Satellite's Fate Secret

MOSCOW (AP) — Eleven days after its launching, the fate of a new unmanned Soviet satellite called Zond 4 remained a secret today. Hold 2 For N. C. Robbery

HAYESVILLE, N.C. (AP) — The FBI said today that two men are being held in jails in north Georgia on charges of robbing a Hayesville bank of $16,112. The FBI reported that "substantially everything was recovered" following apprehension of the pair. Two young men, one armed with a sawed-off shotgun and the other with a pistol, Tuesday robbed the Hayesville branch of the Andrews First Citizens Bank & Trust Co. The FBI said Herman Hous-

Laotians Push Back Reds

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Laotian government troops pushed back two North Vietnamese battalions that had driven to within six miles of Thakhek, across the Mekong River from a U.S. air base at Nakorn Phanom, in Thailand, Laotian military sources reported today. The sources reported fighting five miles east of Thakhek but said latest reports indicated the Communists were pulling back because of intense "friendly" air attacks.

Plan 'Liberation Army'

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government's chief spokesman said today that a volunteer "liberation army" is being formed to invade North Vietnam. U.S. officials expressed complete surprise at the report. The spokesman, Director General of Information Nguyen Ngoc Linh, said the invasion army would be made up of Vietnamese who are "sick and tired of those people who want to 'liberate' South Vietnam." This was a reference to the Viet

Pueblo Parleys Said Deadlocked

SEOUL (AP)—Foreign Minister Choi Kyu-hah says that U.S.-North Korean talks on the release of the Pueblo crew have come to a deadlock, informed Korean sources said today. The sources said Choi told the National Assembly's foreign relations committee at a closed session Tuesday the United States, which has been holding secret talks with the North Koreans at Panmunjom, is seeking other avenues to secure the release of the 82 surviving crewmen of the intelligence-gathering ship.

McCarthy Wins Stunning Share Of Ballots In N.H. Demo Primary

By WALTER R. MEARS Associated Press Writer CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — New Hampshire Democrats returned a startling split decision today, giving President Johnson a narrow, empty victory in the nation's opening presidential primary—while awarding rebellious Eugene J. McCarthy 42 per cent of the ballots and apparently 20 nominating votes at the party's national convention. Richard M. Nixon won the overwhelming Republican vote he sought to help wipe out the memory of past defeats and

Waldrop, Minges Re-Elected To Utilities Posts

By ALVIN TAYLOR Reflector Managing Editor J. Ed Waldrop was reelected chairman of the Utilities Commission last night and Dr. Ray D. Minges was renamed vice chairman. The actions were taken at the annual reorganization of the commission. Director Leonard Bloxam presided over the meeting during the reorganization process. The motion to retain the same officers was made by Commissioner B. B. Sugg Jr. The chairman and vice chairman are chosen each year by the commission members. The members of the six man commission are appointed by the City Council for five-year terms. Chairman Waldrop recognized last night that Commissioner W. L. Whedbee has been reappointed to a second five-year term. He welcomed Whedbee back. Commissioners also approved a committee recommendation

Vernon White In Senate Race

Vernon E. White of Winterville today announced his candidacy for State Senate in the Fourth District, subject to the May 4 Democratic Primary. He joins incumbent Fourth District Senators Julian Allsbrook of Halifax and Vinson Bridgers of Edgecombe, both of whom are seeking re-election to the 1969 General Assembly. White ran unsuccessfully against Allsbrook and Bridgers in 1966, the first race in the newly-created four-county district. In announcing his candidacy, propel his quest for the GOP presidential nomination. But the drama was in the Democratic story. It was a story of political trouble for Johnson, and a leadoff success for McCarthy, whose campaign on a platform protesting Vietnam policy once was scorned as inconsequential by Democratic professionals. Minnesota's McCarthy far surpassed his forecasts—and those of his opponents. Johnson's name was not on the ballot, but the state Democratic organization waged a tough

Gold Rush Turning Into A Stampede

LONDON (AP) — Europe's gold rush became a virtual stampede today and bullion dealers curtailed trading sharply in the London market. The curtailment was the first such action taken since the formation of the international gold pool in 1960. London dealers made clear there was no suspension of sales. They raised the price of gold five cents to $35.20 an ounce and refused to take small orders. No big orders were refused. The action came as the Italian treasury described as "without foundation" a report from Zurich that the United States was shouldering Italy's share of bullion in the international pool. Forty tons of gold were snapped up in the London market at the opening price fixing, more than double Tuesday's level at the same period. This could mean a day's total of close to 100 tons and a return to last December's crisis level. Heavy demand also hit the Zurich market. One source said Swiss banks expect an embargo on gold sales to be announced soon by the United States, which with the other six nations of the gold pool is pledged to seal gold at $35 an ounce. The source said an embargo could mean creation of a free gold market with prices of $50 and more an ounce. Banks accepted new orders only if the buyer agreed to pay the free market price in case the gold price goes up between now and delivery, which now takes at least two months. The Zurich report of Italy's defection from the seven-nation pool was the prime topic among London dealers although it had been rumored for some time. There was speculation that Belgium might follow suit. But an official of the Italian Treasury said there was no agreement for Italy to be repaid with American gold for its contributions to the gold pool, as sources in Zurich reported.

Sugar Capsules For Classmates

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Acting on a tip, police arrested four youngsters including a 13-year-old boy, suspected of selling narcotics. Questioning of the 13-year-old, police said, brought out the fact that the boy has been emptying medicinal capsules at his home, filling them with sugar and selling them to his classmates for 25 cents each as pep pills. Officers quoted one classmate as saying, "you mean that's what I been spending my lunch money for each day?" Officers said they took no action other than to brief the boys' parents on why the capsules were disappearing.

Waste Treatment Plant Contracts Awarded

AYDEN — The Ayden town board Monday night awarded contracts for construction of an Industrial Waste Treatment Plant. The awarding of the contracts to low bidders is subject to approval of the Economic Development Association. Low bids for the project totaled $99,349. Consolidated Construction Company of Fayetteville was low bidder on the treatment plant at $73,200. The low bidder on the sewer lines earlier 10-1 tak. The contest for delegates appeared to be reversing the verdict of the presidential preference poll. Actually, the poll, popularly called a "beauty contest," is binding on no one. In the separate contest for Democratic delegates, candidates pledged to vote for McCarthy's nomination were leading for 20 of the 24 national convention seats at issue, while contenders favoring Johnson led for 4. McCarthy's performance in that phase of the primary was enhanced by the fact that as a declared candidate, he could choose the people running as delegates pledged to him, and limit their number. Johnson, undeclared and not on the ballot, could not. As a result, there were 24 McCarthy delegates on the ballot, while 45 persons favoring Johnson divided the loyalist vote. The Minnesota senator thus confounded the forecasts and gained his first officially select-

Apprehended After Cumberland Holdup Man Wanted In Greenville Bank Robbery Shot, Slain

FAYETTEVILLE — Curtis Harris, 23-year-old Ayden Negro man pulled a pistol. O'Brien drew quickly and shot Harris in the neck and leg. Investigators reported finding $52,070 in a pillow case in the bucket. The robbery occurred about 11:25 a.m. and Harris was killed about two hours later. Harris had been arrested in May 1962 for stealing a car in Greenville and was given a seven to 10 year sentence for the crime when convicted in Pitt County Superior Court. As arresting officers were returning him to Greenville from Pitchfork Landing in Craven County where he was taken into custody, Harris jumped from the moving Highway Patrol car in which he was riding, in an attempt to escape. Harris then allegedly robbed a Moncure bank January 30 of $8,040 and a federal warrant was issued for his arrest in that case. Yesterday, a man fitting Harris' description held up the Coats branch of the First Citizens Bank and Trust Company and made off with $52,185. Deputy O'Brien said he was stopped in his driveway waiting to enter U. S. 401 North of Fayetteville when a taxi cab from Erwin passed. Seated in the rear of the cab was a man fitting the general description of the Coats bank robber. The deputy stopped the cab just inside the Fayetteville city limits. He looked into the car and saw a bucket between the passengers legs. As he asked the passenger what the bucket contained, the ed, pledged delegates to the Democratic convention. That showing lent new stature to his campaign of opposition to Johnson's policy in Vietnam, although the President scoffed at the outcome, saying New Hampshire is the only place where a candidate can claim "40 per cent is a mandate." The magnitude of the Nixon vote left no doubt about the mandate there. The former vice president swept 79 per cent of the vote, smothering the last-minute write-in campaign for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Nixon was out to erase the label of loser pinned to him after defeats for the White House in 1960 and for the governorship of California in 1962. Nixon said it was "a smashing victory." Rockefeller said it was not significant because there was no competition. These were the returns: With 98 per cent of the anticipated 54,000 Democratic votes counted, Johnson had 25,721 and McCarthy had 21,944. On the Republican ballot, with

Four Battles

SAIGON (AP) — Allied forces killed more than 300 enemy troops in four battles in the northeast corner of South Vietnam Tuesday, but enemy pressure on the besieged U. S. Marine base at Khe Sanh slackened off. North Vietnamese gunners who have poured an average of 350 shells per day into the Khe Sanh base, in the northwest corner of the country, fired only 35 shells Tuesday. U. S. commanders declined to speculate on the reason for the sudden drop-off in the bombardment.

Stickley Says Smell Of Victory In The Air

Young Republican president George Francis talks with candidate Stickley. By STUART SAVAGE Reflector Staff Writer John L. Stickley, Republican gubernatorial candidate, last night predicted a Republican victory in the coming elections and urged East Carolina University Young Republicans, to whom he was speaking, to become involved with politics in an effort to make the state and nation a better place in which to live. "I smell in the air the sweet scene of Republican victory in 1968," Stickley said, adding that the Republican party can "bring to Eastern North Caro-

Who Needs Costly Toys? Ordinary Items For Fun

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The toy industry has been dealt a blow. At the same time harried mothers without an answer to their children's plaintive protest, "There's nothing to do!" have been given any number of solutions.

The Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston has written a book which tells "What To Do When There's Nothing To Do," and without toys.

The recipes for safe and imaginative fun for kids in bad moods and good, indoors or out, require ordinary household items—milk cartons, macaroni, paper towel rolls, cardboard boxes, pots and pans, spoons, beads, or silverware.

"We wrote the book in answer to a recurring question coming from the 30 mothers who use our Family Health Unit," explained Harriet H. Gibney, director of Health Education. "They were always asking 'How do you entertain your small children and do your housework, too?'"

"Our doctors were concerned because the mothers seemed to be buying expensive toys that broke easily and were often much too complicated to interest the children. We asked child care specialists to contribute play ideas that would really fit the young child's natural curiosity and capabilities at the different stages of his development."

The resulting book which deals with babies from their infancy, sees them, not as passive creatures, but as players and doers. The entire approach to play is the result of research into child development.

The natural desires of little children to paint, mess, build, climb, rip, tear and make believe are seen as learning experiences enhanced by play opportunities. As the doctors explain, children need to test, to question, and to wonder about things in their own ways.

Among the suggestions are: mailbox made from a shoe or oatmeal box; crib mobiles made from clothespins, empty spoons and plastic bracelets; tunnels from old grocery cartons; playhouse from a card table and a blanket.

Here are two interesting recipes for special situations:

Surprise and comfort bag. Shellac a bag for durability; mark the child's name on the outside. Fill it with playing cards for sorting and building, beanbags, flannel board and scraps of wool, wooden cheese boxes with lids and something special inside pipe cleaners, washable magic markers. Let him explore on special occasions—long waits at the dentist, or on a train, plane or car trip.

The fall guy doll. On the theory that hitting something is almost as cathartic as hitting someone, the special doll can relieve the bottled-up feelings of 3, 4 and 5 year olds. Name him anybody and then rename him as the occasion demands.

Find A Marriage Counselor And Invite Him To Dinner

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a woman who has many fine qualities, but she is the world's lousiest cook.

I could forgive her if she would only try, but she doesn't. She buys frozen foods and canned foods, and doesn't even follow the instructions. Everything she makes is either undercooked or burned. I know food isn't everything, but if I want something that's fit to eat I have to make it myself.

She doesn't have an outside job, and we have no children. We've been married nearly two years and she hasn't made one decent meal. Any suggestions?

HAROLD
DEAR HAROLD: A wife who hasn't cooked or even thawed out a "decent" meal for her husband, and won't even try, needs more help than I can give her in a letter. Find a marriage counselor — and invite him to dinner.

DEAR ABBY: I am the secretary of a very busy man and I like my job. My problem is that my boss has instructed me to find out not only who is calling and his telephone number, but with whom he is associated and the nature of the call.

I have tried to get all this information by asking, "Would you please tell me, what is this call regarding?"

You would be surprised at some of the answers I get from businessmen and lawyers who probably expect the same information from their secretaries. They usually say, "Just have him call me. He'll know." (Usually, he doesn't.) How can I let these callers know that I am not nosy, I simply want to give my boss the information he seeks?

PERPLEXED
DEAR PERPLEXED: Continue to ask the questions in your usual courteous, business-like manner, and report the responses to your boss. And don't take them personally.

DEAR ABBY: Our 18-year-old son has recently become engaged, which is fine. Up until now I have minded my own business, but last night was the straw that broke the camel's back.

My son is about to go into the service, so while he is gone he is giving his brand new automobile to his girl to use for her convenience. He is also paying for her insurance so she can drive it.

Now, Abby, what kind of girl would accept things like that from an 18-year-old boy? And what kind of parents would allow her to? Please advise the parents of their duty to their daughter and my son. And please let my son know that he is being the world's biggest sucker. Thank you.

HIS MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Apparently this 18-year-old "boy" is man enough to own a "brand new" car, and to become engaged. If the car (and insur-

A Real Role For Smaller Colleges

Too often in this day of giant public universities, which are carrying the load in educating our young people, we are prone to forget the role of the small, privately supported liberal arts college.

But Vermont Royster, editor of the Wall Street Journal, reminded of the liberal arts college's importance in higher education. He spoke at the annual Elon College Founders Day Convocation this week.

"Ours is not only a big country but a varied one, varied in its people and its needs," Royster, a North Carolina native, said. "One of the worst things that could happen to our educational system would be for it to become all of one mold, for all colleges to become alike in curriculum, in purpose and in spirit."

While the major universities play an essential role, he pointed to the need for the small liberal arts college for many young people.

"Some of these young people may, of course, go on to the great graduate schools and they will be better prepared because of a few years in a quiet place where they are not overwhelmed by sheer size.

"But even if they do not, if they afterwards go home to do the world's work as farmers, merchants, housewives or teachers of children, they will be well served by their years in a small liberal arts colleges." These are wise words in a time when the small liberal arts colleges often seem in danger of being overshadowed and perhaps swallowed up by the giants of the higher education world.

Many high school graduates can benefit from the intimate atmosphere to be found in a small campus. Some students, in fact, overwhelmed by the vastness of the big universities, simply go home and are thus denied the benefits of a college education.

North Carolina is fortunate to have many good small privately supported liberal arts colleges. They deserve the support of all our citizens and the part they play in the state's higher education picture should not be forgotten.

Cash Expenditure Is Backing Up Concern

North Carolina has been much concerned with its prisons program in recent years and the state is now in the process of backing up its concern with cash expenditures.

A $5 million building program is underway to modernize the 98-year-old Central Prison in Raleigh. Among the plans are a diagnostic treatment center for prisoners needing psychiatric care and another building for inmates in need of long-term correctional treatment.

The main cell block is to be torn out and replaced with one-man cells.

There are other construction projects underway in other areas to modernize the prison system.

Much has been done in North Carolina to develop a rehabilitation program in an effort to restore prisoners to useful lives. Now the facilities are being built to make the program even more effective.

Mrs. Harper Is Blazing A Trail

By WILLIAM A. SHIRES
Reflector Raleigh Bureau

RALEIGH—Win or lose, the experts are betting that Mrs. Margaret Harper will fare as well or better at the polls May 4 than any woman ever in a bid for statewide political office in North Carolina.

And in doing so she is sure to blaze the trail for more and more women to become candidates and enter the arena reserved almost exclusively in the past for men.

This, along with trying to win the lieutenant governorship, is Mrs. Harper's purpose. She feels very strongly that more women should run for office, including the major offices, and she acted on this feeling by filing as a Democratic candidate for the state's No. 2 office.

Shortly before the Feb. 23 filing deadline another Democratic primary candidate for lieutenant governor—Frank M. Matlock of Greensboro—came forth to make it a three way race.

Matlock is a political unknown. Mrs. Harper is a newcomer to politics but by no means could she be called an unknown.

She is a former president of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs and has been active in statewide activities of women's organizations for several years. She is known by the editors and publishers of the state's daily and weekly newspapers.

Will Campaign Actively

Mrs. Harper also knows many of the state's most influential, behind-the-scenes political leaders and has been calling on them for advice and support.

Some of these figures, already pledged to Taylor, have given advice and promised help in Mrs. Harper's campaign. They could not refuse her.

One prominent political figure says "she is capable, persuasive and sincere about this. I'm bound to Taylor, but I'm going to help her any way I can. She'll get a lot of votes."

Almost every political contact feels Mrs. Harper's candidacy may demonstrate the true effect of the women's vote in North Carolina politics.

"It is talked about a great deal, but it has never been measured accurately," he says. "Now we may see."

When the results are in, Mrs. Harper's vote total will be watched and comparisons drawn. Comparisons however may not be valid unless qualified.

Her vote total may not approach the 524,659 received by Associate Supreme Court Justice Susie Sharp in 1966. This was a general election total and Judge Sharp had no opposition.

North's Racial Imbalance Issue

By JACK MILLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The report by the President's riot commission leads support to those agreeing with U. S. Commissioner of Education Harold Howe's contention that "for an American citizen, segregated education cannot be excellent."

Howe's recent statement refers to the racially unbalanced schools of the North as well as to segregated Southern schools.

The riot commission report contends integrated education "is essential to the future of American society. In this last summer's disorders, we have seen the consequences of racial isolation at all levels, and of attitudes toward race on both sides, produced by three centuries of myth, ignorance and bias."

But Dr. Gregory Anrig, director of the Office of Education's equal opportunity operation, says "we're hearing of an awful lot of school districts that are trying to do something" to reduce imbalance. It can — and does — provide federal funds to help schools, by busing or other means, to overcome racial imbalance for educational reasons.

Federal officials acknowledge the actions of local school districts in attacking racial imbalance have been small in view of the large-scale racial separation in the big cities of the North.

Strength For Today

The word "addiction" comes from two Latin words which mean "to deliver, especially to deliver oneself over to a master." At best addiction means becoming habituated to something. In its worst form it means being under the power of something.

Any person who has got into the tools of an addiction is experiencing a grave disadvantage. The addiction may be nothing more than a huge appetite for food, which means extra weight and danger of all kinds, especially to the heart. Addiction is best known to us in the matter of drinking which has got out of hand. The addict may be only a person who is restless unless he has a certain amount of liquor every day, or he (or she) may be a person who simply can't do anything without what appears to be the bracing effect of alcohol, which, of course, is not bracing at all, but precisely the opposite. Alcohol tamperers with the brakes — that portion of the brain and nervous system which has to do with inhibition — and accordingly strikes at the heart of self-control. In this highly mechanized day, even a small amount of alcohol can keep one from getting his foot on the brake of his car at the right time and so is a factor in automobile accidents.

But could any of us ever imagine a decade or two ago that addiction to drugs in different form would become a teenage problem? This is a thing so alarming that we had better marshal every aid in the world to prevent disaster.

We Nede It

The matter of an organized Boy Scout movement for Greenville was discussed at a meeting of the citizens last night and it is to be hoped that this and other meetings that are to follow will result in an organized council of scouts here. Greenville's recent experience with the scout movement was a miserable failure, but because mistakes were made once is no reason why we should feel that no further effort in behalf of our boys should be made. All around there are successful Boy Scout Councils that are doing a great work for the boys and properly managed a council here should be just as successful. Realizing that there is a great need here for work among our boys, we sincerely hope that when the matter is presented to the citizens for their support they will forget our failure of the past and give their support to the movement and help make it a success. (From the Editorial Page)

Young Hill Horne Shot In Eye With Air Rifle
Hill Horne, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hill Horne, received injuries which may result in the loss of one eye as a result of being accidentally shot with an air rifle by a playmate Saturday afternoon. Full extent of the injuries had not been determined today, as an oculist attending the child expressed opinion that he could not say definitely at the time whether vision had been merely impaired or permanently lost.

Mrs. Virginia Earl has moved into her new home, "Green Gables" on Evans Street.

Misses Elizabeth Bost and Frances Taft have returned from a weekend visit in Winston-Salem.

Inject The Red Threat

WASHINGTON—Belsky, my Negro friend, was not impressed with the riot report that Gov. Kerner and his commission have just issued.

"The trouble with the riot report," said Belsky, "is that there was no Communist threat implied in it."

"What on earth do you mean, Belsky?" I said.

"Congress isn't going to act on a report that doesn't have a Commie threat in it," Belsky said.

"But there were warnings in the report of riots and turmoil unless something is done about the ghettos."

"It's not the same thing," Belsky said. "You can talk about threats, frustration, inequities, poverty, joblessness and anything you want to, but nobody is going to take notice unless you have a Communist menace thrown in somewhere."

"But that doesn't sound right," I said.

"Look, man, we're spending hundreds of millions of dollars each day out there in Vietnam to win the hearts and minds of people we don't even know or understand. Why? Because they are being threatened by communism. Every time the President goes to Congress and says 'I've got to have a few billion dollars more, or else the commies are going to take over that poor little country,' whom—he gets the money."

"Of course, and he should. You don't want to fight communism on the shores of Hawaii, do you?" I said.

trying to say is that you aren't going to get any action in this country until you can prove that the Commies are fighting to win the hearts and minds of the black people. You get that message over to Congress and they're not going to filibuster very long."

"Then you think if the Negro could prove that there is an international conspiracy to win over the Negroes to godless communism, we might start a crash program to improve the conditions of the ghettos?" I said.

"No sir. But what I'm marketing committee should have another year in which to function in an attempt to eliminate the congestion of last season. That seems to be logical. The committee consists of representatives of all branches of the industry, and all are quite aware of the procedure. These men, on the whole, have grappled with greater problems than this and have worked out of the difficulties. Surely they can in this instance also.

Understanding is that members of the committee have been active since the end of the 1967 auction season in studying remedies for irritants that developed. Start of the selling season is a long way in the future as of now. The new crop has not even been planted, and there is time enough to arrive at conclusions for a more orderly system of sales.

Let the government stay out of the picture for at least another season. Give the marketing committee the further chance it needs to make necessary adjustments to the satisfaction of growers.

Other Editors Saying Growers Are Opposed

(Henderson Dispatch)

Hearings to permit tobacco growers to express their wishes on a compulsory Federal marketing order applying during the auction season have been completed in all flue-cured belts. Opinions both pro and con were expressed, but in the aggregate it appears from reports that more growers are opposed to this additional government meddling than those who are willing to have the noose tightened by imposing increased controls.

Undoubtedly some workable plan should be devised to avoid the confusion and chaos that prevailed at the height of the 1967 season. But it is our belief that this can be arranged on some sort of voluntary basis without producers surrendering still more of their freedom of operation in disposing of their crop.

The plan of itself, up to the point of compulsion, is sound. The objectionable phase is further Federal interference. Sentiment was expressed at some of the hearings that the 36-man

"I'm sure of it. America can live with poor people, it can live with jobless people, it can even live with angry people, but it can't live with Communist people. If the Negroes say to the Establishment, 'Hey, fellows, we got a Red threat in this here ghetto and we need some dollars to straighten it out,' there would be so many Brinks trucks trying to deliver the money that there would be a traffic jam."

"It sounds good on paper, but would Congress go for it? After all, it's one thing to have a threat 10,000 miles away and help people out there to improve their standard of living. But if you start doing the same thing in your country, you're going to get an awful lot of people mad at you."

"I dig," Belsky said. "But the best record the United States has since World War II is in helping out any country threatened with communism. When we make a commitment to a country to prevent it from going Communist, we honor it, no matter

What has happened, in short, is that the South Vietnamese army is over-reacting to the enemy's attack on the cities and is unwilling to move out for fear that a second wave against district and provincial capitals is imminent.

This fear may be quite plausible, but U. S. experts are warning Thieu that, if part of his army does not return to the countryside and carry out the Saigon pledge to protect villagers who resist the Vietcong, these villagers will be lost forever to the Saigon government.

Gold Said Worth $105 An Ounce

By ELMER ROESSNER

Into the current dispute over gold, marked by fresh raids on the British pound and the American dollar, Dr. Franz Pick, a New York authority on currency, tosses the idea that gold is really worth $105 an ounce.

Dr. Pick advances this theory in the foreword to the third edition of a monograph, "Gold, How, and Where to Buy and Hold It." The publication is priced at "35 paper dollars." Since it consists of 64 pages, it is somewhat cheaper than gold.

American gold policy has been fighting a rear-guard battle to withstand the onslaught of a relentless offensive against the outdated gold price of 35 minidollars per ounce, he writes.

The rule of 60 centuries once more will apply to Washington's gold problem. The 35 minidollar per ounce price of the metal has to be aligned to the debased currency. A

Thieu Faces Choice

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON—In a candid remark the other day to a high U. S. official in Saigon, President Nguyen Van Thieu put his finger on the agonizing decisions he faces which may determine the fate of the War.

He knew, he said, that he must start moving his maneuver battalions out from the towns and cities to resume offensive action against the Communists, but did he dare move them into the countryside and risk another enemy assault on urban centers?

Thieu's dilemma — which is the U. S. dilemma — stems from what happened in the first wave of the winter-spring offensive starting in late January. Since then huge areas in the southern delta and north of Saigon have been simply ceded to the Viet.

Reports reaching here indicate that within three months the Vietcong could recruit from this newly gained territory most of the 40,000 men they lost in that initial phase of the new offensive.

In fact, neither the U. S. nor Thieu's own government knows fully what is going on in these vacated districts. But there have been two well-documented reports of the enemy's moving into villages, scooping up every available male, and marching them off in forced recruitment to jungle training camps.

The reason for the enemy's ability to move with impunity is that President Thieu's battalions have shown an unwelcome reluctance to leave relatively safe bases in town, where they live with their families, for unknown dangers of the countryside.

Only in the past week have some army units been ordered out of their bases and sent on offensive operations against the Vietcong, even though the Communists were severely weakened in the February fighting and should be ripe for attack.

The statistics, based on reports from the field, are revealing. Of some 51 South Vietnamese battalions assigned to pacification work in the countryside — that is, to provide security for the pacification teams to do their work in the hamlets — at least 20 rushed back to protect the towns when the enemy struck in late January.

In the delta alone, long the strongest Vietcong enclave, an estimated eight to ten battalions out of 15 assigned to pacification moved back to district and provincial capitals. Most are still there.

But beyond that, many of the South Vietnamese army's 70 maneuver battalions, whose basic task is not pacification but to locate and fight the enemy, also are still holed up in the towns.

What has happened, in short, is that the South Vietnamese army is over-reacting to the enemy's attack on the cities and is unwilling to move out for fear that a second wave against district and provincial capitals is imminent.

This fear may be quite plausible, but U. S. experts are warning Thieu that, if part of his army does not return to the countryside and carry out the Saigon pledge to protect villagers who resist the Vietcong, these villagers will be lost forever to the Saigon government.

ner," the candidate said, "but the U.S. is at the crossroads—the very brink of ruin" facing crime, violence, fiscal irresponsibility and other major problems.

"Something must be done. I am not a knight in shining armor but I have a conviction—a challenge and responsibility—to try to do something about it."

America is worth saving, Stickley emphasized, "and can be saved if loyal American citizens are willing to sacrifice and work."

Stickley said one of the things "I want to do when I become governor is to raid the ranks of banking, accounting, business . . . of the leading men in the field . . . the top fiscal experts" and bring them to Raleigh to analyze the state's expenditures and tax structure.

Thus, he indicated, would "let us know where we stand . . . where the inefficiencies and extravagances have crept in and make recommendations in an effort to get the most for our tax dollar." He termed such a fiscal program "a matter of leadership."

Stickley pointed to the "cause of law and order" saying that he would work "to see that a law is passed making it a felony to attack an officer of the law acting in the line of duty." He termed the increasing lawlessness in the state and nation, "a lack of discipline."

The candidate noted that progress also has to be made in seeing that Eastern North Carolina and the far west are improved economically.

He also said he would favor the governor having veto power. Such power, Stickley noted, "is a highly desirable thing" which could "give a cooling off period" and allow "a second look" at highly controversial legislation.

school systems. Discriminating districts will lose federal aid.

But this effort cannot be directed headon to racial imbalance. It will be limited to requiring school boards to assure that Negro pupils are treated equally with whites.

Congress could pass a law authorizing federal action against imbalance. But that seems highly unlikely for now. Even liberal Northern Democrats would shy away from such action because of powerful pressure from white voters against enforced mixing—and the busing that often goes with it.

The open-housing law under consideration in Congress clearly would lead to more school integration. But federal officials say housing patterns would change only very slowly.

What holds back any big national move against racial imbalance is that the 1954 Supreme Court decision and the 1964 Civil Rights Act struck down school segregation by law but not segregation that comes about because of where people live.

Many federal officials believe racial imbalance in the North will not be changed for many years unless the federal courts, and finally the Supreme Court, rule against it.

Cow Hazard On Colorado Road

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—Cows were a hazard to vehicles on the Burnt Mill Road west of Pueblo. A 20-year-old motorist swerved his automobile to avoid a cow and the car landed in a ditch.

The driver suffered a head cut and an arm injury. An ambulance called to the site ran into a second cow, killing the animal, and inflicting $400 damage to the vehicle. Its driver escaped injury.

Evans-Novak . . .

Moreover, the love of these South Vietnamese army units for the safe dugouts of their urban headquarters is producing another grave problem.

Instead of moving into the surrounding countryside, locating and destroying Communist mortar positions firing on the towns, they have been responding with heavy artillery fire. This means that the Communist mortar positions, often forcibly placed in the middle of hamlets whose loyalty has been to Saigon, attract brutally heavy fire, killing scores of inhabitants. The result: whole hamlets and villages are turned against Saigon.

The effect of all this is now becoming clear in a subtle switch in Hanoi's propaganda line, which first claimed the Communists had triggered a "general uprising" in the cities.

Now that boast, so obviously false, is heard much less. Instead, Hanoi is now claiming great gains in the countryside—almost as an afterthought following the failure of the offensive's real objective.

how much money it's going to cost. Fulbright Backs Away From Test In Congress

By ROBERT T. GRAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk has refused to promise the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that Congress will be given a role in future Vietnam war policy decisions.

Winding up 10½ hours of grueling testimony before the committee, Rusk said only: "If more troops are needed, we will, as we have done in the past, consult with appropriate members of Congress."

That fell far short of demands by Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., and a majority of the other committee members that Congress be brought into any future escalation discussions at an early stage.

"He never did answer us on whether there would be consultations before a decision is made," Fulbright told newsmen after the two-day Rusk appearance ended Tuesday.

Despite the secretary's refusal to meet his demands, Fulbright showed little inclination for accepting a challenge posed by Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio—and echoed by Rusk—to test the Arkansan's views in Congress.

Lausche suggested Fulbright could sponsor legislation aimed at repealing the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution, passed overwhelmingly by Congress and ten cited by the administration as an expression of congressional backing for its Vietnam policies.

Rusk quickly followed up Lausche's proposal by telling Fulbright:

"If Congress wishes to alter that commitment in Southeast Asia or elsewhere, the suggestion has been made here how it can be done."

Threat Of CWA Strike Facing Southern Bell

CHARLOTTE (AP)—A threatened strike by the Communication Workers of America would affect 400 North Carolina telephone installers and 200 more in South Carolina.

Southern Bell officials have said telephone service will continue in the event of a strike by the CWA, although some disruption of service may develop if operators and other unionized personnel refuse to cross the installer's picket lines.

In a nationwide vote Tuesday, Western Electric employees, also CWA members, by a margin of 15 to 1 voted to strike to support union proposals for wage increases.

The union, representing 380,000 Bell Telephone workers, traditionally uses the Western Electric settlement as a pattern for its other employees.

Fulbright, who has rejected previous suggestions for repeal resolutions, did not respond to Rusk's statement.

But a separate move in the House to demand a greater congressional role in determining war policy was reported gaining strength.

Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., said one-fourth of the 435 House members have agreed to back a resolution calling for an immediate study of U.S. policy in Asia, and added:

"It is now clear to me that there is a strong, substantial and bipartisan feeling in the House that no decision to commit large numbers of troops to Vietnam, nor any other fundamental decision on war policy, should be made until and unless there is serious consultation with and action by the Congress."

Later, Rep. Edward P. Boland, D-Mass., told his colleagues that 16 House members are sponsoring a resolution saying U.S. troop levels in Vietnam should not be hiked "without the explicit consent of the Congress."

Asked how Rusk's testimony had affected his opposition to war policy, Fulbright replied: "It was confirmed—my worst fears."

Other senators who had been opposed reaffirmed their positions in their statements at and after the session, which was nationally televised.

Rusk suggested additional sessions—in private—for more extended discussions. Fulbright indicated they would be held.

Under repeated questions about possible avenues to negotiating an end to war, Rusk said they all had led thus far to a dead-end in Hanoi:

"I cannot lead you to any hope that we see at the present time any clear interest by Hanoi in a peaceful settlement in contrast to their persistent efforts to take South Vietnam," he said.

Nor would he accept suggestions for a bombing halt as a unilateral step:

"No one in the world has been able to say Hanoi will hold its hand in any respect if we stopped the bombing . . . we have no reason to believe they do not intend to continue military operations full-scale."

Charlotte Police Chief Offered Justice Dept. Job

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Police Chief John E. Ingersoll, who recently turned down a job as police commissioner in Boston, has been offered a job with the Department of Justice in Washington.

Indications are he will accept the latest offer.

Ingersoll refused Tuesday to comment about the job except to say that it has been proffered. No details of the job were immediately available.

Ingersoll, who has been Charlotte police chief for 17 months, makes an annual salary of $19,318. Before assuming his present duties, he was associated with the International Association of Chiefs of Police in Washington, D.C.

Hey Diogenes!

All people are not crooks. There are honest and law-abiding citizens, according to the Greenville Police Department.

A Lincolnton traveling salesman, according to Police Chief H. F. Lawson lost his wallet in a West End Circle telephone booth yesterday.

Even before the billfold was reported missing a U. S. Navy lieutenant enroute from Norfolk, Va., to his new duty station in California found the wallet and the $163 it contained. He promptly reported the find to police who took charge of the property and made arrangements for its return.

Saturday, a U. S. Marine in Greenville on a weekend pass lost his billfold while riding a bicycle.

Chief Lawson said a teenage boy found the wallet and returned it, along with the service man's $67 to the Police Department.

Student Dies In Engine, Two Freight Cars, Pushed In River

CHARLOTTE (AP) — A 20-year-old sophomore at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte died early today, about 12 hours after a campus shooting that left Allen Dean Craver, 25, of Charlotte dead.

Robert Lemore Hyman, the sophomore, also of Charlotte, died in a hospital about 3:30 a.m.

Prior to Hyman's death, the county medical examiner termed the shootings "apparent attempted murder and suicide." He said a final ruling would be made after an autopsy.

Police said Craver, his 19-year-old wife, Cindy, and Hyman left the school's student union building together, apparently congenially.

Mrs. Craver was hysterical when found moments after the shooting, police said.

Students who discovered Craver and Hyman told police they removed a gun from Craver's hand. No other weapons were discovered, police said.

Mrs. Craver was a former student at UNC-C.

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — Removal operations were to continue today for two freight cars and a railroad engine pushed into the Cape Fear River at Wilmington by a runaway explosives train Tuesday.

None of the 13 ammunition cars were damaged and no injuries were reported.

Engineer L. L. Poplin of Rocky Mount and the four-man switching crew leaped to safety just before the engine plunged across a condemned trestle and into the river.

Demolition experts from the Military Oceans Terminal at Sunny Point, some 30 miles away, reached the scene shortly after the accident and said the danger of an explosion was negligible.

There were reports that the train's brakes failed, causing the train to run uncontrolled through the Wilmington dock area.

Poplin stayed at the controls, blowing the train's whistle as it sped through four street crossings, into the dock area and out the trestle.

The ammunition aboard the train was bound for Sunny

Point. As the empty freight cars and engine plunged from the trestle, they struck the side of a loaded oil tanker, causing water to spill from the vessel's ballast tanks. The Coast Guard immediately ordered the tanker towed up river. After the ship was removed from the scene, officials roped off the accident area and removal operations began for the ammunition laden cars.

Candidates At Catawba College

SALISBURY (AP) — Four of North Carolina's five gubernatorial candidates will speak at Catawba College March 28.

Lt. Gov. Bob Scott said previous commitments will probably prevent his appearance. Appearing will be Democrats Mel Broughton and Dr. Reginald Hawkins and Republicans Jack Stickey and Rep. Jim Gardner.

Surreptitious In Taking Papers

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — Dr. James Wallace, a professor at North Carolina State University, said Tuesday he used "extreme indirection" to compile statistics for a report on the performance of North Carolina students on the national teacher examination.

The report, published last year, indicated that students in the state's predominantly Negro colleges and universities lagged behind all predominantly white schools in the state. Potential teachers in North Carolina's public school systems are required to take the national examination.

Dr. Wallace, asked to explain a remark he made on University of North Carolina Educational Television Monday that the figures had been "bootlegged," said:

"I came by these documents surreptitiously. I had to get them by extreme indirection."

He said staff members in the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction promised not to reveal the test scores to the public if individual colleges would supply the statistics for use by the department in setting statewide standards for teachers.

Wallace said the agreement "should never have been made." "I consider them public documents since they have to do with public schools," he added.

Trying Trio For Cross-Burning

CONCORD, N. C. (AP) — A trial for three Cabarrus County men charged with cross burning was scheduled to begin today in County Recorders Court.

The defendants, charged with burning a cross at the home of Fred Bost in March, 1966, are Donald P. Stewart, Ronald Lee Mullis and Homer Blackwelder.

At the time of the burning, Bost's children were the only Negroes at a Concord elementary school.

Stewart and Mullis were among nine men tried two months ago on charges of conspiring to intimidate school officials in Rowan and Cabarrus counties in an attempt to disrupt school desegregation.

Stewart and seven others were acquitted of the charges, and a mistrial was declared in Mullis' case. Mullis is to be tried again.

Blackwelder was also named in the original conspiracy indictment, but was released because of lack of evidence.

Set To Enforce Tag Requirement

Greenville Police Chief H. F. Lawson said policemen will begin cracking down on motorists driving within the city limits who do not have city registration plates on their cars.

February 15 was the deadline for purchasing and displaying the 1968 green-and-white city plates, Chief Lawson said, without being in violation of the law.

He emphasized that beginning March 15, city law enforcement officers will crack down on drivers found to be in violation of the licensing requirement, by making arrests.

Lyndon B. Johnson had his first teaching assignment at Welhausen Elementary School, Cotulla, Tex.

Chips and putts from area golf courses:

ROBERSONVILLE C. C.

Margurite Johnson recently came up with a hole-in-one at the Robersonville Golf and Country Club. She made the ace on the 100-yard eighth hole while playing with Harriett Forbes and Jane Ross. It was the first hole-in-one recorded by a woman at the club.

BROOK VALLEY

Harold Thomas is ending his second week as the new owner-pro at Brook Valley Country Club, and feels that things are off to a good start.

Jerry Hart, an East Carolina University golfer, recorded a hole-in-one on the 139-yard third hole recently. He was playing with a teammate, James Wicker.

Bob Dickens of Scottsville County Club toured the front side in 46, and apparently got mad, because he came in with a fine 32.

Sam Esposito, N. C. State baseball coach, dropped in an eagle two on the third hole at Brook Valley during the Batters-Up Tournament. (That's the old twelfth hole.)

Sue Johnson had her best round recently, a 40-47-87. Martha Moye turned in her best nine-hole total, a 45.

Representatives of New Bern, Benvenue of Rocky Mount, Wilson and Brook Valley met last week and formed the Coastal Golf Association. Each team will participate with the others in a home-and-home series. A championship tournament at the end of the year is tentatively planned for Brook Valley.

AYDEN COUNTRY CLUB

Charles Dunn picked up a hole-in-one on the 197-yard 12th hole at Ayden Country Club. He hit a three wood.

Glenn Gulleged eagled the third hole recently. He used a driver and a nine-iron for the deuce. David Deihl, a 13-year-old, got his first birdie last week, on number four.

GRIFTON GOLF CLUB

David Ellis dropped in an eagle on the par four-373-yard eighth hole at Grifton last week. He used a driver and a five iron for the two. He was playing with Jimmy Patrick.

Archie Rogers chipped in on the same hole for a birdie while playing with George Saleeby, Jim Isreal and Tom Reiley.

Pro Joe Bullins will be starting ladies group lessons on March 20.

Boros Hopeful About Citrus

By RON SPEER

Associated Press Sports Writer ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Julius Boros calls himself "a depression baby" but the ambitious 48-year-old defending champion has his sights set much higher than another victory in the Orlando Citrus Open Golf Tournament.

"I'd like to win the Masters," the easy swinging 1967 Orlando champion said, "and do well in all the major summer tournaments."

Boros, who starts defense of his title Thursday when the 1968 tournament gets under way, said on the eve of the meet that he considers this fight just another battle in the pro tour's golf war.

However, Boros would be happy to pocket the winner's share of the $115,000 the leaders will split Sunday when the 72-hole Orlando tournament comes to a close on the flat but difficult Rio Paina course.

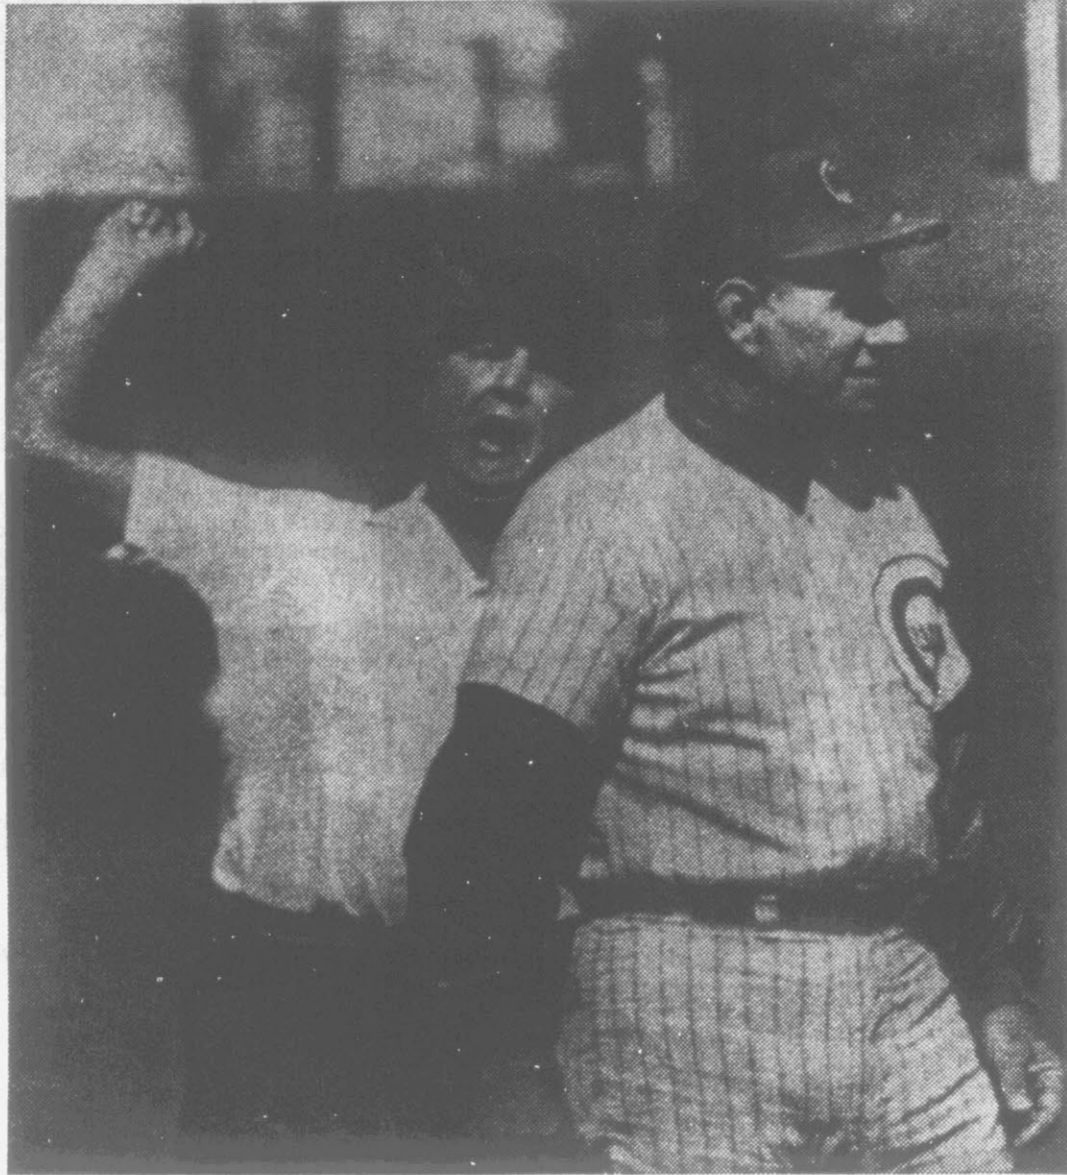

Boros has not been a standout this year. Last week he failed to qualify for the final 36 holes of the Doral Open won by Gardner Dickinson.

"I had the flu and I still have it," Boros said after a casual workout. "But I have never felt better about my chances."

That makes him an optimist because the South African member of golf's Big Three — Gary Player — is starting his 1968 U.S. tour at Orlando again, and sluggers Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus also are in the field.

OUT YOU GO — Umpire Mel Steiner leaves little doubt what he means as he gives Chicago Cubs manager Leo Durocher the old heave ho for the first time this year. Pipers Lose, But Ice Tie For ABA's Eastern

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winning would have been nice but losing wasn't so bad for the Pittsburgh Pipers.

The Pipers dropped a 126-112 decision to the New Jersey Americans Tuesday night but still clinched at least a tie for the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division crown when second-place Minnesota lost to Dallas 122-107.

In other games, Kentucky whipped Houston 130-109 and Denver dunned Oakland 112-92.

In the National Basketball Association, Philadelphia ripped Chicago 139-115, New York trimmed Baltimore 107-104, Detroit dropped Seattle 139-123 and Boston outlasted San Francisco 124-121 in overtime. The game between St. Louis and Cincinnati at Cleveland was postponed by snow.

Despite the loss to New Jersey, Pittsburgh kept its three-game lead over Minnesota. Both teams have three games remaining.

Hank Whitney and Bob Lloyd led the Americans' attack with season-highs of 34 and 24 points, respectively. Connie Hawkins had 34 points and Charlie Williams 28 for Pittsburgh.

The victory kept New Jersey 1½ games in front of Kentucky in the battle for fourth place and a playoff berth in the East.

The Colonels won their 12th in the last 13 home games, beating Houston. Louie Dampier's 31 points led Kentucky and Willie Somerset had 32 for Houston.

Charles Beasley threw in 30 points and Cincy Powell added 28 as Dallas beat Minnesota and assured Pittsburgh of at least a tie for Eastern honors. Les Hunter's 26 points led the Muskies.

Denver, in beating Oakland, moved to within two games of New Orleans, the Western Division pace-setter. A pair of jump shots by Willie Murrell halfway through the third period triggered the Rockets.

Murrell shared scoring laurels with teammate Wayne Hightower, each connecting for 26 points. He hit for 18 points in the first half and was instrumental in the Rockets' surge after the intermission as they built their lead to 23 points.

Guilford Loses On Shot With One Second To Go

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

Associated Press Sports Writer KANSAS CITY (AP) — The underdogs are having fun in the 31st NAAI basketball tourney.

Top-seeded Guilford, N.C., and second-seeded Stephen F. Austin, Tex., both were ousted in the first round Tuesday, putting three of the top four on the sidelines.

Oshkosh, Wis., State took out Guilford 80-78 on John Lallen-sack's driving layup with one second left. Eastern Michigan's Earle Higgins, a 29-point scorer, hit a 20-footer one second before the buzzer, beating Stephen F. Austin, 82-80.

Central State of Ohio, seeded No. 3, hit 52 per cent from the field in an easy 81-64 conquest of Millikin of Illinois. Fourth-seeded Oklahoma Christian was beaten in overtime Monday night by Fairmont, W.Va.

Seven seeded clubs were defeated in the 16 first round games, but some could be termed only mild upsets. The top-ranked clubs quickly became targets, however.

"As soon as the pairings were made and we found we drew the No. 1 team, our players adopted a good mental attitude," said Robert White, Oshkosh coach. "We thought we had a chance. We weren't scared. Last year we came here and choked up. This time they all played a beautiful game."

"These boys have a lot inside of them," White said. Bill Schwartz gave away 60 pounds to Bob Kauffman, (6-8) Guilford Little All-American.)"

The 5-6-7-8 seeded teams are still around, and one of the most impressive was Northeastern Oklahoma, 26-3, seeded No. 8, which ripped Athens, Ala., 89-72 with 6-3, 220-pound Charles Paulk scoring 27. Northeastern, rated No. 1 in the final NAAI coaches' poll, was upset by Oklahoma Christian in the district playoffs, but came as an at-large entry, when district 29 couldn't produce a representative.

Northeastern Oklahoma faces Drury, Mo., 23-4 in the 7 p.m., CST game of the second round. The opening game at 9:30 a.m. today pitted Monmouth, N.J., 26-1, against sixth-seeded Westminster, Pa., 20-6, whose coach, Buzz Riddl, is the new Pittsburgh U. coach.

Fairmont met New Haven, Conn., 17-11, at 11:15; Eastern Michigan, 19-8, faced Hanover,

Ind., 107-59 winner over Southern Oregon, at 1 p.m. Then No. 10-seeded Central Washington, 21-7, a 95-72 winner over Albuquerque, N.M., took on No. 5-seeded, high-scoring Alcorn A. & M., Miss.

Unseeded Dickinson, N.D., 22-5, which upset 12th-seeded Washburn of Kansas 76-71 with 64 per cent last half field shooting and nine straight free throws in the last 2:14, meets fifth-seeded St. Cloud, Minn., at 8:45.

Central State of Ohio, now 25-4, rates an edge over Valdosta, Ga., 23-9, in 5:15 game. In the final contest at 10:30 p.m., Oshkosh meets Eastern Montana, 20-7, which ousted 16th-seeded Wyane, Neb., 83-70.

Four quarterfinal games will be played Thursday night with the semifinals Friday night and finals Saturday night.

Holt's won the City League Tournament last night with a 73-68 victory over arch-rival Book Barn.

During the regular season, the two teams had split two games. But Holt's took a pre-tournament playoff game to determine top seeding, and held off Book Barn in the championship for the title.

Holt's and Book Barn battled at almost even terms throughout most of the first half, with Holt's pulling out to a 36-30 lead at the half.

In the second half, Holt's remained in control, but the lead never got very big, and Book Barn actually outscored Holt's, 33-37, in the last half.

Riddick led Holt's to the win, pouring in 32 points. Roebuck had 18 and Worthington and Alexander each had 10.

For Book Barn, Gibson had 19, Duckett had 13, Hardison had 12 and Fuller had 10.

Ind., 107-59 winner over Southern Oregon, at 1 p.m. Then No. 10-seeded Central Washington, 21-7, a 95-72 winner over Albuquerque, N.M., took on No. 5-seeded, high-scoring Alcorn A. & M., Miss.

Unseeded Dickinson, N.D., 22-5, which upset 12th-seeded Washburn of Kansas 76-71 with 64 per cent last half field shooting and nine straight free throws in the last 2:14, meets fifth-seeded St. Cloud, Minn., at 8:45.

Buckeyes Survive Iowa Rally, 85-81

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio State didn't have any worries for about a week but those last 22 seconds Tuesday night almost gave Coach Fred Taylor enough ulcers to last a lifetime.

The Buckeyes hung on, however, after blowing most of a 12-point lead and won their playoff game from Iowa 85-81, giving them the 23rd and last berth in the NCAA tournament as the Big Ten representative. The teams had finished the regular season tied for the conference lead.

"Ohio State is in a great position. They haven't had any worries for a week," was the way Iowa's Ralph Miller put it before the contest on the neutral Purdue court, the first Big Ten playoff since 1908.

The worrying began in earnest when Iowa charged to within two points with 22 seconds remaining. But State recovered on free throws by Denny Meadors. Bill Hosket and Jody Finney and won the right to meet East Tennessee in the NCAA Midwest regionals Friday night at Lexington, Ky.

Taylor said his team had practiced only three times in the past week while Iowa was wasting a chance to win the title outright. "We just weren't very sharp," he said, blaming the lack of practice.

All five starters scored in double figures, though, with Hosket netting 24 points and Steve Howell 22. Iowa's Sam Williams led all scorers with 29.

That was the only major college game Tuesday night but plenty more are on tap later this week. The National Invitation Tournament gets under way in New York on Thursday and 16 more teams swing into action Friday in the NCAA four regional pairings.

The eight-team NCAA college division tourney opens today at Evansville, Ind., with Kentucky Wesleyan, the nation's second-ranked small college team, favored. The Panthers, 25-3, play American International, 21-4, in the opening round.

In other games, Cheyney, Pa., State, 22-6, faces Ashland, Ohio, 22-5; Indiana State, 21-7, meets Nevada Southern, 22-6, and Evansville, 20-7, plays Trinity of Texas, 21-6.

Eight games were played Tuesday on the second day of the 32-team NIAA tournament at Kansas City and there were plenty of surprises. Top-seeded Guilford, N.C., lost to Oshkosh, Wis., State 80-78 and second-seeded Stephen F. Austin of Texas were eliminated by Eastern Michigan 82-80.

The other results: Northeastern Oklahoma 89, Athens, Ala. 72; Hanover, Ind. 107, Southern Oregon 59; Central Washington 95, Albuquerque 72; Central, Ohio, State 81, Millikin, Ill. 64; Dickinson, N.D. 76, Washburn, Kan. 71 and Eastern Montana 83, Wayne, Neb. 70.

Leo Argues With Umpire; Cubs Battered By Giants

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

You can start the baseball season anytime now. Leo Durocher is ready.

The athletes struggle each spring getting their arms and legs in shape for the summer grind. But Leo has it easier. He needs to worry only about his lip.

Durocher's lip, jaw and other vocal equipment was in top form Tuesday and they earned him an early exit as his Chicago Cubs absorbed a 12-2 pounding from the San Francisco Giants in an exhibition game at Scottsdale, Ariz.

In other games, the New York Mets edged Los Angeles 5-4, Minnesota tripped the New York Yankees 8-5, the Chicago White Sox ripped Boston 10-5, Pittsburgh routed Detroit 14-5, and Philadelphia blanked St. Louis 9-0 in a game halted by rain after five innings.

Also Cincinnati nipped Houston 8-7, Washington dropped Atlanta 7-2, Oakland nipped Baltimore 6-5 and California shaded Cleveland 4-3.

Durocher took on Umpire Mel Steiner in the bottom of the fourth inning after the Giants had embarrassed 20-game winner Ferguson Jenkins with six straight hits and five runs in the top half of the inning.

The battle started over a spitball warning to Jenkins early in the inning which rubbed Durocher the wrong way.

After the argument, three baseballs were thrown onto the field from the Cubs' dugout — two in Steiner's direction and the third striking a photographer on the field.

The Giants collected 21 hits, 19 of them singles, against five Cub pitchers.

The Mets got only two hits against Los Angeles, but three errors, two of them by new shortstop Zoilo Versalles, beat the Dodgers. New York got both hits — a single by Al Ewis and a triple by Cleon Jones — in the third inning when errors by Versalles and Jim Lefebvre helped build four runs.

Pitcher Jim Grant, victim of the big inning, had homered for the Dodgers in the top half of the inning.

Ron Clark's bases-loaded double in the seventh inning brought Minnesota from behind and helped the Twins beat the Yankees. Joe Pepitone homered for New York and rookie Pat Kelly connected for Minnesota.

The White Sox battered Boston pitchers for 18 hits as catcher Dick Booker drove in four runs and Rocky Colavito smashed Chicago's first spring home run. George Scott tagged a pair and Gene Oliver had one for the Red Sox.

Pittsburgh rushed 11 runs across against Detroit's Pat Dobson and Joe Sparna is the third inning and coasted past the Pirates. Al McBean, who pitched three hitless innings, drove in two runs with a single in the big inning.

Don Lock had three hits including a three-run homer and Chris Short hurled four scoreless innings as the Phillies battered the Cardinals.

Two Houston errors and Alex Johnson's bases-loaded double helped Cincinnati to four ninth inning runs that beat the Astros. Lee Bales' error opened the gates for the Reds.

Three singles, a passed ball and an error gave Washington five fifth inning runs and the Senators rapped Atlanta. Singles by Frank Coggins and Ed Brinkman drove in two runs and shortstop Angel Hermoso's error allowed two more.

Bert Campaneris, Danny Carter and Sal Bando all homered for Oakland but it took 11th inning doubles by Rick Monday and Jim Pagliaroni to beat Baltimore. Andy Etchbarren, Don Buford and Boog Powell homered for the Orioles.

California withstood late pinch homers by Willie Smith and Leon Wagner to beat Cleveland.

Smith Again Coach Of Year

RALEIGH (AP)—For the second straight year Coach Dean Smith of the University of North Carolina basketball team is Coach of the Year in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Smith, who directed his Tar Heels to a second straight ACC title, received 47 votes in balloting by 114 members of the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association.

Coach Vic Bubas of Duke and Frank McGuire of South Carolina got 22 votes each and Norman Sloan of N. C. State got 21 votes.

Smith, 36, was a star in three sports at the University of Kansas and played under Dr. Phog Allen on a national championship basketball team.

He came to UNC in 1958 as an assistant to Frank McGuire and was named head coach when McGuire resigned in 1961. His Tar Heel teams have won 117 victories to 54 losses.

Hustle May Push Braves Back Into NL Spotlight

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — First baseman Deron Johnson rushes to the ball park an hour early to practice picking up ground balls. Center fielder Felipe Alou makes a diving catch in an intrasquad game.

The Atlanta Braves are hustling this spring. New Manager Luman Harris won't have it any other way.

The power-packed Braves disappointed a lot of experts last year by staggering home seventh in the National League pennant race. Injuries to key men—Alou, catcher Joe Torre, pitcher Tony Cloninger—played a big part in the collapse. So did a .240 team batting average, slowness of foot and nonchalance in the field.

Harris, who succeeds Billy

Hitchcock as manager after piloting the Braves' Richmond farm club to the International League pennant, expects the hitting to take care of itself. Alou and Torre are healthy again; Hank Aaron should be as good as ever; Rico Carty is back on the beam; and Johnson's big bat has been added to an already potent line-up.

The 53-year-old Braves' skipper, who also managed briefly at Houston and Baltimore before rejoining his old pal, General Manager Paul Richards, is satisfied with a young pitching staff headed by ERA king Phil Niekro.

Harris can only pray that the Braves stay injury free in 1968. But he already has taken steps to assure that there will be no recurrence of the ho-hum attitudes of 1967.

"I was glad to see Alou dive for that ball, even if it didn't mean anything," he said. "I want to see the infielders diving for balls, too. I want the whole club doing it, starting right here and now."

So far, the Braves appear to be responding to the no-nonsense edict. Johnson, determined to regain his 130 RBI form of 1965, is the hardest worker in camp. Atlanta got the strapping slugger in a trade with Cincinnati, where he was plagued by injuries last season and hit only .224 with 13 homers and 53 RBI.

Another significant trade brought shortstop Sonny Jackson from Houston, adding much-needed speed to the Braves' line-up. Jackson, who also had injury problems in 1967, hit .237 and stole 22 bases for the Astros.

Ex-Yankee Clete Boyer, who had his best year ever at the plate with 26 homers and 96 RBI — and led NL third baseman in fielding—could be the only returnee in the infield. Johnson is set at first base, Jackson at short and Felix Millan, who hit .310 for Richmond, is pressing Woody Woodward, .226 with the Braves, for the second base job.

If any of the regulars falter, Harris can call on Tommy Aaron, Hank's younger brother and the International League MVP, with a .309 average, as well as versatile Marty Martinez, .288 in 21 games with the Braves, and veteran handymen Tito Francona, .244 with Atlanta, and Sandy Valdespino, .165 with Minnesota.

Foss: Merger A 'Bum Deal'

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Former American Football League Commissioner Joe Foss says the AFL should have held out instead of making "a bum deal" to merge with the National Football League.

"The NFL needed us a whole lot more than we needed them," said Foss who was in Atlanta on business Tuesday.

The AFL definitely should not have agreed to pay $27.5 million for the merger, he said. "That was totally ridiculous."

"The AFL could have, and should have, held out. Our group had the money," he said.

He said AFL owners were hotelmen and oil men and did not depend on football for their livelihood like some owners in the NFL.

The AFL owners, he said, "could afford to continue paying the big bonuses a heck of a lot easier than the other fellow."

He said he urged owners from his league to have a commissioner and president for each league as the baseball leagues do.

"It would have eventually come out the way it has without AFL owners doing what they did with that money," he said.

"Then why did they do it?" he asked. "Beats me. Best I can figure, the AFL was just in a hurry to get on an even basis with the NFL."

The new Belmont Park racetrack still will have a racing surface of one mile and a half.

Microbiologist Lectures Friday

Dr. Robert A. Mah, prominent microbiologist at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, will visit East Carolina University to give a lecture Friday, March 15.

DR. ROBERT A. MAH

He will speak on "The Rumen Ciliate Protozoa" in a seminar sponsored by the ECU Department of Biology. The seminar is scheduled at 2 p.m. in Joyner Library Auditorium and is open to the public.

To illustrate his talk, which deals with the special way cows and other similar animals digest grasses and leafy plants, Dr. Mah will show a movie.

Enrollment For Kindergarten At ECU Underway

Enrollment of children for the 1968-69 term of the Kindergarten at East Carolina University has begun and will continue through April 1.

Mrs. Sally Klingenschmitt, kindergarten director, has advised interested parents to apply promptly because the enrollment is limited to 20 children, 10 boys and 10 girls.

Children reaching their fifth year and not having passed their sixth birthday on October 15 of the year in which they plan to enter, will be eligible, Mrs. Klingenschmitt said. The director said children who enter the kindergarten in September are expected to continue through the year, unless unusual circumstances arise.

Tuition is $40 per quarter and must be paid on or before the first day of the quarter. The school year is divided into three quarters.

Applications for admission must be in the office of the School of Education by April 1, Mrs. Klingenschmitt said. Forms may be secured by writing, telephoning or applying in person at the School of Education on the first floor of the Education-Psychology Building. The applications must be returned to Mrs. Sally Klingenschmitt, School of Education, East Carolina University, Greenville.

Steel Foundry Started Sinking

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Red-faced officials admitted today that India's third biggest steel foundry, closed Monday after it started sinking, may have been built over abandoned coal mines.

The ground has sunk as much as two feet in some places since Saturday night, tilting heavy machinery and twisting girders in the foundry of the Indian Iron and Steel Co. at Kulti, 125 miles northwest of Calcutta. The plant occupies one acre and employs 8,500 persons.

Company officials first denied there were abandoned mines under the foundry, opened in 1958 as a showpiece. But the visiting director of mines said today his department's documents show workings 250 feet below the foundry, and flooded in about 1905 and abandoned. He said the whole area was unsafe.

THERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW

BUT COMES THE WEEK OF THE ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW -- INSTANT STINKWEEDS!

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A passenger jet with 58 persons aboard was hijacked over South Florida Tuesday by two nervous gunmen kidnaping an old man who tearfully told passengers, "I'm going to be killed!"

The pilot of National Airlines flight 28, Capt. Clarence J. Delk, said "they were expecting us. I don't know how they knew we were coming. We were identified from the Cuban tower by flight number during our approach to Havana airport."

The hijackers' prisoner, a man who appeared to be in his sixties, was led from the plane crying and gesturing for help.

Stewardess Sarah E. West said the man slipped her some personal papers when the men weren't looking. She hid them on the plane and they were not found when Cuban soldiers searched the aircraft during the six hours at Havana. The papers were given to the FBI in Miami.

All three men were met at Jose Marti airport in Havana by Jose Abrantes, Cuban vice minister in charge of security. They were driven away with him in a government security car.

The three men, all in business suits, boarded together in Tampa. The airline said they gave their names as J. Armentero, G. Carrazana, and R. Donate when they bought tickets.

Four minutes after takeoff on the Tampa-to-Miami leg of a flight that began in San Francisco, one of the gunmen put a .45-caliber automatic pistol at the neck of stewardess Donna Goldinber, 26, and forced her into the cockpit. She fumbled with a key and made the men nervous. "They clicked their guns," she to death."

In Havana, crew, passengers and military personnel aboard the plane were separated, Mrs. Kenner said. "They would not let us all be together. We were interviewed all afternoon from one to seven—constant questions, pictures being taken, newsreel and everything."

Flip Wilson, the comedian, who was a passenger on the plane, said the old man indicated he had been taken prisoner

The National flight was the third commercial airliner hijacked to Cuba in 20 days. A Delta Air Lines jet with 109 aboard was seized Feb. 21 just after takeoff from Tampa by Lawrence Rhodes Jr., a fugitive from Welch, W. Va., and allowed to return the same day. On March 5, a Colombian airliner was seized over the Caribbean and later allowed to return after paying airport and fuel fees.

The Worry Clinic
Diet Away Those Fat Pounds; Live Longer

Last week I described Mabel, whose husband has lost his romantic ardor and merely gave her fatherly little pecks on the cheek, instead of sizzling kisses. Here is the progress report so take it to heart and imitate Mabel's church group. The booklet below will insure both longer life and also far more romance!

By GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph. D., M. D.
CASE F-515: Mable W., aged ty to water loss. But that reduction in fluids also kills much of your stomach hunger!

Thus, women can feel fairly well fed on merely 800 calories per day and men on 1,200.

Include about half your quota in protein foods, for your muscles require fresh protein every day.

Yet the body does not store protein, though it has plenty of fat and sugar in reserve.

On this dehydration diet, you limit your total fluid intake to just one full glass (8 ounces) the first day; two glasses the second, and three from the third through the tenth days.

By taunting Mabel for looking like a waddling walrus and a baby hippo, and by reminding her that when a wife's waistline equals her bustline, she looks like a good old motherly soul and thus can't expect anything but fatherly kisses, I got her launched on this diet.

She also enlisted the cooperation of a dozen other "fatties" in her church Women's Society.

Since you save $2.50 on groceries for every pound of blubber you lose, they resolved to contribute that extra money to their church.

After 10 days, Mabel was down to 154.

That quick weight loss is vital to one's morale when going on a diet.

Then she shifted to Diet No. 2, where she could consume 1,200 calories and drink freely.

On Diet No. 2 you wives lose about 1 1/2 pounds per week or 6 pounds per month.

In 3 more months Mabel was down to 136, which made her feel elated.

Meanwhile, she reported that her husband was perking up remarkably in his ardor.

"He now gives me romantic kisses," she exulted.

Mabel resolutely kept on with her diet till she hit 125.

Then her husband said she was thin enough!

Originally, her weight of 164 topped his 149, so that had helped kill his ardor.

For a man seldom grows romantic over a woman who isn't thinner than himself! Wives, take note!

Mabel's husband thus could not hold her on his lap when she weighed 164 and regain those courtship emotions that had been in cold storage for 20 years.

But now he even took her out dancing and to movies, all at his own suggestion!

So send for the booklet "How to Lose 10 Pounds in 10 Days," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents. It insures your health and a also your marriage!

And Mabel's church got an extra $475 from these dieters!

Four Traffic Accidents Reported Here Yesterday

Four traffic mishaps in Greenville Tuesday resulted in an estimated $1,950 property damage, police reported.

Officers said heaviest damage resulted from a 9:05 a.m. collision at the intersection of 10th Street and Rock Springs Road and involved cars driven by Wilmer Alligood Warren, 19, of Route 5, Greenville, and Virginia J. Harrell, 1903 Sherwood Dr.

Police, who set damage to the Warren car at $200 and damage to the Harrell auto at $500, charged Warren with failing to reduce his speed enough to avoid an accident.

An estimated $100 damage resulted to each of two cars involved in a 4:50 p.m. collision at the intersection of Ninth and Cotanche Streets.

Officers said cars driven by Kenneth McKnight Schutt, 25, of 2705 East Fifth St. and Kay Little Stockdale, 25, of 913 College View Apts., were involved in the mishap.

Mrs. Stockdale was charged with failing to see her intended movement could be made in safety.

Mary Lena Ruschival, 22, of 1918 East 14th St. was charged with failing to see her intended movement could be made in safety following investigation of a 7 p.m. mishap on 14th Street, 600 feet west of the Berkley Road intersection.

Investigators said the Ruschival car collided with a vehicle driven by Rayman Russell Catshaw Jr., 20, causing an estimated $150 damage to the Catshaw car and about $50 damage to the Ruschival vehicle.

James Arthur Brown, 24, of 435A Bonner Lane was charged with operating under the influence and no operator's license following investigation of an 11:15 p.m. collision at the Atlantic Avenue and Bonners Lane intersection.

Police said the Brown car collided with a cement block wall at the Episcopal Church on Bonners Lane, causing damage to the wall and knocking a portion of the foundation from under the church.

Damage to the car was set at $250 while damage to the wall and church was placed at $500.

The bidding:
North: East: South: West:
1♣: Pass: 1♥: Pass
1♦: Pass: 2♥: Pass
2NT: Pass: 4♥: Pass
Pass: Pass

Opening lead: Ten of ♠ North was not inclined to abandon all hopes for game though he lacked a fit for his partner's suit and South had merely bid and rebid hearts at minimum levels. With 17 high card points, North chose to make one more try by bidding two no trump even though he had no stopper in diamonds. South required only mild encouragement to carry on and when his partner announced additional values, he jumped directly to four hearts.

West opened the ten of spades and the ace was played from dummy. The ace and king of clubs were cashed so that South might dispose of his losing spade. The ace of hearts was played and a small diamond was led.

East followed with the three and declarer put in the queen from his hand which held the trick.

At this point South made the key play of the deal—he led the five of hearts from his hand, despite the fact that he had a perfect sequence in the suit in the form of the J-10-9. The five of hearts succeeded in dislodging East's queen and the queen of clubs came back. Declarer ruffed with the nine of hearts and West discarded a spade.

The jack of hearts drove out the king and when South regained the lead, he still retained the ten of hearts to draw West's last trump—the eight. When the king of diamonds fell under the ace, North's jack became established for declarer's 10th trick.

If South had led the jack of hearts instead of the five when he was in his hand, East's club return would have promoted an extra trump trick for his partner. If South ruffs low, West overruffs with the eight. If South trumps with the nine of hearts, West takes a discard and now he has two natural heart tricks.

South reasoned that, if the hearts were divided three-three, it didn't matter which card he led, for both remaining trumps would fall on the next round of the suit. His play, however, might protect himself from the risk of an overruff if East held a doubleton honor in trumps. And, he was right.

Xerox Sharing Company Profit

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Xerox Corp. employees will divide about $23 million of the office equipment firm's 1967 profits, the company has announced.

Payments in the profit-sharing plan will be made in cash, Xerox stock or in benefits deferred until retirement. About 60 per cent of the total is to go into general pension funds, which now total nearly $60 million, a spokesman said.

Xerox reported a net profit of $97 million for 1967. It employs 17,000 persons.

ALL THE WAY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco's North Beach, which gained considerable notoriety over its bare-bosomed topless revues, is going "bottomless." No clothes at all.

Stock And Market Reports

RALEIGH (AP) — (NCDA)—North Carolina egg markets one-half cent higher Tuesday. Supplies adequate, demand fair to good. Prices paid producers and handlers for consumer grade eggs in cartons delivered nearby outlets:

Grade A large whites: 39 to 40; medium, whites: 35 to 37; small, whites: 32 to 34½.

RALEIGH (AP) — (NCDA)—The North Carolina hog market was mostly steady today. Tops of 18.50-19.00 Rocky Mount; 18.25-19.00 Wilson; 18.00-18.75 Statesville; 18.00-18.50 Hickory; 17.50-18.50 Bethel, Tarboro, Kinston, New Bern, Benson, Mount Olive, Newton Grove, Albertson, Lumberton; 19.00 Rich Square; 18.75 Greensboro, Salisbury; 18.50 Selma; 18.25 Goldsboro; 18.00 Siler City, Denton.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market sagged irregularly early this afternoon as gold and silver shares advanced against the general trend. Trading was active.

The Dow Jones industrial average at the close was off 2.61 at 849.61.

Gains outnumbered losses in the over-all list. The balance between plus and minus signs seemed in the morning.

Heavy early trading in foreign bullion markets drew newed attention to the gold mining stocks. Once again, a spokesman for the U.S. Treasury denied rumors that the Treasury is planning a public statement on its gold policy.

Silver touched record highs in the commodity markets abroad and in the United States, triggering further speculation in the silver mine shares.

Selective weakness in blue chips dampened averages.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 4 at 305.5 with industrials off 1.4, rails up .5 and utilities off .3.

Benguet, up a fraction, was the most of the gold-mining shares as this low-priced issue usually is.

As silvers rallied, Hecla Mining and Sunshine Mining gained about 2 each.

Allis-Chalmers spurted a couple of points in heavy trading following a published report that City Investing seeks to acquire about 14 per cent of Allis stock held by a brokerage house.

Xerox showed continued weakness, dropping another 3, as pros and cons of its earnings prospects were debated by market experts. IBM also lost 3.

Gains of about a point each were scored by Control Data, Penn Central, and Chesapeake & Ohio.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Defeated, Evers Will Run Again

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Rep.-elect Charles Griffin, landslide winner over the first serious Negro political challenger this century, today prepared to take his seat in Congress where he served as an aide for 18 years.

Griffin scored a 2 to 1 victory over Negro leader Charles Evers in Tuesday's special election to fill the House seat vacated when John Bell Williams resigned in January to become governor.

Evers said he will seek the post again and informed sources reported several white political figures will oppose Griffin when he enters the Democratic primary June 4 for a full term beginning next January.

The presence of Evers in the runoff and the absence of racist overtones marked the campaign, which ended with Evers visiting Griffin's headquarters to offer his personal congratulations Tuesday night.

The two men, shook hands, and Evers signed the guest book.

Griffin's supporters crowded around Evers, shook hands and pounded him on the back in a display of high spirits.

Broughton Talks Pay Hike For Teachers, Employees

RALEIGH (AP) — Democratic gubernatorial candidate Mel Broughton today proposed a $187 million pay increase for teachers and state employees and said he was confident it could be done without a tax increase.

Broughton said teachers should be given a 1,000 raise during the first year of the 1969-71 biennium and a $400 raise the second year.

He said state employees should get a 10 per cent raise and that their payroll deductions should be cut to make their take-home pay come to more than the equivalent of a straight 15 per cent increase.

The payroll deductions would be cut by having the state assume most of the cost of the employees' retirement plan. Employees now pay about 5 per cent of their income into the plan. Broughton suggested the state take over 4 per cent of that amount.

"I am confident (the raises) can be paid without a tax increase," Broughton said at news conference at which the proposal was announced.

He said the state's revenue in 1969-71 should increase by 20 per cent and that the increase, together with an anticipated credit balance of $100 million, would make the money available.

Broughton said he had ar-apartment units on Hooker Road. The concern will develop the entire area, including installation of streets, but it plans to dedicate the streets so that they become a part of the city street system.

Bloxam reported to the commission that the contractors installing a sewer outfall system in North Greenville will be granted an eight-to-ten week extension. The job was supposed to be completed March 1 but legal action for right-of-way and high water held up the work. The commission also discussed adding some one to its staff to work with builders in designing all-electric homes — those which include electricity for heating.

Assistant Director Malcolm Green reported that the field is expanding rapidly. During the last six months of 1967 70 percent of the new homes built had electric heat.

Murder Trial Of Ayden May Begin Tuesday

The first degree murder trial of Fletcher Elbert Bryant of Ayden, charged in the November 4, 1967 shotgun slaying of his wife, got under way yesterday in Pitt County Superior Court.

Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn ordered the jury held last night so they would not be subject to hear anything about the case overnight.

Bryant is charged with shooting his wife, Mrs. Edna Clara Bryant to death with a .16 gauge shotgun as the couple sat with their minister in the kitchen of their Ayden home.

The minister, Rev. A. K. Ard, had been talking with the couple for about 90 minutes prior to the time of the shooting.

Officers said the shooting apparently stemmed from domestic trouble.

NEWS-LETTER THE FIRST

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston News-Letter, a paper founded in 1704, was the first successful newspaper in the country.

FROM: Ace Advertising Agency
TO: J. T. Marston, Jr., President
State Bank & Trust Company
Greenville, North Carolina

- I see by the papers that the new stop light system which was ordered for Five Points about a year and a half ago has finally arrived. It must have come from Siberia.
- It seems a pity, in a way, to remove the old hitching post which they stuck in the middle of the street in front of our bank. Somehow it seemed to represent the last symbol of freedom in an organized society.
- Now all that will be gone. Five Points was once a challenge. Like Dodge City at high noon, a person crossing this no man's land never knew whether he could get across alive or not. People tell me it gave them a sense of exhilaration. It was a challenge. In this age of softness, regimentation, here was a chance to pit a man's wits against the elements.
- I have observed a pedestrian on Brody's corner, deposit bag in hand, planning his moves to get across to the bank. His eyes sparkled as he viewed the battle field. Looking toward the bank, he could see no green light, no red light, no amber light — nothing. Shielding his eyes from the morning sun, he would move cautiously down the sidewalk. Finally, as he reached State Theatre, he would look back and see, at least, faintly, a stop light. By this time, cars released by a green light at City Hall were bearing down in search of unwary pedestrians on Fifth Street. But our particular friend, by this time abandoning all caution, would dash madly across, horns blowing in anger because they missed him. Triumphant, he would enter the bank, shoulders back proudly.
- Now our customers face the possibility of a dull and guided path with WALK and DON'T WALK signs, YIELD, NO U TURNS, NO LEFT TURN, NO RIGHT TURN, STOP, GO. Do you think they will ever make it?

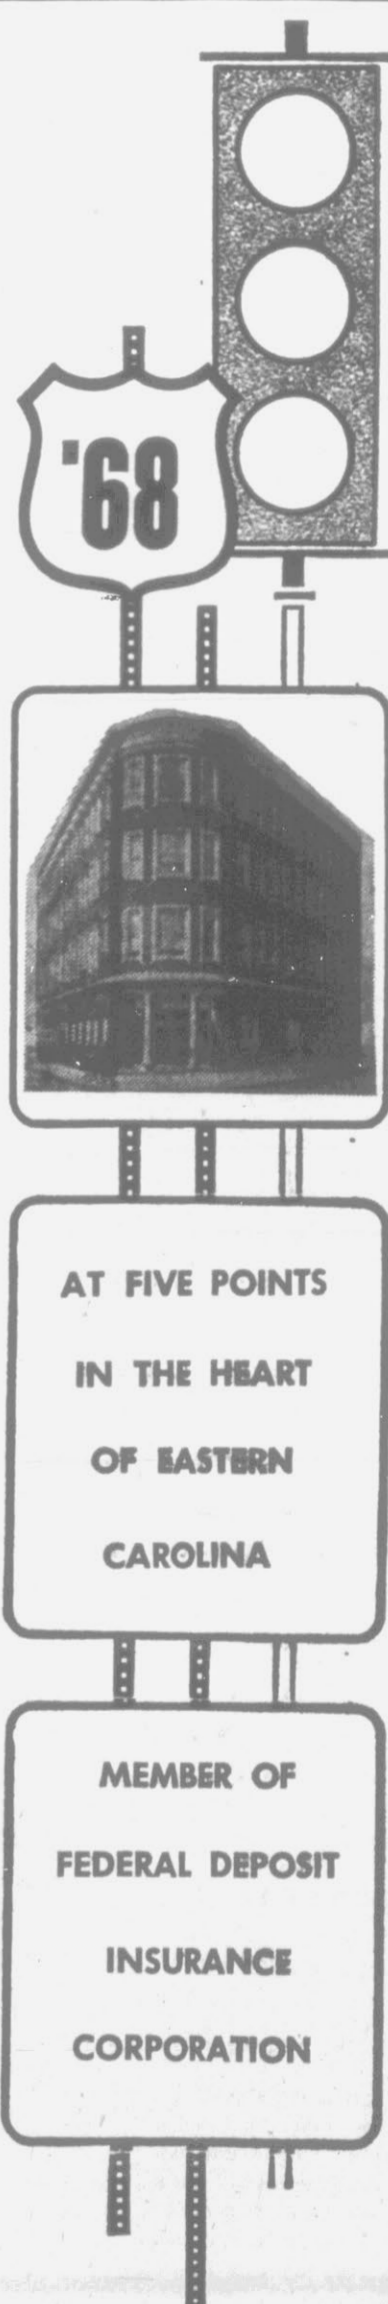

FROM: J. T. Marston, Jr.
TO: Ace Advertising Agency

- I have told you this before. Our customers will overcome any obstacle placed by the City to get to State Bank. We have trained nurses on hand at all hours to set broken bones, pediatricians, eye, ear, nose and throat doctors, psychiatrists. Believe me, State Bank customers will find a way to outwit any stop light system.
