

Last-Minute Entries File For Pitt Offices Saturday

Township Constable Posts As Well As Register Of Deeds Office Involved In Late Flurry; Only Two Major Posts Will See Competition In Primary May 31

By JESS POINDEXTER
Reflector Staff Writer

The position of Pitt County Register of Deeds, which except for the candidacy of Blair Cox Wheeler had gone uncontested during the last several weeks of filing, turned into a four-way race over the weekend as three more candidates filed for the office in the waning hours of the filing period. Late Saturday afternoon, with the deadline for filing less than two hours away, Carson R. Jones of Falkland, Charles O. H. Little of Greenville and Larry L. Averette of Greenville all registered their candidacy for the office of register of deeds. They are subject to the Democratic primary elections to be held in the county Saturday, May 31.

Other last minute filers Saturday were H. D. Wright of Grimesland and Elmer Haddock of Greenville, route five, both of whom filed for constable of Chocoma Township; T. L. Perkins of Stokes filed for constable of Carolina Township; R. P. Woolard of Greenville, route five, filed for constable of Pactolus Township; and Willie Bell of Greenville, route four, filed for constable of Belvoir Township.

As the election slate stands now, with filing closed, only two major offices will be contested. They are the four-way race for register of deeds, and the fifth district seat on the Pitt County Board of Commissioners now occupied by M. Brown Hodges of Grifton. Both Hodges and R. Guy Jackson of Ayden have filed for county commissioner from the fifth district.

Running unopposed are: Dr. Paul E. Jones of Farmville for the state senate from the fifth district; Sam O. Worthington and Frank M. Kilpatrick of Ayden for the house of representatives from Pitt County; county commissioners F. P. Hendrix of Greenville from the first district, J. T. Dupree of Belvoir from the second district, C. C. Harris of Ballards Crossroads from the third district, and Marvin W. Smith of Chocoma from the fourth district; Dick James of Greenville for judge of county court, and H. Horton Rountree of Farmville for solicitor of county court.

Several constables and justices of the peace throughout the county are opposed for office. Three men running for Greenville Township constable are J. R. Mobley, Heber T. Savage and Gus Stokes. In Chocoma, H. D. Wright, Wilbur L. Stokes and Elmer Haddock are candidates for constable. J. Roy Stokes and Horace McLawhorn are running for the office of constable in Ayden Township. Candidates unopposed for constable are Zeb Manning in Swift Creek Township, Rick Jackson in Winterville Township, R. P. Woolard in Pactolus Township and T. L. Perkins in Carolina Township.

For justice of the peace, R. M. Manning and W. C. Cobb are making a race for that office in Belvoir Township, with C. C. Worthington unopposed.

Register Of Deeds Race 'Warms Up'

Three Pitt Men File For Post Saturday, Making Four-Way Contest; Two From Greenville, One Falkland Man

Three Pitt County men, Larry Averette and Charles O. H. Little of Greenville, and Carson R. Jones of Falkland, Saturday filed for the office of Pitt County Register of Deeds.

All filed for the post now occupied by Blair Cox Wheeler of Farmville, who several weeks ago registered her candidacy for the office. She was appointed in March to fill the unexpired term of John G. Clark, Jr., who resigned to join the staff of radio station WGTC.

Although born near Winterville, Averette has made his home in Greenville for the past 12 years. He has been employed at Merit Shoe Company since that time except for two years in the Army during World War II. A married

LARRY AVERETTE

CARSON JONES

CHARLES LITTLE

Stafford Cripps Is Gravely Ill

ZURICH, Switzerland (UP)—Sir Stafford Cripps, gravely ill former British chancellor of the exchequer, lapsed into unconsciousness today.

"Sir Stafford is slowly sinking," Dr. Dagmar Liechi, his physician, said in a mid-morning bulletin. "He has now drifted into a state of deep and painless unconsciousness."

Registrars And Judges For City Elections Named

Registration Books Open Wednesday At Polling Places For 10 Days

Names of registrars and judges for Greenville's municipal elections, as appointed by Mayor Lester D. Page and approved by the board of aldermen, were released this morning by City Clerk H. H. Duncan.

In precinct number one, which is composed of wards one and two, the registrar is Mrs. R. E. Corbett, Jr., and judges are Mrs. Ruth Mills and J. L. Ross.

Registrar for the second precinct is Mrs. Rosa Brown, and judges are Mrs. Faye Leggett and E. R. Conway. The second precinct is composed of wards three, four and five.

The city clerk reported that the registration books will open Wednesday, April 23, and remain open for 10 days, not including Sundays. "The registration books will be open in the polling places for each precinct," Duncan said.

He disclosed that wards one and two in precinct number one will vote at the Pitt County Courthouse, while wards three, four and five making up precinct number two will vote at the city hall. "Registration for each respective ward will be held in these designated places during the 10-day registration period," the clerk stated.

According to Duncan, anyone already registered may vote without registering again, if he plans to vote and is registered in the precinct in which he now lives. The only people affected by the registration, he said, are new residents of the city or old residents who have moved from one ward to another.

"Although a voter may go back to his old ward to vote, it is advisable to register in the ward in which he now resides, Duncan explained. "If he has been living in a ward more than 60 days, he must transfer his registration to vote in that ward."

For newcomers to the city the situation is quite different, the clerk emphasized. "If a person recently arrived in the city is a resident of the state, he must wait four months and meet county residence requirements before he can vote. If he moved here from out of state, he must wait a year to meet state residence requirements before he can vote."

The books will be open from Wednesday, April 23, through Saturday, May 3. City elections are scheduled to be held Monday, May 5.

Warns Congress Against Action

Truman Fears Steel Shutdown If Senate Bill Is Passed

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Truman warned Congress today against restricting the use of federal funds for operation of the steel mills lest it paralyze government operations in an emergency.

Mr. Truman wrote Vice President Alben W. Barkley, expressing fear that negative legislation might lead to a steel shutdown which, in turn would "reduce the ability of our troops in Korea to defend themselves against attack."

Mr. Truman directed his criticism against an amendment before the Senate to deny use of appropriated funds for the operation of steel mills seized by the government April 8.

The amendment is Republican-sponsored. It is an amendment to a $900,000,000 plus supplemental appropriations bill to run some 20-odd federal agencies in this fiscal year ending June 30.

The money is so well earmarked that probably none would be used for operation of the steel mills. But approval would amount to a vote of censure against the President's action in seizing the steel industry.

Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.), author of the measure, predicted Senate approval.

The President pointed out that he ordered government seizure only because available alternatives seemed "even worse."

School Girl Is Held In Setting Of Two Fires

CHARLOTTE (UP)—Mental examinations were ordered today for a pretty blonde junior high school student who said she set three fires in two churches here for "revenge."

Blue-eyed 15-year-old Margie Elizabeth Davis, who said her parents were separated, told juvenile officer Neal Fronney she started the fires because she was refused permission to play ping pong and to use a telephone in the churches.

Judge Willard Gatlin of juvenile and domestic relations court said her case would be decided after psychiatric examinations this week. She was placed in custody of the Children's Shelter.

Alcoholism Hits A Record Peak

BALTIMORE (UP)—Chronic alcoholism in the United States has hit a record high, according to Dr. Robert V. Seliger, chief psychiatrist of the Neuropsychiatric Institute of Baltimore.

Statistical surveys show 1,000,000 chronic alcoholics, 4,000,000 "heavy drinkers," and over 40,000,000 social drinkers in this country today, Dr. Seliger reported to the National Committee on Alcoholism and Hygiene, Inc.

2,000 Prisoners Smashing Toward Possible Freedom

Car Runs Wild, Smashes Into House

The automobile above, driven by Joseph E. Mills, 27, of Grimesland, Route One, crashed into a house in which three persons were sleeping early Sunday morning. The impact tore down a brick chimney, wrecking occupants of the house were injured. (Reflector Photo by Roy Hardee).

Delay Hearing In Daniels Shooting

Grand Jury Action Postponed Until August Term Of Court

The grand jury hearing for Glenn Brantley and Mrs. Lucille Dail, which was originally set for today, has been postponed until August criminal term of Pitt County superior court, officials announced today.

With 36 cases on the calendar, this term of court opened this morning at 10 o'clock with Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington on the bench.

Shortly after the morning session convened, Judge Burney excused five jurors from duty this term and ordered the remainder sworn for service.

By 11 o'clock this morning, one hearing George Thomas Brooks case had been disposed of. After pleading guilty to driving drunk, Judge Burney ordered him to pay a fine of $100 and the costs, and pay $34.27 into the office of the clerk of superior court for the use and benefit of Heber Nethercutt. Brooks also lost his driver's license for 12 months.

Court is scheduled to be in session through Friday.

Auto Hits House Of Sleeping Family

Couple And Child Unharmed; Chimney Knocked Down, House Left Foundations; Driver Suffered Minor Hurts

By ROY HARDEE
Reflector Staff Writer

BLACK JACK—A sleeping family of three escaped without injuries early Sunday morning when an automobile plowed into the side of their home, tearing down a chimney and scattering furniture in the bedroom.

Joseph E. Mills, 27, of Route 1, Grimesland, has been charged with careless and reckless driving and having no operator's license as an outgrowth of the early morning accident.

Patrolman Paul C. Whitley, investigating officer, stated that Mills told him he backed out and lost control of the automobile.

Mills suffered minor injuries, was treated by a doctor and released. He will be tried in County Court on May 6.

The accident occurred at 5:45 in the morning when Milton Arthur Shirley and his family were asleep. Shirley, his wife and young daughter, were together in the front bedroom of the frame dwelling at the time the car struck it.

The impact moved the house from its foundation the distance of one foot and tore down the outside chimney. Luckily for the driver, the falling bricks toppled away from the automobile and not on it in force. The car was heavily damaged.

A stove, pipe and other items of furniture were thrown around the room like match sticks; some of the articles landed near the bed of the three sleeping persons.

Mrs. Shirley shortly after the accident could only say, "I was scared; I mean really; I didn't know what had happened!"

The Mills car traveled a distance of 615 feet across a ditch and into a wire fence before hitting the house. The house in which the Shirley family lived is owned by W. C. Spencer of Black Jack.

Ridgway Opines Korean Outlook Is Still Uncertain

TOKYO (UP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said today that the outlook for a Korean armistice is still "uncertain."

The supreme United Nations commander took a dim view of the prospects for an early peace as Allied and Communist truce negotiators went through another "no progress" session in Panmunjom.

Ridgway surveyed the Korean war situation from Tokyo, in a two-way telephone conversation with presidential assistant John R. Steelman on a television program.

"From all information available to me," the four-star general said, "it remains uncertain that an agreement can be reached with the Communists except by sacrificing essential principles, which the U.N. command will not do."

Special Utilities Session Tuesday

A special meeting of the Greenville Utilities Commission has been set for Tuesday night for reports on the progress of the local rural electrification project.

Reports are to be made by representatives of the engineering firm and the construction firm working on the 243 miles of rural lines being constructed for the Greenville Utilities.

In addition to hearing the reports, the commissioners tomorrow night are expected to discuss the possibilities of making rural lines extensions totaling some 25 miles more than the 243 called for in the original contract.

Chairman J. Roy Martin will preside at the meeting to be held at the city hall at 7:45.

LARGER MODEL

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UP)—The atomic bomb to be used tomorrow will be more powerful than the bombs which ruined Hiroshima and Nagasaki and ended the Pacific war, AEC Chairman Gordon Dean said today.

PERCENTER INDICTED

NEW YORK (UP)—Paul J. Roth, an accountant who allegedly took 10 per cent of every Reconstruction Finance Corp. loan he obtained for clients, was indicted by a federal grand jury today on charges of an attempted $1,500,000 fraud in RFC loan application.

Seven Communist Jet Fighters Downed, Six Others 'Damaged'

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—American F-86 Sabre jets shot down seven Communist jet fighters today out of formations which jumped Allied fighter bombers methodically chopping away at key rail lines in Northwestern Korea.

Six more MIGs and one "Type-15" Red jet were damaged in the day's three air battles.

In one dogfight, Capt. Joseph J. Love, of San Bernardino, Calif., shot down his fourth and fifth MIGs of the Korean war to become America's 11th jet ace.

The Sabres damaged one plane in the day's first dogfight, when 18 Russian-built MIGs tried to sneak under a flight of four American interceptors.

The second aerial battle, an hour later, pitted 28 Sabres against 80 MIGs and "Type-15s." Five of the MIGs were destroyed and three MIGs and one Type-15 damaged. This was the battle in which Love took part.

In a third forenoon fight, 19 Sabres shot down two MIGs and damaged another in a flight of 25 enemy jets east of Sinuiju.

Love, flying his 43rd mission of the Korean war, said he and his wingman, Lt. Robert L. Straub of Flagstaff, Ariz., picked up two MIGs just as they crossed the Yalu River border from Manchuria. As they went into a turn, he said, he began firing from behind.

"There were several explosions in the MIG's fuselage and the pilot bailed out," he said. "We broke off and my wingman got another MIG as we straightened out. We were right on the deck by that time."

"We started climbing and picked up another MIG. I followed him in a turn and fired my remaining ammunition into him. He leveled off and bailed out."

In addition to Love and Straub, "kills" were scored by Lt. James E. Kessler, Indianapolis, Ind.; Capt. Brooks J. Liles, Clayton, N.C.; Capt. Alvin R. Moorman, Fontana, Calif.; Lt. Donald J. Hemmer, Princeton, Ind., and Lt. Percy L. Saunders, Reedsville, N.C., shared credit for destroying one MIG.

Firemen Put Final Touches On Lumber Fire

A fire started by the R. G. and W. E. Little Lumber Company near Simpson was availed by the work of volunteer firemen and Greenville firemen who battled the flames Saturday afternoon. The fire is believed to have started when sparks from burning sawdust set ablaze slabs of timber near the main plant. It was brought under control after an hour-long fight. (Reflector Photo by Roy Hardee).

Social and Personal

All items for this page must be received after 10 a. m. and will be published the following day. Dial 2266-9 a. m. to Home; 1 to 4:20 p. m.

Mrs. Clarence Barnhill is a patient in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Winifred Henderson of Canada is a guest of Mrs. Travis Hooker.

Rev. J. A. Neilson left yesterday for Concord, N. C. to assist Dr. E. S. Summers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in a revival meeting during the week. He will return on Monday, April 28.

Mrs. Sudie Blalock Dies; Funeral Today

Mrs. Sudie Williams Blalock, 81, died at her home near Roanoke Rapids at 2:35 o'clock Sunday morning following several months' illness. Funeral services were conducted at the Chapel of the S. G. Wilkerson & Sons Funeral Home at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon by the Rev. L. C. Brothers, pastor of Pine's Methodist Church in Halifax County. Burial was in the Asplen Cemetery.

Mrs. Blalock, widow of the late Frank Blalock, was born and reared in Lenoir County, moving to the Asplen Community after the death of her husband in 1904, where she lived until October, 1951, when she was a member of Pine's Methodist Church.

Surviving are three sons: Lambert Blalock of near Halifax, N. C.; Frank Blalock Jr., of the U. S. Army, now stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.; and Albert Blalock of the home; seven daughters: Miss Virginia Blalock of the home, Mrs. E. F. Branton of Ayden, Mrs. Willie Brady of Greenville, Mrs. Flan Pease of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Edie Ellis of Petersburg, Va., Mrs. Thomas Michael of Lexington, N. C., and Mrs. Flen Whitfield of Rockwell, N. C.; and a sister, Mrs. C. T. Williams of Greenville; and eleven brothers: James, Abram, and Woodrow Williams of near Rocky Mount, N. C.; Fred, Robert, Jessie, and George Williams of Greenville; Charlie Williams of Washington, D. C.; Rufus Williams of near Beth, and Paul Williams of Norfolk; and a sister, Mrs. James Langley of Farmville.

Social Calendar

MONDAY

8:30 p. m.—The A. A. U. W. will have a covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. J. E. Winslow.

8:30 p. m.—Rotary Club

7:00 p. m.—Lions Club

TUESDAY

1:00 p. m.—The Athens Book Club meets with Mrs. Owen Marshall.

1:00 p. m.—Mrs. L. S. Pickett will be hostess to the Thalian Club.

3:30 p. m.—The Cosmos Book Club meets with Mrs. George Garrett.

3:30 p. m.—Mrs. Howard McGinnis will be hostess to members of the Round Table Club.

8:00 p. m.—Greenville Registered Nurses Club meets with Mrs. J. D. Parker Sr.

3:30 p. m.—The Clio Club will meet at the home of Mrs. H. L. Rivers.

7:30 p. m.—Little Theatre Guild meets in the lounge of the Greenville Recreation Center in the armory.

7:30 p. m.—With a degree of Pochontas meets.

8:00 p. m.—Faculty Wives Club will meet in the Training School Cafeteria.

8:00 p. m.—Fireside Club of Eighth Street Christian Church meets with Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Murray.

8:00 p. m.—St. Elizabeth's Chapter of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church meets in the parish house.

WEDNESDAY

7:15 p. m.—Beaux Arts Club meets at Third Street School hut.

FRIDAY

8:30 p. m.—Kwanik Club

8:30 p. m.—Exchange Club

7:30 p. m.—Red Men meet.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haislip of Hamilton announce the birth of a daughter on April 18 at Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Haislip was the former Miss Hazel Jarrell of Grifton and for a number of years taught in the Winterville school.

Mrs. Boykin Addresses Junior Club

Mrs. Tom B. Brown, president, presided over the brief business session of the Junior Woman's Club when it met on Wednesday night.

Assignments were made in completing plans for Bread Day on April 27th, and Mrs. L. L. May, Mrs. Earl Fleming and Mrs. R. W. Shippett were appointed to serve with the present committee to study park plans.

Following the business session, Mrs. Kenneth H. Mercer, chairman of the International Relations Department, introduced Mrs. T. H. Boykin, president of the Credit Women's Breakfast Club of Greenville, who spoke very impressively on the topic "Our Contribution to Life."

Mrs. Boykin pointed out the fact that tact is one of the most important qualities of a likeable personality, and that the motive of tact is kindness, inattention, ridicule and gossip are the height of tactlessness, while courtesy and politeness go hand in hand with tact, she said. Other important qualities, she added, are appearance and personal charm. In conclusion Mrs. Boykin said, "Friendship is the highest degree of perfection in society."

Mrs. Gilmer S. Mustain, formerly of Martinsville, Va., was introduced as a new club member.

During the social hour Mrs. Harold Alder, Mrs. Earl Fleming and Mrs. Bill Williams served coffee with dainty cakes.

Minstrels Plan Dress Rehearsal

Dress rehearsal for the Greenville Kiwanis Club's minstrel show will be held at Austin auditorium on the college campus tonight at 7 o'clock.

The minstrel will be presented two nights—Wednesday and Thursday, April 23 and 24. Eli Bloom is producer and star of the show. One hundred and fifty people compose the cast and many of the boys and girls are East Carolina College students.

Bloom said the end men will offer many new jokes this year. They are Dr. Elmer Lansche, Judge J. W. H. Roberts, James Ray Pittman, Corky Bachus, Ed Conway, Kevin Conway, Aubrey Tilley and John Conway. Eli Bloom is interactor.

The singing and dancing numbers by college boys and girls are nearly all new. Some of the dances are original and many of the songs are new. The male chorus, in black face, will feature many of the old-time minstrel songs.

Tickets are on sale at J. Hicks Corey's insurance and real estate office on Dickinson avenue and by Kiwanians.

Would Prohibit Sattellite Food

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. James P. Kem (R-Mo) proposed legislation today forbidding imports from Communist countries of farm products which are surplus in the United States.

Kem said his measure was prompted by the fact the government is purchasing surplus goods in this country to support prices and at the same time permitting "slave labor pork" from Communist Poland to flood the U. S. market.

Children Of Grimesland School To Give Operetta

The music department of the Grimesland Elementary School is presenting an operetta on Wednesday night, April 23. The performance will be given in the high school auditorium beginning at 8:00 p. m.

The operetta will be under the direction of Mrs. J. T. Maury, supervisor of music in the school, assisted by the teachers of the elementary grades. There will be 140 children in the production.

"The Wedding in the Forest" is the name of the musical. It depicts a spring scene of flowers, animals, birds and other symbols of the season. The opening chorus, "Apple Blossom Wedding" will be followed by an introduction by a reader.

Sarah Tucker will be the bride and Shellen Nicken will be the groom. Maid of honor is Lara Helen McDonald, matron of honor is Wanda Ramsey, bridesmaids are Barbara Rouse, Melissa Whichard, Mary Jo Mills, Faye Elks, Faye Haddock, Janice Hudson, Hilda Waggoner and Kathryn Boyd. Nelda Hudson and Carolyn Summerell are train-bearers, and Ray Von Moore and Wayne Stokes are ring bearers.

Jesse Ray Boyd is the minister, and Michael Sutton and Connie Hardee are the singers. Michael will sing "I Love You Truly," and with Connie Hardee will sing a duet, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

A. J. Hudson is best man and groomsmen are Eugene Waggoner, Darrell Elks, Dwight Batts, Jerry Williams, Curtis Hardee, Elbert Boyd, Donald Ray Heath, James Smith, Gerold Childs, Herbert Mills, H. W. Mills, and Billy Barrington. Joyce Elizabeth and Bill Little will be the father of the bride.

Children depicting roses, daisies, buttercups, rabbits, elves, tulips and butterflies will perform a dance and throughout the whole production a chorus will provide living songs for the occasion. The closing chorus will be "It's a Grand Night for Singing."

Exchange Club Meets

Don Bolt, newspaperman, radio commentator, outstanding authority on Latin America, and an able veteran lecturer will speak at the Executive's Club.

The dinner meeting will be held in the dining hall of East Carolina College at seven o'clock.

Bolt is an authority on evaluating event "down South America way" as his years of experience in the lands which lie between the southern border of the United States and Tierra del Fuego have given him an insight and understanding of the people and events in Latin America which few men possess.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

He has interviewed hundreds of leaders in South America and among "Americanos del Norte" whose business has thrown them into close contact with the leading figures from the low-lying coastal areas along the northern and eastern coasts of South America to the highest inhabitable spots in Chile and western Argentina.

Scout Camporee In New Bern Set For This Month

Final plans for the traditional council-wide Boy Scout Camporee, held annually in the far-flung twenty counties of the East Carolina Council, Boy Scouts of America, were approved recently at a meeting of the Camporee Steering Committee in Greenville.

Chief R. E. King, Washington, N. C., and Roscoe G. Barnes, Wilson, chairman of all camping and special events in the Council, met with fifteen volunteer camporee leaders to secure final approval of the work that the committee has done during the past four months.

Mr. King announced that the Chamber of Commerce in New Bern, site of the 1952 Camporee, has sent official and personal invitations to the more than two hundred Scoutmasters in the Council inviting their Scouts to participate in the mammoth camping demonstration and exhibition. The host city, New Bern, has gone all out to lay the welcome mat in an attractive fashion. Mayor George H. Roberts has given approval to city authorities for making some desirable alterations and changes in the beautiful Glenburnie Gardens area adjacent to New Bern. About 100 acres of fine pine forest has been laid off into almost four hundred Patrol Sites.

Special letters of invitation from the Scout Executive, Ralph H. Mozo, Wilson, have gone out to neighboring Scout Councils encouraging them to send token delegations of Scouts and leaders to observe the big camporee. Mr. Mozo has announced that Camporee applications from Scout Patrols have been pouring into the Council office. He said that there is an excellent chance that the 1952 camporee will far exceed previous years in attendance.

In addition to the Council Camporee for white Scouts on April 25-27, a full fledged Camporee for Negro Scouts will be conducted the following weekend of May 2-4. Both Camporees will feature the same program on the same campsite. Total registration for the two affairs should reach almost the three thousand mark.

Negro Camporee Chief D. D. Ghist, Nashville, has set up a parallel organization to run his camporee similar to Chief King's. Both chiefs have expressed the hope that the general public will plan to visit these two events to observe Scouting in action.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. W. H. Brunson

AYDEN—Mrs. W. H. Brunson, 72, of Ayden died at her home Sunday afternoon following a lengthy illness.

She is the widow of the late Rev. W. H. Brunson, pastor of the Ayden Christian Church. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3:30 in the Ayden Christian Church by her pastor, Rev. Gilbert Davis Jr., and assisted by the Rev. John Goff of Williamston. Burial will follow in the Ayden Cemetery.

The deceased is survived by one daughter, Miss Louis Brunson of the home; two sons, Keith Brunson of Greenville and William Brunson of Charlotte; and six grandchildren.

Star Dust Theme Of ECC Dance

Colorful decorations and lighting effects arranged to suggest the theme of "Star Dust" made the junior-senior dance at East Carolina College this year an attractive and enjoyable social event.

The annual entertainment given by the junior class in honor of seniors took place Saturday evening, April 19, in the Wright building. Seniors, juniors and their guests enjoyed dancing to music provided by Bob Lee and his Orchestra.

Those present for the evening entered the Wright auditorium by passing through a representation of a class ring in gold. Streamers in the senior colors of red and white were draped from this design to the balconies overlooking the dance floor.

In the center of the auditorium, a revolving ball covered with miniature mirrors caught beams of light from the ceiling and gave a kaleidoscopic effect of reflections throughout the auditorium. The orchestra played from a stand draped in evergreens. An attractively designed hand-painted backdrop arranged on the stage of the auditorium bore academic symbols complimenting the honor guests of the Class of 1952.

Jerome K. Sandford of Goldsboro, president of the junior class, was in charge of arrangements for the dance. Working with him as heads of committees were Hal F. Haire of Elizabethtown, Verona Sparrow of Deep Run, Francis H. Madigan of Portsmouth, Va., and John Robert Klutts of Dudley.

Registered Nurses To Meet
The Greenville Registered Nurses Club will hold its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. J. D. Parker Sr. at 2617 South Dickinson Avenue Hilldale, on Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Bill Baker will be assisting hostess.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunn of Greenville announce the birth of a son on April 20 at Dr. Joseph Smith's Clinic.

CAROLINA GRILL

Good Food
Reasonable Prices
24-Hour Service

Dividend Paying Policies

Tadlock Mutual Insurance Agency
Save With Safety... Buy Mutual Insurance
FIRE, AUTOMOBILE and TORNADO
320 Evans Street, Greenville, N. C. — Dial 2397

40 Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
April 21, 1912

The "set hook" fishermen are catching lots of catfish, some of them very large.

The farmers have commenced setting out tobacco plants. The season is fine for it.

The ladies of the Round Table will meet with Mrs. C. T. Munford Tuesday afternoon at 3:30.

After the Bland-Moore marriage, which takes place Wednesday night in Memorial Baptist Church, a public reception will be held at the home of the bride on Dickinson Ave., to which all friends are invited.

Funeral Wednesday For Elmore Infant

Gail Dolores Elmore, 4 weeks and 3 days old, died in a Wilmington hospital Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. James Bell, minister of the Church of God. Burial was in Ayden cemetery.

Dolores is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Elmore, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elmore and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hall of Ayden, R. I., several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Bob Elmore is the former Miss Maxine Hall.

HITS TWICE IN ROW
FORT WORTH, Tex. — (UP)—Joe Sellers scored a hole-in-one on the same hole of the same course less than 30 days after he had scored his first ace on the same hole.

All White Ceremony Unites Couple

Vows Spoken In Catholic Church Sunday Afternoon

In an all white wedding service on Sunday afternoon, April 20, at 2:00 p.m., Miss Betty Lou Saleed became the bride of James Franklin Easter Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Saleed Sr. of this city, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin Easter Sr. of Winston-Salem.

They were married in St. Peter's Catholic Church, with the Rev. Charles Gable officiating, assisted by the Rev. Maurice Tew and the Rev. Bergmanns McHugh. George Perry, organist, and Miss Carolyn Eisele of Statesville, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Miss Eisele sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer" just before the entrance of the bride and groom.

The church was decorated with standards of white bridal flowers and lighted cathedral candles in wrought iron holders. The altar candles formed a fitting background for the altar flowers, which were all white and green. Pews for the family were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Skinner satin and Chantilly lace. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline filled in with a yoke of nylon illusion and applied with lace medallions over a tight fitting bodice. The full skirt ending in a cathedral train was worn over hoops and had an overlay of Chantilly lace which came to the knees in front and fell in a scallop to the ankles in the back. The long, close fitting sleeves ending in points over the hands were of lace and were fastened with satin covered buttons at the wrist. She wore on her head a close fitting Juliet cap of matching lace with a finger tip veil of white illusion. Her bouquet was of white bridal roses centered with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers tied with lilies of the valley.

Miss Shirley Saleed attended her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Rodman F. Allen and Miss Eleanor Ruffner, both of Washington, D. C. They were gown-ed alike in white strapless ballerina length dresses with lace bodices which extended over the nylon net skirts. Small lace bandeaux sprinkled with rhinestones were worn on their heads. Short lace shoulder capes and matching lace mitts completed their ensembles. They carried arm bouquets of Better Times Roses tied with matching satin ribbon.

Little Miss Charlotte Farris of Wilson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was a floor length formal of white net over satin, with which she wore tiny lace mitts and a matching head piece. She carried a little nosegay of red roses.

Little Danny Ray Saleed of Greenville, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. He wore a formal suit and carried the rings on a white satin covered pillow.

Carl J. Sink of Winston-Salem, cousin of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Philip Saleed, Rodman F. Allen and Andy Revoir, all of Washington, D. C.

The mother of the bride was gown-ed in a costume of slate blue lace with pink accessories and an orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a dress of grey lace over pink tulle with pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

Reception
After the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at the Woman's Club. Green and white decorations were used throughout the club rooms, interspersed with many lighted candles. The punch table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a massive arrangement of white anemones and gladioli in a crystal bowl flanked by candles in branched crystal holders. The bride's table was centered with a five tiered wedding cake which was encircled with smilax and flowers. During the reception a three piece string ensemble provided music.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas of Wilson received at the door and guests were introduced to the receiving line, composed of members of the wedding party, by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Saleed.

Misses Marie Rouse and Frances Tucker presided over the punch bowls, and party sandwiches, bridal mints and salted nuts were served buffet style. Mrs. Bill Nelson, Miss Mary Daly and Miss Mary Grace Gaylord assisted at the refreshment table. Mrs. A. M. Moseley served the bridal cake after the bride and groom cut the first slice, and Miss Ann Cox registered the guests in the bride's book. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. John Saleed Jr.

Wedding Trip
Following a wedding trip to southern points, the couple will be at home in Arlington, Virginia. For traveling the bride changed to a costume suit of corded pink shantung with navy slubs and navy accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet pinned to her shoulder.

Mrs. Easter is a graduate of Greenville High School and East Carolina College. For the past two years she has been associated with the Department of the Interior in Washington, D. C., and is now attending Mrs. Gladstone Williams Fashion School of Modeling in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Easter attended R. J. Reynolds High School and is a graduate of Columbia Technical Institute in Washington, D. C. He also attended George Washington University and the northern division of the University of Virginia. He served as a paratrooper in World War II and is now employed as an architect designer with the John Willgoos architectural firm in Alexandria, Va.

Pre-Nuptial Parties
On Friday night the bride-elect was honored when Mrs. Bill Nelson, Miss Marie Rouse and Miss Ann Cox entertained for her at a bingo party. The home was appropriately decorated with flowers and arrangements suggestive of the bridal motif. Many attractive prizes were awarded to the winners of the bingo games and the drawing of favors was an interesting part of the evening's am-tainment. Refreshments carrying out the bridal theme were served and the hostesses presented Miss Saleed with gifts in her selected patterns.

Preceding the rehearsal on Saturday night the bride's parents entertained at a buffet supper at their home on West Fourth Street. Pink and green flowers were used in the living room, while on the table in the dining room, which was lit by many candles in crystal holders, the centerpiece was a beautiful arrangement of white and green flowers. Platters of cold meats and casseroles of hot vegetables were accompanied by assorted pickles and olives, all of which were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dan Saleed. Iced drinks and hot coffee were served from the buffet. Guests were members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Following the rehearsal, Miss Shirley Saleed was hostess at an informal party at the home of her parents. Ice cream, cake and assorted nuts and minis were served from the decorated table in the dining room to members of the wedding party.

A large number of guests from out of town were present for the affair.

Pre-Registration Set By College

Pre-registration of students at East Carolina College for courses to be taken during the summer and the fall quarters of 1952 will take place April 21-26, according to an announcement by Dean Leo W. Jenkins. During this period, students now enrolled at the college will meet with their faculty advisors and prepare their schedules for either or both quarters. Two sessions of the summer term are scheduled to begin, respectively, June 2 and July 10. The fall quarter will begin September 2.

Beauty Contest Entries

JOYCE SUTTON

LELA MOSELEY

ANNE HARRIS

FARMVILLE — Here are three of the 10 girls who will enter the Beauty Contest which is being held as a part of the Farmer's Day celebration here Wednesday.

Other than the three girls pictured, Lela Moseley, Joyce Sutton, and Anne Harris, eight more girls have entered the contest for which first prize will be $100.

Madeline Albritton of Maury is sponsored by the Maury Ruritan Club and is the daughter of Mrs.

Paul Albritton; Dorothy Ann Fulford is sponsored by the Farmville Home Demonstration club and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Fulford; and Alice Fay Parker of Walstonburg is sponsored by the Men's club of Walstonburg. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Parker.

Vivian Carol Aldridge of LaGrange; Lela Mew Moseley of Fountain; Barbara Lewis of Macesfield; Joan Atkinson of Greenville, Route 1; Joyce Sutton of Fountain; and Susie Winstead of Macesfield.

Women In The Church

By MARY FOWLER
"Brotherhood Begins at Home" is the theme of the 1952 observance of "Christian Family Week" which Protestant and Orthodox churches related to the National Council of the Churches will observe across the United States with special services from May 4 to 11. According to the Council, the observance will be "both a challenge and an opportunity to strengthen the homes of America"; adding, "Such undergirding was never so urgently needed. In our country one million homes are broken annually by death, desertion, or divorce. The demands of the world crisis cause members of additional thousands of families to live separated from each other by many miles. The pressure of living costs and housing difficulties impose severe strains upon family relations. Millions of people frustrated, disillusioned, or confused, have ceased to hope for any fundamental brotherhood among men. Yet, written into the very soul of man is a longing, which can be satisfied only in the family of God. We must encourage and strengthen every home."

If the women of the churches will take the lead, many conditions in local communities and across the nation can be changed. Mrs. Emory Ross, director of leadership training, is telling the members of United Church Women, arm of the National Council of Churches. Says Mrs. Ross to the women: "What women have done together in many communities can strike a flame in ours if we are willing to lead through days of hard work as servants of a cause. Bad

April Bride

Mrs. Curtis Lee who before her marriage on Saturday, April 12th, was Miss Hilda Whitford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Whitford of Greenville. Mr. Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lee of Greenville.

politics are not Christian and can be changed. Tumble-down houses for a minority group is a disgrace to any community. Unfair practices in industry are your responsibility and mine. Streets crowded with children with no place else to play are inexcusable in any Christian community. Gambling and liquor dens crowding out ice cream and refreshment stands need not be tolerated if Christians act. Children of working mothers should not have to be left in un-

The United States paid all its public debt in 1835, but a new national debt was soon created by war and depression.

BODY'S 16TH YEAR

Town & Country Shoes

in flower-fresh due-tones and multicolors

PRETTY WHIRL, $9.95

- Brown and Vanilla
- Violet and Mauve

GOOD MIXER, $9.95

- Grey, Vanilla, Brown
- Red, Green, Yellow
- Dye Tone Blue

Soft, shining KIDSKIN... so deftly contrasted or blended in these two pretty new T & C foot-fashions... to bring fresh excitement to your spring wardrobe. Each with the cloud-cushioned feel of foam-rubber insoles!

PREDICTS: SEERSUCKER IN-SEPARABLES GO EVERYWHERE

KORDAY

Welcome
the return of an old love... KORDAY's seer-sucker separates for funning—sunning—in town or out. Inventively detailed... see the French piping... the clever play of stripes. Crisply textured, sud-solving seersucker is perfect for summer's willing days. Travelers note: KORDAY seersucker never needs ironing. Also available—Bermuda shorts, two-pocket culotte. Blue, maize, aqua, lilac, red, brown,
10-20.

Doll Waisted
Jacket $4.95

Horizontal
Striped skirt $5.95

Sun Cap $1.75

Bra $2.95

Tank Top $3.95

Shorts $3.95

Pedal Pushers $4.95

Blouse $3.95

Inverted Pleat
Skirt $5.95

As Seen in REDBOOK

DOOMROCK

BY ARCHIE JOSCELYN

Chapter 17

Melody was almost sobbing as she flung herself from her horse, running forward to snatch the noose from about the neck of Hector. Words poured from her in a torrent.

"And you call yourselves men! I'm ashamed of all of you—of you, Steve Russell! It's nothing less than murder! Oh, this is a barbaric country, a beastly land!"

Steve hesitated, startled and taken aback. Since it looked very much as though Hector would still have refused to let anything, he was more than a little glad of the intervention of a third party, a good way out from a situation which was becoming uncomfortable not alone for the man on the horse.

But Melody's stinging denunciations were less pleasant. He had supposed that she would be safe at the ranch house, and had been planning all day how he could snatch a few hours from his work and return that evening to see her. This sort of thing did not suit him at all, when by rights he should be on his honeymoon.

He gestured now to the other punchers, standing abashed and uncertain.

"Untie his hands," he said wearily. "Let him go."

He turned to Melody, who had stopped her tirade as suddenly as she had begun. She was looking at him, her face almost as stricken as his own.

"Oh, Steve," she said. "I couldn't let you stain your hands with his blood."

She was trembling, on the verge of collapse. Steve saw it, and took her into his arms. She clung to him, sobbing convulsively. The others had ridden away, leaving them alone.

As if by common consent they talked of other things while they rode toward camp. The afternoon was well along, the sun already westering. Ahead now was the herd, the thousands of head which had been gathered in the last few days.

Groups of riders were still coming in, with the smaller bunches they had rounded up during the afternoon. Melody viewed the scene with appreciation.

"It's wild, Steve—wild and rapturous, but romantic," she said. "I can see how you might like it."

"Yes," he agreed. "I suppose it is wild. But not nearly so much as it may seem to you."

"Do you have any idea how far you came, riding out to have a look at this job?" he asked.

"It must have been quite a way," Melody decided. "Considering that it took so long. But I enjoyed it, Steve. This is a beautiful country."

"Pretty, at this time of year," he acknowledged cautiously. "Think you can eat the fare at a chuck wagon? It's supper time."

"I'm hungry enough that I could eat anything," Melody declared. "And those odors are delectable."

The dark was coming down as they ate, the sun leaving its last radiance spread across the west like a golden promise of the day to come. The camp fire glowed to coals, the herd half a mile away, was almost silent. Melody, replying found herself oddly pulled to persuade contrition and the desire to persuade Steve to her way of thinking.

"It's beautiful, Steve," she repeated. "So—so peaceful, and the land is so wide."

Some of the barrier was gone. Steve slipped his arm around her, and she rested her head on his shoulder.

"I like it," he said simply. "But to change the subject—did you do any thinking, Mrs. Russell, when you started riding out this way today, about the night? It's a long way back to the house."

"That," she retorted, "is for my husband to think about. When you take a wife, sir, you're supposed to provide the simple necessities of life. Why should I worry when you're around?"

"Pretty, at this time of year," he acknowledged cautiously. "Think you can eat the fare at a chuck wagon? It's supper time."

"I'm hungry enough that I could eat anything," Melody declared. "And those odors are delectable."

The dark was coming down as they ate, the sun leaving its last radiance spread across the west like a golden promise of the day to come. The camp fire glowed to coals, the herd half a mile away, was almost silent. Melody, replying found herself oddly pulled to persuade contrition and the desire to persuade Steve to her way of thinking.

"It's beautiful, Steve," she repeated. "So—so peaceful, and the land is so wide."

Some of the barrier was gone. Steve slipped his arm around her, and she rested her head on his shoulder.

"I like it," he said simply. "But to change the subject—did you do any thinking, Mrs. Russell, when you started riding out this way today, about the night? It's a long way back to the house."

"That," she retorted, "is for my husband to think about. When you take a wife, sir, you're supposed to provide the simple necessities of life. Why should I worry when you're around?"

"Pretty, at this time of year," he acknowledged cautiously. "Think you can eat the fare at a chuck wagon? It's supper time."

"I'm hungry enough that I could eat anything," Melody declared. "And those odors are delectable."

The dark was coming down as they ate, the sun leaving its last radiance spread across the west like a golden promise of the day to come. The camp fire glowed to coals, the herd half a mile away, was almost silent. Melody, replying found herself oddly pulled to persuade contrition and the desire to persuade Steve to her way of thinking.

"It's beautiful, Steve," she repeated. "So—so peaceful, and the land is so wide."

Some of the barrier was gone. Steve slipped his arm around her, and she rested her head on his shoulder.

"I like it," he said simply. "But to change the subject—did you do any thinking, Mrs. Russell, when you started riding out this way today, about the night? It's a long way back to the house."

"That," she retorted, "is for my husband to think about. When you take a wife, sir, you're supposed to provide the simple necessities of life. Why should I worry when you're around?"

"Pretty, at this time of year," he acknowledged cautiously. "Think you can eat the fare at a chuck wagon? It's supper time."

"I'm hungry enough that I could eat anything," Melody declared. "And those odors are delectable."

The dark was coming down as they ate, the sun leaving its last radiance spread across the west like a golden promise of the day to come. The camp fire glowed to coals, the herd half a mile away, was almost silent. Melody, replying found herself oddly pulled to persuade contrition and the desire to persuade Steve to her way of thinking.

"It's beautiful, Steve," she repeated. "So—so peaceful, and the land is so wide."

Some of the barrier was gone. Steve slipped his arm around her, and she rested her head on his shoulder.

"I like it," he said simply. "But to change the subject—did you do any thinking, Mrs. Russell, when you started riding out this way today, about the night? It's a long way back to the house."

"That," she retorted, "is for my husband to think about. When you take a wife, sir, you're supposed to provide the simple necessities of life. Why should I worry when you're around?"

"Pretty, at this time of year," he acknowledged cautiously. "Think you can eat the fare at a chuck wagon? It's supper time."

"I'm hungry enough that I could eat anything," Melody declared. "And those odors are delectable."

The dark was coming down as they ate, the sun leaving its last radiance spread across the west like a golden promise of the day to come. The camp fire glowed to coals, the herd half a mile away, was almost silent. Melody, replying found herself oddly pulled to persuade contrition and the desire to persuade Steve to her way of thinking.

"It's beautiful, Steve," she repeated. "So—so peaceful, and the land is so wide."

Some of the barrier was gone. Steve slipped his arm around her, and she rested her head on his shoulder.

"I like it," he said simply. "But to change the subject—did you do any thinking, Mrs. Russell, when you started riding out this way today, about the night? It's a long way back to the house."

"That," she retorted, "is for my husband to think about. When you take a wife, sir, you're supposed to provide the simple necessities of life. Why should I worry when you're around?"

"Pretty, at this time of year," he acknowledged cautiously. "Think you can eat the fare at a chuck wagon? It's supper time."

"I'm hungry enough that I could eat anything," Melody declared. "And those odors are delectable."

The dark was coming down as they ate, the sun leaving its last radiance spread across the west like a golden promise of the day to come. The camp fire glowed to coals, the herd half a mile away, was almost silent. Melody, replying found herself oddly pulled to persuade contrition and the desire to persuade Steve to her way of thinking.

"It's beautiful, Steve," she repeated. "So—so peaceful, and the land is so wide."

Some of the barrier was gone. Steve slipped his arm around her, and she rested her head on his shoulder.

"I like it," he said simply. "But to change the subject—did you do any thinking, Mrs. Russell, when you started riding out this way today, about the night? It's a long way back to the house."

"That," she retorted, "is for my husband to think about. When you take a wife, sir, you're supposed to provide the simple necessities of life. Why should I worry when you're around?"

"Pretty, at this time of year," he acknowledged cautiously. "Think you can eat the fare at a chuck wagon? It's supper time."

"I'm hungry enough that I could eat anything," Melody declared. "And those odors are delectable."

Falkland News

Mr. and Mrs. John Tyre and children, Johnny and Jane, of Charlotte visited Mrs. G. H. Pittman last weekend. Mrs. Pittman accompanied them home for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Clark had as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mayo and daughter of Rocky Mount.

Mrs. Edward Mayo spent last weekend with relatives in South Carolina.

Mr. David Wooten of Durham has been holding revival services at the King's Cross Road Baptist Church this week.

Miss Josephine Little visited in Washington, D. C. this week.

Mrs. Ethel Moore Denton and daughter, Busby Denton, of Raleigh, were here for the funeral of Mr. Will Moore Sr. Thursday.

Mr. Henry Wooten and son, Dan, of the Southwood Acres, attended the cattle show at the Farmers Warehouse in Greenville on Thursday. Dan entered a steer which won first prize in the show.

Mrs. Luther Deal of Farmville visited Mrs. Johnnie Deans Tuesday.

Master Dock Moore, brother of Mr. Louise Moore, is improved and is home from the Tarboro hospital.

Harvey Bradshaw, son of Mrs. Milford Moore, was home from Chapel Hill Thursday for the funeral of Mr. Will Moore Sr.

Mrs. Woodrow Wooten shopped in Raleigh on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith were Goldsboro visitors on Thursday.

Mrs. W. J. Moore visited Mrs. Whitt Newton, who is confined at Pitt Memorial Hospital, on Monday.

Miss Dorothy Baker of Fountain visited her sister, Mrs. Virginia Stancill Monday.

Mr. Henry Wooten was in Washington on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frizzelle of Wilmington were here for the funeral of Mr. Will Moore Sr. on Thursday.

Miss Anna Little, Mrs. Leslie Penden, Mrs. Frank Corbitt and Mrs. Ruel Tyre attended the Home Demonstration district meeting at East Carolina College on Thursday.

Miss Willard Wooten visited Mrs. Elizabeth Casey in Kinston on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Brown of Greenville and P. Tom Brown of the Army Air Corps and his wife from Port Belvoir, Va., visited Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Brown Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Moore and son, Ivy Lewis, of Jacksonville, were here for the funeral of Mr. Will Moore Sr. Thursday.

Mr. Frank Corbitt's nephew, Mr. Dub Corbitt, was recently wed to Miss Myrtle Weatherly of Scotland Neck.

Dr. and Mrs. Ed Beddingfield and children of Stantonburg were here for the funeral of Mr. Beddingfield's grandfather, Mr. Will Moore Sr. on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Allen attended the dance which was held in the community building at Crisp last week and was sponsored by the H. D. ladies club.

Mr. Guy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Mayo, Mrs. George Cherry and Mrs. Ella Galloway of Greenville were here Thursday for the funeral of Mr. Will Moore Sr.

Mrs. Rosa Browe, daughter of Mrs. John Bibb, has moved to Miami, Florida where Sgt. Browe is stationed with the Army.

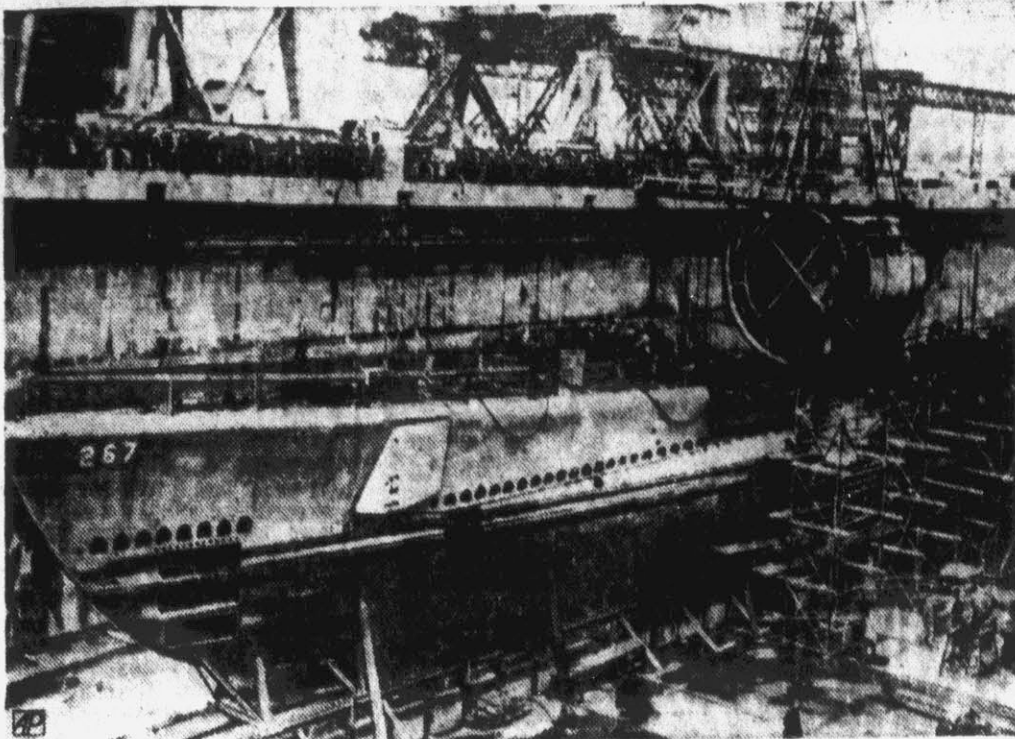

Around one hundred students of the elementary school attended the delightful and thrilling presentation of "Tom Sawyer" which was presented by students at East Carolina College last week.

Proceeds from the Brunswick stew sale Saturday which was sponsored by the Ruritan Club for benefit of the community building fund were $23.00. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corbitt and daughters prepared the stew at their home, and were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Offie Wooten, Mrs. Vivian Moore, Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Irma Moore. The stew was delicious and quickly bought up. Many thanks go to Mr. and Mrs. Corbitt for their work to make it a success.

Mrs. Frank Corbitt entertained the Junior Sunday School class of Grace Church at her home on Friday evening with a party. Those present were Patricia Little, Peggy Deans, Buddy Strickland, Janice Corbitt, Ann Dall and Lois Corbitt. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wooten of the Southwood Acres entertained with a chicken and barbecue dinner on Easter at their home. The house was beautifully decorated with arrangements of white gladioli, white snapdragons, pink hydrangeas, yellow roses and Easter lilies. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxson of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wooten of Falkland, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wooten of Baltimore, Md. and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wooten of Falkland attended.

JOKE BACKFIRES
WABASH, Ind. —(UP)—David Woltrum, 12, joked with the Lincoln High School track team here about the hazards of their sport. He asked the older boys if he could stick around and "watch the rough stuff." About 15 minutes later he was hospitalized for injuries received when he was hit in the head by an eight pound lead ball used in the shot put.

ADDING TO ITS MIGHT—The submarine Pompon lies severed in Philadelphia Navy Yard drydock as workmen lower a new insert with electronic gear into its mid-section.

Economist Takes New Hope In Regarding Business Prospects

By ROGER BARSON

BABSON PARK, Mass.—As many readers know, I have thus far been pretty busy about the prospects for business up to election time next November. But, as I told you in my release on unemployment last week, President Truman's decision to pull out of the race has changed my outlook. I feel more optimistic now!

Feelings Control Statistics

When I was a boy in Gloucester, Massachusetts, my father ran a store. He often said to me, "Roger, it isn't how much money people have in the bank that makes them buy my merchandise—no sir, it's HOW THEY FEEL!" That was good advice in 1900, and it is still good.

Just take a look at what's happened in the last year. You will remember that the bureaucrats and the brain trusters in Washington were warning the nation that a new wave of inflation was just ahead—that there soon would be big shortages again. That was only twelve short months ago. Did these shortages show up? They did not. Why? Because the people who do the buying decided to save more and buy less. The government statisticians could measure inventories, but they couldn't figure out people's feelings!

Everybody Feeling Better

In my opinion, business and the public have both been holding back from making decisions and buying until after the elections. Now, however, with the President making his historic "shall not run" decision, all that is changed. There is a widespread feeling that nearly all of his possible successors would be more kindly disposed to business. A feeling of relief has spread through the country from end to end.

Now, this feeling is not something you can measure in black and white. You can't put it into a graph. But, it is the kind of thing that will make a man go out and spend a little more money than he would have before. Just a month ago he may have told his wife that "there'll be no new car this year."

Today, however, he may feel that things aren't so bad after all and say, "There is enough in the bank for a rainy day, so, with election prospects looking brighter, why not now enjoy the new car?" This should cause currently high inventories to be pared down.

Swing To Right

There is another important possibility that should not be overlooked. With President Truman out of the running, every effort will be made to pick a candidate behind whom the whole Democratic Party can unite. Now, the big bulk of Southern Democrats happen to be very conservative. If they are to be appeased and "kept in line," it is highly necessary that the Convention nominate a team that will be conservative enough to attract full support from the South—like Russell, Kerr or Stevenson. So the Democrats don't look so formidable to business as they did a few weeks back.

What about the Republicans? Well, to me, it is pretty hard to see any candidate outside of Eisenhower or Taft. It doesn't seem likely that the Convention will be foolish enough to pin its hopes on some "dark horse" that may fall down in the big race. Businessmen generally would feel pretty good right now if they knew for certain that a conservative is to be in the White House next January. Thus, sizing up both the Democrats and the Republicans, it looks to me like a swing to the right!

More Spending Right Away!

Finally, the Democrats know that if business is good and the voters are happy next November 4, they will have a better chance to win again. You can bet that their "smoke-filled rooms" are already busy mapping the strategy for keeping things humming right up to polling time. They may have lost their sense of direction.

Already we have seen the government granting permission to the military to award contracts to "job districts" areas. It isn't a far step from this to finding other reasons why defense spending should be stepped up in the months immediately ahead. Certainly, if the people get an impression that a new wave of inflation is on the way, which recent strikes indicate, they may do a little more buying themselves.

Ex-Prisoner Of War Re-Enlists

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—(AP)—Seven months of imprisonment by Communists in Korea failed to chill Leonard J. Maffioli's enthusiasm about being a U. S. Marine.

He enlisted here for another three year hitch after his first enlistment expired recently. Maffioli, a sergeant, was captured in November, 1950. He escaped when brought near the front lines to help handle other American prisoners.

FAREWELL TO MET—Kirslen Flaggstad holds gift as general manager Rudolf Bing bids her farewell after final appearance, at Alcesta, in Metropolitan Opera House, New York.

UN Views Need More Tractors For Countries

GENEVA — (UP) — A "wide field" exists for stepping up mechanization of agriculture in Africa, Asia, and Latin America, according to a study of the world tractor industry prepared by the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe.

The survey found that the world industry produced 906,000 tractors in 1950. Actually, however, it estimated total production capacity during that period as 1,108,000 tractors.

"It has been suggested that China, for example, could use 125,000 tractors during the next five years, and the need in India and Africa is equally great," ECE said. "The principal difficulty will be to convert potential requirements into actual effective demand. Herein lies the real problem of the tractor industry."

Field Wide Open

The survey reported that although countries are receiving some aid from the U. N. technical assistance program, "there remains, however, a wide field where no real steps have yet been taken on an organized basis to assist countries in the mechanization of their agriculture."

A shortage of capital in the underdeveloped regions and production at less than capacity in western nations which are re-arming are among the factors blamed for failure of the world industry to achieve the targets it could.

Were it not for re-arming, the survey said, the world industry could raise total output for the period 1951-54 from a probable 640,000 tractors to 1,000,000.

The desperate need for increased areas is shown in statistics in the mechanization of underdeveloped survey. They show that Latin America, the Near East, the Far East and Africa account for about half the world's arable land but in 1951 owned only 4.3 per cent of the total number of world tractors.

Far East Short

Within that group, the Far East is the least developed area, with one tractor per 12,900 hectares. (A hectare is 2.471 acres). The Near East has 2,600, Africa 1,730, and Latin America 2,600 in 12,900 hectares.

That compares with one tractor for every 23 hectares in Britain, the most highly mechanized country in the world, one for every 48 in the United States and one per 171 hectares in Europe as a whole.

The survey predicted that in south and southeast Asia "capital investment in the form of tractors and farm machinery appears likely to proceed slowly under the conditions prevailing and in the absence of large scale external assistance."

Devise System For Capturing Deadly Rattlers

MATADOR, Tex.—(UP)—Two Matador men have perfected a sure thing for capturing snakes. They have the proof in 79 rattlesnakes so far this year.

Their system is simple. They use a long iron rod, some old rags and a can of gasoline. The soaked rags are set afire and forced into the snake den. The heat and the fumes force the snakes out.

Bill Slover and Homer Starkey killed or captured 68 rattlers from one den on the Gerald Waybourn ranch 12 miles northeast of Matador. They brought back alive six of the largest rattlers.

Slover and Starkey use a forked stick when they want to capture a rattler alive but generally they kill them on the spot. Rattlers, they say, often kill livestock by their poisonous bites.

BEAUTY QUEEN—Mrs. Indrani Rahman, Indian dancer, poses with trophy after winning "Miss India" title in Bombay. She is daughter of an American who settled in India.

Square Dancing Has New Boom, Western Style

ALBUQUERQUE—(AP)—Cowboys from Minnesota and cowgirls from the Bronx are taking up the old Southwestern practice of do-do-do and promenade. Square dancing is enjoying a new boom with a strictly Western flavor.

Dozens of square dance clubs with hundreds of members have started in Albuquerque since the government imported thousands of workers and service men to the Sandia Atomic Weapons Base and Kirtland Air Force Base.

Square dancing as formerly done in the East was a slow dance with a set pattern and grace to him. The man ramrodging a fast Western square dance is as — as his own as a jazz musician. "Keeping up a continuous line of patter, the Western caller fills in the music with a commentary in rhyme, only a few words of which have anything to do with directing the dancing."

Seeing-Eye Dog Saved Her Life

CHICAGO (UP)—Thirteen-year-old Barbara Jean Stelga, turned down a reward for returning a missing seeing-eye dog because the animal saved her own dog from the wheels of a speeding auto.

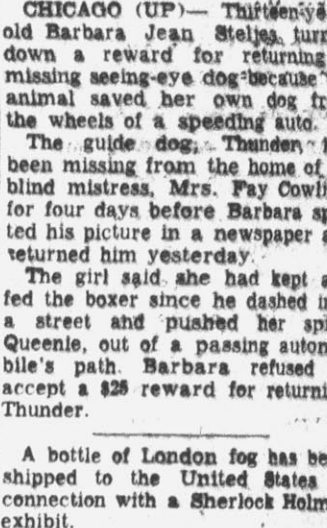

The guide dog, Thunders, had been missing from the home of his blind mistress, Mrs. Fay Cowling, for four days before Barbara spotted his picture in a newspaper and returned him yesterday.

The girl said she had kept and fed the boxer since he dashed into a street and pushed her spitz, Queenie, out of a passing automobile's path. Barbara refused to accept a $25 reward for returning Thunders.

A bottle of London fog has been shipped to the United States in connection with a Sherlock Holmes exhibit.

Saad's Shoe Shop
Prompt Expert Service
Work Guaranteed
112 Grande Ave.
DIAL 2666

Know how to locate him?

He might be a Furniture Dealer, a Locksmith, a Jeweler, an Optometrist, a Real Estate Man. Whatever his trade... whatever product or service he offers... you can locate it quickly and easily in the

'YELLOW PAGES' of your Telephone Directory

Find whatever you want where ever you want it! Turn first to the 'YELLOW PAGES' to find out

WHO BUYS—SELLS RENTS—REPAIRS

Carolina Telephone And Telegraph Company

FOUR WAY
VENTILATED ALUMINUM AWNINGS

Beautifully
Your Home

Scientifically BUILT TO GIVE YOU COMPLETE PROTECTION

Style
And COLOR TO SUIT
YOUR HOME

FOUR WAY AWNINGS are durable—offer year round protection—no seasonal maintenance. Exclusive design—harmonizes with all types of buildings.

Carolina Awning And Tent Mfg. Co.
804 N. Church St.
Phone 8307
Rocky Mount, N. C.

Reform School Allows Smoking

FRANKFORT, Ky.—(UP)—The Kentucky general assembly has voted to permit youthful inmates at state house of reform to smoke, regardless of age.

The legislature repealed an old law which outlawed all smoking at the state institution at the request of welfare officials. The officials explained that the inmates have been "slipping around" and smoking in hide-outs throughout the reformatory, creating fire hazards.

They said they preferred to let the boys smoke in supervised recreation rooms rather than run the risk of fire.

Italy has about 800,000 licensed motorcycles.

SIMMONS Outside WHITE

$5.95 Per Gal.

BEAUTY, ECONOMY, PROTECTION
Uniform From the bottom of the Can to the Top.
Does Not Settle, it Forms a Skin in Top.
Flows Smoothly and Easily from the Brush Without Leaving "rush" marks.
Covers More Surface than Other Standard Paints.
Ives Better Service

BLACKWOOD'S
A. J. GARRIS, Owner — Tel. 4307

So Easy With Athey's

KRYST-LAC QUICK DRYING ENAMEL

One coat covers and goes farther!
No brush marks—smooths itself out!
Dries to mirror finish in four hours!
Fourteen modern, cheerful colors!
Stays washable always!

Insist on ATHEY'S

Manufactured by
THE C. M. ATHEY PAINT CO.
BALTIMORE 30, MD.

Athey's
KRYST LAC ENAMEL
DUNN BUILDING SUPPLY CO.
Skinner Street Extension — Tel. 4964

IT'S NEW! IT'S CLEVER! IT'S A VALUE!
IT'S OUR VERSATILE

Quick Change FLATS

$3.99

Yellow • Lilac • Pink

All-soft leather, and cute as a kitten with its removable Scotch plaid tie! For yummy effects, replace the plaid with stripes or polka dots to match your favorite Gibson Girl blouses!

Paris Fashion Shoes
as soon as SEVENTEEN

Glamor Shop
404 Evans St.
GO GLAMOR • DRESS WELL • SAVE MONEY

Farmville Opens Bright Belt Schedule With Victories

Greenies Drop Two To Farmville Team

Stantonsburg and Ormondsville Both Win Opening Games To Throw Loop Lead In 3-Way Tie; Greenies At Stantonsburg Wed.

STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
Ormondsville	2	0	1.000
Stantonsburg	2	0	1.000
Farmville	2	0	1.000
Greenies	0	2	.000
Fremont	0	2	.000
Pinetops	0	2	.000

WEDNESDAY'S GAMES

Greenies at Stantonsburg
Pinetops at Fremont
Ormondsville at Farmville

Farmville's top-ranked Bright Belt League club came through as expected this weekend as the fast semi-pro team defeated Greenville in two games. Farmville took the Saturday night opener in Farmville by a 16-6 score and followed up with a 14-5 win yesterday.

Both contests were loosely played affairs. Sunday's game, played in Guy Smith Stadium, saw the two clubs make a total of 17 errors.

Saturday Game
In the Farmville opener Saturday night, ex-Coastal Plain League ace Red Benton had the Greenies eating out of his hand for the first seven innings. When Manager Bill Sweet's club finally caught onto the big curves of the right-hander, it was too late.

Pete Peterson's Farmville team wasted very little time in building a lead which carried them through the ball game. They pounced on Greenville's Staniel Hardison for two runs in the first inning and the race was on. They added a single run in the third inning and spurred for four runs in the fourth and again in the fifth.

Greenville 000 000 033 - 6 10 7
Farmville 201 440 233 - 16 15 4
Hardison, McAden (5), Sweet (8) and McSwain; Benton and Britt.

Sunday Game
Centerfielder Streeter Tugwell was the big noise in the second win the Farmville club posted. His big bat accounted for five of the 15 Farmville hits gathered in the 14-5 victory.

Greenville's bats kept silent for much of the Saturday game, finally were used to an advantage by the Greenville batsmen. Dallas Jackson led the 10-hit attack with three hits in four trips while Simon Hardison also came through with three hits. Jackson had the big hit of the afternoon, a two-run homer in the fourth.

The Greenies will continue their schedule Wednesday night when they travel to Stantonsburg.

In other Bright Belt action over the weekend, Stantonsburg and Ormondsville put themselves in the ring as contenders for the league title by taking two victories apiece. Stantonsburg knocked off Fremont in two games while Ormondsville stopped Pinetops in two games.

Score by innings:
Farmville 04 203 001 - 14 15 7
Greenville 010 200 011 - 6 10 7
Hines and Butt; Ricks and McSwain.

YOU'LL GET BACK THAT NEW CAR

WITH THIS FORD ENGINE TUNE-UP

Special INCLUDES

- Clean and adjust carburetor
- Clean and adjust spark plugs
- Check battery cables and wiring
- Clean air filter
- Check generator and fan belt
- Adjust points, check distributor timing
- Inspect, drain and refill cooling system

special low prices
PARTS EXTRA IF NEEDED!
FLANAGAN Buggy Co.
85 Years Service

Buc Netters Get Fourth Straight

A four match win streak of the Guilford College tennis team was brought to an abrupt halt yesterday by the East Carolina College netters who racked up their fourth win in a row with a 7-2 decision over the Quakers. The Pirates now have a season's mark of six wins and only one defeat.

Except for the number two singles and the number one doubles, the Pirates had an easy time in winning. In the singles match, Sonny Dillon was the only member of the visiting Quaker squad who could come close to taking a match and he had difficulty in beating Joe Hallow in three sets. Dillon took Hallow 6-2 in the first set but dropped the second set 6-4. Dillon came back in the third and final set to take a 6-3 decision for the match.

In the doubles match taken by the Quakers, Hallow and Larry Kincaid dropped a 6-1, 6-1 decision to Dillon and Laughlin.

The summary:
Singles:
Cameron (EC) defeated Laughlin, 6-4, 6-3.
Dillon (G) defeated Hallow, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3.

Doubling:
Richardson (EC) defeated S. Jones, 6-1, 6-3.
D. Jones (EC) defeated Troxler, 7-5, 6-7, 6-0.

Stroud (EC) defeated Fine, 6-1, 6-2.
Bruton (EC) defeated Trivette, 6-4, 6-0.

Doubles:
Laughlin and Dillon (G) defeated Hallow and Kincaid, 6-1, 6-1.
Richardson and Cameron (EC) defeated S. Jones and Fine, 6-4, 6-2.
D. Jones and Stroud (EC) defeated Clodfelter and Troxler, 6-2, 6-1.

Coastal Loop

COASTAL CONFERENCE

	W	L	Pct.
Ayden	4	0	1.000
Robersonville	3	1	.750
South Edgecombe	2	2	.500
Farmville	1	3	.250
Vanceboro	0	4	.000

Ayden is continuing to make a successful bid in its attempt to retain the Coastal Conference championship which it won last year. After three weeks of play, the Tornadoes have not tasted defeat in winning four games.

Their latest conference victory came at the expense of Farmville last Tuesday afternoon at mound star Willis Manning hurled his third consecutive one-hitters to win 9-3. Robersonville's Rams dropped South Edgecombe Friday afternoon 2-0, to take over undisputed possession of second place with a 3-1 mark.

South Edgecombe, who beat hapless Vanceboro Tuesday, is in third place with a 2-2 record. Farmville dropped Vanceboro Friday to win its first league game of the year and now has a 1-3 mark, good for fourth place. Vanceboro is still in last spot with a 0-4 standing.

In games this week, Robersonville and Vanceboro play in Vanceboro Tuesday while Ayden goes to South Edgecombe. Robersonville will continue its traveling Friday for a game at Farmville, while Vanceboro comes to Ayden.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press
BATTING: Ted Kluszewski, Reds, drove in nine runs as Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 8-6, and 12-2. The Reds' first baseman smashed a grand slam second game. He also homered in the opener.

PITCHING: Sal Maglie, Giants, snapped Brooklyn's five-game winning streak with a two-hit 6-0 shut-out, fanning eight batters to hand the Dodgers their first home shut-out in 176 games.

The first tobacco is believed to have been taken to Europe in 1558.

Bouncing Back by Pap

East Carolina Could Be Shoo-In For Division Title

SC Baseball Race Lead By Duke & Richmond Teams

By The Associated Press
Fourteen games are slated to be played in the North State Baseball Conference this week and they should do quite a bit about clarifying the preseason dope concerning the Eastern and Western Division power-houses.

Lenoir Rhyne's Bears ran true to predicted form last week by breezing home to victory in their first two starts. If they can hold to their early pace, the Bears may very well make a clean sweep of North State Conference championships for the current school year. They now hold the football and basketball crowns.

One of Lenoir Rhyne's wins was over loop-leading Catawba, which is now in second place in the western division. Appalachian and West Carolina hold down the third and fourth slots.

East Carolina, if it can live up to its early season form, looks like a shoo-in for Eastern Division honors. The Pirates now have a seven won, one lost record, after winning their last outing against Guilford. Their closest competition is Elon, which boasts a five and one mark. The Christians were nearly unseated in a 12-inning squeaker against Atlantic Christian, which Elon won, 6-5.

A total of 14 games are scheduled for this week, seven in each division.

Interest centers on Saturday's tilts, when the No. 1 and No. 2 clubs in each division square off against each other. East Carolina is at Elon and Catawba battles Lenoir Rhyne in a return engagement.

Clemson overpowered The Citadel, 14-4, in North Carolina State defeated Davidson, 9-3, and Wake Forest blanked Furman, 6-0. In the northern division, William and Mary squeezed past Virginia Military, 3-1.

West Virginia's Mountaineers stepped outside the league to drop both ends of a doubleheader to Penn State, 4-2 and 6-2. George Washington fared better, routing Virginia, 14-7.

Track teams were busy Saturday with Davidson beating South Carolina, 76-55; Virginia Tech whipping Virginia, 74-56; and Richmond bowing to the Quantico Marines, 82-13, to 48-23. The Citadel walloped Clemson in a golf match, 26-1.

On the lacrosse front, Washington and Lee was routed by Virginia, 16-4. Maryland dropped an overtime struggle to Navy, 10-9, for the Terps' first licking; and Duke beat Washington College, 6-3. Maryland's tennis team edged Washington and Lee, 5-4; Duke's outmen squeezed past North Carolina, also by a 5-4 score; and the Citadel nosed out North Carolina State, again by 5-4.

Today's minor sports schedule has Virginia Tech at Virginia Military for a golf match and Virginia Military at William and Mary in a track meet. Tennis matches find South Carolina at Clemson and Richmond at Virginia.

Tobacco is cultivated as far north as Quebec and Stockholm.

Four Killed As Racing Car Goes Out Of Control

DAYTON, O. (UP)—Witnesses said today that a race car driver apparently misjudged a speed on a turn before he hurtled into a crowded grandstand, killing four persons and injuring 50.

Charles T. Sarver, one of the injured spectators in the accident at Dayton Speedway yesterday, said the red and white racer driven by Gordon Reid, 29, of Burbank, Calif., zoomed over his head like "an artillery shell."

Reid, a father of four, and Mrs. Ruby Ellen Shaffer, 43, a spectator from Springfield, O., were decapitated. Police said the other dead were Gene Lawson, 19, and Robert Thatcher, 22, both of Dayton.

Thatcher, a special policeman at the track, desperately tried to push away a woman spectator from a guard rail when he was killed, other policemen said.

Reid, favored to win yesterday's race, was in second place when he "engle-stant" Special rounded a turn and went into a spin. Some 10,000 spectators jumped to their feet as the racer struck a drum of gray paint and crashed into the grandstand.

The racer came to rest on the leg of Herman Cottrell of Dayton, who said "it was a miracle" that he was not killed.

"God must have been sitting right there with me," Cottrell said. Of the estimated 50 injured, all but nine were released from a hospital last night.

Sheriff's Sgt. Ray Escudero said "people were lying everywhere." "It was like a bomb had hit."

Reid, scheduled to drive the Dayton, in the Indianapolis Memorial Day 500-mile race, was preparing for his first try at the classic.

It was the first time that Reid had raced without his "lucky charm," his wife, among the spectators. She was unable to accompany him to Dayton because of the birth of their youngest daughter two weeks ago.

Mrs. Reid, 26, said at Burbank that "racing was his greatest love and although I've seen other drivers killed, I would never have asked him to quit."

She said she was "nervous all day, and just before they called me about his death, I had been looking at the clock and wondering just where he would be in the race."

HE'S AGIN 'EM
NEW BRITAIN, Conn. —(UP)—Wallace Bacon, 78, asked that his name be stricken from the balloting list because "women and foreigners vote and run the country."

Indians Riding Four-Way Plan To First Place In American Standings

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UP)—A four-way pennant formula which could be mightily devastating as time goes on was sweeping the Cleveland Indians along today as the only undefeated team in the major leagues.

The Indians have won seven in a row and a quick check after less than a week of play revealed that they have hit more homers (9), gotten more hits (65), turned in more complete games (15), and allowed fewer runs (14) in seven games or 2 per game) than any other team in the league.

That means trouble ahead for the rest of the contenders unless they can do something to stop the hot Indians pretty shortly.

Yesterday, the Indians kayoed the Detroit Tigers, who have yet to win a game, 3 to 2, and 7 to 2. The surprising Reds moved into second place behind the Dodgers with their two victories in Pittsburgh in which Ted Kluszewski drove in nine runs with two homers and two triples. Kluszewski hit a grand slam homer in the nightcap.

The Phillies put over two runs in the ninth on a homer by Smokey Burgess, then won the opener for Robin Roberts in the 10th on a single by Willie Jones and a triple by Del Ennis.

But Enns was the goat in the second game when the Phillies led 1 to 0, in the eighth behind the tight pitching of Karl Drews, and Sam Jethroe singled home one run, the other scoring on a wild throw by the Philly left fielder.

Steve Biko, the big rookie first baseman for St. Louis, hit a two run fifth inning homer to give pitcher Gerry Staley all the margin he needed for his second victory, a tight six-hitter.

In other American League games, the New York Yankees topped the Philadelphia Athletics, 9 to 6 in a bat battle, while the St. Louis Browns blanked the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 0, on the second straight shut-out by Ned Garver, then lost, 10 to 2.

In National League games, the New York Giants finally stopped the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6 to 0, on Sal Maglie's two-hitter, while the St. Louis Cards edged the Chicago Cubs, 2 to 1, on a six-hitter by Gerry Staley.

The Cincinnati Reds took the Pittsburgh Pirates over the bumps twice, 8 to 6 and 12 to 2, while the Philadelphia Phillies rallied late to win from the Boston Braves, 4 to 3, in 10 innings, then lost the second game, 2 to 1.

Goodman's big blast, coming directly after the injured Ted Williams had delivered a pinch swing, enabled Mel Parnell to score his 16th straight victory over Washington which has not beaten him since May 28, 1948.

The Yankees rared up out of a hitting slump and made 14 hits, including six doubles and a triple as old man John Mize led the way by batting in four runs with a double, two singles and a long fly. Dave Philley hit a homer for the

Robersonville Defeats SE, 2-0

ROBERSONVILLE—Coach Bob Lee's Robersonville Rams won their third game of the Coastal Conference season here Friday afternoon by dropping South Edgecombe in a mound duel, 2-0.

Ram hurler Mac Cherry allowed but three South Edgecombe batters to reach base as the hit route. South Edgecombe's pitcher, Allen Felton, was almost equally effective as he was reached for but six safeties.

George James drove in the winning run in the sixth inning. James then stole home for the second. Robersonville run of the afternoon. Robersonville was led at the plate by Cherry, with three hits. Maurice Everett connected for one hit in two attempts.

Robersonville will travel to Vanceboro Tuesday afternoon for another Coastal game.

Score by innings:
r b e
South Edgecombe 000 000 0-0 2 1
Robersonville 000 002 x-2 6 1
Felton and Lewis; Cherry and S. James.

Second Team Loses McConnell Resigns

Second-stringers were unable to cope with a powerful Jacksonville club yesterday as the Greenville Giants dropped a 20-2 decision to the Onslow club.

Manager Dennis Norris used a complete second team line-up throughout the entire game in an effort to give all the prospective players a chance to prove themselves before he cuts the club to the 15 men he is allowed to carry through the season.

McConnell resigned.

McConnell resigned.

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

OLD STAGG

Appliance Sales & Service Corp.

Balanced Beam 20-inch Picture

Lowest price ever for a 20-inch Philco with super-sensitive "Colorado" Tuner and Built-In Aerial that outperforms all others. Yours in richly-finished wood cabinet—the Philco 2106.

Come In. See It Today

Appliance Sales & Service Corporation

509 Evans Street — Phone 4260

THIS SPACE FOR FREE TRIAL or Trade-In Offer

New for 1952! 20 in. PHILCO with the Greatest "Power Plant" in TV!

Balanced Beam 20-inch Picture

Lowest price ever for a 20-inch Philco with super-sensitive "Colorado" Tuner and Built-In Aerial that outperforms all others. Yours in richly-finished wood cabinet—the Philco 2106.

Come In. See It Today

Appliance Sales & Service Corporation

509 Evans Street — Phone 4260

Appliance Sales & Service Corporation

509 Evans Street — Phone 4260

4-Engine Service! NEW YORK WASHINGTON PHILADELPHIA

NATIONAL Airlines

CALL: New Bern 5060

WHEN YOU PAY BILLS BY CHECK

Checks fly through the air with the greatest of ease... by mail. Save time and shoe leather.

Guaranty Bank and Trust Company

Member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

START YOUR CHECKS ACCOUNT HERE TODAY

Growth Of Communism In India Posing Threat

By PHIL NEWSON
United Press Foreign News Editor

In the Andhra district of Southern India there are in hundreds of villages today children named "Stalin" or "Lenin."

It is a measure of the inroads communism already has made in the vast sub-continent of nearly 862,000,000, and the Andhra district (Madras) could be the signpost along the route the whole of India eventually might follow.

One of the greatest prizes left in the hot and cold war might be among the first to fall to communism.

The Congress Party of Jawaharlal Nehru emerged from the recent general elections with clear majorities in Parliament and in most of the state legislatures. But communism emerged a strong second and in the tiny state of Tripura, at the eastern edge of the country, won an absolute majority.

The illiterate, ill-fed, ill-housed and ill-clothed millions of India provide a made-to-order target for the Communists, and in the recent elections they made the most of it.

In the southern state of Travancore-Cochin, for example, the Reds won 32 seats in the state legislature, only 12 fewer than the Congress Party. Landless peasants were promised land for free.

In some areas, Communist election workers handed out bogus legal deeds executed in favor of persons ready to vote for Leftist candidates. The deeds entitled the voters to parcels of land.

In the northern part of the state, voters were told that a Russian freighter loaded with food grains could not unload its "mercy" cargo because of the Indian government's unwillingness to accept such supplies from the Soviets.

The poorly-fed masses were told that if the Communists were put in power, the food ration of six ounces of rice per adult per week would be raised to 16 ounces.

"It was," reported United Press Correspondent S. M. Das from Bombay, "meaty food for empty stomachs."

In all, the Communists won 181 of the 587 seats they contested in the state assemblies.

A Communist candidate in Hyderabad won the highest total of all in the parliamentary elections, with 309,162 votes of 77 per cent of the total cast.

Meanwhile, both Russia and Red China have launched strong propaganda offensives in the cultural, scientific and film fields.

The Soviet and Chinese efforts were by far the most impressive and lavish at the recent international industries fair at Bombay. The Reds distributed thousands of leaflets and displayed heavy industrial equipment, automobiles, textiles, leather goods and even food grains.

A hopeful sign for the West is the fact that the Congress Party has taken to heart the warning as seen in the outcome of the elections and now figures it has five years in which to prove itself and recover its losses.

Grifton News

W. S. C. S. Meets
The W.S.C.S. met in regular session on Monday night following a family night picnic on the church lawn at which time ladies of the church served the supper to all members of the Sunday school and church.

Mrs. John Oglesby presided at the business hour and heard reports from the nominating committee who named for the coming term of office Mrs. Oglesby president, vice, Mrs. Cecil Cobb, Secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Jack Worthington, all other officers will remain as of the present time.

The devotionals was conducted by Mrs. Sam McLawhorn Sr. and the program of the evening was presented by Mrs. H. L. Wethington, Mrs. Courtney Patrick and Mrs. F. L. Cox.

Club Hostess
Mrs. W. I. Bissette entertained members of her bridge club and invited players on Thursday night at her home here, lovely bouquets of spring flowers enhanced the beauty of the rooms, on arrival guests were invited into the dining room where a delectable two course supper was served buffet style, the table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of pink tulips, snapdragons combined with blue Dutch iris and tall lighted candles.

During the spirited games Miss Mari Chapman scored high and Miss Hazel Patrick second high for club members, Mrs. M. B. Hodges was given the visitors high score prize and Mrs. Bissette remembered Miss Isabel Dawson of Baltimore, her house guest with a box of note paper. Other players for the evening were Miss Louise Mewborn, Mrs. Eleanor Gower, Mrs. Robert Mewborn, Mrs. J. J. W. Short, Mrs. L. L. Mewborn, Mrs. Richard Nelson, Mrs. A. D. Wall, Mrs. Alton Chapman, Mrs. J. L. Quinley, Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. J. L. Tucker, Mrs. H. C. Oglesby.

Entertains At Bridge
Mrs. M. B. McWilliams entertained at two tables of bridge on Thursday night at her home in the Grifton Heights, the living room was decorated with artistic arrangements of spirea and dogwood. During the progressions nuts, candy and iced drinks were passed and at the conclusion of the games a dessert with coffee was enjoyed. High scorers for the evening were Mrs. Ernie Howell, Mrs. Jim Bush and Mrs. Roy Oakley, other guests were Mrs. Jake Worthington, Mrs. R. C. Laliberte, Mrs. H. P. Goodson, Mrs. R. P. Morris.

Hostesses At Supper Party
Mrs. Roy Jackson served her guests a delectable barbeque supper on Thursday night when her contract club was in session at her home on Church Street. Guests were received in rooms pleasantly decorated with a variety of spring flowers, after the supper bridge was played at four tables with Mrs. Josh Worthington high scorer, Mrs. Mark Phillips second high and Mrs. Bryan Davis visitors high, other players were Mrs. Sam Nelson, Mrs. Walter Patrick, Mrs. Elmo Smith, Mrs. Carey Garrison, Mrs. Glendel Tucker, Mrs. Roger Johnson, Mrs. Ben G. Tucker, Mrs. W. E. Rasberry, Mrs. Joe House, Mrs. David Parker, Mrs. Claude Hart, Mrs. Edward Hart, Mrs. Julius Chauncey.

Mrs. Mary Jackson of Colerain is a guest of her sister, Mrs. G. Tucker at her home here.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Bissette are Miss Isabel Dawson of Baltimore, Miss Mildred Joyner of Norfolk, and Miss Lena Dawson of Ayden.

Among those from Grifton who attended the Central Zone meeting of the W. S. C. S. held at the Woodland Church in Duplin County on Tuesday were Mrs. J. H. Barwick, Mrs. L. O. Cox, Mrs. H. L. Wethington, Mrs. J. C. Hooten, Mrs. John Oglesby, Mrs. Cecil Cobb, Mrs. Owen Stokes, Mrs. Eugene Jackson, Mrs. Cameron Langston, Mrs. Sherman Odham, Mrs. Ormond Brooks, Mrs. Leslie Rouse, Mrs. Sallie Fields.

Mrs. Robert Mewborn is spending this weekend in Seaburg at the home of Mrs. Addison Butler. Mayor and Mrs. Roger Johnson and family have moved to their newly completed home on Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McAfee with their daughters Sallie and Mary, Jimmie and Rudy McAfee have moved from Monroe and are making their home on Church Street. Lt. and Mrs. A. C. McElfish and children are leaving today for Rio, Texas where Lt. McElfish has been transferred, he has been attached to the Stallings Base Air Field.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Tucker, and daughter Verna K. who have been residing on Dawson Road in the Grifton Heights have moved to their new home on the Gum Swamp Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Zapp are new comers to Grifton, they are residing on Dawson Road, Mr. Zapp is with the DuPont OOM FANY.

Lt. and Mrs. Jerry Moher have moved their residence from Westwood Circle here and are now residing in Kingston on the Greenville highway.

Cemetery Is Too Near Hospital

MELBOURNE, Australia. (UP)—Someone slipped in picking the site for a new 2,000,000 sterling ($4,500,000) hospital at Shepparton, 110 miles north of Melbourne. The proposed site would overlook the cemetery, which "might not be conducive to the patients' recovery," the city's health committee decided. Now they're looking for something on the other side of Shepparton.

Mother Rabbit Finds An Answer

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (UP)—Joseph C. Gregory's New Zealand white rabbit had a feeding problem on her hands when she gave birth to a litter of 15, close to a record. However, the rabbit solved the problem as any good mother would. She divided the litter into three groups of five and put her young on a three-hour schedule. Luncheon is served every hour in rotation.

BOUND FOR CANADA — Mr. and Mrs. Theodorus van Erp and their twelve children arrive in Hoboken, N. J., from their native Holland enroute to a new home near Windsor, Canada.

Believes Felines Have Taste For Sweet Stuffs

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (UP)—A Pennsylvania State College professor investigating feline taste buds says that Tabby may not be such a sour puss after all.

Dr. Hubert W. Frings, an associate professor of entomology, said it's a mistake to think that the family cat has no use for sweets. Dr. Frings, who has devoted research to the tastes of many animals, takes issue with a European scientist who reported that the cat has no liking for sugar or sweet tasting food.

Beverly Cox, a graduate student, helped the professor corral 20 cats at the farm of her parents near Tyrone, Pa. They were plied with diluted milk, both with and without sugar. The kitties drank the sweetened milk and snubbed the other kind every time.

Dr. Frings said he didn't use whole milk because the cats would lap it up too eagerly to tell whether the sugar made any difference.

WATERED-DOWN FEROCITY — Janet Leigh is evidently on good terms with Fearless Fagan, 410-pound movie lion, as she gives him a drink between takes of film in Hollywood.

Brazilian Reds Take Tito Line Against Kremlin

RIO DE JANEIRO (UP)—Dissident Brazilian Communists, rebellious toward constant servility to Russia, have started a national Communist movement similar to the Titoist attitude in Yugoslavia. The new movement was launched on the 30th anniversary of the regular Brazilian Communist Party by the rebel Jose Maria Crispim, who denounced the formation of a national Communist party to be called the Brazilian Revolutionary Party.

What success the movement will have is a matter of conjecture but it has been apparent for the last year there was a rift in the old line Communist Party which was outlawed in 1947.

There have been several purges, in one of which Crispim was expelled from the party. Crispim, about 40 years old, was a militant leader of the regular Communist Party and one of its top men for many years.

He was an army sergeant and took part in the Communist uprising in 1935, after which he went into hiding. He did not show up again until in the 1945 elections, when the Brazilian Communist Party elected him to the federal legislature from Sao Paulo.

In the same election, his then leader, Luis Carlos Prestes, head of the Communist Party in Brazil and against whom Crispim now has declared war, won a seat in the national senate.

Both lost their seats when the party was outlawed and both went into hiding when their arrests were ordered to answer to charges of subversive activities.

Between Two Fires
Secret service men believe that Crispim is in a tight spot, caught between two fires, after launching his proclamation of a new party and open denunciation of the Communist group.

They have no doubt that he has been, or will be, ordered liquidated by his former Communist associates. He cannot seek police refuge because there are two orders for his preventive arrest, one in Rio de Janeiro and one in Sao Paulo.

A few days after Crispim announced his new party, an announcement made from hiding, Sao Paulo police claimed to have found evidence of its activity.

In a routine raid they said they discovered a group of Crispim followers already at work for the new party. No names were revealed but police said all of them were formerly militant members of the regular Communist Party.

Ignition Key Is Sometimes Handy

OMAHA — (UP)—The young man helped his girl into the car and stepped on the starter. When nothing happened, he rolled it down a hill. A passing car gave him a push. Still no luck. A passing taxi stopped to help out, to no avail.

Then the young man rechecked, grinned shamefacedly as he turned the ignition key and drove off.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT BEFORE THE CLERK NORTH CAROLINA

NOTICE OF SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION
Jesse D. Atkinson, administratrix of the estate of Payton Atkinson and Jesse D. Atkinson, individually vs.

Jesse Lee Grimes and wife, Mary Grimes; Hannah Black and husband, Daniel Black; Christine Highsmith (single); and Pleasant Harrell and husband, Wesley Harrell

The defendants Christine Highsmith, Pleasant Harrell and Wesley Harrell will each take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced by the above named plaintiff in the Superior Court of Pitt County, North Carolina, for the purpose of settling the lands described in the petition filed in this cause, to-wit:

Being the Payton Atkinson Homestead, lying between Nash Street and Stutz Street and on the North side of West Third Street, and being known as Lot No. 3 in Block X of the Riverdale Subdivision as shown by map recorded in Map Book 3 at page 188 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County.

Said action is for the purpose of selling the lands above described to make assets to pay the indebtedness of the estate of Payton Atkinson; and said defendants will further take notice that they are required to appear at the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of Pitt County at the courthouse, on or before May 1, 1952, or within twenty (20) days thereafter, and answer or demur to the complaint and petition filed in said action, or the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

This the 20th day of March, 1952.
D. T. HOUSE JR., Clerk
Superior Court Pitt County
J. H. Harrell, Atty.
Mar. 31 Apr. 7-14-21

"COUNTRY HAM"
is being served every day at every meal at . . .
THE PROCTOR HOTEL
COFFEE SHOP

DR. S. T. WHITE II

Ophthalmologist
Eyes Examined
106 E. 5th St. Phone 4442

TOPS

in ROOFING
AND SIDING

FOR FARM AND HOME

Spruce up the outside of your home and farm buildings to keep up good looks and market value. Re-side and re-roof with all-weather materials from NORTHSIDE LUMBER COMPANY. We'll be glad to give you an accurate cost estimate. Stop in today.

We Recommend:

Keasby-Mattison Asbestos Siding and Roofing
Logan-Long
Asphalt Composition Shingles and Roll Roofing

The NORTHSIDE LUMBER CO., INC.
GREENVILLE, N.C. Phone GREENVILLE 3743

MUSICAL MINIATURES — A banjo, guitar and violin with bow made by Otomi Indians of Mexico, are part of tiny instrument collection of Arthur L. Reimer, of Inglewood, Cal.

Announcement

I hereby announce my candidacy for County Commissioner from the 5th District (consisting of Ayden and Swift Creek Townships), subject to the voters in the Democratic Primary to be held on Saturday, May 31, 1952.

Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated.

R. GUY JACKSON

The only question is "when?"

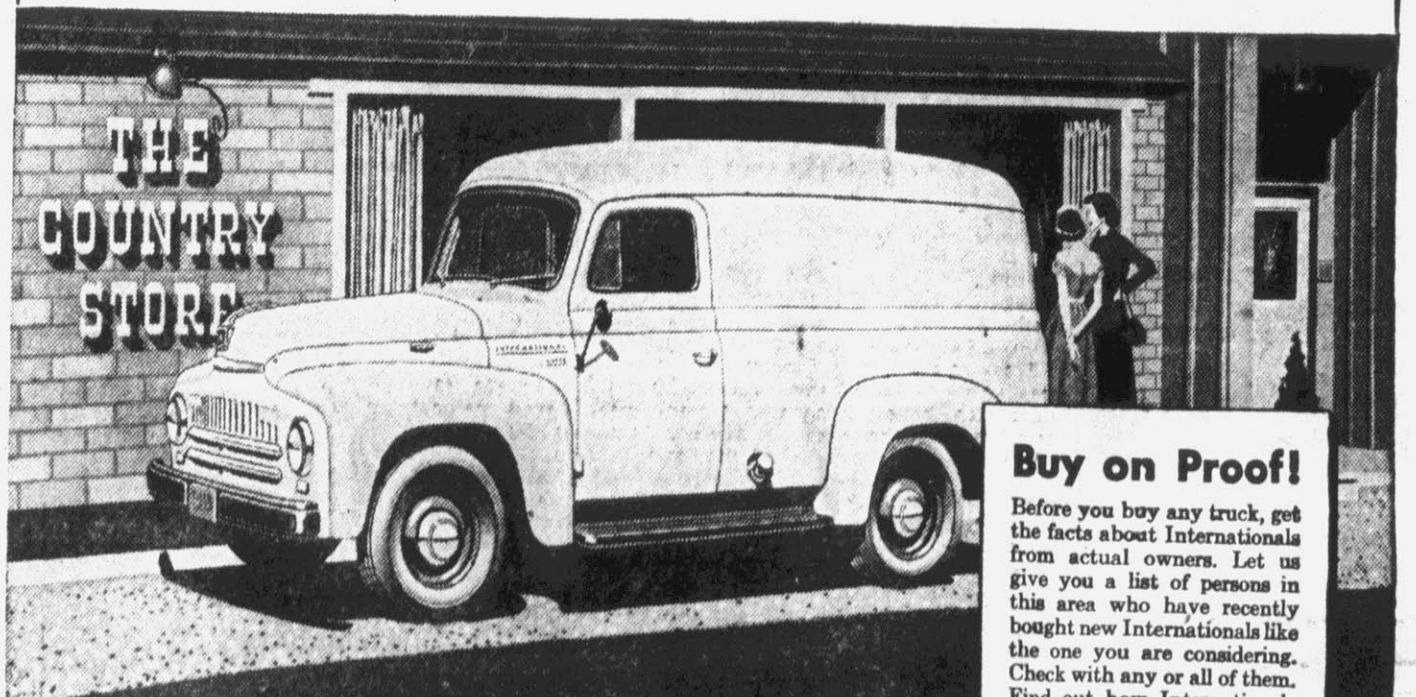

Visit our showroom. See for yourself why sooner or later the man looking for a better truck buys an International.

When you get all the facts you'll wonder why you haven't bought an International Truck sooner . . . because you'll know why Internationals give better performance, cut costs, help you make more money.

If that's what you want, the only question is "when?"—when will you be in to see us?

Only Internationals give you—

- All-truck engines—exclusively for truck work—built in the world's largest truck engine plant.
- The "roomiest, most comfortable cab on the road"—the Comfo-Vision Cab designed by drivers for drivers.
- Super-steering system—more positive control, easier handling and 37° turning angle.
- The traditional truck toughness that has kept International first in heavy-duty truck sales for 20 straight years.
- The truck engineered for your job, selected from the world's most complete line . . . 115 basic models, from ½-ton pickups to 90,000 pounds GVW ratings.
- America's largest exclusive truck service organization.

Model L-110, 115-in. wheelbase, 7½-ft. panel body, 4,200 lbs. GVW.

For complete information about any International Truck, see—Greenville Equipment Co., Inc.

2002 Dickinson Ave.

Dial 3715

INTERNATIONAL TRUCKS

"Standard of the Highway"

Stocks And Market Reports

NEW YORK (UP)—Railroad and oil issues led the stock market higher early today in moderately active dealings.

Gains in the oil and rail groups ranged to more than a point just before the noon hour. Elsewhere, improvements were mostly in the fractional zone with a large number of pivots holding at their previous close.

Despite the improved tone, dealings in the first hour were restricted and sales in that period totaled only 230,000 shares, compared with 270,000 in the same hour last Friday.

Texas Pacific Land Trust was the bellwether in the petroleum group. The stock jumped 4 points to 190. Amerasia Petroleum at 227 was up 3 points and Cities Service rose 2 points to 104. Other pivots in this section rose major fractions.

Texas & Pacific Railway rose 2 3/4 points to 91 3/4 in its section. Santa Fe at 80 1/2 was up 1 1/4 points and Southern Pacific ran up 1 3/8 points to 72 3/4. Union Pacific at 113 was up a point.

Steel shares moved higher, but gains in this group were held to small fractions. Automotives were the same. Television shares were improved higher by Zenith which improved 1 1/4 points to 78 1/2. Utilities were virtually unchanged.

NEW YORK (UP)—2 p.m. Stocks:

American Can	127 1/2
American C & F	34 1/2
American T & T	154 1/2
American Tobacco	65 1/2
Atlantic Coast Line	92 1/2
Baltimore & Ohio	20 1/2
Bendix Aviation	49 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	49 1/2
Boeing Aircraft	47 1/2
Borden	51 1/2
Briggs Mfg	24 1/2
Chesapeake & Ohio	24 1/2
Chrysler	73 1/2
Coca Cola	106 3/4
Colgate P P	42 1/2
Continental Can	45 1/2
Corn Products	69
Curtis Wright	81 1/2
DuPont	82 1/2
Eastern Air	23 1/2
Eastman Kodak	49
General Electric	56 1/2
General Motors	54
Goodrich	61 1/2
Goodyear	42 1/2
Gulf Oil	53
International Chem	20 1/2
International Harvester	33 1/2
International Nickel	42 1/2
International T & T	17 1/2
Johns Manville	68 1/2
Kennecott	74 1/2
Kroger Co	32 1/2
Liggett & Myers	66 1/2
Lorillard	21 1/2
Monsanto	92 1/2
Packard	4 1/2
Paramount Pictures	27 1/2
Pennay	68 1/2
Pennsylvania RR	18 1/2
Pepsi Cola	10 1/2
Philips Morris	46 1/2
Reynolds Tobacco	33 1/2
Seaboard Airline	58
Sears Roebuck	88
Southern Railway	54
Standard Oil (NJ)	75 1/2
Studebaker	37 1/2
U S Pipe & F	36 1/2
U S Rubber	40
U S Steel	38 1/2
Warner Bros	14
Western Union	38 1/2
Westinghouse Air Bke	25 1/2
Westinghouse Electric	35 1/2
Woolworth	43 1/2

RALEIGH (UP)—Hog markets: Fayetteville, Florence, Clinton: Slightly stronger at 16.50 for good and choice 180-240 lb. barrows and gilts.

Mount Olive, Tarboro, Rocky Mount: Steady at 16.50.

Whiteville, Pembroke, Dunn, Wilson, Burgaw, Goldsboro, Wilmington, Jacksonville, Washington, Kingston, Smithfield, Lumberton, Marion: Steady at 16.25.

ORIGIN

Don't Wait!

Protect Your Carpets, Drapes and Furnishings with

CANVAS AWNINGS

SMITH Electric Co.

Phone 2273 Since 1918

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

1804 Dickinson Ave. — Phone 5666 Greenville, N. C.

Judge Gwynn Talks To Local Kiwanians Friday

By CHESTER WALSH

"We should give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life," Superior Court Judge Allen H. Gwynn of Reidsville, declared Friday night at the Kiwanis Club.

The Rockingham jurist said he believes in the spirit of free enterprise in the American way and does not approve too much centralization of government. The Kiwanians gave him a rising vote of welcome when Judge Dink James of Greenville introduced him.

Judge Gwynn served five years as solicitor of the 21st judicial district. He has been on the Superior Court bench 14 years. He served two terms in the North Carolina State Senate. He entered World War I as a private and left the service as a lieutenant.

Judge Gwynn was for 10 years commander of the 120th Division Headquarters Company, North Carolina National Guard. He is a charter member and a past commander of Coleman - Southard - Grogan Post No. 79, American Legion, of Reidsville.

The speaker cautioned against the present tendency of veering toward a socialized state. He reviewed the freedoms of America and warned against a feeling of over-security. Judge Gwynn expressed the hope that the American people never will have the fear of freedom and want. He said our people prefer to work out their own destiny rather than to be regimented.

"The people must own the fields," he said. "If they would move in the direction of national security," he said. "There are too many of our people who are resting their burdens on the government. In the false idea that they are seeking collective security and we should get away from this," he said in conclusion.

Judge Gwynn is a candidate for the office of associate justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court. Past Lt. Governor Ed E. Rauli, introduced into the Greenville Kiwanis Club D. Angus Blue, president and manager of Greenville Fertilizer Company.

Mrs. Boley Farley and Mrs. J. K. Spivey were on the committee to welcome Judge Gwynn to Greenville. Guests of the club included J. Brantley Speight and Douglas A. Rawlings and Bob Robinson and David Jones of the East Carolina College Circle K Club.

Ellie Bloom, producer of the Kiwanis Minstrel, presented a group of college boys and girls who are in the show. Charles D. Blair had a birthday and donated a dime for each year of his age to a club fund. Dr. John Reynolds won the attendance prize.

Rehearsals for the Kiwanis minstrel at the college are continuing. The show will be given in Austin auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dora M. Tillet will be Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. at Reddick Chapel Church, Bethel, Rev. C. P. Ivey officiating.

Mrs. Tillet was born in Edgecombe County, but came to Pitt County when a small child and spent the remainder of her life around Bethel. She taught school for 46 years, five of those years in Greene County, the remainder in Pitt County.

She was a member of Reddick Chapel Baptist Church. Surviving are her husband, Rev. J. J. Tillet, one daughter, Mrs. Emily Mitchell of Norfolk, Va. Burial will follow in Bethel Cemetery.

Revival services will begin tonight at Holy Trinity Church on Douglas Ave. Rev. Mrs. Minnie Wheeler of Wilson is to be guest speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Holy Trinity Senior Choir rehearsal will be tonight at the home of Mrs. Mary Bennett at 8 o'clock. Junior choir rehearsal will be at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mary Bennett.

'No Necking' In Permti Terms

LONDON (UP)—An Air Force spokesman said today that girls who attend dances at U. S. Air Force bases in Britain henceforth must carry identification cards signed by local authorities and agree "not to neck."

The cards are issued only if the girls have written permission from their parents to attend the dances and their good character is attested by a competent local authority. "We have taken these steps in the interests of morality and security," the spokesman said.

FREE ESTIMATES

We Contract Inside and Outside Painting Using

Sherwin & Williams Paints

Paints

C. H. EDWARDS Hardware House

DIAL 2418

Paints

Paints

Paints

Paints

Paints

Paints

Paints

Paints

Paints

Paints

Taft Supporters Pose Questions For Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft's supporters circulated a petition today "demanding" that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower take a public stand on 21 "vital questions"—most of them bitterly controversial.

Taft strategists figure that Eisenhower is bound to alienate some large blocs of voters if he commits himself, pro or con, on the questions. Taft himself has said that Eisenhower's popularity would diminish if he had to choose sides in various disputed issues.

The political dynamite in the petition is demonstrated by a few sample questions: "Do you approve of the firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur?" "Are you for or against the Taft-Hartley law?"

"Do you favor any kind of world government?" "If nominated and elected, will you clean house in the State Department, beginning with Dean Acheson, and in the Defense Department, beginning with Mrs. Anna Rosenberg?"

Taft headquarters here announced that the petition was initiated by Tennessee State Republican Chairman Guy L. Smith, who hopes that "millions" of signatures can be obtained throughout the nation.

Smith said he got the idea after he received "countless inquiries" about Eisenhower's position on various matters. He said he always had to reply, "I don't know, and nobody else knows, apparently."

Eisenhower's managers maintained a stony silence on the petition. They have said previously that the general will make his position clear on all major issues after he returns to this country from his European military command on June 1.

Meanwhile the Taft-Eisenhower battle for delegates to the Republican presidential nominating convention rolled into a crucial week. More than 200 GOP delegates will be chosen in state primaries and elections this week.

Democrats—with no comparable two-way contest in sight this year—also will name nearly 200 delegates during the week.

Large national convention delegations will be elected by both parties in tomorrow's primary elections in New York and Pennsylvania. Each party picks 90 in New York and 60 in Pennsylvania.

Eisenhower is expected to get most if not all of the New York delegates, which will enable him to cut down Taft's lead.

As the week opened, a compilation of the delegates already chosen showed Taft with 208, Eisenhower with 116, Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, with 21, Gov. Earl Warren of California with six and Gen. Douglas MacArthur with two.

Republicans have chosen 420 of the 1,208 nominating convention delegates, and 67 are listed as uncommitted.

The Taft organization has conceded Eisenhower 70 to 75 of the New York delegates but hopes to win 15 to 20. Eisenhower supporters have predicted that the New York delegation will vote almost solidly for the five-star general.

The New York primary involves only the election of delegates with no direct vote on presidential candidates.

Eisenhower and Stassen are both on the ballot for Pennsylvania's presidential preference vote, which is separate from the election of delegates.

Taft did not enter the Pennsylvania contest, but his campaign managers have claimed that he will get a majority of the delegates, no matter who wins the non-binding preference vote.

The Taft organization also has talked optimistically of winning nearly all the members of smaller delegations to be chosen this week at state conventions in Arkansas, Colorado, Utah and Arizona.

Taft will address the Arkansas convention Friday.

PLENTY OF BRASS AROUND—Hats of high-ranking officers of NATO nations lie on Paris cloakroom table as owners attend staff maneuvers based on maps and blackboards.

Missouri Crest Moves On St. Jo

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (UP)—The crest of the Missouri River, running bluff to bluff down its flood-soaked valley, bore down on St. Joseph today in its rush toward a rendezvous with the mighty Mississippi.

There was every indication from all critical points that St. Joseph was set for the blow. Some 1,600 soldiers and airmen fought to save a giant Air Force installation downstream at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and men and boys, from 10 years old upwards, sandbagged dikes as they continued a night-long struggle against the Mississippi at La Crosse, Wis.

The two-week battle against the destructive floodwaters of the two rivers that have driven nearly 100,000 persons from their homes, inundated hundreds of thousands of acres of rich farmlands and caused estimated damage in excess of $200,000,000 appeared to be entering its final stages, authorities said.

U. S. Army Engineers said the Mississippi was subsiding. They believed that when the Missouri's crest reaches St. Louis, the Mississippi will have flattened out sufficiently to absorb the giant inflow from the muddy Mo.

But it was still touch and go in this city of 78,588 persons, and downstream at Fort Leavenworth, where military men labored to keep the Missouri's yellow water out of the multi-million dollar Sherman Air Force Base.

Officers were optimistic after an all-night fight and said: "We are still ahead of the river and we are fighting to stay that way."

Engineers made another revision on the estimated time of arrival of the Missouri's crest here, moving it from last midnight until "late tonight or early Tuesday."

But they pointed out that the Missouri's long, flat crest is "not easy by any means to follow."

The stage at St. Joseph at midnight was 25.5 feet, the same as it had been eight hours previously.

Engineers still predicted a 27-foot crest, 10 feet above flood stage, but they were hopeful the worst was over. St. Joseph dikes have been raised to withstand a 27-foot crest.

Scattered rains fell throughout Northern Kansas and Northwestern Missouri last night, adding to the difficult sand-bagging operations. The rains were "pretty general, but the intensity was spotty," weather bureau officials reported.

The record surge of the Missouri floodwaters passed out of Iowa and the week-long fight to save the twin cities of Omaha, Neb., and Council Bluffs, Ia., appeared to have been won.

The river was dropping steadily in that area, but several Iowa towns remained flooded, including Percival, Pacific Junction, McPaul, Thurman and Bartlett.

The most serious new threat of the Missouri was concentrated here and at Fort Leavenworth. Sand-bagging crews were on 24-hour duty at each location.

In St. Joseph, the chief danger was in the terrific pressure of the river. There were fears the pressure might force sewers to back up and gush water into the city's streets.

Romance Blooms In German Press

FRANKFURT, Germany (UP)—Spring brought an upsurge today in the number of German women advertising in newspapers for male companionship.

Outnumbering the opposite sex inhabitants of Western Germany, the women resorted to the direct approach in such advertisements as these:

"Two office girls, one 34 and thin and one 36 and fat, would like to spend free time with pleasant gentlemen."

"Young woman with very modern ideas, many-sided interests, ambitious, good business sense, in financial difficulties, seeks friend and helper."

"35-year-old seeks weekend companion, not under 5 feet 10 inches." "Fulfillment in springtime. A life-loving, slim, capricious, elegant brunette, 5 feet 10 inches, early 40s, wonderful figure, well-groomed, well-educated, trained in business, war widow, seeks successful, wealthy gentleman in good circumstances. Will only marry if find complete harmony."

"Blonde little devil, young and charming, seeks amorous gentleman."

Jet Airliner In Swift Hop From London To Rome

LONDON (UP)—Britain's four-jet passenger airliner, the "Comet," flew from London to Rome today in two hours and 29 minutes on its last test flight before opening the jet passenger air transport area May 2.

The British Overseas Airways plane arrived at Rome's airport and was scheduled to continue to Johannesburg, South Africa, to complete the test.

On May 2 the 480-mile-an-hour jet craft will leave London on a 6,724-mile flight to Johannesburg carrying a full payload of 36 passengers. It will be the first regularly scheduled jet passenger flight.

The Comet uses kerosene for fuel and flies at from 35,000 to 40,000 feet. It carries a crew of six.

Lumber Yard Is Damaged In Fire

SIMPSON — The lumber yard of R. G. and W. E. Little located near here was saved from a serious fire loss early Saturday afternoon by the work of Greenville firemen and volunteer fire fighters in the vicinity.

A fire, believed to have started from burning sawdust near the main buildings of the yard, endangered the entire yard for some time.

Greenville firemen arrived on the scene and went to work on the blaze and were quickly joined by a host of volunteer workers from nearby farms.

A steady flow of water, brought in on trucks and wagons kept the fire under control. The lumber yard was saved, but the main buildings of the yard, endangered the entire yard for some time.

The fire was first noticed around 2:45 and was small at the time but had grown quickly by the time fire fighting equipment arrived.

The Little Lumber Yard suffered a fire about two years ago which caused heavy damage but the fire at that time did not reach the main buildings either.

In addition to bringing in water for use by the fire truck, volunteers moved piles of lumber in order that the fire which was burning underneath the stacks could be reached and put out.

The lumber yard was piled high with newly-cut timber and would have been swept over quickly by the fire had it once gained a foothold.

The owners of the firm were high in their praise for the help rendered by the Greenville fire department and that of volunteers who answered their call for aid.

Forest Fires In North Carolina Take Big Toll

WHITEVILLE (UP)—Weary firefighters brought the last of a series of wind-whipped forest fires under control early today and estimated that the blazes burned through more than 4,200 acres.

At least seven serious fires and a number of minor ones broke out in a five-county area of North Carolina over the weekend. The latest burned 2,000 acres in the Bladen Lakes state forest area, including 1,000 acres of the state forest land.

Forestry officials said careless brush burners apparently were responsible for the Bladen Lakes fire and possibly others.

The last of the blazes to be brought under control raged near Shalotte in the extreme tip of southeastern North Carolina. Both it and the one in the Bladen Lakes area roared out of control for several hours yesterday.

Country Doctor Drops Old Debts

PARRISH, Ala. (UP)—"Severely hundred" residents of this North Alabama coal mining community got a birthday present today from the country doctor who has cared for them 46 years.

"God's been good to me and I haven't been practicing for the money alone," declared Dr. John Wesley Simpson yesterday at his 80th birthday party.

Then he announced he was cancelling $38,000 in unpaid bills of "several hundred" patients living in the 40-mile-square area he has served since 1906.

One patient had owed "Old Doc" for 30 years, he said. Another's bill totaled more than $250. Beyond that he would give no details.

"Healthy as a guinea pig" at 802 pounds, he is not surprised at his heartiness.

"I don't drink nor smoke and my grandmother lived to be 100," he said. "Old Doc" thinks he will too. Dr. Simpson, who still works "all day and part of the night," has delivered an estimated 3,700 babies and worn out 18 automobiles and several buggies since he began practicing.

But he wasn't too busy caring for other folks children that he could rake a few of his own. At his birthday party were his second wife, her son, his four daughters by his deceased wife and "a whole covey" of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

One granddaughter couldn't come. She was 30 miles away in a Birmingham, Ala., hospital, where she was to give birth to a child.

"Old Doc" recalled how he became a physician.

ELKS MEET THURSDAY

Greenville Elks Lodge No. 164, will meet next Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Exalted Ruler J. B. Spilman will preside.

Carolina over the weekend. The latest burned 2,000 acres in the Bladen Lakes state forest area, including 1,000 acres of the state forest land.

Forestry officials said careless brush burners apparently were responsible for the Bladen Lakes fire and possibly others.

The last of the blazes to be brought under control raged near Shalotte in the extreme tip of southeastern North Carolina. Both it and the one in the Bladen Lakes area roared out of control for several hours yesterday.

At least seven serious fires and a number of minor ones broke out in a five-county area of North Carolina over the weekend. The latest burned 2,000 acres in the Bladen Lakes state forest area, including 1,000 acres of the state forest land.

Forestry officials said careless brush burners apparently were responsible for the Bladen Lakes fire and possibly others.

The last of the blazes to be brought under control raged near Shalotte in the extreme tip of southeastern North Carolina. Both it and the one in the Bladen Lakes area roared out of control for several hours yesterday.

At least seven serious fires and a number of minor ones broke out in a five-county area of North Carolina over the weekend. The latest burned 2,000 acres in the Bladen Lakes state forest area, including 1,000 acres of the state forest land.

Forestry officials said careless brush burners apparently were responsible for the Bladen Lakes fire and possibly others.

The last of the blazes to be brought under control raged near Shalotte in the extreme tip of southeastern North Carolina. Both it and the one in the Bladen Lakes area roared out of control for several hours yesterday.

At least seven serious fires and a number of minor ones broke out in a five-county area of North Carolina over the weekend. The latest burned 2,000 acres in the Bladen Lakes state forest area, including 1,000 acres of the state forest land.

Forestry officials said careless brush burners apparently were responsible for the Bladen Lakes fire and

WANT ADS

Rates 4c per word, minimum charge $1.00 for first insertion of 25 words; two consecutive insertions, $1.75; three insertions, $2.25; four insertions, $2.75; five insertions, $3.25; six insertions, $3.75; Month, $14.00. Display Want Ads, $1.25 per column inch per insertion; one week, $6.75; one month $23.00.

The Daily Reflector will be responsible only for the first incorrect or omitted insertion of any advertisement and then only to the extent of a make-good insertion. Errors which do not lessen the value of the advertisement will not be corrected by make-good insertions.

The publisher reserves the right to revise or reject any copy.

All ads must be received a day ahead of publication date.

East Carolina Roofing Company
Jobs Applied and Financed
CLAUDE B. WEST, Mgr.
Office — Proctor Hotel
Office Phone 3151
Residence Phone 5322

HOMES FOR SALE
One 3 room brick veneer home, completely redecorated and ready for occupancy. Easy terms.

One 6 room home completely renovated inside and out with modern possession. Easy terms.

D. L. TURNAGE, Realtor
L. E. TURNAGE JR., Asst.
19-21

Scott Motor Sales
Your Studebaker Dealer
219 E. Fifth Street
Greenville, N. C.
5042 — Tel. 4346

49 Ford
Fully Equipped $1295

49 Chevrolet $350

1950 Ford Custom
Fully Equipped $1595

50 Studebaker Club Coupe
Fully Equipped $1495

41 Ford Fully Equipped $295

41 Studebaker Fully Equipped $350

Packard Fully Equipped $850

Chevrolet 4 Door Fully Equipped $1350

49 Mercury Station Wagon Fully Equipped $1395

51 Ford Fully Equipped $1850

51 Ford Victoria Fordomatic Fully Equipped $1995

50 Studebaker Champion 4 Door with Heater $1495

47 Studebaker Pick Up $695

47 Dodge Panel Truck $495

46 Ford Pick Up Fully Equipped $650

40 Chevrolet 1-2 Ton Pick Up $295

46 Chevrolet 1-2 Ton $795

Many Others To Choose From

One-Third Down
Balance Financed

A limited number of 1952 Studebaker 1-2, 1 1-2 and 2 ton trucks for immediate delivery.

GOAT TOO HUNGRY
FORT WORTH, Tex. —(UP)— Trouble, a 3-year-old billy goat, ate himself out of house and home at the James A. Jones, Jr. residence. The Joneses turned him in to the city pound after his feed bill got too expensive.

WANTED

Boys age 14 and older to carry The Daily Reflector in Greenville.
Apply Circulation Dept.
Daily Reflector

COAL FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY
Red Ash and Steamer Coal.
Greenville Coal Co., formerly Horne's Coal Co. Phone 3150. 10-24

CALL US FOR YOUR INSULATION
weatherstripping, aluminum awnings, asbestos siding and storm windows. "Your comfort is our business." O. L. Lupton Co. Phone 2235. 4-7-1 mo.

TWO BEDROOM UNFURNISHED apartment corner Fourth and Meade. Private entrance, steam heat. Dial 4339. Mar. 10-11

LADIES ACHIEVE NEW HAIR
beauty with our long lasting cold waves. As low as $5.00. Appointment at night. Magnolia Anderson's Beauty Shop, 1111 West 4th St. Dial 5531. 4-7-1 mo.

FOR SALE—ONE NEW THREE bedroom house on Sunset Ave., Hillside Division. Call 2150. Apr. 2-11

FOR RENT—TWO LARGE FURNISHED bedrooms. One downstairs, one upstairs. At 214 Greene Street. Phone 4532. Apr. 8-11

IVEY COWARD SAYS—BEST TERM protection you can buy is dealing with a local firm, that is on the spot, if and when trouble occurs and getting back to and servicing those claims on contracts. For free inspection call 3095. 4-10-1 mo.

AWNINGS, DOOR CANOPIES
patio, terrace and porch covers, made of Multivent, preoxidized aluminum. Get the best for less. Cash or terms. Phone 1178 or write Greenville Home Improvement Co., 303 W. 14th St. Apr. 12-1 mo.

WHITE HOUSEKEEPER WANTED
for elderly lady. Call 5568. 17-31

NOW IS THE TIME TO STORE
your winter clothes. Protect them from moths with Gulf TRAK. Get your Gulf TRAK & Gulf Spray from Peader's Service Station, 602 Dickinson Ave. Phone 2015. 17-31

GLAMORENE—THE HOME REAU-ty treatment for rugs. Quick, safe, easy packed ready to use. Dirt gone in fifteen minutes. Call Quinn, Miller & Stroud for particulars. Tel. 2656. 17-31

MAKE A DATE NOW—BE SURE with Pure Pure Pure. Spring changeover. Get 1 vital car saver service. Ricks Service Center, 9th & Evans Streets. 18-51

WANTED—MAN WITH SMALL family to work on farm. House with lights furnished. Near Chocod School on New Bern Highway H. E. Smith. 18-31

IF YOU WANT A POWER LAWN mower at the right price see me at Edwards Auto Supply—Jack Edwards. 19-31

FOR SALE OR RENT—ONE NEW three bedroom house on Overlook Drive, Elmhurst Division. Call 2150. Apr. 2-11

NEED PEANUTS—SELECTED from 5 million pounds best grade Virginia bunch. Shelled, hand-picked and Arsan treated. 25c per pound at Keel's Warehouse. Keel Peanut Company, Phone 2240. 8-11

WE LINE BRAKES, INSTALL points, plugs and mufflers. If you need that kind of service see us. Howard Allen's Service Station, cor. W. 5th & Greene Sts. Phone 3285. 4-1-11

GET YOUR SEED PEANUTS shelled at Keel's Warehouse. We will hand-pick and treat them, the sure way for good stands. We also can furnish selected Va. bunch seed. See us for your needs. Keel Peanut Co. Dial 2240. 4-8-11

CONTRACT PAINTING—FREE estimates on your spring painting needs, inside and outside. Lucas and Stag paint. H. L. Hodges & Co. Phone 4846. 4-8-1 mo.

HAVE YOUR CAR PAINTED BY
Dick Briley, oldest automobile refinisher. All jobs guaranteed. Welding, top linings and glasses; anything to be done to the car body to make it new again. Briley's Paint Shop, Bethel Highway Phone 2609; residence, 5528. 4-8-11

FOR RENT—HOUSE ON PACTOlus highway, one mile from city limits. Water and lights. Rent $40.00 per month in advance. Dial 2362 after 7:00 p.m. 4-14-11

RENEW YOUR FORD WITH
Flanagan's expertly built motors. Budget at terms to suit you. Call Fred Forbes at Flanagan Buggy Co. Phones 3797-3723. 4-2 eod-1 mo.

WATCHES—ALL MAKES REpaired. Quick, efficient service. Astor's Jewelers, 110 E. Fifth St. Dial 2563. Near Belk-Tyler's. Apr. 7-eod-1 mo.

CLIFF SAYS—
"Yes, we have—Galvanized Roll Tin."
C. H. EDWARDS HDWE.

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE DEPOT
(trailer) located 15th Dickinson Avenue. Christian magazines, Bibles, children's song and color books. Projectors, records, etc. Open 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily. 3-25 1 mo

WANTED—AN OPPORTUNITY to give your home a better personality. We apply stain resistant asbestos siding. Everlok shingles for residence roofing. Built up roofing for commercial and industrial property. Roof painting. Terms to suit your budget. Don't put it off. Put it on. Goodson Roofing Service. Office, 313 W. 2nd St. Dial 4322. Apr. 9-11

SECOND TO NONE, THERE'S only one—Pina Foam for cleaning rugs and upholstery. Belk-Tyler, 3rd floor. 16-41

PEOPLE IN THE KNOW USE
Glaxo plastic type coating instead of waxing linoleum. Belk-Tyler, 3rd floor. 16-41

Sure Make It An Emerson's
See Cliff Today!
C. H. EDWARDS HARDWARE

We Will Now Shell Your Seed Peanuts
Hand Picked, Treated at 75c Per Bag
Dupree Bros.
Belvoir, N. C.
Phone 3647-7

Planting Time
Blount - Harvey's Farm Supply Department has the tools and machinery to make better crops at lower cost.

Cole Corn Planters
Riding Cultivators
Fertilizer Sowers Plows
Peanut Weeder
Plow Casting and all size
Cultivator Sweeps

Ironage Transplanters with fertilizer sowers
Plenty of parts for Tiger
Ironage and Remis transplanters.

Blount-Harvey Co.
"Eastern Carolina's Shopping Center"

WANTED—A JOB IN YOUR HOME will work for years and years for only $274.95. See me at Gammon Supply Co., 5th & Cotanche Sts. Signed Mr. Hotpoint Refrigerator. P.S. Free with above: $110.00 5 piece dinette suite. 18-41

FOR SALE—1951 PICKUP CHEVrolet truck in excellent condition. See Blackwood's, tel. 4307. 18-31

FOR RENT—BANDER, BY HOUR, day or week. Call Blackwood's. 4307. 18-31

FREE—FREE TO YOU: USE OF floor waxer during month of April with purchase of wax. Pitt Hardware Co., phone 2733. 3-27-eod-1 mo.

IS THE PRICE RIGHT?—LET US give you a contract free on painting the inside and outside of your home. We use Benjamin Moore's paints. Call 3332 for this service. Globe Hardware Co. 18-31

JUST FOR THE FUN OF IT, SEE our display of aluminum goods and gadgets. If you can't find it in town, we will get it for you. Globe Hardware Co. Phone 3232. Apr. 2-11

HAVE YOU SEEN THE NEW
Norge washing machine? It's a honey. We will trade for your old machine and finance the balance. Globe Hardware Co. Phone 3232. 4-8-11

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
Having qualified as Administratrix of the Estate of P. Z. Seago, deceased, late of Pitt County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned before the 21st day of April, 1952, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment. This the 21st day of April, 1952.
CLARA SEAGO, Greenville, N. C. Administratrix of the Estate of P. Z. Seago.
Apr. 21-28 May 5-12-19-26

Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS
1. Ovens
4. Cur
9. Timid
13. Tree
15. Lucky find
16. Wytling
17. In visible
18. Fruit
19. Discharged
20. Rescue
22. Little fellows
23. Always
24. Coast
27. What?
28. Color
29. English county
30. Little Scotch
31. One indefinitely
32. Article of apparel

DOWN
1. Turn to the left
2. Peet Gant's mother
3. Laid aside indefinitely
4. Thin tapering piece
5. Ostrion
6. Out of work
7. While
8. Partake again
9. Young hog
10. In what way
11. Word of acceptance
12. Push
13. Wharf
14. Brief
15. Pinnacle of ice
16. Genius of the nat
17. Gather into
18. Chair again
19. Window
20. Started aside suddenly
21. Old word of meaning
22. A word of bit
23. Covering of
24. Avoid
25. Kind of rock
26. Rough coat or bunches
27. Dismal
28. Pronoun
29. Gull scuttie
30. Recline
31. Unrefined
32. End of metal
33. Undermine
34. Note of the scale

Solution of Saturday's Puzzle

YADIFF SERAPE
DEADER ADORIS
ARM WE TITANS
VA EMIT ME
ETA ODIN LOAD
LEXICON BORNE
TAMALES
MUSES REASONS
ONER TEST NAP
DI CATS TO SQUEAL OS FAR EUROPE REGENT
LENSES SWEETS

FOR SALE—PEANUT HAY. Beagle puppies and new silent flame oil curers. C. H. Hagan. Greenville Rte. 4. Box 157. 18-31

ADVERTISING SALESMAN
Brown & Bigelow
World's largest producer of Remembrance Advertising is establishing an exclusive sales territory in the Greenville-Washington area. This presents unusual opportunity for industrious salesman, preferably aged 25 to 40, who can sell advertising ideas to all kinds of business firms. Success will depend upon ability to open new accounts as well as service present customers. The man who can qualify for this opportunity joins an outstanding national sales organization whose advertising ideas and merchandise have been proven over a 56 year period. Under our liberal commission and bonus contract our seasoned salesmen are averaging over $8,000 a year. For interview write: W. A. Jarvis, Sales Manager, Suite 400 Virginia Building 5th & Main Sts., Richmond, Va. 18-31

NOW AVAILABLE

Miller V. H. P. F., the soluble fertilizer made especially for transplant water. (Use one 1 pound package per transplant barrel). V. H. P. F. contains 15 percent N, 25 percent P, A, 15 percent Potash. Calcium, Manganese, Magnesium, Sulphur, Boron, Zinc, Iron, Molybdenum and various hormones and vitamins. V. H. P. F. (1) develops more roots; (2) nourishes plants while they are getting established; (3) regulates vital processes of plants; (4) supplies needed minerals; (5) increases yield and quality; (6) reduces wilting; and (7) lessens replanting. CHLORODANE used in tobacco transplant water to control wire worms (use one-half pound in each barrel). NOTE: Chlorodane is not necessary where you have used D-D. V. H. P. F. and Chlorodane are inexpensive, easy to use and produce results. FRANK REID COMPANY
Keel's Warehouse
Phone 5157 — Greenville, N. C.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED APARTment at 1220 Evans St. See Mrs. Eugene Stokes at 1218 after 6 p.m. 21-31

A GOOD BUY—NICE TWO BEDroom home, floor furnace, yard fenced, practically new in Village Grove. Low rate of interest with only $1000 down. E. M. Gibbs. Dial 5207 or 4805. 21-31

FOR RENT—NICELY FURNISHED
2 bedroom apartment. Private bath and entrance. Good location. Tel. 3447 after 5:30 p.m. Mrs. D. M. Clark. 21-21

TEACHERS WANTED
Interesting vacation positions paying teachers selected $750 to $1500, depending on ability and length of vacation, plus valuable training at our expense. Highly satisfying experience which will advance you professionally. Requirements: Age 25-50 years, 3 years' teaching experience, good record and standing. Number of openings limited. Write immediately in confidence for personal interview, giving phone. "Teachers" Box 408, Greenville, N.C. 21-21

RELIABLE MAN WITH CAR
wanted to call on farmers in Pitt County. Wonderful opportunity. $10 to $20 a day. No experience or capital required. Permanent. Write today. MCNESS COMPANY, Dept. C, Candler Bldg., Baltimore 2, Md. 4-21 & 28

PERFECTION—HAVE YOU SEEN
the new Huffy Electric Power Mower? It's light, efficient and so easy to use. Call us for a demonstration. Globe Hardware Co. Phone 3232. 4-21 & 28

HELP WANTED FEMALE—HOUSEkeeper for family of two: elderly lady and her bachelor son. Very pleasant surroundings. Phone 3052. 21-61

Ike Supporters In Minnesota Claim Victory

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UP)—Boosters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower claimed victories today in resolutions adopted in Republican conventions in Minnesota's two largest counties.

Eisenhower supporters at the Ramsey County (St. Paul) meeting yesterday pushed through a resolution asking that all delegates from Minnesota to the national convention should vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower on all ballots after fulfilling their statutory obligation to Harold E. Stassen.

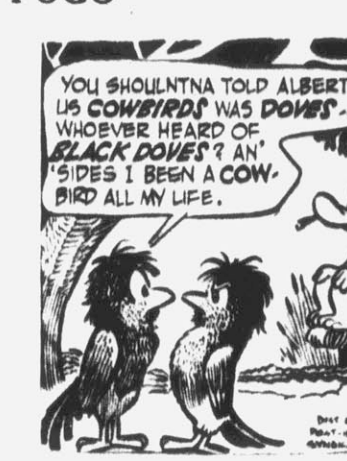

And in Hennepin County, which includes Minneapolis, the GOP "urged" the third and fifth district conventions to send delegates favorable to Eisenhower to Chicago in July.

In 1952, Italy had almost twice as many automobiles as in 1940, the figures being 705,844, and 358,208.

IT'S ALL OVER NOW—WAXING
linoleum that is Use Glaxo plastic type coating. Belk-Tyler's 3rd floor. 21-61

DON'T FUSS ABOUT THE MUSS—
Get Pina Foam and those soiled rugs. Belk-Tyler's 3rd floor. 21-61

POGO

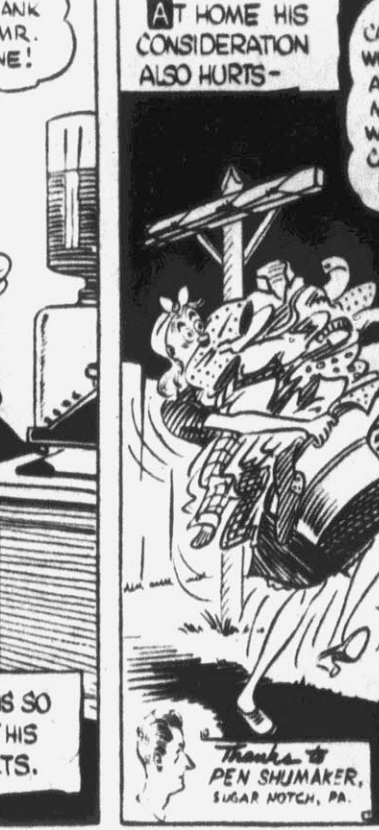

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW!

By FAGALY and SHORTEN

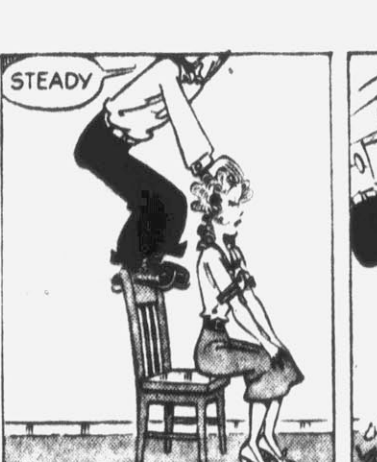

AT HOME HIS CONSIDERATION ALSO HURTS

BLONDIE

UZARK IKE

RUSTY RILEY

FLASH GORDON

THE PHANTOM

TRUCKS IN GREEN VALLEY

Firemen Search For Remaining Embers

Fire fighters are shown as they tear through burned timbers in an effort to put out any remaining flames at the R. G. and W. E. Little Lumber Company Saturday afternoon. Prompt work on the part of volunteer workers and Greenville firemen prevented the fire from reaching the main buildings of the mill. (Reflector Photo by Roy Hardee).

Troops Gather For Next Atomic Blast

By FRANK H. BARTHOLOMEW
United Press Staff Correspondent
YUCCA FLAT, Nev. (UP)—Fifteen hundred hardy young Americans at Camp Desert Rock in a bleak and windswept valley 20 miles distant prepared today to move into the foxholes of Yucca Flat.

They will be in closer proximity Tuesday's atomic bomb blast than any troops have ever been since Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

With them were 120 paratroopers who, after exposure to the great blast officially labeled as "equal to 100 suns," would then board troop carrying airplanes and be dropped just beyond the blasted area called "Ground Zero."

Meanwhile scientists young and old, some of them sedately attired but most of them young, hatless and wearing brightly colored sports shirts, completed final installation of instruments in towers 300 feet above and in bunkers far below the sage-covered floor of this high desert valley.

The weather was uncertain today, with broken overcast here and occasional showers at Las Vegas 65 miles away.

However the weather forecast, awaited anxiously by the hundreds of participants and observers, predicted decreasing cloudiness during the day and clear weather by tomorrow.

The bomb itself was believed to be in readiness at Kirtland Air Force Base near Albuquerque, N.M. It may be carried by a B-50 bomber, one of which was on display at Indian Springs Air Force Base near here.

Officers and troops at Camp Desert Rock were in high spirits today and obviously relished the venture facing them less than 24 hours hence.

As their commanding officer, Brig. Gen. Harry P. Storke, said, "they are the featured players of this production."

Purpose of the extraordinarily close exposure of troops, in ordinary foxholes four feet deep with out reinforcement, was two-fold, Storke said.

First objective is tactical training so that, in the language of the layman, an invading force will be able to follow up swiftly and with reasonable safety an atomic bombing attack upon enemy strongholds.

These troops are to learn how to invade an enemy military area still stunned by the force of atomic attack and to capture surviving personnel and objectives.

"From our experience here," Storke said, "we have learned that the Army's tactical doctrine is so sound as to require neither basic change nor modification."

An assault supported by atomic weapons, similar to the test to be staged tomorrow, will involve the same general tactics as assault supported by conventional high explosive shelling or aerial bombardment.

Second objective is to analyze the psychological reactions of the participating troops, the general said.

Officers and men of the combat team scheduled to move into the quiet, deadly valley below us tomorrow were interviewed by Army experts prior to their arrival at Desert Rock.

They will be carefully checked while the great strain of the experiment itself is under way, and will be interviewed again after they return to home stations.

Many steps have been taken to familiarize the men with what they must expect under actual atomic warfare conditions. Much Army materiel with which they are familiar is ranged out in the primary blast area below, between the foxholes and "Ground Zero."

The men will work their way through this equipment after it has been subjected to the blast.

Participating troops include: 2nd Battalion, 504th Airborne Infantry Regiment, 82nd Airborne Division, of Fort Bragg, N.C., minus two companies.

Company C, 135th Infantry Regi-

Bedroom Shown After Car Hit Home

A stove, pipe and other items of furniture were thrown about the bedroom of Milton Arthur Shirley, farmer of near Black Jack, early Sunday morning, when an automobile went out of control and crashed into the Shirley house. The outside chimney of the building was knocked down, the house was moved from its foundation about one foot. Shirley, his wife and young child, were sleeping in his room when the car struck. None of them were injured. (Reflector Photo by Roy Hardee).

Capitol Square

(Continued From Page Four)
has not confessed change in general attitude toward any of the issues with which he has dealt more continuously and consistently for 20 years.

CLINIC — The idea back of the Information Clinic is not unique, but the Dum Institution has some individual features. It was pointed out by all the speakers that events like that of Thursday night are typical of Democratic America, and impossible in many other countries. The appearance of rival candidates for the same office on the same forum undoubtedly has some disadvantages for the candidates with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

with special appeals to make, but any disadvantage is more than offset by the opportunity afforded the voters to appraise the candidates. It is essentially the idea of the New England "town meeting" and of the South Carolina joint itinerary of office-seekers.

HUMOR — There were some humorous incidents. Like Bill Umstead and Hubert Olive, devout churchmen seeking election to the chief executive office in the state with responsibility for enforcing all the laws, engaged in gambling by tossing a coin for speaking position — under supervision of Dougald McRae, chairman of the county board of elections. Incidentally, Umstead won the toss and chose to speak last. And, Umstead and Olive being seated at the long head table about 30 feet apart and very seriously marching to meet each other and shake hands for the camera before the bout began. And a couple of very attractive young ladies sitting near the door selling the little gold-plated jackass emblems of the Democratic party — but no elephants for the possible Republican guest. Then there was the very serious element which requires a sense of humor to appreciate, or opposing candidates and their supporters slugging at each other but not losing their tempers. And 300 members of the audience listening attentively without having their preconceived opinions changed.

Eisenhower's Chauffeur Is A 'Southern Democrat'

PARIS (UPI)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's GI chauffeur made it plain today that he's a "Southern Democrat" but said nevertheless he probably would vote for his boss for president — if he had a chance.

Sgt. James R. Perryman, a native of Lafayette, Ala., explained that he'd like to vote in this year's election but was afraid he won't have the opportunity. He said that Alabama requires registration in person.

"I'm a Southern Democrat," he said. "But Democrat or not, I think I'd vote for the boss."

The other day the 37-year-old driver who has been piloting the supreme commander through the Paris streets for more than a year startled high NATO officers as they were scanning Eisenhower's vote in an American primary.

Perryman — known as "Jimmy" — elbowed up to the wire service press results.

"Fine," he said in an Alabama drawl. "But how about Kefauver?" The officers stood in silence, their eyes trained on the sergeant. Then he explained that he was "a Southern Democrat."

Since February, 1951, Perryman has been steering Eisenhower's black 1949 Cadillac around with a skill that has won many a startled and admiring oath from Paris taxi drivers who are known for their daredevil driving.

"Nom de Dieu!" one of them exclaimed as Jimmy cut in front of traffic to pick up Eisenhower and sped away from a big international meeting. "The American drives as if he wants to die."

But the record shows that Jimmy hasn't had an accident in Paris, and that's more than most American drivers can say.

The sergeant, who was transferred to the army drivers' pool in New York City after volunteering for service in 1940, lives with his wife and three children in a new apartment. It's not far from Eisenhower's suburban home in Marnes-La-Coquette.

Jimmy has taken his boss to meetings with most of the French premiers who have come to and the European command.

Recently they sped to a meeting with Premier Antoine Pinay, soon after he took office.

"Told the boss on the way we'd better hurry — the guy might be out of office before we got there," Jimmy said. "Didn't get in time to catch the one before, you know."

Counterfeiters Worried Town

OKLAHOMA CITY — (AP) — An out-of-town guest at a hotel summoned U. S. Secret Service Agent Tom Hanson after trying in vain to get merchants to accept his $10 bill.

The note — perfectly good — was drawn on the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank. Hanson explained to the puzzled visitor that 30 counterfeit $10 bills, all on the same bank, had been passed here recently.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

can say.

The sergeant, who was transferred to the army drivers' pool in New York City after volunteering for service in 1940, lives with his wife and three children in a new apartment. It's not far from Eisenhower's suburban home in Marnes-La-Coquette.

Jimmy has taken his boss to meetings with most of the French premiers who have come to and the European command.

Recently they sped to a meeting with Premier Antoine Pinay, soon after he took office.

"Told the boss on the way we'd better hurry — the guy might be out of office before we got there," Jimmy said. "Didn't get in time to catch the one before, you know."

Counterfeiters Worried Town

OKLAHOMA CITY — (AP) — An out-of-town guest at a hotel summoned U. S. Secret Service Agent Tom Hanson after trying in vain to get merchants to accept his $10 bill.

The note — perfectly good — was drawn on the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank. Hanson explained to the puzzled visitor that 30 counterfeit $10 bills, all on the same bank, had been passed here recently.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

STILL GRATEFUL
GRAPEVINE, Tex. — (UP) — Albert H. Graves, a veteran of both world wars, finally got a medal from one of them — 33 years late.

A citation of gratitude was signed by the president of France and the mayor of Saint-Mihiel. A letter explained that Graves was one of 100 Texans selected to receive the medal for liberating the French city during a bitter World War I battle.

Ex-Convict Held As Mastermind In Kidnap Plot

HAVANA (UPI)—Ex-convict Charles W. Johnson was in custody here today awaiting his return to Miami, where he is suspect of having master-minded a "remote control" kidnap-extortion plot.

He was held in the Cabaña Fort—Cuba's military prison—after police seized him at the swank Hotel Nacional yesterday.

The 33-year-old ex-convict's arrest ended an international manhunt set off when $15,000 in jewels and $200 in cash were extorted from a Miami jeweler, Daniel Richter.

Richter paid the amount after he was advised by telephone that his six-year-old son had been kidnapped.

The boy turned up unharmed at a Coral Gables hospital, where he was taken by a taxi driver who had been duped by the extortionists.

Police said Johnson surrendered peacefully after three detectives followed his trail from two other high-class hotels — the Plaza and Bellamar — where he registered earlier. They said he was unarmed.

Police added that all the missing jewels except a watch Johnson pawned in Miami were found in one of the hotel rooms he had occupied. The gems included a pendant, three diamond bracelets and two diamond rings.

Detectives were expected to arrive from Miami to return Johnson there, although he insisted he was innocent and said he would refuse to sign extradition papers.

Secret Police Chief Fernandez Parajon said if Johnson resisted extradition the Cuban government would expel him as an "undesirable alien."

When the detectives, using a passkey, entered the hotel room and awoke Johnson he did not seem to realize what was happening. Although he speaks fluent Spanish he said he couldn't understand the detectives.

They called an interpreter and then took him to secret police headquarters for questioning.

At midnight the ex-convict was transferred to the military prison. "I have been framed and the only reason they are trying to pin this on me is because I am an ex-convict," Johnson said.

Johnson was traced to Havana after a man using the name of Kingsley Elliott boarded a plane for Cuba from Miami Friday afternoon. The name had appeared as an alias on Johnson's criminal record.

Find Fifth Ace

RALEIGH, N.C. (JP)—Detectives who flushed a poker party here but failed to catch the gamblers think they probably saved the undertaker some work. They found 65 cents and a deck containing five aces at the scene.

Last-Minute . . .

(Continued from page one)
ington and C. F. Little running for justice of the peace in Winterville Township, in Ayden, C. G. Moore is unopposed for justice of the peace.

Quiz Night

9:00 P. M.
3 VALUABLE PRIZES

Ends Today — Tim Holt in "ROAD AGENT"

State

Today

BETTE DAVIS in "Another Man's Poison"

TUES. & WED.

It's a daring role for lovely GREER as the light-fingered lady with taking ways!

"THE LAW and THE LADY."

GREER GARSON and MICHAEL WILDING

INTRODUCING HOLLYWOOD'S NEW ROMANTIC STAR!

FERNANDO LAMAS and MARJORIE MAIN

More Lafts

"Puny Express"

First Feature 1:30

Second 3:20

5:10 - 7:05 - 9:00

COLONY

Many PEERLESS Models for Your Choice

The Service Springfilled is of the same sturdy construction and with the full Peerless guarantee, yet the price is exceptionally attractive.

$34.50

The Peerless Felt Mattress has been a standby for years. This quality mattress of its type will bring you years of comfortable sleep, and yet the price is only . . .

$49.50

J. A. Collins & Son
FURNITURE • RUGS • STOVES & HOUSE FURNISHINGS
GREENVILLE AURORA

Try us First!
DIAL 4010