)—Governor Scott warned state employees today their salaries may depend on economies they can effect in state operations.

In the face of an anticipated $5,000,000 deficit in the next two years, he declared, cutting salaries is the state's only other method for balancing the budget.

Crippling London Dock Strike To End Monday

London, July 22—(AP)—Striking dockers who have crippled the port of London for 23 days voted today to return to their jobs Monday.

The vote came at a huge mass meeting in Victoria park, where the committee leading the walkout recommended that the men call it off.

A member of the strike committee told the men of the decision.

He said the decision had been reached after consultation with an official of the Canadian Seamen's Union (CSU). The London walkout began as a sympathy move with the CSU, which had blacklisted two Canadian ships docked in London.

The committee members said the CSU now had agreed to "clear" the ships.

There had been signs earlier that the strike—denounced by the labor government as Communist-inspired—was breaking up.

One group of workers had voted to remove a cargo of wheat from one of the Canadian ships. Another group of 1,000 strikers yesterday adopted a resolution expressing willingness to return to work if the main body of strikers voted to do so.

Home secretary James Chuter Ede announced in Commons this morning that two Americans and a Dutchman who arrived in London by plane last night in connection with the strike would be deported for the "public good."

Committee OK's Armed Services Construction

Washington, July 22—(AP)—The House Armed Services Committee today approved a $613,815,682 bill for military construction to improve domestic and foreign bases.

The action was taken by a unanimous vote. The authorization bill does not provide the actual money.

Administration Hopes Save Brannan Plan In The Senate

Washington, July 22—(AP)—A crushing house defeat of its controversial farm plan set the administration to work today on salvage operations in the senate.

With a powerful combination of Democrats and Republicans in Control, the house late yesterday voted 239 to 170 to kill a proposed "trial run" of the farm subsidy plan of secretary of agriculture Brannan on eggs, potatoes and wool.

The coalition was led by Rep. Gore (D-Tenn) normally an administration follower. It triumphed despite a plea from speaker Rayburn to give the Brannan plan a try.

Instead, the house voted 263 to 25 to continue for another year the rigid wartime farm price supports at 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a computed price intended to give farmers a purchasing power in fair relationship to the cost of things they must buy.

Today Senator Eiler Thomas (D-Okla) chairman of the Senate agriculture committee, indicated he hoped to turn the tide in the senate, or at least gain a compromise.

Thomas said he will call his committee together to "see what we want to do with the house bill."

But while Thomas reflected some optimism for the Brannan subsidy program, some other farm-minded Senators foresaw defeat for it in the senate too.

They said that a possible senate-house deadlock may toss the whole issue into next year's political campaign while a flexible farm-price support program, enacted last year, becomes law January 1.

Repeal of this law, even before it goes into effect, was another action voted by the house yesterday, this one without a record ballot.

It would allow levels of government price supports to decline if surpluses developed, but would not require it.

Brannan's proposal was to allow market prices of milk, meats and other perishable foods to drop freely without support of government loans and purchases, and then keep farmers' incomes at fair levels by direct subsidies from the treasury plus planting and marketing controls.

This plan was limited to the three-crop "trial run" in what proved to be an unsuccessful effort to overcome opposition in the house.

Invite President Visit Carolinas

Washington, July 22—(AP)—President Truman was invited to visit the Carolinas.

A large delegation, headed by Senators Hoey and Graham and Rep. Barden, all North Carolina Democrats, extended the first invitation.

They wanted Mr. Truman to visit North Carolina sometime between Sept. 22 and Sept. 24 for the celebration of the 200th anniversary of Duplin County.

A great pageant is planned at Kenansville, the senators said.

The President did not promise to attend.

Senator Hoey said the President told the delegation he is "favorably inclined, if he can arrange his schedule so as to attend." Mrs. Truman and Margaret were invited too.

Earlier, J. Monroe Johnson, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, called on the President with Ashton H. Williams recognized by National party leaders as South Carolina Democratic National committeeman, to invite Mr. Truman to South Carolina.

'Serious Doubts' Claims Hysterics At Death Scene

Moscow, July 22—(AP)—Soviet newspaper said today the U.S. Senate ratified the Atlantic pact "notwithstanding the broad popular opposition and serious doubts and reservations advanced by many Senators."

The papers declared that American public reaction "clearly shows that the pact does not have the popular support of many millions of Americans vigorously opposed to the pact as an aggressive alliance threatening peace."

The papers gave prominent place to remarks by Sen. Taylor (D-Idaho) attacking the alliance and urging broader trade with Russia.

Mail-Order Romeo Puts Murder Blame On Accomplice

New York, July 22—(AP)—Raymond M. Fernandez, balding mail-order Romeo, says he broke into hysterical sobs and tried to drown his anguish in alcohol after he saw Mrs. Janet Fay bleeding on the floor.

Fernandez testified yesterday that he had nothing to do with the slaying of the 66-year-old Albany, N.Y., widow who had given him her $5,918 in savings after he courted her through a "lonely hearts" club.

He put the blame on his plump sweetheart, Mrs. Martha Beck, 29, who is on trial with him for murder in the bludgeoning-strangulation slaying of Mrs. Fay last Jan. 4 in the defendant's Valley Stream, N.Y., apartment.

Fernandez, 34, said "there was no reason" for him to kill the widow "I had my money," he added.

He gave a state Supreme Court jury this account of the crime: "Early in the morning Mrs. Fay came to him, anxious about her money. He tried to reassure her that it was safe. Later, he asked Mrs. Beck to help him convince Mrs. Fay. "Then I went into the bathroom. Fernandez testified. "The door was closed."

When he returned to the living room, he said, he found Mrs. Beck standing over Mrs. Fay, who lay over a suitcase, bleeding profusely from head wounds.

Fernandez said he went into hysterics, and "got a bottle of whiskey and drank most of it."

Fernandez denied the prosecution's claim that he assisted in the crime by strangling Mrs. Fay with her scarf. He said he put the scarf around the victim's neck after she already was dead, "to stop the flow of blood."

Another Bitter Battle Over Aid To Europe Ahead

Washington, July 22—(AP)—Another bitter battle over foreign aid shaped up today in the senate.

With ratification of the North Atlantic pact completed after three weeks of furious debate, the Senate turned to an equally controversial international measure—the Economic Cooperation Administration appropriation for the year which began July 1.

The bill before the Senate provides $3,778,380,000 to carry the Marshall Plan through its second year of operations.

This is 10 per cent less than the $4,198,200,000 ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman requested. It compares with the $3,868,470,000 voted by the House with the provision that Hoffman could spend the money in 10 1/2 months if he chose. The Senate program is on a 12-month basis.

Hoffman, apparently resigned to the 10 per cent cut, has made no outward move to have the full amount approved. He has expressed violent opposition to three amendments, sure to touch off a hot fight in the Senate. They are:

1. An amendment sponsored by Senator McClellan (D-Ark) which would require ECA to buy surplus farm commodities of the kind and in the amounts listed in the budget estimate submitted to Congress.

Hoffman told Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, that the amendment would (a) force Western Europe to take foods not required, and (b) give the Communists ammunition for their claim that the Marshall Plan was set up to provide the United States with a dumping ground for American surpluses.

(Unless an abrupt switch in sentiment occurs, the amendment appears headed for defeat.)

2. An amendment earmarking $50,000,000 in ECA for Spain. The amendment also contains the provision that if the money is not loaned to Spain, it may not be used for any other purpose.

3. A cut of $74,000,000 in the appropriation for the last quarter of the 1949 fiscal year, which ended last June 30.

These comparisons are all based on official and unofficial estimates; some of the estimates in the cases of the Soviet countries are admittedly little more than a guess.

In industrial strength, the Atlantic pact countries are far ahead, too. They top the Soviet-dominated countries four to one in 1950 steel production goals, over three to one in pig iron, two to one in coal. In 1946—the last year for which oil comparisons are possible—the West's lead was 10 to one.

Union Prepares For Ford Strike

Detroit, July 22—(AP)—Final moves were underway today to enable the CIO United Auto Workers to pull the Ford Motor Co. production employees out on a wage strike.

Michigan's labor mediation board is preparing for a secret strike poll of the 75,000 Ford workers in this state.

A strike to back up current wage and contract demands—including $100-a-month pensions—already was approved in a UAW-conducted vote among 106,000 Ford employees.

That poll showed that they are 7 to 1 in favor of a walkout if necessary, although they were idle for 24 days in a speed-up strike that shut down Ford plants in May. But the state balloting is necessary to comply with terms of Michigan's Bonine-Tripp labor law.

The UAW filed a 10-day strike notice with the mediation board yesterday, but said it would take no walkout action until the vote was completed. That may require three weeks, Board Chairman Noel P. Fox said.

Once such a vote is taken, there will be no legal barrier in the way of a strike.

Economic obstacles, too, are being cleared away by the union. Last week at Milwaukee, the Auto Workers International convention approved a special assessment which could build up a $10,000,000 strike fund.

Atlantic Treaty Approval Clears Way For Arms Plea

Truman To Ask For Military Aid Okay

Proposed Program Of Foreign Military Aid To Back Up Atlantic Pact Will Be Submitted To Congress Monday

Washington, July 22—(AP)—The White House announced today that President Truman will send to Congress Monday a proposed program of foreign military aid to back up the Atlantic pact. Vice President Barkley said it will be pressed for passage at this session.

Barkley, who attended a cabinet session at the White House, said the administration hoped to pass both an authorization bill and an appropriation to finance the arms program before it quits around Sept. 1.

He said he does not expect as much debate on the arms program as occurred in the senate during consideration of the pact, which the senate ratified yesterday by a vote of 82 to 13.

The President originally planned to send the arms message to both houses today, but postponed this action until Monday to suit the convenience of Senate leaders, Charles G. Ross, Presidential press secretary, told reporters.

Speaker Rayburn had expected the message today, with the hope that hearings on the authorization could start in a house committee Monday, Barkley said.

It is understood that the proposed authorization will be for $1,450,000,000 for foreign military aid, of which $1,130,000,000 would go to this country's associates in the North Atlantic treaty.

Ross said the message will run from 2,500 to 3,000 words and that it is already prepared.

Washington, July 22—(AP)—The alliance of nations in the North Atlantic pact is one of the most formidable in history.

Their estimated present armed strength totals nearly 600,000 more than that of the Soviet bloc. The figures on military manpower, not counting reserves, compare about like this:

Atlantic pact countries—8,758,000. Russia and satellite countries—5,171,000.

In naval power, the Atlantic pact countries are far ahead. In air power, the balance might be close in numbers of planes but the Western powers probably have farther-flying and harder-hitting bombers. (The A-bomb figures in here, too.)

These comparisons are all based on official and unofficial estimates; some of the estimates in the cases of the Soviet countries are admittedly little more than a guess.

In industrial strength, the Atlantic pact countries are far ahead, too. They top the Soviet-dominated countries four to one in 1950 steel production goals, over three to one in pig iron, two to one in coal. In 1946—the last year for which oil comparisons are possible—the West's lead was 10 to one.

Washington, July 22—(AP)—Senator Mundt (R-SD) said today he now regards it as certain that President Truman's Army aide, Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, will testify in the Senate investigation of "five spies."

"Now that President Truman has said it is all right with him for Vaughan to testify, I consider it a foregone conclusion that he will be asked to appear and will accept," Mundt declared.

The South Dakota lawmaker is a member of the Senate Investigations subcommittee getting ready to start public hearings on charges that some persons, for a fee, have tried to influence the awarding of government contracts.

Vaughan has said he knows "about 300 persons in Washington" active in contract operations.

Vaughan was present at a White House news conference yesterday when Mr. Truman said, in reply to a question, that his aide has his permission to testify if called before the Senate subcommittee.

The President added, however, that he does not believe Vaughan was mixed up in the "five percent" operations which already have resulted in the suspension of two key Army officers. They are Maj. Gen. Herman Feldman, the quartermaster general, and Maj. Gen. Alden H. Waitt, chief of the Chemical Corps.

Washington, July 22—(AP)—The 1949 tax valuation on public utility property in North Carolina has been set at $193,343,228 by the State Board of Assessment.

Stewart Plans August Wedding

Hollywood, July 22 —(AP)—A quiet August wedding in suburban Brentwood's Presbyterian Church is the plan of Jimmy Stewart and New York Socialite Gloria McLean.

Without setting a definite date the actor yesterday said that the ceremony will be held "sometime next month" with only relatives and close friends present. A three-month honeymoon in Hawaii also is part of their plan.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hubert Brown

Brown-Weathington
Miss Hazel Willouise Weathington of Winterville, N. C., was united in marriage Wednesday afternoon, July 6, at 4:30 o'clock with Mr. Oscar Hubert Brown. The double ring ceremony took place by candlelight in the Winterville Baptist church with the pastor, Rev. E. G. Cole, officiating.

Mrs. C. D. Langston of Winterville acted as hostess of the wedding. Mrs. Roy T. Cox, organist, rendered the organ music and Miss Gay McLawhorn sang "Because" and "At Dawning." White gladioli, formosa fern and smilax decorated the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. W. A. Weathington, Sr. She wore a street length dress of dainty white eyelet. Her hat was of white net with orange blossoms. Her gloves were white crocheted lace and for her jewelry she wore a single strand of pearls and an heirloom brooch, a diamond set in gold filigree which belonged to her maternal grandmother. She carried a prayer book with a purple throated white orchid showered with tuberoses and satin streamers.

Miss Annie Marie Weathington, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of pink pique with matching accessories. She carried a nosegay of baby orchids and carnations.

Miss Doris Brown, sister of the groom, and Miss Annie Ree Wainwright of Farmville were bridesmaids. They wore street length dresses of blue pique with white accessories. They carried nosegays of sweetheart roses and sweetpeas.

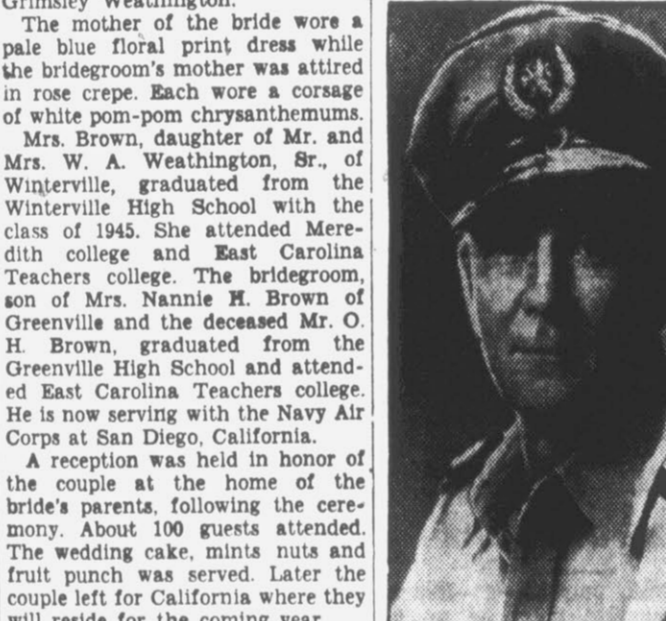

Mr. Gordon Brown, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Hudson and Howard Whitehurst of Greenville, Raymond Brook and William Allen Weathington, brother of the bride, of Winterville. Both rings were carried in on a white lace pillow by the bride's little brother, John Grimsley Weathington.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue floral print dress while the bridegroom's mother was attired in rose crepe. Each wore a corsage of white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weathington, Sr., of Winterville, graduated from the Winterville High School with the class of 1945. She attended Meredith college and East Carolina Teachers college. The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Nannie H. Brown of Greenville and the deceased Mr. O. H. Brown, graduated from the Greenville High School and attended East Carolina Teachers college. He is now serving with the Navy Air Corps at San Diego, California.

A reception was held in honor of the couple at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony. About 100 guests attended. The wedding cake, mints, nuts and fruit punch was served. Later the couple left for California where they will reside for the coming year.

They visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Finnigan, the former Miss Jeanette Weathington of Winterville, in Corpus Christi, Texas, also Mrs. Mary Vogli in El Paso, Texas, friend of the groom, during their trip to California.

PROMOTED—Maj. Gen. D. C. Van Vreden (above) was promoted to Lt. General and appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Dutch army in Indonesia and head of the war department.

Pension Laws On Disabled Vets Now Liberalized

The County Veterans Service Officers, Arthur B. Heroic Engineer Severely Burned

Montebello, Calif., July 22—(AP)—A heroic engineer who brought his streamliner train through a seething wall of flames was near death today.

The driver of the gasoline truck hit by the train died last night. He was Harry G. Heston, of Bell, Calif.

The engineer, H. R. Byers, 55, Las Vegas, Nev., was credited by officers with saving some 150 passengers by staying at the controls and rolling the Union Pacific's "City of Los Angeles" through the flames, which roared several hundred feet high as the 7300-gallon truck exploded.

Byers was burned critically on his arms and upper body. A second engineer, Edward M. Dennis, 48, Las Vegas, was burned less seriously. Before he died, the truck driver told sheriff's deputies that the truck's drive shaft apparently broke as it started to cross the tracks.

Lower Age Limit For Boy Scouts

The age requirement to become a Boy Scout was lowered from twelve to eleven years of age by the National Executive Board to become effective Sept. 1 of this year.

Under the new set-up a boy eight years of age may become a Cub Scout and remain in Cubbing until he reaches his eleventh birthday at which time he will join the Boy Scouts.

He will remain in the Boy Scout program until he is fourteen at which time he will begin working on the Senior Scout program and will be called an Explorer Scout and have the opportunity to work with Air, Sea, and Explorer Scouting. A Scout in the Senior program will still be connected with his Boy Scout troop but will be working on a program that is more advanced and interesting for a boy of his age and will be under a different leader who will be called an Advisor.

Jack Hogarth, field executive for the Eastern North Carolina district, said, "For thirty-eight years a boy looked forward to his twelfth birthday so that he could join the Boy Scouts but, under the modern education system that we have today a boy eleven years of age is ready for Scouting. The Scout officials of Pitt District are hoping that the ranks of Scouting in Pitt District will be greatly increased and also give the Boy Scouts an opportunity to help these younger boys in the many ways that Scouting can and while doing so give them plenty of fun and adventure."

Pembroke Bank Again Held Up; Bandits Escape With $20,000

Pembroke, July 22—(AP)—Police of two states today had a familiar job laid out for them—trying to track down the robbers of the Scottish Bank of Pembroke.

The small bank in this Indian community in the North Carolina

Sandhills was robbed for the fourth time in three years yesterday. This time, two bandits escaped with $20,000 in loot.

The two made their getaway after taking a 19-year-old bank clerk James Blackwell, at gunpoint with them.

Blackwell was later released near Fairmont, about 25 miles southeast of here.

Accounts of the holdup varied. H. H. Livermore, vice-president of the bank, said two men entered the bank about 4:30 p. m. on the pretext of making a deposit.

The FBI in Charlotte said later however, that it understood only one man had entered the bank while a second waited in a nearby old model automobile.

Livermore said the two men forced Blackwell and J. H. Hood the cashier, into the vault and told them to get the money. Livermore reported they took $20,000 in paper money, ranging from five to fifty-dollar bills.

The bandits then made Blackwell lock the cashier in the vault and made their escape, taking the youth with them, the official continued.

The search for the two turned to South Carolina last night.

Sheriff W. C. Britt said he had sent two of his deputies from Lumberton to an undisclosed South Carolina area.

Special Agent Charles W. Brown in charge of the Charlotte FBI office, gave this description of one of the hunted men: about six feet tall, about 25 years and weighing about 135 pounds. There was no description of the driver of the getaway car.

Several thousand dollars, most of which was recovered, was taken from the bank in three previous attempts to rob it. The first time it was entered was in March 1947.

In January this year, it was held up again and three men were given prison sentences. An attempted holdup was unsuccessful in March when one of the bandits was shot by a guard.

Ark Hunters Get Turk Permission

Moscow, July 22—(AP)—A Tass dispatch from Ankara, Turkey, says the Turkish army general staff has given permission to an American group to explore strategic Mount Ararat for the remains of Noah's Ark.

The story, printed in the communist party organ Pravda, called the expedition "an intelligence service activity under the guise of a search for Noah's Ark."

It said the group is staying in Ankara waiting for a ship to arrive from the United States with their equipment.

Mount Ararat is located near the Soviet-Turkish frontier.

The Americans who applied for permission to search for the ark are Dr. A. J. Smith of Greensboro, N. C., E. J. Newton of Colfax, N. C., Walter I. Wood of Sea Cliff, N. Y. and W. G. Ogg of Knoxville, Tenn.

There have been numerous reports in Turkey lately that remains of the ark have been sighted. These have come from all over the country.

DAV Commander 'Fighting Mad' Over Hospital

Greensboro, July 22—(AP)—The state commander of the Disabled American Veterans was fighting mad today at the Veterans' Administration for its plans to build a $17,000,000 hospital at Salisbury.

William R. Lewis of Greensboro the DAV official, termed the VA's decision to locate the 1,000 bed neuropsychiatric hospital at Salisbury "a political move."

"We don't want a $17,000,000 political monument with facilities which cannot be used," Lewis declared.

Lewis said he based his complaint on Salisbury's distance from adequate supplemental medical facilities.

TRUE RELIGION AND FALSE Christianity is superior to all other religions because it is the religion of the heart. It deals with the inside of a man's life. Of course it exerts a profound influence upon his acts, which are external, but it relates every act to an inner impulse which has been vitalized and renewed by faith.

Religions other than Christianity usually put their emphasis on externalities. They emphasize conformity to certain customs. But Jesus made it plain that He came to change the human heart. His object was not to patch up the old life, but to give new life. He came not to destroy the law, but to fulfill it. He demanded that new wine be put into new bottles, which was another way of saying that the new wine of the gospel belonged in the hearts of new men.

We can always detect falsity in religion by noting the extent to which it emphasizes the external and neglects the internal. If it puts its first emphasis on custom, tradition, ritual, it is one with the old superstitions that the progressive gospel of Christ rendered obsolete. If, on the other hand, it primarily emphasizes consecration, faith, purity, and loving service, it demonstrates that it is definitely part of a kingdom which shall never end.

False religion is on; true religion is in.

PRISON CAMP — Construction work has begun on a new prison camp in Currituck county, contract has been let for one in Washington county, and plans have been completed for modernizing camps in Bladen, Brunswick, Guilford and Lincoln counties. The last four named projects constitute changing from the old style cage camps to modern buildings. Each of the new and remodeled camps will take care of approximately 100 men. The camp in Lee county, which has been used for several years, has been cleaned up and it may be manned within the next few weeks. The state prison system has 83 camps in addition to central prison and woman's prison in Raleigh and Caledonia farm in Halifax county.

POPULATION — Prison population is steadily growing, though not as rapidly as during the few years immediately preceding the war. On June 30 the state prison population was 8,380, of which 120 were in hospitals. This compared with 2,298 on first day of the month. Before the war the prison population went above 10,000 and in 1944 it fell below 7,000.

Distribution — The approximate 6,500 inmates of the district camps are assigned on basis of need for local road maintenance work. Effort is made not to have more than 10 men in a camp. The camps are located by the highway engineers their construction comes under the bridge department and supervision is in charge of the penal division. The prison department actually has nothing to do with the location or construction of the various camps. They are turned over to the prison division when completed and the number of men placed at each point is governed by request of the maintenance engineers. On June 30 the prison population consisted of 3,457 white men, 131 white women, 4,606 colored men and 186 colored women. Of this number 50 white and 61 colored men, four white and five colored women were in hospitals.

PLACEMENT — Generally it is thought wise to keep colored prisoners in the flat country down east while the western camps are used mainly for whites. Haywood Honeycutt, one of the oldest employees of the prison system, who has filled every official position in it and now holds title of disciplinary, recalls some experiences many years ago. He was in charge of a group of Negro prisoners in 1902 doing contract work on the C. C. and O. railroad then under construction. Because it was unlawful to take the prisoners outside the state, the party could not go around by Johnson City and come in the back side by train. They had to leave the train at Marion and walk to the camp at Spruce Pine. The 30-odd miles meant a three-day hike. Honeycutt found out then that lowland Negroes didn't suit mountain conditions. He holds the same opinion still, and finds disciplinary problems less acute if prisoners are kept to the kind of country they have Somebody Told Me...

By I. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR.

There is such a thing as a college professor who isn't boring as a speaker. In fact, I've found quite a few. Almost as many have kept me awake as have put me to sleep. One of those in the wide-awake category is Dr. Edgar A. Fink of East Carolina Teachers College, who addressed the Greenville Junior Chamber of Commerce last night. As most speakers do, he got the audience on his side with a few light remarks. Samples: Dr. Fink told the story of the young boys of a particular family who had recently been baptized. Impressed by the ceremony, the boys decided that the only thing to do was to baptize the family cats, one by one. The kittens tolerated their ducking in a bucket of water, but when it came time for the mother cat to be ducked there was considerable tusseling. It seemed that the boys were going to have to give up, so one of them suggested, "Aw, just sprinkle a little on her and let her go to hell!"

Dr. Fink's subject last night was one meaningful to all of us, "Family Relations." First of all, he reminded us that at the high school age we begin to think about getting married. In view of that fact, he emphasized the necessity of teaching family relations in college. What good does it do, he said, to be able to prepare a man to pursue a career if it will be ruined by an unhappy marriage? The method of teaching family relations of necessity must vary from any other subject. First off, Dr. Fink designed a new type of classroom—a large room with venetian blinds, drapes blending with a green rug, and attractive furniture. His theory was that if family relations were to be taught, the classroom should resemble a

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

New York —(AP)— Mrs. Mamie Hohnacker is a real odd job lady. She earns a living turning her hair different colors—as many as eight to ten times a day. So far as she knows she is unique in her field.

This chameleon-like existence is her own idea. She thought up the job of color rinse tester herself. Five years ago she went to work as a technician in the Nestle-Lemur Laboratory at Meriden, Conn., which manufactures hair rinses. She was assigned to help mix colors.

Mrs. Hohnacker is something of a perfectionist. After a time she went to her boss and asked:

"How can we be absolutely sure we are getting the right shade in each color when we're testing chemicals? Why not test each vat of color rinse on real hair? Then we can be certain."

It was pointed out to her that if different models were used the varying texture of their hair would make it difficult for the laboratory experts to maintain exact color standards.

"Then just use one girl!" suggested Mrs. Hohnacker.

"Who?"

"Well, I'll volunteer," she said hesitantly, hardly realizing what this would let her in for.

Since then she has tested some 5,000 vats of color. In each case she applies the rinse to her hair and submits the result to the critical gaze of a chemist, shampoos out that color—and goes on to the next. When a color is imperfect the vat goes down the drain—300 gallons of it.

Getting the color perfect is important as an estimated 86 per cent of American women use a color rinse regularly or occasionally. There are about ten standard colors in the shade.

"Practically no woman is completely satisfied with the color of her hair," said Mrs. Hohnacker. "But her hair isn't actually all one color shade. It's a blend.

"Under a strong microscope you can see ten different shades of color in the average woman's hair. It is always darker at the nape of the neck, for example, than it is around the face line. By the right choice of a color rinse a woman can highlight the shade she prefers."

Mrs. Hohnacker, a slender, expressive mother of two young children, has prematurely graying hair herself.

"I began as a towhead," she said cheerfully, "but now I guess I'm a salt and pepper brunette—and more salt than pepper."

Her work isn't without its social hazards. She has a habit of leaving overnight the last color rinse tested during the day. But one afternoon something went wrong and she emerged from the hair dryer to find her tresses a flaming green.

"There wasn't time to do anything," she said. "I had to leave immediately for a dinner engagement. So I marched out, hoping it wouldn't be too noticeable."

Shortly afterward, when she was at dinner, a man at the next table kept staring at her green hair. Then he called a policeman who came over and tactfully asked her if anything was wrong.

"No, I'm just a guinea pig," said Mrs. Hohnacker. It took a little talking by her companions then to assure the policeman she wasn't a fugitive from a psychopathic ward.

Mrs. Hohnacker says her too as a color rinse tester has one fine compensation.

"It doesn't give you ulcers," she laughed.

The spotted skunk is often called the hydrophobia skunk, but has not been proved to be more susceptible to hydrophobia than the common skunk or most other mammals.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—The lowly soybean, first introduced in this country in the early 1900s, has developed into one of our most versatile crops. Last year brought close to $500,000,000 to farmers and manufacturers of soybean products.

Some 220,201,000 bushels of the beans were grown last year. Illinois was the biggest producer, with Iowa and Indiana runners-up, the Department of Agriculture tells me.

Of all the new scientific industries stimulated by the impact of World War II, the soybean industry has shown the most spectacular growth and progress. Soybeans now are used in scores of different ways from the making of paints to paties, toothbrush handles to hydrocarbons.

In the Department of Agriculture's Northern Regional Research Laboratory at Peoria, Ill., where most of the soybean research is carried on, new outlets for their use are being constantly worked out.

Gelsy, the new soybean product which whips, jells and glues is the latest of these. It is the first vegetable protein product found which "jells" like gelatin and is egg-white to make meringues for pies and is useful as a water-resistant adhesive.

Gelsy, made from soybean flakes by a process of alcohol washing and water extraction with no heating, has a super "stick-to-it-iveness." It will stick to tin and glass as well as to wood, paper and other materials. Laboratory researchers say its first industrial use will be to seal the cork in metal crown caps for bottles.

A wag in the department says that the device of "steaming open the envelope" to obtain information—a traditional dodge of spy-story and detective fiction writers—may well become obsolete. "The heat of the steam would merely make the glue waterproof," he says.

The greatest single factor which brought change in the life of the soybean was the over-running of the Dutch Indies and the Philippines by the Japs early in the war. This cut off our sources of coconut and palm oils and created a shortage of oils and fats in this country. The only domestic oil-seed which could be grown in large enough quantities to meet the deficit was the soybean. Its oil is the soybean's most valuable component.

Soybean meal and flour are used

Churchill Ready Second Blast At Laborite Regime

London, July 22—(AP)—Winston Churchill—fresh from a clash with Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin—is readying a new blast at the labor government.

The wartime Prime Minister, now leader of the conservative opposition will make a major speech on general policy tomorrow before an expected 50,000 listeners at Viceroy Hotel.

The speech is timed to coincide with a tory statement of policy looking forward to the 1950 election.

Churchill's secretary acknowledged this week that the speech would be an important one, but declined to give details.

Some wondered whether it would be the opening gun of the election campaign.

Churchill has been warming up for the campaign for several months with sharp blasts at the labor regime.

Last May, in an assault on the government's policies, the former Prime Minister charged that the logical end of British Socialism is a Communist-like state.

He accused the government of having "derided and reviled" the capitalist economic system of the United States.

In another address Churchill called on the conservatives to mobilize for a possible general election this fall.

The opposition leader voiced confidence that the conservatives can take next year's election.

The arrangements were made yesterday at a conference between State Treasurer Brandon Hodges, Attorney General Harry McMullan, and William Henry Hoyt, a Washington bonds attorney.

Wilmington and Morehead City port facilities will be improved by the sale of the bonds. Actually, Hodges pointed out, the state will issue short term bond anticipation notes rather than long term bonds.

The short term notes, in addition to fulfilling some of the state's financial technicalities, can be recalled and paid on short notice, and require a low interest rate.

Kluxers To Talk On Mob Violence

Birmingham, Ala., July 22—(AP)—The Ku Klux Klan called an open meeting tonight to discuss recent mob violence blamed on the hooded order.

In Birmingham, a grand jury inquiry into masked lawlessness was resumed today and a top Klan chieftain sought release from jail on bond.

The Klan planned an open session tonight in nearby Tarrant, Ala. Tarrant Mayor Felix Erwin said he gave permission for the Klansmen to meet in the city hall.

He reported a Klan member told him the meeting will "air some of the conditions" surrounding recent mob violence in the area. The Klansman gave his name as Jack Smith.

The grand jury which reconvened today had been in recess since last week. It was ordered back into special session to continue its investigation of whipping, threats and cross burning. A previous grand jury indicated 17 men in connection with night riding activities.

Meanwhile, William Hugh Morris, director of the Federated Ku Klux Klans, Inc., was granted a hearing today on a contempt citation. He has been in jail since July 7 for refusing to present Klan records to a grand jury.

Hugh Locke, attorney for the Klan director, filed a motion asking Morris' freedom on bond guaranteeing "his appearance before any subsequent grand jury."

Bolanos' Manager Claims Foul By Champion Williams

Los Angeles, July 22—(AP)—The championship dream of Mexico's Enrique Bolanos was shattered by a fourth round technical knockout from the furious fists of deadpan Ike Williams but the result brought a quick charge of "foul" from the Latin manager.

Bolanos went down and out before a fusillade of punches in the fourth round of their scheduled 15 round clash for the lightweight championship of the world last night. Some 18,999 spectators paid $108,274 to see the fierce beating, promoted for the benefit of the Lou Costello, Jr. Youth Foundation.

Williams weighed 135 pounds and Bolanos 133.

Early today, George Parnassus, manager of the defeated challenger, said his boy had been "thumbed" in the eye and thus blinded by Williams, a charge which the champion quickly denied.

In the doubles over fifteen, Ervin Langley and James Jordan of Cooper St. won from Richard DeLoatch and Max Little of Evans Street between twelve and fifteen, Bruce Hyman and Andrew Havelton of Cooper St. defeated Reginald Harris and Robert Dean of Fleming St. In the under twelve doubles, William McGlone and James Parker of Evans Street defeated Marvin Outerbridge and Richard Dickens of Fleming St.

Shanghai Prices At All-Time High
Shanghai, July 22—(AP)—Foreigners here today wondered if this Communist dominated city was not one of the world's most expensive in which to live.

Prices today ran something like this: butter almost $4 a pound; U. S. cigarettes 80 cents a package;

Referee Jack Dempsey, Keweenaw, said he didn't see any foul play with the thumb. But Parnassus said he would take his accusation before the California Athletic Commission in formal protest.

It is no secret that Bolanos' left eye trouble marked the beginning of the end. It started closing early in the third and was shut completely by the end of the round.

Parnassus said that Bolanos complained as early as the first round that Williams was giving him "the thumb." Parnassus protested in the third to Dempsey who relayed the protest to Williams.

Dr. R. J. Carreon, Jr., an eye specialist who looked at the damaged eye after the fight, said the injury was serious. The damage to the retina, he said, was such that it would have to be kept under observation for at least ten days to prevent permanent damage.

Scott Backs Up Marion Inquiry

Raleigh, N. C., July 22—(AP)—Governor Scott used strong language to make it clear yesterday he believes the State's investigation of a Marion labor dispute was impartial and complete.

He declared in a statement that the SBI investigated the matter, and he interviewed representatives of both labor and management in his office.

The affair arose out of union charges that a "virtual reign of terror" existed for union organization in the furniture town of Marion.

Following the Governor's intervention, Scott announced that both sides had promised him peace would reign at Marion.

"I consider that the representatives of both union and management gave their pledges of cooperation in good faith," Scott said yesterday. "I trust that both will carefully avoid inflammatory tactics calculated to create an emergency."

The Governor's statement followed a union lawyer's charge at a Marion NLRB hearing yesterday A. Klein, lawyer for the Upholsterers' International Union, AFL, charged that:

"Scott's refusal to make a complete and impartial investigation of union charges of terrorism and break down of law enforcement in Marion has made it impossible for the union

Pappy Williams Starts Scoring With Two Run Homer As Yohn Registers Ninth Win

By BERT MOYE
Manager Pappy Williams and his Greenville Greenies won their tenth contest of the season over the Roanoke Rapids Jays here last night by walloping them to the tune of 9 to 2.

After two men had been retired in the first frame, Willie Mauney singled, stole second and then Manager Pappy Williams blasted a 3-0 infield out scored him in front for the balance of the game.

They scored one run in the sixth frame when Pappy Williams reached third on two Jay errors and Varney's infield out scored him from third. A big six-run rally in the seventh frame led the game away for the night. During this sixth frame the

Despite the facts that a total of 111,485 paid customers turned the stiles in the eight parks in the CPL during the month of June, attendance figures released from President Ray H. Goodmon's office and which include all games played through June 30th, shows that so far this season it is 41,800 below the same period last year. There has been a total of 284,070 paid admission to all games in the CPL this season as compared with a total of 256,670 paid admissions in the same period of last season.

Only one club was ahead of its attendance figures for last season that being the Kinston Eagles, who so far this season have had a total of 45,948 paid admissions as compared with 38,930 for the corresponding period last year or an increase of 7,018. The other seven clubs in the league have also shown marked decreases in attendance as follows:
The Greenville club with 35,645 paid admissions this year as compared with 37,949 for the corresponding period last year shows a decrease of 2,304; the Rocky Mount Leafs with 44,243 paid admissions this year as compared with 47,265 for the same period last year shows a decrease of 3,022; the New Bern Bears with 35,454 for the current season as compared with 39,447 last year shows a decrease of 3,993; the Goldsboro Goldbugs with 33,789 this season as compared with 39,840 last year has a decrease of 6,051; the Wilson Tobs with 36,476 for the current period as compared with 45,392 last year is 8,916 below last year's figures; the Roanoke Rapids Jays with 34,771 this season as compared with 43,864 last year is 9,093 below last season; and the Tarboro Athletics, who up to the present time have had only 17,144 paid admissions as compared with 33,183 last year has fallen behind in their attendance this current season to the tune of 15,439.

During the month of June the paid admissions to the various parks in the league was as follows: Goldsboro, 17,542; Greenville, 16,903; Rocky Mount, 16,277; Kinston 15,464; Wilson, 14,340; Roanoke Rapids, 12,680; New Bern, 12,379; and Tarboro, 5,900.

Cards vs. Wolves
The Wolves got ten hits off Billy Johnson, the Cards ace, yesterday at W. Greenville but had a hard time pinning a 4 to 3 win on him. Charles Pollard, on the mound for the Wolves, held the Cards to six hits, holding them to single runs in the first, third and fifth innings. Johnson gave the Wolves their winning run in the fourth when he threw wild to third with the runner scoring. The game was fast and one of the best games of the year. In the sixth, after Johnny Barnhill had walked and Pollard had singled, Howell hit a line drive to James Speight who relayed to Jesse Boyd at second to double Barnhill at second who in turn threw to first to complete a fast triple play, the first of the year in the league. Billy Edwards got a double and two singles to get half of his team's hits. Tommy Norris with four singles and Billy Dunn, Barnhill and Pollard with two hits each led the winners.

Yankees vs. Reds
The Reds rallied for six runs in the sixth but could not overcome the big lead the Yanks had run up in the early innings and came out on the short end 9 to 7. The Yanks were leading 9 to 1 until the sixth. Bobby Nunn with a homer and two singles and Buck Puryear with a triple and two singles were the big guns for the Yanks. Jerry Phillips and G. Smith got two singles each to lead for the Reds.

No-Hit Twin Bill Barely Missed

Roanoke, Va., July 22—(AP)—A real baseball rarity—twinbill no-hitters—barely missed the record books in a Class B Piedmont League doubleheader last night.
Jack O'Fee of the Roanoke Red Sox baffled the Richmond Colts for six and two-thirds innings before a double robbed him of a no-hitter in the seven game opener.
But Southpaw Joe Reedy made the grade in the second contest. The 20-year-old Roanoke hurler, a native of Reading, Pa., muffled the Richmonders all the way as the Red Sox won, 3-0.

Chapter 17
From that day on all Priscilla's thoughts and hopes were centered on the coming child. Fearing brutality from Kenneth, she strove to please him when he was home and for the rest of the time, she withdrew into a new secret life of her own. She lived not in the present but in dreams of the future. The past was Dennis. The future was her child.

One day soon after that, as she was taking her daily walk through the town, she was surprised when James fell into step beside her. She would not have been glad to see Lorraine's husband except for the fact that he might give her some news of her father and Drusie. She decided to be pleasant to him.

"Why, James! What are you doing here?" she asked. "I thought you came a different way—and it's so early."

"I had to get off to go to the doctor's," he explained briefly. "My eyes have been bothering me. Office work, you know."

James' next words amazed her. "Priscilla," he said, "I've been wanting to tell you for a long time how sorry I have been for what happened that Sunday. . . . I hope you'll forgive me."

"Of course I'll forgive you," answered Priscilla.

He looked so agitated that Priscilla put her hand on his arm. "It's all right now, James," she said kindly. "Let's forget it. Tell me something about Dad and Drusie. How are they?"

James seemed glad to change the subject now and he talked with Priscilla for a long time, giving her the news. Her father wasn't as young as he used to be, but seemed to be getting along pretty well. Mrs. Hayden had given up her church work because she had been invited to join a social club. And last of all the news, James told her shyly, that Lorraine was going to have a baby, but not until March.

Priscilla was so engrossed with the effort of imagining Lorraine as a mother that she did not pay attention to the rest of James' conversation until the name "Dennis" struck her ears. They had stopped at the place where the Hayden home and Priscilla found herself looking up at him rather stupidly.

"Dennis?" she said. "What about Dennis?"

"I think you should know this," said James. "Dennis Drummond is back in town. He's joined the law firm of Hart and Langer and from what I hear it won't be long before the name 'Drummond' will go up on the door."

As Priscilla walked homeward and thought about these things, she had an odd sense of pride, as if she had had something to do with Dennis' success.

Priscilla walked on until she reached the Kent house in its broken-down neighborhood. She wondered whether Dennis had any idea of where she had been and the things that had been happening to her. Probably not. She hoped that she wouldn't meet him anywhere and above all that he would never know where she lived.

Kenneth did not come home until after supper that night and, when he did come, he was well on his way toward being drunk.

"Come on, old lady!" he said gaily. "We're going out."

"Oh, Ken, I'm too tired to go out."

"Do you good!" His whisky-laden breath hit her in the face as he holty-toity stuff about being a lawyer. I guess me and Betsy's on the shelf, I guess. . . .

So he knew, too, that Dennis was back. Priscilla felt her hands begin to shake with anger and impotence. So now Dennis' name was going to figure in their arguments.

"Well, are you going with me?" he asked.

"Okay," she said wearily. We'll probably just go to the picture show and nobody will see me. . . . Kenneth, it developed, had other ideas.

"Where are you going?" Priscilla asked in alarm as Betsy bore them jerkily toward the edge of town.

"Blue Dragon," Kenneth answered briefly.

Los Angeles, July 22—(AP)—To his other honors Dr. Ralph Bunche has added the alumnus of the year award from his old school, the University of California at Los Angeles.

And he may soon be offered a job teaching political science at his alma mater.

"Shut up!" It was the first time he had ever said that to her. Priscilla felt the tears come to her eyes. She fought them back and when they walked into the Blue Dragon Roadhouse, she held her head high. Kenneth went straight to an empty booth. She sat down. This was where she intended to stay.

Kenneth meanwhile stood at the bar. It was as if he had forgotten all about her. She ordered a drink and toyed with it, but still Kenneth did not come. . . . after a while, she decided not to look at him any more. . . . she'd just sit there and think. . . .

"If you. . . if you aren't busy," said a gentle voice, "why can't we talk?"

As she lifted her eyes, she gasped. It was Dennis. He sat down on the other side of the booth, his brown eyes regarding her softly.

"Your husband," he said, "has gone into the gambling room at the back." He seemed to have summed up the whole of Kenneth in that one sentence.

Dennis indicated the bar with a slight flick of his eyelashes. "Do you see that man with the brown tweed suit and the gray hair?" Priscilla, wondering, said she did.

"Plainclothesman," Dennis told her. "That's Duffy of the Detective Bureau and I happen to know the back room is going to be raided in a few minutes—in fact, I came along with Duffy to watch the fireworks. Do you," he paused, his eyes intent on hers, "want me to go back there and get your husband to leave now or would it be better. . . ."

"Do you mean Kenneth will be put in jail?" she asked. Dennis suddenly rose. "Come on," he said tersely and she saw that more men were coming in the front door. She felt herself being rushed out a side entrance and Dennis helped her into what she could see dimly must be a convertible coupe. He backed the car out of its parking place rapidly and drove off.

They rode in silence until they reached the University campus. "Where do you live?" Dennis asked.

"Over on the other side of town," Priscilla answered. She had a sense of being caught in an intolerable situation. This very afternoon she had wished, above all things, that Dennis would never know where she lived and now. . . . She began to cry softly.

His sympathy only served to make her cry harder.

"I. . . I don't want my baby's father in jail," she said finally. It sounded like a silly thing to say, but she meant it.

Dennis removed his hand. "I don't blame you," he said; but his voice lacked the sympathy it had held a moment before. "I'll go to night court and see what I can do for him."

The TELEPHONE-Cupid's not-so-secret weapon

Spring brings a sudden avalanche of extra telephone calls—mostly on the romantic side. Parents of young people report a constant ringing in their ears—caused, we suppose, by increased telephone activity at home. The telephone as Cupid's messenger means, of course, that we're busier than ever; but we don't mind. It is just another way of proving that there's no end to the usefulness of a telephone.

14,000 Pitt Farmers Are Eligible For Referendum

Approximately 14,000 Pitt county farmers will be eligible to vote in tomorrow's referendum on tobacco acreage control and the continuation of Tobacco Associates, Inc.

Officials of the Pitt County Agricultural conservation association have set 10,000 votes as the goal for the county in tomorrow's balloting. In the 1946 election when the crop control program was adopted for a three year period, 8,545 tobacco growers in Pitt county voted in the election.

Tobacco growers in tomorrow's election will vote for acreage control for a one year period, a three year period, or for the discontinuation of tobacco acreage control altogether. They also will vote for or against the continuation of the levy of 10 cents per acre on tobacco which goes to Tobacco Associates for the expansion of foreign markets for American tobacco.

Tenants as well as landowners who have an interest in a tobacco crop are eligible to vote in the election. The polls will open at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning and will close at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening at the 22 polling places in the county.

The polling places in Pitt county are:

Ayden A. Town Hall in Ayden; Ayden B. Town Hall in Ayden; Beaver Dam, Mack Smith's Store at Bell Arthur; Belvoir, Dupree Bros Store at Belvoir; Bethel, Town Hall in Bethel; Carolina, School Building in Stokes; Chocod A, Mr. Heber Porter's Store at Simpson.

Replacing Brick Wall Damaged By Fire Perkins Store

A contractor is building a brick wall on the L. B. Garris estate property, 420 Evans street, to replace one damaged by fire when Curtis Perkins occupied the place as a clothing store. The remains of the old wall were removed and the wall being erected is a joint wall with the store next door, occupied by Efrid's Department Store. The Guaranty Bank and Trust Company is administrator of the estate of L. B. Garris, who was head of the Garris-Evans Lumber Company.

Plans are now being considered for erecting a suitable store building on the site in the future, W. H. Woolard, president of the bank said today.

The Russians and the West couldn't agree on Germany. The Russians blocked Berlin. The Russians backed by us, the Western nations decided to stand together, not to be overrun or crushed without a struggle.

To make that agreement all legal and binding, the U. S. Senate yesterday approved our joining the Atlantic pact. It pledges us to go to the defense of Western Europe if Russia attacks.

So four years, lacking a week, after the Senate had approved our joining the U. N., the world is split into two camps, glaring at each other. The opening words of the pact say:

"The parties to this treaty reaffirm their faith in the purposes and principles of the charter of the United Nations."

Nice words. Pious. Written by statesmen. But if the U. N. hadn't failed, there'd be no pact today and no need for it.

The next step is getting Western Europe armed, just in case. After that? No one can see that far. The woods are dark and full of strange terrors that no man likes to think of.

SCORCHY SMITH

by Rod Lewis and Billard

SCORCHY WINS THE FIRST ROUND IN HIS CONTEST WITH THE DARK AND DUBIOUS DUO, SCORCHY'S DOUBLE CYRIL SNYDE AND HIS ASSOCIATE, SENHOR PRETO. THEIR CHAGRIN WHEN SCORCHY DIVERTS BETTY FORBES' MONEY FROM THEIR POCKETS INTO UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS CONVINCES HIM THEY ARE CONFIDENCE MEN BUT BETTY'S CONFIDENCE IN SCORCHY IS JUST BEGINNING...

SO YOU DON'T ADVISE INVESTING A LARGE SUM IN A NEW AIRLINE IN THE ORIENT, MR. SMITH...OR DO ALL YOUR FRIENDS CALL YOU SCORCHY?

NO, I DON'T, AND YES THEY DO, BETTY!

UNTIL THE COUNTRY SETTLES DOWN UNDER A STABLE GOVERNMENT, I DON'T THINK ANY NEW VENTURE HAS A CHANCE... EXCEPT, MAYBE, GUN RUNNING AND THAT'S ILLEGAL!

...AND YOU DON'T STRIKE ME AS BEING THE ILLEGAL TYPE, BETTY!

WELL-LL, MY GREAT GRAND DADDY WAS SKIPPER OF A CHINA CLIPPER!

THE DINNER WAS VERY PLEASANT, SCORCHY!

SO WAS THE COMPANY! SO YOU FELT LIKE FOLLOWING UP THE FAMILY TRADITION, EH?

SORT OF! THAT'S WHY WHEN CYRIL OUTLINED HIS PLAN OF STARTING A NEW AIRLINE I WAS EAGER TO HELP FINANCIALLY!

YOUR MONEY WON'T GO WRONG IF IT'S IN U.S. SAVINGS BONDS!

UM-M! SHALL WE GO FOR A DRIVE, SCORCHY? I... HAVE A LITTLE CONFESSION!

WELL... OKAY HOW ABOUT A TAXI?

THEY'RE LEAVING, PRETO! WE'D BETTER KEEP AN EYE ON THEM...OR I'VE DONE A LOT OF WORK FOR NOTHING!

...!! AND I'M RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF MY BLANC MANGE!

YOU DO NOT THINK, MY FRIEND, THAT YOU COULD PERSUADE HER TO TURN THOSE BONDS BACK INTO CASH?

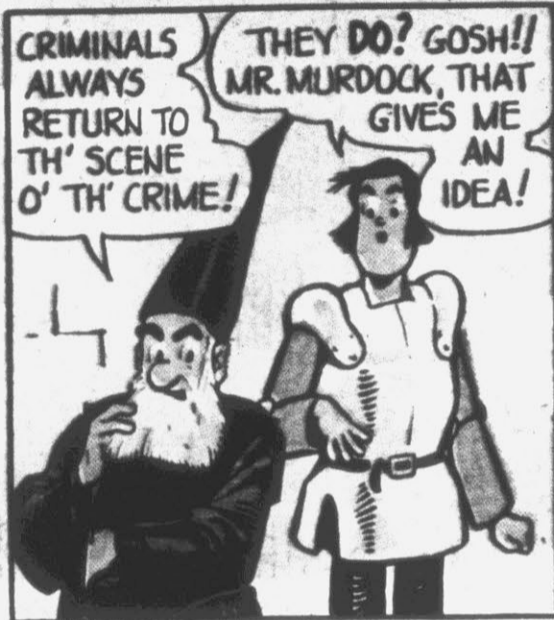

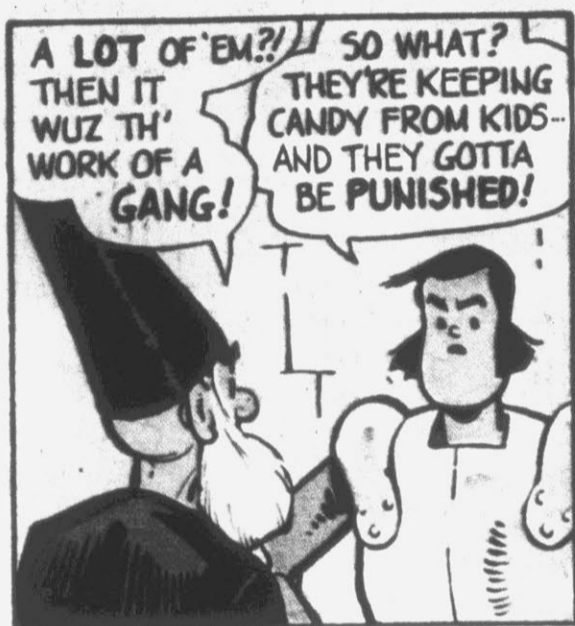

THAT WOULD TAKE TOO LONG! AND SHE'S BEEN GETTING HIS ADVICE FOR AN HOUR! AT FIRST, I THOUGHT HE WAS A CROOK...

BUT IT'S THE WORST! HE'S HONEST!

WE NEED THAT MONEY FOR MORE PLANES! WE NEED PLANES FOR THE BIG PLAN! I FEAR WE MAY HAVE TO PLAY ROUGH!!...HA! THAT TAXI IS GOING IN THE DIRECTION OF THE AIRPORT!

MY CONFESSION, SCORCHY! THERE IT IS!!

HOWER HOOPER

by RAND TAYLOR

NOW WATCH CAREFULLY-DADDY IS GOING TO TIE A WINDSOR KNOT!

IT'S TODAY'S CORRECT TIE-STYLE! FIRST, START WITH THE WIDE END 12 INCHES LONGER THAN THE NARROW END-

(SECOND, LOOP IT UP AND OVER-

THIRD, BRING IT DOWN BEHIND THE SHORT END-

FOURTH, UP AND OVER THE LOOP-THIS IS THE TRICKY PART-

FIFTH, THEN ACROSS-

SIXTH, UP AND THRU THE CENTER IN THE USUAL WAY-

AND SEVENTH, PULL DOWN THRU KNOT AND SLIP TIGHT!

AND EIGHTH, TIE IT AGAIN WITHOUT DEPENDING ON THE DIRECTIONS IN THAT PAMPHLET!

OKAY! FIRST-

-SECOND, THIRD AND FOURTH-

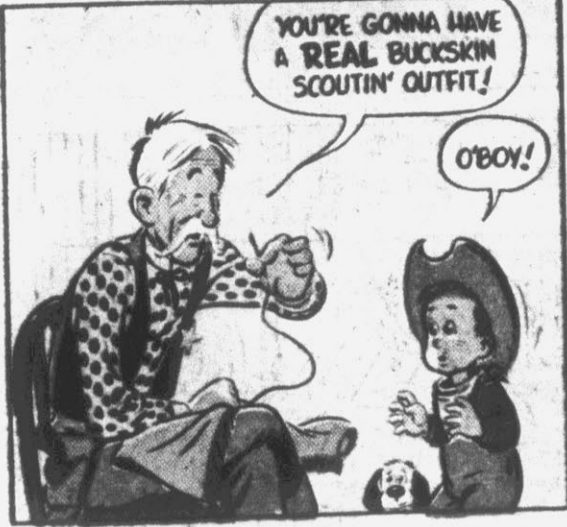

FIFTH, SIXTH AND SEVENTH-

AND EIGHTH-M'LOVE, WHERE IS MY SNAP-ON BOW TIE?

MOMENTS OF AMERICAN LIFE

"WELL, FATHER, I'M GETTING MORE EXERCISE THAN YOU ARE, AT LEAST I'M EXERCISING MY TONGUE!"

"WHAT IF IT IS RAINING? THIS IS THE ONLY VACATION I GET AND I'M GOING TO STAY OUT IN THE FRESH AIR!"

"THIS IS ONE WAY OF GETTING ACQUAINTED WITH THE NEW BOY NEXT DOOR!"

"IT MUST BE WONDERFUL BACK EAST WHERE YOU DON'T HAVE TO STAND IN A RAIN BARREL ALL DAY EVERY TIME YOU GET A NEW PAIR OF PANTS."

"I'VE ALWAYS BEEN GOING TO LOOK FOR A JOB BUT IT'S TOO HOT IN THE SUMMER AND TOO COLD IN THE WINTER!"
