Police Evacuate Dangerous Areas As Rio Grande Steadily Rises

Thousands Flee To Hills; Debris-Laden Crest Rising To Record Levels

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—Police in this border city hurriedly evacuated residents of low areas today in the face of the Rio Grande's greatest flood.

Police said an expected 40-foot crest would send flood waters boiling into the business section of this city of nearly 52,000.

Across the steadily rising ramping boundary river the twin Mexican city of Nuevo Laredo abandoned attempts to sandbag the levee. Workers started moving everything possible, including the population to higher ground.

Police expected the waters to envelope the already closed International Bridge at any moment. Thousands of people on both sides of the U.S.-Mexico boundary fled to the hills. Nearly 100 miles north of the Rio Grande, in the rich oil-and-cattle country of far west Texas, 14 persons were believed dead after flash floods swept through Ozona.

Flood stages 5 to 15 feet higher than ever before were expected in the border cities today. But an International Boundary and Water Commission (IBWC) spokesman, after a plane flight over the river, said:

"How much the river will rise after this crest passes is anybody's guess."

The IBWC had lost contact with its gauging points north of Langtry some 60 miles upstream from Del Rio.

Back of the picturesque border river's churning, debris-laden crest were shattered bridges, flooded towns and washed-out railroads and highways. Thousands were forced from their homes, but—except for tragedy-ridden Ozona—there had been no loss of life reported.

River-wise city folks quickly evacuated their homes. Farmers had been warned and joined the thousands in the Mexican hills. Much of the Mexican side of the river is lower than the U.S. side.

The rains, some up to 22 inches were spawned by last week's Hurricane Alice, which lashed the Texas-Mexican Gulf Coast for 12 hours last Friday.

Ahead of the rushing floodwaters lay the great international Falcon Dam, dedicated less than a year ago by the presidents of the United States and Mexico. It was expected to keep the damaging floodwaters from the lush vegetable and citrus-growing lower Rio Grande Valley and its big population.

For the lower valley, the great flood was a blessing. Beyond Falcon Dam, the river has been virtually dry. Now the flood will be used in future months to slacken the mammoth thrust of the orange and grapefruit groves, the vegetable farms and cotton-growing areas.

At least half of Ciudad Acuna, across the river from Del Rio, Tex., was under water. Some 15,000 people huddled in the Tamulipas Hills. Water, medical supplies, food and clothing were being flown in by the American Red Cross. The privately owned International Toll Bridge was swept away between Ciudad Acuna and Del Rio.

Fifty-five miles south of Del Rio, between Piedras Negras and Eagle Pass, the raging flood beat the city owned International Bridge to kindling about 9 p.m. last night. Eagle Pass' only hospital was isolated by the swift-moving flood waters and could be reached only by boat.

Wins Maryland Demo Primary
BALTIMORE (AP)—Dr. Harry Clifton Byrd apparently won the Democratic nomination for governor early today by picking up Talbot County's four unit votes.

This gave the former University of Maryland president 77 unit votes, the number necessary for nomination under Maryland's county unit system, similar to the electoral college in presidential elections.

Pacific Air Force Organizing To Streamline Area Command
By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—A Pacific Air Force is being formed to take command over all United States Air Force installations and personnel in the vast ocean area from Hawaii to the boundaries of the Far East theater of operations.

Commanding the Pacific Air Force which is to become operative next month, will be Maj. Gen. Sory Smith, now-director of public relations for the Air Force.

This will be the first single command for air forces in the Pacific since World War II. During the war, combat and transport operations in the central Pacific were under control of the 7th Air Force.

The over-all military command of the Pacific under the unified setup, is held by Adm. Felix Stump, commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet and director of com-

Pres. Eisenhower And Churchill End Their 5-Day Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill ended their five-day Washington talks today after overcoming some British-American differences on stopping communism in Southeast Asia. But they left many issues unsettled.

The last meeting of the 79-year-old Prime Minister and the 63-year-old President, who have found their peace-time cooperation more difficult than their wartime comradeship of 10 years ago, ended at 12:15 p.m.

Eisenhower walked with Churchill from the east entrance of his office across a porch and down a flagstone path through the south lawn of the White House to the Prime Minister's waiting car.

The two men shook hands warmly and Churchill told the President, "Goodbye and good luck."

"The same to you," said Eisenhower with a friendly smile, "and I'll send those documents over in 30 minutes."

The final Eisenhower-Churchill talk lasted about 45 minutes. Churchill, puffing a big cigar, arrived before the executive entrance of the west wing of the White House on the dot of 11:30 a.m., climbed out of the limousine, posed for photographers and then marched through the halls and lobby into the President's office.

A short time later the two government chiefs were joined by Secretary of State Dulles and Eden. Their meeting was to be followed in early afternoon by release of a statement of principles for flexible supports, but for a one-year extension of the present war-born system of props at 90 percent of parity for corn, cotton, wheat, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

Across the Capitol, the Senate Agriculture Committee also has urged another year of rigid, high props, but the House will act on the farm legislation first.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices said by law to be fair to farmers in relation to the costs of the things they must buy.

Proponents of extension of inflexible farm price floors will have their inning with the public tomorrow night in a 10:45 p.m. (EDT) broadcast. Their case will be put forth by Chairman Hope (R-Kan.) of the House Agriculture Committee and Rep. Cooley (D-NC), its ranking Democrat.

The administration has asked Congress to approve a system of sliding scale price supports that would range between 75 and 90 percent of parity, with the higher range to be applied in times of scarcity to spur production and the lower range to be used in times of surplus to discourage overproduction.

Nixon, stressing the surplus problem, said the present program has piled up stocks costing 6 1/2 billion dollars and led to crop storage charges running to 250 million dollars a year. He said continuation of a program that encourages farmers to produce food which the government "then must buy with taxpayers' money to store away unused does not make sense."

Benson, who earlier in the day predicted defeat of the House bill, said the program now in effect forces strict government controls on agricultural production which he said he does not like.

"I do not believe," Benson declared, "that government should tell the farmers what they can and cannot raise, what they can and cannot sell, and that's one reason I'm so strong for the administration's program. Because it will lead us away from controls."

Highway Toll
RALEIGH (AP)—The Motor Vehicles Department's tally of highway deaths and injuries for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. today:

Killed ..... 2
Injured (rural) ..... 27
Killed this year ..... 408
Killed to date last year ..... 507
Injured to April 1, 1954 ..... 3,207
Injured to April 1, 1953 ..... 3,221

Later, interceptor outfits presumably will be assigned to the larger bases in the Pacific command area; and in the future any withdrawal of American air power from bases in Korea and Japan as a result of broad changes in strategic and international policy would mean that it would take up positions in the Pacific Air Force command zone.

The immediate major function of the Pacific Air Command will be to supply and maintain Military Air Transport Service units, operate air rescue outfits and air evacuation (hospital planes).

The Pacific commander also will work with Stump and Ruffner in preparing and keeping up-to-date Pacific war plans integrated into the over-all strategic plans of the Joint Chiefs of Staff at Washington.

Underlying the policies of our two countries," It seemed certain to stress fundamental unity of purpose and interest.

Then the 79-year-old Churchill takes off for a brief visit to Ottawa, Canada, on his way home to London.

He leaves behind a ringing appeal for a "real good try" at living peacefully with Soviet Russia.

Lines Drawn For Income Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders tightened their party lines today in a scramble for votes on a Democratic-sponsored amendment to add a big income tax cut to the administration's general tax revision bill.

The showdown on the proposal—calling for a 100 boost in personal tax exemptions—is expected tomorrow when the Senate starts operating under an agreement to limit debate.

This should bring final action on the big bill—a major item on President Eisenhower's 1954 legislative program—by Thursday.

The bill under consideration would rework the nation's tax laws for the first time since 1918 and, in doing so, would furnish $1,470,000,000 in a variety of tax cuts in its first year on the books.

No major tax rates would be affected, but the relief to both individuals and corporations would come through a series of bigger allowances for various items.

The bill already has passed the House in somewhat different form. There, Democrats tried—but failed—to write in a section to increase the personal exemption from the present $600 a year to $700. They were beaten 210-204 on what was virtually a straight party line vote.

Senate Democrats—who had been divided on the income tax issue—agreed late yesterday to gather forces behind a like 100 exemption increase plan. However, there were a few defections.

The Democratic-backed amendment would be offered as a substitute for a section now in the measure and offering substantial tax relief to stockholders on their dividend income. Some Democrats have opposed this as a boon to the wealthy.

However, the administration, which has fought the new income tax reduction attempts, has argued that the dividend income provision and other portions of the bill are designed to spur business expansion. Administration spokesmen have contended such expansion

$175,000 Award In Libel Action
NEW YORK (AP)—Author Quentin Reynolds today won a $175,000 cash award and a token moral victory in a federal libel action against Pegler.

An award of $175,000 levied against Pegler, the Hearst Corp. and Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., was believed to be one of the largest, if not the largest libel award ever made in a U.S. court.

But the jury also awarded Reynolds only one single dollar to compensate him for loss of earnings, damage to his reputation and mental anguish suffered over the past four years from a defamatory Pegler column on which the $500,000 suit was based.

"I'm happy about the award, but I can't figure out how they arrived at that dollar," Reynolds said after the weary jury announced its verdict shortly before 1 a.m. Pegler was not in court and the Pegler-Hearst lawyer declined to comment.

Reynolds in the course of the seven-week case had claimed he lost a fortune in the magazine and entertainment fields because of the Pegler column.

Federal Judge Edward Weinfeld in charging the jury, declared the column, published in 1949, was defamatory and libelous in itself as a matter of law.

He urged them to "use your common sense" in determining what compensation was due Reynolds for his principal claims of injury. In effect the jury, which had been deliberating since noon yesterday, decided he was not injured gravely at all.

The $175,000 was awarded as punitive damages, which the judge had explained took in "actual malice—ill-will, spite, hatred, intent to injure" and was also designed to prevent repetition of the offense and serve as a warning to others.

Discrepancy In Bethel Box; Whitehurst Asks New Tally Vote Recount Asked

S. A. Whitehurst, candidate who placed 44 votes behind Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson in the second primary last Saturday, asked the Pitt County Board of Elections for a re-count of every precinct ballot box this morning.

Elections officials contacted today could not recall any previous recount being made here.

In calling for the recount, Whitehurst said, "Due to the closeness of the election I think I am due to call for a recount. I do not question anyone's honesty, but I feel I owe it to myself and my friends to call for the recount."

He added the recount could reflect either way, but he wanted all boxes recounted.

Bethel Box In Question
It was brought out at the Pitt County Board of Election meeting this morning that the Bethel box showed five more ballots than it showed names on the poll books.

Officials for the election Saturday said they did not know exactly how it happened, but they had names of those who had voted, and those names were not on the books. The officials had sworn affidavits from these voters saying they had cast ballots Saturday.

Whitehurst asked the Board this morning to check the N. C. General Statute 163-21-5. He stated, "See if the election law is violated. If you find it is, enter the violation in the minutes of the meeting."

Based Recount On Bethel Box
Whitehurst based his asking for a recount on the Bethel box. "I want a general recount of all boxes," he said, "with the Bethel box as my principal reason for asking for the recount."

Elections Board Chairman Gilbert Peel told the members of the Board, "The Board of Elections can do nothing but accept the returns of the officials of the various boxes; however, either Mr. Tyson or Mr. Whitehurst or their friends can ask for a recount."

Peel then asked the other Board members if they thought there was enough information to justify a recount, or if they should wait until Whitehurst could get more facts on why he wanted a recount. The Board chairman told the group of Whitehurst telling him (Peel) yesterday that in some boxes the ballot was not counted because it was spotted on the Commissioner's part of the ballot.

It was brought out this morning that each sheet of paper consisted of three ballots and even though one section of the sheet was "marked" the other part should be counted.

Official Count Meeting
The Board of Elections was meeting this morning to make the official count of the election.

It was at this meeting that Whitehurst entered his protest asking for a recount of all ballot boxes.

The Board of Elections certified the sheriff race vote totals this morning which showed Tyson with 5,137 and Whitehurst with 5,093.

Whitehurst has until Thursday 6 p. m. to give his reasons for calling for the recount in writing in the form of an affidavit.

The Board of Elections will meet next Tuesday at 7:30 to see if his reasons justify a recount.

Utilities Approve Sum Transfer On Annual Basis Vote $142,500 Go To City
By BOB BOYETTE
Reflector Staff Writer
Greenville Utilities Commissioners, in a special call meeting yesterday, passed a resolution to turn over $142,500 annually to the City of Greenville.

This resolution was drawn "pursuant to the request of the City for a turnover by the Utilities Commission of $142,500 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955." It came after a committee, appointed to make a study of the Utilities future expansion program, had looked into the matter to determine the advisability and feasibility in the light of the Utilities' requirements.

Superintendent Leonard Bloxam this morning said "The Commission felt with the growth we are experiencing in electric, water and sanitary sewer systems and to be able to adequately serve the public it was necessary to determine and fix an amount to be turned over to the City."

"Also by next summer," the superintendent added, "it will be necessary to spend approximately $100,000 on enlargement of the water plant and sometime within the next three to five years we will be confronted with a sewerage disposal plant as required by State law." The approximate cost of the sewerage disposal plant was estimated to be about $700,000.

Setting Up Sinking Fund
Bloxam said this morning, "By fixing the turnover to the City of $142,500 it is the Commission's desire to set aside in a general fund all excess funds to keep from having to ask for any more bond issues than necessary to carry out our program."

The Utilities Superintendent was asked if a rate reduction was discussed at the meeting yesterday. He said it was not.

Discussed Only $12,500
After the City Council had asked the Commission recently for the $142,500 this year a committee had made a study and recommended only $132,500 be turned over this year. The Council, after discussing the proposed budget for the coming fiscal year, found itself more than $8,000 above the anticipated revenue even if the Commission turned over $142,500. It considered going to the Commission with its budget to discuss the possibility of asking for more money, but reports indicate

Emergency Regime Said Overthrown In New Coup Guatemala Junta Ousted

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP)—The Guatemalan government radio today reported the resignation of the regime headed by Col. Carlos Enrique Diaz who had taken over the government Sunday night.

The announcement came after Col. Castillo Armas, leader of the anti-Communist rebels in the Guatemalan war, demanded "unconditional surrender" of the junta headed by Enrique Diaz.

The Guatemalan broadcast said Jose A. Sanchez, another member of the three-man junta which succeeded Arbenz, had also quit.

It said Alfredo H. Monzon, who was the third member of the junta headed by Enrique Diaz, now heads the new ruling group. The other two were listed as Jose Luis Salazar and Maurice Dubois.

The rebels under Castillo Armas had threatened to keep up their fight against the regime headed by Diaz. The Guatemalan radio said yesterday afternoon rebel planes had bombed Guatemala City, the capital. Then the station went off the air. A communique from the rebels' headquarters made no mention of the bombing.

(Private advices reaching New York said the Diaz junta was overthrown in a coup by Col. Monzon. He was described as an anti-Communist.

These advices said Monzon was expected to negotiate a settlement of the civil war with Castillo Armas. They added the new government announced political amnesty for all anti-Communists who had been arrested by the Arbenz regime and the end of censorship.)

Associated Press Correspondent Jack Rutledge, in a dispatch from Guatemala City, reported 18 hours by censorship, delayed the junta had started a roundup yesterday of Communists. He said two Red members of Parliament had taken refuge in the Mexican Embassy.

He said among the first acts of the new military regime had been a shift in the top police command, with Jose Luis Morales Meigar named to succeed Rogelio Cruz Wer as chief of the civil police and J. Antonio Saravia replacing Jaime Rosenberg as secret police chief.

Arbenz, Rutledge said, was confined under heavy guard yesterday to his private residence in the suburbs of Guatemala City, with an armored car stationed in front. However, the Guatemalan government radio in a broadcast later yesterday said the ex-president was flying to exile in Argentina.

The Argentine government announced in Buenos Aires last night that Arbenz's wife and two children had been given asylum in its Guatemala City embassy.

Rutledge messaged that developments were "so rapid that general confusion reigns." He said censorship, lifted Sunday night after Arbenz's resignation, had been clamped back on light, "due mainly to the confusion."

Highway Patrol Maps July 4 Weekend Drive
GREENSBORO (AP)—More than 500 Highway Patrol cars will cruise North Carolina's highways during the long Fourth of July weekend in a mass effort to reduce accidents and fatalities.

Col. James R. Smith of Raleigh, commanding officer of the patrol, said here yesterday that the "highways will be more heavily patrolled this weekend than at any other time in the state's history."

The patrol cars will include 200 new high speed vehicles and 150 others painted civilian colors. Col. Smith, here to explain the setup to officers of the Troop C area, said all radar units and electronic speed clocks will be in constant operation.

Col. Smith said the patrol's new saturation technique also will be employed. This, he said, will be used at unannounced times when all patrolmen in a given area will concentrate on one particular highway, with patrols and speed clocks every 10 miles.

The new high speed vehicles, used as interceptors, are able to travel 90 m.p.h. in second gear. This year for the first time, Col. Smith said, vacations have been arranged so that every man on the force will be on duty over the Fourth.

Millions Of Americans Will See Sun's Eclipse Early Tomorrow
By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
NEW YORK (AP)—A dragon swallows the sun tomorrow morning. This at least was one ancient superstitious explanation of what millions of Americans should be able to see soon after dawn—a total eclipse of the sun or good portion of it.

The great celestial show practically the last one this century for many Americans, will be reserved for early risers.

The full blackout, or total eclipse, will be viewed only by persons in a belt 68 to 96 miles wide from Hol' County, Neb., and extending through South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan, in the United States. Minneapolis and St. Paul are the only major cities in the path.

But other millions should catch a good portion of it if the weather is kind—a 74 per cent bite out of the sun in New York, about 85 per cent in Chicago, 82 in St. Louis, 91 in Denver, 71 in Atlanta, 75 in Washington and 66 per cent in Tallahassee, Fla. Far Westeners will miss out entirely.

The total eclipse begins at 6:07 a.m. (EST) near O'Neill, Neb., and then the shadow of the moon will race across the earth at a speed of 2,000 miles per hour. It will dart through Canada, Labrador the tip of Greenland, Norway, Sweden, Russia and Pakistan, with a black sun setting in India 2 1/2 hours later.

At Minneapolis, the sun will rise with the moon already taking a piece out of the sun, and the total eclipse will occur there about 30 seconds after it begins in Nebraska. Today at the Twin Cities will last about 75 seconds.

Mid-eclipse for New Yorkers will occur at 6 a.m. EST with the partial disappearance of the sun actually beginning nearly an hour earlier and the last remnant of the eclipse finished about 7 a.m. EST.

A stern warning comes from medical experts and astronomers not to look at the eclipse through ordinary sun glasses, at the risk of serious eye damage. You must use heavily smoked glass, welder's glasses, or strongly exposed photographic film. Be careful especially of children's eyes.

$300,000 Bond Issue Voted By Ayden School District
The $300,000 bond issue for the Ayden School District was approved by the voters last Saturday. The money, to be used for school improvements and building a new elementary school there, was approved by a vote of 420 to 326. There were 1,029 voters registered for the special school bond election, which was the first special school bond election held in Pitt County since the recent segregation ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Plans not only call for building a new elementary school in Ayden, but also for renovating the present high schools in the district. According to information received for building the new elementary school, the voters voted on these sites Saturday: The Fatsy McLaughlin Worthington and E.F. Denmark tracts won over the old Eureka College site by a vote of 345 to 336.

'Worst Traffic Jam' Predicted
CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council predicted today the coming weekend will produce the worst July 4 traffic jam in history and said 430 persons may not escape it alive.

The three-day holiday weekend is expected to attract more than 40 million cars to the highways. "More travel does not have to mean more accidents if every driver uses more caution," Ned H. Dearborn, council president said.

"Let's make this holiday a wreckless one, not a reckless one."

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. R. L. Corbett. During the business discussion Mrs. Louise Harris gave a report on get well cards. A contingent fund was taken and money was raised for the church lounge.

Mrs. A. C. Turnage gave an inspiring devotional based on "Love." Mrs. Turnage pointed out that if we had Love in our hearts God would have no trouble carrying out the plan of Salvation.

Mrs. Z.B.T. Cox gave the program, using a "quiz" on Bible characters and sacred songs.

Garden Or Lawn Can Fall To Vacation Bugs

By BERT S. FULING
This is the time of the year when the vacation bug nibbles at most of us—gardeners or not. Maps are strewn about the living room floor and the family argues whether it will be the shore, lakes, mountains or a tour. No matter who wins, one certainty always is with the gardener—the garden stays home.

You can send the pooch to the kennel, board the parakeet or canary with a feather-loving friend, or place the pet turtle with little Johnny next door. But with your garden started and growing, all of its greens and blooms and vegetables go relentlessly on and on and on.

The grass keeps growing on the lawn, the flowers keep blooming, the corn gets ready for picking, the tomatoes tomato—and you are in Yellowstone Park.

Then you have the problem of house plants which would dry out and wither indoors untended. Even a week or 10 days, instead of the usual two or three weeks away brings all sorts of garden problems.

If you are well stocked with cash, you can have the nurseryman do the chores. This, however, cuts heavily into vacation funds.

You can call on the neighbor gardener for assistance. You can hope your vacation schedules don't coincide—and then, perhaps you can make a deal:

"I'll mow your lawn, pick your flowers, fruit and vegetables, spray, weed and water while you are away, if you'll do the same for me."

As for house plants, most of them you can put outdoors in either shade or sun spots as the nature of the plant determines. Dig the pots into the ground to preserve moisture. Sudden summer winds won't knock them over.

But before going on a vacation trek, give the garden a good soaking. Don't just use a hose spray, but employ a garden seeder, soaking to about six-inch depth.

Then mulch all around your plantings, both to preserve the moisture content and to keep sun and wind from drying out the soil, and to keep the weeds down. You can mulch with peat moss, grass clippings, or other mulching material.

Ask your neighbor to turn your seeder on once a week as weather conditions warrant, and to move it about the garden as needed. Try not to get yourself into the position as related the other day by a garden-lazy suburban friend whose biggest chore is an hour's session with the lawnmower.

"Why should I go into big deal gardening?" he asked brightly. "My neighbor puts in a wonderful garden. There are more flowers than available vases, the corn grows succulent and sweet, the vegetables are fine to behold and taste."

"But you know what he's done every year for the past 11 years? Just as everything is reaching peak he and his wife take off on a long vacation. All I have to do is to keep his lawn mowed, do some watering and weeding, and reap the harvest. I can skip all the preliminaries."

This situation is more common than you might think. If you've got a Green Thumb neighbor, try to work out vacations so each can work—and reap. If, on the other hand, you've got a Dumb Thumb situation around you, remember next year and gauge your garden to your summertime activities.

There's nothing worse than to come back from an exhilarating trip, and find the grass "up to here," the weeds "that high," and your restful vacation buried under a mountain of garden work ahead.

Scheme it out, gardener. The garden won't.

Slept Through Dynamite Blast

WASHINGTON, N. C. — Officers said it must have taken two sticks of dynamite planted under the hood of Mrs. Susie Key's automobile to have done all the damage yesterday.

The blast shattered the car's front end and windows in a nearby home, dug a deep hole in the ground and hurled part of the motor and hood 25 feet. Officers said they didn't know who did it.

Neither did Mrs. Key's 17-year-old son Jibe, who said he slept through it all in the back seat.

New President Receives The Gavel

New Lions Club Officers Installed

Bill Speight was installed as Lions Club president succeeding Retiring President Henry Swayne in ceremonies last night.

Speight was elected as new president of the club recently.

Other officers installed included: Ben Rouse, first vice-president; Warren Aldridge, second vice-president; Jim Taylor, third vice president; Bill Watson, secretary-treasurer; H. L. Lewis, assistant secretary-treasurer; John Biggs, tall twister and James Page, lion tamer.

The Lions heard brief remarks from Swayne as he stepped down as president of the club.

They also heard Jessie Jones, of Kinston, International Councilor and past district governor, praise the Greenville club for its contribution to the community.

"New leaders must keep their feet on the ground or disaster will occur," Jones stated. "There was never a time in history more challenging than that which faces us today. Unless we have faith in leaders we are lost."

Preceding the installation of officers Miss Barbara White sang several selections for the entertainment portion of the program.

College Faculty Members To Be In July Programs

East Carolina College will be represented at Pennsylvania State University and the Union Theological Seminary in New York City by faculty members who will attend in July special programs on the relationship between religion and instruction in schools and colleges.

J.O. Derrick of the department of science will be at Pennsylvania July 5-17. He will participate there in a seminar on "The Teaching of the Natural Sciences in Relation to Religious Concepts." Enrollment in this seminar is limited to fifty teachers from all parts of the United States.

Dr. Edgar W. Hirshberg of the department of English will participate in a special program at the Union Theological Seminary July 6-23. "Christian Foundations for College Teaching" will be considered there in various units of study.

East Carolina College was chosen early this year by the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education as one of fifteen pilot centers in the United States where during the next five years a project on teacher education and religion will be carried on.

The project is expected to develop a program will give greater emphasis to religion as an aspect of education in the preparation of teachers in all member institutions of the AACTE. It was made possible through a $60,000 grant from the William H. Danforth Foundation, Inc.

Both Mr. Derrick and Dr. Hirshberg are members of the committee which is directing this project at East Carolina College. They will study this summer on scholarships from the Danforth Foundation.

Somebody Placed Parking Ticket On Mayor's Car

CHICAGO (AP)—Somebody tagged a parking ticket on Mayor Martin Kennelly's car, and a judge threatened motorist Jack Keisman with a $100 fine if it turns out he did it.

Policemen, Edward Maher testified in Traffic Court yesterday a ticket he put on Keisman's auto Jan. 22 after turned up on the windshield of the mayor's limousine. Maher said the mayor's police chauffeur told him he saw a man make the switch on the street outside City Hall Keisman was charged with failing to pay the parking fine or answer a court summons.

But Keisman, 35, a clothing manufacturer, said he never saw the ticket and did not make the switch.

Judge Joseph J. Butler, who continued the case to July 28, said if Keisman is guilty "I will fine him $100. It shows disrespect for the law."

Youth Fell Into Bathtub, Drowns

COVINGTON, Va. (AP)—John M. Nester Jr., 17, of South Covington, drowned in a bathtub at his home here yesterday.

Members of the local first aid crew who tried without success to revive the youth, said he apparently fell into the water-filled tub after becoming ill and was unable to pull himself out. His mother found him dead when she returned from a shopping trip.

Scientists estimate that if there were no control programs insects would destroy half of U.S. farm production.

Tobacco Festival Funds Solicitation Begins Today

Solicitation of funds for the forthcoming Tobacco Festival August 12 began today with the budget set at $4500, according to Johnny Overton, finance committee chairman.

Overton, finance committee chairman, J. E. Waldrop and Robert Elks, began their solicitation this morning.

"We expect the campaign to last two or three days at least, though we can't tell exactly," Overton stated yesterday.

He noted that this year's budget totals "around $500 more" than last year's.

Japan's Build-Up Plans Disclaimed

TOKYO (AP)—The English-language edition of the newspaper Mainichi said today Japan has an unannounced five-year plan for building her new air force to 1,300 planes, including 525 Sabre jets.

A defense force spokesman said, "We have never heard of the plan."

Festival chairman Bill Watson said earlier, "I would like to urge the patrons of the Tobacco Festival to be generous in their contributions in order that we might meet the expenses necessary to carry out a successful program."

"Since there will be no booths for sale, or other means of fundraising this year other than solicitation, Watson said he "would request all donors to give a little more than has been the custom, in order that we might have sufficient funds to meet the budget."

The chairman expressed the hope that the Festival will be "one of the highlights in the city during 1954." Emphasized was the fact that for the first time all the festivities of the annual Farmers Day will be "uptown."

Price Support Program Still A Question

The rigid price support program for basic agricultural crops is not yet out of the woods.

Agricultural Committees of both the House and the Senate have given their approval to a bill which would extend the rigid price supports for one year. In so doing, they have turned thumbs down on the administration's insistence that flexible price supports replace rigid supports in the federal farm program.

The one-year extension of rigid supports got through the Senate Agricultural Committee with a one-vote margin with five Democrats and three Republicans supporting the provision. In the same committee, a provision for a two-year extension to the present fixed high support supports was defeated by a nine-six vote.

Voting Showed Gain Over Past 2nd Primaries

Pitt County voters are to be commended on their turnout in Saturday's second primary.

Percentage-wise, the number of voters who went to the polls to cast ballots, compared with the number of registered voters, is nothing to brag about. Compared with first and second primaries of the past, however, Pitt County made a good showing at the polls Saturday.

The 10,200 who voted in the second primary Saturday represented approximately 81 per cent of the voters who cast ballots in the first primary.

Indeed, that leaves much to be desired on the part of the voters, but it nevertheless is a better showing of voters than the usual second primary which sees two-thirds to three-fourths of the first primary number return to the polls.

It is essential that citizens of a community exhibit a vital interest in local government if the local government is to be maintained on a high plane. The most effective way the citizens can show their interest in government and governmental affairs is to participate in the election of officials.

Pitt County is showing improvement in this respect, but it still has a long way to go. The Reflector hopes to see the day when the vast majority of registered voters of the county turn out regularly to cast their ballots in elections.

Strength for the Day

By EARL L. DOUGLASS
COMMUNISM THRIVES ON MISERY
Sometimes we find it hard to understand how people can ever be deceived by communism. This is because we live in a free economy under a free government. Practically everybody in the United States has plenty to eat and a roof over his head. There are almost as many automobiles in this country as there are houses-holds. People from other countries coming here may not like certain of our customs, but they are overwhelmed by the abundance of our institutions and the plenty which everywhere abounds.

This freedom and plenty do not obtain throughout the world. The Russians have lived in servitude as far back as their history goes—and frequently in hunger. Most of Asia has been hungry from time immemorial. Every night millions of people lie down hungry, and the cruel irony of all this is that most of them live in countries where the land is fertile and the natural resources abundant. The greed of overlords, the falseness of ancient religions, the slavery of custom, the lethargy of enfeebled populations, and ineffectiveness of methods of distribution cause hunger and servitude to persist.

Communism is slavery, but millions look to it because emptiness characterizes their lives—empty stomachs, empty heads, and empty hearts.

National Whirligig

Demos Duck McCarthy Brawl

By RAY TUCKER
WASHINGTON—Senate Democrats will not support the Flinders-Lehman move to discipline Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, largely for reasons of practical politics. Indeed, the leadership is disturbed by the fact that the New York Senator mixed in the "Republican brawl."

It is known that a majority of the opposition condemn McCarthy's manners and methods, as their representation on the Mundt Committee demonstrated. But the Democrats, as well as many of their Republican colleagues, are appalled at his continued popularity in the face of expressed denunciation by so many substantial elements of the citizenry.

MCCARTHY'S CRITICS—In formal resolutions, he has been criticized for spreading hatred and dissension by organizations, publications and spokesmen for the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths. He was forced to supplant J. B. Matthews with Roy M. Cohn as executive director of his investigating group because the former had charged that there were many communist sympathizers among the Protestant clergy.

More importantly, from the standpoint of politics, he has been excoriated by the more influential unions, both AFL and CIO. Still mindful of their great debt to FDR, and Harry S. Truman, they resent McCarthy's characterization of the Roosevelt-Truman regime as "twenty years of treason."

A series of anti-McCarthy proclamations has been issued by members of President Eisenhower's political family—by Ike himself, Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., Sherman Adams, National Chairman Leonard W. Hall and Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

In two elections where McCarthy figured indirectly, the voters lined up against him. Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine defeated a McCarthy admirer. In California, Mrs. Mildred Younger won

The administration can not help but view Congressional action on this particularly piece of farm legislation as a stiff test of its influence and control.

Now that the Agricultural Committees of both houses have rejected the demand for flexible price supports, the administration may be expected to exert its influence in a floor fight in both the House and the Senate when the bill comes up—probably this week — for action.

The Reflector is of the opinion the majority of the House and the Senate will give endorsement to the one-year extension of rigid price support at 90 cent of parity on basic farm commodities. But the influence the administration wields in Congress—even the Eisenhower administration—should never be underestimated. There is still an outside chance the administration will win its battle to end rigid price supports without the one-year extension.

In spite of committee approval from both houses of Congress, the tables could be minimized. Action of the committees turned in floor battles in favor of the ad-should not make agricultural interests so over-confident about the extension of the rigid price support program that they let their guard down before final approval of the extension is received.

Modern Lesson In The Phenix City Story

Gambling and racketeering interests have brought catastrophe to the town of Phenix City, Alabama. First they brought to the city the lure of easy money. Now murder has followed. Economic ruin faces the city.

The story of Phenix City has been told over and over again in newspapers across the nation in recent weeks. It made headlines when the newly nominated Attorney General of Alabama was slain in front of his office in Phenix City. He had won the nomination with his campaign against vice in his home town. His aim in office was to rid Phenix City and all Alabama of underworld operations.

There is more than just the story here. It is an up-to-the-minute example of what gambling and racketeering interests will do to protect their illicit operations. They will stop at nothing.

When the state government of Alabama cleans up illegal activities, as it apparently intends to do, Phenix City will sorely miss the money illegal activities has brought it. It will take many years for the city to live down the stigma attached to its activities of the past. It will take a long time for the city to get used to life without the easy money of illegal operations.

Gambling and other racketeering in Phenix City started in a small way. It didn't grow up there overnight. But as it was allowed to breed and mature, it grew into a monstrous thing which has now risen to challenge the authority of the state government of Alabama.

The same course is true wherever gambling and the rackets are allowed to get a foothold — whether it be in New York, Florida, Alabama, or North Carolina.

over Jack Tenney, a local anti-Communist chaser, for the Republican nomination for State Senator.

WISCONSIN SENATOR'S STRENGTH—Despite this array of adversaries and adverse reactions, every public and private check suggests that McCarthy is regarded as a "great and patriotic American" by 30 to 35 per cent of the people polled, Republicans and Democrats, in rural and urban areas. With so many members of Congress running for re-election in states and districts where a shift of 5 or 10 per cent means defeat or victory, they have no heart for taking on "terrible Joe."

In fact, a McCarthy rebuke at this late hour would make the Senate look foolish. It is more than two years since he refused to answer the Hennings Committee's formal and official questions about his personal finances. Yet, the Senate has not invoked any rules against him in that period. Eisenhower's Internal Revenue agents have had 17 months to check on his income tax returns, if any, and their accuracy.

Thus, for the Democrats it is good politics to let that record stand and become a campaign issue. If possible the GOP-ers on the Mundt body will postpone the making of any report of its findings in the Army-McCarthy row until after the November elections. Whether they decide for "Joe" or the Pentagon, or even if they return a "plague on both your houses" verdict, it will do the Party no good at the polls.

Since Senate Majority Leader William F. Knowland has fixed July 31 as a possible adjournment date, and since actual work on the report has hardly started, it will not be too difficult for the political parliamentarians to defer the dread day and decision.

Poor Butterfly

Somebody Told Me

Fate Played Delightful Role

The only thing that's more fun than seeing someone else experience a thrill is to experience it yourself. Yesterday I met a 14-year-old orphan girl, Alice Faye Wiggins of the Clay Root section nine miles from Ayden, who was as thrilled as anybody I've ever seen. And that even included when our three and a half year old daughter got a kitten.

Alice was in Greenville and saw the bicycle in the window at Larry's Shoe Store. The bike was to be given to the person who could guess the closest to the number of pennies in a jar at the window. "I didn't look at it very long," Alice says. But nevertheless, she guessed within four of the correct answer and therefore is the winner of the bike. There were 4956 pennies in the jar, according to the count of Assistant Cashier Ralph Tucker of the Guaranty Bank. Alice's guess was 4952. The next best guess, 4950, was that of Joyce Dawn Gray, 208 S. Greene St. Third best was that of Karen Miller 1010 Cotanche St., whose guess was 4930.

Alice was left alone in the world in 1940, when her father died. So her brother, Lloyd, took her in his home. At the time she was six.

Lloyd was with Alice yesterday and bawling almost as much as she was. The drawing was last Monday but at the time Alice was in Manteo and didn't realize she had won.

Lloyd said, "She's never had a bicycle, or even a wagon for that matter."

What Other Editors Are Thinking

PLANNING FOR A SAFE FOURTH (Rocky Mount Telegram)

It is most encouraging to note that some time before a big national holiday such agencies as the National Safety Council get right down to business with educational campaigns aimed at teaching the driving public to be more careful on those occasions when half of America takes to the highways.

With such a vigorous agency as North Carolina now has under the direction of Mr. Scheidt in Raleigh, together with the efforts of the National Safety Council, we are looking for a marked reduction in casualties in this state during the coming Fourth of July holiday.

For some time now the Safety Council has been plugging safety for the Fourth. In a recent communication the Council asks, "Are you a heel at the wheel?"

Then, the Council, which is coordinating a nationwide Fourth of July safety campaign, holds up six mirrors, declaring that "if you can see yourself in any of them, then be prepared to become a holiday statistic. Here are the six mirrors:

THE ME FIRSTER — this is the selfish competitive character who must be first away from the traffic light, can't stand to have anyone pass him, and risks the life of anyone who gets in his way.

THE BIG I — this is the fellow who is too big for the rules. Others can obey the law and a code of decent and courteous behavior, but not this self-inflated big shot. He is above all that.

THE KNOW-IT-ALL — this driver is good, in his own estimation. He knows just what the other driver is going to do, just how much room he needs to get in on another car. But the only way this over-confident jerk escapes painful disillusionment is that the really good drivers give him a wide berth.

THE SWASHBUCKLER — this fellow thinks he expresses his masculinity or something by living dangerously behind the wheel. He believes that he who hesitates is lost, and that his luck will hold forever.

THE SOREHEAD — this fellow is just plain hostile. He drives with a chip on his shoulder and is ready to lock fenders for a real or imagined wrong. He's sore at everyone, and very brave while surrounded by a steel automobile with the windows rolled up.

THE SHOW-OFF — this is the exhibitionist. He's graduated from no hands on a bike to no sense at the wheel. He just wants people to admire his flashy performance, but most other drivers are too busy getting out of his way.

Take a good, look at yourself in one of these mirrors. See anything? A heel at the wheel gets by because the good drivers give him the margin of safety he fails to give himself. But the heavy Fourth of July traffic will reduce that margin. Watch it!

TIGHTER — It seems certain that the budget folks will be "tighter" this year than at any time within the past two decades, especially with respect to new construction and expansion of activities. Every year since 1935, when we began to move out of the depression, institutions have quests by factual showing — larger appropriations for expanded services. Every year since 1936 until now the general fund revenue has exceeded budget forecasts.

Inability to spend money for new buildings and larger service during the war years occasioned tremendous surpluses between 1945 and 1949. Those surplus funds have now been spent for physical equipment and personnel and public services.

This year, for the first time in 20 years, collections fell below budget estimates. Thanks to careful budgetary supervision and reasonable legislative attitude, the shortage in collections will not seriously interrupt services by any agency, department or institution. But the era of expansion is temporarily over.

The job now is to hold the line and not go backward. The budget folks understand that in some instances standing still is actually going backward, and they do want that. So, even in face of declining prospective revenue, some additions and expansions will be authorized. The point is, that those who seek these increases will have a harder time supporting their requests and will have to make a better showing of real need than has been the case in recent years.

Members of the advisory budget commission and of the General Assembly are likely to be more acutely conscious of the plight of the taxpayer than of the ambitions of those who are administering the proceeds of the taxes collected.

Railroad Advocates

By ELMER ROESSNER

A campaign to discourage the kicking around of railroads will be uncorked this week. It will be run not by railroads but by the companies that sell them.

These companies have joined the Committee of Railroad Suppliers, with Fred Smith as director and a list of distinguished industrialists on the executive committee. It will be kicked off Wednesday when Benjamin F. Fairless, of U.S. Steel, makes an address in New York in which the woes of the railroads will be described. This will be followed by a campaign of advertisements in newspapers and mail.

The objective of the campaign is to reduce the amount of regulations under which railroads operate. But just which regulations should be reduced, or how far they should be reduced is left open. The Committee's attitude is that its job is to make the public aware of just how many restrictions railroads operate under, and that public opinion will take care of the rest.

The Committee also thinks that if the railroads themselves ran the campaign, the industry may become better known for its problems than its achievements.

It also thinks—and this is the key to the campaign—that if railroads were less regulated they could operate more efficiently and profitably, and if they were more profitable they would buy more equipment from the companies supporting the Committee.

It may be doubtful that the public is ready to be convinced that railroads suffer from too much regulation, or even that railroads would do magnificently better if they weren't. But the Committee is betting about $500,000 it is right. The campaign is not to be a steady, day-to-day propaganda affair but is to consist of a series of publicity bursts. The first of these—the one Mr. Fairless is lighting the fuse for—will cost $100,000. Four or five more are planned for later dates.

EAT, DIE IN ZIPPERS

Do you think that zippers are used only on apparel? We might think so if an owlish little publicity man named Amos Landman hadn't been around today with a neatly typed release from the Conmar Corp., which mentions, according to the rules of the game, one Alexander Konoff, president, in every third paragraph.

It seems that the company is making zippers 10 feet long for tarpaulins to cover surplus government grain stored outside, zippers for seat covers, bomb-sights, engines, air-locks and other instruments on B-52 bombers, zippers for jungle hammocks, bulletproof vests, burial bags. Once they develop zippers for swaddling clothes, the industry can truly be said to serve mankind from the cradle to the grave.

CARPET INDUSTRY PRODUCTION CUTBACK

Carpeting prices have been trending upward recently. One of the reasons may be that the industry has worked off some of its burden some inventory. At least, the Carpet Institute reports that production of wool and blended carpets and rugs in April was 28 per cent lower than a year ago, and that production in the first four months of the year was 28 per cent down.

Spillane Hints At Less Violence

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Spillane, the literary gore-shedder, is feeling the gentle touch of time.

At 36 the Brooklyn-born author is mellowing himself, and feels the public also is so weary of the post-war cycle of violence that he is considering making Mike Hammer, his famous mythical private detective, turn in his brass knuckles forever.

Back in 1946 in "I, The Jury," Mike startled and fascinated the world of mice-men by drilling an amorous blonde through the stomach and telling her "it was easy." Sherlock Holmes would have dismissed Mike Hammer as a dastard and a cad, but the public went crazy over a gun who could win a verdict over a blonde, even with a gun. Spillane says the seven thrillers he has written about Muscle Mike have sold 60 million copies, been reprinted in 11 languages.

"I have the distinct honor even having been translated into English for the British market," dryly remarked Spillane, a stocky former war flier.

"I have another book ready to go called, 'Tonight I Die,' and I feel it will be the last one about Mike."

"You have to change. You have to go with the market. I've used hatred as a motivation up to now. But we're over the war. Hate and violence are worn thin. People want books now built around subtle moods and character."

Mickey hinted he had another reason—that he was weary of taking the personal risks of more underworld researches for Mike's exploits.

"Fifty per cent of the situations I write about are true," he said. "But you can get clobbered once too often getting your background material."

"From now on I think I'll write nothing but fiction."

Mickey and his friend Jack Stang, a Newburg, N.Y., cop, returned recently from Hollywood, where they acted with Clyde Beatty in "Ring of Fear," the story of a psychopathic killer in a circus.

Over a dinner of steak and beer (contrary to reports, Spillane doesn't sip plasma through a straw), Mickey discussed the way Hollywood murders plots.

"I like Hollywood," he said, "but I don't think much of some of the Hollywood writers. Put them in front of a typewriter and they're helpless. They have to drool into a microphone."

"If you give them a good story, all they keep is the title. They don't know what to do with a good story. They have to try to make it an epic."

"When I have a story to write, I sit down and write it. I wrote 'I, The Jury' for $1,000 in 19 days while I was living in a tent. I never look more than three weeks to write a book in my life. I can write 10,000 words in a day."

Mickey, who dwells in a black-and-white world where a guy is either your pal or probably a bum, clings to his old friends, has a morbid fear success might go to his crew-cut head.

"I don't like people who get famous and something happens to their minds," he said. "That doesn't happen to the good ones."

He and his wife, Baby, live in a house they built themselves on a 28-acre estate "of grass and weeds" near Newburgh with their two young children and a dog.

Mickey, who yearns to be an acrobat, spends his days now practicing back flips in his front yard. If he doesn't break his neck, he plans a brief tour this summer with a circus.

"I've got six cars—cars are good for you," he said earnestly. "They keep you out of trouble."

His favorite is a souped up 1951 stock model in which he can keep out of trouble at 150 miles an hour.

His favorite is a souped up 1951 stock model in which he can keep out of trouble at 150 miles an hour.

Sometimes Spillane's father, a former bartender, comes over to shake his head at his son's antics.

"He can't understand," said Mickey, "why I don't go out and get a steady job like other men."

Film Star June Haver Weds Fred Macmurray

OJAI, Calif. (AP)—June Haver and Fred Macmurray last night achieved their goal—a quiet wedding after one of the most publicized of recent Hollywood romances.

They slipped away from the film capital for a double-ring, civil ceremony at the picturesque Ojai Valley Inn.

The civil rites, churchmen have said, will deprive the actress of the sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church, of which she is a devout member. This is because she was wed previously—in the church—to musician Jimmy Zito and the brief marriage ended in divorce. Macmurray is a Presbyterian.

For both Miss Haver, 26, and Macmurray, 45, the marriage culminated a romance each had entered after heartbreak. The actor's wife of 17 years, Lillian, died a year ago.

Miss Haver became engaged to Dr. John Duzik, a Beverly Hills dentist, after her divorce from Zito, but in 1949 Dr. Duzik died. Friends said grief over his death was one of the reasons June entered a convent early last year to study to become a nun. After seven months she left the convent and returned to Hollywood.

The film colony had expected Macmurray to marry the blonde dancing star about July 6. Last night's quiet wedding, attended by only seven relatives and friends, emphasized the couple's desire to avoid a lavish ceremony.

The rites were performed by Superior Court Judge Charles F. Blackstock of nearby Ventura, with Mr. and Mrs. Boo Roos of Hollywood acting as witnesses. Roos is Macmurray's business manager.

Also there were Miss Haver's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ottestad of Los Angeles; Macmurray's mother, Mrs. Melita Macmurray of Bel-Air, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Burger. The wedding was in the Burger apartment at the inn.

The bride wore a full-skirted gown of champagne silk with a panel of French corded lace down the front. A hat of lace and silk matched the gown. She carried cymbidium orchids.

After the ceremony, the couple telephoned Macmurray's adopted children, Susan, 14, and Robert, 10, at his northern California ranch near Healdsburg. The youngsters greeted Miss Haver with "Hi, Mom," and congratulated the pair.

The actress and her tall husband then left by automobile for a honeymoon tour of the Grand Canyon and Bryce Canyon and to visit other scenic Western sites.

Fifty Attended Richmond Meet

A delegation of 50 Jehovah's witnesses and interested people have returned from a four day district assembly held in Richmond last week.

Congregational supervisor, F.A. Julian, said that the convention was a four day ministerial training school. It was held in Moore's Field race track which was converted into "an open air temple." Speaking sessions ran from 9 till 9 every day. Bible themes covering every phase of Christian life from personal, family, and congregational conduct to unity on a world-wide scale were discussed by officials from the world headquarters of Jehovah's witnesses in New York.

H.C. Covington, a minister and legal counsel for the local as well as the national congregations, delivered the key assembly talk on "God's Love to the Rescue in Man's Crisis."

Julian said that 11,240 people overflowed the race track grandstands and filled up the areas. "More than 3,000 people were sitting out on the field wearing straw hats to shield them from the sun," he related.

Plans were discussed at Richmond for delegates from this area to join with other American witnesses in a European tour of assemblies next year.

Relief Group To Abandon Efforts

NEW YORK (AP)—American Relief for Korea, Inc., which was organized in April 1951 has announced a lack of funds will force it to stop operations July 1.

The agency was formed to collect emergency relief supplies for victims of the Korean War. Its shipments included 24,484,130 pounds of clothing or about 65 per cent of all clothing sent to Korea from the free world.

After ARK closes, relief supplies for Korea will continue to be collected by the 13 separate agencies that had joined together to form the over-all relief organization.

Evicted Bees The Hard Way

GLANDALE, Calif. (AP)—Fire Marshal A. W. Hunt offered this report today on an explosive bee fumigation conducted by a citizen: John L. Harris, seeking to eradicate bees in his chimney, climbed to the roof and dropped down a gasoline-soaked rag, unaware that coals still glowed in the fireplace.

The resulting blast blew both bees and bricks into the living room. Mrs. Harris, in another room, and Harris on the roof, escaped injury. Fire department investigators estimated damage at $1,000.

The evicted bees apparently took up residence elsewhere.

In 1940 it required 47 man hours to produce 100 bushels of wheat on American farms. Now it requires 31 hours.

The Wood Wind Ensemble of the school band of 15 blind musicians of the New York Institute for the Education of the Blind. Standing in the rear is James Cozart, organizer and director of the first school band of blind musicians at the New York Institute.

Cozarts Taught Blind Youngsters In N. Y. Institute

Mr. and Mrs. James Cozart, formerly of this city, have recently completed their second year as staff members of the New York Institute for the Education of the Blind. Mrs. Cozart, the former Harriet Carr of Greenville is the daughter of Mrs. Alice H. Carr of 110 N. Eastern Street. Cozart is the son of Mrs. W.B. Cozart of 1600 Dickinson Avenue. After receiving his Bachelor of Science degree from East Carolina College Cozart became a scholarship student at the New York Institute. He began working for his Master of Arts in music at Teacher's College, Columbia University, receiving the degree in June, 1953. He then became a member of the Institute's music department as director and instructor of instrumental music. He organized and coached the school band of some fifteen blind musicians, which was the first organized instrumental group of that size in the history of the school. The trio of piano, bass and drums from this group was recently presented by Paul Whiteman on his national television show from the Steel Pier at Atlantic City. This fall Cozart will take up his new duties as director of instrumental music at the Tarboro High School. While her husband worked with the blind musicians, Mrs. Cozart assisted with the education of the younger blind children, particularly in the arts and crafts. The New York Institute accepts blind children of ages from three to 22 without charge and without distinction of color or creed. It has a record of 123 years of service to the blind.

Mrs. Harriet Cozart left, and her student, totally blind Pauline Noddturft, age 12, elementary school student at the New York Institute for the Education of the Blind. Pauline is modelling in clay Peter, the rabbit borrowed from the Bronx Zoo.

ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

CHAPTER TWENTY

ON FRIDAY, as soon as his plane landed, Norman phoned to tell Cynthia how pleased he was that she was spending the week end at Pleasantridge. He suggested that he pick her up and drive her out. "Otherwise, you might have trouble finding it," he said. "It's easy as pie, once you've been there, but not so easy unless you know where to turn off the main highway."

Cynthia told him she could be ready whenever it suited him. He must have phoned the clinic first and been told he could reach her at her apartment. She hoped Dr. Sellars had given that information. She wished she would stop thinking about him. She determined to put all thoughts of Dr. Walter Sellars out of her mind for the coming week end. She determined she would have a good time, a real vacation. And that remark of Roz's about her face freezing out all such good times kept coming back into her mind.

Norman was complimentary, as usual, when he saw her. He said he had missed her like the very dickens. And he surely was glad his mother had had this inspiration.

"Are you sure it was your mother's idea?" Cynthia asked. "I most certainly am. Mom is always thinking up something remarkable. She's a remarkable woman, as you shall see. And you'll love my dad—he's a grand guy."

Cynthia liked the way he spoke about his family. You could feel the close ties, the deep affection.

She asked if there were any other members of the family living at Pleasantridge. "Besides me there's only my older brother," Norman returned. "Jim always had the wanderlust. After he came out of the army, he went back to England for a couple of years. Married a nice English girl and they're living in Canada now, where an uncle of Margie's has some mining interests. They have quite a family of their own. Five kids to be exact; one pair of twins."

"How nice!" All that he had said of his family sounded nice; substantial and good and real. Imagine having twins! Cynthia could not think of anything more thrilling happening to a woman. "They're a handful," Norman grinned. "And they sure have made Jim settle down. But we all come to that, eventually—especially if we're lucky enough to find a girl like Jim's Margie. Or one like you, Cynthia," he added.

"Now, see here," Cynthia said, "don't get it into your head that I'm visiting your family as a possible candidate for in-lawship. Let's put all that aside for this week end, Norman. It would embarrass me. Your mother and dad will realize, if you don't, that it's much too soon for their son to have such ideas. And I really came because your mother said she had some ideas of her own about the clinic."

"Oh, you did, did you?" His eyes meeting hers were teasing as though he doubted the full veracity of that.

"Yes, I did." She had the grace to blush, because she had also accepted this invitation as a devious method of getting at Walt.

They had come to the place to turn off the main highway. It was just a dirt road that apparently led nowhere. Cynthia could understand why it would not be easy to find unless you knew about it. Then, as the road twisted and climbed, it suddenly came upon a full view of what must be Pleasantridge Farms. A beautiful old colonial-type house sitting in a grove of trees, and surrounded by rolling fields and hillsides, with cattle grazing peacefully and a few horses nibbling, too, at velvet-green grass. Only the lambs were missing! Cynthia thought, "It's lovely!" she could not keep from exclaiming.

Yes, Roz's elegant was almost the word, with the freshly painted white rail fences, that enclosed the acreage, the white barns and utility buildings; the natural beauty of the surroundings that yet looked so well-groomed and tended, and the big white mansion that might have been clipped from an old-fashioned book with a Civil war romance for its theme.

"It is nice, isn't it?" There was pride in Norman's voice. "It's something to come home to believe me. Another reason I'm glad to be working in Washington—I can come home every week end. Mom and Dad won't admit it but there are times, with Jim and his family so far away, when they get lonely."

"But come on, let's go in! I know they're waiting to make you welcome, Cynthia." He opened the door of the car, came around to her side. His eyes looked into hers, wearing that intimate, disturbing look. "I promise to try to be good. Try not to embarrass you, my sweet. I want your first visit, like all those to come after it, to be a happy experience at Pleasantridge."

He spoke as though he were certain that many more visits would follow this first one. But she did not have the heart to rebuke him, not when he looked at her with his heart in his eyes.

It was a pleasant week end. In fact, Cynthia could not remember when she had had such an enjoyable time—certainly not in a long, long while. It was wonderful to be in the country to take long walks with Norman exploring the woods and fields. Spring was in evidence everywhere, tiny wild flowers pushing bravely up through matted leaves, birds building nests and caroling joyously to one another, bushes and trees bursting forth in a haze of delicate greens. The dogwood trees were in flower and they lent an air of enchantment; pink crab-apple blossoms added a contrast in color; squirrels—and once, a family of tiny cottontails—scurried about their affairs.

It was a beautiful world. "It's what I meant about always harking on to hope," Norman remarked, when Cynthia blissfully sighed about all this beauty. "How could anyone give up, when nature never does? Or lose faith when it's renewed, right before your eyes, every spring?"

When they were alone, he could not keep that certain look from his eyes. But he had kept his word and behaved exceptionally well. As Norman had predicted, Cynthia had fallen in love with his father. Edward Brandt was the sort of man you felt, after a few minutes, you had known all your life. He had so much warmth in his personality that some of it seeped through into yours. He was somewhat stocky, with gray hair and heavy gray eyebrows and his blue eyes seemed always to be smiling, as though he held the key to some delightful secret.

"Your dad is wonderful," Cynthia told Norman. "You were right—I've fallen in love with him."

"I might have known," Norman gave his rueful grin. "Dad always beats my time. And he's taken to you, too. In fact, I imagine he's already decided you are exactly what he would order for a daughter."

Cynthia laughed, but she felt very highly complimented. She thought that Norman took after his father, more than his mother. She liked Elizabeth Brandt; yet she was not a woman one could get to know intimately in a short while. She was so regal, for one thing. Her face was as smooth and unlined as a girl's; her figure as trim. She was tall and carried herself so well that that alone gave her a queenly air.

She was lovely to Cynthia, too, but the young nurse felt certain reservations. Norman's father might be won over completely, sat-

The first half champion Redmen jumped off to a quick lead in retaining their title for the second half last night when they swept by the National Guard by a 10-3 score at PONY League field.

The Redmen batted Mack Roebuck around for six innings and touched Dick Evans for a couple of runs when he tried to put out the fire.

John Wesley Hudson started on the mound for the Redmen and went all the way in firing a one-hitter. His teammates backed him with a seven-hit job off the hurlings of the Guard pitchers.

Hudson led off the game with a single off Roebuck. Andrews reached first on an error and Johnny Johnson singled back through the box to drive home both runners. Johnson scored later on another error.

In the third Johnson reached base on an error by the Guard second baseman and scored on Billy Boyd Cox's hit through the middle. Roebuck settled down and held the Redmen until the sixth when they jumped on him like he was a batting practice pitcher.

Sugg doubled and Braxton walked and Hudson reached base on an error. Arthur Andrews singled to drive home two runs and Johnson lined a single off the pitcher's ankle. When the smoke finally cleared the Redmen had accounted for five runs.

Phil Davis got the only hit off Hudson, a single in the fourth. Hudson, Johnson and Wayne Sugg led the hitting for the Redmen with two hits each. Sugg got his second home run of the year in the seventh.

Only One Golfer Has Double Win

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Only one medalist in the National Collegiate golf championships ever has won the national individual title the same year reports the NCAA.

Louisiana State's Earl Stewart, now a pro, was the tournament medalist in 1941. He won the NCAA title in ensuing play. Bob Harris of State won medalist honors in 1947 and the individual title the following year.

Tuttle's Big Day

DETROIT (AP)—Bill Tuttle, rookie outfielder with the Detroit Tigers, has little difficulty recalling his best day as a minor leaguer.

He was playing for Williamsport Pa. of the Eastern League. In a doubleheader against Schenectady he had seven hits in seven times at bat. In the first game he smacked a homer, triple, double and a single. In the second game he made three hits including a grand slam homer.

Tuna Time Set

NARRAGANSETT, R. I. (AP)—The 12th U.S. Atlantic Tuna Tournament will be held here Aug. 31, Sept. 1-2 for the second time in succession.

Chairman of the host committee is Anson C. Hall of Cranston, R. I. Other committee men are H. Fred Evers of Arlington, N.J., Ed. J. Wohlforth of Cliffside Park, N.J., Fred F. Schock Jr. of Spring Lake, N.Y., and Herbert U. Ross of New York.

Tournament officials are Walter I. McDonough of Holmdel, N.J., S. Huyler Elder of Valley Stream, N.Y., and Harold D. Schaefer of Brooklyn.

National League umpire Frank Secory was graduated from Western Michigan College in 1936.

The power and pitching of one of Greenville's greatest Little League teams showed itself in full force yesterday afternoon when the undefeated Elks exploded for 22 runs against the Pepsi-Cola pitching and relied on nine-year-old Denny Hardee to fire a one-hit shutout against their opponents for their thirteenth straight win.

The Elks jumped on Jack (No-hit) Whitley for 13 runs in the first three innings and just kept running around the bases as if it was track meet the rest of the day. With all those runs to his credit little Hardee could probably have pitched left-handed and still won, but the fiery little competitor stood in there on the mound and fired his second consecutive one-hit shutout of the year. Hardee now has a string of 13 consecutive innings in which he has not allowed a run to cross the plate.

In four route-going performances in a row Hardee has given up a run on four hits, a run on two hits, no runs and one hit, and no runs on one hit.

For the year Hardee has the unenviable record of earned run average of 0.50. Robbie Wilfong got the only hit off Hardee in the second inning. Merrill, Bynum and Billy Jenkins, the two no-hit hurlers of the Elks, led the batting for Coach Tom Rowlette's squad with four hits each. Bynum had three singles and a long home run in the fifth inning. Jenkins also slashed three singles and a home run in the fourth.

This afternoon at 5 o'clock the Kiwanis play the Lions at Little League Park.

New York Rookie Granted Divorce

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—William M. Taylor, rookie outfielder for the New York Giants, was granted an interlocutory divorce decree by default yesterday on his allegation of cruelty.

Taylor said in an affidavit that his wife Juanita, 23, told him to "go to hell." This made him so nervous that his chances as a major league ball player were threatened, said the 24-year-old Taylor. They were married last Nov. 20 in Caracas, Venezuela.

Southern Bread last night pulled a half-game ahead of the field in the Recreation Softball League standings by defeating Graniteers 9-8 in the feature game of a doubleheader at Guy Smith Stadium.

The victory was Southern's third straight of the second half of the league's split season. Carolina Dairies first half winner, is in second place with a 2-0 mark. The Dairies plays in one of tonight's two games.

In the second game of last night's doubleheader, surprising Harris Super Market won its second game of the second half by defeating National Guard 14-7. The victory boosted the Marketmen into undisputed possession of third place and dropped National Guard deeper into the cellar with an 0-3 mark.

Southern Bread scored six times in the second inning to wrap up the victory in the first game of the twinbill. The batters scored their runs on three walks, three errors, two hits, and a wild pitch. After that rally, there was never any question about the outcome of the game although Graniteers continued to peek away at the lead.

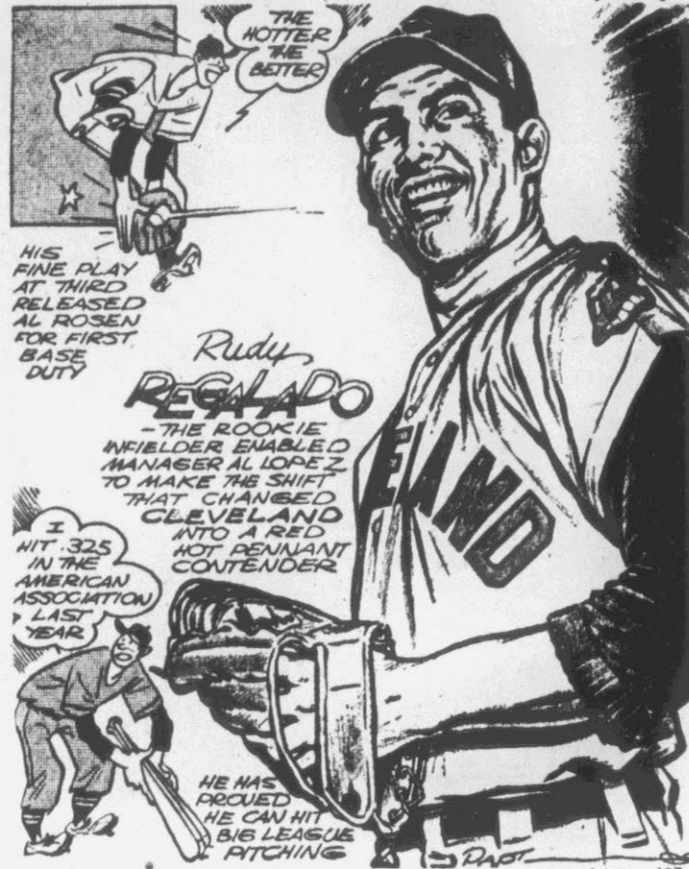

James McRoy slammed out three singles and drew two walks for a perfect night at bat for Southern Bread. Smith Worthington had two singles in five trips for runner-up honors. No Graniteer had more than one hit.

In the nightcap, Harris Super Market batters started slugging in the first inning and went on from there to thoroughly wallop National Guard. The Marketmen scored in every inning but the third to account for the win.

Harvey Davis with four singles in four trips led the hitting for both teams. Morgan and Harris had three hits apiece to share runner-up honors. Croom had two of the Guard's six hits to pace his team at bat.

Giants And Dodgers Open Important Series Today

Tommy Bolt Wins Insurance Open

By ED CORRIGAN
AP Sports Writer

The team that finished 35 games out of first place last season defends its slim one-game hold on the National League lead tonight against the scrambling defending champions.

And if Leo Durocher's New York Giants can salvage one victory in the three-game set with the Brooklyn Dodgers they still will be tied for first place.

Meanwhile, in the American League, the three teams fighting for the lead — Cleveland, Chicago and New York — all take on clubs that they hope to use to fatten their averages. The league-leading Indians play Baltimore; the White Sox, a game and a half back, entertain the Detroit Tigers in a double-header; and the Yankees, three games in arrears, go to Boston.

This is an important set for both the Giants and Brooks, and, as a matter of fact, it is the first time since Durocher has been at the helm that the Polo Grounds crew has started a home series with the Dodgers in first place.

Ancient Eli (The Barber) Maglie probably will start for the Giants in the first game. His opponent will be Don Newcombe. In the other games, Durocher plans to start Jim Hearn and perhaps Ramon Minzant, a Venezuelan from Minneapolis. Carl Erskine and Russ Meyer will get the other two assignments for the Brooks.

The Dodgers' defending champions, have had their ups and downs, but Manger Walt Alston thinks the team finally has jelled. He won't come right out and say so but the feeling is that if the club can sweep the series, the road will be cleared for its third straight flag.

"Some of the boys weren't hitting," Alston said. "But now that Carl Furillo and Roy Campanella have come around we have a much better attack. The pitching is straightening out fine, especially since Newcombe's arm trouble has left him."

Captain Al Dark acted as spokesman for the Giants.

"We've been looking forward to this series for two weeks," he said. "When we got to the top we knew we'd have to beat off the Dodgers to stay on top. If we can win this series, and I'm sure we can, we'll win the pennant."

No regular games were scheduled yesterday, but in exhibitions Binghamton of the Eastern League defeated the Yanks 5-2; St. Louis turned back their Rochester farm hands 3-2; Boston stopped the Giants 8-6; the Indians walloped the Pittsburgh Pirates 10-3; the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Philadelphia A's 3-2 in seven innings; and Cincinnati dumped the Detroit Tigers, 6-2.

Stock And Market Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—A selling wave rocked the stock market today, bringing losses of two points and more in some issues, but a subsequent recovery movement brought prices up from their lows.

Selling became urgent shortly after the second hour began and the ticker fell behind in recording transactions. The tape soon cleared however, and some stocks moved to the upside.

Du Pont, a feature yesterday with a rise of 1 1/2 points, was a target for profit-taking today. At one time it was down 9 points but later traded off 5 1/2.

Wall St. observers said they were not too disturbed by the fall in the market. Yesterday it hit a new high since Oct. 22, 1929, and that meant it was vulnerable to profit-taking. Some sources said they considered a correction long overdue.

Losses of a point or more were recorded by Cities Service, Standard Oil of California, Union Pacific, Bethlehem Steel, Atlantic Coast Line, and Anaconda. The wide-swinging Superior Oil of California dropped 31 points to 749 on a sine sale.

Higher stocks included Republic Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Consolidated Edison, Allied Chemical, Phelps Dodge, Union Carbide, International Paper and Santa Fe.

Utilities . . .

this meeting never took place.

Now that the Commission has proposed to turn over $142,500 the Council must still work on the budget to bring it within the anticipated revenue.

Council Asked For $150,000
Last year the City Council asked the Commission for $150,000, but after a discussion with the Utilities Commissioners the Council received only $142,500 from the Commission; however, the Commission agreed to turn over the other $7,500 should it be needed by the City.

If the Commission had agreed to turn over $150,000 this year the city budget would lack only a little more than $100 being balanced.

The Resolution
"WHEREAS, it has been the policy of the Utilities Commission in the past years to make an annual turnover to the City consistent with its own requirement and responsibilities, and

"WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Commission to continue this policy to a degree not inconsistent with its own expansion program to meet future requirements, and

"WHEREAS, the Commission was considering the reduction of its electric rates which idea, after increasing the turnover to the city last year by $60,000, was abandoned, and

"WHEREAS, the Commission has a bonded indebtedness as of June 30, 1954, of $2,680,000 including $250,000 of Revenue Bonds, and

"WHEREAS, the Commission is faced with the necessity of enlarging its water plant in the immediate future and to make preparation for the construction of a sewer disposal plant and other expansions.

"WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Commission to meet this expenditure with as little bond issue as possible by setting aside all available funds in a construction reserve account for this purpose, and

"WHEREAS, in order to do so it's necessary that determination be made as to the Commission's fixed annual obligations so that future plans can be formulated.

"Now therefore be it resolved: 1. That the Utilities Commission obligate to turn over to the City not to exceed $142,500 annually.

"2. That in the event of an unforeseen contingency the Commission reserves the right to reduce the annual turnover consistent with its own needs."

Pitt Prisoner Is Granted Parole

Greenville police records show that Willie Carr has a long criminal record from 1946 through 1953. Some of his convictions in Greenville Recorder's Court are: 1946, assault and disorderly conduct; 1947, gambling, vagrancy and fornication and adultery; 1949, gambling; 1950, gambling, two charges of profane language and disorderly conduct; 1951, gambling, assault on a female and gambling; 1952, assault with a deadly weapon, and 1953, breaking, entering and larceny.

Chemist Notes Scientific Field Is More Complex

FARMVILLE — Robert Winford, DuPont company chemical engineer, spoke about the potential improvements in the world of chemistry at the Rotary Club meeting here last week.

He said the field of chemistry is so highly complex that chemists are forced to pool their knowledge to achieve success. Winford said this is in distinct contrast to the one-man experiments and achievements of the late Thomas Edison, the Wizard of Menlo Park.

The DuPont chemical engineer said one of the big problems of the future is the "de-salting of the Atlantic Ocean." He cited the eastern seaboard as one of the critical areas in the United States where water supply is the increasing problem.

Asking $25,000 In Damage Suit

A suit involving a sum of more than $25,000 has been brought against Lang Grain and Seed Company Inc. by the FM Insurance Co. affiliate of A. C. Monk and Co., Inc. of Farmville, as the result of a fire last November.

The complaint alleges that due to the negligence of an employee of the Lang company a fire was started in a tobacco storage warehouse belonging to A. C. Monk company, the resulting damage amounting to a sum of $25,516.

The plaintiff claims that on Nov. 21, 1953, a truck belonging to the defendant, and loaded with "dry corn shucks and other inflammable material," was parked next to Monk's warehouse without permission.

The complaint alleges that the truck was left unattended by the driver, the resulting fire was caused by his "negligence," and the Lang Grain and Seed Co. is liable for the action of its employee.
