Aggressive Plans Complaint Filed By Soviet in UN

Formally Charge U.S. And Britain Planning Aggressive War; Arms Race

Lake Success, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Russia presents a formal complaint today to the United Nations that the U. S. and Britain are planning aggressive war.

The theme that the two nations are leading an armaments race and forming military blocs has been sounded repeatedly by the Russians and their satellites, in the U. N. and out.

Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky brings his charges into the political committee today along with a new Soviet demand that atomic weapons be prohibited and that a new pact to preserve peace be signed by the U. S., Britain, Russia, China and France.

The political committee finally cleared Italy's prewar colonies in Africa off its docket late Saturday and the question goes to the General Assembly for final approval in plenary sessions later this week at Flushing Meadow. Only Ethiopia votes against a program that calls for an independent Libya by Jan. 1, 1952; U. N. trusteeship for Italian Somaliland for 10 years, with Italy as administering authority; and further study on disposal of Eritrea.

That paved the way for the Vishinsky peace pact proposals, which the U. S. quickly labelled "an olive branch surrounded by poison thorns" which Vishinsky moved a month ago to get it onto the agenda. The U. S. derided the move as "phony propaganda" but said it would not avoid any discussion of it.

A two-hour talk by Vishinsky and an answer from Warren Austin, U. S. Delegate, were on today's program. The U. S. and Britain had ready a joint resolution to the effect that U. N. charter provisions were sufficient to keep peace, and that if they are not adhered to, any kind of a new pact would be a fraud.

Britain's stand will be stated tomorrow. France, one of the big five powers, was expected to make a statement late this afternoon.

The special political committee scheduled two sessions today to begin voting on five proposals for atomic energy control.

Chiang Arrives At Chungking As Reds Gain City

Chungking, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek arrived in Chungking today. A short time later the Nationalists conceded the loss of Chienchiang, important highway junction 130 miles to the east.

It was Chiang's first visit since the capital was re-established here on Oct. 15. Problems involving the whole future of Nationalist China confronted Chiang.

Among them were: (1) Some means of preventing the Communists from completely engulfing Nationalist areas on the mainland and (2) effecting a compromise with other Nationalist leaders, notably Acting President Li Tsung-jen, to enable full united resistance to the Reds.

Another capital must be chosen in the event Chungking becomes untenable. The city was China's capital during World War II.

'Practical Viewpoint' No Surprise In Washington If And When Britain Announces Recognition Of Red Regime In China; Protection Of Interests In China; Reds Facing Difficulty

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

There would be no surprise at the disclosure by diplomatic authorities in Washington that Britain has decided to recognize the Chinese Communist government; the signs have been pointing in that direction for some time. The British Far Eastern experts believe that Nationalist China is incapable of further effective resistance to the conquering Red military machine. Therefore England will be taking the "practical" viewpoint in granting recognition to protect her great Chinese interests which some experts estimate at ten times the value of Uncle Sam's interests.

Berlin's Anti-Communists Say U.S. Can Rely On Firm Stand

Berlin, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Berlin's anti-Communists promised U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson today they will resist Soviet encroachment.

Admonished by the American secretary to fight for their own liberty if they want continued U. S. support, the West Berliners answered, through their mayor, Ernst Reuter: "We are fully aware here in Berlin that your great nation is back of us. We know we can rely on you and you can rely on us. You promised me on my visit to the United States that you would visit Berlin, and you kept your word. I guarantee you that Berliners keep their word, too."

This pledge was voiced in the battered old city hall in West Berlin, thronged with German officials, to receive Acheson on his one-day visit here. Acheson was concluding his visit to Europe, which entailed a two-day meeting of the Western foreign ministers in Paris and a four-day visit to West German cities. He leaves by plane tonight for Washington.

Harry Bridges Goes On Trial On Two Charges

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Longshore leader Harry Bridges goes on trial today on perjury and conspiracy charges stemming from his Nationalization hearing in 1945.

Bridges, Australian born president of the left-wing C. I. International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, testified at that hearing he was not and had never been a Communist. The government charges that statement was false.

It likewise charges two of Bridges' close union associates, German-born Henry Schmidt and Texas-born J. R. Robertson, conspired to defraud the government while witnesses at the hearing.

Four New Types Resistant Leaf For N. C. Farms

New Strains May Be Released In Mid December; Excelled In Production

Four new disease resistant tobacco varieties may be released to North Carolina farmers next month, the State Tobacco Seed Committee reported today.

The new types are all resistant to at least one of three major tobacco diseases including Granville Wilt, Black Shank and Fusarium Wilt, officials reported and announced that the new strains probably will be released to North Carolina farmers around mid-December.

Leading the quartet of new varieties is Granville Wilt-resistant 8238, the variety which set production and value records in an experiment conducted on the J.B. Speight farm in Pitt County.

Pitt County Assistant Farm Agent S. J. Weeks disclosed today that the 8238 produced more tobacco and boasted a greater value than any of the four new types which were grown in the local experiment.

All four of the new varieties excelled in production and value in the Pitt experiment which included 19 varieties.

The Bottom Special variety was announced last week as being the greatest producer of the old line strains in the experiment here with a yield of 1657 pounds. It was topped by the 8238 strain by 137 pounds in an experiment on the farm.

The new varieties include besides the 8238: 8231-resistant to Granville Wilt and somewhat less resistant to Black Shank. 8259-highly resistant to Black Shank and Granville Wilt. It does not produce quite as high a yield as the 8231 variety.

Mc27-resistant to Fusarium Wilt. The original crosses on some of the lines were made in 1944, tobacco specialists who conducted the experiments on the new strains reported. The years since then have been required in the selection and evaluation of the new varieties. For every strain released, hundreds have been tested and rejected, they disclosed.

Assistant Agent Weeks said today that farmers desiring seeds for the new strains should make application to the local County Agent's office between now and December 3. No applications will be accepted by telephone or mail. All farmers must come to the office personally, Weeks said.

Before the applications will be accepted the agents must know the farmers' PMA serial numbers and their tobacco allotments. When the seeds are released farmers will be mailed order forms from the Foundation Seed Producers Inc. in Raleigh, allowing the farmers to make direct orders in time for their 1950 crop.

Uncle Sam's Payroll Now Over Ten Billion Dollars

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Uncle Sam, the country's biggest single employer, is now operating on an annual payroll of more than $10,200,000,000.

It was pushed there by recent pay raises voted by Congress, totaling about $500,000,000.

These raises took effect at about the one-third mark of the current fiscal year which ends next June 30. Thus the payroll stands to be even higher the following fiscal year, as the raises will be in effect all of its 12 months. They may be offset some by economies.

A week-end survey of government pay matters disclosed the figures in round sums. It showed that $3,574,000,000 is going to uniformed members of the armed services and $6,640,000,000 to civilian workers including those civilians working for the armed forces.

The total number of employes, uniformed and civilian, figured out at 3,692,000 and their total pay at almost one-fourth of the $43,500,000,000 spent this fiscal year.

Uncle Sam is paying the salaries (or wages) of six out of every 100 workers employed and this amounts to about $8 of every $100 paid out.

Barkley's Near Mishap To Spur Airway Study

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Vice President Barkley's close call in what a bomber's crew said was a near collision with a commercial blimp today to speed up studies on separating traffic around airports.

The popular "Veep" who is to be married next Friday was unaware of the incident at the time, crew members said the air force B-17 in which he was a passenger roared within 50 feet of the blimp with no forewarning it was there. Barkley told newsmen at Hartford, Conn., last night he "didn't know a thing" about it.

It happened last Thursday night but did not become known—except by those immediately concerned—until last night.

This was the third incident of its general nature reported in the area of the Washington National Airport since Nov. 1, 1947 was the day on which a Bolivian lighter plane collided with a big commercial airliner, killing 55 persons.

The Barkley incident is likely to get attention during the CAB's continuing public inquiry into the Nov. 1 collision. That was between an Eastern Air Lines DC-4 with 51 passengers and four crewmen, and the Bolivian-flown P-38 fighter as both approached the northeast runway at National Airport nearly two weeks ago.

Grading Of East First Street Said Progressing; Will Expedite Traffic

By CHESTER WALSH The city administration's project of grading East First Street, in the valley, installing a suitable drainage there to provide adequate culvert, is progressing satisfactorily, Mayor W. S. Stafford said today.

Ching Claims No New Moves Scheduled For Coal Strike

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The government's top mediator, Cyrus S. Ching, gave a new report to the White House today on the deadlock coal labor dispute.

Ching told the president's assistant, John R. Steelman, the president's assistant, that he had no present plans for arranging federal sponsored negotiations.

Indicating that no government action was imminent, Ching said: "It is doubtful that we will reach any conclusion."

The new suggestion of John L. Lewis that soft coal operators drop in and talk contract when he returned to the capital today got no rush of acceptance from the mine owners.

Most operator spokesmen were unavailable for direct comment on the statement of a Lewis aide that the mine union president awaited their "convenience," the reaction was summed up this way by one leading industry representative: "John knows that if he is really serious about wanting to talk contract, all he has to do is to pick up the telephone. He has not done that."

The National Coal Association said in a weekend statement that another coal strike December 1 is unionist willing and eager to negotiate willing and eager to dig coal and that so are a lot of others.

Ching and his associates were understood to be against delaying presidential action beyond this week. What Ching was recommending to President Truman, however, was his own secret.

Most observers thought Ching favored the appointment of a fact-finding board with power to recommend a settlement of the six-months old coal deadlock. That was what he proposed in the steel dispute, and Ching is believed to think the same thing should be offered to the parties in the coal stalemate.

Appointment of any such board would be accompanied by an appeal by President Truman to the miners to stay on the job and not walk out December 1, when their present three-week armistice expires.

As an alternative the president (Continued on page ten)

Coplon, Russian Appear In Court

New York, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Judith Coplon and Valentine Gubitchev appeared in court today for trial on charges of conspiring to spy for Russia. The trial was delayed but was expected to begin late in the day.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan was named to preside, but he had to clean up other litigation before he could take up the case.

Miss Coplon, 28, walked into court briskly wearing a smart brown outfit. The courtroom is the same in which the nine-month trial of the 11 convicted communist leaders was held.

Gubitchev, who sat in the front row and did not look at Miss Coplon, repeated his refusal to accept counsel. He has repeatedly refused to accept the services of a court-appointed lawyer.

The diminutive Miss Coplon, former employe of the Department of Justice, already is under sentence of 40 months to 10 years in prison. She was convicted in Washington last summer of being a spy for Russia.

Judge Irving R. Kaufman, who assigned Judge Ryan to the case, also referred to him a court order obtained by Miss Coplon's attorney. It requires the prosecution to show why it should not return to the defense papers taken from Miss Coplon at the time of her arrest.

Also referred to Judge Ryan were two motions previously made by the defense attorney, Archibald Palmer. The motions challenged the legality of the tiny brunette's arrest and asked dismissal of the indictment on the plea of double jeopardy. The double jeopardy plea was based on her previous conviction for the "same offenses."

Held Without Bond In Shooting

Jake Brown, Negro, 35, is being held in the Pitt County jail without bond in connection with the shooting of James Battle, Negro, 30 near Bethel Saturday night.

Deputy Sheriff Loyd Manning and Duke Andrews, who investigated the shooting said that Battle was shot in the left arm with a 16 gauge shotgun. The man was taken to a Tarboro hospital, where his condition was reported this morning as being "serious." The charge from the gun entered the man's arm, damaging the muscles and bones, it was stated.

Little Steel Companies Fall In Line With Pacts

Grimesland Man Beaten, Robbed

The Pitt County Sheriff's Office reported today that Bennie Chaney, of Grimesland, was brutally beaten and robbed over the weekend at his home.

Investigating officers Duke Andrews and Jasper Mills said this morning that Chaney told them he went to his one-room house early Saturday night, and that he does not know what happened from the time he arrived at home until Sunday morning.

Chaney stated that he found himself in the middle of the floor, with a severe gash in his head and blood all over the room. Even his clothing had been removed. He said he had had about $12 in cash on his person when he entered the house, and told officers he had been wearing a new pair of overalls and a hat. The clothing could not be found.

Officers said blood was found on the front porch of the house and an attempt had been made to cover it with sand. In the house, blood was splattered over the floor and on the bed.

Dismantling Germany

You'll Be Hearing Plenty About Allied Policies On Germany In Coming Weeks; The Original Program; How It Has Been Reduced; Arguments On The Subject

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The Germans want "Dismantling" ended. You'll be hearing more about it. It's one of the things Secretary of State Acheson discussed last week in Paris with the Foreign Ministers of Britain and France.

He said so yesterday. And, without being specific, he said some important decisions were reached at the Paris conference.

When the allies dismantle a German plant, it doesn't mean necessarily they tear down the building. In most cases they leave the building standing but ship the machinery to one of the allies countries for use there.

This is in keeping with a plan worked out by the big allies after Germany fell when they divided it into four zones: American, British, France, Russian.

The dismantling was to be done in four zones. No one here knows what the Russians have taken out of their zone, or how much it's worth.

But in the three western zones about 570 plants, worth about $250,000,000 according to state department specialists, have been dismantled. There are 300 or so on the list still to go.

Less Than 100,000 Unionists Remain On Strike; At Least Five Agreements Reached Over Weekend

Pittsburgh, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Little steel companies are falling in line with strike-ending contracts as the mighty steel industry roars toward full production.

Over the week-end at least five new agreements were reached with the powerful CIO United Steelworkers.

Less than 100,000 unionists remain on strike. More agreements are expected momentarily with the hold-out companies.

Major holdouts are Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp., Crucible Steel, Pittsburgh Steel, and Sharon (Pa.) steel.

Wheeling (W. Va.) Steel Corporation signed yesterday its 15,000 workers in West Virginia and Ohio. Thousands of workers joined the back-to-work movement today Steel producers are getting them on the job as fast as possible in an effort to catch up with production lost in the most costly steel strike of all-time.

The new agreements, without exception, are following the general pattern of the contract signed with Bethlehem Steel Company.

Bethlehem was the first producer to sign, breaking the back of the strike.

And big U. S. Steel Corporation which signed for its 170,000 steel workers, virtually ended the walk-out when it capitulated last Friday.

good but not better, than her neighbor. At the same time they wanted her to pay for some of the war damage she did.

They figured they could kill the two birds with one stone by taking from Germany plants which, they decided, were more than she needed to maintain that certain living level.

At first the allies put 2,000 plants on the dismantling list. Then they cut this down to 1,000.

But last year the U. S. set up the Marshall plan to help Europe get over the war, and this included Germany.

So the question came up: why your help into Germany and at the same time take away her plants. Marshall plan officials set up a special committee of American businessmen to study the dismantling program.

As a result of the commission's recommendations, the Americans, British and French agreed to knock off another 300 plants from the list (previously revoked downward from 2,000) of 1,000 plants to be dismantled.

That left about 800 to go. Since 970 have been dismantled, only around 200 or so are still on the list.

Mrs. Hoot Gives Paper Before Club

The Inter Se Book club met on November 1 at the home of Mrs. F. D. Duncan, West Rock Spring Road. For the program, Mrs. M. P. Hoot gave a most interesting paper on the life of "Will Rogers," the cowboy philosopher on horseback, whose name was a household word of tremendous influence because of his article that had the greatest reader circulation of any published in the world, which invariably started, "Well, all I know is what I read in the papers."

From the congressional printing of the dedication and unveiling of the statue of Will Rogers in the Rotunda of the capitol in Washington, D. C., June 6, 1939, Mrs. Hoot read a few of the many tributes spoken to Will Rogers on this occasion.

From the recently published "Autobiography of Will Rogers," Mrs. Hoot read many prophetic political comments written by Will Rogers 25 years ago, proving that the cowboy philosopher, humorist and statesman was in fact, as well as in name, the world's greatest ambassador of peace and good will.

A short business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Wendell W. Smiley, at which time the club voted to buy a T. B. seal bond. A delicious sweet course was served by the hostess, books were distributed and the club adjourned.

Harsh Words By Solons, Swedes

Athens, Greece, Nov. 14—(AP)—The senators and the Swedes were still swapping harsh words today. Their dispute revolved around the reception in Sweden recently of a Europe-touring U.S. Senate Appropriations subcommittee. It also took in Sweden's need—or lack of it—for American financial aid, and the part Sweden played in World War Two. Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) was the latest touring senator heard from. He said today Sweden needed no American h-p. "profited greatly during the past war and has one of the highest living standards in the world."

McClellan added, "she'd go with whoever looked like the winner." Swedens press yesterday directed such words as "liar" and "ludicrous nonsense" at the Senate subcommittee chairman, Sen. Elmer Thomas (D-Okla). He started the whole fuss when he told reporters in Vienna Saturday that government officials in one country "acted as if they did not know we were within a thousand miles of the place." Other committee members said Thomas was talking about Sweden. The Oklahoma senator confirmed this today. Up to mid-October Sweden has received $79,000,000 in Marshall Plan aid. The total points scored by both teams in the Basketball Association of America rose from 135.53 in 1946-47 to 162.2 per game last season.

Police Praised For Handling Of Armistice Crowd

By CHESTER WALSH
Greenville police received considerable praise for the excellent manner in which they handled traffic for the Armistice Day celebration and parade last Friday when 20,000 persons were estimated to have been on the streets. The parade moved briskly along the line of march to the college stadium. Through vehicular traffic was kept moving without interruption and no serious accident or collision or disorder was reported. Mayor W. S. Stafford, who rode in the parade, spoke very favorably of the way Chief Lester D. Page handled the situation. As the crowds moved toward the stadium or the warehouse across the river, where 700 persons were served a barbecue dinner, the police moved. "The officers were just where they were needed to keep traffic moving and control thousands of people lining the streets of Greenville." State Highway Patrolmen under Cpl. John Laws had a big part in the good work and sheriff's deputies under Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson likewise did a fine job, observers stated. Tired Of Taxes, Threw 4 Bricks London, Nov. 14—(AP)—A 38-year-old bricklayer by the name of Edward Finney called the Croydon police station today and said: "I just threw four bricks through the windows of the Inland Revenue Office. I am fed up with paying income tax." They went and got him and this afternoon he was fined one pound (2.80) and ordered to pay damages of five pounds ($14).

Verdict Dec. 19

Raleigh, N.C., Nov. 14—(AP)—On Monday, Dec. 19, the winner of the "corn war" between Virginia and North Carolina will be announced. That's the date the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Agricultural Economics will release its December corn yield estimates. The contest, to see which state most improves its corn yield compared with last year, calls for using the December estimates in deciding the winner. The results will be announced simultaneously from Washington, Richmond, and Raleigh. Larry Archambeault, defenseman for the Louisville Blades of the U.S. Hockey League, was a four-letter athlete at Massena, N.Y. high school.

Jehovah's Witnesses In Convention December 16

A three-day convention is scheduled to be held in Greenville December 16-18 by Jehovah's Witnesses of North Carolina Circuit One. Over 500 delegates will attend this convention from the 23 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the eastern part of North Carolina. The semi-annual assembly will consist of practical demonstrations on how Christians should teach others the Bible, explanations of Bible prophecy now being fulfilled or due for fulfillment in the near future, and several Bible discourses by public speakers and ministers from various North Carolina cities, as well as speakers from the headquarters of the Watchtower Society, Brooklyn, N.Y. A baptism will be held for immersing new witnesses. The main event of the convention will be the widely advertised Bible lecture, "Liberty to the Captives," to be given by Mr. D. E. Stull, of Brooklyn, a graduate of the Watchtower Bible College of Gilead. Sunday, December 18, at 3 p.m. by Over 300 such conventions have been held this year throughout the nation for the purpose of furthering the work of preaching the Gospel from house to house, and conducting educational Bible studies in the homes of all classes of people. Jehovah's Witnesses endeavor to imerally copy Jesus' primitive manner of preaching from house to house, and their sole purpose is to aid others in getting a better understanding of the Bible. During the past few years Jehovah's Witnesses have shown a phenomenal growth. There are now nearly 100,000 active witnesses in the United States, and over a quarter-million worldwide. More than 1,000 of these are in North Carolina. Mrs. Perkins Speaks To Lector Club

The Lector club met on the afternoon of November 1 in the lovely home of Mrs. Holly Van Dyke. During a brief business session the club voted to buy a T. B. bond. The program was then turned over to Mrs. Edward Stuart Flanagan, who in turn introduced the gracious Mrs. Dorothy Perkins of E. C. T. C. Mrs. Perkins spoke to the club on children's hearing. She stressed to the club the importance of slight ear aches and minor colds and how some six per cent of all children in the average school have slightly defective hearing. After the interesting talk the hostess served a delightful salad course with coffee. The meeting was then adjourned.

The president then appointed the following committees for the year: Membership, Mrs. J. H. Randolph, Mrs. V. C. Fleming, Sr., Miss Bessie Lowe; program, Mrs. J. B. White, Miss Jane Hancock, Mrs. Cora Powell; emergency, Mrs. H. W. Winstead, Mrs. J. C. Galloway, Mrs. C. Washington, appointed for first six months of 1950—for last six months: Mrs. T. T. Hollingsworth, Mrs. Leon Fleming, Mrs. Mary Smith; reporter, Mrs. Charles Blanchard; Silver Cross, Miss Mary Wells. Women In The Church
In the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Maine, more than 700 children receive religious instruction by mail. They live in remote, isolated places where there is no church or church school. They receive from the Church School by Mail weekly lessons throughout the winter with special stories and instructions at Christmas and Easter. Princess Chichibu, of the Japanese Imperial family, has been elected an honorary member of the Advisory Council of the Japan International Christian University which is to open its doors near Tokyo in 1951. "The gap between the educated minority and the uneducated masses in Africa is a tremendous one," says Miss Lettie Stuart, of the Fourah Bay College, Freetown, Sierra Leone, Africa, now on a visit to educational institutions in America. "I have been struck by the way American women make a full contribution to the life of their communities; the educated women of our country must learn to take a larger part in their communities, helping their less fortunate sisters to a better way of life. For this work, we need the aid and guidance that the missions can give us." Ginning College for Women, in Nanking City, China, is the one women's college of the nation that is supported by American and British Protestant churches. It is, of course, in territory now in Communist hands. Said its noted woman president, Dr. Wu Yi-fang, recently: "This is a very challenging time to live in China. What we are hoping is that the new coalition government under Communist leadership may adjust to the Chinese tradition of being moderate. Our people have gone through deep suffering and unsettled conditions for decades and large-scale fighting for twelve years. We cannot help hoping once more than after the Communists begin in earnest to build up the country, they will consider the interests of the people and the nation. We in Christian education wish to contribute what we can to the training of women and the cultivation of personalities. Whether we shall be able to do this, we cannot tell until we have tried. It is clear that the new government has a definite educational goal."

The King's Daughters Officers Installed

On Tuesday night, November 8, the Patient circle of The King's Daughters and Sons met with Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley and Mrs. W. L. Best at the home of the latter. The meeting was called to order by the president. Miss Mamie Chandler gave a devotional, reading the scripture parts of the 95th and the 100th Psalms. Minutes were read and approved. The roll was called and 22 members were present. Two new members joined the circle, Mrs. N. A. Fulford and Mrs. Etheridge. The business of the circle was taken up. The cases were taken up during the month. Miss Mary Wells, chairman of the Silver Cross committee gave a talk to stress the need of members to subscribe to the international magazine, "The Silver Cross," to inform them of the workings of the Order. She said, "The more we know about our Order the more we will enjoy our great work." The program was then turned over to Miss Mamie Chandler who read an editorial entitled "Motive," its theme being, "Giving thanks by living thanks in service." She said that there goes hand in hand with all King's Daughters work. She read a poem entitled, "Thanksgiving," which was a paraphrase on I Corinthians 13th chapter, and the most impressive part of the poem was the thought that "The greatest of these is the thanksgiving of the heart." Miss Chandler then installed the following officers for the coming year: President, Clara Moye Shackell; first vice president, Mrs. Cora Powell; second vice president, Mrs. W. M. Scales; secretary, Mrs. Dorothy N. Trotman; treasurer, Miss Martha Lee Cowell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. W. Harvey, Sr.

BETHLEHEM OR BETHLEAM
Generations ago an English hospital was built and given the name "Bethlehem." As time went on the hospital was utilized exclusively for the care of mental patients. Then the name "Bethlehem" was contracted in popular speech to "Bethlem," the name of the most famous or perhaps we should say notorious-mental hospital in the world, filled with every conceivable form of human misery.

"Bethlem" changed to "Bethlem." Is this not an indication of what has been going on in the world in recent decades? We have been losing our hold on the deep and abiding things of Bethlehem of Christ. And because of this we have been drifting into moral chaos and international disorder. Bethlehem stands for peace, righteousness, tranquility of mind and spirit. It also stands for spiritual power which can overcome every obstacle in the life of person and state. But today we have Bethlehem in the world. There is Bethlehem in many homes, hence so many divorces. There is Bethlehem in the legislative halls. There is Bethlehem at international conference tables.

The cure, of course, is to return to Bethlehem—to adjust the fanatic expediences of men and build life on the eternal truths of Christ.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—Democratic America has a passion for confering titles on pretty girls.

One who has practically been nominated "Miss Everything" is Margaret Phelan, an ex-choir singer and star songbird of the nation's supper club circuit.

So far Miss Phelan, a Texas Irish lass with dark red hair and eyes like fireflies, has been chosen:

"The girl with the most perfect shoulders in the world" — by the artists league of America.

"Miss Gung Ho" — by the Marine Corps' first division.

"One of the ten best tailored women in America" — by the custom tailors guild.

Runner-up in the "ten best dressed women in America" — by the fashion academy.

"Miss Sharp Look of 1949" — by the Associated Outdry Industries.

"One of the ten best non-professional dancers in America" — by the Dance Educators of America.

"Miss Ambassador of National Flower Week" — by the American Society of Florists.

"The girl we'd most like to regiment" — by an army regiment.

These honors rest lightly on Miss Phelan's beautiful shoulders, which unfortunately were covered by a throat-high green dress the afternoon I talked to her in the Peacock Alley at the Waldorf. Incidentally, you see more beauty in that alley than peacock.

"I thought that Miss Gung Ho business topped them all," said Maggie. "I understand it's sort of a JURISDICTION—Some very clear cut expressions relating to jurisdiction of judges may be found in Justice Seawell's opinion in the Randolph county child custody case. These basic principles have been largely overlooked by emphasis given the emotional and sentimental phases of the opinion. Writing for the full court, Justice Seawell over-ruled Judge Susie Sharp's decision in the matter of restraint of Norman Douglas Cranford, and said the claims of the natural mother superseded claims of the foster mother who had taken the boy at birth and raised him to the age of seven years. Judge Sharp had held that action of the mother, who was not married at the time, in giving the child to her aunt, who had cared for him from her infancy, was proper grounds for leaving him in the aunt's home.

The sob-sister type said a lot about relative merits of the two positions, and in emphasizing these factors have overlooked the legalistic findings of Justice Seawell.

COURTS — There was question whether the matter belonged in superior court, or in juvenile court; and whether a special judge had jurisdiction if it were conceded superior court was the proper level. Justice Seawell paid his respect to some phases of the juvenile court act, especially some that were modified in the 1949 general assembly, as paramount interest of the state over the natural claims of parents.

JUDGES — On the question of proper jurisdiction of a special judge the supreme court through Justice Seawell clarifies the issues. After setting out that Judge Sharp was a special judge adequately commissioned to hold the Randolph county court at which the instant case was heard, the opinion says:

"Statutes delineating the jurisdiction of special judges have broadened that jurisdiction in close, if not final, approximation to that of regular and elective judges" while holding the court to which they are assigned. . . . Considering in pari materia the statutes covering the jurisdiction of judges with reference to the jurisdiction of special proceedings of this nature, especially S 7-58 and 7-65, we are of the opinion that a special judge has concurring jurisdiction of matters of this kind with the resident judge and regular holding the courts of the district, if heard and completed, and judgment rendered, pending the duration of the court in such judge is commissioned to hold."

RECORD — The superior court judges batted a little better than $90 in the thirteen opinions handed down by the high court. In twelve civil cases the score was six affirmed and six reversed, and the one criminal case was affirmed. The record of the recently appointed special judges has been watched closely. In the latest batch of opinions the supreme court affirmed one and reversed one appeal from Judge Bennett; affirmed one and reversed one from Judge Sharp. In the preceding lot of decisions Judge Crisp was reversed in two

Responsibility

The granting of pardons, paroles and commutation of prison sentences is sole prerogative of the governor. The paroles commissioner is a part of the governor's staff. During recent months there has been growing tendency to leave the governing of the picture in announcement of paroles. Local newspaper and press wires last week made big play from the fact that Dr. T. C. Johnson had paroled a man who once burglarized his home in Kinston. The parole was granted by the governor on basis of recommendation after investigation by the paroles commissioner—just as all other paroles are made.

Somebody Told Me...

By L. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR.

This column hit print for one reason only: I'm in New York and it was written last week before I left Greenville. By the time I get back it will all be forgotten. It isn't safe for a man to talk about men the way I'm going to in this column. But as you read this I'll be too far away to worry.

All of my life I have considered a mouse the greatest device to be used by man for showing his bravery. But last Wednesday morning I changed my mind. Raymond Brock from Waterville, who works at Edwards Auto Supply, rushed up to the front of the store. He was a little pale. I asked what was up.

"A mouse ran across the floor back there," he said.

"Don't tell me you are afraid of a mouse," I said.

"Certainly not," he explained, "but I never will forget a fellow who used to live on my father's farm. One day he was up in the loft of a barn and a mouse ran up his pants leg. It scared him so bad that he jumped out of the loft and ran half a mile across a field before he ever stopped. That man never got over the shock."

"Wait a minute," I said, "do you mean to tell me that a mouse can run up a man's pants leg?" When he vowed that it can happen I stopped to consider the possibility. You must admit that a man's pants leg would be much easier for a mouse to climb than a woman's dress. Yet women jump on chairs and scream when they see a mouse, while the man runs around, broom in hand, chasing the mouse.

Now I'm not advocating that men should let their wives chase mice while we jump on a chair, but this Raymond Brock incident brings on more talk. And far be it from me to deprive you men readers of an opportunity to show your bravery, but, tell me, how would you like for a mouse to run up your pants leg?

When I get back from New York I'm going to buy a better mouse trap, because that mouse wife Rachel and I have in our apartment simply refuses to stumble into the trap we have set now. I have no intention of leaving N. C. unprotected in a battle with the mouse, but to solve the whole problem I think I'll scoundrel. If the mouse trap doesn't work you can drop by 1102-A Dickinson Avenue and see a fellow sitting in the living room with niggers on. You'll know who it is and why. And I thank you.

Marine Invasion

The title she herself feels she has most earned, however, is "Miss Wolf Expert." Her throaty soprano and intimate songs make many a lonely night club patron want to howl his woes into her ears at a post-supper table for two.

Margaret has found the average American wolf about as subtle in his approach as a circus parade—or a horse on tiptoe.

"Men are the same everywhere—in or out of a night club," she said. "There are no unusual approaches."

"Of course, some men say they want to put you in a moving picture or something. But that's not unusual."

As a matter of policy, Miss Phelan turns down all invitations. She said the nicest man she ever met was a fellow who heard her sing in Chicago and sent a bottle of champagne to her room.

"And only a single glass came with the champagne," she laughed.

She thinks it an odd coincidence that the name Phelan, itself originally meant "Wolf."

"In old Ireland the wolf was highly regarded and respected, too," she said, "something like the cow is today in India."

Margaret is the daughter of Art

Washington Letter

Washington—Dark-eyed Juanita Cansino, aunt of Rita Hayworth for should I say the Princess Aly Khan? says that the glamorous Hollywood star's kin were literally born with dancing slippers on their feet. Juanita is married to Paco Cansino, brother of Rita's father, Eduardo Cansino. With him she has danced all over Europe and this country. Now she is teaching Spanish dancing in New York and Boston.

She first began dancing in Madrid, where she was a pupil of Rita's grandfather, Antonio Cansino. The family first came to the United States in 1908 and used to work together as a group. The Cansinos are scattered now, but whenever they do get together they immediately begin dreaming up another dance.

There's Elisa Cansino, another of Rita's aunts, teaching out in San Francisco. Rita's father and another uncle, Jose, are both in Hollywood. Paco and another uncle, Angel, are teaching in New York. Rita herself gave up dancing as a career in itself at the age of 10, giving all her pretty costumes to

The granting of pardons, paroles and commutation of prison sentences is sole prerogative of the governor. The paroles commissioner is a part of the governor's staff. During recent months there has been growing tendency to leave the governing of the picture in announcement of paroles. Local newspaper and press wires last week made big play from the fact that Dr. T. C. Johnson had paroled a man who once burglarized his home in Kinston. The parole was granted by the governor on basis of recommendation after investigation by the paroles commissioner—just as all other paroles are made.

The title she herself feels she has most earned, however, is "Miss Wolf Expert." Her throaty soprano and intimate songs make many a lonely night club patron want to howl his woes into her ears at a post-supper table for two.

Margaret has found the average American wolf about as subtle in his approach as a circus parade—or a horse on tiptoe.

"Men are the same everywhere—in or out of a night club," she said. "There are no unusual approaches."

"Of course, some men say they want to put you in a moving picture or something. But that's not unusual."

As a matter of policy, Miss Phelan turns down all invitations. She said the nicest man she ever met was a fellow who heard her sing in Chicago and sent a bottle of champagne to her room.

"And only a single glass came with the champagne," she laughed.

She thinks it an odd coincidence that the name Phelan, itself originally meant "Wolf."

"In old Ireland the wolf was highly regarded and respected, too," she said, "something like the cow is today in India."

Washington Letter

Washington—Dark-eyed Juanita Cansino, aunt of Rita Hayworth for should I say the Princess Aly Khan? says that the glamorous Hollywood star's kin were literally born with dancing slippers on their feet. Juanita is married to Paco Cansino, brother of Rita's father, Eduardo Cansino. With him she has danced all over Europe and this country. Now she is teaching Spanish dancing in New York and Boston.

She first began dancing in Madrid, where she was a pupil of Rita's grandfather, Antonio Cansino. The family first came to the United States in 1908 and used to work together as a group. The Cansinos are scattered now, but whenever they do get together they immediately begin dreaming up another dance.

There's Elisa Cansino, another of Rita's aunts, teaching out in San Francisco. Rita's father and another uncle, Jose, are both in Hollywood. Paco and another uncle, Angel, are teaching in New York. Rita herself gave up dancing as a career in itself at the age of 10, giving all her pretty costumes to

Raleigh Host To Baptist Meeting

Raleigh, Nov. 14—(AP)—Raleigh will play host to the annual Baptist State Convention when it meets tomorrow.

Some 2,000 Baptists are expected to attend the three-day meeting, which, on Wednesday, will move to Wake Forest College.

An address by Dr. Theodore F. Adams of Richmond, Va., and reports from the seven colleges maintained by the convention and the Council of Christian Education will highlight the sessions.

The removal of Wake Forest College to Winston-Salem will be discussed at the educational council meeting.

Around $16,000,000 is needed to construct a new campus in Winston-Salem, according to Baptist officials. About $7,000,000 of this, including the value of the present Wake Forest plant—is in sight.

Another highlight will be the report of the general board, the body which determines the policies and administers the affairs of the convention.

The convention now counts 2,850 churches and 650,000 persons in its membership. Its contributions during the past year are estimated to have totalled $17,000,000.

New Nerve Control Drug Is Healing Peptic Ulcers

Cincinnati, Nov. 14—(AP)—A new synthetic, nerve-control drug, bantihine, is healing bad peptic ulcers. The results were exhibited for the first time to the Southern Medical Association, which today began a four-day annual meeting.

This way of controlling stomach action is something new in the long search for ulcer remedies. The drug substitutes for the action of a surgeon's knife on the stomach's control nerves.

In 20 cases all apparently healed. Some ulcers were perforating, that is eating holes, but X-rays show that these too healed.

Eighteen patients were suffering severe ulcer pains. In all cases pain stopped a few minutes after the drug was given. It is taken by mouth every few hours.

The exhibit is from Duke University and the work was supported by a grant from the U. S. Public Health Service. The work was shown by Doctors Keith S. Grinson, Professor of Surgery, and Frank H. Longing and C. Keith Lyons, U. S. Public Health Service fellows.

Bantihine is one of a score of new drugs tried at Duke for effects in blocking the nerves that control high blood pressure and stomach action. But it is not a blood pressure remedy. It is made by G. D. Searle and Company, Chicago.

The cause of ulcers is not known. Doctors agree that contributing conditions are excess stomach acid, rapid stomach movements and probably overactive nerves.

Bantihine slows down stomach movements. It does this by a block of the same nerves which are severed in stomach ulcer surgery. After the drug, food empties itself more slowly.

In most Duke cases acid also dropped. But in a few, the acid rose after bantihine. Yet these ulcers go well too.

The Duke researchers point to results of 135 surgical operations as sign that the drug is on the right track. In none of these nerve-cutting cases has the ulcers recurred.

Poland Prepares A 'Titoist Trial'

Warsaw, Poland, Nov. 14—(AP)—Poland appeared today to be getting ready for a Titoist trial similar to those which have purged Communist ranks in other Eastern European countries.

The United Workers (Communist) Party is reported to have struck the name of former Vice Premier Wladyslaw Gomułka from the party rolls in a highly secret session of the central committee.

Gomułka lost his post as party secretary-general in September, 1948, because he opposed the action of the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) in ousting Premier-Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia as a heretic from Marxism. Now the records of Gomułka's adherents are said also to be under close scrutiny.

Gomułka recanted from his 1948 position, saying he regretted his stand. He did more than recant. Just two months ago he protested vigorously against being described as a supporter of Tito. He had been so described by Milovan Djilas in Belgrade. Djilas is a member of Tito's Politburo.

Gomułka wrote to a Polish newspaper that "the slanderous use of my name by Djilas is further evidence of how the people of Yugoslavia are being deceived by the renegades of the Yugoslav Communist party."

Latest Features In New Shelvador Gift

A revolutionary new design and the latest in features are incorporated in the new 1950 Shelvador refrigerator to be awarded locally by J. A. Collins and Son, Dickinson Avenue, as part of the giant national $2,000,000 "giveaway" being conducted by the Crosley Division, Avco Manufacturing Corporation and its dealers.

"The new Shelvador," Mr. Collins said, "provides up to 23 per cent additional storage capacity in the same size exterior cabinet. This new design provides close to two cubic feet of "plus" storage space at the "convenience level," where foods are easy to reach without bending or stooping," he pointed out.

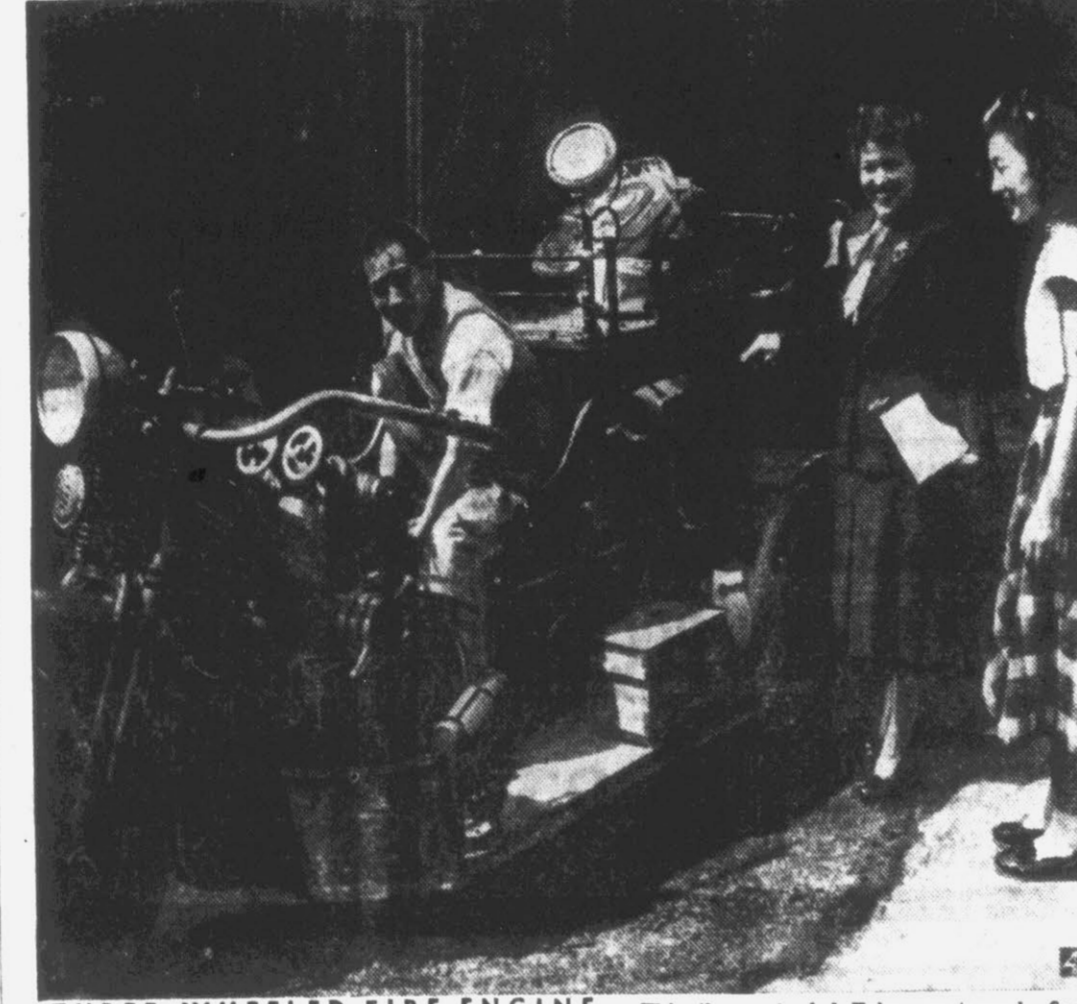

"The exclusive Shelvador feature," he said, "has been restyled with sturdy white plastic shelves that are completely recessed within the interior of an extra thick insulated outer door."

"A unique feature," he said "of the Shelvador CB-9 is the "butter-safe," a compartment for butter storage built into the door of the refrigerator. It is electrically heated and thermostatically controlled to keep butter at the proper spreading consistency. Constructed of white plastic, it is easily removable for thorough cleaning."

"An outstanding feature of this model," Mr. Collins stated, "is the separate horizontal freezer and frozen food compartments that hold up to 53 pounds of frozen foods and ice cubes. In the full-width freezer compartment there is a freezer shelf with sub-zero temperatures for home freezing. The frozen food compartment provides extra space for ice trays and day to day supplies of frozen food."

"Among the many additional features," Mr. Collins said, "is the exclusive new door latch that provides for effortless opening of the door and a firm door-seal. Maximum shelf flexibility is provided by lift out and sectional shelves. The interior is finished with acid-resisting porcelain enamel. All models in the Shelvador line are powered by the "Crosley Electrosaver Unit" hermetically sealed and self-lubricated."

Fraud Trial Of Congressman Is Again Postponed

Washington, Nov. 14—(AP)—The trial of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) on fraud charges was postponed again today.

Another week's delay was granted at the request of Defense Attorney William H. Collins. He told Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff that he still is engaged in another trial.

"We can't hope to start this case this week," Judge Holtzoff remarked. "We should be able to start it next Monday."

Judge Holtzoff then reset the case for Nov. 21.

After the brief court session however, Collins told reporters that he doubted he would be available to start the trial next Monday. He said the government has not yet completed its case in a gambling conspiracy trial in which he is engaged.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 14—(AP)—The National Labor Relations Board apparently will be asked to step into the raging warfare between left and right wing unionists in the electrical industry.

That became apparent today. The left wing group of one big Pittsburgh Local (No. 601) of the United Electrical Workers has ordered an election of officers.

More important, the left wingers have stipulated winners sign non-communist affidavits, something they've refused to do for years.

Signing of the affidavits is required under the Taft-Hartley law if a union wishes to avail itself of NLRB machinery.

The NLRB, among other things, conducts elections to determine which union holds collective bargaining rights in plants.

And persons close to the situation expect the right wing of the UE to call for NLRB elections.

Industry is watching the situation closely. In many cases it holds contracts with the UE—but the right wing of the union is trying to obtain recognition.

Right wingers, led by James B. Carey, general CIO secretary-treasurer, contended their new right wing union should be recognized.

Court battles already have been instituted in many cities to try and resolve the dispute.

Sixty-five of the arrests were for drunkenness; 42 for violations of road and driving laws; 15 for larceny, and the other arrests for various offenses.

During October the police answered 372 calls, made 328 investigations, answered 276 complaints, found 16 doors of business places open at night and investigated 17 accidents.

Little Business Laws Suggested

Greensboro, N.C., Nov. 14—(AP)—Laws to prevent "gobbling up of little firms" by big business through purchase of assets have been suggested by Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.).

He made the suggestion here Saturday night in a speech at the closing session of the Harriett Elliott Social Science Forum at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

The United States must encourage competition or face a choice between fascism and socialism, Douglas declared.

Potato Market Sales Top 1948

Tabor City, Nov. 14—(AP)—Potato market sales this season passed the total of the 1948 season last week.

Officials estimated today total sales for the 1949 season will be around 600,000 bushels. The average price this season is $2.21, about six cents higher per bushel than the average at this time last year.

The auction market will remain open throughout this month and longer, if conditions warrant.

London, Nov. 14—(P)—A three-year-old girl has been fitted with a set of false teeth under Britain's National Health plan.

"Anne's own teeth came through all discolored and caused her much ill-health," said her mother. "Doctors said they had to be taken out."

The N. T. A. chapter of C. M. Eppes High School has been organized and is ready for various activities that we have planned for this year. The first thing to take place was the initiation. The laws were hard but everyone seemed to enjoy them. One week of initiation was enough for the girls. But the final showdown came the last night of the initiation. After the initiation we installed officers for this school term, now we are fully organized and ready to go. We have for this year some girls working for their degrees which will be awarded them N. Thrift Passes Pirates To 26-26 Tie Against Panthers In Closing Seconds

Benzie And Darby Alternate In Running Duel With High Point's Fullback Bill Lloyd

High Point, Nov. 13.—An eight-yard pass, Roger Thrift to Ed Tanner, in the last 15 seconds pulled the East Carolina Teachers College Pirates into a 26-26 tie with the Purple Panthers of High Point College Saturday night in a thriller-packed battle that kept 2,300 spectators clinging to their seats until the final whistle.

Jim Danks try for the extra point that could have meant victory for the Pirates was only inches wide, and the referee's decision was protested by several of the ECTC players.

It was a nip and tuck battle all the way as the Pirates scored first in the second quarter, saw the Panthers surge to a two-touchdown margin and then came back to sew it up.

Jack Benzie and Bill Darby alternated in a running duel with High Point's plugging fullback, Bill Lloyd.

Top thrills in the game were two long touchdown runs. High Point's Hugh Gordon took the kickoff that opened the second half on his own 10-yard line and went straight through the Pirate defenders for 90 yards.

Minutes later, playing from their 47, Benzie took a hand-off from Thrift, swung wide to his right, reversed his field and went all the way untouched.

The Teachers made 16 first-downs to 15 for the Purple Panthers. ECTC gained 132 net yards rushing against 206 for High Point. The Teachers completed 13 of 26 attempted passes for 241 yards. The Panthers tried 11 passes, completed six for 91 yards.

The score was tied 6-6 at half time. High Point took a lead in the third period, scoring 13 points to seven for the Teachers. But ECTC came back in the last half to make 13 while holding the home club to seven.

The Teachers' trying touchdown in the last seconds started when they took the ball on downs on the High Point 13. High Point had tried to run the clock out, and elected not to kick on fourth down.

Roger Thrift, ECTC quarterback, completed a pass to End Ed Tanner good for five yards. A second Thrift pass was knocked down. Again he passed to Tanner, who was standing on the goal line.

Army-Navy Game To Draw 30,000

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad says 44 special trains, including a 12-car presidential special, will bring some 30,000 fans here for the annual Army-Navy football game November 26.

The trains will bring spectators to within a few steps of the vast Municipal Stadium where unbeaten Army will pit its strength against the tarnished but always tough Navy team.

Sixteen of the trains are scheduled to leave Washington, Baltimore and Wilmington between 8:05 and 9:30 a. m. (EST) on the day of the game. These trains include the Presidential Special with Mr. Truman aboard accompanied by top government officials.

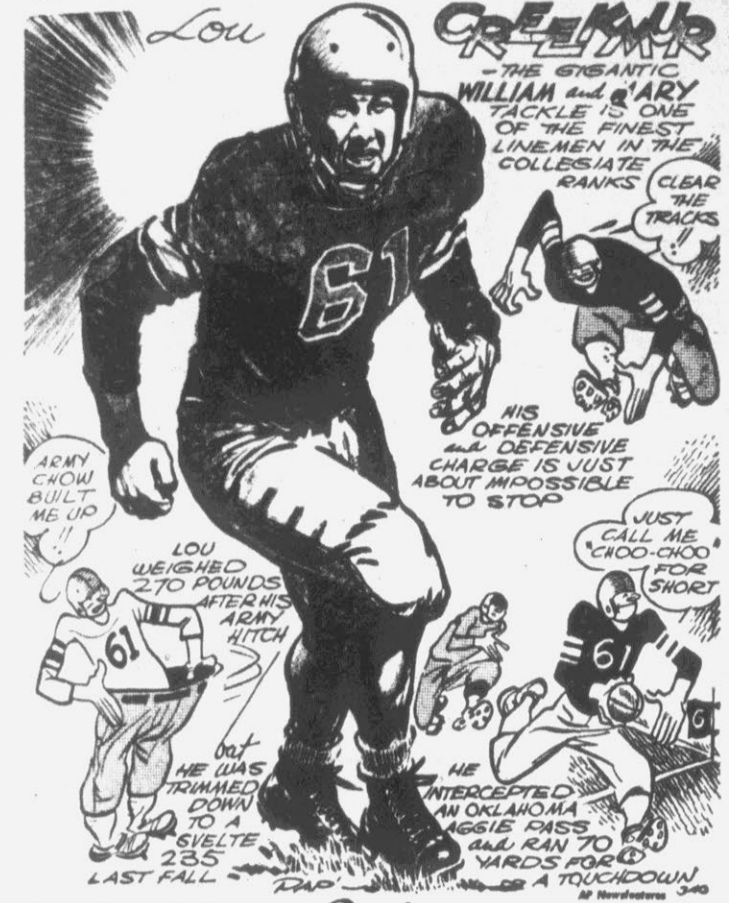

From New York, Newark and Trenton, N. J., there will be 22 specials at five minute intervals from 8:40 a. m. to 10:45 a. m. (EST).

The railroad said two or three additional specials may be placed in service if conditions warrant. The special trains will include 56 locomotives, 324 coaches, 37 dining cars and 154 Pullman cars.

This is the bread and butter year for me," says Lou Creekmur, the giant William and Mary tackle who is rounding out his varsity career in such spectacular fashion. "I want to play for the pros and you don't get signed unless you play their brand of ball. They like 'em rough and tough. They want colorful players who want to win, and I'm doing all I can to prove myself a good prospect."

Creekmur entered William & Mary in 1944 as a tall, rangy youngster weighing 190 pounds. He played one year for the Indians and then went off to serve in the army. When he returned, the Woodbridge, N. J. giant tipped the scales at a potent 270 pounds. His size promised to make him a strong threat for a varsity berth but practice sessions quickly revealed that he had slowed down considerably. Conscientious Lou trimmed down to 235 last season and has maintained that weight since. Not only did he regain his speed of old, but he developed an offensive and defensive charge that is well nigh unstoppable.

Lou is a handsome, laid and very much of a favorite with his fellow students. His tremendous size makes him stand out in any crowd and many a tiny freshman stands in awe of the big boy after appearing on the cover of Southern fashion magazine as a well-dressed college student. He was jokingly called "Coco-choo" by Coach Rube McCray, calls him the best man in the William and Mary line.

Appalachian Wins Second Place In Conference Race

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS

Appalachian grabbed second place in the North State conference with a 34-0 football victory over Atlantic Christian during the weekend.

It was the sixth straight conference triumph for Appalachian's defending champions after two league losses.

Western Carolina Teachers, who have won the championship by sweeping the only four league games on their schedule, lost a 27-26 thriller to unbeaten Emory and Henry. In the closing moments the Teachers carried the ball to the one-foot line but couldn't put it across.

Lenoir-Rhyne took over third place with a 19-7 victory over Elon. The losers dropped to fourth.

Catawba, after losing a four straight, came back with a 19-12 decision over Guilford. The tri-decision over Guilford.

Five of the nine clubs finish their season this weekend. Wofford is at High Point Friday night. Saturday games pair East Carolina at Atlantic Christian, Appalachian at Morris-Harvey and Carson-Newman at Western Carolina Teachers.

After that only two more games remain, both on Thanksgiving day. Elon meets Guilford in Greensboro and Catawba is at Lenoir-Rhyne.

Charles of Lenoir-Rhyne leads in individual scoring with 54 points. Next in order come Coble of Catawba 48, McConnell of WCTC 44, and Bryson of Appalachian and Benzie of ECTC, each 42.

Nat'l Football Records Broken

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Two National Football records were broken and two others tied in league action yesterday.

The Chicago Cardinals linked the New York Bulldogs 65 to 20, scoring the highest number of points ever made by one team in a single game. The old mark was 64 points scored by the Philadelphia Eagles against Cincinnati on Nov. 6, 1941.

The Cards also made 32 first downs, erasing the mark of 31 in one game made by the New York Giants against Pittsburgh on December 5, 1948.

COMEBACK JOCKEY—Nick Wall, 41, winner of two Santa Anita Handicaps, is back at Tanforan track, Cal. He suffered twelve broken ribs and punctured lungs in a 1946 spill.

Ohio State And California May Clinch Bowl Bids

New York, Nov. 14.—(AP)—It's bowl plucking time again in college football and two of the juiciest post-season plums may be grabbed off this week at Ann Arbor, Mich., and Palo Alto, Calif.

Ohio State will meet Michigan, the defending titlist, for the big ten championship at Ann Arbor. Unbeaten, United California will play improved Stanford at Palo Alto in the Pacific Coast leadliner.

If both prevail in these important tests, the Buckeyes and Bears can start making traveling plans for Pasadena's Rose Bowl.

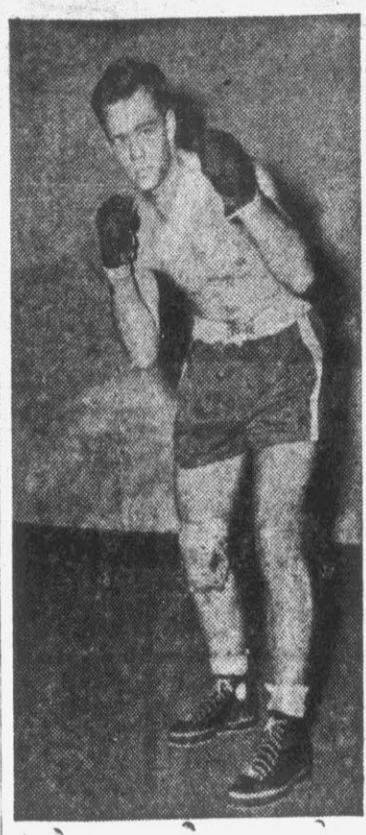

Only a bit of additional light is expected to be thrown on the other main New Year's fixtures Saturday as the slap-happy season swings into the homestretch.

Pressure of the autumn grind continued to take its toll last week-end, with these important developments: beat-g:

1. Cornell, Boston University and Wyoming, were dumped from the ranks of the major 11-teen-united teams, leaving only six in the select list: Notre Dame, Army, Oklahoma, California, Virginia and College of the Pacific.
2. Sixth-ranked Cornell and eighth-placed Michigan State saw their places in the trust net imperiled by upsets.
3. Top-rated Notre Dame, held to even terms for a half, exploded for four touchdowns in the final quarter to smother North Carolina, 42-6; while Army, No. 2 in the Associated Press rankings, barely squeezed past Pennsylvania, 14-13.

Buccaneer Boxers Slated For Elimination Bouts Here

Changes Style

The Old Dominion Dynamo, Ken Stargardt, will change his ring tactics Wednesday night when he tangles with former Golden Gloves scrapper Bob Bailey. Stargardt, who slugged to a 4-1 record last season, will resort to scientific boxing this year, coaches report.

By EUGENE PRICE

East Carolina's Buccaneer boxers will make their initial appearance of the year here Wednesday night when the college hold sits elimination match.

Boxing Instructor Johnny Long, former professional fighter of note, announced today that 10 bouts, including eight fights between regular boxing team pugilists will get underway at Wright auditorium at 7:30 Wednesday.

A record crowd for an elimination match is expected to invade the auditorium as Long unveils his 1949-50 charges which will include a number of fighters with outstanding records.

With the exception of three boys, all of last year's team will probably see action in the eliminations. Paul Hansell, Henry Bruton, and Marshall Baines, who fought with the Bucs last year, will not see action Wednesday.

One of the feature bouts of the elimination will be an exhibition fight between Redwan David, last year's undefeated co-captain of the Bucs, and Crowell Williamson, the Golden Gloves sensation from Whiteville.

Williamson, an 18-year old, is Long's leading candidate for a berth on the Bucs fighting squad this season.

Top in interest is the scheduled bout between Co-captain Ken Stargardt and former Golden Gloves fighter Bob Bailey. Fans here are looking forward to seeing the new Stargardt in action since an early season announcement reported that the Richmond, Virginia, slugger had resorted to scientific boxing.

Last year Stargardt slugged his way into the hearts of local fans by scoring wins in his first four encounters.

Tagged as one of the top fighters on the elimination card is the bout between Charlie Edwards and Cecil Phillips. Edwards was one of the Bucs more outstanding battlers last season and is reported by Coach Long as being highly improved this year. Phillips, a newcomer from Jacksonville, was for two years state champion of Florida and was runnerup in the European Theatre while serving in the army.

Jack Amyette will see his last fight with the Bucs when he tangles with Homer Thomas in a 135 pound scrap. Amyette will give up boxing after the fight, Long said. Cleon Smith and Harvey Stull, both of whom were standouts with last year's team, will be featured in an exhibition fight.

Officials are still looking for an opponent for Bruce (Boo Boo) Jones, the Portsmouth, Va., slugger who won two and lost one last year. Long is also conducting a somewhat vain search to find a 115 pound opponent for Billy Reams.

Rounding out the evening card's will be at least two non-team matches. Long reported that Al (Mangler) Morris, the boy who was featured in a wrestling match last year, will put on the gloves with Harold Blake, a rugged fighting freshman from Camp Lejeune.

Joe Jacobs and Linwood Alexander will be featured in another non-team classic.

Kramer Captures Two-Hour Duel

Baltimore, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Veteran Jack Kramer and young Pancho Gonzales staged a slam-bang professional tennis duel before some 3,000 Baltimoreans last night with Kramer finally winning, 6-3, 0-6, 19-17.

The victory in the two-hour-plus contest gives Kramer an 11-3 edge in their four series.

Peace Prospects In Holy Land Regarded 'Dim'

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Seven top Arab diplomats presented a note to the State Department today saying "prospects for peace are dim" in Palestine.

The Egyptian ambassador, acting as spokesman for the group told reporters afterward that the Israeli government has "flouted United Nations resolutions" on the Palestine problem and has "withdrawn its cooperation from the United Nations Conciliation Commission."

The ambassador, Mohamed Kamil Abdu Rahim, was asked whether he expects hostilities to break out anew in the Holy Land.

"One can't tell at the moment," he replied.

Continues Tops As Grid Scorer

New York, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Although Brad Rowland failed to pick up a point for little McMurry College of Abilene, Tex., in Friday's 27-6 victory over Howard Payne, the hustling halfback remains the top individual scorer of college football.

Rowland has 108 points in nine games, thanks to 18 touchdowns. He holds an 11-point lead over his steady pursuer, Bill Young of unbeaten, untied Hillsdale (Mich.) whose total is 97 by virtue of 13 touchdowns and 19 conversions in eight games.

Louis Launches Exhibition Tour In Ten-Rounder

Boston, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis will launch another exhibition boxing tour in a scheduled 10-round bout with Boston's towering Johnny Shkor tonight at the Boston Garden.

Shkor made an impressive showing over the four-round distance against Louis here last year and while so doing he accidentally butted the Brown Bomber, Louis suffered a cut on his forehead that forced him to cancel several exhibition dates.

Now weighing 225, Louis continues to deny that this nation-wide tour means that he had serious intentions of regaining his former title.

"This bout with Shkor is going to be a real battle," Louis promised.

Move To Unseat Abe Greene As Commissioner

Miami Beach, Fla., Nov. 14.—(AP)—The National Boxing Association opened its annual convention today with an undercurrent movement to unseat Abe J. Greene as the national commissioner.

Some 150 delegates representing 80 member organizations—the largest representation in the NBA's history—will consider ring insurance for worn out fighters and standard manager-fighter contracts at the ebullient session today.

The entire group travels to Havana tomorrow to resume business sessions, elect officers and adjourn Wednesday.

Eddie W. Bohn, Denver, Colo., chairman of the Colorado Athletic Commission, is spearheading a movement to oust Greene on the grounds he has "grabbed too much publicity" during the past 10 years.

Chapter 26
How Kelly was downstairs. Martin said he refused to leave until he'd talked to her. And Arleta, after a little while, decided she might as well see him and have it over.
"You and your aunt have to leave for the Carsons' as of now," he ordered. "Someone took a pot shot at Cal as he rounded the lower driveway."
"I'm sorry it was Cal," Arleta said tonelessly, "but I'm not leaving. Not yet."
"Good heavens, don't you care what happens to you?"
Arleta stared at him a moment. "Not particularly." And then she changed. "Why, yes, I do care. I have some work to do before I'm run off. I can do it in town as well."
"Have you lost your senses?" Kelly roared at her. "What would Big Chips think to hear you talk like a nincompoop?"
"He'd understand you see. How I've just read a message he left. Big Chips did swindle the valley farmers out of their land. I think he didn't mean to. He was evidently gambling on something, taking a chance, and he wrote that that man Ace called his hand."
"Under the shaggy brows Kelly's eyes were the blue of the dam lake at midday. "Going to show me?" he asked.
"Why not?" She shrugged.
She brought the book down and the paper upon which she had deciphered the message. And suddenly Kelly's head went up as though he were hearing something beyond her ken.
"Come on; hop up and pack a bag and get your aunt ready. You're getting out of here!"
Arleta, silent with grief the rest of the way to the city, was surprised.

Baby's Ailment Proves Fatal Despite Effort
Chicago, Nov. 12—(AP)—Born with weak muscles, Susan Joy Pershall, baby of a Marine corporal, died today of pneumonia.
Susan, seven and one-half months old, was flown to the suburban Great Lakes hospital October 25 for treatment of a muscular disease complicated by pneumonia.
Her father, Marine Cpl. Bobby Dean Pershall, 25, asked for a transfer to the Great Lakes naval training station from Camp Lejeune, N. C., after doctors there said Susan's case "was hopeless."
Navy doctors at Great Lakes explained that Susan Joy suffered since birth from a congenital lack of muscle tone and strength and that while this is not fatal, it usually invites pneumonia.
"Her condition," a navy doctor said, "was incompatible with life."

TB Bond Sale Drive For Pitt County Opens Today

The 1949 Pitt County Tuberculosis Bond Sale Drive opened today. J. W. Overton, chairman of the Personal Solicitation Committee, and his co-workers will serve those individuals and firms that may wish to contribute larger sums than the regular seal sale subscription.

While the greater percentage of Christmas Seals is purchased in smaller quantities through the mails, there are many firms and individuals which have already made requests for larger supplies of seals to be used on Christmas mailings.

During the past year, the TB Association spent approximately $3,000 for an X-ray machine which is installed and being used at the Pitt County Health Department. This summer, the mobile X-ray units were secured and 28,416 people in Greenville and Pitt County received free chest X-rays. The association's goal this year is $7,000.

Chairman Overton said today that he and his committee would visit a number of firms for personal solicitation within the next three weeks. Because of their generosity in former years, he added, he was confident of their full cooperation.

Watched Couple Walk Into Sea

Half Moon Bay, Calif., Nov. 14—(AP)—A middle-aged Belmont couple waded hand in hand to their deaths in the surf near here just at sunset yesterday. A score of horrified but helpless witnesses looked on.

The two were identified by San Mateo county deputy sheriffs as Myrtle M. Porter, 47, and Ted Yella, 50.

Quite A Brawl While It Lasted

Red Springs, N. C., Nov. 14—(AP)—It was quite a cafe brawl while it lasted, authorities reported.

They said a deputy sheriff was stomped, two other men also required medical treatment, three Fort Bragg soldiers were arrested and two others escaped.

Corp. William T. Gimpson of the State Highway patrol and sheriff Willis Britt of Robeson county said it all happened last night at the West Side cafe, operated by Ott Field. The cafe is about two miles west of Maxton on Route 71, the Belt Line road which runs through Robeson county and connects with U. S. 301.

The arrested soldiers were booked at the Red Springs jail as Dale Hendron, Kenneth Forey and Geo. Mosley.

Deputy sheriff Clarence E. Cottrell was in Baker sanatorium at Lumberton with head injuries described as serious.

Field was treated by a doctor.

Deputy Paul McQueen, Cottrell's partner, said that Neil Hughes of Parkton, a motorist who drove up to the cafe during the fight, was taken to a Maxton hospital with injuries received when the soldiers tried unsuccessfully to take his car keys.

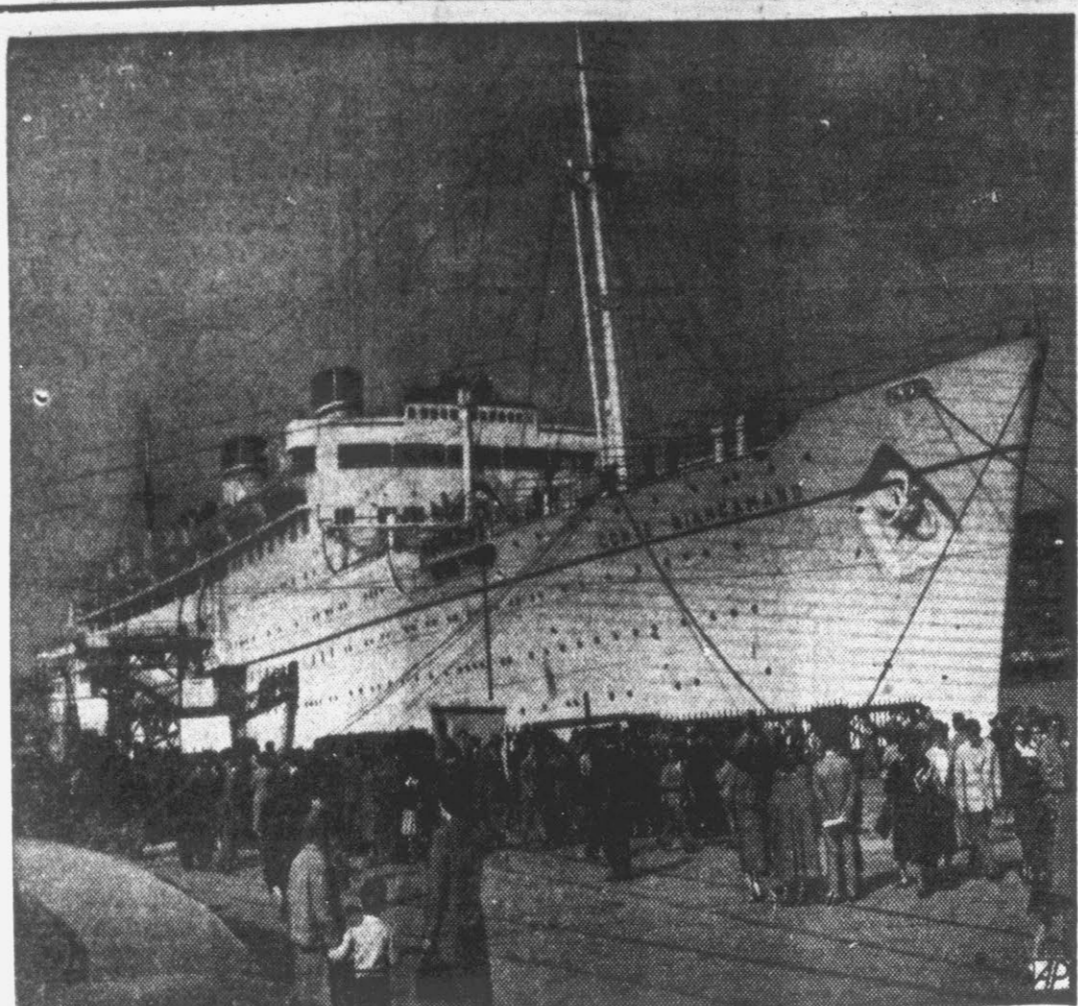

Cottrell's gun was found outside the car, all six bullets fired.

Mild Weather

The highest temperature in the Greenville area Sunday was 76 degrees; lowest last night was 45, and at 8 a.m. today it was 60 degrees. Highest temperature yesterday a year ago was 64 degrees.

Three inches of rain has fallen in this area this month, Mrs. Carl E. Maiden, local observer for the U.S. Weather Bureau, reported.

Dismantling . . .

Meanwhile, the U. S., Britain and France set up a new German Republic as one more step toward German recovery. Now Germans are protesting against further dismantling.

There have been protests in this country, too. Just before congress folded last month, 44 Senators, Democrats and Republicans, appealed to the State Department to call a halt.

State Department people say the French have not been very happy about suggestions that dismantling be stopped or trimmed in the country of her ancient enemy, Germany.

'Practical' . . .

Communist movement in China will soon lose its virility and unity as did the Nationalist Kuomintang phase of the Chinese revolution.

This means the Reds will have a long term, uphill job to do. It is precisely because of this that the Nationalist are hanging on until the last ditch is lost. They figure that industrialization will mean heavy taxation, and the Chinese peasant, already enduring a terribly low standard of living, cannot stand it. He is likely to revolt.

Therefore one of the biggest problems facing the Red regime will be how to secure the sinews for industrialization without squeezing the peasant. Observers believe the probabilities are that Russia won't be able to give the necessary industrial help. That means Communist chief Mao Tze-Tung will have to turn to the western nations.

The response of the west remains to be seen.

Ching Says . . .

may invoke the Taft-Hartley act which also provides for a fact board but one without power to make any recommendations. The big factor in favor of using the labor law's emergency provisions is that it also calls for seeking an 80-day injunction, which would keep the miners in the pits until late January under court order.

Lewis has defied courts back to work orders on two occasions in recent years, and they cost him and the union $2,130,000 in contempt fines—upheld by the Supreme Court. The reasoning goes he would hardly jeopardize the union's treasury by refusing to obey another of the Taft-Hartley injunctions, in the opinion of government labor advisers.

The latest fine, $1,420,000, was to be paid by the union in district court today.

While the operators were publicly lukewarm to Lewis' peace overtures, there was no guarantee that some behind-the-scenes activity was not under way.
