

RED INVADERS AT OUTSKIRTS SEUL

Nearly 8,000 Voters In County Cast Ballots Saturday; Smith Got 4,551

Senatorial Candidate Smith Picked Up 36 Votes Over First Primary In Pitt; Extended Earlier Majority Over Graham

An unofficial total of 7,981 voters went to the polls in Pitt County Saturday and gave Senatorial Candidate Willis Smith a 1,121 vote majority over Senator Frank P. Graham for the Democratic nomination.

The vote in the county was somewhat heavier than most of the Smith and Graham leaders had predicted, but it fell approximately 1,500 short of the total vote cast in the county in the first primary.

Smith received a total of 4,551 votes in the county in Saturday's balloting and Graham received a total of 3,430 votes.

A comparison of the first and second primaries shows that Smith received in the county Saturday 36 more votes than he did in the first primary, while Graham received 989 votes less Saturday than he did in the first primary four weeks ago.

In the voting four weeks ago Smith carried 13 of Pitt County's 26 precincts while Graham was the high man in seven of the county's precincts. In the voting Saturday, however, the precinct picture changed somewhat. Smith received majorities in 16 of the county precincts while Graham received majorities in four of the county's 26 precincts.

The precincts which in the first primary gave Graham the high vote and Saturday changed their favor to Smith were: Beaver Dam, Falkland, Greenville No. 3 and Winterville.

In the second primary Smith failed to receive a majority in the Swift Creek box which he carried in the first primary. It was the only box in the county which Smith carried in the first primary that went to Graham in Saturday's voting. In the Swift Creek box in the first primary Smith received 152 votes and Graham 133 for a 19 vote margin for Smith. Saturday in the same box Smith received 105 votes while Graham received 136 votes to take the box by a 36 vote majority.

The four precincts in Pitt County which Graham carried in the second primary were Farmville, Ayden, Pacolus and Swift Creek. Graham carried the Ayden box by 66 votes, the Farmville box by 144 votes, the Pacolus box by 15 votes, and the Swift Creek box by 36 votes. In the first primary Graham carried the Farmville box by 269 votes, the Ayden box by 192 votes and the Pacolus box by 30 votes.

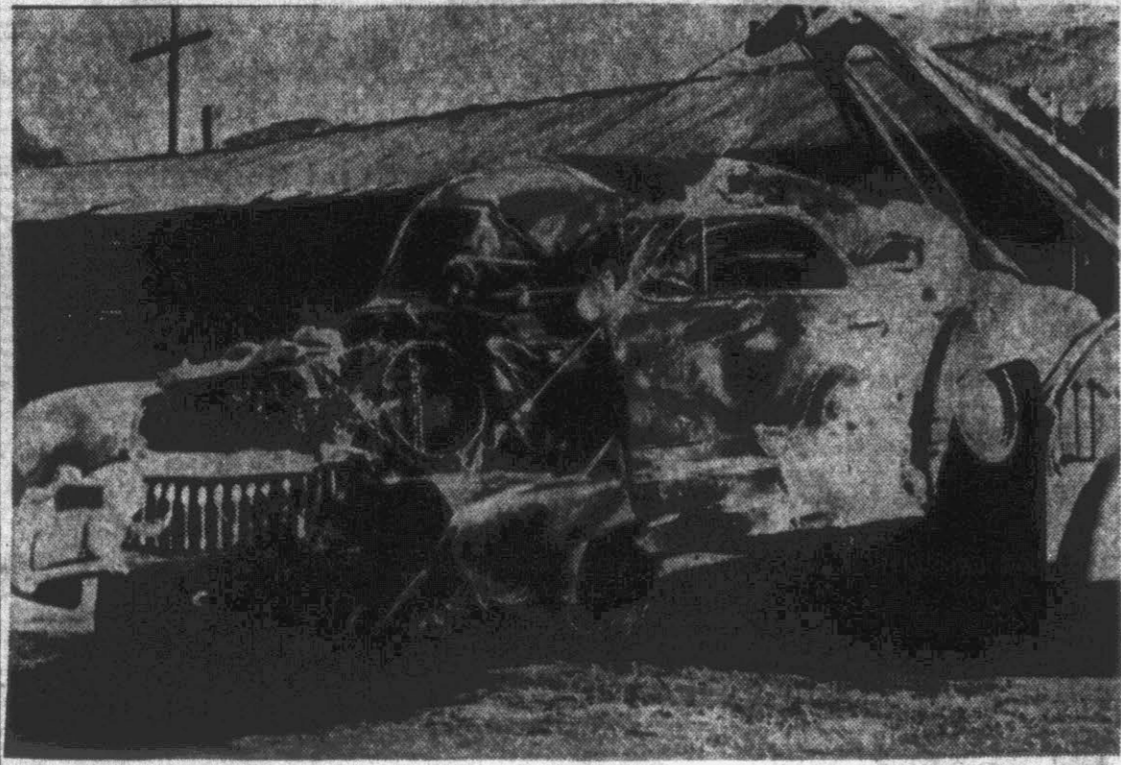

In the Bethel box in Saturday's voting Smith received 293 votes—the same number he received in the box in the first primary. Graham received 149 votes in Bethel Saturday compared with 185 votes in the first primary.

Smith's largest single precinct majority in the county was in Greenville precinct number four which is the largest box in the county. In that precinct Smith received a 241 vote majority over Graham.

Marine Killed When Car Struck Bridge Abutment

A Cherry Point Marine was instantly killed and two other Marines seriously injured this morning around 3 o'clock when the car in which they were riding crashed into a bridge abutment on the Falkland highway, going off the highway into Otter creek some 20 feet below. The car caught fire when it landed in the creek, burning the driver who was pinned under the steering wheel by the crumpled roof. A fourth passenger in the back of the car escaped without injury and pulled one of the injured men to safety, while a truck driver freed the other man. (Reflector staff photo by Roy Hardee).

Ten Pitt Scouts To Be At Valley Forge

Board Special Train In Rocky Mount Early Tomorrow Morning For National Jamboree; 47,000 At Encampment

Ten Pitt county boy scouts and scouters will be among the 47,000 scouts from the 48 states and 15 foreign countries who will set up camp this week in Valley Forge, Pa., where General George Washington and his Continental Army endured a winter of hardships in 1777.

The Pitt county scouts will board a special train in Rocky Mount at 1:30 tomorrow morning along with 180 other boys from the eastern section of North Carolina. The train will be made up of scouts from North Carolina and South Carolina and is scheduled to arrive in Bettswood, Pa. about noon tomorrow. A special send-off for the scouts has been planned for Rocky Mount, and transcriptions will be made of the program to be broadcast over various radio stations in this section of the state.

Greenville boys who will attend the second national jamboree with the troop from this area are Jimmy Phelps, Bill Taft, Joe Taft, and Jack Clifford, all of troop 30, and Jack Stokes of troop 205. Steve Farris of troop 34 of Ayden, Bobby Cole of troop 20 of Winterville and Vance White of troop 15 of Bethel also will be among the scouts.

Scoutmaster Mark McLawhorn of Winterville will be in charge of the national jamboree troop made up of scouts from the Pitt, Beaufort-Hyde, Cra-Jo-Pam, Onslow and Contentnea districts of the scout organization. Jack Whichard of Greenville will attend the jamboree as assistant scoutmaster of jamboree troop 9 composed of Rocky Mount scouts.

Sherman Parks of Greenville, camping and activities chairman of the Pitt district, will attend the jamboree for several days during the outing, but will not act in any official capacity.

Roy Acuff Signs To Appear Here

Roy Acuff, one of the white hopes of hillbilly music and one-time Tennessee gubernatorial aspirant, will bring his Grand Ole Opry unit to Greenville as one of the feature attractions of annual Farmer's Day, August 10.

It was announced today by John Lautares, chairman of Farmer's Day entertainment committee, that the contract has been signed bringing Acuff and his band here. He reported the contract was signed with station WSM in Nashville, Tennessee, and Acuff will bring at least seven pieces of his band with him, the same band which helped to make the National Barn Dance famous the nation over for its Saturday night broadcasts.

The finance committee, headed by Van O. Fleming Jr., is now in the process of making financial arrangements with the Nashville radio station, Lautares said.

Farmer's Day this year is being built around entertainment and educational exhibits for the rural people who are expected to flock to town during the one-day proceedings. Booths are to be set up in a tobacco warehouse for use by individual merchants and their exhibits. The finance committee has set out to raise $4,250 for the event. Fleming reported last week that he expected to hear from his committee by Tuesday (tomorrow) as to how many merchants will participate in the exhibit part of the program.

20,000 Majority

Raleigh, N. C., June 27.—(P)—North Carolina voters have named Willis Smith, a champion of what he calls "Southern Democracy," to replace Truman supporter Frank P. Graham in the U. S. Senate. In a bitter Democratic runoff primary, Smith a former president of the American Bar Association, defeated Graham Saturday by 20,000 votes. With reports in from nearly all the state's 1,500 precincts, unofficial returns gave Smith 277,672 votes to Graham's 257,672. The 533,000 votes cast was a new high for a Democratic primary except for the more than 600,000 cast May 27, when Graham led Smith.

U. S. Pledge To Support UN Efforts

Question Of Using Force To Back Up Cease-Fire Order Is Unanswered

Washington, June 26.—(AP)—President Truman today pledged full United States support of United Nations efforts to end the "unprovoked aggression against South Korea."

In a statement, the President declared: "Willful disregard of the obligation to keep the peace cannot be tolerated by nations that support the United Nations charter."

He said the United States is pleased with the speed and determination of the U. N. Security Council in ordering a withdrawal of the invading forces.

Then his statement added: "In accordance with the resolution of the Security Council, the United States will vigorously support the effort of the council to terminate this serious breach of the peace."

"Our concern over the lawless action taken by the forces from North Korea, and our sympathy and support for the people of Korea in this situation, are being demonstrated by the cooperative action of American personnel in Korea, as well as by steps taken to expedite and augment assistance of the type being furnished under the mutual defense assistance program."

"Those responsible for this act of aggression must realize how seriously the government of the United States views such threats to the peace of the world."

Mr. Truman's statement was handed to reporters by Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross.

The big question being asked in this capital was whether the United States was ready to supply armed forces if the United Nations asked for them to back up its week-end "cease fire" order in Korea.

Reporters got a chance to put it to Secretary of Defense Johnson when he visited the capitol for discussion of the general military assistance program with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Johnsons reply: "That's a good question."

A reporter: "But what is the answer?"

"I didn't give an answer."

Maj. Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, director of the foreign arms aid program who was with Johnson, told a reporter he did not think the United States would act alone.

Lemnitzer added: "That decision will have to be made on a high level. It's a decision for a group of nations. We won't act unilaterally."

Kingpin Gambler Sentenced To Term In Prison

New York, June 26.—(AP)—Frank Erickson, kingpin of a nationwide bookmaking business, today was sentenced to two years in prison and a $30,000 fine.

The chubby, 54-year-old gambling mogul, who had pled his multi-million-dollar betting trade for a quarter century without spending a day in jail, was sentenced in Special Sessions Court.

He could have received up to 60 years in prison. Erickson threw himself on the mercy of the court last Monday by pleading guilty to a 60-count gambling charge.

Communists Invade South Korea

Communist forces from North Korea invaded South Korea Sunday on a wide front. The invasion was once virtually stopped after a penetration of three miles. The border city of Kaesong (arrow) was occupied by the invaders. Two amphibious landings were reported on the east coast at Kangnung and Samchok (arrow), 20 and 40 miles south of the border respectively. At last reports a tank column had gained the outskirts of Seoul, South Korea's capital. (AP Wirephoto Map).

Tank Attack Crumbling Resistance

Surrender Demanded; Morale Appears Failing; Total Defeat

Invading North Korean Communists lashed a tank column to the outskirts of this southern republic's capital early today and broadcast a demand for southern surrender.

The surrender demand was made over the Pyongyang radio by Gen. Chai Ung Jun, commander of the northern forces that suddenly invaded South Korea Sunday morning.

Prospects of total defeat of the southern forces through bad morale rather than by being beaten in the field were in evidence at this zero hour today.

The northern mobile column that thrust perilously upon Seoul did so by piercing two full southern divisions that were engaged in a counter-attack.

It reached Seoul's outskirts with little or no resistance for the last dozen miles.

Exact whereabouts of the northern column was not mentioned in this dispatch, filed at 2:20 a. m. Korean time.

Last official report had the northern tanks nine miles north of Seoul at 10 p. m. Monday and pushing ahead fast. This morning they were said to be on the outskirts.

Tanks and artillery of Northern Korea's army crumbled southern resistance at Uijongbu, only 12 miles from Seoul. They captured the town and sent a flying column down the Uijongbu valley, where a southern counteroffensive failed miserably earlier today.

Two southern divisions totaling 20,000 men had dug in outside Uijongbu but they were pushed aside by the armored forces from the north which rolled on toward the capital.

Another 10,000 southern troops were in trouble at Kangnung, on the east coast 15 miles south of the 38th parallel—the dividing line between the two nations, crossed by the invading northern armies on Sunday. Perhaps a third of the military forces of the American-supported South Korean republic were imperiled.

In Seoul the U. S. embassy burned its important secret papers. Air raid sirens screamed. The city buzzed after four northern planes strafed the streets. President Syngman Rhee and his cabinet were in emergency session. Two ships carrying 70 dependents of Americans in Korea sailed from Ichon for Fukuoka, Japan, with U. S. naval and air escort.

This was the latest word from a newly-erupted battlefield that caused grave concern in all world capitals and called President Truman back to Washington to confer with his top officials on what can be done to save western recognized South Korea from Communist conquest.

The headquarters of Gen. MacArthur in Tokyo estimated that 70,000 troops from Soviet-supported North Korea, spearheaded by 70 tanks, launched the invasion on Sunday—long a favorite day for surprise attacks.

ANY WORTHY COMPLAINT—Washington, June 26.—(AP)—A promise to investigate "any complaint that seems worthy" came today from the head of the Senate group policing this year's senatorial elections.

Excise Tax Cut Has Recess 'Bait'

Long Fourth Of July Holiday Held Out To House As Inducement For Prompt Passage Of Controversial Measure

Washington, June 26.—(AP)—The promise of a long Fourth of July recess was held out to the House today as bait for prompt passage of a bill cutting excise taxes by $1,010,000,000.

It's the only controversial major business on the House calendar this week and passage is expected Thursday.

After that the House plans to hang up the "no controversial business" sign for 10 days and let its members get away to their home districts to campaign for reelection. It will be the fourth time since January that House members have been able to leave Washington to do some political spadework without missing a roll-call.

The Senate, less fortunate than the House as far as holidays have been concerned, might get a long weekend for itself. It is scheduled to pass a $1,200,000,000 foreign military aid bill during the week, with nothing else of major importance now carded.

International tension over the Korean warfare might change the picture and keep the lawmakers in Washington but for the present at least the plans for a long week-end were left unchanged.

A controversy over extension of the draft law could snag the holiday plan also. Unable to agree on the form of extension, Congress jammed through last Thursday a measure keeping the present law intact until July 9. The old law expired last Friday at midnight.

The House has voted for a two-year extension with a ban on actual inductions unless Congress expressly approves by separate action. The Senate passed a three-year extension bill with a ban on inductions unless Congress finds it necessary, but with permission for the President to order inductions in an emergency if Congress is not in session.

Four Railroads Tied Up By Switchmen's Strike

Chicago, June 26.—(AP)—The strike of 4,000 AFL switchmen had brought four major western railroads to a standstill today and had thrown thousands of other workers out of jobs.

Lines tied up by the walkout yesterday morning of the Switchmen's Union of North America are the 8,000-mile Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; the 2,413-mile Denver and Rio Grande western; the 1,500-mile Chicago and Great Western; and the 1,125-mile Western Pacific.

The fifth struck line, the 8,000-mile Great Northern, said it has maintained near normal passenger service but that its freight movements have been crippled.

The men left their jobs in support of a demand for a 40-hour week at the present 48-hours pay, equal to a wage boost of 31 cents an hour. In taking the strike action, they rejected a recommendation by a presidential fact-finding board that they be granted a 40-hour week and a pay increase of 18 cents an hour.

The union now has a contract with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at the terms requested of the other lines. That agreement raised the pay of switch foremen or yard conductors from $13.96 a day to $15.67; helpers of yard brakemen from $12.21 to $14.65.

Judith Coplon Denied Re-Trial

Washington, June 26.—(P)—Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves today refused to grant a new trial for Judith Coplon, 39-year-old former government girl twice convicted of spying for Russia.

Judge Reeves, who last year sentenced Miss Coplon to 40 months in prison after hearing arguments on the question here last week.

TV Station Freeze

No New Television Station Licenses Approved Since October, 1948; Why This Action Was Taken; Lack Of Room And Complications Of Color Television

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 26.—(AP)—A man writes in: "Why doesn't my city have more than one television station? And when does it look like there'll be more than one?"

He's not the first to ask that question, since the government has not approved a license for a new TV station since Oct. 1, 1948. It came about this way:

If you want to open a new radio or TV station, you can't do so unless you get a license, which means permission and approval, from the Federal Communications Commission.

The FCC is the government agency which controls radio and TV. In the fall of 1948, with hundreds of applications for licenses for new TV stations on hand, the FCC suddenly announced:

No more licenses would be approved for an indefinite time. Since then, almost two full years ago, the FCC hadn't approved one.

There are now 103 TV stations operating and six more being built. When finished, they'll start business. But the license applications of all 109 were okayed by FCC before its freeze order late in 1948.

Comes the question: Since the freeze was put in almost two full years ago, when a FCC going to get around to straightening out the air-wave problem and letting more new stations get built?

There's no definite answer from the FCC. But its chairman, Wayne Coy, said some weeks ago it hopes to be able to lift the freeze around the end of 1950 and begin okaying licenses for new stations in 1951.

Act Of Aggression

No Sign That Soviet Union Ready For War At This Juncture Despite Probable Assistance Given North Korea; Only Time Will Demonstrate Red Motives

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The United States has denounced as an "act of aggression" the Communist-backed attack by North Korea on the republic of Southern Korea, and is rushing military supplies from Japan to its little protégé.

The South Korean ambassador to Washington, John Myun Chang, not only brands the act as aggression but says it could have been carried out "without Soviet direction." U. S. Senator Knowland of California, who recently visited Korea, agrees with Chang, as do other close observers, including your correspondent.

Accepting this as a well founded appraisal, what significance can we attach to it? Can it possibly mean that Russia is using this "incident" as the springboard for another major war?

I think not. There has been no sign that the Soviet Union wants World War at this juncture. On the contrary, all the indications are that Moscow isn't prepared for an all-out conflict.

True, there is some feeling in American quarters in Tokyo that the North Korean drive might be designed to distract attention from a more important Communist offensive elsewhere in Asia. That could be so, because numerous other Asiatic theaters are threatened.

Time will have to demonstrate the Red motive. Meanwhile, however, Southern Korea in itself is of such great strategic value that Russia undoubtedly would do much to gain complete domination of it. To understand this point we need only go back fifty years to the time when Russia had diplomatic control of the peninsula of Korea was "a dagger pointed at her heart."

From the military standpoint that charge was true, and it brought about the Russo-Japanese war of 1904-05. Japan was successful and Russia recognized Tokyo's paramount interest in Korea. Finally in 1910 Japan annexed Korea and held it until the little country was given its independence after the late World War.

And from the Christian Science Textbook by Mary Baker Eddy: "As time moves on, the healing elements of pure Christianity will be fairly dealt with; they will be sought and taught, and will glow in all the grandeur of universal goodness." (Page 329).

Large numbers of church women of all denominations, at the call of the United Council of Church Women, have written their congressmen and senators urging that surplus food, now in government storage, be used to feed the hungry of this and other countries; and that the government Point IV program be implemented through the United Nations program of technical assistance to undeveloped areas.

Most parents provide little or no training in moral or spiritual values for their children, according to Pres. Clark C. Kuebler, of Ripon College, Wis.

He contends that "less than half of the population of this county is identified with any religious group and many who are do not take their religion seriously." For this reason he urges that moral and spiritual teaching be introduced into the schools. "If our schools will provide moral and spiritual leadership as they do intellectual leadership, we will not have to be fearful of the future," Dr. Kuebler says.

English Teachers Plan Conference Here On July 6

Members of the Eastern District of the North Carolina English Teachers Association will hold a conference at East Carolina Teachers College, Thursday, July 6. The meeting on the Greenville campus, one of a series of three to be held in the state this summer, has just been announced by Dr. Meredith N. Posey, professor of English at the college here and director of the conference.

The program for the day will include both morning and afternoon sessions and will have as chief topics of discussion the interpretation of literature and problems in the teaching of reading. A luncheon in the North Dining hall and an afternoon session in the Flanagan auditorium will bring together the teachers of English and other teachers present on the campus for an institute on remedial reading.

Dr. Lucile Turner, chairman of the department of English at East Carolina, will make the principal talk at the morning meeting, beginning at 10 o'clock in the Austin building. Her paper "The Genial, Miraculous Power of Books" will present a study of Ralph Waldo Emerson's ideas on books and the reader.

The theme "Interpreting Poetry" will be discussed in three talks by faculty members at East Carolina. Mary H. Greene will talk on "The Language of Poetry," Dr. Martha Pingel, on "The Philosophy of Modern Poetic Form," and Dr. Posey, on "An Interpretation of 'Tom's Garland' by G. M. Hopkins." Group discussions will follow the four talks. Mrs. Katherine Sorrell Posey of Greenville will sing a group of folk songs as a special entertainment attraction during the morning.

Edith Hinton, reading specialist of the Row-Peterson Co., publishers, will be principal speaker at the luncheon at 12:30. Her talk will be based on reading problems on the high school level. During the afternoon Dr. Hazel Taylor, director of the Testing Bureau of the college, will discuss and demonstrate Harvard Reading Film techniques.

MRS. TROY WORTH ROUSE

The marriage of Miss Mamie Lee Fischel, daughter of Mr. William Harrison Fischel and the late Mrs. Fischel of Vaughan, to Troy Worth Rouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy W. Rouse, Sr. of Greenville, was solemnized at 6 o'clock Saturday evening in the garden of her home.

The Rev. John McCrimmon, pastor of the Harris Chapel Church of Hollister, N.C., performed the ceremony after a program of wedding music by Mrs. E. L. Crawley at the organ and Miss Josephine Fischel, vocalist. Mrs. Crawley played "The Rosary" during the ceremony and traditional wedding marches. Miss Fischel sang "One Alone," "Oh, Promise Me," and "Through the Years."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. William H. Fischel. The bride wore a gown of nylon net over ivory slipper satin. The bodice fastened in the back with tiny satin covered buttons from a Lupton, Greenville, parents of the groom.

To honor Miss Jewel Howard, bride-elect of Theodore B. Lupton, Jr. of Greenville, N.C., Mrs. Robert Foster entertained at an informal Wednesday afternoon from four until five o'clock. The honoree wore a corsage from her hostess and was given a gift of silver in her chosen pattern. Around thirty guests were present and during the hour were served tempting refreshments from the dining room table, which was beautifully appointed in a yellow and white motif, using wedding bells, flowers, and candles. Miss Betty Linney poured punch and assisting with the serving were Mrs. M. G. Green, Jr., and Mrs. Sam Cabel.

Among the final pre-nuptial courtesies for the bridal couple was the buffet supper given Friday evening by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Howard at their home in Wilkesboro. Other guests will include members of the wedding party, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lupton of Greenville, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Yates, Mrs. C. T. Rhodes, of Winston-Salem, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mitchell, grandparents of the bride.

Following the rehearsal Friday evening Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Joe Osborne, sister of the bride, entertained at a rehearsal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell in Wilkesboro honoring the bridal couple and members of their wedding party. On Saturday Miss Howard was hostess at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Osborne honoring her bridesmaids. At each plate will be a gift for the attendants from Miss Howard.

Lupton-Howard Vows Spoken Saturday In Formal Ceremony

MRS. THEODORE BERKLEY LUPTON, JR.

North Wilkesboro.—The wedding of Miss Jewel Selena Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Howard, of Wilkesboro, and Theodore Berkley Lupton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Berkley Lupton, of Greenville, was solemnized in a lovely ceremony Saturday, June 24, at the Wilkesboro Baptist church. Rev. W. N. Brookshire, pastor of the church, heard the vows at 5:30 o'clock using the double ring ceremony.

Florida palms made a background for white cathedral tapers in branched candelabras, arranged amid floor baskets of white gladioli. The choir loft was also blanketed with the palms, and white satin ribbon marked the pews for the two families.

Gordon Pittentreigh, of Winston-Salem, organist, and Mrs. Joe Lupton, Greenville, soprano, were the wedding musicians. Prior to the ceremony hour Mr. Pittentreigh played a program of nuptial music, after which Mrs. Lupton sang "All For You," and "Because" by D'Hardelot, and as benediction "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Joe Osborne, as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Virginia Tesh, Winston-Salem; Lillian Raper, Mt. Olive; Betty Austin, Boone; and Doretta Foster, and the Junior bridesmaids were Sue Ann Lupton, Greenville, sister tron of honor, while she was the predominant color in their cascades of flowers.

All the bride's attendants wore pearls, and their headdresses in the shape of a raff crown, were made of matching material.

Mrs. Howard, mother of the bride, wore a powder blue crepe dress with white accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Lupton, an ice blue crepe dress with black accessories. Both had corsages of pink rosebuds.

Following the wedding the bride's parents received at their home on the river road, and at the close of the reception the bridal couple left for a tour through Virginia and West Virginia. For travel the bride changed to a suit of raw silk in pop corn shade, an original of Caliday in California, and a turquoise blouse. In the pocket was a handkerchief of the turquoise color over which was pinned the white orchid from her bouquet, and her accessories were a wheat color.

The bride, a graduate of the Wilkesboro high school, graduated from Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a Business Science Secretarial Administration degree. For the past three years she has been a teacher at Leaksville high school. The groom, a graduate of the Greenville high school, attended East Carolina Teachers College at Greenville, and at present is connected with Liggett and Myers Tobacco Company. He served in the infantry in World War II, and saw overseas duty. The couple will make their home in Greenville.

At the reception the ushers greeted the guests at the door and also presented them to the receiving line, which was composed of the bridal couple, their mothers, and the bride's attendants. Mrs. P. J. Mitchell and Mrs. Jay Michael alternated in pouring punch. Mrs. C. T. Rhodes, of Winston-Salem, aunt of the bride, finished cutting the cake after the bride and groom had cut the first slice, and helping with the serving were Mrs. Buren Yates, aunt of the bride, Misses Evelyn Turner, Betty Jo King, and Marie Berrier, all of Leaksville. Others assisting at the reception were Mesdames R. E. Prevetie, Joe Lupton and Robert Foster.

On one end of the dining table, which was spread with an imported Italian cutwork cloth, was the punchbowl embedded in an arrangement of white flowers, and on the other end was the three-tiered wedding cake, all in white and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Extending from the cake was a green ribbon arranged in triangle effect on which was placed white snapdragons, baby's breath, white carnations, and maiden hair fern. Green and white decorations were used about the dining room, while elsewhere about the home mixed flowers were used in profusion.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Bill Shumate, Leaksville, N. C.; Miss Polly Debbis, Lexington, N. C.; Miss Ella Moore Phillips, Kinston, N. C.; Mr. Walter Tucker, Greenville, N. C.; Mr. Larry Tucker, B. Waddell, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. M. N. Yates, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Honeycutt, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mrs. C. T. Rhodes, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Miss Evelyn Turner, Leaksville, N. C.; Miss Marie Berrier, Leaksville, N. C.; Miss Betty Jo King, Leaksville, N. C.; Miss Lois Somlinchik, Rome, Ga.; Mr. Al Coon, Pinnacle, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. West, Jr., Valle Cruises; and Mr. and Mrs. T. B.

Questionable Boast In Welfare Payment Hike

By LYNN NISBET
 Raleigh, N. C., June 26—(AP)—Current news releases from the state department of public welfare boastfully proclaims that North Carolina is bro-ning services to its great-est resources—its people. The great-est service turns out to be large payments to more people who have been certified as in need of public assistance.

On the surface it would appear to be very questionable subject for boasting, especially with respect to the number of persons on welfare rolls.

The report states that in April of this year the state welfare department disbursed $1,323,898.60 to 60,221 old age assistance recipients. This represented an increase of about $300,000 in money and an increase of 14.8 per cent in number of beneficiaries over April of last year.

Contributions to families for aid to children and April figures for this year showed total payments of $646,653.50 for benefits of 41,884 children, an increase of $200,000 and 26 per cent in number of beneficiaries over last April.

In old age and aid to children accounts approximately three-fourths of the money comes from the federal treasury. The remaining one-fourth is paid by the state and the several counties. In a third classification, general assistance to persons between 16 and 65 the counties pay the entire cost. April payments in this category amounted to $61,822.35.

The welfare department has an impressive record of non-financial services dealing with domestic situations, supervising paroles, keeping boarding houses for children in good order, investigating causes for non-attendance at school and kindred activities.

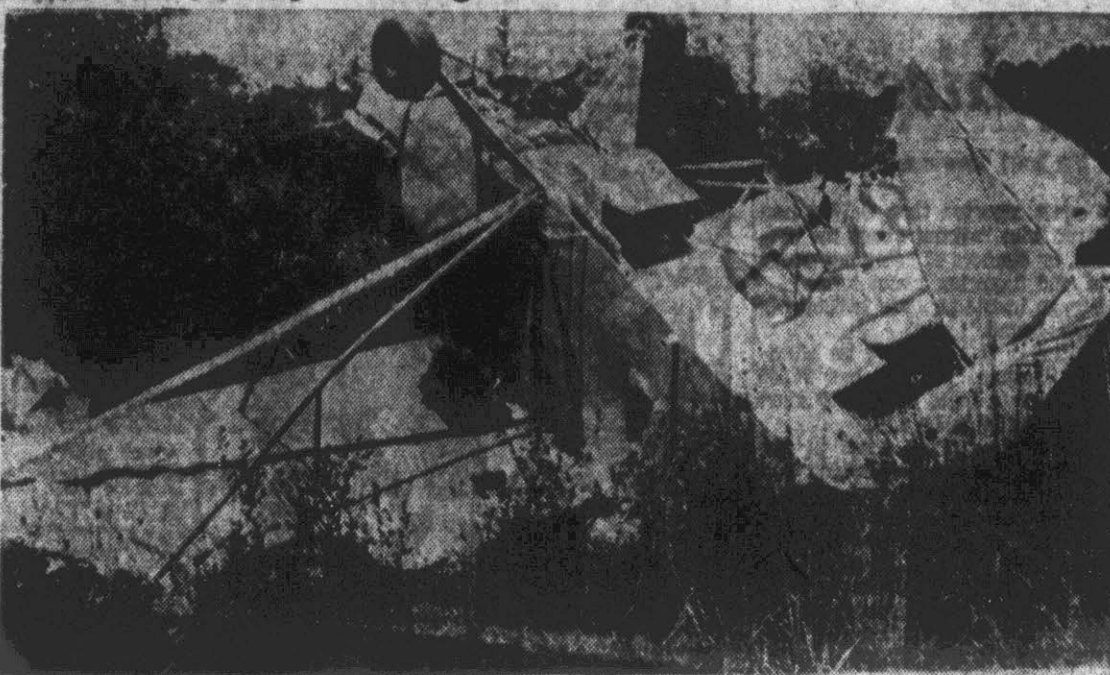

Willis Smith To Take Vacation

Raleigh, N. C., June 26—(AP)—Senator Willis Smith left today for Charlotte to attend the state American Legion convention.

He said that he might speak briefly in his first public appearance since winning the Democratic nomination in Saturday's primary and then return to Raleigh late tonight.

After that, Smith said he was going somewhere—"I haven't decided"—to take a rest.

Flash Floods Claim Heavy Toll In Six West Virginia Counties

West Union, W. Va., June 26—(AP)—At least 21 persons were dead and 33 missing today in the wake of flash floods that struck a six-county area of North-central West Virginia early Sunday morning. The surging torrents rolled out of the darkness without warning.

Anticipations fear the toll may go much higher. At least 12 of the 15 members of a family gathered for a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey at Smithburg, five miles west of here, are missing.

Only one member of the Bailey family is known to be alive. The body of Mrs. Bailey, about 60, has been recovered, and another body believed to be that of a five-months-old grandson, also has been found.

The Bailey home was directly in the path of the flood. Sheriff Paul B. Davis said the house was carried nearly two miles down stream.

The only known survivor of the family is Charles Bailey, a son, who is in a West Union hospital with a fractured leg, cuts and bruises.

Six members of the H. J. Cooper family at Smithburg also were listed as dead in the swirling waters, and three members of another family there were killed when their home was pounded into bits against a railway trestle.

Berea, a little agricultural community located on a horse shoe curve of the South Fork of the Hughes river south of here, also was hard hit. Six persons were known dead there, including a grandmother and two of her grandchildren.

Postmaster Ray J. Small said the toll at Berea might have been higher except for the Paul Revere actions of two of the town's young men, Harland Hodge and Charlie Bridge, who dashed through the community knocking on doors to warn residents.

Property damage is expected to run high. In West Union, 200 homes were destroyed. City officials at Weston, 25 miles to the south, on the West Fork river, estimated the damage there at $2,000,000.

All of Weston except sections on the hillsides was under water at one time.

Stranded Cow Is 400 lbs. Lighter

Smyrna, Tenn., June 26—(AP)—Red can walk in the sun again and munch the grass and feed that may restore the 400 pounds she lost.

The 1-year-old Jersey cow fell into a dark, 16-foot-deep sink hole six weeks and two days before she was pulled out by an auto wrecker yesterday.

Bobby and Thomas Maxwell heard some mournful moos as they walked across a field Saturday. "That sounds like Red," they said. They saw the sink hole, looked in, and there she was.

Their father, Sidney Maxwell, thought his cow had been stolen when she disappeared May 12.

Thirty persons gathered for the rescue. A chair of grass sacks was fitted under Red and the wrecker hoisted her out.

"She looked like a skeleton," said Leslie Wright, an electrician. "We started pulling weeds and grass and she ate it all and walked away."

Maxwell said the cow had wasted away from 900 to 400 pounds.

Red, somewhat more content bedded down in dry, clean straw in the barn last night.

Sees Insincerity In Sponsorship Of Civil Rights

Boston, June 26—(AP)—Negro leader Walter White has charged Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Lucas (D-Ill) with "gross insincerity" in their support of civil rights legislation.

The executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People sharply criticized the two senators yesterday in an address to the NAACP's 41st annual convention.

"The attitude of 'Mr. Republican' and 'Mr. Democrat' are typical of the gross insincerity, with but few exceptions, in both parties, on the civil rights issue," White declared.

He blasted the "more subtle politicians who clothe themselves in robes of respectability, smile unctuously at those they are about to doublecross, and then piously campaign for reelection on the ground they were prevented from keeping their promises by those pesky Dixiecrats."

Committeeman Daniels Silent On Ouster Talk

Raleigh, N. C., June 26—(AP)—Democratic National Committee member Jonathan Daniels had no comment today on published reports that supporters of Senatorial nominee Willis Smith might seek to oust him.

Smith, who defeated Senator Frank P. Graham for the Democratic nomination in Saturday's runoff primary, said when asked to comment on the reports that "I haven't even thought about it one way or another."

He said that some of his supporters "may feel that way," but if it was "ever mentioned to me it was in the most casual way."

State Democratic chairman Everett Jordan said he had "never heard anything whatsoever of any such move, and I don't think there's anything to it."

He immediately turned his back on the party situation in North Carolina, and indicated his great concern over the situation in Parkway Korea.

Graham was optimistic, or at least hopeful, of the Korean situation as he carefully and fully dictated a comment to a reporter.

"Our chief hope," he said, "is still in the United Nations. The UN has prevented the third World War from starting in Iran, Greece, Palestine and Indonesia, and now we hope it will be able to hold in restraint the situation in Korea."

Criminal Shot By FBI Agents On Resisting

Indianapolis, June 24—(AP)—Two FBI agents shot Henry Harland Shelton, one of the nation's 10 most wanted criminals, last night when the Michigan fugitive reached for a gun to avoid arrest.

Shelton was critically wounded. The only two bullets fired by the agents passed through his body.

Mrs. Mason P. Harper, wife of the tavern, was standing about six feet from Shelton and said she heard an agent say: "Come on, fella, it's all over."

"That's what you think," the long sought fugitive replied and reached for a automatic stuck in his belt.

Both agents fired and Shelton collapsed on the sidewalk before he could shoot.

Budget Deficit Predicted Under $3.5 Billions

Washington, June 26—(AP)—Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means committee quoted secretary of the treasury Snyder today as saying the federal deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30 will not exceed $3,500,000,000.

The Administration originally estimated the deficit would be around $5,500,000,000. More recently, however this figure was revised downward by the treasury.

Doughton told the house rules committee he talked with Snyder this morning and the secretary told him the deficit will be no more than $3,500,000,000.

Baltimore Talks Prospects Of Getting St. Louis' Franchise

Baltimore, June 26—(AP)—Put a foot on the Municipal Stadium and Baltimore will get the St. Louis Browns baseball franchise.

That's what Baltimoreans are being told by their mayor, Thomas D'Alesandro, and the sports editor of the News-Post, Roger H. Pippen.

Those two are the leading drummers to put Baltimore in the major leagues. Such talk has been going on for three years.

Bob Rodenberg started it in 1941 when he was owner of the Baltimore Colts, the city's professional football team. Rodenberg, a Washingtonian, looked into the possibility of buying the Browns and decided the "price" which is currently quoted for the club was too high.

Since then transfer of the Browns has been rumored off and on and Baltimore always is mentioned prominently.

Last September, Mayor D'Alesandro announced he was starting a campaign to get an American League franchise for the city. "A completed stadium, I am informed, will give Baltimore a real chance for a big league franchise," he said.

Last Tuesday, Bill DeWitt, owner of the Browns, complained in St. Louis of poor attendance and declared that "some day" the Browns would move if gate receipts didn't improve.

The mayor and Sports Editor Pippen promptly announced they were negotiating for months with DeWitt on the transfer. Again the mayor said DeWitt had told him the Browns would come to Baltimore

"if the bowl were completed with a roof."

Pippen reported that DeWitt had written him "asking about the stadium, its chances of being put under roof and inquiring about terms."

Pippen insists the city is "now big league bound."

Baltimore is rebuilding its Municipal Stadium. It now has 21,000 new concrete seats and 10,000 more will be available by fall.

The voters will be asked in November to approve a $2,500,000 loan to complete the bowl with another 20,000 seats and a second deck which will serve as a roof over sections around the baseball diamond and provide about 19,000 more seats. Such a loan was defeated at the polls two years ago before any construction work had begun.

Sport Slants By Pap

Set At Second by Pap

A former second base star himself, Bucky Harris soon realized after taking charge of the Washington Senators for the third time, that he did not have a second base combination that might help him produce a winner. He tried several combinations, young and old, but eventually gave up and bid for a seasoned star. He came up with Cass Michaels.

With Pitcher Bob Kuzav, Outfielder John Ostromski and a fat bundle of cash in exchange for Pitcher Ray Scarborough, Eddie Robinson and Al Kozar. It was Bucky's deal and he is ready to stand up and take the blame in case the Washington fans don't like it. He does hope, however, that they resume judgement until Michaels and the other former White Sox players get a fair chance to produce.

Only 24, Michaels is rated as one of the best second basemen in the American League. He batted .308 last season and drove 89 runs across the plate. A batting record like that could help the Senators considerably. Cass has one weakness at the plate but it is when he has a knife and fork in his hands, not a bat. Cass is inclined to put on weight and his appetite for pork and mashed potatoes presents a real problem. Unless curbed, he could eat his way right out of baseball.

Farmville Retains Lead In Bright Belt League

Steamrolled Over Saratoga, 28-4, In Wild And Woolly Seven-Inning Affair Saturday; Won Sunday By 3-0

Farmville, June 26—Farmville's Bright Belt leaders remained atop the league standings by virtue of a wild and woolly game Saturday and a comparatively sane one yesterday afternoon.

Farmville won both ends of the split doubleheader, winning Saturday 28-4 in a game called in the seventh because it got out of hand, and yesterday's tiff, 3-0, over Saratoga.

While Masany's semi-pro clouters romped on Saratoga's array of pitching for 25 hits in the first game. Both team managers agreed early in the game to call it at the end of the fifth inning after Farmville had tallied 13 runs. However, the contest went on until the seventh after the locals scored nine times in the sixth. The game was called outright then.

Jim Pollard went the route for Farmville, giving up eight hits. Saratoga committed seven errors in the wild scoring affair.

Yesterday's game was a different story, however. That game was called in the seventh inning also because of the heat.

Farmville tallied its first run in the second inning and the other two singletons in the fourth and fifth. McClellan went the route for the locals, pitching seven hit ball. He led his team at the plate, getting a double and a single in three times at bat.

Datcher Buck Hardee also got a double in three times, the only other extra base out of the game. Junior Yohn appeared in uniform, although not on the mound. He took over Roger Thrift's duties at first base when Thrift injured his ankle in an automobile accident just before Saturday's game.

The wins enabled Farmville to remain a half-game ahead of Macclesfield in the standings. The latter team also took two games from Fremont over the weekend to continue as runner-up to Farmville, a position they have held since Farmville took over first place Wednesday when it beat Macclesfield.

Oldsters Steal PGA Limelight

Columbus, O., June 26—(AP)—The $40,000 National PGA golf tournament is making a farce of the old Axium that youth must be served.

There are no youngsters (in the 20-year old classifications), left in the meet today. Usually the six-day tortuous grind sends the older pros to slipping fall ones on the veranda.

This 1950 meet on the long 7,032 yard Scioto Country Club course has become, generally, a race of darkhorses—older ones.

Into the 36-hole semi-finals go such aged in the wood contestants as Henry Picard, responding like an old fire horse; Henry Williams, Jr. of Secaucus, Pa.; Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va.; and Rainbow-hued Jimmy Demaret.

The semi-finals send Demaret against Harper and Picard after Williams.

By far, the most interest centers on Picard, who once was one of golf's greats.

In 1936 he developed an arthritis condition in his hands. Despite this handicap, he won the 1938 Masters' at Augusta and the 1939 PGA crown. Then he suddenly dropped from sight, emerging slightly in 1945 to take the Miami open. That was his last victory.

Picard advanced by trouncing heavily favored Johnny Palmer, the 1949 runner-up, 10 and 8 in yesterday's 36 hole quarterfinals session.

Never have the poor pitchers been pointed so unmercifully as in the past four days. Since Thursday unsympathetic hitters have slammed them for 111 homers including 31 yesterday.

Five players hit a pair of homers yesterday. They were Ralph Kiner, Pittsburgh; Hank Sauer, Chicago Cubs; Larry Doby and Ray Boone, Cleveland; and Eddie Joost, Philadelphia Athletics.

It was a three-run homer by Hoot Evers in the last of the eighth that gave the Tigers a 6-3 second game victory and a split of their doubleheader with the Yankees. Homers by Joe DiMaggio and Hank Bauer helped Eddie Lopat and the Yankees win the opener against Hal New-

Bunts Almost Forgotten In New Era Of Lively Ball

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

Quick now, baseball fans, what is a bunt?

Silly question? Not at all. In this era of the lively ball the bunt, along with the stolen base, hit-and-run and squeeze play, is becoming as extinct as the dodo bird.

Why lay down a sacrifice bunt when King Homer sits on the throne and every pitched ball has a four-base label on it?

Tarboro A's Win Weekend Games By 5-4, 5-2 Scores

Lone Run In Fifth Won Saturday Contest; Robins Out-Hit Tarboro, Lost On Sunday

By BERT MOYE

Manager Joe Antolick's Tarboro A's swept both ends of a weekend bill with the Greenville Robins, taking the contest over in Tarboro on Saturday night by a 5-4 win and then coming to Greenville Sunday afternoon to whip the Robins for the second straight time with a 5-2 win.

Saturday's Game
The Tarboro Athletics scored one run in the fifth inning to defeat the Greenville Robins, 5-4, over in Tarboro Saturday night.

In the fifth, Bill Carr drew a walk, went to second on a passed ball, advanced to third on a fielder's choice and scored on Red Bock's long fly to right field.

Jim Lewey went the route for the Robins and gave up six hits. The loss for Lewey was his sixth of the season and his second to the Athletics.

Red Bock led the Athletics in hitting, getting three of the six hits the A's were able to garner off Lewey.

The Robins collected eight hits off two Tarboro pitchers. Bob Broughman started for the A's; out was relieved by Bob Zick in the third. Zick allowed only two hits the rest of the way and got credit for the win, to give him a record of one win and one loss against the Robins this season.

George Hallow and Vince Lautato led the attack for the Robins, each collecting two singles in four trips to the plate.

Sunday's Game
Two unearned runs in the fifth inning proved enough for a victory over the Greenville Robins in the second game of the series with Tarboro here yesterday afternoon as the A's made it two in a row with a 5-2 win.

Pitcher Charlie Voss started the fifth off with a single, Dal Orf then hit down the first base line and Pitcher Ray Keys bobbled the ball. Then Ray Carr laid down a perfect bunt back to Pitcher Keys and Keys threw to third, but Hall was nowhere around and as a result Voss and Orf scored as the ball went out into leftfield.

The A's scored a singleton in the first frame on singles by Orf and Ray Carr and a fly to deep centerfield by Bob Dierick. They scored again in the second frame to knot the count at 2-2 when the bases became loaded on singles by Crotts and Drake and a sacrifice felder's choice by Zick, pinch-hitting for Jackson. Voss then hit into a double play with Crotts scoring on the twin killing.

The Robins did all their scoring, committed to the game free, provided they are accompanied by their parents, regarding the commotion they make in the grandstand during the games. However, before any action is made by the management to place them in a special section in the bleachers, he would like very much to have the reaction of the fans on this matter, because no action will be taken unless it meets the approval of the fans and especially the parents of those children who have purchased those T shirts. Please let Business Manager Russ Filley know your reaction in the matter either by dropping him a postal card or calling him on the telephone at number 4125 at once.

If publicity for Max Patkin is any indication, Greenville fans should have a lot of fun at the Wilson in the first frame, but after that despite eight hits and six men left on bases during the remaining eight frames, they were unable to add any more runs.

Paul Strausser beat out an infield hit, advanced to second on Tepe-dino's infield out and scored on Joe Guidice's single into right field. Hall hit to Second Baseman Billy Carr who threw to Jackson to catch Guidice but Jackson dropped the ball and Guidice was safe. John Baktis then lined out a double into centerfield to bring home Guidice.

Ray Keys went the route for the Robins, giving up eight hits. It was the sixth loss of the season for Keys and the first to the A's. Hal Crotts with three singles and Edid Drake with a double and a single led the Robins' attack.

Charlie Voss went the route for the A's, giving up 14 hits which were well scattered, and coupled with some mighty poor base running by the Robins, enabled the Athletics to gain his second straight win in Coastal Plain League competition since joining the A's a short time ago.

Johnny Baktis and Vince Lautato, with a double and two singles each, led the 11-hit attack off Voss. The Robins journey to Rocky Mount tonight to meet the Leafs in the first of a two-game series, returning home Tuesday night to meet the Leafs at 7:45 o'clock.

Seattle, June 26—(AP)—The speedboat "Slo-mo-shun IV" today roared 160.3235 miles per hour over the measured mile on glass-smooth Lake Washington to crack the world's old hydroplane record of 141.74 miles per hour.

Owner-Pilot Stanley S. Sayres piloted the 1,500-horsepower Slo-mo-shun to the new record on the first attempt.

The Slo-mo-shun cracked the old record of 141.74 miles per hour set in 1939 by Sir Malcolm Campbell on Lake Coniston, England.

Friday's Cases In Police Court

The following cases were tried in Friday's Police Court before Judge J.W.H. Roberts.

David L. Jones, charged with three warrants, one for speeding, careless and reckless driving and driving drunk, asked for jury trial and the cases were transferred to Superior Court.

Willie Daniels, colored, was given 30 days or pay $15 for being drunk. A 30-day suspended sentence upon payment of $196 and costs was ordered in the case charging Henry Martin with failure to pay lodging.

Joe Smith, colored, was placed on probation for two years and ordered to pay court costs for possession of non-tax paid liquor for purpose of sale. The court also ordered all the whiskey and wine to be destroyed.

Charles Allen was not guilty of assault.

Sam Joyner and Wesley Phillips, both colored, were found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon and fined $15, and ordered not to be in the company of each other.

John D. Payton, colored, charged with speeding and careless and reckless driving, paid $20.

Herbert B. Jones, colored, was placed on probation for three years and ordered to pay court costs and $30 for doctor's bill, on a charge of non-support. The court then ordered Jones to pay $5 per week into the Pitt County welfare office for the support of his child.

Animal Laundry Sets Precedent

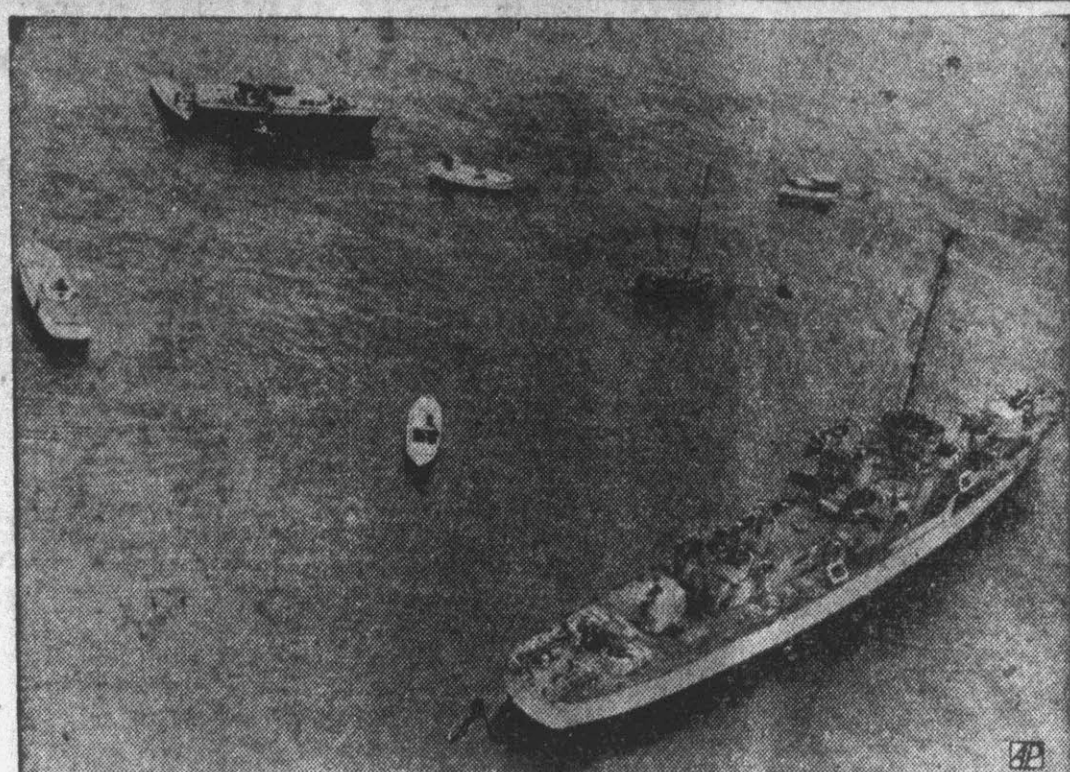

Los Angeles—(AP)—Beauty treatments for anything from elephants to hummingbirds, that's the motto of 26-year-old Loa Busche. She has opened an animal laundry which she believes is the first of its type in the country. She guarantees to get customers clean by following this routine:

Suit Charging Discrimination Scheduled Today

Durham, N. C., June 26—(AP)—A suit charging that Negro schools here are being discriminated against by the Durham public school district was scheduled to open in middle federal court here this morning.

In addition to the Durham public school district, other defendants named in the suit include the North Carolina state board of education, Clyde A. Erwin, state superintendent of public instruction; and H. P. Taylor, member of the state board of education.

Durham Negro parents allege in the suit that their constitutional rights are being violated on account of color.

Defendants have answered that there is no discrimination, and that advantages, if any, are on the side of the Negro students.

Iron Bed Is Safe From Lightning

Atlantic City—(AP)—The safest place to be in a lightning storm is in a metal bed. Emmet Cox, Chicago fire prevention expert, explained this to the annual meeting of the National Fire Protection Association.

A lightning bolt entering a room would follow the metal bedstead and leave its occupant unharmed, he said.

To Try Tolar

Washington, N. C., June 26—(AP)—The trial of C. (Tony) Tolar on charges of reckless driving and illegal use of a siren at a funeral was scheduled to begin today in Superior court.

Tolar resigned as head of state highway patrol soon after he was indicted on the charges by a Beaufort county grand jury at the time of the indictment last March, Tolar said. He was speeding to a reported wreck and did not know a funeral was in procession.

About three weeks after the indictment the patrol commander was arrested on a speeding charge at Faye'sville where he paid a fine. His offer to resign as patrol head was accepted by Governor Scott April 16.

Town Turned Out To Fight Blaze

The volunteer fire department was aided by all able bodied men in the town and equipment from Paris and Lexington.

Seek Recorded Talk By Service

Washington, June 24—(AP)—Senate investigators pressed the Justice Department anew today for the full inquiry group regarding charges by transcript of an FBI-recorded talk which Diplomat John S. Service had in 1945 with American Editor Philip Jaffe.

The move came amid indications a senatorial study of State Department loyalty files will bring no unanimous conclusions within the inquiry group regarding charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Suspects In Enka Shooting Held By Tenn. Police

Morristown, Tenn., June

(AP)—Two men believed to have fired the first shots in the strike violence at the American Enka plant Thursday were arrested today by state highway patrolmen.

State Safety Commissioner Sam K. Neal said they are believed to be the ring leaders in the wave of violence which swept the strike-bound rayon plant when four persons were injured by flying bullets, one critically.

Neal identified the two as John Paul Gregory, about 34, and Jasper Jones, age unavailable. He said the pair was taken from a Nashville-bound bus at Crossville.

The commissioner said the two will be charged with assault with intent to commit murder in the first degree. A third man is sought on the same charge.

During the Civil War, West Virginia had three governments, an exiled northern government in Alexandria, a Confederate government operating from Richmond and a third at Wheeling.

Mesquite and Utah Juniper, regarded as pest trees in the southwest, have been found to make good fence posts.

POWER? Sure! Here's a whole bonnetful of Fireball straight-eight power.

Room? Plenty—in big, sofa-wide seats and generous room for elbows and shoulders.

Style? Well take a look—see anything on the road today that is so smart, so sleek, so quickly spotted?

But that's just a start in this beauty. Here you're going to meet the "ride of a lifetime"—smooth, level-going comfort in the quite matchless Buick manner.

Just see why this is so:

Most cars have coil springs in front. Buick has them all around.

Most cars now ride on low-pressure tires. Buick adds to them Safety-Ride rims to cut heel-over and sway.

Most cars drive through the rear springs, which means they have to be stiff. Buick drives through a firm torque-tube that takes up driving thrust and roughness.

And no other car—no, not a single one—has all these comfort extras plus husky-frames plus Hi-Poised engine mountings plus middle-of-the-car seating plus the extra silkiness of Dyna-flow Drive.* *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Optional equipment, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

Worth something? You bet it is! But it's riding luxury that doesn't show up in the price tags. Figures start at levels lower than on many sixes—yet every Buick has this matchless array of ride features.

Better come learn about them—by firsthand trial. Can you see your Buick dealer today?

IT'S DEATH, MY DARLING!

By Amelia Reynolds Long

Chapter 4
Shortly after this, another man came in from the gallery. There was the flavor of horses about him—not literally, of course, but suggested subtly by his appearance and bearing. Aunt Minerva, with evident distaste, introduced him as Lewis Haye, Colonel Dumont's estate manager. "How are the horses, Haye?" Claude called to him. "Will they be in shape for tomorrow?" He managed to put into it the condescending air of an employer addressing a servant. Lewis Haye appeared not to notice the manner; or if he did, he didn't permit it to bother him. "They're always in shape," he replied with good-natured confidence. "And by the way, since Colonel Dumont didn't specify who was to ride which horse, I took it upon myself to make out a list of tentative assignments."

He crossed to where Claude was standing, and the two of them became absorbed in discussion. Just then Uncle Bountiful appeared in the doorway. His rusty frock coat had been replaced by yourself, and you know it. Cousin a white linen house-jacket which made him look like a Pullman porter whose train had gone off and left him.

"Supper—excuse me—dinner is served," he recited with a sullenly apologetic glance in Aunt Minerva's direction, and withdrew again. "Why dinner?" I asked Amadee as we followed the others across the hall to the dining room. "A special occasion of some sort?" "No," he answered with a grin. "Aunt Minerva is convinced that only ignorant country people have dinner in the middle of the day and supper in the evening; so she's been undertaking to enlighten us."

He glanced toward his eldest cousin, who was attempting to attach himself to Bobby's other side as she and Henri were about to enter the dining room together. "Peter, I've got to find some way to keep Henri and Claude separated until after the funeral," he said worriedly. "Claude's been making a play for Bobby all day, and Henri—well, you saw what nearly happened back there a while ago."

"Couldn't the four of us slip away somewhere after dinner, or would Aunt Minerva's sensibilities be shocked?" "They probably would be, but we'll do it anyway," he replied. "When the women go back to the drawing room for coffee, you and Bobby find an excuse to wander out onto the gallery. Henri and I will meet you there with one of the cars, and we'll drive in to New Orleans for a few hours."

At the conclusion of the meal, as the women were being herded back to the drawing room I managed to fall into step beside Bobby and to acquaint her with the planned escape for the evening. "The only trouble," I finished, "is that I can't think offhand of a good excuse for both of us to leave the drawing room."

"Why bother with an excuse?" she asked practically. "Why not just before she can stop us? You slip out while I run upstairs and get our coats. It may be a little chilly during the drive back."

It seemed an excellent suggestion. Feeling a little like a conspirator in a prison break, I took it. Outside on the gallery, the cool air was a welcome relief from the slightly stuffy atmosphere of the house with its subtly cloying odor of funeral flowers that seeped out from the "front parlor," where Colonel Dumont's body lay in state.

After a few minutes, I heard the sound of a door opening on the left gallery; and thinking that they must have got away sooner than I had expected, I started in that direction. Then a man's voice spoke. It belonged to Uncle Raoul.

"I tell you, Jeff, it's more than just Father that lies dead in there," he was saying, and there was an unbridled bitterness in his tones that he made no effort to control. "It's the end of an era for the Dumonts. The family and the things it stands for are dying out together. Father had five sons; but what is there left? I alone have outlived him."

"There are five grandsons," Cousin Jeff pointed out. "That's enough to carry on the name."

Uncle Raoul laughed harshly. "Five grandsons," he repeated, somehow managing to make the words sound like a taunt. "Yes, and look at them!"

"Raoul, you're only dramatizing Jeff said. "It galls you because yourself, and you know it." Cousin Claude comes into the place as the eldest; and so you're mentally taking it out on the rest of them for Police Chief Lester D. Page quoted Briley as saying he picked up the passenger at First and Evans Streets about 3 a.m. Sunday. His destination was across Tar River in the low-grounds, near two houses.

When the taxi arrived there, Briley told police, the Negro held him up with a gun and robbed him of his money. The Negro then compelled the taxicab driver to take him to Moore Street. He picked up a small towel in the car and wiped away his fingerprints from the handle of the car door, and departed with threats against the taxi driver.

One of the clues police are now working on indicated that the robber talked over a telephone at a Negro funeral home on East First Street before the armed robbery, and that he and a Negro named "Bud" Daniels left there together.

Shotgun Figures Nocturnal Brawl

Greenville police arrested L. D. Rogers, 25-year-old Negro tenant who works on Yock Joyner's farm, on four charges—three of them for assault with a deadly weapon—a shotgun—and the fourth warrant for discharging firearms in the city limits Saturday night.

Detective Lt. M. E. Corbett and Identification Specialist S. B. Dorsey said Rogers is charged with shooting at Daniel Brown, Henry Brown and Frank Streater, Negroes, on Carolina avenue, near Star Warehouse No. 2.

The officers quoted Rogers as saying that he was riding with his girl, Marie Langley of Stokes, late that night; that when he went into the Paradise cafe to make a purchase he came out and found the three men sitting in his car with his girl friend. They got out, he stated, but later molested him.

Rogers told police he went home at a rural point and got his shotgun. When he returned to the neighborhood of the cafe the three men continued to molest him and "I fired to keep 'em off of me."

The case will be tried in Police court next Friday.

Court Convicts Teel Of Assault And Being Drunk

In police court today, Myron Teel, 41, was convicted of two charges—one of being drunk and the other of assaulting Sam Hux, teen-age youth, last Friday night.

Judge J. W. H. Roberts, in passing sentence, gave Teel six months on the roads, sentence suspended on payment of $20 and placed him on probation for three years. The court gave Teel 30 days for being drunk, sentences suspended on payment of $15. He pleaded guilty to both charges.

H. M. Hux, 210 Washington street, testified that he heard a commotion next door at Teel's home; that we went out to investigate, and found that Teel was attempting to assault his son, Sam, in the yard. Hux testified that Teel was drunk, and that it was not unusual to hear disturbances at the house next door. Sam Hux, about 17, testified that he heard a commotion at Teel's home and that he intervened as a peacemaker and that Teel attempted to assault him and that Teel's son prevented it.

When police failed to answer his call, Hux went to the station and swore out warrants against Teel, he told the court.

Judge Roberts, after passing sentence on Teel, gave him "some good

Hemisphere. President Harry S. Truman, honorary president of the national scout organization, will officially open the jamboree Friday, and he has said he hopes to be on hand at Valley Forge for the celebration which will be staged on July 4.

Water suppliers of Philadelphia have arranged to pump 800,000 gallons of water a day to the camp, and 12 miles of electric lines will be providing lighting for the scouts.

Experts who are in charge of the food which will be distributed to the individual patrols at the jamboree have estimated the boys will consume these staggering amounts of food in one week: 400,000 gallons of milk, 5,000 gallons of ice cream, 85,000 loaves of bread, two freight cars of breakfast cereals, 100 tons of meat, 23 tons of sugar and 48,000 cans of soup.

After the jamboree breaks up on July 6, the Pitt county scouts will spend one day in Philadelphia sight-seeing and return home early on the morning of July 8.

The scouting event which is being staged in Valley Forge is the second national jamboree for scouts even held in the United States. The last national jamboree was held in 1937.

Charge Marylander Giving Bad Checks

Kelley Ray Smith, taxicab driver of Maryland, was arrested here during the week end on warrants charging issuing of two worthless checks, one for $150 and the other for $10. Smith will be tried before Magistrate H. L. Jenkins. A relative posted bond for him at the week end and he was released.

The record shows that the complaining witness in one of the warrants is Roy Speight, service station operator on the New Bern highway.

against Nippon, or to be held over Tokyo as a threat to secure concessions.

That brings us up to the salient fact that Moscow is at loggerheads with America and the rest of the Western Allies over the position of Japan. Russia is utterly opposed to America's dominant position and occupation of Nippon.

So I think these facts may well account for the Communist move to secure control of all Korea and thereby gain an invaluable base which not only points "at the heart of Japan" but also lies close to the ring of America's defensive posts throughout the Southeast Pacific.

Also in the view of American officials at Washington, it is a military probing operation to test the resistance and power of the non-Communist world.

In any event, whatever may be in Moscow's mind, there is no reason to believe it is the creation of a major war. The danger of the Korean aggression, of course, is that the peninsula is a tinder-box surrounded by explosive situations.
