Some Vandalism, Several Fire Calls, False Alarms Marred Weekend For City

By STUART SAVAGE
Reflector Staff Writer

A curfew imposed by city officials Sunday after a night of vandalism and fire calls—including nine false alarms and several fire-bombing attempts—was credited with reducing incidents of violations last night.

The tension-filled atmosphere that prevailed Saturday erupted into a series of law violations late Saturday night. The first of a series of fire alarms was sounded at 10:08 p.m.

Firemen said that first call, a false alarm, was to Box 325 at the intersection of Howell and Garland Streets. It was followed at 10:12 p.m. by a false alarm from Box 227 at the Pitt and Arthur Streets intersection and at 10:16 p.m. by a false call from Box 148 at the intersection of Fourth and Ford Streets.

The fourth call, at 11:15 p.m. from Box 154 was to a fire at Harris Super Market on West Fifth St.

Investigators, who reported the blaze was out when firemen arrived, said someone threw a fire bomb—a Molotov Cocktail—at the rear of the store. No damage was reported.

The next three calls, from Box 72 at Sadie Sautler School at 11:20 p.m., Box 157 at Fifth and Nash Streets at 11:22 p.m. and from Box 136 at the Fourth and Ford Street intersection at 11:25 p.m. were also reported as false.

Greenville police, busy themselves at the time checking vandalism reports, arrested two white youths, James F. Metz, 19, of 600 East 11th St. and Richard H. Miner, 18, of 506 Cotanche St., on charges they turned in the false alarm from the Fifth and Nash Streets intersection box.

Officers said Metz is a part-time photographer for a Greenville weekly newspaper, "The Gazette." Both are students at East Carolina University.

Firemen answered three other calls before dawn Sunday. At 11:50 p.m., fire units were called to the intersection of Battle and McDowell Streets when a grass fire erupted, then at 12:30 a.m. responded to a call to Box 64 at the intersection of 10th and Clark Streets when a fire erupted in a furniture storage warehouse owned by Bostic-Sugg Furniture Co. on 11th St.

Fire officers said the blaze, of undetermined origin, caused extensive damage to the contents of the wood-frame building.

Veteran firefighters credited the building's sprinkler system with retarding the spread of the fire in the structure, and enabling fire units to bring the fire quickly under control.

The last alarm before daylight Sunday was a call at 12:35 a.m. from Box 136 at the intersection of Colonial Avenue and Ford Street. That call was listed as false.

Officers said as fire units responded to calls and returned to their stations through predominantly Negro districts along Albemarle Avenue and West Fifth Street, rocks and other projectiles were hurled at them by young Negroes.

The city's newest fire truck, delivered four months ago, suffered three dents—caused by pieces of masonry or bricks striking the vehicle. One fireman was struck in the back with a rock but was protected from injury by his heavy protective fire clothing.

While firemen were busy running from one alarm to another, police had their hands full trying to prevent bands of roving young Negroes from setting fires, breaking glass from stores and looting.

Chief H. F. Lawson, who said the incidents involved pure lawlessness and disregard for law and order, rather than having any connection with the civil rights movement, said windows in a dozen stores were broken or shot out before dawn Sunday.

Glass, the chief said, was broken from the front of Goody's Grocery store at 1706 Garland St.; Eastern Aluminum Co., 211 Boyd Ave.; Winn-Dixie Store on 10th St.;

Steps and Landcaster's Painting, Spruce St.; Heath's Grocery Store, Pamlico Ave.; Askew's Variety Store, West Fifth St.; Harris Super Market on West Fifth St.; Batt's Grocery Store, 1117 West Third St.; and B and B Food Lane, Bancroft Ave.

Glass at the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. at 630 Pitt St. and at Auto Specialty Co. on West Fifth Street was damaged by shooting, Lawson continued.

He said persons who broke the windows at B and B Food Lane also attempted to start a fire there by using a homemade fire bomb, but were not successful.

Chief Lawson noted that in addition to glass being broken in stores, several car windows were reported smashed by rocks.

A private car owned by a policeman and being used by the department as a patrol car was struck twice by bullets apparently fired from a small caliber weapon as it drove down Pamlico Avenue. The policemen in the car were not injured and the only damage reported to the vehicle was chipped paint.

After several hours of calm, groups of young Negroes began to gather about 11:15 a.m. Sunday and regular policemen and reserve officers were again called out.

By 11:25, windows had again been smashed at the Askew's Variety Store and at Harris Super Market. Three car windows were also reported broken by early afternoon.

After noon, a group of about 20 Negroes, most of them in their teens or early twenties converged on the downtown business district. Policemen

More Of North Vietnam 'Off Limits' To Bombers

SAIGON (AP) — President Johnson has put almost 5,500 more square miles of North Vietnam off limits to American bombers, U.S. sources said today. Below the demilitarized zone, allied ground forces reported killing more than 700 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong in weekend fighting.

Informed sources in Saigon said the American air forces have been told to keep their raids below the 19th Parallel, which is about 170 miles above the demilitarized zone. In the last four days U.S. bombers have struck no farther north than 160 miles above the DMZ.

Publicly, Johnson's order of March 31 setting the 20th Parallel as the northern boundary for air attacks still stands, and the sources said the President did not publicize the new curtailment because he wanted to leave open the option of bombing up to the 20th Parallel, or some 225 miles above the DMZ.

The U.S. Command in Saigon declined comment on the reported new bombing limits. In Washington, assistant White House press secretary Tom Johnson said there is no change from the March 31 order.

Although the area open to attack has been reduced, U.S. warplanes have more than doubled the pre-curtailed number of strike missions against North Vietnam's southern panhandle, mostly against enemy supply lines and convoys.

U.S. pilots flew a total of 134 missions over the North Vietnamese panhandle Sunday, the highest number in three months, since 144 were flown on Jan. 6. Military spokesmen said clearer weather, as the northeast monsoons move away, made the increase possible.

The fliers attacked North Vietnamese supply lines and gun positions, with the northernmost target an anti-aircraft position 160 miles north of the demilitarized zone, the U.S. Command said.

In the ground war, the U.S. troops that lifted the siege of Khe Sanh reported killing 118 North Vietnamese soldiers in a series of clashes over the weekend as they combed the jungled hills around the base on the northwest frontier.

The searching troops also reported finding the bodies of 198 enemy soldiers who apparently were killed by U.S. artillery and air strikes.

Seven miles to the southwest, U.S. artillery and rocket-firing helicopters smashed four enemy trucks and a tracked vehicle, presumably a tank, U.S. headquarters said.

At one time, an estimated 20,000 North Vietnamese surrounded Khe Sanh but the latest estimate is 7,000 enemy troops. Some enemy units were believed fading back toward the hills of neighboring Laos. But North Vietnamese gunners fired 300 mortar and artillery rounds into allied positions late Saturday and Sunday, killing one American and wounding 47.

Inside the Khe Sanh base, the 5,000 U.S. Marines who underwent the 11-week siege prepared to move out to fight elsewhere.

began moving in. The change was expected to take several days.

The Marine commander at Khe Sanh, Col. David Lowndes, 47, of Plantation, Fla., said he probably would keep his command post and several Marine artillery batteries at the base for several more days. But two Leathernecks posted a sign saying: "Khe Sanh—under new management."

Weekend In Rest Of Pitt Was Quiet

Although a number of acts of vandalism were reported in Greenville over the weekend, relative quiet prevailed in the remainder of Pitt County.

Winterville, Ayden and Grifton officials reported no trouble or arrests over the weekend.

The only other incident was reported from Farmville.

Police chief Graham Creel said a group of about 40 Negroes defied officers who attempted to get them off the streets Saturday night.

Six of the group were taken into custody but later released. Pitt County schools as well as schools in the City of Greenville were operating on a normal schedule today.

Greenville city schools released classes early Friday.

Windows Broken In Williamston

WILLIAMSTON — Three windows were broken from businesses here Saturday and Sunday nights, but otherwise things were peaceful, according to Police Chief John Swain.

Chief Swain said glass was broken from the Branch Banking and Trust Company drive-in at the intersection of U.S. 17 and U.S. 64, from the Dixie Motor Company on the bypass and S and V Super Market on Washington Street.

Investigating Sunday Blaze

The Sheriff's Department is investigating the possibility of arson in a fire which destroyed a vacant farm house on Rt. 4, Greenville around 3:45 Sunday morning.

The house was located on the C. Charlie Hagan farm and it burned to the ground. Hay was stored in one room of the dwelling, which was located on the Belvoir Road.

The Staton-House Fire Department answered the call.

A Sheriff's Department spokesman said the officers have reason to suspect the blaze was set.

EXTENDED WEATHER OUTLOOK FOR N. C.

Temperatures through Saturday will average above normal with daytime highs mostly in the 70s and lows in the 50s. Scattered showers Tuesday and Wednesday, and over the east portion Thursday, Friday night and Saturday.

Jordan Reports Border Invaded

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The Jordanian governments aid an Israeli armored force invaded Jordan south of the Dead Sea today under cover of jet fighters. Heavy fighting is raging, it added.

An army communique said the armored force and units of Israeli paratroopers who were landed by helicopters had been engaged by Jordanian army units.

The government said the Israeli attack was preceded by an exchange of gunfire across the Jordan River dividing Jordan and Jordanian territory now occupied by Israeli troops.

GUARD DIES

BONN (UPI)—A police guard at the Soviet Embassy was killed by an express train Friday night on tracks running behind the diplomatic mission, officials reported Sunday.

Johnson Sends Urgent Appeal For Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has dispatched urgent appeals to congressional leaders for swift passage of his civil rights bill.

The new pleas for legislative speed were disclosed by government officials Sunday night just after Johnson ordered 2,000 Army regulars to Baltimore, Washington is quieting with 11,600 troopers in her streets; 5,000 more patrolled Chicago.

There were signs that Congress, jarred by the looting, burning and violence almost on its doorstep, would heed Johnson's plea and seek House action this week on the Senate-passed civil rights bill.

House Republican Leader Gerald Ford indicated he might drop his opposition to an early vote, but made no promise. He guaranteed only that he would make an early decision.

Johnson flew over the still-smoking ruins of the capital's burned-out inner-city areas late Sunday in a helicopter. With him was Gen. William C. Westmoreland. The American commander in Vietnam, who spent almost two days conferring with Johnson and high presidential advisers before starting the trip back to Saigon.

Ford was one of a number of congressional leaders, it was learned, to whom Johnson sent letters urging prompt action on the civil rights bill and its hotly debated open-housing provisions.

House Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma was another. Previously made public was a letter to House Speaker

John W. McCormack in which Johnson termed the rights bill "the most immediate" of "the many actions Congress can take."

His letters also asked prompt passage of two other bills aimed at easing slum tensions and dealing with the disorders which reached a crescendo after the assassination in Memphis of Dr. Martin Luther King, Negro apostle of nonviolence.

One was the omnibus housing bill, with its long-term goal of 1 million low-income dwellings. The other was an anticrime bill, stalled since last session.

Ford said he favors the rights bill but has insisted that it be worked over in a House-Senate conference committee, to remove what he considers defects, before the House acts. The administration fears this would expose the bill to another long Senate filibuster.

As Sunday neared its close, White House sources said no decision had been made on when—or if—Johnson will address a joint session of Congress. Such a session had been slated for tonight but later was postponed, with no new date set.

Kidnapping Penalty Is Overruled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The death penalty provision of the Lindbergh kidnaping law was ruled unconstitutional today by the Supreme Court.

In a 6-2 decision, the court said the provision, enacted by Congress in 1934, discourages the exercise of basic constitutional rights.

The provision says the death penalty may be imposed only on the recommendation of a jury. The high court reasoned that this discourages trial by jury and encourages guilty pleas since the case is thereby taken out of a jury's hands.

"The defendant ingenious enough to seek a jury acquittal stands forwarned that, if the jury finds him guilty and does not wish to spare his life, he will die," said Justice Potter Stewart.

Stewart went on to say the goal, of limiting the death penalty to cases in which the jury recommends it, is an entirely legitimate one.

Taxpayers' Cost

RALEIGH (AP)—The average National Guardsman on riot-control duty in North Carolina is costing state taxpayers more than $22 a day.

The 8,000 guardsmen mobilized statewide to deal with the rioting and violence following the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. are costing about $160,000 daily in pay alone.

"This is an educated estimate, based on our duty in Winston-Salem," said Brig. Gen. Roy Thompson, assistant state adjutant general. "But we figure the average cost per man is $20 a day for pay and allowances. It takes another $2.25 a day for rations. That doesn't include gas and other incidentals."

Wilmington Said Virtually 'Under Siege' Yesterday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Guerrilla warfare" broke out at Wilmington Sunday. Elsewhere, National Guardsmen and local and state police, aided by rigid curfews, maintained relative calm in most of North Carolina's larger cities.

The port city of Wilmington was virtually under siege most of Sunday. Roving bands of Negroes made a shambles of several business areas, throwing bricks, rocks, bottles and fire-bombs through store windows.

The violence followed the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

A statewide ban on the sale of alcoholic beverages was continued.

Police and armed guardsmen chased demonstrators back to Negro sections of Wilmington with tear gas and fixed bayonets. Two Army personnel carriers were pressed into duty.

Wilmington and New Hanover County schools were ordered closed today.

Despite almost 24-hours of violence, Wilmington Police Chief H. A. Williamson said late Sunday night: "We will regain control of the city. Our patience is not at an end, but we will put an end to the violence."

Another city official said, "It's guerilla warfare . . . pure destruction . . . just plain and simple destruction."

The city was tightly cordoned off early Sunday. More than 700 troops were on duty, and guard officers said troopers would be stationed on every street corner in trouble spots today.

Police reported sporadic shooting. More than 100 arrests were reported for curfew violations, looting, disorderly conduct and inciting to riot.

Elsewhere in North Carolina, thousands of guardsmen patrolled in half a dozen cities and towns as Palm Sunday passed with an apparent lessening of violence.

Nevertheless, curfews remained in effect or were imposed in cities from Charlotte to the coast.

The violence erupting in the state during the weekend brought hundreds of arrests, but few injuries. National Guard troops remained on duty in Greensboro, Raleigh, Durham, Goldsboro and Weldon.

Here is a city-by-city report covering the 24-hour period beginning Saturday night:

Wilmington: More than 700 National Guardsmen and heavy forces of state and local police on duty. Sporadic violence throughout Saturday night and Sunday. Tear gas used to break up roving mobs of Negroes. Armored personnel carriers and a helicopter brought in from Ft. Bragg. Curfew imposed at 4 p.m. Sunday, ending in certain sections at 7 a.m. Monday. Police passes needed to travel anywhere in the city. Sniper fire.

Charlotte: Curfew imposed from 9 p.m.-5 a.m. At least eight fires reported, more than 50 arrests, four injuries.

Greensboro: National Guard on duty, dawn-to-dusk curfew, Quiet Sunday.

Durham: Fire bombings reported Saturday and early Sunday. National Guard on duty.

Wilson: National Guard on duty. Curfew 7 p.m. Sunday to 6 a.m. Monday. Vandalism, some looting, more than 20 arrests. More than 2,000 Negroes marched peacefully Sunday in memory of Dr. King.

Weldon: National Guard alerted. Curfew 6 p.m. Sunday to 6 a.m. Monday. Fifteen arrests, some vandalism.

Goldsboro: Roaming bands of Negroes, vandalism and small fires. National Guard on duty. About 35 arrests.

Raleigh: National Guardsmen on duty. Several arrests. Bomb hoax Sunday disrupted memorial services for Dr. King. Student march halted. Some fires, vandalism.

N.C. Voter Registration Procedures Are Commended

State Board of Elections Executive Secretary, Alex K. Brock today confirmed reports that federal registrars for Pitt County had been requested.

Brock stated that he had been in touch with the Justice Department in Washington and had been assured that the federal registrars were not being sent, however Brock explained that an incident came about as a misunderstanding when persons were requested to sign their voting card verifying that the information on it was correct. He explained that this does not constitute a violation of the Voting Rights Act, and pointed out that individuals are requested, not required to sign, and in the event that they do not sign, the person will still be registered.

According to Brock, Pitt County came under the Voting Rights Act in August of 1965, along with 20 other counties. Eighteen other counties have since been added.

The 1965 Voting Rights Act restricts the application of the literacy test in those political subdivisions (in N.C. these are counties) where less than 50 percent of the voting age population voted in the 1964 election.

Brock stated that the Justice Department has commended the manner in which North Carolina has handled its voting registration procedures.

Easter Mints Are Fun To Make

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Your Easter table—at teatime or dinner—will look as pretty as springtime if you serve these homemade mints.

A simple no-cook combination of egg white, corn syrup, confectioners' sugar and flavoring, these mints are pure white rounds decorated with yellow flowers and green leaves made from Decorator's Frosting. Nice to serve "as is."

But for something extra special, you can easily shape the rounds into calla lilies, adding yellow stamens and green leaves. We found them perfectly charming to use as the decoration of an Easter cake. For the cake, choose sponge or angel-food baked in a tube pan and covered with white frosting—the vanilla flavor buttercream type is perfect. Then add a wreath of the calla lilies.

Directions for the Decorator's Frosting, and for using it, follow after the recipe for the mints and Calla Lily variation.

EASTER MINTS
1 large egg white
1 teaspoon light corn syrup
3 cups (about) sifted confection-

ers' sugar
1/4 teaspoon pure mint and peppermint extract
Decorator's Frosting (see recipe)

In a medium mixing bowl with beater (electric or hand rotary), beat egg white until foamy. Add corn syrup; beat until mixture holds peaks that tilt over when beater is slowly pulled out.

With beater and adding about two tablespoons at a time, gradually beat in part of the sugar until mixture begins to get too stiff for beater. Beat in mint extract.

Using a wooden spoon to work it in, continue to add remaining sugar, about two tablespoons at a time, until mixture is very stiff and not sticky to the touch. Knead mixture in bowl, until very smooth. (Last 1/4 cup or so of sugar may have to be kneaded in.)

Place mixture between two pieces of wax paper; roll out to a round that is 8 to 9 inches in diameter and 1/4-to-1/2-inch thick. Tuck ends of paper under and refrigerate for about one hour. Remove top layer of paper. Using a 1 1/4-inch round cutter, cut out; reroll leavings and cut out, too. If necessary, use a small spatula to lift mints from paper. Let stand uncovered at room temperature for several hours to dry. Store in a tightly covered container overnight or for as long as four or five days. Then the day the mints are to be served, use Decorator's Frosting to decorate with flowers and leaves. Store again in covered container until serving time.

Makes four to five dozen.
TO MAKE CALLA LILIES: As soon as each mint is cut out, fold in half, inching one end together; separate other end by folding back the upper edge slightly. Let stand at room temperature for several hours to dry; store in a covered container. Before serving, use Decorator's Frosting to make stamens and leaves as directed. Serve as mints or use as the decoration for a frosted Easter cake.

DECORATOR'S FROSTING
One-third cup butter or regular margarine at room temperature.

Two-thirds to 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
Yellow food coloring
Green food coloring
In a small mixing bowl with a wooden spoon, beat together the butter and sugar. If frosting is too stiff, blend in a few drops of water. Divide in half; tint one half with the yellow food coloring; tint the other half with the green food coloring. Put frosting in small decorating bags with appropriate tips as follows:

To pipe decoration onto round mints: for flowers, use star tip and yellow frosting; for leaves, use tube tip and green frosting.

To pipe decoration onto calla lilies: for stamens, use a plain round tip and yellow frosting to make two yellow dots inside fold; for leaves, use tube tip and green frosting.

QUICK LUNCH
This combination may be new to your household.

Betty McNeill's Sandwiches
Fruit Cake Beverage
BETTY McNEILL'S SANDWICHES

4 slices bacon
4 sandwich-size slices Muenster cheese
4 slices bread

In a 9- or 10-inch skillet over low heat (to keep fat white) fry the bacon until crisp. Remove bacon and drain on brown paper or paper toweling; leave fat in skillet. Make 2 sandwiches of the bacon and cheese, arranging bacon between the cheese slices. Dip one side of each sandwich in the bacon fat; turn and place fat side up in skillet. Over moderate heat, quickly brown sandwiches on both sides. Makes 2 servings.

PARIS (WNS) — After courtier Coco Chanel declared on French TV that she considers young Yves St. Laurent her "spiritual successor," St. Laurent arranged a "Reply" show, also on TV, to call Mile. Chanel a "national monument" and "an important figure in the history of France." The octogenarian lady promptly commented that she considered neither description a compliment and that she was unhappy with young Yves' appearance. "He didn't look young, and he did look ugly," she said. "And he should have cut his hair before the program went on the air. I don't like this male mode for long hair."

Inside the case, she keeps a change of mini-skirt "and other necessities."

Miss Overton Gives Entre Nous Club Program

Mrs. Simon Moye and Mrs. George Harvey entertained the Entre Nous Book Club Tuesday afternoon at the Greenville Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Marshall Helms and Miss Dolly Overton were guests. During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Banks Cozart, it was decided to contribute to the United Christian Youth Movement, which will support the overseas Community Ambassadors.

The program was given by Miss Dolly Overton, a junior at ECU, of her six months of study at the University of Madrid and experiences in Spain.

Miss Overton got to go to the University of Madrid under the New York University program.

Some of the points she brought out were differences in the university students here and there, and differences in the university program, living conditions, social customs and movie censorship.

One of the side trips Miss Overton made was to see the room that Queen Isabella held her audience with Columbus in. She concluded her program by showing souvenirs from Spain.

J.H. Rose Speaks To Woman's Club On Friday

"Training is the key to Civil Defense" stated J. H. Rose, speaking to the Greenville Woman's Club in Friday afternoon. Rose has been in civil defense since 1940 when its principal duty was air craft warning. Through the years he has served as a volunteer leader but since his retirement as superintendent of Greenville Schools last summer he is employed as director.

He spoke of the many duties of his office such as warnings and preparation for any type disaster, building and equipping underground shelters and having trained personnel to man such. He told of the need for more people to take First Aid and Home Nursing Courses and urged women to support such classes when announced.

Rose was introduced by Mrs. J. L. Savage, president, who presided over the business session.

Mrs. W. E. Roseveare told of plans for the Sidewalk Art Show on May 3 and 4 at the Art Center. The club will maintain a snack bar on May 3 and will have a bake sale on May 4, to help defray expenses for the show.

She announced the meeting of the Home Life Department, of which she is chairman, to be at the home of Mrs. Frank Brown on April 23 — one week later than scheduled and urged members to attend the benefit program of the Art Society to be given by Thomas P. F. Hoving on April 19.

Mrs. J. Vance Perkins acknowledged the gift of cabinets and tables for the serving room by Mrs. Mary Lee Pittman. Post and a donation to the new club building by Mrs. J. E. Winslow and Mrs. A. A. Hines.

The club voted to make a contribution to the U. C. Y. M. who will send two students abroad this summer to serve as community good will ambassadors.

Thank you notes for birthday gifts were read from two Pitt County students who are enrolled in correctional schools.

Mrs. T. W. Rouse reminded members of the Fine Arts meeting at the home of Mrs. L. A. Stroud on Tuesday.

Tickets are now on sale by club members for the Author's Luncheon which will be held at E. C. U. dining hall on April 27 at 12:45 when Jane Hall will be speaker and traveling awards will be presented to winners in the Creative Writing Contest.

Easter decorations were used on the tea table where party refreshments and coffee were served by the hostess: Mrs. J. L. Savage; Mrs. L. A. Stroud; Mrs. T. I. Moore; Mrs. George Snyder; and Mrs. C. W. Willard.

TODAY'S FURNITURE

Decorating today offers an opportunity for freedom of expression as never before. But freedom has to be tempered with knowledge and taste, or the result can go wrong. The best solution: get to know the great furniture styles of past and present, and how they relate to each other. More often than not, a modern home embodies a blending of styles. The days of buying all-of-a-kind of furniture are past. This is the era of mixing styles, periods, colors and textures.

Mother Takes The Blame For 'Grounding' Son

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our 16-year-old son (I'll call him George) told us he was going to a hockey game with a boy his age, so his father gave him the car and permission to stay out an hour later than the usual midnight.

Instead, George went with a 24-year-old divorced man, and didn't get home until four o'clock the next morning. George had been told that we didn't want him running around with this man.

For punishment, we grounded George for a week. Last night he was bored, so he asked if he could go to town for a couple of hours. I said, "No, you're grounded." Then he turned to his father and asked him, and his father said, "YOUR MOTHER said you couldn't go."

George pouted a while and asked his father again. His father said, "YOUR MOTHER has grounded you!"

Later I told my husband that I resented being made the "bad guy" — that he and I had made the decision together. A quarrel followed. My husband said it wouldn't have hurt to let George go to town for a few hours. I said once we ground the boy, he should stay grounded.

I'd appreciate your opinion.

"THE BAD GUY"

DEAR BAD GUY: You had better get even tougher because if your letter is any indication of what it's like at your house, you are going to have to administer any discipline your son gets — and he sounds as though he needs plenty.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is as follows: I married a man of 73. I am 73, also. We had both lost our mates.

Well, my husband moved into my dwelling, and he brought along a picture of his first wife, which he keeps on our dressing table.

He "talks" to her, waves and smiles to her, which hurts

Stuffed Bear For A Wedding Gift

LANGLEY, England (WNS)—Ann Stewart, 21, has been advertising in British newspapers for a life-sized stuffed bear to give her future husband, Patrick Lane, 21, as a wedding gift. "Pat has had a fixation for stuffed bears ever since he saw one in the hotel where we met," explained Miss Stewart. "They give me the creeps, and I don't fancy dusting a bear every day. But my mother says that the first duty of a wife is to please her husband. I'm willing to try."

me very much because I try my best to be a good wife.

I cook for him, and keep house for him and do his laundry, but that picture gets more conversation than I get.

Today I told him I thought he was an "idiot," and he got mad at me and walked out. Do I have to let him back in?

NO PICTURE

DEAR NO PICTURE: When two 73-year-olds marry, it is usually for mutual companionship. If you're not getting the kind of companionship you had in mind, talk to your lawyer about ending the arrangement.

DEAR ABBY: Tell "OLD SARGE" he is not alone. I have been married for 22 years and I have the same problem. I have bought my wife dozens of beautiful sheer nightgowns, but she wears flannel ones to bed. I think they make those sheer gowns for men to buy, not for women to wear.

I love my wife, and I would give anything if she would put on one of those beautiful nightgowns and look glamorous—just for me. But she never has. I have come to the conclusion that some women just don't want the bother and mess of being loved. If you use this, please don't use my name. She would kill me.

A Realistic View Of Land Values

In setting new tax value schedules, the Martin County Commissioners have taken a much more realistic view of the relative value of farm land than is the case with most counties in this section of the state.

The example set by Martin County should be considered by other counties where farm land is on the tax books at a much lower percentage of its actual value than is most other property. Martin County's Commissioners are to be commended for moving to correct this inequity in their county.

The new schedule of tax values for farm land in Martin County provides that good land be valued between $400 and $600 per acre; fair land between $250 to $375 per acre and poor land between $100 and $200 per acre. Compared with the old schedule of values in Martin County, it means that farm land is being increased in value from a minimum of $75 per acre to as much as $300 per acre for tax purposes. It also means that the farmland in that county in the future will bear a much more realistic portion of the total ad valorem tax burden than has been the case in the past.

It is interesting to compare the tax values for farm land in Pitt County with those that have been adopted by the Martin County Board of Commissioners. For tax purposes in this county, farm land is valued in a range from $150 to $300 per acre. That means that for tax purposes, the best farm land in Pitt County is valued at only half what the best farm land in Martin County is valued for tax purposes.

It is also interesting to note that in Martin County the values on farm land are being increased at a rate of from $75 to $300 per acre.

In Pitt County, by comparison, the last time a revaluation took place — which was 1965 — farm land values on the tax books were increased only $10 per acre across the board. There was no revaluation of farm land as such in 1965 in this county, but rather an across-the-board increase of $10 per acre on the values established in the 1953 revaluation.

While tax values on farm land in Martin County are being increased from $75 to $300 per acre, the tax value on farm land in Pitt County has been increased only $10 per acre in the past 15 years. That is a far cry from the change in actual value of farm land in this county during the same period of time. It is likewise a far cry from the change in tax values of other kinds of property in this county during the same period of time.

We commend the Martin County Commissioners for moving to eliminate gross inequities in the values of the kinds of property on its tax books. We strongly urge the Pitt County Commissioners to carefully review the tax values on various kinds of property in this county with an eye to eliminating the inequities that exist here.

Their Role Should Be Of Superior Service

A city council decision has been made that Cable Antenna Television is feasible locally and the franchise has been awarded to the publicly owned Greenville Utilities Commission.

Operation of the system by the commission is a public trust and we would counsel the commission to carry out the operation on a plane even superior to that of private systems.

One of the selling points for allowing the Utilities Commission to operate the system was that it could offer the service at a lower cost to the customer than private interests could. This should be correct and we hope the Utilities Commission will be constantly vigilant to providing the service at lowest possible cost to Greenville citizens.

CATV systems can offer a variety of services, in addition to bringing in distant television stations. Greenville Utilities should offer the best of these services, guarding always against allowing the system to become a propaganda arm of government.

Scott Leading In Early Polls

By WILLIAM A. SHIRES
Reflector Raleigh Bureau

RALEIGH — Lt. Gov. Robert W. (Bob) Scott appears to be leading in the contest for the Democratic nomination for governor by a margin sufficient to win in the first primary May 4.

Also, a survey indicates that if the primaries were held today Rep. James C. (Jim) Gardner would win easily over John L. (Jack) Stickle in their contest for the Republican nomination and Gardner's margin of victory would be greater than Scott's.

This is indicated by results of a political sampling in 20 key counties of the state conducted by member newspapers of the North Carolina Association of Afternoon Dailies. The sampling was taken as the 19-68 primary campaigns entered their final month.

The survey included polling of the same number of registered voters chosen at random in each of the 20 counties scattered across the state. There was no attempt to weigh the respective voting strength of individual counties according to population or registration.

Scott-Gardner Lead
According to tabulations, Scott was favored by 45.6 per cent of the registered Democrats who were questioned.

Gardner received the nod from a surprising 55 per cent of registered Republicans over a Stickle showing of only 10 per cent. The remaining 35 per cent of GOP replies were undecided.

Here is the breakdown:

Democrats: Scott 45.6 per cent; Broughton 32.8 per cent; Hawkins 4 per cent; Undecided 22 per cent.

Republicans: Gardner 55 per cent; Stickle 10 per cent; Undecided 35 per cent.

Breakdown By Counties

In 15 counties polled by member newspapers, Scott led in nine and Broughton in four. In one, they were even. In five other counties which were spot checked, Scott led in four and Broughton in one.

On the Republican side—and the survey showed registered Republicans a rather thin minority—Gardner led among GOP replies in every county surveyed.

If borne out by the primary election results this would be a surprise. Most political observers feel that the Gardner-Stickle contest will be close and that Stickle should command greater support among old line Republicans and have an advantage in areas of most Republican voter registration.

The preliminary survey however indicates a Gardner sweep may be in the making.

Also Surprising
On the Democratic side, the Scott-Broughton gap is wider than Broughton forces are willing to admit and perhaps greater than Scott's camp will claim.

Still the indicated 22 per cent undecided vote could, and perhaps will prove the decisive factor.

An even greater surprise to most observers is the small percentage for Dr. Reginald Hawkins, the Negro dentist from Charlotte appealing for the Negro vote. Most undoubtedly will claim that the indicated percentage for Dr. Hawkins is very low.

Close political observers insist that Hawkins will get more votes than the polls and surveys indicate and possibly enough to force a second primary. The survey which did not take any racial factors into account does not indicate this.

Power In The World

What is the Church? Most people look upon it as an organization, and a huge organization it certainly is in all its branches. But if it were only an organization it would probably have passed away as practically all ancient organizations have passed away. There was something peculiar and significant about this organization. In the first place, it was not built up by man but definitely established by the hand of God when at Pentecost the Spirit descended upon a group of believers and constituted them the Church. The Church claims to be, and history has vindicated this claim, the very body of Christ among men—his abiding place. We can find God anywhere but there is something about the sacredness of the Church

Surge In Auto Sales Indicated

Once again auto sales may put a lot of zip into the economy. All surveys indicate it. A Census Bureau study found that new car sales this year will be 3,900,000, approximately 600,000 more than in 1967.

The latest University of Michigan Survey Research Center report made public this week says that "while the consumer sector will not provide a major stimulus to the economy," and that while the proportion of families planning

The Way '68 Shapes Up

WASHINGTON — Everyone is having a crack at predicting what will happen in 1968 so there is no reason why I shouldn't try it, too.

This is the way I see the presidential year shaping up: With President Johnson out of the race, Bobby Kennedy's popularity will slip, and he'll reassess his position and decide that he is not a can-

Other Editors Saying Who Won Wisconsin?

(GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS)

The immediate reaction of the television and wire-service pundits to the results of the Wisconsin primary was that President Johnson had shown "impressive strength" and that Senator McCarthy had failed to do as well as expected. There is little in the results to substantiate either judgment.

President Johnson got 35 per cent of the Democratic vote. Senator McCarthy got 57 per cent, and almost all the state's delegates to the Democratic convention. The senator lost in only two of Wisconsin's ten congressional districts — both of them in the conservative city of Milwaukee. To the extent that there was a write-in challenge from Robert Kennedy's supporters, Senator McCarthy held their total to an unimpressive 6 per cent—half what many had predicted.

True, President Johnson had declared his noncandidacy two days before the vote. Technically, a vote for him was a wasted vote. But two points must be borne in mind. First, there was clearly a substantial sympathy vote for the President, though how substantial is difficult to measure. Second, and most important, the President's was the only name on the ballot which represented a position on Vietnam generally contrary to Senor McCarthy's. As we read the Wisconsin results, they show a clear victory for Senator McCarthy. Despite the enormous swell of popular support for the President following his decision to withdraw, Senator McCarthy won by what can fairly be called a landslide margin. If Mr. Johnson's peace offer to North Vietnam took any sting out of Mr. McCarthy's criticism of the war, the results failed to show it.

Wisconsin proved, beyond any reasonable question, that Eugene McCarthy is a very serious contender for the Democratic presidential nomination. To all intents and purposes unknown at the beginning of the year, he has battled 1,000 in the two primaries he has entered — a moral victory in New Hampshire and a political victory in Wisconsin. He moves on to Indiana, where for the first time he will directly confront Senator Kennedy, with tremendous momentum; a victory there, though at present unlikely, is anything but impossible.

On the Republican side, Mr. Nixon did as well as expected — if not better, inasmuch as he held Governor Reagan to an unimpressive 11 per cent. His reputation as a loser looks less and less credible. The chances of stopping his nomination now seem slender indeed.

to buy a new car this year is no greater than a year ago, the proportion of families planning to buy a car in the next two years was 28 per cent, compared with 24 per cent a year ago.

A survey by Commercial Credit Co. of Baltimore indicates a rise of 8 per cent in the purchase of new cars in the six months started April 1.

Part of the current prospects is due to the fact that many sales were postponed from last year due to the Ford strike.

More Look-Aheads
Here are other expectations in business:
Higher aluminum prices. After some price shaving late last year, aluminum producers are finding an increase in demand and are slowly increasing prices to take care of higher costs.

Inventory accumulations continue. Manufacturers are still building inventories, partly as a hedge against a possible steel strike this summer, partly as a hedge against higher prices. Increases may have amounted to $2 billion in the first quarter, about 25 per cent more than in the last 19-67 quarter.

think he was hungry for the job, will announce he is not a candidate, thus leaving the Democrats without a nominee for the 1968 elections.

Former Vice President Nixon, fearful that a lack of opposition in the Democratic party could further hurt his chances of being elected President, will withdraw from the Republican campaign, adding that the press will no longer have him to kick around any more.

When Ronald Reagan discovers the federal deficit for the coming year, he will ask his supporters to fold up their tents and take his name out of the race. Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, waiting for a draft will sit out the convention in Albany. Harold Stassen will get out of the race when he realizes that he might win and have to serve as President.

So the Republicans, as well as the Democrats, will be without a presidential candidate in 1968.

With both major parties refusing to field candidates, former Gov. George Wallace will be unable to appeal to the white backlash, and he will be unable to get enough signatures to get his name on the ballot.

As November approaches, the country will be faced with an election but no one to vote for. So it will ask Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy to form a caretaker government to take over until a new President can be found.

Mrs. Kennedy will ask President Lyndon B. Johnson if he will stay in office in charge of the caretaker government until she can find someone to run for the office.

President Johnson will reluctantly agree to keep his Cabinet and run the country until some way can be worked out to relieve him of the office. He will do this only on the condition that he has a free hand to bring about needed reforms that he be-

Leader Loved, Hated

By EDWARD T. ADAMS

SAIGON (AP) — The chief of South Vietnam's national police, Nguyen Ngoc Loan, is one of the country's most controversial leaders.

The Viet Cong hate him, and so do others not associated with the Communist-led movement. He is a hero to the men who work under him, and to not a few admirers of efficiency. To them, charges of ruthlessness are offset by the dangers that plague the government Brig. Gen. Loan serves.

When I first came upon Loan, two months ago, he was firing at the head of a man in a plaid shirt.

The general had appeared suddenly that morning near An Quang Pagoda. Saigon was reeling under the onslaught of the Tet offensive. The man in the plaid shirt had just been captured. Loan executed him in a split second.

My first impression was that the thin-faced Loan was a cold, callous killer. Since then, I have traveled for days across the country with him.

He is a product of modern Vietnam and his time.

Many think he represents the worst in Vietnam. He has been criticized severely by some American and Vietnamese officials and by some Vietnamese politicians. He has been accused of using "Hitler" tactics, illegal arrests, torture and police-state methods.

He usually participates personally in the arrest of important political figures, often brandishing a weapon and shouting or bullying down any opposition.

N.C. Business Activity Saw Advance In February

By NOEL YANCEY
Associated Press Writer,
RALEIGH (AP) — Business activity in North Carolina moved forward on a broad front in February after a January lull.

Business indicators showing gains included employment, new car sales, building activity, mortgage loans, sales tax collections and bank debits.

The Wachovia North Carolina Business Index rose by 2.1 per cent over January to an all-time high level of 177.1. Compared with February of 1967, it was up 6.4 per cent.

Nonagricultural employment was up 1.6 per cent in February over January and 1.9 per cent ahead of February of last year. Manufacturing employment was up only 0.6 per cent from January and 0.8 per cent from February of 1967, but the average workweek rose to 40.7 hours from 36.5 hours in January and 39.3 hours in February of last year.

Average earnings rose three cents from January to $2.16 and the longer workweek resulted in a rise of $10.16 on average weekly earnings to $87.91.

Bank debits gained 2.5 per cent in January over February, indicating a pickup in the rate of business and personal spending. Compared to February, debits showed a 21.1 per cent gain.

The North Carolina Motor Carriers association reported new car sales totaled 14,552 in February compared with 11,571 in January and 12,666 in February of 1967. New truck sales rose to 3,797 in February compared with 2,655 in January and 3,207 in February of last year.

North Carolina sales tax collections for March, which reflect February business activity, totaled $16.2 million compared with $14.4 million in March of 1967.

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Greensboro reported North Carolina federally-insured building and loan firms made 3,294 mortgage loans totaling $35 million during the month compared with 2,702 loans totaling $25 million in the corresponding month last year.

The value of building permits issued in 18 North Carolina cities rose a whopping 61.3 per cent over February of last year to a total of $31 million.

Soviets Launch Lunar Spaceship

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's new space venture, Luna 14, presumably was speeding toward the moon today amid speculation that it may be the first attempt to send a craft around the moon and bring it back to earth.

The unmanned spaceship was launched Sunday. An official announcement said it was an automatic space station and would study "near lunar space."

Previous lunar craft have landed on the moon or gone into orbit around it. They sent back information on lunar conditions in preparation for an eventual manned flight to the moon.

The first announcement said communications and other equipment on board were functioning normally. There was no further announcement today, but the Russians usually wait until a space mission is completed or near completion before reporting further on it.

Luna 14 is the first announced Soviet moon shot in 15 months. Luna 13, launched Dec. 21, 1966, made a soft landing on the moon, dug a rod into the surface and sent back television pictures.

Benito Juarez' Grandson Visits

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A great grandson of Mexico's 19th century president, Benito Juarez, arrived here Sunday as part of the U.S. Air Force's Sergeants' Choir.

Sgt. Manuel Melendez Juarez said he was happy to have the opportunity to visit the homeland of his ancestors. All his living relatives, with the exception of his father who was born in Chihuahua, were born in the United States, he said.

Big Move Is Mapped By General Motors

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — All the famed planning ability of General Motors will be needed for its upcoming moving job. Cars are produced by the millions, but a change of address is like no other.

After 40 years on Broadway here, in a dowdy building faced with Grecian columns and marbled and gilded inside, GM is preparing to move its executive offices to an efficient white marble tower on Fifth Avenue.

For the 3,300 workers on 25 floors of the Broadway building, the current preparations focus on "purging the files," tossing out papers so old they are bound by common pins instead of staples. It's the same problem individuals face—and often fail—when moving. GM isn't like to fail.

The nation's biggest automaker has another advantage over ordinary beings. It has money and it can go first class, so all the furniture is being left behind—desks, rugs, file cabinets, wastebaskets, coat racks.

Appraisers recently walked through the building at night, seemingly talking to themselves but really speaking into tape recorders that later will be transcribed. They identified each piece of furniture, priced it and left attached to it an identification number.

Now the GM people are considering what to do with the old but useful furniture—give it to charity, for example, or sell it to dealers. The decision will be made soon, for the company must vacate this summer.

About five years ago GM began thinking about what it should do when its latest 10-year lease was up. A decision was reached against staying in the old building, mostly for reasons of efficiency and space.

By August 1964 an agreement was reached to move into a 50-story structure then being planned. Three months later the automaker bought one-half of the firm that will own the building, the Savoy-Fifth Avenue Corp.

A moving committee was formed with representatives from personnel, engineering and the comptroller's office. A coordinator was added. In recent months the committee has met two or three times a week.

Supplying them with information are various subcommittees which obtain facts, opinions and recommendations from department heads, each of which is provided with a plan of the floor their people will occupy.

As moving day nears, the GM people expect few personnel problems. The biggest one, they feel, is likely to be the adaptation to new surroundings, especially to new transportation.

Status hasn't intruded on plans. Although it is possible that some middle managers might not have the office they desire, everyone is bound to come out ahead, in the opinion of one member of the moving committee.

The reasons given: a brand new building, centrally air conditioned, soft wool carpets on 90 per cent of the floor space, plenty of windows, swift self service elevators, a cafeteria. In the old building carpets were not as common. Quarters sometimes were cramped. The cafeteria was across the street.

The move will take place on six to eight weekends.

(Continued From Page 4) lieves are necessary. He will warn Congress that if it doesn't go along with his recommendations, he will have no choice but to dissolve the caretaker government and retire to the L. B. J. Ranch.

Fearful of having a country without a government, Congress will accede to all President Johnson's demands, and will pass every bill he proposes.

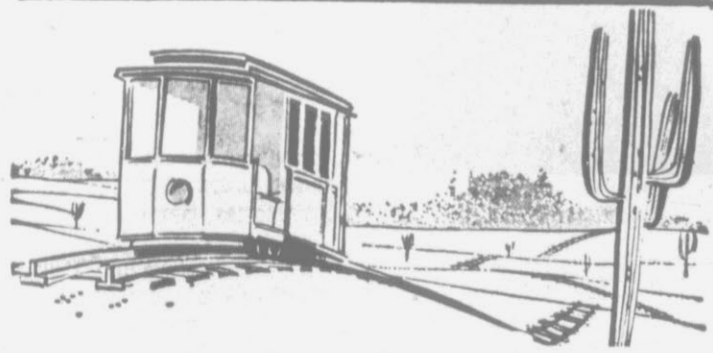

The caretaker government will be in office until 1972, at which time Gene McCarthy will decide to run in the New Hampshire primary. Once he wins there, Bobby Kennedy will reassess his position and decide to run for President himself.

This will bring Richard Nixon back into the race; Gov. Rockefeller will announce he is ready for a draft; Harold Stassen will, of course, be a candidate; and former Gov. George Wallace will announce he is reconstituting a third party.

President Johnson will then state that he will no longer head up the caretaker government.

I know all this sounds far-fetched, but I'd like to ask you one question:

Is it any more far-fetched than what's been going on for the past six weeks?

Tips

By S. J. WEEKS
Pitt County Tobacco Agent

A multi-purpose tobacco disease control chemical is now available for use in this area. Vorlex will control both black shank and nematodes when applied as a row treatment at the rate of 6 gallons per acre. Since Vorlex is a fumigant-type material, it should be applied at least 14 inches below the top of a high, wide ridge or bed. A minimum three-week waiting period should be allowed between time of treatment and transplanting when Vorlex is used.

The use of Vorlex does not eliminate the need for planting a black shank resistant variety in soil heavily infested with black shank. However, tests have been shown that when a moderately resistant variety was evaluated at nine locations in 1967, the use of Vorlex reduced the incidence of black shank and increased the value $225 per acre.

When applied for nematode control only in fields with a high root knot nematode population an increased per acre value of $216 was secured. There are several other fumigant type nematocides available to growers which give satisfactory control, including DD, Vidden D, Penphene, EDB-85 and Dornole.

For the first time, non-fumigant or "contact" nematodes are available to tobacco growers this year. The non-fumigant nematocides available are Dasanit and dMocap which are not quite as effective as fumigant types.

The non-fumigant types should be applied as row treatment. First apply fertilizer 8 inches below soil level and prepare a bed or ridge. Granular nematocides should be applied in a band 16 to 20 inches wide on top of the bed and mixed with top 4 to 6 inches of soil by use of a tractor-mounted rototiller or tiller-ovator.

The advantages of using a non-fumigant nematocide is that no waiting period is required. This would permit a grower to treat his tobacco fields for nematode control and transplant the same day if necessary. Tests have also shown that wireworm and flea beetle damage was greatly reduced when the non-fumigant nematocide was applied.

The Farm Scene

By S. C. Winchester
County Extension Chairman
Use Certified Seed

Farmers who insist on certified seed are buying insurance as well as the best seed available.

The blue tag on a bag of certified seed is something like an selective when it comes to buying seed.

The wonderful part of this is that in the case of certified seed, it costs very little more to go first class.

The cost of seed is the least expensive investment the farmer makes in the crop. These costs don't compare with those of other items like fertilizer, machinery and labor. But good seed is just as essential to a successful crop as any of the more costly items.

For what it costs, there isn't anything a farmer buys that gives him more for the money than the blue certification on a bag of seed.

Certified seed are field inspected, laboratory tested, tagged and sealed for the farmer's assurance of quality. They are pure in variety, high in germination to assure good stands in the field, virtually free of seed of weeds and other crops, and carry no serious diseases that will affect crop quality or quantity.

Note these facts as proof of the value of certified seed: It was not an accident that eight of the nine 1967 National winners in the soybean yield contest used certified seed. These champions produced soybean yields of 80 or more bushels per acre in 1967. The use of high quality seed should be a planned part of every crop production program. These results are observed in every crop you can name.

Varietal purity is an important aspect of high quality seed. We often stress the physical qualities of seed and take the genetic qualities for granted. Over the past several years, new and improved varieties have probably contributed as much or more to increased yields than has the increased use of fertilizers. If variety is important the varietal purity is also important. Your best assurance of varietal purity is certified seed.

If you're concerned about the kind of government North Carolina will have for the next four years, spend the next few minutes reading this ad in behalf of Mel Broughton for Governor.

Since Mel Broughton announced his candidacy, he has spoken out clearly and consistently on the major issues confronting North Carolina. Here is where he stands now—and where he will stand as governor.

On Law And Order:

"As governor, I would use every resource to put down riots and apprehend the criminals and hoodlums who start and participate in them. I also would seek to eliminate the problems that cause riots."

On Open Housing:

"My position on open housing laws is now and always has been one of strong opposition to all such laws—national, state and local."

On Education:

"I have recommended pay raises that will at last bring teacher salaries in North Carolina up to the national average and keep them there for the biennium. Higher salaries will help attract and keep better teachers and strengthen our educational system."

On Improving Roads:

"We should continue as rapidly as possible to upgrade existing routes from east to west and north to south until all primary roads are four laned. We also must have more and better secondary roads throughout our state."

On Medical Centers:

"Medical centers in the east and in the west in coordination with regional universities, existing hospitals and clinics could do much to cure the ills resulting from weak medical services in those regions."

On Agriculture:

"The economic status of the farmer in North Carolina must be improved. As governor, I would form a task force of our best scientists, agricultural specialists and business leaders to seek answers to farm problems."

On Fiscal Matters:

"We must make sure that North Carolina receives a dollar's worth of value for every dollar we pay out. As governor, I would continue the sound principles of fiscal responsibility and fiscal integrity that have guided our state for many years."

Jim Henry Wins Another Diving Title At ECU

By WOODY PEELE
Reflector Sports Editor

Jim Henry added another list of titles to his growing list as he won the Amateur Athletic Union's National Indoor One-Meter Diving Championship last night before an empty house.

The competition, being held at East Carolina University's Mingos Coliseum Natatorium, was held last night with special city permission after a 7 p.m. curfew was put into effect. Attendance at the finals, however, was cut to the bare minimum with only coaches and parents making up the meager audience.

Dr. Ray Martinez of East Carolina, director of the meet, issued a plea to Greenville area people to support the rest of the diving, on Tuesday, and the swimming which runs Thursday through Saturday. "There are still plenty of tickets left for both events," he said. Tickets for the swimming are available in season books or in individual sessions.

Henry, who won the Outdoor title last year in Chicago, added the NCAA one-meter championship to his list a week ago, and compared last night's victory to it.

"I had to work a lot harder this time," he said. "These other guys really worked me hard." The sophomore diver makes Dallas, Texas his home, but attends the University of Indiana. His diving affiliation for this meet is the Indiana Aquatic Club, the AAU arm of the school's team.

"I got into diving about 10 years ago," Henry said. "My mother kind of pushed me into it. She wasn't a diver, but she was just interested in it, and in me."

Now, with the one-meter title behind him, Henry starts looking toward Tuesday and the three-meter tests. "I'd really like to win that one," he said, "but it's an entirely different thing. Winning this gives me no advantage."

Naturally, the future for Henry would seem to point to the Olympics. There is no one-meter competition in the Olympics, but Henry has already qualified for the Olympic trials in the three-meter, and can now get down to work on this board's mastery.

"I think I have a good chance of making the team," he said. "I just hope I don't have to work as hard as I've had to work for this title."

About the Olympics? "Winning a medal would be the top for me," he said.

Henry, in winning, piled up 484.05 points, to outdistance Chuck Knorr of the Cincinnati Coca-Cola team. Knorr had 471.51. Third place went to Rick Gilbert, also of the Indiana Aquatic Club, who had 470.55.

Other divers making the semifinals were: Mike Finneran, Santa Clara Swim Club; Bruce McManaman, Ann Arbor, Michigan; Nick Carlton, Indiana Aquatic Club; and Sam Carmine, Bloomington, Indiana.

Competition in the three-meter diving will get underway at 10 a.m. Tuesday with the preliminaries, while the finals are scheduled for 2 p.m.

Mountaineers Open Their Bid For Final SC Baseball Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

West Virginia's defending champion Mountaineers launch their bid this week for their final Southern Conference baseball title.

The Mountaineers, who'll leave the circuit at the end of the academic year in June, have two league doubleheaders scheduled—at home against Virginia

Military Institute on Wednesday and at George Washington on Saturday.

In VMI, the Mountaineers will face the team that's won the only Northern Division game played so far. The Keydets took the lead in their section Saturday with a 5-4 victory over Richmond's Spiders.

East Carolina has won the only two conference games played in the Southern Division and the Pirates' lead won't be endangered this week. The only league scrap has The Citadel at Davidson on Wednesday.

The Pirates boosted their record to 2-0 inside the conference and to 9-1 over-all—with one tie—with a 6-5 decision Saturday over The Citadel in 13 innings. The Bulldogs may prove to be their toughest competitors.

but relief pitcher Bill Paulette struck out the last two batters to preserve the triumph.

A two-out single by Dennis Vick in the 13th inning sent Stu Larrett home with East Carolina's winning run against The Citadel. Four Pirate errors led to three unearned Bulldog runs, two in the ninth that tied the score.

Conference teams split even in three outside doubleheader. William and Mary beat Mercer 5-2, then lost 6-1; West Virginia turned back Slippery Rock 2-1, and was beaten 4-2; and Furman divided a twin bill with two teams, beating Pembroke 4-3 after losing to Georgia Southern 2-1.

Davidson dropped a 5-2 decision to Indiana, Pa.

Phillies, Dodgers Are Left Holding The Ball

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Philadelphia Phillies were caught in a rundown between Walter O'Malley and Warren Giles today as the Los Angeles Dodgers considered opening the 1968 baseball season all by themselves.

Los Angeles owner O'Malley was to decide today whether or not to go ahead with Tuesday night's scheduled home opener against Philadelphia—a game the Phillies have refused to play.

The Dodgers were left holding the ball Sunday when the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago White Sox pushed back their Tuesday openers one day, joining seven other major league clubs which had postponed opening home games in deference to the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Funeral services for the slain civil rights leader will be held Tuesday in Atlanta.

National League President Giles left it up to the Dodgers, as the home club, to decide whether to go through with their game.

John Quinn, the Phillies' general manager, said earlier his club would not take the field at Los Angeles Tuesday night, at the risk of a possible forfeit and fine—because of the King funeral that afternoon.

The other opening games in each league, including the presidential fixture at Washington, all were set for Wednesday.

President Johnson was expected to miss the Senators' debut against the Minnesota Twins—one of five afternoon openers in the American League. The White Sox entertain Cleveland, Boston's defending champions are at Detroit, the new Oakland Athletics at Baltimore and California at New York in other AL inaugurations.

The Chicago Cubs visit Cincinnati and the New York Mets are at San Francisco in National League afternoon games. Pittsburgh is at Houston and Atlanta at St. Louis under the lights.

While O'Malley and Bavasi pondered the possibility of opening the season without an opponent, LA Manager Walter Alston checked into an Inglewood, Calif., hospital Sunday for treatment of a kidney stone and the Dodgers whipped Cleveland 5-1 in the lone exhibition finale.

All the other exhibition games were canceled in line with the designation of Sunday as a day of mourning for Dr. King.

Speedway Record Set By Petty

HICKORY, N.C. (AP)—Richard Petty set a track record of 79.43 miles per hour Sunday as he won his third consecutive Grand National stock car race at Hickory Speedway.

The lead in the 100-mile, 250-lap race switched four times among Petty, in his 1968 Plymouth, second place David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., in a Ford Torino, and Bobby Isaac of Catawba, N.C., who finished third in a 1967 Dodge.

Petty moved into the lead for the final time on the 187th lap to clinch top money of $1,000.

Pearson had set a time trial record of 86.65 m.p.h.

Finishing fourth was Friday Hasler of Chattanooga, Tenn., in a 1966 Chevelle. Fifth was James Hylton of Inman, S.C., in a 1967 Dodge.

Belated Conclusion Today At GGO

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—A rarity on the professional golf tour, a 36-hole day, brings the twice-delayed $137,500 Greater Greensboro Open Tournament to a belated conclusion today.

Billy Casper, never out of the lead since play began last Thursday, held a two-stroke margin over Bobby Nichols with a 36-hole score of 132, one shot over the record for the tournament, and 10 under par.

Genel Littler and Don January were tied for third place at 135.

Today's endurance contest was set up when Sunday's scheduled two rounds were postponed because of the national day of mourning for the slain Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King.

Play previously was set back a day by the washout of Friday's second round. The double postponement delays the 250-mile trek to Augusta, Ga., and the Masters championship opening Thursday. Today's double-round grind also presents a physical problem for some players.

But Gary Player, the peppery little South African, relished the prospect. "We often play 36 holes a day in tournaments at home," he explained, adding, "I'm a physical fitness nut and I consider myself in real good shape."

He was in good shape, too, as far as the tournament standings were concerned. At 136 he was in fifth place, only four shots back of Casper.

Other half-way leaders in the chase for top money of $27,500 included:

137—Miller Barber and Al Geiberger.

138—Bert Yancey, Julius Boros, Dale Douglass and Chuck Courtney.

139—Tommy Aaron, Tom Weiskopf, Terry Dill, George Archer, Joe Campbell, and Mike Souchak.

Nine were tied at 140, including Arnold Palmer and Doug Sanders.

The Friday rainout after half the field had finished play was a stroke of good fortune for some, bad luck for others. Twenty-five players improved their scores when given a second chance Saturday after their Friday scores were canceled, 31 fared worse the second time around and eight had the same score each day.

People Gather All Over Nation To Honor Dr. King

By RAY KOHN
Associated Press Writer

Many thousands of Negroes and whites eulogized Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at church services, outdoor observances and quiet marches in cities and towns across the nation Sunday.

The national day of mourning, as proclaimed by President Johnson, was noted around the world, including words by Pope Paul VI in Rome and soldiers gathered for a solemn service in a steel hut at Da Nang, Vietnam.

At Memphis, Tenn., where King was felled last Thursday by a sniper's bullet, the peaceful march he had planned for today was to be headed by aides and possibly his widow.

Pope Paul, while celebrating Palm Sunday Mass in St. Peter's Basilica, said of King, an exponent of nonviolence, "We shall associate his memory with that of the tragic story of the Passion of Christ."

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant told some 2,500 persons at a memorial service in The Hague, the Netherlands: "I share the deep sense of shock with you."

Thousands of New Englanders took part in marches and services.

Boston University, where King earned his doctorate in theology, planned further memorial services for today and no classes Tuesday, when King will be buried in Atlanta.

Some 20,000 persons gathered in the Los Angeles Coliseum Sunday to do honor to the head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

New York City's Central Park was the scene of an interfaith memorial service, with some 12,000 Negroes and whites listening to eulogies by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Mayor John V. Lindsay, and civil rights leaders.

The Rev. Wyatt Walker, one of King's former aides, said, "In his memory today, take up the palm branch. We will open eyes blinded with hate and prejudice."

In strife-torn Washington, where looting and burning followed King's assassination, a special service was held at the Roman Catholic National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Bishop John Spence of the archdiocese of Washington, told about 3,000 persons that King was "a martyr, a man who died for the Christian precept of non-violence."

Bishop Spence urged Negroes to "cease your violence" and advised whites to work toward ending prejudice.

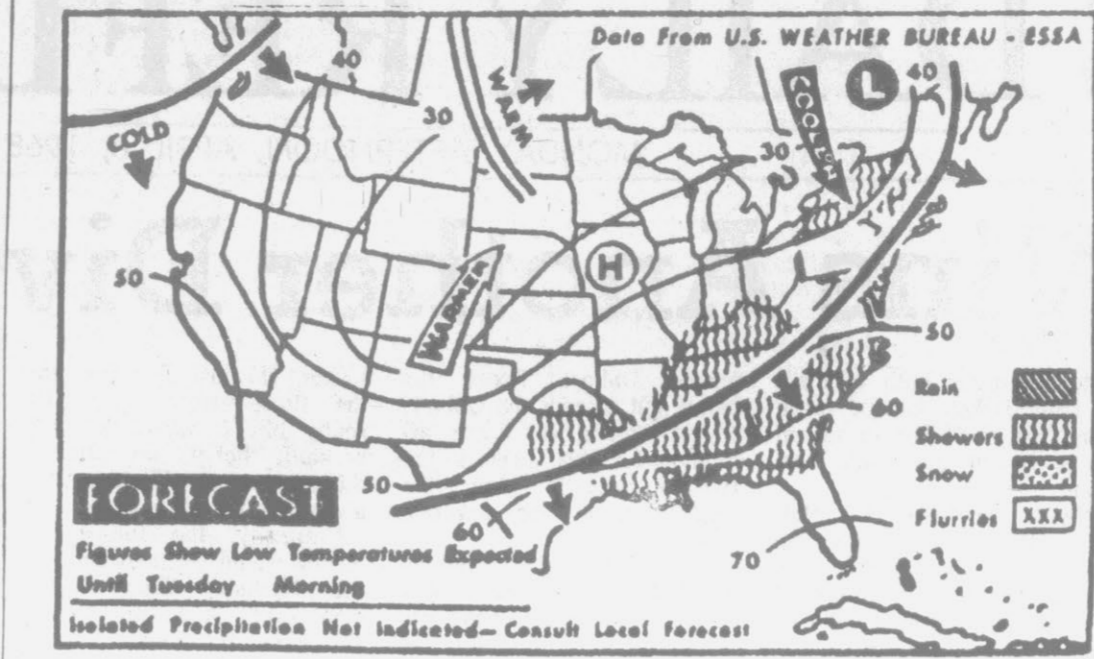

A spokesman for Coletta King, King's widow, said former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, visited her for about a half hour Sunday in Atlanta.

In Hollywood, Gregory Peck, president of the Motion Picture Academy's board of governors, said all four Negro entertainers who canceled Academy Award appearances because of King's death were expected to take part in the rescheduled ceremonies.

The Oscar presentations were postponed from tonight to Wednesday night.

The four who had withdrawn were Sidney Poitier, Sammy Davis Jr., Diahann Carroll and Louis Armstrong.

In sports, opening baseball games in both the National and American Leagues were postponed from Tuesday to Wednesday in deference to King's funeral. Play in the National Basketball Association playoffs resumes Wednesday night.

WEATHER FORECAST — Showers are forecast for Monday night in southern New England and in most of the South. Warmer temperatures are slated for the Great Plains. Cooler weather will move into the northeast part of the U. S. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Stage Set In Canada For Political Confrontation

OTTAWA (AP) — The Liberal party's choice of Pierre Elliott Trudeau as Canada's next prime minister has set the stage for a confrontation with the Conservative leader, Robert Stanfield, in a national election later this year.

It will be a test of strength between two new personalities who are expected to give Canadian politics its biggest shot in the arm since John Diefenbaker and Lester B. Pearson began their rivalry a decade ago.

Both Trudeau and Stanfield are newcomers to the national political scene and are anxious to seek a mandate from the public which will bring an end to minority government under which Pearson has ruled for the past five years.

Trudeau was elected Liberal leader Saturday night on the fourth ballot after a coalition of middle-of-the-road and right-wing rivals failed to head off the youth-supported Trudeau bandwagon.

As leader of the ruling party, the 46-year-old Quebec Trudeau becomes prime minister when Pearson retires two weeks from now at the age of 70.

It was generally believed that Trudeau's policies will follow those of Pearson. He told a news conference, however, that there should be a thorough re-assessment of Canada's foreign policy with a boost in foreign aid expenditures.

Stanfield, former premier of Nova Scotia, was chosen conservative leader last September in a contest which saw Diefenbaker defeated along with other well-known conservatives.

Easter Holidays Begin At ECU

East Carolina University closed at 11 a.m. today for the Easter holidays.

President Leo W. Jenkins directed the early beginning for the holiday "in view of the fact that many of our students want to be with their families in this time of unrest and uncertainty."

The holiday had been scheduled to begin late Tuesday and continue through Easter Monday. Classes will resume next Tuesday, April 16, as previously scheduled.

Dr. Jenkins said officials of the university were particularly concerned about ECU students from cities such as Raleigh, Greensboro and Washington, D. C.

He said, "Under these conditions we realize that students cannot possibly be expected to give their best efforts to their studies and that we are best advised to allow them to be with their families."

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss . . . and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment for both men and women, that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation. Adv.

Alcohol Discussion At Rose High PTA

A panel discussion on "How Alcohol and Its Related Problems Affect the Community" was presented at the J. H. Rose High School PTA meeting Thursday night.

The panel was composed of Mrs. Helen Barrett, director of the Pitt County Alcohol Information and Service Center; Mrs. David Sencindiver, educator of the Alcohol Center; and Dr. Malene Irons, a member of the board of the Alcohol Center; and Henry Van Sant, moderator.

The PTA voted that $53.66 be given to the Ways and Means Committee to be used for the needs of the school.

Mrs. M. P. Bailey, president, announced that the State PTA convention will be held in Greensboro April 30-May 2 at the Statler Hilton Inn. Mrs. Bailey announced that the Regional Foreign Language Conference will be held at East Carolina University April 22.

Rose High Principal Ed Warren recognized three new teachers who joined the faculty last month. He thanked Mrs. Bailey and the other outgoing officers of the PTA for the fine job they have done this year.

Refreshments were served by the Hospitality Committee which is headed by Mrs. Charles Horne Jr.

The invocation was given by Les Garner Jr.

Racer Jim Clark Killed In Wreck

HOCKENHEIM, Germany (AP) — The auto racing world paid tribute today to Jim Clark, who was killed in a crash Sunday.

The 32-year-old Scot, winner of the Indianapolis 500 in 1965 and twice world driving champion, met death in the rain at the Hockenheim Motodrom when his Lotus Ford Cosworth skidded on wet asphalt.

His car, speeding along at 174 miles per hour, tore through a fence and hit a tree after turning over several times. Doctors at the nearby Heidelberg Hospital, where he was pronounced dead, said he had been killed instantly from a broken neck and a compound fracture of the skull.

A bachelor, Clark won a record 25 Grand Prix races and was the world champion in 1963 and 1965. Three of his Grand Prix victories came in the U.S. Grand Prix at Watkins Glen, N.Y., the last one in 1967. He set a record by winning seven Grand Prix races in a row in 1963.

"Jim Clark may well have been the greatest driver of all time," said Wilfred Andrews, chairman of the Royal Automobile Club in London.

"Clark was unquestionably the greatest racing driver in the world," said Andy Granatelli in Indianapolis. Granatelli is president of the company which sponsored Clark's Lotus cars in 1966 and 1967 and for whom Clark was to have driven in the Indy 500 this year.

Clark's body will be flown to Edinburg, Scotland, where the funeral will be held Wednesday.

The Volkswagen for people who refuse to drive Volkswagens.

If you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because it's ugly, we can't help you. If you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because you have eight kids and it isn't big enough, you have our sympathy. If you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because it isn't fancy enough, that's for you to decide. But if you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because you're used to an automatic transmission, listen carefully. Now you can drive a Volkswagen all over town without shifting.

We call this new option the automatic stick shift. And in true Volkswagen fashion, a bug with an automatic stick shift will deliver up to 25 miles on a gallon of gas, use very little oil, and nary a drop of water or antifreeze. But just because we've made it easy to drive, doesn't mean we're about to make it any prettier, or any bigger, or any fancier. So we imagine some people will still refuse to drive Volkswagens. You can't win them all.

Triumph Is Central Theme For Spring Festivals

EDITORS' NOTE — Both the Jewish holidays and the Christian holidays in the spring have a similar central theme—triumph. This is the first in a series of five articles about the Judeo-Christian festivals held at this time of year, in which nature, too, gives new life and renewed life.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

Golden threads embroider the air. The earth breathes a fresh incense, and under the sun, the roots stir, the sap flows again and buds burst on the branches of the great elms.

It is the childhood of the year, the season of the robin's singing, of meadows turning green, of life renewed. It's the happy time of people's faith.

And joyfully, they celebrate it, in temples, churches and homes.

It brings a brightness—a longer, better view—in a time of trials, of Vietnam war, of poverty amid plenty, of interracial stresses. It says that through it all, there's cause for cheer and confidence.

The sentiment sounds in the Song of Solomon:

"For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land."

Out of the winter's night stretches the warming dawn. An April glow surmounts the gloom. On the heels of the storm comes sweet serenity. Against a background of hardship, and in a world of trouble, suddenly, it's spring.

That's the heart-lifting chord of the period's sacred festivals. "Weeping may tarry for the night," wrote the Psalmist, "but joy comes in the morning."

For the closely connected Judeo-Christian heritage, the most widespread of the world's religions, the largest in numbers and the oldest in origin, the springtime holy days share that central theme of triumph.

It runs, buoyantly, through the beginning observance of the season's religious calendar, Judaism's merry day of Purim, which recalls the fending of a plot to destroy the Jews of the ancient Persian empire.

The event turned "sorrow into gladness," relates the scriptural book of Esther, which directs that it be marked annually by "feasting and gladness," by "sending choice portions to one another and gifts to the poor."

So it is. "Thou hast ever been Israel's salvation, and its hope in every generation, to make known that all who hope in Thee shall not be confounded. . . ."

goes a Purim meditation. An even stronger note of marveling trust and victory over travail pervades the celebration of the greater feast of the Passover, commemorating the deliverance of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt.

"I will sing to the Lord, for He has triumphed gloriously," goes a hymn for the occasion, from Exodus 15. "The horse and his rider He has thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and my song and he has become my salvation."

In connection with that occasion, and also characterized by rejoicing at deliverance and the championing of life over persecution and death is Christianity's Easter celebration of the resurrection of Christ.

He is their "passover," as the New Testament describes Him, from mortal bondage to an eternal promised land.

"We have passed out of death into life. . . ." wrote St. John. "This is the victory that overcomes the world."

Seven weeks later come two other parallel holidays — the Jewish "Shavuoth," commemorating God's giving of the 10 Commandments on Mount Sinai, and the Christian "Pentecost," marking the divine outpouring into men of the divine spirit of love, insight and mutual understanding.

Both events, interlinked by occasion and meaning, memorialize the bestowal of Godly guidance among men — the great commandments and an inner awareness.

"Arise, shine, for your light has come," wrote the Prophet Isaiah. "And the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. . . . Lift up your eyes round about and see."

These, then, are the major Jewish-Christian festivals of spring, their dates varying annually, often diverging from original concurrence because of differences in the church's calendar and the ancient Hebrew calendar, and falling this year as follows:

Purim, on the 14th day of Adar (February-March) in the old Jewish calendar, came on Passover, beginning on the 15th day of Nisan (March-April), occurs this year on Friday, April 12, and lasts until Saturday, April 20.

Easter Sunday, on April 14 in western churches, on April 21 in eastern Orthodox churches. Shavuoth, on the 6th day of Sivan (May-June), comes on June 2-3.

Pentecost, on June 2. The earliest of the sequence, Purim, which has already been observed, is the gayest and merriest of Jewish festivals — a sort of carnival of joy and frivolity.

The highlight is a morning synagogue service, with the reading of the book of Esther, recounting how she, as the Jewish wife of King Ahasuerus (Xerxes) of ancient Persia, upset a plot by the king's vizier, Haman, to exterminate Jews.

Instead, the despot Haman was hanged, and Esther's adoptive father, the Jew Mordecai, who had refused to bow before Haman, was elevated to a place of honor.

In the synagogue reading of the Biblical account, when the name, Haman, is mentioned, a noisy tumult breaks out as children ring their noisemakers, and the elders stamp their feet. The commotion depicts the beating out of the name of the tyrant, who had threatened the massacre of Jews, and who had set the day for it by drawing lots (pur)—which gives the name to the holiday.

Through all these principal religious jubilees of spring runs that keynote of new hope, of joy and an ordeal overcome, of thanksgiving at a wrong righted, of continuing cause for confidence.

"Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth!" urges the Psalmist. "Raise a song, sound the timbrel. . . . Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day." (Next: Passover.)

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford sees at least a 50-50 chance that George C. Wallace' candidacy could throw November's presidential election into the House of Representatives.

Ford, interviewed Sunday on ABC's "Issues and Answers," said there is a distinct probability Wallace could get enough electoral votes to prevent a majority of 270 for either of the major party candidates.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, joined by a crowd of some 50 persons, picked his way through smouldering rubble and broken glass Sunday in a violence-torn section of Washington.

At one point a squad of federal troops pulled on gas masks and lined up across a street when they saw the approaching crowd but a squad card asked ahead to tell them who was coming.

"If any good comes out of the events of the last several days," the New York Democrat told black parishioners in a church before the tour, "it's that we have learned a lesson we should have learned a long time ago: the need for justice toward our fellow human beings."

"Violence," he said, "must end."

The Worry Clinic Practical Psychology Needed By Everyone

Nellie's case shows the vital need to offer high school students a good course in "Applied Psychology." For teenagers learn the rules of baseball and are even taught how to drive a car, yet are shovelled into social, martial and parental roles with almost no preparation whatsoever! Pity their kiddies, like Nellie!

By GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph. D., M. D.

CASE F-537: Nellie D., aged 4, is a problem case.

are now quarreling much of the time.

"Would it be possible to ship Nellie away to some home for incorrigible children? I threaten her that I am going to do that."

That last comment by Nellie's mother shows how disturbed and ignorant she really is of child psychology.

And it brings out the need for a good course in "Applied Psychology" at every high school!

For most of our girls never go on to college, though they will marry and face child-rearing problems.

Our teen-agers know that baseball and other sports must be played precisely according to definite rules.

But they graduate, marry and then have babies, yet they have not been taught the specific rules for the parent-child game!

Nellie's case is duplicated world-wide, for mankind spends billions to land a man on the moon, yet fails to teach high schoolers how to avoid the everyday practical problems down here on this planet Earth.

Nellie is the middle child, so she misses the spotlight turned on her older sister and also envies the extra attention that her baby sister obtains.

Deflated in her own ego, she thus feels a terrific need to bolster her vanity and rate tops on the family totem pole.

If we human beings can't pull ourselves upward by our own bootstraps, as it were, the next common device that we hit upon is to belittle our associates.

"I hate you, I hate you," is merely Nellie's attempt to reduce her mother to a lower status than Nellie enjoys.

Boy bullies in school also are often bedwetters whose family have "covered up" for them.

But they know they are still addicted to the baby habit of enuresis.

This rankles and goads them into picking on other kiddies till the latter sheds tears in public.

Then the bullies feel happier, for their companions have publicly advertised, via their tears, that they are more babyish.

"At least I don't cry in public," is the thought by which the bully thus salves his vanity and preens his wounded ego.

Nellie's mother admits that Nellie wants the toys of her older and younger sister and rejects her own playthings.

Which shows she is trying to identify herself with those more "spotlighted" sisters in her craving for attention.

Her return to bedwetting is another evidence of such identification.

So send for my 200-pc "Test for Good Parents," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents and learn the rules of the parent-child game!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Five Former Nazis Sentenced

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—A Hamburg court sentenced five members of a former Nazi police battalion today to prison terms ranging up to eight years for aiding in the murder of 25,000 Polish Jews during 1942-43.

Six other defendants were found guilty of aiding in the killings but were not sentenced because they were subordinates acting under orders.

Eight-year prison terms were given to two former police chief commissioners, Wolfgang Hoffmann, 51, and Julius Wohlauf, 55, and to a 58-year-old salesman, Kurt Dreyer. Former police commissioner Anton Becker, 58, was sentenced to six years and a sign painter, Heinrich Becker, 53, got five years.

They were charged with aiding in the murder of Jews in the Lublin district of Poland. After a five-month trial, the court found Hoffmann guilty in 1,810 cases, Wohlauf in 9,200, Dreyer in 1,907, Anton Becker in 1,807 and Heinrich Becker in 1,828.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠ A 6 ♥ 7 4 3 ♦ Q J 10 6 5 ♣ K 4
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♦ 1 ♠
3 ♦ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. The cue bid will serve a double purpose. It will enable partner to stop at three no trump if that is the limit of his ambitions, or it may induce him to try for slam if his hand is so suited. You will be pleased to cooperate inasmuch as you have the equivalent of an opening bid now that the king of clubs has been promoted.

Q. 2—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ J 6 4 ♦ Q 10 9 6 4 ♣ A K 9 5 3
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♦ Pass ?

What is your response?
A.—Three clubs. This hand offers distinct slam possibilities dependent on partner's holding in spades. The jump shift, therefore, is clearly indicated. This is the strongest possible passed hand partner could expect and surely you will settle for no less than game in diamonds.

Q. 3—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ A J ♥ Q 4 ♦ Q J 8 6 3 ♣ Q 9 7 5
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♦ 3 ♠
2 ♣ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Four clubs. A mere return to three clubs would be grossly inadequate. Partner has shown a hand of reasonably good proportions and your hand has the strength of an opening bid.

Q. 4—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠ J 10 7 3 ♥ 8 2 ♦ Q 8 3 ♣ A K 10 9 2
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♦ 1 NT
Pass Pass Dbl. Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. This is a rather light holding with which to leave the double in, but we can't be sure

Q. 5—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ 6 5 ♥ K Q J 6 3 ♦ A 9 8 2 ♣ A Q
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
Dbl. Pass 2 NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three diamonds. Your hand is slightly unbalanced and you should make some effort to play at a suit contract. If partner takes you back to three hearts bid four. If his call is three no trump, pass.

Q. 6—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ 9 ♥ 10 4 ♦ K Q 10 8 6 3 ♣ K 6 4 3
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass
2 ♣ Pass ?

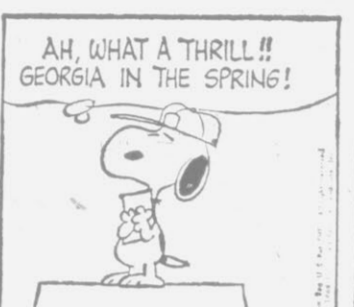

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. No thought should be given to bidding three diamonds. Partner has indicated a probable six-card suit since he did not use no trump and failed to show another suit on his rebid. Furthermore, he might easily have a singleton diamond.

Q. 7—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠ Q 9 7 3 ♥ K 10 5 ♣ A K J 10 2
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass
3 ♠ Pass 4 ♥ Pass
5 ♣ Pass 5 ♦ Dbl. Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Seven spades. This should be a pretty safe investment. East's double of five diamonds indicates that little of partner's values are in that suit. The spades are solid and either your heart holding solidifies partner's or your clubs can be set up for discards.

Q. 8—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ K 9 6 5 ♥ Q J 10 9 3 ♦ Q 4 3 2
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
2 ♣ Dbl. Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. If partner had wanted to leave from you he would have doubled one club. This is strictly a business double and you have no reason to run.

10,000 Flee Violent Sectors

HONG KONG (AP) — More than 10,000 persons have fled from the counties of Hai Fung and Lu Fung in Red China's Kwangtung Province, in the past six months, arrivals from Canton reported today.

The travelers said rival Red Guard gangs clash almost daily in these two counties.

RALEIGH (AP)—(NCDA)—North Carolina hog markets today were mostly steady with instances of 25 cents lower. Tops of 18.00 - 18.50 Rocky Mount; Bethel, Tarboro; 18.00 Selma; 17.75-18.50 Wilson; 17.25 - 18.25 Clinton, Fayetteville, Dunn, Elizabethtown, Pink Hill, Pine Level, Chadbourne; 17.50 Siler City, Denton.

RALEIGH (AP)—(NCDA)—The North Carolina poultry market today was steady. Price of live poultry at the farms was 13-13½, mostly 13 cents per pound.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market posted a solid gain in moderate trading today as it remained cool after the weekend of racial violence. Gains outnumbered losses by well over 8 to 5.

Some of the high-flying glamour stocks advanced several points. Stocks of insurance companies moved generally higher after a mixed opening. Reports that damages from the rioting may not be as heavy as some feared helped to reassure holders of the insurance company issues.

The rise also reflected confirmation by the United States of meeting in Laos with Hanoi diplomats Wednesday.

Airlines continued their rally of last week. Motors and rubbers were higher.

The Dow Jones industrial average advanced 10.00 to 875.81 at noon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 3.0 at 313.8 with industrials up 5.5.

More Looting For Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Looting which had slowed down during darkness flared up during the daylight hours in Negro neighborhoods today despite beefing up of local and State Police by U.S. Army troops.

By 7 a.m., there were 233 more arrests since midnight, nine fires and one more death, raising the total since violence erupted Saturday night to five.

The total number of arrests soared to 1,620 and fires to about 430. There were more than 300 injured.

The fifth death was that of James Harrison, 47. Police said he was fatally shot by a policeman after throwing bricks at the policeman and starting for him with a knife. Officers said the man had just taken part in the looting of a liquor store.

The total number of arrests soared to 1,620 and fires to about 430. There were more than 300 injured.

A company of soldiers with bayonets fixed to their rifles surrounded one intersection where a crowd estimated at 300, mostly youths, was throwing stones and bricks at passing cars.

Fires as well as looting continued to break out during the daylight hours. At 11 a.m., fire headquarters said several buildings in one block alone were burning. Not far away, a three-story warehouse was in flames.

At 11:30 a.m. Monday, Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro III of Baltimore proclaimed that a curfew would be reimposed starting at 4 p.m. until 7 a.m. Tues-

Memorial Rites Slated Tuesday

Memorial services for Dr. Martin Luther King will be held Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at the York Memorial AME Zion Church, Albemarle Ave.

The official members of the Pitt County Unit of the Southern Leadership Conference, according to the organization's vice president George Garrett, will have a silent Easter in memory of Dr. King, national president of SCLC.

were called to prevent possible disorder, but no incidents were reported.

Mayor S. Eugene West met with city councilmen at mid-afternoon and decided to invoke the curfew ordinance passed just last Thursday.

The governing body approved the curfew after hearing an Army intelligence agent, monitoring conditions in several Eastern North Carolina cities and towns for the Army and the North Carolina National Guard, tell officials that serious incidents in Greenville had been prevented Saturday night by the quick and decisive action by local police officials in responding to the various areas of possible trouble.

He said a curfew would aid lawmen in preventing trouble after reporting that the situation in Greenville was possibly less confused than in any town in Eastern North Carolina.

After approving the curfew, Mayor West and the council requested National Guard assistance in enforcing the 7 p.m. to 6 a.m. regulation, but their request was turned down by Gov. Dan Moore.

The invoking of the curfew and the request for National Guard assistance, according to the mayor, was an attempt to prevent more serious trouble from erupting last night.

Only a handful of incidents occurred Sunday night.

Two false alarms were received from Box 136 at the Colonial Avenue and Ford Street intersection, one at 7:35 p.m. and one at 9:10 p.m.

In addition, police said one fire-bombing incident occurred.

Firemen were called to the G and W Boat factory on Albemarle Avenue at 7:15 and extinguished a small blaze at the side of the building.

Police said a Molotov cocktail had been thrown against a window of the building, but did not go through into the factory.

Fire officers reported light damage resulted to the window.

In addition to the fire calls, five Negroes were arrested for violating the curfew law.

The wave of fire bombings, window smashings and looting broke out Friday night following the Memphis assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. But it was not until Sunday that the National Guard and state troopers were moved into the Hill District to reinforce Pittsburgh police.

Both Craig and Lt. Col. Joseph Dussia, deputy commissioner of state police, pointed out that there had been relative calm in the predawn hours today.

Craig said the violence followed a "pattern of individually inclined hoodlums." He said there was no indication of prodding by agitators or outside organizations.

The offices of Dr. Andrew A. Best, local physician, will close at 12 noon Tuesday.

Dr. Best said his office will be closed Tuesday afternoon out of respect for Dr. Martin Luther King.

Dr. King's funeral is scheduled for Tuesday in Atlanta, Ga.

Fiscal Overtones Cited In Health Center Fields

CHAPEL HILL—The relation between a university and its medical school has "enormous fiscal overtones" which represent "a built-in area for potential misunderstandings," the chairman of the North Carolina Board of Higher Education said here.

Speaking as a member of a 12-member panel at the annual meeting of the University of North Carolina Medical Alumni Association, Watts Hill Jr. of Chapel Hill said that the size and complexity of a medical center makes it difficult to understand.

He referred to the UNC Health Center as the third largest state-supported institution, outranked only by UNC at Chapel Hill and N. C. State University at Raleigh.

Hill said the budget requests for East Carolina University in Greenville, with almost 13,000 students, total two-thirds the budget requests of the UNC Health Center alone.

Hill and Senator Thomas White Jr. of Kinston were the only laymen on the panel. White limited his remarks primarily to the state budgeting procedures for the UNC Health Center.

He urged that the university and the medical school keep a common goal in sight. "When there are divergent views," he said, "it's easy to lose sight of the goal." White added, "we need to keep our eyes on what is best for the university and its medical school."

Dr. William Danforth, vice chancellor for medical affairs at Washington University, pointed to the mutual dependence existing between universities and medical schools.

He suggested two reasons why the academic ties between universities and medical schools should be encouraged and strengthened today.

"Medical schools have an increasing intellectual dependence on universities," he said. "Medical schools need university support in maintaining an academic atmosphere."

Dr. Danforth continued, "I believe that universities without medical schools will operate in the future under a handicap."

Dr. Danforth predicted that the education and health industries may become the two largest industries in the United States by 1970.

Dr. Louis G. Welt, chairman of the Department of Medicine at UNC, said the university must expand far beyond its current geography and make the community an organic part of its campus. This university (UNC) has demonstrated that it can play a vital educational role throughout the state."

Memphis March Is Shaping Up

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Thousands assembled today for a silent march which Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. intended to lead, as negotiators failed in a marathon effort to end the city garbage strike before the demonstration began.

King, assassinated here Thursday, had come to Memphis to aid the strikers.

Representatives of the city and the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees huddled for 18 hours with Undersecretary of Labor James Reynolds, sent here Saturday by President Johnson to mediate the dispute.

The session began at 10 a.m. Sunday and continued early today, with only a short lunch break. Mayor Henry Loeb joined the talks about 2 a.m.

However, the negotiators—with representatives of both sides shaking their heads silently—filed out of the hotel where the mediation was in progress at 6 a.m.

Caught Juvenile Inside Building

Patrolling deputies discovered a break-in near Winterville early Sunday morning and took into custody a juvenile found in the building.

Sheriff Ralph Tyson said the break-in was found at Wayside Grill north of Winterville. The grill is owned by Denny Lee Hardee of Box 81, Winterville.

The deputies found the break-in at 1:45 a.m. Hardy was called and upon entering the building the officers found the 15-year-old juvenile. He was turned over to welfare officials.

The officers said the youngster had about $2 in merchandise in his possession. Damage to the building was estimated at $50.

Greene Stickley Manager Named

The Individual Hoodlum Cited

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Authorities said today they believe three days of arson and looting in Pittsburgh's Hill District has been brought under control, but 3,000 National Guardsmen and 1,000 city and state police remained on duty in the Negro neighborhood.

"I would say the situation is under control," said City Safety Director David W. Craig at a news conference held at dawn. "But as to its permanency, I will have to make a decision on that later in the day."

The wave of fire bombings, window smashings and looting broke out Friday night following the Memphis assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. But it was not until Sunday that the National Guard and state troopers were moved into the Hill District to reinforce Pittsburgh police.
