Pressure Growing On Steel Parleys

Neither Steel Concerns Nor Union Ready To Comment On Ford Settlement Terms While Working Against Friday Midnight Deadline

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29—(AP)—Agreement of Ford Motor Company to finance pensions for aged CIO Auto Workers today increased pressure on steel negotiators for a settlement.

Neither the United States Steel Corporation, biggest producer and industry leader, nor the CIO United Steelworkers would comment on the Ford settlement as bargaining teams gathered here for new contract talks.

They are working against a Friday midnight strike deadline. Ford's willingness to pay for a 10-cent hourly pension and insurance package places a new weapon in the union's hands.

The auto pact conforms to the recommendations of the steel industry fact finding board and leaves steel companies standing firm on their refusal to go along on the recommendation that employers bear all expenses.

U. S. Steel and other big producers want employees to share in the cost. The union says that all companies which don't switch over will be struck at 12:01 a. m. Saturday.

Determined Philip Murray, president of both the CIO, and the steelworkers, went ahead with plans to flash the strike signal to about 500,000 unionists in the basic steel industry. Some plants already have begun to curtail operations in preparation for a possible strike.

He gave no sign of giving up his fight to force the steel industry to pay the entire cost of a pension-insurance program.

Government mediators stood by in Pittsburgh and 44 other key negotiating points—to help avert the strike set for tomorrow midnight. The Pittsburgh mediators stood by—in Pittsburgh and 44 other key negotiating points—to help avert the strike set for tomorrow midnight. The Pittsburgh meeting was called for 10 a. m. (EST).

Murray had nothing but scorn for a big steel offer of 10 cents an hour per employee to help finance pensions and insurance for the men who make steel. After the offer yesterday, the veteran labor leader declared:

"It must be plain to all that the corporation is deliberately seeking to force a steel strike." A few hours later big steel began banking furnaces of its Chicago area subsidiaries. A spokesman said no curtailment had yet been ordered in the Pittsburgh district. He added: "I know the negotiations seem deadlocked. However, we're still talking. But we have to start banking furnaces as closing down a steel plant is an involved process and we have to protect our property."

There was no indication President Truman would step into the picture and ask for a fourth strike postponement. He's gotten three already—the first a 60-day truce while a presidential fact finding board was making an investigation. Then he obtained an 11-day stay and, finally, the six-day truce expiring tomorrow night.

Hog Buyers Plan Organize Body

Goldboro, N. C., Sept. 29—(AP)—Approximately 50 members of hog-buying markets in 35 North Carolina, Eastern Virginia and Eastern South Carolina communities will meet here tomorrow to organize the Tar Heel Hog Market Operators' Association.

A spokesman for the proposed Association said "there is no intention of engaging in price-fixing, but the Association will be created solely for the purpose of promoting better cooperation between hog purchasers and hog producers."

Furore Over Divorcee

Jetrothal Of King George's Cousin To A New York Divorcee Working Up Quite A Tempest In International Teapot; Austere Code In Royal House Recalled

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

That's quite a tempest which has been worked up in the international teapot over the announcement that the young Marquess of Milford Haven, cousin of Britain's King George VI, is betrothed to a New York divorcee—the charming Mrs. Romaine Dahlgren Pierce Simpson. This engagement is in part an answer to the old query "What's in a name?" since a nosey world inevitably recalls that it was another American divorcee named Simpson for whom Edward VIII (now Duke of Windsor) abandoned his throne in '36. During the memorable years since then the Duchess of Windsor has followed tradition in maintaining thumbs down on divorcees who rarely, if ever, have been received even at the largely attended royal courts.

Of course there is little similarity between the present case and that of the abdicating Edward. Indeed many folk are finding justification in the idea that, after all, it's the affair of the Marquess and Mrs. Simpson and nobody else.

mind that it belongs to the empire and is the symbol of solidarity. And this has pleased the British public which, without meaning to intrude on private prerogatives, has placed the royal family on a mighty lofty pedestal.

When I first went to England in 1916 the code of straight-laced Queen Victoria still was the beacon-light for much of the country. Like Victorian furniture, that code was heavy and rather oppressive. It was solid and reliable, though.

In these days divorce was virtually barred to women. A man could divorce his wife for infidelity, but she couldn't get rid of him on any such ground. The courts held that a man was perfectly entitled to sow his wild oats. The wife couldn't get a divorce unless she could prove not only that her spouse was unfaithful but that he had inflicted physical cruelty on her.

Well, that's a generation ago—and a lot can happen in that time. Much of the austerity of the Victorian era has passed out, along with the aspidochelone. The word "Victorian," as applied to a way of life, has become a term not exactly

May Complete Pitt Hospital By July 1

Construction Progressing On Schedule; Portions Completed; Last Of Concrete Work May Be Finished In October

Construction work on the $1,400,000 Pitt County Memorial Hospital is progressing on schedule, and according to Supt. B. F. Phillips all concrete work on the building should be finished by the end of October.

C. Stuart Carr, chairman of the board of trustees of the 120-bed hospital, reported today the one-story administration office and the unloading platform on the north side of the building, and the boiler room on the south side of the building already have been completed. The basement, first and second floors and the floor of the third story have been concreted, and the framework for the fourth floor is now being constructed.

"It is thought at this time that the new hospital may open its doors on July 1, 1950," Chairman Carr said this morning, "although this date is subject to change. With good weather for the contractors the building will be closed in long before Christmas, affording several months to complete the interior work before June 1."

Trustees of the hospital have estimated about 30 days will be needed to place the movable equipment and various hospital supplies into the new building after it is completed. Brickwork on the hospital began this week, and the first door frames were set Tuesday. All of the wooden supports of the first and second floors and the administration section have been displaced.

Within the next week, Carr stated, the Carolina Telephone & Telegraph Company is expected to begin the installation of new and higher poles for lines crossing the 17.5 acre hospital site, after which grading and filling in can commence and the dirt road near the highway filled in and leveled off. The Hendrix-Barnhill Equipment Company has cut the weeds and disced the land of the hospital site in preparation for the landscaping which will be done at a later date.

Spokesmen for the construction company have indicated they expect within a few weeks to put in the 20-foot driveway with curbing and guttering leading from highway 43 to the building. Plans call for a circular drive in front of the unloading platform as well as a parking area for 44 cars in front of the building and 15 cars in the rear of the building.

Carr this morning urged citizens of the county to visit the hospital site to see the progress which has been made in the construction of the building. "Visitors are welcome at the hospital site," Carr said, "but the contractor asks that they stay away from the building itself. In the late afternoons and all during Sundays, there is a watchman who is glad to answer any questions. I do hope that the people will visit the grounds and see for themselves what a fine and safe the county will own, and building the same time realize what a wonderful asset this can be toward improving health conditions within our county."

Tear Gas Bombs Break Up Gang Rock-Throwers

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 29—(AP)—Tear gas bombs today broke up a rock-throwing crowd of striking union men at the Bell Aircraft Corp. plant after non-striker had attempted to cross an all-woman picket line.

The strikers dispersed into the fields across from the plant's main gate after deputy sheriffs hurled the bombs.

It was the first use of tear gas in the 16-week-old strike which has been marked by several outbreaks of violence between CIO United Auto Workers members and workers attempting to enter the plant.

The deputies, numbering over 100, had ranged themselves across the highway in front of the plant near Niagara Falls to stop a crowd of nearly 200 demonstrators seeking to halt the non-striker.

er's license, it was reported. Numerous equipment tickets were given out by the patrol last night to car owners, telling them to have minor repairs made to their cars and then report to the Patrol office.

Only one car was found to be in such a condition as to make it dangerous to be on the road, and this one was pulled to the side of the road and the driver was instructed not to drive the car until the repairs had been made to his car and a report made to the Patrol office.

Negro Charged With Criminally Assaulting Own Daughter

By CHESTER WALSH

Greenville police are holding John H. Jones, 31-year-old Negro laborer, on the charge of criminally assaulting his own six-year-old daughter, Addie Ruth Jones, last night.

Jones will be given a preliminary hearing before Judge J. W. H. Roberts in Police Court tomorrow morning.

Police quoted the child as saying that her father took her to a lonely spot on the Coast Lumber Railroad near a fertilizer factory, and abused her; that he threatened to kill her if she told about the attack and that she went to her home and told her foster grandmother, Mrs. Annie Rountree, about being assaulted.

She informed police and Jones was arrested early today at a home on Short street. His clothes were bloody when apprehended.

Police Chief Lester D. Page quoted Dr. J. A. Battle, Negro physician as saying that the girl had been painfully injured and needed medical attention. Page said Jones' wife is visiting in Charlotte. The family lived with Jones' foster-mother, Mrs. Annie Rountree, 215 Center street.

Police said that Jones has a long police record. He had received one sentence of five years in prison for breaking, entering and larceny; had been convicted at various times of assault with a deadly weapon, vagrancy, being drunk, armed robbery assault with a deadly weapon (a shotgun), and assault with a deadly weapon and assaulting a female

Assisted by Ayden Policeman Sutton they set the dog on the trail where the Negro had jumped from the truck and a short while later the dogs had trailed the fugitive to a spot several hundred yards away.

The Negro was placed in the Ayden jail for hearing in the Ayden recorder's court and the truck and its contents are being held pending disposition by the court.

Over 400 Cars Checked By Patrolmen Last Night

The State Highway Patrol last night began the first in a series of checks at night of motor vehicles operating on the public highways without proper lights, licenses, brakes, or carrying any unauthorized stickers on the windshields, and side glass of cars.

The State Patrol set up a road block across the river in front of Clarence Water's service station where over four hundred cars were checked in the hour and half that the traffic was stopped for inspection of car equipment.

The drive by the Patrol is being carried on a state-wide basis with over one hundred patrol inspection stations in operation.

The first car which was stopped by officers last night was found to have no tail lights, and the second car checked had only one front light. Most of the vehicles which the patrolmen examined last night required only minor repairs which were made at nearby service stations.

Cpl. John Laws of the Greenville Patrol office stated today that ten people were cited to court for having unsafe cars.

Of the four hundred cars checked last night there was not a case of any person driving without a driv-

Test Suit Over Road Equipment

Legality Of Using Bond Funds To Buy Machinery Is Issue

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 29—(AP)—A suit against members of the State Highway Commission to test legality of their using rural road bond funds to buy highway construction equipment was filed in Wake Superior Court today. The suit was brought by Nello L. Teer of Durham, a road-building contractor.

Shortly after the action was filed, Judge Henry W. Grady signed an order directing the commission members to show cause at a hearing here on Oct. 14 why a temporary restraining order should not be issued.

Upon final determination of the cause, Teer asked that a mandatory injunction be issued directing the commissioners to spend the road bond funds in accordance with the bond act and other state laws.

Papers on the case were filed on commission members at a meeting this morning.

In his suit, Teer questions legality of the Highway Commission's using $50,000,000 of the first $50,000,000 road bond issue to buy machinery.

This $50,000,000 issue was sold by the state yesterday. The commission already has bought most of the $50,000,000 worth of machinery.

Show Invoices In Tax Fraud Trial

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 29—(AP)—The defense presented more invoices today in the trial of Josephus D. Parker on income tax evasion charges.

The invoices were intended to indicate the volume of business done by the defendant in three tax years. Parker operated a winery. He is charged with evading $114,000 in taxes.

Bloodhounds Help Catch Suspect In Bootleg Haul

County ABC officers, assisted by Ayden police and bloodhounds, this morning arrested Joe Early Fenner, 21, Havelock Negro, on a charge of transporting bootleg whiskey and seized his truck containing 126 gallons of the contraband. The haul was one of the largest taken in this county in a long time.

About 3:30 o'clock this morning Ayden Chief of Police J. M. Whitehurst halted the Negro's truck near Ayden and the Negro jumped from the truck and fled into a nearby swamp. Upon examination of the truck Whitehurst found it to contain liquor and he immediately notified the ABC officers.

Officers J. M. Ward and Claude Manning procured Captain Crawford's bloodhounds from the prison camp and went to Ayden. Assisted by Ayden Policeman Sutton they set the dog on the trail where the Negro had jumped from the truck and a short while later the dogs had trailed the fugitive to a spot several hundred yards away.

The Negro was placed in the Ayden jail for hearing in the Ayden recorder's court and the truck and its contents are being held pending disposition by the court.

UAW And Ford Reach Accord On Pension Plan

Agreement Based On Ten-Cent An Hour Deal Recommended By Fact-Finders In Steel Dispute; Await Ratification

Detroit, Sept. 29—(AP)—The Ford Motor Co. and the CIO United Auto Workers reached agreement early today on a history-making pension plan to be financed by the company.

It will pay $100 monthly—including social security—to Ford workers over 65.

The agreement, based on a ten-cent an hour package recently recommended by a presidential fact-finding board in the steel industry, averted a strike of 115,000 Ford production workers.

The marathon negotiations ran nearly 35 hours without a letup and set an endurance record for the auto industry. As late as midnight when the old contract expired, UAW President Walter P. Reuther said there was still a 50-50 chance walk-out might be called.

The new pact runs two and a half years, giving hope of long peace in the industry.

Effective Oct. 1, providing it is ratified by rank and file Ford workers, the new contract is unique in the auto industry's history in at least three respects:

1—It calls for the first major pension plan, and the company agreed for the first time to shoulder the entire financial responsibility for pensions.

2—For the first time, the union let its demand for an hourly wage increase go by the board in favor of security provisions. The present wage rate of $1.65 an hour will be continued.

3—The 30-month duration, a record in the auto industry.

The pact may well affect millions of workers in the nation's other heavy industry — particularly the steel workers.

Ford Vice President John S. Bugas said his firm's pension agreement was based on the expenditure of the 10-cent an hour limit recommended by a presidential fact-finding board in the steel industry.

C-O-C To Build Up Membership

Stronger Organization Seen As Need For Civic Progress

In the interest of a stronger Chamber of Commerce to enable the organization to carry out a more ambitious program for the city, it was decided by a group of members at a meeting last night to stage a drive for renewal and new memberships.

The membership drive will get under way on Tuesday morning, October 11, following a get-together breakfast at Proctor Hotel with Manager Ken Phillips as host. John G. Fleming will head up the membership campaign.

While generous in their praise of what the Chamber of Commerce has been and is accomplishing for the Greenville area, those present at last night's meeting recognized the growing competition between towns for improvements and new industries, and it was pointed out that without a strong Chamber of Commerce Greenville likely would be left far behind its neighboring cities.

Most of those present expressed optimism over the future outlook for Greenville and bespoke success for the membership campaign.

Radio Message Spurs Hope Two Fliers Survived

New York, Sept. 29—(AP)—TWA announced today it had received a dispatch from its Paris office indicating two Italian fliers, missing since Sept. 17 in a transatlantic flight, were adrift in their plane near the Bahamas islands.

The fliers, John M. Brondello and Camillo Bartoglio, were on a planned non-stop flight from the Azores to New York in a single-engine plane.

The U. S. Coast Guard said an Army plane already had left San Juan, Puerto Rico, for the location given—a point due east of the middle section of the Bahamas group.

TWA said the dispatch from Paris was relayed at the request of the Coast Guard.

Loyalty Check Result

Program For Checking Loyalty Of Government Workers Nears 2nd Anniversary; How It Came About And What Has Happened In The Two Years; The Findings

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Sept. 29—(AP)—President Truman's program for checking on the loyalty of government workers is two years old Oct. 1.

This is a brief review of how the program came about and what's happened in these two years.

Before 1939 the various agencies and departments of government decided whether to employ a man on the basis of his ability and character.

An old rule of the Civil Service Commission, dating back to 1884, blocked questions about the religious or political beliefs of a man applying for a Civil Service job with the government.

On Aug. 2, 1939, just one month before World War II started, Congress passed the Hatch Act to keep out of government employ any one who advocated overthrow of this country's form of government.

There were various congressional acts and presidential orders after that date, along the same line, making an employee's loyalty a direct factor in his holding a government job.

Governor Declares State Of Emergency In Virginia; Coal Stocks Dwindle; More Attacks By Union Pickets On Men In Pits

By The Associated Press

A dynamite blast rocked a coal company's tipple today in a fresh outbreak of violence in the Nation's coal fields.

The explosion came as John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers arranged further negotiations with two big branches of the coal industry amid a stormy background of blasting, gunfire and stone hurling.

The mine workers' wrath against non-union men working the pits in defiance of the union brought this fast-breaking chain of events:

1. A blast at a tipple of the Junedale Coal Company at Grass Flat, Pa., ripped off the roof, tore off part of one side and damaged generators and motors in the building.

2. A gunfire flurp at Jasper, Ala., reportedly resulted in the death of one miner and the serious wounding of another. The sheriff there said he could not confirm the death, however.

3. Governor William M. Tucker declared a state of emergency in Virginia.

4. The Kanawha county, West Va., school board, ordered its school buses off the highway in fear of battling between pickets and non-union workers.

It was with this background that Lewis' union was to confer with leaders of the Southern Coal operators and of the northern and western men.

The walkout of 480,000 miners entered its 11th day today. Lewis, who wasn't expected to attend either meeting, said it was a spontaneous demonstration by the union men that it was not a strike.

Coal stocks were dwindling rapidly. Thousands of men had been laid off because of the coal stoppage.

The Great Flat episode came this morning. State police, already bulked by extra details, said they blasted, but had made no arrests.

Robley M. Smith, president of the company which employs 45 men, said it'll take a week before he can resume operations. The tipple is valued at $10,000.

Smith ordered his Strip mining operation shut down yesterday after, he said, UMW pickets attacked his non-union truckers with stones. The non-union men were hauling coal from mine pits to the tipple where coal is cleaned, crushed and loaded onto railroad cars.

At Snow Shoe mountain in Pennsylvania, not far from Grass Flat, 13 trucks were fired upon and stoned two days ago. That outbreak brought a request to Pennsylvania's Governor James H. Duff for help.

He passed the request along to State police commissioner C. M. Wilhelm who promised help "in keeping the highways open and maintaining law and order."

Some 1,400 non-union miners were at work in Pennsylvania pits.

Governor Tucker in his state-of-emergency directive, reorganized the Virginia council of defense and directed it to secure "every possible pound of coal" for Virginia's use.

Jet Expert Will Try For Record

Cherry Point, N. C., Sept. 29—(AP)—Lt. Col. Marion E. Carl, Marine Corps aviation's jet expert, will try for a new long-range speed record next Wednesday.

His course will be from the Naval Air station, Glenview, Chicago, to this Marine Air base. He originally had planned to fly Monday from Sioux Falls, S. D., but his P-51 Gruman Panther doesn't have enough range.

be created to study ways of protecting the government against disloyal employees.

On Nov. 26, 1946, President Truman set up the commission. It made its report to him early in 1947. And on March 22, 1947, he issued his order creating the loyalty check program.

Money was needed to get it started. Instead of voting the money right away, Congress played around with the idea of passing a law to establish its own loyalty program.

It gave up the idea of a program of its own and at last, in July, 1947, voted money for the President's program. The program got going Oct. 1, 1947. It had a double purpose:

1. To check on anyone, employed by the government before Oct. 1 of that year, whose loyalty might be in question.

2. To check on anyone looking for a government job after Oct. 1 if there was any reason to question his loyalty.

This didn't mean the FBI would begin a full-scale investigation of everyone in, or coming into, the government.

Checks would be made on the Legion Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary held its first meeting of the new year on Monday, September 26, at the American Legion home.

The president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. H. R. Rogers, presided over the business session. The poppy sale report should be an inspiration for our next Poppy Day. It was very good. The safety program sponsored by the auxiliary also helps us to face a brighter year. In helping others, we can help ourselves. An inspiring message from Miss Arella Adams, department secretary-treasurer, was read to the group by Mrs. Arthur Corey. Many gifts were received for the veterans gift shop, and many more are needed. Those wishing to send gifts should take them to the Veterans Administration office at the Army as soon as possible, as all gifts should be mailed to the hospital by October 1.

Mrs. H. R. Rogers expressed her appreciation to each member of the Auxiliary for their help during the year. A motion was passed to pay the expense for medical care for a veteran's child at Dr. Smith's clinic. A membership drive will begin at once, and each member is urged to pay her dues now.

There is to be a First Area and District meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary in Washington, N. C., on October 17, at the Christian Church. Mrs. James Worley who is to preside over this meeting says she is awarding prizes to the unit having the best attendance, and all so a prize to the unit making its quota in membership, and meeting all obligations before the time of the meeting.

Mrs. W. R. Jones, historian, installed the following officers: Mrs. G. L. Winters, president; Mrs. H. R. Rogers, first vice president; Mrs. Arthur Corey, secretary; Mrs. Wiley Brown, chaplain; Mrs. Frank Taylor, sergeant-at-arms.

Isaiah Is Called

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Isaiah 6.

In the year that King Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and His train filled the temple.

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

Then flew one of the seraphim unto me having a live coal in his hand; he laid it upon my mouth, and said, thy sin is purged.

I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

MEMORY VERSE—Isaiah 6:8.

ISAIAH IS CALLED

APPOINTED BY JEHOVAH TO PROPHECY

Scripture—Isaiah 6.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. PROPHECY IS as old as mankind. We have prophets in our modern day—men who try to warn us of disasters, or, fortunately for us, try to show us how even the inventions that can bring horror and death, can, if properly used, also bring peace and benefits to all mankind—namely, atomic research.

World War I was foreseen by many men of world vision but people generally considered the world was then "too civilized" to risk such a calamity. The prophets were correct.

Many predicted World War II, and uttered warnings. The prophets were largely ignored, although they did bring fear and dread—also incredulity that such a thing could happen twice in one generation.

The sixth chapter of Isaiah, the greatest Hebrew prophet, assigned for today's lesson, begins: "In the year that King Uzziah (of Judah) died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple."

Uzziah had reigned for 52 years.

The seraphim are sinless creatures who offer unceasing worship to God.

"Then said I, woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of Hosts."

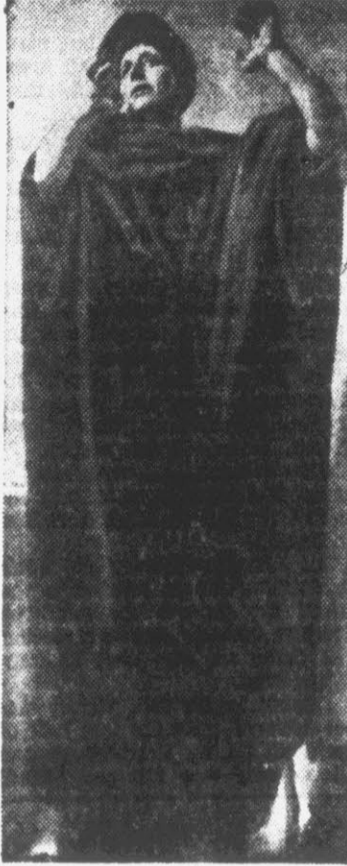

"Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from the altar: and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged."

"In the earthly sanctuary the burning of incense was performed by taking coals from the altar of burnt offering and pouring them on the altar of incense, and then upon these was scattered the incense." There was no burnt offering on this altar.

"Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me."

Uplifted by the thought that his sins were forgiven and he was worthy to do the Lord's will,

The Golden Text

Isaiah. "Here am I; send me."—Isaiah 6:8.

TB Hospital Is Given Approval

Raleigh, Sept. 29—(AP)—The Advisory Budget Commission has approved a recommendation that a 100-bed tubercular hospital be erected at Chapel Hill.

The commission yesterday gave its okay to the recommendation of the board of directors of the N. C. Sanatoriums for the Treatment of Tuberculosis.

When the last general assembly met, the tubercular board suggested that a new hospital be erected at Chapel Hill so it would be near the University of North Carolina Medical School.

The state now operates sanatoriums at Black Mountain, McCain and Wilson.

Assistant Budget Director D. S. Coltrane, in whose office the advisory commission met, said the University has agreed to donate five acres of land for the sanatorium site. The general assembly appropriated $471,250 for building the TB hospital.

Joan Fontaine In London Hospital

London, Sept. 29—(AP)—Motion Picture Star Joan Fontaine has entered a hospital here for treatment of a severe bronchial ailment.

The hospital, the London Clinic said she is likely to remain there about a month.

Miss Fontaine arrived in England Monday after making films in Europe.

Fifty-Three Are Fined $50 For Mass Picketing

Tarboro, Sept. 29—(AP)—A union official and 52 workers were fined yesterday for violating a court order against mass picketing at the struck Hart Cotton Mill here.

Superior Court Judge Leo S. Carr fined R. C. (Ted) Thomas of Charlotte $250. The judge described Thomas, an official of the CIO Textile Workers Union of America, as the "one leader directing the pickets." A 30-day jail sentence was suspended on condition that Thomas remain on good behavior and not violate the picketing order again.

Interest Counts Up Fast On N. C. Borrowed Money

By LYNN NISBET. Raleigh, Sept. 29—An interest rate of a bit more than one and one-half percent is low for borrowed capital, but when the amount borrowed is expressed in terms of fifty million dollars it runs into real money. State Treasurer Brandon Hodges told the council of state Wednesday that total interest cost on the fifty million dollar road bonds sold that day would amount to $7,557,187.50. In other words, to get fifty millions right now for rural road building the state will pay back during the next nineteen and a half years $57,557,187.50.

Another illustration of how interest counts up is found in the eighth figure extension beyond the decimal point on the winning bid for the bonds. That interest rate figure was 1.57687793 per cent. None of the other bids carried the calculation beyond a fourth decimal point, so some of the reporters got to figuring on what that last numeral "3" would amount to. It amounted to about fifteen dollars a year, and since the bonds run for nineteen and a half years the interest can be counted as full value for a little less than ten years. Which means the eighth decimal point "3" will cost the state about $140 for the term of the bonds.

A formal meeting of the council of state, held a few minutes after the bond bids were opened, approved the sale at the interest rate of 1.57687793 per cent, and also adopted a resolution of appreciation for the services rendered the state by Treasurer Hodges in connection with handling the bond issue. Hodges recently spent some days in New York selling the big bankers on the idea that North Carolina is a good credit risk at low interest rates. Many people had predicted the bonds would carry above two per cent. Hodges had insisted all along they would be sold for less than one and three quarters.

David Campbell reached two quarters, a dime and a nickel through the teller's cage and asked for shillings and pence in exchange.

"I took the coins from my collection," he said. "I want to buy a bicycle pump."

Egypt Budgets For Palestine

Cairo—(AP)—The responsible daily "Al Ahran" quoting Ministry of Finance sources said Egypt will allot $60,000,000 for administration of Egyptian-occupied Palestine.

The Egyptian Army holds the narrow coastal strip in the Gaza Peninsula, occupied during the Palestine war. The money would be included in Egypt's forthcoming annual budget, "Al Ahran" said.

TO ARGENTINA—Stanton Griffis (above), of New York, former Ambassador to Poland and Egypt, has been nominated by President Truman to be Ambassador to Argentina.

Parade Winds Up Veterans' Meet

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 29—(AP) A parade today brings the 59th annual reunion of Confederate veterans to a close.

The four old soldiers attending the meeting will ride in automobiles over the same route that President Truman marched here last June.

As the aged comrades-in-arms prepared to say their farewells for another year, one big question remained apparently unanswered. Where will the 1950 reunion be held.

Two cities have made a strong bid for the meeting—Charleston, S. C. and Biloxi, Miss.

The veterans' commander-in-chief, Gen. James W. Moore, has announced through his adjutant that Confederate reunions will be held as long as there are two veterans living.

A Belmont Dennis, newspaper publisher and radio station operator of Covington, Ga., was elected commander-in-chief of the sons of Confederate veterans yesterday.

Somebody Took The Paddy Wagon

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 29—(AP)—Police officers manning the city's patrol wagon stopped at a restaurant for coffee early today. While they were sipping their java, someone drove off with the black maria.

An alarm was broadcast, and county officers were called on to help the Knoxville patrolmen retrieve their paddy wagon.

American Indians, long before the arrival of the colonists, prized oysters as a delicacy.

Phantoms In Slump; Farley Fears Worst In Ayden Tilt

GHS Coach Says Team Suffering From Loss Of Spirit; 'Things Don't Look Good At All,' He Asserts; Ayden Squad Reported Keyed Up For Big Game

Greenville high school's Phantom football team is in a slump, suffering a loss of spirit which could well mean the difference between victory and defeat in their Friday night game with Ayden high school. Coach Boley Farley acknowledged this morning.

The gray-clad Phantom mentor, whose squad blazed a powerful Edenton eleven 13-6 and held the touted New Bern Bears to two touchdowns, said today that his boys have looked very weak in practice all week.

"They are about as listless as I have seen them all year. Just seem to have lost their pep," Farley asserted. "I'm not just saying it either. Things don't look good at all," he declared.

In practice this week Farley has been stressing pass defense and offense. His charges were also put through running defenses and worked on some new plays.

Injuries may handicap the Phantoms slightly. Ace halfback Jimmy Cox is suffering from a wrist injury which may keep him from doing any of the passing and End Jack Neilson is being hampered by an ankle injury. Both boys were hurt in the New Bern game.

Farley expressed the belief that both boys would be able to start this week's game.

Assistant Coach Stuart Tripp's aggression is reportedly keyed to perfection in anticipation of the game, regarded in Ayden as the most important contest of the year.

Ayden's power was evidenced in their 34-0 win over Zebulon last week.

Though Coach Tripp lost some of his lettermen last year, he has a fast and smooth operating football team and a lethal passing attack led by Quarterback Leonard Bullock.

It is that passing offense which is currently worrying Coach Farley of the Phantoms.

Both teams will wind up their drills today with light workouts.

Probable starters:

Hampden-Sydney Regards Saturday Win A 'Must'

Hampden-Sydney, Va., Sept. 29—Although it will be only the second game of the season for Hampden-Sydney, Saturday's home meeting with East Carolina Teachers is being regarded by Coach Morgan Tiller as if it were the only game left on the Tigers' schedule.

"We've got to have a win this week," Tiller said. "Last week we looked better than Guilford in the opinion of many, but they won the ball game and not us—that's what counts. Right now, we don't even know Emory and Henry or the rest of the schedule exists. We're pointing for one game: ECTO at Hampden-Sydney from 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon."

Tiller is anxious to beat the Pirates not only to keep the morale of the team from slumping, but also because the game is one of the Tigers' three home appearances this season. Hampden-Sydney plays at home again on Oct. 15, facing Newport News Apprentice, and then hits the road continuously before returning to Death Valley late in November for the final game of the season.

Information gathered from a personal scouting trip last week end convinced Tiller that the Tigers will have their hands full against ECTO. The Pirates played a bang-up ball game in succumbing to Lenoir-Rhyne, 21-20.

Tiller is mainly concerned with the passing attack Coach William Doie's team displayed against Lenoir-Rhyne.

"ECTO has probably the best aerial game we will run up against this season. Roger Thrift, T quarterback, does the throwing and he is plenty accurate," Tiller emphasized.

According to program weights Hampden-Sydney will have a seventeenth of a pound every man in the line. The Tigers' front wall will average 185.7 pounds; ECTO, 185.

Rain Drops Have Players Worried

New York, Sept. 29—(AP)—Rain is worrying the teams involved in the major league pennant races more than anything else.

The dew drops could mean the difference between World Series oaks and second place.

Take National League's front-running St. Louis Cardinals, for instance. The Cards were rained out in Pittsburgh yesterday. They are scheduled to meet again today but if the game is rained out, it is rained out for keeps. The Cards are scheduled to open a three-game series in Chicago Friday and the season ends Sunday.

Brooklyn's Dodgers, a game behind the Cards, also were rained out in Boston yesterday. They are scheduled to play two games today. If they are rained out they will play it off Friday, an open date for both clubs. But if it rains today and tomorrow the two games will be cancelled as the Dodgers play the Philadelphia Phillies Saturday and Sunday.

In the American League the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees are tied for the lead. The Red Sox play in Washington today and the Yankees at home. If their games are rained out they will be played Friday. Should this occur and if it also rains on Friday the games will be cancelled.

The Red Sox and Yankees meet in single games on Saturday and Sunday in the Stadium. If they enter the series tied for the lead and, for example, the Red Sox win Saturday to break the tie a rainout Sunday will give the Red Sox the title.

Duke's Gridders Leave Tomorrow To Meet Vols

Durham, Sept. 29—Duke University's football squad will leave the Raleigh-Durham airport tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock on an air hop to Knoxville where the Blue Devils tackle Tennessee's Volunteers Saturday afternoon.

The squad will pitch camp at the Andrew Johnson Hotel and then take a final polishing drill on the turf of Shields-Watkins stadium tomorrow afternoon.

The Blue Devils took their last heavy workout today and appeared ready for a major test, possibly their toughest assignment of the season.

Duke scouts who watched Tennessee brush aside Mississippi State last week returned with nothing but praise for the Volunteers who are rated as one of the top two or three teams in the powerful Southeastern Conference.

Phillies Release Schoolboy Rowe

Philadelphia, Sept. 29—(AP)—Schoolboy Rowe, veteran right-handed pitcher, today was given his unconditional release by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Rowe joined the Phils in 1943 after starting with the Detroit Tigers and serving part of one-season with the Brooklyn Dodgers. He spent 1944 and 1945 in the Nav, and returned to the Phils the following year.

Dodgers Accept Ticket Requests

Brooklyn, N.Y., Sept. 29—(AP)—Requests for World Series tickets are now being accepted by the Brooklyn Dodgers, who trail the St. Louis Cardinals by one game in the National League race.

The Brooklyn club announced that reserved seats are $6 and are sold in strips of three games for $18. Box seats cost $8, sold in strips of three games for $24. A 50 cent mailing charge goes with each order.

White Sox Buy Right-Hander

Chicago, Sept. 29—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox today announced the purchase of Kenneth Holcombe, 31-year-old right handed pitcher from Sacramento of the Pacific Coast League.

The speculation over Ralph Kiner's chances of topping Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs in one season appears to be about all that remains for the loyal Pittsburgh fans who had such high hopes for the Pirates before the current campaign got underway. Kiner's early September batting splurge put him mighty close to Ruth's record pace and the Belting Buccaneer's chances of coming through are better than fair.

Kiner thumped out 23 home runs in 1946 as a rookie and jumped the figure up to 51 in 1947. Last year his total was 40. He accounts for this drop by pointing out that he had no strong hitter following him

Jackie Robinson Prefers Pennant For Team To Batting Championship

Boston, Sept. 29—(AP)—Jackie Robinson said he would rather have the Dodgers take the National League pennant than for him to win the individual batting championship.

Then he grinned sheepishly and added in his mild, tenor voice: "Every person is in baseball for what he can get out of it. I don't want to sound any different than anyone else. But honest, that's what I want. I know Slaughter and Musial feel the same way."

As of today, Robinson, cleanup

Sailfish Catch Is Season Record

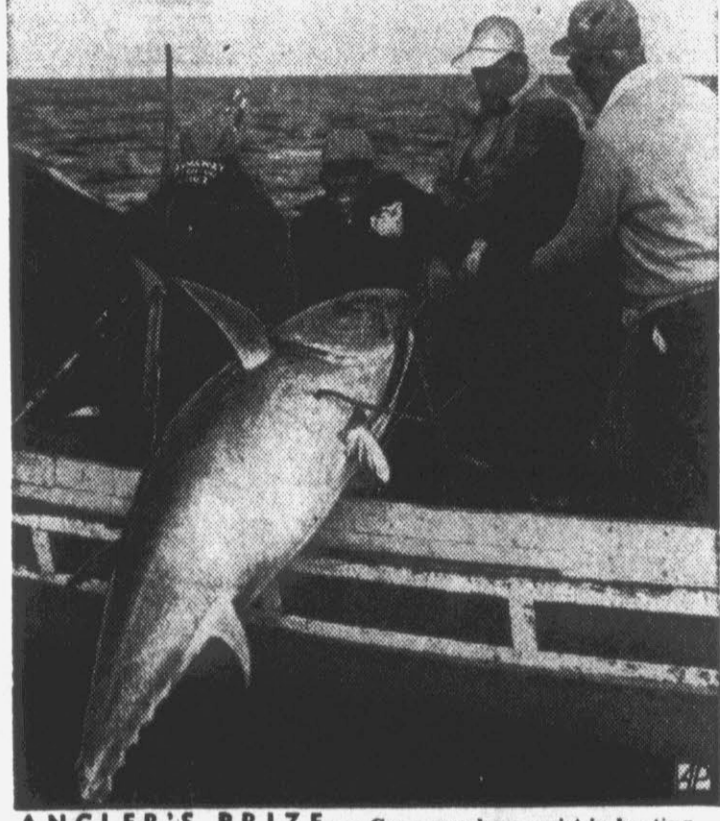

Morehead City, N. C.—The seven foot, eight inch sailfish landed here Sunday by John W. Upchurch of Raleigh is a new season's record for the Morehead City area. His fish which weighed 62 pounds will win the $100 cash prize offered by Morehead City Boatman's Association each year, unless a larger fish of the species is landed before the current offshore sportfishing season ends.

Previously the largest sailfish taken here on the Carteret coast during 1949 was a 56 pounder measuring seven feet four and half inches that was landed by John Peacock of High Point during late July.

Athletics Get Third-Sacker

Philadelphia, Sept. 29—(AP)—Kermit Wahl, star third baseman of the Montreal Royals, is the property of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Senators Dump Red Sox Into Tie With Yanks By 2-1 Win

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

"If you can't beat 'em buy 'em." That's the advice Boston fans are offering the Red Sox management today following Rae Scarborough's 2-1 triumph over the Sox last night that dumped the Back Bay millionaires into a flat-footed first place American League tie with the New York Yankees.

The management attempted to buy Scarborough from the Washington Senators last winter but no soap. Owner Clark Griffith couldn't use one of Tom Yawkey's silver mines.

Scarborough, a tall 31-year-old North Carolinian, hurt the Red Sox American League pennant drive last year and his victory last night may ruin their current hopes.

The Senator righthander beat Boston three times in 1948, including a 4-2 triumph a year ago last night that the Sox blamed for their eventual tie with Cleveland and their eventual loss in the playoff.

Boston entered last night's game fully aware that a defeat would knock them into a tie with the Yanks for the strenglers had downed the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-5, in the afternoon.

The men of McCarthy, however, were confident of winning as they owned 14 straight victories over the Senators and were riding the crest of an 11-game winning streak. But Scarborough, who now holds half of Washington's four triumphs over Boston, scared them deeply.

While tension mounted in the American League pennant race the picture in the National remained unchanged.

The League-leading St. Louis Cardinals' game in Pittsburgh was rained out as was the runnerup Brooklyn Dodgers' contest in Boston. The Cards are one game in front of Brooklyn.

Scarborough's 13th victory was not achieved until the last half of the ninth inning. Scarborough had allowed only four hits and fanned seven but a fluke double by his opposing pitcher, young Chuck Stobbs, and Dom Dimaggio's line single resulted in a run in the sixth inning. The way Stobbs was going, it looked like the ball game.

But Stobbs blew up in the ninth. The Senators put runners on first and third with only one out. Al Kozar then slashed a single to left to score Gil Coan with the tying run. Stobbs was through.

Ellis Kinder, 23-game winner, came in to relieve. Sam Dente, who played brilliantly afield, greeted Kinder with a single to right but Ed Robinson, who was on second, was forced to stop at third as Al Zarilla fielded the ball quickly.

Lefty Mel Parnell was rushed in to face pinch-hitter Buddy Lewis, a lefthander hitter. The Senators put on the squeeze play but Parnell detected the move and pitched so wide to Lewis that he couldn't reach the ball and Robinson was an easy out at the plate, Kozar moving to third.

Parnell followed up the "break" with a wild pitch and Kozar romped home with the winning run on the Erant heave.

Van Buren Needs Only 45 Yards

Philadelphia, Sept. 29—(AP)—Steve Van Buren, Philadelphia Eagles, will be looking for 45 yards when the National Football League champions meet the Detroit Lions in Detroit Monday.

Steve needs that many yards to crack the league yardage record of 3,860 made in 10 seasons of play by Green Bay's Clark Inkle. The Eagles' ace has picked up 3,816 in six years of play-for-pay ball.

Nat'l Guard Unit Seeking Recruits

Greenville's National Guard unit under Captain J. B. Tyndall, is in the midst of a campaign to raise the personnel quota to top strength.

Boasting a strength of 78 crack Guardsmen, the local unit hopes to have 98 men in uniform by November 19 when the National recruiting campaign ends.

But they are not taking every one who tries to enlist. Captain Tyndall is screening the recruits closely in order to maintain the high standards of the unit.

The National Guard recruiting campaign has already been promised the cooperation of the National organizations of the Elks, Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis and Lions.

Greenville's National Guard enlisted 17 men a month before leaving for a two week encampment at Fort Jackson, S. C. this summer.

Capt. Tyndall announced at this week's drill that awards will be made to the men bringing in the greatest number of recruits in the campaign.

Also at this week's Tuesday night meeting the Guardsmen were shown movies of their activities while at camp this past summer.

Dog Kennel Case Compromised In Superior Court

By CHESTER WALSH

In Superior Court here yesterday, the plaintiff and defendant in the case of Mrs. Vina Simmons against F. O. Copeland and wife, charging "violation of a covenant in the deed to the property on the Falkland highway," near the city, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Copeland, reached a compromise.

The court's judgment states that "all matters pending jury trial and all matters in controversy herein have been compromised and settled."

The terms of the court's judgment are that the kennels shall be vacated by January 1, 1950. Further, that the defendants shall not have more than five grown dogs at any one time, and that any puppies born shall be disposed of before they are six months old.

The judgment further provides that if the defendants shall fail to vacate the said kennels that the clerk of the court shall direct the sheriff of the county to take action.

The judgment also provides that the plaintiff and defendants shall each bear their own part of the costs of the action.

Judge R. Hunt Parker of Roanoke Rapids is presiding over the one-week civil term of Superior Court.

Area Game Protectors To Crack Down On Violators

By CHESTER WALSH

"We are going to crack down on hunters who violate the state game laws and hunt out of season," Raymond Watson, district supervisor for the N. C. Wildlife Resources Commission, said yesterday in an interview with a Daily Reflector reporter.

"We have a plane, with two-way radio facilities in service in the eastern area; our game protectors' cars are equipped with two-way radio, and we are 'all set' to apprehend game law violators," he said.

Numerous reports have been made about hunters shooting quail before the season opens. Some of the offenders have been arrested and fined for their offenses.

"With better ground and air facilities, we are now in a position to do more patrolling and we are doing that very thing. Another thing, we are getting the best kind of support and cooperation from the wildlife clubs of the area. There will be plenty of wildlife in the woods to hunt if we abide by the seasonal opening dates and give the birds and animals a chance to grow up and take care of themselves," Supervisor Watson said.

He reminded that the season for hunting doves which opened September 16 closes September 30. There will be another open season for hunting doves later in the winter.

Open season for hunting schedules follow:

- Squirrel, October 1.
- 'coon and 'possum, with dogs and gun, October 1.
- Mink, muskrat, 'possum and 'coon, October 15.
- Deer, October 15. (There is no open season for deer in Pitt County.)
- Bear, October 15.
- Quail, rabbits and turkeys, November 24.
- The waterfowl season opens November 29.
- Game and fish protectors and others here with Supervisor Watson yesterday were: J. O. Teel of Greenville, district game and fish protector; Preston Bagwell of Kinston, wildlife patrolman, this district; Hugh Hines of Wilmington, pilot of the Wildlife Resources Commission's patrol plane; Oscar Taylor of Vanceboro, Henry Williams of Vanceboro, D. B. (Shorty) Bell of Kinston, and C. B. Spain Jr. of Greenville.
- Farmers and others may report hunting law violations to J. O. Teel of Greenville, phone 36511.

Loyalty Check . . .

record of each one to see if there was any doubtful stuff on file about him.

If any suspicious information was found, then the FBI made a full investigation.

And this could happen: Jones had been in government service but his record was clear. Later, some one informed the government that Jones' loyalty was questionable. An investigation could start then.

In each department a loyalty board was established. If an investigation disclosed doubtful information about an employee, he was called before the board.

He could bring his own lawyer and his own witnesses but in almost no case would he ever be told who had given information against him.

If the department board thought he was disloyal—or thought his loyalty was questionable—it could find him unfit for a government job.

In that case the man could appeal to head of the government department. If turned down there, he had one final appeal: to a special loyalty review board of 22 men appointed under Mr. Truman's program. If that board considered him unfit, he lost his job.

(A number of regional boards were established around the country to deal with persons looking for work with the government.)

If a man's job application were turned down on loyalty grounds, he could appeal to one of those regional boards. If turned down there, he could appeal to the special loyalty review board.)

That loyalty review board reported yesterday that, of 332 persons whose loyalty was found questionable by the lower boards, this had happened:

102 were found unfit; 70 were found all right by the review board or the department heads and allowed to have their jobs; 12 were sent back to the lower boards for a rehearing; and 148 are now in the process of appealing to their department heads or the loyalty review board. There are around 2,000,000 federal employees.

(Employees of the Atomic Energy Commission and civilian employees of the Army do not come under this loyalty program. The AEC and the Army have their own programs for loyalty checking.)

Window Washing ECTC Students Are Making Good

Two ambitious seniors at East Carolina Teachers' College are making good on their project to earn money while in college to help pay their way.

Jerry Bennett of Winston-Salem and Arthur Lockard of Milton, Pa., inserted a Want ad in the Daily Reflector last week, stating: "We will wash your windows and furnish everything, except the windows—you furnish the windows. Prices reasonable, Telephone 3275."

When contacted by phone at the home of Mrs. P. T. Anthony, 109 West Eighth street, the "willing to work" students indicated that they would take any kind of a job to help make a living. A flood of orders went in. Some of the jobs are for painting floors, walls, etc., mowing lawns, and doing other chores about premises.

Jerry Bennett said that they are "booked up for three weeks ahead," but still taking orders. They do their work in off hours from classes. They are seniors and hope to graduate this year.

Bennett is married and his wife is in Indiana. Lockard also is married and his wife and baby are in Pennsylvania. Both men were in the Navy during World War II.

Mrs. John D. Cherry Funeral On Friday

Mrs. Elector (Leckle) Cherry, 65 widow of John D. Cherry, died at the home of her son, J. H. Cherry, near Stokes, at 1:20 o'clock Thursday morning. She suffered a heart attack about six o'clock Wednesday afternoon and had remained critically ill since that time. Funeral services will be conducted at Spring Green Primitive Baptist Church near Robersonville at three o'clock Friday afternoon by Elder W. E. Grimes, of near Stokes, assisted by Elder A. B. Ayers, of near Bear Grass, and burial will be in the churchyard. Active pallbearers will be her grandsons and her granddaughters will serve as flower bearers.

Mrs. Cherry, daughter of the late George and Susan James Whitfield was born and reared in Pitt County in the Bethel community. She was married to John D. Cherry in 1907, and he died in 1924. She spent the most of her married life in Martin County in the Everetts community. She was a member of Spring Green Primitive Baptist Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. E. C. Hodges of Wilson and Mrs. Leslie Glasebrook of New Bern; three sons, John H. Cherry of near Stokes, and G. R. and James A. Cherry, both of Wilson; 21 grandchildren and one great grandchild; two step-daughters, Mrs. Eva Gorman of Winston-Salem and Mrs. J. W. Hardee of Williamston; a stepson, Mark Cherry of Lee, Florida; three brothers, P. W. and Lee Whitfield of Roper; and four sisters, Mrs. W. N. Warren of Stokes, Mrs. W. J. Jones and Mrs. Eddie Berry of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Jim Malary of Everetts.

of reproach but meaning "behind the times."

Now women have equal rights with men in the divorce courts, and are taking full advantage of those prerogatives. However, divorce isn't (or at least hasn't been) for the royal family, if for no other reason than that the Church of England is a state church and the sovereign is "defender of the faith." This religious aspect entered heavily into the refusal of the British government to consent to King Edward's marriage with Mrs. Wallis Simpson.

As for the Marquess of Milford he naturally isn't in the same category as are the immediate members of the royal family. As cousin to the king the Marquess isn't in line for the throne.

Maybe the royal family has no objections to his plans. One would expect that Milford Haven would have been shown the green light by King George before going ahead with the marriage.

Still, I'll bet a shiny new sixpence that aged dowager Queen Mary doesn't like the idea very much. Despite her devotion to her first-born, Edward, she has steadfastly refused to receive the Duchess of Windsor. When he visits his beloved mother he goes alone.

Of the cars which were checked last night, not one car was found to be carrying any of the novelty birds which have been banned by the highway Patrol as being unsafe when stuck on the windows and windshields of car. The patrolmen have been ordered to cite to court any person who has these birds on their windows, it was stated.

One car which approached the blockade, failed to stop and had to be chased by a patrol car for a short distance. When the patrol officer asked the colored man driving the car, why he did not stop, the fellow said, "I couldn't stop because I do not have any brakes."

Open Year' Round

Spastic Hospital Nearly Complete

Goldboro, Sept. 28—(AP)—The North Carolina Hospital for Spastics, first state-operated institution of its kind in the United States, will open sometime in December, it was announced today by Thomas O'Berry, chairman of the hospital's board of directors.

Officially designated as the North Carolina Hospital for Treatment of Cerebral Palsy, the institution is located near the Creedmore highway in Durham County, about one mile northeast of Duke Hospital.

O'Berry said the hospital construction and equipment costs approximated $522,000, or about $72,000 more than the $500,000 appropriated for the purpose by the 1947 legislature and the $150,000 provided by the North Carolina Medical Care Association.

The additional $72,000 was secured from state funds, the board chairman said.

O'Berry said the 1947 general assembly also appropriated $100,000 for the hospital's maintenance and operating costs during each of the first two years of its existence.

Entire Crew Of Bomber Is Killed

Tulhina, Okla., Sept. 28—(AP)—Loss of the entire crew was confirmed last night when the charred remnants of a 13th body were sifted from ashes of a B-29 Air Force bomber which crashed near here Monday night.

The Superfortress was on a non-stop navigational training flight from Smoky Hill Base at Selma, Ala., when it plummeted into an oak-dotted hill near this southeastern Oklahoma town.

City Dog Catcher Doing Good Job; Humane Treatment

Enoch Elisha Jones, City dog catcher, who started his work last

June 30, has taken up 472 dogs found running at large on the streets. He has been bitten only three times, and none of the wounds was serious, he stated.

One hundred and forty-six dogs were reclaimed by owners or others by paying the $2.90 fee for impounding. Two hundred flea-bitten un-owned canines were put to death in a humane manner by a veterinary surgeon.

Jones yesterday had 13 dogs in the city pound. Some of them are suitable for pets. When owners fail to reclaim dogs, they are given to responsible persons who pay the $2.90 fee. Among the 13 there are two collies and some other dogs suitable for pets.

A city ordinance provides that it is unlawful for owners to allow dogs to run at large on the streets. The law requires that owners pay a license tag fee of $1 for males and $3 for females.

Students Strike Over Discipline

St. Charles, Va., Sept. 28—(AP)—St. Charles high school students, championing the cause of three girl classmates, aren't attending school these days.

They're on strike because the principal kept the three girls in after hours to discipline them for making too much noise in the girls' lounge.

Division Superintendent S. J. Shelburne says he hopes the walk-out can be settled soon, but that he doesn't intend to let students take over control of disciplinary policies.

The student strike started last week when half the 841 pupils left classes. After the strikers began parading against the building, authorities ordered the school closed

Specialized Training Courses Offered By Army To Graduates

High school graduates who have passed their 17th birthday have an exceptional opportunity to continue their education, at no expense to them, by taking advantage of the Army's pre-selective school plan. Capt. Ralph W. Ferrese of the local Army and Air Force Recruiting office pointed out here today. Each man who enlists for three years or more is definitely assured of attendance at the school of his choice as soon as he has completed a short course of basic military training.

"This opportunity for qualified men to enlist for a specified technical course is one of the most valuable incentives the Army has ever been able to offer its recruits," the captain said. "These courses include not only military specialties but technical trades which a man can follow in civilian life as well."

The captain said that full information on the courses available and the qualifications for enlistment and for enrollment in specific courses may be obtained at the local U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station at 401 Evans Street, Greenville. Applications for these courses are now being received.

Why Do They Want to Put A&P Out of Business?

The answer is to be found in the formal complaint "they" have filed with the court. By "they" we mean, of course, the anti-trust lawyers from Washington who are out to destroy A&P.

They say . . . and these are the anti-trust lawyers' own words . . . that we "have regularly undersold competing retailers."

To this charge we plead guilty:

We confess that for the past 90 years we have constantly stepped up the efficiency of our operations in order to give our customers more and more good food for their money.

The American people have seen nothing wrong in this. By their ever-increasing patronage for 90 years they have shown that they like this low-price policy.

Apparently the people still see nothing wrong in this today. All during the past week - since the anti-trust lawyers made their charges - we have been deluged with phone calls and letters from men and women in all walks of life who want us to know they are opposed to this effort to put A&P out of business.

An enormous number of customers are telling our store managers and clerks that they want to continue to enjoy our low prices for quality foods.

Farmers and other suppliers are asking what they can do to preserve this efficient outlet for their products.

Our 110,000 employees are asking us to protect their jobs and pensions.

Labor leaders are wiring us their opposition to this threat to labor's living standards.

If all these people will be hurt, why then do the anti-trust lawyers want to put A&P out of business?

Low Prices Don't Hurt Anyone

The anti-trust lawyers say because we are able to sell food cheaper than other grocers, we make it impossible for those grocers to compete with us.

If this were true, we should have all the food business in the United States by this time.

Just the opposite is true. In 1933 we had 11.6 per cent of the nation's food business. Now, according to the anti-trust lawyers, our share has decreased to 6.4 per cent in 1948. Anyone can see we have nothing even approaching a monopoly.

As a matter of fact, there are about 30,000 more individual grocers in business today than there were ten years ago.

There are about 275 more food chains in business today than there were ten years ago.

In other words, we have more competitors in the food field and do a smaller share of the nation's food business than before.

Where is this alleged destruction of other grocers? Where is there any evidence of their inability to compete with us?

Do You Want Higher Prices?

As anyone can see, the only purpose that would be served by putting A&P out of business would be to raise food prices.

Who would this benefit?

We were the first merchants to set the pattern for low-cost, low-profit distribution. Our example and our competition has led other grocers to keep their prices down.

Remove A&P from the picture and food prices are bound to go up.

Remove A&P from the picture and the way will be cleared for the destruction of every other efficient large-scale distributor.

Is this what the American people want?

Is this in the public interest?

He's A Veteran In Melon - Testing

Des Moines, Ia.—(AP)— If any man could tell a good melon by thumping and looking at it that man should be Hal Wolford. For 36 years, Wolford has been in the melon business at Conesville which claims the title of "Melon Capital of the Midwest." Wolford can recall back at the turn of the century when as many as 800 railroad cars of melons were shipped from the town. They sold them for $50 a carload. The season this year was near perfect. More than 150 acres of watermelons were grown along with 80 acres of cantaloupes in the sand flat between the Iowa and Cedar Rivers. Most of the melons now are shipped by truck. They have been seen this year as far as Kentucky and Georgia.

TEEN TALK

Locker room scouts report that boys are getting too used to the Dutch treat system. Most of them do not even like to invest in a coke for their best girl. Take heed, gals if he wants a date, let him pay the tariff. Unless of course, you know him well, but a new boy, no. You'll spoil it for the other gals, too, if you do. Start the semester off right. It used to be that if a boy had a dollar allowance, he expected to spend half of it on the girl. Now he looks for a girl who has her own dollar.

Leprechaun Coiffure . . . That favorite of teen-agers, hairdresser Victor Vito, has come up with a brand new hairdo, now being worn on Fifth Avenue by stylish school girls. It is close cropped and has such a pixie look he has named it "Leprechaun." The kids love it because it requires no permanent, can be worn without a hat, pins, combs to keep it smooth. It is short all over, about an inch-and-a-half in back and has hair line bangs. When you wash it, advises Victor, brush the back hair up so that when it dries it will dovetail together. You'll look faun-like in this new young hair-do.

Bait for Bookworms . . . One of the most delightful ideas for teen-agers is "My Private Life" (Lantern Press) a "diary type" record book by Polly Webster. It is a book any teen-age girl would enjoy owning to record her personal story of the joys and triumphs of the happy teen years. It is a diary, and yet it is not a diary, perfect camouflage for the girl who would not like to be accused of keeping one, but would like to record fun and finances. There are pages for career plans, big dates and parties, autograph collections, word pictures and snapshots of friends. Records of beauty and health, personality tests. There are places to list favorite radio and movie stars, talk about boy friends and girl friends pen pals, memory jogs such as birthdays and anniversaries. It is indeed a compact little package, a gift that will please any young girl written by a mother for her own teen-ager. It is delightfully illustrated by Marjha Wheeler.

A gift for that air-minded young man is Seth Babits "Opportunities in Aviation" published by Vocational Guidance Manuals. Seth covers the air whether you want to know about the Wright Brothers, air cargo or passenger lines. He gives the requirements for future pilots of the coast guard, Marine corps and navy. Even the model plane enthusiast will enjoy Mr. Babits' fine round-up of opportunities in aviation. There is bibliography of preflight and flight training manuals and other aviation books. Whether he wants to own his own plane or work as a field mechanic, this book will be handy for him.

Junior Politics . . . Young people are getting more interested in politics and how it affects their local community, the nation and the world. Recently, Hamilton College at Clinton, N.Y. (established in 1793) started something new in formal education—a school of politics. The idea was the dream of Alexander N. Lanier, 21, who has been active in N. Y. state politics since he was 16 years old. There are 220 undergraduates registered in the class.

Gertie's Garters . . . The girl with crooked stockings seems very often has girly-lits, says Grace Downs who conducts a model school. Most girls, says Miss Downs, attach their garters improperly, thus cause crooked seams and runs.

The correct way? Simple, she says. Just remember that you do not twist stocking leg and body around to fasten back garter, thereby putting a strain on the stocking. Instead, stand up straight as you pull your stockings up to full length. Then bend over from the waist, reaching both hands under the dress, one on either side of the leg, and fasten the garter holding your leg straight.

Dismiss Charges Against Strikers

Tarboro, N.C., Sept. 28—(AP)— Superior Court Judge Leo Caffr late yesterday dismissed contempt of court charges against 10 of 68 strikers accused of violating a picketing order against mass picketing. The judge said testimony during the hearing had failed to show the 10 picketed inside prohibited areas earlier this month at the Hart Cotton Mill here.

The defense began its case today. Robert Cahoon of Greensboro, attorney for the strikers, said none of the remaining 58 accused would testify.

The CIO Textile Workers Union of America has been striking since May 12 when contract negotiations failed. The mill reopened Sept. 14 after it obtained in Superior Court a temporary injunction limiting mass picketing. One hundred and ten workers of the 850 who walked out have since returned.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

By WILLIAM HOBSON

Chapter 17

Late that night Jay lay in a big bed upstairs in the west wing of the T-shaped ranch house. Following Randall's sudden appearance at the line cabin on a foam-flecked horse, Harry Selzer had saddled up and headed for the ranch with all possible speed to send back men with a wagon filled with a mattress and plenty of quilts, and to send another man to town after the doctor. The trip had been a slow, tortuous one and Jay felt weak and sick.

Slow weeks followed for Jay. The rains set in two days after his arrival at the ranch, and he lay in bed and listened to the patter on the roof and wondered how Joe was making out up in Brad Morden's horse thief camp. He heard the sounds of riders sloping through the mud, the bawl of miserable wet milk pen calves, listened to the wind, and watched for Ellen's appearance in his room.

For something had happened to her. It seemed as though overnight she had changed. Her eyes avoided his and she no longer called him darling and kissed him as she had at first.

He thought he knew what was troubling her. She was probably envisioning him drunk at the settlement, loving Lucia as Joe had loved them at dances in the face of her anger, and imagining Joe walking through the night with his arm around her waist.

It was a mess and he felt badly about it. But there could be no doubt of the truth: Ellen had changed and was almost avoiding him. On the other hand, it was Mary Selzer who was with him almost constantly, waiting upon him and doing his slightest wish. She read to him until he fell asleep and then pulled the sheet up around his neck and slipped softly from the room. He found himself thinking more and more of her.

A week after his arrival Jim Swinnerton arrived at the ranch. He came upstairs with a cheery greeting and sat down on the edge of the bed. He was well dressed, clean shaven, and his eyes went more than once to Mary.

Presently the lawyer turned to the two girls. "I'm his lawyer, you know, in case anything develops from this. Could I ask him a few questions in private?"

"Of course," Ellen replied. "Come along, Mary."

The door closed behind them and Swinnerton looked at Jay.

Jay said, "You didn't tell them who did it?"

Swinnerton shook his head. "I wouldn't do. They think it was Miguel."

"Good. Randall would really feel bad if he knew it was one of his own men. And if Ellen found out that Mike had hired Peg Smith to spy on me—or rather Joe—she'd turn on him and might break up this family. It was Smith, wasn't it?"

A nod. "He came back to camp, boasting that he'd killed you. I got three of our tougher boys and we literally kicked him out of the place. Mike fired him, too. Said he'd had enough of Peg and his boasting about what an exterminator he was."

Whole Town Works On Playgrounds For Kids

Hammond, Ind. — (AP)—Hammond has a new corporation. It is nothing unusual for this city in the midst of one of the world's greatest industrial sections to get a new corporation.

But this one is different and is not devoted to the making of steel, to the refining of oil or shipping.

It's dedicated to the youngsters of this city of more than 78,000 and it is called Lots of Fun, Inc.

Its aim is to provide a place to play for all of the children in every neighborhood. The playgrounds are not elaborate—maybe just a lot with home-made swings and teeter-totters on it.

These are better, the sponsors reasoned, than to let the children roam the crowded streets and play around the industrial plants, often dangerous.

No one claims the credit for the project, but probably no one was more important in it than James B. DeLaurier, soft-spoken publisher of the city's only daily newspaper, the "Hammond Times."

The idea came from stories received from Philadelphia, where neighbors joined to beautify their backyards, a project called "Yardville, U.S.A."

Said DeLaurier, "If only money were needed to make the program a success, the 'Hammond Times' would contribute it, but we want community participation."

They got that and lots of it—from individuals, groups, organizations and even the children themselves who have helped build the playgrounds.

No sooner had the program been announced than the headquarters were besieged with offers of land, equipment, money, dirt, sand and labor.

More than $1,800 was collected by teams of service clubs and high school students in a tag day. The mayor personally took in $450 in a store-to-store solicitation.

The money was put into a fund to pay the cost of insurance protection for the public and for property owners who have made vacant property available for the playgrounds.

Under this plan owners have offered to Lots of Fun lots in areas where playgrounds are needed. Under these leases, for which Lots of Fun pays nothing, the property owner has the right to demand the return of his land as it was when he turned it over to Lots of Fun.

A typical playground has a basketball backboard or two, swings, teeter boards, sand boxes and horse-shoe pits.

There were many sore backs and blistered hands on businessmen, firemen, junior chamber of commerce members, and all men of some neighborhoods before the playgrounds were complete.

Now there are 16 close to home playgrounds and next year Lots of Fun, Inc., will make plans for perhaps as high as 100.

Connecticut Still Cutting Lumber

Winsted, Conn. — (AP)—Far from being a "lost art," lumbering still is carried on in this northwestern Connecticut area.

For the most part, however, it is done on a small business basis. Small crews go into the woods, cut the trees and haul the logs to nearby sawmills. In some instances this "native lumber" is sold in the rough state just as it comes from the saw. Hemlock and pine comprise most of the supply, although occasionally a little oak is available.

Wilson's Weekly Bulletin

from the Rector Kitchens

Temping Pork Sausage Croquettes—Long a breakfast favorite, potato patties and fried pork sausage links now come to the luncheon and dinner table as elite croquettes that are delightfully tasty. In today's recipe Wilson's 4-4-4-c-o-s-a-s pork links, nicely browned, are blanketed with well-seasoned mashed potatoes. Then they are shaped and coated with egg and crumbs and browned either in deep hot fat, under broiler heat, baked in the oven or pan fried, depending upon where the balance of your dinner is cooking.

The unusual savorness of Wilson's CERTIFIED Pure Pork Sausage flavors the mashed potatoes and makes a taste-tempting platter of potato patties and fried Wilson's Certified Pure Pork Links.

PORK SAUSAGE CROQUETTES

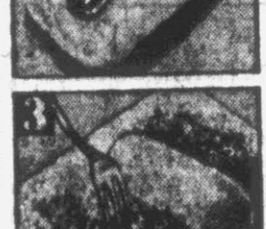

1 Cut apart the links of 1 pound Wilson's CERTIFIED Pure Pork Sausage, usually 18-20 links. Place in a heavy, cold skillet. (If a thin skillet is used, add enough water to cover the bottom.) Cover with lid and cook slowly 13-15 minutes. Remove cover, increase heat, pour off drippings as they collect and slowly brown the sausages on all sides. Meanwhile cook 2 pounds potatoes for mashing.

2 Mash, the well-drained, cooked potatoes, omitting the liquid but adding the usual salt, pepper and butter. Pat out a flat oblong of potatoes 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick. Place the fried sausage in center and wrap potato around sausage, closing the ends too.

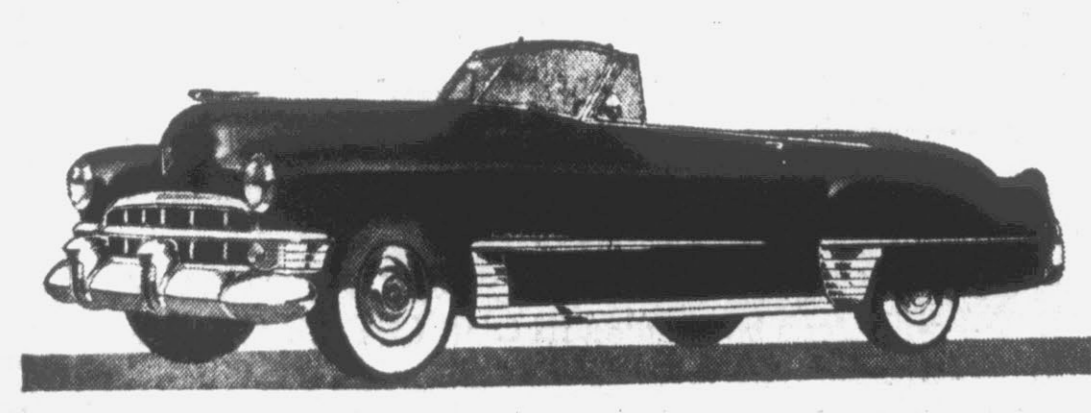

3 Coat with slightly beaten egg and crumbs. Then place in hot deep Laurel Lard or BAKE-RITE (375° F.) about 45 seconds to brown, or for 7 minutes under broiler*, or in 400° F. hot oven 15 minutes* or pan fry, one side at a time, in shallow hot fat, about 7 minutes. Serve hot and nicely browned to six.

The Wilson label provides your taste.

For the Enrichment of Life

LONGFELLOW WAS RIGHT when he penned the words—"Time is fleeting."

If you want a Cadillac, and feel that you are entitled to one, you ought to make arrangements at once to have one delivered into your possession.

Each day you forego it, you will lose a goodly measure of happiness and satisfaction—for a Cadillac is a joy to possess, and a joy to utilize. Many say that it adds to the zest of their whole day's activities.

Certain it is that a Cadillac brings with it the utmost in performance, in comfort, and in safety—and that it contributes immeasurably to its owner's peace of mind. Few, indeed, can be happy without a Cadillac—once they have learned how greatly it enriches their lives.

If you are among the many who have the impulse to own a Cadillac, come in and see us soon. Each day you delay means a loss in satisfaction which no other material possession can hope to supply.

Lack Of Details Kept 'Invention' From Success

London — (AP)—The British Air Ministry was intrigued. Midway in the war, an inventor wrote in to say he needed minor technical assistance on an invention that would keep airplanes from exploding when they crashed. John Edwards, parliamentary secretary to the Board of Trade, told a conference of scientists the ministry quickly offered help.

"He then wrote back to say his idea was that there should be in each petrol tank a capsule containing a substance which would render petrol non-inflammable, the capsule to be made so it would melt when the petrol reached a certain temperature, thus releasing the contents."

"The two details on which he needed official assistance: What the capsule should be made of and what it should contain."

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 16 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

There's A Catch To Steam Autos

Lavenham, England, Sept. 26 — (AP)—Alex Hodson advertised his 1901 steam-driven motor car for sale. His price: $420.

Within a few hours, a buyer telephoned: "It's sold. I'd like to send you a check right away."

But Hodson hesitated.

He wanted to see the buyer first to make sure he really respected and understood antiques, and besides there was a little explaining to do.

"It has eight major knobs to push or pull, and five assorted water and pressure pumps, once you light her up with a match," he said.

"It's fair to say that driving it is a wholtime job. The time is never passed in boredom or pre-occupation with scenery."

"Another snag is that when you light the engine, flames about a foot high, blue and intensely hot, leap from a kind of huge circular brazier. In a few minutes the heat is so great that it scorches you."

"Once lighted, there can be no hanging about. You have decided to go for a spin and you are committed to it."

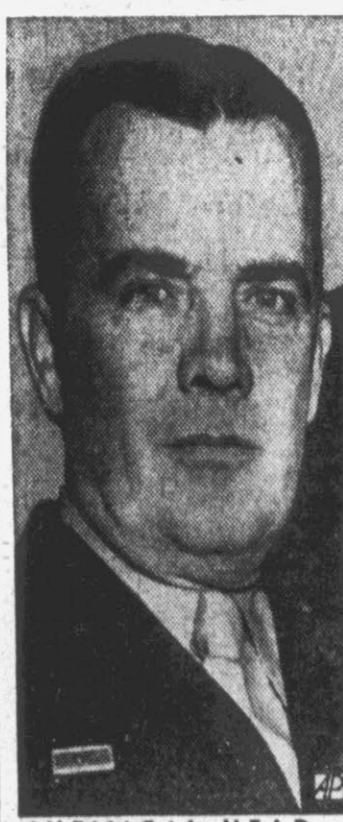

"Finally, when you drive a vehicle of this kind people are apt to regard it as peculiar."

Red Oak News

Friday night, September 30th, at 7:30 o'clock is the time set to prepare our booths at the fairgrounds for our Home Demonstration Club and Red Oak Church exhibits. The men are invited to come, bring hammers, saws, nails, etc., and the ladies will put the finishing touches on.

The church will have an exhibit on "Flower Arrangement." Anyone who wishes to do so may enter three arrangements. These may be arrangements of flowers, leaves, grasses, gourds, berries, fruits, vegetables or anything you have at home. Please make your arrangements as attractive and original as possible as we will have a judge to decide on the first, second and third best arrangements. Prizes will be presented these winners at the Sunday school hour at Red Oak on October 9th. You can help your church by sending some attractive arrangements to be used in their booth. Please have them at the fairgrounds by 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, Oct. 9th.

We are sorry that so many of our friends and church members are ill at this time. Mrs. Rosa Clark of Belvoir-Greenville, R4, Mr. Hugh Sutton of Greenville, R1, are ill at their homes. A card addressed to Winterville, RFD, will be forwarded to him. Mr. Ed Dickerson is at home. He is recovering from a very painful accident suffered a few weeks ago. Miss Janice Tyson underwent an operation at Pitt General Hospital Monday. She returned to her home yesterday and is getting along nicely. Mrs. Lawton Colville will undergo a major operation at Pitt General Hospital today.

Somali Tribes In Bloof Fuefs Have Brief Battle

Asmara, Eritrea — (AP)—A blood feud between two Somali tribes flared into open warfare recently. Eighty were killed and 120 wounded before French Somaliland authorities intervened, according to reliable information reaching here.

For years at harvest time there have been outbreaks between the Gadabussied and Issas tribes, near Djibouti. Basis for their difference is that the Issas claim local autonomy while the Gadabussied favor complete French control.

Then both sides started fighting using modern weapons smuggled in from British Somaliland during the war. In 40 minutes the battle was over and the field was littered with dead and wounded. The situation now is described as normal again.

A Little Beer Helps Tomatoes

Fleetwood, Eng. — (AP)—Retired skipper Thomas Jinks has a tip for gardeners—if your tomatoes aren't doing so well, give them beer broth and stout beer.

Jinks said he found the combination was a wonderful pick-me-up when his tomatoes showed enemic signs recently.

"The result," he said, "is simply amazing. A bumper crop on a dozen bottles of stout and half as much beer broth. And the flavor is greatly improved."

A. Simmonds, secretary of the Royal Horticultural Society, took a show-me attitude. "I think the water content of the broth and beer contributes largely to the successful crop," he said.
