

Local Production Value Sharply Up

Value Of Manufactured Goods In Excess Of Cost, Produced In Greenville, Tripled In Eight Years Says Dept. Of Commerce Report

The value added by manufacture of goods produced in manufacturing establishments of Greenville has increased by approximately $3,136,000 since before the war, according to information received here from C. Parker Persons, regional director of the U. S. Department of Commerce in Atlanta.

A Census Bureau report from its 1947 Census of Manufacturers shows, Mr. Persons said, that in 1939 the value added by manufacture of goods produced by manufacturers of Greenville was $1,422,000 and that in 1947 it was $4,558,000. The term "value added by manufacture" means the value of manufactured goods in excess of the cost of materials and supplies, the Commerce Department official explained.

Most branches of Greenville's manufacturing industries have grown correspondingly in the eight year period, it was stated. The number of establishments engaged in manufacturing operations has increased from 18 in 1939 to 27 in 1947, the number of employees from 404 to 1,310, and salaries and wages paid from $244,253 to $2,391,000.

The Census Bureau report, copies of which are available at the United States Department of Commerce offices in Atlanta and Charleston, S. C., at 20 cents a copy, also reflects the rapid strides made by North Carolina industrially since before the war. For example, the value added by manufacture of goods produced in the State as a whole increased by more than a billion dollars since 1939, going from a valuation of $544,181,000 in that year to $1,646,673,000 in 1947. Also, the number of establishments engaged in manufacturing operations has grown from 3,225 in 1939 to 5,322 in 1947, the number of employees from 294,314 to 381,490, and salaries and wages paid from $246,834,206 to $756,895,000.

Autos Damaged In Collision; Drivers Unhurt

Two cars were considerably damaged when they collided Monday on the Farmville highway, near the intersection of Dickinson Avenue.

Police investigating the wreck reported that a car driven by Louis May, 30-year-old farmer of near Greenville, entered the highway from the left and collided with the car driven by Luman K. Morgan, 35, farmer of near Snow Hill.

Estimated damage to May's car was about $300; Morgan's car about $100. Police Officer H. F. Lawson, who investigated the crash, made no arrest. He understood that the drivers would settle their own damages.

Newspaper Carrier Robbed Early Today

William Cherry, Negro carrier boy for the Daily Reflector reported to Greenville police today that he was held up and robbed by two masked Negro men between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning while on his way to the newspaper office.

Police quoted Cherry as saying that the two men drove up in a Chevrolet car, held him up at the point of a gun and robbed him. The boy told police the men told him not to turn around and look at them and that the car drove off in the same direction he was going. He immediately reported the case to police.

Status Of Manchuria

Does The Peiping Regime Headed By General Mao Tze Tung Have Control Over The Area Where Angus Ward Is Being Tried; Maybe Not; Likely Soviet Zone

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

The world is informed indirectly through a Mukden, Manchuria, newspaper that the Communist People's Court expects to reach a final decision shortly in the case of American Consul General Angus Ward, who is imprisoned in Mukden with four of his staff on a charge of beating a Chinese employe in the consulate.

This comes on the heels of Washington's unprecedented request to thirty nations, including Soviet Russia, to join in bringing pressure on the Chinese Red regime to free Ward and his colleagues. Obviously it could mean that the Mukden People's Court has been ordered to get a quick decision so as to render it unnecessary for Moscow to respond to any action which may result from the United States' appeal.

If this concerted maneuver eventuates, it may put the spotlight on a highly interesting situation. In the first place, the U. S. suggestion is that the request regarding Ward be directed to the Chinese Communist regime in Peiping, headed by General Mao Tze Tung. This brings from Chinese Nationalist quarters the remark that the Peiping government has no control

PTA Council Of County Reviews Health Program

Chairman Of State Board Of Health Cites Increased Appropriations

Approximately 55 parents and principals representing all the white schools in Pitt County met in the lunchroom of the Grimesland school Monday night to discuss with state health and school officials the public health program for the Pitt County schools.

Mrs. Obed Castello, president of the county PTA council, presided at the meeting and Mrs. J. P. Davenport Sr. had charge of the program.

Dr. Grady Dixon of Ayden, chairman of the state board of health, reviewed for the principals and parents the efforts which have been made in the state General Assembly to obtain a better public health program for the schools of the state. He pointed out that the appropriation which was made during the last legislative session gave Pitt County $5,705 from the general appropriation above what the county has been receiving.

Wholesale Food Price Index Up

New York, Nov. 23—(AP)—The Dun and Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week advanced to $5.74 from $5.68 the previous week, but was still 1.0 per cent below the year-ago level of $6.38.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of a pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Big City Feels Drought Effect

New York, Nov. 23—(AP)—The nation's most heavily populated area is facing the severest drought in years.

Water rationing is being considered in parts of the metropolitan region where more than 10,000,000 people live.

And public officials warn that unless consumption drops, some people will get no water at times

Riot In Panama Over Presidential Claims

Panama, Panama, Nov. 23—(AP)—Two men claimed the presidency of Panama today after a wild night of rioting in which one child was killed and 11 wounded.

Police gunfire smashed a near-revolt as Dr. Daniel Chavis Jr., forced to resign as president Sunday in a national police coup, led thousands of supporters in a march on the presidential palace in an attempt to regain power.

Inside the palace behind police guards was Roberto Chari, former vice president who was sworn in as president after Chavis bowed to a police ultimatum and resigned. He insisted he would sit tight and remain president.

National police, who are Panama's only armed force, dispersed the marchers with machinegun bullets, rifle fire and tear gas.

The demonstrators had rallied through Chavis as he dramatically strode into a session of the National Assembly and declared: "I withdraw my resignation." He flung the letter to the floor and insisted he still was the constitutional president of Panama.

The 58-year-old surgeon-politician, who had served as president only four months until he was ousted by Police Chief Col. Jose Remon, then led a crowd of demonstrators that grew to thousands as they passed through the streets.

In Cathedral Plaza, a block from the presidential palace, helmeted police opened fire. For two hours rioting flared at a hot pitch. Six buses were overturned. Windows of fashionable shops were smashed and looting broke out.

Hoodlums Missed Fortune Hidden By Aged Recluse

Valleyfield, Que., Nov. 23—(AP)—Everybody thought the 77-year-old recluse, J. Baptiste Drouin, had a fortune hidden away in his farmhouse.

Two hoodlums went out to the place where he lives with his invalid sister.

They beat him up and searched through the house, hampered by the fact there were no electric lights.

Finally they found what they were looking for—an old wooden bucket. But the one they fled with had only some worthless personal papers in it.

The two other old wooden buckets they left behind contained $100,000 in cash.

Cutting Classes Will Cost Money

Chapel Hill, Nov. 23—(AP)—Students of North Carolina universities who cut classes today or next Monday will have to pay through the pocketbooks. The idea behind the plan is to keep students from extending the Thanksgiving holiday.

The committee of Deans said a fine of $2.50 a class up to $7.50 would be imposed on students missing classes today or Monday.

Bridges' Lawyer Narrowly Misses Quick Jail Term

Judge Orders Jail Sentence For Contempt But Allows Him Finish Trial

San Francisco, Nov. 23—(P)—With Harry Bridges taking a back seat, almost forgotten amid the tumult, the Longshore leader's attorney in his perjury trial yesterday drew six months for criminal contempt of court.

The lawyer narrowly missed having to go to jail immediately.

Federal Judge George B. Harris imposed the jail sentence on attorney Vincent Hallinan after a bitter scathing exhortation in the like of which probably never had been paraded in local federal court history.

The judge ordered the colorful and stormy figure of the San Francisco bar taken into custody immediately. But he later relented and granted a stay to permit Hallinan to continue to represent Bridges for the duration of the trial.

Although Hallinan was granted a stay of sentence, he probably will have to serve it once the case has been decided. Judge Harris' original order also directed that Hallinan's name be stricken from the roll of attorneys in his court.

His face dark with anger, the judge raked Hallinan over the coals for "improper" and "inflammatory" conduct during the first week of the trial.

He decided to stay the sentence only after urgent pleas by Hallinan's associate, James MacInnis, and after Bridges himself had expressed doubt he would get "a square deal" if he had to change counsel. Bridges wanted the case put over until Hallinan would be available.

It would have marked the second time that Bridges had to get a new attorney in this case. Richard Gladstein, who usually represents the Union leader, withdrew as counsel after receiving a six-month contempt sentence in New York, where he served as counsel for the defendants in the Communist trial.

Boy Is Returned After 80-Mile Panic Flight

Springfield, Vt., Nov. 23—(P)—A terror-stricken boy who fled 80 miles in panic after killing his young brother with a rifle ball returned home today in custody of his father.

Forrest Priest, 16, was picked up last night in a Northampton, Mass., bowling alley—cold and hungry.

Northampton police sergeant Charles Rice quoted the boy as saying the shot that killed his brother Kenneth, 14, was discharged accidentally while he was examining a .22 calibre rifle.

The shooting occurred in the dining room of their lonely farmhouse while their father, a machinist, was at work.

Convinced that the boy was telling the truth, Northampton authorities turned him over to his father.

Holiday

In keeping with its custom, the Daily Reflector will not issue a paper Thursday—Thanksgiving Day. The paper will resume publication Friday.

Thanksgiving Day will be generally observed as a holiday. The banks, business places, postoffice, county, city and federal offices will be closed.

Report New Successes In Fighting Common Cold

Chicago, Nov. 23—(P)—One of the anti-influenza drug laws on the market was used successfully in curing and preventing colds in tests made on volunteer patients, two researchers have disclosed.

The drug, known medically as Neohetrinam, is for public sale without prescription under the trade name Anabest. The researchers said their 100 per cent success for cures was possible only when the drug was given within 48 hours after the onset of a cold. It was of no value when a cold had reached the full-blown stage, they said.

The experiments were conducted by Dr. Charles C. Sweet, medical director of Sing Sing prison and Dr. Joseph J. Armino, assistant on

Reach Agreement Over Easing German Control

Bonn, Germany, Nov. 23—(P)—West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has accepted proposals by the three allied high commissioners to relax occupation controls.

Agreement was reached last night after three lengthy meetings to set into motion ideas adopted two weeks ago by the Big-Three foreign ministers for improving Germany's economy and including at least the Western zones into the European family of nations once again.

Details of the agreement were not disclosed. They will be made public some time to come.

Adenauer, however, already has announced that the Western occupa-

Seven Senators Say 'Convinced' Europe Is Saved

Credit Marshall Plan With Stopping Communism; One Eases Criticism

Paris, Nov. 23—(P)—Seven U. S. Senators said today they are convinced the Marshall plan has saved western Europe from Communism.

"I am encouraged by what we have seen and will so report to the Senate," said Senator Filer Thomas (D-Okla.) chairman of the Senate appropriations committee which the forces represents.

Thomas told a news conference "I am proud of the people of Europe for trying to stand on their own feet." He had some words of praise for Sweden which he had earlier criticized for being inhospitable to his country.

"Sweden" he said "is in the best financial condition of any country in the world, to my knowledge. In the United States we have a vast national debt and a vast budget. The Swedish people are going forward and making great progress."

When a Swedish newspaper reporter at the conference asked him to explain a statement made in Vienna last week that "Sweden is just out for some easy money," Thomas replied:

"All countries are out for easy money, and any money they can get from United States taxpayer is easy money."

He repeated his Vienna statement that "Sweden is very suspicious of anybody in uniform as a possible spy."

Other members of the Senatorial party are Democrat Dennis Chavez of New Mexico, John L. McClellan of Arkansas, Burton K. Maybank of South Carolina, Willie Robertson of Virginia, and Republican Edward T. Hyde of Minnesota.

In brief statements to the reporters each of the Senators agreed that their tour of Europe had been "gratifying in that we discovered the great amount of good that has been done with the U. S. taxpayer's money."

The Senators have visited all of western Europe and leave tomorrow for a two weeks tour of England before sailing for home early in December. They are to visit French Premier Georges Bidault today.

Some Disregard Political 'No' By Eisenhower

Washington, Nov. 23—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's latest thumbs-down on a Presidential candidacy found about as many believers as cynics in Washington today.

Eisenhower told reporters at Cincinnati yesterday that he is devoting all of his time to his job as president of Columbia University and has no intention of seeking political office.

Politicians willing to take 'the General at his word' argued that Eisenhower seems to be pursuing the course least likely to win him a nomination by repeating this statement.

Cynics contended that the General's words left him open to a possible draft by the Republican National convention in 1952.

Union Services On Thanksgiving Day Scheduled

The offering will be divided among the sponsoring churches for the support of orphan homes.

No Recognition

New York, Nov. 23—(P)—Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky announced today Russia no longer recognizes the Chinese Nationalist delegation as the spokesman for China in the United Nations.

This means that the Soviet Union will not consider the Chiang Kai-Shek regime as a proper member of the Security Council. Where China shares the right of veto with the other big powers—Russia, the United States, Britain and France.

Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister, told the United Nations assembly he fully supports last week's message from the Chinese Red saying the present Chinese U. S. delegation cannot speak for China.

"We will not regard the Kuomintang delegation as representatives of China," Vishinsky said.

Ban Reversed

Raleigh, Nov. 23—(AP)—A court order banning so-called rump sales in the Rocky Mount tobacco market was reversed by the State Supreme Court today.

The order banning the sales was signed by Superior Court Judge J. Paul Frizzelle several weeks ago. It prohibited sales of tobacco this year without an adequate set of buyers being present.

The order was obtained by the Bright Belt Warehouse Association, an organization of warehousemen in the five states which grow flue-cured tobacco.

The association brought the action to force Rocky Mount warehousemen to obey an association regulation requiring the presence of an adequate set of buyers before tobacco could be sold.

The department announced today that it had received word of the release from Ward himself. It was the first direct word from the Consul General in a month.

In winding up what the department has denounced as their "barbaric" treatment of Ward, the Communists gave him a trial before a "People's court."

This court found them all guilty and meted out varying prison sentences. Then the sentences were commuted to deportation.

Ward, 36 year old veteran diplomat, made his report in a telephone conversation with American Consul General O. Edmund Clubb at Peiping. Clubb rushed the information to Washington.

Ward said that the other four men and he were "up and about." The state department instructed Clubb to tell Ward "that he and his entire staff are to depart from Mukden forthwith."

The four jailed with Ward were Ralph Rehberg, Rochester, N. Y., a Foreign service clerk; Shiro Tatsumi, a mechanic; and two European employees of the consulate, Franco Cicogna and Alfred Kristan, Rehberg and Tatsumi are American citizens.

In Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. Edward J. Rehberg, mother of Rehberg, greeted the news with "isn't that just wonderful."

Her first word of her son's release came in a telephone call from the state department.

There was no explanation here as to what kind of transportation from Mukden might be given the Consul staff.

American officials had hopefully looked for some "break" in the case since last week for concerted pressure by 30 nations on the Communists. Acheson asked the 30 nations to express their concern to the Chinese Communists.

Official hopes for their easy release were based on (1) precedents in Communist Eastern Europe where officials and others have been charged with such crimes as spying and then expelled and (2) the belief that the Chinese Communists have won all the domestic propaganda advantages they can hope for. They have dramatized their point that Americans are discredited backers of the defeated Nationalists and can look for no special privileges from the new Red Regime.

Consul General Ward

A Climax Is Building Up Around The Arrest And Treatment Of An American Consul General In China; Here Is The Background On Whatever Will Happen

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 23—(P)—The climax may come in the case of Angus Ward.

He's the 56-year-old American Consul General at Mukden, China. For a month the Communists have held him and four members of the consulate staff in jail.

No American has been allowed to see them or talk with them, although food and clothing have been sent into them. How they've been treated is no one knows.

Here is the background for whatever happens.

Unlike Ambassadors and Ministers who work on a high diplomatic level, the job of an American consul like Ward is largely looking after trade, shipping, things like that.

And, unlike Ambassadors and Ministers who can't be jailed in a Foreign country because they have what is called "Diplomatic Immunity," a Consul can be jailed for an offense.

American Consul Released From Jail By Communists After He And Four Others Found 'Guilty' Of Beating Two Chinese

Washington, Nov. 23—(P)—Angus Ward, the American Consul General at Mukden, has been released from jail by the Chinese Communists and ordered out of the country.

The Communists also released four Consul staff who were jailed with Ward Oct. 24 on what the state department called "trumped up" charges of beating and insulting two Chinese in a wage dispute.

The department announced today that it had received word of the release from Ward himself. It was the first direct word from the Consul General in a month.

In winding up what the department has denounced as their "barbaric" treatment of Ward, the Communists gave him a trial before a "People's court."

Just 300 Short In Membership Drive By Bureau

The Pitt County Farm Bureau membership drive is just 300 short of its 3,000 goal, Bureau President W. A. Allen announced today and urged campaign leaders to make a last effort to put the drive over the top by next Tuesday.

The drive is scheduled to come to a close next Tuesday with the meeting of the O'Neal party club in the county agriculture building.

At the Tuesday night meeting, campaign workers who have written 10 memberships including their own will have a chance of being selected to attend the National Farm Bureau convention in Chicago December 12-15.

Youth Fellowship Thanksgiving Play

Last Sunday afternoon, November 20, at 8:30, several members of the Youth Fellowship at the Immanuel Baptist Church here in Greenville presented a Thanksgiving play. The play, which took the place of the regular Sunday night program, was given before a large audience of students and leaders.

The title of the play was "Red Magic" and it dealt with Pilgrim life at the time of the first Thanksgiving. It brought out the faith of a white girl in her Indian friend and showed how the Indian was able to save the girl's father from a horrible death and bring happiness to all.

The cast, which did an excellent portrayal of frontier life over three hundred years ago, in order of appearance, included: Patricia Williams, Historian; Mercy, a Pilgrim woman, Doris Edwards; Faith, a young girl, Helen Duncan; Beckette, a child, Joe Congleton; Elizabeth, a colonist, Mildred Stapleford; Chesborough, father of Faith, Milam Johnson; and Squanto, a friendly Indian, Norwood Taylor. The play was well received by those present.

State President Speaks Before Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary held its monthly meeting on Monday afternoon, November 21, at 3:30, at the home of Mrs. James Worsley.

Before the business meeting the guests were invited into the dining room where they were served hot coffee, cake, sandwiches, nuts and mints by Mrs. W. R. Jones and the assisting hostesses.

The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. G. L. Winders. Reports of the secretary-treasurer and various committees were heard and approved. It was reported that cigarettes had been sent to our boys in the hospitals for Thanksgiving. Gifts from the Veterans Gift Shop at Swannanoa had been sent, and other gifts are to be sent later to the Gift Shop at Fayetteville hospital. Mrs. G. A. Taylor, chairman of the hospitality committee, read several notes of thanks to the Auxiliary.

One member that was missed by everyone, especially the writer, was Mrs. Frank Taylor, who was absent due to illness.

Mrs. Wiley Brown thanked the committee and Mrs. Frank Taylor for their kindness to the Gold Star Mothers on Armistice Day.

A motion was passed to send $10 monthly to Fayetteville hospital to be used according to their needs.

Mrs. Arthur Corey introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. John A. Ward, Williamson, N. C., State Department president of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Ward brought a splendid message of the activities and accomplishments of the American Legion Auxiliary. She praised the Greenville unit for the great work they are doing. She told the Auxiliary of her visits to Oteen, Swannanoa, and Fayetteville hospitals, and how we of the Auxiliary are helping the boys to fight their way back to health. She especially mentioned the gift shops as a great morale builder. It gives each veteran the privilege of selecting and presenting gifts to each member of his family without cost or worry.

The assisting hostesses were: Mesdames Louis S. Harrison, Luther Bowling, L. G. Barnes, W. C. Eagles and Miss Kathleen Whichard.

Dr. Frank Speaks To End of Century Club

On November 22nd, Mrs. J. L. Fleming graciously entertained the End of the Century club at her home on Greene street. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. A. White. After the treasurer's report the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was voted to buy a Tuberculosis Seal.

After this interesting and informative discussion the hostess invited her guests into the dining room. Mrs. Fleming had carried out in detail the golden anniversary spirit. Her table, centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums, was lavish in refreshments, both delicious and artistic, reminding one indeed of the elaborate menus served in the early days of the End of the Century club.

After a pleasant social hour, books were distributed and the meeting adjourned. Guests for the day were Dr. Frank, Mrs. Fries, Mrs. Messick, Mrs. Key Brown, Mrs. J. K. Long, Miss Lewis and Miss Brogren.

New Breed Of Sheep Is Heading For Big Time

Chicago, Nov. 23—(AP)—A new American breed of sheep is heading for the big time at last.

Officials of the International Livestock Exposition announced today that for the first time the Montadale, under development for 17 years, will appear on the show's 50th anniversary entry list.

Worthington Brothers, Bowling Green, Mo., have entered a load of 50 head of Montadale fat lambs in the Carlot classes of the livestock classic which opens here Saturday.

The Montadale sheep was originated in Missouri by Clem C. Vehige of Foristell and E. H. Mattingly, St. Louis, now secretary-treasurer of the Montadale Sheep Breeders' Association which was organized in 1945.

After trials with various breeds, they crossed a Cheviot as the desirable sire with ewes of the Columbia, an older American-developed breed, and kept on crossing them until achieving the breed characteristics they were seeking.

Their goal was the ideal all-purpose farm sheep, one which would simultaneously produce both a high quality of wool and a large meat carcass.

They ended up with a sheep which looks like the Cheviot except it is heavier. It has a small head and a white, open face with no wool hanging over the eyes. Mattingly reports a flock of Montadales averages 12 to 13 pounds of light-shrinking long staple wool. The breed has no body wrinkles to make shearing difficult.

Most of the war damage having been repaired, Dunkerque has regained its pre-war rank as France's fourth busiest harbor.

While in Europe most starch is made from potatoes, over 90 percent of that manufactured in the United States is derived from corn.

Junior Woman's Club Bazaar Was Success

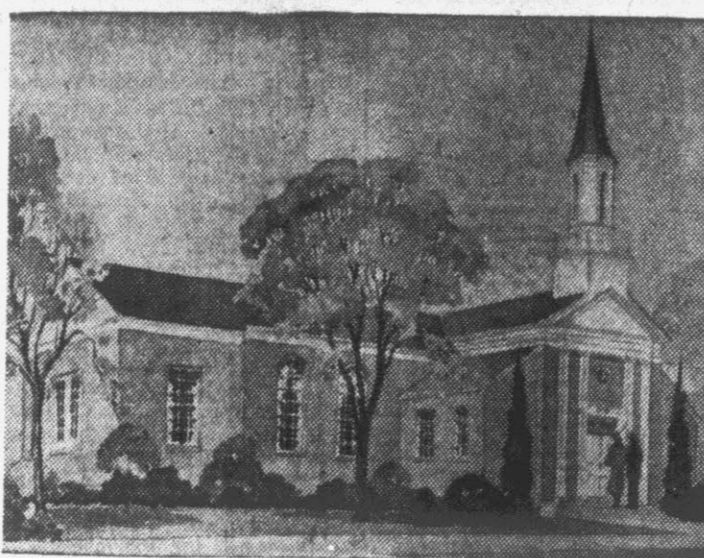

The Woman's club was the scene of a bazaar and parcel post sale Tuesday night. The packages were sold as they came through the mail. Charles Whedbee was auctioneer for special packages and did a wonderful job, doing his best for the Junior Club. Bidding was strong and the group was enthusiastic, giving quite a bit of entertainment for all present.

Mrs. Spencer Waters of Long Island, N. Y., guest of Mrs. John C. Clifford, Jr., was high bidder for the packages from the White House, Bing Crosby, Governor of Arizona, and the autograph of Bing Crosby. Mrs. J. C. Clifford, Jr., was high bidder for the package from the governor's mansion of North Carolina.

All cakes, cookies and candies unsold at the close of the bazaar were auctioned to the highest bidder.

A baked turkey was won by Mrs. L. Tyler of 408 E. 9th street. Home made cake and hot coffee was sold at the snack bar.

To Build $25,000 Chapel Here

Plans are under way for the erection of a $25,000 chapel here in Greenville, although the definite site has not yet been chosen for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. The local members who number about 100 in Pitt County have pledged themselves varying amounts toward the goal.

The chapel will not only serve as center for religious worship, but also will contain a recreational hall to provide opportunity for the youth of the church to enjoy themselves in wholesome recreational activities.

This building program, a church official stated, is in line with the general policy of the whole church, whose headquarters are located at Salt Lake City, Utah. Chapels were recently completed at Tarboro and Goldsboro.

Mrs. Johnson Hostess To Cosmos Book Club

The Cosmos Book club held its bi-monthly meeting on Tuesday, November 15, with Mrs. Sidney Johnson acting as hostess.

Following the delicious dessert course and the business session presided over by Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, Jr., the program was turned over to the hostess. Mrs. Johnson introduced Mrs. Tyson who presented an interesting and informative talk about flower arrangements and novel Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Tyson impressed the members with the thought that "flowers in the home, however inexpensive, make your home as well as your husband happier."

In addition to the book club members, Mrs. H. R. Munford and Miss Yvette Johnson were guests.

Mrs. Stroud Reviews Book Before Group

On Tuesday, November 22, the Literature Department met at the home of Mrs. L. A. Stroud. The living room was attractive with a big bowl of red roses in one corner, and in another, a tasteful arrangement of shells, their many delicate colors well brought out by sea-blue cotton backgrounds.

The dining table had a centerpiece of large pink shells and matching gladiolus blooms. These were set off by tall candelabra bearing delicate green tapers, glowing softly. The dainty sandwiches and cakes were delicious as always at Mrs. Stroud's.

Mrs. H. R. Phillips, vice-chairman, presided at a short business meeting. Mrs. Walter Krausnick urged all interested to help her, as International chairman, to make plans for an international study group so that we can keep up better with our rapidly changing world. Mrs. Krausnick can be reached at Wilson Hall, Phone 2110.

The motion was made and carried that at our next meeting, the Christmas meeting, a collection would be taken up to buy a Christmas Bond for the T.B. Association.

Mrs. W. H. Woodard announced that the next meeting would be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, December 17 at the Woman's Club. There will be Christmas music and everyone is to bring a little gift for an exchange.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Stroud who reviewed "Strange Sea Shells and Their Stories" by A. Hyatt Verrill, a book written for the layman to stimulate interest in shells. But it was Mrs. Stroud's own enthusiasm and thorough understanding of her subject and her own lovely and varied collection of shells, which she passed around to illustrate her remarks, that made her talk so interesting as well as enlightening.

We were happy to welcome Mrs. W. Jesse Moye of Farmville as a new member of the Literature Department.

Guests were Mrs. Richard E. Hardaway and Mrs. T. E. Hooker.

Strength FOR THE DAY MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR Let us be thankful every day for what we have. We may not have much, but what we have is certainly more than many others have. We may bear heavy burdens, but someone else is bearing heavier ones. This is not a cause for rejoicing, but it is a cause for solemn thanksgiving that God has not burdened us beyond our ability to bear. We may not have what we want in life. Neither, by the grace of God, do we have to put up with certain other things that would rob life of all its brightness. The worst almost never happens. The mercy of God has dug a wide chasm between what is and what might have been. It is well to remember that the night is never so dark that it puts out the stars. We may not see the stars, but they are there. Trouble may hide them, but trouble never destroys them. It is the same with the love of God. Sorrow may cover the sky, calamity may hide God's shining countenance, but the love and power are there just the same. Even though we, for a time, cannot see them. Just as we do not lose faith in the existence of the stars because the storm clouds hide them, so we should not doubt the presence and love of God because sorrow for the time being has blotted Him out of our sky.

DAY OF THANKS Not even the most indifferent person can miss that briskness in the air — the spirit of anticipation and exhilaration shared by young and old alike. The season marks a time of the harvest's end and when growing things rest. We look back on the happier events of a year fast reaching its close; forgetful of brief sorrows, we are in a holiday mood. It is particularly fitting that at this time of the year we give thanks for the blessings we have known. Recent memories of the "good days" gone by lend hope and confidence to the meeting of the future. Our Day of Thanks is linked to tradition. The story of the Pilgrims is known to all — taught to us as children, told to our children, and will continue to be told for generations to come. We hope the spirit of that story will never die.

overseas relief. Our quota of two carloads of corn was 213 bushels. The amount contributed by the people of this township was about 375, lacking only about 50 bushels being twice the quota. The money, given by some in lieu of corn, was used to purchase corn locally, which was included in the above amount. There were some who promised corn that was not collected. Due to lack of time and facilities we were unable to reach everyone who promised to give. However that number was small, and we appreciate their willingness to help in this worthy effort. Particularly do we want to express our deep appreciation to those who gave of their time and efforts in soliciting the corn, and to the operators of the three corn shellers in Winterville Township for their very generous contribution in shelling the corn, and to others who furnished trucks and drivers for collecting and delivering the corn to the shellers and to the car in Greenville. To all of you we say "Thanks."

Around Capitol Square

By LYNN NISBET CO-ORDINATION—There is serious need for closer co-ordination of state and local government activities with respect to public roads. That is inescapable conclusion after nearly 200 cities and towns have presented their cases to the state municipal road commission. The municipalities are in desperate need of financial aid for street maintenance, but a lot of the dissatisfaction voiced by city officials gets back to ineffective co-ordination and co-operation between municipalities and state agencies in spending money that is available. The same situation arises frequently between officials, health and school boards. COMMISSIONS—When the state assumed full responsibility for county roads back in 1931, a good deal was said about the elimination of 100 county road commissions making for efficiency and economy in developing a state program. But it pointed out at one of the recent hearings that actually there are some 350 separate highway commissions, since every town board functions in that capacity with Somebody Told Me...

Believe it or not, I always do my level best to find something local to write about before doing a column like last night's, which was about the New York 11-year-old Artie Biggs, who took off for Hollywood to become a star. It was Artie's third attempt to get to film land, and the most successful of the failures. Previously he got 52 miles, but this time he got to St. Louis, flying from La Guardia Field to St. Louis on a TWA plane without a ticket, a feat that none of the previous respect to street work. Numerous instances were cited in which it was claimed that the state ignored local officials in allocating municipal aid funds for streets. A spokesman for the highway commission said he thought "the state does a lot of work in the towns that the local officials don't know about."

TRAFFIC CONTROL—Another point developed at the various public hearings held by the state municipal road commission is the tremendous cost of traffic control. This is in addition to first cost of providing streets and highways over which the traffic can move. Conservative estimates place the cost of such regulation at more than seven million dollars a year in North Carolina. Official figures compiled by the highway commission show that municipalities in North Carolina last year spent more than a million dollars for traffic policemen alone. That does not include signal lights, warning signs, cost of traffic courts and numerous other items, estimated to cost at least another million. STATE—The state highway patrol, drivers license and safety divisions of the motor vehicles department—all devoted to traffic control—have a current appropriation of about three and a half millions. Exact amounts is hard to determine, because in addition to specific appropriations for the three units directly related to traffic control a substantial part of the overall administrative cost of the department is for these services. Cost of construction and maintaining road signs and traffic signals, a considerable part of which is buried in general maintenance allocations, brings state spending for traffic regulation to something like five million dollars a year. Five million by the state, two millions by municipalities and substantial share of county law enforcement in traffic incidents, runs to an amazing total of seven millions or more for traffic regulation within the past five years and demand for more regulation increases by geometric progression. Those directly concerned with the problem will not be surprised if the total reaches ten million by the end of next year.

Disclose Design Of Giant Transport For Air Force

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 23—(AP)—The company that builds the mighty B-36 bomber disclosed today that it had designed a transportable to carry 100,000 pounds or 400 armed men from the East Coast to Western Europe without straining a rivet.

loads in both size and weight than any other aircraft now made or known to be planned. Convair delivered an XC-99 (X stands for experimental) to the Air Force earlier this year. The company estimated that 70 per cent of the C-99 parts would be common to the B-36 also. It was figured that all of the men in an airborne division, 17,000 could be moved simultaneously in 44 such transports.

More Chills For Eastern States

By the Associated Press
The eastern half of the country got more chilly weather today with freezing temperatures as far south as Florida.

The mercury dropped to below freezing in the interior sections of the eastern Gulf states and the cool belt extended over the entire Atlantic Seaboard.

Asheville, N.C., was one of the icy spots with a low of 16 degrees. Even Mt. Mitchell in the same area was not so cold—the low on the peak was 17.

Other Carolina lows included: Greensboro 24, Charlotte, Columbia, Raleigh and Spartanburg 26, and Charleston 41. Fair and warmer was the forecast for both states.

It was cold over most of the mid-west, too, with a fresh mass of cold air pushing into North Dakota and Minnesota from central Canada. The mercury dipped to 8 above at Pembina, N.D. It was a chilly 24 at Anniston, Ala.; 31 at Cross City, Fla., and an even 32 freezing at Tallahassee, Fla. Miami's early morning low was 54.

The still was hot when the officers arrived and showed signs of recent operation. 1200 gallons of sugar and cornmeal mash was destroyed with the still and other distilling equipment.

Wrestles Elk To Save Tennis Ball

Grand Junction, Colo.—(AP)—Claude Robinson, 19, chased a tennis ball and wound up wrestling a bull elk. The elk, long antlers tossing, charged the youth when he climbed into its enclosure at the Lincoln Park Zoo in quest of the stray ball.

Robinson grabbed the elk's horns near its head and hung on trying to dodge the sharp points. The elk battered him against the fence and had him pinned there, practically exhausted, when zoo attendants rescued him.

The youth was cut and bruised on the face and head. But after all, he explained, that ball cost 65 cents.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Nov. 23—(AP)—A distinguished looking gentleman walked into the crowded Klamath billiard hall, flashed a badge at two employees and said:

"This is it boys. Come along with me."

District attorney Dayton E. Van Vactor related last night that the visitor then picked up the pool hall's strong box containing $5,000 and led the puzzled employees, Bob Alexander, 20, and Grover Ward, 50, to the county courthouse.

There he told them to be seated outside Van Vactor's office. He asked Van Vactor if the city attorney and was directed down the corridor. With the strong box under his arm, he walked out of sight down the hall.

After a time, Alexander and Ward left their seats and asked the district attorney for an explanation. Then the search began.

Van Vactor said the man was traced to the airport—but that was the last seen of him and the $5,000.

Court Declines To Reopen Case

Raleigh, N.C., Nov. 23—(AP)—The State Supreme Court has declined to reopen the case of Allen T. Reid, 36-year-old Wilson Negro, sentenced to die for first-degree burglary.

The court confirmed yesterday its earlier opinion upholding the death penalty. The order automatically sets the execution date for Dec. 9.

Reid's only hope now lies in the possibility of Governor Scott commuting his sentence or granting him a reprieve.

Reid was convicted in Wilson Superior Court last December on evidence that he entered the home of Mrs. J. T. Barnes of Wilson Sept. 2, 1948.

His case first came before the State Supreme Court last June. When the lower court's judgment was upheld, Reid's attorneys filed an appeal with the U.S. Supreme Court.

His counsel contended Negroes "were and have been systematically excluded" from Wilson County trial juries. The federal court recently refused to review the case.

In the petition for reconsideration, Reid's attorneys claimed that Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn, who presided at the Wilson trial, failed to instruct the jury it could bring back a first degree verdict with a recommendation that the death sentence be reduced to life imprisonment.

Postman's False Fear Paid Off

Washington—(AP)—A postman noticed a car parked along his route. Thinking it might contain a postal inspector, he kept a close eye on it.

Later he heard of a robbery in the area. Remembering the car, and its license number, he told police about it. The clue resulted in the arrest of the robber.

Newly-Elected Pitt 4-H Officers

He 'Fixed' The Burglar Alarm

Tokyo, Nov. 23—(AP)—Kazuro Fujii hired Yoshikane Nakamoto to install a burglar alarm in his house.

But Fujii's house was burglarized anyway. Undisturbed by any alarm, he slept soundly while a thief made off with all his clothing.

Tokyo police went to work. They nabbed the burglar.

It was Nakamoto. He told officers he had failed to rig the alarm so he could loot Fujii's home undisturbed.

Quail Season To Open Nov. 24th

By CHESTER WALSH
Thanksgiving Day—November 24—marks the beginning of the open season for hunting quail, rabbits and turkeys.

District Game and Fish Protector J. O. Teel today warned hunters and sportsmen about the state game laws. All hunters are required to have licenses.

The daily bag limit on quail is eight birds. Seven rabbits is the bag limit. The bag limit on wild turkeys is one gobbler. The law prohibits the shooting of turkey hens.

The season for hunting quail ends January 10. The season for hunting rabbits and turkeys ends January 31, the district game and fish protector stated.

The N. C. Wildlife Resources Commission has ruled that there are no "lay days" in Pitt county.

The open season for hunting wild duck and geese starts November 29 at noon and ends January 7. The bag limit for ducks is four birds a day. The daily bag limit on geese is two birds.

The bag limit on Coots, a small duck, is 15 birds a day.

The district game and fish protector warned hunters that it is against the state law to have more than one Wood Duck in any day's bag. The Wood Duck is one of the species that remains in the state all during the year and is given special protection under the wildlife laws.

Claude D. Ward of Greenville, new president of the Pitt County Chapter of the North Carolina Wildlife Association, said in an interview that the Wildlife Club is backing up the game and fish protectors in their enforcement work. He also suggested that hunters not trespass on land while hunting without permission of the owners.

"The farmers are doing much to conserve wildlife in Eastern Carolina and it is up to hunters and sportsmen to show their appreciation," President Ward added.

Lions To Bring UNC Glee Club Again To City

At a regular meeting of the Lions Club Tuesday night it was decided to sponsor the Glee Club of the University of North Carolina in another concert here. A letter was received by Dr. E. B. Aycock, who had charge of arrangements for last year's concert by the Glee Club, in which it was stated that the Glee Club as a whole voted that the audience in Greenville was one of the best that they played to during last year's season. Dr. Aycock was instructed by the Club to proceed with arrangements for another appearance of the Glee Club at Wright Auditorium, East Carolina Teachers College.

Several members of the Lions Club gave a brief history of their lives, including date of birth, schooling, activities, and present employment. This program was in furtherance of the policy established some time ago to enable each member to give this history, so that all members of the Lions Club would be more closely and better acquainted.

A fund was raised by individual subscription at the meeting, in the amount of $72.50, to help finance a trip of the Greenville High School band to the Carolina-Virginia game at Chapel Hill Saturday. This fund completed the amount necessary to enable the band to attend the game as a guest of the University of North Carolina.

U.S. Investment Abroad Is Found Over $15 Billion

Washington, Nov. 23—(AP)—The Commerce Department estimated today that private U. S. investments abroad totaled $15,200,000,000 at the start of this year. It said they were rising at a billion-a-year clip.

Some $11,400,000,000 of the total, it estimated, are in the form of "direct investments"—operations abroad by American firms through foreign branches or subsidiaries.

These, it added, paid off last year at a rate of better than 15 per cent. The return was reflected in earnings of $1,552,000,000 last year, after foreign taxes, on direct investments valued at $10,000,000,000 at 1947's end.

Pirates' Roger Thrift Named To All-Conference Team

Thrift Only East Carolina Nominee

Earns Praise As T Quarterback And Passing Specialist By Greensboro Writer; High Point's Bill Lloyd Only Man To Get Unanimous Vote

Roger Thrift, the East Carolina Teachers College quarterback who completed 77 of 182 passes for 1308 yards and 15 touchdowns, has been named to the All-North State Conference football team announced today.

Thrift was the only East Carolina man to make the 22-man squad named by the Greensboro Daily News in cooperation with the North State coaches. West Carolina's champions and Appalachians runners-up placed five men each on the team.

Lenoir-Rhyne's third place club placed four men on the squad. Elon, Catawba and Guilford had two men each on the honor squad and East Carolina and High Point each had one man. Atlantic Christian is not represented on the all-conference team.

Bill Lloyd, playing fullback for the High Point Panthers who did not win a conference game all year, was the only man to receive a unanimous vote.

Moses Crutchfield, Greensboro sports writer who announced the selections, had this to say about East Carolina's Thrift:

"Excellent T quarterback and outstanding passer. Had a part in every one of the 32 touchdowns Pirates scored."

The 180 pound quarterback from Chapel Hill has another year of eligibility with the Buccaneers.

Other backs making the All-Conference team were Herman Bryson of Appalachian, John Charles of Lenoir-Rhyne, Hugh Hamilton of West Carolina, Al Johns of Guilford, Bill Lloyd of High Point, Ralph McConnell of West Carolina, and Pete Mills of Appalachian.

Ends—John Caskey of Appalachian, Claude Gentry of Elon, Frank Little of Lenoir-Rhyne and Bill Topping of Guilford.

Tackles—Bob Donaldson of Catawba, Ralph Humphries of West Carolina, Arnold Melvin of Elon and Hanley Painter of Lenoir-Rhyne.

Guards—Wick Alford of Appalachian, Art Byrd of West Carolina, Lester Gardner of Catawba and Frank Snyder of Lenoir-Rhyne.

Centers—Hugh Constance of West Carolina and J. C. Honeycutt of Appalachian.

Large Crowd For Midget Grid Game Expected Here Tomorrow

A record crowd for a Midget football game is expected to invade the East Carolina Teachers College stadium tomorrow when Greenville's undefeated Mighty Mites and Selma Midgets clash in the first Exchange Bowl game.

The game, featuring two of the most highly rated and best coached midget football outfits in eastern North Carolina, will get underway at 2:30.

The contest may produce some of the most intricate plays ever to be pulled in midget football circles.

Coach Bill Kittrell has drilled his Greenville boys for two weeks on dummy tomorrow when Greenville's undefeated Mighty Mites and Selma Midgets clash in the first Exchange Bowl game.

Both teams are expected to feature good aerial and running attacks. The locals completed seven of ten passes against Washington in their last game.

Both squads go into the game with outstanding records. Greenville is undefeated and scored on but once this year while the defensively powerful Selma team has lost but one game, that to Kinston early in the year.

The Selma team tied Kinston in a second contest recently. Greenville beat the Kinston midgets by a slim one touchdown margin in their last encounter.

The two teams will be of almost equal calibre when they tangle tomorrow afternoon. Greenville's slight edge afforded by a little better record will be lost in that Coach Kittrell will be without the services of probably three of his usual regulars.

Greenville will outweigh the visitors by one point per man. But Selma will have a one year age advantage.

"It will be a matter of who gets the breaks," Coach Kittrell opined today as he sent his team through light signal drills in preparation for the game.

"I don't figure that there is a touchdown's difference in the two teams," he commented.

On the eve of the game Kittrell announced that Gene Duffin, the fleet-footed little back who ran two touchdowns in the locals' final conference game, may see some limited action. Duffin was slightly injured in the Washington game.

Two other boys, Billy Bost and Tommy Snoot, both of whom have been outstanding with the Greenville team this year, will probably miss the game entirely. Snoot has a bruised eye and Bost has a knee injury.

Coach Porter Admits Quint Is 60-Point Club This Year

Hopes of local sports fans for a successful basketball season at East Carolina were given a boost last night when Head Coach Howard Porter told members of the Greenville Junior Chamber of Commerce, "I think we have a 60 point ball club, and I don't think anybody will beat us in Greenville unless they score more than 60 points."

The Buccaneers opened their basketball season Saturday night in Washington, D. C. where they scored a 60-58 win over Wilson Teachers College in what Porter termed the roughest ball game the locals have had since they met Brakine in South Carolina two years ago.

The soft-spoken head basketball coach at East Carolina talked off the cuff to the Jaycees, but pointed out that the prospects for the coming season were at least better than average for the team which last year went to the semi-finals in the North State Conference tournament.

Porter said East Carolina was fortunate in securing some of the state's most outstanding high school basketball players of 1948, and with the returning players from last year's aggregation should have more depth in the team than last year. As for the individual players, Porter commented, "Everton (who was placed on the second all-tournament team last year) in my opinion this year will be the best forward in the North State Conference."

As for the support the basketball team is getting, the coach said it is better than they had ever hoped for from the townspeople, and he added that the morale of the team "is better this year than it ever has been."

"We're spending less money than any other team in the conference on basketball," Porter told his listeners, but added that he felt the basketball squad at East Carolina was getting its full share of the athletic funds which are available at the college.

As for the home games, which this year promise to be even more exciting than those of the 1948 season, Porter remarked, "We have about 1,600 students and maybe 1,000 good seats—you'd better come early."

Groza Chalks Up Scoring Record

New York, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Spectacular Alex Groza of the Indianapolis Olympians today stood supreme among the big scorers in the National Basketball Association.

The six-foot seven-inch ex-Kentuckian last night bombed 43 points — to an NBA record — to lead the Olympians to an 80 to 74 victory over the Rochester Royals at Indianapolis.

Approximately $7,000 was used to clear the indebtedness incurred in 1948 and to provide the League deposits necessary to keep the franchise here, the directors point out.

At the end of the 1949 operations the club owed $11,652.12 in unpaid accounts. Current assets, including of 14 ball players, practically all of whom saw service with the team in 1949. The club also owns various other assets, such as the bus and the team equipment.

The 1949 club which won the play-offs in virtually intact for the coming year with the exception of Tedepino, the directors report. They explain that many of the players can be sold to other clubs, but that no effort will be made along that line until the Greenville fans have indicated their desires for 1950.

Bowl Sponsors Find Top Teams Are Hard To Find

New Orleans, Nov. 23.—(AP)— Bowl as Pacific Coast champion. Some things even money can't get. Nobody knows that better than the boys who run the Sugar Bowl.

They have $24,000 to split between two major football teams just for a 60-minute performance. That's the biggest financial plum in the bowl pie.

And even more, they offer the team a trip to this gay and romantic old city and the honor of showing their football wares to 82,000 fans.

It begins to look like Oklahoma and Tulane in the Jan. 2 classic. There are but four unbeaten teams in the nation.

The first is Notre Dame, the nation's number one squad. The second is California, the third is Oklahoma and the fourth is Army.

Notre Dame and Army have one thing in common. They don't want California.

Are you sure you know how to pour fine beer?

Never tilt your glass and let Budweiser run out of the can or bottle down the side of the glass. Instead, tip your bottle of cold Budweiser up smartly to an angle of about 45 degrees. Let the golden liquid tumble into the glass until one-third full. Then ease your pouring and let the snowy foam rise to the brim. Now you've done two things. You've let the natural carbonation release the superb taste in Budweiser—and you've poured yourself the greatest treat that a thirst for fine beer can ask. Budweiser, you see, is one of America's very few true lager beers. There's nothing like it...absolutely nothing.

Short of Murder

By Tom T. Ness

Chapter 4

On returning to the back room he found the watchman glumly contemplating the corpse. "Did you get Inspector Lavin on the phone?" asked Hackett.

"Yeah—said he'd be right over."

The newsman moved toward the spinet, halted midway to it and swung around. "Out in front you said you had followed me and seen everything—meaning I suppose, the flight of some man from this store."

"I sure did."

"Did you see someone throw something at me when I chased after the car?" asked the newsman suspiciously.

"It was me!" the other grinned sheepishly. "I threw my nightstick at you, though you was up to some skulduggery."

"Thanks," smiled Hackett, grateful for the chance to trace a Plymouth sedan with a shattered rear window.

"Thanks for what?" dubbed Mr. "Well, lets say for missing me. Was Daniels in the habit of coming here after working hours?"

The watchman shook his head. "Never known the old man to come to the shop after dark before."

"Who else has a key to the shop?"

"Daniels' two nephews, Scott and Bender—they work here."

"Is Scott's first name Myron?"

then shrugged his shoulders. He opened the solitary drawer of the spinet, and finding nothing in it save some apple parings, rose and went to the lavatory. He turned on the light in the compartment and saw only the usual standard plumbing fixtures, a roll of crepe-paper toweling on a wall rack and, close to the door giving on the back room, a wicker wastebasket half full of crumpled pieces of paper toweling.

The newsman was about to turn out the lavatory light when a small object in the wastebasket caught his eye. It was a rabbit's foot. He picked it up and examined it critically. The fur was soft, the toe-end faintly pink, the rest of the foot white—pink solid as if it had long been carried in an ivory ring or hanger reeved loosely through the blunt end of the downy trinket.

Hackett was about to toss the rabbit's foot back into the wicker basket, then hearing the watchman giving the telephone operator a number, he absently put the trinket in his coat pocket and emerged from the lavatory.

It was a curious assortment of books he beheld in the iron safe. There were no books of account such as journals and ledgers among them. The volumes on the two upper shelves were clearly literary works—first editions, Hackett decided—and a part of the deceased antiquary's stock-in-trade. The two lower shelves held an encyclopedia set—"The Americana"—their bindings brittle from age, cracked and chipped.

"Now that's odd!" Hackett told himself a nettled expression on his face. "Rare books in a safe? But why keep a worthless set of encyclopedias behind iron doors?"

"Bender's phone don't answer," said Cahill, hanging up the receiver.

"Um hm," replied the newsman absently.

He was about to remove and examine one of the books on the top shelf when the front door of the shop rattled. A moment later he heard the measured tread of feet approaching the back room.

Greatest Compliment a Car Ever Had!

NUMBERED AMONG THE HAPPIEST Cadillac owners are many, many dealers who sell and service other well-known makes of cars.

They feel perfectly free to avail themselves of Cadillacs because they know that all the world holds Cadillac in a class apart. Hence, it is no reflection on the cars they sell when they seek, for themselves and their families, the exclusive advantages which "the Standard of the World" provides.

This, of course, is the greatest compliment a motor car ever had—and the respect upon which it is founded has been fifty years in the building. Throughout all this time, there has been the strictest adherence to the highest ideals of engineering and production. Not once has the inflexible rule of quality been eased for a single day.

It is a wonderful thing to own such a car. It is a wonderful thing to drive it—to relax in it—and to have it as a cherished possession. All in all, it enhances the enjoyment of the whole day's activities.

We think you would sense all this—and more—after an hour or so at the wheel. Why not come in some day, quite soon—for a ride that's a revelation? We should be happy to have you any time.

The state commander of the VFW is to appoint a Foundation Committee to contact VFW posts and the committee is to present the resolution to the state encampment next June.

The district meeting Sunday was well attended. Larry Averte of Greenville district commander presided. Marvin Hanson, commander of the Farmville VFW post, welcomed the guests. After the meeting the Farmville post and auxiliary were hosts at supper for the veterans in the VFW club.

William F. Humphries, VFW state commander, was the chief speaker. He urged the delegates to do their part to help the state carry out the program. "Two for one," he said.

Other state officials who spoke were Earl Knoff, state superintendent; Joe Gallacher, state secretary; and Cole Cochran, state VFW inspector.

Special guests included Mrs. Bessie Hyman, state auxiliary president; A. J. Boone, state auxiliary treasurer; E. P. Heman, third district commander; Wesley Cull, first district commander; Robert E. W. Jones, S. W. Carter and C. A. Hester, from Virginia.

The district meeting accepted Kinahan's invitation to hold the next meeting there February 28.

Scouts To Work Part Of Holiday

Boy Scouts will use a portion of their three-day Thanksgiving holiday to help improve the condition of the grounds at the scout cabin site near the country club and Country club, according to plans announced today.

A special meeting of the Pitt County council was held at the cabin site on Monday night. It was decided to have the necessary repairs to the cabin site which has been in bad shape for some time in the local area.

Local Turnage, chairman of the council committee, said members of the local troops have responded to the request of the county council to work at the cabin site on Friday morning and Saturday afternoon. Turnage said the Scouts will arrive at the cabin site at 8 a. m. on Friday and will work until 4 p. m. on Saturday. A spokesman said the cabin should have either a porch, or a swing porch.

Turnage said this morning the cabin had needs such as windows, and repairs to the same and that with the council hopes to have it in the near future.

Hoffman Says Chaos Now Soviet Hope Of Conquest

Los Angeles, Nov. 23—(AP)—Paul G. Hoffman says "Russia wants not war and not peace—she wants chaos."

The head of the Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA) told newsmen here last night that "Russia learned from Hitler the technique of the big lie as against the little lie. It was successful in conquering Eastern Europe, Manchuria and China. It's a low cost technique. Why should she shift from that to the risk of another world war?"

"The danger is of a collapse in Europe. Russia always bets on depression and chaos."

Hoffman added that the one great victory since World War II was to save Western Europe.

Later he told a dinner meeting of alumni and friends of Claremont and Pomona Colleges here that if Western Europe grows strong and prospers, that "Russia herself will cease to be a slave state."

Hoffman pointed out that Russia needs the steel, coal and oil of Western Europe and the Near East and most of all the skills of Western Europeans.

Russia's conquests so far have been by minorities over majorities, he declared. "Given any kind of a break, these majorities will assert themselves anew."

Jaycees Discuss 'Hoover Reort'

Members of the Greenville Junior Chamber of Commerce in their regular meeting last night discussed briefly matters pertaining to the Hoover Commission report, and later heard reports on sports activities at East Carolina from Coach Howard Porter of the ECTC basketball team and Jack Hedgepeth, WGTC sports announcer.

James White and Bancroft Moseley reported to the club on the Hoover Commission findings which will be pending in Congress when the legislative body convenes in January and led a discussion of possible action which the local Jaycees can take in support of the commission's report. Final action on the matter was tabled until the next meeting.

Chairman Henry Brown of the Christmas activities committee submitted to the club several possibilities for the Christmas activity of the club, and after a brief discussion the members voted to give Christmas baskets to needy families.

Ralph Garrett of Person-Garrett Tobacco Company was inducted as a new member in the club, and R. O. Everette of the State Bank was a guest of the club at the meeting.

President Louis Gavord reported on the quarterly board meeting which was held earlier this month in Winston-Salem, and also read letters of appreciation to the club from Al Livezey of the ECTC chorus and O. E. Dowd of Greenville high school for the support which the Jaycees have given the respective organizations. The local Junior Chamber is sponsoring this year's tour of the college chorus, and at the last meeting voted to present to the high school a public address system.

President Gavord announced the appointment of Ed Waldron, Van Fleming, Norman Harris, Charles Howard, Jim White and Dallas Peel as the nominating committee to present a slate of officers for the coming year to the club.

Members of the organization voted in kind to the Pitt County Boy Scout Council an invitation to present the Scoutmaster training course certificates to the eligible scout leaders at the next meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Bunche Boomed As Ambassador

Philadelphia, Nov. 23—(AP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, former United Nations mediator in Palestine, is being boomed for the post of Ambassador to Russia, the Philadelphia Inquirer said today.

The Inquirer said it had learned through "sources close to the government" that Dr. Bunche is being actively pressed for the position now held by Admiral A. J. Kirk. Kirk is believed to be planning to ask for relief early next year, the newspaper said.

The pre-Big Conference basketball tournament at Kansas City is slated for Dec. 27-29-30.

Authorities Warn Holiday Seekers Prevent Accidents

The usual warnings to holiday travelers were issued today to motorists and others during the Thanksgiving season. The State Highway Patrol urged careful driving on the highway and observance of safety rules. Sheriff Ruel W. Tison and Police Chief Lester D. Pace made similar suggestions.

Fire Chief George Gardner reminded of fire hazards, especially during the cold weather and warned homeowners and others to be on the alert to prevent fires.

Manchuria—They also believe that Moscow won't allow Mao to have full liberty in conducting international relations for his part of China. The point of this is that Mao himself is at heart a Nationalist, although curiously enough he believes in world revolution for the spread of communism.

Mao's recognition in Mao's possible makings of another Marshall Tito.

Consul General . . .

Stokes said he had sent the department full details. But state department officials say they never received them and believe the Communists suppressed them.

Stokes said he had been able to send food and clothing to Ward and his companions but hadn't been permitted to see him.

Finally this government—through its Consul General at Peking—Edmund Clubb—demanded Ward's release. Clubb made the demand on Chou En Lai, the Communist government's Foreign Minister.

What answer? None.

The American government never got an answer. Secretary of State Acheson called the holding of Ward and his companions "barbaric." President Truman called it an outrage.

Although Consuls can be jailed for alleged crimes, Acheson indignantly has said it's been a "universal practice" to let Consuls in trouble communicate with their government and get release on bail.

Meanwhile, the Communists, who have smashed Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist government, want this country to recognize them as heads of the real and legitimate government of China.

That recognition might have been delayed quite a bit, anyway, but Acheson said it couldn't be considered at all with Ward in jail.

What could the U. S. do? Not much, it seems, short of war. But on Nov. 21 Acheson tried this:

He appealed to 20 nations, including Russia, to intervene with the Chinese Communists on behalf of Ward. So far it is not known that any of the 20 has done so. But—

The next day, yesterday, Nov. 22, the Chinese Communists reported their "people's court" at Mukden had finished its investigation and will give a verdict on Ward and his four companions.

That's the story up to date.

Chinese Cabinet Is Streamlined

Chungking, Nov. 23—(AP)—The Nationalist China cabinet was streamlined today into a small, mobile unit designed to follow the fighting front.

Wholesale dismissal of thousands of government workers, were ordered. It was the first clear indication that the government plans to abandon this cold, dreary, inland Yangtze river city which, has served as provisional capital of China less than two months.
