McCarthy Upsets Kennedy In Oregon Primary

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy has scored an Oregon upset to refuel his campaign for the White House, and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has conceded defeat in a Democratic presidential primary he once said he could not afford to lose.

The Democratic rivals turned today to California where they do primary battle again next Tuesday—and where the Oregon surprise is likely to echo.

Richard M. Nixon scored a 73 per cent runaway on the Republican ballot, and said that showing virtually eliminated the possibility that his drive for the GOP presidential nomination could be derailed.

The derailing was done on the Democratic side, where McCarthy was capturing 45 per cent of the vote to Kennedy's 39 per cent.

McCarthy said that should silence people who question his credentials as a real contender for the nomination, and have asked whether he will wind up supporting Kennedy or Vice President Hubert Humphrey

Humphrey was an absent beneficiary of Kennedy's Oregon setback, even though he never set a campaigning foot in the state.

Kennedy argued across Oregon that Humphrey is his real rival for the nomination. The vice president came to the race too late to enter the primaries, but he has been criss-crossing the nation, working to line up convention delegate support. The Oregon outcome is likely to make that quest easier.

Humphrey was receiving 5 per cent of the Oregon vote on write-in ballots. President Johnson was on the ballot, although he has spurned renomination, and got 13 per cent.

Administration loyalists, marshaled by organized labor, promoted Johnson votes in a campaign they hoped would benefit Humphrey.

The Democratic decision awarded McCarthy 35 nominating votes, while Nixon captured 18 GOP delegates. The primary binds them for two ballots, until released, or until the winners fail to secure 35 per cent of the convention vote.

The Oregon count was proceeding slowly as votes were tallied on a crowded ballot bigger than a newspaper page. This was the Democratic lineup with 1,787 of 2,599 precincts counted:

McCarthy 118,567 votes for 45 per cent; Kennedy 102,984 for 39 per cent; Johnson 33,339 for 13 per cent, Humphrey 10,477 for 4 per cent, on write-in votes.

Nixon's overwhelming vote read, with 2,181 precincts counted:

Nixon 152,353 for 73 per cent; California Gov. Ronald Reagan 47,168 for 22 per cent; New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller 10,098 write-in votes for 5 per cent.

In another Democratic race, Sen. Wayne Morse was locked in a tight race for renomination with Robert B. Duncan, a former House member. Morse had 130,867 votes for 48 per cent of the total, Duncan had 129,463 for 47 per cent.

Nixon scored his Republican victory in tht face of the most vigorous rivalry he has encountered since Michigan Gov. George Romney dropped his candidacy.

Neither Reagan nor Rockefeller entered the state, and the New Yorker's name was not on the ballot. But well-financed drives, concentrating on television and voter canvasses, were waged for both absentees.

Scholarships Go To More Than A Score At Eppes

By BLANCHE HARDEE
Reflector Staff Writer

The annual Eppes High School Awards Day program yesterday was dominated by senior Henry Hunter who was named recipient of 13 scholarships that combined a total of more than $32,000 annually for four years of college.

In addition to Hunter, more than a score of other Eppes High students received scholarship grants at the program, designed to honor outstanding students at the school.

Hunter, who along with George Gorham, was a nominee for a John Motley Morehead Scholarship, received a $3,350 per year grant from both Princeton University and the University of Chicago, and grants of $3,200 per year from both Williams College of Massachusetts and Vanderbilt University.

Other grants made at the Awards Day program to Hunter included: $3,050 per year from Yale University; $3,000 per year from Harvard University; $2,800 per year from Duke Uniersity; $1 150 per year from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; $1,100 per year from A and T State University as a Presidential scholar; $2,580 per year from the University of Denver; $1,350 per year from East Carolina University; and a $2,700 per year Robert E. Lee Scholarship from Washington and Lee University.

Other awards won for Hunter included the State Bank and Trust Company award of $50; the Lonnie C. Barnhill Award; three art contest first prize awards (North Carolina Joint Council on Health and Citizenship) for a total of $30; the Alpha Phi Alpha Scholarship, $100; and the North Carolina Joint Council on Health and Citizenship scholarship for placing first in the 1966 Health Achievement Day activities, $200.

Hunter during his high school career, has been president of the Loan Rates

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government loan rates by grades for this year's crop of flue-cured tobacco were announced today by the Agriculture Department.

The rates range from 31 cents to 87 cents a pound for untied leaf, with 3 cents added to each grade if tied. The rates reflect an average support of 61.6 cents a pound, about 3 per cent above 1967, the department said.

Growers who comply with acreage allotments may sell their tobacco at auction markets and receive price support payments through the Flue-Cured Tobacco Cooperative Stabilization Corp.

As in the past, the department said, no price support will be offered on any tobacco graded N2, NO-G, U, W, or scrap. Marketing of these grades will be charged against the quotas for farms producing them.

Confesses His Confession 'Hoax'

MAIDSTONE, England (AP) — Ralph Forbes was freed from Maidstone Jail today after confessing that his confession was a hoax.

Forbes, 38, convinced the appeal court in London Tuesday that he wasn't a big-time criminal, he just wanted people to think he was.

Forbes had served 18 months of a three-year sentence after pleading guilty to three charges of burglary and telling the judge he had committed 143 more criminal offenses. While in prison he decided to come clean.

Forbes' lawyer told the appeal court: "He says he h been classed as feeble-minded in the past. He thought that if he pleaded guilty to one or two trivial offenses he would be sent to an institution.

Hamlet Voters OK Bond Issue

HAMLET, N.C. (AP) — Citizens of Hamlet voted Tuesday 567 to 214 to issue $1.5 million in bonds to purchase the Hamlet Water Co. which supplies water to residents.

The city has an option to buy the company for $850,000. The remainder of the bond money would be used for improvements. No date has been set for the purchase.

Industrial Plant Set For Near Williamston

WILLIAMSTON — Jefferson Mills has announced that they will build a large yard processing industrial complex near Williamston. Construction is expected to start in June.

Approximately 300 employees from the Williamston area will be hired within a year, according to company officials.

Jefferson Mills is the operating division of Kahn and Feldman, Inc. President of the corporation, Gerald N. Frank, said, "We look forward with great anticipation to becoming a part of the Martin County and Williamston community. It is our sincere hope that the people there and Jefferson Mills will have a long, happy, and prosperous relationship."

General manager for Jefferson Mills Earl Hill added, "The cooperation and consideration exhibited by those with whom we have been in contact, leads us to believe that this is the one best location for our expansion. It is Jefferson Mills' intent to be another good citizen of the Williamston area and we are eager to become a part of the community life there."

Both Frank and Hill singled out the Martin County Economic Development Commission, Williamston town officials and the Martin County Board of Commissioners for praise.

The building itself will ultimately contain 250,000 square feet, and will be fully air-conditioned except for the warehouse facilities.

The industry originally processed raw silk but during World War II, rayon yarn replaced silk. After the war, synthetic fibers, primarily nylon, became the main product of the company.

The site for the plant is approximately one and a quarter miles west of Williamston on highway N.C. 125. Almost 50 acres have been purchased to cover the needs for buildings and parking space for employees, and posible additions.

Sighted North Of Oil Slick's Locale

'Orange Object' A Scorpion Clue?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy today reported the sighting of an unidentified orange object north of an Atlantic oil slick which has thus far been the only clue as to the possible whereabouts of the missing submarine Scorpion and its crew of 99.

Whether this object—spotted early Tuesday somewhat north of the oil slick area—may have been a messenger buoy from the nuclear powered sub was a matter of speculation.

Capt. John F. Davis, who is monitoring the search effort from the Pentagon, said he thought some buoys are orange but he added: "The Navy isn't supposing anything."

The oil slick has not been located, nor has it been linked to the Scorpion. Its location was noted May 23 by a passing vessel two days after the Scorpion sent what turned out to be its final routine message from the Azores.

The oil slick was sighted about 800 miles west of the Azores.

Davis labeled the orange object as a "solitary sighting unconfirmed."

He said a sailor aboard the USS Hyades saw the object about 6:15 a.m. EDT Tuesday but an aircraft overhead was unable to make the same sighting.

The Hyades, a Navy refrigerator ship which was not then part of the search, has been ordered to remain in that area pending the arrival of other search vessels.

At the same time it was announced that the entire stretch of what would have been the Scorpion's expected course home to Norfolk, Va., has been covered by air without success and will be scoured again.

Thirty flights covering a 50-mile wide swath were ordered today.

The search effort has expanded to include more than 50 ships and 30 planes. Three planes are Coast Guard transports, the others are long-endurance antisubmarine warfare patrol planes.

The first vanguard of ships will complete their sweep along the Scorpion's transit lant today, Davis said. Then a decision will be made as to how the search will be conducted further.

So far the round-the-clock search has produced not a single reliable clue to the whereabouts of the missing Scorpion.

"We had hoped something would show by Tuesday morning, the day after she was reported overdue," one Navy officer said.

Capt. Walter N. Dietzen Jr., a submarine warfare expert, told newsmen the Scorpion—whether disabled on the surface or at some survivable depth—should have been able to communicate by Tuesday.

Richard Fryklund, a top Pentagon spokesman, said the search will "keep going as long as there is hope" of a successful outcome.

Naval officers tended to discount the significance of an oil slick sighted by a passing naval vessel two days after the Scorpion made her last radio contact with shore on May 21.

The oil spot on the ocean surface was sighted about 800 miles west of the Scorpion's last reported position, south of the Azores.

Navy officials said they understood there was no debris along with the slick. Debris might have indicated a sub had broken apart below.

Demonstrators Call On DeGaulle To Resign Office

PARIS (AP)—Demonstrators shouted at the Place de la Bastille today for the resignation of President Charles de Gaulle. Beset by the gravest unrest of his career since World War II, De Gaulle had left Paris for an unexplained overnight stay at his home in eastern France.

The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor organized a march from the historic Place de la Bastille to the St. Lazare railway station to demonstrate against the government and against proposals advanced to end the strike wave now in its 13th day.

Several thousand persons took part.

Some in the throng carried banners called for a "popular government" and abrogation of government decrees cutting benefits of the national social security program. This is one of the main workers' demands, unsatisfied in the proposed strike settlement.

Shouts of "De Gaulle resign" came up from the crowd.

Meanwhile, the National Students Union issued a statement saying: "The Gaullist regime must be overthrown and the power must be given to manual workers and intellectuals."

France's worst postwar crisis mounted as the general strike continued to spread. And banned student agitator "Danny the Red" Cohn-Bendit dyed his hair black to slip back into France, further embarrassing the government.

The Confederation of Labor demands 12 per cent pay raises. It called a government and industry offer "notoriously insufficient." The offer included 10 per cent pay raises and reduction of the 46-47-hour work week to 40.

New walkouts came at France's major nuclear plant, Pierrelatte, and at the French news agency, Agence France Press. The strike at the nuclear plant may delay the test of France's first hydrogen bomb, scheduled to be held in the Pacific this summer.

Snow Hill Man Joins B-17 Crew's Reunion

NEW YORK — James H. Hardy, 44, of Snow Hill, participated today in the Memorial Day eve transatlantic dedication of a monument atop an English hill, honoring U.S. airmen who died in World War II. Hardy is one of the seven survivors of B-17 No. 44-6504 which crashed Dec. 16, 1944 during a blizzard at the site of the memorial. Hardy was co-pilot of the B-17.

The ceremonies were part of a reunion of the seven survivors of the crash which occurred when the men were returning from an aborted bombing run to Ulm, Germany at the start of the Battle of the Bulge.

The wreckage of the plane had lain buried for 23 years near Braydon Brags on the West Hill of the Cheviot in Northumberland, England. A boys' club in Alnwick, the Reivers, unearthed the wreckage and two basic switches this past summer which led to the memorial and the reunion of the survivors.

Early in August 1967, the switches arrived at Micro Switch, a division of Honeywell in Freeport, Ill., from the boys. They had sent the switches to America after reading the manufacturer's identification.

Correspondence by Honeywell with the boys' leader, W. R. Dunn, also unearthed the story of the crash and the heroic rescue of survivors by the hills people. Dunn announced to the company that

Rountree Elected To Advisory Board Of Salvation Army

Horton Rountree was elected to serve a one-year term on the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army at the board's meeting Tuesday.

Roundtree is a Greenville attorney and Pitt County Representative to the North Carolina House of Representatives .

The May welfare report, given by Corey Stokes, showed a total of 3,400 garments and 21 pairs of shoes were given to needy persons.

Stokes reproted that 82 applications for help were received. Nine applicants were given food orders, while rent was pail for three, long distance calls were made for two, six transients were lodged, meals were furnished for six and a total of 91 persons were aided.

Board member Marvin Blount Jr. stated that funds to send 14 youths to Camp York, King's Mountain, have been secured.

Capt. Wayne McHargue, officer in charge of the local Citadel, reminded the group that the work of the Salvation Army falls under three areas: religious, character building and social welfare. He also reported that the scouting program is progressing and a summer recreation program will be announced later.

Four Persons Injured In Collision Tuesday Night

Four persons were injured last night in a rear-end collision five miles west of Greenville on U. S. 264.

Highway Patrolman F. L. Owens identified the drivers involved in the 9:30 p.m. crash as Bobby Allen Mills, 19 of Route 1, Greenville and Lena Francis Lyons, 21-year-old Negro of Route 1, Greenville.

Trooper Owens said the Mills car was apparently traveling west on U. S. 264 at about 50 miles per hour and was struck in the rear by the Lyons vehicle.

The Mills vehicle left the roadway following the crash, crossed a ditch and ran into the edge of woods bordering the highway, stopping 225 feet from the point of impact.

The Lyons car, the officer reported, came to rest 270 feet from the point, where the two cars collided.

Damage to each of the vehicles was set at $600.

Mills and Miss Lyons, as well as one passenger in each of the cars, was taken to Pitt Memorial Hospital for treatment of injuries they received in the mishap.

Investigation of the wreck is continuing.

Girl 'Ticketed' For Parking

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 18 and my boy friend is 19. We sometimes will come home from a movie or something and we will sit in his car for a while. We sit right in front of my house, Abby. If we wanted to neck up a storm, we could go park on a lonely road, couldn't we? I am not saying we have never exchanged a kiss once in a while, but it's no big make-out session. We talk mostly.

We don't do anything in the car we wouldn't do in the house, but my mother says she doesn't want us out there—even talking. She says the neighbors are getting their eyes full and I am ruining my reputation. I could care less what the neighbors say as my conscience is clear. I would like your opinion.

NOTHING TO HIDE

DEAR NOTHING: As long as you don't do anything in the car that you wouldn't do in the house, do it in the house. A girl has only one reputation, so take care that yours is as clear as your conscience.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice is desperately needed if my wedding is to be a joyous occasion next month.

My father is dead and my mother insists that I have my brother walk me down the aisle and give me away.

Abby, I do not want my brother to walk me down the aisle as he drinks heavily, is foul-mouthed, ill-mannered, and he spoils every gathering he attends with his crudeness. He has no friends except a few drinking bums like himself.

I am marrying a fine man whose family lives out of town, and they are coming here for our wedding. I suppose every family has a skeleton in their closet, but I don't wish to put mine on display. I am paying for my own wedding and don't want it spoiled.

My mother has made excuses for my brother all his life, and now she tells me if I don't have him give me away she will not attend my wedding. Please help me decide what to do.

TORN

DEAR TORN: It's your wedding and it should be your day, and I think your mother is being unfair by putting you in the position of having to make such a difficult choice. Ask your clergyman to talk to her. If she is firm in her refusal to attend your wedding unless you ask your brother to give you away, you would be justified in telling your mother that you don't want your wedding spoiled by him, but you want with all your heart to have her there, and the rest is up to her.

DEAR ABBY: Three cheers for "not ready"—the young married woman who wasn't ready for a family, but was made to feel it was her "duty."

Her letter could have been written by me, except our reasons for waiting are financial. If we both work another five years we will have our mortgage paid off and will be in a better position to afford a family.

Abby, you would be doing me and lots of other girls a big favor if you would put a few lines in your column telling people how rude it is to ask a girl, "Why aren't you pregnant yet?"

I don't think the answer is anybody's business but my husband's and mine. Just the same a lot of people keep on asking.

.... NOT READY EITHER

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

FOR ABBY'S NEW BOOKLET "WHAT TEEN-AGERS WANT TO KNOW," SEND $1.00 TO ABBY, BOX 69700, LOS ANGELES, CAL. 90069.

Couple Speaks Vows Saturday

Miss Nadine Yvonne Slater became the bride of Robert Lee Socks at 2:00 p.m. Saturday in a double - ring ceremony at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. John Drake officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William John Slater of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Socks, of Kensington, Md.

A program of traditional music was presented by Mrs. Robert Erwin, organist.

The church was decorated with bouquets of white peonies, gladioli and Marguerite daisies. At the altar was a prie dieu where the bride and bridegroom knelt for the benediction. The pews were marked with white satin ribbons and bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Joelle Original, designed by Rosemarie. It was a floor length gown of white silk organza with a hand-embroidered overlay of Venice lace daisies designed with a sabrina neckline. The detachable princess styled train of white organza flowed from appliques of Venice lace daisies attached to the shoulders of her gown. Co-ordinating appliques of daisies studded the cathedral length train.

Her fingertip veil of three-tiered bouffant silk illusion was attached to a princess crown of appliqued Venice lace daisies and seed pearls. She carried a bride's Bible centered with a white cattleya orchid tied in satin streamers and trimmed with lily of the valley.

Matron of honor, Mrs. John Bixler, of Maryland, was attired in a daffodil yellow formal empire gown of peau de soie. Her headpiece was a matching bow of peau de soie and tulle veiling. She carried an arm bouquet of long - stemmed golden King's Randsom roses tied with yellow satin ribbons.

John Bixler, ring - bearer, carried the ring on a pillow of white satin trimmed with French lace.

Irvin Eberlin of Baltimore, Md., served as best man.

The bridegroom's father, assisted as usher to the bride and bridegroom's families.

The sister of the bride, Mrs. Edward Bradley, of Tucson, Ariz., wore a black linen A-line dress with black and white stenciled designer sleeves, white accessories and a single gold cymbidium orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in an oriental silk brocade three - piece ensemble, which was hand - embroidered with blue beading. She wore matching accessories and white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Maude Hyman, of Miami, Fla., wore a bronze brocaded dress with matching jacket trimmed in natural ranch mink. She wore co-ordinating accessories and a white orchid tinged with gold.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, in the church reception hall. Miss [illegible] Slater, sister of the bride, presided at the bride's guest book.

The bride's table was covered with a golden yellow Damask cloth. In the center was the four-tiered wedding cake. This was flanked by two silver, antique European, candelabra, with six elaborate branches, holding long white bride's candles. Completing the table arrangement were two centerpieces of yellow and white Marguerite daisies, to carry out the yellow and white theme of the bridal colors.

Another table, covered in a white linen cut - work cloth, held the cut crystal punch bowl, which was flanked by two large wedding sheet cakes.

Wedding gifts were on display upon a third table, which was covered with a Phillipine, cut-work cloth.

Mrs. Bert Koeblitz of Greenville presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Carl Finley of Arlington, Va., served the wedding cake after the traditional first piece was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

A formal dinner was held at the Candlewick Inn for the bride and bridegroom, their families and close friends later that evening.

An after - rehearsal dinner was held at The Fiddlers Three.

For traveling, the bride chose a three - piece, Mr. Mort lime green suit with miniature white polka dots, white accessories and white cattleya orchid.

The couple plan an extended wedding trip in Nassau, Bermuda and outlying islands. They plan to reside in Maryland.

After attending various schools in Europe, the bride graduated from high school in Tangier, Morocco. She then attended Shorter College in Rome, Ga.

The bridegroom studied in New York, where he formerly resided. After serving a tour in the Air Force, he has become the assistant manager of the Tantallon Country Club in Maryland.

Rouse Family Reunion To Be Held On Sunday

GRIFTON — The descendants of the late John William Rouse and his first two wives, Winifred Ann Pridgen Rouse and Bettie John Dail Rouse, will hold their sixth-family reunion at the Riverside Christian Church, on Sunday, June 2, according to Egbert T. Rouse of Jacksonville, who is the president of the reunion.

Members of the Rouse clan are urged to meet at the church at noon. A picnic lunch will be served on the churchgrounds at 12:30 p.m., and a business meeting will be held in the church at 1:30 o'clock.

John William Rouse was the fifth-born son of Benjamin Rouse and Mary (Polly) Dawson Rouse of the La Grange section of Lenoir County. He was born in 1836, served in the Civil War, was married four times and died in Craven County in 1916. He is buried in the churchyard of the Riverside Christian Church.

His first wife was Winifred Ann Pridgen of Greene County and they had two sons, Egbert Parrott Rouse and Edward Everette Rouse.

When his first wife died, he married Bettie John Dail of the Wheat Swamp section of Lenoir County and they were the parents of 10 children — Lula Gustave Rosse, Franklin Leamon Benjamin Rouse, Mollie Dail Pridgen Rouse, Missoura Virginia Rouse, Walter Wooley Rouse, Winifred Ann Rouse, Solomon Speight Rouse, Isaac Daniel Rouse and Ruth Magdaline Rouse.

Following the death of his second wife, he later married Pearcie Smith and Sarah Haddock, but there were no children by his third and fourth wives.

Efforts are being made to compile a history of the Rouse family since its arrival in America about 1674.

Lenoir County's first John Rouse, the great grandfather of John William Rouse, was granted 1,260 acres of land between 1739 and 1748, by King George II of England. This land adjoined that of Richard Caswell and is in the immediate vicinity of today's Caswell Center, west of Kinston.

The fifth John William Rouse reunion was attended by 226 people last June when it was held at the Riverside Christian Church.

At that time the following officers were re-elected: Egbert T. Rouse of Jacksonville, president; Mrs. Sallie Rouse Johnson of Grifton, vice president; and Mrs. Eliza Walters Hagil of Goldsboro, secretary-treasurer.

Small Comfort In Reported Incomes

Pitt does not occupy an enviable position among the state's 100 counties in per capita income. Its position of 44th should represent a challenge to the leadership of this county to accelerate present efforts to enhance the county's economic progress.

According to figures released by the state's Department of Tax Research, Pitt's per capita income for 1966 reached $1,906. While this is more than $760 above the per capita income of last-ranked Hyde County, it is likewise $1,393 below the per capita income of first-ranked Mecklenburg County.

To be sure, Pitt County can take some comfort in the fact that the recent study showed its per capita income is larger than that of many of its neighbors. Neighboring Wilson County had a per capita income of $1,868. Beaufort $1,816, Wayne $1,787 and Nash $1,748. But to find satisfaction in the fact that others had lower per capita incomes is to set the pattern that will assure this county continues out of the ranks of the top 25 counties of the state in its per capita income.

Pitt, along with other counties in the East needs to accelerate its effort to enhance its economic level. Figures may be cited to indicate that the county is keeping pace with what is being done in much of the state. It is a fact, nevertheless, that Pitt is still far from the high position it should occupy on North Carolina's economic ladder.

The progress that has been made is commendable, but there is little cause for Pitt to rest on its laurels. As long as there are 43 counties in North Carolina which have higher per capita income, Pitt must recognize that it still has considerable work to do to improve its position and that of its people.

Too often we are content to compare ourselves with that which puts us in a favorable light rather than taking a more realistic, though less flattering view, of the position our county occupies.

Senate To See Large Turnover

By WILLIAM A. SHIRES
Reflector Raleigh Bureau

RALEIGH — Cause for concern about experienced leadership in the 1969 State Senate lies in the fact that presently only 10 of 50 incumbents are assured of returning next year.

Analysis of recent primaries and earlier decisions indicates that possibly as many as 33 incumbent senators will be coming back. In addition to the 10, nine Democrats and one Republican assured of election, it is possible that 23 others now serving — 17 Democrats and six Republicans — could win re-election in November.

WILLIAM SHIRES

Even so, this means there will be at least 17 newcomers, a sizable lot in itself, and probably more than 20.

Only Two Defeated

Actually only two incumbent senators, Leroy G. Simmons of Albertson and Vinson J. Bridgers of Tarboro, both Democrats, were defeated in the primaries.

Sixteen other incumbents decided earlier, for various reasons, not to seek re-election to the Senate this year. It was this large group which accounted for the unusually large turnover.

Gone will be such stalwarts as Sens. Thomas J. White, Robert Morgan, James Green, Jeff Allen, Voit Gilmore, Adrian Shuford, Dallas Alford, Sam Whitehurst, L. P. McLendon Jr., Ed Kemp, Frank Griffin, Ashley B. Futrell and others.

Assured of Election

The nine Democrats nominated and, in effect, elected without Republican opposition include Sens. J. J. Harrington of Lewiston, George M. Wood of Camden, Albert J. Ellis of Jacksonville, Hector MacLean of Lumberton, Marshall Rauch of Gastonia, Jack White of Kings Mountain, Lindsay C. Warren of Goldsboro, Julian Allsbrook of Roanoke Rapids.

The ninth will be either John T. Henley or N. Hector McGeachy of Fayetteville. Of course, both could Triumph in the 14th district against a single Republican running in November.

Lone Republican

In only one district, the 25th —Davie, Watauga, Wilkes and Yadkin counties, is there a Republican incumbent, Sen. T. R. Bryan of Wilkesboro, without Democratic opposition.

Bryan incidentally faced a possible run - off in his own party June 1 until runner - up Stacy Pardue Sr. declined to call for a second primary.

Several Newcomers

Several newcomers, all Democrats, are assured of election on the strength of their primary victories or the fact that they had no opposition in either party.

These include Edgar J. (Red) Gurganus of Williamston, Edwin F. Griffin of Louisburg, Sankey W. Robinson of Whiteville, Veron E. White of Winterville, and Fred Folger Jr. of Mt. Airy.

Familiar Faces

They did not serve in the 1967 Senate and thus are counted as possible newcomers, but a number of senatorial candidates are familiar faces in legislative ranks.

Gurganus is one, a former lawmaker. Others include Dr. W. D. (Bill) James of Hamlet and William P. (Bill) Saunders of Southern Pines, Gordan Hanes of Winston-Salem, W. W. Staton of Sanford, Herbert Hyde of Asheville. J. Russell Kirby of Wilson, and Stewart B. Warren of Clinton, all former members of the Senate.

And among those seeking Senate seats who formerly served in the House are Hargrove (Skipper) Bowles of Greensboro, Claude M. Hamrick of Winston - Salem, Herman West of Cherokee, Folger, J. Reid Poovey of Hickory, and Elton Edwards of Greensboro.

All told, there are 85 nominees for the Senate's 50 seats. There are contests between Democrats and Republicans in 22 of the 33 state senatorial districts in November.

There Will Be Losses Of Ships And Men

Losses of submarines are few and far between, but as long as there are large navies there will be the loss of ships and men because of accidents.

In the case of the Scorpion, the nuclear sub is presumed lost because it is overdue from its return of a Mediterranian tour of duty. It was last heard from May 21 and did not report in at Norfolk Monday as scheduled after an underwater crossing of the Atlantic.

In spite of the tremendous advances in naval ships and in the detection of underwater objects, there is the very real possibility that the Scorpion may never be found if she is now resting at the bottom of the Atlantic. And even if she is found, there is the possibility that the cause of her sinking may never be determined.

There is still hope, of course, that the Scorpion and the 99 members of her crew will be found quickly and will be rescued. The new submarines have capabilities far beyond those of just a few years ago. But even for the Scorpion, time is running out as the search efforts are intensified.

Federal Debt's Cost Is Rising

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) —The cost of paying for the federal debt—already at record levels —will go even higher than originally thought this year because of the current period of tight credit.

The increase, however, is expected to be relatively small. Interest payments on the federal debt are now expected to be close to $14.5 billion for the fiscal year which ends June 30, or about $150 million more than anticipated last January.

This would mean a year-to-year increase of about $1.1 billion actually paid to carry the debt during the previous fiscal year. The cost of borrowing money in the current inflationary period has increased rapidly even for the Treasury Department which can command the lowest rates in the country because its securities are considered the safest of all investments.

The extent of that spiral was underscored Monday by Chairman Arthur M. Okun of the Council of Economic Advisers, who said the nation is experiencing an inflationary epidemic that even a tax increase could not quickly cure.

Until President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge is enacted. Okun said in a memorandum made public by the White House, "there will be growing strains on prices, costs, imports and financial markets at home and abroad."

But even with higher taxes, Okun said the route back to price stability will be "long and difficult" and will require the cooperation of the private

Strength For Today

By EARL L. DOUGLASS
ON OUR WAY

One of the most distinguished astronomers in the world has given it as his opinion that the number of heavenly bodies in our galaxy alone is a hundred thousand million billion. Is anyone so naive as to believe that this insignificant little planet on which we live is the only one inhabited by living and intelligent beings? The Creator certainly wasted a lot of real estate if that is true. Why create all the worlds if nobody lives on them? And since some of them are older my many millions of years than the planet Earth, the "inhabitants" must be far more advanced intellectually than we are.

There are many who believe that unidentified flying objects appearing in great and increasing numbers over the earth are piloted by beings who want to get a look at us and our planet. The fact that no proof has been yet adduced that any extra-terrestrial being has landed upon the earth does not mean that there are no extraterrestrial beings looking us over with considerable regularity.

Astronauts from some country will certainly be put on the moon within the next decade. This will undoubtedly result in a tremendous transfer of power from nations that have not made the landing to nations that have. The scientific discoveries we are making today may appear pitifully insignificant fifty years from now. The observation has frequently been made that someone may press the wrong button some day asd blow us off the planet.

We don't know where we're going but we're going somewhere fast.

Use A Simple Solution

WASHINGTON — Gov. Ronald Reagan, the only leading noncandidate in the race for the Republican presidential nomination, is getting as much press coverage as Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and more than former Vice President Richard Nixon. The reason for this is that Gov. Regan is almost as quotable as Barry Goldwater. Just the other day he attacked the Administration for making foreign affairs too complex. He was quoted in a speech in Florida as saying:

"I ran for public office on the basis that common sense, not complexity, is needed at the top of the Administration... I am equally unimpressed with all this talk about our problems being too complex, too intricate to allow for timely decision and action." Then, to give an example of what he meant, he said the United States should tell the enemy in North Vietnam to co-operate at the peace table or threaten to "kick the devil out of him."

I showed this statement to an Administration official which was flabbergasted. "My heavens, why didn't we think of that?"

"Because it takes a simple man to rome up with a simple solution," I said.

The official immediately got on the phone and called the State Department.

"Harry, listen. I want to ask you something on the Vietnam problem. Has anyone over there ever thought of telling the North Vietnamese that if they didn't co - operate we would kick the devil out of them? . . .They haven't? Well, why don't we try it?. . .Of course it's a brilliant suggestion. I wouldn't have made it if it hadn't been. . .What's that? You think I ought to call the Pentagon and clear it with them?. . . Right."

My friend called the Pentagon. "General, the White House here. Listen, we thought we might attack this Vietnam problem from a much more simple approach. What would you think if we told Hanoi that if they didn't straighten up and fly right, we'd kick the devil out of them?. . . You like that. huh? What's that? There are a few complications? What are they, General? . . .You have to get the Viet Cong out of Saigon first?. . .Right. The North Vietnamese have to stop shelling the cities?. . .I understand. You've got to clear out the DMZ. . .Right. . .And then you have to find the North Vietnamese to kick the devil out of them? But you do like the idea in principle?

ART BUCHWALD

"Well, why don't you rework your strategy?. . .Because you have to get the South Vietnamese army in better shape? I understand... You can't do it unless the Saigon government makes many needed reforms?. . . The pacification program has to be started again? . . .See here, General, it seems to me that you're making a complex problem out of a simple one. All we want you to do is kick the devil out of the North Vietnamese. Is that too much to ask?. . .No, I'm not going to tell you who suggested it. All I can say is it's someone with one of the greatest simple minds in the country."

He hung up. "I guess I'd better call Harriman," he said.

"Ave, the White House here. Listen, how are the negotiations going?. . .Very complicated, huh? Well, we were thinking of simplifying them. Why don't you tell the North Vietnamese if they don't agree to what we have in mind, we'll kick the devil out of them? What do you mean that's what they told you this morning? They can't do that. It was our idea first. Well, if they threaten to kick the devil out of us and we threaten to kick the devil out of them, it's going to really complicate the negotiations.

"I know, Ave. I realize negotiating with the North Vietnamese is not easy, but if we don't come up with a simple solution, we're going to be in trouble in November. We've

Rule Of Reason

(Goldsboro News-Argus)

President Leo Jenkins of East Carolina University. the Student Government Association and the student body gave a good example of the rule of reason at the institution the other day. The settlement of a problem between students and the institution was in sharp contrast with the uproar, chaos, and trouble which have marked issues on some other campuses from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The Student Government Association officers conferred with the administrative staff. The conferences were carried on for a number of days as some changes were suggested. In the end, however, the matter was adjusted to the satisfaction of all. Varying check-in hours for freshmen girls, sophomore girls were adopted. The talks had been carried forward in sweet reasonableness all around and the final agreement left no resentments.

And there was no departure from a policy that paramounts the purpose of the University, no surrender of a policy that emphasizes the determination to serve the 98 percent of students who seriously apply themselves to the task of getting an education. The students understand, the faculty understands that demonstrations or dissents which might interfere with the orderly operation of the state's property will not be tolerated.

This policy, however, in no way abrogates a long standing and well understood policy that the students have every right to present in due process their views and opinions. But the students understand also that they will under no circumstance be allowed to interrupt the teaching schedules.

What Has Been

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — The greatest reward of age is memory.

The young delight in fantasies of the future; their busy minds paint pretty picture fables of life as they dream it may be.

But memory is the master painter in the calmer minds of those who have been longer touched by time. It presents in fadeless colors not the scenes of what-may-be but the scenes of what-has-been.

HAL BOYLE

You've trudged many a far step along life's highway yourself if you can look back and remember when—

Some unknown classmate penned an unsigned inscription in your high school yearbook: "Roses are red, violets are blue, somebody loves you —you'll never guess who."

Every kid in the family hated the chore of having to go down in the basement on winter nights and bank the coal fire in the furnace. Who knew what terrible demons lurked in those terrible cellar shadows?

Before he fell asleep a small boy would spend a delirious 10 minutes scratching the marks left on his legs by the elastic bands he used to keep his long black stockings up.

The height of devil-may-care for a lad was to put his cap on backwards and ride down a long hill on his bicycle without holding on to the handlebars.

You could drive out of his mind every grownup within two blocks of your home by putting a tin penny whistle in your mouth and blowing bird calls on it from morning to dusk.

Any "war between the generations" usually ended in a trip to the woodshed, from which youth limped out later a weeping loser.

Only poor people were on diets, and they called it "doing without."

Home didn't seem quite home in the occasional summers when a wren failed to build her nest in one of the front porch eaves.

The traditional symbol of a grandfather was a long white beard, and the surest way to throw one of these old gaffers into a tantrum was for a smart aleck to ask him, "Grandpa, do you sleep with your whiskers under the covers or over them?" His usual tart reply: "That's for me to know, sonny, and you to find out."

Kids in grammar school would spend weeks trying to learn how to wiggle their ears. For some obscure reason they thought that the ability to do this would impress their little girlfriends.

In the days before credit cards, the national motto was "In God We Trust —All Others Cash."

A Beau Brummell was a guy whose wardrobe sported more than three clip-on bow ties.

Railroad dining cars were widely believed to serve the best meals in America. And you knew you were in a pret-

Spokesman For The Consumers

By ELMER ROESSNER

If you have followed the pushing and hauling between consumer and business groups in Washington and the state capitals over consumer-protection proposals, you probably are aware that the chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, Warren D. Magnuson, D., Wash., has become a leading spokesman on the consumer's side.

This is a significant as well as curious development. The Commerce Committee traditionally has been concerned only with such matters as the preservation of efficient and balanced transportation and communication systems, and the soundness of our international trade policies. The special significance is that Sen. Magnuson is both an influential member of the Senate "establishment," and essentially a conservative man. No rabble-rouser, he.

But in 1966 alone, Magnuson's committee reported out, and Congress passed the new packaging law, and the Child Protection Act. Since then the committee has been studying measures to curtail the fringe of deceptive door - to - door sellers, strengthen the cigarette labeling law enacted in 1965, effect reforms in auto insurance, and establish safe standards for radiation from electrical appliances and diagnostic equipment, as well as other consumer issues.

Tells Why Of Switch

In a just - published book, "The Dark Side of the Marketplace," written with Jean Carper, Magnuson explains why his committee has made this dramatic switch. First of all, he himself has a noticeable personal sense of outrage at the harm suffered by consumers, either to their pocketbooks or persons, in the various incidents he cites.

But also, he argues, there are serous social consequences, including loss of confidence among consumers, and damage to more - scrupulous businessmen, in permitting the conditions his investigations have spotlighted.

Two areas to which the Senator gives special emphasis are credit abuses, which tend to harm low - income families especially, and unsafe products such as flammable fabrics and hazardous household appliances.

Why Some Stores Were Hit

One chapter, Shame in the Ghettos, is especially informative for its collection of reports on why certain credit stores in various cities were selected for looting and burning. The motive, the looters and burners sometimes claimed, was revenge and their own form of redress.

The section on hazardous products is an especially valuable document for businessmen as well as consumers. An enterprising merchandiser even find useful ideas among some of Magnuson's suggestions for safety improvements. One example: "Curl - up cords on electric coffee pots, instead of the long dangling ones that youngsters can grab, and tip the scalding liquid on themselves."

SHERRY SEEKS ANOTHER TITLE — East Carolina University coed Sherry Robertson, 19-year-old brunette from Petersburg, Va., is among contestants for the title of "Miss Waves" in the Sun-Fun Festival at Myrtle Beach, S. C., next week, June 5-9. Sherry, who enters the competition as "Miss WNCT-TV" (Channel 9, Greenville), has won several beauty titles, among them "Miss Cheerleader USA," "Miss Pitt County" and "Miss Petersburg." She is a rising senior primary education major at ECU. A 1965 graduate of Petersburg High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell V. Robertson, Route 3, Box 476, Petersburg.

NAACP Suits Set Against 25 N.C. School Systems

CHARLOTTE (AP)—A member of the NAACP's legal team said Tuesday that desegregation suits will be reopened in at least 25 North Carolina school systems using freedom-of-choice method of pupil assignments.

Julius Chambers, a Charlotte lawyer, said the freedom-of-choice method of integration "perpetuates the dual school system in the South."

Monday, the U.S. Supreme Court unanimously outlawed freedom-of-choice plans if they are not the quickest desegregation method available to a school board.

The 25 North Carolina districts — including Charlotte-Mecklenburg, the state's largest —are under federal court orders to desegregate, but continue to use freedom-of-choice, Chambers said.

Chambers contends that freedom-of-choice "isn't workable as a method of desegregation because it places the burden squarely on Negro parents and their children."

And, he said, Negro parents who try to exercise freedom of choice are intimidated if they send their children to white schools.

That intimidation, according to Chambers and his staff, doesn't have to be overt.

Rather than bombings, shootings and telephone calls, Chambers said, intimdation is built into the South's social system.

"Blacks," he added, "aren't accustomed to breaking social tradition."

Chambers said his office already had filed motions for further desegregation relief in four North Carolina school systems, in anticipation of the Supreme Court decision.

The systems are: Washington City, Beaufort County, Statesville and New Hanover.

Chambers said petitions will be filed also for the following systems:

Asheville City, Sampson, Buncombe, Wilkes, Person, Franklin, Green, Harnett, Chowan Cumberland, Concord city, Craven city, Anson, Lexington Charlotte - Mecklenburg, Pitt, Durham, Warren, Durham city, Reidsville and Johnston.

He said the suits will apply not only to students, but will extend to faculty and administrators.

Two Accidents Here Yesterday

Two traffic mishaps investigated in Greenville yesterday resulted in an estimated $860 property damage, police investigators reported

Officers said heaviest damage resulted from a 7:45 a.m. collision at the intersection of Fourth and Elm Streets involving cars driven by Veda Elaine Harbin, 20 of 1507 East Fourth St., and Jonquelyn Ryan Simpson, 200 South Elm St.

Police, who set damage to the Harbin auto at $200 and estimated $500 damage to the Simpson auto, charged Miss Simpson with failing to see her intended movement could be made in safety.

Ethel Huntley Daniels, Negro of 408 Cadillac St. was charged with operating left of center following investigation of a 9:45 a.m. mishap at the intersection of Nash and Fifth Streets.

The Daniels car, police said, collided with a utility pole guy wire and a stop sign at the intersection, causing an estimated $100 damage to the car and about 160 damage to the wire and sign.

sector. "It is crucial that we begin the journey now."

Only last week the Treasury paid the highest rate since the Civil War to borrow $1.5 billion. And rates this week, although lower, still close to the top of the scale.

The Treasury borrows at least $2.7 billion each week to refinance part of the federal debt.

When the department re-estimated its interest payments last January for the current fiscal year it used interest rates in effect last December.

Rates actually declined during the early part of this year but in the last two months have shot upward.

The $352 billion federal debt is comprised of Treasury securities held by individuals in the form of savings bonds and by banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, corporations, state and local governments, the Federal Reserve System and government investment accounts such as the Social Security trust fund. Some of these securities mature each week and the Treasury must borrow money to pay them off.

Four Rivals May Join In Debate

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau and three rivals for his job have a chance to clash issue by issue before a nationwide audience in Canada's first televised election debate June 9.

The program, 16 days before the general election June 25, will require each candidate to answer the same questions posed by three television newsmen. Each also will be allowed a three-minute opening statement and a-90-second summing up at the end.

Will Broadcast

WNCT Radio will carry a play-by-play broadcast of the ECU-Florida State NCAA playoff game beginning tomorrow night at 7:30.

Station Manager Tommy Snowden said WNCT sports director Jim Woods will do the broadcast. The tournament, which is being held in Gastonia, is a double elimination contest and Snowden said WNCT Radio will continue broadcast the games in which ECU is involved.

Board Accepting Applications

The Interagency board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners for N. C., in Raleigh, has announced acceptance of applications for stenographer and typist positions until June 18.

Applications will not be accepted for employment in the Fayetteville-Fort Bragg area, nor for the city of Raleigh.

The board notes persons who previously attained eligibility in this examination need not apply, and applicants previously rated eligible cannot reapply for the purpose of improving their score until they have had at least one year of eligibility.

Staged Memorial Day Services

Memorial Day services were held by the Pitt County American Legion Post at their home on St. Andrews Street in Greenville. Commander Joe Goodson presided and welcomed guests.

The Rev. Tom Loftis, associate pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, was speaker for the occasion.

Goodson expressed his appreciation to the Gold Star Mothers, and the combined choirs of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church and Piney Grove Free Will Baptist Church.

Sgt. Mayo Allen commanded the firing squad from Company B of the 167th Military Police Battalion.

Chips and putts from area golf courses:

ROBERSONVILLE

Play will start Sunday in the annual Robersonville Golf and Country Club championship tournaments. Pro Labron Briggs said that qualifying has been completed and that first round matches should be finished by Sunday, June 9.

Leading the qualifying in the men's division is Roy Lee Vandeford, who fired a 75, while Nattie Keel led the ladies with an 88. Junior qualifying leader was Richard James with an 81.

Defending champion in the men's is Bobby Mobley, while the ladies champion is Harriett Forbes. Mike Keel is the defending juniors champ. They were all exempt from qualifying.

GREENVILLE

Reynolds May and Ercel Webb will meet Saturday and Sunday in a 36-hole match for the Club Championship at Greenville Golf and Country Club. Both are former club champions, who are battling for another title.

Other finalists include. first flight, Ben Harrison Jr. vs. J. C. Whitehurst; second flight, Billy Morton vs. Charles White; third flight, Wiley Corbett against a foe to be determined by a semi-final match.

Tom Haigwood defeated Marshall Henson to win the fourth flight, while Deton Hurley downed Jack Bircher to win the fifth flight.

Winners of the recent Ladies Day at Greenville were Joan Hooper, Louise Morton, Lib Masten, Evelyn Warner, Virginia Lansche, Betty Lou Howard and Alice Hudson.

FARMVILLE

Play is getting underway in the Farmville Golf and Country Club's championship. Shelby Roebuck is the defending champion. First round play is to be completed by Sunday according to pro James Simpson.

Simpson also noted that some 30 entries have already been received for the Pitt County Tournament, set for June 15 and 16 at the club. Members of any Pitt County Club are eligible. The field will be limited to 80 golfers. Roebuck is also the defending champion here.

BROOK VALLEY

A couple of eagles were picked up by golfers Sunday at Brook Valley. Simon Moye eagled the par four-403 yard 10th hole. He hit a two-wood in from about 240-yards out. The other eagle came on the 538-yard par five 13th hole as W. L. Allen hit a seven iron into the cup.

Ray Brindell picked up a 77 over the weekend for his best round.

In the club championship, "Big Daddy" Moore, the defending champion has a two-up lead over Bo Farley after the first 18 holes of their 36-hole semi-final match. Ercel Webb has a similar lead over Gene Ward at the midpoint of their match. The finals are to be played on Saturday and Sunday, June 8-9.

In other flights, Henry Coleman meets Austin Britt in the first flight finals; Percy Ashby takes on Paul McMahan in the second; Robert Bullock meets Kip West in the fourth and the Jack Cuthbertson-John Jackson winner meets Billy Wolfolk. The third flight is still waiting on some early round finishers.

In the women's tournament, Jane Sauve defeated Mildred Coleman, 1-up to capture the championship flight crown. Barnie Rawl beat Cynthia Mendenhall in the first flight, and Jean Ramsey downed Doris Harbin in the third flight. In the second, Mary Meade Powell and Jane Worsley meet for the title.

Security Nips Moose By 10-7

Security Life edged past the Moose, 10-7, yesterday in the Tar Heel Little League.

The Moose jumped into the lead in the first inning. Ray Warren walked and moved to second on a passed ball. Terry Glisson singled to drive Warren in, and Glisson moved on to second on an error. He stole third and scored on an error for a 2-0 lead.

Security came back with four runs in the top of the second. Danny Harrington singled and Morris Vicars got a hit. Max Glisson walked, loading the bases, and Jack Jenkins reached on an error, scoring Harrington and Vicars. Wes Puryear also reached on an error, scoring both Glisson and Jenkins.

The Moose came back to tie it up in their half of the second. Marvin Aldridge singled and Mike Smith reached on a fielder's choice. A passed ball allowed both to move up a base, and Keith Jones reached on an error, scoring both runners.

In the third, the Moose added another run. Jack Jones doubled and stole third, coming around on an error, for a 5-4 lead.

In the fourth, Security scored again, tieing it up. John Causey doubled, and came around on an error.

But in the bottom of the fourth, the Moose again moved into the lead, scoring twice more. Keith Jones walked and Warren was safe on an error. Danny Langley walked and Terry Glisson doubled to drive in both runners, making it 7-5.

Security pushed back ahead in the fifth, scoring three runs. Phil Dash singled and Bob Higgans was hit by a pitch. Jordy Whichard walked, as did Harrington, driving in Dash. A walk to Glisson brought Higgans in, but Whichard was caught on Causey's fielder's choice. Jenkins reached on an error, allowing Harrington to score the go-ahead run.

Security added two more in the sixth, ending the scoring. Dash opened it up with a homer, and Higgans drew a walk. Whichard doubled to drive him in.

Dash led the hitting for Security with three, while Causey added two. Glisson had two to pace the Moose.

Florida State Ranked Tops Among College Baseball Teams Face Bucs

In the Florida State Seminoles, the East Carolina University Pirates face probably their toughest competition of the year as they open play in the NCAA Regionals in Gastonia tomorrow.

The game is the second of the first day's play. The opener, Thursday afternoon, pits N. C. State, the ACC champ against Alabama, the Southeastern winner. The Bucs and Seminoles meet at 8 p.m.

The Florida State team reached the height of success early in this month when it was named the number one team in the bi-weekly Collegiate Baseball Poll. One of the key factors in reaching that position was a 21-game winning streak put together by the Seminoles between March 23 and May 7. They completed their year with a 29-4 record.

Being in Gastonia is nothing new for Florida State. They will be making their 11th trip in the past 13 years. Only twice did they fail to make the at-large berth, once four years ago when East Carolina took it, and went on to finish third in the field of four.

And this year, Coach Fred Hatfield feels he might have the best team ever to enter the tournament. "I have never seen a team that has had spirit like this bunch," he said. "They like the idea of winning, but it isn't cockiness. They rarely let up on the field. They know nobody is going to give them anything and they have to fight for everything."

Pitching has been one of the key factors in the Seminole success. Hatfield believes that pitching is 70 to 80 per cent of the game, and he has a fine field of hurlers to back up that feeling.

The top hurlers this year have been Steve Mastin and Lin Garrett. Mastin tossed in 70 2/3 innings, for a 7-0 record. He compiled a 1.53 ERA while doing it. Garrett, in 56 2/3 innings, put together a 5-0 mark, and a 2.54 ERA.

Backing them up are Mike Reibling (0.83 ERA), Gene Ammann (1.27), Jeff Hill (1.91), and Wayne Vincent (3.23). Four other pitchers have seen action and are available for relief.

Two hurlers, Hill and Ammann tossed no-hitters during the sesaon. Overall the team has posted a 2.54 ERA, and is rated as a top hurling team.

At the plate, the Seminoles will not be overshadowed by many teams. Overall, the team boasts a .291 batting average, while getting 33 doubles, 18 triples and 24 home runs. Tom Cook is the leading homer producer with nine.

Mike Easom is the leading batter, getting 42 in 103 appearances for a .408 average. Cook is next with a .388 mark, while Jeff Hogan is .343, and Dick Gold is .315, putting four hitters with better than a .300 average.

Cook is probably the most dangerous man with men on the sacks, driving in 41 runs, over twice as many as the new man, Easom, who had 20.

The Seminoles will probably start Eason at first, Gold at second, Hogan at shortstop and Bob Canty (.286) at third, with Cooke behind the plate.

In the outfield, it will be Walter Sumner (.209), John Mason (.209), Tom Whitaker (.267), with Chuck Cone (.283) likely to break in if needed.

The Florida school has won the championship at Gastonia on four occasions, in 1957, 1962, 1963, and 1965. In their other 10 years of participation, they hold a 27-24 record in NCAA championship play.

In addition to winning, they were runners-up in 1959 and 1966.

Immanuel Gains Fifth Victory

Immanuel Baptist added his fifth straight victory last night to hold onto the Church Softball leadership. Immanuel downed Mt. Pleasant 5-0.

In the other game, Oakmont won by forfeit from Pentecostal.

Immanuel leads with a 5-0 mark while St. James and Presbyterian are 3-1. Grace, Meadowbrook and Oakmont are all 2-2, followed by Jarvis, Pentecostal, Mt. Pleasant, all 1-3. Gum Swamp is 0-3.

Immanuel took the lead in the first inning after Lassiter reached on an error and scored on a bobbled grounder by Grimsley.

In the second, three more scored, with three more errors aiding the cause.

In the third, a triple by Dickens started things off, and he scored on an out for the 5-0 verdict.

Twins Go Eight Without Hit, But Win It Anyway

By ED SCHUYLER Jr.
Assoliated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's Sonny Siebert and Bill Rohr pitched seven hitless innings against Minnesota, but their combined effort was sort of like locking the barn after the horse escaped.

Siebert and Rohr didn't yield a hit from the second through the eigsts innings Tuesday night at Minnesota, but the Twins touched Sibert for three in the first when they scores all of their runs in a 3-1 victory.

In other American League action, Oakland edged Boston 3-1, Detroit topped California 4-1 and Baltimore nipped the Chiiago White Sox 2-1 in 10 innings at Milwaukee. The Washington at New York game was rained out.

Cincinnati blanked Los Angeles 7-0, Atlanta downed Houston 3-1 and San Francisco bea St. Louis 3-1 in a game stopped by rain after eight innings in the National League. Rain postponed the New York at Pittsburgh and Chicago at Philadelphia games.

Minnesota got its first four batters on base against Siebert in the first. John Roseboro doubled and scored on Rod Carew's single. After Harmon Killebrew walked, Tony Oliva doubled in Carew and Killebrew scored on Rich Reese's sacrifice fly.

Siebert then stopped the Twins until the seventn when Rohr took over to complete the nice-going-but-too-late job.

Cleveland scored in the top of the first on Lee Maye's single, a fielder's choice and Tony Horton's double. May and Horton each got three of the seven hits off Jim Perry, who was bailed out of an eighth-inning jam by Al Worthington. It was Worthington's 10th save of the season

Jim Lonborg, the Cy Young Award winner who broke a leg in a skiing accident, made his first appearance of the season in Boston's losing effort agains Oakland.

The big Red Sox right-hander, who was reactivated last weekend, came in two men out and one out in the sixth and got out of the jam. He also pitched the seventh, yielding one hit and no runs.

Ken Harrelson homered for Boston in tht second, but Oakland came back with two runs on Jim Pagliaroni's blast in the bottom of the inning.

The Athletics also scored in the sixth on two walks and Joe Rudi's double.

Detroit broke loose for four runs against California's George Brunet in the first inning. Bill Freehan doubled in the first two runs and then scored on Willie Horton's homer.

California got its run in the bottom of the first on two walks and Rick Reichardt's single.

A crowd of 18,748 at Milwaukee saw Baltimore win on Paul Blair's leadoff homer against Hoyt Wilhelm in the 10th.

Coke Back In First Alone

Coca-Cola, after its initial loss in its last game, got back into sole possession of first place in the North State League yesterday by defeating the Kiwanis, 613. The two had been tied for the lead.

Coke pushed across two runs in the bottom of the first. Pat Clark led off with a single and took second on a wild pitch. He scored on Prince Bunting's double. Bunting moved to third on an out and came across on a wild pitch for a 2-0 lead.

In the second, three more Coke runners came around to score. Connie Cannon reached on a fielder's choice and Billy Pittman singled. Pat Clark reached on an error, allowing Cannon to score. Bunting doubled again, driving in both Pittman and Clark to push the score to 5-0.

In the third, Coke picked up its final run. Bobby Kittrell led off with a double and moved on to third on an error. He scored when Dill Forbes reached on an error.

In the fifth, the Kiwanis tried to rally, scoring all three of their runs. Jimmy Rodgers opened up with a single and Kelly Heath walked. Al Heath singled in Rodgers, and a double by Grif Garner brought Kelly Heath around. Al Heath scored on an out by Robert Boles.

Rodgers led the Kiwanis hitting with two, while Bunting had three, all doubles, for Coke.

Perry In 2-Hit Win Over Cards

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Maloney made the baseball do tricks and Gaylord Perry turned in some sleight of hand too. But the antics one of Dave Giusti's pitches went through topped them all.

Giusti sabotaged an otherwise strong job with a costly error that allowed one run to score and set up another in Atlanta's 3-1 victory over Houston Tuesday night.

Cincinnati's Maloney hurled a sharp one-hitter, blanking Los Angeles 7-0 and Perry of San Francisco finished with a two-hitter and a 3-1 victory over St. Louis.

The only other National League games scheduled—New York at Pittsburgh and Chicago at Philadelphia—both were rained out.

In the American League, Baltimore shaded Chicago 3-2 in a 10-inning game at Milwaukee, Minnesota topped Cleveland 3-1, Oakland tripped Boston 3-1 and Detroit topped California 4-1. Washington's game at New York was postponed by rain.

Houston was leading Atlanta 1-0 in the fourth inning when Sonny Jackson and Hank Aaron opened with singles. Then Giusti delivered a pitch to Joe Torre that was destined to make the rounds of the ball park before it was through.

Torre lined it for a base hit to left scoring Jackson. Aaron raced for third base and Jim Wynn, Houston's left fielder, threw to Bob Aspromonte, the Astros' third baseman.

But the throw sailed past Aspromonte and as Aaron pulled in safely, Torre broke for second. Giusti, backing up third base, grabbed Wynn's throw and fired to second ... and right on past second ... as Aaron scored and Torre advanced to third. Deron Johnson's sacrifice fly brought the third run of the inning across.

That was plenty for Pat Jarvis who pitched a four-hitter and retired 18 Astros in a row over one stretch.

Maloney, who carried a 4.50 earned run average into the game against the Dodgers, was close to untouchable and the top of the Reds' batting order was just about unstoppable.

Maloney struck out 10 and permitted only a fifth inning single by Zoilo Versalles. The Reds, meanwhile, rapped 13 hits —12 of them by the first four batters in the order.

Leadoff man Pete Rose had four of the hits and raised his league leading batting average from .351 to .366. Tommy Helms and Alex Johnson had three hits each with Johnson driving in four runs and Helms two. Vada Pinson also had two hits and one RBI.

Bob Gibson sailed through San Francisco's first 15 batters but had his perfect gamenbroken up by Dick Dietz' leadoff homer in the sixth.

One inning later, Ty Cline blooped a single and Willie Mays' unloaded his eighth homer of the year and the 572nd of his career and the Giants had the Cardinals beaten.

Perry allowed a leadoff double to Lou Brock and nothing more until the seventh when Tim McCarver opened with a triple and was stranded at third base.

The game was delayed one hour, 24 minutes at the start 25 minutes in the seventh inning, and finally ended by rain after eight innings.

Little Mint Hands First Loss To Food Mart Team

The Little Mint, Coca-Cola and Pollard's picked up wins in the Ladies Softball League last night.

Pollard's downed winless Wachovia, 16-10, while Coke rolled over Empire Brush, 26-2, and the Little Mint handed Food Mart its first loss, 5-4.

Pollard's leads the league with a 2-0 record, while Coke is second with a 3-1 mark. Next comes the Little Mint and Food Mart, both 2-1, Empire Brush 1-3, and Wachovia 0-4.

In the opener, the Little Mint pushed into the lead in the third inning, getting three runs. Food Mart came back with one in the fourth, and then forged into the lead with three in the fifth.

But in the bottom of the seventh, the Little Mint pushed back ahead getting two more runs to take the 5-4 win.

In the second contest, Coke got enough to win in the first inning. Empire Brush took a 2-0 lead at the top of the first, but Coke came up with five in its half to lead 5-2. From there, Coke added four in the second, three in the third, four in the fourth, and seven in the fifth before getting three more in the seventh.

In the evening's final game, Pollard pushed across three runs in the top of the first, only to fall behind as Wachovia came up with six in their half of the inning. Pollard came back in the second with three more to tie it up, but another Wachovia run made it 7-6 after two full innings.

In the third, Pollard added four more, taking a 10-7 lead, which they never gave up. From there, they picked up two more in the fourth and four in the fifth. Wachovia added three more in the fifth.

Three Tar Heels On Scorpion

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Their chances may be slim, but families of North Carolina sailors aboard the missing submarine Scorpion are clinging to hope that their brothers, sons and husbands will arrive safely.

Yeoman 3.C. Richard Summers, a 20-year-old Navy Reservist is one of the missing sailors.

He joined the reserves after graduating from Scotts High School at Concord, and planned to join his father in a grocery-service station business at Statesville after completing his active duty.

His father, Charles Summers, said his son "thought he liked the Navy, but at the last he didn't like submarine service—he got into something he didn't know what really was."

The family of another North Carolinian, Julius Johnston, a quartermaster aboard the Scorpion, recently had a son arrive home from Vietnam.

Lt. Richard Johnston, who lives at Yanceyville, said he and his family are "very concerned."

The other missing Tar Heel, Donald R. Powell, a communications specialist, has a wife at Four Oaks.

All three are enlisted men.

Vacation Bible School Scheduled Begin June 3

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held at the University Church of Chirst Monday through Friday, June 3-7.

The theme for the school will be "God's Word, Today's Hope." The hours of the school are 9-11:30 a.m.

There will be classes for children from the age of three through junior high school.

The minister of the church, W. Paul Duckett, wil lserve as director. Mrs. Alton Little will be in charge of handicrafts. Refreshments will be served by the women of th church.

Th children of the community are invited and transportation will be needed by calling 752-6243.

New Editorial Director Named

RALEIGH (AP) — Claude F. Sitton, national news director of the New York Times, will become editorial director of the News & Observer Publishing Co. in Raleigh July 1.

Jonathan Daniels and Frank Daniels, owners of the Raleigh firm which publishes the morning News & Observer and the afternoon Raleigh Times, announced Sitton's appointment Tuesday.

They said, "No other changes in the organization are contemplated."

Sitton, 42, is a native of Georgia and has been with the New York Times since 1957. He was the newspaper's chief Southern correspondent for six years before moving to New York.

BUFFALO DRAW VISITORS

COLLINSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Thirty-three buffalo brought to nearby Bent Knee Valley Farm from Pierre, S.D., proved to be a tourist attraction. Farm manager Jack Cunningham 200 to 300 persons visited the farm each of the first two weekends after the herd arrived.

Country Estate
by Drexel
MOST TRUSTED NAME IN FURNITURE

Drexel introduces a collection with a new point of view. A collection that puts you into the decorating picture by giving you a choice of pieces from more than one furniture period. A choice of designs that rate high on that hard-to-achieve look of easy, informal elegance. And a choice of custom-developed-finishes, too. The major theme features a handsome harvest-tone on rich pecan veneers and solids. For striking accents, the heirloom beauty of chocolate-striped off-white . . . or the lively look of spring-green, highlighted by crackle-white and red striping. The happy result . . . rooms that really reflect your unique taste. Come see how much more you can do when you decorate with Country Estate by Drexel.

A&P

What Quality Beef Does A&P Sell?

That's a fair question. But not an easy one to answer because we have our own quality standards, different from any other meat merchant.

These standards don't fit exactly the familiar terms you know for grades of meat. As an example, did you know that some beef, graded U. S. Choice, just doesn't meet our "Super-Right" specifications? It's true! You see... we don't buy by grade. We use our own high standards to bring you the best values.

That doesn't mean we don't approve of such grading—not at all. It just means we're very fussy about the beef we label "Super-Right." It stands to reason we have to be or A&P wouldn't be America's number one meat merchant.

If you haven't learned the true meaning of "Super-Right" Quality—try it. Let the taste be the test. After all, it doesn't matter what the label or grade is. It's the EAT in the MEAT that counts.

The EAT in the MEAT is unconditionally guaranteed in "Super-Right" Beef. Either you agree that the "Super-Right" Beef you buy is as flavorful, as tender as you think it should be or you get your money back.

Is it any wonder with a quality guarantee like that, that "Super-Right" Beef is the choice of thousands?

Are "Super-Right" Meats a good reason for shopping A&P?

They're one of many!

was chosen by a faculty committee as one of two medical students "deserving of recognition."

Whitehurst attended Georgia Military Academy and completed his pre-medical studies at the University of North Carolina here. He will serve a year of internship training at Vanderbilt Hospital, Nashville, Tenn., beginning July 1.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Whitehurst Sr. of Bethel and is married to the former Mary Winnifred Everett of Robersonville.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. Coleman of 1003 E. Fifth St., Coleman is a graduate of J. H. Rose High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is a member of the Tar River Athletic Association and a member of Alpha Epsilon Delta Premedical Honor Society.

Coleman will serve a year of internship training at Vanderbilt Hospital, Nashville, Tenn.

Graduation In Grifton Monday

Grifton High School will hold commencement exercises at 8 p.m. Monday.

Dr. Ralph Brimley will be the guest speaker. Brimley is on the faculty at ECU in the School of Education. He earned his EdD from George Washington University and has published several articles in the field of school administration, and served on the Greenville City Council.

In addition to Brimley's speech, the Rev. Edwin Hill will deliver the invocation. Sam Nelson, of the Pitt County Board of Education, will present awards. Presentation of diplomas will be done by Mark Phillips of the Grifton School Advisory Council.

Valedictorian is Carroll Ray Edmondson. Salutatorian is Ella Louise Mann.

Music will be provided by the Glee Club.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be held at 8 p.m. on Sunday, with the sermon delivered by the Reverend William Edge, pastor of the First Christian Church.

$5 Billion Housing Bill Is Approved By Senate

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $5 billion housing bill containing a major new program to help poor families buy homes or rent apartments.

A 67-4 vote Tuesday sent the bill to the House where a Banking subcommittee already has approved legislation of similar scope.

Sponsors voiced confidence the measure will be sent to President Johnson before final adjournment, although they forecast some trouble for it in the House floor debate.

Johnson issued a statement applauding Senate approval of what he called "the largest and most comprehensive housing bill in the history of our nation."

The bill's key feature authorizes broad new federal subsidies to help low-income families buy or rent homes.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, leader of the Poor People's Campaign here, said the measure would go a long way toward meeting his group's housing goals.

The administration figures the new subsidies should make possible 85,000 starts on new and rehabilitated units available for purchase by low-income families in the next year—along with 90,000 rental units for the poor.

These would provide more than half of the 300,000 government-subsidized housing starts for these families which the administration has projected for fiscal 1969 starting July 1.

Congressional experts emphasized, however, that the new programs offer no instant miracles.

They noted the administration has projected actual expenditures of only $6.9 million for the home-ownership plan in the year ahead and $5.2 million for the apartments.

This would mean very little housing actually would become available during the upcoming fiscal year.

Under the plan, the government would subsidize the monthly mortgage payments by paying all of the interest charges above 1 per cent in the case of those with the lowest incomes.

Many home buyers now must pay 6¾ per cent or more to get mortgages.

The 303-page omnibus housing bill has dozens of other important provisions.

It includes new money authorizations for many existing programs designed to deal with problems of city slums and the impoverished.

In this category are model cities, rent subsidies, low-rent public housing, urban renewal, mass transit, rehabilitation loans and comprehensive planning aid.

Wrapped into the measure are far-reaching new provisions that would:

—Set up a government insurance corporation to help make policies available to homeowners and businessmen in riot-vulnerable areas.

—Establish a national flood insurance program.

—Make available a new package of federal help to developers of new, self-contained communities.

Bundy Speaking At Varied Events

Sam D. Bundy, principal of the Sam D. Bundy School, will be the featured speaker at the banquet session of the alumnae reunion of the Medical College of Virginia Saturday, June 1.

On June 6, Bundy will be the speaker at the banquet meeting of the North Carolina CPA convention to be held at the Blockade Runner in Wrightsville Beach. On July 10, Bundy will give the keynote address at the summer convention of the Bright Belt Warehouse Association at the Blockade Runner.

Bundy will speak at the Northern Neck Electric Membership Cooperative Annual Meeting in Warsaw, Va., on August 14.

War Games Set For June 11-21

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (AP)—Th 17th Cavalry of the 82nd Airborne Division, acting as an enemy aggressor, will parachute into the mythical country of Pineland in Exercise Gobbler Woods III war games June 11-21.

Pineland will be 1.5 million acres in Anson, Moore, Randolph, Richmond and Montgomery counties.

Leading the friendly forces against the aggressor will be about 200 students from the Special Forces officer class and psychological operations course at Ft. Bragg. A total of 700 men will be involved in the exercises, the others being Army support units and air support units.

News Sparse On Transplant Case

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Medical bulletins on the world's 16th heart transplant patient have been deliberately kept sparse because the patient spends much of his time watching television and listening to the radio.

This was what officials at the Medical College of Virginia indicated Tuesday night in describing the condition of Joseph G. Klett, 54, as "very satisfactory."

Presumably, Klett's physicians are concerned that details of his condition given to news media might not constitute the ideal type of programming for Klett the TV watcher and radio listener.

The donor has been unofficially identified as Bruce O. Ticker.

The bidding:

Opening lead: King of ♡

West's preemptive activities during the auction drove North and South to a slam contract which they might not have reached on their own initiative.

When West leaped to three hearts, North was pushed into the four level to show his club suit. After South's rebid of four spades, North felt that he had not yet done justice to his holding, so he made a slam try by overbidding the game.

South interpreted the five spade call as a request for controls in the other two suits and, since he held both red aces, he proceeded to six spades.

West opened the king of hearts which was taken by declarer's ace. Altho the opening lead had exposed him to the loss of a heart trick with the ace of clubs still to be dislodged, declarer's outlook was not altogether hopeless. If West held a seven card suit which appeared likely from his vulnerable preemptive bid, then East would have only a singleton heart. If the latter also holds the ace of clubs, South has time to develop that suit for an eventual heart discard, for East will be unable to reach his partner when he obtains the lead.

Inasmuch as declarer had no recourse but to proceed on this favorable assumption, he planned his campaign so as to utilize every one of dummy's entries for the establishment of the clubs. The queen of spades was cashed followed by a spade to the king. A club was led toward the closed hand and when East ducked, declarer's queen held the trick. A club was returned, and the ten was put in from dummy losing to East's jack.

East exited with his last trump to North's ace. A club was ruffed by declarer and dummy was reentered with the queen of diamonds in order to trump out East's remaining club. The king of diamonds now provided access to the established eight of clubs on which declarer discarded his losing heart. His only loser was a club trick.

Awards Presented Cubs Of Pack 200 At Meeting

Cub Pack 200 had its final pack meeting of the fiscal year last night at the Moose Lodge auditorium.

Assistant Cubmaster Ed Stallings presided over the meeting which was opened with the pledge of allegiance to the American flag, led by Franklin Davis.

Awards were presented to 14 cub scouts including Bob Cat, Wolf and Bear. Activity awards were presented to 12 webloes.

The Webloes Award was presented to five Webloes. They are Mark Boudreaux, Joel Jones, Bill Kirk, Dennis Kahn and Bruce Tripp. This award is presented to Webloes who pass the Boy Scout Tenderfoot test before leaving the cub pack to join a boy scout troop.

The theme of the meeting was Davy Jones Locker. All of the scouts were dressed as Pirates. Mrs. Miles' Den 1 presented a skit about the treasures of Davy Jones Locker.

As a special added attraction the program was beautified by the appearance of Girl Scout Troop 513, featuring a musical skit.

The four Webloes Dens presented a horn pipe dance which was led by their den chiefs, Bruce Baker and Walter Gray.

Assistant Cubmaster Stallings outlined the summer activities which include a covered dish supper to be held Saturday, June 9, 6:30 p.m. at Elm Street Park; a swimming party in July, date to be announced later; and a fishing contest in August, date to be announced later.

A gift of appreciation was presented for Cubmaster George Evans. The gift, "A Whale of a Guy" trophy, was presented by Asst. Cubmaster Stallings.

Webloes Den 4 was presented the Chubby Cubby for having the best parent-scout attendance at the meeting.

The meeting was closed with a prayer and refreshments were served by Webloes den chiefs and leaders.

Will Personally Check Reports

RALEIGH (AP) — Lt. Gov. Bob Scott, Democratic nominee for governor, says he will personally investigate any state employe's report that supervisors are pressuring state employes for contributions to the Scott campaign.

The lieutenant governor, in a statement marking State Employes Week, said: "I want it clearly understood that there will be no pressure on them to vote for me. Neither will there be any pressure on them to make contributions to my campaign for governor."

Broughton Went Into The Red

RALEIGH (AP)—Raleigh attorney Mel Broughton says he spent $2,700 more than he collected in his unsuccessful race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Broughton's final expense report, filed in Secretary of State Thad Eure's office late Friday, indicated the candidate received $118,943 in contributions and spent $121,652.

State Treasurer Edwin Gill turned in his expense report with a balance sheet showing $25,205.01 received and spent.

Stock And Market Reports

RALEIGH (AP) — (NCDA)—North Carolina egg markets ½ cent higher on large and balance generally steady Tuesday. Supplies adequate demand fair. Prices paid producers and handlers for consumer grade eggs in cartons delivered nearby outlets:

Grade A large whites: 36 to 37, medium, whites: 28 to 31 small, whites: 25½ to 27.

RALEIGH (AP)—NCDA) — North Carolina hog markets today were steady. Tops of 18.75-19.25 Rocky Mount; 18.25-19.00 Wilson; 18.50 Greensboro, Salisbury, Selma; 18.00 Siler City, Denton.

NEW YORK (AP)—Gains outnumbered losses on the New York Stock Exchange today but averages softened as preholiday profits were taken on blue chips.

Trading was heavy, ranking with Tuesday's when nearly 14 million shares changed hands.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down .97 at 895.81, having backed away from a gain of 2.34.

The markets will be closed Thursday for Memorial Day but will reopen Friday.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .2 at 330.9, with industrials off .3, rails off .4, and utilities up .2.

Blue chips backed away from their rally of Tuesday. Du Pont and International Nickel dropped about a point each while fractional losses were posted for American Telephone, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Commonwealth Edison, Union Carbide and others.

Occidental Petroluem set the pace on volume, advancing about 1½. The second most active, Brunswick, tacked on a substantial fraction.

Also active, Youngstown Sheet climbed nearly 3 and Whittaker about 2½ while Commonwealth Oil, Anaconda and Standard Kollsman advanced about a point each.

Collins Radio sluffed off 3 points or so in active dealings. IBM gained 4, Xerox about 3 and Owens-Illinois 1 while Control Data dropped about 2.

Pices continued to advance in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Fewer On Books After 'Purges'

RALEIGH (AP)—North Carolina Elections Board secretary Alex K. Brock says the state's voter registration has declined in the past 14 months because 56 counties have purged their registration books.

Brock, in a report released Tuesday, said Republican registration rose from 356,869 in February 1967 to 375,807 on May 5. Democratic registrations during the same period dropped from 1,526,075 to 1,446,469.

Brock said 36 counties held complete re-registrations this year, most of them for the first time in 25 years, and 20 other counties purged the names of voters who had died or moved away.

Crew's Reunion . .

the boys planned to place a monument at the site of the crash. Efforts made by the Honeywell division led to the reunion of the seven survivors of the crash for the memorial.

Roderick Turner Merritt, 23, whose father died in the crash, pressed one of the same switches that the boys found, activating a transatlantic signal that unveiled the monument.

Direct correspondence of the men with the boys was made possible by a telephone connection between New York and the site of the monument.

During the call, James S. Locke, vice president and general manager of Honeywell Micro Switch, read to the boys a message from Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, who commanded the Eighth Air Force at the time of the crash. Doolittle's letter thanked the youths for their monument as another gesture of good will between England and America.

Officiating at the dedication was William R. Dunn, advisor to the Reivers. Representatives of the British and U. S. air services and Sir Alfred Godson, chairman of the estate trust for the Cheviot, attended the services. U. S. Air Force jet fighters staged a close "flyby" dipping their wings in homage.

Survivors present for the event included Hardy, who received the Soldier's Medal for Heroism in the crash and rescue; George A. Kyle Jr., pilot, formerly of Staunton, Va.; now of Atlanta; Joel A. Berly Jr., radio operator, formerly of Clemson, S. C. and now of Clinton, N. C.; George P. Smith, ball turrent gunner, Louisville, Ky.; William R. Kaufman, waist gunner, of Weaton, Ill., president of Reserve Electric Supply Co. at Glen Ellyn; Howard F. Delaney, tail gunner, of Watertown, N. Y.; and Ernest G. Schieferstein, flight engineer, of Baldwin, Long Island, N. Y.

Killed in the crash were Fred Holcombe of Swannanoa, N. C. and Frank Turner Jr. of Columbia, S. C. whose son unveiled the monument.

Hardy was born in Snow Hill July 3, 1924. He attended N. C. State University in Raleigh 1941-1943. He entered the Air Force in June of 1943. On October, 1945, he was discharged as a Second Lieutenant.

Hardy was married in June 12, 1947. He has three children, Jacquilyn, 17, James, 14, and John Franklin, 11.

He is presently president of the James H. Hardy Oil Co., in Snow Hill.

Risk Cut-Off

RALEIGH (AP) — North Carolina Welfare Commissioner Clifton Craig warned today that welfare recipients risk being cut off the relief rolls if they are convicted of participating in riots.

Craig said that this policy is being implemented in accordance with the Federal Appropriation Act of 1968 which says that funds appropriated under the act may not be used to provide payments to persons convicted of riot activities.

The welfare commissioner said the provision "is applicable to all recipients of welfare funds and to all employes and individuals that are currently receiving these funds for renumeration. Anyone who has been convicted in federal, state, or local courts subsequent to Nov. 8, 1967, will be affected by this law."

Craig noted that 70 per cent of the welfare funds are paid by the federal government.

Reds See Losses Mounting

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese troops battled Viet Cong holdouts today on the southwest side of Saigon as the U.S. Marines reported hurling back two massive North Vietnamese assaults near Khe Sanh. The Marines said they killed 230 of the enemy.

"The war has intensified" said Gen. William C. Westmoreland, "but the enemy is not doing well militarily. They've had no military victories."

After four days of hard fighting on the outskirts of Saigon, the South Vietnamese said they had wiped out the last Viet Cong pockets in Gia Dinh, on the northern side of the city, and retaken two thirds of the Phu Lam residential area on the southwest side of the city.

In Phu Lam, four miles from downtown Saigon, government marines were advancing from the south while rangers pushed in from the north trying to dig out a Viet Cong force strengthened by 100 or more reinforcements during the night.

U.S. gunship helicopters fired rockets into buildings from which enemy snipers were laying down sharp barrages of small arms and rocket fire into street intersections.

South Vietnamese officers said one VC prisoner indicated that the infiltrators had taken heavy casualties, possibly up to 50 per cent in two days of clashes. But two South Vietnamese troops were killed and 10 wounded in the first few hours of fighting this morning.

The government radio reported more than 100 Viet Cong killed in the last few days around Gia Dinh.

Louisville Sees More Violence

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — More than 150 persons were arrested and 15 others were injured Tuesday night as the second night of racial violence in Louisville was marked by hit-and-run tactics of brick throwers and sporadic sniper fire.

National Guardsmen aided police in the city's West End, a predominantly Negro section where rioting erupted Monday night and resumed Tuesday afternoon and night.

Three persons hit by gunfire during Tuesday night's disorders were reported in serious condition. A policeman was also hit by a gunshot. He was reported in good condition. Three firemen and three guardsmen were admitted to the hospital. One fireman suffered from smoke inhalation. The others were struck by thrown glass and rocks.

Twenty persons were injured Monday night, including four gunshot victims.

The violence Tuesday was a carryover from Monday night's rioting which broke out at the end of a rally in the West End urging the dismissal of a policeman accused of using excessive force in arresting a Negro.

Police Chief C. J. Hyde said Tuesday's violence was more intense than Monday "from a standpoint of hit-and-run tactics." He said the 8 p.m. curfew imposed Tuesday by Mayor Kenneth Schmied increased the number of arrests. Hyde said police policy was "to arrest all violators of any kind."

"By this method and a show of force at an early stage we have been able to control the situation to the extent that there was no large gathering," he added.

A decision on whether to impose a curfew tonight on this city of 400,000 was to be made today by Schmied.

Lt. Col. Bert Hawkins, Hyde's assistant, said the heaviest instance of sniper fire was encountered by police protecting firemen. "Snipers opened up on the firemen and the policemen with them. The police weren't able to pinpoint the location of the snipers but a car sped away shortly after the firing stopped."

Firemen were constantly active Tuesday night as dozens of real and false alarms were reported. All off-duty firemen were recalled Monday night. Louisville's 578-man police force is working 12-hour shifts with days off canceled.

Some 1,200 National Guardsmen, mobilized by Gov. Louie B. Nunn and 150 state troopers remained in Louisville today. An initial detail of 700 guardsmen arrived in Louisville Monday and additional units were called out Tuesday afternoon when the violence renewed.

Several young gangs ventured into the downtown area, 20 blocks from the West End where some 50,000 of the city's 86,000 Negroes reside. The vandals smashed shop windows and caused authorities to close Louisville's main business artery to vehicle traffic.

Some Stay On In Shantytown

By JACK MILLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Their "city of hope" made a quagmire by heavy rains, about half the 2,400 Poor People's Campaigners have evacuated Resurrection City—at least temporarily.

Their leader, the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, has said the plywood shantytown won't be abandoned no matter how bad things got.

Things had gotten pretty bad Thursday.

Almost daily drenching rains continued, chill winds blew, the muddy waters spread and the big dinner tent fell.

At the encampment near the Lincoln Memorial where the group has stayed since early this month while petitioning the government to end poverty in America, the loudspeaker announced:

"We are going to have a temporary evacuation for all those who want to go."

An undetermined number—mostly women and children—went. Camp leaders said later they weren't sure how many remained. But they noted only about 1,000 showed up for dinner Tuesday.

An Abernathy aide reported people were being evacuated at their wish to churches and homes.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson, the city manager, said the rains had proved a "divine separating system," causing those with "no real sense of purpose" to leave while unifying those remaining.

"Some just honestly can't cut it," said Jackson. "But for many of us it's a matter of going for broke."

Boy Dies After Lung Transplant

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP) —A 15-year-old boy who breathed for 11 days with the lung of an 18-year-old died Tuesday at Edinburgh Royal Infirmary. He was the world's fourth lung transplant patient; none survived.

The youth, Alex Smith, was given the girl's lung after he accidentally swallowed a weed killer.

Dr. Boozer Leaving N. C. Higher Board

RALEIGH (AP)—Dr. Howard Boozer, director of the North Carolina Board of Higher Education, will become vice president of the Regional Education Laboratory for the Carolinas and Virginia.

Watts Hill Jr., chairman of the state board, said Tuesday that Boozer's resignation — effective Dec. 1—"was received with deep regret by the entire board."

A new director is expected to be named this week.

The regional laboratory, temporarily headquartered in Durham and planning permanent offices in the Research Triangle Park, promotes accelleration of change and innovation in education, particularly at the college and university level.

Boozer, who has headed the higher education board for three years, will have general responsibility for all higher education research and development activities at RELCV.

EXTENDED WEATHER OUTLOOK FOR N. C.

Temperatures through Monday will average below normal, with lows at night mostly in the upper 50s. Precipitation of about a quarter inch in the east, occurring as showers over the weekend.
