Senators Report Soviet Military Power Increasing

Committee Says Russia Has Over Five Million Men Under Arms; Going Up

Washington, Sept. 17—(AP)—Two Senate committees reported today that Russia has more than 5,000,000 men under arms and is stepping up her military might.

This estimate of the Soviet military strength was given by the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees in a formal report on the Administration's proposed $1,314,000,000 foreign arms aid bill.

The report accused the Soviet Union of carrying out "apparently a deliberate" policy of increasing its military strength.

Russia increased her military budget for 1948 over 1947 by 19 per cent and her ground forces "are estimated to be in better condition than at any time since the war," the report said.

The senators said the Soviet force in Germany has been boosted from 70,000 to 100,000 men with "increased security measures along its borders (of Russia) and the borders of its satellites."

"All of this activity demonstrated," the report said, "that in the face of the complete demobilization of the forces of the U.S. and the European nations, and without a competing program of military improvement, Soviet policy has been and is to increase its military strength. This policy is apparently a deliberate one on the part of the Soviet government and would exist whether or not the program of aid to free nations is undertaken by the United States."

The Senate will open debate next week on the foreign arms bill. Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) will direct the fight for the bill to rearm friendly nations and strengthen them against communism.

Most of the arms aid for the North Atlantic pact nations, which report said, will go to France which is expected to furnish the hard core of ground resistance to any invasion of Western Europe.

"Assistance is also to be extended to the governments of Norway and Denmark," the report added. "These countries, which have courageously abandoned their historic policy of neutrality and joined with other free nations in an effort to obtain collective security, sorely require assistance to improve and strengthen their military establishments."

Aid will be given to Italy also, it was said, but the report added that the U.S. does not propose in any way to assist or condone any violation of the Italian treaty, and the program of assistance will be carefully limited so as to insure that Italian strength does not exceed the limitations imposed by the treaty.

Population Problem

With Exception Of Japan, No Other Country In The World Is As Crowded As Britain; The Difficulties This Imposes; Still, England's Leaders Oppose Emigration

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

Coincident with the Anglo-American conference in Washington to devise ways of relieving Britain's economic crisis, along comes the Population Reference Bureau, a private research agency in the capital, and tosses this bomb-shell.

Britain has 15,000,000, too many people to support. No other country in the world is so crowded as the United Kingdom, with the exception of Japan. John Bull's crisis will continue so long as he tries to support so many folk on so few acres. Bureau experts advocate spreading this excess population over the Commonwealth.

And what's the answer to this startling estimate of the situation? Well, it's true that the United Kingdom has an area of only 94,279 square miles on which to support a population of 50,000,000. Nine of America's 48 states are bigger than the United Kingdom.

England is a sweet country with its lovely flower-gardens and green lawns and endless miles of hedges. However, the fact remains that she can't begin to provide food for her big population and has to import some 60 per cent of her foodstuffs. This was harshly impressed on her

Soft Coal Strike Danger Mounting

Miners Expected To Stay Away From Pits Next Monday As Pension-Benefit Payments Halted; Steel Picture Brighter

Washington, Sept. 17—(AP)—The danger of a nationwide coal strike next week mounted today but hopes brightened for averting a less-imminent steel strike.

The 400,000 coal miners were expected to stay away from the pits next Monday because their welfare fund's trustees, headed by mine union President John L. Lewis, voted to suspend pension and other benefit payments.

This action was taken at a stormy, five-hour meeting of the fund's three trustees yesterday. The reason was that the fund was fast running out of money. Many coal operators, because their contracts with Lewis have lapsed, have refused to continue paying their 20-cents-a-ton royalty to the fund.

The trustees' meeting was followed by the sudden resignation of the operators' trustee, Ezra Van Horn. He wrote coal owners he wanted to step out right away. In fact, he warned that if they don't name a successor promptly he will go to court to force them to do so.

Meanwhile, chances of avoiding a big steel strike a week from tonight looked better after the government stepped in to bring the disputing industry and CIO steelworkers union together here Monday.

The steel union agreed to send representatives to the meeting with Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

The steel companies also were expected to accept a spokesman for the U.S. Steel Corp., biggest among the steelmakers, said "of course we will attend" Ching's meetings.

About a dozen persons watched Hassan make the plunge into the channel. He made the crossing from France to England last year.

16 Million Vets To Get Dividend

A Few May Receive As Much As $528; Dividend Tax Free

Washington, Sept. 17—(AP)—Some 16,000,000 World War II veterans can now figure out the life insurance dividend checks they may expect within nine months.

Under the deceptively simple formula announced by the Veterans Administration yesterday, a minority of them—but a majority of many thousands—may get a maximum of $528 each.

For the younger ex-G.I.s, the dividend rate is 5 cents a month for each $1,000 of insurance. For those over 40 when the policy was issued, there is a descending scale, with a minimum rate of 20 cents a month for each $1,000 taken out by a man of 55 or over.

The top checks go to the 40-or-under policy-holders who (A) took out the maximum amount of insurance—$10,000—in 1940, when it first became available and (B) retained it in full force for the 36 months that followed.

The $2,800,000,000 special dividend to be paid in the first six months of 1950 covers all national service life insurance policies through their anniversary date in 1949.

The dividend will be paid at the same rate on both term and converted policies. It is not subject to income tax. Veterans must apply for it.

Begin Hunt For Overdue Italian Atlantic Fliers

New York, Sept. 17—(AP)—Coast Guard, Air Force and Canadian aircraft were thrown into a widespread hunt today for a small, single-engine plane long overdue on a projected 2,000 mile non-stop flight from the Azores to New York City.

The little plane, a Beechcraft Bonanza, reportedly was loaded with fuel for 29 hours of flying when it took off with two Italian aviators from the Azores yesterday. Under normal conditions, its gas supply would have been exhausted at 10 a.m. (EST) today.

The search planes started from American and Canadian bases shortly after dawn, about 10 hours after the plane last made radio contact with the Civil Aeronautic Administration's oceanic area control office here.

Rescuers Rush To Help Ship On Rocks Off Cuba

Miami, Fla., Sept. 17—(AP)—Rescue craft today were rushing to aid the 2,500-ton Belgian freighter Brabant aground on rocks off the southern coast of Cuba.

An SOS signal was picked up from the vessel shortly after 1 a.m. (EST). Ships at sea were alerted and the Coast Guard in Miami stood by ready to send help if needed.

Coast Guard Air Sea Rescue headquarters said the Brabant's master reported the vessel was "taking on a little water but was in no immediate danger."

Search Pushed For 2 Brothers

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 17—(AP)—Anson county and federal officers today pressed a search for two brothers wanted on murder charges in the death of a New York World War II veteran.

Nearly $1 Million Paid Out Friday On Leaf Market

Local Warehouse Sales Hit 1,853,196 Pounds Yesterday; Prices Stay High

Almost a million dollars was paid to farmers of this area yesterday by the Greenville tobacco market as prices on the local warehouse floors remained high and sales were heavy.

Figures released this morning by Sales Supervisor W. L. Whedbee show a total of $949,940.42 was paid out yesterday by the local warehouses as tobacco sales totaled 1,853,196 pounds. The day's sales averaged $50.77 per hundred pounds.

Sales for the season on the Greenville tobacco market through yesterday reached 28,342,794 pounds of leaf which was sold by the local market during the first 20 selling days of last season. Whedbee said sales on the Greenville market continue to be heavy, and that tobacco is being marketed approximately 25 per cent faster in this area this season than last season.

On Thursday the Greenville market sold 1,707,342 pounds of tobacco for an average price of $50.81 per hundred, while the average for the Eastern belt for that day as given by the Federal-State Market News Service was only $49.37.

The Greenville market was considerably stronger this week than at any time since the sales opened August 19. There was considerable strengthening in the market this week all the way from the green and lower grades to the high grade cutters, and cutters containing a few wrappers.

According to Whedbee, high company purchases on Friday's sales were brought at $61. per hundred, a three dollar jump over the previous high company purchases of $58. Top prices paid for cutters on the local market until yesterday had been $65, but on yesterday's sales Whedbee said, company purchases broke through the $65 top, and purchased high grade cutters for $66. Many warehouses reported averages ranging between $57 and $54 for entire sales, Whedbee reported.

There was a decided improvement in the quality of the offerings on the sales this week.

Whedbee, in a statement this morning, cautioned tobacco farmers to be "guided not by prices claimed by the individual markets, but by averages which are put out by the Federal-State News Service."

Pitt Sheriff Is Hunting Thief With 75 Cents

Sheriff's officers are called on to solve crimes both large and small, but Pitt County officers last night began the investigation of probably the smallest robbery reported in the history of the county. They are searching for the thief who stole 75 cents.

Deputy Sheriff Jasper Lee Mills and Capt. S. B. Dorsey of the Greenville police department last night were called to the home of James Baker, Negro, near Simpson, when Baker reported that someone broke into his house through a window and took 75 cents from a dresser drawer in the bedroom.

"The only clue we have been able to find was a good footprint at the back door of the house," Mills stated today.

Babson Discusses England

Philadelphia, Sept. 17—(AP)—School boys tore a bus apart last night as they rode home from a high school football game.

Sado managed to flag down a policeman in a radio car and the melee ended with the bus halted at a police station.

Senate Rejects Truman Choice

Search For Someone To Head Munitions Board Begins All Over Again, With New Rules; Reject Nominee Ilgenfritz

Washington, Sept. 17—(AP)—party line test with the Democrats on the winning side.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.)—object of Mr. Truman's recent jibe that there are too many Byrds in Congress—led the fight that scuttled the Ilgenfritz nomination.

It was the second major presidential appointment the Virginian has blocked. His vote was the deciding one when the Senate Military Affairs Committee bottled up the nomination of former Gov. Mon C. Wallgren of Washington to head the National Security Resources Board.

Ilgenfritz—who didn't want the munitions board job in the first place, according to Senator Tydings (D-Md.)—said he couldn't give up his $70,000 pay because he would lose his pension and other benefits.

Tydings argued that Ilgenfritz was the only man in sight for the job. It calls for direction of advance planning for industrial mobilization, the fixing of priorities on materials and the allocation of government buying authority.

In a telegram read to the Senate during the debate, Ilgenfritz offered to work for the government for nothing. But he added he didn't believe any such arrangement would be legal.

Set Homecoming Date For Alumni

Homecoming Day for alumni will be observed this fall at East Carolina Teachers' College Saturday, Oct. 8. Tentative plans were begun last Thursday evening at a meeting of the committee in charge of the event. A varied program is now being scheduled for morning, afternoon, and evening.

Chief attraction of the day will be a football game in the afternoon between the East Carolina Pirates and Elon College. The contest will be staged in the new stadium constructed on the campus here last summer and dedicated Sept. 15.

The Teachers Playhouse, college dramatic club, will stage an outdoor production of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" in a 40 minute version during the evening. Dr. Lawrence, director of speech and dramatics at the college, is director of the play.

College President and Mrs. John D. Messick will hold open house for alumni, students, faculty members, and townspeople of Greenville later in the drawing room of the new home for the college president on Fifth Street, which was recently purchased by the College.

Mrs. DuBose Bullard of Wilson will preside at a meeting of the Executive Board of the Alumni Association to be held during the morning. Officers of the association and chapter presidents are expected to attend.

Other events of the day will be announced later by the Homecoming Day committee.

Tobacco Prices Remain Steady

Raleigh, Sept. 17—(AP)—Price averages were reported generally steady yesterday on flue-cured tobacco markets.

Fire Sweeps Vessel While Most Aboard Were Sleeping; 192 Known Dead Among Holiday Throng; Others Trapped Below Decks, Bodies Not Recovered

Toronto, Sept. 17—(AP)—Fire roared through the Great Lakes Cruiser Noronic at her pier today and by noon, police said 186 bodies had been removed from the wreckage.

In addition they said three persons died in hospitals and four were recovered from the water, making a known death toll up to noon of 192. Investigating officials at the scene of the Great Lakes worst disaster in a century said they thought the number of dead might mount as high as 226.

The fire, which raced through the 36-year-old vessel, broke out while most of those aboard were sleeping. Operating officials put the number aboard at 512 passengers and 170 crew members. The 6,906-ton Noronic tied up at her pier in downtown Toronto last night with holiday trippers bound for Detroit and Cleveland for the Thousand Islands. It was to be her last cruise of the season.

Hundreds of passengers escaped in a frantic, screaming, pushing mob, after they were awakened by alarms and cries of "fire," some leaped to the pier, some to other vessels, some into the water.

Others were trapped and their uncounted bodies were still believed to be huddled in the submerged C-deck. The death toll rose as firemen kept bringing up the charred, broken bodies of the victims.

They said it might be three days before the fate of all those aboard could be established. It was impossible to compile a list of survivors for the time being. The total number aboard was not accurately known. Passengers who were listed were unavailable.

The operating management of Canadian Steamship Lines, owners of the ruined vessel, said the best estimate they could make was that there were approximately 517 passengers and 173 crew members.

Two women died in a hospital. One of them was identified as Mrs. Eunice Dietrich of Cleveland, Ohio. Firemen had to cut through the steaming wreckage with torches to bring out 11 charred, unidentified bodies from the saloon section.

One fireman coming out of the blackened ruins of the forward part of the main deck shouted to fire Chief Sam Hill: "There must be 25 or 30 bodies up there."

All but about 20 of the passengers were said to be United States citizens.

Several scores were on hospital injured lists, at least 16 seriously hurt. Hundreds of others, awakened by the flames, escaped by jumping to the pier, into the water, or clambering over rails to ships tied up near by.

Captain William Taylor, of Sarnia, Ont., the ship's master, smashed in cabin doors to waken many passengers and carried at least one woman to safety. Crew members said he leaped over the bow as flames closed in on him.

The ship, bound for a cruise today to Prescott and the Thousand Islands, tied up here last night.

The fire broke out in the intersection and then roared through the wooden deck structure of the 36-year-old vessel.

Garner and the late Mr. Garner of Newport, were married on Sunday afternoon, September 11, at four o'clock in the Williamston Christian Church. The pastor, Rev. John L. Goff, officiated. A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Juanita Stokes of Greenville, soloist. Decorations for the church included wrought iron candelabra with tall cathedral candles, and tall floor standards of white asters and gladioli. Rich green huckleberry, oregon and trailing plumosa were used to form a perfect setting. The pews were marked with colonial nosegays of white asters.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and having small self-covered buttons from the short V-neck to the waist. The shoulders were encircled with ivory and white seed pearls and the long sleeves ended in points over the hands. The gathered skirt featured a bustle which extended into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls matching the design of those on the gown. She carried a cascade bouquet of silver sheen chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid and showered with feathered chrysanthemums. Miss Louise Griffin, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a gown of harvest gold taffeta with a fitted bodice and off shoulder neckline encircled by a bertha cuff and a bouffant skirt worn over a hoop. She carried an arm bouquet of brandy wine roses and orchid asters tied with purple ribbon. The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Griffin, sister of the bride, Mrs. Bill Winborn, cousin of the bride, of Raleigh, Mrs. Madeline Rivers, sister of the groom, of New Orleans, and Miss Margie Harris of Greenville. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and carried bouquets of shaded orchid and purple asters tied with matching ribbon. All the bride's attendants wore matching taffeta mitts and taffeta halo bonnets. Mrs. Joseph Griffin served as mistress of ceremonies. She was dressed in black and wore a corsage of pale pink roses. Leland Garner, twin brother of the groom, of Newport served as best man. The ushers were Walter G. Garner, brother of the groom, of Greenville, Herman Moore, Jr., of Kingston, Carl Abee, of Greenville, and W. O. Griffin, Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore blue-green tissue faille with beaded trim and black accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of Signory wine crepe, and she also chose black accessories. Their corsages were of yellow roses. Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained the bridal party, out-of-town guests, and friends at a reception on the lawn of their home. After the reception the bridal couple left for a motor trip. For traveling the bride wore a Swansdown model suit of wine Miron gabardine with a brown hat and brown alligator accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Mrs. Garner was graduated from Williamston High School and the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. For the past three years she has served as laboratory and X-ray technician at Pitt General hospital in Greenville. Mr. Garner was graduated from Greenville High School and served three years in the Air Corps. Since his discharge he has been connected with Ormond Wholesale Company in Greenville.

After September 20 the couple will be at home on Woodlawn Avenue in Greenville. Marguerite Austin Returns To Campus After Travel Abroad After a summer spent in study and travel abroad Marguerite Z. Austin, faculty member of the foreign languages department of East Carolina Teachers College, has returned to Greenville to resume her work at the college. Miss Austin was a student at the Sorbonne University of Paris, during part of the summer. She also traveled in Switzerland, Spain, and Germany. During her trip abroad Miss Austin was a guest for a week of Dr. Katherine Holzclow, formerly head of the home economics department of East Carolina Teachers College.

It Didn't Happen

Longview, Tex., Sept. 17—(AP)—A freight train loaded with enough gasoline and explosives to blast its way high jumped the tracks a mile west of here yesterday—and that's all. There was no explosion, no fire, no one was hurt. Just 25 cars, 18 of them loaded with the highly dangerous commodities, off the track.

Drilling For Oil Slated In Onslow

Wilmington, Sept. 17—(AP)—Drilling for oil will begin in Onslow County near Jacksonville within the next 60 days, J. Sterling McCuskey, driller representing New York and Houston interests said here today. McCuskey said he was making preparations now to move in his 5,000 foot capacity diesel drilling machine and added that "it won't be very long" before actual work gets underway. He said he has 127,000 acres, 80,000 acres of which are in Onslow and Pender counties, under lease along the coast from New Bern to Charleston, S. C.

There is every indication, he said, that oil producing Tuscaloosa sands lies beneath this coastal section and added "we expect to get it." Studies of the area by nationally known geologists indicate that this coastal section is a potential oil and gas producer, McCuskey said. All oil companies involved have 3,666,576 acres leased along the 200-mile coastline and extending 75 miles inland, he said.

Rehearsals Open For Orchestra Monday Evening

The East Carolina orchestra will begin rehearsals for the fall Monday evening, September 19, at 7:00 o'clock in the Wright building on the East Carolina Teachers College campus, according to an announcement by Dr. Rudolph R. Willmann, director and conductor. Membership in this organization is open to those people in Greenville and other communities in eastern North Carolina, college students, and faculty members who play orchestral instruments. The East Carolina orchestra was organized last January. During its first season under the direction of Dr. Willmann it made three public appearances. A special concert given during the Greenville Community Arts Festival last spring presented the orchestra to the public for the first time. Two other concerts were given during commencement exercises at East Carolina. Plans are being made for the orchestra to make several appearances during 1949-1950.

Hybrid Seed Corn 'Sideline' Yielding Impressive Harvest

A Pitt County farmer who has been raising hybrid seed corn for the past six years is looking forward to one of his best yields this year.

Mark Smith, of near Bellartur, who raises the hybrid "just as sort of an interesting sideline," says his 100 acres of the crossed corn is being harvested now and it looks like one of his more prosperous years as far as hybrid corn is concerned.

Smith's corn, raised in cooperation with the Pitt Farmers' Co-op will be dried and treated at the plant in Washington and will be sold to farmers desiring the NC-27 hybrid all over this section.

And although his yield of between 80 and 76 bushels per acre this year promises to repay him well for his labors, Smith said this week that the corn project just fascinates and attracts him anyway. "I love to see it grow," he says. "It responds to weather conditions more than any crop I know," he explained.

Smith has had some lean years in his corn raising. Last year was one of them. "But you can figure that on the average raising corn for seed is right profitable," he assured. He had two good years prior to the bad year in 1948 and now he is experiencing another good yield.

It all began some six or seven years ago when Smith started raising hybrid seed for the Funk Hybrid company, a northern concern. It was on an experimental basis then. Smith grew a number of different hybrids on the same plot of land to determine which was more desirable for this particular section.

Later he started growing for the FOX here. He obtains his seed from the Extension Service in Raleigh. Smith raised NC-26 along the earlier years but for the past two seasons has grown NC-27 which is recommended for this type of land.

Seed from Raleigh are already treated when Smith gets them. His job is to plant the corn, seeding that the "male" grains are in different rows from the "females" (usually one row of males to three rows of females) and to keep the tassels of the female corn from ever coming out.

The male corn pollinates all the corn in the field and the cross breeding is so completed. Each row of male corn is of course self-pollinated and can not be used for seed. It is used for feed corn to be given to stock, etc.

One of the catches of the hybrid seed production, is that when the corn is planted it must all be done at the same time and should some of it not come up, the entire field must be replanted. Smith explained that all the corn must be tasseling at the same time so the male stalks can fertilize the females.

The Bellartur farmer said a little more care has to be taken with the corn than with most of his other crops. He pointed out that more fertilizer and a little more attention is necessary to produce a good yield.

Smith raises other crops, however. He is, like other Pitt county agrarians, a tobacco farmer. He also produces cotton, sweet potatoes and some other minor crops.

"But I really enjoy raising the seed corn. I just like to see that stuff grow," he declared.

Fire Still Guards 418 Miners Buried By Mystery Explosion

Kamen, Germany, Sept. 16—(AP)—After three and one-half years, a stubborn fire still guards the tomb of 418 German miners in this tiny Ruhr valley coal town.

The men were entombed in February 1946 by a mighty explosion that never has been explained. It was one of the worst mine disasters in history.

The entire shaft was cut off. Miners flooded it in an effort to halt the raging fire that followed the blast. Then it was sealed off to protect other veins.

The fire never has actually stopped, officials of the Essen Steinkohle Werke said. Crews have dug steadily from another direction ever since to reach the area and remove the bodies.

"It will take another year," said Director General R. J. Werning.

Eventually the bodies will be exhumed for burial in the village cemetery.

The disaster cost the company an estimated ten million marks ($3,000,000), without calculating the unexplored coal veins which were blocked off.

The effect never has worn off in a community of only 8,000 people. Trades union officials said even now the young men of Kamen are reluctant to become miners and risk such an experience.

Werning said mine experts have examined every possibility to explain the blast that shook the Ruhr countryside. They finally blamed the weather.

"That is the only conclusion we could reach," he said.

On that February night, the Ruhr valley experienced a peculiar phenomenon. The air suddenly became heavy and hot. Then it was split by a deafening thunderstorm and a brilliant display of lightning.

The mine men think something in this peculiar combination must have touched off gas that otherwise would have been harmless. The Kamen mine had the reputation of being among the safest in the Ruhr.

Prices On Pork And Beef Continue To Edge Upward

Pork and beef prices continued edging upward this week in many market centers.

Also higher were top grade eggs, carrots and big Western baking potatoes. Somewhat lower in most stores were apples, lettuce, snap beans, melons and cabbage.

Although many trade sources predicted that meat prices would start downward well before the end of the month, there was no indication this week they had even reached their seasonal peak.

The Agriculture Department estimated the seasonal drop in hog prices this fall and early winter might be somewhat greater than the 20-year average of 18 per cent because of anticipated heavy marketings. Cattle prices declines probably will be smaller, the livestock report added.

Veal prices were up slightly at retail this week, and lamb was about unchanged following last week's gentle decline. Poultry also was mostly steady. Top grade eggs climbed one to five cents a dozen—a continuation of the seasonal upswing in effect for several weeks now.

The early-fall shipping pattern began shaping up in the produce markets. Far-western apples began arriving in Eastern stores. The first California tomatoes reached the Atlantic seaboard—but some traders said they'd have lots of competition yet from tomatoes grown in nearby gardens. The Carolinas, Virginia and Maryland started shipping sweet potatoes to far-distant markets.

WHY GO TO CHURCH?
Some people go to church to be entertained. The minister is looked upon as the leading actor and the choir as his supporting cast. If together they do not put on a good show, people begin to complain and demand a change of pastors would be desirable.

How much of variance this whole attitude is with the original idea of worship and preaching. The church is made of a group of people who, under the power of God's Spirit, are banded together for the purpose of cultivating a certain kind of life and pursuing certain ideals. Worship is an experience in which groups of people meet God in the quietness of some holy place. Preaching is the setting forth of God's will for men, as understood and interpreted by a person who has been set aside that he might study the Bible and apply his truths to the situations of human life. Choirs are bands of people trained to sing to the praise and glory of God.

Entertainment has nothing to do with the matter. Going to church means keeping an appointment with the Almighty. Worship is a duty as well as a great privilege, but the church service is never intended to be a performance designed primarily to keep the worshippers entertained.

Around Capitol Square

ROADS—With sale of the first fifty millions of the authorized two hundred million dollar rural road bonds slated for September 26, preliminary planning and selection of roads to be improved is generally ahead of schedule. Several division commissioners have released for publication the list of roads selected for first attention, and on the same day the bonds are sold Dr. R. E. Zarp, commissioner for the fourth division, will make public his list at a barbecue on his Johnston twenty farm.

SLOW—The tenth highway division, comprising most of the high mountain counties, has been a bit slower than the rest of the state in working out a schedule for road improvement. This might have been expected in view of geographic and political conditions in the area. The mountain counties generally voted against Kerr Scott for governor last year, but they turned in overwhelming majorities in favor of his rural road bond issue. Figures read at a recent highway commission meeting showed the tenth division led all others in support of the road bonds, approximately nine to one. Because of higher construction cost on mountain roads, in relation to county allocations of money on population and mileage basis, the same amount of money will not build as many miles of road there as in the middle part of the state and some of the counties will get less than they need. This has complicated the problem of selection and contributed to slowing up of preliminary activities.

SPUR—With that in mind Governor Scott and Highway Chairman Henry Jordan spent Wednesday in the tenth division conferring with local people in effort to spur activity. Reports indicate their mission was highly successful.

PHYSICAL—There are political and economic problems involved in road construction, but primarily the question is physical and geographic. In the mountains the engineering problem involves grades and curves. In the piedmont rolling country big bulldozers can shove a little hill into a little valley and the road base is ready. So it works out that mid-state counties get more money in dollars that will go farther in construction per mile than either the far east or the far west. That is balanced off by the fact more people are in need of roads. In the long run, the adopted formula seems to be fair, but it doesn't relieve the problems of swamp lands and mountains.

POLICY—We come back to state policy with respect to width of rights of way and pavement. Engineers generally favor upon the idea of narrow roads. But Dale Thrash, highway commissioner for the tenth division, thinks 12-foot spacing, instead of the generally approved 18 to 22 feet width, will serve the needs of many mountain roads. Chairman Jordan agrees and Governor Scott is willing to go along with them. Construction and safety engineers don't like 13-foot roads, but when there is a mountain a thousand feet high on one side and a valley a thousand feet deep on the other the item of right of way space assumes tremendous importance.

COOPERATION—Both Governor Scott and Chairman Jordan made it clear to your reporter they were not trying to go over the heads of anybody in the tenth division in their recent visit, but were concerned only about getting the program underway in that area so that it would be at least current with the rest of the state.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
New York.—(AP)—A mere male came up today with an answer to what's wrong with the way women dress.

The answer is—women.

"They are too dictated to," said Charles La Maire. "They accept too much dictation as to what they should wear."

La Maire is in a position to do a little dictating himself. As wardrobe director for twentieth Century Fox films, he runs a staff of 200 clothes experts. They have the pleasant chore of fitting lace and fur pretties to girls like Betty Grable, Jeanne Crain, Dorothy McGuire, June Haver and Maureen O'Hara.

But the clothing of film stars is designed to fit one's personal architecture. This isn't true of the average woman.

La Maire, a designer himself, said the biggest mistake most women make is to follow blindly the dictates of fashion oracles—or to try to pour herself into a certain type of dress merely because it looked good on a department store mannequin.

"A girl shouldn't pay any attention to what she hears of Paris styles," he emphasized.

"She should think first of her own shape, and dress to it. If her figure doesn't go with what she wants to wear, then she should change her shape."

La Maire has only a weary sympathy for gals who think they can achieve a pencil silhouette with a tight corset.

"The excess flesh has to go somewhere," he sighed. "It has to go either up or down, forward or backward."

"But some studios like them," he conceded. "Everybody in their pic-

Somebody Told Me...

By L. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR.

Wife Rachel and I were discussing my writing a column on writing the column. "But that's a topic I'm saving for an emergency," I told her. "When every other topic is used up, I can do that one."

Then we looked at the two-page list of un-written-on topics I have, and decided that by the time that list is gone I'll have another two pages, and so on. With this arrangement we figure I can keep going for at least 50 years more, disregarding the possibility of my getting fired.

This column is four months and three days old, or 1,200 inches of print, or 72,000 words, depending on how you look at it. When the first column was printed on May 14th, I had 15 columns in reserve. Now I have two, which aren't worth printing. The list of column topics continues to grow because almost every one of the topics requires a visit to some person or place. Nine and a half hours a day at Edwards Auto Supply minimizes those visits.

The best thing that ever happened to the column was my erroneous statement that Manager Pappy Williams of the Greenville baseball team was 44 years old, which was what Somebody Told Me. This error brought a protest from the readers, which was welcome proof that there are readers. Pappy's wife, realizing my financial status, sent me 50c in coin to be used for procuring the Pap's birth certificate. The document from the State of Mississippi proved beyond all doubt that Pappy reached his 36th year in July. The question of Pappy's age brought more comment than any other column. The last thing I ever intend to do in this column is offend anyone, but try as I might, it happened. One reader didn't speak to me for two months after a column appeared.

Somebody Asked Me why I refer to my wife in the column as Wife Rachel. I could call her Rachel, but new readers wouldn't know who she is. I could refer to her as my wife, but then the readers wouldn't know her name. And then I could say Rachel, my wife, but that would be the conventional thing.

One day a fellow came in the store and said, "Are you the guilty party who writes that column in the paper?"

"I'm guilty," I said.

"If I were your wife I'd take a broom and run you out of town for putting me before the public the way you do her. But at least you give her credit for making you what you are."

This floored me; in fact, it left me speechless. The matter of "putting (Rachel) before the public" never had occurred to me. The purpose of the column is to give a picture of the American scene, but more specifically, the Greenville scene. Having a wife is a normal undertaking, and wives play a prominent part in everyday life. Therefore, Wife Rachel will continue to be my main character.

The column is usually written after 11 p.m. and takes from 30 minutes to an hour. Gathering the material takes at least that long. The columns hardest to write are the worst ones; the ones not so bad come easy.

And I thank you.

are so many girls around who look like they have either a front or a rear bumper.

An advocate of the plunging neckline, La Maire has no normal objections to fashions but insists he doesn't allow them in the twentieth century-fox studio.

"That I absolutely prohibit. Anything that isn't part of the body—anything that doesn't move with the body—it isn't right."

"But some studios like them," he conceded. "Everybody in their pictures wear them. I know one actress who must have 100 bosoms at home."

No, he didn't care to name her—but fans can rest assured it isn't Grable.

La Maire designed wardrobes for Broadway musicals and operated his own exclusive shop in Manhattan before going west.

He sees fashions today as in a confused state, but believes the trend is toward "an era of quiet elegance."

"Of course," he said, "a girl can be quietly dressed in a red gown."

He personally favors clothing that accents femininity, style that accents sex through subdued suggestion.

"Flo Ziegfeld used to say he didn't want naked girls on the stage—"

The stubborn, unsocial child has often turned out to be an active, likeable leader of his classmates... when his defective vision was discovered and corrected.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—City folks are showing increasing interest in rural affairs. The job of the Department of Agriculture's extension service is growing bigger with the increasing number of calls upon the county agents for advice and assistance. And now many calls come from people in cities.

Karl Knauis, central states field agent, says in the government's Extension Service Review that expansion of cooperative extension work to people living in cities is due to the fact that many urban families started garden programs during the war.

Also, he says, there has been increasing emphasis on bringing information about opportunities for better purchasing of agricultural products. Trends of decentralization of industry and the increasing movement of people to rural areas surrounding industrial areas, with the desire of these people to grow at least part of their food supply, are other factors.

As for the farmers, Mr. Knauis says that more and more they are finding a community of interest with urban dwellers in the solution of such problems as finding markets for farm products, consumer understanding of good food buys, better community health services and national agricultural policy.

City people as well as farm people are learning more about rural problems by means of information brought them through the press, over the radio, on the television screen. "This has dramatized urban interest in agricultural problems, and the experts get many calls on matters relating to gardens, small fruits, flowers, lawns and shrubbery," says Mr. Knauis.

"Such questions as control of insects on the roses, leaf spot on the lilacs, varieties of grass and fertilizers for lawns and desirable shrubs for landscaping are asked most often, but the questions almost cover the agricultural front." Today, he says, many agricultural agents hold winter garden meetings with city gardeners, help organize custom spray and other services and advise dealers in garden supplies on varieties, spray materials and fertilizers they should stock.

Another way the agent is helping city people is in landscaping the grounds of public buildings, planning playgrounds, sodding athletic fields and so on. In many towns the agricultural agent and the teacher of vocational agriculture are the only people trained to help work out such problems, except perhaps the nurseryman.

A recently completed survey of the northwest shows that agricultural agents in that area spent one-fourth of their time working with urban people. Similar interest is popping up all over the country, Mr. Knauis says.

Declared Legally Dead, He Claims Share In Estate

Wapakoneta, O., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Charles McFarland of Uniontown, Pa., declared legally dead last March, turned up here very much alive this week.

McFarland, 66, walked into probate court to claim a share in the $5,000 estate of his brother, Henry J. McFarland, who died last November.

An Auglaize county court order declared the 66-year-old steam shovel operator dead because he had not been heard from in seven years. McFarland immediately started proceedings to set aside the death declaration.

He also had a happy reunion with his sister, Mrs. Mervin Williamson of Dayton, when he came into the courtroom here. Said she: "Why, brother Charles, where have you been all these years?"

Bags of money! Stacks of silver, nickel and copper coins! Neatly-bound packages of crisp new currency! This is a common sight in the vaults of banks and the financial institutions of the world.

Money plays a big part in life. It represents human labor and material production and is the medium through which man exchanges his toil for food and other necessities and comforts of life.

It is important to know how to handle money wisely and well. Some people squander it to their sorrow; others worship it as their supreme aim in life. These attitudes are both unsound and dangerous.

Worship should be reserved for God alone, and right living should be the supreme aim of one's life. Money is a useful instrument in the material world, but it is secondary to man's spiritual welfare.

The Bible teaches us to be diligent and thrifty; it also teaches us to love God and cherish our religious faith above all the world's wealth and glory.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Greenies Drop Rocky Mount 5-1 To Take Series Lead

Mascarella Wins Relief Honors In Defeating Leafs

Greenville's rags to riches Greenies, who just did make it into the Coastal Plain League play-offs, took a 3-2 lead in the semifinals here last night, dropping the pennant-winning Rocky Mount Leafs 5-1.

The two clubs return to the Greenville park for the sixth game of the slated seven-game series tonight.

Manager Pappy Williams' boys showed over a run in each of the first two innings on Lefty Tom Marshall to wrap up a victory at the offset.

It was the third consecutive win for the locals who dropped their two opening play-off games to the Leafs.

The game marked the second play-off win in two nights for the Greenies' Art Mascarella who relieved Lewey in the third and hand-cuffed the losers for the succeeding seven innings.

It was Mascarella who won the Thursday night game on a relief pitching role.

Greenville broke the ice in the first, when Paul Strausser doubled. Steve Denier singled and Strausser scored on an infield out.

Rocky Mount's lone tally was in the second. Frank Tepedino walked and stole second, then moved to third on Babe Johnson's double. He crossed the plate on an infield out.

The locals broke back into the lead in the bottom of the same frame and added another in the fourth. A two-run rally in the sixth stretched the lead 5-1.

Strausser, hammering out three for three, led the Greenies' nine-hit attack with a perfect evening. One of his hits was for two bases. Willie Mauney collected two for three for the Greenville club hitting for Rocky Mount was evenly divided.

A number of hard hit balls, which looked like sure hits, were pulled down by Strausser of the Greenies and Sedor, centerfielder of the Leafs.

Phantoms Edge 13-6 Decision Against Edenton

Whitner Takes Coastal Plain Batting Honors

Batting .355, Clyde Whitner of Goldsboro copped the Coastal Plain League batting title; 20 points separated him from his second place rival, Fred Williams, who posted a final average of .335. John Tepedino, also with Greenville, placed third with a .319 figure, according to statistics compiled by Howe News Bureau.

Whitner also gained the distinction of having made the most hits with 194. Williams batted in the most runs with 122 while his teammate Tepedino scored the most runs, 132, and blasted out the lead in triples with 12. Quentin "Pepper" Martin of Rocky Mount pounded out the most home runs with 27 and as a result took the honor of most total bases with 280. Bob Johnson, another Rocky Mount player, gained the doubles honor with 43 while Bill Bevil of New Bern showed his heels to many a keystone combination with a robust season's total of 92 thefts.

Tarboro hurler Vince Gohl took the pitching honors of the won and lost table with 21 wins and four losses.

Greenville Club Outscored Rest Of Coastal Loop

Manager Pappy Williams' Greenville Greenies, the Coastal Plain League baseball outfit which barely squeezed in under the wire to get in the play-offs and is currently leading a race to go into the finals, scored more runs than any other team in the circuit during the regular season, according to unofficial figures released today.

Greenville scored 825 runs for the season nine more than Rocky Mount's pennant winners.

The Greenville club was second only to Rocky Mount in team batting for the year, racking up a .259 record to the Leafs' .268.

New Bern led the loop in team fielding with a .955 average while Wilson second, holding a .954 record. Greenville was in fourth place with .950.

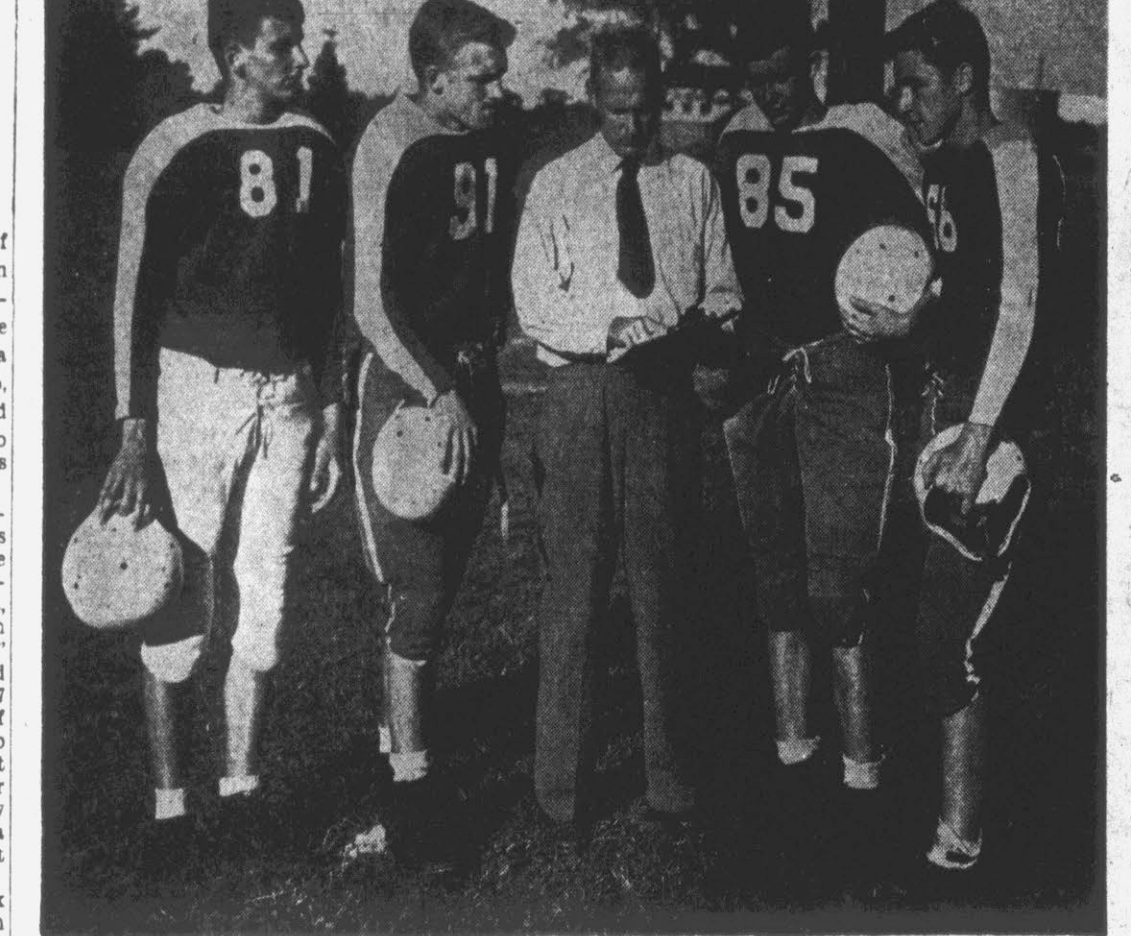

Two Dorothys Meet In Finals Of Amateur Play

Ardmore, Pa., Sept. 17—(AP)—Methodical Dorothy Kietly, seeking to erase the shadow of past disappointments, and comely Mrs. Dorothy Germain Porter, eager to win in her own backyard, meet today in the final round of the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship.

Loop's Doormat Beats Baltimore

Chicago, Sept. 17—(AP)—The Chicago Hornets, for three years the all-America conference doormat as the rockets, crushed the Baltimore Colts 35-7 last night to hoist their third league win in four starts. The revitalized Hornets, under new ownership, won before 18,483 fans in Soldier field.

Big Guns In Phantoms' 13-6 Victory

The big guns in the Greenville High School Phantoms' 13-6 victory over the Edenton Aces in last night's football game are shown above talking over strategy with Coach Bob Farley.

Walter Perry, 85, scored the first touchdown for the Phantoms when he intercepted a pass tossed by the Aces and raced for a touchdown.

The second and winning score came when the Aces attempted to punt and the kick was blocked and caught by Jake Higgs who went over standing up for the winning tally.

Kinston's Red Devils Shape Up As Northeastern Grid Titlists

Teams of the Northeastern high school football conference were almost ready to throw in the sponge and concede the loop championship to the Red Devils of Kinston today.

The Granger High defending champions swamped a powerful Methodist Orphanage outfit 26-6 in Kinston last night to serve warning on all conference foes that they are in for at least one loss this year.

Neck Broken

New Bern, N.C., Sept. 17—(AP)—A 17-year-old Swansboro high school football star suffered a broken neck in a game with New Bern here last night. Doctors hold little hope for his recovery.

Robert Pate, fullback on the Swansboro team, made a low, driving tackle of a New Bern runner. The runner came down on Pate's neck and crushed the sixth vertebra.

Doctors told his father this morning that the injury will probably prove fatal. The youth is almost completely paralyzed.

Time Element Is Dole's Big Worry

By FRANK HOGG
The largest crowd ever to witness an East Carolina Teachers College football game, approximately 4,000, went home Thursday night content with the 24-0 victory the Pirates handed Cherry Point Marines. One man was not so content—Coach Bill Dole.

Coach Dole lost no time in putting his Pirates back on the practice field. Dole explained some of the mistakes that were made in the game and began working on them. More work is in store next week as game pictures will show up other weaknesses.

The time element, being a key factor in all Pirate practice sessions, again confronts Coach Dole. One main weakness showing up Thursday night was the conversions after a touchdown. All four attempts were missed. With time being limited Dole concentrated on teamwork and wasted no time on specialties. You can be sure, however, that something will be done to alter the conversion weakness. Dole is well aware of the fact that many ball games are decided by the all-important extra point.

Lenoir-Rhyne, one of the biggest teams in the North State conference, is loaded with returning lettermen and highly favored for one of the top positions in the final conference standings. Dole has plenty of work ahead in readying his squad for that game and is afraid not enough time will be available to develop his squad to give Lenoir-Rhyne a good game.

Campanella Hurt By Bean-Ball; Out Of Line-Up

Pittsburgh, Sept. 17—(AP)—The pennant-hungry Brooklyn Dodgers were breathing a bit easier today after they learned their star catcher, Roy Campanella, was not seriously hurt by a beaning.

He was carried unconscious from the field on a stretcher. The Negro slugger from Philadelphia was taken to Presbyterian Hospital where doctors examined him and found he suffered a mild concussion above the left temple.

Locals Take Advantage Of Breaks In Season's Opener

Midget Football Squads Weigh In Today At Kinston

The Greenville Midgets, the little boys of the football world in Greenville, will weigh in today at Kinston to start of their 1949 football season.

All teams in the conference will meet in Kinston today to have the teams officially weighed. The weight limit for the Midgets is 105 pounds.

The Midgets have been working out under the watchful eye of Coach Bill Kittrell, for the past three weeks.

The first game that the Greenville team will play will be on next Thursday when they meet Kinston, but the site has not been announced as yet. Coach Kittrell stated yesterday that he does not know whether the game will be played in the new ECTO stadium or in the old stadium. An announcement will be made the latter part of the week as to the site of the game, he said.

Commenting on his squad, Kittrell said that for the most part the team has had no experience with the exception of five starters which he has from last year's team. The only holdovers from last year are Billy Bost, Pat Sawyer, George Siders, Ronald Duffin, and Gene Duffin, who regularly saw action.

This year the team is running from the T formation which has proven very successful in past years.

Kittrell said that the material this year is about the lightest that he ever coached, with the average of the team around 90 pounds.

As yet a starting lineup has not been announced, but Coach Kittrell who has been sending his charges through hard practice sessions during the past week, said that one would be announced early next week.

During the past week, Kittrell has pushed his team on pass plays and blocking which has seemed weak in some spots.

Helping out this year as backfield coach is Bob Ostrander, a former veteran football player from East Carolina Teachers College.

Kittrell made no predictions about the outcome of the '49 season but he thinks that his light team will meet with some rough teams this year and that their lack of weight will hurt them somewhat.

Practices for the team are held each afternoon after school at the West Greenville School, and on Saturday at 10:00. Over 25 boys are on the 1949 squad of the Midgets, and head coach Kittrell said yesterday that he would like very much to have some more boys report for practice, as it is not too late.

Kornegay Named New President Of Conference

Joe Kornegay, principal of Washington High School, was elected president of the Northeastern Conference high school football conference this week at a conference meeting in Elizabeth City.

Named vice president was E. N. Farnell of New Bern. Earl Funderburk of Elizabeth City was appointed secretary and treasurer.

Routine business matters were discussed by representatives from Greenville, Roanoke Rapids, New Bern, Washington, Elizabeth City and Edenton. Kinston was not represented.

The next meeting of the conference will be held in Farmville on December 7.

Notre Dame football coach Frank Leahy says Johnny Lujack is the finest all-around player he ever coached.

Intercepted Pass And Blocked Punt Earns Greenville High School Margin Of Victory

An intercepted pass and a blocked punt gave the Greenville High School Phantoms a 13-6 decision over the Edenton Aces here last night in the Northeastern Conference curtain raiser.

All the scoring was confined to the second period.

A small crowd of an estimated 400 fans was diminished considerably by a down pour of rain which threatened all evening and struck at half-time, forcing the two squads to battle it out in mud for the sluggish third and fourth quarters.

Edenton opened the scoring in the early minutes of the second quarter. A blocked punt gave them possession on the Greenville 28. Paul Lane and Earl Goodwin, offensive standouts for the losers, carried the ball to the Greenville two from where Goodwin smashed off tackle for the tally.

Taylor's attempted conversion was no good.

Walter Perry, Phantom left half-back, put the Greenville club back into the game a few minutes later when he intercepted Goodwin's pass on the Edenton 29 and roared down the field for a touchdown. A pass attempt for the conversion was incomplete.

Late in the same period Jake Higgs, playing his first game of varsity ball, caught a punt blocked by Paul Conway to race 34 yards to a TD and a Greenville victory. Conway went off tackle for the point after touchdown and the Greenies.

The Edenton club was far from its 1948 strength, missing greatly the services of nine of last year's starters, including Russell Wheeler.

Nor did the Phantoms show any signs of setting the fast Northwestern High School conference on fire. The Phantoms' weakness offensively was illustrated in their mere three first downs for the evening.

Jimmy Cox, Greenville quarterback, was lauded by Coach Bo Farley as the most outstanding backfield performer of the evening. Conway got off some of the Phantoms' longest runs from scrimmage.

The Greenville forward wall was led by Crawford and Moore.

First downs favored Edenton nine to three.

The lineups: Greenville: Ends: Moore and Fyfe; tackles: Brady and Conway; guards: Vainwright and Crawford; center: Howe; backs: Cox, Perry, Higgs, and Conway; subs: Rowland, Goo, Ayres, Nelson, Aman and B. Perry.

Edenton: ends: Batton and Morgan; tackles: Taylor and Emminger; guards: Privette and Crummy; center: Wright; backs: Minshew, Lane, Hughes, and Goodwin; subs: Ashton, Hoskins, Gray and Rogerson.

'Underdog' British Ryder Cup Team Takes Big Lead

Ganton, England, Sept. 17—(AP)—After weeks of whistling in the dark, the underdog British Ryder Cup golf team has suddenly found daylight and is predicting its biggest victory margin in the history of the matches.

Sporting a surprising 3 to 1 edge going into today's final singles duels, silver-haired Charles Whitcombe, captain of the British team, declared he expects his boys to grab five of the eight remaining points.

"We can beat everybody but Sammy Sneed, Lloyd Mangrum and Jimmy Demaret," he said, "and we might even beat one of them."

The British have won the four-somes only once before in 22 years of battling American teams for the famed pro golf team trophy.

Ben Hogan, non-playing captain of the American forces, entered a plea for more rain such as hit the drought-hardened course yesterday afternoon and last night.

"If we get enough rains to open up the greens so we can shoot right at the pin, we've got 'em," he said.

Boston To Again See Southworth

Columbus, O., Sept. 17—(AP)—Billy Southworth, manager on sick leave from the Boston Braves, is going back to the Hub City next year.

The 56-year-old pilot of the 1948 National League pennant winner yesterday spiked all rumors that his sudden unannounced departure one month ago was for any reason other than his health.

In his first meeting with newsmen since he left Boston, Southworth said:

My only reason for leaving was to recuperate, and now my doctor tells me that I'm going to live. So I'll be back.

Southworth, who has a farm at nearby Southbury, said he had a physical checkup on Wednesday and that he hadn't seen a doctor until last Friday.

The doctor says I'm in good physical shape, but to stay away from baseball, get a lot of outdoor exercise, and don't do too much hard work.

Billy also denied a rumor that he might go to Cincinnati as manager. He said it was a "wild, vicious rumor, unfair to me, to Warren Giles and Bucky Walters. I have never been approached by the Cincinnati club," he added.

Southworth also denied that any heads would fall when he returns to the Braves.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

AP Newsfeatures By WILLIAM HOBSON

Chapter 7
 Jay Allison stepped across the dirt floor and pushed aside the dirty blanket that covered the opening. It took almost a second look to recognize the bandaged figure as Joe. Jay felt sick at sight of his brother.

"Joe," Jay Allison said softly, and shook the arm gently. "Joe, wake up. It's me."

Joe Allison opened his eyes and a groan came from him.

"Good to see you, old-timer," he whispered. "So you got here?"

Jay nodded. "I got in this evening. I ran into—uh—Mike Randall in the Ford Hotel."

"Did you see Ellen?" asked Joe. Jay nodded. "They're in town to pick up some eastern family coming in on the train tomorrow."

A new light came into the pain-stricken eyes.

"Ain't she a dream, Jay? What did she do when she saw you?"

There wasn't any use in lying about it. Jay told him. "Well," he said, grinning ruefully, "she sort of grabbed me and kissed me and then figured I'd certainly changed a lot during the month while I was down here."

"That's Ellen, and she's my baby."

Foreigners Are Helping Schools

Addis Ababa—(AP)—The Ethiopian schools' personnel resembles a miniature United Nations. The 24 foreign teachers supplementing the local staff in Ethiopian schools include Englishmen, Frenchmen, Canadians, Americans, Egyptians, Hindus, Swedes and Norwegians.

The Russians, it is believed, would like to make their contribution of teachers, but seem to be prevented from doing so by their weakness in languages — English is the official school language here and all the foreign teachers know English well.

Education is number one problem in this East African nation of 15,000,000 people. The number of public schools has increased from 380 last year to 430 this year, according to official figures. But the demand is so great that the Government is finding some difficulty in supplying schools and teachers in sufficient quantity.

Enrollment figures, still incomplete, are reliably estimated at near 100,000. This compares with 50,000 in 1947-48. Ethiopia's literacy rate is unknown. At one time, not many years ago, illiteracy was estimated by a foreign educator at close to 100 per cent. This figure has been reduced during recent years.

Livestock Shows Need Showmen

Des Moines—(AP)—W. V. Smolek, extension animal husbandman at Iowa State College, says good showmanship is important in showing livestock at fairs. A good animal, not properly groomed or trained, he says, may receive a lower placing than it justly deserves.

He advises that training and grooming be started several weeks before the show. Hogs should be washed and brushed daily for a week to tame them for the ring.

Winter Wheat In North Russia

Moscow—(AP)—Methods of sowing winter wheat on stubble have resulted in excellent results experimentally in areas of Kazakhstan and Siberia where it was previously impractical to sow winter wheat.

The significance of these experiments is that they apparently point the way to higher wheat yields in this important portion of Russia's granary.

Winter wheat gives better harvests than the spring wheat which has always been planted in northern Kazakhstan and Siberia.

Horse Vacation Is Great Success

Openheart—(AP)—Sandy Mac 14 year old, returned to everyday life on the Copenhagen pavement after two weeks' vacation in a seaside resort near the capital—the first holiday in his life. You never saw a happier horse.

Sandy Mac is in the wine business. His driver, 62 year old Herluf Petersen, made up his mind Sandy needed a vacation as much as he did himself.

Petersen lived in lodgings for the summer and every morning at four o'clock he went to the meadow where Sandy Mac was grazing. Then he watered the horse and took it for a walk.

Unions Complain At Work Clothes

Moscow—(AP)—The Soviet trade unions have taken action to assure an improvement in the quality of work clothing issued to factory, construction and other workers.

The newspaper "Trud" recently reported that the All-Union Central Council of Trade Unions had with the assistance of state experts undertaken an investigation of the quality of output of shops and factories producing work suits furnished to Soviet laborers.

Most Russian workers received their work clothes free from the plants at which they work.

Bound Over On Serious Charges

By CHESTER WALSH
In Police Court yesterday, Judge J.W.H. Roberts found probable cause against Miles H. Davis of Mount Airy, manager of the Greenville Hotel, on Dickinson Avenue, who is charged with "an abominable crime against nature." The case will be tried in Superior Court. Davis is in the county jail in default of $3,000 bail.

J. W. Johnson Jr., a roomer at the hotel, testified that Davis assaulted him in his room last Wednesday. Two witnesses, B. F. Beckwith of Greenville and A. L. Shepherd, who were concealed in Johnson's room, testified that Davis attacked Johnson.

Judge Roberts found probable cause in the case against John L. Nance of Baltimore, Md., charged with the larceny of an automobile from A. Hartwell Campbell, manager of the Greenville radio station. The case was sent up to Superior Court. Nance was arrested in Baltimore and police there recovered the stolen car. They turned it over to Campbell yesterday.

Other cases disposed of in court yesterday were:

Kenneth Moore, colored, assault with a deadly weapon, paid $15 and he was ordered not to visit any pool room in Greenville for six months.

Charlie Cradle Jr., colored, paid $25 for driving without an operator's license.

Johnny M. Harris, who was given 30 days in jail or pay $15 for being drunk and disorderly and using profane language, appealed to Superior Court.

Joe Baker, convicted of using vulgar and profane language of an "exceptionally vitriolic nature," was fined $50.

Lee Roy Anderson, drunk, was given 30 days in jail or pay $15.

Arrest Negro Man On Three Charges

Police arrested James Paul Brown, 29, colored, yesterday on three separate charges. He is accused of driving without an operator's license, assaulting Geneva Tucker, colored, with a deadly weapon (a knife) and of embezzling a small sum of money from her. Brown will be tried in Police Court Monday.

Eugene Knight, 30, colored, was arrested early today on the charge of assaulting with his fists and robbing Claude Brown, colored. Brown told police Knight robbed him of a package of cigarettes and 80 cents. Another report to police was that Alvin Jolly, 12-year-old boy, of 1512 Pitt street, suffered a broken arm Thursday while helping to take down a circus tent.

Ray Anthony's nationally famous 20-piece orchestra will play for the dance at East Carolina Teachers College tonight.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars post, sponsoring the dance, will divide the proceeds with the ECTC Scholarship Fund Committee.

Anthony carried with him five featured vocalists. His musicians made a big hit at the Debutante Ball in Raleigh during the past week. An outstanding feature of Ray Anthony's dance band is that the popular leader takes his musicians through the audience, playing requested numbers.

The band will present a concert at 8 o'clock. The dance will follow at 9 o'clock. Separate admission fees will be charged for the concert and dance.

Judgment Given Plaintiff In Timber Case

By CHESTER WALSH
In Superior Court yesterday, the jury in the case of Mrs. Clarence Harris against Veneer Products Inc., involving some timber rights gave the plaintiff judgment for $1,147.50.

The plaintiff alleged that the defendant company had cut timber from 2.2 acres more than the contract provided for.

During the hearing Thursday, Judge R. Hunt Parker of Roanoke Rapids, ordered the jury in custody of court officers to go to the land and check the boundary lines. The land, it is understood, is located in Greenville township, a small part of it extending over into Patactus township.

Henry Whitehurst, a farmer, who was a witness for the plaintiff in the timber case, whom Judge Parker ordered to jail when it appeared that he appeared in court intoxicated, was given 60 days in Dix Hill Raleigh, to "sober up," the court order stated.

Earlier in the week it was announced that the case of Tobacco Curer Company, Inc., vs Mrs. Otis Ange had been compromised out of court.

James Randolph Worsley, of Greenville, a graduate of ECTC and the Harvard Law School, was sworn in as a member of the bar by Judge Parker Wednesday.

The civil term was adjourned Friday afternoon.

"Greenville Fans Best In World," Mascarella Thinks

By CHESTER WALSH
Art Mascarella, Greenville pitcher and one of the best fielding pitchers in the Coastal Plain League, who lost his wallet containing valuable papers and $60, was as happy last night as if he had made a home run and pitched a no-hit game.

"Greenville people are among the best in the world and the baseball fans are tops," he said to a Reflector reporter today, while he was counting about $67 the fans at the ball park chipped in for him at last night's game.

Mascarella was in a booth at Karea's restaurant, with a big bag of paper and silver money, counting it and "smiling a mile wide." His wal-

Love Conquered All, But Allergy

Los Angeles, Sept. 17—(AP)—Love conquers all but allergy.

That is the tragic story of Mrs. Joyce G. Holdridge, 37, who had to give up the husband she loved because, actually, she couldn't stand him.

Her two-year marriage to Nolan H. Holdridge, 36, San Francisco watchmaker, was annulled yesterday after she testified:

"I spent most of my time in hospitals. My condition was finally diagnosed as neurodermatitis due to my being allergic to my husband. I was told that there was no cure as long as I continued associating with my husband.

"Whenever I was with him, I would break out in a rash from head to toe. This would clear up 24 hours after I left him . . . but it would recur even at the mention of his name."

She had absolutely no complaint about her husband's conduct.

The court, which earlier had denied her a divorce decree because she could not prove "cruelty" within the meaning of the law, commended Mrs. Holdridge's refusal to "trump up charges."

In granting the annulment, Superior Judge Ray Brockmann said: "Courts may be forced to recognize what medical science has discovered—that such allergies as Mrs. Holdridge complains of are a fact and not a caprice."

Mrs. Holdridge showed no sign of her allergy in court.

Her husband had remained 400 miles away in San Francisco.
