Demos Preparing Four Issues For Truman On Tour

Material For New Assaults On Republicans Gathered For Whistle-Stopping

Washington, April 10 (AP)—Democrats sharpened up four domestic issues today as likely material for a new assault on the Republicans when President Truman goes whistle-stopping westward early next month.

The issues—some underscored recently by the President and some by his followers—include (1) a new drive for the Brannan farm subsidy payment plan, (2) expansion of unemployment insurance, (3) Congress' action in killing the Administration's middle-income housing proposal and (4) extension of rent controls.

In addition, Administration lieutenants say Mr. Truman can be expected to voice a vigorous defense of Secretary of State Acheson and his policies, pointing also to recent efforts he has made as President to cooperate with congressional Republicans on foreign affairs.

In a trip expected to take him through Wisconsin on his way to dedication ceremonies at the Grand Coulee Dam in Washington State, Mr. Truman is expected by Democrats to have something to say about the Communist charges Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) has hurled against the State Department.

It is on domestic economic and social problems, however, that most party members think Mr. Truman will hit hardest in speeches directed toward retaining Democratic control of Congress in November and boosting the number of Administration supporters in both houses.

The President laid down the background for an all-out drive for the Brannan plan in his recent message signing a farm acreage allotment bill.

He urged Congress again "to authorize a system of production payments for potatoes (and other perishable commodities) so that unavoidable surpluses can be sold to consumers and used, instead of taken off the market and largely wasted."

The President asked Congress last week to expand unemployment insurance to cover 6,000,000 more workers and to set standards that would bring many states' payments to a higher level.

Congress gives no present signs of acting on this suggestion in this session. Even if it doesn't, Mr. Truman has made a record of his views to counter any employment slumps that might come along in the summer and early fall.

Merchants Plan Begin Half-Days Next Wednesday

Summer is here in one respect so far as the Merchants Association is concerned, although other townspeople continue to cast a wary eye toward the winter weather of late.

Beginning Wednesday most of the mercantile establishments will close half a day as is their usual custom during the summer months. The half-day vacation for employees will continue through the spring and summer until the week before the opening of the tobacco market.

The courthouse and city hall offices and garages throughout the city will remain open Wednesday afternoons, taking their half-day Saturday afternoon.

Problem Of Germany

Increasingly Evident That Solution Of Peace And Prosperity For Europe Hinges On Settling Germany's Future; Fitting That Nation Into An Integrated Europe

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

Daily it becomes increasingly apparent that the reestablishment of peace and prosperity in Europe cannot be achieved until the problem of Germany's future has been disposed of.

Carrying us a step further, America's high commissioner in Germany, John J. McCloy, tells us that "the fact is we cannot solve the German problem without fitting it into the larger context of a united Europe."

And U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, by way of implementing this idea, declares that the United States favors immediate steps to fit Germany into the organization of western Europe. He wants Germany to join the council of Europe, comprising the 12 North Atlantic nations, including the United States.

City Bond Debts Over $3 Millions

Bonded Indebtedness Was $3,173,000 As Of April 1, Report City Clerk And Utilities Business Manager

Total outstanding bonded indebtedness of the city of Greenville as of April 1, 1950, was $3,173,000, according to reports last week by City Clerk J. O. Duval and Utilities Business Manager Larry Brown.

The question of bonded indebtedness of the city came up at the meeting of the board of aldermen last Thursday when they discussed with representatives of the Lion's club the possibilities of a fire sub-station in Greenville.

A breakdown of the bonded indebtedness of the city as of the first of the month shows $68,000 outstanding in city school bonds, $461,000 outstanding in city administrative bonds, and $2,644,000 outstanding in city utilities bonds.

By the end of the current fiscal year, which will end June 30, the utilities commission will have paid off $52,000 in principal for the 1949-1950 fiscal year and $73,500 in interest for the same period of time. There were $2,679,000 in city utilities bonds against the city at the end of the fiscal year June 30, 1949.

Manager Brown said during the fiscal year ending last June 30 the Utilities showed a profit of $206,165.37 out of which $80,000 was paid to the general fund of the city budget leaving the utilities a net profit of $126,165.37. At no time in the past, Brown said, has the utilities failed to show a net profit for a year's operations even after the $80,000 has been paid into the city budget.

Since the beginning of the fiscal year last July, Duval said, $23,000 of bonds against the administrative division of the city government have been paid off, and another $7,000 of administrative bonds will be paid

Brief Term For 'Mercy Slayer'

Given Three To Six Years For Shooting His Brother

Allentown, Pa., April 10 (AP)—Harold A. Mohr today was sentenced to a prison term of three to six years for the so-called mercy slaying of his cancer-ravaged brother. Mohr was convicted Friday of voluntary manslaughter.

Judge James F. Henninger also imposed a fine of $500 on the 36-year-old tannery worker.

The maximum sentence for voluntary manslaughter is 12 years in prison and a fine of $6,000.

A Lehigh County jury of four men and eight women had recommended mercy in finding Mohr guilty of manslaughter.

Judge Henninger said he acquiesced to the jurors who, he said, "believed Mohr shot his brother out of sympathy."

Asked for comment by reporters, Mohr said: "I have nothing to say." Mohr was convicted of killing his blind, cancer-stricken brother, Walter, 55, at their home in nearby Coplay last March 8.

The defendant and three other brothers testified Walter often had asked to be "put out of his misery."

Astronomers View Odd Clouds On Planet Mars

Osaka, Japan, April 10 (AP)—Japanese astronomers report new observations of strange cloud formations on the planet Mars, caused possibly by a "terrific explosion."

Tsunoo Sasaki's discovery of the phenomena Jan. 26 set off a worldwide watch of the nearby planet. Now Tsunoo Ezizawa tells of observations begun March 29.

Sasaki joined him in the watch and reported that clouds originally grey turned dirty yellow in two days, bluish white in another four days and dirty white but without brilliancy after a week.

Sasaki said the clouds were similar to those he saw in January. "When I first observed the clouds in January I thought it was an illusion," he told Kyodo News Agency. "Now I know I was not wrong because my observations have been confirmed by the recent observations made by Ezizawa. However, I am still unable to establish whether the clouds were caused by volcanic ashes."

Sasaki had expressed the opinion in January that the clouds were caused by a "terrific explosion."

He said he had reported the latest sightings to the MacDonal Astronomical Observatory in Texas.

Chancellor Adenauer of the west German government believes Germany's future lies with western Europe. However, he presses for German equality and security which the French, in particular, are worried about. It will be long before western Europe risks itself of the fears engendered by past German military aggression as displayed in two World Wars.

The main issue, from the western standpoint, is whether John Bull will throw his full weight into such a union with the idea of counterbalancing German membership. Unless Britain does so, France isn't likely—at this writing—to accept Germany into full partnership.

The French are said to take the position that a union of western Europe which included themselves and Germany, but lacked full British support, would soon become unbalanced in Germany's favor. That makes Paris ponder in terms of another World War, although the western allies have thumbs firmly down

Russian Experts Said Preparing Hainan Invasion

Chinese Nationalists Predict Russians Will Call Signals; Drilling Units

Taipei, Formosa, April 10 (AP)—Chinese Nationalists today predicted Russian experts would call the signals on the next invasion of Hainan Island.

Dispatches from Hainan said Russian advisers had arrived on Luichow peninsula, 10 miles from Hainan on the Chinese mainland, some weeks ago.

The Russians are drilling intensively a small invasion force, the dispatches added.

Nationalists shattered three Chinese Communist attempts to invade the island in the past two weeks. They said they killed 11,000 Reds, captured at least 2,000 and seized considerable arms and supplies.

Reports reaching Hong Kong from Red China said the Communists have ordered one of their top generals, Lin Piao, to conquer Hainan. A full-scale invasion may come within a few days.

Gen. Chu Teh, Red commander-in-chief, gave Lin eight armies to conquer Hainan. Of this estimated 80,000 to 160,000 men, Lin probably has selected about 15,000 crack troops to spearhead the attack.

(Despite relentless commandeering of small craft all along the South China coast, the Reds would be hard put to float a larger force.)

The Nationalists have said the Reds lost many small craft in six small landings in the past month. Hainan dispatches told of a complete rout of the latest attempt Saturday.

Lin's 258th Regiment troops raced toward Hainan in more than 30 motorized craft. Nationalist defenders sank more than 20 vessels and killed more than 1,000 Reds. The rest turned back toward the Luichow peninsula base. Several more craft were reported sunk in flight.

The Nationalists said one of the sunken craft was a gunboat, presumably one they lost to the Reds last year when driven from the mainland.

Highway Patrol Commander Is Again Charged

Fayetteville, N. C., April 10 (AP)—Highway patrol commander C. R. Tolar, already facing one trial for alleged improper driving, has another similar charge staring him in the face.

Tolar was cited to court yesterday by a Fayetteville police officer on charges of speeding in a restricted zone.

Patrolman Bob Evans cited Tolar to court here April 21 on charges of speeding 60 miles an hour in a zone limited to 35-mile speeds. He quoted Tolar as saying he was en route to his mother-in-law's home after getting a call that she was suddenly taken ill.

Pitt 4-H Clubs Stress Milk Use

Demonstrations Emphasize Dairy Foods In Daily Diet

Members of four Pitt 4-H clubs staged demonstrations Saturday morning on several ways milk can be used in the everyday diet. The demonstration and contest was one of the special activities for 4-H girls as one way of giving training in leadership and public speaking with poise and confidence.

Margaret Ann Whichard and Helen Copeland, members of the Stokes club won the contest, acting as a team. Their demonstration was on the special activities for 4-H girls as one way of giving training in leadership and public speaking with poise and confidence.

Sybil Jones, Chmood club, won first place in the individual presentation of cheese salads. She made the salads herself, illustrating the use of solid milk.

Second place went to Ann Murphy of Farmville for her demonstration in ways to "dress up" milk. She made milk shakes and other types of milk drinks, showing how it can be disguised to make persons who do not like milk drink it.

Judges for the contest were members of Greenville's high school home economics class. They were Barbara Barrows, Caroline Branch and Jo Ann Manning.

The winners of the individual and team contests will compete in the Northeastern District Dairy Foods demonstrations in June, representing the Pitt County 4-H clubs.

Weekend Passes Without Wrecks

No Auto Accidents Reported In Pitt To Patrol Office

Pitt County came through the Easter holidays, without a single motor vehicle accident being reported to the Greenville State Highway Patrol office, a spokesman for the office revealed today.

Cpl. John Laws reported that the flow of traffic in the Greenville area and in the county generally was very heavy, starting Friday night and going through last night. Laws stated that many arrests were made for minor traffic violations, but no accidents were investigated by the patrol.

Officially, the Easter holiday week end does not come to a close until Tuesday, and any accidents occurring up to that time will come in the Easter day toll.

Pitt County has had 15 highway accidents in the past two weeks and for a time was leading the state in the number of highway deaths, with seven deaths. According to unofficial reports the county is no longer the leader among the state in the highway deaths.

Forego Easter Service For Fear Of Klansmen

Unadilla, Ga., April 10 (AP)—The cross, real or imagined, of the Ku Klux Klan prompted a small band of Negro Christians to forego their Easter afternoon service.

Easter was going to be a big day for the 200 or so members of the Little Camp Creek Baptist Church.

They planned to hold their regular service in the morning and the afternoon was going to be given over to the honoring of their 87-year-old pastor, the Rev. George Taylor.

For Taylor, the service would have marked the 36th anniversary of his calling to the little church.

Two white ministers, the Rev. M. Flanders of the Unadilla Methodist Church and the Rev. L. F. Smith of the First Baptist Church in this town of 2,000, were invited to say a few words.

Both the white ministers accepted the invitation and said they would be glad to talk on the long and faithful work of Taylor.

Then last Friday night, Flanders reported, he received an anonymous telephone call, warning him not to attend the service.

Flanders said he asked the man if he belonged to the Ku Klux Klan but the voice on the line would not say. Finally Flanders hung up after, he continued, telling the man he intended to go.

Christian World Goes Back Today To Usual Affairs

Everywhere They Asked That War's Destruction Would Not Be Repeated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The worried Christian world returns today to everyday business after an Easter dedicated to prayers for peace.

Throughout the Christian countries that believe in a Savior risen from the dead, the faithful yesterday knelt in pleas for the dead and wounded of the last war. Everywhere they asked that war's destruction would not be repeated.

At St. Peter's Basilica, in Rome, 500,000 Holy Year pilgrims of the Roman Catholic Church heard Pope Pius XII plead for a return to the gospel spirit and the idea of social justice.

The holy city of Jerusalem was jammed for services at the shrines dedicated to Christ's death and resurrection. At the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre, more than 10,000 persons knelt in prayer.

In Britain Bonnie Prince Charlie stole the show. Grandmother Queen Elizabeth held up the infant son of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip for the delight of a crowd gathered at Windsor Castle for an Easter concert. Cheers for Charlie drowned out the music.

Traces of a midnight snow were seen for a while on New York's streets, but from dawn the city's churches were packed.

Fifth Avenue's annual Easter parade was sobered by a surprise cold snap which cut through light-weight spring garments. But bright sunlight in the day brought sidewalk-packing hordes into the thoroughfares, with bright flowered hats to relieve the wintry blues that were favored costumes.

A crowd of more than 40,000 attended the colorful Moravian sunrises service at Winston-Salem, N. C. It was the 17th such observance. The weather was cool and clear for the historic service at the Home Moravian Church, conducted by Bishop J. Kenneth Pfohl.

Usually sunny California belied her name. Rain and clouds greeted early morning worshippers at the Hollywood Bowl. Speakers were Row Bow and Mr. Rubidoux near Riverside.

And on the rim of the Grand Canyon, in Arizona, sleet pelted more than 2,000 persons who gathered for annual sunrise services.

In the Midwest the weatherman was kinder. At Lawton, Oklahoma, brisk winds gave way to a mild and calm atmosphere during which 125,000 persons of all faiths gathered for a four-hour pageant on the granite hillsides.

Tugboat Skipper Is Only Survivor Of Bay Disaster

Norfolk, Va., April 10 (AP)—A tugboat skipper who clung tenaciously for four hours to the floating pilot house of his sinking vessel apparently is the only survivor of a Chesapeake Bay disaster in which six men are believed to have drowned.

The tugboat Lorraine sank early yesterday off Windmill Point light, near the mouth of the Rappahannock river. Wind-lashed waves washed six members of her crew overboard.

One body, identified by company employes as that of deckhand Norman Fisher (no address available), was brought here last night by another tug, the Dottie Dee. The body was found in a life ring not far from the spot where the Lorraine went down.

The Lorraine's skipper, Capt. O. P. Brown of Norfolk, was rescued by a passing boat. He was taken ashore at Delatville, Va., for treatment for shock and exposure.

A Hospital Quarrel

The Hoover Commission Proposals To Place Veterans Administration Hospital And Medical Care Program Under New Agency; Opponents; Confusing Aspect

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, April 10 (AP)—There's a bitter, burning fight over this question: Should the Veterans Administration continue to run its own medical and hospital program for war veterans?

Or, would it be better and cheaper to merge the VA's medical program with other government medical programs in one big, new agency?

The arguments over this have been spread out widely. This is an attempt to pull the pieces together. But keep this in mind: Anything involving veterans is touchy business for politicians. This is an election year for congress. So don't expect congress to make a decision this year.

In 1929 President Herbert Hoover recommended to congress—in the interest of efficiency and economy—the various jobs the government was doing for veterans should be brought together in one agency.

Congress acted on this and in 1930 created the VA. (An attempt in this direction had been made in 1921 when congress set up the Veterans Bureau to take over some veteran activities.) So since 1929 the VA has been handling not only insurance and pension problems of the veterans but also has been running its own hospitals and medical care for veterans.

But, since 1929, the VA and the government have grown to enormous size. And in July, 1947, congress established a "commission on organization of the executive branch of the government."

Its purpose? To make a thorough study and recommend ways for running the executive branch—the departments and agencies—better and cheaper.

This commission, made up of six distinguished Democrats and six distinguished Republicans, was headed by former President Hoover. It has been known as the Hoover Commission.

This commission called upon more than 300 experts in various fields to dig into the government and advise the commission. By the middle of 1949 the commission, finishing its work, had made about 300 recommendations. Congress already has acted upon some of those recommendations, is considering others. Among them is

Eastern Pines Men's Supper Club

The regular meeting of the Eastern Pines Men's Club was held at the community building on Wednesday evening, April 5. After the president, Glenn Hardie, called the meeting to order, some familiar songs were sung, visitors were recognized and the evening meal was served. A group of ladies from the Red Banks Home Demonstration club prepared the supper for the 43 members present and guests. Chicken pot pie, potato salad, vegetables and pie a la mode were enjoyed by all. The tables were uniquely decorated; the Easter motif being used with seasonal flowers and the new china and place settings completed the attractiveness. One hundred new chairs were recently purchased.

After necessary business had been dispensed with the meeting was turned over to Don Flowers of the Dixie Chemical Corp., who made an interesting talk concerning current economic trends. After the talk the meeting adjourned.

Junior-Senior Banquet Given At Pactolus High

On Wednesday evening, March 29, at 7:30 in the Community building in Pactolus, the seniors and other guests took a cruise out West to the Isle of Hawaii with the juniors from Pactolus at the annual Junior-Senior banquet.

It was an affair of gaiety and beauty, carrying out the Hawaiian scene. Yellow and pink spring flowers, lawn furniture, pines, palm trees, and lighting by yellow candles were used in decorating. Mixed fruit on the guest table and baby blue crepe paper draped across the top added to the loveliness of the scene. Hawaiian music was played throughout the evening very softly.

Mistress of ceremonies was Doris Gray. The welcome was given by Peggie Bowers, junior class president, and the response by June Mobley, president of the senior class, followed by "Aloha" by a sextet from the junior class. Billy Wynne gave the toast to the school and Mattie Beacham the toast to the faculty. "Blue Hawaii" was sung by a soloist, Peggie Bowers, and a sextet composed of Joyce Tripp, Doris Gray, Jean Johnston, Jean Lee, Faye Crisp and Betty Lou Tyndall. Mr. D. H. Conley, superintendent of Pitt county schools, made a short address and then Doris Gray bade farewell.

The menu consisted of fruit juice, stuffed celery, pickles, baked chicken, mashed potatoes, rolls, butter, french string beans, pineapple salad, ice cream, cookies, iced tea, and nuts. This was served by waitresses who were girls from the sophomore class. They were Faye Heath, Ann Jones, Mary Lou Jones, Jerleen Eynans, and Lila Mae Eastwood. The girls looked exceedingly cute in shorts, in keeping with the dressing of Hawaiian girls.
Special guests were Mr. and Mrs.

Women In The Church

Columbia, Missouri, claims to have the largest college Sunday school class in the world. It is the Burrall class, meeting in Stephens College, but enrolling also students at the University of Missouri, and at the Christian College, the founder of the class in 1921 was Mrs. Jessie Burrall Eubank, then at Stephens, now on the staff of Memorial Baptist church, Washington, D. C. The class has 4,000 students, a symphony orchestra, a choir, and a verse-speaking choir.

The eighth observance of "National Family Week" will be marked by Protestants, Catholics and Jews from May 7 to 14. There will be special services in churches and synagogues, culminating on Mother's Day, the 14th. Protestant agencies sponsoring the observance include the Federal Council of Churches, the United Council of Church Women, the International Council of Religious Education, and numerous denominational education bodies. "God works through homes" is the 1950 theme.

This distinguished educator is Miss Katie Wilcox, of Chester, Conn., for thirty years an educational missionary serving among the girls and women of South India. They are attempting to anticipate the objections of a people long accustomed to a rice diet.

Prepare For Big Amphibious Test

Norfolk, Va., April 10—(AP)—Thirty one ships and 5,000 officers and men of the Amphibious Force, Atlantic Fleet today commence the final week of preparations for departure from Norfolk for participation in Operation Crossover.

They will join with 10,000 additional personnel of the Second Marine Division and the Second Marine Air Wing of the Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, in an assault landing at Onslow Beach, N. C., April 28th.

Rear Admiral H. D. Baker, USN, commander Amphibious Group Two, who has been designated to command the Amphibious attack force formed for Crossover, said certain specific objectives are sought as part of the overall purpose of achieving greater combat readiness of participating Amphibious and Marine elements of the Atlantic Fleet. These specific objectives are all part of the established policy of continued development of 1950 techniques to meet 1950 weapons. Navy veterans of the Great Amphibious operations of World War II would find significant changes from the principles and techniques that were so successful in 1944 and 1945. The threat of high speed submarines and aircraft, and atomic bombs have resulted in increased emphasis on the inherent characteristics of the naval task force—dispersion, mobility and flexibility. Operation Crossover will test new and revised naval techniques of extending the use of these characteristics right up to the enemy's beaches.

Cool Weather Didn't Stop Easter Crowds

In spite of the chilling Easter weather which hovered over Greenville Sunday, large crowds turned out to attend the morning services all over the city, filling the churches to capacity. Here is a portion of the Easter church-goers shown as they leave Immanuel Baptist church on Eighth Street. (Reflector staff photo by Roy Hardee).

ises. In short we cannot reconstruct a peaceful Europe on the framework of the division which now exists. That brings us up against the question of what hopes there are of Russia and the western powers reaching agreement for a united Germany. The present indications are that the hopes are very small indeed. Moscow appears to be aiming at consolidating its hold on eastern Germany and then persuading the three western zones to unite with the Eastern Red government. Such an arrangement would give Russia control of the key position, economically and militarily, in central Europe. So the best the western allies can do at this juncture is to hold onto western Germany, on the basis that half a loaf is better than none. However, as I see it, that leaves us facing the likelihood of another upheaval which will grow out of the dismemberment of Germany and the determination of her people to reunite.

VA Hospital . . .

(Continued from page one) this Hoover Commission suggestion: That the hospital program of the VA, Army, Navy and Air Force and the public health service all be combined in a brand new agency to be called the United Medical Administration.

It was the proposal to take the veterans' hospital program from VA that brought an uproar. Battle lines formed at once.

Opposing the idea are four big veterans organizations claiming 5,000,000 members: The American Legion, The Veterans of Foreign Wars, The Disabled American Veterans, and the AMVETS, the American Veterans of World War II.

For the idea are: The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, the American Veterans committee which claims a membership of about 25,000 veterans, and the citizens committee for reorganization of the executive branch of the government (called also the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report).

When the Hoover Commission finished its work, the Citizens Committee was organized nationwide to see that the commission's recommendations were acted upon and not forgotten.

Headed by Dr. Robert Johnson, president of Temple University, this citizens committee has main offices in New York, Philadelphia and Washington. It has branches in 42 states. It is made up of citizens from various walks of life. Financed by contributions from interested people, it is spending about $400,000 or $500,000 a year to keep plugging for the Hoover Commission's recommendations.

What makes the picture confusing, of course, is this: Many veterans who are members of the four veterans organizations fighting the hospital proposal are also members of the organizations favoring it.

The fifth annual championships of the eastern association of rowing colleges will be staged at Annapolis May 13.

Pitt county chalked up its fifteenth highway accident in the past twelve days Friday night.

The accident, which was termed by investigating officer Dick Chadwick as another mechanical failure accident, occurred on a rural road about seven miles from Greenville, near Stokes at about 12:30 a.m.

The car was operated by Willie Grice, colored. According to information received by Chadwick, the driver said he was rounding the curve and at the same time the lights of the car went out, causing the car to go off the left side of the highway. The car went into a ditch and turned over.

Neither Grice nor Joe Bryant, a passenger in the car, were injured.

Annual Kiwanis Minstrel To Open Here Wednesday

By CHESTER WALSH
The annual minstrel show, sponsored by the Greenville Kiwanis Club, will be presented for the ninth consecutive year at Austin auditorium at the college, Wednesday and Thursday nights, April 12 and 13.

Proceeds are used by the Kiwanis Club's Underprivileged Child Committee in its "Good Samaritan" work.

The Kiwanis minstrel was presented the first time in Greenville in 1941 under direction of Jack Alley, a radio man, and it was not profitable.

The next year Eli Bloom became interested and built a home-talent minstrel show starring Tige (Sweetpea) Gardner, a former entertainer on the big time vaudeville circuits. Bloom was the inter-locutor. Nearly all of those on the program were Kiwanians—bankers, doctors, lawyers, etc., and Greenville people crowded to buy tickets to see the Kiwanians in action and to hear the Kiwanis Quartet. The minstrel that year netted more than $1,500.

Next year the minstrel, under direction of Eli Bloom and Tige Gardner, was a big success. Since then, the annual show has netted $2,000 or more for the Underprivileged Child Fund.

The Kiwanis Minstrel became an important annual event in Greenville and Pitt County. The show became famous and it now draws attendance from many Eastern Carolina cities and towns.

Marie Smith Wallace, director of Marie's School of the Dance, and her dancing girls are features of the Kiwanis minstrel.

In recent years, since Dr. John D. Messick, president, and numerous faculty members of East Carolina Teachers College became Kiwanians, many talented and accomplished ECTC students and teachers have participated in the minstrel.

Business and professional men and others annually support the minstrel for "the underprivileged" with advertisements in the minstrel program.

The minstrel is a social as well as theatrical event.

The show is a part of the audience and the audience a part of the show. There are few in the auditorium who are not related to some of the nearly 100 members of the cast. Wives, sweethearts, daughters help to make up the minstrel men and backstage, a social atmosphere prevails. President Tige Gardner said while reminiscing about previous shows.

Eli Bloom, producer of the minstrel, is widely known as a showman and comedian, and his services are in demand here and elsewhere.

"We have the best show we ever had and the public is going to like it," Bloom said yesterday in an interview with a Daily Reflector reporter. "The jokes are better than ever and would pass inspection by the ministers. The repertoire of songs is different. They are tuneful and sung by talented vocalists. The music is sparkling."

"Marie Smith Wallace's Dancing Girls will be a hit of the minstrel show again this year," Bloom declared. "And just wait until you see Marie's Dancing Boys (Kiwanis fathers) in their dance number 'The Hucklebuck,' the producer chirped with a grin. Girls in this dance will be Kiwanis daughters.

Bloom will be interlocutor in the minstrel.

End men: Tige Gardner, Aubrey Tilley, Virgil Clark, James Ray Pittman, Dr. Jim Barrett, Judge Jimmy Roberts, Dr. Elmer Lansche and Ed Conway.

Long War Fears Brought To End

New York, April 10—(AP)—Fear of bloody tong warfare has been lifted from Chinatown. A dispute between the powerful On Leong and Hip Sing tongs has been settled.

A dispute reportedly arose recently over the transfer of ownership of a restaurant at Raleigh, N.C.

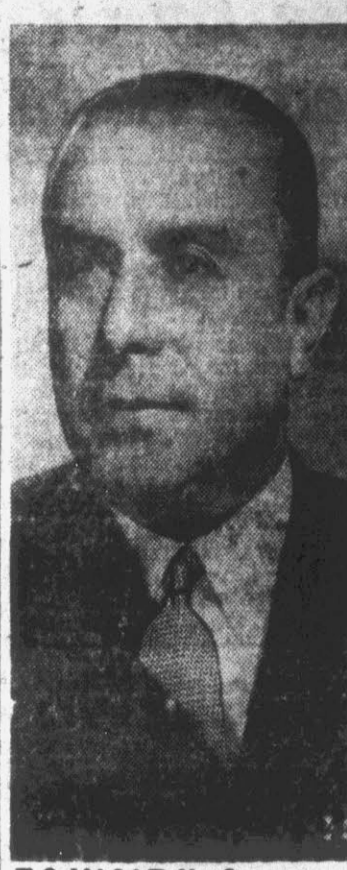

Then came a Chinese murder and suicide in Brooklyn, caused by a quarrel over money. Police never disclosed whether there was a tong angle in the murder-suicide.

Word came from Chinese and police sources last night that police officials and the office of the Chinese consul general had succeeded as mediators. The terms were not disclosed.

Reinforced police squads had patrolled Chinatown since last month when tension in the narrow streets and in lower Manhattan alleys gave rise to fears of renewal of long-dormant tong warfare.

A long-standing pact between the On Leongs and Hip Sings had set a pattern for peace in the area.

The tongs carry on many of the functions of insurance organizations, burial societies, social clubs, chambers of commerce and employment agencies.

Record Cruise By U. S. Snorkel Sub Regarded As Just Routine

Washington, April 10 — (AP) — On March 15 a U.S. submarine dived into the Pacific off Hong Kong and didn't surface again until 21 days later at Pearl Harbor.

In the meantime, the submarine had covered 5,300 miles.

The Navy told of the trip yesterday. It did not claim a record, but officers said this was the longest underwater run they had ever heard of.

The submarine, the Pickerel, is one of the "snorkel" type that has a short breathing tube that sucks air from the surface.

The Germans had one of their subs first, but now both the U.S. and Russia have them.

At Pearl Harbor, Cmdr. Paul R. Schratz of the Pickerel called the long voyage "all in the day's work, just a routine test."

He was asked whether the sub would be seen on the cruise, and without elaborating he said: "We had indications to the contrary."

Schratz said the 67 enlisted men and eight officers aboard didn't feel like eating much. Most of them grew beards or moustaches and for relaxation saw 30 movies.

The snorkel device enable a submarine to run just below water for long periods on diesel engines.

Formerly, undersea craft when submerged had to run entirely on electric batteries which required re-charge frequently. To do this, the sub had to surface. With the snorkel, a submarine can stay down as long as its supplies — including fuel — hold out. Batteries are still needed whenever a sub is more than a short distance below the water.

Work is progressing on an atomic power plant for submarines, which would lift even the fuel and batteries requirement. An atomic-operated engine would operate forever without refueling, for all practical purposes.

The Westinghouse Corp. has acknowledged that it is working on such a power plant, but its development is expected to take from two to ten years.

American interest in submarine and anti-submarine devices has been spurred by reports that Russia is building the world's mightiest undersea fleet — estimated currently at 250 to 300 vessels, only a small percentage of these are said to be snorkel-equipped.

Five Young Boys Die In Accident

Puquay Springs, April 10 — (AP) — A speeding car careened off Route 15-A early yesterday, hurtled 20 feet across Middle Creek, and killed five of its Teen age occupants.

The sixth and driver, Frank Denton, 17, is in fair condition at Rex Hospital in Raleigh. The bodies of the victims — all boys — were fished out of the water, but the Wake coroner said all were dead before they were hurled into the creek.

State Highway Patrolman Leon Greenberg, who investigated, and who knew and thought highly of all the boys, said Denton told him this story:

He was traveling about 60 miles an hour at 12:30 a.m. and was about to enter the bridge crossing the creek when an oncoming car pulled out to pass a car in front of it.

Denton said he had no alternative but to drive off the road if he wished to avoid a head-on collision. His car, a 1949 Mercury sedan, went off the road on the driver's left, hit an embankment and hopped into the air, plowing into the other side of the creek. Part of its rear end was in the water.

Policeman Faces Assault Charges

Greensboro, N. C., April 10 — (AP) — A Greensboro policeman and a man he is charged with beating up during an arrest will get their day in court tomorrow.

They are policeman J. M. Pendergrass, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and James T. Snuggs 43, of Burlington, charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Snuggs had been missing since he failed to appear for trial 10 days ago. He surrendered to police in Burlington Saturday and was brought here.

City Manager James R. Townsend started an investigation after he reported citizens told him the policeman beat Snuggs with a black-jack and then hit him when he was on the ground. The policeman said the prisoner attacked him and he struck in self defense.

The policeman was arrested Saturday night on a warrant signed by police Lieut. W. B. Hall.

The cases will come up in city-county court.

Beginner-Pilot Flies Continent

New York, April 10 — (AP) — A young Frenchman, who took up flying a little more than a month ago, has completed an eight-day transcontinental flight by hops from Seattle in a 6000 plane.

India Approves Pact That Nehru Says Stopped War

New Delhi, India, Apr. 10—(AP)—India's Parliament today approved a new Indo-Pakistan agreement that Premier Jawaharlal Nehru said had halted the warring countries on the brink of war.

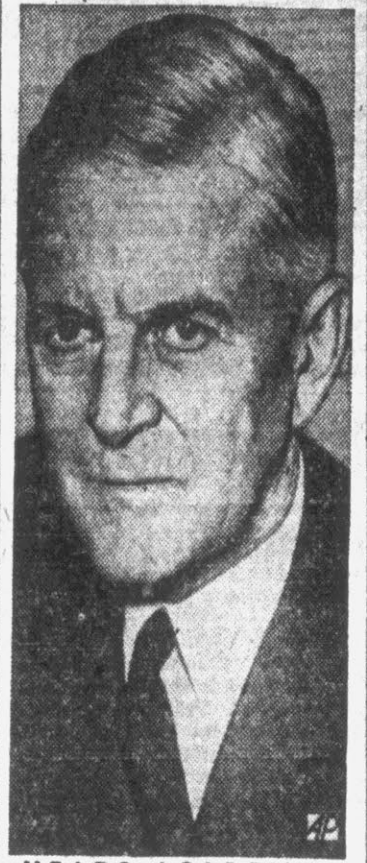

"We have stopped ourselves at the edge of a precipice and turned our backs to it," said Indian Premier Nehru in announcing details of the agreement to his Parliament.

Nehru called upon the government and peoples of both India and Pakistan to "put an end to that vicious atmosphere that has surrounded us for the two and one-half years" since India and Pakistan won independence from Britain.

The agreement between Nehru and Pakistan's Premier Liaquat—Ali Khan—designed to halt Hindu-Muslim clashes that have taken hun-

- 1 The security of minorities in Pakistan and India;
  - 2 Unhindered migration across the border of India and Pakistan for Hindus the Moslems;
  - 3 Special commission's on both sides to investigate any violations of the agreement.

Hitch-Hiker Is Killed By Auto

Walterboro, S. C., April 10—(AP)—A middle-aged man was struck and killed by an automobile while apparently hitch-hiking just north of here early this morning.

State highway patrolmen H. M. Cleland and J. R. Grooms, tentatively identified the victim as O. W. Farrow, about 45. They said a card in his pocket bore the address of Mrs. G. M. Smith, Midville, Ga.

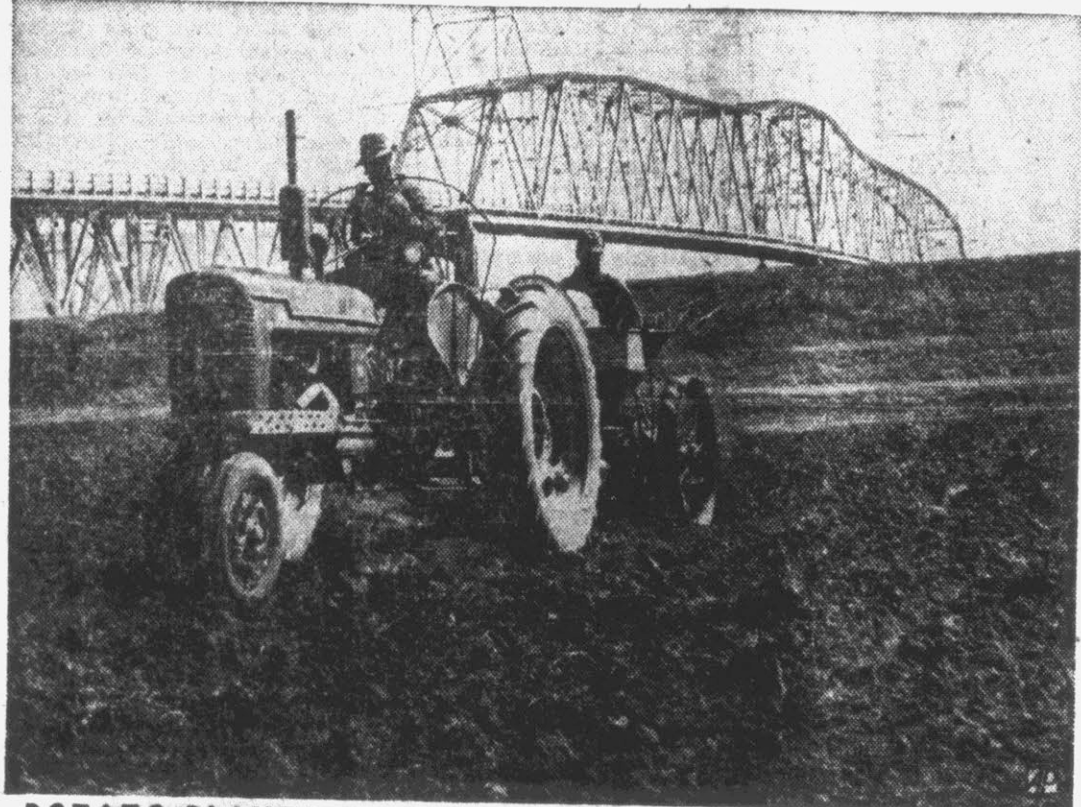

The officers said he evidently had been hitch-hiking and stepped in front of a car driven by Sefto W. Wilson, 35, Savannah, Ga., about 4:30 this morning. Wilson was being held without charge pending further investigation.

Ice Storm Hits Upper Midwest; Mercury Rising

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS
The ice storm which flattened communications and power lines over a wide section of the upper Midwest yesterday had shrunk to the northern Great Lakes region today.

Northeastern Iowa generally, and the Mississippi River city of Clinton particularly, were hardest hit by the freezing rain which disabled telephone service in at least 55 towns of the area.

Rising temperatures in all but the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan today gave many of the stricken communities a chance to repair the damage.

Rain continued falling over much of eastern Iowa, however.

Damage was estimated at more than $100,000 to the telephone systems of Iowa alone. The freezing rain there ripped down lines faster than emergency repairs could be made and many families shivered in their homes because of power failure.

Electrically-powered furnace stokers were disabled, and some families dependent upon electricity for cooking purposes had to forego Easter meals.

The storm extended generally from northern Indiana and Illinois westward through most of Iowa and northward through the Great Lakes region.

While the temperatures at Des Moines hovered only a few degrees above freezing during the storm, the mercury at Lincoln, Neb., only 150 miles to the west, climbed to a high of 87 degrees.

Heavy snow was reported falling today at Rapid City, S.D., with continued freezing rain in northern Minnesota and northern Wisconsin. The storm was moving eastward and was expected to hit upper Michigan today.

Elsewhere over the nation, skies generally were clear and temperatures near or above seasonal levels.

On May 27, Navy and Army squads will compete in baseball, golf, lacrosse, tennis and track and field.

Drug Stimulates Growth In Tests

Philadelphia, April 10—(AP)—One of the wonder drugs developed to fight disease—golden aureomycin—has been found to be a powerful growth stimulant which may help even stunted children.

The drug's newly discovered powers were the subject of one of the more than 300 scientific reports submitted to the second session of the American Chemical Society's 117th national meeting, which began today. The first session was in Houston, Tex., last month. The final session opens at Detroit April 16.

The report came from Dr. E. L. R. Stokstad and Dr. T. H. Jukes, of the Lederle Laboratories division, American Cyanamid Company, of Pearl River, N. Y.

Dr. Stokstad, with Dr. James McGinnis, of Washington State college, made a preliminary report on Aureomycin's new role to a nutritional feed conference at Seattle on April 3. At that time the scientists said feed supplements produced as by-products in making aureomycin, and two similar antibiotics—streptomycin and terramycin—quickened growth. The report here said only aureomycin had been successfully used on farm animals.

Up to now, aureomycin, like its sister "fungus drugs" penicillin and streptomycin, has been used as a potent weapon against pneumonia, whooping cough, Rocky Mountain spotted fever, undulant fever, and streptococcus and staphylococcus infections.

But the report from the Lederle scientists says tiny amounts of aureomycin mixed with feed has increased the rate of growth in hogs by as much as 50 per cent. It has also been used successfully on chickens and turkeys. The report indicated that clinical investigation is underway to determine if aureomycin can spur the growth of malnourished and under-developed children.

Robins Open Home Exhibition Games Scoring 6 - 4 Against Lumberton

Strausser Leads Eight Hit Attack With Three For Four; Locals Take Early Lead With Three In Third, Three In Fourth; Play Jays Here Tonight

By BERT MOYE
Manager Randy Hefflin and his Greenville Robins opened their home exhibition schedule here yesterday afternoon by defeating the Lumberton Auctioneers of the Tobacco State League, 6 to 4, before a paid crowd of 849 shivering spectators.

The Robins jumped into the lead with a three-run spurge in the third frame and came back in the fourth to put across three more runs to take a 6-1 lead at this point of the game.

In the third inning, three straight singles by Charlie Ouzts, Hubert Smith and Paul Strausser loaded the bases. Then George Kelly hit down to the Auctioneers' first baseman, who erred the ball, with Ouzts and Smith scoring and then when Woods, the Lumberton pitcher, threw wild to first, Strausser came home for the third run of the game.

In the fourth inning Tito Quintanilla led off with a walk but was picked off first base. Miller, who went to pinch hit for Hefflin, reached first when Pitcher Driggers muffed an easy out. Ouzts reached first on a sacrifice fielder's choice and Smith reached first to load the bases on a fielder's choice. Strausser was walked, forcing in Miller; Kelly singled to bring home Ouzts, and Smith scored when Fleming Flott flew out to centerfield and Strausser was being chased between second and third but managed to get back safely to second.

The Auctioneers scored one run in the fourth frame when Nick Dardes reached second on a double, advanced to third on a passed ball and came on home when Shortstop Matthew Hall booted the ball.

They added two more runs the sixth frame without the benefit of a hit. Nesbitt Hollis walked, later scoring when Steve Denier threw wild to first on a ball hit by Thorer, who later scored on Roger Marion's fly to right field after advancing to third on Flott's error at first base.

In the eighth frame when Roger Marion singled, advanced to second on an infield out and later scored on Lou Kuchorski's timely single.

Manager Randy Hefflin started on the mound for the Robins and pitched the first four frames in which he allowed only one hit, one run, struck out five men, and issued five free passes to first base.

Frank Stephens, righthander, pitched the remaining five frames and allowed three runs, five hits, and issued three free passes to first base.

The Auctioneers used three hurlers who gave up a combined total of eight hits, four walks and struck out only two Robins.

Paul Strausser, back with the club for his second year, led the eight-hit attack of the three Lumberton hurlers, collecting three singles in four official trips to the plate. Not only did he swing a wicked bat, but he was also great on defense as he showed his old form of making some beautiful catches in the center-field position. The other five hits collected by the Robins were gathered in by five various players.

Lou Kuchorski, the Auctioneers' first sacker, collected two singles in four official trips to the plate to lead the losers.

Saturday Night's Game
In an exhibition game played Saturday night in Lumberton the Auctioneers defeated the Robins 7-6 in an extra-inning contest.

With the score all knotted at 6-6 in the bottom of the 10th and with one man out, Koch was issued a free pass to first, was sacrificed to second by Bowden and then Manager John Stresa hit a sharp single into left field to bring in Koch for the winning run.

Johnny Longden is in his 24th year of riding on recognized American tracks.

Sport Slants By Pap

Busy Brownie . . . . . by Pap

Coach Earl Brucker is very high on Eddie Albrecht and thinks the rookie hurler has an excellent chance of developing into a winning pitcher for the St. Louis Browns. Brucker says Albrecht may make the grade this season despite his limited experience. "Albrecht has a good chance of sticking," says Brucker. "The youngster has good stuff, with plenty of control and a world of confidence."

Albrecht comes up with an imposing record. He won 29 games for Pine Bluff (Ark.) of the Cotton States League during the regular season and added three more victories in the play-off series. In all, Eddie worked in 61 games last season and in 332 innings struck out 389 batters. He pitched 30 complete games and was voted the league's most valuable player.

When a lame arm handicapped Eddie somewhat in the early practice sessions this spring some observers thought the slim youngster had tossed his pitching career away with his 1949 iron man efforts. Taking his time like a veteran, Albrecht worked out the soreness and showed the form which inspired Coach Brucker to speak so highly of his future prospects. Eddie is only 21 so he still has plenty of time but he could give the Browns a tremendous lift at this time when they are sorely pressed for capable pitching talent.

Approximately 170 Young Boxers Open AAU Bouts

Boston, April 10—(AP)—Approximately 170 young and ambitious boxers from Hawaii and most parts of the continental United States today begin a three day battle for eight individual AAU championships.

Team honors also are at stake in this 62nd national tournament opening some time after noon when the first pair of gloved competitors climbed through the ropes in the Boston Garden ring.

A lucky punch, a sudden injury or sickness, or an odd decision can—and often has—changed the course of such a tournament.

Even so, most AAU officials and other observers won't be surprised if a majority of honors go westward, following a trail punched out in the last few years.

Of the 1949 crown winners, all of whom have abdicated for professional or other reasons, three were from Oakland, Calif., two from distant Hawaii and one each from Salt Lake City, Gary, Ind., and Philadelphia.

George Schneider was fired as tournament bureau manager. Several meetings were held between P.G.A. officials and discontented stars demanding more authority in operating tournaments.

Novak flew to Augusta from his Los Angeles home, P.G.A. Secretary Horton Smith came from Detroit, Treasurer Harry Moffitt from Toledo, and Tom Crane, executive secretary, from Chicago.

The big four of professional golf talked at length with the unhappy players' "board of governors" which included stars Cary Middlecoff, Johnny Palmer, Lloyd Mangrum, Schneider, Jimmy Thompson, Ben Hogan, Sam Snead, Bob Hamilton, Clayton Heafner, Tony Penna, Demaret and Little.

before Chicago fans will be pitchers Bob Kelly, Johnny Klippstein and Gordon Van Dyke; catcher Carl Samatski, infielder Ransom Jackson and outfielders Carmen Mauro and Bob Bobowski.

Appearing for the first time in Cub livery, although having performed elsewhere in the majors, are Bill Voislie, Johnny Vander Meer, Preston Ward, Paul Minner and Frank Hiller. The 13th man, Bill Serena, is counted as a newcomer as he appeared for only a few days at the end of the 1949 season.

Cards' Outlook Hinges Largely On Old Regulars

Houston, Tex., April 10—(AP)—This St. Louis Cardinal club with its gilt-edged pitching can finish anywhere from first to fourth in the National League. It all depends on how the aging regulars stand the gaff.

Manager Eddie Dyer has a handful of problems in all departments except pitching. If the Red Birds are to challenge Brooklyn for the pennant, its six-deep starting staff must carry the club.

No manager in the league can throw better pitchers at you day after day than Dyer. Perhaps a Warren Spahn or a Don Newcombe might outshine any one Card. But they have the numbers to overpower you.

Howie Pollet, Harry Brecheen, Al Brazie and Max Lanier are the southpaws. Gerry Staley and Red Jones are the righthanders. Add Ted Wilks and Fred Martin for relief plus a couple of newcomers—Cloyd Boyer and Ellis Deal—and it's a tough gang.

Pollet, Brecheen and Staley are ready to start with a rush. Staley, 10-10 last year, has been most impressive in spring games. Dyer hopes he may be the righthanded stopper he's been seeking.

For the first time in his career, Brazie came up with a sore arm. The 25-year-old veteran doesn't think it's serious but he has been ineffective. Boyer, 15-game winner at Rochester, may get a crack at a starting job if the others falter.

Bluefield, W. Va., April 10—(AP)—Maybe the Cincinnati Reds should have stayed in Florida.

They cuffed around major league opposition like pennant contenders during their stay in the Citrus belt but since starting home they've been taking their licks regularly.

They took their fourth straight beating from the Boston Braves at Roanoke, Va., yesterday by the weird score of 15 to 12 in a game that had a little bit of everything except good pitching.

One-Two Punch Delivers Goods

Quincy, Ill., April 10—(AP)—Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees, finally has his big one-two punch of Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Henrich operating together in Memphis.

The two New York stars appeared in the same lineup yesterday for the first time since the opening game of the spring training season and delivered handsomely. Henrich smacked two home runs and DiMaggio one as the world champions edged Memphis, 9-3.

Higbe Fined By Leo For 'Balk'

Tulsa, Okla., April 10—(AP)—Kirby Higbe is the first New York Giant's pitcher to be fined for committing a balk.

Manager Leo Durocher stated Saturday that any pitcher balking would be fined $10. Higbe committed the offense twice yesterday against Cleveland, so Kirby is $20 poorer.

Durocher issued the proclamation because the balk rule is being rigidly enforced this season. The rule calls for the pitcher to pause a moment before delivering. The Giants lost the game, 12-6.

White Sox Said In Better Shape

New Orleans, April 10—(AP)—Baseball observers say the 1950 edition of the White Sox is in better condition than any Sox team in years.

Without a single injury, the team appears strengthened at almost every position except first base. Big Cub Zernial affords one of the brightest aspects. He has begun to hit. He slapped out three singles and a double at Mobile, Ala., recently.

Youth Plays Big Part In Plans Of 'Fighting Phils'

By The Associated Press
The transformation of Philadelphia's nickname from the "Phillie-Phils" to the "Fighting Phils" may be traced to that irrepresable quality—youth.

Manager Eddie Sawyer probably will field the National League's youngest starting team this season. Excluding pitchers, only two players—first baseman Eddie Waitkus and catcher Andy Seminick—are over 26.

Waitkus, attempting a comeback after being shot by a deranged girl last summer, is 30. Seminick, the club's senior member, is 29.

Aside from Waitkus, an infielder of Mike Gollat at second, Granville Hamner at shortstop and Willie Jones at second averages a little more than 23. Hamner is 22, while Gollat and Jones are 24.

Del Ennis, strongman of the outfield, is only 24, despite four years with Philadelphia. Richie Ashburn, who'll probably start at some outfield post, is 23. The other outfield berth could go to Ed Snider, 25.

The Phils, third place finishers last season, blasted out four home runs yesterday in defeating Fort Worth of the Texas League, 10-6.

In the homer outburst, Hamner collected two-round trippers, Jones and Ennis one each.

Nationals Leave Florida Camp

Gastonia, N. C., April 10—(AP)—The Washington Nationals, rolling north with the spring and the bluebirds, stopped off for a little exercise today with the Charlotte Hornets.

They waved farewell to Florida yesterday in a triumphant burst of glory after lowering the boom on the Philadelphia Athletics, 17-5. Their 1950 Grapefruit League score: Seven wins, nine defeats against major teams; four wins, two defeats against minors.

Demaret Is Victor In Masters' Event

Ferrier 'Blows Up' On Unlucky 13th Hole; Snead Placed Third With Hogan And Nelson Tied For Fourth Spot

Augusta, Ga., April 10—(AP)—Jimmy Demaret, the Masters winner, and Jim Ferrier, the runner-up who blew up, decided their fates on the Augusta National's 13th hole—the death hole of the Masters.

For Demaret, first three-times Masters Golf tournament winner, the 13th was a lucky hole—he admits it. For Ferrier, the 13th was "his unlucky hole, the death hole," Demaret says.

Demaret shot a final day three-under par 69 for a total winning score of 283 strokes. He slipped in the winner instead of Ferrier who had led for two days and most of the final round. Ferrier, a giant Australian now living in San Francisco, blew to a 75 on the final round for a 285 total.

Defending Champion Sam Snead was third with 287 and Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson were tied for fourth with par 288's. Hogan, making his third attempt at a comeback after his near death in an automobile accident in 1949, was the big challenger of Ferrier before the final round.

He was visibly tired, nervous and intense yesterday and his golf showed it. Instead of moving in on Ferrier and win his first Masters, Hogan dropped farther back and Demaret came home the hero.

Lloyd Mangrum was sixth with 291, including the finest round of the final day—a 68. Clayton Heafner and National Open Champion Cary Middlecoff were next with 292's.

On Demaret's four trips around the Augusta National's 6,900-yard championship course, he eagled the par five 13th hole twice and shot two birdies. He picked up 10 strokes on par on the one hole.

Ferrier was two under par until he mounted the 13th tee on the final round and he looked like the winner without a doubt. But on the 13th he began to blow and he didn't calm down until after Demaret had won the Masters.

Bob Lemon of the Cleveland Indians led American League pitchers in assists during 1949 with 71, two more than Hal Newhouser of the Tigers.

TRYING FOR TROUT UNDER THE FALLS—Fishing enthusiasts, against a backdrop of Deckertown Falls, try their luck in Deckertown Creek near the village of Montour Falls, N. Y., on the opening day of the 1950 trout season.

Today marks the initial appearance of Diamond Dust which will be run daily on the sports page of this paper with the start of the season and which I trust will be of interest to you baseball fans. This column is written to keep you posted as to what is going on not only on the local baseball scene but throughout the Coastal Plain League. Any suggestions which you may make from time to time will be gratefully appreciated by the writer and when writing to me in care of this paper, be sure and sign your name as unsigned letters will not be used.

First of all I want to call your attention to the schedule of exhibition games to be played by the Robins between now and the opening of the season. Tonight at 7:45 o'clock in Guy Smith Stadium the Robins will play their second in a series of home exhibition games when they meet the Roanoke Rapids Jays. Then again on Tuesday night they meet the Petersburg, Virginia club here in an exhibition game. This will also start at 7:45 o'clock. On Thursday night the Robins will journey down to Windsor to meet the Amersham club, who are in training there, and they return home for games here on Friday and Saturday when they play the Wilson Tubs here in the first of a two-game exhibition series on Friday night and then again meet Coach Jack Boone's Pirates of ETC here on Saturday night. On next Sunday they meet the York, Pa. club here, then Monday journey over to play Wilson there and wind up their exhibition series by going to Edenton to play the Norfolk, Va. club.

Be sure to make your plans to attend all the home exhibition games and let the new owners of the club know that you are backing them in their efforts to provide Greenville with a top-flight club for the coming season. Only by your support can they give you such a club—so why not make plans now to attend the exhibition series as outlined and also go out and buy that season ticket together with a reserved seat and take in all of the home games of the Robins when the season opens on the 20th of this month.

Sidelights on Sunday's game.—Of the 14 hits gathered by the two clubs yesterday afternoon only one went for extra bases, that being the blow by Nick Dardes into right center field for two bases. . . . The Robins made three double plays while the Auctioneers made only one. . . . The Auctioneers had 12 men stranded on bases while the Robins had 10. . . . Manager Randy Hefflin was credited with the win while Hugh Driggers of the Auctioneers was credited with the loss. . . . Only two Robins struck out during the contest while the two Robins hurlers struck out a total of six. . . . The two Robins hurlers were issued to only four Robins. . . . Dick Woods, the starting hurler for the Auctioneers, played with the Kingston Eagles last season. . . . Three former members of last year's team were in the lineup yesterday—Hubert Smith in left field, Paul Strausser in centerfield and Steve Denier on third base. . . . Incidentally, Steve Denier is the second class man on the Robins' roster at the present time; Manager Randy Hefflin is the other veteran.

Arrest 2 Men In Double Shooting

Deputies of the Pitt County sheriff's department arrested two Martin County Negroes yesterday afternoon following a double shooting of two other Negroes near Wallace's store in the vicinity of Robertsonville.

K. D. Smith and George "Duke" Ward are in Pitt General hospital suffering from bullet wounds as a result of an alleged argument over $10 Smith owed Ward. Deputy Sheriff Jasper Lee Mills reported this morning Smith shot Ward in the chest during the argument and Ward shot Smith in the right thigh. Mills and Deputy Duke Andrews arrested as accessories John and Jesse Ward, brothers of the wounded man, and brought them to the Pitt jail where they were picked up by Martin County Sheriff Buck Holliman and transported to Williamston for safe-keeping.

Both men were reported this morning to be improving.

Prepares 36 Baby Bottles Daily For Litter Of Pigs

Mrs. Albert Bray of Bethel route three is shown beside the bottle rack which was built to hold the milk bottles which feed the litter of nine pigs the Brays are raising on bottles. The pigs have been bottle-fed for about two weeks, and are in good condition.

Probably there are a good many women in Pitt County who have to fix six or eight babies bottles a day, but Mrs. Albert Bray of Bethel route three has to prepare 36 baby bottles of milk every day—to feed a litter of pigs.

Although the bottle-fed pigs probably are among a very elite group in pig society in the county, the bottle feeding of the litter of nine pigs came about through necessity rather than choice.

Just a little over two weeks ago the Brays' sow gave birth to the nine pigs, and died shortly after. Mr. and Mrs. Bray decided the pigs were too valuable to let perish for lack of proper diet.

The Brays put the litter of pigs in a pasture near their house, and Mr. Bray constructed a unique wooden bottle rack which will hold nine baby bottles precisely at the proper angle for the pigs to drain the last bit of milk from them.

Building the rack itself was not too much of a problem, but keeping the bottles filled with milk is another matter entirely. The Brays sought the advice of a veterinarian in obtaining a formula for the pigs' diet, and now that they have it, it is no minor task to get the nine bottles filled with milk four times a day. Mrs. Bray says the pigs are fed their first bottles early in the morning, and the other three bottles for each pig follow at four hour intervals through the day. It takes a half gallon of milk for the nine pigs each feeding.

And how are the pigs taking to this bottle baby business? "Well, their condition speaks for itself. There were nine healthy pigs in the litter when the sow died, and there are nine healthy pigs remaining in the litter."

Feeding the pigs on canned milk and cow's milk is a little more expensive to the Brays than if the sow had lived to care for her own pigs, but Mrs. Bray says it's better to have bottle-fed pigs than no pigs at all.

The Brays live on the farm of Mrs. Margaret Tetterton near Bethel.

About Average

By the Associated Press

The nation's traffic deaths over the Easter weekend were about the normal daily rate of highway fatalities.

The total was 177 between 6 p.m. (local time) Friday and midnight Sunday. This 54-hour total compares with an average of 175 for a similar period on the basis of figures compiled by the National Safety Council for the first 59 days of the year.

The council's records show that during January and February an average of 78 persons lost their lives in traffic accidents every 24 hours. These figures, however, included some deaths which occurred several days after the accidents.

Koreans Act To Meet Ultimatum

Seoul, April 10—(AP)—Under prodding by U. S. Secretary of State Acheson, the national assembly today repassed an election law and began study of three tax measures.

These, calling for higher taxation are required to balance Korea's budget.

Last week, Acheson delivered this ultimatum: Balance your budget and hold elections on schedule (next month) or lose U. S. aid.

The assembly overrode Saturday, 106 to 3, President Syngman Rhee's veto of amendments to the national security act covering subversive activity. These amendments restored the right of appeal to higher courts. With thousands of cases pending, the administration had sought to limit appeals to death penalties.

The Democratic Nationalists urged Rhee to nominate Dr. Chough Pyung Ok, former Ambassador at large, as Prime Minister.

Prime Minister Lee Bum Suk announced one week ago he would resign.

Army headquarters announced 212 Red indoctrinated guerrillas from North Korea have been killed in the past two weeks and 39 captured. The army seized 138 weapons.

In addition, Flanders added, he told the Negroes he would bring his board of stewards and Smith would bring his board of deacons.

McCarthy . . .

called first," McCarthy said.

"I am asking the committee to subpoena him and have him testify," McCarthy added that he expects to produce other witnesses who he said would back up his accusations against Lattimore.

The committee has made tentative plans to hear on Thursday whatever witnesses McCarthy can produce.

The tumultuous inquiry into McCarthy's charges of Communism in the state department was enlivened meanwhile by an exchange in which: 1 A Democrat, Rep. Dingell of Michigan, declared that "reckless" Republican leaders are backing McCarthy in a drive to "get" President Truman.

2 McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican retorted that Mr. Truman is "afraid" to let a senate investigating committee examine secret files which McCarthy contends will prove his accusations.

Lattimore, an American specialist on far eastern affairs, has denied under oath McCarthy's charges that he is or has been a Communist and that he is a Soviet agent.

McCarthy spent the week getting in touch with mystery witnesses he has said will back up his contentions regarding Lattimore. He has promised to tell a senate committee tomorrow whether they have agreed to testify Thursday. That group is handling the investigation of his charges.

McCarthy whetted curiosity by asking Secretary of State Acheson this question:

"Do you deny, Mr. Acheson, that the only missing link in the Lattimore case is proof of either membership in the Communist party or payment by the party, and that if such proof is forthcoming that then Lattimore can truly be labeled as Russia's top agent in this country?"

McCarthy put the question in a telegram to Acheson last night. It was the first time he had said anything about "payment by the party" in connection with the Lattimore case.

Supreme Court Denies Hearings To Film Writers

Washington, April 10—(AP)—The Supreme court today refused to interfere with the power of Congressional committees to compel witnesses to say whether they are Communists.

The refusal came in the tribunal's rejection of two appeals filed by movie writers John Howard Lawson and Dalton Trumbo. They were convicted of contempt of Congress for declining to tell the house un-American activities committee whether they were members of the Communist party.

The Supreme Court denied hearings to Lawson and Trumbo on their appeals, thereby letting stand a lower court ruling that Congressional committees have power to inquire into Communist party membership.

Raymond P. Hair Awaits Outcome Of His Appeal

Raleigh, April 10—(AP)—Raymond P. Hair remained behind bars today awaiting the outcome of an appeal on his second degree murder conviction in the slaying of a college companion.

Hair, 24-year-old Wake Forest College pre-medical student, was convicted of murdering Roy Coble, 20, of Oakboro and sentenced to 25 to 30 years in prison.

An all-male jury, including a Negro school principal, took slightly more than four hours yesterday—Easter Sunday—to return its verdict to a jammed courtroom dressed in its Easter best.

Hair immediately posted appeal bond but was denied bail bond.

Hope Is Revived For Lost Plane As Flares Seen

Frankfurt, Germany, April 10—(AP)—Sighting of two flares in the Baltic Sea today revived hope for a lost U. S. Navy fliers missing in a lost PB-4Y patrol plane since Saturday.

U. S. Air Force headquarters said the flares had been sighted by a search plane near the Danish island of Bornholm. Additional search planes and ships of the Danish and Swedish navy were sent to the area in the hope that the flares might have been set up from the missing plane.

The four-engine "Privateer" patrol plane disappeared Saturday on a 430-mile training flight from Wiesbaden, Germany, to Copenhagen, Denmark.

Foreign Aid Bill Likely To Delay Action On FEPC

Washington, April 10—(AP)—A drive for action on a foreign aid bill seemed likely today to put off Senate debate on a Fair Employment Practices Commission measure.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, said a decision on timing of the two measures may be made at a Democratic policy committee meeting tomorrow.

Earlier Lucas had forecast Senate action on the FEPC bill—certain to provoke a Southern filibuster—after several less-controversial measures are cleared this week.

However, Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee is reported pressing for action on the Economic Cooperation Administration measure cleared by the committee recently.
