Murray Reveals His Wage-Policy Body To Convene

Steel Union's Next Steps May Be Decided Wednesday, Officials Silent

Pittsburgh, Sept. 16—(AP)—President Philip Murray of the CIO United Steelworkers today ordered the big union's wage-policy committee to meet here at 9 a. m. (EST) Wednesday, Sept. 21.

There was no amplification of the announcement. Union officials declined to discuss the order.

Murray's action comes with a resolution of contract negotiations between union and some 57 steel companies blocked by a difference of opinion over whether workers should help companies pay for social insurance and pension programs.

Both sides now are working during a 11-day strike deadline extension which expires at midnight Sept. 24.

The United States Steel Corporation, leading producer and traditional pace setter in the steel industry, has refused to accept the recommendations of a Presidential fact finding board if it is committed in advance of contract talks to picking up the entire bill for insurance and pension programs.

In deciding against a wage increase this year, the board suggested both sides adopt company-financed social security plans which would cost the steel industry from eight to 10 cents per hour per man.

The union insists that U. S. Steel and other companies accept the recommendations, as it did, and bargain on the details. Other steel companies have said they are willing to bargain "on the basis of the board's recommendations." But none has come out flatly with statements they will pay the sole cost of pensions and social insurance.

The wage-policy committee is expected to debate the union's next step.

Scott Speaks At Pactolus Ruritan

Governor Calls For Backing Of Programs And Urges Rebirth Of Rural Churches; Winslow Takes Greenville To Task

Governor Kerr Scott, speaking to members and guests of the Pactolus Ruritan Club, last night called on the rural people of the state to stand behind the program for roads, schools, electricity and telephones in rural areas, and urged a rebirth of the rural churches.

For Governor Scott, it was his second public appearance in Pitt County since his election. The governor was principal speaker before an audience of approximately 75 club members and their guests at the annual ladies night of the Pactolus club.

North Carolina's governor told his listeners last night, "Country people have to come together and step up the religious training program in this state. Most rural churches in North Carolina have done nothing in the past 50 years, and clean up the grounds every homecoming."

Scott pointed to statistics which show the crime rate in rural areas is increasing faster than in cities and towns of the state, and declared that the religious program must be put on a par with the other programs of the state. "The moral attitude of our people will determine what type of government we will have 25 years from now," he asserted.

Referring to the school and road program of the state, Governor Scott urged the people of rural communities to "paramount your school program to where it ought to be. The finest crop you have here is the crop of boys and girls who go to school. Let's see that the roads where school buses run are fixed first."

Making reference to his previous statements about civic clubs of the state, Scott remarked, "I have had something to say about the agricultural committees of civic clubs in North Carolina. I don't think Ruritan would have come into existence had the agricultural committees of civic clubs functioned as they should have. Had our civic organizations had one-half farmers among their membership, we would not be voting bonds for secondary roads and schools, because we would have had them.

"I have no fight with civic clubs," Scott said. "Am I trying to do as needs the agricultural committees into doing something?"

The governor expressed the opinion that with an abundance of electricity the state will see a great deal of industrial expansion rather than agricultural expansion in the rural areas. "I'm one of those who think the state would be better off without any large cities," he stated. After a city gets over 100,000 it is not much good to the state. I would much rather have five cities of 20,000 than one of 100,000."

It was not Governor Scott, however, who lashed out at businessmen in towns at last night's meeting. J. E. Winslow, prominent Pitt County farmer who introduced Governor Scott, took to task the town of Greenville and declared, "A lot of people in the towns think they run the country."

He made reference from a recent publication of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, "The Guide to Greenville," from which he quoted figures giving Pitt County's 1948 agricultural income as $32,000,000. "Doesn't it make you laugh," he declared, "to think that a crowd in Greenville is trying to tell us how to run the government? Doesn't it make you laugh to think that those folks have the gall to tell us folks that we don't have the right to roads, education and schools?"

Hungarian Eager To Confess Guilt

Former High-Ranking Red Admits Plot With Tito Group

Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 16—(AP)—Lasslo Rajk, former number two Hungarian Communist pleaded guilty today of plotting to overthrow the Red-dominated Hungarian government.

The 42-year-old former Minister of Interior and former Foreign Minister pleaded guilty to all charges in the indictment against him.

These charges included plotting with representatives of Marshal Tito's Yugoslav government to assassinate leading Hungarians officials and to make Hungary "a colony of Yugoslavia."

Rajk was the first of eight defendants to enter a plea. His plea came within 90 minutes of the time the trial opened in the headquarters of the Hungarian Metal Workers union.

Rajk repeatedly answered "guilty" as the presiding judge of the five-member court read the charges against him.

After admitting his guilt, Rajk began in calm, clear and measured tone—to tell the story of his life.

New Trade Pacts Being Prepared For Early Action

Agreements With Ten More Countries Planned For Truman's Approval

Washington, Sept. 16—(AP)—Trade agreements with ten more countries are being prepared for President Truman's approval under the extension of his tariff-cutting powers which cleared Congress yesterday.

Experts of the U. S. and the ten other countries have already agreed in negotiations at Anney, France on what they will recommend to their governments. Agreements based on these recommendations are expected to be ready for presidential action early in October.

These agreements would be with Denmark, Finland, Italy, Greece, Sweden, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Liberia, Uruguay and Nicaragua.

State Department officials estimated today that if the President approves these treaties 75 to 80 per cent of all U. S. foreign trade—both exports and imports—will be carried on under reciprocal trade agreements.

Mr. Truman's full power to change U. S. tariff rates under international agreements was asserted last Wednesday. The Senate voted then, 82 to 19, for the sixth extension of the trade agreements program enacted in 1934 at the urging of Cordell Hull.

The administration's bill, extending the program until June 12, 1951, had been approved previously by the House.

Senate passage came after Republicans last by a few votes their fight to restrict the President's tariff-cutting powers under the extension.

The Chamber rejected, 43 to 38, the controversial amendment by Senator Millikin (R-Colo.) to add a "peril point" restriction to the bill. Had it been adopted, the President would have been required to tell Congress if he granted tariff concessions which the Federal Tariff Commission deemed risky to U. S. producers.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, argued this provision would hinder efforts to develop a "framework for cooperation" with the Western democracies.

Republicans—35 of them—voiced solidly for the peril point amendment. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) arrived by plane from Europe a few hours before the vote to support the Millikin proposal. Three Democrats lined up with the Republicans—Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) and Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.).

Administration forces then beat down amendment after amendment adoption of any one of which would have required further House action.

Self-Supporting Europe In 1952 Seen By Hoffman

Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 16—(AP)—Marshall plan administrator Paul G. Hoffman foresees a self-supporting western Europe as a "definite possibility" by June 30, 1952.

In his first major speech since returning two weeks ago from a tour of seven European countries, Hoffman disclosed that the plan is now ahead of schedule.

However, he cautioned that fulfilling the target date "is going to take a lot of doing on the part of both Europeans and Americans."

He spoke last night at a meeting of the Michigan Municipal League. As a further means of advancing world prosperity, Hoffman advised the United States to take a "slightly higher percentage" of European imports. He said this would be balanced by "our high volume of American exports."

World trade is essential to American prosperity, he said, and it requires "a two-way street."

Hoffman also called upon this country to "give full evidence that we intend to carry the four-year Marshall plan through to its completion."

Key Figures At Dedication Of New Stadium For College

Planned by the colorful Cherry Point Marine and East Carolina College bands, key figures in the East Carolina stadium campaign dedicated the arena last night in ceremonies preceding the East Carolina-Cherry Point football game.

Dr. John D. Messick, president of East Carolina, in accepting the stadium, declared that it was "a momentous occasion in the history of the college." He paid tribute to all those who took part in the campaign to raise $25,000 for the 3,000 seat arena.

His remarks were met by a tremendous ovation from the near 4,000 students and other fans who packed the stadium to overflowing capacity.

Dr. N. M. Jorgensen, speaking on behalf of the athletic department of the college, expressed the appreciation of the department for the enthusiasm shown in the campaign. He predicted a greater athletic program at East Carolina, including a strong football team in the future. His remarks were borne out by a 24-0 victory for the Buccaneers over the Marines.

Among the dignitaries to speak was Mayor W. S. Stafford of Greenville, who spoke on behalf of the townspeople who responded enthusiastically to the drive to raise funds for the stadium.

General L. E. Woods, commander of Cherry Point Station, spoke on behalf of the Marines, expressing pleasure in having the two teams engaged in their gridiron rivalry and the honor it was to be able to take part in the dedication program.

Dr. Clyde Erwin, state superintendent of public instruction, who was to have presented the stadium to Dr. Messick, was absent.

Four Pitt county officials visited Raleigh yesterday to confer with E. Easterling, secretary to the state local government commission, concerning the revision of the present bond issuance plans of Pitt county.

Chairman of the county commissioners, M. Brown Hodges, County Attorney S. B. Underwood, Register of Deeds Charles P. Gaskin and County Auditor A. T. Powell discussed with state officials the financing of $352,500 of bond anticipation notes which have been issued by Pitt county.

A spokesman for the group this morning said Easterling concurred with the group of Pitt county officials that it might be advantageous to the county to revise the bond issuance plans somewhat to ease the drain of the county debt service fund.

The county commissioners were scheduled to meet in a special session today to discuss the plans for revising the bond program, but the meeting was postponed until Easterling is able to forward certain data on the financing to the commissioners.

When the bond anticipation notes amounting to $352,500 were sold last month to finance the county's portion of the new Pitt County Memorial hospital, the plan was to pay off the entire amount of the debt within three years. Since that time, however, officials have been considering altering the bond issuance plans to take one to two years longer to pay off the debt, and thereby extend the payment over a longer period of time to lessen the immediate drain on the county debt service fund.

Washington, Sept. 16—(AP)—The Navy has now lowered the boom, but somewhat gently, on its Captain John G. Crommelin.

Secretary Matthews, announcing criticism of service unification obviously disqualified him for continuing to work for the high-level Joint Chiefs of Staff, plucked him out of that job.

He was sent to duty with the Navy's air warfare division, which is an important cog in the Navy's operating organization—but doesn't deal in high policy-making like the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Robbers Crack Cotton Mill Safe

Ashville, N. C., Sept. 16—(AP)—Robbers cracked the safe of Martel Cotton Mill near here last night and got away with an estimated $7,500 of the firm's payroll.

Entrance to the company office was gained through an unlocked window, and the lock was knocked off the safe while the nightwatchman was elsewhere in the plant on his regular rounds.

Sheriff's deputies first estimated the haul at between $8,000 and $9,000, but company officials said the amount would not be that much.

Building Costs Of Hospitals Up

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 16—(AP)—Hospital construction costs are on the way up again, the medical care commission noted yesterday.

The commission found low bids for contracts to build the 100-bed Gaston Memorial hospital totaled $836,586. That means a per-bed cost of $10,320, compared with $10,132 for the previous project.

The total cost of the Gaston hospital, including equipment, will be about $1,052,000.

Controversy In Polio Campaigns

New York, Sept. 16—(AP)—Postoffice officials have taken steps to smooth out a dispute between two organizations seeking funds to fight infantile paralysis.

The controversy was disclosed as the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis last night extended for a second week its emergency drive for $14,500,000 to combat the record polio epidemic.

Criticism of the foundation's fund-raising methods came from the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, Inc., which is conducting a simultaneous campaign for funds.

Acheson Reports To President On Cold War Plans

Declines To Discuss Meeting; Aid For Tito Believed Heading Program

Washington, Sept. 16—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson reported to President Truman and the cabinet today on new U. S.-British-French measures to deal with Russia in the cold war.

The report was made at a 46-minute meeting in the White House. Acheson, however, declined afterwards to discuss it with reporters. It was the regular Friday cabinet meeting.

Top of the list was believed to be a Marshall plan to give Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito essential support in his economic and political struggle with the various matters have been intensively reviewed here by Acheson and Foreign Ministers Acheson and Schuman.

The American, British and French Foreign Policy Chiefs, after their round of meetings yesterday, held them in a 3-hour and 45-minute session devoted to discussing Yugoslavia and the general Balkan situation as well as Germany and Austria.

Officials said they did not get around to talking about the development of a common anti-Communist strategy in the Far East but hoped to arrange another session here in a day or so.

Meanwhile Acheson scheduled a series of afternoon appointments with other western Foreign Ministers gathering here for tomorrow's meeting of the Atlantic treaty council. This is the body which is due to order creation of defense machinery for the western world.

Both Schuman and Bevin will participate in the council session. At the conclusion of their meeting last night the three foreign policy chiefs authorized a joint statement. This listed subjects they had discussed and called on Russia to meet in New York next Thursday for negotiations with western powers for an Austrian independence treaty.

65 Workers Go Back To Work In Tarboro Strike

Tarboro, N. C., Sept. 16—(AP)—Some 65 workers of the strike-bound Hart Cotton Mill went back to work today.

Pickets of the striking Textile Workers Union of America (CIO) observed a promise made by their leaders to observe a court order against mass picketing. They made no attempt to block entry of the workers into the plant.

The union promise to observe the court order resulted last night in Sheriff Tom Bardin withdrawing a request to Governor Scott for State Highway Patrol assistance in keeping order.

Strikers defied the order yesterday and the day before. Bardin said, by mass pickets at the plant, which has been shut down since May 13 in a dispute over a new contract.

Census Estimate Near 150 Million

Washington, Sept. 16—(AP)—The Census Bureau estimated today that the United States population was 149,452,000 on August 1.

This was an increase of 237,000 over the July 1 estimate. At that rate of increase, the population will pass the 150,000,000 mark before January 1.

The August 1 figure represents an increase of 17,782,000 or 13.5 per cent over the 131,669,275 persons actually counted on April 1, 1940, the date of the last census.

'Rump' Sale Hearing Ends; Issue Studied

Judge Frizzelle Taking Heated Question Under Advisement; Believes Root Of Trouble Has Not Been Touched Upon

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 16—(AP)—Judge J. Paul Frizzelle yesterday took under advisement the heated question of "Rump" sales on Eastern North Carolina tobacco markets.

After an all-day hearing in Wake Superior court, Judge Frizzelle today opposing counsel he would issue a signed order at the earliest possible time after carefully considering the case.

The Bright Belt Warehouse Association had asked the Judge to restrain operations of 14 Rocky Mount warehouses, from continuing to operate a fifth tobacco auction sale. The added sale, the Association contends, is a rump sale because it does not have an adequate set of buyers. The Association defines an adequate set as buyers from each of the three major companies—American, Liggett and Myers and Reynolds—and buyers from three other recognized companies.

At the close of the hearing, Judge Frizzelle observed: "My reaction is that no matter how it is decided it doesn't get to the roots of the evil. It doesn't settle the urgent necessity of getting buyers."

He added that there "ought to be some power to compel the sending of buyers where they are needed."

Greek Threat To Invade Communist Albania As A Defense Measure Has Capitals On Both Sides Of Iron Curtain Worried; Both Fear Real War Flaring

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

Greece's threat to invade communist Albania as a measure of self-defense, if guerrilla forces launch further attacks on Greek soil from Albania, has capitals on both sides of the Iron Curtain worried.

Washington, London and Moscow are particularly concerned, and it's expected that the Anglo-American brotherhood is likely to take steps to encourage any such military operation by their Greek ally. It wouldn't be surprising if Russia also advised Albania to go easy.

20 Children Hurt In Bus Accident

Wheel Comes Off, But School Bus Fails To Overturn

Mooresville, Sept. 16—(AP)—Twenty children were injured today in a school bus wreck near here. Some of them apparently were seriously hurt.

State Highway Patrolman B. C. Nisbet said the front left wheel of the bus came off the vehicle on a dirt road four miles outside Mooresville.

The bus, which was going 25 miles per hour at the time, ran off the road and into a deep ditch.

A check of the Lowrance Hospital here showed that seven of the 20 children and a woman had been admitted. Others were being examined.

The driver of the bus was sixteen-year-old Phifer Irvin Johnson, of Mooresville, route one.

Patrolman Nisbet said that the bus did not overturn. He was told that the children were thrown into the front of the bus "and sort of piled up."

The extent of the injuries to the school pupils could not be learned three hours after the accident, but it was known that some of the children suffered arm and leg fractures.

added the feud which has developed between Yugoslavia and Russia's Balkan satellites because of Dictator Tito's political revolt against Moscow.

Of course the fact that Greece's sponsors frown on any invasion of Albania is in no sense due to doubts as to the truth of the Athens charges of Albanian assistance to the communist guerrilla forces. This assistance has been known for a long time.

On both sides of the frontier are mountains of limestone which rear their bare peaks several thousand feet. There aren't many roads through the passes in these rocky barriers and the few passages are just mule paths which are little more than trails. It was across this inhospitable border in 1940—that solid invaded Greece in 1940—this being one of numerous invasions through the centuries.

Six Firms Bid For Contract On N.C. Advertising

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 16—(AP)—Six firms have entered bids for the state's $150,000-a-year advertising contract.

Conservation Director George Ross said four firms sent in bids just before yesterday's deadline arrived. They were: Allen Krohn of Greensboro, Bennett Advertising of High Point, Eastman-Redwine of Raleigh, and Ayer and Gillett of Charlotte.

Previously bids had come from Herman Halborn of Winston-Salem and Hugh A. Deadwyler of Charlotte.

The state had sent questionnaires to 17 North Carolina firms asking them to list their qualifications for handling the account if they were interested.

Ayer and Gillett had the account for about 18 months. It was terminated several weeks ago by Governor Scott, who ordered it reopened for negotiation.

Berlin, Sept. 16—(AP)—An American soldier burrowed out of a Soviet jail in East Berlin and related a story today of beatings and mistreatment during his 10 months confinement by the Russians.

The American, Private John J. Sinkiewicz, 26, of Baltimore, told U. S. officers Soviet officials thought because of his name that he was a Polish displaced person being used to spy on the Russians.

He said he and three British companions used a blunt knife to bore through a thick jail wall until they could reach through and open their cell door. Then they made their way to the Western sectors of Berlin.

Italian Airmen Flying One Way

Lagos, the Azores, Sept. 16—(AP)—Italian aviators John M. Bronello and Camillo Barigiolo are taking the long way home.

The weather from here to Lisbon (780 miles) is bad so the men decided to fly instead to New York (2,000 miles) and return to Lisbon (2,780 miles) by boat.

They took off this morning at 10:13 a. m. (5:13 a. m. EST). The two flyers abandoned an attempt to make a non-stop single-engine Atlantic flight last week when a fuel pipe clogged.

Self-Supporting Europe In 1952 Seen By Hoffman

Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 16—(AP)—Marshall plan administrator Paul G. Hoffman foresees a self-supporting western Europe as a "definite possibility" by June 30, 1952.

In his first major speech since returning two weeks ago from a tour of seven European countries, Hoffman disclosed that the plan is now ahead of schedule.

World trade is essential to American prosperity, he said, and it requires "a two-way street."

Hoffman also called upon this country to "give full evidence that we intend to carry the four-year Marshall plan through to its completion."

The amount of aid "must be on a decreasing scale," he said, "but if Europe meets her obligations under that plan we should meet ours."

For Europe, he advised achievement of "an economic unification which will create a single market of 275,000,000 consumers, for whom European industry and agriculture can produce economically and to whom European manufacturers and farmers can sell freely."

Sinkiewicz was taken to an army hospital and reported to be in a "generally weakened physical condition but not unduly undernourished."

He had been held by the Russians since last Nov. 5, when he rode a streetcar into the Soviet sector of the city by mistake. He said he was questioned 16 days and nights and "beaten when they said I was lying." He said the Russians mistreated and tortured him in other ways, too.

British headquarters said the three British soldiers were arrested March 18, 1948, and had been imprisoned ever since—a period of 18 months.

Turner-Madison Vows Spoken In Garden Wedding

Asheville.—Miss Mary Elizabeth Madison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junius Moore, daughter of 30 Cedar-cliff Road, Biltmore Forest, was married to William David Turner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William David Turner, 301 East Chestnut Street, formerly of Greenville, September 10 at 4:30 p. m. in a garden wedding at the home of the bride.

The Rev. John W. Tuton of Trinity Episcopal Church performed the ceremony. The vows were spoken against a background of hemlocks, with white gladiolus trees placed on either side of a white-dieu.

An aisle was formed by the bride, Josef Fritete, organist at Trinity Church, presented a program of wedding music, including selections from "Lohengrin," "Reverie" and "Ave Maria." The traditional wedding marches were used, and "O Perfect Love" was heard during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory duchess satin fashioned with a yoke of rosepoint lace, long sleeves, a draped peplum forming a tiered bustle and extending into a full skirt with a circular train. Her veil of Brussels lace was encrusted with pearls and fell from a close-fitting satin cap. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and sprays of tuberoses, with streamers of satin caught with tuberoses.

Mrs. David Lawrence Hartshorn, sister of the bride, of Pensacola, Fla., formerly of Asheville, was matron of honor, and Miss Clarinda Sage, cousin of the bride of Berlin, Conn., was maid of honor. They wore gowns made with embroidered white organdy bodices, net stoles and bouffant white net skirts over aqua taffeta. Their mits were of matching organdy and they wore clusters of asters in their hair. Their old-fashioned bouquets of vari-colored asters were tied with purple ribbons.

Miss Sally Montgomery of Westfield, N. J., Miss Bernice Lippitt of Albany, Ga., Miss Mary Johnson of Oak Park, Ill., all schoolmates at Vassar, Miss Eleanor Rose Field, Miss Mary Elizabeth Smith and Miss Catherine Cox, all of Asheville, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to those of the honor attendants, and carried similar bouquets tied with lavender ribbons.

Little Margaret Horner, sister of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white embroidered Swiss organdy dress over lavender taffeta and carried a miniature bouquet of asters tied with aqua ribbons. George Horner, twin brother of the flower girl, was the ringbearer.

Samuel Curtis Johnson of Racine, Wis., served as best man. Ushers were Ensign Lawrence Hartshorn of Pensacola, brother-in-law of the bride, Judson Blount of Greenville, James Luther of Olean, N. Y., Dr. Walter Davis, Charles Parker, Jr., Tench Cox, III, Harvey Heywood, Jr. and James and Henry Turner, brothers of the bridegroom, all of Asheville.

A small reception followed in the home of the bride. The bridal table was centered with a tiered wedding cake, with herloom silver candelabra on either side. Garlands of smilax and gardenias draped the Venetian lace cloth, and white gladiolus, asters and chrysanthemums decorated the house.

Major Powers Concerned Over Greek Invasion Plan

Athens, Sept. 15—(AP)—Greece's decision to invade Albania in self-defense if necessary appeared today to have Washington, London and Moscow worried.

There were indications that the Western powers might try to get the Athens government to alter its position.

On Tuesday, a high-ranking member of the Greek delegation to the coming United Nations General Assembly said Greek troops would invade communist Albania if guerrilla forces launched any new attacks on Greece from Albanian soil. He said the U.N. would be told of this decision during the debate on the Greek case.

Today, both the American and British ambassadors in Athens scheduled conferences with Vice Premier Constantin Tsaldaris. It was believed that U.S. Ambassador Henry F. Grady and Sir Clifford Norton, Britain's top diplomat here might try to persuade the Greeks to soft-pedal their talk. Reports from Washington said the U.S. and Britain frown on the Athens decision. Tsaldaris will head the Greek U.N. delegation.

Foreign observers in Moscow said Russia would take a grave view of any Greek invasion of the little country on her northwest frontier. These sources said the current situation contains diplomatic dynamite. They added that any movement of Greek troops across the Albanian border would have serious consequences.

The Moscow press carried stories today stressing the friendship between Albania and Russia. Pravda displayed a headline which read: 'Albanian-Soviet friendship strengthening.'

Woman's Auxiliary Of St. Paul's Church Has General Meeting

On Tuesday evening, September 13, members of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal Church held a general meeting in the parish house with the president, Mrs. Chas. A. White, presiding.

After the devotional given by Mrs. H. A. Bost, Mrs. White welcomed all old and new members and extended a special welcome to new rector, Mr. Ernest Williams, and his family.

Interesting reports were heard on summer activities given by the chapter chairman and the chairman of the various departments.

It was decided to hold open house next Sunday evening from 6 to 8 o'clock in the parish house for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams. All members of the parish were cordially invited to be present.

The reception for the Canterbury club will be held Wednesday evening, October 21, at 7:30 in the parish house.

Mrs. Rouse, chairman of the nominating committee presented the following slate of officers for 1950-51: President, Mrs. O. L. Joyner; vice president, Mrs. J. F. Bowen; secretary, Mrs. W. I. Wooten; treasurer, Mrs. J. Brooks Tucker; U. T. O. chairman, Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr.; supply chairman, Mrs. Jack Edwards; chapter chairman, Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale, Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Mrs. Sam Northrop and Mrs. Robert Greene. The slate was unanimously elected.

Mrs. Thomas, chairman of publicity for the Bazaar, gave a report of the recent meeting of the Bazaar committee. She announced that the Bazaar will be held all day, Thursday, December 1, and lunch and dinner will be served. Each Thursday from 9 to 5 the parish house will be open for sewing. Work is progressing rapidly and many attractive and unusual articles are being planned to make this Bazaar a great success.

At the close of the meeting a social hour of light refreshments was enjoyed.

State's Peanut Crop Estimate Is Under Last Year

Raleigh, Sept. 16—(AP)—The state's 1949 peanut crop was estimated yesterday at 266,200,000 pounds. Last year's crop was 246,626,000 pounds.

The Federal-State Crop Reporting Service based its 1949 forecast on Sept. 1 conditions. It attributed the drop in prospective production to lower yields and smaller acreage.

This year's yield was estimated at 1,100 pounds per acre, compared with 1,175 pounds in 1948 and an average of 1,124 pounds from 1938 to 1947.

The state's acreage this year is 242,000, which is 88,000 acres less than in 1948.

Milk And Egg Production Down

Raleigh, Sept. 16—(AP)—Seasonal declines lowered milk and egg production in the state in August. The Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said yesterday.

Milk production was estimated at 150,000,000 pounds, compared with 156,000,000 in July. The August mark still is equal to the records for the month which was set in 1944.

Egg production in August totaled 70,000,000, a decline of 15 per cent from July but four per cent above production in August, 1946.

Red Oak News

In spite of inclement weather an unexpectedly large crowd attended the annual Lawn Party held by the ladies of the church in the Red Oak Community Center last Tuesday evening. The party is usually held out-doors each year but at the last minute it had to be moved indoors.

The evening's entertainment was Hawaiian music by Mr. Clyde Landing and his son, and guitar music by Herman Heath; acrobatic stunts by little Miss Ann Greene in a stunning costume; instrumental music Miss Pattie Jenkins; accordion music by Mrs. Leon Tyson and rounds and community singing by the guests.

Highlights of the entertainment were a solo, "My Buddy" sung by Mrs. Edgar Denton. Mrs. William May sang "Shortening Bread" and the guests joined in the chorus and as an encore she sang, "My Hero."

The ladies of the church had prepared hundreds of the most beautiful and attractive sandwiches of every size, shape and color and these were served with hot coffee.

Big Tax Evasion Trial Continues

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 16—(AP)—Trial of Josephus D. Parker, Eagle Springs Wine Manufacturer, on charges of tax evasion continued in federal district court here today.

The government built up its contention in yesterday's session that checks for wine purchases were made over to insurance companies carrying Parker policies and that such funds were not recorded as part of his income.

Parker is charged with owing the government more than $114,000 in victory and income taxes for the years 1943, 1944, and 1945.

Psalms Direct Our Daily Lives

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Psalms 15; 24:1-6; 143:8-10.

Lord, who shall abide in Thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in Thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbor, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor . . . but he honoreth them that fear the Lord.

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved. He shall stand in Thy holy hill.

Teach me to do Thy will; for Thou art my God: Thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

Psalms Direct Our Daily Lives

THEY TEACH CONDUCT PLEASING TO JEHOVAH

Scripture—Psalms 15; 24:1-6; 143:8-10.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL AT THE present time there is much lawlessness, intolerance and intemperance living in all parts of the world. Such manifestations always follow a war, and World War II was of such magnitude and brutality that the aftermath of crime has been intensified. Even some very young children have committed crimes.

This is a temperance lesson—meaning not only that we should be abstemious in our drinking habits, but that we should use self-control in all our conduct and also in our thinking. The Psalms assigned to this lesson show us the way to direct our lives in a manner pleasing to God.

Psalm 15, written by King David, reads: "Lord, who shall abide in Thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in Thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and getting further and further away from the idea of condemning a lawless person. We now try to understand what causes such a person to act as he does—whether child or adult—and to help them to adjust to the good life.

Little children can be taught not to cheat at play—to "play fair." So trained, they will not be tempted to take advantage of others in business deals when they grow up, or to deceive others.

In the 24th Psalm David summed up what he wrote in the 15th:

"Who shall ascend unto the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in His holy place?"

"He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity nor sworn deceitfully.

"He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation." The verses assigned to us in speaketh the truth in his heart."

"He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbor, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor.

"In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoreth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

"He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved."

The "tabernacle" means tent—the original name for what was called "the tabernacle of the wilderness," which contained the Holy of Holies, where God appeared.

The "holy hill" was Mt. Zion. No lying or gossiping, no speaking evil of those with whom we associate are acceptable to Jehovah. Right living, kindness, tolerance and service to mankind are pleasing to Him.

Pirates Unveil Dazzling Attack, Upset Marines 24-0

Thriff's Aerials Play Big Role In Opening Triumph

By EUGENE PRICE

Coach Bill Dole's East Carolina Pirates unveiled a devastating and dazzling aerial attack here last night to dwarf a Cherry Point Marine aggregation 24-0 in the Buccaneers' opening game of the 1949 season.

Nearly 4,000 fans packed East Carolina's new stadium to witness the affair which marked the first victory for the locals since 1947.

It was the sensational passing of Quarterback Roger Thriff of Chapel Hill who connected with eight out of thirteen aerial attempts for a total of 253 yards, which paved the way for the Buccaneer win. The Marines outgained the Bucs all the way on the ground.

Three of the touchdowns came in the last 10 minutes of the second period, after being set up by 60, 52 and 20 yard pass gains respectively.

In the second quarter Frank Maennle intercepted a Cherry Point pass on the East Carolina 25. On the first play from scrimmage Thriff fired a long pass to End Eddie Tanner on the Cherry Point 45 and the Portsmouth, Va., sophomore raced all the way down to the 14 yard line before he was stopped.

The Marines stopped the Bucs cold on three ground plays. Then Thriff shot a flat pass to Doug Bryant for the touchdown. It was the first score in East Carolina's stadium and the first in Bryant's football career. He played tackle for Rocky Mount high school.

The attempted conversion was no good, nor were any of the attempted extra point kicks through the upright bars.

In the same quarter, Thriff, who was spilled for a seven yard setback on the preceding play, took to the air again, this time heaving a pass to Mike Kovach for 52 yards and put the Pirates down on the Devil Dog 25. Four plays later Fullback Johnny Smith of Portsmouth went over from the six yard line to score.

On Cherry Point's first play following the TD, East Carolina's Bill Darby intercepted a pass on the Pirate 45 and went all the way to the Leatherneck 39 to set up the third counter. Thriff passed to Freshman End Dwight Shoe of Salisbury to put the ball on the Marine 15 with a first and ten.

The Buccaneer quarterback picked up five yards through the line then fired a touchdown pass to Shoe for the third score of the game to give the Pirates a halftime lead of 18-0. A drive highlighted by Mike Kovach's 20 and 15 yard runs carried the ball down to the Marine 10 early in the second half. Smith broke through the line for 10 yards and the Pirates' fourth touchdown. Kovach, a Tarry Town, N. Y., sophomore, opened the last quarter with the longest run of the game from scrimmage, getting off a 40 yard jaunt to carry the ball down to the Marine 28. The ball was lost on downs four plays later.

Doug Bryant, taking a short pass from Thriff, raced 52 yards to the Cherry Point 22 late in the last period to set up what would have been a fifth touchdown had it not been for a penalty. A 22 yard run by Smith was called back for offensive holding and the Bucs did not threaten again.

Cherry Point threatened twice. With a dynamic little halfback named Tom Shephard leading the way, they carried down to the Buc two yard line in the opening quarter. Stan Peele recovered a fumble to give the Bucs possession back on their own 20 to halt the threat.

The Marines moved within the shadow of the goal posts in the third with Fullback Kapelewski and Shephard doing most of the carrying. They lost on downs on the Pirate 15.

Pirate punter Bill Darby had a 70 yard, a 47 yard and a 40 yard punt built in in the third quarter because of penalties. The Bucs averaged 39 yards on the kicks nevertheless. Cherry Point averaged 36 yards. First downs favored Cherry Point 15 to 13.

The lineups: East Carolina—Ends Peel, Daugherty, Shoe, Winslow, Bradley, Tanner; tackles, Kilpatrick, Byrd, Auerbach, McKenzie, McDonald; guards, Booth, Trotman, Autry, Bass, Ellis; centers, Prominski, Madigan and Polilli; backs, Thriff, Danks, Maennle, Smith, Bryant, Siler, Kovach, Darby, B. Smith and Boyd.

Cherry Point—Ends, Cleveland, Davis and Bennett; tackles, Thompson, Leoni, Brown, Bekak; guards, Davis, Dockery, Lemire, Seagraves; centers, Effert, Beckham; backs, Anderson, Kapelewski, Shephard, Christianson, Bond, Thomopolous, Thompson, Jakubowski.

Phantoms Face Hard Scrap In Opening Contest Tonight

Play Edenton In College Stadium At 8:00; Aces Reported Below '48 Form, But Strong

The Edenton Aces who invade the Greenville High School Phantoms in the Northeastern Conference curtain raiser here tonight just "ain't what they were last year," word from Edenton said this week.

But even so, Coach Boley Farley's Phantoms are expected to have their hands full from the opening kickoff and for four quarters thereafter.

Both teams are green. The Edenton squad, which lost the conference championship 7-6 to Kinston in the last game of the season last year, opened its 1949 campaign with a scoreless deadlock with Jacksonville High, a team Greenville defeated last year.

Missing from the Aces lineup is Russell Wheeler, the Mr. Everything of the 1949 season and the main cog of the Edenton machine. The Edenton club is built this year around a 196 pound fullback Earl Goodwin, a terrific plunger who will have to bear the brunt of the Aces attack this season.

Bill Cozart, Edenton sports writer and follower of Northeastern conference activity for a number of years, predicted early this week that Edenton would have to resort to Wallace Wade football of 1938—defense and prayer for breaks.

The backfield lineup for Edenton will feature Goodwin, fullback, who will probably do most of the kicking and passing; Paul Lane or Richard Hoskins at tall back; Frank Hughes at wingback; Shorby Minshew at blocking back. Minshew will alternate at guard with Mack Privott.

The ends: Donald Batton and Charlie Morgan, both reserves last season; tackles: Gene Taylor, 300 pound sophomore, and Ray White or Ernie White.

The Phantoms, whose prowess have not yet been tried, wound up their preparatory drills with a light workout yesterday.

Their lone taste of outside opposition was in a scrimmage workout with Farmville last week in which they showed up well in the backfield but looked ragged in the forward wall tackle positions.

The Box . . .

Interest Mounts In Title Battle

San Francisco, Sept. 16—(AP)—Tremendous interest is being shown in the Ezzard Charles-Pat Valenting 15-round heavyweight championship fight, to be held in San Francisco Cow Palace Oct. 14.

The early response to the match in the way of ticket demand, indicates a sellout crowd. The big indoor pavilion, just outside the city limits, has been scaled to seat 16,629. With standees, close to 20,000 can be accommodated.

Prices will range from $3 to $20. In addition there are 300 sponsor badges at $50 apiece. A full house would gross $180,000.

As heavyweight title bouts go this one may be only average but the fight will appeal to thousands of fans out this way who have grown to middle age without having seen one. The last championship in this immediate area was 41 years ago when Jack Johnson stopped Pugnacious, Smaller Stanley Ketchell.

And in San Francisco proper, the last heavyweight title go was in 1904 when Jim Jeffries flattened challenger Jack Monroe.

Valentino, shaggy haired local puncher, holds the California state title. His followers firmly believe he has an excellent chance to lift Charles' National Boxing Association crown.

The University of Florida football team has 20 lettermen.

After twenty years as a double wingback player and coach, Florida's grid mentor Ray (Bear) Wolf has adopted the T formation this season.

Motor Traffic Is Big Hazard In Ryder Cup Play

Ganton, England, Sept. 16—(AP)—A black-topped road with automobiles racing both ways along it is the number one hazard for the world's top professional golfers as they set out today to dispute possession of the Ryder Cup.

The road cuts the 17th fairway about 100 yards in front of the tee and lashes across the 18th about 150 yards in front of the green. Players have to dare traffic to follow the balls on both holes.

Ben Hogan, non-playing captain of the American squad, sought to have the road banned from the list of legal hazards, but failed.

If a drive stops on the pavement it will just have to be played straight from the hard surface to the green.

Between 1932 and 1944, Army never was able to defeat Notre Dame in their annual football series.

Nine Umpires Had Change Decisions Suit Local Fan

By CHESTER WALSH

A Greenville baseball fan persuaded nine Coastal Plains League umpires to change their decisions the other night and he is chirping and bragging about it.

"I just told them . . . that they had to do it and they did it. You got to know how to handle baseball umpires to get 'em to do what you want."

That's what "Smug" Respass, manager of Respass' famous barbecue place, on the Bethel highway, said.

"I pay my money to see ball games and razz the umpires. That's part of the game. Everybody gives 'em hallelujah Jericho and that helps the fans to get their money's worth," Respass said.

He invited the nine Coastal Plain League umpires to "have supper on the house" last Sunday night. One or two of them waved him aside; others held up their thumbs. Anyway, the arbiters of baseball gave way to Respass' "kick" and they agreed to go out to the popular restaurant and eat steaks, barbecue Brunswick stew, and all of the "trimmings."

"Smug" Respass umpired the feast. When an umpire said, "No thanks, I've got plenty," the host piled more steak or barbecue on his plate. Umpires have to take a lot from the fans, and it's part of the game. They "look everything" their host offered them Sunday night.

Incidentally, it was an interesting fellowship meeting. The umpire swapped experiences they had on the diamond this season, passed up the unpleasant ones and they agreed that "the typical American citizen is the baseball fan."

Umpires present were J. F. Knight of Lafayette, Ala., C. M. Barnhill of Winterville, T. R. Gurley of Kenly, Steve Nobles of Winterville, Lloyd Toll of Muncie, Ind., J. C. Whitt of Carolina, N.C., Dallas Thornton of Leonard, Texas, Earl Barter of Maine, and Walter Kovak of Johnston, Pa.

An inquiring newspaper reporter picked up the following facts from the umpires — and they are fine chaps, all of 'em.

In 1946, the league hired during the season 37 umpires; in 1947, only 11; in 1948, only 10, and in 1949—the present season, only 11.

And that record will stand out against any league in the South as an old-time baseball fan said.

Another interesting bit of information the reporter picked up was that during the past three years League President Roy Goodmon did not have a complaint of any of his umpires drinking or otherwise misbehaving.

This, however, is not official, but it is understood that President Goodmon has recommended five of his umpires for Class B baseball in the Carolina, Florida International and Southeastern leagues.

Pacific Tourney Running To Form

Los Angeles, Sept. 16—(AP)—Duel for the men's singles crown of the annual Pacific Southwest Tennis championships are running true to form.

National Champion Richard (Pancho) Gonzales was paired against Eric Sturgess of South Africa and Wimbledon ruler Ted Schroeder renews his net rivalry with veteran Frank Parker tomorrow.

Both matches are semi-finals, and if form continues to prevail, Gonzales and Schroeder will take up where they left off in the recent Nationals at Forest Hills, where Pancho scored an upset over Ted.

Washington, Sept. 15—(AP)—The labor department said today construction began in August on about 98,000 houses or apartments.

This was 2,000 more than in July and 11,400 over August last year. August was the fourth straight month in which new homes were started at about the 100,000 rate.

The department's bureau of labor statistics said homebuilding activity, as measured by housing starts, reached the highest levels on record for June, July and August.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

Obviously the railroads cannot be run efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law Which Are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

- 1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
- 2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
- 3—Decision by arbitration.
- 4—Decision by neutral referees.
- 5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employees, and are the most highly paid of all employees on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employees of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... It is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow. In view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act. . . ."

What Are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

By WILLIAM HOBSON

Chapter 6
Jay Allison watched Ellen go and then stepped between the post office and a general store building. He came out in the alley and sprinted for the back of the hotel. He went in, got the gunnysack containing his saddle gear and rifle, carried it back down the stairs and set off in the darkness. He didn't see the figure of Peg Smith following him. "That you, Jay?" asked the lawyer's voice. "It's me." "Good. We've got a long ride ahead of us." "How far?" "About twenty miles. We can make it before midnight." "Once, when they pulled up to let their horses blow a bit and to light cigarettes, Jay said sharply to the lawyer, "Hold that match!" He swung down and laid his ear to the ground. He heard nothing. He went back along the trail for a hundred yards. "Well?" the lawyer inquired. "One man," Jay said briefly. "He's swung to the east and is trying to come in ahead." Jay led off to the left, keeping his position by the stars. They angled for a quarter of a mile until, crossing a sharp ridge, sound might be bracketed. He waited for the sound of his horse's heavy breathing to subside somewhat, and that was almost a mistake. The shot came from out of the night, not more than sixty yards away. It was a rifle. Jay heard the high spanging report, saw the brief orange flash, and began thumping his six-shooter. He fired four times and listened to the sound of a running horse heading away to the north. Swinnerton said, "Whoever he was, he'll try again. He can't pick up our trail until morning, and if he tries to follow it one of Brad's boys will stop him cold." Jay felt his breath go out in surprise as the lawyer led off. "Are you taking me to Brad Morden's camp?" he demanded. "I'm taking you to where Joe is with some of Brad's men looking out after him," Swinnerton said. Jay let him take the lead then and they rode on through the night for what seemed to be hours and hours. At last they entered a sharp defile and dropped down a canyon until it opened up and from somewhere out of the night came a man's voice. It was not more than thirty feet away. "Ease up and rest, gents. Stand pat and call yore names." "It's Jim," the lawyer said. "That you, Charley?" A man's form came through the night. He carried a repeating rifle in his hands. "Yep. Who's with you?" "A friend," Jay answered quickly. "All right, mister," chuckled back the voice of the guard. "Pass on Jim; you and Mister Friend." The camp loomed up close. Jay saw the outlines of three corrals of pole and brush and a crude cabin of brush daubed over with mud. They rode up and swung down. Jay followed the lawyer in and

and what you're goin' to do if you ever want to see yore brother well again. Jim and me are in the house-collecting business. Him bein' a lawyer, he alius manages to find out from his clients how many and what kind of stock they and their rancher friends have on hand. He passes the word along to me and my boy and we bide our time and then raid. "But there's one band of hosses Jim and me ain't been able to get yet and that's the sixty or so head of thoroughbred Morgans on Mike Randall's place. We tried it a few night ago but they was well guarded, and in the mele Joe, who was helpin' us, got caught by a big slug." Brad Morgan's voice droned on. "Nobody but Jim and me knowed about you. So when Joe got shot we had to think fast. I've got a man or two on Randall's payroll, but if Joe showed up missin', crazy like he is over the Randall girl, it might look suspicious. So you're goin' right on the ranch and take over Joe's old job. You'll take yore old line-cabin saw him shake hands with a big sandy-haired man of about forty. He turned and said, "Jay, I want you to meet Brad Morden." Jay stuck out his hand and Morden took it, his jaw almost sagging. "Glory be!" he burst out. "It ain't true, I'm seein' it with my own eyes but it ain't true. This is Joe." "He will be for a while," chuckled the lawyer. Jay's eyes flicked around the room to four other men, all watching him with curious stares. "Where's Joe?" he asked abruptly. "Shucks," grinned the horse thief. "No reason to be in a hurry. Plenty of time after we talk a bit. You're goin' to help us steal Randall's herd of Morgans." Jay swung around to let his cold eyes play on Swinnerton's face. It all came clear now. The lawyer saw the look and chuckled. "Yep, you guessed it, Jay. Brad and I are partners. And you're going to play ball with us or Joe will never get back to the ranch." Jay sat down beside the stove and Morden nodded toward the big fire-blackened coffeepot. "Help yoreself, Jay." He poured himself some more coffee and lifted the tin cup, in a sort of mocking salute to Jay Allison. "I'll give you the setup here, Jay.

Moseley And Sugg Entertain Jaycees At Supper Meeting

By CHESTER WALSH
The Junior Chamber of Commerce members, jubilant over their success in selling season tickets for the ECTC football games in the new stadium on the college campus, breezed through an interesting supper meeting last night; heard committee reports; welcomed some special guests and then had a good time. President Louis W. Gaylord presided. Bancroft (Mark Twain) Moseley, versatile entertainer at any meeting, elaborated on his introduction of the speaker of the evening, Benjamin Bruce (Irvin S. Cobb) Sugg, a past president of the Jaycees elucidated on numerous matters of humorous interest, touched lightly of "scrap paper," then bowed and sat down and received quite a bit of applause. President Gaylord thanked the various committee chairmen for their good work, then dismissed the meeting in plenty time for the football game at ECTC stadium.

Iodine In . . .

(Continued from page one) carried by the blood stream. This hormone controls the rate of heat production in your body. It aids in stimulating the normal growth of bones, hair and skin. It helps the normal development of the brain, helps stimulate sexual development at the age of puberty. It helps in the maintenance of a normal pregnancy. And it aids in the production of an adequate milk supply for nursing mothers.

If the gland doesn't get enough iodine it doesn't function properly. One possible result of such iodine starvation is the disease called "simple goiter." One form of "toxic (poisonous) goiter" may result as a complication of simple goiter. Simple goiter is an enlargement of the thyroid gland. The gland, in trying to produce hormones without sufficient iodine, laterally over- strains itself and gets large.
