U. S. Airmen Said To Bomb Invaders

Koreans Claim Bombers To Attack Red-Occupied Towns South Of Border; Communists Driven From Seoul's Gates

Tokyo, June 27—(AP)—A report that American-manned bombers will bomb all towns held by the North Koreans south of the 38th parallel was confirmed tonight by usually informed sources.

Reports from the battle area often were vague and conflicting. Military circles in Tokyo said it appeared that advance North Korean Communist units had stabbed close to the capital. In fact a report from Gen. MacArthur's headquarters in Japan had tank units entering Seoul. But the Tokyo informants said apparently the Reds had overextended

Strong Policy Presented By Truman To Halt Aggressors

Washington, June 27—(AP)—President Truman today ordered United States planes and warships to the aid of South Korean forces. He laid down a policy of standing firm against Communist aggression in the far Pacific.

It was learned that Mr. Truman's historic decisions were reached at a high policy meeting at the White House last night.

Before announcing them in a statement today, he called both Democratic and Republican Congressional leaders to the White House to review them and explain the background.

Mr. Truman's statement said: "I know that members of the United Nations will consider carefully the consequences of this latest aggression in Korea in defiance of the charter of the United Nations."

Candidate Smith Gets Gov. Scott's Support

Governor Calls On N. C. Democrats To Rally Behind Willis Smith In General Elections; Holds Firm To Belief In Graham

Raleigh, N.C., June 27—(AP)—Governor Scott today urged North Carolina Democrats to rally behind Willis Smith in this fall's general election.

The governor pointed out in a statement that he appointed Senator Frank Graham and "worked hard for his nomination in the primary."

"The people are supreme in a democracy and Willis Smith becomes the standard bearer of the Democratic party," said Scott.

In his news conference the governor also told newsmen: "That neither President Truman nor other national Democratic leaders played any part in Graham's appointment."

That if it were to be done over he would appoint Graham again would not back down," he said.

That the possibility of his being a candidate for the vice presidency has "never been mentioned to me."

That although "a lot of people" think his Administration suffered a serious reversal, "I don't think it lost anything in the long run."

Of his Administration Scott added "It's a program for the masses. They were not ready to accept it."

"I've been in a lot of scraps," added Scott. "It's not the first time I've been run over."

Scott said that whether Graham's defeat resulted from the race issue or from socialism or whatever it was that the record-breaking vote cast in the primaries was a healthy sign.

City And County Offices Report Healthy Increases

By JOHN SPINKS, JR. Reports from both the Greenville city clerk and the county auditor stated today collections on the tax levy of the fiscal year just past are above those of the year 1948-49.

The city leads in collections on the levy over the county's collections through Sunday of last week. Clerk J. O. Duval reported the levy for 1949-50 is 85.6 percent collected as against the county's 90.9 percent as reported today by Auditor Allen T. Powell.

Of the total levy for the city on last year's taxes, $257,829.46 has been paid by the taxpayers of Greenville on a levy of $269,578.76. Compared with collections on the same date last year, for the 1948-49 levy, the percentage is up seven-tenths of one percent. Figures, for the date June 26, 1949, showed a total of $199,739.42 collected on a levy of $210,472.05 for the city.

From the county, Powell reported in a statement for the period through last Sunday, $557,971.84 have been plunked down on a total of $614,177.08 for the past fiscal year. That figure is three-tenths of one percent above last year's collections at the same date. Collected then was $436,825.77 of a total of $462,218.16.

The tentative levy for the present fiscal year for the county is $447,300, Powell said. That figure is based on a total valuation of $49,700,000.

Concerning the discount received by taxpayers in paying through the month of June, Duval reported Greenville citizens have saved $720.53 on a discount rate of two percent. Net taxes paid for 1950-51 levy for Greenville amount to $35,299.04 through yesterday afternoon.

The tentative levy for the present fiscal year for Greenville has not been totaled up as yet, the clerk said.

Asserts War Has Begun If Russia Refuses Retreat

Charlesston, June 27—(AP)—Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, declared today that "if Russia does not back down now (in the Korean situation), World War No. 3 has begun."

In a prepared statement, Rivers declared: "President Truman's decision to call Russia's hand at this point in the Pacific, I am certain, will meet with the general approval of the American people. It's the answer to those, including myself, who have urged firm action against communism's relentless progress in Asia."

"I propose to back the President to the fullest and believe all good Americans are going to do likewise."

A Greenville man witnessed the entire tobacco panorama — from plant to cured leaf — being transported between Maryland and North Carolina — all in a single day.

J. B. Taylor, Route 4, Greenville, saw tobacco being set out in Maryland yesterday while traveling from Baltimore to Greenville. Also in that state, he saw farmers keeping the grass down by plowing the weed for the first time.

In Pitt County, Taylor saw farmers putting in their crop, and in Murfreesboro he saw the cured leaf being auctioned off. Taylor thinks that's a record.

Second Accident In Brief Interval

Greenville Man Seriously Hurt In Highway Mishap

This county's second accident in less than twenty four hours last night sent a Greenville man to the hospital with chest injuries when the car which he was driving crashed into the rear of a car going in the same direction.

The accident occurred on the New Bern highway about four and one-half miles from Greenville.

According to information received from Patrolman Paul Whitley, investigating officer, the car operated by George Haddock, of 1210 Chestnut Street rammed into the back of a 1937 convertible driven by Elmer E. Adams of Route 4, Greenville.

Haddock suffered what the patrolman termed "painful and possibly serious chest injuries" when the force of the impact threw him into the steering wheel of his car. The entire front end was rammed back on the Haddock car with the back end of the Adams car being severely damaged.

Damage to the Haddock car was over $400 with the damage to the other car estimated to be around $250.

Haddock was taken to the hospital and the patrolman stated he had not been able to talk to him as yet to determine how the accident occurred.

The car struck by the Haddock car traveled a considerable distance from the point of impact down the highway, the patrolman said.

Neither of the two cars which were traveling in the direction of Greenville had any passengers. Adams was not injured.

Whitley stated that investigation of the accident is not complete as yet.

The accident came only a few hours after a Cherry Point Marine had been killed in an accident on the Falkland highway around 3:00 that morning. Two other persons were also injured in the early morning accident.

New HD Agent

Miss Parker is a graduate of East Carolina and for the past year has been a teacher in the Nashville high school, teaching vocational home economics. At the present time Miss Parker is one of the counselors at the 4-H camp at Fisher Landing.

The new agent will replace Miss Verna Belle Lowry who left the county earlier in the year to become Agent for New Hanover County (Staff photo).

Former French Premier Struggles Form Cabinet

Paris, June 27—(AP)—Premier Henry Queille struggled today to get the French Socialist party into a new cabinet. War in East Asia lent added urgency to his efforts.

Queille expected to report on his progress to president Vincent Auriol later today after interviewing leaders of his own radical Socialist party former Premier Georges Bidault's popular Republican movement (MRP) and the Socialists.

Queille insisted he must have the Socialists to share the responsibilities of power if he resumed the Premiership. His earlier cabinet lasted 13 months.

The Socialists, third strongest party in the National assembly, were members of every cabinet after the liberation until last February.

They walked out of the Bidault government then when other parties refused to grant wage raises to low income workers. But they continued to support the MRP Premier in Parliament. Last Saturday they withdrew their support, because Bidault opposed wage increases for government workers. The cabinet was forced to quit.

An important section of the party led by Secretary-general Guy Mollet opposed participation in a new coalition regime. They feel that non-participation will strengthen their position in a competition with the Communists for labor votes in the parliamentary elections due not later than next year.

Gunfire Again Heard In Enka Plant Strike Area

Morristown, Tenn., June 27—(AP)—Bullets whistled past a worker at the strike-troubled American Enka Corporation rayon plant today, but he escaped injury.

The shots were fired at Junior Wright near his Morristown home as he returned from the midnight shift at the plant, seven miles away.

Deputies at the jail heard the shots and raced to the scene. Sheriff Robert Medlin said they found no trace of the gunman.

Meanwhile, investigations went on in the wake of the shootings which wounded four persons last week. L. A. (Blackie) Warwick, 47, executive board member of the GPO

Presidential Powers In Draft Act Given Okay

Senate-House Conferees Throw Out Previous Restrictions In Swift Order To Permit Emergency Action

Washington, June 27—(AP)—Senate-House conferees today voted a one year extension of the President's existing power to draft young men.

The agreement, which must be ratified by both chambers, also would empower the President to order the National Guard and all reserves to immediate active duty.

The Senate-House group obviously acted because of the tense Korean situation.

They junked previous restrictions voted by the Senate and House upon presidential authority to induct manpower and voted out a one year extension of existing draft powers.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), one of the conferees, told a reporter that the previously deadlocked lawmakers had quickly agreed today that this was no time to have the world think there was a dispute here over such a matter.

Previously the House had voted a two year extension of the peacetime draft act requiring registration of young men 18 through 25 years. It retained in the hands of Congress the authority for inductions or actual drafting.

Ready To Demand New UN Support Military Action

Lake Success, June 27—(AP)—The United States was reported ready today to demand United Nations backing for military action against Red North Korea.

The United States mission refused to confirm these reports but the chief American delegate, Warren R. Austin, announced he would submit a "resolution of importance" to the Security Council late today.

Other diplomatic quarters said the final form of the U.S. proposal still was under consideration in midday. Consultations were in progress at the U.S. mission in New York.

The U.N. announced its commission for Korea had left Seoul and moved southward in the invaded republic.

Stores To Close On July Fourth

The Merchants Association announced today all stores in the city of Greenville will close all day next Tuesday to celebrate the Fourth of July holiday.

Stock Market Strikes Bottom

New York, June 27—(AP)—The stock market finally touched bottom this afternoon after a two-day plunge.

Today's nosedive started immediately after President Truman outlined an aggressive aid-to-Asia program.

Losses ranged to around $5 a share, and in a few cases more, before a stand was made. Declines were cut sharply and a few issues advanced.

Selling orders swept into the exchange in a roaring tide.

Tobacco Group Elects Officers

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., June 27—(AP)—All officers were re-elected here yesterday by the Tobacco Association of the United States at its 50th annual convention.

Among those re-elected were Penn Watson of Wilson, N.C., second vice president; and J. C. Lanier of Greenville, N.C., executive secretary and general counsel.

Acheson's Speeches

Secretaries Of State Do A Lot Of Speechmaking; Careful Preparation To Avoid Wrong Impressions; The Work Involved In One Address By Sec. Acheson

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 27—(AP)—Dean Acheson has been Secretary of State just about a year and a half, or 18 months, and that time he has made 20 major speeches.

That's an average of better than one a month, and he has more coming up. For a busy and important man like Acheson, it's a lot of speechmaking.

But he isn't setting any oratory record for secretaries of State. That still belongs to the "boy orator of the Platte," William Jennings Bryan for a comparable period of time among modern secretaries.

Bryan made 55 major talks, a shade better than two a month, in the 27 months—or two and a quarter years—when he was Secretary of State from March 1913 to June 1915.

A UN Responsibility

Korean Conflict Believed Too Dangerous For Anything But Joint Action By Members Of United Nations; American Supplies U. S. Is Key To Position

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Upon the shoulders of the United Nations rests the responsibility of finding a safe solution for the Korean upheaval—the most dangerous threat to global peace which the organization has thus far encountered.

This conflict is of course just a fresh phase of the struggle between Communism and the democracies. However, in its essence it is another clash between the leaders of the two ideologies—Russia, which is backing Northern Korea, and America, which has sponsored the Southern Koreans in establishing their republic.

Thus the position is far too dangerous to be dealt with in any other way than by concerted action in the U.N. Direct armed intervention by either Washington or Moscow in Korea would be almost certain to produce the war which nobody wants. It may be splitting hairs rather fine, but the provision of military supplies to the Koreans—either north or south—has placed in the category of armed intervention technically.

Presumably this was the background of yesterday's action by the Republican members of the U. S.

Senate, meeting in caucus in Washington. They voted that the Korean incident shouldn't be allowed to involve the United States in war, although this country should provide military supplies and other aid for South Korea.

American supplies are being rushed to Southern Korea from Japan, but President Rhee yesterday described this aid as "too little and too late" after the Russian-backed Communist invaders from Northern Korea threw a tank column to the outskirts of Seoul, the Southern capital. Rhee said he didn't mean it looked like failure for the Southern cause at that juncture, but the country was "very hard up because aid was slow in coming."

In any event, the only satisfactory solution would be to halt the fighting altogether, and that would have to be done through concerted action in the United Nations. Some suggest it might be handled by mediation. President Truman has pledged the full support of the country to U.N. efforts to end the "unprovoked aggression." He added:

COMPLAINS ABOUT DOGS
Elbert Peaden, 1807 East Fourth Street, complained to police yesterday that a dog running at large had killed some of his chickens.

City Dog Licenses Due Before July 1; Payable City Hall
Greenville City Clerk J. O. Duval has announced that dog license taxes are now due and must be paid before July 1. The license for a male dog is $1; for a female, $2.

Owners of dogs who fail to comply with this city ordinance about dogs will be liable to arrest and prosecution in Police Court. The law provides a fine and imprisonment, or both.

Police Chief Lester D. Page said today a city ordinance also prohibits dogs from running at large on the streets. Dogs without proper license tags and dogs running at large are subject to being impounded by the city dog catcher.

Enoch Elijah Jones, official dog catcher, reported today that he has taken up during the past year 1,071 dogs. The majority of the canines were reclaimed by owners by payment of nominal fees. Many dogs were disposed of by a veterinary surgeon.

Gertrude Vines, colored, 307 East Third street, was bitten yesterday by a dog owned by James Cherry, 212 East Second street. Her wound was treated by a physician, who reported to police.

A police officer, investigating the case, said he found the dog—just the ordinary type—tied to a tree in its owner's yard. The officer said a dozen or more children were playing near the dog and that it appeared to be something of a neighborhood pet.

Information given police was that Gertrude Vines stepped on the dog as she passed along. The officer ordered the dog confined for observation.

AMA Ready To Fight Socialized Medicine Forces

San Francisco, June 7—(AP)—The American Medical Association today stood ready to spend $3,000,000 and abandon its traditional code against advertising in its fight against Socialized Medicine.

The Association, opening its 99th annual convention here yesterday said it has established a $1,000,000 fund for newspaper and radio advertising to combat Socialized Medicine and boost voluntary health insurance.

The balance of the $3,000,000 will be spent on educational and public activities in non-advertising fields.

Each member doctor of the AMA will be assessed $25 for the public fund. Previously, the doctors' code of ethics prohibited their advertising for practice and use of their names in newspapers except under certain conditions.

Ernest L. Irons, retiring president of the AMA's house of delegates, said the board of trustees considered the publicity fund a long time before voting unanimously in favor of it.

He declared the American people do not want socialized medicine and said his profession was anxious to see a vote in Congress on the issue. President Truman presently has a bill pending for government-paid health insurance.

Dr. Iron said advertisements against Socialized Medicine will be run during one week in October in 11,000 daily and weekly newspapers, and radio announcements will be broadcast throughout the entire month.

There are 10,000 doctors attending the five day meeting.

Yesterday the Association gave its distinguished service award for 1950 to Dr. Everts A. Graham, St. Louis surgeon. He was first surgeon to remove a complete human lung successfully in an operation on another doctor in February, 1933. The patient is still living.

Looking For Key In Recorded Talk By John Service

Washington, June 27—(AP)—Senate investigators are trying to find a key today to what they described as a confusing FBI-recorded talk in 1945 between Diplomat John S. Service and Amerasia Editor Philip Jaffe.

A transcript of the Service-Jaffe conversation was made available by the Justice Department yesterday to a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee. That group is investigating the 1945 Amerasia secret documents case.

Service, a State Department Far Eastern official, testified under oath last week that he never knowingly gave military secrets to Jaffe, who was editor of the now-defunct Amerasia magazine. Service said he had no such information to impart.

Bride of Saturday

Service yesterday spent 4 1/2 hours before the inquiry committee at a closed meeting and was reported to have maintained his stand that he never wittingly passed secret military information to Jaffe.

An individual familiar with what went on at the committee session said Service listened to a reading of the FBI transcript and declared he could not recall ever having made remarks to Jaffe such as were attributed to him in parts of the recording. The FBI's recording was the result of the agency's concealing a microphone in Jaffe's hotel room on May 9, 1945.

After concluding the questioning of Service, the committee is said to have decided to check with the wartime China staff of General Albert C. Wedemeyer for a possible clue to the puzzle.

Service spent a good part of the war in China in State Department and army assignments.

Service, Jaffe and four others were arrested in the 1945 Amerasia case and charged with conspiracy to obtain illegal possession of government documents. The arrests came after federal agents discovered hundreds of secret government papers in the New York office of Amerasia magazine and elsewhere.

Scott Shrugs Off Setback In Senate Primary

Greensboro, June 27—(AP)—Gov. Kerr Scott shrugged off Senator Graham's defeat last night with the declaration that North Carolina will continue to go forward in the Scott-Graham manner and "enjoy prosperity for the next 25 years."

Speaking at a banquet of the 19th annual third district convention of the Order of Ahepa, a Greek society, Scott said, (in reference to Willis Smith who defeated Graham in the runoff primary, "It seems it is a sin not to name a lawyer for senator."

Turning to his own program, Scott predicted that North Carolina will become "the California of the south in agriculture and the Pennsylvania of the south in industry" if its citizens follow the lead set up by the Scott administration.

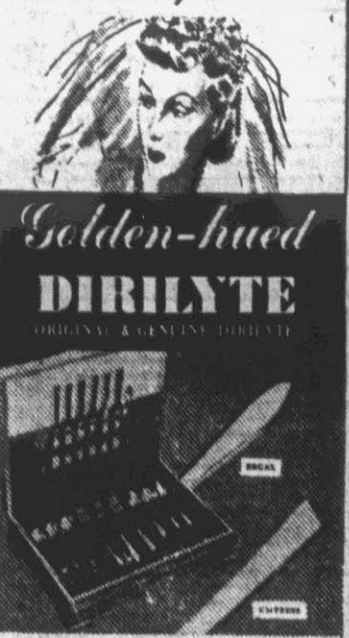

The Arizona state capital at Phoenix is one of the few public buildings in the country which doesn't have a cornerstone.

A TENNYSON ANNIVERSARY
The year 1862 was marked by three great events in the life of the poet Alfred Tennyson.

Where Will Truman Stand In The Strike?

What will Harry's friends in the labor unions do to him now in the eyes of the American people?
It looks as if the AFL switchmen's union is going to place the President on the well known spot once more unless they modify their stand for higher wages.

A Token Sentence Will Not Eliminate A Racket

The top man of the nation's bookmaking business has been convicted of a 60-count gambling charge and given only a token sentence.
We say it's a token sentence because to a man who has illegally taken millions of dollars from people all over the country for 25 years, two years in jail and a $30,000 fine represents a cheap price for what he has gained illegally.

While Erickson spends his brief vacation from society in some New York prison, his subordinates probably will continue to operate for him the multi-million dollar betting business which he has established and plied in violation of the law.
The price Erickson is paying for his quarter of a century of fortune-making racketeering is indeed cheap. The precedent set by the court in its meek sentence leaves little for the big-time racketeers to fear even if they are brought into the courts and convicted of their crimes.

Decision And The Element Of Time

There is little doubt but that plans for the invasion of South Korea were known in advance, and had at least the tacit approbation of Soviet Russia.
We might go farther, and say that the actual planning of the operation had the active participation of Russian officers; though concrete proof of this will probably never be found.
Primarily, this invasion poses two tests: the effectiveness of the United Nations as an agency to keep the peace, and the quality of policy-making in the highest levels of our government.

National Whirligig

WASHINGTON, June 27—The ancient feud between the Republican Party's representatives on Capitol Hill and the GOP Governors has been revived as a result of the latter's exuberant "sounding off" on national and international questions at their recent Hot Springs Conference.
Three gubernatorial figures mentioned as 1952 possibilities—Discol of New Jersey, Duff of Pennsylvania and Warren of California—drew the most severe fire, for they offended the "federal crowd" in two respects.
The three condemned Senator "Joe" McCarthy's tactics in launching his attack on alleged "Reds" within the State Department, although they agreed that a more judicial investigation should be conducted.

Somebody Told Me

Plenty of us would give our bottom dollar to get an opportunity to go to Europe, but to Charlie Howard going abroad is just a part of his business routine.
In Hamburg, Germany, which was the location of his first business transaction, Hamburg is a city of probably a million and a half people. During the war Hamburg was the object of 83 air raids, and about 300,000 homes were destroyed.
The average salary in Germany is 200 marks a month, or about $50 in our money. In downtown Hamburg, many buildings on the main streets have been rebuilt, but one-story buildings are filling spaces formerly filled by multi-story buildings.

Around Capitol Square

FOOLISHMENTS—Twice in two years the Democratic citizens of North Carolina have proven the fallacy of a small group of self appointed bosses attempting to cast votes of all the people in advance.
CONTRAST—There is striking contrast between reaction of the people to appointed legislators and appointees in other high offices.
PROVEN—Results of the recent primary added proof to what the 1948 primary had clearly indicated for all who looked beneath the surface.

What Other Papers Are Thinking

PROLETARIAN PLUTOCRACY (Washington Post)
The current (June) issue of Soviet Russia Today contains a highly instructive analysis of the operations of high finance in a Communist economy.
"Every producing and distributing unit in the country has an account in the Central State Bank or one of its branches. It is the duty of each bank to check up frequently on the issue of the credit being wasted or used inefficiently, the bank will stop further credits until the matter is cleared up, even instituting a special investigation if necessary.

By ELMER BOESSNER
A proposal to boom apparel sales with a "new look" every year has created a storm of debate in the industry.
The proposal was by E. Earl Puckett, chairman of the board of Allied Stores, at a meeting of the Fashion Group in New York. He called for "hard merchandising" as a remedy for the failure of soft goods to rise in sales as fast as durables, and said:
"Every year we must have a 'new look.' Only in that way can we accelerate obsolescence in the apparel field, and only by such acceleration can we have good business in soft lines."

Webb Retires As Rotary President

By WYATT BROWN
 Erroll Webb, the Rotary club's retiring president, had a full meeting last night as he completed his term with a brief review of the year, presenting attendance awards, thanking his committee chairmen, and finally passing the president's gavel to incoming president, Floyd Hendrix. The attendance awards went to Guy Evans for six years perfect attendance and to John G. Fleming for ten years perfect attendance.

Reviewing the club's accomplishments the retiring president mentioned the following part of the things done: continued to pay for the crippled children's clinic the fee necessary to keep it going. Subsidiary to this interest in work with crippled children the president told of the Rotarians donation to send one indigent child to the state operated camp for indigent crippled children. As usual the Rotarians are sending two Girl Scouts to Camp Hades this summer.

He reminded the Rotarians of their donation of $146 for affording Christmas cheer to some needy persons during the Yuletide season. In line with community service President Webb mentioned the participation of the Rotarians in the sending of the High School Forensic group to attend the national contest.

The retiring administration announced the completion of the project to acquire signs to be put up on highways leading into Greenville. President Webb was reminded from the floor of the getting of Howard McGinnis elected district governor of Rotary International.

At some length and with obvious gratification Erroll Webb went into detail listing the things done and other things financed by the Rotarians. The two bath houses, the new playground, the removing of debris from the beach, only one job is left to be done and that incomplete due to lack of men to do it—the pumping of more sand into the swimming beach. All the mentioned items have been paid for in full with Rotary gifts and pledges.

For special mention the retiring president called the names of Elmer Browning, chairman of the program committee, Jay Kittrell, chairman of the entertainment committee. The Cuisine committee he commended for having been "on the ball."

Incoming President Floyd Hendrix spoke briefly and then presented the Board of Directors, vice president and secretary-treasurer. He promised to give the list of committees to the members next Monday night.

Jesse Mays of the Farmville Rotary club was a visiting Rotarian last night.

Take The Sun--But Take It Easy

By BETTY CLARKE
 AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor
 One painful sunburn can mess up your entire summer. Some girls pay the penalty for seeking to get in one day the suntan it should take weeks to acquire. One long session in the sun can result in a scarlet back, freckles and dry skin which can ruin your goal to look like a bronzed goddess.

Most of us realize that there must be a time limit to sunning. Why be anxious? If you take the sun in easy stages, you'll get a neatly tanned skin within a few weeks.

Good sunbath lotion as well as common sense is a help. There are lotions and lotions. Some new and highly touted ones contain para-aminobenzoic acid or hydroquinone to help filter out burning rays.

It is wise to stay out of the sunlight during the hours between noon and 2 p.m. at first. You can get slightly red after just 20 minutes in the sun during these hours, vivid red after 50 minutes, painfully burnt after 100 minutes and blistered after 200 minutes, experts tell us.

If you are a fair-skinned brunette, a red-head or a blonde you will have to take more precautions than the olive skinned person who will not burn easily. Very fair skinned girls, always get a slight burn over their tan and this "Pocahontas" look is much sought after, but can be accomplished only if you take your time.

It is a good idea when you take a sunbath to take an alarm clock along. In that way you can time

Came 1,000 Miles To Be Wed In Greenville Church

An ex-Marine and his bride-to-be traveled over 1,000 miles from their homes to be married today in Greenville by a Catholic priest who befriended the ex-serviceman while he was stationed in the Greenville area during World War II.

Walter Wudyka, the ex-Marine from Holyoke, Mass., who was stationed at Cherry Point and in the Greenville area during the war, and his bride, Miss Louise Tenczar of Southbridge, Mass., were married in St. Peter's Catholic Church at 7:30 this morning by Father Charles T. Gable. The couple arrived in Greenville Sunday morning, and will spend one week here to see old acquaintances of the groom before returning to Holyoke where they will make their home.

Mrs. Stella Murphy of Holyoke accompanied the couple to Greenville to be matron of honor at the wedding this morning. Ex-Marine Ralph Cosentino of Greenville who served in the same air wing with the groom at Cherry Point and on Midway Island was best man at the wedding. Mrs. Henry Gurganus was organist and John Karsnack, Jr. served at the nuptial mass.

Father Gable and Wudyka became acquainted when Wudyka was stationed with the Marine air group at the Pitt-Greenville airport during World War II. The two have been corresponding since Wudyka's unit departed from Greenville, and since he was honorably discharged from service.

"The little church here made such an appeal to him," Father Gable said, "that he felt he wanted to be married here."

Wudyka is now employed by the Springfield (Mass.) Daily News as a photographer.

Robins Drop Eleven-Inning Game To Rocky Mount, 6-4

Homer With One On Upsets Applear After Locals Came From Behind; Costly Error Involved; Harrison Went Route, But Lost

By BERT MOYE
Manager Randy Hefflin's Greenville Robins suffered their third straight defeat as the Rocky Mount Leafs defeated them, 6-4, in a hard fought 11-inning contest over in Rocky Mount last night.

A 340-foot home run by Andy Anderson, after Babe Johnson had singled in the 11th, ended the ball game. Two men were out when Anderson hit his game-winning homer.

The Robins did all their scoring in the seventh stanza, coming from behind a 2-0 lead to go out in front by 4-2 at this point of the game. George Hallow started things going with a single into center field. Dick Bland singled into left center field and when the centerfielder let the ball get through him, Hallow raced all the way from first to score with Bland taking second. Jim Hancock then doubled into left centerfield to bring home Bland and then Rocky Harrison hit for the circuit over the left field wall to bring home Hancock and put the Robins out-front temporarily.

The Leafs scored in the first inning on a walk to Wallace Novak and successive singles by Wade Martin and Bill Stanton.

A homer over the left field wall by Wade Martin in the fifth frame accounted for the Leafs' second marker of the contest.

Two runs in the seventh on a walk, two singles and a costly error knotted the score at 4-4 and forced the contest into extra innings. Wallace Novak led off with a walk. Wade Martin came through with a single. Pepper Martin singled into left field with Novak scoring easily from second and then when Joe Guidice let the ball get away from him and roll to the fence, Wade Martin came home with the tying run.

Bobby Harrison went the route for the Robins, giving up a total of 14 hits, issuing eight walks and striking out five men. The loss for Harrison was his third of the season and now gives him a record of three wins and three losses.

Wade Martin with a homer and two singles and brother Pepper Martin with a double and two singles led the 14-hit attack off Harrison.

The thrilling comeback of Bantam Ben Hogan must be rated one of the most remarkable in the history of sports. A little over a year ago, an automobile accident almost claimed his life. Only an emergency operation kept him alive. It was doubted that he would ever walk again, much less play golf. Competitive golf seemed a thing of the past. But Hogan battled his way back and today he stands at the top of the golf world through his triumph in the U. S. Open championship, a title he first won in 1948 but was unable to defend last year.

Hill's Clothiers softball team smacked the most stunning defeat of the season on National Carbon yesterday afternoon when they shut them out 25-0 for the highest run total by any team to date.

The newest team in the league and the only one to pull a triple play this year went to bat 49 times in the seven-inning affair and scored nine runs in the leadoff frame and followed that with 10 in the fourth. Between those two innings they added six more, one in the second and five in the third.

Howard Sumrell, major domo of the business, pitched nine-hit ball toward the Carbon team and set them down with only one extra-base knock. That was a triple by Nicholas, Carbin's catcher, who died on base.

The win placed Hill's in fourth spot in the standings with a record of two wins and one loss.

CARDS VS. DODGERS

The Dodgers of Third St. put an end to the winning streak of the W. Greenville Cards yesterday afternoon, by taking an 8 to 4 win over the league leaders. It was the first loss suffered by the Cards since the opening game of the season. The Cards took an early 3 to 1 lead and seemed headed for another win but the Dodgers got to work and scored six runs in the fifth and sixth for the win. Gene Hudson, on the mound for the Cards, was not nearly as effective as usual, giving up nine hits and twelve bases on balls. Evans pitched well for the Dodgers, especially in the pinches. Shackelford with two doubles and Catlett and Phillips with two singles were the leaders for the Cards. Eric Bowen hit the big blow for the Dodgers.

TIGERS VS. INDIANS

Training School's Tigers kept their record of no defeats intact yesterday by coming from behind to win over the Indians of W. Greenville in the Mite League. The Indians, who have yet to win a game but who always scare their opponents, had the game won until the final inning when the Tigers came from behind to score two runs and take the close 6 to 5 victory. Dick Evans pitched two-hit ball for the Tigers, but kept himself in hot water most of the time with his wildness. Captain Wesley Hudson was just as effective for the Indians but his support failed him in the final inning. Bro Edwards got three of the four hits that the Tigers got, one of them being good for three bases. Bryce Cummings got the other Tiger hit. Edmundson with a triple and Hudson with a single led the Indians.

GIANTS VS. PIRATES

Kiner Out-Slugs Williams In Contest Of Home Runs

Pittsburgh, June 27.—(AP)—Ted Williams—he of the unpredictable humor and hair-trigger temper—never batted an eyelash when the kid who calls him his hero out-slugged him 2-1 in a home run hitting contest.

The reigning monarchs of major league mayhem—Williams and Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh—duelled in a novel swatting contest before an exhibition game between the Boston Red Sox and the Pirates last night.

Each slugger was allowed 14 fair hits. Williams drilled four offerings from Red Sox hurler Paul Schriver into the right field stands.

Kiner slammed eight well engineered drives out of the park—six of them far beyond the foreshortened Greenberg Gardens in left field. "Three Star" Hennessey served them up to Ralph.

Kiner was all grins after the contest as he chucked his big bat to trot out to left field for the game. As he wiped the perspiration from his face, he drawled:

"He's still the best hitter in baseball."

Williams sat quiet and poker-faced in the visitors' dugout—staring thoughtfully at the roof of the right field stands. There, Kiner had reminded him a few minutes before, Babe Ruth loomed one of the longest homers of his career in 1935. None of Williams' arched higher than the second tier.

Voices Warning On Isolationism

Charlotte, N. C., June 27—(AP)—The United States cannot turn backward, down the road of military isolationism. Senator Lester Hill of Alabama, told the annual convention of the North Carolina Department of the American Legion here today.

In a prepared address, senator Hill said, "The United States cannot X X X arm 'til the teeth at home leaving Europe to work out its own defenses. The burden of armament will be shared by all. No other sensible course for military security is open to us."

Hill addressed the Legionnaires at a concluding session of the 32nd annual convention.

Alabama Senator launched a heavy attack on Communism and "Russian Imperialism," declaring that "Russia has added the siren song of Communist ideology with its appeal to the hungry and poor, the suffering and disoriented everywhere on the globe."

Hill warned "we must not play the Communist game of witch-hunting and denunciation. That is what Russia works for and hopes for. The Communists would confuse and divide and weaken us. They would have each man fearful of his neighbor. They would turn us one against the other."

Wind Lash Area Wind Last Area

By the Associated Press
Rain, hail and winds whipped across northwestern Pennsylvania's Crawford County yesterday evening inflicting thousands of dollars worth of damage.

Power lines snapped under the wild lashing. Trees were twisted from position, orchards and gardens were smashed. Nearly 2,000 greenhouse windows went tinkling into tiny pieces under the barrage of hail in Meadville.

In Wisconsin's Oneida county, inhabitants were pulling themselves together today following a booming tornado—with winds raging up to 120 m.p.h.—which cut a half mile swath through wooded summer resort areas.

In the north-central West Virginia area, splattering rain came down. It was a change from the early Sunday deluge which swept 29 persons to watery deaths in brimful streams.

As for the rest of the country, weathermen had a brief description: "Generally fair."

Graham Urges Public Support Of UN In Crisis
Lake Junaluska, N.C., June 27—(AP)—Senator Frank Graham last night made a plea for American public support of the United Nations' cease fire order in the Korean conflict.

Speaking from a prepared address, Graham told a Methodist assembly here that the public also should support the UN's demand for withdrawal of aggressor troops by the North Korean government. He expressed faith that the United States would join other nations in the Security Council in using every effort to prevent the Korean outbreak from becoming a world conflagration.

"This crisis illustrates the need and value of the United Nations and also strongly emphasizes the necessity for a stronger United Nations," Graham declared.

'Yessing' Habit Well Grounded In East Germany
Berlin—(AP)—Everybody votes "Yes" in East Germany's parliament. A "No" or abstention has never been recorded since the Volksammer (people's chamber) proclaimed itself the supreme lawmaker of the Russian zone in October, 1949.

In twelve regular sessions, the Volksammer has harmoniously discussed 27 laws, three resolutions—and passed them all unanimously. Non-Communists among the 330 deputies, who meet in Hermann Goering's former Luftwaffe Ministry in East Berlin, might have spoiled the record if there were a secret ballot. But the Volksammer acts by show of hands.

In Communist-ruled East Germany, the government claims to represent only the true national interest of the people. Thus, open opposition could be branded as high treason.

American families now own 191 million life insurance policies, an average of more than four per family.

Moore Will Make Reply Tomorrow

Raleigh, N.C., June 27—(AP)—Prison Director J. B. Moore says he is going to reply tomorrow to charges that he used prisoner labor and state materials for work at his home here.

The governor's office announced yesterday that Moore has arranged a conference with Governor Scott tomorrow. Moore said he will "submit my answer to the investigation which was made of me." He added that he still denied the charges emphatically.

After the charges were made on June 9, Governor Scott ordered an SBI investigation. A week later SBI Director Walker Anderson submitted a report of about 30 pages. The governor and State Highway Chairman Henry W. Jordan, Moore's immediate superior, studied them the next day.

Scott said at the time that he was allowing Moore's request that he have an opportunity to study the report and answer it.

Emotional Hunger Can Be Fatal For Children

Los Angeles, June 27—(AP)—Did you know that you can emotionally starve a child to death?

"Without emotional satisfaction, children die—it's as simple as that," says Dr. Rene A. Spitz, New York psychoanalyst.

Here for a lecture tonight, he told a news conference yesterday that his 15 years' research in psychiatric diseases of children has proved that "emotional starvation is a danger as physical starvation; it's slower, but just as effective."

Recounting his European studies of 81 infants over a period of two years, Dr. Spitz said that, once separated from their mothers and with no substitute for mothers, 37.3 per cent of these children died.

He also said that children separated from mothers or foster mothers for as little as three months become more prone to accidents and sickness.

"To put it simply," he continued, "man is a social animal. He must have emotional interchange with his fellow man, or perish."

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

AP Newsfeature
WOMAN'S REALM, the modern home—this is the theme the architect followed in designing this plan 162. Detail of fire-place design is shown in center. The house contains 1,134 square feet of livable area. The garage adds 410 square feet. There are eight closets, spacious storage in garage and built-in dressing table in the main bedroom. A flexible feature of the plan is that the two front bedrooms may be combined into one, or the smallest may be used for a den. If a basement is preferred, the cellar stairs take the place of the heater room. Paul T. Haagen, 59 East Van Buren St., Chicago 5, is the architect.

Raleigh, N. C., June 27—(AP)—More than 450 North Carolinians were invited to a study conference here today on how to cut down on highway fatalities.

They were asked to serve on 16 committees and 10 sub-committees in listing Governor Scott's advisory committee on highway safety.

The Governor and Capt. W. L. Groth, Safety Engineer of the Virginia State police, were the principal speakers. In addition, the governor was slated to present safety awards to 10 North Carolina municipalities which had no highway fatalities in 1949.

Mother Pleads For Son's Life In Final Effort
Raleigh, N. C., June 26—(AP)—A mother made a tearful plea today for the life of her son who is scheduled to be executed Friday for raping a 10-year-old girl.

Mrs. Cora Shackelford and a large delegation from High Point appeared before the state's commission on T. C. Johnson to ask that Governor Scott commute to life the death sentence of Claude Shackelford, 33.

Johnson said that Mrs. Shackelford told him through tears that her son had "never been quite right."

The delegation was led by O. A. York and Byron Hayworth, High Point lawyers and included a Guilford Deputy sheriff and a member of the jury that convicted Shackelford, Johnson said.

San Bernardino, Calif., June 27—(AP)—A baby with sweat glands died last night after enduring through most of his six months of life-fighting fevers of 106 to 108 degrees.

Doctors at San Bernardino county hospital said it was the 25th time in medical history that a child had been born without the ability to perspire. Many body wastes, normally eliminated through the sweat glands, remained in the infant's body. These poisons caused the fevers they said.

The child was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown of Upland.

IT'S DEATH, MY DARLING!

By Amelia Reynolds Long

Chapter 5
 I remained where I was, staring at the glowing cigar butt which seemed to stare back at me like a red eye. What was it Uncle Raoul had been about to say when Cousin Jeff had interrupted him? The very violence of that interruption made me almost positive that whatever it was, he was already aware of it; but unlike Uncle Raoul, he was refusing to admit, even to himself.

One sentence of Uncle Raoul's kept repeating itself in my mind, like a fragment of song from a phonograph record when the needle gets caught in a groove: "There's something wrong here; I've felt it ever since I came." What was it that Cousin Jeff had sensed, but was refusing to acknowledge? Was it some lingering impression left on the atmosphere of the place by events already transpired, or was it a presence of things yet to come?

Just then Bobby came out and rejoined me, and a minute later Amedee and Henri drove around with the car; so I let my speculations of calamity, if any, go until a more suitable time.

We had intended to be gone only an hour or so at most; but something must have happened to the time — it always does when you least want it to — and so when we finally did get back, it was nearly half past twelve. But that wasn't the worst. Not only was the house in complete darkness, but the front door had been locked!

Amedee swore in French when he discovered the locked door.

"This is some of Aunt Minerva's doing!" he exclaimed, retreating to English. "She deliberately locked the door so we'd have to ring, and she'd find out what time we came back. But there's more than one way to get in. We'll try the wood-

box. I think I've already mentioned the woodbox beside the fireplace in the back parlor. It was a huge structure, about four feet square and a little more than that in height, with a hinged drop lid. But, as I was now to learn, it also had a second opening through the wall at its back, for the purpose of filling it from outside the house. The lid to this swung outward, and announcement that the American-manned fighters had shot down the four Communist planes. But reports gathered by correspondents at Itazuke Airbase in southern Japan, terminus of the refugee airlift, bore out the figure. MacArthur's headquarters announced officially earlier in the day that one American-manned fighter had shot down a Russian-built Yak which attempted to interfere with the airlift.

 Some sources placed the number shot down by South Korean and American pilots at eight.
 Heavy evacuees, more than 500 in number, arrived by airlift at Itazuke Airbase, Japan. Almost unanimously they were pessimistic about South Korea's chances to resist the Communist attack from the north. Among the evacuees were members of the U.N. Commission on Korea.
 Some of the evacuees described Seoul as amazingly quiet in view of the day's events. Transport was stopped, streets were crowded and people were clamoring to leave ahead of the Red advance, but the crowds were described as orderly.
 The two Korean newsmen in Seoul said there was no sign of Red troops about the city, but that the South Korean cabinet, and presumably President Syngman Rhee, had left Seoul and headed for Kejon (Taeyon), 90 miles to the south.
 South Korean government representatives in Tokyo denied that the cabinet had left Seoul, however.
 The two newspapermen, an Associated Press Korean reporter and the managing editor of the Korean Pacific Press, said the main battle line was 20 miles north of the city. They indicated that Uijongbu, key point on the northern forces' invasion route against which the southern forces had launched a second counter attack, might have been recaptured already.

The driver of the car shown in the above picture was taken to the hospital last night suffering from possible serious chest injuries as the result of an automobile accident which occurred on the New Bern highway last night around 10 o'clock. George Haddock, age 30, of 1210 Chestnut street, Greenville, was reported by Patrolman Paul C. Whitley as being the driver of the above car which rammed into the rear of another car in front of it. Investigation of the accident is not complete. (Reflector Staff Photo by Roy Hardee).

Acheson's . . .
 Russell's choice. The "y" picked for the job because they're supposed to have shown ability in speechwriting.
 Specialists in the field to be covered by a talk are called to for help and consultation. For example: if Acheson is going to talk on Russia, Korea, and the Atlantic pact, state department specialists in those fields lend a hand.
 After he gets the first draft, Acheson goes over it. Often he rewrites it to suit himself at home at night. Then the Acheson version goes back to the specialists for a final check. With this done and the speech in final form, the whole thing is submitted to President Truman and Acheson's aides say Mr. Truman reads every word of Acheson's talk before the latter makes them.

A UN . . .
 "Those responsible for this act of aggression must realize how seriously the government of the United States views such threats to the peace of the world."
 The United States is the key to the position so far as concerns the U.N. While any sanctions agreed upon by the peace organization presumably would be carried out by an international group, America might have to bear the brunt of the assignment. For that reason her recommendations will be bound to have much weight in the U.N. considerations.
 The current position reminds one of another Far Eastern crisis which the League of Nations encountered back in 1922. Japan's aggression against China in Manchuria was brought before the league and there were heated arguments over the possible use of sanctions against Nippon.
 But the league was too timid to meet the crisis squarely.
