Hippies Find A Refuge In The Colorado Rockies

By BURL OSBORNE Associated Press Writer SUGAR LOAF, Colo. (AP) — John the Freak, surrounded by the magnificent scenery of the Colorado Rockies, added molasses to his pancake batter and said "let's pray to God" that California doesn't slide into the sea.

Some say they came to get close to nature.

No one can say for sure how many hippies have taken to the mountains. Their numbers—estimates ranged from fewer than 100 to thousands—have increased noticeably in the nearby city of Boulder, home of the University of Colorado.

Red Rocket Caches Found By Searchers

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. soldiers scouring Saigon's rocket belt Thursday found 32 enemy missiles and killed 26 guerrillas.

Skip Subtle Approach To Your Sitter Problem

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow and I go out very often so my neighbor (an elderly lady) baby-sits with my two children, a girl, 7 and a boy, 4. Here's my problem:

Every time this lady comes to my home to sit, she brings a little gift for my daughter, but never anything for my son. Sometimes it's candy, a toy, or something of that order. Naturally, it makes the little boy pealous and causes trouble.

I have told her in as nice and subtle a way as I could to bring for both or neither one, but it's like she doesn't hear me. A good sitter is hard to find and I don't want to have to look for another one, so tell me how can I make her understand the trouble she's causing me?

NEEDS HELP

DEAR NEEDS: You may not be able to, in which case you would be ahead to start looking for another sitter. Perhaps if you skipped the "subtle" approach and simply TOLD her, "either—or," you'd accomplish more.

DEAR ABBY: My husband went to the hospital for an operation which we knew would be serious, but we didn't know HOW serious. To make a long story short, he died on the operating table after nearly 3 hours of surgery.

As you can imagine, I was pretty well broken up. Just as I was getting over the shock, here comes a bill from the surgeon for my poor deceased hus-

This Is The Year Of Unisex--Togetherness

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

AP Fashion Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — Vive la difference? That's old fashioned. At least among the avant garde this is the year of unisex.

That age-old battle of the sexes over who in the household wears the pants has come to a draw. Both do, the same style, interchangeably.

Moreover, the really togetherness couple have a common supply of shirts, jackets, jewelry, neckties and hats. They share the same hairdresser and while party-hopping, carry their combs and cigarettes in the same handbag. A divorce would leave one or the other without a thing to wear.

"Why should they try to separate us?" pondered Cary Grant whose screen image has made millions of women happy that men were men. "We should all just smell well and enjoy ourselves."

Cosmetics is a means of unifying the sexes, said the actor in announcing that he had become a board member of a cosmetics firm.

Just a few days earlier designer Rudi Gernreich told buyers at his fall knitwear collection that the skirt was dead. Despite efforts of others to resuscitate the romantic midi, the Californian insisted that clothes for men and women were now converging.

"It is the only practical thing for our contemporary way of life," said Gernreich, dressed in a belted tunic and belted trousers like those on his manikins. Still the knitted costumes spelled out the difference in girls as significantly as a shrunken sweater.

Gernreich, lest it be forgotten, pioneered unisex fashions by introducing bathing trunks for women five years ago.

band's operation! How money-hungry can a doctor be, anyway?

Anyone with half a brain knows that if the operation had been a success my husband would be alive today, so we can assume that the operation was a failure, right?

Please tell me, Dear Abby, is it considered ethical for a surgeon to send the widow a bill for an operation which failed.

THE WIDOW

DEAR WIDOW: A surgeon invests the same amount of time, knowledge and skill in an operation which fails as in one which succeeds. There are no guarantees in surgery. If the patient dies, some surgeons will reduce the bill, which may or may not reduce the resentment on the part of the family. But it is indeed "ethical" to send a bill, regardless of the outcome.

DEAR ABBY: Here is my story: 2 years ago I became involved with a married woman. (I'll call her June.) I was also married and I left my wife and children to live with June, who left her husband to live with me. I realized after 3 months that I had made a terrible mistake, so I went back to my wife who was big enough to forgive me and take me back.

Soon after I left June, she called me at work and told me she was having MY baby. (It could be.) I didn't have the heart to tell my wife about it but I have been giving June money to keep her quiet, and to support the child. She keeps asking for more, and I can't afford it. I have been so nervous and preoccupied lately that my wife suspects something is wrong, but I've already hurt her so much that I can't tell her. What should I do?

IN DEEP

DEAR IN: First tell your wife. She shouldn't be shocked because she knew you left her to live with another woman. Get yourself a lawyer and let the law decide how much (if anything) this woman is entitled to. And pay up like a man.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: If you are not properly registered to vote, call your local DEMOCRATIC OR REPUBLICAN headquarters and find out where you should register and when. "All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." (Edmund Burke)
Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
HATE TO WRITE LETTERS? SEND $1 TO ABBY, BOX 69700, LOS ANGELES, CAL., 90069. FOR ABBY'S BOOKLET "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Young People: Music Instead Of Drug Stores As Hangouts

By VIVIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures Writer
Teen-agers are hanging out in music stores, says the American Music Conference group, people who keep track of such things.

Drug store proprietors couldn't be happier. They have been pulling out on young people in recent years, and it isn't easy if it is an old-time store with a family business. The excuse given when soda fountain and booths are removed is that it is in the interest of expansion. The druggist needs more room for drugs. One New England druggist notes "there wasn't enough profit in ice cream and soda as a sideline to make it worthwhile. I liked young people around but new people in town complained about noise, confusion and bad service. It's all right until you get competition and the other drug store doesn't have a fountain. You lose business."

Meanwhile, music stores—and there are 11,000—are expanding because of young people's interest.

In St. Louis, music merchant Lee Hamilton has built a million-dollar business in five years with three stores that are jumping with teen-age enthusiasm.

On Friday nights, when jam sessions and other special events are scheduled, crowds of more than 300 are attracted, reports the music conference group. More than 70 different musical groups play at his store.

Miami's Bill Binder added a separate room to his store and called it "Guitar Alley" designed for musicmakers who like rock 'n roll or classics.

Next door to it is a 150-seat music hall where teen-age combos perform and compete for prizes. In Minneapolis, Irv Trestman publishes a news letter for music-minded types. It has a circulation of 3,000 and follows youthful customers wherever they go.

He has gone through all the music problems himself, he explains, so he tries to help youngsters in every way possible at his music center.

Hollywood's Seymour Drugan who directs the instruments department at the Splevin Music Center reports that 400 boys and girls will again traffic his place this summer, 150 a day more than those visiting during the school year.

One way to boost teen-age traffic is to bring in some big name stars. "Mo" Mahoney's Drum Shop in Las Vegas has pros like Louis Bellson and Buddy Rich putting on regular instruction clinics for young people.

Young people attracted to music stores are not really killing time, says the music group. They want to play instruments and to own them.

Bethel WCTU Met On Monday

BETHEL — "United Action—Open Hearts and Arms," was the program topic for the meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. L. Gurganus.

Mrs. Gurganus presented the program. She read a scripture lesson and spoke on the theme, "Wayside Ministry."

From the department of Social Service, she reported some of the outstanding work of Jennie Cassidy and from the department of Christian Outreach, she stressed the importance of being a Light Line Union, whose funds are used for World WCTU work.

In addition, she reviewed leaflets on "Gateways to Peace," "Something Sweet," "All Around the World," and "Saboteurs of Victory."

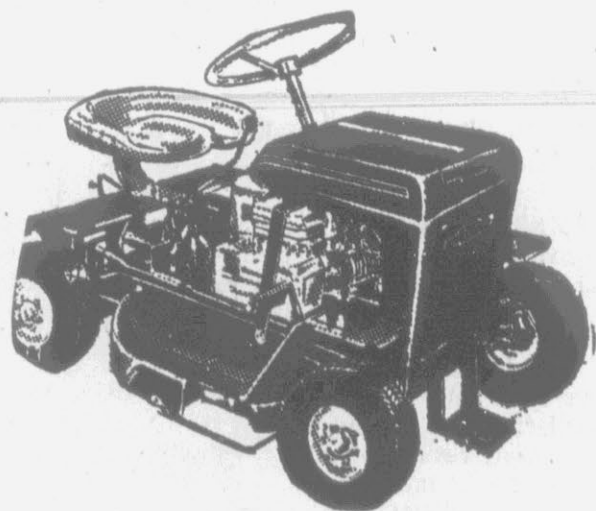

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Now's The Time To Make A Start

As Pitt County Commissioners hammer out a budget for the coming fiscal year, they should not overlook the urgent need for voting machines in some of the county's larger precincts.

The primaries on May 4 pointed up vividly the need for mechanizing the voting process in a number of the county's precincts. Handling the deluge of paper ballots, most of the precincts were in the wee hours of the morning getting their votes counted, and in several precincts it was well after dawn before the long vote-counting ended.

Obviously Pitt County would be hard pressed to go out and purchase or lease voting machines for all of its 26 precincts. There are many of the precincts in which the voting machines are not needed because the number of votes normally cast are not sufficient to justify a machine. There are at least half-dozen of the largest precincts in the county, however, where the installation of voting machines would be more than justified.

Following the pattern in many other progressive counties, Pitt could start by installing voting machines in a few precincts where they are most acutely needed, and then add machines a few at a time over a period of years until they are in use in every precinct where they are needed.

Pitt can ill afford to continue with the long, over-night vote counting such as it encountered in the May primary. The general election in November promises to bring out just as many, if not more voters, and the ballot probably will be just as complicated to count as was the case in May. Unless the county moves now to acquire machines at the precincts where they are most acutely needed, Pitt will again find itself snowed under with paper ballots in the general election.

We recognize that the county finds itself with many more requests than it has funds to meet during the coming fiscal year. But this is the situation every year when budgets are made.

We recognize that arguments against voting machines have been advanced in the past and will be advanced now. But most of the progressive counties of the state have already moved to the use of these machines where larger precincts made paper ballots impractical. Pitt has long since reached that point in a number of its precincts.

We also recognize that some officials would like to postpone to another year — or many more years — the beginning of the acquisition of voting machines. But there will never be a really convenient time to begin this much needed program. There will always be other things that are also needed.

Pitt's Commissioners, in our judgement, would be acting in the best interest of the county and its citizens if they move now to begin the acquisition of voting machines during the fiscal year which begins July 1.

Busy Season In North Carolina

By WILLIAM A. SHIRES
Reflector Raleigh Bureau
RALEIGH — The state's newspapers of recent days have served readers a vivid, wide-angle panorama of what life and living is like in summer in North Carolina.

rhododendron trail leading to a waterfall. Later there was fog and rain, and slippery clay on the path—then tragedy.

Other Reports
A youth caught in the pounding surf at Atlantic Beach was drowned and nearly 100 others were rescued by lifeguards. The Daily Journal at Rockingham published pictures of black tornado clouds which menaced parts of the state and spawned twisters that struck in Mecklenburg and Union counties.

But also in Charlotte, things were being prepared for the annual Miss North Carolina pageant in which the beauty who will represent the state for the coming year will be chosen this week.

Across Eastern North Carolina, 1,000 Boy Scouts from Wayne, Duplin, Sampson and Johnston counties were marching on a pilgrimage from Goldsboro to Bath to dramatize their faith in God and love of country. An Air Force general told the Scouts that their march "puts to shame many of the demonstrations we have seen in this great nation in recent years. You are setting an example for many young Americans."

The town of Edenton dedicated a new visitor center-museum and inaugurated daily tours of buildings and sites in the historic Edenton area.

Religious Meets
There were religious conferences and retreats at Lake Junaluska, Ridgecrest, Montreat, at Fayetteville and at other places across the state. Many such conferences will continue through the summer.

Hollywood film crews were making movies at Ramseur and selecting film site locations in Iredell County, near Statesville.

A picture on the front page of the Roanoke Rapids Daily Herald showed a crushed and broken bicycle, mute evidence of tragedy that claimed the lives of two children riding along a road in Northampton County. A logging truck hit the bike on which the youngsters were riding double. They swerved from behind a mowing tractor into the path of the truck.

WILLIAM SHIRES

There are many things to do and places to see and visit, and something is happening continuously. The variety of North Carolina is reflected in the datelines of news dispatches and the stories, each painting a word picture of what is happening across the state.

This time of year the scene shifts from Raleigh and the buzz of political conventions and rallies and the hum of hotel lobbies and conference rooms in this seat of state government and hot spot of state politics.

Vacation Season
For a time, as summer approaches, politics slows down. But much is happening and being reported—weather, crops, religious conventions and conferences, filming of Hollywood movies at North Carolina locations, beach trips, vacations—and tragedy.

Near Highlands, the body of a four year old girl is found in a lake as a tragic climax to a long, agonizing search by nearly 1,000 volunteers and National Guardsmen in the rugged waterfall country of Macon and Jackson Counties.

It is vacation season and the little girl had come from Atlanta, Ga., to the beautiful mountain country with her parents, then wandered away from some playmates on a

Some Question Nuclear Treaty

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Its U. S. and Soviet sponsors hail it as a historic step toward disarmament, but many countries are far from happy with the new treaty aimed at curbing the spread of nuclear weapons.

Some call it a "treaty of imperfections." Some doubt that it will have any effect on the nuclear arms race.

There is no doubt that the treaty draft, approved by the U. N. General Assembly Wednesday and now open for signature and ratification, falls far short of what most countries wanted. But it appears to be the best that could be arrived at after 10 years of debate and negotiation.

Its worth will be determined by the number of countries that adhere to it and the effect it has in creating a favorable atmosphere for future disarmament negotiations. It is generally agreed its value may be mainly in this latter direction.

Almost everyone at the U. N. General Assembly acknowledged that any agreement by the United States and the Soviet Union on a disarmament treaty was significant at a time when the international atmosphere was poisoned by the Vietnam war. Generally, however, the U. N. diplomats are not so sure about the value of the treaty as a barrier to the spread of nuclear weapons to countries that do not have them.

There are two obvious weaknesses to the treaty: Two of the five nuclear powers — France and Red China — won't adhere to it; and perhaps as many as 10 near-nuclear countries also will refuse to sign.

South Africa, for example, is not expected to sign the pact, and several black African countries fear that the white regime in South Africa may

Strength For Today

By EARL L. DOUGLASS
QUEST FOR HAPPINESS
How much do we really know and would we be any happier if we knew everything there is to know in the world and the universe?

Probably not. We are always imagining how wonderful it would attribute much of our discontent to the fact that we are bewildered and ignorant concerning many aspects of life. But look at the highly educated, some of them even geniuses. Are they happier than the general run of persons? It would appear that the happiest people in life are the ones who have found a pretty straight course and are pushing along as best they can to meet the requirements of each day. The over-ambitious seem to be afflicted with fever. The under-ambitious are like lumps of jelly, and we recall that Teddy Roosevelt once remarked that dealing with some people is like trying to nail cranberry jelly to the wall.

Certainly no one should lose an opportunity to gain knowledge. Parents should see to it that their children are encouraged to get an education and are given all the education they can take. No one should be compelled to go into a type of work that is utterly distasteful. The increased general interest in education is a wholesome sign for any nation and should lead to all things considered — to a happy issue of events.

Happiness and knowledge are not synonymous. Wealth and happiness are not synonymous. But the acquiring and use of knowledge is an important factor in the living of a happy life.

Our Flag

Today is Flag Day and it is fitting that we pause to give at least a few moments of thought to Old Glory and what it has meant, is meaning, and will mean to the world. Our flag is of great importance to us, not because it represents the greatest and mightiest nation on earth; not because it is the emblem of a great people, but because it is an outward expression of a great ideal — the realization of a great dream. Our flag is an expression of truth, freedom, and liberty. It offers peace and personal freedom to anyone willing to obey the constitution it represents, the laws it so faithfully upholds, and the promise of peace it holds out to all the world. In addition to this the sight of our flag should bring to our attention the sacrifices that have been made that our flag and the world might live on.

Announce Engagement Of Popular Young Lady

Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Jones in Grimesland, Miss Ada Ward of Washington, D. C., charmingly entertained at a heart die party. Miss Julia Satterthwaite was awarded perfume as winner of high score. The low score price, handkerchiefs, went to Mrs. J. E. Edwards. Mrs. Raymond Elks, a recent bride, was given attractive handkerchiefs. The guests were then invited into the dining room. On each guest's plate a miniature bride was placed. A single word was found in each bride's bouquet.

Miss Mary Jones and Julia Satterthwaite of Grimesland were here today.
Miss Elizabeth Deal and Paul Hatem, Greenville delegates to the State Presbyterian Young Peoples' convention at Davidson, returned home Tuesday after a wonderful week of work, play and fellowship.

Hard To Be A Swinger

WASHINGTON — It's very hard for many college students to live up to the roles they have been given by the mass media. What newspapers, magazines and television networks expect from students is more than most of them can deliver. I discovered this when I was speaking at a Midwestern campus the other day.

A student, whom I shall call Ronald Hoffman, seemed very troubled and I asked him what the problem was.

"My parents are coming up next week, and I don't know what to do."

"Why?"
"Well, you see, I told them I was living off-campus with this co-ed in an apartment. But the truth is that I'm living in the dormitory."

"That shouldn't really disturb them."

"Oh, but it will. They're very proud of me, and they think I should have a mind of my own. When my dad heard I was living off-campus with a co-ed, he doubled my allowance because, as he put it, 'Anyone who is willing to spit in the eye of conformity deserves his father's support.' I don't know what he's going to say when he finds out I used the money to buy books."

"It'll hurt him," I agreed. "What will your mother say?"

"I don't know. She's been crying a lot since I wrote her about living with this co-ed, and Dad's been arguing with her that her trouble is she doesn't understand youth. Mom's likely to get pretty sore when she discovers she's been crying for nothing."

"Not to mention how silly your father will look for making her cry."

Ronald shook his head sadly. "The trouble with parents these days is they believe everything they read. Life magazine, in a 'Sex on the Campus' article, made it sound so easy to find a co-ed to live with. Well, let me tell you, for every Linda Le Clair of Barnard who's playing house with a male college student, there-are a million co-eds who won't even do the dishes."

"Then all this talk of students living out of wedlock is exaggerated?"

"Exaggerated? When I got here I asked 10 girls if they wanted to live with me."

"What will your mother say?"

"I don't know. She's been crying a lot since I wrote her about living with this co-ed, and Dad's been arguing with her that her trouble is she doesn't understand youth. Mom's likely to get pretty sore when she discovers she's been crying for nothing."

"Not to mention how silly your father will look for making her cry."

The first one said she didn't come to college to iron shirts for the wrong guy. Four told me frankly that it would hurt their chances of finding a husband. Three told me to drop dead, and one reported me to the campus police. I was lucky to get a room in the dormitory."

"I guess it's no fun for a young man to pretend he's a swinger."

"You can say that again. Every time I go home, everybody wants to know about the pot parties and orgies I go to at school. The only thing that's saved me is that I've seen 'La Dolce Vita' twice."

"You have to depend on your imagination?"

"What college boy doesn't?"
Ronald said, "There are more conscientious objectors among co-eds in the Sexual Revolution than any modern sociologist would dare admit."

"It's enough to destroy your faith in Hugh Hefner," I said.

"Look, I'm not complaining. Ronald said, 'I'm just trying to figure out how to explain it to my father. He's living his fantasies through me and I hate to let him down.'"

"Why don't you tell him the reason you can't introduce the co-ed you're living with is that she's going to have a baby?"

"Hey," Ronald said, "that's a great idea. It might cause Mom to cry again, but it will make Dad awfully proud."

Other Editors Saying A Mammoth Task

(Kinston Free Press)

President Johnson Monday signed an executive order activating his new commission to seek causes and cures for violence in American life and issued a stirring challenge to the group, headed by Dr. Milton Eisenhower. His charge to the group was as follows:

"To undertake a penetrating search for the causes and prevention of violence — a search into our national life, our past as well as our present, our traditions as well as our institutions, our culture, our customs and our laws."

He asked the Congress to grant the commission subpoena power and named Lloyd Cutler, a Washington attorney as director. The agency is set up for a year, but the President expressed the hope that it might bring in a report considerably ahead of the 12-months deadline.

The commission was created by the President in the wake of the violence that claimed the life of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in California last week. It was not asked to look specifically into that crime, because legal processes against a suspect in that case would be involved. There are ample other evidences of violence to probe, however, and the work of the commission will be massive if it is to be comprehensive and meaningful for the future.

While the commission is at work on its probe it would be very much in order for all Americans to resolve to be more lawabiding and more concerned with making the rule of law the cardinal principle of our society.

The commission may find causes and even recommend curative approaches, but in its final analysis concern on the part of all citizens must be evidenced daily to achieve a truly lawful Republic in which all will be safe from violence.

Labor As A Force For Inflation

By ELMER ROESSNER
At the moment, labor is the principal force for more inflation.

It's not the basic cause, of course. The basic cause is that there is no solid backing for the dollar, at least in domestic trade. Congress has been unable to agree on any decisive action to halt inflation; the dollar is worth what anyone says it is. And labor chooses to say that it is worth less than producers say.

The Department of Labor estimates that hourly wage costs rose 10 per cent in the first quarter of this year, while productivity increased only 4 per cent, making unit labor costs rise 6 per cent.

That, man, is inflation. And in April, consumer prices were 4 per cent higher than a year ago. Labor and Cost of Living First National City Bank, in its June Economic Letter, points out that items used to make up the consumer price index rose higher when labor was a large element of production.

ELMER ROESSNER

In a study of prices of 30 items from March, 1966, to March, 1968, it found that hospital charges rose more than 35 per cent, domestic services rose 18 per cent, and postal charges 19 per cent. Indoor movie admissions and local transit fares rose more than 15 per cent. Up 10 to 15 per cent were physicians' fees, men's haircuts, dentists' fees, footwear, tobacco products, food away from home, and dairy products. Labor costs are major costs in producing those products.

Rising from 5 to 10 per cent were women's and girls' apparel, furniture and bedding, home ownership costs, beauty shop services, men's and boys' clothing, fruits and vegetables, gasoline and home phone services.

Under 5 per cent were beer, cereals & bakery products, rent, new autos, floor coverings, gas & electricity, refrigerators; showing declines were drugs and prescriptions, TV sets and meat, poultry and fish.

More To Come
The bank observes: "Items for which augmented capital

Rocky On The Ropes

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — The inner circle of powerful men who made Ronald Reagan Governor of California met privately Wednesday in Pasadena, Calif., with Gov. Nelson Rockefeller at the home of a mutual friend.

The purpose was to give Rockefeller a chance to make his Presidential case to the bankrollers of Reagan's entry into politics in 1966.

There have been signs of latent Rockefeller strength in this high-powered group, which includes Leonard Firestone, a 1964 Rockefellerman; Taft Schreiber of Music Corp. of America, who may be leaning to Rockefeller; Holmes Tuttle, who has the closest ties to Reagan of the group; Henry Salvatori, the right-wing oil millionaire.

Assuming Reagan is out of practical contention for the Presidential nomination himself, Salvatori would almost certainly swing to Richard M. Nixon. The others, including Tuttle, are at least prospective Rockefeller backers inside the 86-member California delegation, once Reagan is counted out.

If Rockefeller's invasion of Reagan's backyard seems a desperate gambit, it is simply a measure of his waning prospects for the nomination. Instead of observing a long moratorium following Robert F. Kennedy's assassination, he has no choice but to barnstorm the country, saturate the television screen, and dine with fat cats.

Rockefeller's desperate condition is illustrated by a conversation prior to Kennedy's assassination between a top-rank party official in an Eastern state and Gov. Spiro T. (Ted) Agnew, a robust Rockefeller cheerleader last winter.

"Rockefeller," said Agnew, "is through."

This taut appraisal belies assurances by Rockefeller operatives that Agnew, though still furious over his humiliation last March 21, when Rockefeller failed to inform him of his temporary drop-out, had not definitely left the Governor's camp. In fact, he has.

But not merely the errors of the past plague Rockefeller. Unaccountably, mistakes continue. For example, he recently turned down a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner in New Jersey for reasons still not clear to party officials. Nixon, naturally, accepted.

Moreover, the centrifugal force of Nixon's successes is pulling more and more Republicans into line who would go with Rockefeller if they thought he had a real chance. A poll two weeks ago of ten prominent Eastern Republicans showed nine for Nixon, one for Rockefeller. Four years ago, these same ten split nine for Rockefeller, one for Barry Goldwater.

Even before Kennedy's death, Rockefeller's strongest backers admitted that only a stroke of fortune — a major Nixon blunder or dramatic polls showing Nixon losing to Vice President Humphrey — could reverse the Nixon tide.

At the Republican National Committee meeting in Portland on that fateful June 4, the day Kennedy was murdered, Rockefeller men from Connecticut proudly showed us a new state poll giving Rockefeller a 52 percent to 43 percent bulge over Humphrey (Continued On Page 6)

Attorneys For 5 On Death Row Now Hopeful

RALEIGH (AP)—Lawyers for the five men on death row at Central Prison are hopeful that a recent U.S. Supreme Court decision may save their clients from the gas chamber.

The attorneys indicated in telephone interviews Thursday they are confident the condemned men will benefit from the court's ruling forbidding automatic exclusion from juries in capital cases of all persons with moral or religious scruples against capital punishment.

The lawyers also indicated they had raised the question in appeal proceedings undertaken well before the high court's ruling last week.

Moses Burt of Durham, attorney for Marion F. Crawford and John Routh, pointed out that the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals ruled several months ago that Crawford was entitled to a new trial because death penalty foes were excluded from the jury which heard his case.

The case was appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court by the State of North Carolina.

"We're very hopeful about all of this," said Burt. "We've argued for a long time that this type of exclusionary practice is unconstitutional."

Crawford, 30, was convicted in 1963 of raping and murdering an eight-year-old girl at Winston-Salem. Routh, 30, was convicted in February of fatally stabbing a Durham woman.

Other men on death row are: Joseph Spence and Glenn Williams, convicted of murdering a Durham taxi driver, and Bobby Childs, accused of raping a woman at Asheville.

George Gordon of Greensboro, one of two attorneys for Spence and Williams, said:

"I think we've got at least as strong a case as the one we read about the court deciding last week. In some respects, I think our's may be stronger. I'm very optimistic."

Had First Services In Church Chapel

The congregation of the former Eighth Street Christian Church moved into its new chapel and administrative-education building last Sunday morning.

The new Williamsburg Colonial chapel was the scene of two identical worship services with 420 members present of its 550 membership.

In his sermon, the Rev. William J. Hadden Jr. spoke on "The Unfinished Church," challenging the members to finish the task of building Christian character in mind, heart and soul. "We build in vain if our ultimate purpose is not the building of the Christian personality in worship, education and fellowship," he said.

After the services, members toured the new facilities located on a six-acre lot on Greenville Boulevard.

Services will be held each Sunday at 9 and 11 a.m., with a full church school at 10 a.m. Charles Howard, chairman of the official board, stated that these two units are a part of an ultimate three-quarter million dollar complex.

'Hopalong' Has Tumor Removed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor William Boyd, 73, who became famous in the cowboy role of Hopalong Cassidy, was in satisfactory condition today after an operation to remove a tumor from the lymph gland.

Boyd's physician, Dr. Carl Lewis, described the operation as serious, but said Boyd was making good progress. He said Boyd would remain in St. Vincent's Hospital about one more week.

Boyd was admitted to the hospital June 5.

Boyd starred in more than 50 Hopalong Cassidy movies, the first made in 1935. He also appeared in a series of Hoppy television shows on NBC in 1952-53.

Report 258 At Bible School

A record attendance was set this week at the Vacation Church School at Saint James Methodist Church it was announced today.

The five-day program comes to an end tonight with a fellowship meal at the church, a visitation of classrooms and special music provided by certain children's classes. The family-style hot dog supper begins at 5:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Serving will continue until 7 p.m. The "Poco Musicale" directed by Mrs. Treva Fidler will be at 6:30 p.m.

A total of 258 persons were involved in the VCS summer program, a record according to the pastor, the Rev. William K. Quick.

Mrs. Bunny Arnett and Mrs. Margaret White, the co-directors, reported an enrollment of 206 children, fourteen teenage assistants, and thirty eight adult leaders.

Chief Reminds Motorists Heed 'No Parking'

Police Chief H. F. Lawson today cautioned motorists parking in no-parking areas that their cars will be towed away if they fail to heed the no parking signs.

The chief said a reminder seemed in order after seven cars were towed from Lewis Street yesterday and one car from a no-parking area on Eastern Street.

In order to recover stored cars, proof of ownership must be given, the parking fine paid and wrecker fees paid.

The chief said parking problems are especially prevalent in the Eastern section of the city and urged drivers to pay particular attention to no parking zones.

West decided that, with a virtually worthless holding, there was little future in attempting to establish one of his own suits in defending against South's three no trump contract. In an effort to make a play for his partner he opened the jack of hearts. Declarer ducked the trick in both hands and West continued with the 10. North was in with the ace of hearts.

South had seven top tricks—two spades, two hearts, and three clubs. The best hope for developing additional tricks appeared to rest with the diamond suit. Declarer, therefore, crossed over to his hand with the king of clubs and led a small diamond. West followed with the nine and the king was played from dummy.

East had been doing some thinking by this time, and he realized that, if his ace of diamonds was dislodged too soon, he would be unable to regain the lead when his heart suit became established. It was essential to get his partner in first to drive out declarer's remaining heart stopper.

When the king of diamonds was played, East followed smoothly with the five. A diamond was returned; and, when East played low once more, declarer put in the eight, hoping to dislodge the ace. West won the trick with the jack and returned the eight of hearts to clear that suit.

South was unable to develop a ninth trick without driving out the ace of diamonds and East proceeded to cash the setting tricks with his established hearts as soon as he got in.

While declarer could have made the contract by going up with the queen of diamonds when that suit was led from dummy, a peek would have been necessary to alert him to the actual distribution, and he can hardly be criticized for his choice.

If East covers North's king of diamonds with his ace, declarer can develop two diamond tricks with impunity even if he misguesses the location of the jack of diamonds, by the time West gets in, he has no more hearts and is unable to reach his partner.

Sirhan . . .

his revolver as an Iver Johnson, Carreon said.

Carreon said Monteliano noticed that Sirhan had one box of bullets set aside from his others and asked Sirhan, "Isn't that a special type of bullet?"

The bullet, said Carreon, is called "the mini-magnum; and this type of bullet, when it penetrates on an object, usually tears and splits out into different directions where the regular bullet of a .22 caliber goes in a hole and . . . it will come out the same size."

Carreon said Sirhan was non-committal about the bullets. Shown a gun while before the grand jury, Carreon identified it as the one he saw on the practice range.

Dr. Thomas T. Noguchi, chief medical examiner who performed a six-hour autopsy on Kennedy's body, told newsmen just after the post-mortem that he found two bullets and two wounds.

But the transcript quoted him as telling the grand jury he found three wounds and two bullets, indicating Kennedy was hit three times.

Noguchi said the fatal bullet entered the right mastoid, behind the right ear, penetrating the brain, and two others about two inches apart entered the right armpit.

He said one of the latter was found in the neck and the other exited in the front of the right shoulder. Neither, he said, would have been fatal.

Noguchi said the revolver muzzle was "no more than two or three inches from the edge of the right ear." Witnesses at the scene described the gunman as four to six feet away.

Testimony about the girl at the killer's side was given by Vincent Thomas Di Pierro, a student and part-time Ambassador Hotel waiter.

His account:
He noticed the girl and Sirhan standing on a tray stacker or holder, Sirhan grasping with his left hand one of four pipes that are part of the holder.

"The only reason I noticed him, there was a very good-looking girl next to him," said Di Pierro. "That was the only reason I looked over there."

" . . . I could not see his right hand; he looked as though he was clutching his stomach, as though somebody had elbowed him."

"He was semicrouched. . . I saw him get down off the tray stand. The next thing I saw was him holding the gun."

Di Pierro said the slayer moved around the hotel captain, and "he stuck the gun straight out, and nobody could move. It was—you were just frozen; you didn't know what to do."

"And then I saw the first powdering or plastering. When he pulled the trigger, the first shot Mr. Kennedy fell down."

Sticking out the gun, the killer "looked like he was on his tiptoes because he wasn't that tall."

Di Pierro was about five feet from Kennedy. One bystander, "shot in the head, fell in my arms. And then the other boy that got shot in the thigh, he fell on top of me, and they pushed me down, they fell on top of me."

A grand juror asked Di Pierro if he could identify the girl if he saw her again.

"To some degree, yes, sir, I could. I would never forget what she looked like because she had a very good-looking figure—and the dress was kind of—kind of lousy."

"Flousy?"

"Lousy."

"After the shooting . . . did you happen to see the girl again?"

"No . . . I only saw her before."

"Could you describe what she was wearing?"

"Yes. It looked as though it was a white dress and it had either black or dark purple polka dots on it. It kind of had—I don't know what they call it—but it's like—looked like a bib in the front, kind of went around."

"A lace dickey, probably," a grand juror remarked.

Di Pierro: ". . . Like I say, they were . . . standing together."

"Back of the tray stand?"

"Yes, and what happened, he looked as though he either talked to her or flirted with her because she smiled. This is just before he got down."

Question: "So, at least, their association, in proximity of the tray, they are smiling, perhaps—"

Answer: "Together, they were both smiling. As he got down, he was smiling. In fact, the minute the first two shots were fired, he still had a very sick-looking smile on his face. That's one thing—I can never forget that."

Others at the scene had told police of seeing a "girl in a polka dot dress" leave. One quoted her as saying, "We shot him. . .

We shot Kennedy."

On the basis of witnesses' descriptions police issued an all-points bulletin. Several young women came in and said they were wearing polka-dot clothing, but officers said none fitted the description. One of these women said she ran out of the kitchen saying, "They shot Kennedy."

Karl Uecker, an assistant maitre d' at the hotel, told the grand jury he led Kennedy from the Embassy Room stage to the kitchen area by the hand.

He said that by a previous plan Kennedy was to go downstairs where 1,500-1,800 people unable to get into the main ballroom awaited a speech by the senator.

"And their minds were changed at the last minute," Uecker said. "I just remember that somebody told me 'turn to your right . . . toward the Colonial Room.'"

He did not explain the change of plan. A news conference awaited Kennedy in the Colonial Room.

Uecker said Kennedy let go of his hand to shake hands with a dishwasher.

"And then I took his hand again . . . Then I heard the first shot and the second shot right after that, and Mr. Kennedy fell out of my hand. I looked for him, and I saw him falling down."

Uecker said he pushed the man's gun arm down toward a steam table, got a grip around his neck and pressed him against the table. He tried to get the gun away from Kennedy's direction and push it to one side "where I didn't see too many people, while he was still shooting . . ."

But the poll also showed Nixon edging out Humphrey, 49 percent to 47 percent. The fact Nixon wins that industrialized, liberal Democratic state is far more important to the hard-core professionals in the Republican party than the fact that Rockefeller would do better.

Rockefeller himself came to Portland to chat with key National Committeemen, but he set no fires. He confided to intimates that he was desperately hoping for a "Kennedy surge" in the California primary that day in the belief that few hard-headed Republican pros wanted to risk another Nixon - Kennedy race. That avenue is closed.

So Rockefeller's last hope against overwhelming odds is that Nixon's impending nomination excites little joy among even the professionals.

Tobs And Moose Post TH Victories

Greenville Tobacco Company and the Moose stayed in the running for the Tar Heel Little League title with victories yesterday. Greenville Tobacco edged the Exchange, 4-1, while the Moose beat the Elks, 6-3.

Pepsi-Cola continues to lead the league with a 9-2 record. Security Life is second with a 6-5 mark, followed by Greenville Tobacco at 6-4. The Moose at 5-5 while the Elks are 4-7 and the Exchange, 4-8. Both the Exchange and Elks have been eliminated.

In the opener, the Moose pushed over two runs in the top of the first. Terry Glisson reached on an error and Jack Jones singled him in after he advanced on a passed ball. Jones then scored on an error on Marvin Aldridge's grounder after Keith Jones had also reached on a misplay.

The Elks came up with one run in the bottom of the first. Skip Fowler opened up with a single and moved to second on an error. After a pair of walks, to Billy Harrison and Louis Lesley loaded the bases. Fowler scored on a passed ball.

In the second, the Moose added three more runs to lead 5-1. Henry Baker walked and moved around to third on passed balls. Glisson walked and stole second, and both runners scored on Jones' double. Aldridge then singled to score Jones with the fifth run.

The sixth Moose run scored in the third. Don Hawley was hit by a pitch and after Baker walked, Glisson singled to load them up. Jones singled to drive Hawley in with the final run.

In the fifth, the Elks added their last two runs. Billy Leitch doubled and scored on Lesley's double. Jimmy Leitch then drove in Lesley with another double.

Jones led the Moose hitting with three, while Aldridge had two.

In the second game, the Tobs took a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the first. Julian Vainwright led off with a single and with one out, Jeff Beamon homered for the two runs.

In the top of the fifth, the Exchange pushed over its run, making it 2-1. Mike Belton walked and Louis Clark singled. David King then went in as a pinch-runner for Belton, and after Billy Wilson walked to load them up, King singled on a walk to Gene Bunn.

The Tobs added two more in the bottom of the fifth. Beamon walked and moved to second on an error. Macon Moye doubled to score Beamon, and he took third on another error. Mike Reilly singled to bring Moye around with the final run.

Louis Clark had two hits to lead the Exchange, while Beamon's homer was the big hit for the Tobs.

Coca-Cola Ups Ladies Lead

Coca-Cola increased its Ladies Softball League lead to a game-and-a-half with an 8-5 victory over second place Food Mart last night. In the other games, the Little Mint downed Wachovia, 7-3, and Pollard's pasted Empire Brush, 21-2.

Coke holds the lead with a 7-1 record, while Little Mint and Food Mart are now tied for second with 5-2 records. Pollard's is fourth with a 3-3 mark, followed by Empire Brush and Wachovia, both 1-7.

In the opener, Pollard's erupted for eight big runs in the first inning and were never in trouble after that. They went on to add one in the second, three in the third, four in the fourth and four more in the fifth before closing with one in the sixth.

Empire Brush managed to pick up one in the sixth and another in the seventh.

It took nine innings before the Wachovia-Little Mint game was decided. Wachovia took a 1-0 lead in the first, but Little Mint tied it up, 1-1, in the top of the third.

Wachovia came back with two more in the bottom of the third to lead 3-1, and that held until the sixth, when Little Mint scored again. In the seventh, Little Mint added another to tie it at 3-3 and force the extra innings. That finally came to an end in the ninth, when the Little Mint pushed over four more runs to claim the win.

Coke, needing the win to stay on top, pushed over four in the first inning. In the fifth, Food Mart came up with one, and then added another in the sixth to cut the lead to 4-2.

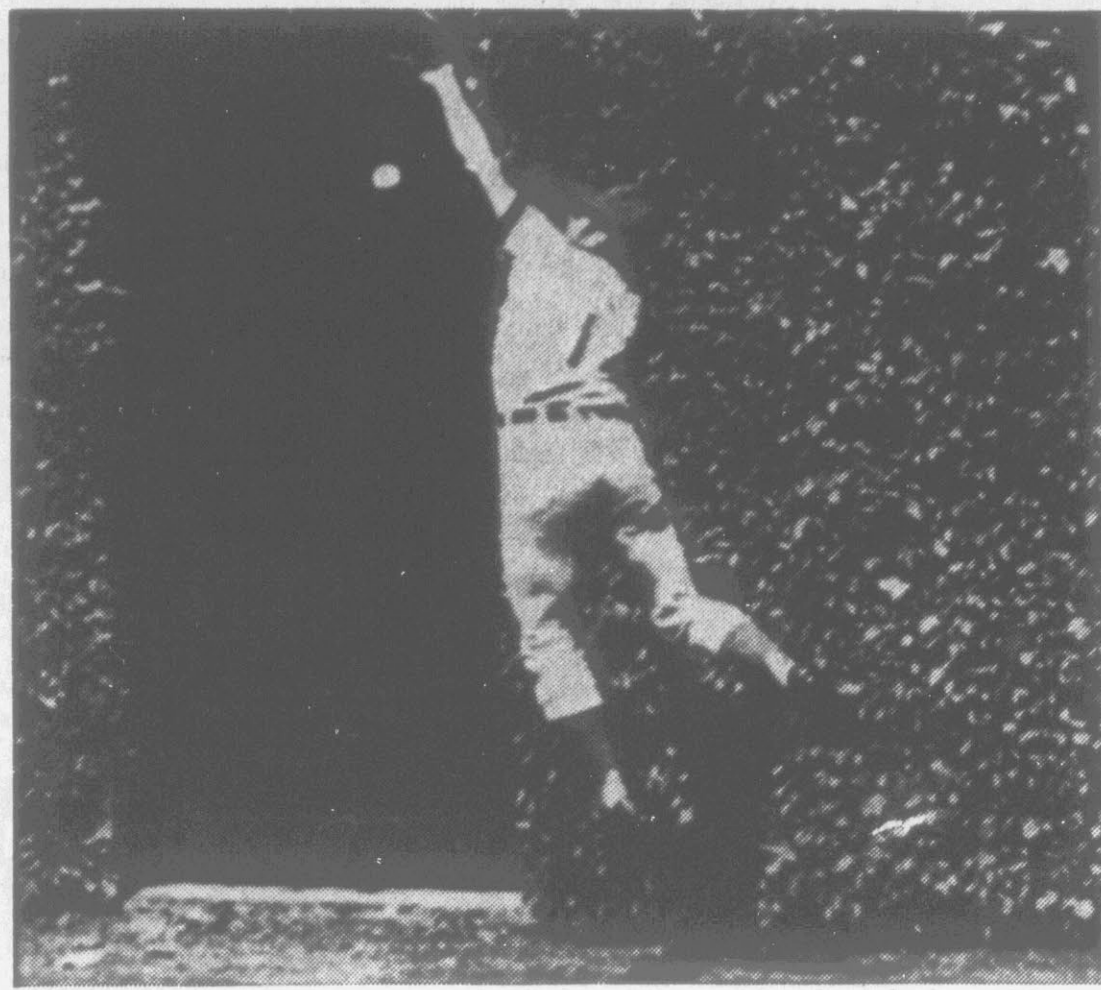

But in the bottom of the sixth, Coke added four more, and then held off a three-run Food Mart rally in the seventh for the win. Shirley David paced that seventh inning with a homer.

Savage, Baker Lead In Second Day's Qualifying

ROCKINGHAM, N.C. (AP) — Swede Savage, new young protégé of retired racing star Freddie Lorenzen, has qualified a Ford Torino for Sunday's Carolina 500-mile stock car race.

The 21-year-old rookie on the South's big tracks averaged 116.735 miles per hour Thursday for his two trips around the one-mile North Carolina Motor Speedway oval. He earned the 10th spot among the 44 cars which will start the $78,000 race.

He was the day's second fastest qualifier. The fastest was Buddy Baker at 117.555 m.p.h. in a Dodge Charger.

Savage was assigned this week to the Lorenzen-managed Ford vacated by Bobby Allison. The right front door of the car was dented Wednesday when Savage spun into the path of Richard Petty during practice.

Petty's Plymouth Roadrunner wasn't badly damaged, either, and he qualified the car that day.

Allison qualified an independently sponsored Chevelle at 114.935 m.p.h., Thursday's fifth fastest time.

Lee Roy Yarbrough won the pole position at 118.643 m.p.h. in a Ford Wednesday.

Other qualifiers Thursday: Tiny Lund, Mercury, 116.414 m.p.h.; Darel Dieringer, Plymouth, 116.117; Bud Moore, Dodge Charger, 114.097; Frank Warren, Chevelle, 112.531; and Richard Brickhouse, Plymouth, 111.569.

Eight more drivers will qualify in time trials today, and the field will be filled Saturday.

A shadow roll is a thick noseband of sheep wool used to prevent a horse from seeing shadows directly in front of him which might cause him to jump or shy away.

Pepsi Hands Planters First Loss; State Wins

Pepsi-Cola handed Planters Bank its first loss of the season in last night's Teener League action, 5-3. In the other game, State Bank edged Carolina Dairy, 1-0.

Planters still leads the league with a 5-1 mark, a half-game ahead of Home Builders, 4-1. Pepsi and State are tied at 3-3, followed by College View, 1-4, and Carolina Dairy, 1-5.

In the opener, Byron Dickens of Carolina Dairy and Russ Smith of State Bank locked up in a pitcher's duel. Dickens, charged with the loss, struck out nine and walked just one in allowing two hits.

Smith, who got the win, struck out 12 and walked two. He gave up just one hit, a single in the sixth. Only in the fifth was he in trouble when two walks and an interference call loaded the bases.

The lone State Bank run was unearned, coming after a third-strike error. In the fourth, Smith missed on his third strike, but outran the ball when the catcher misplayed it, managing to go all the way to second on the play. He then stole third and scored when Jimmy Paige got a single.

The only other hit was a single in the third by Jerry White.

In the second game, another pitching duel developed, although not as close. Randy McKinney and Kenny Pittman worked for Pepsi, allowing only one hit, a single by Gary Woods in the third, when all three Planters runs scored.

For Planters, Jimmy Bond struck out 15 batters, but walked eight and gave up four hits, one a freak accident.

Pepsi took the lead in the first. Gary Mills walked and stole second. He took third on a passed ball and Bill Higgins walked and also stole second. A passed ball scored Mills and moved Higgins to third, and another passed ball let Higgins in for a 2-0 Pepsi lead.

In the second, Pepsi came up with another run. Wayne Eubanks reached on an error and stole second. He took third on a passed ball, and scored on an error.

In the top of the third, Pepsi struck again for a 4-0 lead. Higgins reached on a fielder's choice and Tommy Diggs doubled to drive him in.

Planters rallied for its three runs in the third, but still trailed, 4-3. Tom Harrison and Herb Wilkerson both walked, and after the second out, Eric Vernon got a walk. Lewis Gidley reached on an error scoring two runs, and Jimmy Bond was walked to load the bases. Gary Woods then singled in Vernon with the third run.

But the rally died there, and

Coastal League

The Red Sox and the Yankees picked up victories in the Coastal League games yesterday.

The Red Sox downed the Pirates, 12-6. The winning pitcher was Sands, while the loser was Middleton. Dupree led the Sox with two hits.

The Yankees beat the Giants, 11-1 behind the pitching of Dennis Taylor. Taylor also paced the hitting going four-for-four. The loser was Matthew Ward.

Pepsi went on to get the win, scoring another in the fifth. Higgins singled and stole second, scoring on Diggs' single.

Diggs was the only hitter in the game to get two hits. His fifth inning single came when the Planters shortstop nearly fielded the ball, but fell, and was unable to make the play.

Bert Yancey Takes Lead In Open; Favorites Cry

By BOB GREEN
 ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Bert Yancey had the lead and Lee Trevino had the lines. But it was an unknown little guy named John Felus who had the limelight in the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

The glamor names of the game, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Bill Casper—particularly Billy Casper—and Gary Player, were limited to lamentations.

The handsome, husky Yancey, former West Point cadet, tamed the demanding acres of Oak Hill's tree-studded course for a three-under-par 67 in the first round Thursday and a two-stroke lead over Trevino, the happy hombra from El Paso, Tex., and big Charles Coody.

But it was the 5-foot-3 Felus, a notably unsuccessful, unattached and obscure touring pro who had the gallery of 13,749 gaping, gawking and wondering aloud: "Who's he?"

He's a 32-year-old pint-sized guy from Pennsylvania's soft coal country, describes his home town of Gallitzin, Pa., as being "near Altoona," and in three years on the tour has made less than tip money.

But, for a few moments in the early going Thursday, he was leading this most prestigious of all the world's golf tournaments with a par 70 for the 6,962-yard layout and still remains tied for fourth going into today's second round.

Also in with 70s are Billy Farrell, son of the man who won the Open in 1928, Canadian Al Balgoin, Dave Marr, Don Bies and Labron Harris.

Casper, winner of four tournaments this season and almost $125,000 and the pre-tournament favorite, wrenched his back when he slipped in a sand trap, finished with a 75 and is a questionable performer in the second round.

Nicklaus, the defending champion, had a 72, Palmer came in with a 73 and Player stumbled in with a 76 and could be in danger of not making the cut.

The final two rounds Saturday and Sunday will be televised nationally by ABC-TV.

Player had two double bogeys in his round, and stomped off the course, first to the putting green then for a long session on the practice tee.

The rock-steady Yancey got into the wiry, entangling rough only once, on the 16th, but came out of that to the green and canned a birdie. He finished with a 25-foot curing birdie putt on 18, had two other birds and a single bogey.

Trevino, a Mexican-American who made his debut on the pro tour in the 1967 Open—when he finished in the top 10 and launched his career with his $6,000 earnings—was his usual jovial self.

"When I came to the Open last year I had $600 in my pocket—all the money I had in the world—and a job at $30 a week as an assistant pro at Horizon Hills.

"Since then I've won $90,000 and own the club."

Coke, Lions Regain NS Top

The Kiwanis went into yesterday's North State League schedule with a half-game lead over the Lions and Coca-Cola. But when the day was over, the Lions and Coke had a half-game edge over the Kiwanis.

In a make-up game, the Lions rushed to a 12-4 win over the Optimists, while Coke took the Kiwanis, 14-4, in the regularly scheduled contest.

The Lions and Coke both hold 8-3 records, while the Kiwanis are 8-4. Next comes R. C. Cola with a 3-7 record, while the Optimists and Jaycees are both 3-8. The Optimists and Jaycees have been eliminated from the title picture.

In the opener, the Lions pushed over three runs in the top of the first. Danny Allen singled and Wayne Elks got a hit. Mike Lewis singled, and an error allowed Allen to score. Elks came across on a wild pitch, and Lewis scored on another error.

The Optimists cut the lead to 3-1 in the second. That came on a homer by Jim Weaver.

In the third, the Optimists got another run. Bill Vinson reached on a fielder's choice, advanced on Billy Best's single and scored on a hit by Tony Skinner.

The Lions edged up by another run in the fourth to lead 4-2 as Ronald Moore slapped a homer.

But in the bottom of the fourth, the Lions rallied for two runs to tie the score at 4-4. B. G. Clark reached on a fielder's choice and

'Skins-Bears Ducats On Sale

RALEIGH—The Raleigh Jaycees announced today that public sale of tickets for the Second Annual Raleigh Jaycee Pro Football Classic have begun.

The contest, slated for 8:00 p.m., Saturday, August 24, in Raleigh's ultra-modern Carter Stadium, pits the NFL's Washington Redskins against the Chicago Bears.

Tar Heel greats like Sonny Jurgensen, Chris Hanburger, Brian Piccolo and Danny Talbot are expected to see action in the exhibition game.

Last year's game between the Redskins and the New York Giants drew more than 33,500 football fans from five states.

Last year's parking problems have been totally eliminated by the introduction of a new traffic and parking system at Carter Stadium.

All seats for the game are $6.00. Mail orders should include a 50 cents handling charge per order and should be addressed to: Pro Football, P. O. Box 5905, Raleigh, N.C. 27607.

In Greenville, tickets are now on sale at Shirley's Barber Shop, 521 Cotanche Street.

other error, on Best's grounder, brought Allen in with the tying run.

Finally, in the sixth, the Lions erupted for eight big runs to run away with the game. Moore led off with a single and moved to second on a wild pitch. Jim Averett reached on an error and stole second. Harry Pair was safe on an error, scoring Moore. Allen then drove in Averette and Pair with a triple, and he scored on Russ Rivebark's single. After two outs, Harold Crawford singled to score Rivenbark, and a double by Lee Moore scored Crawford. Ronald Moore doubled in Lee Moore, and Jim Averett doubled to score Ronald Moore.

Allen led the Lions hitting with four, while Crawford and Ronald Moore each had three and Mike Lewis had two. Phil Tetterton had two for the Optimists.

In the second game, Coke pushed into a 1-0 lead in the second inning. Dill Forbes singled and scored on Jeff Barber's double.

In the third, Coke pushed over five more runs. Bobby Gadrow singled and Pat Clark got a hit. Pudge Diket singled and Bobby Kittrell got a hit to score Gadrow. Forbes singled across Clark, and Diket scored on a sacrifice fly by Barber. Connie Cannon doubled to drive in Kittrell and Forbes.

The Kiwanis picked up three of their runs in the bottom of the third. Joey Howell reached on a fielder's choice and advanced on a wild pitch. He scored on Robert Boles double. Kelly Heath singled and stole second. Al Heath was hit by a pitch, loading them up, and John West singled in Boles. Heath then scored on an error.

Coke came back with four more runs in the fourth to lead 10-3. Gadrow opened up with a single and Clark walked. Diket tripled to score both runners Kittrell also tripled, scoring Diket, and Forbes doubled to drive in Kittrell with the 10th run.

The Kiwanis added their fourth run in the fifth. Al Heath reached on a fielder's choice and moved up on a pair of wild pitches. He scored on West's single.

Coke picked up four more in the sixth for the final 14-4 total. Forbes led off with a single and Jeff Barber walked. Cannon also walked and Billy Pittman doubled in two runs. Cannon scored on Gadrow's fielder's choice. Pittman came in on an out.

Forbes led the Coke hitting with two, while Diket, Kittrell, Cannon and Garow each had two. Boles paced the Kiwanis with three, while Kelly Heath and West each had two.

Presbyterian Halts St. James By 13-7

First Presbyterian vaulted into a tie for first place, and knocked St. James Methodist off the top with a 13-7 victory in last night's Church Softball League action. In the other game, Meadowbrook beat Gum Swamp, 13-5.

Immanuel and Presbyterian are now tied for the top with 7-1 records, while St. James is a half-game back with a 7-2 record. Grace is next with a 5-3 mark, followed by Oakmont, 4-3, Mt. Pleasant, 3-4, Meadowbrook, 4-5, Gum Swamp, 1-6, and Pentecostal and Jarvis, both 1-7.

In the opener, Gum Swamp picked up a run in the first, only two fall behind in the second, 2-1. But in the bottom of the second, Gum Swamp again took the lead with two more runs, 3-2.

The lead was swapped again in the third, with Meadowbrook moving ahead, 6-3, in the top of the frame, and Gum Swamp coming back for a 7-6 edge in the bottom of the frame.

In the fourth, Meadowbrook grabbed the lead for good, moving out with five more runs to an 11-7 edge. Gum Swamp tried to rally but got only one run in the bottom of the inning to trail 11-8. Meadowbrook then went on to add two more in the fifth.

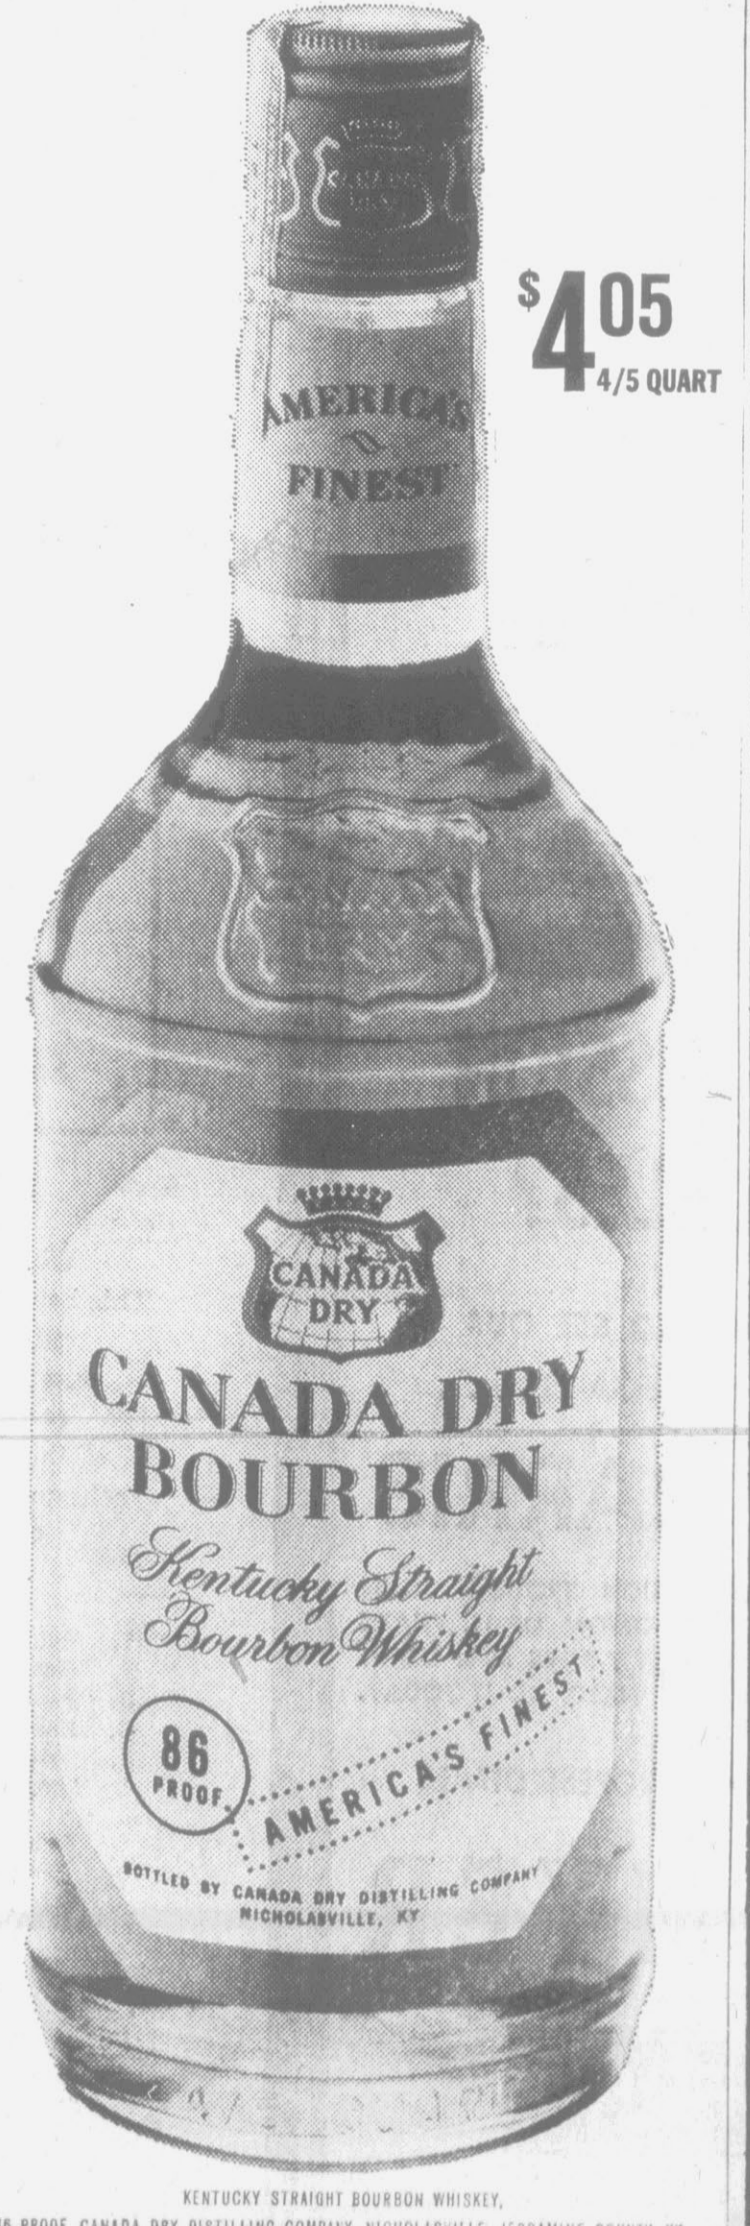

In the second game, Presbyterian pushed over four runs in the first as Fuller Moore and Briley each homered. Two more scored in the second to make it 6-0. St. James came back in the fourth with three runs, but still trailed, 6-3.

In the fifth, Presbyterian added another run for a 7-3 edge, while St. James picked up one in its half of the frame. The sixth inning was the one which decided the game. Presbyterian picked up six runs to boost its lead to 13-4, as Fuller homered.

St. James came back with three runs in the sixth, all to no avail.

EVERY JOURNEY...

The caravan has travelled through the desert for many days... and the men are glad to see the tall date palms of the oasis in the distance. Here they will rest and refresh themselves beside the cool spring before continuing on their way.

Every journey is made easier if it is broken by intervals of restoration and renewal. Even life itself can be a weary road if it does not contain times and places where we can pause to gather new strength. Where can modern men and women regain the equilibrium and peace of mind that they need so badly?

Fortunately, we too have an oasis... the Christian Church. The teachings of Jesus offer deep wells of comfort for the spirit, and springs of joy to revitalize any life that lacks goal or purpose.

New Ideas For Church Union

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
 AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — New approaches, plans and proposals for strengthening ties between Protestants and Roman Catholics today are cropping up in growing profusion, including occasional calls for intercommunion at the Lord's Supper.

"We have found sufficient theological justification in principle for some eucharistic sharing," said a recent joint report by committees representing Catholics and the Christian Churches—Disciples of Christ.

Basic agreements about the meanings of the rite, and the "reality of Christ's presence" in it have come from parallel talks between Episcopalians and Catholics and Lutherans and Catholics, but without recommendations for joint participation.

The matter is "too complex" until problems about the ministry are considered, the Lutheran-Catholic group said. A still unpublished Catholic-Episcopal report has been sent to the Pope and the Archbishop of Canterbury.

"We have made recommendations...for practical measures for growing together," the group said.

That and other questions were likely to come up at a major gathering of Protestant and Catholic leaders next week, June 16 to 20, in Detroit, where the Catholic archdiocese is hosting with fifth National Workshop for Christian Unity.

At present, official Catholic guidelines for joint services forbid sharing in communion with Protestants, and some Protestant churches, including many Lutherans and Southern Baptists, so far disapprove intercommunion.

"The longer intercommunion is postponed, the more ridiculous the ecumenical movement will appear to be," says the Rev. Dr. Stanley I. Stuber, an American Baptist and long-time leader in ecumenical affairs.

However, some Catholic and Protestant scholars maintain that communion in the sacred meal is the basic "sign" of Christian unity, and should not be shared until full harmony in faith is achieved. Others contend it also is an essential "cause" of unity, and should be shared to contribute to that objective.

The Lutheran-Catholic scholars, in holding that intercommunion must await discussions about the ministry, said: "There is evidence of uneasiness in both churches at the present time to the propriety of unauthorized eucharist communions among separated Christians."

In various cases, sometimes publicized but usually not, groups of Catholics and Protestants have gone ahead and shared communion, both in unofficial worship settings and on special occasions.

The National Catholic Liturgical Conference has urged that intercommunion be allowed in exceptional circumstances such as the annual observance of Christian Unity Week.

There were other recent moves for bolstering the links between Protestants and Catho-

Stock And Market Reports

RALEIGH (AP) — (NCDA)—North Carolina egg markets weaker Thursday. Supplies fully adequate, demand fair. Prices paid producers and handlers for consumer grade eggs in cartons delivered nearby outlets:

Grade A large whites: 40 to 41; medium, whites: 33 to 34½; small, whites: 23 to 25½.

RALEIGH (AP) — (NCDA)—North Carolina hog markets today were steady. Tops of 19.50-20.00 Rocky Mount; 19.00-20.00 Kinston, New Bern, Benson, Mt. Olive, Newton Grove, Alberston, Lumberton; 19.00-19.75 Wilson; 19.25-19.75 Bethel; 18.75-19.75 Tarboro; 19.75 Salisbury; 19.50 Selma; 19.25 Siler City and Denton.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market calmed down considerably today after the record-breaking volume Thursday. Initial losses were trimmed in the afternoon.

Losses outnumbered gains by more than 500 issues on the New York Stock Exchange, but most declines were fractional. After the first wave of selling, scattered stocks firmed and began to post some pretty good gains.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.50 at 912.36, recovering from an early decline of 4.03.

Brokers said many investors were following standard policy of "buying on dips," since they were convinced that the trend of the market in the current phase was still upward, barring some unsettling news.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 1.3 at 341.9, with industrial off 3.3, rails off 1.1, and utilities up 1.1.

Utilities were paced by American Telephone, which showed a

1-point gain. Southern California Edison, Consolidated Natural Gas, and Public Service Electric & Gas were among the fractional gainers.

Great American Holdings, off about 1½, was the volume leader, thanks to a huge block of 150,000 shares traded at 51¼, off ¾.

Also very active, Sperry Rand, Occidental Petroleum, Litton Industries, Reynolds Metals, Hooker Chemical, and Control Data lost more than a point each while Polaroid fell 3.

Fractional gains were scored by General Motors, McDonnell Douglas, Anaconda, Swift & Co., Texaco, Standard Oil (New Jersey) and Illinois Central.

Analysts said the market was readjusting and showing considerable caution after Thursday's turbulent session in which a new volume record of 21.35 million shares was set.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange, with most changes narrow.

Pitt Native Is College Trustee

ROCKY MOUNT — Milton E. Harrington, a native of Winterville and a Duke University graduate, is one of the ten new trustees of North Carolina Wesleyan College here.

President of Liggett and Myers Incorporated, Harrington was elected at the recent North Carolina United Methodist Conference held in Fayetteville to serve a one-year term.

Harrington began with Liggett and Myers in 1934 as a factory manager and was named president and chief executive officer in 1964.

A World War II veteran, Harrington is a member of several Duke University organizations, including the Medical Center Visiting Committee and the National Council. He is a member of the board of directors of the Grocery Manufacturers of America and the Tobacco Institute.

Harrington, of New York City and Durham, recently delivered N. C. Wesleyan's commencement address here to 93 seniors.

Heavy Bond For Gun-Smuggler

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A 25-year-old brunette charged with smuggling into the federal penitentiary hospital the guns four inmates used to hold 25 hostages has been bound over to a federal grand jury under $25,000 bond.

Miss Arlene Granito, formerly of Newark, N.J., is being held in the Fulton County Jail. FBI Agent Thomas J. Barrett said she admitted taking two pistols, ammunition and four hacksaw blades to her fiancé, Ralph M. Lepisco.

Dissatisfied, He Wants A Refund

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — James M. Brown, a Parkersburg lawyer, filed for the wrong office during a recent primary but won anyway, then demanded a filing fee refund.

Brown wrote to the secretary of state's office, saying he had filed for the Republican Executive Committee in his senatorial district, and so demanded a refund of $9 as the filing fee was $1 and he mistakenly paid $10. However it was revealed that Brown had registered instead for the state Republican Executive Committee, was elected and the filing fee stood.

Six For Mayor As Demo Choice

GRANITE CITY, Ill. (AP) — Mayor Donald Partney outpolled President Johnson in Tuesday's Illinois primary in write-in votes at Granite City for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Partney got six write-in votes. Johnson got four votes.

Wife Ready To Turn In Badge

LORDSBURG, N.M. (AP) — Sheriff Doris McCarty says she's ready to return her badge to her husband this fall, if he's elected.

Mrs. McCarty ran for sheriff in 1966 because her husband, Leroy, had served two consecutive terms and was ineligible for re-election. Her husband served as her deputy.

She said her husband does most of the heavy work and she assists him.

Widow Unaware Of His Wealth

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The widow of an Air Force sergeant will receive more than $2.5 million from her husband's estate—an estate she didn't know existed until his death early this year.

Sgt. Edwin Lewis Clark had amassed more than $4 million through stock market investments. His only luxury was a $6,000 Cadillac.

The couple lived apart after Mrs. Clark filed for divorce.

Mrs. Clark, now living in Orlando, Fla., is to receive $650,000 in cash and 28,950 shares of Transamerica Corp. stock.

Under the agreement filed Thursday in Superior Court, her husband's brother and three sisters will share the rest of the estate.
