154 Given Degrees At College

Ceremonies For Summer School Graduates Held At ECTC This Afternoon

East Carolina Teachers College conferred degrees this afternoon upon 154 graduates of the 1950 summer school. Ceremonies were held in Austin auditorium where the new $30,000 pipe organ recently installed at the college was used for the first graduation.

Candidates for degrees included 99 for master of arts; 25 for bachelor of arts; and 30 for bachelor of science, which at East Carolina is the professional degree for those taking courses preparing them to teach.

Dr. Robert Lee Humber, prominent international attorney and promoter of world federalism, of Greenville, was the principal speaker of the afternoon ceremony. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Leonard W. Topping of the First Presbyterian church in Greenville. President John D. Messick of East Carolina presided at the exercises.

The program began at 3:30 p.m. with an academic procession of the graduates and guests of the college into Austin auditorium. The procession, "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar was played by George Perry of the college music department, on the organ. Alison Harnae, student of music at the college, sang, "The Greatest of These."

After the conferring of the degrees, Gilbert Carroll of Weldon, president of the summer graduating class, led the seniors in a traditional ceremony, during which graduates placed the tassels of their academic caps to indicate completion of work toward a degree.

Miss Emma L. Hooper, faculty member of the English department, headed the Commencement Committee, which made plans for the summer commencement. Isaac Armstrong of Oriental, president of the Students Government Association, and a group of six men students acted as ushers.

This summer's graduates included 138 North Carolinians, and 16 students from states of Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and Texas. Forty-two counties of this state were represented by those receiving degrees.

Pitt County men who were graduated include: B.S.—Ann Beatty, Rachel Floyd Fasciano, Mrs. Evelyn Wood Hynes, Henry Marling, Claude West, and Herbert C. Wilson, Greenville; Rufus Braxton, Farmville; Barbara Fave Moore, Ebert Stocks, and Hilda Sumrell, Ayden; John B. Parker, Bethel.

A.B.—Melba Ruth Brown, Bethel; Virgil Clark, Benjamin Harrison, Alvin McArthur, Mae Mumford, Curtis Nichols, and William F. Waters, Greenville.

M.A.—Henry L. Andrews, Jr., Boyd Lee Barnett, Leland Godwin, Mary Goodman, Kathleen Hillman, Russell Jefferson, Josephine Scott, Catherine Spearman, Gladys Stokes, Lillian Sugg, Daniel Todd, and Charles Tucker, Greenville; Mrs. Thadys Johnson, Dewar and Margaret Renshaw, Bethel; Joe Tev, Bell Arthur, Robert Alton Gray, Stokes; Rockfellow Venter, Ayden.

Two Lawmakers On Active Duty

Korea Post, Aug. 18—(AP)—Two United States Congressmen on active duty with the Navy arrived today en route to join the Marines on the Korea war front.

They are Cmdr. Hugh Scott of Philadelphia and Lt. Cmdr. Henry J. Latham of New York.

Latham flew with the Navy yesterday in a carrier raid on Wonsan.

Doctors In Uniform

There Are Enough In The Reserves To Meet Present Needs, Not Enough If We Get In A War With Russia; Who Are Being Called; Why Volunteer Call Failed

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—There are enough doctors in the armed forces reserves to fill any need for them under the present rate of expanding the Army, Navy and Airforce.

There are not enough in the reserves if we get into war with Russia, for then the need for doctors would be enormous. They had to be drafted or otherwise forced into military service.

Being a doctor in the reserves means he's a civilian in private practice, does some military training, has an officer's commission and can be called to active duty any time.

Some reservist doctors are being called now. Last Friday the Army alone ordered 734 reservist doctors to uniform. The Army first tried to get some of the reservists to volunteer.

It sent a letter to 3,000 reservist doctors—but only young men holding ranks no higher than lieutenant and captain—asking them to volunteer.

for active duty. Since the Army failed to get reservists to volunteer, it ordered 734 to duty.

At the peak of World War II there were 6,000 doctors in the Army alone. There are only 2,700 in the Army now. But there are 7,500 in the Army's organized reserves.

Some of the 7,500 were in the Army during the war and afterwards became part of the reserve. Some of the 7,500 saw no active duty but joined the reserves after the war. Although the Army at present can get the doctors it needs by dipping into the reserves and ordering them to duty, this system can work a hardship on a community. For example:

Say there were three doctors serving one community. Suppose all three were in the reserve. If all three happen to be called to duty, that community is left without doctors.

That's why the Army asked for volunteers first. And this failure to get volunteers points up a problem which the Army and the American

Social Security Bill Sent Truman

Measure Increasing Coverage And Boosting Benefits As Much As 100 Per Cent Ready For Presidential Signature

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—Backed heavily in Congress, a bill increasing social security coverage and boosting benefits as much as 100 per cent is finally ready for presidential action.

The Senate checked the measure to the White House late yesterday by a voice vote of approval during which no dissents were heard.

The House previously had adopted 374 to 1 the compromise measure, worked out in a Senate-House conference.

While the bill falls well short of what President Truman had recommended, and contains features he regards as objectionable, it was expected he would sign it.

Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Finance Committee called the bill perhaps the most important to come before Congress during the two years of the 81st session.

The bill would extend coverage to 10,000,000 additional persons, bringing to about 45,000,000 the total under the social security program. Mr. Truman had recommended extension to 20,000,000.

Social security payroll taxes would be more than doubled over the next 20 years, or from $2,500,000,000 annually to about $7,800,000,000 in 1970.

The expanded benefits are scheduled to start within the next 45 days when the 3,000,000 persons now receiving benefits because of retirement or as survivors of insured persons will get an average of $46 a month, instead of the present $26.

Extend Call For WAC Reservists

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—The Army today broadened its call for volunteers from the ranks of enlisted women reserves who are not in organized reserve units.

A previous call for WAC enlisted reservists was limited to those with special skills. The new appeal applies to all enlisted WAC reservists not in organized units, regardless of their military occupational specialties.

Since the national directive was issued, the local post office has been sending back all improperly addressed mail, rather than looking up the addressee's new residence in the directory.

Also, post office inspectors have allowed each branch office to carry over third- and fourth-class mail to the next day for delivery.

Concerning savings to the Greenville post office, Proctor estimated his office had averaged $125-$150 per month on discontinuance of

Accept Offer

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—The United States today accepted Turkey's offer to send a combat force of 4,500 men to Korea. The State Department in announcing the acceptance said the United States is "deeply gratified" at Turkey's offer.

The Turkish offer is the third to be formally accepted by the United States. Thailand's offer to send 4,000 officers and men was formally accepted earlier this week as was a Philippine offer to send a regimental combat team of about 5,000 men.

It said FBI agents took Morton Sobell, 33, New York electrical engineer into custody at Laredo, Tex., this morning.

He is the eighth person arrested in a roundup of Americans accused of channeling atom bomb data and other secret information to a Soviet spy ring.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said that Sobell fled from the United States in June to avoid arrest.

He was arrested at Laredo when deported from Mexico back to this country.

The Justice Department said plans are to arraign Sobell before a U.S. commissioner at Laredo and seek his removal to New York City.

Sobell was employed on restricted work for the U.S. Navy at the General Electric plant at Schenectady, N. Y., from 1942 to 1947.

He is accused of having collaborated with the other Americans previously arrested in obtaining defense secrets during that period.

Since he is charged with espionage conspiracy in wartime, Sobell—like the other similarly accused—faces a possible death penalty.

Commenting on the pending bill, which passed the House Tuesday and is headed for the Senate, Postmaster J. Knott Proctor of Greenville stated this morning the action, if passed, will just speed up delivery of local mails hereabouts and all over the nation.

Proctor stated Postmaster General Donaldson's order of two months ago to cut down to one residential mail per day evolved into a general "slowing down" of the whole mail delivery program.

"One mail is all right with the Greenville post office, and so far as I know, it is all right with the public," Proctor told a Reflector reporter this morning. "I haven't heard any criticism from anybody since the one mail went into effect."

The economy program was initiated by Donaldson in the latter part of June, to go into effect later than July 1. It included, besides cutting down to a single delivery, discontinuing directory service on improperly addressed mail and a slow-up in "cleaning up" each day's mail.

Since the national directive was issued, the local post office has been sending back all improperly addressed mail, rather than looking up the addressee's new residence in the directory.

Arrest Engineer On Spy Charges

Eighth Man In Round-up By FBI Captured In Texas Today

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—The Justice Department today announced the arrest of a former U.S. Navy civilian engineer on charges of giving national defense secrets to Russia.

It said FBI agents took Morton Sobell, 33, New York electrical engineer into custody at Laredo, Tex., this morning.

He is the eighth person arrested in a roundup of Americans accused of channeling atom bomb data and other secret information to a Soviet spy ring.

Order Freeze On Surplus Sales

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—The government today ordered a "freeze" on the sales of its surplus property.

The reason: All property will be looked at again to see if it is needed for defense.

The freeze order covers war plants and supplies, equipment and material, civilian and military alike—regardless of previous authority for disposal.

There is nothing to the saying that there are no more honest people left in this old world, or at least that is the opinion of Patrolman Ernest Guthrie of Farmville.

The report also stated that someone had seen the truck in the Sharp Point section of Pitt county that morning.

American And South Korea Forces Push Back Invaders

U.S. Demands A Unified Korea In Any Settlement

Austin's Statement Omits Reference UN Forces Entering North Korea

Lake Success, Aug. 18—(AP)—The Security Council last night heard a U. S. demand that any Korean settlement provide for a unified, independent country. Later the Council adjourned until Tuesday.

Chief U. S. delegate Warren Austin made his country's major policy statement at yesterday's public session. The meeting was preceded by a private session at which Council members tried again in vain to break the procedural blockade imposed by their Russian President, Jakob A. Malik.

Austin said the primary U. N. objective in Korea must be cessation of hostilities. But "the Korean people expect that when their Gethsemane has passed, they will all have the right to freedom and unity," he declared.

Austin's statement did not stipulate whether the U. S. thinks U. N. forces should go beyond the 38th parallel to conquer the North Korean invaders of South Korea. It remained also from knuckle blows at the Russian role in North Korea and contented itself with an appeal to the Soviet Union to use its influence to end the conflict.

In a brief reply Malik made new assertions that the U. S. is trying to extend the scope of the war. He charged that proposals for a unified postwar Korea were only to hide civilian deaths from U. S. bombing.

The Soviet Union, he declared, "will not use its influence in the American way, the way secretary of State Acheson uses it with (South Korean President) Syngman Rhee."

The session also heard attacks on Malik by Cuba's Alberto Alvarez and China's T. F. Tsiang.

Austin's speech was the first official statement of full U. S. aims in Korea since fighting began June 25, an American delegation source said. Austin declared, in substance, that all of Korea must come under U. S. supervision as a step toward independence.

Austin did not say whether this would be accomplished by military conquest or by negotiation. But he made clear that hostilities must end in such a way "that no opportunity is provided for another attempt at invasion."

The assembly discussion side-tracked further progress of India's suggestion for a committee of the six non-permanent council members to seek a Korean peace settlement.

OKAYS TRANSFER

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—President Truman has signed a bill transferring from the General Accounting Office to the Postoffice Department functions dealing with the department's accounting system.

Readily Admits Stealing Truck, Startles Officer

There is nothing to the saying that there are no more honest people left in this old world, or at least that is the opinion of Patrolman Ernest Guthrie of Farmville.

Guthrie received a call on Thursday morning around seven o'clock telling of a truck belonging to a Farmville firm being stolen.

The report also stated that someone had seen the truck in the Sharp Point section of Pitt county that morning.

The patrolman arrived in the region around 7:30 and was riding along the deserted road looking for any sign of the vehicle. All at once a man came out from a filling station along the side of the road and the patrolman stated that he then stopped to talk to the man, who was the first person that he had seen.

He asked the man if he had seen anything of a truck answering the description he gave him, or did he know about one being abandoned around there.

Without batting an eye the man calmly replied to the patrolman's questions, that he knew where the truck was, and that he was the man who had stolen it. The news naturally startled the veteran officer, who then managed to ask the man why he had stolen the truck.

Third Policeman To Quit In Two Weeks

Sumrell Resigns; Asserts He Is 'Disgusted' And Dissatisfied With Handling Of Department; Wooten Surprised

The resignation of the third Greenville policeman in the past two weeks was received this morning by Mayor W. S. Stafford.

The latest officer to give up his position on the Greenville police force is Lewis G. Sumrell. The officer's letter of resignation addressed to Mayor Stafford said: "I hereby resign from the police department in the city of Greenville, N.C., effective September 1, 1950." He gave no reasons in the letter for his resignation.

Acting Police Chief H. E. Wooten, when asked this morning if he knew why Sumrell resigned, replied, "It's surprising to me. It's the first I've heard of it."

Although his letter of resignation gave no reasons for resigning from the police force, Sumrell this morning told a Reflector representative, "The biggest reason I resigned is that I'm not satisfied with the way the department is being run. We realize it will be at least next July, and probably two years, before this thing in the police department is straightened out. It's enough to make a man who wants to go straight get disgusted."

"The only fair thing I could do was to give them two weeks notice," Sumrell added. "I got the word in a roundabout way that it was only a matter of time before they fire two other officers (he asked their names not be used) and myself."

Mayor Stafford said at noon today that he had not had an opportunity to discuss Sumrell's resignation with Acting Chief Wooten, but he expected to do so as soon as possible.

Sumrell began his duties on the Greenville police force on April 1, 1949.

Two other officers have resigned from the department since the first of the month. Policeman George Crawford submitted his resignation to Mayor Stafford effective August 13; but on August 5, several days after the resignation had been submitted, Crawford was discharged from the police force by Acting Chief Wooten. Crawford and Wooten gave different versions of the incident which preceded Crawford's discharge.

On Tuesday night of this week, Policeman R. W. Corbett asked Acting Chief Wooten that his resignation be accepted effective immediately.

Florida Escapes Hurricane; Now Moving North

Miami, Fla., Aug. 18—(AP)—Florida was given the "all clear" signal by the Atlantic hurricane today. There was still some threat, however, for Georgia and the Carolinas.

The alert sounded yesterday as the violent tropical disturbance containing 140-mile winds inched toward the coast, was listed by Chief Forecaster Grady Norton of the Miami Weather Bureau.

"Barring some totally unexpected development, the storm will swing clear of Florida," said Norton. "I am hopeful I may have the same good word for Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina later."

Two Thrusts Toward Taegu Turned Back; Counterattack Gains Ground; Reds Deal Heavy Blows In North, Central And Southern Sectors

Tokyo, Saturday, Aug. 19—(AP)—Allied troops, tanks, artillery and air bombs turned two Red Korean thrusts—42,000 men—away from threatened Taegu city Friday.

South of Taegu a crack Red Korean division took what an American general called a "hell of a licking" at the hands of U.S. marines and infantrymen.

The city itself was turned into a steel-rimmed fortress by an allied evacuation order sending more than a half million civilians trekking away as refugees.

The South Korean government also was sent away to establish its new refugee capital somewhere.

The war-swollen populace was removed mainly so it would not get underfoot in military operations—and to reduce the possibility of uprisings by infiltrated Communists among the refugees.

A thrust by 30,000 North Koreans was stopped 12 miles north of Taegu by South Koreans.

Then American and South Korean troops lunged at the big Red force by Fri night with a blazing counter attack.

At Anmyong, where 12,000 North Koreans had bulged eastward on the allied bank of the Nakdong River 23 miles southwest of Taegu, American marines and doughboys whipped the Communists in a bitter battle. Many Reds retreated back across the river, abandoning their weapons in panic.

Mag. Gen. John H. Church, commanding the joint marine-infantry attack at Changnyong, was jubilant over what his troops had done to the Reds.

Two South Korean divisions established the 56,000 Communist north of mountain-walled Taegu Friday morning. One of them, the South Korean First Infantry, pounced on the Reds in a counterattack immediately Friday afternoon and the U.S. 27th Regiment plied into the battle.

The other South Korean division on the same front lost contact with the Reds after helping to stop them. Allied headquarters said the Red force may have turned back north to escape through steep hills under fire.

In the bulge at Changnyong attacking Americans chased Red river-crossers back across the Nakdong. This is 23 miles southwest of Taegu.

General Church said the marine-infantry attackers in his sector may have ended the North Korean Fourth Division's fighting days. "I think everything has gone very well," said the general.

"He (the enemy) certainly has taken a hell of a licking. That's certain. I don't think that (Red Fourth) division will do much fighting for a while."

The flight of the escaping North Koreans was reported by Sgt. Benjamin Schofield of Des Moines. He watched their flight from a high ridge overlooking the river. Schofield said:

"There were hundreds of socks running helter skelter in retreat. They're trying to get across the river anyway they can. They aren't carrying weapons. They left them behind."

Pohang and Kiyge on the Korean east coast were recaptured by South Koreans.

In the deep south, at the other end of the line, the U.S. 25th Infantry Division turned back a dawn attack by the North Korean Sixth Division driving eastward from rubbled Chinnju.

The capture of Pohang port on the Sea of Japan coast by the South Koreans permitted U.S. planes to

Winning Of Germany

Moscow's Persistent And Methodical Efforts To Woo West Germany; Big Drawing Cards; Advantages They Offer; Typical Propaganda Sounds Good To Germans

By DEWITT MACARENZIE

Persistently and methodically Moscow is campaigning to win West Germany away from the Western Allies, join it to Eastern Germany and then incorporate the reunited Reich among the satellites.

The great drawing card offered by the Reds is the promise of reunion with Eastern Germany, now pictured by the Russians, but not by other observers, as a land of milk and honey under Soviet occupation.

Unity—that's a goal never absent from the average German mind. There are no more nationalistic folk in all Europe than these of the Reich.

Germany's former powerful position as the military and economic keystone of continental Europe makes this aspect of the cold-war crucially important. It is so important that time may record it as one of the decisive engagements in the conflict of the ideologies.

Western Germany is the defensive barrier between the Soviet zone and the democracies. It was disclosed in Frankfurt the other day that nearly all Western military men and most officials stationed

Below Freezing In Mich. Today

By the Associated Press
It was below freezing in Michigan today. The coolest weather of the summer season spread over the Great Lakes region and the upper Mississippi Valley.

Temperatures of 30 above were reported early today in Grand Marais, Mich., on Lake Superior. Grantsburg, Wis., which earlier this week sweltered in 98 readings, shivered in near freezing temperatures. The coolest air was in upper Michigan, northern lower Michigan and northern Wisconsin.

The cool air was headed from the midwest southward to the Atlantic coast. But warm air continued over the eastern seaboard the Gulf states and in the western plateau region. The mercury soared to 116 at Blythe, Calif., yesterday. Showers continued along the forward edge of the cool air from the St. Lawrence Valley southwestward into southern Illinois and Indiana.

The Army chief of staff and the Navy chief of operations are to leave Washington at 7 a.m. Saturday.

John Preached Repentance

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Luke 3:1-22; 7:18-28; Matthew 1:1-12.

John, son of the priest Zacharias and his wife, Elizabeth, received the word of God when he was sojourning in the wilderness, to preach repentance to the people.

People flocked to hear him, and to be baptized by him; he told them that they should not pride themselves on being sons of Abraham, but repent of their sins.

Publicans (tax-gatherers) and soldiers came to John and asked what they must do to be saved. They were told that they should be honest, upright, just men, in their various callings.

Herod, having been rebuked for the evils he had done, the tetrarch added to his sins by shutting John the Baptist up in prison.

MEMORY VERSE—Luke 3:8.

JOHN PREACHED REPENTANCE

HE REBUKED ALL SINNERS, INCLUDING HEROD

Scripture—Luke 3:1-22; 7:18-28; Matthew 1:1-12.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

FROM THE Old Testament, we now turn to the New, and study about a man who was also a prophet, and a great one. He prophesied repentance and the coming of Christ.

John the Baptist, you remember, was the son of a priest by the name of Zacharias and his wife, Elizabeth, who was a cousin of Mary, mother of Jesus. As a child, he "waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel," after the voice of God came to him.

This was in the 15th year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother, Philip, tetrarch of Ituraea and Trachonitis. While Herod's brother, Philip, was absent in Rome, Herod persuaded his wife, Herodias, to desert her husband and live with him. This was not his only sin. He had many.

John came out of his wilderness into the country all about Jordan, and he preached repentance and asked each other. John answered them: "I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose. He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire."

John's prophesying was short, however. He had heard of Herod's theft of his brother's wife, and he rebuked him severely. Herod seems to have admired John, but he was a weak man, much under the influence of Herodias, the wife he had stolen, so he put John in prison.

Before he was imprisoned, however, John had the tremendous privilege of baptizing Jesus Christ. And when He was baptized and praying, "the heaven was opened, and the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art My beloved Son; in Thee I am well pleased."

Now as he pined in a dark, damp, close prison, John pondered upon the things his friends told him about Jesus, and he sent two baptism for remission of sins. People flocked to hear him—just as they would in our day, if a dynamic and unusual looking man began making speeches that appealed to them. As in our day, some undoubtedly ridiculed him, but most took him seriously, and begged him to tell them what they should do.

John was by no means gentle with them. Even as they came to be baptized he called them "a generation of vipers," and asked them who had warned them of the wrath to come.

"He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise," he told the common people.

To the tax collectors he said, "Exact no more than that which is appointed you," knowing full well that they often squeezed more from the people than they should, pocketing the money that they need not pay to the authorities.

The soldiers were told, "Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages."

Was this the Christ? the people

men to find out for him the truth about Him. They found Jesus curing many of infirmities and plagues, and evil spirits; and to some who were blind, He restored sight. John's disciples returned to him and told him what they had seen and heard, and John no longer doubted that Jesus was in truth the Christ.

After they had gone, Jesus told the people that John was indeed a prophet—"For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist."

Herodias, however, had her revenge on John for his interference with her union with Herod. When her daughter, Salome, pleased Herod with her dancing, so that he promised her anything for which she asked, her mother told her to ask for John's head. Herod was grieved, but he felt he must keep his promise, so he ordered John beheaded.

"And the disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus."

What a sad scene that must have been. The world was poorer for the loss of such a man as John the Baptist.

White House negotiations conducted by Steelman broke down yesterday and the unions proposed for the second time in 10 days that President Truman seize the major railroads.

Railroad Strike Parley Collapses

Washington, Aug. 18.—(AP)—The collapse of negotiations to head off a railroad strike left the situation in the air today.

The White House supplied no immediate reaction to renewed union requests that the government take over the railroads, but Presidential assistant John R. Steelman kept after the parties to accept a compromise by the end of this week.

The threatened strike—by trainmen and conductors who want a 40-hour week with no reduction in pay earned now for working 48 hours, or related adjustments—is the chief immediate concern of government labor officials.

Recover Bodies Of 36 Murdered By Invaders

U.S. First Cavalry, Korea, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Bodies of 36 American soldier victims of Red battlefield torture killings were recovered today from bloody hill 303. Their hands and feet were bound with rope, wire and shoestrings. Three American soldiers who survived the mass execution identified two Red Korean prisoners as having been among the group that bound and executed 32 American mortar men. They tentatively identified a third Red captive as having been in on the slaughter.

Army officials said the accused slayers would be tried as war criminals. Seven tankmen and the 32 mortar men—39 in all—were executed by the Korean Reds on the hill before U.S. cavalrymen recaptured it.

Bodies of the seven tankers were found on the road near their two wrecked machines. "Their faces were blackened as if gasoline had been thrown on them and set afire," said Pfc. Robert S. Mauro of Revere, Mass., a stretcher jeep driver. Pfc. Ellis R. Barner of Paris, Tex., a survivor of the ten men in the two tanks, told how one tankman party members:

"We ask that no (party) discussion, class or school be conducted on the basis of directives or outlines issued or dated earlier than Aug. 15, 1950. As soon as possible, the National Education Department of the Communist Party will issue new directives and outlines."

The announcement said, however, that there is nothing to stop individuals from reading and studying any and all books including the classics of Marxism-Leninism.

The eleven Red leaders charged yesterday that the Department of Justice is "prepared to take into protective custody all Americans who seek peaceful alternatives to atomic world war."

The charge was made in an affidavit filed with the Circuit Court of Appeals in opposition to the government's motion that bail of ten of the defendants be revoked and that they be jailed immediately as menaces to the national security.

The eleventh defendant, General Secretary Eugene Dennis, is serving a year in jail in Washington, D.C., for contempt of Congress.

U. S. Communist 'Education' Plan Killed By Party

New York, Aug. 18.—(AP)—The National Committee of the U. S. Communist party—put "on the spot" by the conviction of the party's eleven top leaders—has suddenly cancelled all educational instructions to members.

"All outlines or educational directives" issued by the committee or subordinate bodies were withdrawn yesterday.

The announcement said the action was taken in view of the decision of the second U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals upholding the conviction of the eleven party leaders.

They were sentenced to prison terms and fines on conviction of conspiracy to advocate violent overthrow of the government.

The government has used many of the directives to support its charges that the Communists teach force and violence. Withdrawal of the instructions presumably was an effort to prevent their use by the government in any future prosecution or in any move to outlaw the party.

The National Committee told

West Europe Warned Must Do More To Help Selves Before U. S. Agrees

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—West-ern Europe must work harder for its own military salvation before the United States agrees to send more troops to bolster spirits and security across the Atlantic.

That is the department of defense response to insist French pressure for an American promise to supply a supreme commander and at least five additional divisions for western Europe defense.

This reply has been given in-ternally, top military officials here said, because France so far has re-lie-d upon the press and unofficial conversations to press her request for specific U. S. military commit-ments.

"We will talk about naming an American commander in chief for western Europe when he has a force to command," one high American officer commented.

He recalled that military lead-ers of the Atlantic pact nations are generally agreed about how many divisions, combat ships and planes would be needed to stop a Russian onslaught. Offers of ground forces for the common defense have been made, but this official said the total so far falls far short of overall re-quirements.

American officials believe that western Europe has little cause to doubt United States sincerity and determination to oppose Communist aggression. They say the whole world can witness the build-up of U. S. military manpower and arm-aments at a cost of millions of dol-lars.

"We will fight in Europe if nec-essary just as we are fighting in Korea," one informed officer said, "but we have the right to expect that the Europeans will do their share of the fighting."

American officials in France are known to have been pressing Wash-ington in recent days to give a solid promise to aid Europe with more troops and a supreme commander. These officials are relaying the pres-sure that is being exerted upon them primarily from French quarters. Defense officials here fear that a specific American pledge at this time might defeat the whole concept of mutual defense. They give two reasons.

- 1 It would encourage the Com-munist propaganda that paints Uncle Sam as a dictator over sub-servient western allies.
- 2 It would tend to spread a feel-ing already current to some degree in Europe that "if America is going to boss and do the job, why can't we just sit and wait?"

U. S. officials generally oppose Winston Churchill's idea of a com-mon defense ministry for western Europe, preferring to work through the Atlantic pact toward an al-lied general staff.

Robins and Rocky Mount Split Twin Feature With Scores Of 8-1 And 1-5

Locals Did All Their Scoring In Opener With Fourth Inning 8-Run Outburst; Effectively Curbed In Nightcap

By BERT MOYE
The Greenville Robins and the Rocky Mount Leafs split their twin bill here last night with the Robins taking the seven-inning opener by an 8-1 margin but dropping the second contest by a 1-5 score. As a result of the split with the Leafs, the Robins continue to remain in fourth place, one full game ahead of the Wilson Tobs, who last night took both ends of a twin bill from the Kingston Eagles.

First Game
Bobby Harrison pitched a neat five-hitter against the Rocky Mount Leafs in the opening game of the double-header here last night as he registered his fourth win of the season over the Leafs to give him a record of seven wins and six losses for the season. He has lost once to the Leafs.

The Robins did all their scoring in the fourth frame when they exploded for eight runs on seven hits, including a three-run double by Joe Allegretti and a two-run double by Joe Guidice, and which saw twelve Robins parade to the plate. Sal Valvano started the ball rolling in the fourth with a single followed by a double by Ralph Bartolozzi. After Tedpedino had gone out short to first, Lautato was walked loading the bases. Dunlavy then came through with a short single into right field to bring home Valvano. Joe Allegretti then slashed out a double into deep centerfield to unload the bases. Bobby Harrison singled bringing in Allegretti and Bland reached first on Johnson's error at third. Joe Guidice then lined a double into left field bringing in Harrison and Bland and advanced to third when centerfielder Tugwell threw wild at home. Valvano then came up to the plate for his second time of the frame and again singled to plate Guidice.

Bobby Harrison, who had a shutout until the sixth frame when the Leafs scored on a walk, single and an error, scattered his five hits in as many frames with Jim Reges getting two singles to pace the Leafs' attack.

The Robins collected a total of nine hits off the three Leafs hurlers with Joe Guidice collecting a double and a single and Sal Valvano getting two singles to lead the attack.

Second Game
Manager Red Benton came to the mound in the second game and scattered seven hits effectively as the Leafs took a 5-1 decision to gain a split in the twin bill.

The Robins' not their only marker of the game in the first frame when Joe Guidice beat out an infield hit, went to second on Valvano's infield out and scored on Bartolozzi's single into centerfield. The Leafs scored one run in the third on Pepper Martin's homer over the score board in left field to start the frame and scored what proved their winning runs in the fourth when they put across two runs on two singles and a double. They added singletons in the sixth and seventh frames on two hits, two errors, walk, hit batsman and a sacrifice.

Jim Levey started on the mound for the Robins and was relieved by Pete Braun in the seventh frame after giving up nine hits and five Leaf runs. Pepper Martin with a homer and two singles in three trips to the plate led the 10-hit attack off the two Robin hurlers. Ralph Bartolozzi, with a double and two singles in four trips to the plate led the seven-hit attack off Manager Red Benton.

The Robins travel to Kingston tonight to meet the Eagles in a single game, returning home Saturday night for a double contest.

Haefner Leading In Eastern Open

Baltimore, Aug. 14—(AP)—The other 124 golfers in the $15,500 eastern tournament today scrambled madly after Ponderous Clayton Haefner of Charlotte, N. C., 225 pounds of slow-motion pro.

Haefner, balding, mustache and World War II infantry sergeant, whizzed out in front in yesterday's opening round with a phenomenal 65. His iron just couldn't do wrong. When he wiped his brow—deadpan—after birdieing the 18th hole he acknowledged under prodding that the rough Mount Pleasant course "impressed me right much today."

And well it might, for Haefner: 1 broke the course record set in 1948 by Cliff Spencer of Elizabeth City, N. C., by two strokes; and 2 put his considerable bulk in the lead by four strokes over his nearest foes, Fred Haas, Jr., of Claremont, Calif.; Earl Stewart, Jr., of Dallas, Tex.; Buck White of Ormond Beach, Fla.; John Palmer of Badin, N. C.; and Walter Romans of Baltimore.

Haefner shot one 73 practice round on the 72 par stretch but when he got down to work yesterday it was a triumphal tour. His approach shot, as he himself pointed out, put the ball "right up to the hole" and little strain on his putter. In fact he only used it 27 times. The longest putt he sank was for seven feet.

The triple-bill will get underway at seven p.m. A similar matching was scheduled two weeks ago but rain cancelled all the contests. The three titles tonight will wind up the Mid-get season for this summer.

Asserts Russian Planes Active In Shanghai Area

Tsipel, Formosa, Aug. 14—(AP)—A Nationalist China spokesman said today Russian air force planes are flying daily in the Shanghai area of Communist China.

Li Gen, Chang Yi-Ting of the defense ministry said intelligence reports identified them as belonging to the Soviet twelfth wing. He said unverified reports estimated the wing included possibly 75 fighter planes, 50 light bombers and a smaller number of heavy bombers (medium bombers by U. S. standards).

Chang said other intelligence reports he could fully trust were that three Chinese Communist divisions passed through Mengtzu on their way to Indochina. Mengtzu is about 50 miles by air from Indochina and twice that distance by road.

Three Weekend Games Facing Farmville Club

Farmville, Aug. 14—Three games face Manager Willie Mauney's Farmville club this weekend. Tomorrow the locals travel to Fremont for an afternoon double-header, the team's first double-bill on the same day in recent weeks.

Sunday's affair comes off at the local ball park in the afternoon. As a result of last weekend's games, Farmville took a slim half-game lead over the one-time leaders, Macleesfield. However, that second-place team copped a win Wednesday night to tie the first place count.

Farmville holds an 11-point percentage edge over Macleesfield but for all intents and purposes, the two are running neck and neck with averages of .711 and .700, respectively.

A Bright Belt game tonight will be played near between Ormondsville and Pinetops. Game time for the arc-light affair is eight o'clock.

Wrightsville Beach, N. C., Aug. 14—(AP)—The annual convention of the North Carolina Society of Engineers got into full swing here today.

Greenville Boys Win In First Game In Baseball Tourney

Raleigh, August 14.—(Special to The Reflector)—Greenville's Recreation baseball team, the "Exchangers," took advantage of a day's rest and beat Mount Holly yesterday afternoon, 9-4, for its first win of the statewide tournament.

The game was a re-scheduling of the one which was rained out Wednesday afternoon. By virtue of its win, Greenville moves into the quarterfinal round this afternoon when it meets Durham, which conquered Mooresville yesterday in a shutout, 2-0.

Both Greenville and Mount Holly collected 11 hits apiece but the two Greenville pitchers were nicker for only one earned run, that one in the first on straight base knocks.

Gene Hutchins started on the mound for Bill Kittrell's charges—youthful team in the tourney—and was relieved in the second by Bobby Faulkner who went the route and emerged the winning pitcher. Bobby Nunn did the chores behind the plate.

Leading the Exchangers' hitting were Dallas Evans with two for four and Nunn with two for three. Jerry Phillips got the only extra-base hit for Greenville when he drove in two runs in a fence-busting double. Nunn, throughout the game, drove in four runs.

In the game today with Durham, which comes off at four o'clock at Red Diamond, Kittrell's team will face one of the favorites of this 18-team tournament. Durham has the oldest team in the group, averaging close to 16 years. It is the largest entry of all the teams, having about 25 men.

Kittrell stated he will start Doug Morgan today, his ace moundman, to oppose Durham. The coach said Morgan will have to be at his best to beat today's opponent. Durham yesterday was impressive in its shutout against Mooresville, the former East Carolina student reported. Should the Exchangers win today's tilt, they'll be in the semifinals bracket tomorrow, opposing the winner of the Winston-Salem-Hickory, Roanoke Rapids—Sweepsown bracket in the first round and quarterfinals. If they lose, Kittrell said, the team will come home tonight.

'Hypnotism' Said To Be Reliever's Big Weapon

Philadelphia, Aug. 14—(AP)—Jim Kinstanty, the Philadelphia Phillies' premier relief pitcher, is a hypnotist—at least that's what teammate Eddie Waitkus says.

The Phils, idle yesterday, got into a bull session about the 33-year-old Kinstanty, first citizen of Strykerstown, N.Y., and a top candidate for most valuable player of the year in the National League.

"He's unbelievable," said First Baseman Waitkus. "Bess I ever saw," observed Outfielder Bill Nicholson.

How does he do it, Waitkus was asked. "Hypnosis," the first baseman replied. "He looks at them. They look at him. And they get paralyzed."

"When you see guys like Jackie Robinson, Ralph Kiner, Stan Musial, Enos Slaughter—fellows who can really hit—swing and hit nothing, it must be hypnosis."

Too Late

Torrance, Calif., Aug. 14—(AP)—Mrs. Frederick Knose has a nose for news—but reporters chose to cover this one by remote control. Mrs. Knose detected an unmistakable odor yesterday in her garage. She opened the door and saw a skunk—too late. She called police, and Officer J. W. Masiri came out and shot the animal—also too late.

Preseason Pennant Picks Down But Not Out; Six Weeks To Go

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Boston and Brooklyn, the preseason pennant picks, are down but not out today—6½ games back with about six weeks to go.

Surging at Fenway Park, fourth-place Boston has a five-game winning streak going in the American League. All were scored at the expense of the tattered Philadelphia A's, 10-6 victims last night. Washington comes into Fenway tonight, followed by all the western clubs.

Brooklyn, cooling off the New York Giants yesterday in both ends of a doubleheader, 8-6 and 5-1, regained second place in the National League from Boston. But those idle Phillies, showing no signs of slackening their pace, threaten to romp home. The Phils open a series in New York tonight while Brooklyn entertains Boston.

Home runs by Gene Hermanski, Gil Hodges and Billy Cox helped Don Newcombe struggle to his 12th victory in the opener. Still the Dodgers needed a fine relief job by Preacher Roe. Roe came in with the bases loaded in the eighth and three runs home. He made Don Mueller rap into a double play, then breezed through the ninth.

Erv Palica tamed the Giants with four hits in the second game. Carl Furillo ruined New York with his 14th homer, a single and fly ball to drive in three runs. Pee Wee Reese and Sam Calderone each hit inside-the-park homers. Calderone's smash spoiled Palica's shutout in the fifth.

Cincinnati shaded Chicago, 2-1, in the only other National League game. Kenny Raffensberger scattered six Cuz hits and Connie Ryan drove in both Cincy scores with a homer and single off Bob Rush.

Rain washed out the Pittsburgh-at-St. Louis night game. Philadelphia and Boston were not scheduled. Detroit clung to its three-game lead over runnerup Cleveland in the American chase. New York's loss to Washington dropped the Yanks 4½ games back and only two games ahead of the Red Sox.

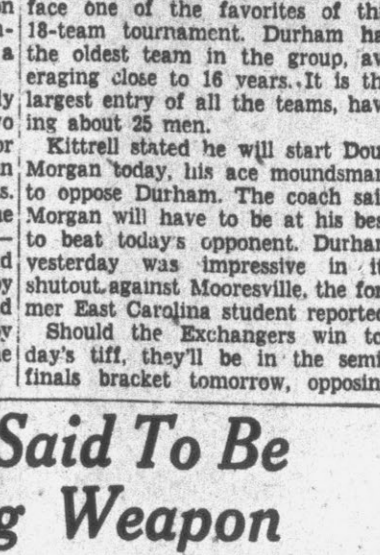

The Tigers stomped Chicago, 8-3, on nine hits and nine walks. Aaron Robinson and George Kell each hit his eighth homer, while Hal White held the White Sox to seven hits for his fourth win.

Cleveland had to go 12 innings to whip the stubborn St. Louis Browns, 5-4. Early Wynn's pinch single following Ray Boone's triple did the trick. St. Louis pulled a triple play in the second on Dale

Special Treat: Homemade Bread

Delight to all who enjoy good food is the appearance of freshly baked homemade bread, with butter or margarine and preserves to spread on it.

Though busy homemakers like to depend on the baker for their daily supply of enriched bread, there is nothing quite like the wonderful aroma of homemade bread baking in the kitchen and family enjoyment of this special treat.

Thick slices of fresh home-baked bread may be cut for snacks, to be spread with butter or margarine and topped with a bit of brown sugar or jelly; thinner slices for sandwiches to go into the lunchbox, others to be dipped in egg-and-milk and fried a golden brown for breakfast French toast.

However you like it, enriched bread from home kitchen or bakery fits well into any normal diet and provides excellent nourishment. In the well-planned reducing diet, too, enriched bread is included at each meal for its food energy, proteins, and B-vitamins.

If you like a deep-browned loaf of bread, brush melted butter or margarine over the top of the loaf after it has been shaped and placed in bread pan to rise. Bake in moderately hot oven for lightness and even grain.

ENRICHED BREAD
1 package yeast, compressed or dry
1/4 cup lukewarm water
2 cups milk
2 tablespoons sugar
2 teaspoons salt
1 tablespoon shortening
6 cups sifted enriched flour (about)

Softened yeast in lukewarm water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm, (80 to 85° F.) When cooled, add 2 cups flour, stirring well. Add softened yeast. Add enough more flour to make a moderately stiff dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead until smooth and satiny (5 to 8 minutes). Shape into ball and place in lightly greased bowl. Grease surface of dough lightly. Cover and let rise in warm place (80 to 85° F.) until doubled (about 1 1/2 hours). Punch down. Let rise again until doubled (about 45 minutes). If preferred, shape dough into loaves after first rising. Divide dough into 2 equal portions. Shape each portion into smooth ball. Let rest 10 minutes. Shape into loaves. Place in greased bread pans. Let rise until doubled (about 1 hour). Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) 50 minutes. Makes two 1-pound loaves.

Old Stone Chimney Said Carrying Strange Sounds
Morganton, Aug. 18 — (AP) — There's a stone chimney here that'll take you back to the days of the Arabian nights.
If you put your ear against the chimney you can hear music, voices, and the un-fable-like sound of clinking pool balls.
That's the word of three newspapermen and a score of others who've come to listen to the chimney.
It's in the home of Pap Caldwell, middle-aged Morganton Negro. He says the chimney took on its new duties while he was taking down the coal stove for a cleaning. A piece of iron fell down the chimney. When he reached in to get it, he heard music. Later, he heard talking and the clinking of pool balls. There's a pool parlor several blocks away.
The newspapermen say the chimney is no fake. They found no wire, no radio; just rook chimney.
Apparently something in the chimney is capable of picking up certain sound waves. Apparently, that is.

Bids Show Climb In Building Cost
Raleigh, N. C. Aug. 18—The Medical Care Commission, which has watched building costs rise steadily since the Korean fighting began, has had another jolt.
It opened bids yesterday on a 50-bed nurses home for the Alamance County General Hospital and found the low offer totaled $235,000. This was $31,450 higher than even a revised estimate, and far more than the original estimate of $183,550.
Dr. John A. Ferrell, the commission's executive secretary, said it's up to the hospital trustees to decide what should be done. They can make up the difference, reject the bids, or revise plans and ask for new bids, he said.
Less than two months ago the commission found bids lower than estimates. On June 21, it received Dell, yesterday, Cox retired after 28 years with the paper and the Ledger printed his picture. The press broke down.

Survey Discounts Likelihood Early Invasion Of Yugoslavia

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Chances of a Russian-inspired invasion of Yugoslavia this year have been discounted by western power military strategists on the basis of a survey which began soon after the first shots were fired in the Korean war.

This information came from two responsible officials who disclosed separately results of their own investigations and conclusions by their superior officers.

Piecemeal reports leaking out from inside the Iron Curtain thus far have shown little desire for war in the satellite nations bordering Yugoslavia. In fact there are signs that a Soviet order to fight Yugoslavia might boomerang into widespread opposition and perhaps revolt.

A general survey was ordered immediately after the North Korean attack because the western powers wanted to know how far they could become committed in Asia without risking such security as they now have on the European continent.

Inside Yugoslavia, where there are plenty of people who boast of noses that can sniff trouble, the survey found there is plenty of preparedness but little evidence that the country and leaders expect a Balkan war.

On top of this, there has been a marked decline in reported border incidents recently. Such incidents over the past two years have been a fairly reliable barometer of Russian Cominform feeling toward out-cast Yugoslavia. When Russia wishes to apply pressure on the government of Premier Marshal Tito, there border incidents increase. This keeps a big part of Yugoslavia's manpower in uniform and out of vitally needed production.

Reports of western observers here emphasized that a Communist invasion such as that in South Korea would not have the same advantage of surprise in Yugoslavia. Tito has one of the best armies on the continent outside Russia. A big part of it had tough training in the hills of Bosnia and Slovenia during the last war and is efficient and well armed.

The RANGE DOCTOR

by OSCAR J. FRIEND

Chapter 6
Unsuspecting of the twin logs dancing in her brown eyes, Logan fell into the trap. He grasped her fingers to bow gracefully over them, and started slightly at the sudden clammy and sticky mass he found in his hand. At his ludicrous expression of dismay Mollie laughed merrily and put her hands back into the biscuit dough.

The older man roared and Logan joined in as Betty came to his rescue.

"Brat!" she said. "Here, let me wipe that dough off, Dr. Logan."
"Thank you," he accepted, thrillingly to her deft touch. "Just wait until I'm called in professionally."
"That's a promise," Mollie said. "Now, out of the kitchen, all of you men. Dinner's in twenty minutes."

The day passed swiftly. After supper they all sat on the big front veranda and talked until moonrise. As they rode back to town in the moonlight Griggsby asked:

"Well, did you enjoy yourself, son? Was I right about the Bartons?"
"I never spent a more delightful day," Logan admitted soberly. "Mollie's your favorite, isn't she?"

Griggsby appeared to cogitate. "That's hard to say. I've always petted Betty like a child. She's imaginative, romantic. Mollie's more practical and capable. As for downright beauty, Betty's the kind of woman a man would go to hell for."
"And Mollie?" Logan prompted.
"Mollie," Griggsby said quietly, "is the kind who'd go to hell with you."

By the middle of the week Logan was installed in his office. The place fairly glinted in its freshness. The youthfulness of it all chafed the young doctor.

None of this was apparent to the excited and foamed-flecked strapping overalls who galloped up to the newspaper office and rushed into the building.

"Hey, Doc! Jess Plum's wife fell and hurt herself—purty bad off—lookin' for the stork next month—bleedin' to death, Maw Plum says—want ye thar's quick as I can git ye thar."
"Where is the place?" Logan asked.

"Up in the north hills a few miles. I'll take ye. My name's Slim Tackett. I work for Jess Plum. Hurry up, Doc!"

It was not until they were halfway to their destination—eight miles from Gila City—that he learned from his companion that Slim Tackett had been sent for Dr. Bryant and, failing to find the veterinary, had sought out the new doctor. The irony of this pierced the young physician's soul but he merely compressed his lips and rode on.

Jess Plum's place proved to be a tiny mountain settlement. There he administered a sedative immediately, thanking God that his little supply of ordered drugs had followed him so quickly. Dosing out a few more powders for the old crone to give, leaving explicit instructions, he prepared to go.

"The sick woman caught his hand. 'Doctor, air ye sure I'll be all right?' she demanded anxiously.

"If you will remain quietly in bed and follow all my directions, I am confident of it, Mrs. Plum," he assured her.

She tightened her grip. "Doctor, I trust ye. I like ye heaps more'n Doc Bryant. Will ye come back to wait on me when my time's up?"

"If you wish it, certainly," Logan felt elated.

"Swear it!" she said fiercely. "Swear ye'll come—that ye'll let nothin' on earth stop ye!"

(To be continued)

Greenville Youth On Tour European Places Of Interest

J. Herbert Waldrop Jr., of Greenville, who is one of the seven students from four North Carolina colleges and universities now touring European countries, recently completed a 10-day stay in Berlin. They took part in extensive field work with German youth groups. They also had discussions with leading German welfare and Methodist church officials.

The party is on a 10-week tour which includes visits to Rome, Paris and Brussels. The group arrived in Germany late in June. The trip abroad is sponsored by the North Carolina Conference by the Methodist Church. The purpose of the visit is to widen the contacts between American and German young people and to contribute to the reconstruction of the Methodist Church in Germany. The party is expected to return to this country early in September.

More than 36 per cent of all women working in Canadian factories are employed in the textile industry.

Red Activities At UNC Rapped

Goldsboro, Aug. 17—(AP)—Demand that Communist activities in the University of North Carolina be eradicated was voiced in a resolution adopted by eastern North Carolina Legionnaires meeting in Goldsboro last night. More than 100 posts were represented at what had been scheduled as a meet to plan a membership drive.

Mark Lassiter of Snow Hill offered the resolution. In discussing it he said he "knew whereof he spoke" in charging that the University at Chapel Hill, Women's College, Greensboro, and State College, Raleigh, were "infested with Communism." He said students were exposed to Communist ideas.

Lassiter moved that "Communist activities in the University of North Carolina be eradicated regardless of the effect, if it breaks up the whole set-up."

Ralph R. Fisher, Brevard State Legion membership chairman, was presiding. He pointed out the meeting was called to plan a 1951 membership drive and expressed doubt it was in his right in voting on Lassiter's motion.

Past State Commander Bob Stevens of Goldsboro moved to table the motion. A fiery debate ensued. Stevens withdrew his motion.

Fisher called for a standing vote. A large number voted for it. None voted against it. Many abstained from voting. There was no count.

Lassiter's motion provided that the resolution be conveyed to Governor Scott and that he be asked to present it at the next meeting of the university trustees.

Unsettled

Unsettled weather conditions prevailed in the Greenville area during the forenoon today. The sky was partly overcast and light breezes were coming from the northeast.

The highest temperature here yesterday was 96 degrees. Lowest last night, 67 and at 8 a.m. today the mercury stood at 77. Mrs. Carl E. Maiden, local observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, reported.

Truman To Avoid Campaign Tours

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—President Truman was reported today to have decided he will make no personal appearances in the Congressional campaigns beyond a possible visit to his home state of Missouri.

Mr. Truman told his news conference yesterday he has cancelled all speaking engagements and has no plans for the campaign activity that usually starts in September of election years.

The President added that he is very busy at his desk in the White House these days, lending the impression that he thinks the present heavy load of work brought about by the Korean fighting is not likely to be lightened soon.

Supplementing this, an administration spokesman told a reporter the President and his advisers have agreed that it would not be good policy for Mr. Truman to go around making political speeches at this time.

The President's apparent decision to shun the appearance of political activity might not hold in the case of his home state, where Democrats are striving to defeat Senator Donnell (R-Mo) in a key race. However, there was some question whether Mr. Truman would make a political talk even at home.

This photo-diagram of the precipitous east face of Mt. Whitney near Lone Pine, Calif., shows where the bodies of Steven Wasserman and Christopher Reynolds, both 17, have been found by searchers. Wasserman's body was found several days before that of Reynolds. Reynolds' mother, singer Libby Holman, flew home from France when the youths were first reported missing. Apparently they had almost succeeded in conquering the peak when disaster overtook them. (AP Wirephoto).

Pitt Red Cross Board Has Meet

The first board meeting of the Pitt County Chapter of the American Red Cross was held yesterday with new Chairman Henry L. Brown presiding. Sixteen members of the group were present.

Brown, who was recently elected chairman of the ARC locally and represented the chapter at the national convention at Detroit in the latter part of June, expressed his gratitude for being elected as chairman for the coming year.

He reported briefly on the activities of the national convention, emphasizing the importance of Gen. George C. Marshall's address as national chairman.

Brown stated the former Army chief of staff urged every American citizen to "familiarize himself with the activities of the Red Cross because this is important in times of stress and disaster."

Speaking for himself, Brown stated, "Many of our local citizens are ignorant of the benefits and activities of the local chapter and are often misled in their belief that the Red Cross only makes highly-paid positions for certain individuals at the generosity of the public."

"It is every person's duty to learn as much as he can about the program which is constantly taking place throughout our community as well as throughout the nation," he said.

It was learned that a representative of the national office will come to Greenville to help organize the coming year's program. The representative will be here sometime in October, Brown stated.

The chairman then called the committee chairmen to give reports of their activities to date. Mrs. J. H. B. Moore then moved that the chairman appoint a committee to elect a chairman for the Fund Committee for 1951.

Verbal Blows By Truman, Wherry

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—An exchange of sharp words between President Truman and Senator Wherry (R-Neb)—both used the expression "contemptible"—piled more fuel today on the political fire blazing in Congress over the administration's foreign policies.

Mr. Truman took sharp issue at yesterday's White House news conference with a Senate statement by Wherry, the Republican floor leader, that the blood of Americans dying in Korea is on the shoulders of Secretary of State Acheson.

Permitting reporters to quote him directly, an unusual procedure, the President said:

"That is a contemptible statement and beneath comment."

Two hours later Wherry fired back that the President's "failure to remove Acheson, after repudiating his stupid foreign policies, is contemptible."

It was Acheson's consistent appeasement and coddling of Russia that paved the way for the Moscow-directed Communists to overrun China and for the Moscow-directed North Koreans to spring upon the republic of South Korea," the Nebraska senator declared in a statement. He added:

"In Korea we are now reaping the whirlwind of Acheson's blunders and the President seems to be so confused and perplexed by the flood of events that he is blind to the devious paths down which Acheson has advised 'him.'"

Negro Lawyer Is Reported Choice As UN Delegate

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—President Truman was reported today to have decided to name Mrs. Edith Sampson, a Negro lawyer in Chicago, as a delegate to the United Nations general assembly meeting at New York next month.

Mrs. Sampson's appointment to the American delegation was proposed by the state department as a way of striking back at Russian propaganda that Negroes are an oppressed people without opportunity, influence or position in the United States.

Quite apart from this consideration, state department officials said, Mrs. Sampson is well qualified to serve as a result of her legal training and interest in social and political problems.

Proposes Free Life Insurance For Servicemen

Washington, Aug. 18—(AP)—Rep. Hardy (D-Va.) has introduced a bill to give free life insurance to members of the armed forces.

Explaining the bill to the house yesterday, Hardy said:

"This bill would prohibit issuance of National Service Life Insurance to persons entering the armed services after its effective date, but would not affect any policies previously issued."

"In hearings recently held before the government operations sub-committee, of which I am chairman, the inequity, inefficiency and extravagances of the present government insurance program were unquestionably established."

one of two mounted routes. The savings came about when the car that was privately operated and financed by the office was cut out and the operator began walking his route.

That route was in the West Greenville section and that area surrounding the ball park. To serve the area, other routes were extended to aid the formerly mounted postman to cover it each day.

The only mounted route at present covers the sections around Fleming's Crossroads, Hillsdale, Rock Springs and the cotton mill.

Assistant postmaster Luther Whitehurst agreed with Proctor that he had heard no direct criticism or gripes because of one mail a day.

"The only thing I've heard is people kidding us that the post office is in such low cotton that it can't afford to deliver but once a day," he said.

Patrol Reports 2 Road Mishaps

Two highway accidents were reported today to the Greenville Patrol office, one occurring last night and the second happening three days ago.

Last night, about 11:30, a car operated by Melvin H. Wilson, colored, age 18 of Chicod, was in collision with a hog which was running loose on the highway, between MacGowan's cross roads and Grimesland.

Damage to the car was estimated to be about $150 by investigating officer Paul C. Whitley.

Whitley stated that the patrol wants to caution the people in Pitt County about the danger of allowing livestock to roam loose on the highways. Several serious accidents occurred last year, the patrolman state, because of the animals being on the highway.

With the increased number of vehicles traveling the highways on the eve of the opening of the tobacco market, all possible care should be taken, Whitley said.

The second accident was reported by Patrolman D. E. Perry. The accident occurred at the Stokes-Be-gram intersection on Wednesday morning.

A truck operated by Fred Kell, age 17, of Bethel, slipped off the shoulder of the highway and turned over, Perry stated.

The truck was considerably damaged, but the driver who was the only occupant in the truck was not injured.

No charges were brought against the driver.

a moral obligation on some doctors to go into uniform.

The ones they have in mind are those who, during the war, received all or some of their medical training at government expense but had no active service and never joined the reserves.

In 1943—when no one knew how long the war might last or how many doctors eventually might be needed—Congress created a program to help medical students get their education.

Under this, medical students got their tuition and school expenses paid by the government. In addition, they were given a first class private's pay every month.

(The Army part of this program was called the Army Specialized Training Program (ASTP). The Navy's was the V-12 program. To avoid confusion and save space, only the Army's problems are mentioned in this story although everything said here applies equally to the Navy.)

So long as they continued their studies satisfactorily, these ASTP students were draft-proof. When they finished, they were supposed to go into the Army or Air Force, then part of the Army.

About 13,500 finished their studies under ASTP. One thousand of them were disqualified for military service for physical reasons. The remaining 12,500 joined the Army or Air Force. But—

When the war ended in 1945, Congress discontinued the ASTP program. There were then 4,600 medical students, who, having received government help, were still in school.

Later, some of them may have dropped out of school. Others went on and finished at their own expense. But the point about them is this: They had received some of their education at government ex-

Some of them joined the reserves and may be called up now. Many didn't. The Army and the American Medical Association think those who didn't join the reserves have a moral obligation to step forward now and pay off their debt to Uncle Sam by joining up.

powers.

Typical of Red propaganda was an announcement the other day in the Red army's official newspaper in Berlin, "Tae-gliche Rundschau." This proclaimed a sweeping program for all Germany, including the "liberation" of West Germany. There was no talk of using arms to achieve this. The Communists can be discreet.

The greatest drawing card of all in the Red propaganda is the promise of a reunited Germany and nationalism. That sounds queer, coming from a Moscow which insists that all Communist nations owe their allegiance to Russia. It must get a wry smile from Generalissimo Tito, who got consigned to the Red dog-house because he clung to nationalism for Yugoslavia.

Still, these specious promises have a welcome ring in some German ears, for if anything is certain it is that the Reich one day will be reunited. I've spent a lot of time in Germany and one of my most vivid impressions revolves about the intensity of the nationalistic feeling and pride of race — Deutschland Uber Alles.
