

Financial Turmoil Follows Pound Devaluation Action

Business At Virtual Standstill In London, One-Time Financial And Economic Heart Of The World; Other Nations Quickly Cheapen Money

London, Sept. 19.—(AP)—A 30.5 per cent cut in the dollar of the pound sterling hit the British public today like a blow in the face. There was financial turmoil the world over.

The Labor Government, in a desperate gamble to save the nation from threatened bankruptcy, hunger and misery, slashed the worth of the pound last night from $4.02 to $2.80.

Banks were closed. The London Stock exchange and those in France, Holland, Greece, South Africa and many other countries were shut down. Foreign exchange trading was forbidden in much of Europe and the sterling area. In London, brokers traded stocks and bonds on the sidewalk.

Business was at a virtual standstill in this great city which once was the financial and economic heart of the world.

Ten nations of Europe and Asia quickly cheapened their money to match the British move. Cabinets in other capitals held emergency sessions to decide what to do.

It was the biggest financial turmoil the world has seen since Britain went off the gold standard on another September Sunday night almost 18 years ago to the day.

Devaluation of the pound was intended to solve Britain's grave financial crisis by selling more and cheaper goods to America.

A treasury spokesman said devaluation of the pound would have no effect on Britain's strict currency controls.

The pound is not convertible into other currencies without a treasury permit and dollars may not be taken out of the country unless the treasury approves.

The new, cheaper pounds means that Americans may buy Scotch whiskey, English tweeds, Staffordshire china and many other British products at lower prices.

By mid-day 2,000 stockbrokers and clerks jammed into the street in front of the Stock exchange. They had an open air market going especially in booming gold shares.

Waiting For More Moves

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Lower dollar prices around the world are looked for today as an early major result of the week-end devaluation of foreign currencies.

Still more countries may have to follow the devaluation parade which began last night with Britain's cut in the pound from $4.02 to $2.80, a slash amounting to a surprise 30 1/2 per cent.

The devaluation means the dollar price of goods produced in these countries could fall a maximum of 30 1/2 per cent if the reduction is caused solely by devaluation. But prices probably will not fall that far. Some may come down only a few cents.

How long these lower prices may prevail is unpredictable.

American businessmen in their first reaction agreed prices will be lower on foreign goods priced in devalued currencies and sold in America for dollars.

No one knows yet, however, how far prices will go down on individual commodities or manufactured goods over the next few weeks or months.

Works To 'Sell' Nationalist China

American Public Relations Man Trying To Win U.S. Public

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—An American Public Relations man has a $25,000-a-year contract to "sell" Nationalist China to the United States.

William J. Goodwin of Roanoke, N. Y., said yesterday that he is working to get more American money and support for Chiang Kai-Shek's government in its fight against the Communists.

Goodwin said however, he was "lucky to break even" on his retainer since he had to pay all his expenses — including dinners and gifts of flowers for Congressmen — out of the $25,000.

Now 53, he said he dedicated himself to fighting Communism when he was a high school boy.

"I hate to say it," he declared, "but some of our highest leaders have an almost abysmal ignorance of true conditions in China."

"They say the Chinese Nationalists are licked and are all through. Why right now the Nationalist hold more territory and are in better shape than they were at the high tide of the Japanese invasion."

He predicted China will get far more than the $75,000,000 earmarked for the Far East in a foreign aid bill which the Senate begins debating today.

Passenger Train Jumps Rail Near Newton; 50 Hurt

Six Cars And Locomotive Leave Track; Rescue Workers Rush To Scene

Newton, N.C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Six cars and the locomotive of a Southern Railway passenger train jumped the track and spilled down an embankment here today injuring about 50 persons, some seriously.

Railroad sources said two Negro cooks were trapped in their diner and probably were dead. An emergency call for steel cutting equipment was sent out by police in efforts to rescue them and any others possibly trapped in the mass of wreckage.

Newton is a town of 6,000 about 40 miles northwest of Charlotte. Screaming ambulances raced the injured to the Catawba General Hospital, where Dr. Frank Jones said "about 50" patients had been admitted. Some were seriously hurt, he added.

The accident occurred about 8:10 a.m. as the westbound train, No. 15, approached the Newton station where it had been due at 4:48 a.m. It was inside the city limits.

The two-unit diesel locomotive flipped off the rails and rolled down the embankment. Following it off were the diner, a passenger coach, a combination passenger-baggage car and three mail and express cars.

Miraculously, the track was not torn up and four Pullman cars on the rear rolled on past the scene about a hundred yards, their passengers undisturbed.

All available rescue workers here and at nearby Hickory were mobilized immediately. Facilities at the hospital were taxed to capacity.

The train was made up at Salisbury, N.C., picking up three Pullman cars from Washington and points north, and taking them to the mountain resort city of Asheville.

"I heard a big thud and said to my husband 'What was that?'" said Mrs. Charlie Isaacs, wife of a railroad laborer who lives in a small house a few yards from the cars.

"I woke him and he jumped up. I went and looked out the window and said: 'My God, there's a train lying down there in the field.'"

Isaacs, first to reach the wreckage, began pulling injured from the cars.

Murray Warns Of Steel Strike

Tells Conciliation Chief That Only Hope Of Averting Walkout Is Through Settlement At Government-Arranged Session

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Philip Murray declared today that "the only hope of averting a strike" of 1,000,000 CIO-steelworkers is through settlement of their pensions dispute at government-arranged conciliation sessions.

Murray, president of the CIO made his statement to Cyrus S. Ching, conciliation director, and 70 steel industry representatives summoned to peace talks by Ching.

Murray said the only chance of sidestepping a strike scheduled for next Sunday "is to conclude a settlement here and now on the basis of the board's recommendation."

He referred to the recommendations of a presidential fact-finding board. The board recommended no fourth round wage increase but proposed a "package" of company-financed pensions and social insurance to cost up to 10 cents per hour per worker.

Murray said: "We are ready and we will proceed now to negotiate with any and all companies and to conclude a prompt settlement on the basis of the board's recommendations."

"It is in the national interest that all parties do so if the strike in the steel industry is to be averted."

The U.S. steel delegation was led by Benjamin F. Fairless. As he hustled in to the conference room Fairless waved off questions from reporters saying "I'm here, that's all I want to say."

Murray came prepared with a formal statement which he said he might read it, he said, reporter said he given copies.

Ching asked the industry and union leaders to come in for a talk.

Professor To Be Sentenced Soon

Judge Indicates Will Pass Sentence On Maxey This Week

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Russell B. Maxey may be sentenced today for pistol-whipping the nurse he says he regarded as his common law wife.

Judge T. B. Greener has indicated he will pass sentence on the small wily former University of South Carolina Engineering professor this week.

He could send him to prison for as little as five years or as long as life. The general sessions (criminal) court jury that convicted Maxey Saturday night of burglary with intent to murder recommended mercy.

Brunette divorcee Ann B. Pierce, 35, was the victim of the Aug. 3 beating. Doctors took more than 100 stitches in her face and scalp after the bloody-two-hour struggle in her suburban bungalow.

'No Pension, No Work' Say Coal Diggers; Mines Close

Connally Chosen To Open Debate On Foreign Arms

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The administration turned once again today to white-haired Tom Connally of Texas to lead a Senate fight on foreign policy—this time the $1,314,010,000 foreign arms program.

The veteran chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was the lead-off man in the debate scheduled to start this afternoon. He said he was confident of victory.

"We'll win this one by a very substantial majority," Connally said.

He predicted the chief issue will be an amendment by Senator George (D-Ga.) to cut the arms aid for Western Europe from $1,000,000,000 down to $300,000,000. Then he said he was sure the Senate will turn down this proposal.

As committee chairman, Connally engineered Senate approval of the foreign economic recovery program and the North Atlantic pact—leading the floor fight on both of them.

He thinks four days of debate will be enough on the arms bill and he will fight any amendments that are offered.

One group of senators led by Sparkman of Alabama wants 10 to 25 per cent of the European money to be used in building up a North Atlantic police force.

He thinks four days of debate will be enough on the arms bill and he will fight any amendments that are offered.

Several months ago, Moody's dropped the rating of all North Carolina bonds from "AA" to "A" and indicated it intended to downgrade the firm's highest rating is "AAA."

Later, however it restored the "AA" rating to most of the state's general funds bonds.

"We are very happy that they put the proper rating on our bonds," said Treasurer Hodges.

He said that the action "should have some effect on the interest rate" the state receives when the first $50,000,000 of the $200,000,000 rural road bonds are sold on Sept. 28.

"I'm looking for at least three bids and a very low interest cost," he said.

Constable Got His Man

Dunn, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Constable Brad McLamb of Benson finally got his man.

The constable put on a search for Willie McLamb, Benson Negro, wanted on a charge of issuing a $15 worthless check.

He went to McLamb's home, but no luck. He searched the town thoroughly, but could find no trace of the wanted man's whereabouts.

Then late yesterday, the officer went by the Benson jail. There was McLamb, cleaning the inside of a jail cell.

The officer merely closed the cell door and turned the key in the lock. He had his man.

The arrested man had been temporarily employed by the town of Benson to clean the jail.

New Home Agent Assumes Duties

Newly appointed Pitt County Home Agent Miss Jean Steele assumed her duties here this morning amid a widespread search for living quarters.

Miss Steele, for 10 years home agent for McDowell County, succeeds Mrs. Fred T. Langford who today is helping acquaint the new agent with the work here and who is also assisting Miss Steele in her efforts to find a place to live.

Miss Steele will probably meet her first Pitt County Home Demonstration Clubs this afternoon at St. John's and Falkland.

Recommended to the local Board of County Commissioners, Miss Steele was appointed early this month by the commissioners and the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs. The new agent, a University of Tennessee graduate, served for sometime as Tennessee State Home Economics Supervisor.

Miss Steele did summer school work at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and graduate work at Teachers College and the University of Tennessee.

She did adult education work under the State Department of Education in Gastonia for three years after making her debut in the vocational field in Guilford County.

Miss Steele was an outstanding vocational teacher at the Pi Beta Phi School at Gatling.

Most Of UMW Members In 20 States Expected To Be Idle By Nightfall As Walkout Starts; Union Says Rank And File Acting On Own Initiative

Pittsburgh, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Coalmines shut down across the nation today as John L. Lewis' diggers struck again on their own—this time crying "No pension, no work."

Production of anthracite (hard coal) and bituminous (soft coal) is being choked off by anger of the United Mine Workers over President Lewis' suspension of pension and welfare fund payments.

Most of the UMW's 400,000 members in 20 states are expected to be idle by nightfall.

Lewis said the welfare pay stop is due to the fund running low on cash. But it's all part of the UMW fight for a new contract. He's deadlocked with operators after prolonged talks.

Walkouts started last midnight and gained headway over the coal fields today as come-to-work whistles blew in vain. UMW leaders insisted the union's rank and file is acting on its own initiative, that Lewis has issued no strike call. He never does.

West Virginia, biggest soft coal producing state, reported its 150,000 miners joining the stoppage.

Pennsylvania, No. 2 on the producing parade, saw miners refusing to show up at pits in 11 states. The Western Pennsylvania Coal Operators' Association said no members were working in the rich bituminous belt employing 36,000. All big mines in Central Pennsylvania, employing 45,000, also were down.

Only a few of Eastern Pennsylvania's 80,000 hard coal miners showed up for work. They sat around and talked for a while and then went home. The great majority never reached the mines. Many industry leaders had expected the hard coal mines to continue working since the operators have continued royalty payments. The strike is expected to cost the industry $100 million in lost production.

The United States Steel Corporation said all its coal mining operations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Kentucky were closed with 16,000 men idle. The steel corporation's mines have a daily production of 90,000 tons.

In Illinois, 145 UMW diggers at Glenridge did not change clothes for work after showing up. Some 1,500 in four major mines of the state's Perry County were not working.

The walkouts following week-end strategy meetings by UMW locals throughout the country began when 8,000 Wyoming and Utah miners marched from the Pits. They acted soon after Lewis shut off pension pay.

Almost without exception, UMW district leaders in the soft coal fields said they expected the walkout to be fully effective.

For most UMW members this is the third work stoppage of 1949. In March they quit work for two weeks as a memorial to miners killed and injured last year, and to protest President Truman's appointment of Dr. James Boyd as director of the Federal Bureau of Mines.

In June Lewis ordered them out of the pit for one week, saying there was too much coal above ground and the industry needed a stabilizing period of action.

Observers were quick to point out then the depleted stockpiles would give him a firmer hand at the bargaining table.

But Lewis hasn't been able to do much with the coal operators about a new contract. The old one expired June 30 but Lewis abandoned the UMW's traditional "No contract, no work policy."

Bradley Appears Certain To Get Key Planning Job

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the American joint chiefs of staff, appears certain to become the key figure in the Atlantic Pact military organization.

The military organization, consisting of a series of defense planning committees, is to be created here Oct. 5. It is expected to come up with a set of unified defense plans for the whole Western European-North American-Atlantic Ocean area in about six months.

Speed in laying out at least the general plans of a unified strategy is considered essential now by the State and Defense Departments. One reason is Congress may make full-scale American arms aid to Europe at least partly dependent on the existence of such plans. That is one of the major new points in the bill now before the Senate.

While the American member of the 12-nation military organization has yet to be designated by the President, defense and diplomatic officials said there seemed to be no doubt that he would be Bradley. The 56-year-old general is noted for getting along with people and getting things done.

He is already regarded highly by Europeans as the leader of that school of military planners who contend Western Europe can and must be held against any aggression by Russia. In public statements Bradley has declared it to be the government's policy that security, instead of abandonment and later liberation, is the keystone for Western European military planning.

State's Credit Rating Restored

Raleigh, N.C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Moody's Investors Service of New York has restored an "AA" rating for North Carolina bonds. It was learned here today.

State Treasurer Brandon P. Hodges and S. J. Steele of the firm of Kirchfer and Arnold Associates said they had been advised of the action by Moody's, one of the nation's leading bond rating firms.

Steele said he understood Moody's had given a provisional "AA" rating to the $50,000,000 rural roads bond issue the state will sell on Sept. 28.

In addition, Steele said, Moody's has restored the "AA" rating to highway fund bonds already outstanding. The firm's highest rating is "AAA."

Several months ago, Moody's dropped the rating of all North Carolina bonds from "AA" to "A" and indicated it intended to downgrade the firm's highest rating is "AAA."

Heavy Winds In Sunday's Storm

By CHESTER WALSH
Last night's freak storm, accompanied by considerable thunder and lightning and wind, slowed up traffic on highways in the area, and caused extensive interference on electric transmission lines.

Less than two-thirds of an inch of rain fell here, the Weather Bureau reported.

Electric current was off some time in the northeastern section of the city.

Burning electric wires on line poles at Albemarle avenue and South Alley and on Albemarle avenue near the Plaza Theater caused fire alarms to be sent in. Firemen responded to both call. Damage was nominal.

Greenville Utilities' emergency crews were on the job shortly after the storm started.

State highway patrolmen reported that a big tree was blown down on Highway 43, some distance from Greenville, stopping traffic. State Highway and Public Works crews chopped up the tree and had traffic open in a short time. Another tree was blown down along the highway between Winterville and Ayden. Patrolmen said there was some high water along some highways south and east of here, but it soon subsided.

A Greenville Utilities Commission official reported that numerous calls were made to the department about interrupted current in the Winterville section. Emergency crews promptly repaired the damage and electric current was restored.

The Weather Bureau here reported that the highest temperature in Greenville yesterday was 92 degrees; lowest last night was 70, and at 8 a.m. today it was 76.

Farmville officials reported a severe thunderstorm there, but no interference with electric lines.

On Price Guarantees

How Far Is The Government Obligated In Keeping Farm Prices At A High Level? No More Attempts To Assure A 'Minimum Price'; 'Support Level' Is New Basis

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—How far is the government obligated to go in carrying out farm price guarantees?

Do laws setting up mandatory price support programs require the government to see to it that every farmer gets at least the minimum guarantee for every bushel of his grain, every pound of his livestock and every dozen of his eggs?

This question bobbed up again this week after the Agriculture Department announced a material change in its program for supporting hog prices.

The department said in effect that from now on it will not attempt to assure any farmer the minimum price for any of his hogs. All it will do will be to try to keep the average of prices received by all farmers for all hogs from dropping below the support level.

Prior to this change the department had committed itself to maintain prices at all local markets at the price support level. Under this commitment individual farmers had fair assurance that they would get the guaranteed minimum.

Now about all the individual farmer can count on is a price in the neighborhood of the support level.

It is not likely, officials said, that individual prices at the height of the winter marketing season will drop more than $1 below the prospective national support average of possibly $14.50 per 100 pounds.

While hog prices tend to hold a general level, local supply conditions as well as local and nearby demands for pork often vary. This variation could reflect itself in hog prices above support levels in some markets and below in others.

But as long as the average of the prices of the various markets is equal to or above the support level, the government will do nothing about it.

This change in the hog support program greatly reduces the possibility of extensive government buying of pork this fall and winter to carry out the price guarantee.

The new setup may bring criticism from farmers and their congressmen. Many farm leaders contend that it is the intent of price support laws that the government use every possible means to assure every farmer the guaranteed price for all his products.

In making the change at this time, the department is aware of the fact that the government has a large stockpile of pork and is making the change at this time.

Jap Treaty Urgency

Democracies May Go Ahead With Peace Treaty Without Russia Unless Stalemate Is Worked Out; The Russian Attitude Explained; Unanimity Needed; Importance

The urgency of concluding a Japanese treaty has developed the startling possibility that the Democracies may get ahead with the job without Russia, unless a quick solution of the disagreement with Moscow can be found.

Should this happen it would of course mean two distinct treaties—another stone added to the wall dividing the totalitarian states and the Democracies.

The stalemate hinges on Russia's insistence that the treaty be concluded by the big four Foreign Ministers Council (America, Britain, Russia and France), whereas the United States insists that it be handled by the Far Eastern commission. This commission comprises the eleven countries that fought against Japan—the United States, Russia, Britain, France, China, the Philippines, the Netherlands, Canada, Australia, India and New Zealand.

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The State Department announced today Soviet Russia has agreed to resume four-power negotiations on a treaty with Austria.

The negotiations, interrupted at London on Sept. 1, will be renewed Thursday in New York.

Textile Union To Seek Clarification Of Order

Tarboro, N. C., Sept. 19.—The CIO Textile Workers Union says it will ask Superior Court Judge Walter J. Bone to clarify his injunction against mass picketing at the struck Hart Cotton Mill here.

The order handed down last Tuesday specified there should be no congregating within 150 yards of the mill. That's so workers, who wanted to go back would have free access.

Organization of the Washington County, N. C., chapter of the East Carolina Teachers College Alumni Association has just been announced by Mrs. Ruth Garner, alumni secretary.

At a meeting held in Roper Friday evening, Sept. 16, plans for the new chapter were completed and a group of officers elected. The new chapter begins with ten charter members and will hold quarterly meetings.
Mrs. W. M. Gaylord of Roper, at whose home the meeting took place, was chosen president. Other officers are Mrs. W. B. Phelps, vice president, and Mrs. Henry P. Hardison, secretary-treasurer, both of Plymouth.
Mrs. Garner and Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, director of the bureau of field services at East Carolina, were present for the meeting. Dr. McGinnis showed a movie of recent events on the campus, including scenes from the 1949 commencement exercises.

Women In The Church

The Rev. Mrs. A. J. Gibbs, of Kalamazoo, Mich., has been elected president of the American Association of Women Ministers which recently held its thirtieth annual assembly in Miltonville, Kan. The Association has 250 women members, all of them in the active Christian ministry. It was formed in 1919, and now has most of its members in the Baptist, Methodist, Congregational, Christian, Missionary Alliance, and Wesleyan Methodist churches. Its founder and first president was the Rev. Miss M. Madeline Southard who has recently completed a two-year evangelistic tour of India.

Dr. Frank C. Laubach, worldwide missionary authority and advocate of adult literacy, was recently the guest of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Philadelphia. Dr. Laubach suggested that one of the best ways of teaching people to read and write, in their own tongues was to promote international and interracial goodwill and understanding. "The Christian's answer to communism is a deed," he said. "While the communists are trying to weaken the resistance of the world by poverty and discontent, we have to give the world strong bodies and hopeful minds. We must help the world by sending technically trained missionaries to teach technical skills."

A carryover from the old Talmudic laws is blamed by Mrs. Israel

Goldstein as a major cause of discrimination against women in the new state of Israel. Mrs. Goldstein, wife of an American rabbi, is president of Pioneer Women, an organization of American working women. On her return from a year in Israel, she said that the Israeli Council of Working Women, 80,000 strong, is working with the Pioneer Women to achieve in Israel greater equality between men and women as regards laws for divorce, property rights, medical care, and old-age pensions which now favor the male.

The evangelistic opportunity through the school is great, reaching into the homes of girls now and into the future, for Japanese women of tomorrow will play a decisive role in democratic Japan." So says Alice Grube, American missionary-teacher in the Girls High School, Osaka Japan, which enrolls 700 girls. She adds: "Social change is taking place despite old ideas opposing the new. Great fundamental changes are occurring in thought and customs as the people realize their necessity."

Redbugs Plague Jurors In Case In Court Here

By CHESTER WALSH
The plaintiff in the case of Mrs. Clarence Harris against Vener Products, Inc., involving timber rights on her land was awarded a verdict of $1,147.50 in Superior Court last week, the jury got redbugs and Deputy Sheriff Duke Andrews received a sprained ankle. That's what the record shows.
Some of the jurors are using salt and kerosene oil, others are using patented ointments for the disagreeable itching the tiny red insects cause when they get a good grip on human flesh. Those interviewed by a reporter today were still scratching.

The suit involved timber rights on 3.2 acres of Mrs. Harris' land, situated in Greenville and Factious townships.

Judge R. Hunt Parker of Roanoke Rapids, who was presiding ordered the jury to go to the land in custody of deputy sheriffs and check the testimony about the property lines.

One of the jurors, Ed B. Garris, who works for the Greenville Utilities Commission, when asked by a reporter if the jurors could stand the long three-mile walk over hill, dale and creeks, replied, "Yes—sure" This morning he greeted the reporter with the query: "What's good for redbugs? They are giving me a fit."

The jurors in this land case got fees for their services and they got redbugs. They are: A. W. Bobbitt, Herman Buck, Leon A. Clark, W. W. Corbette, John B. Fleming, W. C. Garner, Ed B. Garris, Theodore Garris, R. H. Heath, Clifton Jackson, J. H. Mobley, and J. A. Suggs.

12,000 Turn Out For Birthday Of Zoo's Elephant

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 19—(AP)—An elephant and an estimated 12,000 persons ate cake together yesterday.
The throng showed up at the Little Rock zoo to give Ruth, the elephant, a birthday party.
Ruth was permitted to go off her strict diet to taste the first piece of a cake eight by seven feet square, five feet tall and weighing about 800 pounds. Then youngsters and adults alike filed by for their pieces.
Ruth—who had been given a special bath, pedicure (polished toenails) and since for the occasion—provided the entertainment. She went through a routine of tricks she learned in a circus years ago.
Ruth is 36 years old.

'Early American' Home Found; 5,000 Years Old

Chicago (AP)—Archaeologists in New Mexico have discovered what probably is the earliest house yet found in North America.

Dr. Paul S. Martin, leader of the Southwest Archaeological Expedition of the Chicago Natural History Museum, reports he has uncovered remains of an ancient hamlet in the western part of the State. It is believed to be the home of prehistoric Cochise Indians.

The pit house is about 5,000 years old and irregularly shaped, he said. "About seven feet below the surface, with a diameter of about six feet, one side of the interior has a series of steps by which he wrote in his report to the museum.

Around the walls a row of small holes seemed to have been used as sockets in which roof beams were inserted. The find was located near the expedition camp in Pine Lawn Valley about 100 miles north of Silver City.

TEEN TALK

If you really want to be a good friend, advises pretty Barbara Whiting, then concentrate on only one friend.

Blue-eyed Barbara, 18, who has been a Hollywood starlet for several years, finds the trouble with most young people is that they try to make too many friends. You've got to be more sincere about it. Says she.

"Pick your friend carefully. Try to discover everything about your pal's moods. Sympathize with her. Then she will have someone to turn to in emergencies, and so will you."

Barbara, who plays Judy Graves in the "Junior Miss" radio show (she played Fluffy Adams in the movie version), says she doesn't see any reason why girls can't have lots of acquaintances, but it certainly is a mistake to have more than one bosom pal. Her personal chum is Betty Sullivan, whom she is now visiting on her first trip to New York, and anything Betty does is all right with her—that's the way pals ought to feel, she says.

She thinks boys are fun when they don't try to pin you down to dates for sports events. She enjoys music and would rather have a date with a boy who likes music. She says.

"It's disgraceful the way some boys drag their dates to football or baseball games, and just let them sit there beating feet. If girls like sports fine. But it shouldn't be forced on them."

The trouble with most dates, today, as Barbara sees it, is that boys aren't as mature as girls their own age. You have to go out with boys much older than you—at least five years—to enjoy conversation. Younger boys do not ever show proper respect towards girls, much less treat them like ladies, she says. And they never are good listeners.

Barbara says she doesn't particularly care, though, because she doesn't have much time for dates anyhow, with rehearsals, singing lessons and occasional recreation such as bicycling and swimming, which she loves.

She thinks radio is the ideal career although she'd give it up to be a writer, her first love. She insists any girl who has a hankering for radio or the stage should give herself a fair trial at it. Says she.

"Now are you going to get started doing something you like, if you just go to school because your parents want you to? The trouble is too many people send their kids to school to get them off the street, whereas if they'd let them do something they are genuinely interested in, perhaps they'd amount to something."

Barbara had lots of support in her desire for a theatrical career. Her father, the late Richard Whiting,

Wife To Leave Husband Alone On Court Order

Elizabeth City, N. C., Sept. 19—(AP) Mrs. Raymond Newbern was warned in court over the weekend to leave her husband alone in operating his farm.

She also was ordered to give up the use of her husband's automobile unless he gives her permission to use it.

Mrs. Newbern was charged with assaulting her husband with an automobile, damage to a truck tire by cutting it with an axe, and assault on J. B. Bailey with an axe.

Recorder's court judge Pentress Horner convicted the woman of both cases of assault, ordered her to pay court costs, and to be on good behavior for two years.

Much of the trial testimony was not allowed by the judge on the grounds that a man cannot testify against his wife.

penned "Sleepytime Gal" and other popular tunes. Her sister is a vocalist.

If you like radio, Barbara's advice is to get acquainted with a small radio station in your town, help plan a program if possible, join the theater group and do as much public speaking as possible to get stage presence.

Organizing

Shanghai, Sept. 19—(AP)—The Chinese communists were setting up machinery for a central government today.

The official Red News agency said a preliminary meeting of the political consultative conference at Peiping has "approved in principle" organic law for the central government and the PCC.

A plenary session of the PCC will be held soon, the agency said. It will have 661 representatives from 45 political units, including the Communists and other anti-Nationalist organizations.

The Reds are governing areas won from the Nationalists with regional governments.

Best Defense In A-Bomb Raid Is 'Somewhere Else'

Baltimore, Sept. 19—(AP)—The best defense against an atom bomb, according to Summer Pike of the atomic energy commission, is "to be on a visit to some place else when it goes off."

Here last night for a television broadcast (WMAR-TV) Pike reported the commission is having a hard time determining how good a job it's doing.

He said that's because "the guy that's competing with us has the curtain rung down and all he can hear are a few clinks and clanks from the chains."

"We've no idea how well he's doing," the commissioner declared in reference to Russia's atomic research.

Number Factory Jobs In N. C. Up

Raleigh, Sept. 19—(AP)—For the first time in 10 months, factory employment rose in North Carolina last month.

The State Department of Labor reported over the weekend a gain of 20,000 in employment for August. The big increase knocked out one-third of the decrease in factory employment recorded since September, 1948.

Both the work week and earnings of employees also increased substantially last month in nearly all manufacturing industries. The Labor Department said last month's manufacturing employment totaled 380,400, or 5.6 per cent more than the 360,200 employed in July.

The factory work week averaged 38.8 hours, up 5.8 per cent, and weekly earnings averaged $39.89, an increase of 4.5 per cent.

Textile mills took on an additional 7,400 workers in August. Total employment in textiles last month was 201,700, up 3.8 per cent over the industry's postwar low of 194,200 reached in July.

Meanwhile, in another monthly report, the Employment Security Commission reported more Tar Heel non-agricultural workers found jobs last month than in any month since August, 1946.

The University of Arizona football team under new Wildcat head coach Bob Winslow this season is using a straight T offense for the first time.

Strength FOR THE DAY UNITED NATIONS PRAYER ROOM The United Nations Secretariat recently reported that its decision to install a non-denominational prayer room in the permanent world capital now going up on Manhattan's East Side has brought the greatest spontaneous influx of laudatory letters ever received at the international peace headquarters. According to officials, nothing like this response has ever been recorded on any other specific issue. The letters have come not only from this country but from Europe as well. The nearest thing to this mass reaction was the wave of protest concerning the trial and imprisonment of Hungary's prime minister, Cardinal Mindszenty. The fact that the two greatest demonstrations of public interest in the policy of the United Nations concern religious questions might well induce the striped-pants diplomats to ponder. The impassioned wrangling between representatives of the Eastern and Western powers, the economic projects which directly affect the lives of millions, the grim specter of war as the alternative to agreement—all these things apparently matter less to the human people of the world than the fact that national representatives should recognize the place of God in human life and protest against the persecution of religion.

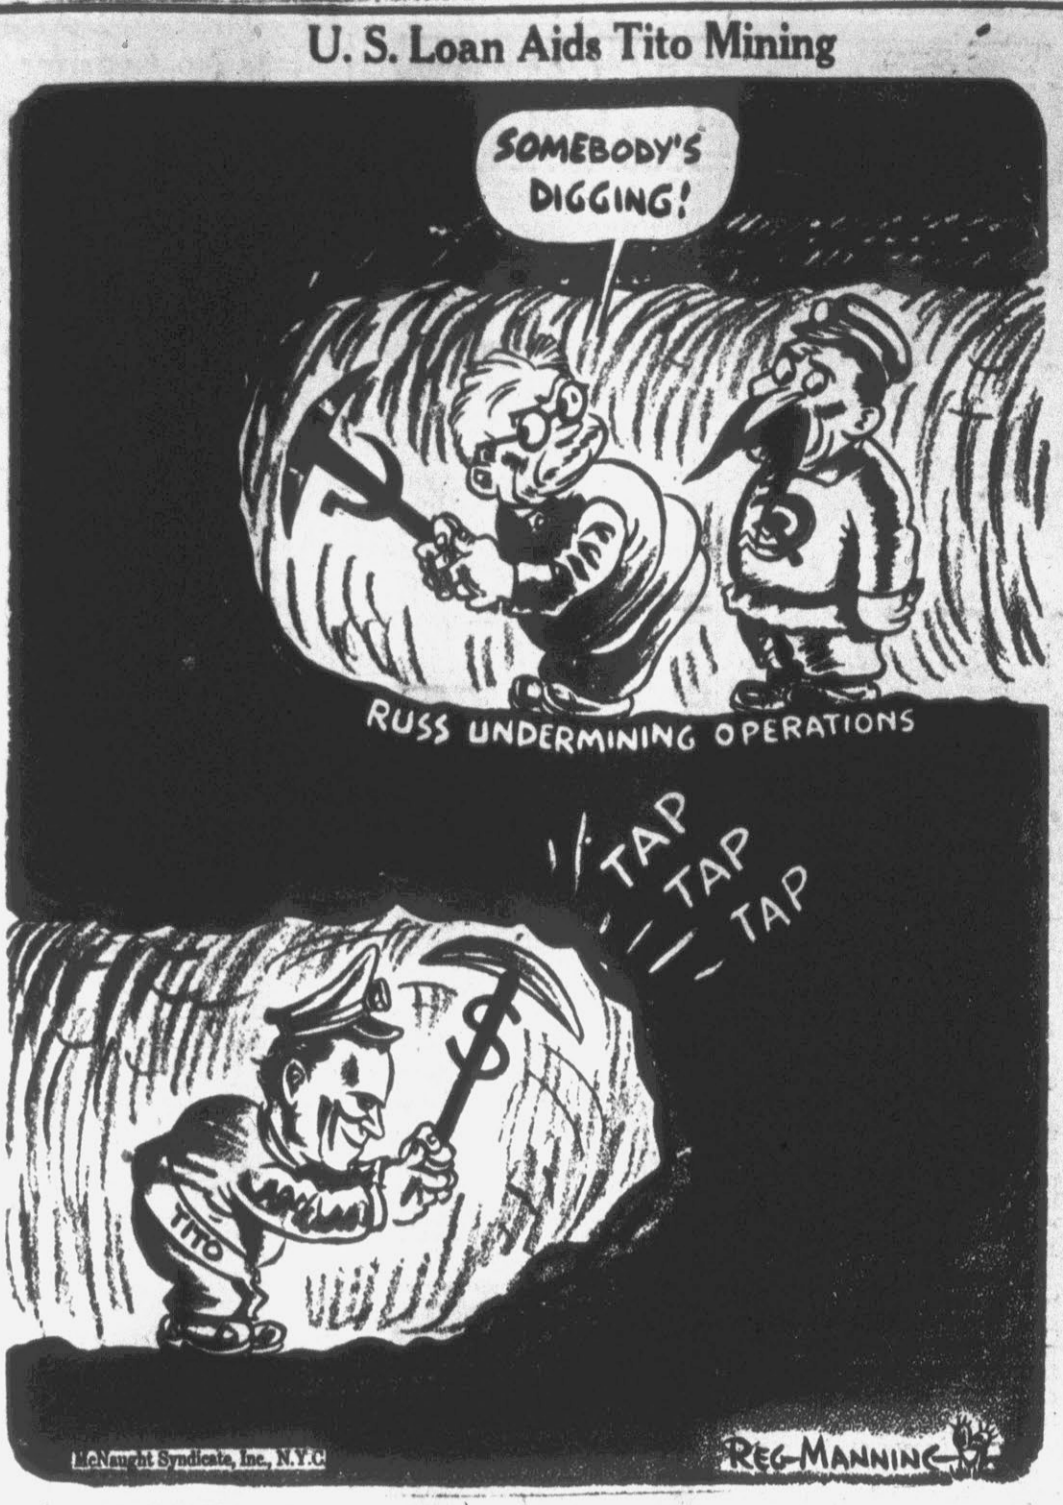

POUND DEVALUATION People from all nations today began to watch the effect the devaluation of the British pound will have on world trade. Great Britain's slash in the pound rate was followed by similar action of seven other countries in the sterling area which cut the value of their currency 80 1/2 per cent in terms of the dollar. Just what affects the devaluation will have upon the trade of the world, and just how much it will aid the countries to build up their dollar resources will be determined only when the system has been tried for a period of time and the early results may be studied. By the devaluation of the pound from $4.03 to $2.80, the British government will have to pay out more pounds for the goods she imports from dollar countries, but British exports will cost the dollar countries less, and therefore should stimulate the British export market. Prices of products moving between the countries of the devaluation area will remain unaffected. Although the devaluation of the pound is likely to cause an inflation spiral in the devaluation area, the lower dollar costs of British goods which come into the United States and other dollar countries may cause a deflation period in the dollar countries. The manufacturers in the United States will have to compete with cut-rate foreign goods offered to consumers in this country, and at the same time American goods which are exported must compete with cheaper foreign goods in other markets. Regardless of what other effects come from the devaluation, one positive result will be seen immediately. The devaluation will release the huge backlog of orders for British goods which they have been placed by American purchasers for delivery "when the pound is devalued." It should stimulate the trade, not only of Britain, but the other countries of the world as well.

AROUND CAPITOL SQUARE VIGOROUS—A good clean scrap is good for Democratic Party, whether in regular organization circles or among Young Democrat Clubs. Prospects for a real fight for State YDC president brought record attendance at the New Bern convention the past weekend. A total of 679 delegates from 74 counties were accredited by the credentials committee. Last year there were 287 voting delegates. There was usual complaint about older folks taking too much part in YDC affairs, there was talk of pressure and influence. But for most part the New Bern convention was run by the young folks. As a consequence the organization is more vigorous today than ever before in its history. UPSETS—The fact that most of the pre-convention hope was upset in final action strengthens rather than weakens the YDC on state level. Before the convention it looked like George Fountain of Tarboro was leading for president and Bedford Black of Kannapolis for national committeeman. The convention elected Terry Sandford of Fayetteville to the presidency and Eugene Gordon of Burlington to the national committee. This brings in new leadership of recognized ability but as yet unproven capacity. Meantime, the defeated candidates have a record of continuing service in YDC activity that assures their loyalty. MANEUVERING—The youngsters had some expert advice from old-timers, but most of the actual maneuvering that led to withdrawal of Eugene Gordon from the presidential race and the defeat of Fountain and Black was handled by the young folks. It was successful largely because of desire for change—any kind of change. Some observers saw continuation of the upset in last year's elections. Fountain and Black represented the old regime in that they had been active so long. Sandford and Gordon are new to YDC councils. And the young folks were ready for something new. BACKGROUND—In the background, perhaps not even recognized by some of the young partisans, was similar division in the overall Democratic ranks. Original sponsors of the Fountain candidacy were among Governor Scott's most ardent supporters and appointees. Black was active in primary and received prize money in the consolation event. The third event was a two-car race between the two cars turning in the fastest times: Cigar Haddock and the Hall-Joyner-Williams entry, number 17. This event was won by Cigar on the winner-take-all basis. Besides 32, 32-A and 17 were cars from Norfolk and Newport News, and one other Greenville entry, Oscar Dixon. The modified stock cars have to be loved to the track because they are built especially for operation on a dirt track. Operating them on a highway will burn them up. Their 100 horsepower engines are souped-up to 150 to 175 horsepower, which means that it would be necessary to run them 80 or 90 mph on the highway to keep them cool. On a track like the Washington Pamlico Track they average over 60 mph, but the engine revolutions stay high enough for proper cooling. On a three-quarter mile banked track they can travel 90, and on a straight-away 130 to 140 mph. In order to free the Pamlico track from dust the operators poured over 5,000 gallons of diesel oil and burned cylinder oil on the track. A heavy downpour destroyed some of the effectiveness of the oil yesterday, but next Sunday the track will be in even better shape. Joyner, Hall and Williams are well pleased with their inauguration of racing. Next Sunday they will be able to iron out the kinks they discovered yesterday, and they expect to put on an even better race. If you go down to Washington next Sunday to see the races and notice that the stock cars look like junk heaps just keep in mind that they cost about $2,500 each. And I thank you.

Somebody Told Me... By L. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR. Modified Stock Automobile racing has hit Eastern North Carolina with a bang! Yesterday afternoon the Pamlico Race Track at Washington was filled with racing fans anxious to see the first race sponsored by three Greenville racemen: Carlton Joyner, Bennie Hall and Earl Williams. The crowd left well pleased at what they saw. Capturing the majority of the prize money was Alton "Cigar" Haddock, with his reliable number 32-A, a modified 1939 Ford coupe. Cigar's brother, Cullen, drove number 32, a modified 1940 Ford two-door sedan. Alton's string of victories in races in Suffolk, Va., Newport News, Va., Ahoskie, Virginia Beach, Daytona Beach, Fla., and Atlanta, Ga., has mounted to almost 50. In July he was the subject of "Somebody Told Me..." At the beginning of every race Alton lights up a cigar and puffs on it during the entire race. When he climbs out of his car to receive his prize money he's still puffing on that cigar. Thus, the Richmond newspapermen have labeled him "Cigar." Joyner, Hall and Williams entered their number 17, which was driven by Earl Williams. In the main event number 17 placed second, between the Haddock brothers. Before the race got underway the cars competed in time trials in order to determine fair matching for the events to come. Based on the time trials, the slow cars then ran a 10-lap race, designed to give the slow cars an opportunity to capture some of the prize money. The next event was a 10-lap race for the fast cars, followed by a consolation race for cars not placing in either of the first two events. First place only

Is Your Child the "One in Five"? One school child in five is retarded because his vision is defective. Poor vision is a great handicap to a child. It shows him up in every way. It forces him to work harder to master his studies; handicaps him in his relationships with other children and grown-ups, too. It tends to warp his personality—and generally sets him back in his struggle to get ahead and make his mark. Make sure your child's vision is right! Don't handicap him! general election campaigns in behalf of Scott. But—Sandford and Gordon were tagged as backing Senator Frank Graham in next year's primary, whereas Fountain and Black were counted as potential supporters of William B. Umstead. If he should enter the senatorial race, so majority of the Scott group, with advice from such over-zealous Young Democrats as Dr. C. C. Johnson, commissioner of paroles and Charles M. Williams, director of purchase and contract, put everything they had behind Sandford and Gordon. Opinion prevailed among delegates at noon Saturday that Sandford might have won anyway, but that Gordon could not have made the grade without administrative backing. CROSSED—Other crossed wires were traceable to the upcoming senatorial campaign. L. H. Fountain, state senator and veteran YDC leader, distant kinsman and fellow-townsmen of Candidate George, was noticeable for his absence and lack of support for his neighbor. It was widely rumored that original backing for Sandford stemmed from the same group that vigorously fought R. C. Godwin for state commanger of the American Legion at the recent convention in Raleigh. Yet Godwin was found zealously backing Gordon for president until he withdrew and then joined in support of Sandford for president. There was nothing unusual in these developments. It is axiomatic that political support is based upon prospective future advantage rather than as reward for past service. Pleas that So-and-so has earned recognition are drowned out by promises, direct or implied, of future delivery. It has always been that way. SURPRISE—The convention was not without surprises. Chief among these was the exuberant and affable presentation of Governor Scott by State Senator D. L. "Libby" Ward at the Friday night dinner. Many times during the legislature the governor singled out Senator Ward, chairman of the roads committee, as one of the chief obstructionists of the "Go Forward" program. Deer Overpopulation Is Being Cut By Epidemic

By the Associated Press
A mysterious epidemic that has killed hundreds of deer in Maryland, West Virginia and along the Appalachian range may be nature's way of reducing overpopulation.
At least, that's the opinion of two authorities—Brig. Gen. E. F. Bullene, commanding officer at the army's Edgewood Arsenal in Maryland, and Dr. Adolph H. Schultz of the Johns Hopkins Medical School.

General Bullene, who wrote an article for the magazine "Outdoor Life" on the deer herds at Edgewood and Aberdeen, Md., said that there is an overpopulation of any kind of wild game, nature remedies the situation with a disease.
The general said he believes both army centers are overpopulated with deer, and that the recent epidemic is "just what I thought would happen."

Dr. Schultz, who has been a member of the Society of Mammalogy since it was founded some 40 years ago, also said the disease could be due to nature's system of checks and balances.
For example, he said, western states recently offered a bounty for mountain lions because they were killing deer and other game. The lions were killed off and the deer multiplied enormously. Then nature stepped in and killed off the deer at a great rate with a disease.
About 200 deer deaths were reported at Aberdeen Proving Ground, where a herd of nearly 2,500 roamed the reservation. Nearly 100 carcasses were found in Hardy and Hampshire Counties in West Virginia, and deaths were reported also in North Carolina, Alabama and Kentucky.

Comedian Frank Morgan Is Dead

Hollywood, Sept. 18—(AP)—Actor Frank Morgan—he of the harried manner and embarrassed laugh—is dead.

The veteran stage, movie and radio comic, who in real life took events so calmly he once slept through the victory of his own yacht in a hotly contested race to Honolulu, died yesterday during his sleep. He was 59 years old.

His wife, of 24 years, Alma, noticed he had stopped breathing and called an inhalator squad. An hour's effort was futile.

Morgan had just finished a picture, "Key to the City," with Clark Gable and Loretta Young, on Thursday, but he did not seem unduly tired. It was his 68th film.

His latest-released movie was "The Stratton Story," in which he portrayed a baseball scout. Among his top films were "The Great Ziegfeld," "Naughty Marietta," and "Green Dolphin Street." He also had his own radio show for a time.

Negro Woman Is One-Person Riot After Ball Game

State Highway Patrolmen had difficulty quieting and apprehending Lillie Jenkins, middle-aged Negro woman, when she ran amuck outside Guy Smith Stadium after the baseball game Saturday night.

The officers charged her with creating a disturbance, interfering with traffic, being drunk and disorderly and using vulgar and profane language.

Patrolman Guthrie and George Cherry subdued the woman, put her in a patrol car and took her to jail to sleep off a "heavy drunk," an officer said.

Greenies Play Kinston Here Tonight In CPL Finals

Drop First Game By Margin Of 11-4

Voiselle Wrecked See-Saw Contest With Grand-Slam Homer; Semi-Final Defeat Of Rocky Mount Was Thriller Of The Week

The Greenville Greenies suffered a staggering 11-4 defeat at the hands of the Kinston Eagles in Kinston yesterday dropping their opening game of the Coastal Plain finals after eliminating the pennant-winning Rocky Mount Leafs from the play-offs by virtue of a 5-4 10-inning semi-finals victory here Saturday night.

On one brief occasion the Greenies found themselves leading the Kinston club. They broke the ice in the second to gather a momentary 1-0 lead. Kinston rallied three runs to soar ahead in the same inning. The Greenies tied it up with a two-run burst in the fourth but Kinston edged ahead by one run in the bottom of the same frame.

Pitcher Claude (Diz) Voiselle, who went all the way on the mound for the winners, put the Greenville club hopelessly behind when he slammed a grand-slam homer in the sixth inning.

Kinston rallied three more in the seventh. Greenville fought back desperately in the top of the ninth but were quelled after scoring one run.

Three Greenville hurlers were used in a vain effort to stop the 10-hit Kinston onslaught. Lewey, who was chased in the fourth, was charged with the loss.

The Saturday game was by far the baseball thriller of the week as two teams fought stubbornly for 10 innings before the locals shoved over the winning run.

The Leafs of Rocky Mount sent the game into overtime when they rallied one run in the top of the ninth, and held the Greenies scoreless in the bottom of the same period.

Manager Williams sent his boys sailing into the finals when he connected with a sharp single in the 10th to score Tepedino, who had walked.

Bob Harrison and Vern (Preacher) Mustian shared the pitching duties for the locals in the contest; the Greenies combed four Rocky Mount hurlers for 10 hits.

Manager Pappy Williams' boys, who played at a high, nerve-wracking

Columbus, O., Sept. 19—(P)—Ezzard Charles' exhibition fight here tonight with Columbus' Alabama kid will be his last for some time, says co-manager Jake Mintz of Pittsburg.

Dole Stresses 'Breaks' Won Thursday Game In Analysis

Coach Bill Dole plans to put his East Carolina squad through a strenuous week of practice in hopes of preparing his team for their forthcoming game against the strong "Bears" of Lenoir-Rhyne.

Although his Pirates won their opening game against Cherry Point 24-0 Dole quickly points out the fact that the game was not as lopsided as the score indicates. Dole says, "Cherry Point gave us a lot of trouble. We got the breaks and the boys took advantage of them. We recovered four Marine fumbles and intercepted two passes. Both pass interceptions and one recovered fumble were converted into touchdowns. Three Cherry Point marches were stopped by fumbles.

Our other score resulted from the Marines appearing late on the field for the second half and their being penalized to kick from their own 25. We were lucky to receive these breaks against the Marines but I'm sure we won't get many against Lenoir-Rhyne."

An analysis of the Marine game backs up Coach Dole's statements. Frank Maenne intercepted a pass on his own 25-yard line and the Pirates went 75 yards for a touchdown. Bill Darby intercepted a pass and the Pirates went for another touchdown. Pete Prominski recovered a Marine fumble on the Pirate 39 and a 61 yard march and a Pirate score resulted from it. Taking the second half kickoff the Tokals scored in 8 plays. On the other hand two sustained Marine marches were stopped by fumbles. Cherry Point marched 69 yards only to fumble and have Stan Peel recover for the Pirates. Cherry Point's longest drive, 73 yards in the last quarter, was stopped when Keith Kilpatrick recovered a fumble. The other Marine fumble was recovered by Ken Booth on the Pirate 16 stopping a Marine 63 yard drive.

Coach Dole has already begun correcting some mistakes his squad made and will have others to correct as soon as motion pictures of the Marine game are viewed.

New York, Sept. 19—(AP)—Joe Page, like most men, takes pride in his work. As relief ace of the New York Yankees with 54 completed missions, he revels in the challenge of a last ditch baseball battle.

"I'm in there to get those guys out," he said with emphasis, "Nobody's a friend of mine when he's got a bat. I don't care who it is."

This cool, clinical approach to a tough job is one of Smokey Joe's chief assets. Perhaps the most important one.

A man of changeable moods and sometimes unpredictable actions, Page is a man with ice water in his veins when he marches from the bullpen to the mound.

"Naw," he answered, "I know every day there's a pretty good chance I'll be in there, some seventh or eighth inning. I'd just as soon go in earlier. I could relieve in the second innings if they'd let me."

Joe hasn't started yet but of the 54 games in which he has appeared the Yanks have won 39, lost 14 and tied one.

With only 13 games to go, the continued good health of Smokey Joe is a most important factor in World Series plans.

Willie Pep Climbs Into Ring For 27th Birthday

Waterbury, Conn., Sept. 19—(P)—A heck of a way to celebrate a birthday—getting into a fight. But that's Willie Pep's business and that's what he's going to do here Tuesday night.

Willie Willie of Hartford plans to climax his 27th birthday with a successful defense of his featherweight crown against Eddie Compo of New Haven in Waterbury's municipal stadium. He is a 1 to 4 favorite to do it.

It's an all-Connecticut scrap and Pep's first title bout in his home state. It's also Willie's first defense of his title since he recaptured it from Sandy Saddler last February.

The bout, twice postponed in July picked up interest over the week-end and promoted Rocco Mara predicts a crowd of more than 10,000 and a gate of some $30,000.

Apps Beaten By Guilford, 13-12

By The Associated Press—Western Carolina Teachers College gets the next crack at the Appalachian football team now that it's known the defending North State conference champions can be beaten.

Guilford turned the trick Saturday night, 13-12. It was an impressive start for Guilford's new coach, Eddie Teague, former North Carolina State and University of North Carolina star. Bill Cross missed both extra point kicks for Appalachian and that was the difference.

Elsewhere around the conference Saturday night, Western Carolina turned back High Point 20-7 on touchdown runs by Pee Wee Hamilton, Joe Hunt and Tommy Selzer. Tommy McGhee raced for 45 yards and the High Point touchdown in the closing minutes.

Catawba crushed Atlantic Christian 39-0 with even center Earl Henry getting into the scoring column.

Charlie Ostwalt zipped across for a Saturday night touchdown as Lenoir-Rhyne defeated Erskine 7-0.

Mon toyed with the Edenton Marines, 80-0, Friday night, and East Carolina Teachers opened with a 24-0 victory over the Cherry Point Marines Thursday night.

Bauer brought a hot bat into action and powered the Yanks to a 7-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians. The triumph preserved the game with a two-run triple in the seventh.

Substitutes Win Again For Yanks

By RALPH RÖDEN—Associated Press Sports Writer

The outstanding feature of the New York Yankee pennant drive, aside from Joe Page's sterling relief exploits, is the uncanny way that manager Casey Stengel's substitutes have come through for the injured front-liners.

Although plagued with over 60 injuries, the Yanks have paced the American League since opening day. Many times the outlook was bleak but the yanks huffed and puffed their way to calmer seas.

The Yankee man of the hour is Hank Bauer, speedy strong-armed outfielder.

Joe DiMaggio, who missed the first 65 games of the season, reported at game time yesterday with a high fever. The clipper, only regular hitting over 300, was scratched from the lineup and Bauer installed.

Bauer brought a hot bat into action and powered the Yanks to a 7-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians. The triumph preserved the game with a two-run triple in the seventh.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

By WILLIAM HOBSON

Chapter 8
Presently a bed creaked from the lean-to cook-shack built on the south side of the bunkhouse and Jay heard grunts, followed by the rattle of the stove. Jay rose and went in to meet a pleasant-faced man of forty.

"How are you, Joe?" he greeted Allison. "Glad to see you back. Anything new?"

"Nothing much. How about here?" The cook was stirring coals in the firebox of the big cast-iron kitchen range. "Nothing much except a horse raid the other night. But Mr. Randall always pulls them Morgans up in close pasture at night and keeps two of the boys on guard. There was considerable shooting and I hear one got shot. When did you get in?"

"Half an hour ago. The family is right behind in a surrey with the visitors. I just passed them a-listen. Sounds like them coming now."

"I'd better go out and give them a hand with the team," he said casually, and left.

He strolled over to where the seven were getting down, the East-erners a little tiredly.

"Joe, I've got your warbag stuffed under the back seat," the rancher boomed as his man came up. "Knew you'd need it. Our visitors' baggage won't be out till some time later. You folks go on in and cool off a bit while Joe and me unharness this team."

They freed the span and watched them go into the corral to drink and roll, then took the surrey tongue and backed it under a big shed.

Jay left him and went down past the last corral.

Jay heard voices and saw the party coming down, and he noted that Harry Seltzer walked with the red-haired Ellen. Randall was talking and gesticulating. They came up to where Jay leaned over the barbed wire fence of the pasture. Out beyond it the lush vegetation was dotted with sleek-coated mares and shaggy colts, geldings, and two big studs: magnificent brutes with long flowing dark manes and high heads.

She had risen. He saw in the light from the front room window that she was an astonishingly pretty woman.

He grinned. "I'm glad I met you, Miss Seltzer."

"I'm glad I met you, Joe," she answered simply. "Take good care of yourself."

Ellen had missed none of it. As Jay turned to go she linked her arm within his and they walked down toward the bunkhouse.

"Don't you go getting any ideas, Mr. Joe Allison," she whispered in his ear. "I know you too well. So you think she's pretty, don't you?"

He was playing the role of his brother now and made the appropriate answer. "You bet she is!" He answered with enthusiasm. "Ah, those eyes and lips. Yi-yi-yi!"

"Cut it out, Joe." She was dead serious now. She stopped and turned to face him. "Mary is my best friend and I don't want her for a rival."

"I love you very much, Joe. I've told you so many times. But there are two things we must understand tonight before you go. You've got to make good like Dad says. You've got to make good, not for him, but for me. And if you tear Mary's heart out I swear on this spot that I'll marry Harry Seltzer. Heaven knows he's asked me plenty of times."

Jumps To Safety At High Speed

Washington, Sept. — (AP) — A Navy pilot flipped himself out of plane doing more than 600 miles an hour last month and parachuted safely to earth. Officials think he was the first man to do it at that speed.

On Aug. 9 Lt. Jack L. Fruin was flying his twin-jet Banshee fighter at 40,000 feet near Cherry Point N.C., when it went into a swift spiral dive. Fruin blew himself clear of the plane by using a pilot ejector seat.

Schedule Start On Road Program

Raleigh, Sept. — (AP) — The Highway Commission has set Sept. 26 for the official start of the state's $200,000,000 rural road program. On that day, Highway Chairman Henry W. Jordan said yesterday, 12 projects for about 190 miles of bond-money roads will be let to contract. The 12 jobs are part of a group of 26 projects which the commission advertised for bids this week.

Famed U. S. Marine Band In Concerts Here Tuesday

The United States Marine Band will appear in two concerts at East Carolina Teachers College Tuesday, September 20.

Musicians of the South and Middle West will be delighted to hear the United States Marine Band in these sections this fall, and will present afternoon and evening concerts at many leading cities. This will be the first time since 1940 that the famous band known as "The President's Own" has toured in the South. No doubt the famous group of skilled musicians will be given a warm welcome.

Led by Major William F. Santelmann, the Marine Band will appear at East Carolina Teachers College at 8:00 o'clock in a free concert for children of the Pitt County elementary schools. This program has been arranged especially for younger Americans and will include both popular and classical music, as well as patriotic and folk song numbers. The band will open its performance with "The Stars and Stripes Forever" and close with the "Star Spangled Banner." Among special numbers will be a marimba solo with Musician Charles Owen as solist and Heywood Jones, "At the Circus" with Musician Dale Harpham as narrator.

The evening concert, presented as the first number of the East Carolina Teachers College Entertainment Series for 1949-1950, will take place at 8:00 o'clock. Both performances will be in the Wright auditorium.

During all the years that the Marine Band has made concert tours, it has played to enthusiastic audiences and record-breaking crowds and every state in the Union has heard soul-stirring music of "The President's Own" band. The present tour started today (Monday) at Martinsville, Virginia, and the last concert will be presented November 19 at Paoli, Pennsylvania.

Continue Probing Two Robberies

Pitt county law enforcement officers are continuing their investigations today of two robberies reported late last week, but Sheriff R. W. Tyson reported this morning that no mentionable developments have been made.

The first and largest of the two robberies was the stealing of $115 of the school lunchroom money from the office of Principal Fodde Hodges at Belyol school on Thursday night. Entrance to the office was gained through a window from which officers reported they obtained fingerprints.

The other robbery, perhaps the smallest ever to set off an investigation by local authorities was at the home of James Baker, Negro of near Simpson.

Officers say the thief made away with seventy-five cents and left a single clue . . . his foot print.

But this financial mechanism also works in reverse. The average Briton eating American wheat, smoking American cigarettes or buying American machinery will have to spend more pounds to get those goods.

Some Southern operators tossed the bombshell at Lewis which has resulted in the walkout. They suspended the 20-cent-a-ton royalty payments to the union's retirement and welfare fund.

Grain Market

Chicago, Sept. 19—(AP)—British devaluation of the pound caused selling and considerable nervousness in grain futures today.

Wheat closed 1/2 to 2/8 cents lower than the previous finish, September $2.08, corn was down 1/4 to 1/8, September $1.26 1/4, oats were off 1/4 to 1/8, September 67 1/2, rye was 3/4 to 4/8 cents lower, September $1.42, soybeans were down 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents, November $2.28 $2.27, and lard was 13 to 35 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $11.97.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Sept. 19—(AP)—The stock market weathered news of British devaluation in good form today.

A fast few minutes of selling immediately after the opening put prices down fractions to a point of more. The balance of the session was devoted to a pretty successful attempt to repair the damage.

Business was brisker than usual with turnover at the rate of about 1,300,000 shares for the full session.
