Never Too Young For Fashions

Girls will be girls, from the moment of birth, says designer Helen Lee, who ought to know, having three daughters of her own.

"From the moment a baby girl is born, she is strictly feminine," says the smart and photogenic Miss Lee, who is likely to go all soft and starry-eyed at sight of a small child. "Little girls like pretty clothes from the moment they start to see and think. And by the time they can walk, they've acquired definite fashion personalities."

Miss Lee has been designing children's dresses most of her life, first practicing on dolls at her home in Knoxville, Tenn., where she made a dress for herself at the age of eight. She came to New York at 18 and studied fashion design at the Traphagen School and the Art Students' League, winning a student contest which resulted in sale of some of her designs to a children's dress manufacturer.

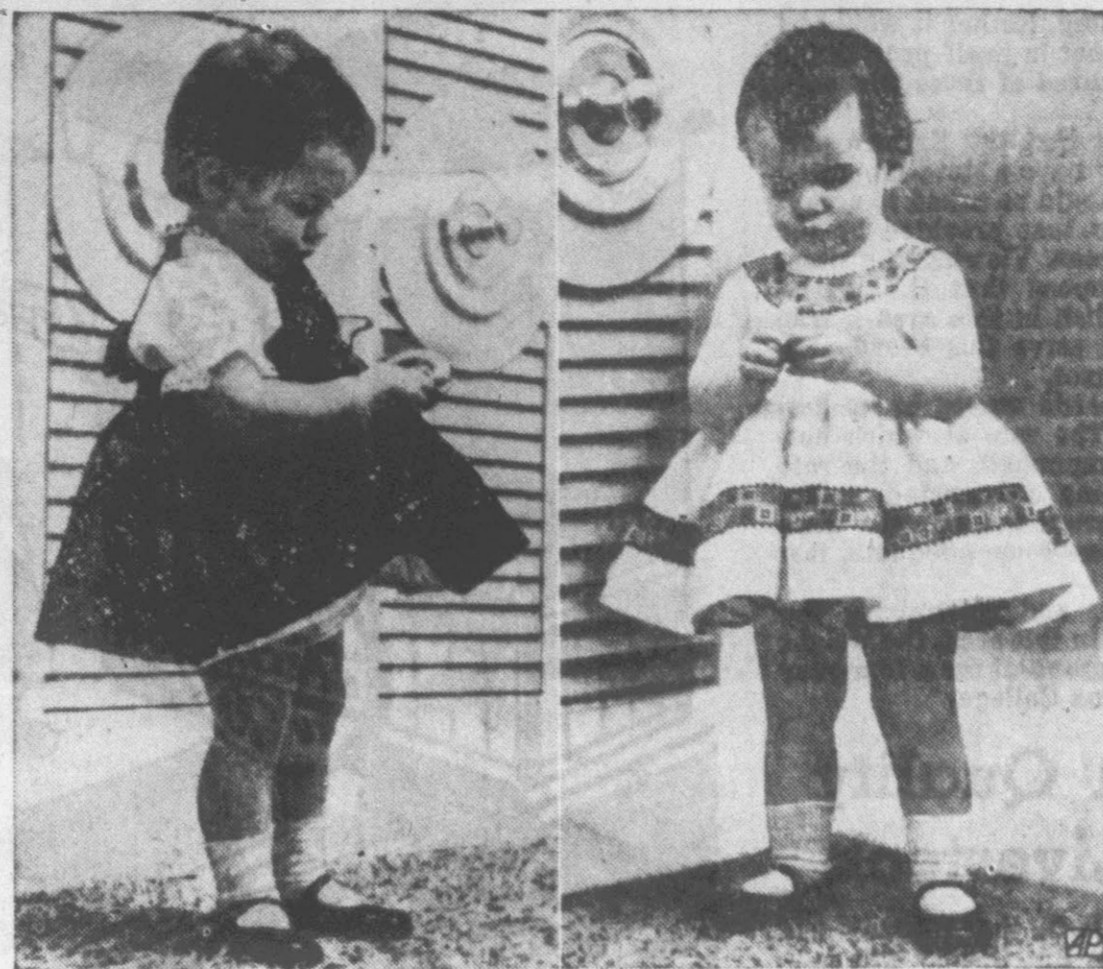

After marriage and three daughters, Helen had live models for her designs, and was so successful in dressing her own little girls that she soon found herself designing children's dresses for a big New York firm. She turned out moosest styles so different from the usual concept of little girls' clothes that she created a sensation overnight. Her theory was simple:

"I tried to make clothes that would please the children as well as their mothers. And I've always believed that little girls' dresses can be just as high-style as those of grown-ups."

Unusual fabrics, original treatments and coordinated wardrobes distinguished Miss Lee's designs for children. She says: "Children are people — not just live dolls to be dressed up in frills and ribbons to please dotting mamas and grandmas. Every little girl is a distinct individual, and deserves to be dressed accordingly."

Miss Lee designs for girls aged one to 14. Notable is the fact that her styles for one-year-olds almost always are repeated for the older group—they're fashion-right for either age.

HIGH STYLE FOR TODDLERS . . . These two beguiling dresses for young ladies of fashion, age one, are designed by Helen Lee and also are available in sizes up to 14. Left is a provincial print jumper with laced shepherds bodice and dainty white blouse; right, white waffle pique sun dress with calico trim on yoke and skirt.

PINT-SIZE SWANK . . . —This fashion-conscious young charmer wears Helen Lee's summer design for the youngest set—a dress of pale green cotton broadcloth with crisp white organdy pinafore and lacy trim, to delight all glamor babies.

Sightseeing Tour

Stokes—Baptist young people went on a sightseeing tour to Sanford on Saturday. The tour was under the direction of H. C. Cole.

The young people visited a ceramics business and saw the process by which pottery is made.

Mrs. Spilman introduced the guest speaker, Charles D. Cobb, Organizational Chairman of State Mental Health Association, who spoke on mental health in general and of some of the war veterans, saying that people who have good mental health are basically happy people who mix well with others and fit into community life.

He said there are 104 different mental diseases; that there are now about 10,000,000 people in the United States in need of treatment; that State institutions are crowded and understaffed and have never had enough money to properly operate. One of the greatest needs is for rehabilitation of mental cases cured, he stated.

Progress is being made and tranquilizers now can replace the straight jacket. A person who has received psychiatric treatment and been cured is really a more "well" person than the average person who has not had such treatment, Cobb said. He suggested that helping with the rehabilitation of veterans would be a good project for the American Legion and Auxiliary.

Lawmaker Finds Taxes Not Always 'Paid' In Counties Where Collected

By LYNN NISBET
Reflector Raleigh Bureau
RALEIGH — Rep. Byrd Satterfield of Person has compiled a table showing general fund tax collections from each of the 100 counties and State payments for operating the public schools in each county. Assuming that 65 cents out of every general fund tax dollar collected by the States goes to public schools, the Person county alone finds that 17 of the 100 counties turn in more to the public school fund than they get back. The other 83 counties get more back than they pay.

The variance ranges from 41 cents recovered by Mecklenburg to $4.52 by Clay for every dollar collected in the counties. It is important here to keep in mind the distinction between money received from and credited to counties and the State taxes actually paid by residents of these counties. Retail stores in metropolitan centers like Asheville, Charlotte, Raleigh and Wilmington collect and transmit to the State sales taxes paid by customers who live in adjoining counties. Also many residents of the larger cities derive substantial part of their taxable income from business operations in other counties.

The 17 counties from which more is collected than is returned for public schools are Alamance, Beaufort, Cabarrus, Catawba, Cumberland, Durham, Forsyth, Gaston, Guilford, Lenoir, Mecklenburg, Moore, New Hanover, Onslow, Pasquotank, Rowan and Wake.

A casual glance at the map will show that these counties have regional centers of big business which serve several adjacent counties. The situation in the far northeastern corner of the state emphasizes this point. Pasquotank is on the credit side, with 94 cents received for every dollar collected. Camden is charged with $4.27 for each dollar collected. Yet Elizabeth City is just as much the local trading and banking center for Camden as it is for Pasquotank. Similar conditions prevail in the southeastern corner. New Hanover gets back only 61 cents of every dollar "paid in", while Brunswick gets $2.15 and Pender $3.72. But general fund revenue receipts credited to New Hanover are derived from retail business done in Wilmington by residents of Brunswick, Pender and other counties — plus considerable contributions by upstate citizens vacationing at the New Hanover beaches.

Godfrey Enters Hospital Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Television star Arthur Godfrey prepared to enter a hospital today for an operation for a chest tumor.

"My only fear is of being an invalid," he said Sunday night. "I'd hate to think of not being able to go for a swim or ever fly an airplane again."

Doctors don't know whether the tumor is cancerous. The operation, scheduled later this week at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center, will tell.

Godfrey, 55, flew his private plane from his farm in Virginia. He was in shirt-sleeves, smoking a cigar.

"I feel wonderful, dammit. That's what's the trouble," he told reporters. He said the tumor, on the side of a lung about an inch from his left collarbone, gave him no pain for the past week.

He had pain from it a month ago, however, he said. It felt as if he had "swallowed a piece of steak that hadn't been chewed."

Russia Denies Knowledge Of Missing Plane

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet Union says it knows nothing about a big British freighter plane missing near Soviet territory with 12 men and secret equipment aboard.

The Soviets Sunday denied knowledge of the four-engined Avro Tudor which disappeared over mountainous East Turkey Thursday. British officials speculated foul weather had forced the aircraft into Soviet Georgia or Armenia.

Soviet jet fighters forced down a U.S. Air Force transport in the same area last June.

A Supply Ministry spokesman said the British aircraft carried "certain classified items" for the "British rocket range in Australia."

The plane was owned by a London charter firm. Its last reported position came from over Mus, Turkey, during its flight from Ankara to Bahrain on the Persian Gulf.

NBC-TV Engineers On Strike Over Tape-Use

NEW YORK (AP)—Supervisory personnel got the National Broadcasting Co. network back on the air today after a sudden strike by television engineers disrupted operations.

Sydney Eiges, NBC vice president, said normal programming resumed at 10 a.m. Eastern Daylight Time.

However as Eiges made his announcement, the striking union, the National Assn. of Broadcast Employees and Technicians, said the stoppage by its members had spread to "a complete national walkout" with Washington, Chicago, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and San Francisco involved.

Tyler Byrne, director of network affairs for the union, said the writers, producers and news-men belong to the AFL-CIO affiliate in cities outside New York.

The shutdown began when engineers refused to air the "Today" program at 7 a.m. because it had been prerecorded by nonunion workers abroad.

Byrne said broadcasters have been rapidly increasing use of video tape in foreign operations and that personnel are hired overseas at rates "completely substandard to rates in the United States."

"We fear this will cause a severe reduction in the people employed in these fields in the United States," he added. "This we cannot and will not permit."

"We charge NBC with being in direct violation of our contract with them as it applies to video tape jurisdiction. We are refusing to condone the 'runaway shop' approach by the American networks in originating program service in overseas locations and consequently employing people at what we term 'cooler-rate labor,'" he said.

Pickets patrolled the entrances to the RCA building in Rockefeller Center where NBC has its headquarters.

crease has been modest, but the second quarter estimate is $32 billion. McGraw-Hill, which also estimates on the basis of questionnaires, anticipates a somewhat larger increase. Since these estimates have a tendency on both the upside and the downside to understate the final actual figures, it appears reasonable to assume that we shall go above the currently published forecasts.

For almost a year it has been evident that we have been on the path of recovery. The current crop of reports now makes it clear we are moving into new high ground, and the only real question now is on the duration of the upswing.

Somebody Stole Wyatt Earp's Guns, Clothes

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Somebody stole Wyatt Earp's guns. It looks as if the scheming henchman who did it tricked the marshal's right-hand man into doing a heap of ridin' for nothin'.

Sig Hoglund, houseboy for Hugh O'Brian — who plays Wyatt Earp on television — said he got a phone call from a man purporting to be "Sgt. Henderson" of the Pomona police.

"He said there was a traffic warrant for my arrest," Hoglund reported. "and if I didn't come to Pomona right away there would be trouble."

Hoglund drove from O'Brian's Benedict Canyon home to Pomona, where police told him there was no such warrant. When he returned home early Sunday, Hoglund found two automatic pistols missing. Also gone were 20 sport shirts, 12 pairs of slacks, five sport jackets, seven sweaters, a radio, assorted jewelry and whisky.

The marshal was in New York.

quarters. The picket signs complained of a "lockout."

The main effect was felt on the television network, although radio network engineers in a sympathy move prevented broadcast of several morning news roundups.

Eiges said that supervisory workers were keeping radio operations normal.

Between 9 and 10 a.m. there is no network TV programming. NBC's New York TV outlet got back on the air at 9:06, showing films.

Local radio programming was not affected.

The disputed "Today" show was taped in Paris last week by International Tape, Inc., a European firm, and included an interview with Brigitte Bardot. The only live portions of this morning's show were to be news segments from New York.

"Today," which is emceed by Dave Garroway, has been on the air seven years. NBC officials said that it had never been interrupted.

Burglar Fished For Mink Stole

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Now police can tell the one about the burglar who fished for mink.

Sunday night, they said, a burglar went to a Wilshire Boulevard fur shop armed with a toy pistol that shoots darts. He aimed through a package drop, police said, fired a dart into a stole on a manikin, then used a line to pull out the garment.

How did they figure it out? One hook-equipped dart—apparently a near miss—was found hooked in the manikin's dress.

Ignored Noise Of Tussle In Loft

MIAMI, Okla. (AP)—The Rev. J. C. Harris was preaching at the First Methodist Church Sunday when a loud noise and vibration was heard behind the choir loft.

Rev. Harris continued unruffled. The congregation, including Ottawa County Sheriff Ben Stanley, soon forgot it.

After the sermon Deacon Clyde Barlett said he had caught a burglar rifling purses of choir members. He tussled with the man, falling down two flights of stairs. The burglar escaped with about $350.

Unemployment Is Big Problem In Italy, Too Wraps Are Off Giant Jet Plane Built For President

By SAM DAWSON

ROME (AP)—Unemployment is today's most stubborn problem in the United States. It's the biggest bugaboo in Italy, too.

The chief similarities: in both countries there are pockets of joblessness and women are a growing part of the labor force.

The chief differences: 1. U.S. pockets are mostly in industrial areas hard hit by the recession and where recovery has brought greater revival in production than in rehiring. Italian pockets are largely geographic rather than industrial. 2. The U.S. government intervened only in moderation. The Italian government is making heroic efforts—some with the help of American dollars—to alleviate a much more permanent problem. The industrial recession touched Italy lightly compared to the sharp drop in the United States. Industrial unemployment rose only slightly here. Industrial recovery was quick in the United States; Italian industrial output is rising but at a slow pace.

Chronic unemployment is mostly in the south of Italy, where industry now is making a tentative entry, nudged along by a worried government.

Its chief efforts are two: to rebuild agriculture through power projects, irrigation and advanced techniques and to get the crowded and impoverished population either into northern Italian factories or into jobs in other countries.

The first calls for training and education, a long, slow process at best.

The second may be helped by the Common Market. The six member nations—Italy, France, West Germany, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg—have pledged that when it gets fully going laborers can move freely from one country to another.

Northern Europe long has used Italian workers. Italy, for example, was just as concerned as Germany and Belgium when the great flow of American coal to Europe, which gave the American coal industry one of the few shots in the arm in recent years, seemed likely to close down European coal mines. Many Italians in Belgium would have been thrown out of work. The flow has stopped and they're still working.

Italy hopes that with Common Market it can export more of its jobless to other member nations. But it has some fears. It notes that France, before the Algerian crisis, tended to rely more on North African laborers. Other nations have their colonials or ex-colonials to favor.

At present the relation of the jobless in Italy to the total labor force is much like the ratio in the U.S. at the depth of the recession.

Despite the emigration of 750,000 Italians since 1930 and a steady rise in total employment, unemployment stays around 7 per cent of the labor force. The reasons: a slow but steady increase in population; farmers leaving the land to look for factory jobs and the emancipation of women.

Italy has almost two million classed as permanently unemployed, plus some 258,000 working less than 15 hours a week, and more than one million farm laborers working less than 160 days in a year.

That's one reason Italy would like to see more American dollars invested in private enterprises, here—and more demand for Italian laborers in Europe and overseas.

SEATTLE (AP)—In three days a gleaming silver and orange 600-mile-an-hour jet will be turned over to the Air Force—the first of three identical planes for the President and other high officials. All secrecy wraps were taken off today and newsmen were allowed through the VC137, as it is designated, for the first time.

Big, powerful, fast, safe, modern and equipped with the latest electronic and communications devices.

No gaudy showpiece, but a prestige plane worthy of one of the world's most powerful men.

Basically, it's a Boeing Commercial 707 with redesigned interior for special government missions. The President will use the four-engine jet for long flights. But the fleet of three will be at the service of other high government and military men.

The VC137s—none has been given a name—are less than the President's five-year-old, propeller-driven Columbine III.

Police said early today one of The administration wanted it that way.

"We were given some guidance in the matter," said A. I. Ostlund, tanker-transport systems manager for the Boeing Airplane Co., at a briefing session.

The first of the 5½-million-dollar VC137s to be delivered to the Military Air Transport Service Thursday will be followed by the second near the end of May and the third late in June.

It probably will be toward the close of summer, however, before tests and shakedown flights are finished and the planes go into service.

The size of the plane extends half the length of a football field and is nearly as wide. To be precise, 144½ feet long and 130 feet 10 inches from wingtip to wingtip.

To the left after entering through the forward door is the cockpit in the nose with a maze of dials, instruments, controls and warning horns, bells and lights. There are seats for the pilot, copilot, flight engineer and navigator, and spare seat for a third pilot.

Behind the cockpit is a 15-foot section containing a galley, lavatory, coat closet and communications facilities. Here are the latest in radio-telephone and radioteletype equipment, enabling the President and key officials to keep in touch with Washington from any part of the world.

Next comes a 10-foot forward seating section with eight seats. Then the President's, or VIP, section—most luxurious in the plane.

To the rear is the largest seating section, 32 feet, with 28 seats in double rows.

Farthest aft is an 18-foot section holding three stainless steel galleys, more coat closets, two lavatories and the rear entry door. The average width in all compartments is 10 feet; the overhead height 8 feet.

All walls are of cream plastic with a silk screen pattern portraying buildings and landmarks from all parts of the world. Drapes are beige. All materials are fireproof.

Every safety factor possible was built into the plane. The latest in radar, warning systems, four JT3C Pratt & Whitney jet turbines each with a thrust of more than 10,000 pounds, individual life-vests, life rafts, communications and the like. Tail and wingtips are bright fluorescent orange for high visibility.

Speed will cut down the time aloft. Transcontinental trips for example will be reduced from 8½ to 5 hours. Capitals of Europe can be reached in 6-7 hours.

Several crews already have been trained to fly the three VC137s, among them the President's personal pilot, Col. William G. Draper.

Liberians Know Tubman To Win

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP)—The election hasn't been held yet, but all Liberia knows that William V.S. Tubman will be taking the oath of office again as president when the bands play next January.

Tubman, who is serving his 16th year as president of this rubber republic just above the equator, could win without making a speech before Election Day, May 5. But, as usual, he will go through the motions of a campaign. There is no organized opposition to his True Whig party.

He will have an opponent, more or less independent—William Oliver Davies Bright, former Circuit Court judge. Bright also ran against Tubman in the 1935 election and drew 16 votes out of the 245,000 cast.

He admits his candidacy is "purely sportsmanlike" and that he is "not particularly opposed to the continuation in office of President Tubman."

Tubman runs this country as a corporation president runs a fast growing business, a firm hand on every department. He is rushing a two-million-dollar, 10-story hotel on Monrovia's highest hill for the inauguration. A purchasing agent has been sent to New York to buy all decorations.

Tubman was born at Harper, Maryland County, Liberia, in 1895. His father, Alexander, was a Methodist minister and a member of the Liberian Senate, whose ancestors came to Liberia in 1834 from Augusta, Ga. The President's mother, Elizabeth Barnes, emigrated from Atlanta, Ga., in 1872.

Tubman rose from collector of revenue for Maryland county to become the youngest senator in the history of Liberia in 1928. He was first elected president in 1944.

Report Says 'Illegitimates' Not Big Burden On Society

By BUNNY HARRIS

Reflector Raleigh Bureau

RALEIGH—An intensive study on illegitimacy in this state, presented to the N. C. Conference on Social Service, contradicts the belief that children born out of wedlock are a burden on society.

Convening in Durham Monday for a three-day session, conference members were presented with a detailed report which tends to support the statement:

"The vast majority of illegitimate children do not become in any sense a burden to society.

"The number of boys and girls in training school because of delinquency number only about 100.

"The grand total of all illegitimate children in public and private institutions equals only about one-half of one per cent of all children in the population.

"And only nine per cent of all children born out of wedlock receive public assistance."

This report, compiled over the past six months, is actually only a preliminary study and will be followed by an even more comprehensive analysis of the problem of births out of wedlock in the state.

It represents the work of two subcommittees of the Conference headed by Dr. Guy Phillips of the University of North Carolina faculty at Chapel Hill and Mrs. M. C. Brown of Raleigh.

The report, based on 1937 figures, the latest available at the time the study was being made, shows the following:

During 1937 a total of 113,143 children were born in North Carolina. Of these, 75,343 were white; 37,800 were non-white.

Of the total, 1,897 white babies or 2.4 per cent, were born out of wedlock. Among the non-white the figure was 8,701—or 23.0 per cent.

The report shows that nearly half—or 49.7 per cent—of all unwed mothers in the state were under 20 years of age. Only 15.1 per cent of the married women had children before reaching 20.

Among the most interesting aspects of the study is the disclosure that a high degree of illegitimacy tends to become concentrated in certain geographical areas.

There were only 18 counties in the state in which more than 3.3 per cent of all white births were illegitimate. Of these 18 counties, 17 are in the mountains and form a belt all along the western boundary of the state.

The concentration of illegitimate births among non-whites are in three areas: (1) a belt of counties running east-west in the coastal plain; (2) a group of counties in southwestern Piedmont; and (3) an area in the southern end of the Piedmont.

What happens to these children? There are an estimated 1,800,000 children in North Carolina under 18 years of age, 145,000 of which were born out of wedlock (28,000 white, 115,000 negro and 2,000 Indian).

Of all these children, only 3,800 are in child-rearing institutions—300 of whom were born out of wedlock.

In the correctional schools there are about 1,000 children—about 100 of whom are illegitimate.

In the mentally retarded institutions there are 3,000 children—350 of whom are illegitimate.

This brings the total of children in institutions to 9,300—8,400 of whom are legitimate and 900 illegitimate. To state it another way, five per cent of all children born to legally married parents are placed in institutions as compared with six per cent of those born out of wedlock.

Some children, of course, are placed in foster homes or adopted homes. But of the 2,200 in foster homes, 1,600 of the children are legitimate and 600 illegitimate.

The percentage in adoption is higher. Of the 21,000 children in adopted homes, 12,000 were born out of wedlock and 9,000 in wedlock.

The report also shows that 40 per cent of all white children born out of wedlock were legitimated through adoption as compared with only two per cent of the Negro children.

What about those drawing public assistance? The survey revealed that 75,000 children are receiving help through Aid to Dependent Children. Of these, 62,000 (or 3.8 per cent) were born to legally married parents while 13,000 (or nine per cent) were born out of wedlock.

A further breakdown shows that 9.3 per cent of all white children born out of wedlock receive ADC as compared with 6.8 per cent of the non-whites.

Six Targets Of Shotgun Pellets

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Six Negro teen-agers walking home from a store were wounded Sunday night when hit by shotgun pellets reportedly fired by white boys from two speeding automobiles.

Police said the Negro boys told them three separate blasts were fired from the cars as they whipped through the Negro neighborhood.

Struck in the stomach and seriously wounded were Samuel Clark Jr., 15, and Carlton Washington, 16. Both were hospitalized.

Less seriously wounded were Forrest Black, 15; Willy Dickerson, 17; Floyd Reynolds, 17, and Billy Mickleburg, 16, who live near each other in the middle-class East End neighborhood.

The injured boys said they could not identify the white boys and had no idea why they were shot at.

Police said early today one of the cars described by the injured youths had been located and its owner was being questioned.

The white boys involved in the shootings, police said, were believed to have been among white youths who engaged in a rock-throwing incident with Negro teen-agers earlier Sunday night.

In 1897, eight out of ten persons earned their living by farming.

East Carolina Baseballers Romp Over Elon By 11-1

Pirates And High Point Play Today

By JOHNNY HUDSON
BURLINGTON—Elon's bid for their third consecutive North State title received a big jolt here Saturday afternoon as East Carolina's rampaging Pirates swept the Christians by a surprising 11-1 score.

Larry Crayton, freshman southpaw, was the master of the usually hard-hitting Christians as he scattered nine hits and pitched himself out of jams to record his fourth victory of the season against only one defeat.

Gilbert Watts, a long-time thorn in the Pirates' side, started on the mound for Elon but a streak of wildness in the second inning sent the All-Conference star back to his first base slot. Gary Hensen finished on the mound for the losers and pitched good ball but Coach Jack Sanford's club was too far down for a comeback.

Gary Pierce had to be removed from Saturday's game because of a sudden nose-bleed. The football griddler was expected to be ready for today's game.

Elon and Catawba are the Pirates' chief challengers as the season heads into the final stretch. Both have lost two games.

East Carolina opened this week with a 6-0 conference state but have four games ahead. They meet High Point here Thursday and then Catawba at Guy Smith Stadium Saturday night.

Gary Pierce had to be removed from Saturday's game because of a sudden nose-bleed. The football griddler was expected to be ready for today's game.

Moving Up by Pap'

The series of events which led to the appointment of Wayne Hardin as head coach of football at the U.S. Naval Academy, succeeded in Eddie Erdelatz who found frequent policy clashes with Academy authorities serious enough to cause him to give up the post, are strikingly similar to the coaching changes at West Point. Earl (Red) Blek was given some thought to retiring from the coaching game, but the feeling exists that he hastened his departure from the Military Academy because of a lack of harmony in the official family. This ended the stirring nine-year rivalry between Blek and Erdelatz in the Army-Navy classic. The climatic fall contest takes on a new look with Dale Hall, Blek's assistant moving up to coach the Cadets, and Hardin, Erdelatz's assistant last fall, embarking on a new era of football at the service academies.

Greenville will try to shake off their first conference defeat of the season tomorrow as they meet Tarboro in an afternoon tilt slated for Guy Smith Stadium. The game will get underway at 3:30.

The locals ran into more trouble than anticipated last Friday as the result saw Jacksonville hand Rose High their first defeat by a 10-3 score.

Coach Bo Farley was not too concerned over the defeat. "We are due to have a bad game sooner or later and now maybe we have it out of our system."

The Greenville coach will be able to pitch either of his aces against Tarboro tomorrow. Neither Merrett Bynum or Ronnie Finch got past the first inning against Jacksonville and should be well-rested for the Tarboro tilt.

Following the Tarboro game, only one more home battle will be left and that is the final game of the season when the Greenies take on Roanoke Rapids.

The Phat tons journey to New

Ben Friday and then have games with Elizacoth City, Washington and Kinston before closing out the season here.

Greenville edged past Tarboro earlier this season and will be favored to do so again. No change is expected in the starting lineup which has Joe Moye, Billy James, Bill Cox, Aler McArthur and Aubrey Harrison in the infield.

The starting outfield will consist of Steve Noble, Tommy Riley and either Bynum or Larry Roberts - depending on who is pitching.

Tune-Up Or Slaughter, The Heavyweight Title Is Stake

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

Call it a "tuneup," "warmup," "slaughter," or what you will, when heavyweights champion Floyd Patterson and Britain's burly Brian London step into the ring at Indianapolis Friday night it will be for the world title.

If the later-named Briton, a 10-1 underdog, gets lucky and beats Patterson, he will be the new champion. Into the discard will go the million-dollar-plus Patterson-Ingemar Johansson title scrap set for June 25 at New York's Yankee Stadium.

Major upsets have happened before in heavyweight title fights. Jim Braddock was a lowly regarded 19-1 shot when he outboxed Max Baer for the title 24 years ago, and old Jersey Joe Walcott was held at 6-1 in 1951 when he felled Ezzard Charles in the seventh round.

London was lucky enough in just getting the pay day. Henry Cooper whipped him in a bloody fight in London last Jan. 12 for the British and British Empire titles and was all set to get the crack at Patterson, Cooper's manager, Jim Wicks, doubled his price from $70,000 to $140,000 and Gus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, ruled him out.

So D'Amato hand-picked London who was more than happy to get a purse of $60,000 plus the shot at the crown. Patterson may gross close to $200,000.

NBC still will broadcast and telecast (9 p.m., EST) with the Indianapolis area blacked out.

Patterson will be making his fourth defense of the crown he won by stiffening old Archie Moore in the fifth round at Chicago, Nov. 30, 1956. In order his victims, by knockouts, were Hurricane Jackson, 10, July 29, 1957; Pete Rademacher, 6, Aug. 22, 1957; and Roy Harris, 12, Aug. 18, 1958. Rademacher and Harris each floored the champ before being finished off.

So in four title fights, including Moore, Floyd, a 6-foot, 185-pounder has scored four knockouts. He has racked up kayos in 15 of his last 16 fights and has a winning streak of 21. His record is 34-1, including 25 kayos, a 6-foot, 200-pounder, insists he has a good chance to surprise everyone.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Hefty Mike Souchak was probably the happiest guy in golf today, and he had about $22,000 to justify his delight.

Leading the delegation on to the Colonial Invitational at Fort Worth, Tex., the 30-year-old pride of Durham, N. C., was the new king of the annual Tournament of Champions. The victory brought him a $10,000 purse—the biggest of his career—and he had about 12 grand mums coming besides.

Not the least bit distressed, and richer by $5,000 himself, was sportsman Art Wall Jr., who made a gallant charge at the pace-setting Souchak and missed by only two strokes.

A horrendous experience on the 14th green at the Desert Inn Country Club Sunday cost slender Arthur a chance of winning. He took four putts to get the ball into the cup.

"I four-putted once before, at El Paso—I don't remember the year," Wall recalled.

Wall was one stroke back of Souchak when it happened. He took a double bogey six and that was too much to overcome. Mike had 77 for a 73-hole total of 281, Wall a 74 for 283. Gene Little of San Diego, Calif., finished with 71 for 285 and $3,000 prize money.

Last year's winner, Stan Leonard, tied for fourth with Julius Boros and Doug Sanders at 289. Souchak stood to win about $12,000 in addition to the prize money. A group headed by Chauncey Needham of San Francisco bought Souchak for $14,500 in the $380,000 Calcutta Auction. The group won $122,300. Ordinarily, the winning players get 10 per cent of the victory sum.

Bristling Fred Haney Benches Two Starters

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Manager Fred Haney, bristling after his Milwaukee Braves surrendered the National League lead to Los Angeles, benched shortstop Johnny Logan and left fielder Wes Covington for tonight's game against the Chicago Cubs.

Haney also said first baseman Joe Adcock may ride the bench if the Cubs pitch a right-hander. Left-hander Bob Smith was the Chicago probable.

"All I want is for the players to play up to their potential, and some of them haven't," said an angry Haney as the Braves flew back from Cincinnati where they were defeated 11-10 by the Redlegs Sunday.

The loss dropped the Braves into second place, a half game behind the Los Angeles Dodgers. They have a 7-4 record and are 36 percentage points ahead of the third-place San Francisco Giants.

"Among other things," Haney went on, "Covington and Logan aren't hitting as well as we expected. On double plays we are giving them an 'ante-over' deal."

A major league record was established when Red reliever Willard Schmidt was hit twice by a pitched ball in the same inning—the third when Cincinnati chased over six runs.

Milwaukee starter Lew Burdette hit him the first time and Bob Rush, Milwaukee's third hurler did it the second.

Haney said, "We hit one of their pitchers when he should have been an easy out and six runs resulted."

Set Dates For NCAA Tourneys
NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. Executive Committee Sunday announced dates for national championship competition in four spring sports.

Walter Byers, executive director, said track and field championships would be held June 12-13 at the University of Nebraska; baseball June 12-13 at Omaha, Neb.; golf June 21-27 at the University of Oregon; and tennis June 22-28 at Northwestern University.

Texas Athletes Figure Strongly

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

DES MOINES (AP)—Keep your eye on athletes from the state of Texas in the national NCAA and AAU meets this summer.

And you might as well add the 1959 Pan American Games in Chicago and 1960 Olympics in Rome.

They figured strongly in rewriting 13 Drake Relays records over the weekend—creating the biggest revision of the meet's books in 50 years.

The University of Texas won three relay events, setting records in two of them, 1:23.9 in the half mile and 3:11.3 in the mile. Eddy Southern's anchor man work was the big factor.

East Texas State dominated the college division with record performances of 1:25.4 in the 800 and 4:11 in the 440. Sid Garston was the mainspring.

One of six individual marks hoisted was a 6-9 high jump by Junior W. L. (Dub) Thornton of Texas Tech.

Other records included: Special AAU 440—Glenn Davis by four yards over Purdue freshman Dave Mills in .46.5. Pole vault—Jim Graham, Oklahoma State, 15'4; Javelin—Bill Alley, Kansas, 253-5; shot put—Mike Lindsay, Oklahoma, 57-7 1/2; invitational mile—Dyrol Burleson, Oregon freshman, 4:06.7.

Wind which prevented records on straightaway events kept Hayes Jones of Eastern Michigan from making official marks. He won the 100 yard dash in .09.5 and the 120-yard high hurdles in :13.7—becoming the first winner of both of these faces in Drake Relays history.

Jones, 26-year-old junior and national AAU high hurdle champion, was voted the outstanding athlete of the meet by sports writers.

Greensboro Has Batting Splurge

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Batters had a field day in one game while good pitching marked the other two contests in the Carolina League Sunday.

Greensboro pounded out 20 hits to outscore Wilson in a slugfest at Greensboro 18-10. It was the third straight victory of the season for the Yanks. Glen Merkle led the attack with six hits in six times at bat. He collected a homer, triple, double and three singles for seven runs batted in. Wilson collected 10 hits.

Meanwhile, Winston-Salem blanked Durham 5-0 at Durham behind the five-hit pitching of southpaw Sam McIntyre. The Cardinals scored twice in the fourth, once in the fifth and twice in the sixth. Mike Shannon and Bob Porter blasted home runs.

At Raleigh, the Alamance Indians combined good pitching with timely hitting to defeat Raleigh 4-0 and sweep a two-game series. Jim Weaver, a small lefthander, held the Caps to seven hits. John Skorski and Bill Williams hit home runs.

Tonight's games: Durham at Wilson, Raleigh at Greensboro and Burlington at Winston-Salem.

Allen Defeated On Final Hole

Most of the favorites survived the opening week of the Greenville Country Club golf championship, but as usual, all was not rosy for the pre-tournament favorites.

W. L. Allen, six-time club champion, had his ups and downs and finally lost out on the final hole to former champion, Molt Massey Jr.

Massey holed a six-foot putt on the last hole to win one-up after Allen barely missed a seven-footer. Highlighting the first week of play was a newcomer in the Club's select circle, but one that may be around for many years to come.

Buddy Murray, a member of Rose High's golf team, played like a champion in making his first bid for the club championship.

The sixteen year old, who carries a mere 118 pounds around the golf links, won his first match with a one over par round against Pease Ashby, who finished three over par.

Murray then carried pre-tournament favorite, Ben Harrison, to the 19th hole yesterday before finally losing out. Harrison made a birdie on the 19th to win the match.

Second round matches are slated to begin this week.

Saddened Dave Sime Wins Two And Loses Two

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—An unusually solemn Dave Sime, only a little off top form, broke even in two races against a pair of Europe's top sprinters here Saturday in the Virginian-Pilot Relays.

Sime won the international 100-yard dash by a matter of inches over England's Olympic hope, Peter Radford, in 9.5 seconds. Once more by a matter of inches, he lost the international 220 to Jocelyn DeLecour of France with a clocking of 21 seconds flat.

Saddened by the recent death of his 9-year-old brother, Sime was not his usual buoyant self in his second outdoor appearance of the spring. He had missed a practice session last week, and it told.

"Dave is a great sprinter," said DeLecour, "but he was suffering from grief by the loss of his kid brother. . . . It was too bad."

Sime came from behind to nudge the flying Radford in the 100, barely poking out his chest in front in time to break the tape first. DeLecour's second in .09.6. Both Sime and Radford were caught in 0-9.5, two-tenths of a second off the world record Sime has equaled four times in the past.

Richards Enjoys New Prosperity

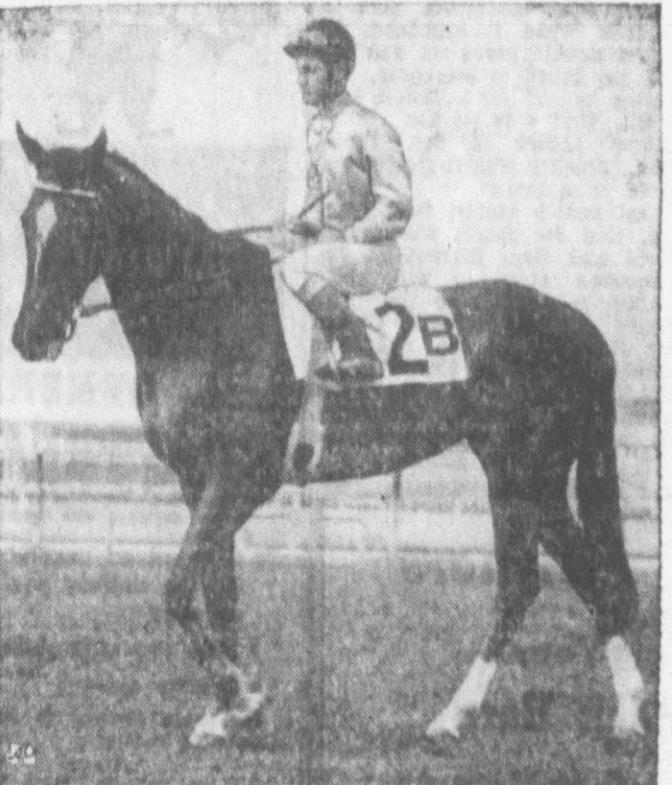

NEW YORK (AP)—The sudden rags-to-riches prosperity may not last, but Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles isn't looking to go broke soon.
1. His pinch hitting brigade is slugging at a merry 420 pace.
2. He has just whipped the world champion New York Yankees in four straight games, clinaxed by Sunday's 5-4, 3-2 squeakers.
3. He dumped the Yanks into the second division for the first time since 1956.
4. He has the Orioles tied for second place, just one game off the pace.
5. He has come up with an amazing find in Willie Tasby.
"Am I surprised at the way my pinch hitters are going?" Richards asked today with a twinkle in his eye. "Why should I be? Am I supposed to expect them to go up and strike out?"
Richards could afford to make light of the situation. His pinch hitters have gone to the plate 45 times. On 24 occasions, they have gotten on base. The official record shows 15 hits in 35 at bats for a .429 mark.

"Seriously, though," Richards continued, "this year my club does have more depth than in '58. I can make more moves. Now I'm not out of the ball game after I've used two or three pinch hitters. It wasn't always the way."
Besides his pinch hitters, Richards put his finger on Tasby as one of the big reasons why the club is in its lofty perch.
And Tasby is no surprise to Richards. He had such confidence in Willie that he handed him the center field job despite a .200 batting average in 18 games late last year.
Willie is hitting .382. Strangely, Richards became high on Willie because of his fielding, running and throwing rather than his hitting. The pilot doesn't expect Tasby to keep up the pace.
"But," said Richards, "the way Willie does everything else, if he can hit .280 he'll be a big help to the club."

Unexpected Slip Spoiled High Hopes Of Penn State

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An unexpected slip and a tired half-mile shattered an ambitious relay team of Penn State to win four of the eight major titles in the Penn Relays.
But Coach Chick Werner shrugged and said he wasn't too disappointed that his lads managed to carry off only two championships in the 100-yard dash and 200-yard dash that wound up Saturday.
The Nittany Lions hadn't won a crown since 1911 before this year. But they showed up with an imposing aggregation of middle distance runners. They won the distance medley the first day and appeared to be off and running.
Then, with Ed Moran running anchor, Penn State captured the four-mile relay in 17:11.3 to open the Saturday program. That gave the team a perfect 2-for-2 mark.
A little over an hour later, the Nittany Lions toed the mark in the two-mile relay, ready to make it three victories. Dick Engelbrink, running anchor, couldn't hold a five-yard lead and Michigan won it in 7:41. on Tony Seth's 1:32.5

anchor.
Then came the sprint medley relay. Penn State ruled the heavy favorite in this, too. But on the first turn, Dick Hambricht, running the open leg, tripped and fell. "I don't know how I tumbled," he said. "No one was near me."
Penn won it in 3:28, which is about four seconds slower than the best time ever clocked at this worst.
Only twice in the 65-year history of the Penn Relays have teams won four events. It happened in 1939 (Pitt) and 1945 (Michigan).
Abilene Christian was the other team to score a double this year. Bill Woodhouse and Co. took the quarter-mile in 40.9 and the half-mile in 1:24.5. Both were meet records.

Dodgers Acquire Top Rung By Edging Cardinals 17-11

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Now all bench-warming Duke Snider has to do is give Los Angeles a "play me or trade me" ultimatum and the Dodgers may make first place in the National League their permanent home.
The Dodgers took over the top rung Sunday by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a football score, 17-11, while Cincinnati was edging the Milwaukee Braves in a pitchers' duel—14 of 'em—11-10.
Charlie Neal had a perfect 5-for-5 and Gil Hodges drove in five runs but another pair of Dodgers—Carl Furillo and Don Zimmer—knocked in six between them.
You may remember that Zimmer, thinking he was being sidetracked for the regular shortstop berth at the start of the season, asked the Dodgers to play him or trade him. His three-run homer yesterday featured a five-run third inning that routed starter Vinegar Bend Mizell.
Only last week, Furillo, irked at being benched, made a similar demand. Returned to action Sunday, he whacked four hits and drove in three runs to assure rookie Gene Snyder of his first major league triumph.
The veteran Snider, who has been the bell-cow in past Dodger pennant drives, has been sitting on the bench with Don Demeter taking over his center field position.

The San Francisco Giants climbed into a virtual tie with Milwaukee for second place, a half game behind the Dodgers, by defeating the Chicago Cubs, 3-2. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia split a doubleheader, the Pirates winning the opener 9-2 and the Phils taking the second 10-5.
Chicago soared to within a game of American League leading Cleveland by sweeping a twin bill from the Indians 6-5 and 5-2. Baltimore remained in a second place tie with the White Sox, whipping the New York Yankees twice, 5-4 and 3-2. Washington nipped Boston 2-1 and Kansas City edged Detroit 4-3. It was the Tigers' sixth straight loss and their 12th in 13 games.
Manager Mayo Smith and his Reds accomplished something no Cincinnati team has been able to do since September, 1956—they beat the Braves for the second straight time. To add to the implausible, the Reds' victim for the second straight day was Warren Spahn.
Johnny Temple, whose three-run homer caused Spahn's downfall Saturday, again was the brilliant southpaw's nemesis. With the score tied 10-10 in the ninth and Spahn working in relief, Temple doubled for his fourth hit. He moved to third on Vada Pinson's safe bunt and scored the winning run on Frank Robinson's sacrifice fly.

Spahn, who owns 51 lifetime victories over the Reds, was the Braves' sixth pitcher. He came in to protect a one-run lead in the seventh but was tagged by Frank Thomas' tying homer in the eighth. Cincinnati used eight pitchers with Bob Purkey gaining credit for his third victory. The eight pitchers for one club and the 14 for two equalled league records.
Jack Sanford hurled a four-hitter against the Cubs for his third Giant victory. Jackie Brandt, Willie Mays and Bob Schmidt each collected two hits and drove in a run. Glen Hobbie was the loser.
Dave Philley, subbing at first for the ailing Ed Bouchee, drove in five runs with a home run and a double to help the Phillies gain a split with the Pirates, Pittsburgh won the opener with the aid of a six-run third inning against loser Don Cardwell and Jim Hearn. Dick Groat, who drove in five runs with four hits, featured the big uprising by smashing a grand slam homer off Hearn.

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Baltimore Orioles, their chests expanded by four straight triumphs over the New York Yankees, are only a game out of first place today and Manager Paul Richards can give thanks to his prized pinch hitters.
Four of Richards' emergency hitters came through Sunday to help the Orioles sweep a doubleheader from the Yankees 5-4 and 3-2. The two defeats dropped Casey Stengel's world champs into the second division for the first time in four years.
In 14 games this year, Baltimore pinch hitters have contributed 15 hits in 35 official times at bat. That's a .429 batting average. They've also drawn eight walks, hit one sacrifice fly, one sacrifice bunt, and driven in eight runs. It's not surprising then that the Orioles have won nine and lost only five.
The Chicago White Sox stunned Cleveland twice, 6-5 and 5-2, trimming the Indians' first place margin to only one game. Veterans Early Wynn and Billy Pierce were the winning pitchers as the White Sox remained in a second place tie with the Orioles.
Kansas City moved past New York into fourth place with a 4-3 triumph over Detroit's Tigers, who dropped their sixth in a row and their 12th in 13 games. Washington made it two in a row over Boston, winning 2-1 on homers by Roy Sivers and Jim Lemon.
Cincinnati bounced Milwaukee from first place in the National League, outscoring the Braves 11-10 as Los Angeles took over the top rung with a 17-11 victory over St. Louis. San Francisco's Giants climbed into a virtual second place tie with Milwaukee, shading the Chicago Cubs 3-2. Pittsburgh split with Philadelphia, the Pirates winning the opener 9-2 and Philadelphia taking the second, 10-5.
Ninth inning rallies were responsible for both Baltimore victories over New York. Trailing 4-3, the Orioles scored twice in the ninth of the opener. Gene Woolling singled and Chico Carrasquel walked. Pitcher Jim Finigan's single scored Woolling with the tying run.—Brooks—Robinson's single scored Finigan with the winning run.
Whitely Ford, who had taken over in the ninth to protect a one-run lead for the Yankees, was the victims of the assault. Baltimore scored its three other runs in the seventh as singles by pinch hitters Whitely Lockman and Al

Pilarcik set up the scores. The two teams set a major league record by using ten pinch hitters.
Hoyt Wilhelm permitted the Yankees only five hits in the ninth, outpitching Duke Maas. Robinson's leadoff double in the ninth, followed by an infield out and Billy Klaus' sacrifice fly, gave the veteran knuckleball artist his second triumph without a defeat. Catcher Gus Triandos was charged with four passed balls, equalling a league mark, trying to handle Wilhelm's butterfly pitch.
Chicago pitchers Wynn and Pierce helped their own cause against Cleveland with important base hits. Wynn doubled home two of his team's six runs in the fifth inning of the opener and they proved to be the decisive tallies. He needed help, however, from Gerry Staley, who hurled four runless innings. Pierce allowed the Indians eight hits in the nightcap and got three himself, a triple, double and single. He drove in two runs.
Bob Cerv clouted his second three-run homer in two days, to give Kansas City's Bob Grim his third victory against one defeat. The Tigers collected 16 hits but left 15 on base.
Bill Fischer won his first game for Washington. The only run he allowed was unearned. It came in the ninth after he had extended his shutout streak to 18 innings. He hurled 10 scoreless innings against the Yankees in his most recent outing.

NAIA Tourney Again In Texas

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The 1959 baseball championship games of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) will be played again this year at Alpine, Tex. The dates are June 2-5.
The double elimination tournament will return to an 8-team format after a 12-team field last year. San Diego (Calif.) State won the 1958 title.
Major League Stars Basting—Dave Philley, Phillies, subbing for ailing Ed Bouchee at first base, Philley drove in five runs with a home run and double in Phillies 10-5 victory over Pittsburgh after the Pirates had won the opener 9-2.
Pitching—Hoyt Wilhelm, Orioles, hurled a five-hitter beating the Yankees 3-2 after the Orioles had won the opener 5-4 for a sweep of the doubleheader.

Nicklaus Scores Win At Pinehurst

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—Youth, one of the principal advantages Jack Nicklaus held in his North and South Amateur golf tournament final match with Gene Andrews, also worked to his advantage of the youngster from Columbus, Ohio. The inexperience of youth was responsible for numerous mistakes that almost cost Jack the title.
The 19-year-old Walker Cup team player gained a 1 up 36-hole victory over Andrews, from Pacific Palisades, Calif., 25 years his senior.
Jack rolled in a six-foot putt for a par four on the last green to gain the victory. The Ohioan was 3 up after winning the first hole in the afternoon. Then he lost four of the next five holes, and had to come from behind.
Nicklaus showed flashes of brilliance throughout the erratic day in which both players were 11 over par for the 36 holes. Jack led by two holes after a morning round, 7-4, four over par for the 7,000-yard No. 2 course of the country club. Andrews shot a 79. They reversed the figures in the afternoon.
Nicklaus, after missing a four-footer that would have won the 18th, charged back after the luncheon break to birdie the first hole on 35 feet and he led by three holes.
Then Jack hit a wild streak. To his earlier hooking off the tee problem he added another lapse. He missed five consecutive greens, over-shooting most when he showed faulty judgment in club selection. The result was five consecutive bogeys, the loss of four holes and a one-hole lead for insurance man Andrews.
To add to his other misfortune, Jack made some poor approach putts, as he was wary of the fast greens, and left himself a hatful of four to six-footers. But he made most of them for hard halves to keep from falling too far in arrears.

Jack's best streak of the match saw him win the last three holes of the front nine in the afternoon with a birdie and two pars to regain the lead by a hole.
But the relentless Andrews, sinking a putt here and there when it counted, again drew even with only three holes to go.
Each made a good par on the next two holes and Andrews was, making one of his few mistakes, drove into a fairway trap off the 18th tee to bring about his undoing.
Here, too, Jack almost muffed his chance. After two good shots he was just wary of the green. He left himself six feet short with his first putt, but rolled in the clincher.

Promoter Hopes For Sellout Bout

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Promoter Al Farb was cautiously hoping for a sellout today for the Floyd Patterson-Brian London heavyweight championship fight Friday.
Farb's hopes skyrocketed Sunday when 3,500 fans turned out to see the two fighters in a doubleheader workout at the Fairgrounds Coliseum, where the bout will be staged.
London, former British heavyweight champion, is a 10-1 underdog in current betting.

BURNING UP THE ROAD

TOLEDO Ohio (AP)—Motorists approaching the intersection of Gaena and Summit streets thought they had taken a wrong turn on the road of life. Approximately 3,000 square feet of the pavement was on fire after a flare upset on the freshly tarred surface.

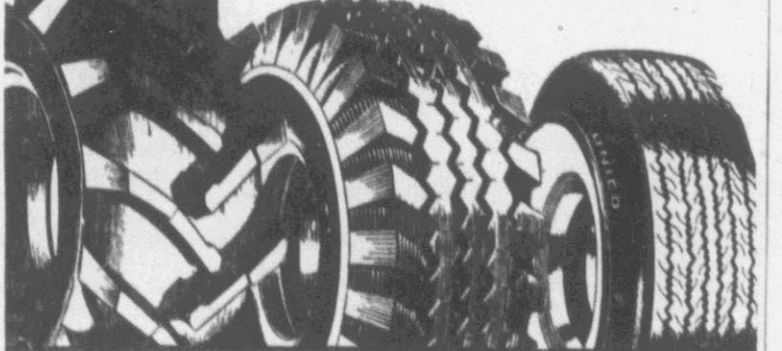

Tot Swept Over Niagara Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Thomas Bradbury, 3 1/2, died Sunday when he fell into the river and was swept over Niagara Falls. An 8-year-old playmate who couldn't swim plunged in the water in an attempt to save him.
Jack rolled in a six-foot putt for a par four on the last green to gain the victory. The Ohioan was 3 up after winning the first hole in the afternoon. Then he lost four of the next five holes, and had to come from behind.

Beirut To Curb Horn-Tooting

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—In this land where legend says St. George slew the dragon, Interior Minister Raymond Eddé is taking on another ferocious dragon—horn-tooting and unruly traffic.
Eddé has issued a preliminary decree banning the use of horns except in case of emergency. He has discarded as impractical and too technical an earlier decree which sought to restrict horns to those inaudible beyond 25 yards.
Eddé has gingerly started off by setting up silence zones where use of horns is forbidden under pain of fine. Police are stationed in these zones to pass out traffic tickets to offenders.

Herter Forging Bi-Partisanship

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is beginning to forge much closer working links with Democratic members of Congress than John Foster Dulles maintained.

Taking off today for a meeting with British, French and West German foreign ministers in Paris Herter is leaving behind arrangements to keep key Democrats abreast of developments.

The personal liaison which Herter has established with Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will be handled over until his return to Assistant Secretary William B. Macomber.

In his final meeting with Fulbright, Herter agreed to report in person to the Senate committee as soon as he returns.

In the meantime, the understanding is that any significant developments at either the Paris meeting or the East-West foreign ministers' conference in Geneva May 11 will be relayed through Macomber to Fulbright.

As principal Democratic spokesman on foreign affairs, Fulbright has made it clear he looks forward to dealing with Herter on an intimate basis fostered by their friendship while they were members of the House together.

While Dulles made many trips to Congress to explain his policies and acted to keep the Democrats as well as the Republicans informed of what was going on, most of his contacts tended to be on the formal side.

On the other hand, Fulbright and Herter know each other well enough that they can talk informally about an informal conversational basis. In this situation, Fulbright obviously feels that his ideas will get more attention than

Twelve-Hours Of Rescue Succeeds

CASTLETON, England (AP)—Rescuers spent 12 hours Sunday hauling John Keens, 21, though narrow, twisting passages from a rock shelf 420 feet underground. Keens had entered the cave with a party of explorers. A rope broke and he tumbled 15 feet onto a shelf on the brink of a chasm, breaking an ankle. By the time he was brought out, he was also suffering from exhaustion.

Asthma Formula Prescribed Most By Doctors—Available Now Without Prescription

Stops Attacks in Minutes... Relief Lasts for Hours!

New York, N. Y. (Special)—The asthma formula prescribed more than any other by doctors for their private patients is now available to asthma sufferers without prescription. Medical tests proved this formula stops asthma attacks in minutes and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful asthma spasms. This formula is so effective that it is the physicians' leading asthma prescription—so safe that now it can be sold without prescription—in tiny tablets called Primatene®.

Students Form Tibetan Brigade

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—American students who volunteered for the Tibet Brigade have started guerrilla warfare training, reports John Blackmore, a brigade spokesman and former Air Force cadet.

Blackmore, at present a philosophy student at the University of California, said today the brigade files list more than 100 volunteers whom the officers believe will go to Asia.

The brigade was formed recently to fight communism in Tibet, spurred by the recent anti-Chinese Communist flareup. Volunteers' names are held confidential.

"We must filter in individually or in small groups, and inconspicuously," said Blackmore. "We've asked volunteers not to identify themselves. They might be picked up when they reach Asia."

An arduous training program among the 25 to 50 active volunteers in the San Francisco Bay area includes rock climbing, judo, jorje riding, parachuting, marksmanship and demolition.

Volunteers are expected to leave for Asia as soon as they can finance themselves, or be financed by friends. The brigade plans to set up a training camp in or near Tibet and hopes to have guerrillas as instructors.

Dr. Melville J. Herskovits, noted anthropologist, teacher, lecturer, and author, will speak on "A Cross-Cultural View of Bias and Stereotypes" at East Carolina College Wednesday, April 29, at 8 p.m. in the Joyner Memorial Library. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Herskovits' appearance at East Carolina is sponsored by the Danforth Foundation Project at the college as the sixth and final program in a series of lectures on the theme "Creativity and Productivity in an Age of Tensions and Stereotypes."

Dr. George Douvan, director of the project, is in charge of arrangements. Dr. Herskovits, director of African Studies at Northwestern University, is widely known as an anthropologist and an authority on Sub-Saharan Africa.

He is a member of the permanent Council of the International Anthropological Congress, has been decorated an officer of the Order of Honor and Merit in Haiti, and served for five years as a member of the Advisory Committee on Music in the Division of Cultural Cooperation in the Department of State.

Dr. Herskovits has done extensive research in his field. This work has taken him to Dutch Guinea, West Africa, Haiti, Trinidad, Brazil, and Sub-Saharan Africa.

Starlings Face Two Big Foes On Capitol Hill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Things are looking bad for Capitol Hill starlings, with Congress and the Supreme Court conspiring against them.

That coalition is about to give the hot foot to the feathered fugitives from such places as the Washington Cathedral and the Treasury Department.

But there might be a stay of execution for the winged cacklers because Congress isn't about to permit the Supreme Court to be the only establishment on Capitol Hill to apply the shock treatment to the birds.

That undoubtedly would drive all the starlings to the Capitol, which already has more than its share and won't have its defense lines drawn up for several months.

The House Appropriations Committee made public today the plaintive plea of the court for money to throw into the battle of the starlings. It also hinted that it doesn't intend to do anything about it right away.

Led by Associate Justices Hugo Black and Tom Clark as emissaries for Chief Justice Earl Warren, the court asked the committee to fork over $35,000 to install an electronic bird elimination system on the court building.

This system is in operation on many local buildings, including the stately Cathedral and the Treasury.

It doesn't kill or injure the birds, but gives them the shock of their lives and persuades them to go elsewhere for a restful night in comfort.

The court got wind of plans to install the shock system on the Capitol and on congressional office buildings and suggested that if this work is to be done on other buildings in the Capitol Plaza, "then money should be provided, we submit—we hope—for similar work on the Supreme Court Building."

"You are very finely stating the problem," commented Rep. John Rooney, D-N.Y., chairman of a subcommittee considering the court's plea. "This committee would agree to that solution, but until the architect tells us that he is going to see that the birds you have over there are not chased over here with this electronic device, I think our hands are tied."

In short, Congress has enough birds of its own. It wants no Supreme Court birds.

Teacher Shortage Easing Somewhat In Some Previously Critical Fields

By G. K. HODENFIELD, AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's teacher shortage is easing somewhat in the critical fields of science, mathematics and foreign languages, the National Education Assn. reported today.

In its annual survey, the NEA found that the over-all shortage would be about 135,000 teachers, the same as last fall. It acknowledged its figures were based on an ideal situation, and that there will be a teacher in every classroom when school opens next fall.

The survey did not give a state-by-state breakdown. However, a spot check by The Associated Press last winter indicated that the states suffering the most are California, Michigan, Texas, New Jersey, New York and Ohio.

The NEA said the 1959 college graduating class promises to produce 6,984 new science teachers, an increase of 28 per cent over 1958. There will be 4,723 new math teachers, up 37 per cent, and 2,005 new foreign language teachers, up 23 per cent.

Altogether, the class of '59 is expected to produce about 125,710 graduates qualified for teaching. This is about 10 per cent higher than last year's teacher crop.

On the basis of past records, it is expected that about 73 per cent—of 92,500—of these graduates actually will take teaching jobs. Many of the rest will go into other fields because of higher pay of personal preference.

The NEA said the nation's public schools will need 227,500 new teachers next September, broken down this way:

- 94,500 to replace those leaving the field.
- 33,000 to serve increased enrollment.
- 30,000 to relieve over-crowding and eliminate half-day sessions.
- 20,000 to provide instruction and services not now provided.
- 50,000 to replace unprepared or unqualified teachers.

If only 92,500 members of the class of '59 take teaching jobs, where are the other 135,000 coming from?

The big majority—probably in excess of 90,000—will be college graduates of previous years.

Some, possibly 10 to 15 per cent, will be former women teachers returning to field after dropping out to raise families. Others will be qualified teachers who have worked a year or two at other jobs. Still others will be college graduates who stayed in school to get advanced degrees.

The NEA report didn't list this group as a source of supply. Dr. Ray Maul, director of the survey, said there aren't enough statistics available to give an accurate picture. And, he added, there is a question as to just how well qualified these persons are as teachers.

The one big bar to staffing every classroom with a qualified teacher, Maul said, is the low scale of teachers' salaries.

"If teachers' salaries were competitive with other fields open to college graduates," he said, "we would soon have all the teachers we need. If we could make teaching financially attractive, our teacher shortage would evaporate overnight."

Mental Hospitals Will Hold 'Open House' To Show New Developments

The Mental Hospitals of North Carolina will be participating April 26-May 2 in a project known as "Operation Friendship." The program is being sponsored by the National and State Associations for Mental Health in an effort to bring visitors to mental hospitals throughout the country for "open house" during Mental Health week.

The project is designed to show America's 750,000 hospitalized mental patients that their relatives, neighbors, friends, and fellow citizens are concerned about them, and eager for them to get well and come home.

Guests will be given the opportunity in the mental hospitals to visit the patients and to see for themselves some of the hopeful new developments in the care and treatment of the mentally ill.

All aspects of the "open house" will spry out the Mental Health week theme: "With your help, the mentally ill can come back."

The State Hospital at Morganton has announced that its open house will be held on April 30, 1-4 p.m. Goldsboro's State Hospital will observe the same hours on Tuesday April 28.
