Britain To Seek Less Restriction

Will Ask For Free Hand In Spending Marshall Plan Dollars; Morgenthau Says No Country Can Now Compete With U. S. Production

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—Britain will ask permission to spend Marshall plan dollars anywhere she likes—not just in the United States—as one way out of her financial crisis, officials said today.

Diplomatic authorities said British Foreign Minister Bevin—on his way here for three-power talks on Britain's economic plight—is convinced his country shortly will have to dip into her dwindling reserves for millions of dollars unless Marshall plan policies are relaxed.

Bevin and Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, are due in New York tonight aboard the British liner Muretania for the critical British-American-Canadian financial conference opening tomorrow at the State department.

Top diplomats of the three governments hope to devise a series of stop-gap measures at these discussions to keep Britain's condition from getting worse. But they are reported pessimistic about finding an immediate formula for solving Britain's long-range problem.

Former Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., said Britain's basic trouble is that American industry has achieved such a phenomenal peak of efficiency and productivity that no country in western Europe can compete with it.

In an article appearing in the Washington Post, Morgenthau said: "It is not that they are less efficient than before, but simply that we have so tremendously increased our own efficiency that they have been outdistanced."

He added that no real solution will be found for Britain's problems until that "Fundamental maladjustment which has been developing for many years" has been solved.

The former cabinet official brushed off criticism of the British Socialist Government as "superficial." The Socialists didn't increase Britain's consumption of goods, he said; he said: "all they did was—cut the pie into a larger number of pieces."

Bevin is reported keenly interested in the Marshall plan phase of the discussions because it may provide a way for Britain to buy Canadian wheat, flour, cheese, bacon and eggs, woodpulp and paper with American dollars.

Paul Hoffman, the economic co-operation administrator, has refused in the past to permit Marshall plan money to be used for this purpose because virtually all these commodities are available in the United States.

As a result, Britain has been forced to use its own dollars to buy Canadian produces. Last year, diplomatic officials said, Britain spent about $110,000,000 of its reserves in this fashion.

Bevin is reported to believe Hoffman must now change his attitude on that point.

Hurricane Isn't Going Anywhere

Miami, Fla., Sept. 6—(AP)—A giant tropical hurricane with winds up to 120 miles an hour churned the Atlantic some 400 miles south southeast of Bermuda today with virtually no forward movement.

Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster here, said the gargantuan storm "apparently is just wallowing around hundreds of miles from anywhere."

Peace Pact For Japs

MacArthur's Call For Negotiation Of Treaty; Stubborn Complications; Time Is Approaching When Something Must Be Done; Japan Has Observed Commitments

General Douglas MacArthur's renewed call for negotiation of a peace treaty with Japan is couched in such laudatory terms regarding that defeated country's progress as to demand careful consideration by the allied powers.

There are, however, stubborn complications to be overcome before headway can be made toward implementing the General's recommendation. Divergence of views among the allies thus far have precluded a settlement.

Record-Breaking Holiday Death Toll For Nation

Over 500 Accidental Deaths Recorded; Tragic Toll Shocks Safety Chief

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation today grimly counted a record breaking accidental death toll for the three-day Labor Day holiday.

The full count of fatalities was not yet tabulated but the more than 500 persons who lost their lives in accidents over the extended holiday was the largest for any Labor Day weekend in history.

The highways took the heaviest toll. Of the 505 persons killed in violent accidents, 379 lost their lives in automobile mishaps. The traffic toll was nearly 100 above the estimated 290 probable death toll made by the National Safety Council.

Forty five persons drowned and 81 died in accidents of miscellaneous causes.

The fatalities in an Associated Press survey covered the period from 6 p.m. (local time) Friday to midnight Monday.

This year's Labor Day total compared with the previous high of 436 over the 1937 Labor Day holiday. The record-breaking toll for a Labor Day holiday weekend followed the all time high in accidental deaths over the 1948 Fourth of July when 711 persons died violently. The all-time mark is the 761 fatalities over the four-day Christmas period in 1946.

Some 30,000,000 automobiles crowded the nation's highways, the Safety Council estimated, and the nation observed the final holiday weekend of the summer season. Weather generally was fair.

Chicago, Sept. 6—(AP)—Ned H Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, said today the record accident death toll of Labor Day weekend was "enough to make every decent American sick of heart and boiling mad."

"A nation posing as civilized has just given one of the most shocking peacetime exhibitions of mass indifference, recklessness and insatiable craving to show off that the world has ever seen," he said in a statement.

"America has ironically and tragically celebrated a holiday dedicated to the advancement and welfare of its citizens by wantonly killing more than 500 of those citizens in accidents that need never have happened."

"Approximately 400 of these holiday victims died in traffic accidents—the biggest holiday traffic death toll in history."

"A holiday record like this makes a mockery of the term, 'Pleasure Driving.' When the streets and highways are used like this, driving is a grim business."

Miss Jean Steele, Home Agent of McDowell County for the past ten years, has been appointed Pitt County Home Demonstration Agent, succeeding Mrs. Fred T. Langford, county officials disclosed today.

Miss Steele, recommended to the local commissioners and the Executive Board of the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs by Miss Ruth Current, State Home Agent, will assume her duties here September 16, officials said.

The new agent, a University of Tennessee graduate, served for sometime as Tennessee State Home Economics supervisor. She assumed the duties of the office in the absence of Miss Marie White, former regional supervisor of Home Economics, Washington, D. C.

Miss Steele was an outstanding vocational teacher at the Pi Beta Phi School at Gatling where she worked both with the school girls and the women in that region.

Miss Steele's first work was in the vocational field in Guilford County. From there she did adult education under the State Department of Education in Gastonia for three years.

The new agent received her B. S. degree in home economics from the University of Tennessee. She did summer school work at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and graduate work at Teachers College and the University of Tennessee.

Scholarship Fund Gets VFW Help

Local Post Plans Dance; Split Proceeds With Drive

The Greenville Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a dance to benefit the East Carolina Teachers College Educational Foundation fund drive September 17, officials disclosed today.

Ray Anthony and his orchestra will be featured at the dance which is expected to give a sizeable monetary boost to the drive to raise $10,000 for athletic scholarships at East Carolina.

Larry Averett, past commander of the VFW and active figure in securing name bands for local dances, announced today that a concert would be given from eight until nine o'clock on the evening of the dance. The dance will get under way at nine, it was explained.

Five vocalists will be featured by the band along with Ray Anthony nationally known as "The Man with the Horn."

Anthony's 20-piece organization of music makers are starred in numerous recordings by Capitol Records.

The dance will come on the heels of the East Carolina football opener with the Cherry Point Marines. The game will be here the Thursday preceding the dance.

IT'S DANGEROUS

Wilson, N.C., Sept. 6—(AP)—Judge John J. Burney today fined Ralph Eatman $50 and costs for drunken driving. At the time of his arrest, Eatman was driving a mule and wagon.

Windows of hundreds of vehicles were smashed in scattered attacks spread over many miles of roads in the suburbs 40 miles north of New York City. At least eight autos and an empty bus were overturned.

Robeson charged yesterday that many of the 10,000 concert-goers were "attacked by arms of the state and local government." He called the concert crowd "peacefully assembled American citizens."

Lashed To Mast

Chicago, Sept. 6—(AP)—The partly dressed body of a young woman—bruised and bloody—was found lashed to the broken mast of a half submerged sailboat adrift on Lake Michigan today.

There was no trace of her three sailing companions. Chief Warrant Boatswain Kenneth Foster, U.S.C.G., said Mrs. Gladys Swenson identified the body as that of her daughter, Mrs. Laura Netzer, 22, Chicago, a recent bride.

Robeson Backers Protest Violence

Sympathizers Assail Failure To Cope With Rioting

Peekskill, N. Y., Sept. 6—(AP)—Paul Robeson supporters, protesting the violence that swept the countryside after his concert here Sunday, have called on President Truman to help "restore law and order in New York State."

But Westchester County District Attorney George M. Fanelli, who had over-all command of a force of 900 law enforcement officers, says they did it "magnificently."

The left-wing Negro singer's sympathizers also have demanded the impeachment of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Westchester County officials for not preventing the five-hour rioting.

More than 100 persons were injured as anti-leftist demonstrators hurled rocks and other missiles at autos and buses carrying the concert crowd home.

Pitt Board Of Commissioners In Meet Monday

Review Of Grand Jury's Recent Report Highlights Regular Session

By CHESTER WALSH
The Pitt County Board of Commissioners, in session at the courthouse yesterday, transacted considerable business. The board's review of the grand jury's recent report criticizing conditions at the County Home featured the meeting.

The board had instructed Dr. T. G. Basnight, county health officer to check on health conditions at the home and make a detailed report on two suspected cases of tuberculosis there. The commissioners ordered Supt. O. J. Tucker to have the Greenville Utilities Commission inspect the electric wiring at the home and report what is needed for improved safety. The board also ordered that a plumber inspect the plumbing facilities and report on what is needed to make the plumbing equipment sanitary and in conformity with state health laws.

The commissioners instructed County Welfare Officer K. T. Futrelle to make a special inventory of food supplies on hand at the County Home and make recommendations as to what foods are needed for proper nourishment of the inmates. The board also ordered that the telephone line to the superintendent's home be extended to the main building of the County Home.

Numerous delegations appeared before the County Commissioners with petitions for improvements of secondary roads in various parts of the county. The petitions were approved and they were forwarded to the chairmen of the State Highway Commission.

Maneuvers Open For U. S. Forces

More Than 110,000 Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen In Exercise

Nuernberg, Germany, Sept. 6—(AP)—America's fighting strength was unleashed at dawn today in the greatest postwar display of military power against a mythical foe from the east.

It was the first maneuver under the unified command of the three services, with more than 110,000 U.S. soldiers, sailors and airmen taking part.

The "aggressor army" launched an attack at daybreak from the east with a striking force of 18,000 men bent on plowing through the First Division to the Rhine River. The offensive forces are made up of U.S. constabulary.

The maneuvers, known as "Exercise Harvest," were planned to simulate actual wartime conditions with plane strafing the ground forces and artillery and infantry following through.

Maj. Gen. I. D. White, U.S. constabulary chief commanding the "Aggressor Army," boasted he would have dinner behind the First Division's lines.

The attackers in the mock battle theoretically had regrouped their forces and fought their way out of Czecholovakia since last spring's maneuvers.

Tito Declares Soviet Blockade Danger Defeated

New York, Sept. 6—(AP)—The New York Times today quoted Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia as saying communist economic pressure against his country had failed.

C. L. Sulzberger, chief European correspondent of the newspaper, said the Yugoslav leader told him in an interview that the economic blockade of his country by Russia and his satellites no longer represented a threat.

The Marshal, the Times said, appeared certain no war threatened the world and said: "I would like to point out that there is no reason for people abroad to be upset or alarmed if we ourselves are not."

Tito, said the Times, expressed confidence that the country's five-year economic plan would be completed on schedule in 1951 and predicted that this year's excellent harvest would further improve the country's food position.

Charge Husband Abducted Bride

Raleigh, N.C., Sept. 6—(AP)—A young husband today faced trial on a charge of abducting his bride. Magistrate H. A. Bland said he had ordered Elma Nipper, 24, held under $1,000 bond after finding probable cause on a warrant charging Nipper with "inducing a minor girl, Bobbie Lee Horton, under 14 years of age, to leave her mother."

Mass Slaughter By Crazy Man

One Engine Gone

Honolulu, Sept. 6—(AP)—The giant flying boat Philippine Mars with 54 persons aboard limped toward Honolulu today after losing an engine 440 miles out.

It was conveyed by an air-sea rescue flying fortress from Hawaii and a Pan-American Strato-Cruiser. The Strato-Cruiser sighted the Mars after the big ship sent an urgent message to Hawaii.

The Hawaiian Sea Frontier said the plane radioed that its No. 1 engine fell off at 4:55 a.m. (Honolulu time).

There were 49 passengers and a crew of 14 aboard.

Farmville Man Is Suicide Victim

James E. Owens Dies Of Shotgun Blast Monday

A prominent Farmville tobacco farmer, despondent since the death of his wife a year ago, committed suicide yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff J. L. Mills reported this morning that James Edward Owens, 60, died as the result of a 12-gauge shotgun blast shortly after five o'clock Monday afternoon.

Coroner G. H. Rouse declared the man committed suicide and no inquest would be necessary.

The body was found in a pea patch near the Owens home, about one mile from Farmville. Relatives of the man and workers in a nearby field said they heard the gun fire but thought nothing of it at the time. Upon their arrival at the house some time later, they discovered the body in the garden.

Owens had apparently placed the barrel of a double barrel shotgun to his forehead and pulled the trigger, sending a load of number six shot tearing through his head. The whole top of the man's head was blown off, Deputy Mills said.

The sheriff and coroner were summoned immediately and the death by suicide decision was readily made.

Owens, father of five boys and two girls, left no suicide note. It was reported that he had been "worrying a lot" since the death of his wife about a year ago.

The body was removed to the Farmville funeral home pending funeral arrangements.

REINFORCEMENTS

Singapore, Sept. 6—(AP)—More than 1,500 reinforcements for Macao, tiny Portuguese colony on the South China coast, reached Singapore today.

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—A board of admirals began a search today into the full origin of a once-anonymous document which touched off a Capitol Hill uproar by hinting at fraud in Air Force bomber buying.

One Navy official, Cedric R. Worth, has been suspended for writing the document about B-36 purchasing and passing it on to House members. Now the three-man court of inquiry is trying to find out whether any other Navy men had a hand in it.

The court, headed by Adm. Thomas C. Kinkaid, was reported to have asked only two or three little-known witnesses to appear at the first sessions starting this morning.

Young War Vet Goes Berserk, Shoots And Kills Twelve; Five Others Wounded; Battles Police, Captured Unharmd

Camden, N.J., Sept. 6—(AP)—A 26-year-old war veteran went berserk today and shot and killed 12 persons.

Five others were wounded. Detective Marshall Thompson said the busy street on which the mass killings took place "looked like a battlefield."

Bodies were strewn all over the street. Killed in the 45-minute blast of bullets were two small boys, five women and five men.

Police authorities here said they believe it was the greatest mass slaughter on a city street in the nation's history.

The veteran, identified by police as Harold Unruh, of 3202 River Road, barricaded himself in a second floor room and exchanged shots with more than 50 policemen until they brought him out with tear gas. He was captured, unharmd.

Under heavy guard, police took the man to headquarters. They had to fight off an angry mob of more than 1,000 who screamed "Lynch him and 'Hang him now!'"

Identity of all the victims was not established immediately. Among those shot were a druggist and his wife, a shoe repair man, a barber and a young bride.

Detective Marshall Thompson said the shooting in this industrial city in southern New Jersey across the Delaware River from Philadelphia began at 8:30 a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The battle lasted less than three quarters of an hour. It was 9:15 a.m. (EST) when Unruh was captured.

The dead and wounded were taken to Cooper Hospital, which for a time resembled a field station at a battlefield.

All available doctors and nurses were pressed into service as the litters were brought in.

'Junior Patrol' Catch Fugitive

Charlotte, N.C., Sept. 6—(AP)—The Providence road Junior Patrol showed police how it should be done yesterday.

A hit-and-run driver took to the bushes after ramming a car, although nobody was hurt.

Capt. Joe Whitley of the county police summoned his men to the scene but a number of Junior patrolmen entered the woods ahead of the cops. An hour later they emerged with the fugitive.

A mighty good job, said Whitley, in spite of the rain.

Admirals Begin Search For Origin B-36 Attack

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—A board of admirals began a search today into the full origin of a once-anonymous document which touched off a Capitol Hill uproar by hinting at fraud in Air Force bomber buying.

One Navy official, Cedric R. Worth, has been suspended for writing the document about B-36 purchasing and passing it on to House members. Now the three-man court of inquiry is trying to find out whether any other Navy men had a hand in it.

The court, headed by Adm. Thomas C. Kinkaid, was reported to have asked only two or three little-known witnesses to appear at the first sessions starting this morning.

Their identities indicated the investigating board wanted first to find who Worth—suspended special assistant to Navy Undersecretary Dan A. Kimball—talked to, and about what.

One of the witnesses was Cmdr. Thomas Davies, Worth, in testifying before the House Armed Services Committee, mentioned he had talked with Davies. Another was Worth's secretary, Chief Yeoman Virginia Charles, 28-year-old wife of Easton, Pa.

Worth himself, by terms of Secretary of the Navy Matthews' order establishing the court of inquiry was an "interested party" who could testify or produce witnesses of his own.

Under grilling of the House committee, Worth admitted authorship of the unsigned memorandum—and repudiated all the charges he had put into it.

That Word 'Statism'

Dictionary Gives Word 'Statism' A Harmless And Encouraging Definition, But To Hear Truman, Byrnes, Hoover And Eisenhower It's Pretty Bad; Confusing

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—They got me over a barrel and all confused me.

I mean President Truman, General Eisenhower, former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, and Senators Bridges, Pepper and Capehart.

They've been throwing around the word "statism" like it was a bad word that we don't want any part of.

But I looked it up in the dictionary—and there "Statism" sounds like a nice word about something that's always been here.

Byrnes, who once was one of the most powerful Democrats close to Mr. Truman, made a speech June 18.

He warned that "We are going down the road to statism." And he called for a cut in federal power and spending.

Fifty-Two Girls In Beauty Event

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 6—(AP)

Fifty-two blondes and brunettes—but no redheads—today begin the annual battle for the Miss America crown and all that goes with it.

For a week the girls will compete in various phases of the contest. And the final judgment on beauty must be on the up and up—no "fai-see" or padding in the bathing suits is allowed.

Contestants cannot drink intoxicating liquors or see their boy friends during the contest under the Miss America rules. Each will be chaperoned by a local hostess.

The girls represent 46 states, four big cities, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Canada. Only three states—Delaware, Idaho and Rhode Island—don't have an entry. New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Washington each sent an entry.

The pageant opens this afternoon at 3 p. m. with a Mardi Gras parade on the boardwalk. The first preliminary contest is set for tomorrow night at Convention Hall. The field will be narrowed to 15 on Saturday night, and from these the new Miss America will be chosen.

GUAM GOVERNOR

Mrs. Donald Edward McKay

McKay-Nelson

Hollis, Long Island.—Miss Nancy Joyce Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thurman Nelson of Hollis, Long Island, became the bride of Mr. Donald Edward McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. McKay also of Hollis, in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon, August 27th, at 2 o'clock in St. Gabriel's Episcopal church. The Rev. Robert Y. Condit officiated. The ceremony took place against a background of white gladioli, asters, southern amilax, palms and burning tapers. White satin ribbons marked the places of honor.

Mrs. Wadie Ward of Bethel, North Carolina, aunt of the bride, accompanied by the church organist, Mr. Charles Emke, sang "Because," "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white bridal gown fashioned with chantilly lace bodice and sleeves ending in points over the hands and silk organza skirt ending in a full sweeping train. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was attached to a cantilly lace Dutch cap. She carried a nosegay of white sweetheart roses centered with a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a golden topaz necklace, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Richard Matheson of Baldwin, Long Island, was matron of honor. She was dressed in a powder blue satin gown and wore a matching net Dutch cap and mits. She carried a nosegay of American beauty roses and blue delphinium tied with American beauty ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Janice Roberson of Bethel, North Carolina, Miss Kay Van Nortwick of Greenville, North Carolina, both cousins of the bride, and Miss Eileen Koster of Hollis. They wore identical gowns of flamingo satin with matching net Dutch caps and mits. Their flowers were nosegays of blue delphinium and American beauty roses tied with blue satin ribbons.

The bridegroom had as his best man Mr. Richard Matheson of Baldwin, Long Island. The groomsmen were Mr. Robert McKay of Great Neck, Long Island, brother of the groom, Mr. Richard Deickman of Hollis and Mr. Alfred Teves of Southold, Long Island.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of beaded aqua crepe trimmed with inserts of matching lace and black accessories. The mother of the groom wore a powder blue crepe floor length gown and black accessories. The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Nannie L. Ward of Bethel, North Carolina, wore a black chiffon floor length gown and black accessories. Both mothers and the grandmother wore corsages of orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the north parlor and garden of the Webster apartments, New York City.

For her traveling costume Mrs. McKay wore a brown and beige wool sharkskin fall suit, brown accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. McKay, a graduate of Andrew Jackson High School, St. Albans, Long Island, studied at Hafsra College, Hempstead, Long Island where she was a member of Wreath and Foll Sorority. Mr. McKay, a graduate of Rhodes Preparatory School, New York City, and Hafsra College, served two years as a Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps and is now employed as a buyer in a Manhattan buying office.

After a two weeks honeymoon at Cape Cod, Mr. and Mrs. McKay will be at home at 221 Sunrise Lane, Levittown, Long Island.

Six Charges Against Boy After Highway Fatality

Newport, Sept. 6—(AP)—Three persons were released and another placed under $2,000 bond yesterday following a hearing on the death of a State Highway patrolman killed while pursuing a speeding automobile Saturday night.

Col. C. R. Tolar, patrol commander, announced that six charges were brought against Charles Stephenson, 16-year-old Raleigh boy, who was bound over to the October term of Carteret Superior Court.

The youth has admitted he was driving the car which Patrolman Richard Warren Jackson of Durham was chasing when the patrol car crashed into a telephone pole and tree, killing Jackson, Tolar said.

The patrol commander added that Stephenson admitted yesterday he was driving 110 miles an hour during the chase through Newport toward Morehead City.

Stephenson was charged with driving over 75 miles an hour, careless and reckless driving, accessory before and after the fact of manslaughter, hit and run driving, and falling to stop at the sound of a siren.

Hazel Garris Is Guest Speaker At Rotary Club

By WYATT BROWN

Hazel Garris, president of the 4-H State Council, presented last night at the Rotary Club meeting slides and a running commentary of her June trip to Washington, D. C., as one of two delegates from North Carolina to the National 4-H Camp.

In presenting the young 4-H leader, Mrs. Verona Lee Langford, Pitt County Home Agent, explained that the selection as delegate to the National 4-H Camp is the highest honor a 4-H member can receive.

Mrs. Langford further stated that Miss Garris is the first 4-H member from Pitt County to be so honored.

The slides showed the buildings the young people visited in the course of their sightseeing, and the national leaders such as Truman, Secretary of Agriculture Brannan and Senator Thomas. The pictures and commentary indicated the social side of the camp, too.

Miss Garris said there were discussion groups to get at more serious matters in better understanding the working of democracy.

Guests of the club last night were James Warren and Herbert Waldrop Jr. Visiting Rotarians were Past District Governor Jim Butler of Goldsboro, Henry Harding and Ray Phillips of Washington, Sam Winchester had charge of the program. Ercell Webb, club president, presided.

The highest point in the Western Hemisphere is Mount Aconcagua in Argentina—22,834 feet above sea level.

Rites Wednesday For Mrs. Nannie Barber

Mrs. Nannie Smith Barber, 72, died in Pitt General Hospital at 11:40 o'clock Monday night following several months of illness. Funeral services will be conducted at Red Oak Christian Church near Greenville at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by the pastor, the Rev. Harold Tyr, and burial will be in the Smith cemetery nearby. The body will remain at the S. G. Wilkerson & Sons Funeral Home and will be taken to the church one hour prior to the time of service.

Mrs. Barber was born and reared in the Bell Arthur community and was first married to Jesse Smith of Pitt County; he died in 1909. She was married to Agram Wyatt Barber in 1913; he died in 1939. She was a member of the Red Oak Christian Church.

Surviving are a step-daughter, Mrs. W. T. Cullipher of Williamston; four step-sons, William Leon Barber of Norfolk, Va., Thomas Elbert Barber of Greenville, Wiley Ray Barber of Reidsville, and Clarence Paul Barber of Wichita, Kansas; a niece she reared from infancy, Mrs. B. E. Newby of near Bell Arthur; nine grandchildren; three step-great grandchildren; and three sisters, Mrs. J. T. Allen of near Greenville, and Mrs. F. A. Worthington Sr. and Mrs. R. A. Worthington, both of Winterville.

Funeral Wednesday For David C. Quinn

Farmville—David C. Quinn, 20 died immediately after arrival at Woodard Herring Hospital, Wilson early Sunday night following a collision on the Wilson-Clayton highway about 20 miles from Wilson. The deceased served two years in the Army during the last war. He was a member of the Farmville Baptist Church.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday from the Farmville Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. E. W. Hoives, pastor. Interment will follow in Hollywood Cemetery, Farmville.

Surviving are his wife, the former Lucille Broussard of Washington, La., who is a Greene County public health nurse; a son, David C. Jr.; his parents, T. C. and Minnie House Quinn of Farmville; four sisters, Mrs. Earl Ham of Snow Hill, Mrs. B. F. Wood, Fannie, and Bettie of Farmville; three brothers Roland and E. L. of Farmville, and L. E. Quinn of Raleigh, Route 2.

Not Responsible

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 6—(AP)—Attorney General Harry McMullan stated in a ruling yesterday that cities are not responsible for the public schools.

The schools, he said, are the responsibility of the state and the counties.

"In the absence of a special or public legislation," the ruling stated, "cities and towns have no such responsibility and are without authority to appropriate public funds or public property for the use of public schools."

Exchange Shots On Czech Border

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 6—(AP)—American military police exchanged fire with unknown assailants in an apparently bloodless skirmish during the weekend on the Czechoslovakia border.

Constabulary officers said an armed vehicle of the U. S. zone border patrol was fired on Friday night. Then an American patrol Sunday morning found itself in what appeared to be an ambush with heavy fire coming from points near the Czechoslovakia border. The Americans fired back with pistols and machine guns. About 600 shots were exchanged.

The assailants were hidden in a wood inside the American zone. Another American patrol reinforced the first and forced the attackers to flee into Czechoslovakia. The skirmish occurred in the village of Rehan on the border near Hof. German police said that as far as they knew no one was hurt.

James W. Roebuck, Of Stokes, Awarded Diploma And 'Wings'

Midshipman James W. Roebuck USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Roebuck, of Stokes, was designated a Naval Aviator on August 31. He received his Navy wings and diploma at a ceremony conducted by Captain J. B. Dunn, USN, Commanding Officer of the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas. His wings were pinned on his uniform by Captain Dunn.

Midshipman Roebuck, a graduate of Stokes High School, in the class of 1941, has attended the North Carolina State College. He entered flight training early in 1948, at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. where he underwent pre-flight and basic flight training. Advanced aviation training was taken aboard the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi in multi-engine aircraft.

After spending a few days leave at home, he will report to the Commander, Air Forces, Atlantic Fleet, Norfolk, Va., for duty.

All meetings are scheduled for 2:30 with the exception of the Friday meeting which is set for 2:30.

Women In The Church

By MARY FOWLER

Dr. Irma Highbaugh, Methodist missionary, is secretary for Home and Family Life under the National Christian Council of China. "God should be the center of life, immovable and unchangeable," says Dr. Highbaugh. "From God the home reaches out into all of life. The home made up of parents and children should make its influence felt on friends and teachers, on neighbors, in the city, county, state and nation, and on out into the whole world. . . We are emphasizing the need for constructive ways to strengthen family life. There is deep concern in China over the disintegration of family life resulting from western ideologies, war time morality, economic stresses, which take mothers and fathers from the home, and with the mass migrations of families. These new forces tend to destroy family life in order to establish new loyalties."

The deaconess movement has been growing in the post-war years in Europe, and there is a growing desire that the deaconess be recognized as an officer of the church just as the pastor is. Representatives of 11,000 Protestant deaconesses of the Netherlands, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, England, Scotland, France, Austria and Switzerland met this summer in Zurich for conference on their work and their ecclesiastical status. They found that there is a growing understanding and need for deaconess work especially on the continent of Europe—some of this because of the post-war shortage of clergy, but also because of the peculiar services that women only can render the church.

"Discussion has been centering around the unrest among the nation of the world; we have forgotten that much of that unrest has its center in the home and in the attitudes of the mother and children in the family," says Miss Mary E. Sweeney, of Detroit, educational authority recently returned from Asia. "Unless the family is living a satisfying life, you have instability and with instability the unrest that is our concern today. What I know of village life convinces me that its greatest need is in its homes. And the mother in the village home needs help in every aspect of her life. The woman in the city has all kinds of contacts and facilities for learning and acquiring new interests, that are not available to the village woman. The imperative of the Christian Church, therefore, is to enrich the life of the village home."

Strength FOR THE DAY

BEYOND THE SENSES
Science tells us that we hear only within the limits of a few octaves.
Below the bass keys and above the treble there are sounds no human ear can detect. Likewise in color our eyes serve us only within very narrow limits.

There are realities which science acknowledge and which are beyond reach of eye and ear. No one ever saw electricity or radio waves.
Microscopes are burrowing down more deeply into the mysteries of biology and laying open wonders which we never knew existed. The telescope reaches out into the sky and brings back a wonder tale. But there is much which is evidently beyond the reach of microscope and telescope. In other words, the physical life we live is a restricted little affair. Why should man strut and pretend a knowledge he does not have? In all probability the unseen realities are vastly greater and more significant than the things we can apprehend with the five senses.

Religion deals with the unseen.
Why are we looking in faith unless we are very sure that round about us are realities which science tells us exist, but which are none the less invisible. A thing does not have to be seen to be real. The dictum of religion is: "The things that are seen are temporal, but the things that are unseen are eternal."

Around Capitol Square

AFLOAT—Thirty power boats of yachts, ranging in size from the 16-foot Beanie II to the 35-foot Hatteras, flagship of the state fisheries patrol fleet, moving gracefully and in orderly array down the inland waterway presents a lovely picture.
Gleaming white paint and polished brass contrasting with black water of the canal and green marshes along the sides, against background of farther-away forests as the channel course veered, makes a scene of beauty that thrills an up-lander, even one who frankly doesn't care much for the water.

COMPLETE—Add to that a perfect early fall day, a light film of haze softening the harsh sunlight with here and there a vagrant cloud; the mingling smells of brackish water, fishing boats and an occasional whiff of pure ozone coming across the low banks from the mighty Atlantic just beyond, and you have the physical setting for the Tar Heels Afloat cruise from Morehead City to Wrightsville last Saturday. Add again the personal comradeship of skippers, crewmen and visitors on the boats, some of them from as far as New England, and you have completed the picture of a unique institution which is fulfilling its design of familiarizing Tar Heels and out-of-staters alike with the pleasurable delights of North Carolina's cruising waters.

GROWING—This was the fourth cruise for Tar Heels Afloat, which was organized last summer. It is a loose sort of organization, with membership consisting of anybody who has a yacht or a friend who owns a yacht of any size, or who just likes to ride the rivers, sounds and canals. One trip was made last year, three this year, and already two are scheduled for 1934—one at Memorial Day to open the season and one at Labor Day weekend to close it. The Memorial Day cruise will be from Morehead City to New Bern; itinerary of the Labor Day trip has not been decided.

INDEPENDENT—Tar Heels
Afloat is getting to be big boy now.
The idea was developed by yachtmen in co-operation with Bill Sharpe, then director of the state advertising-news division. It adopted an insignia of dark blue, upon which is inscribed a white four with a black tar spot on the heel. Previous cruises were under joint sponsorship of the organization and the state news bureau. The one last weekend was handled almost entirely by the organization. So many people helped any listing would be incomplete. Perhaps there should be mentioned the names of George Eastman of Beaufort, commodore of Tar Heels Afloat; Charlie Bennett of Morehead City, past commodore;
Bob Lowe, who runs the Morehead
City chamber of commerce; Louis Hanson, commodore, and other officials of the Frying Pan Shoals Power Boat Club at Wrightsville Beach, hosts to the party Saturday night and Sunday.

CONFLICT—Tar Heels Afloat is frankly a pleasure and recreational project. It is inevitable that

Washington Letter

Washington — Cuba expects to combat juvenile delinquency the same way the Metropolitan Police does. This was decided by a delegation of 84 Cubans who have been touring the United States to get ideas on the subject. A spokesman announced they would put the plan into operation "from one end of the island to the other," as soon as they return home.

"With this system in Cuba we could knock out Fascism, dictatorship, Communism and every other type of ism," the spokesman said.
The delegation, which has been visiting American cities by bus, is composed of judges, social workers, students and other interested citizens who have been working on the problem.

The Metropolitan Police Force plan, which has attracted nation-time the trio counted 82 cents profit. No sooner had they made the count than a man came by the stand with a hard luck story. He was shoeless and claimed to have been robbed of every cent he had. The children turned over the total profits of the day to the fellow.

Next year, Clapp, Wilkerson, and Wilkerson, hope to get an early start in their business. Their business during the short time they have been in business has convinced them that they can expand next year. You never can tell; we might see a chain of sidewalk drink stands in Greenville next summer, with banners streaming, "This is a Wilk-Clapp store."

Gale Clapp is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clapp of 106 East 8th Street. Don and Steve are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. S.
Lindsay Wilkerson of 709 Evans Street.

And I thank you.

wide attention, is based on the idea of stimulating leadership and responsibility to the community through operation of a juvenile "city government." These model city governments have elected mayors and legislatures, courts where offenses are tried and all other regular agencies of a civic administration.

Regular elections are held. Private Oliver A. Cowan of the D.C. police force, who created the system, told newsmen "the toughest kid usually gets elected mayor. What we try to do," Private Cowan said, "is to get the toughest to learn to take on and solve their own problems."

The city government system, he explained, is something like the government plan instituted in Father Flanagan's "Boys' Town." Private Cowan says the kids organize baseball and football leagues and compete against each other. The boys' clubhouses are paid for and operated by the youths. There are no paid services except for the house mothers at the clubs.

"We try to get the toughest boys to take on the jobs with the most responsibility," Private Cowan went on. "For instance, we had a problem of kids breaking street lights
I found out which one was breaking the most and made him 'street light inspector.' We don't have much of a problem now."

Retake 2 Cities Held By Rebels

La Paz, Bolivia, Sept. 5—(AP)— Bolivian army units have retaken rebel-held Potosi and Sucre, the government announced.

The two cities had been strongholds of the nationalist rebel forces led by the National Revolutionary party (MNR), which plunged the country into civil war 10 days ago.
Potosi and Sucre are about 80 miles apart in the tin mining region of the Andes mountains, southeast of La Paz.

The attorney general was not a member of the President's cabinet until 1914.

Somebody Told Me...

By I. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR.

With the beginning of school yesterday one of Greenville's most progressive business establishments was forced to close down.
The Wilk-Clapp store, located on Eighth Street, just off Evans, has notified its patrons that it will be closed until school closes in June.

The Wilk-Clapp store opened with a bang week before last.
Steve Wilkerson, 11, his brother Don, 9, and Gale Clapp, 11, pooled their resources and opened for business. Their products were popcorn, Coca-Cola and Pepsi-Cola, and their stand was constructed of casket boxes from the S. G. Wilkerson and Sons funeral home.

Steve, Don and Dale realized that other Greenville children

Boyle's Column

By MAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—A 36-year-old ex-Air Force sergeant has set out to become the new boy wonder of Wall Street.

Robert M. Tanney—he said his middle initial "doesn't stand for Midas"—opened a stock market office in his own today. Thereby, he believes, he became the nation's youngest independent broker.

As yet he hasn't tried to buy a seat on the curb exchange (cost:
about $4,000) nor the stock exchange (about $40,000). But they are his next goals.

"I am primarily going after the working and middle classes for business rather than the top executives," he said.

"You don't have to be a Morgan or a Dupont to own stocks."
His idea: To ring the doorbell of the common man and convince him that buying common stock is sound investment. He plans a staff of 40 salesmen to wage a door-to-door selling campaign. He already has hired four.

Tanney, who has been buying and selling stocks since he was 11, thinks that one of the biggest things wrong with Wall Street is that too many stock salesmen merely wait for investors to phone them.

"The older men rather resent the younger generation coming in," he

Average U. S. Life Span Nearly Doubled By 1949

New York, N.Y.—Average length of life in the United States is now about 67 years, or nearly double what it was at the time of the nation's founding, and 18 years more than at the beginning of this century. Only the Scandinavian countries, Australia, and New Zealand have as favorable an experience.

These are samplings from the great wealth of facts on longevity and its relations with sex, age, marital status, body build, occupation, family history, and medical record in "Length of Life," by Dr. Louis I. Dublin, chief of statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Dr. Alfred J. Lotka, and Mortimer Spiegelman, the Metropolitan's assistant statistician.

In the book just published by The Ronald Press, New York, the authors trace and interpret the improvement in health and longevity from the earliest times to the present, with emphasis on the social and scientific influences which have brought about this progress.

The increase in our longevity, the authors indicate, was made possible not only by the advances in the medical and sanitary sciences but also by the rapid rise in our standard of living. Though not so evident, improved working conditions, better and more varied food and plenty of fresh air and sunlight around our homes have given extra years of life to our people.

The authors deal with the problems of forecasting expectation of life. They foresee a further increase of five years in the average length of life in America by 1975, but point out that the chances of surviving beyond the century mark are not expected to be much greater. One hundred years appear to be about the limit of the natural human life span.

The influence of heredity upon longevity is studied. One case mentioned of a person whose six persons and grandparents lived to a total of 599 years, and who was himself more than 90. In their discussion of the inheritance of longevity the authors conclude that, al-

See Frustration In UN Members

Karachi—(AP)—Pakistan Foreign Minister Sir Mohammad Zafrullah Khan said here that "a sense of futility and frustration prevails among the members of the United Nations organization." Writing in the Karachi weekly, the "Pakistan Horizon," Zafrullah attributed this feeling to "a weakness which has become rapidly apparent in the organization—of voting too often, particularly in the Security Council, for ulterior motives and considerations."

He explained: "If a question arises affecting colonial power, whatever the merits of the case, other colonial powers are chary of taking a decision or endorsing action, which should be resented by the colonial power concerned. Their guilty consciences make them feel that any one of them may be in the same position next year in which a brother colonial power finds itself today."

Zafrullah added: "An impression is gaining ground that successful aggression by a determined and strong nation, which can win the support or sympathy of at least one permanent member of the Security Council, is likely to be condoned and would in time obtain the seal of at least tacit approval."

Wasps May Stop Hawaii Fruit Fly

Mombassa, Kenya, East Africa—(AP)—Frank E. Skinner, a U. S. scientist, was well pleased when he left here recently. He had found and shipped to Hawaii 2,000 pupae of two kinds of African moth.

He believes the wasps can be bred in Hawaii to prey on a type of fruit fly which is new to the islands. It is believed the fly came in 1946 with American troops returning from other Pacific islands. The fly is already preying on 100 different kinds of fruit in Hawaii.

The new fly has brought a world wide search for other insects which will prey upon it. Four Hawaiian agencies and the U. S. government are helping in the search.

Vets Hope To Cut Home Costs

They've formed a corporation and bought a block of land. Plans were drawn for brick homes with two or three bedrooms. S. B. Messenger, head of the vets' group, believes the houses will average $8,000 each to build. Moving in day is some time next spring, the veterans hope.

Man Condemned For Third Time

Windsor, Sept. 6—(AP)—For the third time Raleigh Speller, 46-year-old Negro, has been condemned to death for raping a white woman.

An all-white jury convicted him yesterday in Bertie County Superior Court, after deliberating 18 minutes. Judge W. I. Halstead sentenced him to die in the gas chamber at Central Prison on Oct. 18. His two Negro lawyers filed notice of appeal to the State Supreme Court.

Speller won two new trials on the contention that Negroes had been excluded from the list of prospective jurors. During the present trial his lawyers argued unsuccessfully that Negroes had been systematically excluded from the Vance County special venire from which the jury was chosen.

Speller was charged with raping Mrs. Aubrey Davis, 56, in July, 1947. In closing arguments yesterday his lawyers claimed the charges came from "overzealous" police work. They claimed the defendant wasn't at the home of Mrs. Davis near Windsor the night of the alleged rape.

Greenies In CPL Play - Off For First Time Since '41

Sweep Both Ends Twin Bill Against Kinston By 7-1, 5-3

Mascarella Hurls Four-Hitter To Start Locals On Way As Harrison Finishes Job

By BERT MOYE
Manager Pappy Williams' Greenville Greenies swept both ends of a twin bill from the Kinston Eagles over in Kinston last night to gain full possession of fourth place in the standings in the Coastal Plain League and a right to enter the post-season series. They took the seven-inning opener by a 7-1 count and then came back to take the nightcap by a 5 to 3 score.

The Greenville Greenies took the first game of the double-header over in Kinston last night 7 to 1 behind the four-hit pitching of Art Mascarella who held the Eagles to four lone singles during the contest. In addition to his superb pitching the Greenies played heads-up ball and took advantage of every break which went in their favor to top the win.

The Greenies jumped to a three-run advantage in the second frame, and from then on were never in danger. Sindo Valle walked and went to second when Steve Denier was safe on an attempted sacrifice. Nick Palica then forced Denier and Art Mascarella drew a walk to load the bases. Paul Strausser's grounder was error by Steve Collins allowing Valle to score. Palica stole home for the second run, and Mascarella crossed the plate on Hy Chapin's wild pitch.

The Eagles saved themselves from a shutout when they put across their lone run in the second frame on two hits sided by two Greenville miscues. Ray Rosenwinkle led off with a single and then when Jerry Frye singled into centerfield the Greenies went wild with Strausser and Denier both making wild throws and allowing Rosenwinkle to score from first base on the hit.

The Greenies added three more runs in the fifth frame on John Tepedino's double, four Eagle errors, two walks, a wild pitch and three stolen bases. They scored their final run of the game in the sixth inning when Charlie Graham singled. Tepedino walked and Pappy Williams singled to bring home Graham.

Mascarella, in addition to pitching four-hit ball, issued only two free passes to first and struck out a total of seven Eagles. His four hits were scattered among as many players.

Max Pressman started on the mound for the Eagles, but was taken out in the fifth frame after yielding two hits and six Greenie runs. Hy Chapin pitched the remainder of the game for the Eagles. All of the Greenies' four hits were scattered among as many players with John Tepedino getting a double for the only extra base knock of the game.

The Greenies came back in the second game of the double-header to take this game by a 5 to 3 win as Bobby Harrison held the Eagles to six scattered hits to gain his eighth win of the season.

The Greenies jumped into the lead in the first frame by pushing across two markers. Paul Strausser singled, advanced to second on Tepedino's infield out and Manager Pappy Williams singled to bring home Strausser. Mauney followed with a long single into right field and Pappy Williams crossed the plate.

The Eagles came back in their first frame to put across a run when Hollis singled and Harry Soufas hit a high fly to Tepedino who dropped the ball, allowing Hollis to score.

The Eagles went out in front 3-2 by scoring two more runs in the fifth frame when Collins singled. Brooks sacrificed him to second, Mason singled, bringing home Collins, and came home when Palica dropped Hedrick's fly into left field. John Tepedino's double into left field and Pappy Williams' single to bring home Tepedino gave the Greenies a run in the sixth frame to knot the count at 3-3.

However, the Greenies came back in the seventh frame to score two more runs for what proved their margin of victory. Palica walked, Strausser doubled into left field and then when Tepedino drove a hot line drive through the legs of Ray Rosenwinkle at third base, Strausser and Palica came home.

Ken Brooks, a former Greenie hurler, started on the mound for the Eagles and after allowing five runs was sent to the showers in the seventh-inning uprising by the Greenies. Vincent Jones pitched two-hit ball the rest of the route. Paul Strausser with a double and two singles and Manager Pappy Williams and Willie Mauney with two singles each led the nine-hit attack off the two Eagle hurlers. Bobby Harrison scattered his six hits—all singles—among as many

Tonight's Games

No games scheduled.

More than 1,000 Greenville fans journeyed over to Kinston last night to see the Greenies sweep the two-game series from Kinston to gain a berth in the Coastal Plain League playoffs for the first time since 1941. In that year the Greenies ended up in second place and won out over New Bern in the semifinals four out of six games; but in the finals, Wilson, who had finished in top place in league standings that year, eliminated Greenville four out of six games. The double win for the Greenies gave the Greenies an even break with the Eagles this year with ten wins for each club. The win for Mascarella was his tenth win of the season, his second against the Kinston Eagles as against three losses. Bobby Harrison ended the season with an 8 and 6 record and with the Kinston Eagles he won one and lost one.

The playoffs, which start on Wednesday night, will match the first place winner, Rocky Mount, against the Greenies, and the Kinston Eagles playing the New Bern Bears. First and second place clubs will open the first series at their home parks, which means Greenville will play at Rocky Mount and New Bern opens in Kinston, then the play will alternate until the first series is finished which will be determined when one club has won four games.

When the two winning clubs get ready for the final series, the team having the highest standing at the end of the regular season will get the opening game at home. There'll be four umpires at each of the game with all nine umpires in the league being retained for the semifinals. One will stand as an alternate, and probable rotation. The two sets of officials will alternate between the two pairs of competing teams each night.

First and third base umpires will call decisions from the foul line from first base and third base on out. Between home and first, and home and third, the plate umpire will make decisions on fouls. In case of rained out games, the two competing teams will stay in that town until the game can be played. Only in case of a light failure will the two teams move on to the other town for the next game. Then when they return to the park where the lighting failure occurred they will complete the game that was interrupted.

Francis Quimet, Chick Evans, J. D. Travers, Bobby Jones and Johnny Goodman were the only amateurs ever to win the U. S. Open golf title.

The 17-year-old girl from Somerset, Mass., gave up at 4:05 p.m. (10:05 a.m. EST) when she was less than six miles from England. She had been in the icy waters 10 1/2 hours.

She was estimated to have covered more than 30 miles of swimming. It is only 19 miles from Cap Gris Nez, France, where she started, to Dover, England—but tides force channel swimmers to cover much more than that.

Shirley May was moaning when her coach, Harry Boudakian, pulled her from the water. She had pleaded with him for 20 minutes not to make her give up.

The pretty blonde cried again and again: "Please—Please—Leave me in." The girl struggled against Boudakian when he leaned over the side of the rowboat to pull her in. She was hysterical and kept crying: "Look how near it is." She had been within sight of the white cliffs of Dover for more than two hours.

"Leave me, leave me!" she cried.

Detroit, Sept. 6—(AP)—The smooth-running My Sweetie added another speedboat trophy to her record yesterday.

The Horace E. Dodge boat, piloted by "Wild Bill" Cantrell, former auto racer, took the final 45-mile heat of the silver cup trophy race in easy fashion. Cantrell drove the sleek craft much as he did in Saturday's initial heat, only faster.

As he did Saturday, Cantrell set new lap and heat records. He covered the 45 miles at an average speed of 81.974 miles an hour and did one three-mile lap at the rate of 85.200 miles an hour. Saturday he averaged 77.639 and made one lap at 83.475 miles an hour.

His fellow players did not congratulate him. They were in stitches.

The hole he had made in one stroke was on the 18th green.

Calumet Stable Invades Belmont

Chicago, Sept. 6—(AP)—Calumet Farm moved its money-grabbing stable to Belmont Park today after a half-million dollar take at the 67-day combined Washington-Arlington meeting.

Coalton's no-contest triumph in the $52,900 Washington Park handicap yesterday, closing the Washington Park season, boosted Calumet's 1949 earnings to $995,272.

Approximately half that total, $527,262 came from the Washington-Arlington coffers as Warren Wright's great stable won 15 of the 29 rich stakes offered on the combined program.

Calumet also won 13 stakes here last season, but that was with mighty Citation doing business. Wright's No. 1 racer hasn't competed all this year because of his injury in California last December.

But Coalton carried the hod brilliantly in Citation's absence, taking four big stakes in the Washington-Arlington sojourn. These included the stars and stripes handicap, Arlington handicap, whirlaway stakes and yesterday's Washington Park handicap.

That contributed a fat $129,000 wad to his two-year racing career earning of $376,775. The flashy 4-year-old did not compete as a 2-year-old because of a throat ailment.

In Monday's race, Coalton and his 8-year-old stablemate, Armed, finished one-two in the four-horse race.

Tough Comeback Road For 'Beau'

Los Angeles, Sept. 6—(AP)—Ex-lightweight champion Beau Jack of New York draws a tough assignment for his debut here tonight when he takes on undefeated Tote Martinez of San Francisco in a slugfest billed for 10 rounds at the Olympic auditorium.

The onetime Georgia bootblack continued his comeback campaign last week when he handed another undefeated California lad, Johnny Gonzales, a beating before a packed house at Oakland.

It Didn't Help

Rochester, N.Y.—(AP)—In the recent national amateur golf championship at the Oak Hill Country Club here, George Victor, veteran golfer from Chicago, made one of the greatest shots ever seen in the tournament, but it didn't help much.

Playing the 18th, in an all-even match with Bruce McCormick, Victor's second shot caught an almost unplayable lie on the edge of a trap. He was forced to hit the ball with a five iron, rolled it through the sand, up the bank, over the lip, through heavy grass onto the green and within two and a half feet of the cup. Then he missed the putt to lose the match.

The four original members of golf's Hall of Fame are Walter Hagan, Bobby Jones, Francis Ouimet and Gene Sarazen.

Yanks, Cardinals Have Tradition Backing Them Up

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Down the stretch come the New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals, clinging desperately to 1 1/2 game leads that tradition says they should hold.

Only five of the last 20 Labor Day leaders have failed to make the World Series in the last 10 years. . . . maybe the runner-up Boston Red Sox and Brooklyn Dodgers don't read the record books.

A year ago the Red Sox were on top by the same 1 1/2 game margin, with the Yanks second and the Cleveland Indians, eventual winners after a playoff, third by 4 1/2 games.

Brooklyn, too, has no happy memories of Labor Day 1948. That was the day they were practically eliminated from the National League race by dropping a doubleheader to Boston. The Braves, their lead bolstered to four games, never were ousted.

St. Louis lost a game of its lead to the Dodgers yesterday when they split with Pittsburgh while Brooklyn was thumping Boston twice, 7-2 and 13-2.

Red Munger breezed to his 13th win in the Cards' opener as Enos Slaughter drove in five runs in the rout of Murphy Dickson, 9-1. The same Munger, trying for the daily double in the second game, lost the decision on relief in the 10th inning when doubles by Danny Murtaugh and Stan Rojek gave Pittsburgh a 6-4 edge.

Brooklyn turned the power loose on the weary Braves who now are only one game above the 500 mark. After Joe Hatten was knocked out in the first inning of the morning game, Carl Erskine and Paul Minner contributed 8 2-3 innings of no-hit relief pitching for the edge over Warren Spahn. Preacher Roe tied the National League strikeout high for the year, whiffing 11 in the lopsided second game 13-2.

The soaring Phillies extended their win streak to six games by dumping the New York Giants, 9-7 and 4-2. Del Ennis' homer and three singles helped Dutch Meyer best Dave Koslo in the second game after a four-run rally in the ninth gave Ken Heintzelman the nod over reliever Adrian Zabala in the opener.

Cincinnati trimmed Chicago, 7-3, in the first game with a four run knockout blast against Dutch Leonard in the ninth. Johnny Schmitz stopped the Reds in the second, 7-2. All four first division clubs swept doubles in the American, leaving the Yanks' lead safe at 1 1/2 games. New York blasted Philadelphia, 13-4 and 5-2, while the Red Sox ran over Washington 5-2 and 12-2.

Pirate Point-Kicking Specialist Practices

Dole Takes Up Aerial Attacks And Defenses; Squad Reduced

By EUGENE PRICE
The East Carolina Pirates worked on their passing attack and aerial defense yesterday as Coach Bill Dole prepped his charges for the September 15 opener with the potent Cherry Point Marines who last week smothered an Edenton Flyers outfit 30 to nothing.

Coach Dole refrained from the heavy contact work yesterday as many of his boys were being hampered by bruises. At least two players were sidelined. Mike Kovach, letterman halfback from North Tryon, N.Y., was benched temporarily with a pulled leg muscle. Reggie Byrd, 195 pound freshman guard from Portsmouth, Va., was in the infirmary with a slight stomach disorder.

But yesterday's practice brought two new faces to the Pirate drills. Stan Peel, letterman end, and Paul Trotman, Portlock, Virginia sophomore guard, reported for workouts.

Dole made his first out of the squad this week. Among the boys who were cut was at least one letterman back who did not fit into the new coach's system of play. Further cuts will probably be made as the practice season progresses.

The major part of yesterday's practice was devoted to aerial tactics as the Buccaneers attempted to perfect a passing offensive and worked on their all important pass defense.

Commenting on the forthcoming Cherry Point game, Dole said yesterday, "We'll give them a battle and that's all I can say." He would make no predictions.

The former Fayetteville high school grid mentor is handling a team which last year failed to win a ball game. He has cautioned fans against over-optimism, declaring that it will take at least another year or so to develop a good ball club.

Dole is holding all workouts behind closed doors, apparently in an effort to take advantage of any surprise the Pirates may be able to pull.

Gonzales Keeps Amateur Net Title With Big Rally

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 6—(AP)—Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles still is the amateur tennis champion of the United States—but it is extremely doubtful that Pancho will remain an amateur very long.

At the moment, Pancho isn't talking. He's too happy over the amazing comeback he made in the finals of the National tournament yesterday to discuss his plans for the future.

Two sets down and facing what appeared to be certain defeat, the 21-year old champion brought his game to a peak and overhauled Ted Schroeder of La Crescenta, Calif., 16-18, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4.

That uphill triumph, achieved before a screaming throng of 13,000.

Co-Captains For Vanceboro Grid Team Elected

Vanceboro.—Troy Lee Laughinghouse and Claude Wilson have been elected co-captains of the Vanceboro football team, Coach Daniel Drew announced today.

The two boys, both three lettermen, were elected at a meeting of the squad this week.

Laughinghouse starred at fullback last year and is expected to bear the brunt of the Vanceboro offensive attack this year. Wilson is an outstanding end of last season.

PIN-WORMS NOW CAN BE BEATEN!

A new, scientific treatment now offers real relief to the millions who suffer from the maddening rectal itch and other miseries caused by Pin-Worms. And experts report that at least one out of every three persons is infected with these ugly pests. While families may have Pin-Worms and never even know it. But now you can and should do something about this common condition. Jey's P-W Vermifuge contains a special, medically-approved ingredient that attacks Pin-Worms in the intestine and removes them from the body.

Chapter 27

Chris Harman motioned for silence. "Just a second." The voices ceased. Ace Spado threw a quick look in Hald's direction.

"What's the matter?" William Owens looked puzzled.

"They could hear it now, too! A light knock on the door.

"Any of you boys expecting some company?" Hald asked, looking at the other two. He never got an answer, for his whole attention was suddenly taken by the sound of Harman's voice raised in protest.

"What's the big idea, busting in here like this? I tell you the place is closed." He tried to push the door shut.

With a shove that sent Harman reeling backwards, the intruder forced his way through.

"This is the law, bud. We have a warrant to search the place and bring back anyone we find here."

There was the momentary flash of his badge as he tucked it away.

"The D.A. wants to have a little talk with you. O.K., boys, let's see what's at the back," he said over his shoulder to the two burly figures that followed him.

Pushing past the laundry store proprietor, he opened the door into the back room. Owens rose from behind his desk.

"What's the meaning of this?" he blustered.

"Police," the other replied. "You gent's get a move on. We're taking you along."

In about ten minutes one of the men at the front shouted, "The wagon's here."

They were unceremoniously bundled inside the patrol wagon. The ride to the station was one of unbroken silence. Each was occupied with his own thoughts. As they felt the van pulling up, Harman cautioned them. "Remember, keep your traps shut. They've got nothing on us, and the boss'll see that we're sprung. Just act dumb and say you don't know to everything."

The rear doors were thrown open and one by one the four jumped to the pavement. The other three preceded Hald down the corridor. The detective in the lead threw open a door. "Wait in here," he indicated. As Hald was about to follow, he held out his hand. "You."

Pearson Asserts Vaughan A 'Gift' To Moscow Radio

Myrtle Beach, S. C., Sept. 6—(AP)—Drew Pearson, Washington columnist, last night called Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan a major gift to Moscow radio. He also said in a speech here that Vaughan, the President's military aide, was partly responsible for the resignation of James F. Byrnes of Spartanburg as secretary of state.

Pearson spoke to the convention of the Carolinas Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers.

Vaughan "exploded" to the President when he heard that Byrnes would make a radio report to the American people after his mission to Moscow in 1946, the columnist declared.

"Byrnes thinks he is more important than you are," he quoted the general as telling Mr. Truman. "He considers himself to be President. He will be running against you in 1948."

Byrnes declined comment when he was advised of Pearson's statement at his summer home on the Isle of Palms near Charleston.

Pearson also declared that Vaughan's influence on foreign policy has not been brought out in the Senate investigation of so-called five percenters. They are men who allegedly peddled their influence in obtaining government contracts for businessmen. Vaughan has figured prominently in the investigation.

The general influenced foreign policy at the Potsdam meeting among Mr. Truman, Stalin and Churchill, Pearson declared adding: "At that time our relations with Russia were good. We had just finished the European war and wanted Russia's cooperation in the Japanese war."

"Nevertheless, Mr. Truman, in the first 20 minutes of the conference, proceeded to bowl out Stalin, telling Stalin just what he wanted done and talking as if Stalin were a schoolboy."

Pearson said that after the first Potsdam session Vaughan told the President:

"Chief, that was magnificent. You certainly gave him the works. That was just what he needed. Pour it on him. Give it to him again."

Young Democrats

The Young Democrats' Club of Pitt county will hold a supper meeting at Respass' place, on the Bethel highway, Friday night at 6:30. President J. B. Spilman will preside. Prominent state acraic leaders are expected to attend. The supper will be "dutch" treat.

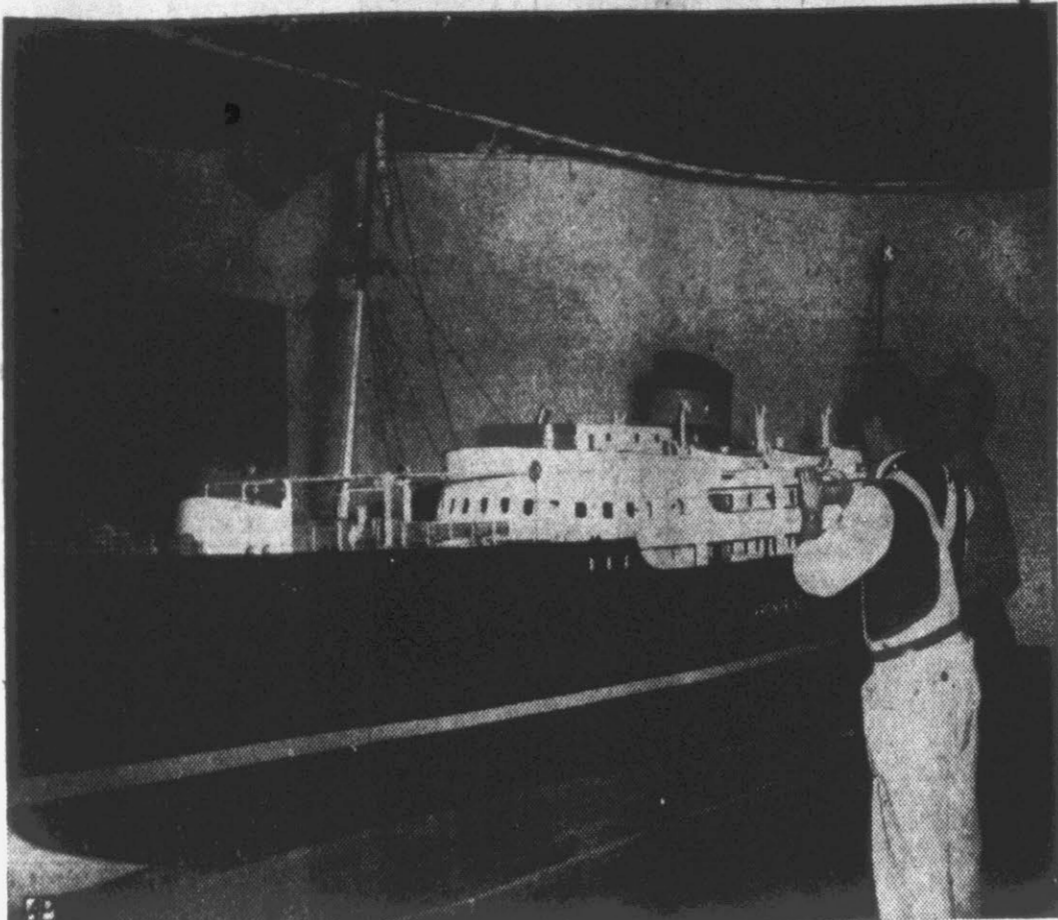

Delegates to the State Young Democrats' convention to be held in New Bern Sept. 15-17 will be elected. New officers of the Pitt County Young Democrats' Club will be elected.

Funeral Services For James E. Owens

Farmville, Sept. 6—James Edward Owens, 60, farmer of the Fountain community, who died suddenly near his home Monday about 5:30 p. m. will be buried in Queen Anne Cemetery, near Fountain Wednesday at 3 p. m. Elder R. B. Demison, pastor of Otter Creek Primitive Baptist Church, Elder J. B. Roberts of Farmville and Elder J. C. Smith of Elm City, Primitive Baptist minister, will officiate.

Mr. Owens had been in declining health for some time. He was a member of Otter Creek Primitive Baptist Church. His wife died about a year ago.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Floyd Ayers of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Milton Wainwright of Fountain; five sons, W. F., J. M., E. L., D. C. and N. G. all of the home, and eight grandchildren; six sisters, Mrs. Willie Thigpen of Fountain, Mrs. Silas Cobb and Mrs. Lena Cobb of Macclesfield, Mrs. A. F. Norman of Tarboro, Mrs. Edgar Webb of Pinetops and Mrs. Tommie Everett of Jacksonville, N. C.; seven brothers, Turner Owens of Walstonburg, Charles, Amos, Bunk and Henry Owens of Fountain, Monroe Owens of Elm City and Joseph Owens of Macclesfield.

Potato Growers Warned May Lose Price Support

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—Potato-growing regions of the nation now face this choice—accept government marketing and planting controls, or lose government price supports.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan announced the new policy over the weekend. Unless potato growers approve the regional marketing agreements and orders, he said, there will be no price support in those areas.

Brannan disclosed that the federal government had spent $379,000,000 to support potato market prices in the past three years. He said another $72,500,000 was earmarked for use this year but the cost "may fall short of $60,000,000."

In a letter to Chairman Emer Thomas (D-Kia) of the Senate Agriculture Committee, Brannan claimed authority under existing law to remove price props in any production or marketing area that rejects the controls.

Thomas agreed he had the authority.

Japanese Adopt Birthday Idea

Tokyo, Sept. 6—(AP)—Japanese on Jan. 1 will not add another year to their ages as they have done for ages.

Always in the past the Japanese, just like race horses, have added one more year on Jan. 1 no matter when their birth date. This New Year's the country will adopt the Western method of counting age—from the date of birth.

Japanese women are pleased. The men are indifferent.

Indian Killed By Kicking Mule

Fairmont, N. C., Sept. 6—(AP)—Plummer Dial, 64-year-old Indian was kicked to death by a mule yesterday.

The animal kicked him at the Dial farm near here. Dial died several hours afterward at a Dillon, S. C. hospital.

That Word . . .

(Unlike Byrnes who said "We are going down the road to statism," Hoover said we are "on the last mile to Collectivism.")

Words like "Statism" and "Collectivism," Mr. Truman said, were thought up by a lot of "Paid agitators, promoters and publicity experts who make a fat living frightening the people in the higher income groups."

So all of them—Mr. Truman, General Eisenhower, Byrnes, and Senators Bridges, Pepper and Capahart—seemed to dislike "Statism."

That's when I ran for the dictionary—the latest unabridged Webster's dictionary. It said "Statism" means:

"Belief in a government, as in a republic, in contrast with belief in Communism or a Soviet government."

Now you can see why I'm confused. All these big men talking against statism and, from the dictionary, it seems that "Statism" is a belief in the Republican form of government we've always had.

Politicians would leave guys like me a little more time for the funny papers if they'd just give me the dictionary definition when they start heaving words around.

I wonder if they looked up "Statism"?

RALLY DRAWS

Tarboro, N. C., Sept. 6—A Labor Day rally here yesterday drew a crowd of some 1,500.

Expect Crowd At Market Opening

Greensboro, Sept. 6—(AP)—Indications pointed today to one of the biggest tobacco market opening celebrations the state has seen when Greensboro is host Thursday night to thousands of leaf growers from a wide surrounding area.

Boyd Morris, general chairman for the tobacco growers' barbecue and festival, said more than 6,000 persons are expected to gather at the site of the new Greensboro tobacco warehouse, including Governor W. Kerr Scott, Representative Carl T. Durham, and other officials.

Hog Market

Raleigh, Sept. 6—(AP)—(NCDA)—Hog prices mostly steady. $20 at Tarboro, Goldsboro, Wilson, Greenville, Washington, Kinston, and Rocky Mount; Richmond $21.

N. Y. Cotton

New York, Sept. 6—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 15 cents a bale lower to 10 cents higher today.

Noon prices were unchanged to 30 cents a bale higher than the previous close. Oct. 29.87, Dec. 29.87 and March 29.86.

Cotton futures closed strong at the day's best levels. Textile mill buying was aggressive encountering only limited offers. Short covering was also attracted and moving the market higher. Futures closed 60 cents to $1.30 a bale higher than the previous close.

Poultry and Eggs

Raleigh, Sept. 6—(AP)—(NCDA)—Fryers and broilers irregular, one cent lower to one cent higher at 28; eggs steady, A large 61.

Grain Market

Chicago, Sept. 6—(AP)—Grains pushed higher today under the leadership of the nearby contracts in wheat and corn. Wheat advanced a better cash basis at Minneapolis and buying of cash wheat by mills. Some short covering also aided the advance.

At the close wheat was 1 1/2¢ higher to 1/2¢ lower, September $2.05. Corn was unchanged to 2 1/2¢ higher, September $1.24 1/2-3/4. Oats were 1/2¢ higher to 1/4¢ lower, September 68 1/2¢. Rye was 2 1/2-3/4¢ higher, September $1.43 1/2. Soybeans were 1/4 to 2/4¢ higher, November $2.34. Lard was unchanged to 5 cents a hundred-weight lower, September $12.15.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York Sept. 6—(AP)—Demand for stocks dwindled today and prices gently declined. In only a few cases did losses exceed a full point. Selling orders were never very urgent and a liberal sprinkling of leading shares remained at last week's final levels or improved a bit. Turnover was at the rate of 600,000 shares for the full day.

Peace Pact . . .
long in making peace treaties with Germany and Austria.
One of the manifestations of the cold war in Europe has been the failure to make treaties in the shooting war. The cold war which is being waged in the Far East won't be concluded until a peace treaty is made with Japan.
General MacArthur didn't indicate his idea of what the peace treaty should provide. One would expect that it would contain full safeguards against further aggression. These would include continued military occupation over a long period. However, such restrictions need not interfere in any way with the New Japan taking her rightful place among nations of good will.
