

AMERICAN RED CROSS

in South Pacific

A Pictorial Story of the ARC in

Welfare work Canteens
Rest clubs for men on leave
. . . Service clubs providing daily ~ entertainment Hospitals . . .

The American Red Cross greatly appreciates the efforts of all who made this booklet possible.

Cover Design by Sgt. Barclay Rubincam
Illustrations & Layout by Pvt. Chas. R. Protas Reproduced by Navy V-mail Station of New Caledonia

Photographs by Army Signal Corps
Passed by Army & Navy Censors

A BUSY MAN-THE FIELD DIRECTOR

making loans...
assisting in
personal problems...helping in
the adjustment
to military
life....

LET'S TALK IT OVER!

relatives and
friends are
brought together after
long separation

REST CLUBS

an all too short leave away from the monotony of camp life

swimming, sailing, sunbathing fishing, sports tournaments

CHOW TIME

keeping the men on the flying fields snack-fed, american style.

here's your
lunch men!
from the girls
in New Hebrides

pouring the
"java" in a New Caledonia air
base canteen

IN NEW GEORGIA

clubmobile
visits troops
in isolated
areas

aero club
on jungle
airbase for
passengers,
crew, pilots

ROOMS NO LONGER EMPTY

patients pick
out their choice of
games

for the hospitalized-special entertainment to stimulate normal interests

GI creators
in the craft
shop

SELF EXPRESSION

a chance for patients to develop their talents

SPECIAL EVENTS

costume
dance

bingo!

SERVICE CLUBS

fun for the men in the vicinity

a bit of sweet
jive in a . . .
music room,
Fiji

at a New Hebrides club
relaxing in
beach chairs

INDOOR RELAXTION

a bit of bridge in
..... New
Caledonia

pool and
ping pong
in full swing at
Fiji

footlights and comedy
in Guadalcanal

clubs from
the land down
under to the
tropics

dancing in New Zealand

sandwich
time in a
Guadalcanal
club

