

WEATHER

Cloudy and continued warm with scattered showers and thunderstorms tonight and Sunday.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION

TELEPHONES

Circulation, Advertising and Social News Departments 3356
Publisher, News and Mechanical Departments 3245

VOL. 122 No. 102

FULL LEASED WIRE ASSOCIATED PRESS

GREENVILLE, N.C. SATURDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 29, 1950

Eight Pages Today

Price 5 Cents

BARKLEY CHALLENGE HIGHLIGHTS DAY

'Veep' Had Full Day In Quick Visit

From Time Of His Arrival To Hour Of Departure, Barkley Kept On Run

By JOHN SPINKS, JR.

One hundred and sixty years after George Washington made his locally-classic remark about Greenville and the Tar River, Vice President Alben Barkley yesterday described the town as a "lovely, well-paved city which is growing very rapidly."

The 72-year-old jaunty but very dignified holder of the nation's second ranking office stated he was much more fortunate than Washington in coming to Greenville yesterday because "George Washington came here now he'd find things very much different."

Barkley made his remarks at a press conference in the home of M. K. Blount at the same time an informal party was taking place on the terrace for young-out-of-town guests here for the Young Democrats' Roosevelt Dinner.

Besides lauding Greenville and its citizenry the Veep, which incidentally was a term little-used yesterday and evening, made other informal remarks about his off the cuff speech last night. He commented on the history of the party from Grover Cleveland's tenure through the present regime, handing out for press consumption odd bits about the highlights of each Democratic term.

The entire day had most businessmen downtown standing in their doorways, waiting for the appearance of the Veep. From noon-time through the expected time of arrival of Representative Thurmond Chairman's amphibian, townspeople were pacing the street in front of the hotel, dipping inside occasionally to see any politicians who may have dropped in. Evans Street and the courthouse corner dripped with an air of expectancy. Everyone realized the occasion was an honor for Greenville and Pitt County and responded by lining the street for the cottage from the airport.

A crowd of about 200 stood around parked cars near the ramp at the field, their eyes combing the darkening skies for any sight of a plane bearing the dignitaries from Washington. Expected at 5:30, the twin-engine blue and yellow amphibian circled the field and landed at 6:02, formally late, everyone thought, for the persons aboard.

The crowd rushed to the wingtip of the parked plane and waited for about two minutes before any sign of life inside appeared. Then the door opened and Barkley, his hat in hand waving broadly, stooped to have a look at the throng. Outside he posed for pictures alongside Representatives Herbert Bonner and Harold Cooley and Labor Department solicitor Bill Tyson. On the plane also were Mrs. Bonner, Mrs. Cooley, Mary Andrews Whitford, Bonner's secretary, and John McConnell, Graham's assistant. Everybody got into the act as the line of local politicians and just plain onlookers began parading past him shaking his hand. Then he was whisked away by YDC President Terry Sanford to the party for out-of-towners.

The crowd of 600 at the barbecue dinner at Wright auditorium last night stood or sat at their places, waiting for the procession of old

Continued on Page Eight

Tydings Orders Contempt Charge For Witnesses

Directs Preparation Of Citations Against Browder And Frederick Field

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Senator Tydings ordered a start today on contempt proceedings against Earl Browder and Frederick Field for refusal to answer questions before his Communist investigating committee.

The Maryland Democrat, chairman of a Senate foreign relations subcommittee, directed Edward P. Morgan, committee counsel, to prepare contempt citations.

He said he believed there had been "an affront to the dignity of the Senate and the government in the refusal of the witnesses to answer certain questions."

Browder is former head of the American Communist party, and Field has been identified in testimony as an acknowledged Communist.

Before court action could be brought against them on charges of contempt of Congress, the subcommittee, the full foreign relations committee, and the Senate itself would have to approve the citations.

The subcommittee under Tydings is looking into charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that the State Department is honeycombed with Communists and other bad security risks.

The citation against Browder is based on his refusal Thursday to answer questions about Communist party affiliations of numerous individuals. He said the outpouring of questions constituted a "fishing expedition" and contended that the queries were improper.

Women Urged To Register, Vote

N.C. Democratic Women Confer On Strengthening Party

Nearly two score representative North Carolina Democratic women in session at the City Hall during yesterday afternoon, engaged in a panel discussion of means to interest more women in registering and voting.

Mrs. C. N. Meakin of Fayetteville led the discussion, with Mrs. Curtis Spencer of Greenville, Verdie Nobles of Deep Run and Kathryn Folger of Dobson participating.

Mrs. Curtis Spencer, vice-chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive Committee, welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Hush Dorch of Goldsboro said the invocation.

Mrs. D. A. McCormick of McDonald, N.C., vice-chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee presided. She gave some timely advice about the importance of women taking more active parts in Democratic party affairs.

The spirit of the meeting was to encourage women to endeavor to interest other women in doing their duty in support of attendance at Democratic precinct, county and

Continued on page eight

YDC Event Drew Many Reporters

Dozens Of Newsmen Put Barkley Visit On Front Page Of Nation's Press

By CHESTER WALSH

More representatives of the press and news photographers were in Greenville yesterday to cover events incident to the North Carolina Young Democrats' "Roosevelt Day" banquet at East Carolina Teachers College last night, with Vice President Alben Barkley and his party arriving from Washington and at the college auditorium last night.

The eyes of the nation were focused on Greenville, North Carolina, yesterday and last night, when millions of Americans were interested in what Vice President Barkley, distinguished Kentucky statesman, would say in his address before 1,000 North Carolina men and women at the Young Democrats' "Roosevelt Day" banquet.

Photographers' flash bulbs cast a brilliant glow against the sunset in the west when Vice President Barkley and his party from the National Capital alighted from Thurmond Chatham's plane at the airport. Photographers' flashes illuminated Wright auditorium at the college during the banquet last night.

Allen Alexander of Raleigh represented the Associated Press. Arthur B. Johnson of Raleigh appeared for the Greensboro Daily News. Mervin VanHecke and Marilyn Ferrell, Kinston Daily Free Press; Bill Johnson, Rocky Mount Telegram; George A. Johnson, Goldsboro News-Argus; Jim Hookaday, Farmville Enterprise; Emmett Patterson, Ayden Dispatch; Frances Manning, Williamston Enterprise and The Robersonian; Mary Greene and Carl Conners, ECTC's Teeco-Echo.

The Greenville Daily Reflector was represented in the press group by D. J. Whitchard, Jr., publisher, and Managing Editor David J. Whitchard III, staff writers John Spinks and Chester Walsh, and photographer Roy Hardee.

Wade Lucas represented the Charlotte Observer. Mrs. Helen Ross of Newton, Catawba News-Enterprise; W. Beverly Whitley, reporter and photographer for the Durham Herald; Seth Muse, freelance photographer of Washington, D. C., and a Plymouth Roanoke Beacon reporter, and others.

Jonathan Daniels and R. E. Williams represented the Raleigh News and Observer, with Jim Chaney writing the story and Lawrence Wolford doing the photography.

A Fayetteville photographer took a picture of the vast audience in Wright auditorium and had the picture developed before the meeting was over.

Greenville, North Carolina, in stories and pictures about Vice President Barkley's visit here, was on the pages of newspapers all over the United States today and radio commentators on the big networks were reviewing the vice president's speech in Greenville.

Greenville, North Carolina, in stories and pictures about Vice President Barkley's visit here, was on the pages of newspapers all over the United States today and radio commentators on the big networks were reviewing the vice president's speech in Greenville.

Scott To Inspect Highway Patrol

Raleigh, N.C., April 29—(AP)—Governor Scott is going to inspect each of the highway patrol's four troops, starting next week.

He will begin the inspections after the swearing-in of Maj. James R. Smith as patrol commander, with the rank of colonel. The oath-taking will be held at the governor's office Monday.

The governor will inspect Patrol Troop B at Fayetteville on Wednesday, Troop D at Lake Lure on Thursday, Troop C in Greensboro on Friday, and Troop A in Greenville on Tuesday, May 9.

Suspect Ghost In Rocking Chair

Muscataine, Ia., April 29—(AP)—The Floyd Holladays don't know what makes their old rocking chair rock, but they wish it would stop. More than 200 persons have seen the empty platform rocking chair. Some say the chair is haunted.

Holladay says he doesn't believe in the super-natural. But he can't explain why the chair has rocked almost steadily for 37 days. Holladay's wife says the rocker scares her.

Call 3356

City subscribers who do not receive their Reflector by six p.m. are requested to report me by telephoning 3356 between six and six-thirty p.m. After that hour the circulation department will be closed and deliveries will be made of papers missed.

Continued on page six

Barkley Greeted On Arrival By Plane

Vice-President Alben Barkley was snapped yesterday as he arrived at the Greenville-Pitt County airport at 6:05 p.m. prior to his speaking engagement at the Young Democrats rally at East Carolina Teachers College last night. Barkley is shown leaving the plane aided by Congressman Herbert Bonner. (Reflector staff photos by Roy Hardee.) (Other photos on page three)

Portion Of Large Gathering At YDC Banquet

One section of the estimated 1,000 people who crowded into Wright auditorium to hear Vice President Alben Barkley deliver the main address at the Young Democratic rally last night is shown at the banquet which was the forerunner of the speaking.

Refutes Claim Of Socialistic Trend

Vice President Alben Barkley last night issued a challenge to the Republican party to point out what law enacted by the Democrats is socialistic.

The Vice President issued his challenge from the stage of the Wright auditorium on the campus of East Carolina Teachers College where he addressed approximately 850 people who gathered for the first annual Roosevelt dinner sponsored by the Young Democratic club of North Carolina.

The Republicans met up there in Washington and issued a slogan because they have no program," Barkley declared. "Their slogan is Liberty against Socialism. I challenge them to point out any law passed by the Democrats that is socialistic. They are trying to scare the people of America with an epithaph."

Cleveland was not afraid of an epithaph, Wilson was not afraid of an epithaph, Truman is not afraid of an epithaph, and if you're interested in knowing, neither am I afraid of an epithaph."

"Not one man can arise and say that he has lost his freedom under the Democratic administration."

The Vice President lashed out at the inactivity of the Republican administration in promoting legislation for the good of the people of the country. "The Republicans have not had a new idea in 78 years," he asserted. "The trouble with the Republican leaders is they have colic, and I'm afraid it is going to be fatal to them."

Barkley declared that the elections since the Civil War "are all proof of the fact that it is always the Democratic party the people of America rely on when they need to go forward. Since the war between the states every great law which has been enacted on behalf of the American people has been put there by the Democratic party. The Democratic party never has been afraid to plow new ground in legislation for the people. The Democratic party is what it's always

Barkley said North Carolina's Junior Senator Frank Graham, carrying on in the Senate the lineage of fine men who have represented the Tar Heel state in the halls of Congress. The Vice President recalled that his grandfather's middle name was Graham, and for that reason, he said, he claims kin to North Carolina's Junior Senator and the other Gramms of the state. Barkley told the audience, "Send back to your Congress the delegation which now represents you, or if there are others more qualified send them. No matter who is selected as U. S. Senator get behind him so he will support us up there."

Terry Sanford of Fayetteville, president of the state YDC, presided at the last night's meeting. The people were welcomed to the rally by J. B. Spilman, president of the Pitt county YDC, and Dr. Leo Jenkins, dean of East Carolina Teachers College.

Among the distinguished guests recognized by the presiding officer were Mrs. Kerr Scott, who was here in the absence of her husband; Secretary of State Thad Eure; Congressman Herbert Bonner and Harold Cooley; National Committeeman Jonathan Daniels; Mrs. D. A. McCormick of McDonald, vice chairman of the executive committee of the state party organization; Former Senator William B. Umstead; William Tyson, a native of Greenville who is now solicitor of the Department of Labor; Joe Congleton, president of the ECTC Young Democrats club, and officers of the state YDC.

Senator Frank Graham was the only one of the four senatorial candidates who was present at the meeting. Graham was called to the rostrum by Sanford and addressed the audience for approximately 20 minutes. Senatorial Candidate Willis Smith was represented at the meeting by Judge J. W. H. Roberts, his Pitt county campaign manager.

Senator Frank P. Graham called for strong military, naval, air and atomic power, free capitalism for the masses and a balancing of the federal budget "at the first opportunity" in a campaign speech made last night at the Young Democrats rally here at which Vice President Alben Barkley was the principal speaker.

Last night's appearance in Pitt County was the first made by Senator Graham in his campaign for reelection to the United States Senate. Graham was introduced by Terry Sanford, president of the North Carolina Young Democrats.

Graham declared that the present agricultural program based on the principle of parity must be continued, and he pledged his support to the continuation of the program.

He declared that America must be strong in its interracial relations. The North Carolina way has been the sure way. The wiser, the surer, the better way is the North Carolina way through education and

Washington, April 29—(AP)—We've had some trials here involving spying in one form or another, or plots against the government. But—

The Russian satellite countries of Europe have had a rash of trials on similar charges, plus spying for the Americans and British.

Here 11 top American Communists were found guilty of conspiring to teach overthrow of the government, sentence: 5 years each.

Judith Coplon, once a government worker, and a Russian, Valentin Cubitchev, were found guilty of spying against this government. Her sentence, 30 years, he got 15 years but was allowed to return to Russia.

Alger Hiss, once a state department official, was convicted of perjury. He had denied giving department papers to Whittaker Chambers, former Communist. Chambers said Hiss was a spy ring.

In Hungary this year Robert Vogeler, an American businessman, and Edgar Sanders, a British accountant, were tried on a spy charge. Vogeler got 15 years, Sanders 10. Except for these two outsiders, the big treason-overthrow-spying trials in the satellite countries involved their own people.

Before going further, two things may be worth remembering: 1 When the Communists take over, they try to wipe out all opposition any way they can, as fast as they can. Therefore, the charges they sometimes make have to be divided in half, disregarded, or taken with salt. 2 But, at the same time, if the Americans and British aren't busy trying to find out all they can in the satellite countries, including spying, they ought to win the booby bonnet. You can be sure the Russians are trying to find out all they can here, any way they can.

For these reasons the charges made against people tried in the Communist countries are murky. You can't tell whether they're true or not, even when a defendant abjectly condemns himself.

All these satellite countries—Rumania, Albania, Hungary, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Poland—have had trials since the war for alleged crimes against the government. Briefly, here are some: Czechoslovakia... Catholic priests

(Continued on page six)

Propaganda Hazards

Analyst Recalls Greatest Hazard A Newsman Has To Overcome Is Propaganda, Of Either Great Or Little Import; Instances In World War I; The Safeguards

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

Casting back over more than forty years of reporting in many parts of the globe for our Saturday column of reminiscence, I am reminded that one of the greatest hazards a newsman has to overcome is propaganda.

All sorts of folk, with axes to grind, conspire to make the reporter the grindstone. And of course the correspondent who is dealing with wars and affairs of state may run into some very high-class skullduggery among the powers that be.

Men who otherwise are perfectly fine fellows will look you straight in the eye and tell the damnest lies imaginable. And sometimes they get away with it.

Wars of course are particularly productive of propaganda, for words sometimes are more powerful than bombs.

One of the most striking (and most damnable) pieces of propaganda I ever encountered was the story in World War I about the alleged German cadaver factories. This tale was loosed on the British front, and overnight winged its way around the world.

The story was that the Germans were boiling down their war dead to get fats for industrial uses. This was supposed to have been discovered from papers on captured

Continued on page six

Rains A Big Help, But Tobacco Plants Reported Needing More

The rain last night was far from what Pitt tobacco beds needed but there is no doubt it helped some. That opinion was expressed this morning by county tobacco agent Sam Weeks in comment on the current condition of the tobacco plants.

The rain was general throughout the county with more in the northwest and northern sections than in the southern. Reports from Fountain and Bethel today stated the rain was heavy, particularly near the Wilson County line. Around Grifton and other southern areas the fall was slight with mostly thunder and lightning.

With more rain predicted for tonight and tomorrow, Weeks had high hopes for improvement in growing conditions. He said that if the county has sufficient rain over the weekend the plants will respond and grow considerably provided the weather remains warm.

The root systems of the plants are such at the present time that the plants will grow rapidly. The roots are fairly well developed now and will respond to the right amount of rain.

Some plants have been set out in the fields already. Weeks said though they were showing the effects of not enough rainfall to moisten the ground. He stated there will have to be much more moisture in the ground to assure good growth, once the beds have been emptied.

Meanwhile, reports throughout the Carolinas and Georgia state tobacco beds are in much the same condition as are Pitt's. Due to the current

The 'Treason' Trials

Rash Of Trials For Espionage And Plotting, At Home And Abroad; Extent Of Purges In Communist Governments; Possible Purge In Russia, But Kept Quiet

By JAMEL MARLOW

Washington, April 29—(AP)—We've had some trials here involving spying in one form or another, or plots against the government. But—

The Russian satellite countries of Europe have had a rash of trials on similar charges, plus spying for the Americans and British.

Here 11 top American Communists were found guilty of conspiring to teach overthrow of the government, sentence: 5 years each.

Judith Coplon, once a government worker, and a Russian, Valentin Cubitchev, were found guilty of spying against this government. Her sentence, 30 years, he got 15 years but was allowed to return to Russia.

Alger Hiss, once a state department official, was convicted of perjury. He had denied giving department papers to Whittaker Chambers, former Communist. Chambers said Hiss was a spy ring.

In Hungary this year Robert Vogeler, an American businessman, and Edgar Sanders, a British accountant, were tried on a spy charge. Vogeler got 15 years, Sanders 10. Except for these two outsiders, the big treason-overthrow-spying trials in the satellite countries involved their own people.

Before going further, two things may be worth remembering: 1 When the Communists take over, they try to wipe out all opposition any way they can, as fast as they can. Therefore, the charges they sometimes make have to be divided in half, disregarded, or taken with salt. 2 But, at the same time, if the Americans and British aren't busy trying to find out all they can in the satellite countries, including spying, they ought to win the booby bonnet. You can be sure the Russians are trying to find out all they can here, any way they can.

For these reasons the charges made against people tried in the Communist countries are murky. You can't tell whether they're true or not, even when a defendant abjectly condemns himself.

All these satellite countries—Rumania, Albania, Hungary, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Poland—have had trials since the war for alleged crimes against the government. Briefly, here are some: Czechoslovakia... Catholic priests

(Continued on page six)

Social and Personal

All items for this page received after 10 A. M. will be published the following day. Dial 2000-5 A. M. to Room: 1 to 4:30 P. M.

40 Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
April 29, 1910

The Henry Grady debating society of Greenville graded school has again triumphed in debate. E. F. Taylor and L. J. Smith won a splendid victory Friday night in the contest with Washington.

B. B. Sugg went to Wilson this morning.

Miss Mary Lucy Dupree went to Farmville Friday evening.

Mrs. L. M. Savage and little daughter went to Farmville Friday evening.

Miss Mamie Jenkins, one of the training school teachers, went to Raleigh Friday evening to spend a few days.

reading during the month of May.

The dates and places for the youth conferences for the summer have been announced as follows: Pioneer conference, June 19-24, at Peace Junior College, Raleigh; Senior conference, June 26-July 1, Flora McDonald College, Red Springs.

Dr. G. Curtis Jones, pastor of Seventh Street Christian Church, Richmond, Va., will be the guest preacher each evening during the week of April 30-May 7 at the Eighth Street Christian Church of Greenville. Dr. Jones is a young man of strong Christian convictions, a pleasing and persuasive personality and an excellent preacher. A special invitation is extended our membership to attend.

May 7-14th will be observed as Christian Family Week in the churches of America.

Meetings of Women's Organizations
The Greenville Council of Church Women will meet at the Christian church on Friday of this week at a covered dish luncheon at 12 noon, and the program of the afternoon will be an address by Mrs. E. L. Hillman, president-elect of the state organization of interdenominational womanhood. Women of all the churches in Greenville are invited to participate in this meeting.

The women of the Christian churches in the Hookerton district will meet on Wednesday of this week at 10:30 in the morning in the Aiden Christian church and at that time Miss Velva Drees, Indiana, Indiana, national director of the adult missionary organizations of the Disciples of Christ, will outline and explain the organizational set-up of the Christian Woman's Fellowship. This is May 3, and the women from the various churches are asked to bring covered dishes for the noon luncheon.

W. S. C. S. Circle Meetings
The circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church will meet on Monday at 3:30 o'clock as follows:

Circle No. 2—Mrs. Rufus Stark, chairman, with Mrs. J. F. Arthur, 404 E. 14th street.

Circle No. 3—Mrs. Clara M. Shackell, chairman, with Mrs. C. E. Oakley, 1903 E. 8th street.

Circle No. 4—Mrs. George Clapp, Jr., chairman, with Mrs. A. C. Tadlock, 210 S. Library street.

Circle No. 5—Mrs. Beulah W. Brown, chairman, with Mrs. H. R. Rogers, Washington highway.

Circle No. 6—Mrs. J. D. Messick, chairman, with Mrs. J. D. Messick, E. 5th street.

Circle No. 7—Mrs. W. J. Stell, Jr., chairman, with Mrs. Helen W. Hawes, 808 S. Evans street.

Circle No. 8—Mrs. V. C. Fleming, Jr., chairman, with Mrs. Leon Russell, 605 E. 10th street.

Circle No. 9—Mrs. N. O. VanNortwick, Jr., chairman, with Mrs. M. P. Hoot, 1701 E. 4th street.

Circles Nos. 1 and 10 will meet Monday at 8 o'clock as follows:

Circle No. 1—Mrs. Jake Hadley, chairman, with Miss Mamie Chandler, Student Center, 501 E. 5th street.

Circle No. 10—Mrs. E. O. Parkinson, Jr., chairman, with Mrs. A. L. Whitehurst, E. 4th street extension.

Oak wilt disease has been found to spread through root "grafts" occurring naturally between trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGowan, Jr., returned Thursday from Cleveland, Ohio, where they visited Mrs. McGowan's sister, Mrs. John Flammang, Miss Frances Tucker, who has been spending some time with Mrs. Flammang, returned with them.

Dr. Joseph C. Bateman left today for Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, where he will attend the North Carolina and South Carolina Veterinary Medical Association.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Wilson, has returned to Orange, N. J. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Carl Ingle and Mr. Ingle.

"Mock Wedding"
Presented by Piney Grove Junior Auxiliary at the Red Oak Community building Wednesday night, May 3. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Religious Radio Programs
Rev. L. I. Hare, minister of the Church of God, will conduct the week-day morning devotions over WGTG May 1-6.

The Sunday morning worship services, 11 o'clock, of the St. George Episcopal church, Rev. Ernest Williams, Rector, will be broadcast over WGTG during the month of May.

E. C. T. C. Alumni to Meet
The Greenville-Pitt County Chapter of the Alumni Association of E. C. T. C. will meet Friday evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock, in the alumni office. An impressive installation service for the new officers has been planned by Mrs. R. C. Pearce, program chairman.

Hostesses will be Mrs. W. G. Garner, Mrs. J. D. Aman, Mrs. Burt Greene, Mrs. Leslie Jones and Mrs. Lenwood Worthington.

Circles of Memorial Baptist Church
All day time circles of Memorial Baptist W. M. S. will meet in the basement of the church Monday afternoon at 3:30. Groups will assemble in the Fellowship class room at 4 o'clock to hear Mrs. Gordon Maddrey of Aho-kie, who is scheduled to speak at that time. Mrs. Maddrey is first vice president of North Carolina W. M. U. and is widely known for her work in this field.

Mrs. N. C. Brooks, local W. M. U. president, not only urges circle members to hear Mrs. Maddrey, but invites anyone interested to attend this meeting.

May Fellowship Day
May Fellowship Day, sponsored by the Greenville Council of Church Women, will be observed Friday, May 5, at 12 o'clock, noon, in the Eighth Street Christian church. A covered dish luncheon will be served.

Mrs. E. L. Hillman of Durham will be guest speaker.

Wesleyan Service Guild Circles
The circles of the Wesleyan Service Guild of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church will have a joint meeting on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Ellington Bible class room. All members are urged to be present.

Presbyterian Announcements
The Westminster Fellowship of college students will meet in front of the college post office Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock and will have an outdoor meeting.

The Senior Young People will meet in the Women's Bible class room Sunday at 6:30 p. m. The Pioneers will meet in the college class room Sunday evening at 6:45.

The Executive Board of the Women of the Church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. James S. Jenkins.

Choir practice Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the ladies' Bible class room.

The Acts of the Apostles is the New Testament book suggested for

WEDDING Announcements
STATIONERY
Invitations
Reception Cards
Visiting Cards
At Home Cards
Best Jewelry Co.
"Your Jewelers"

MONEY SAVING NEWS FOR HARD-OF-HEARING

Acousticon

FOR ONLY $69.50

Absolutely Guaranteed—Nothing Else To Buy

- NO EAR BUTTON REQUIRED
- NO SEPARATE BATTERIES
- ONE SMALL COMPACT UNIT
- FOUR POINT TONE CONTROL

FREE HEARING AID CLINIC
Hotel Proctor
Tuesday, April 25, 1950
Hours 11 A. M. to 7 P. M.

ACOUSTICON WILMINGTON CO.
210 Southern Bldg., Wilmington, N. C.
GIDEON L. BATEMAN, Distributor

Engagement Announced

Miss Mary Lea Abbe, daughter of Mrs. Roy Carl Abbe, Sr., and the late Mr. Abbe of Greenville, N. C., whose engagement to J. Robert Russ, Jr., son of Mr. James R. Russ, Sr., and the late Mrs. Russ of Washington, N. C., is announced by her mother. The wedding will take place June 18.

Miss Kilgo Feted At Luncheon

In honor of a bride-elect of May, Miss Susanne Kilgo, a luncheon was given on Thursday by Mrs. Lee Foller and Mrs. Tom Webb at the home of the former.

A color note of lavender and green was carried out in the dining room decorations.

Mrs. R. M. Garrett assisted the hostesses in serving the luncheon guests.

Miss Kilgo was presented silver candlesticks and a silver vegetable dish as honor gifts.

Carolyn Phippen Honored At Shower

Misses Ruth Doughtie and Velva Collins entertained informally at a miscellaneous shower at 1003 East 4th Street, April 22, in honor of Miss Carolyn Phippen of Greenville, N. C., and Milton Howard, also of Greenville, bridal couple-elect of May 14.

The guests were welcomed by the hostesses, who presented a corsage of white carnations to the bride-elect and a gift of silver in her pattern.

The dining room table was decorated carrying out a spring color scheme of pink, blue, yellow and green. Lime ice, salted nuts and cookies were served to about 30 guests.

Dr. Frank Talks On Current Topics

The End-of-the-Century Book club met on Tuesday, April 25th at the home of Mrs. F. C. Harding with Miss Mary Harding assisting hostesses. The guests were graciously welcomed by the entire Harding family. Mrs. C. A. White presided over a brief business meeting. A generous donation was voted to be given to the cancer drive. Mrs. J. H. Thomas presented Dr. A. D. Frank, who gave the program. He chose for his discussion of present day topics, The State Department and the Senate investigations, the situation in Berlin at the present and the serious conflict in China. As always Dr. Frank's talk was deeply interesting and greatly enjoyed. This club feels a decided debt of gratitude to Dr. Frank for his cooperation in our programs each year and look forward to his timely talks.

After a delicious salad plate with coffee was served, the books were distributed. As a memento of the occasion Miss Harding presented each member with a group photograph taken earlier in the year, which will be greatly prized.

Newcomers & Removals

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Wilson who have moved here from Radford, Va., are living at 318 E. 10th street. Mr. Wilson is employed by Whitley Wallpaper Company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Apple have moved to 514 E. 8th street, from 408 Student street.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sturm, formerly of Raleigh, have moved to East 10th street extension. Mr. Sturm is manager of Pitt and State Theatres.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carson have moved to 403 Oak street from 304 Meade street.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hopkins, formerly of Wilmington, have moved to 110 Summitt street. Mr. Hopkins is employed by Jackson's Shoe Store.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wingate have moved to 204 Ridgeway from 1008 Evans street.

M-Sgt. and Mrs. Chas. W. Briscoe are living at 212 Pitt street.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

MONDAY

10:30 a. m.—Service League meets in Sheppard Memorial Library.

3:30 p. m.—W. S. C. S. circles 2-9.

3:30 p. m.—Executive Board of the Women of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. James S. Jenkins.

3:30 p. m.—Circles of Immanuel Baptist church will meet.

6:30 p. m.—Rotary Club.

7:00 p. m.—Lions Club.

8:00 p. m.—W. S. C. S. circles 1 & 10.

8:00 p. m.—Wesleyan Service Guild Circles 1 & 2.

TUESDAY

1:00 p. m.—Annual Book Club day luncheon at Woman's Club.

8:00 p. m.—Chapter 149 of the Eastern Star will meet.

WEDNESDAY

8:00 p. m.—Junior Woman's club meets at the club house.

FRIDAY

12:00 Noon—May Fellowship Day sponsored by Greenville Council of Church Women in Christian church. Mrs. E. L. Hillman of Durham, guest speaker.

6:30 p. m.—Kiwanis Club.

6:30 p. m.—Exchange Club.

8:00 p. m.—Greenville-Pitt County chapter of Alumni Association of E. C. T. C. meets in the Alumni office.

Girl Scout News

National Representative Visits Greenville Girl Scout Council

Miss Mary Johnson from the National Branch Office in Atlanta, Ga., will spend Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week visiting the Greenville Girl Scout Council.

Monday afternoon, Monday evening, and Tuesday morning will be devoted to a study of the duties and responsibilities of the council membership. Conferences will be held with the individual members of the council as the need may arise. Tuesday afternoon will be devoted to assisting the Negro Scout leaders.

On Wednesday, all the Greenville leaders and all the leaders from neighboring communities will meet at Camp Hardee for an all-day leaders' conference.

We are most fortunate to have Miss Johnson visit with us and we wish every council member to make the most of this opportunity by arranging a schedule that will fit into the one planned for her. It has been a number of years since a member of the National staff has paid Greenville a visit.

Bookmobile Schedule

Barnhill's Store 10:15-10:30

Pete's filling station 10:45-11:00

Oak Grove church 11:10-11:25

Taylor's store 11:35-11:50

Leens 12:00-12:15

Stokes school 1:00-2:00

Stokes 2:05-2:30

Whicard 2:45-3:00

Engagement Announced

Miss Mary Frances Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Porter of Greenville, whose engagement to Loyd Fornes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Fornes, Sr., of Greenville, N. C., is announced by her parents. The wedding will take place May 27.

West Greenville School News

Pollwogs

Yesterday Jackie went to the big ditch. He got three pollwogs. He brought them to us. We will watch them lose their tails. We will watch their legs grow. We will watch them grow to toads and frogs.—First Grade.

A Surprise

We came to school Monday morning. We walked into our room and guess what we saw. Our room was painted. It is just like the sky. Our green board looks like grass. It is all so pretty. First Grade.

Roger's Tooth

Roger had a loose tooth. He showed it to Mrs. Wolff. He showed it to Glenn. Then while we were reading, it just fell out. We wrapped it up for Roger to take to his mama.—First Grade.

Interesting Plants

Belinda brought some wild flowers to school. They were dandelions, clover, evening primrose and blue toadlax. She brought some moss too. Mona Sue brought some wild honeysuckle. We put the pretty plants on our Science table.—Second Grade.

Taking Things

Taking things is not nice. If you take little things like a pencil and a penny when you are little, you will take bigger things when you are bigger. So please do not take things that do not belong to you.—Ann Baker, Fourth Grade.

Meeting Schedule For HD Clubs

Littlefield Home Demonstration club meets at the home of Mrs. Hubert Hart on May 1, at 2:30 p. m.

Pactolus H. D. club will meet at the Community building on May 2, at 7:30 p. m.

Red Banks H. D. club meets at the Eastern Pines Community building on May 2, at 2:30 p. m.

Ballards H. D. club meets at the Moyer Community building on May 3, at 2 p. m.

Red Oak H. D. club meets at the club house on May 4 at 7:30 p. m.

Belvoir H. D. club meets at the home of Mrs. Harvey A. Moore, on May 4, at 2:30 p. m.

Chloed H. D. club will meet at the Home Economics cottage on May 8 at 2:30 p. m.

It's About Your Personal LIFE See Tuesday's Issue

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH WARD

I hereby announce my candidacy for Alderman of the City of Greenville from the Fourth Ward, subject to the action of the Democratic primary-election on Monday May 1st.

My only desire in running for this office is to have a more efficient government for our city and to promote the growth and progress of Greenville.

Your vote and support will be appreciated.

Walter E. Lewis

A Special Announcement...

Our Store Will Be Closed All Day Monday, May 1st, On Account Of Installing New Fixtures For The Front Of Our Store. Will Reopen Tuesday Morning With Special Prices On Every Item In Our Modern Bakery.

FREE: Cookies to all Children up to 12 years TUESDAY

All Orders For Birthday Cakes Taken On Tuesday, May 2nd, Will Be Made At 1/2 Price. Our Bakery Will Be Open Wednesdays.

Mrs. Morton's Bakery

Dividend Paying Policies
Tadlock Mutual Insurance Agency
Save With Safety... Buy Mutual Insurance
FIRE, AUTOMOBILE and TORNADO
320 Evans St. Greenville, N. C. Dial 3224

Personalities And YDC Highlights Caught By Camera

Senator and Mrs. Frank Graham are shown in the receiving line yesterday afternoon as they greeted well-wishers at an informal tea sponsored by Graham supporters in Pitt County. Left to right—Mrs. Charlotte Dyhrberg, Elizabeth City; Mrs. Graham, Senator Graham, Mrs. J. B. Spilman, Van Fleming and Arthur Tripp.

Vice-President Alben Barkley took the speakers stand last night and expounded the achievements of the Democratic party since the Civil war before an audience of some 850 people here. In the background is Jonathan Daniels, Democratic National Committeeman.

Vice President Barkley was the guest of honor yesterday afternoon at an informal party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Blount of Greenville for government and party dignitaries, members of the welcoming committee and other out of town guests. Facing the camera left to right are Mrs. M. K. Blount, Hoover Taft, chairman of the distinguished guests committee, M. K. Blount, William Taft, Mrs. Hoover Taft, Vice President Barkley, Mrs. William Taft and F. Leighton Blount (foreground).

Arriving on the plane from Washington with the Vice-President, yesterday were: Third from left, Congressman Harold Cooley, Congressman Herbert Bonner and William Tyson, solicitor for the United States Labor Department. Terry Sanford is on the left with Vice-President Barkley.

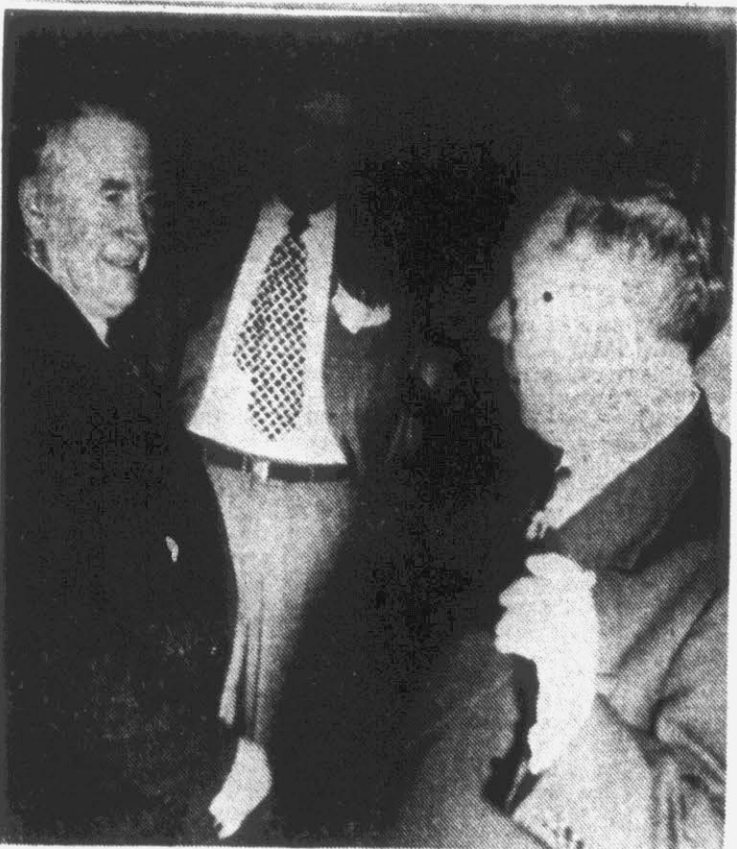

Mrs. Kerr Scott, wife of North Carolina's governor, is pictured as she talked with James Flemming yesterday at the tea given in honor of Senator Frank Graham at the Greenville Woman's club.

Nearly 50 North Carolina Democratic Women leaders were in conference here yesterday in connection with the North Carolina Young Democrats' first annual "Roosevelt Day" banquet. Front row, reading from left to right—Mrs. W. Kerr Scott of Raleigh, wife of the governor of North Carolina; Mrs. Charles G. Doak of Raleigh, Mrs. Curtis Spencer of near Greenville. Back row—Mrs. C. N. Meakin of Fayetteville, Mrs. Frank Smethurst of Raleigh and Mrs. D. A. McCormick of McDonald, N. C.; vice-chairman of the North Carolina Democratic Executive committee.

Vice-President Barkley and Senator Frank Graham put their heads together while they enjoy the barbecue supper served last night at the Democratic rally.

The Vice-President has a smile following the rally last night as he chatted with Congressman Herbert Bonner (foreground) and Solicitor Basil L. Whitener of Gastonia (center).

President of the North Carolina Young Democrats, Terry Sanford, is pictured with Vice President Barkley, yesterday in the home of Marvin Blount, where the second highest government official held a press conference for the newsmen.

Mary Andrews Whichard (center) of Greenville is shown leaving the vice-presidential plane yesterday in which she came to Greenville for the Roosevelt dinner. Miss Whichard is secretary to Congressman Herbert Bonner, and was a member of the group which flew from Washington yesterday with Vice-President Barkley.

A portion of the large crowd which turned out to see the nation's second highest official yesterday are crowding around Barkley as he prepared to leave the Greenville Airport. Mrs. Harold Cooley, and Congressman Cooley are shown on the left of the Vice-President. (Reflector Staff Photos).

The Daily Reflector

Incorporated
Published Every Afternoon Except Sunday
Established 1882
DAVID J. WHICHARD, JR., Publisher
Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C.
as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
(Payable in Advance)
By Carrier Week $6
(BY MAIL)
Three Months $1.50
Six Months $2.75
One Year $4.50

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
Thomas B. Clark Co., Inc. New York, Chicago, Atlanta.
All advertising copy must be received at least one day before publication date.

Strength for the Day

BETTER PERHAPS, TO SWITCH
We live today in a materialistic heaven. Every gadget which contributes to comfort is at our disposal. Electricity washes our clothes and our dishes. Oil and gas heat our houses. We can fly to the ends of the earth in about sixty hours.
It is true that our own country has a standard of living vastly higher than any other country. Yet in England the poor have almost everything they want—plugs, false teeth, wheel chairs, and higher wages than ever before, with less work.
Yes what has our materialistic heaven brought us? It has brought us to the atomic bomb and the terrifying hydrogen bomb. Here we behold the two towering peaks of the mountain which stands at the center of the materialistic heaven.
Perhaps we would all be happier if we had a little of the Christian hell. For Christian faith has in past centuries involved many people in much suffering which was hell itself. Yet at the time of persecution the Church grew. When every convenience and decency was taken out of life and people were trodden down like animals, many of these down-trodden people, because they had faith in Jesus Christ, found life.
Will we have to go through it again? We do not seem to be making much spiritual progress as we feast and luxuriate in a materialistic heaven.

Yesterday Was Great Day For Pitt County

The first annual Roosevelt dinner which was staged last night in Greenville was the most successful party undertaking this section of North Carolina has ever seen.
The work of the Young Democratic organization of Pitt county and North Carolina brought together in Greenville the greatest number of high government officials and Democratic party officials Pitt county has ever had the pleasure of entertaining. The county was honored by the presence of the dignitaries, and will cherish the memory of the day for many years to come.
The Young Democrats and the not-so-young Democrats who put many hours of work into arranging the banquet on only two weeks' notice deserve the praise of the party members who joined in the great rally. Vice-President Alben Barkley came to Greenville a popular government official, and he left last night an even more popular official as far as the local people are concerned.
Not since the days of George Washington had a president or vice-president of the United States visited Pitt county. It was worth waiting for, however, for Pitt to be host to the most popular vice-president the country has ever had. No government official has ever so endeared himself to the people of this county in so short a time.
Vice President Barkley reviewed the Democratic party accomplishments and denounced the inactivity of the Republican administrations since the Civil War. From the rostrum of the Wright auditorium of East Carolina Teachers College the Vice-President issued a challenge to the Republican party to show where the administration has enacted socialistic legislation. The challenge is one which will have to bring comment of one sort or another from Republican leaders.
Yesterday was a great day for the Democratic party of North Carolina, and an even greater day for the people of Pitt county.

Was There A Purpose In Slighting Truman?

The speech of Vice-President Alben Barkley here last night was one of those rare off-the-cuff, died in the wool Democratic speeches which only the older heads of the Democratic party are able to deliver.
There was one thing which was conspicuous by its absence in Barkley's address to more than a thousand Democrats—reference to President Harry Truman and the present administration.
Barkley dwelled at length upon the activities of the Democratic administrations under Cleveland, Wilson and Roosevelt, but he only mentioned in passing the name of Harry Truman, and that was almost at the end of his address.
Perhaps it is significant that the Vice-President dwelled upon the Democratic party rather than the Truman administration. Perhaps he was keenly aware of the cool reception the name of Harry Truman received at the Jefferson Day dinner which the state party leaders had in Raleigh a short while ago. Barkley delivered the address there, too. It is likely that the Vice-President had been fore-warned to keep Truman in the background in his address here in the heart of Eastern North Carolina.

At any rate, the president received little attention from the Vice-President last night. It may be that the party leaders of the state fear that the President is losing his popularity among the people of North Carolina, and they are making a bid for the party strength upon the party name and the names of its past leaders rather than its present head.
We feel sure there must have been a purpose in slighting Truman in the party speech last night.

National Whirligig

News Behind The News
By RAY TUCKER
Every Saturday this veteran Washington correspondent devotes his column to answering readers' questions of general interest on national and international politics and personalities. Questions may be sent direct to Ray Tucker at 6308 Hillcrest Place, Chevy Chase, Md.

WASHINGTON, April 26—The fiery verbal exchanges between this Capital and Moscow in recent days have led many numerous readers, especially ex-GI's, to ask what sort of draft system would be set up for a possible World War III. Their queries are significant insofar as they reflect the uneasiness that seems to prevail throughout the country.

The ex-GI's are especially interested in ascertaining whether they will be exempted or called up again. As a reader in Long Beach, Cal., says, he was "full of enthusiasm to join up" in 1942, when he was only 22. Now married, the father of three and carrying a scar, he would like to sit this one out, and let the young fellows take over.
"In case you mention this letter in your column," he adds, "please don't mention my name, as I'm supposed to be a pretty tough boy (ex-infantry), and I'd get a kidding from the fellows if they knew I wrote this."

No reason for "kidding" a man with your service, soldier.

EXEMPT—The Vinson Bill providing for permanent selective service is merely a grant of blanket authority authorizing registration, transportation and preservation of records. It does not specify who shall be drafted or exempted, as that question is left to the Director acting under direction of the President. The existing statute, however, does exempt specifically three classes of men who fought in the last conflict. These include (1) those who served for twelve months or more between September 16, 1940, and June 24, 1948; (2) those who served more than ninety days between December 7, 1941, and September 2, 1945; or (3) for more than ninety days but less than twelve months between September 16, 1940, and June 24, 1948.

LIMITS—Married men with children would certainly be deferred in the early stages. As to age limits, they would probably range from nineteen to 28 or 30. The maximums were 46 and 36 in World War II, but it was found that men over 30 can't stand the gaff of modern, mechanized warfare.

Incidentally, the Vinson Bill seemed to have no chance of passage at this session. It was destined for a committee pigeonhole. But Stalin has been its best booster. His brutal and churlish conduct has so affected Capitol Hill sentiment that enactment is now forecast before adjournment.

CIRCUMSTANCES—Under certain circumstances, the authorities tell me, all bets as to exemptions may be off. Much may depend upon the circumstances of the outbreak, and the manner in which the next struggle may be waged.

If the U.S. should be attacked, it may be necessary to call up ex-GI's because of their training and experience, whether they are married or in their thirties. If it should be a "push-button affair," ten years or so from now, we may not need a great mass army. In that event, the burden would fall on the specialists then inside and outside the armed forces.

In short, keeping a nation's powder dry is not a simple matter.

HOFFMAN—If the Republican party is in such desperate straits (and I, as a registered Republican, believes it is), how would it be to consider the nomination of Paul G. Hoffman for President in 1952?

So explodes A. E. B. of Claremont, Cal., listing Hoffman's qualifications, which I must curtail for lack of space:
"He is a civilian. We have had too many military men in the White House, and they have been mediocre. If we except George Washington, Hoffman is a successful business man, and an expert in foreign affairs. He will be available when ECA folds up in 1952. He had good labor relations in private industry, is strong in Indiana and California, and would make a good campaigner."

"That is able, but the unions would lick him. Bessan can afford to wait until '56 or '60. Hoffman, with a good running-mate (Lodge of Massachusetts), is the best bet, as far as I am concerned."
POLITICIANS—Answer: Such enthusiasm should not be dampened, especially as A. E. B.'s appraisal of Mr. Hoffman's general qualifications is correct. He seems to have everything needed for the nomination except the politicians who name the candidate. To them he is an outsider to whom they will turn only in desperation. Moreover, although well known, he is not popularly known. There is quite a difference.

I may be sticking my neck out—again—but in 1952 it will be either Senator Robert A. Taft or "Ike" Eisenhower. The politicians, and I do not use that term in a derogatory sense, would prefer Mr. Taft, if he survives next November's test, and if they think he can be elected.

A Hoffman or an Eisenhower may possess all the cold, academic and admirable qualifications for the presidency—that is, on paper. But, as every occupant of the post admits, it is a job in which political savvy, diplomacy and understanding count for about 75 per cent. Without that sort of background, even a genius in other lines would be a failure. Look at Herbert Hoover.

Mr. Hoffman makes an excellent dark horse runner, however, if "Ike" or "Bob" don't finish ahead of him.

PAY—M. E. S. of Twin Falls, Ida., wants to know whether Herbert Hoover served as President without accepting any salary.

Answer: It is not technically correct that he took no pay. His checks were sent to him, but he turned them over to charity after endorsing them.

Many readers have asked where "Seeds of Treason" can be bought.

It should be available at any bookstore, although there may be periodical shortages because it is now on the best-seller list.

Selected Shorts

AMERICA ALABAMA, DIXIE-AMERICAN: "Just as the night follows the day, so government aid to the individual is followed by government control of the individual."

WALDEN, NEW YORK, CITIZEN HERALD: "The average hidden tax bill of 45 million taxpayers receiving $5,000 or less per year, is over $500."
"Besides these hidden taxes, of course, we have the visible ones that we see as we pay. Is it any wonder that your dollar doesn't do as much for you any more?"

POMEROY, OHIO, SENTINEL: "The suggestion that a national police force be created to work on criminal cases now under the jurisdiction of state and local police is blasted by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI."

May Day Art

Somebody Told Me

By I. J. (Jack) EDWARDS, JR.
An anonymous letter from a reader not only led me to today's column, but it gave me a plan to keep from getting old. The letter referred me to Jake Dixon and Red Flanagan at the Post Office. Red told me that the real story can be told by Frank E. Brooks, the Justice of the Peace.
Mr. Brooks has a routine of exercises that have kept him trim and fit as a fiddle at 65 years of age. As soon as he wakes up Mr. Brooks stands on his head for a few minutes. During the 15 years that he's been doing this, he hasn't been troubled with a single cold or headache.
Jake Dixon decided that he would try the same trick, and has lived to regret it. Just before he reached to top of his head-stand he lost balance and fell. When he recovered to his feet he discovered that he had broken up a chair, and his wife reminded him emphatically that a repeat performance would probably tear the house down.
Red Flanagan was impressed by the success of Mr. Brook's routine, but said, "I don't need the exercise, because I get plenty of exercise during the night. Every night one of my baby daughters wakes up, so I get plenty of exercise pacing the floor with them."
This exercise routine is bound to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office I saw a living example of its worth. Mr. Brooks weighs 150 pounds and stands five feet nine. He's lost only two teeth and not over a dozen hairs from his head. He uses glasses only when reading the finest print.
After the head stand Mr. Brooks does 10 or 12 barrel rolls, and then six or eight back bends. "I never have had a back ache," he says.
He also chins the bar several times every morning—and quite often walks several miles before breakfast. "How about running?" I asked him.
"Oh yes, I run too, but don't put that in the paper. People might think I'm crazy," Mr. Brooks can run or swim phenomena lengths.
How about eating? It was relaxing to me to learn that he eats like a horse. "But," he adds, "I don't eat white flour or refined sugar. I use honey for sweetening, and whole wheat flour."
By way of advice, Mr. Brooks says, "I wouldn't advise anyone to be a great thing. At the JP's office

WANT ADS

Rates 50 per word, minimum charge 50c for 25 words, one insertion; two insertions, 95c; three insertions, $1.25; six insertions, $2.25; one month $9.00. Indented lines known as classified display, or large or size type, double price.

Other than to business houses having regular accounts with us, no want ads will be charged. Send or bring cash with order. To prevent errors, want ads will not be taken over the telephone.

All ads must be received day ahead of publication date.

ROOFING
Jobs Applied and Financed
EAST CAROLINA ROOFING CO.
CLAUDE B. WEST, Mgr.
Office—Frozier Hotel
Office Phone 3151
Residence Phone 5388

ENGRAVED
Announcements
Wedding Invitations
CAROLINA OFFICE EQUIPMENT COMPANY
Dial 2870

FREE REMOVAL - DEAD AND disabled horses, mules, cows and hogs. Phone 3101, Greenville, N. C. Norfolk Tallow Co., Inc. 12-9-4

Dr. Geo. P. Harvey
Chiropractic Physician
X-Ray Laboratory
189 West Fourth St.
(Ground Floor)
Phone—Off. 4120; Res. 5249

Baker & Holland
Protect your tobacco plants with Fernate. Our price is right. We sell Wood's Garden Seed and seed corn of all kinds. Baker and Holland, Seed, Feed and Hardware. 3-21-1f

FOR ONCE AND FOR ALL! FOR beauty and comfort install colorful aluminum roll-up or stationary terrace covers, door canopies and awnings on your home. Also stain resisting Ceramite asbestos siding. Call 2238, C. L. Lupton Co. 3-1-1f

FOR SALE CONCRETE BLOCKS & ROCKS washed and screened sand. Call 4000 for prompt service. Concrete Products Co., Inc., Henry W. Martin, Mgr. Greenville, N. C. 2-4-1m

LET US HAUL YOUR FREIGHT— Long or short distance. We will pick up your freight and see that it is delivered to any destination. Small lots or truck loads. Call Motor Freight Terminal, Dial 4874.

BROWN'S FURNITURE STORE, 1214-1216 S. Main St., Greenville, N. C. New furniture, chrome suites, gal. stoves, lamps, tables, venetian blinds, etc., at prices you can afford. 4-3-1mo.

PAINT INSIDE, OUTSIDE, PORCH and deck, roof and barn. $1.99 gallon up. United Surplus Co., Phone 4188. 18-6

TWINKLE, TWINKLE, LITTLE star, see our rugs, how clean they are. Fina Foam, Belk-Tyler's 3rd Floor. 24-6

ROOMS FOR RENT—NICE COM-fortable bed room, semi-private bath, very reasonable rates for men. Phone 2382, Dickinson Ave., 1502. 27-3

FOR SALE: ONE USED MOTOR mower "Scout" lawn mower, 21 inch cut. Good condition. See M. K. Blount. 28-2

"SAY IT WITH FLOWERS." LET them be ours. Greenville Association of Allied Florists.

WEEK YOUR WINDOWS WASH-ed, by two college boys? We furnish everything except the windows. You furnish them. Call 3275. 28-2

SPECIAL INDUCEMENT TO ANY-one furnishing their home throughout. We have furniture and appliances for every room in the home including front, and back porches. Also the lawn. Let us talk over your furniture problems. Open evenings by appointment.

HOME FURNITURE STORE
Dial 2879
Cor. Dickinson Ave. & 8th St.

FILING CABINETS—NEW, 5-drawer, compact steel, special $29.95, also used office desks. United Surplus Co., Dial 4155. 25-6

HAVE A BEAUTY IN YOUR HOME. Have your refrigerator painted like the factory paints it. Greatest care is taken with every job. Repeating fenders and bodies on cars are our specialty. "Best f. less" our motto. Briley's Paint Shop, Bethel Highway, Phone 2609, Res. 5328. 4-1-1f

Linoleum
Asphalt Tile
Rubber Tile
Lino-Tile
Factory Trained Mechanics
No Job Too Large or Too Small
Contract Prices to Contractors

Hunnicut
Furniture Co.
Bethel N. C. — Phone 2211

A colorimeter is an instrument used to analyze substances through colors produced in chemical reactions.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
The undersigned having this day qualified as Administrator of the estate of J. H. Woodard, deceased, late of Pitt County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit, prove and file the same with the undersigned Administrator at his office in Greenville, N. C., on or before the 15th day of April, 1951, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make prompt payment.

This 14th day of April, 1950.
GUARANTY BANK & TRUST COMPANY, Administrator of the Estate of J. H. Woodard, deceased.
L. G. Cooper, Atty.
April 15-22-29 May 6-13-20.

ADMINISTRATRIX NOTICE
Having this day qualified as administratrix of the Estate of B. F. Manning, Sr., deceased, late of Pitt County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate to file them with the undersigned at the address given within twelve months from this date or this notice will be pleaded in bar of recovery. All persons indebted to the Estate will please make immediate settlement.

This 8th day of April, 1950.
MRS. ANNIE R. MANNING, Administratrix of the Estate of B. F. Manning.
April 15-22-29 May 6-13.

NOTICE
The undersigned having this day qualified as Executrix and Executor of the estate of Jerry R. Nichols, deceased, late of Pitt County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit and file the same with the undersigned at Bell Arthur, North Carolina, on or before the 25th day of March, 1951, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make prompt payment.

This 23rd day of March, 1950
FANNIE S. NICHOLS, Executrix. SHERMON WOODROW NICHOLS, Executor of the Estate of Jerry R. Nichols, deceased.

FISH—FISH—FISH—VISIT AS-ker's Fruit, Vegetable and Fish Market and save money. Beside White's Store, Tomatoe plants, pepper plants, potato plants for sale. Phone 3942. 28-6

FOR RENT MAY 1ST—4-ROOM and bath apartment, New Bern Highway, 1 mile from Greenville. Suitable only for small family. James L. Evans, Attorney. 28-3

L. G. Cooper, Atty.
March 25 April 1-8-15-22-29.

Bulldozer Operator Now for land-clearing. Must be sober and dependable. New TD-18.
C. R. Surrrell, Phone 4978 26-6

FOR SALE — 2 GOOD MILCH cows. Honeycutt's Market, Dial 3173 or 3174. 26-6

GREATLY REDUCED SPINIT PI-anos. Monthly payments will be accepted. Write "Flanos," P. O. Box 408, Greenville, N. C. 18-18

Dan H. Gordon
Cost of Living
Bonus Plan
Associated With
Godfrey P. Oakley
Insurance Agency
417 Cotanche St. — Dial 3728

Frank House
Life Insurance
Associated With
Godfrey P. Oakley
Insurance Agency
417 Cotanche St. — Dial 3728

EXPERT RADIO SERVICE—H & M Radio Shop, 923 Dickinson Ave., specializes in repairing car radios. A. M. and F. M. radios, phonographs, inter-com systems, amplifiers. Prompt service. Call 4603. 1f

Scott Motor Sales
Your Studebaker Dealer
219 E. 5th Street
Greenville, N. C.
3884 — Tel. — 4846
Special Bargains

- 41 Olds Club Sedan, radio and heater $475
- 40 FORD 2-Door, radio and heater $575
- 42 Studebaker 4-Door, radio and heater, new paint $750
- 38 Ford 1-2 Ton, stake body $300
- 47 Dodge 1-2 ton panel $595
- 46 Chev. 1/2 ton pick up $550
- 49 Willys Jeep 1-2 ton Panel, low mileage $825
- 49 Studebaker 1 Ton, 9 ft. stake body, low mileage $1150

One-Third Down
Balance Financed
A Limited Number of 1950 Studebaker 1/2, 1 1/2 and 2 Ton Trucks for Immediate Delivery.

FIRST STAR

By Mary Howard
AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 20
William made a mocking bow, his wide white sleeve sweeping through the air. There was a chink in everyone's armor, if you could find it, and he had found the chink in Andrew's. "I trust her anywhere, with anyone, to the world's end," he said. His voice was light and gentle, but his eyes were very amused. She will forgive me anything, they said. She does not know you are alive when I am there. Andrew turned away.

"Very well," he said dryly. "Go and fetch the sacrifice."
"What do you mean?" said William coldly.
Andrew turned back to him; for a moment he was unguarded, sincere, and strangely young. "Brody, I've worked all this for you. But I realize what you mean to Katherine. Must you leave her here?"
"She would not break her contract with Morton. She does not want to leave him."
"At the moment she would do anything you wanted her to, though, of course, she's wise to stay with Morton. If you must go, why don't you two get married first? I'll help you; it needn't affect your publicity. No one need know until after 'Devil-May-Care,' and then you can tell the world."

"You think it will be a success?"
"I know it will. It's a fine story, and the part fits you like a glove. You've one of the best directors in America lined up. You can't miss."
William drew in a little breath and shrugged. "Then as you say, I'll be able to do as I like." He held out his hand. "I'll think over what you say. Katherine and I wanted to keep this quiet, but when you're happy it's difficult to keep it to yourself. You'll look after her while I'm away, won't you?"
He had Andrew so completely surprised by his obvious sincerity that he did not reply. Katherine came in, a coat thrown over her bare shoulders, and she stopped, surprised and pleased to see them together. William turned to her at once.
"Mr. Nolan will see you home, Kate. I have to stay for a while. You don't mind, do you, darling?"
You shouldn't have troubled. It's just a step.
"Good night, my darling. He bent and kissed her as though he wished Andrew to see that he claimed her, that she was his, as though he wanted to reassure him.
"Good night," she said.
They walked across the wide main road together in silence, under the chestnut trees, to her door. She turned and gave him her hand, smiling a little mischievously. "You're friends now?"
Sydney Blount, with Mr. Hamlyn, Magda, and William, sat in the Hamlyn's private sitting room. The Blount women had retired, but Magda had changed into a long velvet housecoat and was making them coffee.

Sydney lifted his glass. "Well, here's to you, William, my boy. Don't worry about your passage; we'll do all the bookings for you."
Magda said slowly, "We'd like it if you'd arrange to travel with us. The big liners are a bore, unless you're traveling with friends."
"Thank you," said William absently. "I'd like to."
She said suddenly, "Are you in love with the little Best girl?"
William raised his head warily. He did not like being monopolized, and she must learn that he did not like it.
"What if I am?" he said impudently.
"Well, you can't—" began Blount. "You mustn't do anything foolish, my boy," said Hamlyn.
"What they mean," said Magda, "is that they don't want you to marry at this point in your career. I thought I'd better warn you. You don't want to be involved in anything you can't get out of."
"I shan't do that," he said.
"The most important thing to remember, Katherine told herself, was that it would not be for long. William would leave for the States at the end of the month, and she would work with Morton until October, when his season ended. By then William would have settled down in Hollywood; he would send her the money for her fare, and she would go out to him. It was better to think of that than to think to herself, "In four weeks' time, William will have gone—he will go to the other side of the earth, and I shall be quite alone."

They played out the run of "Prunella" together, gradually perfecting themselves so that the house was filled nightly and people came to see them again and again. If and her every waking thought, she had not been with William, she would have enjoyed it. School-girls waited outside the theater to ask for her autograph and sent her bunches of summer flowers. When she walked down the street, glances followed her, and voices said: "That's Prunella..." Her landlady referred to her proudly as "My Miss Best." The people who asked Heather and Viola to parties asked her, too, but she always refused, because this was her last week with William. Next week he would be going back to London to get ready for his trip, and to spend the money Mr. Hamlyn had advanced him.

He was very close to her during those two weeks, with a new tenderness which he had not shown before. Every minute of their spare time was spent together, and every minute slipped away into the inexorable cavern of past things. If Broadweir had been beautiful before to Katherine, it became unbearably lovely now, because over everything they did and saw and said was the terribly poignant of its being the last time.

(To be continued)

It May Be Very Important To You See Tuesday's Issue

By FAGALY and SHORTEN

WHEN PAPA WOODED AND WON MAMA IT SEEMED HE WAS EXPECTED TO PAY AND PAY AND PAY.
DO YOU WANT TO MARRY MY DAUGHTER? CAN YOU SUPPORT HER? WHAT KIND OF A JOB DO YOU HAVE? LET'S SEE YOUR BANK BOOK. MARRIAGE IS A SERIOUS FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY!
NOW HE'S MARRYING OFF A DAUGHTER OF HIS OWN AND HE'S STILL EXPECTED TO PAY AND PAY AND PAY!
AND GLUCOSE THINKS YOU OUGHT TO GIVE US A BIG WEDDING DUDY! THEN WE'LL HAVE TO MOVE IN WITH YOU UNTIL YOU CAN FIND HIM A JOB!

Thanks to ERNIE NORTHWOOD 248 MAINTON AVE WINNIPEG MANITOBA CANADA.

TOM & JERRY

GET THE VET, RUSTY!
DOC! QUICK! SOMETHING'S HAPPENED TO GENERAL!
NASTY SCRATCH...JUST OVER THE TENDON... FORTUNATE IT DIDN'T GO ANY DEEPER.
I'M AFRAID, SIR, IT'S ALL MY FAULT. THERE WERE NAILS IN THE BARRIER I MADE GENERAL JUMP OVER IN THE PARK!

RUSTY RILEY

LOOK HERE! THERE'S BLOOD ON GENERAL'S LEGS!
GET THE VET, RUSTY!
DOC! QUICK! SOMETHING'S HAPPENED TO GENERAL!
NASTY SCRATCH...JUST OVER THE TENDON... FORTUNATE IT DIDN'T GO ANY DEEPER.
I'M AFRAID, SIR, IT'S ALL MY FAULT. THERE WERE NAILS IN THE BARRIER I MADE GENERAL JUMP OVER IN THE PARK!

THE PHANTOM

AS THE PHANTOM NEARS THE TRING HORSE
MOVE—MOVE—YOU—
HE RACES OFF THE PATH— UP THE SLOPE
ANOTHER SECOND—AND—
"AND DIVES HEADLONG AT THE MYSTERIOUS ARE IDOL OF THE DURUGU!"
NOW!
WISCON McEby 4-29

THIMBLE THEATER — Starring Popeye

THE MANN
WHOSE REAL NAME IS LOOPY B. DROOPY, CAME TO DAVE'S LOCKER 100 YEARS AGO, AND SINCE THEN HAS BEEN OUT ONLY 100 HOLLOWEEN NIGHTS. THIS HE IS ONLY 100 DAYS OLDER— SURE ENOUGH, IT LOOKS BAD FOR POPEYE

Washed Up Somebody!
MONDAY!! MONDAY??
MONDAY??
MONDAY??
Tom Sims & Saboly 4-29

BLONDIE — By Chic Young

FOR GOODNESS' SAVES— GET A HANDED TIE AND BLOW YOUR NOSE!
SNIF SNIF
SHE MUST'VE DONE IT!
Chic Young

OZARK IKE

...GOTTA COVUH UP SO'S IT CAN'T SMACK ME ON TH' HAID!
...WHO-DUN-IT?
...SOMEBUDDY MUST'VE THROWN A BOTTLE OR SUMPUM!
...OZARK! THE BALL RUNS ARE SCORING!
4-29

Eleven Persons In 2-Car Wreck

Eleven persons were involved in a two-car head-on collision on the New Bern highway about seven miles east of Greenville last night about 7 o'clock. Both cars were wrecked. Three persons were seriously injured. Four were slightly injured and four were not injured beyond a shaking up.

John M. Willamoor, Jr., Cherry Point marine, ran off the road, cut back across the highway out of control, and collided head-on with a car driven by Clifton L. Biowe of Roanoke Rapids. Both cars were wrecked, State Highway Patrolman Paul Whitley stated. Neither driver was hurt.

Whitley arrested Willamoor and charged him with reckless driving. The injured are John S. Hekaras, 19, marine, fractured pelvis bone and head injuries, and Norman Mariska, marine, broken arm. Edward W. Myers, Jr., James A. Quain and Alfred Roz, marines, passengers in Willamoor's car, were slightly hurt.

Curtis Lyles, 32, of Roanoke Rapids, received a broken arm and other injuries. William A. Cameron and Gregory Boyd of Roanoke Rapids were not hurt.

The seriously injured men were taken to Pitt General Hospital. Patrolman Whitley said Clifton Biowe was on the way to a base-camp in New Bern when the crash occurred.

Waldrop Attends Bond Conference

J. H. Waldrop attended the U. S. Savings Bond Conference held in Washington D. C., on April 27. The meeting was held in the West Ball room of the Shoreham hotel. Waldrop is president of the or-

STATE

"Movies Are Better Than Ever" SUNDAY - MONDAY

DESPERATE MEN AND WOMEN IN A WEST CORRUPTED BY VIOLENCE!

ACCLAIMED! The Greatest Winner of Two Academy Awards!

Fun - "Little Cutup" Cartoon

TUESDAY

"I'M A PEACEABLE MAN... ORDINARILY, BUT WHEN I GET RILED I'M A ROARER!"

WILD BILL ELLIOTT as RED RYDER

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY

James Oliver Curwood's

"The Wolf Hunters"

With Kirby Grant and Jan Clayton

FRIDAY - SATURDAY

TIM HOLT in "Dynamite Pass"

Ends Today "CODE OF SILVER CITY"

Win First Round

Greenville High School debaters who are entered in the National Speech contest being staged at Kenosha, Wis., defeated the Iowa debate team in the first round, according to a telegram received from coach R. B. Starling today.

The local debate squad, made up of Rodney Fulcher and Harvey Bradshaw, were the national entry from this section. Carolyn Clapp was the entry in the Poetry and Dramatic Reading divisions.

Phi Sigma Chapter Officers Elected

Ellen Buffkin junior from Tabor City, was recently elected president of the Phi Sigma chapter of the Sigma Pi Alpha, national foreign language fraternity, at East Carolina Teachers College.

Others chosen for fraternity officers for the 1950-1951 term are Norma Hughes, Chadbourne, vice president; Eloise Tucker, Greenville, secretary; and Emma Dean Calfee, Belhaven, treasurer.

Dry Cleaning Firm Is Damaged By Fire

A fire around 12:30 today did moderate damage to the Suburban Dry Cleaners on Fifth street.

Fire which caught in the top part of the building was brought under control by means of a booster line.

The blaze today was the second in the recent months to the building, for the same cause.

KILL LEOPARD ON LOOSE

Lebanon, O., April 29—(AP)—An escaped leopard was slain today after it crawled from the wreckage of a circus truck which collided with an auto transport carrier. One man was killed and another seriously hurt in the crash.

DRIVE-IN

SATURDAY - Last Times

"Whiplash" Also Chapter 2 "Mysterious Mr. M."

SUNDAY - One Day

YOU'LL GET Music! Mystery! Murder!

WHEN YOU MEET THE Lady of Burlesque

starring BARBARA STANWYCK MICHAEL O'SHEA

MONDAY - TUESDAY

BING CROSBY Rhonda FLEMING William BENDIS Reg. Team. Sir Cedric HARDWICKE

CONNECTICUT YANKEE

$25.00 Reward

To any person reporting and proving seeing anyone taking, cutting and carrying away one of our loud speakers. The person caught will be punished by law.

Free Passes in Pop Corn

Admission Adults 40c Children Under 12 Two Incl. Admitted Free

Box Office Opens 6:30 Shows Start 7:00 & 9:00 P. M. Phone 3696-7

AGE LIMIT 1 DAY TO 80 YRS.

BENEFITS ARE NOT REDUCED FOR CHILDREN OR ELDERLY DEPENDENTS

Appear In Recital Monday Evening

Nina Abernethy of Rocky Mount and Rodney Roberts of Greenville, seniors at East Carolina Teachers College, will be presented Monday evening, May 1, by the department of music at the college in a recital of works for the piano and the trombone. The event will take place in the Austin auditorium at 8:30 and will be open to the public.

The two students, who will be graduated at the college this spring have specialized in music. They are members of the College Band and the College Choir, and have participated in the work of the Music Education Club.

The program Monday evening will be made up of solo works for the piano and the trombone. Miss Abernethy a pianist, will play the first movement of Bach's "Concerto in the Italian Style," Debussy's "Reflets dans l'eau," and selections from Brahms, Liszt and Mendelssohn. Mr. Roberts will play five numbers, including Haydn's "Adagio" and Berlioz's "Requiem and Prayer."

Mr. Roberts is the son of Judge and Mrs. J.W.H. Roberts of Greenville. Miss Abernethy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Abernethy of Rocky Mount.

Plan Appeal To Supreme Court

Raleigh, April 29—(AP)—Preliminary steps toward an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court have been taken by two men convicted of firing into a home during a strike at Tarboro.

Elmer Matthews and Jim Cook yesterday asked the State Supreme Court for a stay of execution to defer their prison terms while they ask the U. S. Court to review the case.

The men were convicted in Edgecombe Superior Court in connection with an incident that occurred during the drawn-out strike at the Hart Cotton Mill at Tarboro. They were sentenced to two years on the roads.

Graham . . .

(Continued from page one) religion—not through federal legislation.

Graham asserted in his campaign speech that the state "must be strong in its good health program as an example to America." There must be a nationwide promotion of voluntary insurance, he said, and added, "If communism comes it will be because a minority of the local doctors have opposed every step to bring medical care to all the people."

He called for a stronger United Nations through stronger leadership and international control and inspection of atomic power. Graham said "free capitalism must not be the privilege or monopoly of a few, but must be free to all people."

"The budget must be balanced at the first opportunity," he asserted, "but it must be balanced short only of turning this world over to the Kremlin."

Senator Graham was the only one of the four senatorial candidates who was here for the meeting last night. He spoke to the group for approximately 20 minutes.

Masonic Notice

A stated communication of Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic Temple Monday evening at 8 o'clock in Masonic Temple. Supper will be at 7 p. m. All Masons and visiting Masons are cordially invited.

RUFUS H. HARRELL, master A. R. HOUSE, Secretary.

Let Us Pay Your Hospital Bills

Pays in Full Regardless of Any Other Insurance You Have, or Workmen's Compensation

ACCIDENTS - SICKNESS CHILDBIRTH INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY GROUP PLAN POLIO PROTECTION $5,000 LIBERAL CASH BENEFITS FOR Hospital Room, Operating Room, Anesthesia, X-Ray, Medicines, Laboratory Expense and Ambulance. Pays Surgeon's Fees for Operations Due to Accidents or Sickness. Costs Only a Few Cents Per Day for Whole Family. Choose Your Own Doctor.

LEGAL RESERVE PROTECTION NO FUTURE INCREASE IN PREMIUM STRICTLY NON-ASSESSABLE ASSETS OVER $3,000,000 FULL DETAILS FREE - JUST MAIL THIS COUPON

RESERVE LIFE INSURANCE CO. 114 East 5th Street, Greenville, N. C., P. O. Box 220

Please send me information about your Hospital Plan No obligations.

NAME AGE STREET OCC CITY STATE

Boyd Fires Blast At Rally Conduct

A North Carolina senatorial race candidate today called upon the people of Pitt County to "immediately ask for the resignation of John D. Messick, president of East Carolina, and members of the Board of Trustees who were in office at eight o'clock last night."

Olla Ray Boyd, Pinetown aspirant to the office of North Carolina's junior senator, stated he thought the action of Messick in allowing the campus to be used to control the senatorial campaign is "ridiculous."

He stated he had not been invited to the Young Democrats Club Roosevelt Dinner, at which Vice President Alben Barkley last night was the key speaker, and when asked why stated "that's the $64 question."

He said that Barkley had "disobeyed all laws of the Democratic Party along with the Young Democrats Club" when "he comes into North Carolina to speak anywhere when a bona-fide candidate for the United States Senate is barred" from attending.

'Veep' Had . . .

(Continued from page one) and young Democrats alike to enter the hall. And with the playing of the 1932 election song—"Happy Days Are Here Again"—the Veep, led by Mrs. Bonner, entered and paraded through the long aisle to the speakers' tables on the stage. He was followed by Terry Sanford, president of the club, Representative Bonner, Senator Frank Graham, Jonathan Daniels, former Senator William B. Umstead, Bill Tysen, Judge J. W. H. Roberts, J. B. Spillman, Hoover Taft and others.

Among the notables at the long tables on the floor were R. Mayne Albright and Mrs. Albright. Sanford introduced other members of the state Democratic Party before Barkley's speech but overlooked Albright. After the speech he apologized for the oversight but the 1948 gubernatorial candidate chose to remain seated.

There were other notables on the floor, taking care of the barbecue on the tables, but none was more conspicuous than former State Highway Patrol Commander Tony Tolar. Tolar was sitting well back from the speakers table, talking with friends in Greenville and vicinity. Somehow someone spilled a glass of water in his lap and the Veep "resurrected" himself in short order from his chair.

There were seats for a little over 700 at the dinner but only about 600 attended. About 400 more came in for the speaking. The diners, at $5 a head, were hard-pressed to get served in time for the introductions of guests. Members of Greenville's Troop "A" of the Patrol assisted many in carrying plates of food to them when it was apparent there would not be time to finish eating.

Barkley enhanced his position as the nation's Number One storyteller. And the crowd responded readily. He said he was asked to announce that girls from East Carolina had been permitted to remain out after 10:30. And he followed that announcement with some remarks of his own, saying he had recently had a great deal of experience with escorting young girls and if any of them needed an escort to their dorms, he'd be very happy to comply.

The general opinion today was that the banquet had been a huge success for the Young Democrats. They thought it had not turned out as expected—a rally for Senator Graham's nomination in the first primary. Many of the persons throughout this morning thought Graham spoke too long last night and were doubtful that he had helped his campaign among "on the fence" voters hereabouts.

Women Urged . . .

(Continued from page one) state meeting.

Mrs. Charles Tillet of Charlotte, former vice-chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, in a brief talk said: "To preserve democracy, we must work and have leadership along the line from precinct meetings all the way to the national Democratic convention."

Mrs. Charles G. Doak of Raleigh said: "If we want good government, we must have it close to us and not too much centralized. Every qualified woman should register and vote and do their part to keep our government close to the people."

Colony SUNDAY TODAY & Tomorrow

Come Get Hep with Teen-Age Pep . . .

GLORIA JEAN in

with Ross Ford Patricia White "PUNCH IN TIME" Comedy POPEYE CARTOON

MON. - TUE. DORIS DAY Sweet Song Sensation Dennis Morgan Jack Carson

"It's A Great Feeling" Yes it's in—TECHNICOLOR!

THUR. - FRI. Riotious Comedy "A Southern Yankee" with "Red" Skelton And Happy Cast

ple." Mrs. Doak, a stenographer for four years for the late Governor Aycock, quoted some of his philosophy. Mrs. Frank Smethurst of Raleigh declared: "It is time to call for party regularity. We should dedicate ourselves to the Democratic party because the Democratic program has brought us through all of the crises, and it is the party with a plank."

Mrs. C. N. Meakins of Fayetteville said: "It is time of women to be active in the Democratic party and attend precinct, county and other meetings. Women should take as much interest in the Democratic party as they do in garden clubs and find out what their interest would do much to advance the party's progress."

Mrs. W. T. Hatch of Raleigh, publicity chairman, stressed the importance of women attending precinct and county Democratic meetings and quoted an experience that substantiated her advice. Miss Verdie Nobles of Deep Run also stressed the importance of precinct meetings. Miss Kathryn Folger of Dobson discussed the importance of the district chairmen's duties and gave timely advice.

The following were present at the Democrats' Work Shop Conference at the City Hall: Mrs. Curtis Spencer, vice-chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive Committee; Mrs. James H. Clark of Elizabethtown, Mrs. Terry Sanford and Mrs. Charles Meakin of Fayetteville, Mrs. J. A. Everette of Battleboro, Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. Wilbur C. Ormon, Mrs. J. H. Williams of Durham, Mrs. W. Kerr Scott of Raleigh, Mrs. L. L. Mewborn and Mrs. M. Brown Hodges of Grifton, Mrs. Hugh Dorch of Goldsboro, Mrs. W. Ivan Bissette of Grifton, Mrs. William T. Hatch of Raleigh, Kathryn M. Folger of Dobson, Verdie Nobles of Deep Run, Mrs. J. K. Wooters and Mrs. W. D. Pollock of Kinston, Mrs. Henry W. Martin and Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale of Greenville, Mrs. Charles W. Tillet of Charlotte, Mrs. D. A. McCormick of McDonald, N. C., Mrs. Frank Smethurst of Raleigh, Mrs. Charles G. Doak of Raleigh, Mrs. Vance Wahl of Grifton, Mrs. Eleanor Gower and Mrs. R. B. Mewborn of Grifton, Mrs. Chester Walsh of Greenville, Mrs. George E. Shepard and Mrs. Roland McClamrock of Chapel Hill, Janet Palmer of Hookerton, Mrs. Wesley Gooding of Ayden, Effie Newton of Fayetteville, Mrs. E. O. Hardee and others.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH WARD

I am seeking reelection as your Alderman, based on my past record. Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated.

J. E. Collins

TO THE VOTERS IN THE FIFTH WARD

I have announced myself a candidate for Alderman in the Fifth Ward for the two-year term.

Subject to the Democratic City Primary on Monday, May 1st, 1950.

Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated.

I have no political nor made any promises. If elected to this important office, I will endeavor at all times to cast my vote for issues that will promote a better Greenville.

L. F. 'Buck' Johnson

Colony SUNDAY TODAY & Tomorrow. Come Get Hep with Teen-Age Pep... GLORIA JEAN in with Ross Ford Patricia White "PUNCH IN TIME" Comedy POPEYE CARTOON. MON. - TUE. DORIS DAY Sweet Song Sensation Dennis Morgan Jack Carson. "It's A Great Feeling" Yes it's in—TECHNICOLOR! THUR. - FRI. Riotious Comedy "A Southern Yankee" with "Red" Skelton And Happy Cast

SUNDAY AND MONDAY Everything's Going To Be "Rosie" At the Pitt Sunday and Monday! O'gosh! O'golly! It's here and O'GREATY! The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady. She's the words and music in all America's hearts! Everything's here! Music... Songs Dancing... Girls Technicolor! Starring JUNE HAVER GORDON MACRAE Loads of tunes in O'Grady and they're all Hit Parade-y! WITH JAMES BARTON CUDDLES SAKALL and Warner's handsome Gene NELSON dance some New Stars! Tuesday-Wednesday "The Outriders" Color by Technicolor and Starring Joel McCrea Arlene Dahl "Movies Are Better Than Ever" PITT BIG ONES - COMING SOON "Paid In Full" "Capt. Carey, U. S. A." Thursday - Friday "Father Is A Bachelor" With William Holden Coleen Gray

