U. S. Auto Industry Turns Out 18 Million New Motor Vehicles

By DAVID J. WILKIE
 Detroit—(AP)—In the little more than four years since the war the auto industry has built almost 18,500,000 vehicles.
 That's a lot of vehicles. But it includes about 1,500,000 cars and trucks that were shipped to foreign markets. The remainder probably sounds like a lot of vehicles, too, but—
 There are still more than 24,000,000 pre-war cars and trucks in use. The use of motor vehicles is increasing steadily; there are 10,000,000 more vehicles in use today than there were four years ago.
 Shortages and high prices have influenced several million motorists to keep their aging cars, with the help of a lot of service and parts replacement.
 But this increases in cost as the cars grow older. Eventually the old car reaches the point where it has to be replaced in its entirety. This is what the auto makers are thinking about when they say their market for new cars should be good for several years to come.

 In some industry quarters you can hear it said that automobiles are much more sturdily built than they were before the war. To support the assertion you are told the average life of an automobile now is nearly 12½ years against slightly more than eight years in 1935.
 You are told also that the accumulated lifetime mileage of the average car now exceeds 100,000 against around 58,000 in 1935.
 But the figures are somewhat misleading. Shortages and high new car prices prolonged the life of many millions of vehicles.
 Of course, most of today's cars can be driven 100,000 miles or more with proper care. However, few cars get proper attention. Most of them begin to consume oil and more than a reasonable amount of gasoline about the time they have accumulated 35,000 miles.

 Proper care as the car manufacturers interpret it means attention to the smallest details. Most mechanical damage is done by failure to keep lubricating oil at the proper level in the crankcase.
 About the only thing the car makers have to worry about in appraising their immediate future market is overall buying power.
 Most of the sales managers, who have made recent on the spot surveys, report no apparent decline in demand. There is no evidence, they say, of inability to buy.

Greenville Student On Important Zoning Work Durham County

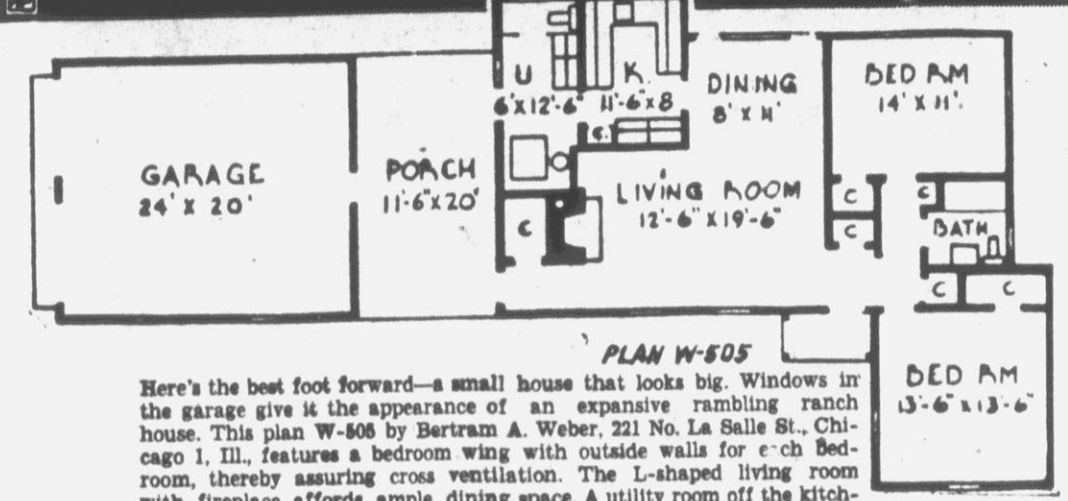

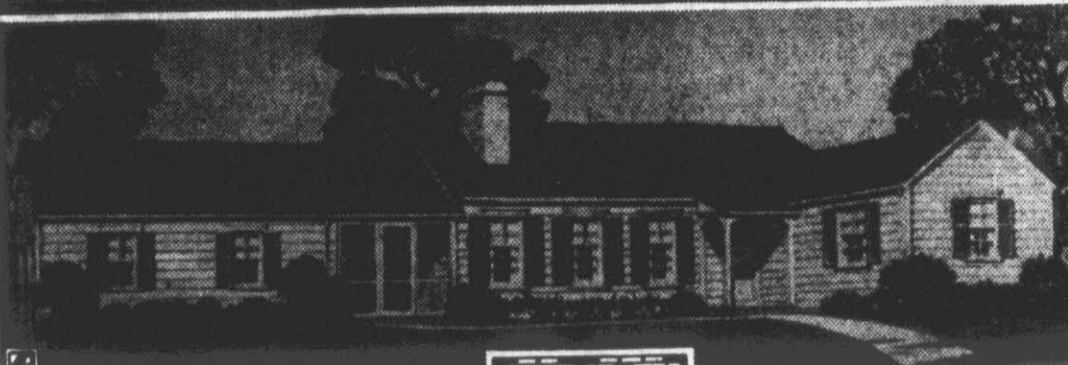

Paul Brooks, a student at the University of North Carolina, who spent the summer at Durham with a group of students, working for the Durham County Zoning Commission, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Brooks, near Greenville. He will return to Chapel Hill shortly to resume his postgraduate work there.
 Brooks, Miss Nan Leatherman of Hickory, and John B. Rouse, Jr. of Chapel Hill, graduate students at the University of North Carolina, worked all summer along with Jesse Wilder, Duke University student, preparing land use maps for the Zoning Commission. Jesse W. Cole, chairman of the Zoning Commission, stated that by the use of student personnel, carefully supervised by City Planning Director Frank L. Dieter and E. C. Gunter of the City Planning Department, "We have had the work done satisfactorily and much more economically than by employing an outside expert."

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

Here's the best foot forward—a small house that looks big. Windows in the garage give it the appearance of an expansive rambling ranch house. This plan W-505 by Bertram A. Weber, 221 No. La Salle St., Chicago 1, Ill., features a bedroom wing with outside walls for each bedroom, thereby assuring cross ventilation. The L-shaped living room with fireplace affords ample dining space. A utility room off the kitchen eliminates necessity for a basement. This makes the plan economical, with only 1,190 square feet, 17,500 cubic feet.

Spectators Drop Out In Tax Trial

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 20—(AP)—No wonder the spectators following the tax trial of Josephus D. Parker, Eagle Springs wine manufacturer, have been getting fewer and fewer.

You have to be something of an accountant to follow the testimony. Here are some figures. The case is in its second week in federal district court here. The government has called more than 50 witnesses already, and still isn't through, although it hopes to finish today. The 43-year-old defendant is charged with failing to pay income taxes of about $114,000, including penalties. As yesterday's session adjourned the government was plodding through Parker's income records. It tried to show that he had failed to report additional income of $45,513.76 in 1948. And it contended that his unreported income in 1944 was considerably more than that, with checks of more than $100,000 testified to by James L. Garst, the 53rd witness.

 Testimony will be continued today concerning the remainder of 1944 income, and that if the tax year 1945.

 Disbanded by the late Dr. Samuel Green, Imperial Wizard of the Georgia wing, the Chattanooga Klan has been "cleared of false accusations" in connection with a wave of recent floggings in the tri-state area, Roper said.

Death Penalty Is Asked For Youth

Buckhannon, W. Va., Sept. 20—(AP)—The death penalty has been asked for a 14-year-old boy accused of killing his father because he wouldn't buy him a bicycle.
 Upshur county prosecutor J. D. Jennings asked the death sentence yesterday in opening remarks to a jury convened to try Jerry Riggs, 14, of nearby Tallmansville for the fatal shooting of his father on Aug. 9. Jerry pleaded innocent.
 Jerry's younger brother and sister found the body of their father, Harry L. Riggs, 48, in a cornfield with a bullet wound in his back.
 State police corporal R. C. Culp quoted Jerry as saying he shot his father because he spanked him and wouldn't give him money for a bicycle.
 Culp said the boy told him he later bought a bike after he had taken $1,329 from a cache in his home and hidden all but $60 of it along a road.

Shrine Circus To Be Here Oct. 18

Children and charity will share in a day of delight when the Shrine Circus hits town on Tuesday, October 18, at the American Legion, Airport Field.

The Greenville Shrine Club has contracted for afternoon and evening performances that day in Greenville by an organized, major traveling circus, Mills Bros Three Ring Circus and Horse Show Combined.

Arrangements for the visit by the world's largest and greatest fundraising circus under canvas, and the largest motorized circus in the nation, were announced today by C. D. Ward, president of the Shrine Club, upon completion of negotiations with H. W. Ahrhart, Jr., circus general agent.

The local organization will receive a portion of the proceeds. It will use this money for Shrine charities.

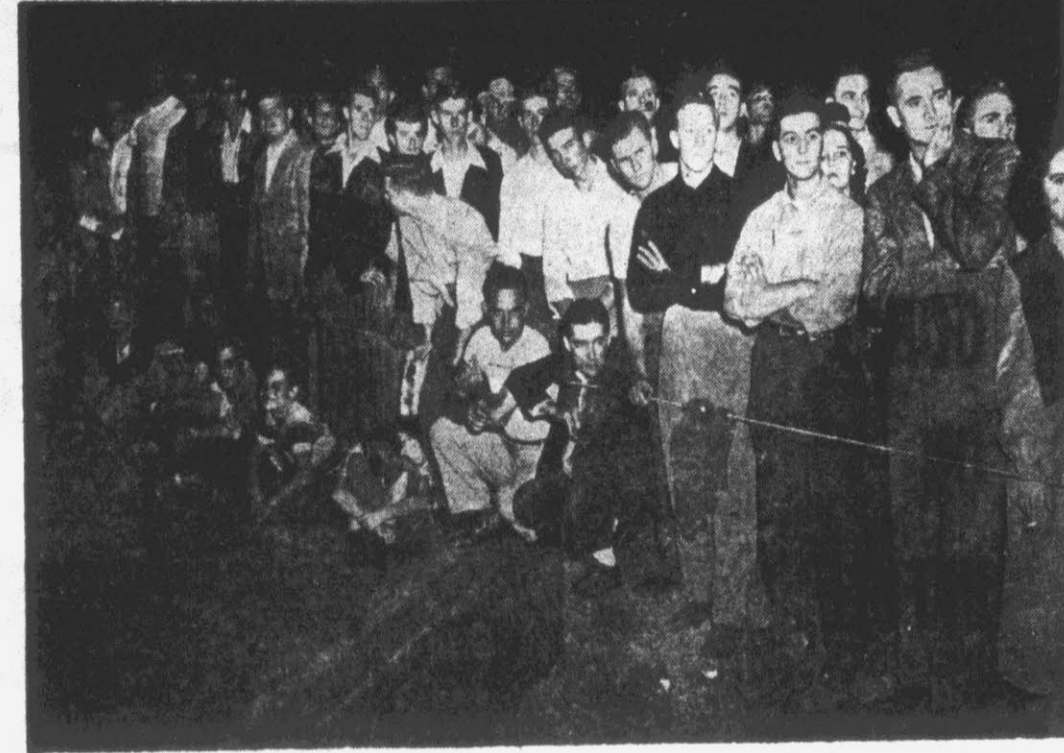

"Besides raising funds for this campaign," Mr. Ward said, "we want to make this a 100 per cent Circus Day for all youngsters of the area. We wish to have all underprivileged boys and girls, who otherwise would not have the opportunity to see a major three ring circus attend the Shrine Circus matinee free of charge."

A campaign will be launched shortly whereby tickets will be provided these children through the cooperation of merchants and business men, who will become "Circus Daddies" for the day.

Mr. Ward is circus chairman for the local group. Walter E. Lee is in charge of the advance ticket campaign which will be conducted by members. The Greenville Shrine Club receives the heaviest percentages for its charity fund campaign from tickets they sell prior to Circus Day.

Find Suspicious Hurricane Signs

Miami, Fla., Sept. 20—(AP)—Navy hurricane hunting planes investigated two widely separated "areas of suspicion" today, one in the Gulf of Mexico and the other east of the Lesser Antilles.

Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said there is "nothing to worry about as yet but we've got to watch them."

The area in the Gulf of Mexico is about in the center of the western half, between 800 and 900 miles west of Miami.

"This looks a little suspicious," Norton said. "It isn't a storm as yet. It's a wave of showery, squally weather and we're going to have to watch it."

Such waves often times spawn hurricanes.

The other area was reported some 200 miles east of the Lesser Antilles, roughly 1,300 miles east, southeast of Miami. "I'm not worried about this one at present," Norton said.

Hurricane hunting planes took off from Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, and Corpus Christi, Texas, to check both areas.

More Arrests In Czechoslovakia In Church Fight

Prague, Sept. 20—(AP)—The Czechoslovak government has jailed dozens of Roman Catholic priests and nuns in a big new wave of arrests aimed at breaking spreading resistance to state control schemes, a statement from church sources said today.

The report, given to correspondents here and enumerating at least 50 arrests, was termed only a partial list. It said more arrests were expected as the long state-church fight neared a showdown stage.

Hearing Ordered On Appointment

Washington, Sept. 20—(AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today ordered a public hearing next Tuesday on the appointment of Judge Sherman Minton to the Supreme Court.

Members decided, at a closed session, to listen then to any witnesses who wish to protest President Truman's selection of Minton to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Justice Wiley B. Rutledge.

There was no talk of calling Minton himself to testify, members said. Ordinarily, Supreme Court nominees are not asked to appear.

Scott To Call Meeting Of Law Enforcers In Raleigh

Raleigh, Sept. 20—(AP)—Governor Scott will soon call a meeting of the state's police chiefs and sheriffs to discuss a crackdown on bootleggers.

State ABC Chairman Robert W. Winston announced the plan after a meeting with the governor yesterday. Winston, who has been bearing down hard on bootleggers, said the governor would issue the call within the next 10 days.

The law enforcement officers, he said, will be asked to come to Raleigh for a one-day meeting in the Hall of the House of Representatives. Governor Scott will address the group.

At the meeting in the governor's office was George H. Andrews, chief of wine control for the ABC board. Andrews is a former sheriff of Chatham County and once was president of the State Sheriff's Association.

It is believed that all the state's local law enforcement officers never have been called together at one time before for any purpose.

Winston said that, in preparation for the meeting, he is going to give the governor a list of the individuals in the state who have had tax liens filed against them for non-support of taxes on bootleg whiskey, together with a list furnished us by the states of Maryland and Illinois of individuals who have purchased liquor in those states presumably for sale in North Carolina.

The ABC chairman said the meeting is being called by the governor because the ABC board has no powers to enforce the prohibition laws in dry counties.

Short-Wave Fire Alarm Dispatch System Mixed-Up

Los Angeles, Sept. 20—(AP)—"Battalion Chief Eleven" droned the fire department dispatcher over the short wave radio. "Fire reported at 2620 Lake View Terrace."

Battalion Chief Eleven returned the call a few minutes later.

"There's no such address," he said angrily.

"You mean to tell me I don't know my Los Angeles?" the dispatcher snapped back.

There was a pause. The party on the other end chuckled.

"You may know Los Angeles, but this is Cleveland, Ohio."

Sure enough, it was. A trick of the atmosphere had tangled up the two fire departments. They operate on the same wave length.

Night Watchman Shoots Intruder At Ayden Factory

By CHESTER WALSH

Wiley Cannon, 40-year-old Negro laborer, employed by the town of Ayden, who was shot by a night watchman shortly after midnight Saturday on the Demain Pickle Company's property in Ayden, was reported to be in a favorable condition at Pitt General Hospital today.

Ayden Police Chief J. M. Whitehurst quoted Alton Smithwick, assistant night watchman at the Demain Pickle Company's plant there, as saying that he was sitting in the office, with the door partly open, that Wiley Cannon entered in a threatening manner with a bottle in his hand, and that he shot him in the performance of his duty as watchman.

Chief Whitehurst said the bullet entered Cannon's right breast, penetrated the lung and lodged among lower left ribs.

The chief and his two assistants, Patrolmen Walter S. Hamilton and H. F. Sutton, who investigated the shooting, said they took Cannon to Dr. R. C. Smith in Ayden, who rendered first aid and had the wounded man sent to Pitt General Hospital in Greenville.

Ayden police said Night Watchman Smithwick was waiting to be relieved by his father-in-law, Dock Cox, regular watchman, when Cannon threatened him.

Atomic Partners Talk New Terms

Washington, Sept. 20 — (AP) — The United States, Britain and Canada open negotiations today for a new agreement on (1) exchanging atomic secrets and (2) sharing the uranium from which the A-bomb is made. Their war-born A-bomb partnership is at stake.

The negotiations at this stage are wholly "exploratory" because President Truman has promised that he will not make any commitments until after consulting Congress.

In an atmosphere that was only slightly less than completely secret representatives of the three governments were called together at the State Department (1:30 p.m. EST).

American officials are closely restricted as to what they can do or say about atomic energy information — even within the conference with the British and Canadians. They are reported anxious to try to bring some three-way understanding as to the progress each nation has achieved in atomic energy and atomic bomb research and development in the past two years or so.

Yet their own hands are not free for such an exchange and presumably they would be unable to tell the British and French, for example, the size of the U. S. atomic bomb stockpile or the power and effectiveness of the latest model weapons.

In contrast with the situation which now exists, the United States, Britain and Canada jointly undertook in 1943 the tremendous effort which finally resulted in the manufacture of the atomic bombs used in Japan.

Britain's Socialist Government is in a tough spot, in having thus to hold out the likelihood of further tightening of belts. As reported in previous columns, the government has felt that it had won strong public support by its free medical service and other social security measures. The Socialist leaders have been looking to the forthcoming general election with much optimism. Now they are faced with a fresh worry.

Well, the government has issued its edict: further austerity and no increases in wages. Success or failure now rests largely with labor. If the worker should refuse to accept this decision, and should curtail production by striking for higher wages, the government's bid for relief through devaluation would go down the drain.

His decision will be awaited with real concern, though not necessarily with pessimism, for the British are a sturdy folk in the face of adversity.

Do You Want Your A&P Put Out Of Business?

Last Thursday in New York, the anti-trust lawyers from Washington filed a suit to put A&P out of business.

They asked the court to order us to get rid of most of our stores and also the manufacturing facilities which supply you with A&P coffee, Ann Page products, Jane Parker baked goods, and other quality items we produce.

This would mean higher food prices for you. It would mean less food on every dinner table and fewer dollars in every pay envelope.

It would mean the end of A&P as you know it.

This poses a basic question for the American people: Do they want to continue to enjoy lower prices and better living? Or do they want to break up A&P and pay higher prices, and have lower living standards?

What do you want?

Why Destroy A&P?

This suit was brought under the anti-trust laws. These are good laws. They were passed about fifty years ago to prevent any company, or any group of companies, from getting a monopoly in a field and then raising prices to the public.

A&P has never done any of these things.

Nobody has ever shown that we have anything even approaching a monopoly of the food business anywhere. As every housewife knows, the retail grocery business is the most competitive in the country and we do only a small part of it.

Nobody has ever said we charged too high prices — just the opposite. This whole attack rises out of the fact that we sell good food too cheap. We would not have had any of this trouble if, instead of lowering prices, we had raised them and pocketed the difference.

Nobody has ever said that our profit rate was too high. During the past five years our net profit, after taxes, has averaged about 1½c on every dollar of sales, which is less than almost any other business you can think of.

The American people have shown that they like our low-price policy by coming to our stores to do their shopping. If A&P is big, it is because the American people, by their patronage, have made it big.

Obviously, it is the theory of the anti-trust lawyers that the people have no right to patronize a company, if their patronage will make that company grow; and that any big business must be destroyed simply because it is big, and even if the public gets hurt in the process.

Do You Want Higher Prices?

There is much more involved in this case than the future of A&P. The entire American system of efficient, low-cost, low-profit distribution which we pioneered, will face destruction and the public will suffer.

A&P was the first chain store in this country. For more than ninety years we have tried to build a sound business on the simple formula the founder gave us: "Give the people the most good food you can for their money." Year after year we have tried to do a better job, make our business more efficient, and pass the savings on to the consumer in the form of lower prices.

Our efforts along these lines have led other grocers to keep their costs and profits down.

In the old days before A&P, food that cost the grocer 50¢, often sold as high as $1.00 at retail.

Today, food that costs the grocer 50¢ generally sells to the public at less than 60¢.

The methods we pioneered have been adopted not only by other grocers, but by merchants in other lines. There are today literally hundreds of chain stores, voluntary groups and individual merchants operating with the same methods and in the same pattern here under attack.

If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in destroying A&P, the way will be clear for the destruction of every other efficient large-scale distributor.

Who Will Be Hurt?

There has never been any question in our mind that it is good business and good citizenship to sell good food as cheaply as possible. As Fortune Magazine said about A&P some time ago, "It is firmly attached to the one great principle — the selling of more for less — that has made the desert bloom and the nation wax great."

We sincerely believe that we have helped the American people eat better and live better.

We believe that the hundreds of thousands of farmers and manufacturers who have voluntarily sought our business have profited by our fast, low-cost distribution of their products.

We know that our 110,000 loyal employees enjoy today, as they always have, the highest wages, shortest hours and best working conditions generally prevailing in the retail food industry; and that these men and women have found in A&P good opportunities for security and progress.

We know that thousands of businessmen — the landlords who rent us our stores, the haulers who operate our trucks, the people who supply us with goods and services — have a big stake in our operations.

Obviously, all these people will suffer if this company is put out of business.

What Shall We Do?

We admit that the interests of the owners of A&P are of little importance.

Frankly, they could make an enormous amount of money by breaking up A&P, as the anti-trust lawyers wish, and selling off the parts.

But is this what the American people want? Do they agree with the anti-trust lawyers that our food prices are too low, and that we should be put out of the picture so other grocers can charge more?

Frankly, if this were the case, we would not want to continue in business.

But we seriously doubt that this is the case. Twelve years ago, an effort was made to tax this company and other chain stores out of business. The public rallied to our support. They said they liked our quality foods and our low prices. As a result of their opposition, the tax was defeated.

Now we are faced with this new attack through the courts. We are faced with the heavy costs and all the trouble that lawsuits involve.

But we believe this attack is a threat to millions of consumers who rely on us for quality foods at low prices; to farmers who rely on us for fast, low-cost distribution of their products; and to our loyal employees.

We feel that it is our responsibility to all these people to defend, by every legitimate means, this company and the low-price policy on which it was built.

Yohn Pitches Three-Hitter To Triumph In Hurling Duel

Greenies Even Count In Series; Brilliant Defensive Play By Team Highlights Game

Southpaw Junior Yohn, turning in a superb three-hit mound performance, hurled the Greenville Greenies into a 1-1 tie with the Kinston Eagles in the Coastal Plain finals here last night, winning 1-0.

Yohn, who bore down in the clutch to strike out nine batters, was given brilliant defensive back-up by the entire Greenville squad. Only one error marred the Greenies' defensive performance.

The lone run of the game came in the fourth inning on the wings of Catcher Sid Varnie's single to left center. Manager Pappy Williams led off the inning with a walk. He moved to second on Willie Mauney's sacrifice and rounded third to score on Varnie's drive.

The Greenville batting order was limited to a mere four hits in the almost air tight pitcher's duel between Yohn and Keys. Volselle relieved Keys in the eighth to help the Greenies hitless.

Illustrative of the tight and determined pitching and close defensive work by the Greenies was the top of the eighth inning when Kinston's manager Steve Collins made a desperate bid for hits. Pinch hitters for Keys and Boehmer were set down swinging by Yohn. Riekhuis, coming into the batting order for Rightfielder Hollis, also went out via the strikeout route as Yohn fought to preserve his victory.

The third man to face Yohn was none other than Manager Steve Collins who connected with a mighty glare, sending the ball out to the fence for what looked like the hit which would put the Eagles back into the ball game. But it was taken against the left field wall by a sensational catch by Willie Mauney to retire the side.

Varnie led the Greenville club at the pentagon with two hits in three trips. Romankowski paced the losers with two for four.

The two teams meet in Kinston for their third game of the series tonight.

Dole Says Lenoir-Rhyne Bears Are 4 TD Favorites

Coach Bill Dole installed the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears a four-touchdown favorite yesterday in a pre-practice session talk to his East Carolina Pirates who face the Bears here Saturday night.

"They have a well balanced ball club which functions extremely well for this early in the season," Dole told his charges, explaining that the Lenoir-Rhyne squad features "a good running attack, good passing and good kicking."

He declared that the Bears are big and very fast and are backed up by a host of good reserves.

He warned that it would not be as easy as the opening Cherry Point game which the Buccaneers took 24-0 Thursday night.

Lenoir-Rhyne defeated Erskine 7-0 in their Friday opener.

Three Pirates were on the injury list as the Bucs worked to correct mistakes made in the Cherry Point game. Fullback Frank Maenle suffered an ankle injury and Frank Madigan, center, sustained a hand injury in the opener. It is problematical whether or not they will either see action Saturday. Also on the injury list is Jack Benzie, halfback, who missed the opener because of a back injury. He is still ailing.

Waterbury, Conn., Sept. 20—(AP)—A late rush for seats promised to make a financial success of the Willie-Pep-Eddie Compo world featherweight title bout here tonight, twice postponed in July, and spoken about only in whispers, the 15-round fight apparently caught on over the weekend. And according to promoter Rocco Mara, is "sure to be a financial success."

As heavily favored Pep of Hartford and Compo of New Haven were winding up prelims yesterday, Mara proclaimed that he already has $29,750 in his tills, and that didn't include 8,000 general admission seats which went on sale this morning.

"We figure a crowd of more than 10,000. We can't miss," claimed Mara. Municipal Stadium, the scene of the scrap, has been mapped to seat exactly 15,812—just in case. Ten thousand paying customers would mean a gate of approximately $40,000, a profit for everybody, says Mara.

The all-Connecticut fight in which Willie is to defend his crown for the ninth time since he won it late in 1942 from Chalky Wright, is slated to start at 9 p. m. (EST). There is to be no radio broadcast or television.

For Pep, the 1 to 4 favorite, the bout—his first since he recaptured the 126-pound title from Sandy Saddler last February has double significance. Today is his 47th birthday.

"It's going to be a happy birthday for me, I'm sure," says Willie. "I'm going to go after him early, but I'm ready to go the distance, if I have to do it."

Sees Profits In Pep-Compo Bout

Coach Bill Kittrell's Greenville Midgets will open their gridiron season here Thursday night when they meet the Kinston Red Imps at the East Carolina Stadium.

The game was originally slated to be played at Guy Smith Stadium but was changed because of the extended baseball season.

Coach Kittrell's boys, who are seeking revenge for a 33-0 defeat they suffered at the hands of the Kinston aggregation last year. The locals' record in 1948 was 1-2.

The Greenville outfit this year is expected to be more powerful than last season's team, Kittrell said today, and though he predicted no outcome of the Thursday night contest he hinted strongly that his boys would probably be on top.

Assisting Kittrell with his coaching of the 105-pounds-and-under boys is Bob Ostrander, former East Carolina Teachers College fullback.

forcing unbeaten Notre Dame to scramble for a last minute 14-14 tie.

Some 80,000 people are expected to watch this first of a two-year home and home series between the Midshipmen and the Troys.

And most of the faithful will turn out to see whether USC shows any indications of approaching the form the lads displayed in almost toppling the Irish.

By way of marking his 47th year as a trainer of race horses, Preston M. Burch has seen Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloan's Brookmeade Stable top the $300,000 mark in winnings this season. It was on September 30, 1902, that he saddled his first winner at Gravesend in Brooklyn with a horse named Stuyve. Looking at Burch today, it is hard to realize that the veteran trainer has been preparing thoroughbreds for the races since the turn of the century.

The modest Mr. Burch estimates that he has saddled over 1,000 winners for a total of $3,000,000 in winnings. Preston Burch comes by his love of horses naturally. His father, William Preston Burch, began racing, training and riding race horses shortly after the end of domestic hostilities in 1865, during which he had been attached to the staff of General Wade Hampton. His younger brother, the late Selby Burch, was also a successful trainer.

Thoughtful and articulate, Trainer Burch has often been called on to speak on some phase of racing and the trainer's problems at national meetings and for seven consecutive years he was elected president of the American Trainers' Association. Before the first world war, he trained thoroughbreds in France, Belgium and Italy. Prior to taking over the Brookmeade Stable stock six years ago, Trainer Burch conditioned the charges of William du Pont, Harry La Montagne, Admiral Cary T. Grayson, Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords, Mrs. Randolph Scott, the Longchamps Farm and the Howe Stable.

Phantoms Stress Offensive Drills For New Bern Contest

Coach Bo Farley's Greenville High School Phantoms, safely by their season opener, settled down to intensive training to enlarge their offensive attack this week in preparation for their second conference clash with a heavy and powerful New Bern Bears aggregation here Friday.

The Bears are fresh from an impressive 7-0 win over Swansboro and Coach Farley admitted last night that his boys would be in for a tough fight.

When the locals opened their season last week they were able to use only about five plays all evening. It handicapped us considerably," Farley said last night and declared that a number of new plays were definitely on the docket for this week's drills.

This week's drills for the Greenville club will see considerable experimenting and shifting in an effort to strengthen the squad both offensively and defensively.

Jimmy Cox, standout in the Phantoms' 13-6 win over the Edenton Aces here last week, may be moved from his quarterback slot to one of the halfback positions to make the most of his running ability.

Coach Farley says he may try Bobby Flye, a pretty good passer, at quarter. Farley indicated that a passing attack may be one of the features of this Friday night battle with the Bears.

In the line, Farley may move Tommy Pace to center and shift Crawford to tackle. Crawford, a guard last year and in the opener, will probably be replaced beside the center by Joe Rowland, a promising

In yesterday's practice, the boys who started in Friday's game ran through signal drills and nursed a few bruises. There were no mentionable injuries. The second and third teams held a long scrimmage Monday.

Williams Tightens League Lead In Batting Honors

Chicago, Sept. 20—(AP)—Boston's Ted Williams is tightening his monopoly on American League batting marks, taking the lead in six divisions of play.

He topped five brackets a week ago and now has added a sixth—most runs batted in. In statistics through Sunday's games, Williams is ahead in batting with 351; scored the most runs, 143; slammed the most hits, 188, most doubles, 39, and homers, 40; and has hammered across 153 runs.

Second to Williams in batting was George Kell of Detroit with 341. He was followed by Dillinger with 316; Dom DiMaggio, Boston, 313; Mitchell, 312; Cass Michaels, Chicago, 307; Johnny Pesky, Boston, 306; Bobby Doerr, Boston, 305; Hoot Evers, Detroit, 301; and Vic Wertz, Detroit, 298.

Ayden High's Football Team To Play Wakeland In Opener On Friday Night

A light and inexperienced but hustling Ayden High football squad is going through its final week of practice in preparation for its season opener with Wakeland High School in Zebulon Friday night.

Three rookies, two ends and a guard, will probably land starting berths for the opener. Coach Tripp of Ayden indicated early this week.

This will mark the second year of 11-man football at Ayden. Prior to last year the Tornados have been engaged in six-man gridiron activities.

Kiner Continues Home Run Pace

New York, Sept. 20—(AP)—Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner hit his 50th home run last night to go ahead of the pace set by Hack Wilson when he established the National League record of 58 in 1930.

Kiner, however, is still behind the major league record pace of Babe Ruth, who poked 60 homers in '27 for the New York Yankees.

Kiner's home run against the New York Giants was made in his 143rd game with 11 to play.

Wilson hit No. 50 on Sept. 18 in his 146th game. Ruth's 50th came in his 138th game on Sept. 11.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW!

DOUBLE TROUBLE

AP Newsfeatures By WILLIAM HOBSON

Chapter 9

He began to quarrel with her. He did it deliberately because he knew his twin brother Joe and how Joe would have reacted. He did it, too, because he couldn't stand to have her near him, couldn't take her frankly spoken love, his own deceit.

And the thing ended about the time he thought it would. Her hand flashed up and slashed across his cheeks, first one and then the other, in resounding blows.

"Get out!" she shouted at him. "Get out up to that line camp where you belong. You're no good. You never were any good. I'm going to marry Harry the next time he asks me."

It took courage, but he did it. He grabbed her by the shoulders and shook her.

"On the day that you marry him you'll have a dead bridegroom on your hands," he said with simulated harshness.

Minutes later he led a saddled animal to where his gear was piled on the ground.

Then he saw the white outlines of her dress as she came close.

"Oh, Joe, Joe!" she whispered. "How much I love you. You haven't changed a bit."

He took her into his arms and kissed her hard, and this time there was no acting. He thought, I'm falling in love with my twin brother's girl!

He had to get out of there fast and he knew it. He laughed. "Of course you do, honey, and I love you. You didn't mean a word about me being no good, did you?"

"Not a word of it. Now get out of here and don't you come back until you make good."

"I'm halfway there already, my beloved," He grinned and swung up.

Jay made the trip in a little over three hours. He saw the height of Old Sandstone loom up closer until he could see the serrated back with a hump in the middle. Then, when he had almost ridden by, he caught

Find Town Ruins Sunken In Lagoon

Rome (AP)—Scientists have discovered the ruins of a Roman town in a lagoon on the North Adriatic Sea. A group headed by Mario Fontani, an authority on Roman and early medieval archeology, may have found the ruins of a legendary town, reportedly sunk in the lagoon shallow waters, during the first centuries of our era.

When the Huns headed by King Attila swept across the Alps to the Italian plains, the population of the towns of Aquileia and Bibione fled for their lives. Attila destroyed Aquileia and maybe also Bibione. The inhabitants of the two towns had fled. Part went to Grado in the lagoon north of Trieste and the remainder fled by boat. They were blown by heavy north-eastern Adriatic winds to the site on which Venice was founded.

Of the old town of Bibione only the legend remained. After weeks of searching the bottom of the canals of the lagoon in front of the little town of Marano, Fontani, wearing a light diving suit, discovered a wide stone bank with a monumental stairway descending into a greater depth. It may have been the basement of a Roman temple, Fontani said.

Iraq Speeds Up Introduction Of Farm Machinery

Baghdad, Iraq (AP)—Iraq has worked out a scheme to speed up introduction of modern farm machinery into the country. Under the plan, to be carried out in approximately five years, the government will have a complete monopoly on farm machinery.

The purpose of the plan is to introduce more efficient farming methods and increase crop yields by replacing primitive implements now in general use. For example, it is hoped to increase the wheat yield by 25 per cent.

Under a new law, only the Iraq government will in the future be able to import farm machinery. Fifty per cent of this machinery will be sold to the big private landowners according to the plan. The remainder will be rented out to smaller farmers. All repairs and spare parts will be under control of the government.

Geologists Find Hidden Springs To Save Sheep

Adelaide (AP)—A geological freak may save 2,000,000 South Australian sheep from drought. Eye Peninsula, at the eastern end of the Great Australian Bight, has had an exceptionally dry winter. Its reservoirs are at a record low level. The outlook was grim.

Then geologists made a discovery—a perfect underground reservoir holding 7,500 million gallons of pure water. That is more water than South Australia's biggest man-made reservoir holds.

Permanent springs led geologists to the hidden underground water store. They found a reservoir of 19 square miles lying from 50 to 100 feet beneath the surface.

An Arabian alchemist of the tenth century named Albuqassan was the first known man to mention the distillation process.

Warship Salvage Work Is Pushed

Rome (AP)—Italian navy engineers have tackled the job of getting the 10,000-ton battleship Trieste, towed here upside-down from off the Sardinia coast, into a dock. It will be a task of many weeks, they said.

The Trieste, sunk by British bombers in the Maddalena harbor of the Tyrrhenian sea, in a daring operation. The ship is now at mooring, tied to a buoy off the military harbor of La Spezia.

Three of the Trieste's four turrets, reaching 45 feet below the water mark will have to be dismantled before she is put into dock. The short fourth turret will be left where it is. When the ship will be towed into a dock the tons of water filling the hulls will be pumped out. Then efforts will be made to recover the bodies of the sailors still inside.

The hull of the Trieste is in good condition, as the large quantity of oil in the tanks spread all over and kept the steel plates from rusting.

Black Markets Selling Ratons

Prague (AP)—When Czechoslovak blackmarketers run out of meats and textiles for illegal sales they have a new sideline racket—selling ration coupons.

The trade unions daily "Prace" reported security police had rounded up a gang accused of selling thousands of such tickets at neat profits. Coupons for 1,200 grams of meat were reported to have brought $3. The tickets were either stolen or forged.

N. C. Industrial Accidents Drop

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20 (AP)—North Carolina's industrial accidents took a decided drop last year.

State Labor Commissioner Forrest H. Shuford announced yesterday that there were 5,388 serious accidents in Tar Heel industries last year. This compares with 6,209 in 1947 and is a drop of 14 per cent.

Shuford said the reduction in worker injuries "resulted in a tremendous saving of both human resources and money."

Can't Say When Repairs To End

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20 (AP)—Governor Scott said yesterday he doesn't know when alterations underway at the governor's mansion will be completed.

Scott said he spoke to contractors working on the job the other day. When the work was started, they told him they would be through by the end of November.

Now, because of unforeseen obstructions, it may not be ready until December.

Farm Speaker Calls For More Civic And Rural Cooperation

By WYATT BROWN
The cooperation of the Rotarians and other business and professional men of the county was urged by Arch Flanagan of Farmville, himself a grassroots farmer, when he spoke last night at the weekly dinner meeting of the Rotarians. He was introduced by Hayward Dall, Mr. Flanagan said that farmers looked up to the business, professional and vocational men of Greenville because they are used to accepting their advice on the spending and investment of the farm income.

It was interesting to observe what a large per cent of the Rotarians and guests last night held up their hands signifying they had been raised on a farm—over fifty per cent and more. The speaker got them to do that before he started talking.

The speaker opened with a series of statistics and comparisons. He cited the increase of pounds per acre from 600 in his father's day to 1,248 pounds per acre in 1948. The income in Pitt County from tobacco in 1948 was just a little short of twenty million dollars with ten million for other crops. To do this took 2,725 farmers.

Referring to the $30,000,000 income from farms in 1948 Flanagan laconically commented that that was the same money the merchants, doctors and bankers later saw. You look at the same money we farmers look at.
He went on to say that farmers come to town to get suggestions where to invest it. They invest it too freely sometime and have to borrow against the next year's crop to get by.

At this point he had something to say about agricultural programs. Doles farmers do not want. They want to earn what they get. To keep the right kind of program farmers must be organized.

A good number were in the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation last year, he admitted, but he urged larger numbers to strengthen the organization in its efforts to keep the improvements in farm income that have been achieved.

Flanagan said he knew the business men would take associate memberships when the time came but that he wanted to urge them to use their influence in enthusiastically promoting farmers' joining. He said he knew each business and professional man in town had friends in the country who could be influenced to join the Farm Bureau. Urging your friends to join will mean money in the bag for him and for you," Mr. Flanagan explained. The 38 per cent of the farmers in Pitt County who now belong to the Farm Bureau have been the ones who have brought about the improved conditions—the rest have gone along for the ride, in the opinion of Flanagan.

The more I study farming and know its problem, the more I know we have got to be organized," Flanagan declared. He urged everyone to do what they could. Some sections of the county are responding well but others must be organized and he pointed out that that is where the Rotarians and others can help.

Real interest can be shown in many ways and the speaker told of how one large landowner really helps. Each man on his farm who will join finds the owner ready to contribute one dollar of the three.

My plea is that you talk favorably of the Farm Bureau and make farmers see the light. Please do not let us down," he urged in conclusion.

Guests of the club were Robert Emberg of Detroit, Michigan, and Rev. S. B. Simms of Williamston. Visiting Rotarians were Frank Kilpatrick, Ralph Hardee and Seymour Demain of the Ayden club, and Max Roebuck of the Washington club. Ercel Webb, president of the club, presided.

Ministers Tops In Liars' Club Competition

Reinholds, Pa., Sept. 20—(AP)—A minister who is also a state senator is the best Pennsylvania Dutch liar in these parts.

The Rev. Frank Ruth of Bernville won the first annual contest of the Pennsylvania Dutch Liars Club yesterday by telling a story about a mean old tomat who couldn't be killed.

When ropes and guns didn't eliminate the critter, Ruth said in dialect, a posse went out after him, cut off his head and buried him under a pile of rocks.

Three days later the old cat trotted on home, carrying his head in his mouth.

This was judged to be the best whopper of the day, but another minister came in second. He is the Rev. Clarence Rahn of Temple.

Church Bells Call For Dry Voters

Smithfield, N.C., Sept. 20—(AP)—Church bells rang here this morning to summon dry voters for a county-wide election on banning beer and wine.

Poll holders predicted a comparatively light vote.

There was little activity around the polls in the early hours of the election and no active campaigning.

Woman, 65, Held In Murder Probe

Kingwood, W.Va., Sept. 20—(AP)—A 65-year-old woman is in jail here today on first degree murder charges after authorities quoted her as saying she killed her 25-year-old daughter and kept the body at home for a week.

Mrs. Jennie McIntee was ordered held without bond for the Preston County Grand Jury after she pleaded innocent at a hearing in Magistrate's Court yesterday.

Sheriff J. H. Benson said Mrs. McIntee told him she shot her daughter, Mrs. Mae Piper of nearby Grape Thicket, last Tuesday because "she perted me."

Mrs. Piper's body was found yesterday on a cot in the home she shared with her mother. Benson said she had suffered a .22 calibre bullet wound in the head.

The officer reported finding the body after a neighbor asked Mrs. McIntee about her daughter and was told:

"She is out back lying on a bed. I shot her."

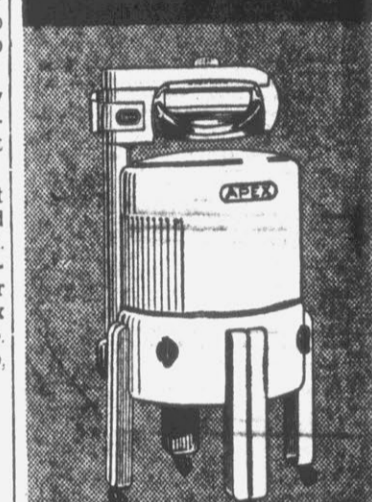

"The reason for the shooting, Benson quoted Mrs. McIntee as saying, was, 'She perted me last Tuesday.'"

Listed in the Funk and Wagnalls New College Standard Dictionary as an adjective meaning "disrespectfully forward or free," the word "pert" is used in these West Virginia hills as a verb.

It means the same thing, though.

Norway, which had been united with Denmark and Sweden in 1380, declared its independence in 1814 but the union of Norway and Sweden was not finally dissolved until 1905.
