Legion Parades In Philadelphia; Traffic Snarled

Twelve-Hour Parade Begins In Quaker City Under Cloudless Sky

Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—(AP)—A gray task force of gaudily-dressed American Legionnaires began a 12-hour parade maneuver today to capture Philadelphia.

Drums rolled, bugles blared. Strutting girls in pretty costumes twirled batons. Martial tunes filled the air. So did confetti and ticker tape—and the cheering applause of a million Philadelphians and visitors.

The Quaker City surrendered happily to the invasion—the Legion's 31st annual convention parade.

Crowds before the march began hours gathered along the five-mile route. The sun shone brightly in the cloudless sky.

U. S. military and naval units led off the march directly behind the Legion's parade marshals. The crack 116-man army band moved like a precision machine up Broad Street to City Hall and the reviewing stand.

Paratroopers, Wacs, marines, sailors and National Guardsmen stepped in unison to the martial music.

The massed colors of the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Guam, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Panama Canal Zone were carried by a battalion of military policemen.

Before the parade ends, about midnight, more than 30,000 persons and some 160 drum and bugle corps will have filed past the reviewing stand.

Marchers from Minnesota wore Indian costumes, complete with feathered headdresses.

Legion departments proud of their state's history displayed their favorite symbols—agavebrush from Nevada; Iowa corn; Santa Claus from Santa Claus, Ind.; "rebel yell" and beautiful girls from Mississippi; and Texas sombrero.

Legionnaires boast there's no bigger parade anywhere else in the world.

It snarled downtown traffic to a standstill.

German Police Said On Border

Berlin, Aug. 30.—(AP)—A Berlin newspaper said today East German police are being sent to the Balkans by Russia to seal off Yugoslavia.

The British-licensed Social Democrats said 3,500, heavily armed members of the Volks-Polizei (people's police) left the Russian zone of Germany for "anti-Tito action" in the Balkans Saturday. It said 12,000 more will be sent.

British and American intelligence officers said they could not confirm the reports.

Housing Program Authority Given

Washington, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Spartanburg, S. C., today received authority to build 400 dwellings under the new long-range housing program.

Approval of the project was announced by Commissioner John Taylor Egan of the Public Housing Administration. It supervises the program.

Plans call for construction of 200 units this year and the remaining 200 during 1950. No estimate of the total cost was announced.

Senate Economy Drive Bogs Down Over Appropriations

Washington, Aug. 30.—(AP)—A Senate economy drive which had built up steam for months appeared bogged down at last today following final Senate action—long overdue—on billions of dollars in appropriations.

In the final voting yesterday on a $14,800,000 defense money bill, economy advocates actually showed a good-sized majority. Pushing an amendment which would have required President Truman to cut government expenses five to 10 percent, they summoned a total of 49 votes against only 288 for the opposition.

But that was not enough. It fell three votes short of the two-thirds margin which vice-president Barkley, the Senate's presiding officer, had ruled necessary.

That appeared to put the whole economy question over until the 1950 Congressional campaigns, in which it is expected to be a major issue.

The proposed rider would have required Mr. Truman to chop from two to four and a half billion dollars from the estimated $45,000,000,000 he asked Congress to authorize for government spending this fiscal year, which started July 1.

Its defeat marked a hard-won victory for Democratic leader Lucas who must run for re-election next year in Illinois.

It was a major setback for two Southern Democrats, Senators McClellan of Arkansas and Byrd of Virginia, and two top Republican leaders, Senators Wherry of Nebraska and Taft of Ohio.

With the economy amendment out of the way the Senate quickly defeated an anti-oleomargarine rider sponsored by Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) and a last minute send-it-back-to-committee economy move by Senator Douglas (D-Ill.).

Then it sent the huge defense appropriation bill back to the House for action on Senate changes slashing nearly $1,400,000,000 from the house-approved total.

House leaders have served notice they will resist most of the Senate reductions, although the House is now on vacation and won't be able to consider the bill until Sept. 21.

The biggest Senate cut was an $800,000,000 slice in Air Force funds. The House allowed enough cash to expand the Air Arm to 58 combat groups but the Senate whittled this back to 48 groups as recommended by the President.

British Press Has Big 'Thank You' To Truman

President's Philadelphia Speech Hailed As Good Omen For Dollar Crisis Talks; Top News Story In Britain

London, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The British press gave out today with a heart-felt chorus of "thank you, Mr. President."

The Philadelphia speech by President Truman aroused as much gratitude as though it had been a personal pat on the back for every Briton.

Mr. Truman's avowal of continued sympathy and friendship for the British people was the day's top news story.

It was hailed on all sides as a good omen for the dollar crisis talks starting in Washington Sept. 7. In Labor party circles there were audible signs of relief.

"Truman says hands off other people's politics" was the jubilant headline in the Daily Herald, the party mouthpiece.

The British foreign office was so pleased with what Mr. Truman had to say that it took the unusual course of issuing a formal statement long after its regular office hours. Said the foreign office:

"President Truman's references to the forthcoming Anglo-American talks in his speech to the American Legion convention at Philadelphia are regarded in London as most helpful and encouraging for the success of the tri-party talks.

"The point of view expressed by the President is fully appreciated and shared in London."

"Truman: We're friends" said the seven column banner in The Conservative Daily Mail.

The speech was all the more gratefully received because of growing resentment here over criticism from America.

The socialists have been enraged by statements that their political policies have crippled the postwar recovery effort.

Britons in general are burned up by suggestions from abroad that they are finished as a world power.

Scott Appoints Home Successor

Keeps Silence On Bitterly-Worded Letter Of Resignation

Raleigh, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Governor Scott today appointed Dr. C. Sylvester Green, editor of the Durham Herald, as a member of the State Board of Conservation and Development.

Dr. Green succeeds Josh Horne, Rocky Mount publisher who yesterday handed the governor a bitterly-worded letter of resignation.

In commenting on recent controversy over the state's advertising contract, Horne wrote in his letter that "you can hardly blame me for wondering whether the state advertising program is to be made a political grabbag."

Horne, who also served as chairman of the Conservation Board's advertising committee, asserted in his letter that recent actions of the governor in regard to the advertising program "is of doubtful legality."

The governor, who announced Green's appointment at his news conference, said he had no comment on Horne's letter.

The Rocky Mount publisher referred to the governor's action several weeks ago in naming his private secretary, Charles J. Parker as head of the state advertising division and in cancelling the state advertising contract with the Charlotte firm of Ayer and Gillett.

"This resignation is not being offered in a personal pique," Horne wrote. "I am asking to be relieved of my responsibilities as a member of the board because I am unwilling to continue to accept those responsibilities under the concept which you obviously have of the respective powers and duties of the governor and of the board."

The Eastern North Carolina flue-cured belt, meanwhile, reported average gains of from $1 to $2 per hundred pounds as prices yesterday remained steady or increased slightly as compared with Friday.

The Federal-State Market News Service said most leaf grades—selling in the heaviest volume of the season—were up $1 to $3, and volume remained heavy with most markets blocked. Quality of sales showed little change.

Stokes County Votes Today On Liquor Question

Danbury, N. C., Aug. 30.—(AP)—For the second time in the last 12 years Stokes County residents voted today whether to legalize ABC liquor stores.

The stores were defeated by 800 votes in 1937.

The election campaign was spirited. Leaflets bearing the inscription "Bootleggers Association of Stokes County" were showered from an airplane. They asked citizens to stick by the bootleggers who had furnished them with liquor for 40 years rather than vote for ABC stores. The wets also held mass meetings during which speeches were followed by square dances.

Church groups sponsored meetings at which speakers asked for defeat of the stores.

Kiwanians Name New Officials

Chapel Hill, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Orin F. Crow of Columbia, S. C., was elected Carolinas district governor of Kiwanis International today. Spartanburg, S. C., was selected for the 1950 convention.

Lieutenant governors named are J. B. Keeter of Kings Mountain, Roy E. Leinbach, Jr., of Newton, J. S. Gibson of Winston-Salem, S. Preston Douglas of Lumberton, S. M. Crowder of Henderson, Lawrence H. Fountain of Tarboro, Balus Holleman of Jacksonville, J. Frank Nolan of Florence, S. C., and Ratchford W. Boland of Clinton, S. C.

Tobacco Prices Up

Will L. Whedbee, sales supervisor for the Greenville tobacco market, today reported that 1,542,866 pounds of tobacco was sold here yesterday. Low grade primings were up over last week, 4 to 88 per hundred. Smoking leaf was up $10 and $15 per hundred over last week. Whedbee said the warehouse floors are rapidly clearing.

Tito Is Regarded Certain To Get Loan From U. S.

Officials See Eventual Financial Help If Tito Survives Moscow Split

Washington, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia is considered virtually a cinch to get an American government loan—provided he stays alive and independent from Moscow.

Top government officials said Secretary of State Acheson's strong support for Yugoslavia's application clearly foreshadows a favorable verdict.

Acheson and Ambassador Cavendish Cannon in Belgrade are reported vigorously urging the Export-Import Bank not only to approve Tito's bid but to do it quickly.

The Yugoslav dictator is said to be in need of quick economic help from the United States and other Western countries to help him weather the economic blockade now threatening to strangle his country, disclosed last night to have applied formally to the bank for a credit of around $25,000,000 needed to buy American machinery for its copper, lead and zinc mines.

Tito is reported to have turned to the bank, an American government agency, because he feels he cannot wait possibly six months for a credit from the International Bank.

This is the first time the Yugoslav government has turned to the United States for a direct loan since Tito defied Moscow's orders some 15 months ago and split from the Russian bloc in Eastern Europe.

Government officials familiar with the Yugoslav application said that thus far there has been no sign of opposition from Secretary of Defense Johnson.

Johnson first opposed and then finally approved the first big step by the United States to bolster Yugoslavia several weeks ago—a decision to permit the Yugoslavs to buy a steel mill from an American company.

Export-Import Bank officials declined to predict how they will treat the Yugoslav loan request. They said they are giving the matter "serious consideration" and that a decision should be forthcoming shortly.

But government officials connected with the National Advisory Council, which guides the bank's activities, said a loan to Yugoslavia would represent a "sound business proposition," besides fitting neatly into current American foreign policy.

Bond Notes Sold

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 30.—(AP)—The local government commission today sold Pitt county's $32,500 Hospital bond anticipation notes, average maturity .53 years, to Guaranty Bank and Trust Co. of Greenville, 362 per cent.

Czechs Claim Revolution Plot Crushed By Govm't

Prague, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The Czechoslovak government announced today it had crushed an anti-Communist underground movement just as the group was preparing to begin an armed revolution.

The official press bureau linked the underground members with "a certain western imperialistic power" but did not identify the western power.

Details of the purported plot were announced after a secret trial at which six persons were condemned to death, 10 given life imprisonment and an unspecified number lesser prison terms. Ten of those tried were acquitted.

The announcement termed members of the group spies and terrorists and said they were tried on charges of high treason and spying on behalf of the western power "with which they had been in contact."

The government claimed its police had played a cat-and-mouse game with the alleged conspirators and waited until they were all set to begin the revolution before moving in to nab them.

The announcement said the group was attempting to "prepare an armed conspiracy aimed at crushing the people's Democratic regime."

It added that those arrested were "the last participants of a highly treasonable underground movement" which police had been tracing for some time.

This was the second official announcement in four days about the crushing of a group denounced as anti-government terrorists.

On Saturday, the government said nine men accused of trying to overthrow the Communist-led government had been convicted of high treason by a state court at Meink, north of Prague.

Police Release Accused Pair, Others Arrested

By CHESTER WALSH
Greenville police today released the two Negroes whom Nina Lee Jones, 29-year-old Negro woman identified yesterday as the man who took her to a vacant house on Fleming street and raped her late Sunday night.

They are Henry Robert Jones, 38 of 422-B Tyson street, and Arthur Leona Briley, 37, of 1024 Fleming street, Greenville.

Police said Nina Lee Jones yesterday identified these two men as her attackers and signed a blank warrant for their arrest. They were held in custody and released today.

Chief Lester D. Page yesterday expressed doubts about Nina Lee Jones' story of the assault and continued the investigation. The check-up led to the arrest of Marvin E. Barrett, 15-year-old Negro boy, 817 Fleming street, and William Earl Shepard, 19, 922 Fleming street. They are in jail, charged with rape.

Chief Page today said Nina Lee Jones, the alleged victim of the criminal assault, when confronted by six Negroes in the city jail, that she readily identified William Earl Shepard as one of her assailants. Police quoted the woman as saying "that she could not be sure about Marvin E. Barrett. Both men are being held."

Police authorities said today that Barrett had admitted his part in the alleged criminal assault and implicated William Earl Shepard thus exonerating Henry Robert Jones and Arthur Leona Briley.

Latest developments in the alleged criminal attack case are, that Nina Lee Jones, after leaving the cafe Sunday night, was with Hollis Buck Atkinson, (alias "Google") and that they had an altercation and both went in a taxi to the vacant house on Fleming street. One of the men left in the taxi; the other got out; that "Google" Atkinson struck Nina Lee Jones; that William Earl Shepard and the woman went to the vacant house; that when she cried he struck her with his fist and knocked her out, and that Shepard picked her up and put her on a bed; that Marvin Barrett raped her while the woman was unconscious and that Shepard did likewise. When the woman regained consciousness, the investigation revealed, she asked about a tooth she had lost in the attack; that Shepard offered to take her to Dr. H. B. Kelly, and that Shepard followed Nina Lee Jones toward the Busy Bee Cafe, where she entered a police car, and then he disappeared.

Vaughan States President Knew Nothing Of His Acts

Consider Mediation Over Steel Dispute

Score A Point

Rocky Mount, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The Rocky Mount market scored a point in the battle to continue its fifth set of buyers today when it became known that a permanent set of graders had been assigned to the local market.

Spokesmen for the Rocky Mount market said that Rep. Harold D. Cooley of Nashville had informed them that the Commodity Credit Corporation and the U. S. Department of Agriculture had definitely assigned a fifth set of graders to the market for the rest of the season, removing the temporary graders which had first been assigned here.

Both the CIO steelworkers and some of the big steel companies indicated they might give an answer during the day. The board hopes to have replies from the union and all 63 companies by tomorrow.

The surprise offer was revealed last night to newsmen by the three board members just before they concluded their formal hearing of the evidence in the case. The mediation suggestion was made at a private session last Friday.

Both sides said they were giving it careful consideration. Neither would comment about the position they expect to take, but John A. Stephens, U. S. Steel vice-president and an industry leader in the hearings, observed:

"The problem of conducting mediation would be difficult with 63 companies and one union."

The prospect of acceptance of the offer by some of the larger companies was not believed bright in view of statements of their spokesmen in testifying before the board.

Some of the executives asserted flatly they would resist any recommendation by the panel in favor of even a part of the steel-workers demands.

He said a number of fields observed in Pitt this week are ready for defoliation now and that some farmers have already begun such operations.

It was pointed out that the cotton is so thick that the leaves are shading the lower bolls, causing them to stay moist and consequently facing a predominating possibility of rotting.

The county agent recommended that growers spray their crop with 25 to 30 pounds of cyanamide to the acre. This is easily applied with the use of an airplane. The dust halts the growth of the leaves and they fall off in a few days, exposing the lower bolls to the sunlight.

The fields defoliated last week should be ready to pick some time next week, Winchester said.

Advantages of defoliation were outlined by local authorities as follows:

1. Cotton opens uniformly, permitting all cotton to be picked at one time.

2. Reduces boll rot.

3. Permits quicker drying of cotton on the stalk after rains.

4. Trash in lint is held to a minimum, thereby raising the grade.

5. Makes picking much easier and does not injure staple of cotton.

Van Horn Called Obstructionist Among Trustees

Concord, N. H., Aug. 30.—(AP)—Ezra Van Horn, operators' trustee of the United Mine Workers welfare fund, was accused of "obstructionism" last night by U. S. Sen. Bridges (R-NH).

Bridges, neutral trustee, charged that Van Horn tried to "hamstring" the fund.

He made the accusations in reply to Van Horn's charge that the New Hampshire Senator and UMW President John L. Lewis had set up an "unsound" fund. Lewis is the Union trustee.

Bridges said he was "proud" that he voted with Lewis to make the fund effective.

"When Van Horn blocked every move to allow the fund to function," Bridges said, "I voted with Lewis to break the tie so the fund could do its job."

Enormous Dose Of Poison Found In Father's Body

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 30.—(AP)—A toxicologist testified yesterday that an enormous dose of poison was found in the body of the father of an attractive Evansville housewife accused of the arsenic death of her mother.

The poison expert, Dr. Robert E. Farney of Indiana University, made the statement in a preliminary hearing in Vanderburg Circuit Court, where Mrs. Clarice Spurlock is fighting for freedom from an affidavit charging murder.

The 28-year-old brunette is accused of the death of her mother Mrs. Eunice Irene Dearing, 56, of Huntington, Ind., who died last Nov. 16 after a visit with the Spurlocks. Her husband, 60-year-old Winter Dearing, died April 8 after visiting the Spurlock home.

Presidential Fact-Finding Board Submits Offer; Labor And Management Representatives Discuss Prospects Of Acceptance

New York, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Representatives of labor and management weighed today a Presidential fact-finding board's offer to mediate a wage dispute which threatens the steel industry with a strike on Sept. 14.

Both the CIO steelworkers and some of the big steel companies indicated they might give an answer during the day. The board hopes to have replies from the union and all 63 companies by tomorrow.

The surprise offer was revealed last night to newsmen by the three board members just before they concluded their formal hearing of the evidence in the case. The mediation suggestion was made at a private session last Friday.

Both sides said they were giving it careful consideration. Neither would comment about the position they expect to take, but John A. Stephens, U. S. Steel vice-president and an industry leader in the hearings, observed:

"The problem of conducting mediation would be difficult with 63 companies and one union."

The prospect of acceptance of the offer by some of the larger companies was not believed bright in view of statements of their spokesmen in testifying before the board.

Some of the executives asserted flatly they would resist any recommendation by the panel in favor of even a part of the steel-workers demands.

Vaughan took responsibility for a letter dated Aug. 2, 1948, addressed to the U. S. Shipyard of the state department passport division, and seeking permission for Maragon to make the trip.

But he said President Truman "never heard of this." He said the President "was not interested in any trip that might be taken by Maragon, or any other detail of Maragon's life."

And he said the impression that he (Vaughan) had told the state department that the President was interested was the result of second or third hand conversations.

Senator O'Connor (D-Md) confronted Vaughn with a copy of the Aug. 3, 1945, letter, which bears the following notation below:

"Col. Vaughan informed Mrs. Shipley that the President is personally interested in Maragon's trip to Italy."

The notation was written by one of Mrs. Shipley's assistants.

Asked by O'Connor whether his financial records were available to the committee, Vaughn replied: "Certainly."

Vaughan had a 1,000-word prepared statement in which he prepared a blanket denial of any wrongdoing.

He said the seven home freezers which officials of the Albert J. Verley Perfume Co., Chicago, gave to him for himself and his friends were simply gifts from old friends.

One of the freezers went to Mrs. Truman for the little White House at Independence, Mo.

Vaughan declared: "There is absolutely no connection between this gift and any assistance I have given these friends. At no time have I taken action as a member of the White House staff in exchange for a gift or other favor."

Car Lost Wheel And Ignited By Spray Of Sparks

The Greenville Fire Department was called to a freak fire early this morning, it was reported today.

A 1937 Plymouth sedan, owned and operated by Heber Spell, Negro, 37, of near Greenville, caught fire this morning about 2:15 on the Farmville highway about a mile and a half from Greenville when the left rear wheel of the car fell off and sparks from contact of brake-drum with pavement set the car afire.

Patrolman Paul Whitely of the State Highway Patrol, who investigated the freak fire, said that the Greenville Fire Department was summoned and the fire was extinguished, but the car was nearly a complete loss when the fire truck arrived from town.

Civil War Vet Showed Strain

Indianapolis, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The last encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic got the best of one civil war veteran last night but not for long.

Charles L. Chappel, 102-year-old senior vice commander from Long Beach, Calif., passed out on the way to a reception in the office of Gov. Henry F. Schricker.

He was revived shortly after he was taken to a hospital room in the Convention Hotel.

The Air Force Size

It Started In 1947, When The President Named A Commission To Study Needs Of The Future For The Air Force; Since Then, There's Been Constant See-Saw

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Aug. 30.—(AP)—You can get gray hair just trying to keep up with the size of the Air Force.

Should it have 70 groups? Or 48? There's been a wrangle over it for years. Congress is still seeing-sawing.

(A group can be any number of planes at any given time, depending on several things but mainly their size.)

(Usually, the smaller the size of the planes, the more of them in a group. There'd be only a few big bombers in a group.)

Start from the beginning so you can see how the wheels have gone round and round on this one.

In 1947 President Truman appointed five civilians, called the President's Air Policy Commission, to study our future air problems.

On Jan. 1, 1948 it reported it said we needed 70 groups by 1952. It indicated Russia might be able to start an atomic attack by 1953.

Then Congress set up an air policy committee of its own, made up of senators and representatives. And in that same year, 1948, they came out for a 70-group Air Force by 1952.

But getting up to 70 groups would take time: making contracts, expanding plants, replacing old planes with new ones, and so on. Since in that year, 1948, the Air Force had only 55 groups, a start had to be made fast to get the total up to 70 groups by 1952.

Admits Helping Business Men In Dealings With Govt's, But Never In Improper Way, And Never For Fee, Gifts Or Favors; Faces Rugged Questioning

Washington, Aug. 30.—(AP)— Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan said today he had helped business men in dealings with the government, but never in an improper way, and never for a fee, gift or favor.

The White House Army aide told Senate investigators that the things he did were done without the knowledge of President Truman.

He did not mention them to the President, he said, because "I didn't think it was necessary."

Vaughan came in for rugged questioning from members of the Senate subcommittee looking into the question of whether there has been improper influence in letting of government contracts.

Much of it revolved about his relations with John Maragon, the mysterious man-about-Washington who stood on his constitutional rights and refused to tell the committee

Many Apply For NSLI Dividend

James D. Walters, contact representative in charge of the Greenville Veterans Administration office, reported today that approximately 200 applications for G.I. insurance dividends were filed through the local VA office yesterday.

And the rush was expected to continue without letup today. Any veteran of World War II who took out government insurance prior to January 1, 1948, and held it for three months is eligible for a part of this refund, regardless of whether the insurance has been continued or not, Walters said.

Two billion and eight hundred million dollars is being paid out in dividends by the government with the first checks scheduled to start coming out after January 1, 1950, it was reported.

Walters urges veterans to be sure that their applications are correctly completed. One incorrect entry on the form may mean a delay in receiving payment, he explained. If veterans are in doubt, they should have the forms checked before mailing them.

Application blanks for the special dividend are available at the Greenville Veterans Administration office, Pitt County Service Office, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. In addition, each post office has been supplied with forms for distribution to veterans.

Mrs. Davis Is Bridge Hostess

Grifton—Mrs. Bryan Davis was a gracious hostess on Friday when she entertained at her home here with players for seven tables of bridge. In the spacious living room marigolds, zinnias and other summer flowers were used as decorations. As guests arrived they found their places by attractive tables. During the games Mrs. Davis was assisted by her daughters, Frances Bryan, Nannie and Carolyn Davis and Argent Tucker in serving coca colas and potato sticks, and as cards were laid aside pie a la mode and salted nuts.

High scorers among Mrs. Davis club were Mrs. Manley Lee and Mrs. Wilbur Murphy. Mrs. J. L. Quinley high among guests and Mrs. Mae Bure and Mrs. Allen Johnson of Ayden out of town guests were remembered with costume jewelry.

Other players were Mrs. John Coward, Jr., Mrs. Albert S. Tyson, Mrs. George Sugg, Mrs. L. L. Mewborn, Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Claud Hart, Mrs. Jake Worthington, Mrs. Walter Murphy, Mrs. Thurman J. Williams, Mrs. Alton Chapman, Mrs. Paul Bradley, Mrs. Vance Wall, Mrs. Wiley Gaskins, Mrs. Thomas Gower, Mrs. Kenneth Walker, Mrs. Cecil Cobb, Mrs. W. I. Bissette, Mrs. Robert McCotter, Mrs. H. R. Quinley, Mrs. Jack Tucker, Miss Hazel Patrick, Miss Louise Mewborn, Miss Bert Johnson and Miss Doris Smith.

Plan Purebred Hog Sale For Fair Week

Plans for a purebred hog sale to be held the Saturday of Fair week will be made Monday night at the first meeting of the Pitt County Purebred Swine Association board of directors, Chairman J. H. Boyd announced through County Agent S. C. Winchester today.

By-laws for the recently organized Purebred Swine Association will also be drawn up at the meeting officials said.

The meeting, to be held in the Agriculture Building auditorium at 8 o'clock, will be the first meeting since the organization get-together.

CEILINGS LIFTED

Washington, Aug. 30—(AP)—Rent ceilings were lifted today by Housing Expediter Tigue E. Woods, effective at once, in Moore county, North Carolina, whose decontrol completes the lifting of restrictions in the Southern Pines defense rental area.

Six New Entries Received Today For Farmers Day Beauty Pageant

Three beauties are these young ladies who will be among the many contestants in the Greenville Farmers Day Beauty pageant Saturday night. The girls will be competing for $600 in cash prizes plus other awards to be made to the winners in the pageant.

Six entries for the Farmers Day beauty pageant received today by contestant committee chairman Milton Adams brought the total to 24 the girls so far entered in the contest.

Among the latest entries for the pageant are Joanne Galloway of Grimesland, sponsored by the Ladies Aid Society; Marigold Arnold of Grimesland, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Jean Tucker of Simpson, sponsored by the Home Demonstration Club.

Entry blanks have been received from one Pitt county girl and two Greene county girls who are being sponsored in the pageant by the Farmville Kiwanis club. Being sponsored by the Farmville club are Fannie Fleming Quinn of Farmville route one, Peggy Jeanne Reason of Walstonburg, and Evelyn Fields of Walstonburg.

The deadline for entries in the pageant is midnight Wednesday. The girls who are in the beauty pageant will be honored at a banquet at the Ide Towne Inn Saturday afternoon before the pageant.

Mt. Pleasant News

Mr. Henry F. Speight, Jr. will speak Sunday morning, September 4, 5 present and everyone who went Mt. Pleasant Christian church. His topic will be "Silence in Religion."

Henry is a student at Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana, and a member of Mt. Pleasant. His friends are looking forward to seeing him while on a two weeks visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Speight, Sr.

The annual picnic of Mt. Pleasant Sunday school was held Thursday afternoon, August 25, at the Roanoke Christian Service camp near Washington. There were about 4 present and everyone who went said it was very enjoyable.

The adult class meeting will be held at the community building Monday night, September 5, at 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Dupree will be the host and hostess. Attendance at Bible school Sunday was 93. Our goal is an average attendance of 100. Members of the Sunday school, are you doing your part?

The many friends of Mrs. Guy Caton wish to express their deepest sympathy to her in the recent loss of her husband. We shall miss him at Sunday school even though he was unable to attend during the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Roland, Jr., left Sunday for their home in Richmond after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Roland, Sr. Mr. Eugene Crook of Atlanta Bible college has been guest speaker at prayer services several times this summer. His talks were very inspirational and were enjoyed by all who had the privilege of hearing him.

Bethel School Session Begins Today With Special Exercises

Bethel, Aug. 30—Bethel's 1949-50 school session began today at 8:30 a.m. Opening exercises were conducted at the high school at 8:30, led by Rev. W. M. Cassell. Grammar school exercises opened at 10:30 a.m., led by Rev. W. M. Howard, Jr. There will be fifteen state allotted teachers plus four special teachers. The eight elementary teachers will be: Mrs. Katherine Adams, first grade; Miss Marian Burton, second grade; Mrs. Margaret Renshaw, third grade; Mrs. Ruth Taylor Thomas, fourth grade; Miss Frances Warren, fifth grade; Mrs. Sylvia Jackson, sixth grade; Mrs. Eileen McWhorter, seventh grade; and Mrs. Jane Highsmith, eighth grade. In the high school there will be five state allotted teachers plus two vocational teachers and two teachers of Veteran classes. The high school teachers are as follows: Mrs. Thadys Dewar, commerce; Miss Nora Lee Hinant, home economics; Miss Mary Mills, English-French; Mrs. Daisy Lee Latham, social studies; Mr. Alton Gray, science; Mr. Sam Dewar, agriculture and vocational training; Mr. Walter Latham, principal and mathematics; Mr. R. E. James, Jr.

Makes History

Mrs. Abe Wooten, 409 East Wilson Street, Farmville, went down in Pitt County history yesterday as the first woman to serve on the Grand Jury. Mrs. Wooten was drawn for the August-December term.

and Mr. Winfred Thigpen, Veterans agricultural teachers. Mrs. J. L. Oppelt will teach private piano lessons. It is planned to employ a part-time public school music teacher, also an instructor in ballroom dancing. Plans are being formulated to have classes in tap and acrobatic dancing. Bethel feels that it has an exceptionally well trained faculty including two with Masters degrees, five who are working to complete their Masters degree, and all the remainder have Class A certificates. Bethel school and its instructors were used for the past two years and will be used this year for training of student teachers from East Carolina Teachers College.

The Bethel school curriculum offers adequate college preparatory work in addition to competent training in special vocational fields. It has well equipped vocational, home economics, and agriculture departments. It is believed that the commerce department will equal or excel any in eastern North Carolina.

The physical plants have recently been improved by complete interior painting. An active Parent-Teachers Association under the capable leadership of Mrs. Hilda Garrenton plans to complete the leveling and beautification of the school grounds.

The federally subsidized school lunch room will be operated for its sixth year, and again will be under the capable management of Mrs. John Hardy assisted by Mrs. L. L. Andrews, Sr. and Mrs. Charlie Rollins. The prices for lunches will be the usual twenty cents. The lunch room has just acquired new tables with Formica tops, new dishes, additional screening, and cabinet improvements.

Janitorial duties will be performed by Mr. Woodrow Bell at the high school and Mr. Will Keel at the elementary school.

The Bethel schools are fortunate in having an active, interested school board composed of the following persons: Mr. L. N. James, chairman; Dr. C. G. Garrenton, secretary; Mr. C. W. Everett, Mr. W. C. House and Mr. J. V. Taylor, Sr.

Final Hurdle To New Nat'l Park

Greensboro, Aug. 30—(AP)—Only one more legal hurdle remained today before the government can set up a new national park in Western North Carolina. And clearing the hurdle seemed only a technicality.

The park would consist of 240 acres of the late Moses H. Cone's estate near Blowing Rock. The National Park Service has agreed to take over that portion of the 3,000-acre estate through which the federal Blue Ridge Parkway passes. A friendly suit was started for the conveyance of the property.

One phase of the suit was decided here yesterday. Judge F. Donald Phillips handed down a judgment in Guilford County Superior Court. It stipulated that the trust fund of the Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital provide $10,000 a year for maintenance for the proposed park.

Cone was a Greensboro textile magnate. His widow, the late Bertha Landau Cone, directed in her will that the hospital trustees allot $10,000 a year for the maintenance of the whole 3,000-acre estate as a park. When the value of the dollar fell, it appeared the sum would not be enough for such a big park. Then the federal government agreed to take over the 240 Blue Ridge Parkway acres, and the state approved.

To iron out the final phases of the transaction, the judgment was appealed to the State Supreme Court.

Rotarians Buy Season Tickets To Grid Games

By WYATT BROWN
The Rotarians quickly bought all the season tickets Charlie Bissette and Badger Johnson had last night. In fact, there were requests for more tickets. It seems that East Carolina Teachers College has set aside a special Rotary section in the new stadium.

Most of the Rotary meeting last night used in presenting information about the workings of the club. Howard McGinnis, chairman of the Rotary Information committee, assisted by the other two members of his committee—Karl Pace and Lindsay Wilkerson—cleared up a number of points that they raised and some raised from the floor. There are 330,000 Rotarians in over six thousand clubs, in one hundred eighty-six districts, in eighty-two countries in the world.

Dr. H. Glenn Haney was a guest of the club and Max Roebuck of Washington was a visiting Rotarian last night. Urcell Webb, club president, presided.

Four True Bills By Grand Jury

The Grand Jury returned four true bills yesterday at the first session of the fall term of Criminal Court got underway in Pitt County.

True bills were returned in the cases charging William Lee Taft with forgery; Lyman Gorham, the Belvoir colored man who is alleged to have set fire to an automobile while a man slept inside, with arson; Moses Vines with crimes against nature; and Earl Chauncey with bigamy.

Pasture Development Demonstration To Be Staged Friday

Pitt County farmers interested in seeding pastures should attend the pasture development demonstration at the Tidewater Experiment station in Plymouth on Friday, County Agent S. C. Winchester said today.

The demonstration will get underway at 1 o'clock, according to a letter received from District Agent E. L. Norton. Winchester explained this morning that the demonstration would include information concerning the preparation of a good seed bed, how to seed small seeded plants, how to inoculate legume seeds and other information which should prove of value to farmers in this section.

Winchester and Assistant Agent C. J. Goodman will attend the meeting and the agents urge all farmers in this section who can attend.

The quinoa plant, which grows in the Andes at altitudes of 12,000 and 5,000 feet is useful as food, drink and medicine.

Strength FOR THE DAY

USING OUR BRAINS

There was a great hotel fire several years ago in which a number of persons lost their lives. Singularly enough, no one was burned to death. The fatalities were due almost entirely to the fact that poisonous gases rose through the elevator shafts and killed the guests on different floor levels. But a few were saved. The ones who crowded to the windows and called for help were not saved, but there were some who pulled the mattresses and sheets off their beds and put them against the doors of their bedrooms in such a way that they kept out the noxious fumes. Those who only wring their hands perished. Those who used their heads survived.

There is a grim and awful truth in the law of the survival of the fittest. Many a person allows his brain to wither, like a vegetable lying in the sun. But there are others who know what brains are made for. That sort of person cannot be kept down. Tend to observe this promising variety of folk in every grade school and high school class.
They are to be found in every group. Observe them and learn from them.

Around Capitol Square

LABOR — A conference involving representatives organized labor road building contractors and state officials to discuss wage rates on road contracts was scheduled for Tuesday afternoon. Apparently some effort was made to avoid any publicity on the meeting. It has been learned that purpose of the labor representatives is to secure a clause in each road contract providing for payment of wages at "prevailing rates in the community at time contract is awarded."

CONFUSION — No state official could be found who would discuss the matter for the record, but several interviewed informally said this clause would be susceptible to various interpretations, would lead to confusion, and would almost certainly increase cost of roads built under the current expansion program. One man said it would be almost impossible to arrive at acceptable definition of "prevailing wages," and that the proposal would set up an arbitrary wage standard which could not be changed as other factors involved in the overall construction cost fluctuated.

INDIRECT — Another man doubted that the highway commission, or any other state agency, could legally do by indirect action what the general assembly had refused to do directly in establishing a fixed wage scale.
He added that courts have held federal government agencies cannot adopt such wage provisions without specific legislative authority. Labor spokesmen insist that it will be both legal and fair for the state to require the contractors to pay "prevailing wages," but they admit there might be some difficulty in establishing that rate for other than technically skilled labor.
One labor unionist admitted the provision might slightly increase cost of construction, but said he didn't think the state ought to try to save money by "pirating" labor.

PARK — Attorney General Harry McMullan, accompanied by Forrest Shuford, Jr., of his legal staff, represented the state of North Carolina in a hearing before Judge Don Phillips at Greensboro Monday in connection with transfer of the Moses H. Cone Memorial Park at Blowing Rock to the national park service. A trust indenture set up by the late Mrs. Bertha Cone established the 3,500-acre Fiat Top Manor estate as a public park and provided $10,000 for maintenance.
That amount is deemed inadequate and conferences among attorneys for the trust, the state of North Carolina and the national park service, resulted in tentative agreement, subject to approval of the courts, for the national park service to administer the property. The agreement also provides a right of way for the Blue Ridge Parkway through the property, which will take about 280 acres and which otherwise the state would have to purchase.

PROTEST — On the surface it looks like a good grade for all parties. It will mean another national park in the state for which the government will get $10,000 a year for maintenance; it will save for the state the purchase price of the parkway right of way, and indirectly may mean more money available from the Cone estate for the Moses

H. Cone Memorial Hospital which is a quasi-public institution; and it will relieve the estate trustees of a lot of detail worry. But the picture is not all bright. It is clouded by growing protest of private tourist resort operators at obvious tendency of the national park service to bypass them at every turn possible.

SELF-CONTAINED — This protest stems from apparent purpose of the park service to make its activities completely self-contained by providing eating, sleeping and service facilities by non-profit tax-exempt agencies in direct competition with tax-paying private enterprise in the area. This tax-free competition makes red spots before the eyes of many North Carolinians who have invested large sums in accommodation facilities for travelers along the Blue Ridge Parkway and visitors in the national parks.

Somebody Told Me...

By I. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR.

After folks have been married a certain length of time they learn to guess what the other is thinking a great deal of the time. With two years of married life behind us, Rachel and I can often read each other's minds.

But since I've been writing this column Rachel has a harder time deciding what I'm up to. At times she concludes that I've gone stumbling out of my mind, only to find out that I'm in pursuit of an idea for a column.

A good example is the other day. We had just left Ed Rick's publishing training schools in all parts of the country, to guide "men and women of good will" into key jobs where they can make their influence felt.

And Father Keller himself is reading final proofs on a new book,
"Three Minutes a Day," to be published by Doubleday in October. His last book, "You can change the World," sold 300,000 copies.

I went to see Father Keller because I had been hearing a good deal about misunderstanding and bad feeling among religious groups, and I wanted to know if there was another side to the story.

The man in the Roman collar is sure that there is.

"The Christophers," he said, "are people of all faiths. Some have no particular faith.

"We're all sorts of people—housewives, actors, employers, union officials.

"We concentrate on a few fields
—teaching government work, labor management, and the spreading of ideas by radio, movies, publishing and so on.

"Why? Because that's where subversives are most active.

"By subversives we don't mean Communists alone. We mean those who are against what normal Americans are for. Such things as divine truth and human integrity.

"Probably not more than one American in 100 is working against these things. But that adds up to more than 1,000,000 persons. It means that we'll need more than 1,000,000 Christophers."

I asked a couple of questions that a Protestant friend of mine had suggested: Is there opposition to

Boyle's Column

By Ed CREAGH
(For Hal Boyle)

New York, Aug. 30.—(AP)—When James Keller says he's out to change the world, a lot of people listen.

For one thing, he's a big, quietly persuasive Catholic Priest with a no-nonsense air about him. He reminds his friend Spencer Tracy.

For another thing, he's a best-selling author who has banded more than 100,000 Catholics, Protestants and Jews into a movement called the Christophers.

Their aim, in their own words:
To change the world.

"The U. S.," Father Keller says,
"is being undermined by a fantastical group of men and women who hate God and ever at the Declaration of Independence, with its stress on our God-given rights.

"We want to stop this.

"And we hope to do it by putting men and women of good will into jobs where they can be a force for good and order.

"There has been too much shouting against 'subversives.'

"The time is here for action—for offering something better than the subversives can offer."

The Christophers are in the news
on several fronts:

A novel which won the $15,000 first prize in their literary contest has just been published. It's title is "Call It Treason." The author, George Howe, is a Protestant.

The Christophers are trying to es-

School Days Should Be Happy Days

Vacation is a good time for parents to take stock of their children's vision. If your children dislike to read; if they are not as good at games as their playmates; if their schoolmarks last term were not what you hoped for or expected—then—by all means—look to their vision... undoubtedly the seat of all the trouble. Do it now—so that they may enjoy their vacation, and so that they can do good work next school term—easily and without effort.

Somebody Told Me...

By I. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR.

After folks have been married a certain length of time they learn to guess what the other is thinking a great deal of the time. With two years of married life behind us, Rachel and I can often read each other's minds.

But since I've been writing this column Rachel has a harder time deciding what I'm up to. At times she concludes that I've gone stumbling out of my mind, only to find out that I'm in pursuit of an idea for a column.

A good example is the other day. We had just left Ed Rick's publishing training schools in all parts of the country, to guide "men and women of good will" into key jobs where they can make their influence felt.

And Father Keller himself is reading final proofs on a new book, "Three Minutes a Day," to be published by Doubleday in October. His last book, "You can change the World," sold 300,000 copies.

I went to see Father Keller because I had been hearing a good deal about misunderstanding and bad feeling among religious groups, and I wanted to know if there was another side to the story.

The man in the Roman collar is sure that there is.

"The Christophers," he said, "are people of all faiths. Some have no particular faith.

"We're all sorts of people—housewives, actors, employers, union officials.

"We concentrate on a few fields —teaching government work, labor management, and the spreading of ideas by radio, movies, publishing and so on.

"Why? Because that's where subversives are most active.

"By subversives we don't mean Communists alone. We mean those who are against what normal Americans are for. Such things as divine truth and human integrity.

"Probably not more than one American in 100 is working against these things. But that adds up to more than 1,000,000 persons. It means that we'll need more than 1,000,000 Christophers."

I asked a couple of questions that a Protestant friend of mine had suggested: Is there opposition to

Nine Children Injured As Pick-Up Truck Overturns

A 1942 Chevrolet pick-up truck turned over Sunday about noon on the Old Creek Road north of Greenville, injuring nine young children, four of them seriously.

Helen Jones, 7, who suffered internal injuries. The condition of the four at the hospital was described as "satisfactory" by attending doctors. The truck was slightly damaged, it was reported. Mr. Eastwood operates a store on the Old Creek Road. The other children all live on the Old Creek Road.

The truck driven by Lila May Eastwood, 16, got out of control when it hit a sand bed and then turned over, reported B. T. Eastwood, father of the driver. The driver was unable to tell how the wreck happened.

Negro Students Touring Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Eastwood had gone off Sunday morning and left the children at home and they did not know that the children had the truck until they were told that there had been a wreck, Mr. Eastwood said.

Rome—(AP)—A group of six Negro students from the Virginia Union University have completed their first Foreign Study Tour of Europe and north Africa. The group visited Ireland, England, Belgium, France, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Italy and Tunisia. They left the United States June 19.

The injured were taken to Pitt General Hospital by Reid Jones, who lives on the Creek road near where the wreck occurred. Five of the passengers in the truck were treated at Pitt General Hospital for injuries and then released. Officials at the hospital reported. They were: Mary Jones, Shirley Jones, Evelyn Jones, Graham Jones and Fay Heath. The four who were hospitalized were: Lila May Eastwood, who suffered a fractured collarbone, Norman Lee Eastwood, 4, who had a fractured leg, Doris Meeks, 13, and

This first group was a small experimental one; to study the possibility for larger tours in the future. Students participating in the tour will get nine semester hour college credit for the trip. The credit is equivalent to that given to a student satisfactorily completing a full summer session course on the campus.

Forsyth To Vote Today On Liquor

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 30—(AP)—Forsyth county citizens voted today on whether to open ABC liquor stores.

Both sides claimed they would win. Wets and dries campaigned with speeches, radio address, newspaper advertisements, and letters to the editor.

Elections board chairman T. Spruill Thornton said 56,000 persons were eligible to vote. The prediction was for fair weather. The opposing factions said they expected the vote would run between 20,000 and 24,000. The last time the county voted on liquor was in 1933, and then it was not strictly a Forsyth test. That was when the state was asked to ratify the 21st amendment which repealed the National prohibition law.

Navy Returns To Pre-War Terms Of Enlistments

In an effort to effect further economy, the Navy will return to its pre-war standards for enlistment on September 1. Applicants must meet the physical qualifications which were in effect prior to the last war, and agree to serve for terms of four or six years. Seventeen year olds may serve until their twenty-first birthday. Previously men have been accepted for terms of three years, but the Navy has found it more economical when longer terms of enlistment are required. The physical requirements which have been changed pertain mostly to vision and condition of the teeth. Lt. Commander P. C. Brown, Jr. officer in charge of the Raleigh recruiting district, announces that the district will continue to accept applicants for enlistments who can meet physical and mental requirements.

Czechs Printing Works Of Stalin

Prague—(AP)—Czech Communists are pushing a three-year printing plan to publish all the works of Stalin, so that every worker can be armed "with the means of defeating reaction." The official Czech press agency said that the first 100,000 copies of Stalin's books to be printed here were hardly enough to stock the libraries, information centers and factory reading rooms. In the second 100,000 some were available for sale to individuals.

High Grapefruit Prices Forecast

Lakeland, Fla., Aug. 30—(AP)—A citrus industry expert predicted record grapefruit prices this season because of the heavy blow the hurricane dealt Florida's supply. "I think we will see the highest priced grapefruit year that has ever been recorded," said Frank Seymour, secretary of the Federal Citrus Marketing Agreement Committee. "The price situation is bound to be very good," whether crop loss is 25 or 45 per cent, Robert C. Evans, general manager of the Florida Citrus Association, said.

Revolt In Bolivia Spreads As Govm't Begins All-Out Drafting

La Paz, Bolivia, Aug. 30—(AP)—Fighting for survival against a spreading rightist revolution, the government today began a draft of all citizens.

Reservists, 20 to 24, were called to the colors in La Paz and orders for mobilization have been issued to all men 19 to 50.

They will be called upon to fight the revolt against the middle-of-the-road government which broke out in scattered sections Saturday and now controls all Bolivia's large cities except La Paz.

Greatest government efforts so far have been directed against Cochabamba, a city of 90,000 southeast of La Paz, where the rebels are strongly entrenched.

Airforce planes bombed the town yesterday for the third time, but reports said they did little damage. The raids terrorized the inhabitants however, and indignation against the act seems to have added new recruits to the rebellion.

The planes, after dropping their bombs on Cochabamba, flew on to the garrison town of Camiri to pick up troops for an attack on Sucre.

In a lightning reverse play, the planes themselves were seized at Camiri by the Insurgents; the government troops they were sent to pick up had deserted to the rebels.

Reports at La Paz said loyal ground forces were in the act of occupying the airports at Cochabamba.

The revolutionists, members of the National Revolutionary party (MNR) are apparently still in control of Santa Cruz, Potosi and Sucre, all southeast of La Paz. Reports yesterday said the garrisons in the extreme north had also gone over to the rebels, which, if true, spread the revolt countryside.

Labor unions, which normally figure prominently in unrest here, have declared a policy of strict neutrality in what they call a "purely political fight."

All political parties except the Revolutionary left (PIR) have pledged support to President Mamerto Urriolagoitia. The PIR is a Marxist group which denies any connection with World Communism.

Little Damage Expected From Flooded Rivers

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 30—(AP)—Little damage is expected to occur from the slight flooding of Eastern North Carolina rivers after the heavy rains Sunday, the U. S. weather bureau reported yesterday.

The Cape Fear river, the bureau stated, is expected to crest this morning at Fayetteville at about 37.5 feet, two and one-half feet above flood stage.

Meanwhile, the Neuse river is expected to crest today at Neuse at 15 feet—one foot above flood—and at Smithfield at 16.5 to 17 feet, about four feet in flood.

A crest of near flood stage of 14 feet is looked for Saturday at Goldsboro, the weather bureau stated.

Three Sentenced In Safety Cases

Moscow—(AP)—The labor union paper "Trud" recently reported that sentences had been meted out in the Urals to officials of a quarry in Miass at which safety rules had been violated. The chief of the quarry was sentenced to three years deprivation of freedom, a shift foreman to two years and a safety engineer to a fine of 1,500 rubles.

"Trud" said because of the negligence of these persons workers in the clay quarry had to work in difficult and dangerous conditions.

City Carriers To Go On Little Merchant Plan September 19th.

Notice is hereby given all Daily Reflector subscribers within the city receiving carrier delivery that on Monday, September 19, all carrier delivery in Greenville will be on the "Little Merchant" plan with the carriers purchasing the papers from the office and, in turn, selling them to the subscribers at 20 cents per week.

The inauguration of this plan has been in the making for some time and already about 60 per cent of our Greenville subscribers are on this basis.

Under the plan no more paid-in-advance subscriptions for carrier delivery will be accepted at our office. All such payments will be made direct to the carriers on a weekly basis. Notices of expiration dates are now being mailed to our city subscribers and as the expirations occur each will be placed on the weekly basis. Meantime the office will continue to make the deliveries until the subscriptions expire.

The "Little Merchant" plan is nothing new in newspaperdom for it is already in effect in most daily newspapers and The Reflector is practically the last daily in North Carolina to adopt it.

Experience with other newspapers has proved that the direct transaction between the subscriber and the carrier has resulted in better service to the subscriber.

The plan also furnishes valuable business training for the carriers and better fits them to take their proper places in the world of business in the years to come.

We realize that, at the start, the changeover might seem somewhat of a nuisance to some of those who in the past have been paying their subscription on a yearly basis direct to the office, but when you become accustomed to it we believe you will like it better.

Once the changeover is made, we urge our subscribers to remember that the carrier boys are in business for themselves and that they are paying the office each week for the papers they deliver to their customers. This means that the carrier will be unable to make deliveries to customers who do not pay promptly. Otherwise he will suffer personal financial loss.

We urge the full co-operation of our subscribers in helping us to make this plan a success in the interest of better service.

Any further information you may desire pertaining to the proposed change will be gladly furnished by our office.

New Bern Scoring Attack Drops Greenies By 6 to 2

Locals Threaten In Nearly Every Inning, But Fail To Deliver Until Eighth Frame

By BERT MOYE

The New Bern Bears handed the Greenies their tenth consecutive loss here at Guy Smith Stadium last night by taking a 6 to 2 win. The Bears scored singletons in each of the second, third, fourth and fifth frames and then added two more to take the win.

Jake Daniel's homer over the right field wall accounted for their first run in the second frame. Three successive singles by Hess, Bevil and Daniel gave the Bears a run in the third frame. Neil Howard's walk, a stolen base, aided by an error, allowing him to reach third and then steal home, gave the Bears what proved their winning run in the fourth frame. Jim Burns' homer over the right field wall after two men were out accounted for their fourth great run in as many innings. A double and two singles accounted for their final two runs in the ninth inning.

Although the Greenies had men in scoring position practically every frame throughout the contest they were unable to score until the eighth frame. In the eighth, Denier walked, Valle singled and Varney struck out for the first out. Then John Tepedino singled to bring home Denier and Palica flew out to deep right field with Valle scoring from second.

Jake Daniel with a homer and a single, Joe Anthony with a double and a single and Bob Hess with two singles led the 10-hit attack off the four Greenie hurlers.

Willie Mauney with two doubles and John Tepedino and Sindo Valle with two singles each paced the 10-hit attack off the two Bear hurlers.

The Greenies travel to New Bern tonight to meet the Bears in a return game and return home Wednesday night to play the Rocky Mount Leafs in the first of a two-game series.

Falls Short In Channel Effort

Folkstone, Eng., Aug. 30—(AP)—Swimmer Marie Hassan Hamad, a 30-year-old Egyptian army warrant officer, surrendered to the English Channel yesterday less than four miles from his goal.

The channel swimmer was pulled from the squally water, wind and tides after being in the water 14 hours out of Cap Gris Nez, France. The accompanying boat Britannia brought Hamad to Folkstone.

Turnesa Begins Tournament Play

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 30—(AP)—Defending Champion Willie Turnesa makes his bow in the National Amateur Golf Tournament today with the uncomfortable feeling that favorites aren't wanted around.

The little men of the links are asserting themselves early in this week-long match play marathon over the wooded, heavily trapped Oak Hill course.

They took out three British Walker Cup players in the first round yesterday and left Ted Bishop of Islington, Mass., the 1946 champion and a heavy favorite, hanging on the ropes when darkness suspended play.

Bishop, a U.S. Walker Cup member, was four holes down to John Kraft of Edgewater, Colo., with only five more to play in their interrupted match.

This joust was one of 18 which couldn't be completed after a drenching rain halted activities in the morning. All matches were to be picked up early today at the point left off.

Nearly All Golf Entries To Win In Competition

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 30—(AP)—Almost every player will win in a golf competition which started here today.

It's a sectional qualifying round for the women's National championship. There are only five entries for the four places.

These women will play 18 holes today and 18 tomorrow over the Charlotte Country Club course.

Miss Jane Thomas of Salisbury, Mrs. W. B. Cocks of Charlotte, Miss Marjorie Burns of Greensboro, Mrs. Harold W. Stone of Greenville, S. C., and Miss Priscilla Buckley of Camden, S. C.

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, one-time National women's champion, is directing the qualifying play. She is automatically qualified for the National event opening Sept. 12 at the Merion Club, Ardmore, Pa.

Ted Williams In Line For Loop's Batting Crown

Chicago, Aug. 30—(AP)—A familiar figure occupied a familiar spot in American League baseball today—Ted Williams, mighty Boston slugger, topped the batters for the fourth straight week.

With a whopping .350 average Williams, if he continues his present pace, should grab the loop batting crown for the third straight year. If the Boston strong man wins in 1949 it will be his fifth hitting title since 1941.

Williams' .350, compiled from official figures through last Sunday's games, led runnerup George Kell of Detroit by 20 points. In a third place tie were Boston's Dom Di Maggio and Bob Dillinger, of St. Louis, each with .328.

Eagles Routed Chicago 51 to 14

Chicago, Aug. 30—(AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles, looking and feeling like National Football League champions, left for Hot Springs, Ark., and a bit of rest today after routing the Chicago Cardinals, 51 to 1, in an exhibition game last night.

The "playoff" of last December's NFL disputed championship game in snow-bound Philadelphia last December when the Eagles downed the western division titlists, 7 to 0 was witnessed by 36,992 fans in Comiskey Park.

Sidelights—The win for the New Bern Bears was their 12th of the season over the Greenies as against seven losses thus far. . . . The loss for Jim Lewey was his twelfth of the season as against nine wins and the loss to New Bern now gives him a 2-5 record against the Bears this season. . . . Nell Lefler now has two wins and one loss against the Greenies for the season and has a record of eleven wins and eleven losses. . . . The Greenies had a total of 13 men stranded on the bases last night to bring the total to an even 100 for the past ten games and a total of 38 for the past three games. . . . It was erroneously reported in this column yesterday that Friday night's game with Wilson here would be the final home game of the season. This is entirely wrong as the Greenies wind up their home season here Sunday afternoon when they meet the Eagles in the first of a three-game series. . . . Manager Bill Hamons of the Bears was reinstated last Thursday by President Ray Goodmon and Bull told your writer last night that he was fined $10 for his affray over in Goldsboro at a hearing there last Wednesday.

That tension is at its peak both on the diamond and off the diamond was well illustrated last night out at Guy Smith Stadium. Greenville, working hard to regain that fourth place position in the league standings which they lost during the weekend, are playing under one of the most terrible strains ever to come upon the players. The players themselves are fighting to the last straw to win every game as it is every game that counts from now on out that will determine the final standings. Several reports have reached the writer's ears that the players themselves have given up the fight, but you can bet your bottom dollar that all this rumor is false. The Greenies are at the wrong time in a slump and just seem not to be able to get started. That they have a chance to get back in fourth position is very much possible but only through your support can they hope to win. So to you critics who have been "beefing" that the Greenies are not trying I just want to say that it is very untrue because you fans must consider the tension and strain under which the boys are playing at the present time.

Manager Pappy Williams was ejected from last night's game by Umpire Tolle following his protest of a decision in which Umpire Tolle called John Tepedino out at third on a pick off by the catcher. Manager Pappy Williams was really mad at that decision and he let Tolle know it by the expressions registered on his face during the argument. It was this decision by Umpire Tolle which seemed to snap the Greenies' vim and vigor and easily proved the turning point in the game. However, Greenville fans demonstrated one of the most un-sportsmanship demonstrations seen here in many a day following the contest. As the game was over several fans piled out onto the playing field in an effort to get at Umpire Tolle and gave him their viewpoint on his decision at third base. It was truly disgraceful when the police force had to be called to the ball park to insure the umpires that they would reach home safely and only

Ball Club Wants Pappy Next Year

W. Z. Morton, president of the Greenville Baseball club, let it be known last night that the club owners want Fred ("Pappy") Williams to pilot next year's edition of the Greenies. The announcement was greeted by cheers at Guy Smith stadium. Morton's statement said in part, "The owners of the club give him their full vote of confidence and approval."

Bantam Champ Is Handed Licking

Washington, Aug. 30—(AP)—An unknown youngster, Jimmy Cooper, is the boxing world's newest luminary.

He scored a ten round decision last night over world bantamweight champion Manuel Ortiz in a non-title bout.

Johnny Rogers, the champ's manager, said after the fight that he is willing to have Ortiz sign for a title fight against Cooper after a trip abroad. Ortiz is scheduled to leave for Europe on Sept. 3 for a six-week tour.

"Manuel wasn't in top shape tonight," said Rogers, "but I don't want to take anything away from Cooper. He fought a brilliant fight and certainly earned a shot at the title."

Cooper's manager, Billy Banks, said he hoped to pit his boy against Ortiz if Cooper, who is normally a featherweight, can scale down to the 118-pound limit. In last night's fight, Cooper weighed 125 1-2 pounds, while Ortiz was 12 pounds overweight at 129.

after taking every precaution from the irate fans were they able to leave the diamond—and this was in a police car. During the course of the game Base Umpire Tolle had several more close decisions which appeared to be against Greenville. But, as stated at first, the Greenies are playing under great tension and hard luck and under such conditions both players and fans are at a high pitch during each and every contest.

The following item was handed your writer by Mr. W. Z. Morton, president of the Greenville Baseball Club, Inc., and is self-explanatory:

"The rumor which started yesterday, that Pappy Williams had been told he would not be our manager next season, is an error without foundation, and that if we are in organized ball next year, we very much want him to pilot our team. The owners of the club give him their full vote of confidence and approval." The above statement was signed by Mr. Morton.

Charlie (Morekonich) Metro, ex-Athletic outfielder, hit .351 for Twin Falls, Idaho, in the Class C Pioneer League in 1948. He's the Yankee farm team manager.

Add Willie Jones to the list of sluggers. One of the Phillie third baseman's drives bounced off Bob Elliott's kneecap and sidelined the Brave.

Summer League Finals Thursday

Greenville's juvenile baseballers will square away in the Summer League finals here Thursday night in a triple header starting at Guy Smith Stadium at seven o'clock. League Director Bo Farley announced this morning.

The three games, featuring the top teams in the Mite, Middle, and Junior leagues, will be seven inning affairs and Farley said he expected the first game to be getting under way at around nine o'clock.

The Third Street Cubs and the Training School Giants will battle for the Mite League play-off crown in the opening game. Boys up to 10 years old play in the Mite loop.

In the Middle League, which features boys up to 12 years old, the Training School Red Sox and the West Greenville Wolves will be pitted against each other.

The Yanks of Training School and the Reds of West Greenville will be featured in the Junior League game.

Batting Average Drops Slightly For Robinson

New York, Aug. 30—(AP)—Jackie Robinson's batting average may not be slipping as fast as you can say Jackie Robinson—But it has dropped fifteen points in the last two weeks.

The speedy Negro second baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers still is first in the National League, however, with a clubbing percentage of .349 including Sunday's games.

That leaves him a slim margin of 21 points over second place Enoch Slaughter of St. Louis, which just goes to show that Jackie was leading the batters by a country mile before he hurt his leg three weeks ago and began to slide down the scale.

Slaughter boosted his own average three points during the week ending Sunday for a seven day gain of a dozen points on Robinson.

Graduation Played Havoc With Phantom Grid Team

A light and inexperienced Greenville High School football squad settled down to heavy drills yesterday afternoon as Coach Bo Farley tried to round a team into shape for his September 16 opening with the Aces of Edenton High School here.

The 1949 graduation raised havoc with the Phantom squad last spring, snatching all but three of the 1948 season starters from further high school play.

Only one man was left in the Phantom backfield—Jimmy Cox. And Cox, who played outstanding ball last season, will probably have to bear the brunt of the Greenville backfield attack this year.

Two Junior Varsity halfbacks are making bids for starting berths with the varsity this season. Both boys, Walter Perry and Kent Lee, are light, weighing 145 and 140 respectively. They are both halfback prospects.

Paul Conway, a center last season, is currently being tried at fullback to add power to the backfield.

The Phantom line is just so many open positions to date. It lost everything last year but Mac Crawford, a guard, and Louis Howe, a center, holdover from the '48 squad.

Every end on the team graduated, including Raby Edwards, Harvey Ward and Sam Northrop. Also missing from the lineup is Bobby Fleming, all-conference lineman last year.

Leading candidates for guard positions are Jim Brady, who played some ball here two years ago; Leon Moore and Julian Vainwright; Crawford, Dallas Clark and a new 260 pound boy named Strickland will scrap it out for the guard positions, along with a number of others who are expected to be out when school begins.

The Phantoms, who had a 2-7-1 record last year, face an eight-game card this season.

By EUGENE PRICE
All practice sessions for the 1949 edition of the East Carolina Pirate football eleven will be closed, Coach William E. (Bill) Dole announced last night.

The former Fayetteville High School coach, whose teams won statewide recognition, declared that throughout the season, the Buccaneers would workout behind closed doors.

"Your opponents scout you and learn everything about you," Dole explained. "You never can tell who might be on the sidelines watching you," he added.

Dole said he expected some 50 candidates to report for fall drills September 1. He confirmed that a number of new boys would be scrapping for starting berths but cautioned against over-optimism on the part of Pirate fans.

"It's going to take us a couple of years to get a good team going," he warned.

The new Buccaneer mentor announced that the team would run from the T formation.

Managers of the football team started work yesterday getting equipment and the practice field in shape for the practice sessions.

Bill Voiselle of the Braves drew a $500 fine in 1945 as a Giant when he tossed a home run ball to Johnny Hopp, then with the Cardinals.

Shortstop Alvin Dark of the Boston Braves started out with a bang this spring. In his first seven games he made 16 hits.

The HOUSE on LILAC STREET

by FRED BAYARD

Chapter 21

Derris took a taxi from Pennsylvania Station to her office. "What on earth!" Marian Turner exclaimed in amazement, one startled glance taking in Derris's unkempt appearance and ill-fitting suit. "Whatever has happened to you?" she asked.

"Marian, I'm a fugitive from a kidnapping. I've just gotten back from Connecticut, and these aren't my clothes."

"Whose are they?"

"That makes a long story, and it'll have to keep. Do you think you could find me something decent to wear in the stockroom?"

Marian returned with a dress. "By the way, Miss Martin, a Lieutenant Fletcher of the Homicide Squad has been trying to get in touch with you. He left a number for you to call."

Derris picked up the phone and then dialed the number of the Zodiac Club.

"This is Derris, Dave," she said, when Holway answered. "I got in touch with you as soon as I could."

"Where've you been?" he asked. "I was beginning to worry about you. You disappeared in the confusion last night."

"It's dreadful, what's happened. Dave? Are the police doing anything?"

"If they are, they're not telling me," he answered.

"Say, Dave, I've got to see you about something. I think it's important, and it affects you. It may even have some bearing on Cherry's death."

There was a long pause at the other end.

"Suppose we have supper somewhere? Will that you have to tell me keep till then?"

"Yes. Let's make it Zimmerman's. At seven? Is that all right?"

"Fine. I'll see you then."

She hung up as she heard the line at his end disconnected.

She found Lieutenant Fletcher's number marked on her memo pad. "Fletcher speaking," his voice came across the wire.

"This is Derris Martin, Lieutenant. I understand you wanted to speak to me?"

"Yes, Miss Martin. I'm sorry, but I'll have to ask you to do something unpleasant. Will you come down to the morgue and identify a body? We're pretty certain that it's Ruth Hamilton's, but you're about the only one we know who can make a positive identification."

"I'll come right away."

Fletcher was waiting for her when she arrived. After identifying the body, she asked, "How did she die?"

"She was strangled - probably sometime Wednesday afternoon."

"It's so horrible," Derris shuddered. "Have you any idea who did it, or why?" Derris asked.

"Not yet. A thing like that takes heading for Connecticut."

"And did he give you a reason?" Holway wanted to know.

"That's what's bothering me. He implied I was in some danger. I couldn't pin him down. He just said that I would be safer out of the city for a few days."

"Derris, tell me something. The day you met him at Lilac Street was that the first time you'd seen him?"

"Yes," Derris lied.

"And you haven't any idea why he'd act this way?"

"No. I thought perhaps you might have an idea. I'm terribly confused - first Cherry's death, then the discovery of Ruth's body."

"I heard about that from the chap at the place where she worked," Holway replied. "I'm very sorry, Derris."

He didn't speak for a moment.

"Tell me something. You say you went to Connecticut. What made you come back?"

Derris shook her head. "I can't tell you that, Dave. Let's just say I had a hunch and leave it at that."

On leaving the restaurant, Derris refused his offer to drop her somewhere. They parted at the door. Holway to return to the night club and she to go home.

She was still thinking about Holway's reaction to her questions as she started across Forty-sixth St. Afterwards, when she tried to remember, she didn't know just how it had happened. With only the momentary warning of her sixth sense, she saw the car rushing at her, careening wildly, almost out of control. For a brief flash she caught a glimpse of the driver's face, as she made a futile effort to get back to the curb. She wasn't quite quick enough as the edge of the fender dealt her a glancing blow, and darkness blotted out the lights.

The car made no effort to stop but, straightening out, tore on into the night.

Announce Cause Power Failure

Power interruptions in the business section of Greenville late yesterday afternoon were caused by the failure of a transformer unit in the uptown area which became flooded about 5:00. Greenville Utilities officials said today.

Plant officials said that the transformer unit is one which is located underground on 4th Street. Recently the unit has become overloaded and water has been used to cool the unit and a portable pump has been used to pump out the water. By this means the unit could stand the overload safely.

Yesterday afternoon the pump broke down and the rising water flooded the transformer, shutting off power. Service crews began pumping water from the station and a pumper from the Greenville Fire Department was called in to help clear out the water. In an hour or so service was restored. The storm the previous night had no effect on the operations of the transformer. Utilities officials said.

Not So Hot

The highest temperature here yesterday was 90 degrees, 15 degrees lower than the 105 mark on the same day last year. Mrs. Carl E. Maiden, local observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, reported today.

Lowest temperature here last night was 72 degrees. At 8 a.m. today it was 75.

Incidentally, August 29 one year ago was the hottest day ever recorded by the Weather Bureau here, the records show.

Begin Probe Of Riot At Concert

Peekskill, N. Y., Aug. 30—(AP)—Under orders from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Westchester county officials went to work today on a probe of the riot that broke up a concert by Negro singer Paul Robeson.

Dewey's order for an investigation came after Robeson and his backers charged they were not given adequate police protection for the scheduled concert in a wooded picnic grove.

The Governor's press secretary said hundreds of telegrams and letters were received in Albany, and added:

"Despite the fact that there has been no formal complaint on the Peekskill meeting received at our office, the Governor today, through his assistant counsel, Lawrence E. Walsh, has requested the district attorney of Westchester county, Fred W. Ruscoe, for a complete report of the meeting."

Fanelli immediately promised a thorough probe, and said it would take several days before he can report back.

"I abhor violence of any kind," Fanelli said. The rioting, he said, was "most regrettable." In a statement he declared:

"The facts that I now have would indicate that the demonstration by the veterans association was peaceful and orderly, and that after they disbanded the pro-Robesonites provoked the violence when (William) Secor was stabbed by one of their number."

The riot took place when a parade of veterans groups, protesting the Robeson concert, clashed head on with groups of pro-Robeson concert goers.

Grant Non-Suit In Assault Case

Donald Ponds, youth charged with assault with intent to rape and assault on a female, entered a plea of guilty yesterday to a charge of registering in a hotel with the girl under the guise of man and wife.

The plea was entered following an agreement that a motion for non-suit would be granted on the assault charges.

Presiding Judge R. M. Parker ordered the man to pay $100 and court costs.

Ponds was charged with bringing 16-year-old Marie Bright, of Tarboro, to Bethel on the night of April 5, 1948, and assaulting her in a hotel room.

The girl, under examination, admitted that the man merely took her by the arm when she started to leave the building. She said he made no further advances.

She said she had an argument with her father concerning her going to a movie and left home. Ponds testified, offered to find her a room in a Bethel hotel. The girl said when they got in the room Ponds started undressing and told her they were registered as man and wife. It was then that she tried to leave and he took her by the arm.

The girl pulled away and summoned law enforcement officers.

In other court action yesterday Judge Parker put Nora Jones, who was said to have had three divorces and one annulment and wound up with two husbands, under three years probation and ordered her to pay court costs.

The Air Force . . .

(Continued from page one) promptly turned to the west for aid—and got it. Washington approved his purchase of equipment for a big steel mill, and the indications are that he also will get a large loan from the World Bank.

So that seems to reduce the possibilities to the one of inspiring within Yugoslavia a revolt which might be assisted surreptitiously and unofficially by neighboring Red satellites. Observers recognize that this may be what Russia now is maneuvering for. In any event there is no doubt that heavy pressure is being brought to arouse discontent among the Yugoslavs with their government.

But—the Senate did something else which may not make sense to you:

Although voting not to let the Air Force have the $800,000,000 to build toward 70 groups, it "authorized" 70 groups, just as the House had.

But, in Congress, to "authorize" something without voting the money to carry it out is meaningless. It's another way of the Senate's saying:

"We think the 70-group idea is good, boys. But we won't give you the money to start building toward 70 groups now."

Meanwhile, the Air Force itself, which now has 54 groups—it had 58 at the start of the year—has cut back its groups to 46.

'Just Smoking'

Los Angeles, Aug. 30—(AP)—Longshoreman Jose Venegas, 48, was only smoking a cigarette, but the judge gave him 180 days in jail.

The reason: He was smoking aboard a ship, the Grace Line freighter Santa Juana, loaded with 7660 cases of dynamite, 2000 kegs of blasting powder and 14 cases of dynamite caps.

Cases Tried Monday In Police Court

The following cases were tried in Police Court Monday:

Joe Moore, Jr., colored, charged with an assault on a minor, was given 30 days in jail or pay $15 costs.

Affray: Watson H. Weaver and William M. Cherry, each paid $15 costs.

Reckless driving: Robert W. Worthington, $15 costs.

Sanctuary was given 30 days in jail or pay $15 for being drunk.

Molly Cox, drunk and disorderly, 30 days at County Home.

Fornication and adultery: Hezekiah B. Anderson and Magnolia Hugue, both colored, each paid $25.

Johnnie Stanley, no operator's license, 30 days in jail or pay $25 and costs.

Willie Earl Green, colored, was not guilty of larceny.

Tony Grey, colored, paid $15 for an assault on a female.

Edward T. Williams, colored, paid $10 for not stopping his car at a "stop" sign.

Jail Gets Cook In Assault Trial

Dora Greene, Greenville Negro woman who was sentenced to serve nine years for assaulting a man who testified against her son at a court hearing and who admitted killing "a stranger" by thrusting a fork through his heart, was sentenced to six months in the Pitt County jail this morning after pleading guilty to charges of assaulting Rosa Mason, colored, with a knife.

Judge R. Hunt Parker meted out the sentence with a recommendation that Dora be assigned to duties in and around the jail, especially as cook.

The Negro was labeled "a bad actor" by private prosecutor Hoover Taft, who declared that a number of witnesses had refused to come to court to testify against her "because they are afraid."

Taft painted the Negro as one who "has no regard for human life and no regard for the courts." He urged the judge to "put her where she belongs."

Defense Attorney S. O. Worthington, who entered a plea of guilty after testimony was completed in the case, called attention to Dora's recent record which he charged was good. He explained that after her early scrapes with the law, Dora has been trying to do better. He asked that she be given consideration.

The case in which Lionel Gorham, Negro, is charged with setting fire to an automobile while another Negro was asleep inside, began late in the morning session.

James Dupree, who was sleeping in the car at the time of the fire, was the first to take the stand. He told the court in effect that he and Gorham had a short argument and that he later went to sleep in the car. He was awakened early in the morning to find the car was on fire.

Bills, which he says Gorham saw him place in the car, had been taken out, Dupree alleges.

The case was continuing as this story was being written.
