

Dixie Governors Regard Kennedy As Big Favorite For Demo Choice

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Judging from what they're saying about Sen. John Kennedy at the Southern Governors Conference today, you would think he was Dixie-born, a descendant of Robert E. Lee, and a man who eats hominy grits and corn pone three times a day.

Kennedy, a Yankee from Massachusetts, is that popular in the South, so they say.

In any discussion of the Democratic presidential nominee in 1960 Kennedy's name leads the field by a wide margin here.

"The South likes Kennedy," said Gov. Marvin Griffin of Georgia.

"He's got a lot of friends down our way," said Mississippi's James P. Coleman.

Bombings, Fires, Shootings Again Erupt In Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Shooting, heavy explosions, burning of automobiles and other violence erupted in Beirut today as President Fuad Chehab moved into his first day in office.

By mid-morning official sources said six persons had been killed and a score wounded.

Under ex-President Camille Chamoun, a pro-Westerner, it was Moslems who sparked unrest and manned roadblocks.

Last May it was rebel Moslems who attempted to enforce a general strike.

The Phalangists ordered a general shutdown of shops and services in the predominant Christian area of Beirut which includes the beachfront hotel district.

Sniping was going on in many parts of the city and innocent bystanders were shot.

Nationalists Claim Eleven MIGs Shot Down In Giant Air Battle

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist jets clashed with more than 100 Red MIGs over Formosa Strait today in one of the biggest jet battles in history.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said 32 Nationalist Sabre jets, shot down 11 Reds and possibly six more.

Adm. Liu Hsiang-tai said the Nationalists ambushed the Communists as the Reds attempted to draw the Chiang Kai-shek airmen over the Red mainland.

"They want to claim we are attacking the mainland and turn public opinion against us in the United Nations," Liu said.

None of the shells was hitting the supply beach or landing strip when a planload of foreign and Chinese newsmen landed on Quemoy.

The group was the first to reach Quemoy since Nationalist authorities lifted an eight-day ban on newsmen there.

Some observers speculated the ban was enforced while the Nationalists worked out new techniques of getting supplies to Quemoy after a week of unsuccessful efforts because of Red shelling.

U.S. help is a political question, he could not answer, the admiral added.

An American officer who landed on Quemoy Sunday with a Nationalist convoy said small amphibious landing vehicles were getting supplies through bombardment.

Lt. Charles Beresford of Long Branch, N.J., said the landing ship he rode stopped about six miles off Quemoy, outside Communist artillery range, and launched 11 smaller landing craft which ran for the beach.

Beresford returned to Formosa from Quemoy because of a knee injury received in changing boats.

This seemed at variance with Alcorn's own explanation that Adams had taken the initiative in resigning.

Adams made the decision without any nudging from Eisenhower, on the basis of a poll of Republican National Committee members.

The chairman said the canvass showed "reasonable" acute concern that Adams' continuance in office would damage the chances of GOP candidates.

President Prepares Name Successor To Adams; Decision Is Close Secret

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported preparing today to name an above-reach successor to Sherman Adams as his chief White House assistant.

But even Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn, who played an active role in events leading to Adams' decision to retire, said he hasn't a glimmering of the presidential choice.

As an indication of how closely Eisenhower was guarding his decision, Secretary of the Interior Seaton said in Vallejo, Calif., he doesn't know whether he is being considered for the job.

"The matter of who succeeds to the post of presidential assistant is a particularly personal one with President Eisenhower," Seaton told a news conference last night.

Seaton, a former senator, left the Harold E. Stassen camp at a critical point to support Eisenhower's bid for the GOP presidential nomination in 1952.

Goldfine, who showered expensive favors on Adams, said in which he believed Adams had quit "out of regard for President Eisenhower, whom he so loyally and ably served."

21 Injured In 2 School Bus Wrecks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two school buses were involved in collisions yesterday in North Carolina, one in Orange County, one at Louisburg.

A total of 21 people were injured, 18 of them school children. But none of the injuries was deemed serious.

Officials said a school bus stopped on U.S. 70 five miles from Hillsboro to discharge passengers was hit from behind by a truck driven by Dural Croya, 34, of Athens, Ga.

He suffered multiple fractures and cuts and was in fair condition at Wata Hospital in Durham.

Sixteen children were hurt, but 13 of them were treated and released yesterday at Durham hospitals. Others hurt included:

Samuel Floyd Ray, 16, Rt. 3, Hillsboro, sprained neck and ankle in injury in satisfactory condition at Wata; Robert Donald Riley, 6, of Rt. 1, Durham, scalp laceration and skull fracture, in good condition at Wata Hospital; Judy Couch, 9, Rt. 3, Hillsboro, head injury, in good condition at Duke Hospital.

U. S. Margin Of Victory Shrinks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Diplomats speculated today that the United States may have succeeded for the last time in sweeping aside a U.N. discussion of the Red China seating issue.

The U.S. proposal to sidetrack the thorny question for another year cleared the General Assembly 44-23 with 9 abstentions.

It was the narrowest margin of victory on record for opponents of the move to seat the Chinese Communists in the United Nations.

The Assembly vote automatically canceled India's request that the Assembly stage a full debate on the question.

In contrast to previous years, the United States kept officially silent on the outcome. The American view was understood to be that the vote was satisfactory but no cause for rejoicing.

The United States, which battled almost singlehandedly for its proposal, managed to hold the support of slightly more than 54 per cent of the U.N. members.

Explodes In Sky

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Polaris test rocket exploded in the sky shortly after launching today and rained huge pieces of debris back on the cape.

It was not known immediately if there were any casualties.

One section of the trim missile plunged back to its launching pad where it caused a violent explosion.

A second section plummeted back to earth a few miles south of the missile test center near Cocoa Beach. First reports said the shattered piece landed in the Banana River, which separates Cocoa and the mainland from the missile town of Cocoa Beach.

H. B. Brossier, a Cocoa Beach real estate man, said it looked as though it was coming down on a trailer park about a thousand feet north of his place.

Brossier said he heard several loud booms in the Cape area. "It sounded as though they were trying to blow it up," he said.

'Seawolf' Stays Submerged For Record 48 Days

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—The nuclear submarine Seawolf has remained submerged more than a month and a half.

Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover says Seawolf submerged Aug. 5 and by Monday had set a record of 48 days under water—surpassing the submerged records of two other atomic subs, Skate's 31 days and Nautilus' 28 days.

Rickover, speaking yesterday at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon, left the impression Seawolf was still under water. He spoke of the 48-day record and predicted Seawolf would surpass that mark.

He did not say where Seawolf is or what her mission is.

Rickover later told a news conference that 33 nuclear subs are either in operation, under construction or authorized. He said 18 will be attack subs. Nine will be equipped to fire the Polaris missile, which has a 1,500-mile range, and five will be regular missile craft.

Chrysler, UAW Fail Find Accord

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union failed today to reach contract agreement in a 20-hour marathon bargaining session in which the company charged the union's demands were "unreasonable."

Both Chrysler and UAW officials appeared bitter when they emerged from the conference room at the Chrysler personnel headquarters shortly after 6 a.m.

Contract-letting has been delayed for expansion of N. C. 11 to four lanes between Greenville's West End Circle and the South 11 Drive-In Theatre, because of changes in designs for the expansion project.

The project was withdrawn yesterday from a list of highway construction proposals and will be re-advertised next month.

A spokesman for the State Highway Commission's Secondard Division office here said a possibility of changes in median designs for the four-lane road caused the withdrawal.

Delay Letting Contract For 4-Lane Project

Plans for the project have already been changed once, as a result of a public hearing on the proposed expansion. Under terms of a federal-aid bill, however, the work must be under contract by December 1 to qualify for the federal funds.

The Greenville Mart sold 1,102 pounds of tobacco for $648,168.80, averaging $58.80 per hundred pounds for its total sales.

Yesterday's average was the second highest of the season, despite the fact it dropped $2.17 lower than the average registered Monday.

Monday the local market set a season's record, averaging $60.97 for 1,618,414 pounds.

Sales Supervisor W. L. Whedbee reports prices remained firm yesterday but that the quality of the offerings declined somewhat.

Father Slays 4 Of His 5 Children With Gun

SPARTA, Mich. (AP)—An unemployed odd jobs worker blasted four of his five children to death with a shotgun last night.

His estranged wife, Edith McMillan, 36, who suffered neck injuries, and the fifth child, who escaped the slaughter when he "played dead," were under hospital treatment in nearby Grand Rapids.

Orland Duncan McMillan, 45, told Sheriff Arnold Pigors: "I can only take so much. I got shot up in the war and my nerves act up."

Found dead in their home, 15 miles northwest of Grand Rapids, were McMillan's children, Ronald, 7; Bonnie, 6; Richard, 22 months; and Michael Yvonne, 10 months.

Ask Opinion On Private Schools

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A federal court was asked yesterday to decide whether the Little Rock School Board would face contempt charges if it handed over the city's high schools for operation on a private segregated basis.

In its petition, the board said it would be willing to lease the closed-down schools to a private corporation if no contempt of court action resulted.

The board, under federal court orders to go ahead with integration.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus' private school plan also faces a possible challenge from the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Named To Scouting Positions

Seventy-Eight 1958 Graduates Of Rose High Going To College

At least 78 members of the Class of 1958 at Junius H. Rose High School are continuing their education as college students, Principal O. E. Dowd said today.

In addition to the college students, Dowd said at least seven other members of the class are enrolled in business schools, trade schools or nurses training. Another 14 have joined branches of the nation's Armed Forces.

According to Dowd, a follow-up survey of the graduates shows that 76 have entered four-year colleges, with East Carolina College claiming at least 46 of them. Duke and the University of North Carolina have enrolled a half-dozen each, and eight other colleges have enrolled an additional 15 students.

The principal added that other students in the 106-member graduating group not included in the "advanced education" categories or military service are either married, working or information was not available on their present situations.

Club Hears Harpsichord Recital

George Perry of the Music Department of East Carolina College presented a Harpsichord recital at the Greenville Music Club home for the 1958-59 season at the home of Mrs. Moye Dall on Orton Drive in Brookgreen Monday evening.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Dr. Stanley W. Walter. The 1958-1959 Yearbooks were distributed. These were prepared by Mrs. T. W. Rouse, Chairman, and other members of the Yearbook Committee.

The program for the year was outlined by Lewis Danfelt, Chairman of the Program Committee. Special notice was given of the November meeting, which will feature a Piano Recital by Loren Withers of Duke University. This will be held on Sunday, November at 3:30 p.m. in Austin Auditorium, East Carolina College.

Dan Vonholt announced that the Grass Roots Opera would be in Greenville again this season and would present "Don Giovanni" by Mozart on January 12, 1959.

Mrs. Estelle Striplin, District Director of the Northeastern District of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs, announced the District Meeting to take place Saturday, October 25 in Robersonville, and urged as many members to come as possible.

The program for the evening was introduced by Danfelt.

Perry, first, told about the Harpsichord on which he would play. The instrument was from Germany and loaned by Mr. Goodman of Kingston.

The history of the music for harpsichord was traced briefly and then played a program of music of composers who wrote between the middle 1500's and the middle 1700's, among whom were: Byrd, Gibbons, Frescobaldi, Auber, Purcell, Couperin, Scarlatti, Rameau, Tartini, W. F. Bach, and J. S. Bach.

After the program a social hour was held and refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mrs. Moye Dall, Chairman, Mrs. T. W. Rouse and Mrs. Paul Toll.

Lt. Wayne Smiley Takes Bride

TAMPA, Fla.—Miss Sylvia Alise O'Neal became the bride of Lt. Wendell Wayne Smiley Jr. in early September at Palma Ceia Methodist Church.

The Rev. Paul Wagner performed the ceremony before a background of white carnations, palms and tapers in candelabra. Mrs. Charles Davies and Mrs. Earl Houston provided a program of music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wynstan Charles O'Neal, 2610 Prospect Rd. Parents of Lt. Smiley are Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wayne Smiley of Greenville, N. C.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk bombazine and Chantilly lace over tissue tulle. Her Madonna veil was of rose point lace and she carried a cascade of orchids, carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Virginia Kelly was maid of honor and Miss Sara Smiley, the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid. They chose gowns of pink tulle with matching headpieces of velvet leaves. They carried nosegays of pink and white flowers.

Mr. Smiley was best man for his son, Mike O'Neal and Scott Smiley, the bridegroom's brother, were ushers.

After a wedding trip to East Haven, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Smiley will reside in Valdosta, Ga.

Lydia Wooten Class Has Meet

The Lydia Wooten Class of Jarvis Memorial Church held their September meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Walter Cherry, Route 2. Co-hostesses were Mesdames J. L. Askew, Carl Simmons, Florence Scott, J. Hicks Corey and Miss Eunice McGee.

Mrs. H. A. Hudson, class president, presided.

The devotional was given by Mrs. J. Hicks Corey and she used the thought "I Believe" for her subject, reading from St. Matthew. The secretary called the roll, read the minutes of the last meeting and read the correspondence.

Mrs. T. F. Smaw gave the treasurer's report and dues were collected.

Plans were made for the serving of a supper at the church.

30 Years Ago Today

September 24, 1928

Kingston—With the Neuse River at flood crest here today, water was pouring over the Norfolk Southern tracks and inundating a residential section of South Kingston and Lincoln City, a Negro settlement. Two hundred persons were homeless, more than half of them white. In the village of Arpersville, water stood eight feet deep. Caswell Cotton Mills have suspended operations due to water in the boiler room. Several large lakes have been created on three sides of the city by the overflow.

She carried a bouquet of cream roses, stephanotis blossoms and ivy.

Miss Julie Fenner was maid of honor and wore a cotillion blue taffeta dress with a matching half picture hat.

The Voters Will Be Harder To Fool

Sherman Adams' resignation from his post as assistant to the President didn't come too soon for the good of the country. Neither did it come too soon for the to do the Republican Party any good as it seeks to recoup Congressional losses in the November general election.

Adams' resignation, for which GOP officials belatedly took up the howl, is obviously a move of political expediency so far as the Republican Party is concerned.

How they expect to wipe the mind of the American people between now and November the reasons which brought about his resignation is beyond us. Certainly they have a plan. But whatever the plan, it is highly doubtful it will succeed. People just don't forget that quickly. It takes a little more time.

Republican leaders who have been shouting for Adams' scalp since early this month may have overlooked another liability which they can do nothing about. That is the fact that President Eisenhower said quite frankly he had no intention of dismissing Adams.

In other words the President, as titular head of the Republican Party, was willing to keep in a post of highest responsibility a man who had been the center of a major government scandal. It is difficult to reconcile such a position with that of an administration which came to power with the pledge to rid the government of corruption and scandal.

While pressure from Republican leaders has succeeded in this instance in accomplishing a feat Democrats in and out of government could not accomplish, it will be of little value to the GOP in the coming elections. In the long run it might do the Republican Party more harm than good.

Politics Slated To Start Rolling

By LYNN NISBET
ACTIVITY — Tarheel Democrats are busy about their politics. They refuse to get interested in the spring primary until the weather gets warm, and they don't get active in the general election campaign until the weather gets cool.

There has been very little activity so far this fall except among the professionals — the candidates, the party officials and the paid staff workers. They haven't stirred up enough breeze to attract interest among the rank and file of the voters. That is expected to be changed during the next week or so. Party rallies by both Democrats and Republicans are being staged at local level almost every day.

Headquarters have been opened, bill boards are blazing all over the landscape. The Young Democratic Clubs state convention at Greensboro on October 3 and 4 is expected to boost interest in all phases of political operations. A heated contest for State president is under way between Art Vann of Durham and Louis Allen Jr. of Burlington. Old Democrats, by whom is meant the voters in the regular party organization, always are interested in YDC doings — and sometimes try to run them. There is little evidence this year of "interference" by the old folks (except those who are directly active in YDC), but the contest has more than usual interest. The two candidates are both from the same congressional district, both are known to have further political ambitions. Because of carry-over influence from last year's convention when Allen was defeated for presidency and developments in Durham county, YDC is split pretty well along the factional lines in the statewide party organization.

CREDENTIALS — A number of counties have instructed their delegations to vote for one of the other of the candidates, but there are a lot of uninstructed units. Result may be affected more than usual by action of the credentials committee, especially with reference to seating the Durham delegation. The situation there is unique. The county club months ago endorsed Vann. Antipathies stemming from the regular party organization fracas last spring led a faction in YDC made up largely of organized labor, to seek to have the endorsement rescinded. The meeting broke up in confusion. Subsequently the factions held separate meetings, each elected county officers and a slate of delegates to the state convention. The labor group declined to endorse or instruct delegates for any candidate for president; the other faction instructed delegates to vote for Vann on every ballot so long as his name is before the convention. The state credentials committee must decide which delegation will be seated with right to vote. The decision will determine where the Durham county vote will be counted, and will have considerable influence on several unpledged county delegations. It may have further and far-reaching implications. That is why the regular party leaders are watching developments at the YDC convention with keen interest.

In addition to the manifest conflict between so-called conservative and liberal segments, labor-management relationships and personal popularity of the candidates, there are less obvious, but just as important, elements involved which might carry-over into the next statewide primary. BIG TIME — Factional lines are crossed in many instances by personal popularity of Allen and Vann, and the division of conservative liberal basis is not exactly the same in YDC election as in the regular primary. By and large, however, the opposition to Art Vann in his home county is essentially the same as the opposition to Congressman Carl Durham. To some, what less degree that applies to the other counties in the sixth district — Alamance, Guilford and Orange.

There is evidence that on statewide scope the Allen supporters are closely identified with supporters of Terry Sanford for Governor. So far as your reporter can discover, Sanford himself has taken no part in the scrap. He is a former YDC president, and while in that position he promulgated a "code of ethics" for political campaigns which gained national recognition — and which he meticulously observed in his own operations. It should be noted that so far as can be ascertained neither Governor Hodges nor any prospective candidate for Governor in 1960 is seeking to control the YDC election. Conclusion seems inevitable, however, that victory for Allen in the YDC contest will be a substantial boost for Sanford, while victory for Vann would not necessarily mean loss of prestige for Sanford to gain for anybody else, as lines are presently drawn.

For these and other reasons politically minded folks throughout the state are watching the YDC convention as a little more than just a bunch of youngsters pranking around in the political park.

Certainly Adams' tardy resignation will not be overlooked by the Democrats or the voters. Neither will the circumstances under which his resignation came about—pressure founded on nothing but GOP political expediency—be overlooked.

The Republican leaders may fool themselves into believing they have accomplished a master stroke of political planning.

The voters will not be easily fooled.

Adams' resignation will not immediately restore to the administration the degree of respect the people held for its anti-corruption operations before the Adams' scandal developed. It will take considerable time for the government to completely erase the shadow cast across it by Adams and Goldfine.

This Cloud Business Has Something To It

With rain-making still a much-sought-after development, the Navy has come forth with the announcement it has achieved the next best thing . . . cloud making.

What's more, says the Navy, it can also destroy natural clouds by a process similar to the one it uses to make clouds from a perfectly clear sky.

Equally remarkable is the Navy's assertion that its clouds cost only 18 cents apiece, and we assume a natural cloud can be made to disappear for about the same price.

Now there's something we can get our teeth into! Man-made clouds in a price range every family can afford.

Its possibilities are limitless. Both the making and the destroying of clouds.

Suppose the little lady of the house is planning to have a few neighbors over for cookies on the lawn one afternoon. She merely calls the cloud man, tells him to sprinkle the magic dust over her house, and she doesn't have to worry about her party being ruined by rain.

Conversely, it's a hot summer afternoon with no shade in sight, she can have the man make her a few light clouds to keep her guests cool while they munch their cookies.

The development might spell the end to sitting through soggy football games when your favorite team is getting clobbered on the field and you getting soaked with rain besides. All the coach has to do is to order a dry field or a wet field, depending on which will best suit the alumni.

Parades can always be carried out under cloudless skies, and rally planners will not have to worry about rain spoiling a big outdoor political gathering. Merchants might be able to order clear days to keep rain from dampening their big sales promotions.

And the courting couple who wants to watch the moon might be able to persuade the cloud-chaser to keep the sky clear at night . . . at overtime rates, of course.

Yep, the Navy has really got something with this cloud business. Who knows . . . it might even have military possibilities.

A Pitch To Get Summit Status

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Hints from Warsaw suggest Red China may make a pitch to bring the Far East crisis before a summit meeting at which Peiping would be represented.

These hints come from Communist informants at the scene of the U.S.-Red Chinese talks in the Polish capital. Communist informants have a way of scenting how the wind blows. Such a drive would be difficult to counter. It could have the appearance of a Red Chinese concession to peace.

The Red Chinese have the initiative. Peiping has the power to turn Far East crises on and off as easily as turning a spigot. It was Peiping initiative that turned the spigot in mid-August, after months of a sullen, glowering sort of near-parade throughout the three months of the dangerous midsummer Arab East crisis.

Peiping has been accused of trying to shoot its way into U.N. membership. It could also try blackmail. The U.N. Assembly's Steering Committee has voted to bar the Red Chinese membership issue for this year, but India and six other Asian-African nations are clamoring for a reversal of the decision.

The Asian-African move reflects genuine fear in the East that the Formosa Strait crisis could explode into war. Pressure upon the United States to give ground increases.

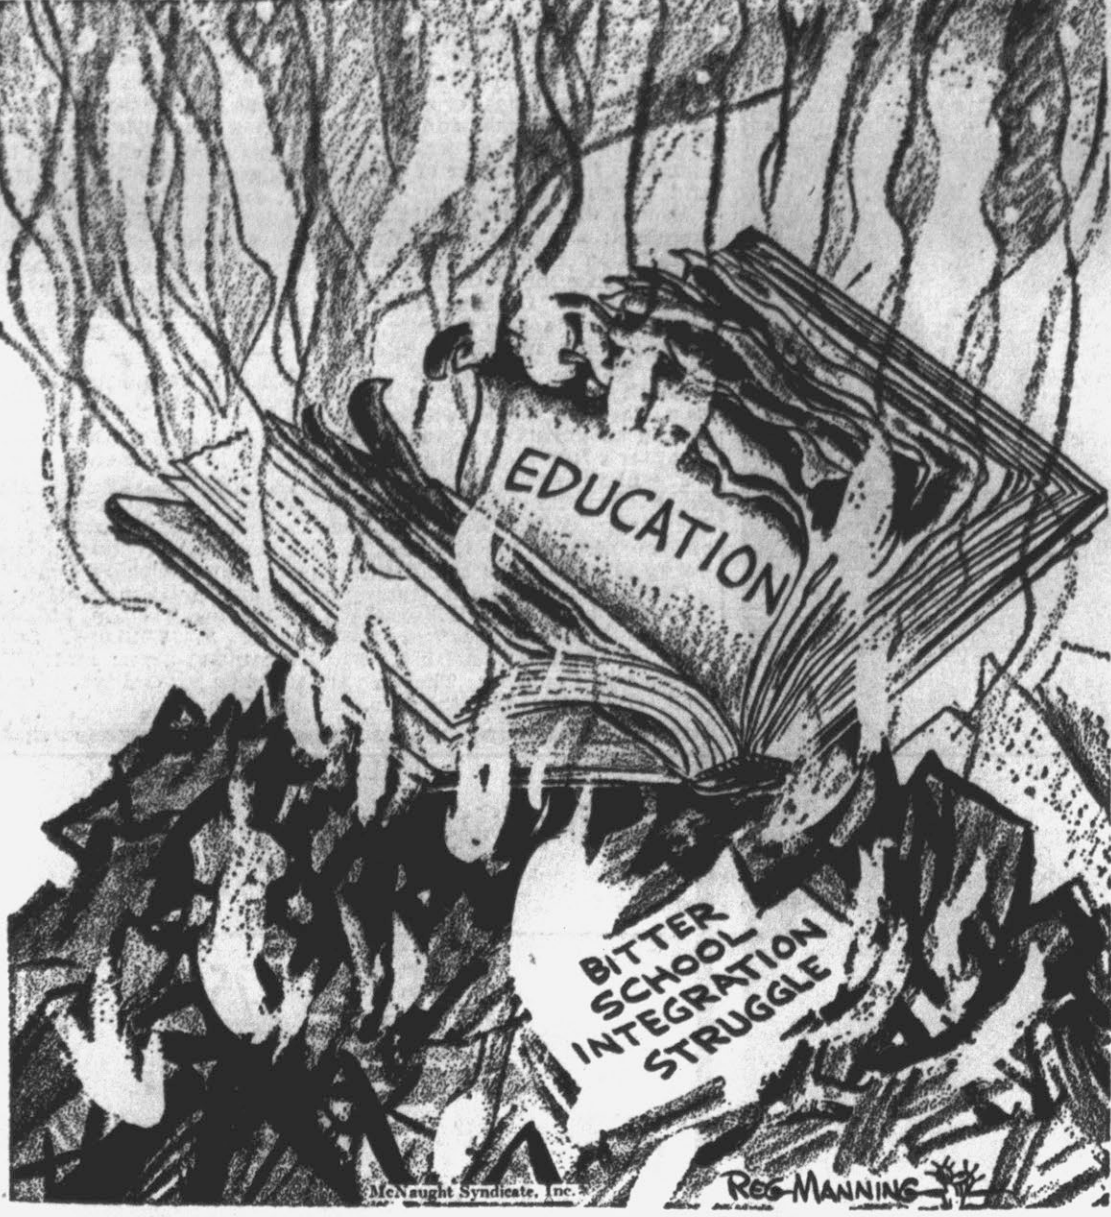

The dilemma facing American policy is whether to stick stubbornly to its China policy and risk wholesale loss of friends both in Europe and Asia, or to give ground under Communist pressure and lose prestige. The United States seems jockeying for time. Its moves appear to add up to a calculated gamble. Washir-ton seems to be betting the Red Chinese — and even more, the Soviets — are not going to let the Formosa crisis explode into major war.

What's behind this reasoning?

Heroes To The Bitter End

MOLE HILL — Coach Tim Jatum, whose pink-shirted charges received the trouncing of their young collegiate lives this afternoon, smiled bitterly as he shook hands with the opposing coach at midfield following the game.

"Frankly I think your team is the best team I've ever faced," he said, continuing to squeeze the hand of his opponent as if it was a strength-o-meter. "Never before in my coaching career have I seen a team with 11 All-Americans on it."

"But Tim I think this team is about the shortest in talent, I've ever coached," Coach Weir Wdwards replied.

"Hush!" Jatum whispered. "There might be a member of the alumni association listening. What're you trying to do, cause me to lose my job?" "But Tim . . ."

"But Tim nothing," listen I've got a lot at stake. They could take my new Cadillac and $50,000 home away from me, not to mention my old age pension of $10,000 a year. Think of my kids. They won't even have full eight-year scholarships or new cars to drive or even for their fraternity dues paid free."

As the two coaches conversed, a newspaperman slowly made his way through the tear-stricken crowd toward their pedestal in center of the blood-soaked gridiron. Jatum spied him first but never spoke.

Nearer the journalist came. Soon he was in hearing distance of the conversation.

"Yes sir," Jatum declared, "your team was the best I've ever seen on a football field. I know all the time my boys didn't have a chance but they were spiritually ready for the beating they received."

The newspaperman stopped, dropped his camera and began taking notes apparently unnoticed while Jatum continued to mouth praises in the direction of his opponents.

"That quarterback Jamnoski-kuc called the best game I've ever had called against my team. Without a doubt, he is the best back that's ever run through my defensive line. He's certainly an All-American."

To this Wdwards replied, "But Tim, he's only a freshman playing his first game. What difference does that make . . . before he's through he will be compared with Thorpe, Grange or Jarmon." Jatum nodded, making sure the reporter heard his observations.

"I thought your team did alright considering the odds-makers spread on the game," Jatum commented. "Why if they hadn't fumbled 24 times they might've given us a better game."

At this point, the newsman made his presence known. "Gentlemen let me congratulate both of you on the splendid showing your teams made today," he said, shaking the hands of both as he lied.

Jatum and Wdwards forced a smile while the reporter got ready to take their picture together. It was not hard to tell that the "ivory showing" was just a put on but that didn't matter — everybody knew it.

Then they parted. Wdwards' smile on his way back to the dressing room. Tears ran down Jatum's cheeks as he dejectedly walked away, the anvils of defeat resting squarely on his head.

London Tailor Traits

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP) — The really first-class London tailor is a monumental snob and one of the world's best makers of men's clothes.

He is superior, snooty, opinionated and condescending, self-centered and dwells mentally, spiritually and physically in a tight, little section of West London between Regent St. and Piccadilly, dissected by Savile Row.

Some tailors are so elegant they will concern themselves only with measuring jackets and waistcoats.

They wouldn't think of dealing with a pair of trousers, loffly leaving such mundane commerce to underlings.

One of these is Mr. Featherstonehaugh.

"Anybody," he said, "can build a pair of trousers. It takes an artist to do a jacket."

In his haute mode only the vulgar, a few Burmese and untraveled Americans, refer to trousers as pants and waistcoats as vests.

He shudders at what he considers un-British and monstrous misuse of nouns.

Terribly English Featherstonehaugh pronounces his name "Faneshaw."

The most striking example of his outlook on life, the trials, dangers and burdens that man has to bear, concerns an American named William Brassert, long resident in Geneva.

Almost since childhood Brassert has had his clothes made by Featherstonehaugh. A night, World War I rudely interrupted his years of happy and impeccable tailoring.

Featherstonehaugh was in war-racked London and Brassert beside placid Lake Geneva, half the German army and its air force separated tailor and client.

Tailoring — or even contact — was impossible.

For four years there was no communication, and then, a month after the war, Brassert journeyed to London, to wish his by now threadbare wardrobe.

"I hoped and prayed," said Brassert as he related the story, "that Featherstonehaugh survived the rigors of war and that his premises stood up to the bombing. Frankly, I had misgivings."

On his first morning in London, Brassert set out for the tailor shop familiar to him since youth.

Bomb damage was intense, but there — like a single tooth in an old man's mouth — stood the shop of Featherstonehaugh. All about it the buildings were in ruins.

He entered the dimly lit front room and there, to the tailor himself, a tape measure dangling from his stooped shoulders.

For what seemed an eternity, the old tailor stared at his customer of by-gone days.

To have shown surprise would, of course, have been to show emotion, a characteristic impossible in his well-ordered world.

So, without a change of expression, Featherstonehaugh, who had gone through the rockets, clothes ransacking, food rationing, Spanish flu, loss of a son at sea, looked over his gold-rimmed spectacles and said with a relieved sigh:

"Ah, Mr. Brassert, we've been worrying about you."

The Church in general and the reckless wickedness of his day that he organized societies with in the English Church known as Methodist Societies. After Wesley's death, these Societies became the Christian denomination which bore that name.

Wesley lived to see England spiritually transformed. An "undeserved providence" had come to the English people. The birth of a baby, and later his consecration, transformed the spiritual life of a whole people.

Never in human history has there been such spiritual chaos as there is today. Will another John Wesley arise? Let us hope and pray that God will be as good to America in the twentieth century as He was to England in the eighteenth.

Other Editors Saying Third Party Not Likely

(Henderson Dispatch)
Despite the integration issue, States' Rights, and what not, the South will not break away from the Democrats to form a third party in 1960. Its leaders will sugarcoat insults from the northern leftwingers and swallow them as they have done before. Too many leaders are looking for recognition, prestige and prominence, through government courage to carry out their convictions, such convictions as there may be.

Actually, party precept comes first with these honorables and curious business items protruding, a lot of abuse before they part with the name to which they had their fathers before them have clung since the Civil War.

The South is traditionally committed to the States' Rights ideal on which in part the patriots of the Sixties fought the War Between the States. But when the principle is challenged and trampled upon by the Supreme Court and party leftists, many here will find another claim for it and an alibi, and take it lying down. Our people did at the Democratic convention two years ago and before that in 1952.

The magic party name will be sufficient to hold the South in line, generally, although three or four States bolted the national ticket in the last two presidential elections.

As strongly as Southerners feel about integration, they will swallow that, too, if they have to. The wall of opposition already is cracking in Arkansas, despite the Little Rock affair. There would be only spasmodic down-right resistance in North Carolina in some rare instances. There are too many liberals in this State to permit a full breakaway.

There is another reason, also why the South will not give its support to a third party. That is its dominant position of leadership in Congress and the loss of seniority rights if the party label were dropped. This is one place where expediency would play its part in holding the front.

When Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn said in Charlotte last week that there is a strong possibility for formation of a third party, he was only doing some wishful thinking, or whistling to keep up his courage. So far as integration is concerned, the GOP has nothing to offer opponents of the trend. The South will not forget that it was Republican Eisenhower who sent Federal troops into Little Rock after he said he would not do it.

As a matter of fact, there is little from which to choose on this question between the two parties. A third party would hurt the Democratic cause most and could give the Republicans a victory in 1960 if it attracted sufficient support. That is unlikely.

Unless signs fall, the South will be more solidly Democratic two years from now than it was in either 1952 or 1956.

Strength For Today

By EARL L. DOUGLASS
WILL THE MIRACLE OCCUR?
In 1701, a distinguished Englishman wrote to Pepys—famous for his diaries—that the nation had never been "so atheistical, false and unsteady, covetous, ungrateful, lewd, luxurious, self-interesting, impudently detesting and uncharitable" as at the time when he was writing. And he felt that without "a miraculous undeserved providence" there would be "a total dissolution of the government and constitution."

The miracle occurred—two years later. In 1703, John Wesley was born. He lived to a great old age and was active to within six months of his death. He was clergyman of the Church of England, yet he became so troubled by the unspirituality of the Church in general and the reckless wickedness of his day that he organized societies with in the English Church known as Methodist Societies. After Wesley's death, these Societies became the Christian denomination which bore that name.

Wesley lived to see England spiritually transformed. An "undeserved providence" had come to the English people. The birth of a baby, and later his consecration, transformed the spiritual life of a whole people.

Never in human history has there been such spiritual chaos as there is today. Will another John Wesley arise? Let us hope and pray that God will be as good to America in the twentieth century as He was to England in the eighteenth.

Couple Weds In Baptist Church

AYDEN—A wedding of simplicity and beauty was solemnized in the Ayden Free Will Baptist Church Thursday afternoon when Miss Lou Ella Tripp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Tripp, became the bride of Staff Sergeant Grover Malcolm Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Lee Thomas Sr.

The chancel of the church had a background of palms and was centered with a floor basket of white mums and gladioli. The candelabra, holding burning white tapers, was entwined with southern smilax.

The Rev. Raymond Gaskins performed the double ring ceremony following a program of nuptial music presented by Mrs. Roy Turnage Jr., organist, and Mrs. James T. Martin of Haw River, aunt of the bride, who sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me." Rev. Gaskins sang "O Perfect Love" as the benediction.

Serving as ushers were John Stewart Craft and Nelson Thomas, brother of the bride.

The bridal couple entered the church together. She wore a waltz length white wedding gown of Peau D'or fashioned Princess style with a sabrina neckline outlined with iridescent sequins and three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a half bonnet, and she carried a purple orchid on a white prayer book.

The bride's mother wore a navy ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses, and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Lula Tripp, was dressed in black with a pink rose corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy outfit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of Ayden High School and is employed locally as a bookkeeper and Sergeant Thomas is also an Ayden graduate and will be stationed at Lindsay Air Force Base in Wiesbaden, Germany, where he will be joined by his wife in a few months.

The couple received the wedding guests in the vestibule of the church following the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points the bride changed to a two-piece green outfit trimmed with a white collar with which she used black accessories and an orchid corsage.

ECC Prepping For This Week's Guilford Games; Seven Players Injured

Reports from the East Carolina College football camp this morning indicate that the Bucs will go after their season victory this Saturday night against Guilford with a half-crippled squad.

Seven Pirate players are on the sidelines with injuries. All seven of them have seen heavy duty during the first or second ball game of this season, or both.

Out of action are three backs, two ends, a guard, and a center. James Speight and Lee Atkinson, both starters in the ECC opener against Emory and Henry, were injured in that game and are still on the hurt list. So were end Howard Beale and center Lynn Barnett.

Glenn Bass, sophomore halfback who made a fine showing in the first game and who was promoted to a starting slot in the second, has a bad knee suffered against Presbyterian Saturday night. David Thomas, another end who saw heavy duty Saturday, is also out. Ed Emory, 220-pound guard, is currently struggling with a cold and has been working lightly. But he is expected to be in shape for this Saturday's tilt with Guilford here.

On The Rebound

Coach Jack Boone's Pirates—though crippled by last week's invasion by Presbyterian—are aren't giving up the ship, yet. The match with Guilford this weekend will be the first North State tilt of the season for the Bucs and Coach Boone still has some aces up his sleeve.

His No. 1 quarterback, Ralph Zehring, is still in top shape. At fullbacks, Boone will have a headsome list from which to choose his starters, including Bobby Perry, Tommy Nash, Charlie Bishop, Ed Emory, and Wayne Davis. Behind them will be Charles Gordon, James Gordon, Dallas Hollingsworth, Johnny Wike, and Dempsey Williams.

At center, Henry Vansant will fill in for co-captain Barnett, as he did last weekend against Presbyterian.

Ready For Catawba
Barring any unforeseen injuries in this weekend's Guilford contest, East Carolina should be back in pretty strong shape.

There has been speculation that James Speight will return to the Buc lineup at fullback and that Barnett, Beale, Thomas, and Atkinson will also be in playing form. Glenn Bass, who hurt a knee against Presbyterian, is on an uncertain status at present. No definite word has been released about the above boys' return, however, they have shown signs of recovery which indicate their possible return for the Catawba tilt, Oct. 4.

The Catawba game is likely to be the Bucs' biggest test thus far of the season. The Indians knocked off Davidson, 21-18, in the second opener and are rated a sleeper in the North State loop this year.

Fireworks
When Guilford invades ECC Stadium this Saturday night, it will mark the first time the Quakers have played East Carolina in football in five years.

To commemorate the incident, college officials have lined up a special halftime event, including a special show by the East Carolina band and a fireworks performance given by Wannamaker.

The fireworks demonstration—according to reports—is the same one which each year at the Greensboro East-West All-Star football match. According to college officials, the demonstration is so massive and startling that it can only be presented with the permission of the police and fire departments here.

AT FULLBACK—Vernon Davis, 210-pound freshman from Clayton, will handle fullback duties for ECC against Guilford this weekend. It will be his third week of play at the post since the injury of All-Conference James Speight.

Lenoir Rhyne's Ackard Among NIAA Leaders

WILSON, N.C. (AP) — Lenoir Rhyne fullback Bill Ackard and Wofford halfback Denny Richardson rank high among offensive leaders in District 26 of the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Ackard scored two touchdowns Saturday as Lenoir Rhyne shut out Wofford 20-0. This tied him at 12 points with Richardson, who had scored touchdowns in two earlier games.

Ackard leads individuals among small college teams in the Carolinas in total offense with 119 yards in one game. He got 51 yards rushing and 59 passing, and is averaging 4.58 yards per play.

Richardson tops the district in yards gained rushing with 95 in two games, an average of 47.5. In total offense, Elon College leads with its 362 yards in air and on the ground picked up in defeating Guilford 14-7. Lenoir Rhyne leads in total defense, having held Wofford to 89 yards.

In passing, Wofford leads in the combination of quarterback Charlie Bradshaw to end Jerry Richardson. Bradshaw has completed nine of 14 passes for 162 yards and has thrown one touchdown pass to Richardson, who leads in receiving with five passes for 109 yards.

Duke worked out in heavy equipment. Offensive workouts included dummy scrimmages and defensive work was concentrated on passing, in anticipation of the throwing of the Cavaliers' Reece Whitley. Tackle Jim Gardner, slightly hurt in the South Carolina game, did not work out yesterday but is expected to be ready Saturday.

Coach Warren Giese of South Carolina, whose Gamecocks defeated Duke 8-0, said his next foe, Army, is "a tough bunch of hombres n defense." He added that South Carolina is "working hard on ways to stop that great Army dummy combination Pete Dakins and Bob Anderson." The game will be played at West Point.

Virginia almost upset Clemson, one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's top-rated teams, but lost 20-15.

The only way to develop a great football team," commented Tatum, "is to develop a great running attack. When you do that the football you should be intending to score a touchdown, not a first down. When you work entirely on passing you can't do many other things well."

At Clemson, the work was on defense and the passing game. Minor injuries sidelined several players, but they are expected to be ready for North Carolina.

N.C. State, which is home to Maryland, held a rather light workout. Coach Earle Edwards put the team through a dummy scrimmage session and work on defense against Terp pass patterns, on blocking and breaking through defensive lines.

Maryland Coach Tommy Mont, 22-15 if it had been good.

"This coaching is getting complicated, isn't it?" he grinned. "A coach will almost have to have an accountant on the bench with the new rule."

Then there is the case of Columbia Coach Buff Donelli. He has a more sobering thought on the state of things in the kicking business.

"Pretty soon," he frowned, "the high schools are going to stop teaching kids kicking because they won't be able to spare the time, and some day we don't have any kickers at all. By then the game will have developed into a hit-or-miss affair. Start running and if there's an opening, pass. If that is adding excitement to the game, I fail to see it."

Tatum Says UNC Passes Will Be For TD's Only

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Here's a word for Clemson's football team, and perhaps it should be taken with a grain of salt. When Jim Tatum's North Carolina Tar Heels throw a pass against you next Saturday, they'll be going for broke.

Tatum, reminded at his press conference yesterday of Virginia's success at Clemson last week using a splendid passing attack by Reece Whitley, said he didn't intend to do the same.

He added that South Carolina is "working hard on ways to stop that great Army dummy combination Pete Dakins and Bob Anderson." The game will be played at West Point.

Have You Noticed? Yanks Have Lost Six In A Row

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
In case you haven't noticed, the New York Yankees haven't won a game since the day they clinched the American League pennant more than a week ago. They've lost six in a row since, their longest losing string in more than two years.

That's not exactly a rip-roarin' way to move into the World Series—which opens a week from today at Milwaukee—but you can't say Manager Casey Stengel is worried. His pitching staff has regrouped in that span, and his Yankees at least got rid of Ted Bowfield, the pesky rookie southpaw who had beaten them three times, before they lost 9-8 at Boston last night.

But if there's one Yankee who isn't feeling chipper these days, it has to be Bob Turley—the AL's leading winner who now has fallen in two shots at his 22nd victory. The big right-hander may get one more chance, against Baltimore this weekend in the windup of the regular season.

Turley escaped the defeat, but he was battered for five runs in the first inning and was through after Ted Williams hit a two-run homer, his 23rd, in the fourth that tied it 7-7.

Williams also rapped a double and single and received a standing ovation from the fans when he left for a pinch runner in the winning eighth. He drove in four runs, picked up three points for a .317 batting average and apparently made up for that batting flapping incident of Sunday.

Teammate Pete Runnels (2-for-4) upped his AL-leading average to .325 for a seven-point edge over Detroit's Harvey Kuenn who is a point ahead of Williams at .315.

Kuenn was 1-for-5, losing a point, as the Tigers defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-1. Cleveland retained a third-place tie with Boston and Detroit by beating Kansas City 7-5, and Baltimore defeated Washington 3-2 in the other AL games.

In the National League, Philadelphia defeated Milwaukee's champion Braves 6-5, St. Louis beat Los Angeles 5-1 and the Chicago Cubs defeated San Francisco 3-2 in 10 innings.

Johnny Kucks (8-8) was the Yankee loser as Williams tied the score 8-all with an RBI double and Jackie Jensen singled home the winner in a two-run eighth. Murray Wall (8-9) won it.

Paul Foytack (14-13) nailed his seventh consecutive complete game for the Tigers with a four-hitter. He had a shutout until the eighth. Frank Bolling's 23th homer, a solo shot in the eighth, won it, handing Early Wynn (14-15) the loss.

Randy Jackson's three-run homer in the ninth gave it to the Indians after the A's had scored five in the first off 16-game winner Cal McLish. Hal Woodeshick (6-6) won it in relief. Dick Tomaneck (7-8) lost it.

Southpaw Jack Harshman (12-14) drove in all the Oriole runs with two homers, his fifth and sixth, and a double against loser Pete Ramos (14-16).

Some May Doubt Terp Policy After Saturday

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — The whole question of emphasis on football at the University of Maryland may be up for debate again after Saturday's game at North Carolina State.

A victory would keep it quiet. Another poor showing and the simmering question is likely to flare anew.

Last week's 34-0 rout by Wake Forest started the pot boiling. The first target, as in most losses, was Coach Tommy Mont.

He admits the "boss" has to be willing to accept the blame. But Mont, not merely in self defense, brings up the old question of jockeys and horses.

The setback at Wake Forest convinced him, Mont said, that Maryland doesn't have enough good players available to provide a true test of each other in practice.

"If my men are to be any good," Mont recalled his predecessor, Jim Tatum now at North Carolina, spoke of a 100-man working squad. What does that mean in the number of football scholarships?

"Forty to 45 to keep 100 in college," estimates Mont. "The attrition rate is becoming very high."

Maryland, along with many other colleges, adopted stiffer academic rules in 1957 for all students. Scholarships to football players run around 25 a year.

Mont stays away from personally advocating the 100-man football squads. However, he adds that Maryland must face the question "if others are going to have them and it wants to maintain competition in the Atlantic Coast Conference."

Mays, Ashburn Are Just Fractions Apart In Points

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Willie Mays and Richie Ashburn are so close in their run for the National League batting title you couldn't push a bunt between them.

At the moment, Willie's ahead by .0003 of a percentage point with a streaking 520 spurt for his last 14 games. Ashburn, batting a mere .424 for the same span, has a .349 average to Mays' .3442.

Last night, Mays was 3-for-5 against Chicago as the Cubs defeated the San Francisco Giants 3-2 in 10 innings. Ashburn was 2-for-4 against Milwaukee as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the champion Braves 6-5.

St. Louis defeated Los Angeles 5-1 in another near-miss at a no-hitter by Sid Sam Jones in the only other NL game scheduled.

In the American League, Boston defeated the champion New York Yankees 9-8. Detroit beat the Chicago White Sox 3-1, Cleveland got past Kansas City 7-5 and Baltimore defeated Washington 3-2.

Mays, getting 200 hits for the first time in his career (Ashburn got his 200th hit Monday) beat out a dribbler in front of the plate, and a low roller toward third last night. His other hit was a solid single in the eighth inning—when he went to second on Leon Wagner's single, stole third and gave the Giants a 2-1 lead on an infield out.

Walt Moryn's 26th home run gave the Cubs a tie in the ninth. Ernie Banks then bloomed an RBI double that won it in the 10th.

Ashburn, who leads Mays in hits 207 to 201 but has only three games remaining to Willie's four, beat out a bunt that loaded the bases in the eighth and set up Ed Bouchee's winning tworn single off lefty Juan Pizarro (6-4). Bouchee also rapped a first-inning homer, his ninth.

Rookie Jim Owens won his first. In the middleweight class Spider Webb, defeated by Gene Fullmer, dropped from fourth to fifth place, changing positions with France's Cha-ey Humez. Fullmer remained in the No. 2 spot behind Carmen Basilio among the challengers for Ray Robinson's crown.

Swede Named Top Fighter Of Month

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson of Sweden not only earned the "Fighter of the Month" award by his quick knock-out of Eddie Machen, but the feat has advanced him to No. 1 rating among the challengers for Floyd Patterson's heavyweight title.

Johansson replaces Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., in that spot in the Ring Magazine's ratings, released today. Folley previously had fought a draw with Machen. He now is ranked second among the challengers, and Machen is dropped to fifth.

Archie Moore, ageless king of the light heavyweights, has been dropped from fifth to sixth place among the heavyweights.

In the middleweight class Spider Webb, defeated by Gene Fullmer, dropped from fourth to fifth place, changing positions with France's Cha-ey Humez. Fullmer remained in the No. 2 spot behind Carmen Basilio among the challengers for Ray Robinson's crown.

NEW YORK (AP) — Oh, those new football rules.

The coaching set is beginning to take a real, hard look at them and before the season is over they could develop some comic-opera overtones.

The new extra point rule could provide the most entertainment. It provides that a conversion is worth two points if a team elects to run or pass. If it kicks, it's worth one point.

For example, Clemson Coach Frank Howard is having trouble with his mathematics. After his team went ahead, 20-15 against Virginia (the final score, as it turned out), he went for one point via kick. It missed.

He confessed that he thought for

Russian Vacation Rugged Compared With U.S. Kind

By BEVERLY DEEPE
Written for The Associated Press

Yes, there is a vacation-land in the U.S.S.R. But most Americans might think it easier to just keep working than to play the Soviet way.

While touring the Soviet Union as a member of an American student group, I visited a typical vacation camp: the Gorenk tourist base in the mountains outside the Central Asian city of Alma-Ata.

At 7 a.m., the Soviet national anthem blared from loud-speakers, blasting snoozers out of the sleeping bags for 10 minutes of directed calisthenics outdoors.

Campers whipped their beds into shape and dashed to the mountain stream for a quick wash before reporting at 8 a.m. for a breakfast of rice, chicken, bread, butter and tea.

Then campers hustled out for a morning hike into the mountains, returning at 2 p.m. for a lunch of potatoes, beefsteak, soup, rolls, butter, fruit compote and tea.

Not everybody went on the hike. Some were already on other hikes of two to seven days into the high glacier peaks.

There was time out for a three-hour rest in the afternoon "bahjs" in dishes of water in the so-called "shower house," and then table tennis, pool, dominoes or volleyball before dinner.

Dancing and a movie followed dinner. Lights went out at 11 p.m. and exhausted vacationers tumbled into their sleeping bags.

No alcoholic beverages are allowed.

The round of hiking and relaxation sparked excitement only when a group came back from a long mountain hike.

Then the group commander saluted the camp director with a report and the welcoming party enlisted for the occasion whooped a rousing cheer to "physical-cul."

Sanitary conditions in the tourist camp were primitive. There were four lavatories for women—one had a broken faucet, one a clogged drain and the fourth worked but had a continually running faucet.

Other toilet facilities were primitive and unimaginably fouled.

Dishes were washed in small kettles of cold water; hot water was available only for tea and coffee.

Gorenk is one of a string of vacation places stretching from the northern waters of the Baltic to the luxurious "Russian Riviera" on the Black Sea.

Here, Russians play as hard during vacations as they work the rest of the year. The picture is completely different from the free-moving, easy-going vacations of the American family.

Both husband and wife in the Soviet family often work and must frequently spend their vacations in separate places at different times. Children go to county summer camps or daylong programs in city Palaces of Culture from the end of May to the beginning of September.

An air of military discipline prevails in the children's camps.

Observers who have seen both the Soviet youth program and the Nazi youth camps in Hitler Germany say there are remarkable similarities.

Vacations don't cost much in the Soviet Union. Campers at Gorenk pay 30 rubles a day ($3 at tourist exchange rate), but the government and trade unions pay part of the money.

Shotgun Blasts Pepper Door Of Negro Students

WILMORE, Ky. (AP) — Police today were investigating shotgun blasts which shattered a window and peppered a door of a building housing Asbury Theological Seminary's first Negro students. No one was injured.

The unidentified gunman fired five times, apparently from a passing automobile about 3 a.m. yesterday.

W. D. Turkington, the school's dean, declined to comment on the incident. He said state police told him not to discuss the matter.

The Methodist-supported school in central Kentucky approved integration several years ago but this was the first year any Negroes enrolled.

The Negroes said they recently were chased home from a soft drink stand. Later two white men reportedly stood outside the dormitory and shouted for them to come out. They refused. The whites left.

DeGaulle Preparing For '5th Republic' Election

By JOHN RODERICK
PARIS (AP)—Counting on voter approval of his new constitution, Premier de Gaulle summoned his Cabinet today to prepare for the first elections under the Fifth Republic.

The balloting for a new Parliament shorn of many of its old powers is expected to be set for Sunday, Nov. 16. Political observers say runoff would be held the following Sunday.

Gen. de Gaulle, who virtually dictated the proposed constitution to be voted on this Sunday, still has given no indication how he wants the election law written. His form will strongly influence the political complexion of Parliament. Some non-Communist leftist parties fear de Gaulle will weight the law to favor conservatives.

Whatever the leanings of the new Parliament, its election will clear the way for the naming of a new president. De Gaulle himself is expected to take the job.

Observers expect the presidential election to be held the last half of December. The new constitution leaves the choice up to Parliament and electors representing the towns, most of whose officials are conservative.

None of the election decisions to be taken today was expected to become public.

With the referendum only four days away, Algerian nationalists redoubled their campaign of terrorism intended to force France into negotiating with them. The rebels object that the proposed constitution does not promise independence to Algeria.

Police are fighting back. In two attacks on police cars in the Paris area during the last 24 hours, six Algerians were killed and two policemen slightly wounded.

The most daring nationalist attempt at sabotage was discovered yesterday. A frightened French woman tourist found a crude five-pound dynamite bomb in a toilet on the top level of the famed Eiffel Tower.

The bomb was powerful enough to blow off the top of the 984-foot landmark. But its timing clock had stopped.

I felt I had a certain loyalty to them. And there are plenty of Mediterranean faces to draw from."

Movie Producer Bucks Trend; Filming In U.S.

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Producer Rowland V. Lee is reversing the trend of shooting big costume pictures abroad. He's filming Lloyd Douglas' book "The Big Fisherman" right here.

"The Big Fisherman" will cost about four million dollars. Not bad for a guy who has been absent from the producing scene for 13 years.

"I quit after I made 'Captain Kidd,'" the veteran producer-director said in his studio office. "I just felt that I had had enough. There were too many 'big men' in the movie business. I decided. Too many people who wanted to join the army as generals."

The twinkling-eyed, rosy-cheeked movie maker didn't remain idle. He wrote musical comedies and plays, had one produced in the East. He also repaid his impressive San Fernando Valley ranch for film locations, the most notable being "The Friendly Persuasion."

After huddles with nine lawyers and 27 principals, Lee acquired rights to "The Big Fisherman." He entered a partnership with Disney's Buena Vista Releasing Co. and started preparing the film.

"We made a thorough survey of the chances of filming the story abroad," Lee said. "I wanted it to look authentic, and I wanted the Mediterranean faces."

"But I decided to make it in Hollywood. After all, we have the finest technicians in the world here. These are men I have worked with most of my life, and

Off the air since June 8, the "Circuit Rider" returns to Channel 9 Sunday afternoon at 4:30. The Rev. J. Malloy Owen, pastor of St. James Methodist Church, is the Minister on the program. Gibbons, music director since 1954, resigned to become the Associate Minister of Union Methodist Church in Wilmington, Delaware. Miss Fuller has been a featured soloist on the telecast for some time.

Mother Stalls Children's Trip

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Legal moves have stalled actor Sterling Hayden's proposed voyage with his four children aboard his schooner to the West Indies and Scandinavia.

He had planned to leave by Oct. 1, but the District Court of Appeal yesterday ordered an Oct. 15 hearing. Hayden has asked Superior Court permission to take the youngsters along.

His former wife, Mrs. Betty Ann de Noon, contends the voyage would be too dangerous. She also seeks custody of the children, who have been living with their father. They are Christian, 10; Dana, 9; Gretchen, 8, and Matthews, 6.

MARY'S LAMB

LOUISVILLE (AP)—Mary's little lamb is waiting inside the gate each morning when 25 youngsters arrive at Maryanna Nursery School. Mrs. Raymond Shircliffe got the animal by accident. "The mother was on the way to the slaughterhouse when friends of ours discovered she was about to give birth. We got the baby as a gift."

Wheeled House Over Rooftops

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Raymond Marquez family bought a three-bedroom house in Long Beach, where it had been condemned for a freeway project. Movers hauled the house to the Marquez lot in the Lawndale district. To get it to the rear of the lot, they had to jack it up 25 feet and wheel it over the rooftops of two other residences along a driveway that separates them.

The house reached its foundation without incident, if soaring over two other houses isn't an incident.

Major Philmore T. Collins set the hearing for two o'clock, and sent an orderly around to make sure that the principals were present. PITT COUNTY'S HOSPITAL FACILITIES ARE INADEQUATE

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE 4,165 ELIGIBLE VOTERS IN PITT COUNTY! Due to the recent growth of Pitt County and the increased population in this area, our hospital facilities are no longer adequate to care for our sick. We have reached a point where patients have to be put into the halls and extra beds have to be placed in the wards. Our situation is growing more desperate each day, and we must take steps to remedy it. The County Commissioners have called for a special election on September 27, in which the voters of Pitt County will decide whether or not to expand our hospital facilities. This expansion will cost Pitt County approximately $500,000 and additional funds amounting to $1,000,000 will come from Federal and State Agencies. We must not pass up this opportunity to enlarge our hospital facilities which are so urgently needed.

ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27th

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW!

By FAGALY and SHORTEN

Mexico Suffers Heaviest Rains

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Some highways have been washed out in almost all parts of Mexico by the heaviest rains in 51 years. More than 40,000 are homeless and at least 38 persons have drowned. The final toll may be much higher.

After almost two weeks of heavy rain, the Communications Ministry said last night numerous washouts cut the nation's major highways.

Serious flooding was reported in seven states — Sinaloa, Nayarit and Jalisco on the Pacific Coast; Guanajuato, northwest of Mexico City; and Nuevo Leon, Coahuila and Chihuahua on the Texas border. Rain has caused damage in other areas.

President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines was directing rescue and aid work by army troops and civilian agencies.

The paralysis of ground transportation hampered work. Basic necessities are being flown into Guanajuato and Sinaloa. Boats are relaying food, clothing and medicine where trains are unable to penetrate into flood-ravaged mountain country.

After communications had been cut by seven days of rain, word of disaster arrived yesterday from the port of Mazatlan in Sinaloa.

Some 8,600 persons are homeless in Mazatlan and other Sinaloa towns along streams at the foot of the Sierra Madre Occidental. Eight bodies have been recovered and seven persons are missing. Relief boats penetrated 12 miles inland over flooded coastal areas.

Helen Knowland Confident Husband Has A Greatness

By LEIF ERICKSON

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Helen Knowland, vigorously campaigning for husband William F. Knowland in the hardest fight of his political career, is armed with a conviction she has held since their courting days.

"I have always known there was greatness in him," declares Helen Knowland.

She is completely outgoing and unabashed in her high estimate of the capabilities of the blunt, strapping mate she calls Billy, who chose to retire as the U.S. Senate's Republican leader to run for governor of California.

With Knowland, busy in Washington as Senate minority leader, Mrs. Knowland carried the campaign ball in California up to the June primary. She led a 5,000-mile "Rollin' for Knowland" bus tour by the "Knowland girls"—herself, two daughters and a daughter-in-law.

The primary result confronted the Knowlands with unmistakable evidence they were in for the first uphill battle of their political careers in the 1958 general election race.

Republican Knowland and Democrat Pat Brown, state attorney general, were unopposed for their parties' governor nominations. Each cross-filed on the other party's ballot, however, and Brown oustripped Knowland in the total popularity test by 662,000 votes.

Helen Herrick started picketing with Bill Knowland when they were Alameda high school seniors. He was elected president and she, his best girl, vice president. They eloped on New Year's Eve in 1926. She was 19 and he was 18. They went back to sophomore classes at the University of California after their honeymoon.

From the time he was elected to the California Assembly at 24, Knowland's climb to political leadership was rapid, and relatively easy. He was an Army major in Europe when then Gov. Earl Warren appointed him in August, 1945, to serve the unexpired Senate term of the late Hiram W. Johnson.

In 1946 Knowland won election to a full Senate term over Democrat Will Rogers Jr. The Knowland vote margin was 1,428,067 to 1,167,161. Mrs. Knowland, busy raising a family of two daughters and a son, took little part in that campaign.

No campaigning effort was necessary for Knowland's re-election six years later. He won both Republican and Democratic nominations in the cross-filed primary by the biggest vote of any candidate in California history—3,962,448 to 569,992.

But Knowland's 1958 race with Brown for the governorship has a far different setting.

Brown is riding a tide of growing Democratic registration and evidenced in the Maine election and in the California and Wisconsin primaries.

Knowland's decision to run for governor created an amount of bitterness among Republicans. It forced Gov. Goodwin J. Knight's reluctant agreement to step out of the governor race and run instead for Knowland's Senate seat.

On right-to-work legislation, the campaign's hottest issue, Knowland is standing apart with firm independence. Knight and Republican candidates oppose the ballot measure for a right-to-work law which Knowland wholeheartedly supports.

On the need for what the Knowlands call union democracy, Mrs. Knowland's ardor more than matches her husband's. The Knowland campaign line against Brown contends Brown is dominated by labor bosses.

Roused by Brown statements seeking to exploit a report that she had circulated a pamphlet denouncing her husband's record, Joseph P. Kamp, she countered with a charge that Reuther and Brown were employing a massive intimidation technique.

She declared the "massive intimidation" would not be learned from "seeking to learn all the facts about their intention and activity to liquidate Senator Knowland."

Brown pointed out that Kamp, who served a sentence for contempt of Congress for refusing to disclose names of financial contributors, also had published pamphlet attacks on President Eisenhower and Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Mrs. Knowland said she had been unaware of Kamp's record. She said he had distributed about 500 of the pamphlets on Reuther. But she said the distribution was stopped on her husband's order.

A prideful grandmother of five grandchildren, Mrs. Knowland is a youthful-looking, attractive brunette. Friends say her easy social grace has been of great value in her husband's career. The Senator has not shown real taste for the glad handing required in politics.

Powerful Radio Voice For N.C.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The director of the U.S. Information Agency has told of plans for construction of a powerful transmitter near Wilmington, N.C. It would have capacity to broadcast directly to parts of the Soviet orbit, the Near and Middle East and Africa.

George V. Allen told a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee yesterday the transmitter would be set up "if at some future date one or more of our relay bases are no longer available to us."

Congress already has appropriated 10 million dollars for the transmitter. Allen told the subcommittee that the U.S. currently is being outgunned in the radio propaganda war in the Near and Middle East and Africa.

Sixty officers and men of Denmark and Norway were graduated in 1958 as missile experts at the U.S. Army Guided Missile School at Huntsville, Ala.

They'll Try Cool Off Graham Rally At Coliseum

CHARLOTTE (AP) — There're going to try to cool off the Charlotte coliseum for tonight's Billy Graham crusade meeting.

Temperature in the big dome, even with air conditioning, has been near the 90-degree mark, packed and jammed with 12,500 to 13,000 people nightly.

Coliseum officials said some of the big lights in the high dome would be cut off during tonight's service to cut down on one source of heat. The air conditioning system will be cut on some four hours ahead of time.

In addition, Manager Paul Buck said the freezing system used only to freeze ice on the coliseum floor for ice hockey and skating will be turned on 4 hours before the 7:30 meeting time. It will be cut off about 30 minutes before the gates are opened.

Graham announced his sermon subject tonight will be "America's Greatest Sin." His Thursday night service again will be pitched to teen-agers. Friday night is "Governor's Night," when Gov. Luther Hodges will be a guest.

Group Is Against College Bonds

ASHEVILLE (AP) — A Negro group, the Asheville and Buncombe County Citizens Organization, has come out against a proposed community college bond issue here on grounds the institution would be segregated.

A $500,000 bond issue has been proposed for Asheville-Biltmore College under the state community college program. The state would contribute $500,000 on a matching fund basis.

Supporters of the college announced recently that part of the money would be used to establish a Negro branch of the institution.

The Negro group asserted that "to use the taxpayers money for a segregated unit would be in violation of the 14th Amendment and the May 17, 1954 decision of the Supreme Court" against segregated public schools.

A Trust Under Will protects her

PRESSURE FOR A LOAN from well-meaning friends or relatives means a hard decision for the widow with money. If she says, "Yes," her capital may shrink. If she says, "No," she risks loss of friendship.

Is there a way you can protect your wife from this embarrassing situation? Fortunately, yes! Under an attorney-drawn Will, you can arrange to place your estate in Trust . . . naming our Bank as Trustee. Then your wife's answer to a request for money can be, "We'll have to ask the folks in the Trust Department."

In addition to protecting the widow from risky loans and investments, the Trust Under Will provides other benefits to make her life easier . . . more secure.

For example, she receives a check at regular intervals, year in and year out . . . she is freed from the burdensome details of property management . . . the estate is in experienced hands and safeguarded for the future. And, if the Will provides for "discretionary power," we can advance extra money when an emergency arises.

More and more thoughtful husbands, by arranging for a Trust Under Will now, are sparing their wives needless anxiety in the future. Visit our Trust Department soon with your attorney.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved moderately higher in fairly active trading early this afternoon. Most leading stocks were up from fractions to about a point. There were scattered losses.

Motors were briskly traded and mostly higher. Steels, rails, airlines and a variety of selected issues posted gains. Aircrafts were soft, however, and there were losers among the tobaccos, nonferrous metals, rubbers, drugs and building materials.

The Commerce Department report of an indicated rise in production and income for the third quarter was encouraging. Some brokers felt the stock market may have been entering a kind of plateau for a while after its climb to record highs.

American Telephone, whose 3½ gain was credited for inspiring Tuesday's market upsurge, was off fractionally for a while on off taking but recovered and moved a bit to the upside once more.

TRADE PROMOTION—Merchants Association President J. D. McGlohan Jr. and Trade Promotion Committee Chairman E. E. Featherston with Greater Greenville Trade Days banner. This banner will be displayed in stores throughout the city Thursday, Friday and Saturday for the sales event, expected to draw thousands of shoppers from Pitt and surrounding counties.
