Four-Year-Old Kidnapped Boy Rescued Today

By BRUCE F. LOWITT

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — FBI agents rescued a 4-year-old Stanley Stalford Jr. from a kidnaper today after the abductor tried to use the boy as a shield following a gun battle during a high-speed chase.

Curly haired Stanley and his abductor, identified by the FBI as Robert L. Dacy of Lakewood, Calif., were taken to Morning-side Hospital.

One report said the boy, son of a banker, was treated for a gash in his leg.

The FBI in Washington said, however, that the boy escaped injury. Agents said Dacy, 39, was wounded in the right arm. The ransom money—$250,000 had been requested—was recovered.

Unity Plea As Hard Session Ends

Demo Conventioneers Adopt A Humphrey-Muskie Ticket

CHICAGO (AP) — With a little-known senator from a small state as his handpicked running-mate, Democratic presidential candidate Hubert H. Humphrey starts a campaign that will first require plugging the gaping holes of party unity.

At Humphrey's request, the Democratic National Convention Thursday night dutifully delivered the vice presidential nomination to Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, a former Maine governor who has acquired the reputation of a capable senator, but not national popularity.

The convention closed after a week of discord, sometimes vitriolic, on a night marked again in downtown Chicago by police and National Guard troops firing tear gas and swinging clubs to break up demonstrations by anti-Vietnam war protesters.

After going through the motions of selecting Muskie, delegates cheered and waved banners to the tune of "Happy Days Are Here Again" as Humphrey took the podium to accept the presidential nomination and plead for national unity and justice.

Crashing B52 Just Missed Launch Pads

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — "I was trying for the ocean and almost made it," said the pilot of an Air Force B52 bomber that skimmed over populated areas and a nuclear submarine before crashing Thursday night in a remote area of Cape Kennedy.

The fuel-loaded Stratofortress exploded as it smashed into an Atlantic beach about two miles from missile row at 8:50 p.m., plowing a deep furrow in the ground and scattering charred wreckage over a wide area.

All seven crewmen bailed out. The Air Force said they received only minor injuries.

There was no damage to facilities at Cape Kennedy where several rockets are poised on multimillion-dollar launch pads, including the Saturn IB which is to launch the first three-man Apollo astronaut team into orbit in October. There also were several thousand workmen at the cape at the time of the crash.

The Air Force said the pilot, Maj. Bobby L. Ward of Universal City, Tex., avoided a potentially disastrous situation by staying with the disabled plane until the last moment as it passed over the cities of Cocoa, Cocoa Beach and Titusville and Port Canaveral.

The $10-million B52 had engine trouble soon after takeoff from Orlando's McCoy Air Force Base, about 50 miles west of here.

The Air Force said Ward ordered the crewmen to bail out then stayed with the plane until it lost all electrical power and began plunging to earth.

Anchored in Port Canaveral was the nuclear submarine Daniel Webster, which earlier in the day had fired two successful Polaris A3 missiles while submerged offshore.

Delegates responded with a showing of a 20-minute film depicting Kennedy's career and life. Some of those who wanted to draft Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the surviving brother, went home hardly mollified by Humphrey's choice of Muskie. Kennedy himself had stopped what at one point looked like a threat to Humphrey by saying he could not accept either nomination.

There was some grumbling among Southerners that Muskie was too much of a liberal to suit their conservative taste. And the doubt whether Humphrey could beat Nixon in November hovered like a cloud over some state delegations.

"If I am president, I shall apply that lesson to the search for peace in Vietnam as to all other areas of national politics."

He told the convention that the "trouble in America... comes not from lack of faith but from a killing of hope." He said new aspirations have been awakened but have been accompanied by impatience for solutions of the problems of race, poverty, crime, hunger and despair. But he added:

"Violence breeds counterviolence. Disorder destroys. Only order can build. Riot makes for ruin, reason makes for solution." He said any president must assume responsibility to "guarantee to every American the right to personal security."

With the pattern of his campaign thus sketched, Humphrey begins overhauling the party organization with the election today of a national party chairman to succeed John M. Bailey of Connecticut, who has served in the spot since 1960.

Gov. John N. Dempsey of Connecticut said the word had come down that Lawrence F. O'Brien, former postmaster general and a long-time political adviser to the assassinated Kennedy brothers, had been tapped for the post. O'Brien was Humphrey's convention manager.

Others thought that Sen. Fred Harris of Oklahoma, co-chairman of Humphrey's pre-convention campaign was in the running and there was some talk that Delton Houtchens, Missouri state chairman, might be in line.

Police Storm McCarthy Hotel Quarters After Beer Can, Fish Barrage

By JOSEPH R. TYBOR

CHICAGO (AP) — Police stormed through the 15th floor of the Conrad Hilton Hotel early today, clubbing and chasing supporters and aides of Sen. Eugene McCarthy after a barrage of smoked fish and empty beer cans clanged down on Michigan Avenue.

Illinois National Guardsmen were stationed on the avenue. The police swept some 50 youths from the floor down to the lobby. Police said there were no arrests. They said none of the youths was registered in the hotel McCarthy's people claimed otherwise.

Three men were picked up in a red car Thursday because one of the two cars that forced the ambassador's chauffeur-driven limousine to the curb Wednesday was red. But there was no indication so far that they had any connection with the assassination.

A statement purportedly signed by the ultraleftist Rebel Armed Forces—FAR—said its agents killed Mein, 54. It said they were trying to kidnap the envoy and hold him as a hostage for one of their terrorists, Camilo Sanchez, who was arrested Saturday.

But officials said it was possible that another group had issued the statement in FAR's name.

Upsurge Of Hard Fighting In Vietnam Sees 13th Day

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Hard fighting was reported in the northern and central part of South Vietnam today, with nearly 200 more Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers killed. But as the upsurge of combat continued for the 13th successive day, the enemy overran a small government outpost and killed 18 civilians and kidnaped 65 in two undefended hamlets.

The hardest fighting was reported south of Da Nang, where U.S. Marines, South Vietnamese rangers, dive bombers and artillery killed 126 enemy troops in three fights, the allied commands said. Allied casualties were 10 Marines and five rangers killed, and 52 Marines and 23 rangers wounded.

At the southern edge of the central highlands, fighting continued around the Duc Lap Special Forces camp, and government troops reported killing another 66 enemy soldiers Thursday. This raised the number of enemy claimed killed there since last Friday to nearly 1,000.

But the North Vietnamese put pressure on another isolated point, capturing a 4-to-12-man government outpost some 15 miles west of Quang Ngai City in the central lowlands and shelling the nearby Ha Thanh Green Beret camp.

Light Infantry Brigade. The camp is garrisoned by 10 or 15 American advisers and Montagnard tribesmen fighting as mercenaries.

About 10 miles away on Thursday, Viet Cong or North Vietnamese troops invaded the An Lap and An Lao hamlets in daylight and went on a rampage, killing 18 civilians, wounding five and kidnaping 65. Before pulling out, a government spokesman said, the invaders burned 18 houses.

Presumably the captives were pressed into service to carry supplies, and it was believed those who were killed or wounded had refused to cooperate. The hamlets had no government troops or militia to defend them.

In Saigon, a Viet Cong prisoner let government security forces to a cluster of houses in Cholon, the Chinese quarter, where they flushed out two saboteurs and eror teams of three women and three men. The police also seized four pistols, several grenades, a rocket launcher, a quantity of TNT and more than 6,000 rounds of ammunition.

Another arms cache was uncovered at Marble Mountain, on the outskirts of Da Nang. It contained a half ton of explosive plastic and five bazooka-type rocket launchers.

Along with the continuing fighting, heavy enemy troop movements were reported on the infiltration corridors leading into South Vietnam from Cambodia and Laos. The U.S. Command sent its heaviest bombers, Air Force B-52s, to attack these units in a continuing effort to smash the buildup which could herald assaults on Saigon, Tay Ninh and other key cities.

With 'Save Me' On His Soles, Bridegroom Was A Billboard

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I recently attended a beautiful wedding ceremony that was marred by a "practical joke" perpetrated on the bridegroom by a "close friend." This idiot had painted "SAVE ME" on the soles of the bridegroom's shoes, so when the couple knelt for prayer, it could be seen by everyone.

I felt this was very poor taste, and would appreciate your comments.

M. D.

DEAR M. D.: I agree with you. And I'm printing your letter knowing full well that it may give some other "idiots" ideas, but hoping that ALL bridegrooms will look to their soles for the work of heels.

DEAR ABBY: I'm nearly 15 years old and have a brother who is 16. This is my problem.

I have my own room with twin beds. My brother has his own room, too, but he has only a fan in his room and I have an air-conditioner in mine. With the warm weather here, my brother complains that the fan doesn't help much, so he wants to sleep in my room because of the air-conditioner.

I don't want him in with me because I think I'm too old to be sleeping with an older brother, and I want my privacy.

My folks say I'm silly, and I should let him use the other twin bed. I would like your opinion.

BOILING

DEAR BOILING: It would help to know whether you are a boy or a girl. If you are a girl, I don't blame you. If you are a boy, and your "privacy" is that important to you, be a man and trade rooms (for the hot spell) with your brother. (Or would you rather fight than switch?)

DEAR ABBY: I was shocked and disgusted today when I took my 2½-year-old daughter shopping with me. As we approached a certain toothpaste display she pointed to it and shouted, "Oh look, Mommy, SEX appeal!" I nearly fainted. This is just one example of how TV commercials influence young children. Another thing with regard to the boob tube:

What good does it do for parents to try to teach their children not to make personal, insulting remarks to people when they see it done day after day in television commercials?

I have a friend whose little 4-year-old boy tells people that they have "baaaaad breath, body odor and dandruff." Everyone laughs and thinks it's cute.

Well, I don't, so please print my letter with the following statement: I will NOT buy products whose commercials offend me, and I hope other mothers who feel the same will follow suit.

BOBBY'S MOM

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of parents who go off on a vacation and leave their children with relatives, and they return on a later date than scheduled without notifying the babysitters?

TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF DEAR TAKEN: Not much. And if you are ever again taken advantage of in this manner, remember, you asked for it.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

A Call To Unity In Humphrey Speech

If there was one reassuring thing about the Democratic national convention, it was the acceptance speech made by vice president Humphrey last night.

After a week of turmoil and trouble, debate and divisions, the Democratic nominee faced the tedious and difficult task of attempting to bring all the factions back together with a unity speech. Whether the goal was achieved, only time will tell. But Vice President Humphrey's address was a masterpiece of oratory pointed toward that goal. It touched the sore spots that had developed during the convention without re-opening wounds. It marched straight to the heart of major public issues without sidestepping them in an effort to avoid possible difference of opinion.

Quite obviously the Democratic nominee is confronted with a party which is far from unanimous in its support for him. Even one of the major contenders for the party's nomination has declared he will not support the nominee. Where Sen. McCarthy and his supporters will go now in quest of a candidate remains to be seen. Humphrey offers their best hope even if their ideas are not alike on many things.

But if one of the candidates has already declared he will not support the nominee, what of other party members, some in high places and others who are just voters? Certainly many delegates came away from the convention with misgivings about the nominees, the platform, the conduct of the convention and the situation which prevailed in Chicago during the convention. How deeply these factors will hurt the party's campaign effectiveness this fall no one can accurately gauge at the moment.

From the standpoint of drama, showmanship and audience attraction, the Democratic convention was a television success. It had all the ingredients of those programs which draw the highest ratings... violence, intrigue, heavy handed big city bosses and the underdogs. From the standpoint of presenting the party in its best image, producing party harmony and attracting support of uncommitted voters, it left a great deal to be desired.

The Clawless Office Wolves

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — The American business office is firmly believed by many jealous wives to be a place where innocent husbands are led astray by conniving secretaries and voluptuous receptionists.

If this were only true, of course, every U. S. farm and store and factory would be deserted. Every man in the nation would want an office job.

However, it's only a wifely delusion, created partly by sensation-seeking novelists, that business offices are oases of orgy inhabited by sultry Delilahs. The truth is that passion in the executive suite tends to be prim rather than primordial.

And as every woking girl knows, it is not she who usually initiates any romantic overtures that may occur. The advances are made by the male swivel-chair dreamers.

No office is without its quota of these would-be wolves, who are usually more clawless than lawless. If you glance around your own office in the following Romeo types

Butchering Democrats

CHICAGO — As everyone knows, the Democratic National Convention has taken place at the famous stockyards in Chicago. There were a lot of confused onlookers during the convention, and they were not necessarily all human. I was passing a cattle pen next to the amphitheater where they were fattening up about 20 heifers with corn. Much to my surprise I heard them talking to each other.

"Hey what's going on over there?" one heifer said to another.

"I don't know," said the heifer standing next to him. "Someone told me that's here they butcher Democrats."

"Democrats?" a heifer who was munching corn said. "What kind of meat is that?"

"It beats me. Some say it tastes like Texas steak, others say it tastes like Southern fried chicken, and some of it is supposed to taste like Minnesota dove."

"Ugh," a heifer said. "It doesn't sound too good. They're bringing in an awful lot of them."

"Well, this is the time of year when there's a big demand for the hides of Democrats. You see, they feed them for four years on corn and hay and they get all fat and flabby, and then they bring them to Chicago and start cutting them up."

"Who cuts them up?" a heifer asked.

"They cut each other up. It's an amazing sight. I was taken over there the other day to pose with Mayor Daley, and I must say I've never seen a slaughterhouse like it anywhere. They were pushing and shoving and biting and kicking each other, and stomping up and down. When I saw what was going on over there, I was glad I was an animal."

"What are those things that are all blue?" a heifer moaned.

"Those are bulls. They have hard heads and horns and they're supposed to keep everyone in line so the butchering is orderly. They also inspect the Democrats to see that they're properly branded. There was one Democrat who tried to get in with the wrong brand, and bulls just beat the heck out of him. The bulls are noted for their beef and no brains."

"I heard," said a heifer, "that there is a lot of hoof and mouth disease over there."

"No more than usual. You get that many Democrats together at one time and you're bound to have some."

"What are all those strange-looking trucks for?"

"They're called television trucks. When the Democrats butcher each other they take pictures of it."

"What a way to go," a calf sighed.

"I wish they'd move them somewhere else," a heifer complained. "It's hard to sleep when you hear them screaming all night long."

"They'll all be butchered by Friday. Then we'll have the stockyards to ourselves again."

"I may be crazy," said one heifer, who was eating grass. "But I'd like to taste a Democrat, just once."

"By the time they get finished there will be enough cut up Democrat leftovers for everybody."

Sweltering shoppers fled with only a few of the items they had planned to buy and the store's normal volume of business dropped sharply. There was concern about the meats, frozen foods and live lobsters and possible other spoilage which could have cost thousands of dollars.

Officials blamed a breakdown of the electrical system and suspected an overload of electric power distribution facilities in the shopping center was the cause.

It probably was. The intense heat which set records during most of this month resulted in an all-time high usage of electric power in the state, primarily for cooling.

Records Broken

Literally thousands of new air conditioners were sold, installed and turned on during the period. Some dealers reported they had sold out of air conditioning units and that public demand was the greatest ever.

This alone created problems for the power companies. In Durham alone, Joseph E. Fennell, superintendent for Duke Power Co., estimated an average of 10 "localized" power failures per day during the past two weeks.

Such trouble, commonly reported around the state, apparently was from overload of distribution facilities rather than from any lack of available electric power.

For example, Duke Power's system consumed 695,189,000 kilowatt hours of electricity during the peak period, August 19-23. This confirmed other power company estimates that maximum usage was 160 per cent that of 10 years ago. A record week 10 years ago, in December, 1958 registered 274,160,000 kilowatt hours, primarily for heating.

Air Conditioning Increase

Power companies simply have been unable to keep up with the increase in demand for electricity by providing adequate distribution facilities.

"These are not normal times," says J. D. Sloan, Charlotte district manager for Duke Power. In Charlotte, the power company increased the size or "souped up" 70 transformers in the space of four days, August 18-22. Adding voltage capacity was widespread across all of the systems which serve the state. In Durham, superintendent Fennell said six of 10 overloaded transformers were replaced entirely and others were adjusted for increased capacity. In each case of overloading, approximately a dozen customers may be affected temporarily. Fennell and other power company courses insisted however that there had been no voltage cutbacks.

Power company spokesmen urged that homeowners installing new air conditioners or additional units notify their power company office in advance. Otherwise, the additional (Continued On Page 6)

DRY HOLES

The report of a large oil company recently disclosed the fact that in one year they had spent eight million dollars on dry holes.

This is a part of the oil business. The administration of these corporations counts on the fact that a certain number of their attempts to find oil will result in complete failure. This, of course, is all taken into consideration when the price of the product is established. The people who buy oil for their furnaces and gasoline for their automobiles pay this bill.

There is, of course, nothing wrong about such procedure. Every enterprise in life involves a certain percentage of failure. Every life has streaks of failure running through it.

Sometimes we feel that we are the most unlucky people on earth. For us there appears to be nothing but dry holes. And once in a while this fact is true, although the strange thing is that frequently such misfortune are not at all unhappy. It depends upon the mood in which we take our successes or our failures.

But let us be assured that a certain percentage of failure is the lot of everybody. According to his contemporaries, the greatest failure of his age was Jesus of Nazareth, yet time has been dated from his birth. In fact, the symbol of his "failure," namely, the cross, adorns our altars and stands proudly on the spires of our churches.

Eugene Scored Points

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT

Associated Press Writer CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy bucked the Democratic party establishment with legions of breathless youngsters and none of the time-honored weapons and wiles of the successful politician.

He had no money, no name, no political base, no organization, no influential support. So he lost, in the conventional sense of the word, in that he failed to win his party's presidential nomination.

But McCarthy won something, too — especially in the light of the rather limited goal he set for himself when he announced his candidacy nine months ago.

Then, it was merely to take the war in Vietnam before the American people, personified in a candidate, to allow those people a vote on that war.

Eugene Joseph McCarthy also won his race, in the sense that American politics may never be the same after the romantic adventure that began so quietly in the New Hampshire snow last winter.

His young supporters, although looking Wednesday night as if the world had just ended, are also taking heart from some of the battles won by McCarthy on his way to losing the war.

He was the leading edge of the avalanche that ultimately forced President Lyndon Baines Johnson to announce he would not seek another term.

He spread throughout the land a new belief that housewives, clerks and college kids — thousands and thousands of college kids — could find themselves a niche and play a role in shaping the nation's future.

He gave a new image and likeness to the word "politician." There have been few if any like this former professor, who rejected virtually every political orthodoxy and tradition, spoke low, and avoided the carnival trappings of a political campaign whenever possible.

Yet in these very victories lay his ultimate political defeat by Hubert H. Humphrey in the convention Wednesday night.

It was the untested kids against the pros; pros who had not only been in the game a long time, but happened to hold the reins of U. S. political power at the moment.

The Children's Crusade did have the pros looking back over their shoulders from time to time, wondering why McCarthy refused to lie down and die. But they never lost control of the way things operate in a political party so many decades old.

McCarthy lost, too, because in his 20 years in politics, he had never developed a political base, to which he could return for major support when the time came for the big move. He was an efficient senator, well-liked in Minnesota, but he had little patronage to give out, fewer political debts to collect.

McCarthy lost because he remained far out of the Democratic club in a year when the convention was deeply entrenched within it. There was a yawning generation gap between the McCarthyites and the party regulars.

Neither spoke the other's language or ever really tried to.

Pondering How To Make Muskie Known In N.C.

FIRST RUN . . . Twenty-two thousand tons of process phosphate from Beaufort County mines are shuttled along a closed-end conveyor belt during this week's trial run of the $11.4 million bulk cargo handling facility in the Morehead City port. The facility, recently inaugurated by Gov. Moore, is servicing the German freighter "Silvia" of the Ocean-Stinnes Line bound for a north European market.

By HOYT HARWELL
CHICAGO (AP)—North Carolina delegates to the Democratic National Convention left this troubled city today for home with some wondering how to make Sen. Edmund S. Muskie known to the state.

The delegation cast all but one of its 59 votes for the Maine senator Thursday night as he was named Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's running mate in the November elections.

"I don't know a great deal about Sen. Edmund Muskie," Gov. Dan Moore admitted. "All I've heard about him is good and that he's an excellent man."

A more optimistic outlook was taken by delegate Monroe M. Redden Jr. of Hendersonville. "It will take a lot of hard work in North Carolina, but we can come out all right in the fall," he said.

North Carolina's national committeewoman, Mrs. John D. Robinson, said she supports the Humphrey - Muskie ticket but expressed fears about the strength of former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, a third-party presidential contender.

"We're going to have a hard time in North Carolina," she said warning that Wallace "has some strong support" in the Tar Heel State.

The Wallace strength was considered the reason Lt. Gov. Bob Scott cast his ballot for distinguished governor"—Moore—in the presidential balloting Wednesday night.

Scott is running as the Democratic candidate to succeed Moore, and must avoid aligning himself too closely with the national ticket offset any votes cast by pro-Wallace supporters in the state.

Former Gov. Luther Hodges said the Humphrey - Muskie ticket was an excellent choice of the convention and "will have great appeal to the country."

Muskie, he said, "was the Democratic governor of a Republican state and he responded brilliantly."

Several delegates, although pledged to support the ticket, expressed disappointment Humphrey didn't choose former Gov. Terry Sanford as his running mate. Sanford received one vote in the North Carolina delegation for vice president.

Moore, who said it was too early to estimate how the Democratic ticket will do in his state, was positive of one thing.

By choosing Humphrey to head the ticket, Moore said "this convention nominated the best candidate before it."

Meanwhile, there was some confusion as to which delegates voted for Moore in the presidential balloting Wednesday night. The delegation gave 44½ votes to Humphrey, 12 to Moore two to Sen. Eugene McCarthy and one half to Sen. George McGovern.

Gov. Moore had released the delegates "to vote their conscience" during the first ballot.

North Carolina committeeman Billy Webb of Statesville, a Humphrey supporter, said he doesn't remember what happened to the list showing which delegates voted for which candidate.

Dwayne Walls, a Charlotte Observer newsman, said he was told that the 12 votes for Moore were cast by these delegates:

Moore, Scott, Sen. Sam Ervin, Tim Valentine, Wayne Corpening, Henry Bost (one-half vote), Russell Vanlandingham (one-half vote), J. Willie York, Mrs. L. Y. Ballentine, J. J. "Monk" Harrington, Lee Smith, William P. Saunders and Frank Holding.

Corpening, an alternate, voted in place of Pat Taylor, the Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor.

Taylor was quoted as saying he could not vote for Humphrey so chose not to vote.

McCarthy received the vote of

Dr. Alden Lind as expected and picked up the other vote from newly chosen party chairman James Johnson who explained later:

"I simply felt that the one McCarthy vote in the delegation was not representative of the true McCarthy support in North Carolina. I felt that they ought to have more voice and so I gave them the only vote I could give them."

Five Tar Heels On Casualty List

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five North Carolina servicemen were included Thursday on the latest list of Vietnam war casualties.

Killed in action were M. Sgt. Gilbert A. Secor, husband of Mrs. Margot E. Secor of Fayetteville; Platoon Sgt. Leo N. Kyrskke, husband of Mrs. Eunice A. Kyrskke of Fayetteville; and Pfc. James E. Hall, son of Mrs. Mary Hall of Sylva.

Cpl. James L. Bowden, son of Mrs. Evelyn J. Bowden of Louisville, was said to have died of wounds.

Reported dead not as a result of hostile action was Lt. Col. Annie R. Graham, daughter of James D. Graham of Effand.

Spokesmen for the power companies said overlooking and fluctuation problems have been on a "local" neighborhood level and discounted any possibility of a massive, systemwide blackout or power failure.

In the northeastern part of the state served by Virginia Electric and Power Co. (VEPCO), officials noted loss of transformers when families add air conditioning units and all are turned on at the same time.

Grant To Speak At Fellowship

Blaine Grant, now residing in Forrestville, Maryland, will be speaker at the open supper meeting of the Greenville Chapter of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship, Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at Respass Brothers Barbecue Restaurant.

The fellowship meeting begins immediately following the supper.

Grant is preparing to leave for Cartagena, Colombia, South America, with his wife and family for an assignment with Pan-American Mission, Inc., to begin a ministry in Cartagena within a few weeks.

Prior to joining Pan-American Mission, Inc., Mr. and Mrs. Grant were associated with the Wycliffe Bible Translators, Inc. During this work with Wycliffe Translators, the Grants spent several years in Peru, in a technical ministry.

The meeting is open to the public.

Officers of the Greenville chapter of FGBMFI are William M. Zachman, president; Douglas Ray, vice president; John E. Montgomery, treasurer; Lyman H. Windham, secretary.

Pres. Johnson Stayed Away; Several Factors

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, first chief executive in 24 years to skip his own party's national convention, probably was swayed by one of all of three factors—security, pride and plain old good politics.

The Texas White House, in keeping with its usual policy, didn't shed any light on the subject. But then it hadn't indicated until the very last possible minute whether Johnson would attend the final session of the Democratic National Convention Thursday night.

Speculation on why he didn't seemed to run along three lines:

—Security. Two top Secret Service officials were in Chicago, including the head of the White House plainclothes bodyguard, and presumably they recommended Johnson stay away from the tension-torn city and convention.

—Pride. Judging from the mood of many delegates, Johnson could not be assured in advance of an entirely friendly reception from fellow Democrats.

—Good politics. The President may have decided that his presence would have done nothing to further the election hopes of the new Democratic ticket of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine.

Despite the tumultuous demonstrations by antiwar protesters and the bitterness of anti-Humphrey forces on the convention floor, Johnson may have had a twinge of regret at one point if he chose to stay away because of pride.

Humphrey, in his acceptance speech, said Johnson "accomplished more of the unfinished business of America than any of his modern predecessors."

Then he added: "Tonight Mr. President I say thank you, thank you Mr. President."

The band struck up and the convention hall exploded into cheers.

Johnson was the first incumbent president since 1944, when Franklin D. Roosevelt was nominated for an unprecedented—and now illegal—fourth term, to stay away from his party's convention. FDR was on a secret wartime trip at the time.

Unexpectedly, Johnson made no immediate statement following the nomination of Muskie.

The traveling White House said Johnson watched much of the convention on television and, otherwise, was occupying himself at his ranch home with work, nature not described.

Firemen Called To Kitchen Fire

Greenville firemen were called to 1109 Ragsdale Rd. last night when a fire erupted in the kitchen of that dwelling.

Fire officers said the blaze resulted when grease on the stove caught fire. Moderate fire and smoke damage was reported.

Fire units were called to the dwelling at 10:20 p.m.

The regulars never could understand why McCarthy would not concede defeat when he lost to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in most of the primaries.

McCarthy went it alone, almost boasting, in his quiet way, that he never asked for the support of major political figures, big business, big labor.

He talked to these forces, of course—but rarely was his appeal much stronger than, "I hope you will give us some consideration in your general examination of the candidates."

That wasn't playing the game, and was another reason McCarthy lost.

and every girl who comes into view. He winds up alone with his arms around a coat hanger, pleading to it, "Don't go home, baby. Let's make a real night of it."

The Cunning Prude: At least once a week this hypocrite strolls through the secretarial pool pulling down a skirt here and there and exclaiming coldly: "It's far too short—this is a business office not a strip-tease show." This tactic wins him a reputation of a killjoy; it also enables him to brush his hands across a lot of lovely knees.

Calculating Charlie: He always brings in a cake and a dozen roses for his secretary and gives her a chaste kiss on her forehead. This convinces him that he has swept her off her feet, and she should be willing to work overtime for nothing.

The senior vice president: He likes to think of himself as the lovable old Mr. Chips of the office. The fatherly attitude—that's his gimmick. Whenever he sees one of the girls looking blue, he consoles her by putting a fatherly arm around her and giving her fatherly pats. It generally takes him five fatherly pats to range from the shoulder to the hemline.

That's a fair sampling of white collar Romeos, isn't it girls? Most office wives are really so dull they wouldn't know what to do if you gave them "yes" for an answer.

Only Companion She Had Left -- Missing

By RUTH GWYNN
Reflector Staff Writer

It seems tragic enough for a new bride to lose her husband to the army only two months after they are married. But it compounds the tragedy to lose the only companion you have left two days later. This is the sad story of Donna

LOST DOG . . . Donna Eways holds the leash which belonged to her dog, Zack, who is now lost.

Eways, whose husband Kamal left August 18 for an army post, and whose dog, Zack, disappeared the following Tuesday.

Donna was counting on Zack to keep her company in the apartment where she now lives alone. The miniature black poodle was her constant companion. That is, until the unhappy Tuesday.

The night of August 20, Donna went to Pitt Plaza and left Zack in the car with the window cracked for fresh air. Somehow, the dog managed to squeeze through the opening. He ventured into several doors, trying unsuccessfully to locate his owner.

When Donna returned to the car and found her pet missing, she located a policeman who said that two ladies with Washington, N.C. license plate had been asking what to do with the dog. However, he did not know whether they had taken the dog with them.

"Since then, a lady called me and said she saw a dog that looked like Zack playing in a neighborhood near Pitt Plaza. I have been there to look about 20 times. I've looked for him every day, but I can't find a trace."

Zack has two little dog playmates, a cocker and a collie, who keep scratching at Donna's door, waiting for Zack to come out. "They still haven't given up, and that just makes it worse."

If you see a little eight-month-old black poodle, slightly reddish from sunburn on either side of his muzzle, that answers to "Zack," ("He will answer to that. It's the only thing he knows.") run for the phone. If the dog is slightly shaggy (he hasn't been clipped recently) and has on a little brown col-

Candidates' Acceptance Speeches Highlights

CHICAGO (AP) — Here are highlights of the acceptance speeches Thursday night of the Democratic Party's candidates for president and vice president.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the presidential nominee, said: "This is not the first time that our nation has faced a challenge to its life and purpose. Each time we have emerged with new greatness and new strength. We must make a moment of crisis a moment of creation. We stand at such a moment now in the affairs of this nation—at the end of an era, at the beginning of a new day....

"Across America and throughout the world, we hear freedom's rising chorus: 'Let me live my own life. Let me live in peace. Let me be free.' It will be answered in how we face the three realities that face this nation.

"The first reality is the necessity for peace in Vietnam and the world. The second reality is the necessity for peace in our cities and in our nation. Third reality is the necessity for unity in our party and in our nation. "Had we papered our differences with empty platitudes instead of frank debate (over Vietnam) we would reserve the contempt of our fellow citizens and the condemnation of history.... This debate is the work of a free people, the work of an open convention, the work of a political party responsible to the needs of this nation....

"Let those who believe that our cause in Vietnam has been right and those who believe it has been wrong agree here and now: neither vindication nor repudiation will bring peace or be worthy of our country....

"We must halt the arms race before it halts humanity....

"Every American has the right to a safe neighborhood. On this there can be no compromise.... Rioting, burning, sniping, mugging, traffic in narcotics and disregard for the law are the advance guard of anarchy—and they must be stopped.... The answer lies in reasoned effective action by state, local and federal authority. We do not want a police state but we do need a state of law and order....

"Neither mob violence nor police brutality have any place in America...."

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie said in accepting the vice presidential nomination:

"My reaction... is an acute awareness of the work we must do—to build a peace, to heal our country....

"To make a society such as ours work is not easy.... It means respect for the rule of law and equal justice as the best guardian of the rights of all citizens. It means granting all citizens equal opportunity to participate in American life, in the policy-making processes of our society....

"We have learned that freedom does not work unless we work at it.

"That, perhaps, is at least part of the reason for the surging determination of so many of our young people and of the disadvantaged among us to make a place for themselves in building the future of our country, in identifying the direction in which it should go, in setting the pace at which we should move. "Such a force should hearten those who believe in freedom as the most creative expression of the human spirit.... We must learn to work with this force, to insure continued and more meaningful participation in the democratic process.

"This should inspire those involved with confidence that their efforts will achieve the dignity, opportunity, equality and full participation, which is the measure of what they seek. "This is the way to develop the self-discipline of an enlightened and civilized society, rather than the imposed discipline of a barracks state."

Woody's Ramblin's

By WOODY PEELE

The 1968 football season brings up the curtain tonight, with two games slated for the spotlight.

And with the start of the season, the return of this predictions column comes also.

Last season's record suffered a wee bit in the closing weeks of the campaign, but still came out above 70 per cent. This year, hopefully, the percentage will be improved.

But to get off to a good start, a perfect week will be needed with just two games. So lets take a loot at them.

Rose High School opens its season by traveling to Bertie County High School. This seems like a game between a 3-A school (Rose) and a 2-A one (Bertie). But it isn't.

Bertie is the largest school on the Phantom schedule this year, and it could turn out to be one of the toughest teams. They have a good number of returning players from last year, and they gave the Phants a fit last year. Rose led at 6-0, then trailed at 7-6 before taking a 13-7 lead at the half. In the second half, Bertie came back to tie it at 13-13 before Rose finally won 27-20 with two last quarter touchdowns.

So it isn't going to be an easy task for the Phants, who will be starting a new quarterback, and will be lacking the break-away speed of graduated Tim Foley.

It could be a very, very tight game, but I believe Rose will come away with the win.

In the other game, Ayden High School will be going for its 40th straight victory over the past five seasons, against Gaston. Although Paul Miller is gone, Ayden feels that it can be just as strong as last season, and they have a lot of the defense to help them along.

For the past three years, this column has had the automatic here. As long as Ayden continues to win, there can be only one guess, until they are finally beaten. Ayden will win here.

Next week, the high school football season will get into full swing as everyone else joins in, and the college season is only two weeks away.

Darlington Doesn't Scare Veteran Of Hill-Country Clay Oval Tracks

By BLOYS BRITT
Associated Press Writer

DARLINGTON, S. C. (AP)—Roy Trantham wants to do well in Monday's Southern 500, the classic of stock car racing, to keep the folks back in the hills of Western North Carolina off his back.

"They've been pushing me to drive the big speedways," Trantham said. The 27-year-old is a hero of many victories on the red-clay ovals of North Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia.

"I came down here to see what this high speed stuff is all about. And boy, am I learning fast," he said.

Trantham, of Asheville, N. C., already has shown the hill folks a thing or two at Darlington, the original superspeedway for stock cars and considered the toughest est and most dangerous of all to drive.

The 190-pound, 6-foot-2 Trantham qualified an independently financed Ford at 137.842 miles per hour Thursday and will start in 19th place Monday in the $102,000 Labor Day 500 mile. He did it after only 51 laps of practice and it was his first ride in a big bore, 600 horsepower racing machine.

"I didn't exactly pick Darlington for my first effort at the bigtime," Trantham said. "But when the car became vacant last week, Chief Mechanic Turkey Menton asked me to drive it. But Darlington doesn't scare me at all."

Trantham already has won 14 of his 20 starts this year on short tracks, nine of them at Hickory, N. C.

Fourteen more cars were to qualify today and at least 20 more for Saturday's 250-mile, $20,000 event for smaller Grand Touring cars.

David Pearson, already the winner of 14 Grand Nationals this year and $89,477 in prize money, was Thursday's fastest qualifier. He posted a 143.495 m.p.h. in a Ford Torino for 16th position. He had missed Wednesday's first day of time trials because of an ear infection.

Pete Hamilton, the 1967 NASCAR sportsman champion and also making his first start at Darlington, was among the other qualifiers Thursday. He qualified at 139.560 m.p.h. in a Ford.

Others qualifying for Monday's race Thursday were John Sears, Ford, 137.425; G. C. Spencer, Plymouth, 136.531; Bobby Johns, Chevrolet, 134.945; Friday Hassler, Chevrolet, 134.402; E. J. Trivette, Chevrolet, 133.801; Bobby Allison, Chevrolet, 133.389; Hoss Ellington, Mercury, 132.722; Larry Manning, Chevrolet, 131.827; Dr. Don Tarr, Chevrolet, 131.324; Dick Johnson, Ford, 130.828; George Davis, Chevrolet, 130.557; and Bill Champion, Ford, 129.316.

Tiny Lund, driving a Mercury Cougar, averaged 137.538 m.p.h. to win the pole position for Saturday's 250-mile Grand Touring race.

Amateurs Feel Can Win Tourney

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—The first-round elimination of two old pros at the hands of a pair of hustling amateurs has buoyed the confidence of the play-for-fun boys in the first U.S. Open Tennis Championships.

"I think with a couple of breaks, I can win this thing," Clark Graebner, one of the regulars on the American Davis Cup team, said today. "I think any one of four amateurs could do it—myself, Arthur Ashe, Charlie Pasarell or Tom Okker."

"There's a chance, of course, but you have to bet on the pros," added a more cautious Ashe, the new National Amateur champion. "The trouble is you have too many pros to beat."

South Africa's Ray Moore, who knocked off 10th seeded Andres Gimeno of Spain to grab one of the early pro scalps also was reserved but hopeful.

"An amateur could win but I'd have to pick Rod Laver or Ken Rosewall—they're the best tennis players in the world," said Moore.

Rosewall, seeded third, won over Jim Parker of St. Louis in his first match 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

Moore crushed Gimeno, just as he did at Wimbledon, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

The other beaten pro was semiretired Barry MacKay, who lost to 23-year-old Jim Osborne of Honolulu 8-6, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Laver, winner at Wimbledon and recognized as the No. 1 player in the world, makes his debut against Tomas Koch of Brazil, in a battle of left-handers Sunday. Both drew opening byes.

Billie Jean King, the Wimbledon queen and favored to take the $6,000 women's first prize—made her debut Thursday by crushing Vija Vuskalns, a 29-year-old dentist from Port Washington, N.Y., 6-1, 6-0.

Two of her chief amateur foes Margaret Smith Court of Australia No. 4, and Maria Bueno of Brazil, No. 5, also won handily. Mrs. Court trounced Emily Fisher of Hamtramck, Mich., 6-0, 6-1. Miss Bueno defeated Stephanie Grant of Beverly Hills, Calif., 6-1, 6-4.

Seeded men's players to advance Thursday included Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., No. 6 winner over Chauncey Steel III of Cambridge, Mass., 6-3, 6-0, 6-4 and Charlie Pasarell of Puerto Rico, the No. 12 ranked U.S. amateur and No. 12 seed, who downed Australia's Karl Coubmes 11-9, 8-6, 6-1.

AAC Seeks To Avoid Conflict

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More nighttime football games may be one way to avoid the growing number of schedule conflicts for three Atlantic Coast Conference members — Duke, North Carolina and North Carolina State.

N. C. State's Carter Stadium, located in Raleigh, now is equipped with lights but stadiums at North Carolina and Duke, both within 30 miles, of Raleigh, don't have lights.

Duke University Athletic Director Eddie Cameron took note of the problem in a recent interview.

"No other area in the nation has three major college football teams so close together," Cameron said.

He suggested the possibility of more night games, but said Duke's schedule already is planned through 1978.

The first conflict in the football schedule of the three schools this season will be Sept. 28 when Duke plays Michigan at Durham while South Carolina plays North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The two afternoon games will be 10 miles apart.

In all, there will be five conflicting games for the three schools this season.

Meanwhile, five ACC football teams joined their early bird rivals today by opening practice drills for the 1968 season.

Some 375 aspiring players reported to the camps of Duke, South Carolina, Virginia, Maryland and the University of North Carolina.

At College Park, Md., more than 100 players reported for Maryland's football practice.

"We are looking forward to the new season," said Coach Bob Ward, whose first team at his alma mater last year lost all nine of its games and stretched the Terrapin losing string to 13 in a row.

"Last year is forgotten," Ward told reporters Thursday. "There is nothing that can be done about it, and nothing can be gained by dwelling on it."

"We benefitted by it, but we don't want to experience it again."

Clemson, now nearing the end of its second week of drills, began early practice because of its early academic year. All-ACC linebacker Jimmy Catoe dislocated his shoulder during Tuesday's practice and will be sidelined two weeks.

Wake Forest and N. C. State began early because they are the first teams to play. The Deacons play N. C. State Wolfpack Sept. 14 at the new 31,000 Wake Forest Stadium.

All league teams will see action Sept. 21. Conference games that weekend will have defending champion Clemson at Wake Forest, the Wolfpack at North Carolina and the Duke Blue Devils at South Carolina.

Rounding out the ACC schedule will be Virginia at Purdue and Florida State at Maryland.

Salem Fails In Bid To Wrap It Up

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Salem's Rebels had a chance Thursday night to virtually sew up the Carolina League pennant but blew it by bowing 6-4 to last-place Burlington after 12 innings.

The Rebels and Burlington were tied 2-2 until Jack Merlet blasted a grand slam home run in the top of the 12th. The two runs Salem scored in the bottom of the 12th were of no avail.

Meanwhile, second-place Raleigh-Durham dropped an 8-7 decision to Rocky Mount. Centerfielder Miguel Medina hit the key blows as Rocky Mount came from behind twice. He cracked a three-run homer in the sixth to tie the game and singled during a two-run rally in the ninth.

Lynchburg put on a four-run spree in the fourth and went on to chalk up a 4-3 victory over High Point - Thomasville as pitcher Al Fitzmorris helped with a double that drove in the winning run.

Peninsula exploded for six runs in the fifth inning in whipping Winston-Salem 7-2.

The Portsmouth Tides scored a 3-1 win over Wilson as righthander Dave Bennett kept five hits well scattered.

Righthander Scipio Spinks allowed six hits, fanned 11 and walked seven as Greensboro defeated Kinston 4-1.

Tonight's schedule: Wilson at Peninsula. Winston - Salem at Portsmouth. Kinston at Rocky Mount. Lynchburg at Burlington. High Point - Thomasville at Greensboro and Raleigh-Durham at Salem.

"One of my best," said Diddle, who played in the Scotch foursomes match with Ellis Knowles of Rye, N.Y. They tied E.D. Martin and Vern Kiewasser of Ottawa.

DENVER (AP)—The Denver Rockets of the American Basketball Association traded Willie Murrell, a forward who was voted Most Valuable Player by his teammates last season to the Miami Floridians in exchange for their No. 2 draft choice next season.

Moose Washes Hand, Loses To Cardinals

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates had the right idea but the place for pine tar was on Lou Brock's spikes, not Bob Moose's hand.

Brock stole four bases and the St. Louis Cardinals rapped the Pirates 5-0 Thursday night smacking Moose and his somewhat sticky pitches for four runs and six hits in less than three innings.

The Cards complained that Moose had pine tar on his pitching hand and the umpires ordered him to the dugout in the middle of the third inning to clean his hand. He came back to face four batters, surrender a walk and two singles and leave again—this time for a relief pitcher.

Elsewhere in the National League Thursday, New York shut out Cincinnati 2-0, Atlanta blanked Philadelphia 6-0 and Houston rapped San Francisco 6-1. Chicago and Los Angeles were not scheduled.

In the American League, Chicago shut out New York 1-0, Boston battered Oakland 11-2, Detroit blanked California 2-0, Minnesota shaded Cleveland 3-2 and Washington edged Baltimore 5-4 in 11 innings.

Brock, who scored twice, had a single and four walks. The only time he didn't steal was in the third inning when there were two runners on base in front of him and he had no place to go.

The four thefts gave the Cardinal speedster 41 for the season, just one back of Pittsburgh's Maury Wills, the National League leader. Brock and Curt Flood walked in the first and scooted home on run-scoring singles by Roger Maris and Tim McCarver. Dal Maxvill and pitcher Ray Washburn singled two more across in the third and Maris' single delivered a wrapup run in the sixth.

Cal Koonce and Ron Taylor combined for a two-hitter against the Reds, giving the Mets their 62nd victory—one more than New York managed all of last season.

Koonce, making his first start after 45 relief appearances, stymied Cincinnati until the seventh when Taylor took over. Bud Harrelson had three hits for the Mets and Cincinnati's Pete Rose went hitless, ending a 19-game batting streak.

Phil Niekro fired a two-hitter at Philadelphia and Atlanta used home runs by Felipe Alou, Hank Aaron and Deron Johnson to beat the Phillies.

Niekro didn't allow a runner past first base and won his 11th game. Alou and Aaron both homered in the first and Johnson connected in the eighth as the Braves pinned a fifth straight loss on the Phillies.

Houston pounded Juan Marichal for six runs in less than two innings and cruised past the Giants on Dave Giusti's four-hitter.

Denis Menke tagged a three-run homer in the first inning and the Astros knocked Marichal out after 1 2-3 innings—the earliest kayo of his career. It was the second straight loss for the Giant right-hander, now 23-7.

Jack, Arnie Are Favorites

By DAVE GOLDBERG
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLIFTON, N.J. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer are the favorites in the Thunderbird Golf Classic which starts today but Bob Murphy and Lee Trevino are having all the fun.

While Palmer and Nicklaus were busy with the feud between the Professional Golfers Association and the touring pros, Trevino and Murphy, the hottest newcomers on the tour, concentrated on their golf and their galleries.

"I didn't even know there was a meeting going on," Trevino said of the huddle involving Palmer and PGA officials in Washington. "I just came here to play golf."

Trevino was one of the first pros to arrive at the par 72 Upper Montclair Country Club course and his presence turned most of the practice-round spectators into members of Lee's fleet.

Trevino was approaching the 10th tee on one practice round when he spotted Murphy—winner of the Philadelphia Classic last week—about to tee off. "Whoa," shouted Lee, trotting towards the tee. "Wait for me, Murphy."

For the next nine holes, the Fleas, augmented by Murphy's Mulligans, were treated to a steady diet of chatter with a little golf on the side.

"I just couldn't make a putt," Trevino said after shooting a one-over-par 73 in Thursday's pro-amateur. "My putting needs a lot of work."

Murphy shot a 75 in the pro-am, in which Billy Casper, Bob Goalby and Mason Rudolph shot 68.

A team led by Ken Venturi took the pro-am with a best-ball score of 56.

Purdue's football schedule lists Notre Dame as its second rival for each of the next four seasons.

Brown Knows He's Building A Team At Cincinnati; Second Time Around

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Paul Brown stepped onto the field at Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium prior to his first game in five years as a coach, looked around and said:
"This field looks short, but it'll probably get longer as the game goes."
Brown, coach of the American Football League's newest team, the Cincinnati Bengals, had taken steps to insure the season doesn't seem to get longer and longer as it goes.
"I've prepared myself for this," said the former, highly successful coach of the Cleveland Browns of the National League. "I coached myself before I came."
"We're not misleading ourselves. We're an expansion team, and we know it. We have a tough nut to crack."
Brown, who will be 60 next Saturday, is going through the team building process for the second team. Twenty-two years ago he built the Cleveland Browns and soon turned them into a powerhouse that dominated the All-America Conference and then the NFL for a while.
He's not laboring under any illusions that he can do the same within a short time in the AFL.
In fact, if he had any such thoughts, they were quickly dispelled in the Bengals' first exhibition game, a contest against Kansas City in which they didn't run a play from scrimmage for the entire first quarter.
Actually, though, the Bengals have progressed rapidly since that quarter. They dropped their first three exhibition games all to AFL foes, but then surprisingly beat the Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL.
Dewey Warren, a rookie from Tennessee who powered that victory, could wind up as the starting quarterback after starting out behind John Stofa. Brown traded for Stofa soon after obtaining the franchise, but the former Miami Dolphin injured his leg and hasn't played lately.
Warren, meanwhile, has displayed a bold, confident kind of quarterbacking and could be the No. 1 man when the Bengals open the season at San Diego next Friday night.

As receivers, Cincinnati has a pair of rookies at the ends. Warren McVea from Houston and Bob Trumpy from Utah, and a second-year player, Rod Sherman, at flanker. Sherman was grabbed from Oakland in the expansion draft.
The running attack also features rookies, which further indicates Brown's confidence that youth is the shortest route to eventual and lasting success.
Tom Smiley of Lamar Tech has been running at fullback while Paul Robinson of Arizona State and Jesse Phillips of Michigan State share the half-back spot. Phillips, incidentally, is the fellow who was paroled from a Michigan prison a day before Cincinnati's first exhibition game.

The interior offensive line also has three rookies—guard Dave Middendorf of Washington State, All-America center Bob Johnson of Tennessee and tackle Howie Fost of Texas. Tackle Ernie Wright, on the other hand, is in his ninth pro year. The other guard is third-year pro Pat Matson.

Right now the defensive line has Jim Griffin and Harry Gunner at end and Bill Staley and Bill Kindricks at tackle.
Probably the best part of the defense is the linebacking where veterans Dan Brabham and Frank Buncom are stationed. Sherrill Headrick another veteran, started out at middle linebacker, but he's been injured so Mike Hibler has stepped in.
The secondary also is comprised of veterans—Fletcher Smith and Bobby Hunt, both of whom came from Kansas City, White Graves and Charlie King.

Cellar Dwellers Set Baltimore Hopes Back

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Washington Senators have had their troubles moving forward, but they overcame them long enough to put the Baltimore Orioles in reverse.
The Senators entered Baltimore two days ago buried in last place in the American League while the Orioles had climbed within four games of leading Detroit.
Washington departed Thursday night still locked in the cellar, but left the Orioles moving backward, six games behind the Tigers after losing twice to the Senators.
Frank Howard's home run put the brakes on the Orioles Wednesday night and the king-sized slugger teamed with Ken McMullen and rookie Gary Holman to beat Baltimore 5-4 in 11 innings Thursday night.
That loss came after Detroit rode Mickey Lolich's three-hitter to a 2-0 triumph over California in the afternoon as the Tigers built momentum for their three-game weekend series against Baltimore starting tonight.
In other games, the Chicago White Sox slipped by the New York Yankees 1-0 and Minnesota tripped Cleveland 3-2 in night contests and Boston crumbled Oakland 11-2 in daylight.
In the National League, St. Louis crushed Pittsburgh 5-0, the New York Mets halted Cincinnati 2-0 and Atlanta stomped Philadelphia 6-0 at night, and Houston beat San Francisco 6-1 in the afternoon in the only games.
The Senators played their last place role for seven innings against rookie Roger Nelson, making his first start of the season. They had only four hits and trailed 3-0. Then came the start of the turnabout.
A walk and shortstop Mark Belanger's error on a potential double play sent McMullen up with two on and one out and he unloaded his 18th homer for a tie game. Howard followed with his 38th blast on the next pitch. Baltimore got back on the beam temporarily when Brooks Robinson, who doubled in two earlier runs, singled home the tying run in the eighth. But Holman, who pinch hit unsuccessfully in the eighth and stayed in the game, followed Bernie Allen's one-out double off Eddie Watt, 4-5, with a two-out, game-winning single.

Lolich, 13-3, put the pressure on the Orioles earlier after a slow start in which he gave up three hits in the first two innings. But he retired the last 20 hitters he faced, and finished with 12 strike outs and one walk.
Willie Horton supplied the offense with his 31st home run in the fourth inning for the first of two, hits given up by George Brunet, 13-13, in his seven innings. Horton drove in the second run in the eighth with an infield hit.

Luis Aparicio followed Tom McCraw's leadoff bunt single and a sacrifice in the seventh with a run-scoring hit against Steve Barber, 6-5, for Chicago's victory.
First Joel Horlen, 9-11, and then Wilbur Wood, who relieved in the ninth, protected the run with a seven-hitter.
Bob Allison's 18th homer with one out in the eighth broke a tie and gave Minnesota its triumph behind Jim Kaat's six-hit pitching. He struck out 10 as he raised his record to 11-10.
Reggie Smith led Boston's bombardment with his first grand slam homer, his 10th of the season, and a run-scoring ground out. Joe Foy added two homers for three runs, making it easy for Dick Ellsworth, 12-6, who relieved injured starter Dave Morehead in the second inning.

Cleveland Wades Into American League For First Time Tonight

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Cleveland Browns encounter the Buffalo Bills tonight, their first American Football League opposition ever, and the National Football League sorely needs a Browns' victory.
The AFL holds a 10-5 edge over the NFL and needs only two more victories to clinch the interleague, preseason series with eight games remaining, six of them this weekend.

There also are two AFL games on tap tonight—Cincinnati vs. the New York Jets at Memphis, Tenn., and Denver against San Diego at San Antonio, Tex.
The Washington Redskins scored 16 points in the second period and held on for a 16-10 victory over the Detroit Lions in an NFL game at Washington Thursday night.
Jerry Allen ran three yards for the first touchdown and Jim Ninowski passed 25 yards to Jerry Smith. Both touchdowns were set up when the Lions were penalized on third down after Washington drives apparently had stalled.

The Redskins got a safety when linebacker Ed Breeding blocked a Jerry DePoyster punt in the end zone.
Detroit, who scored on a 59-yard pass from Bill Munson to Earl McCullough and DePoyster's 37-yard field goal, lost a chance to win when Munson's 39-yard scoring pass to McCullough late in the final quarter was nullified by offensive holding.

Cincinnati 1-3, was tough on rushing against Pittsburgh, allowing the Steelers only 59 yards, but the Bengals' main problem against New York will be stopping the passing of Joe Namath. Namath saw his first action last weekend and threw for two touchdowns in a triumph over the NFL Atlanta Falcons.
Saturday's schedule has three interleague games—Baltimore, NFL, at Miami, AFL; Kansas City, AFL, at Los Angeles and Dallas, NFL, at Houston, AFL. New Orleans is at Atlanta and Green Bay takes on Pittsburgh at Milwaukee, Wis., in NFL games Saturday.
Oakland of the AFL plays at NFL San Francisco and Minnesota is at St. Louis in an NFL game Sunday, while Philadelphia, NFL, plays Boston, AFL, at Cambridge, Mass., Monday.
The Minnesota-St. Louis game Sunday night will be televised nationally.

Arnie Makes Move To Settle Revolt

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLIFTON, N.J. (AP) — The struggle between the Professional Golfers Association and the rebelling touring pros continued today, with most of the activity behind locked doors and the major participants saying very little.
Arnold Palmer spent four hours in a closed-door session with the 16-man executive committee of the Professional Golfers Association in Washington Thursday. He made a proposal he declined to make public and missed his chance for a practice round for the $150,000 Thunderbird Classic Open golf tournament which began today.
Asked if he would say the meeting was encouraging, Palmer said:
"It was cordial. But I would not use the word encouraging."
Palmer, the defending champion of this tourney, probably the greatest name in the game and the all-time leading money winner, "came before the executive committee on his own for the session in the best interests of golf," said a brief statement released jointly by Palmer and PGA President Mak Elbin.

The statement also said "the executive committee is taking this (Palmer's) proposal under advisement for further consideration."
The touring pros, who broke with the PGA—which also represents some 6,000 club pros—two weeks ago, meanwhile went about the business of setting up their own organization, the American Professional Golfers.
"There are a lot of things to be done in setting up a new organization," said Jack Nicklaus, a member of the executive board of the new group "We don't want to sit back and call names. We just want to go ahead."

He and other members of the group's executive board also held a closed door meeting.
"I don't know anything about that," Palmer said, "But I assume I'll be talking with them through the next few days."
The touring pros broke with the PGA two weeks ago, complaining they had no say in the conduct of the tour.

Boy's Hand Over Repaired Heart

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Six-year-old David Purdy placed his right hand over his heart for the pledge of allegiance to the flag with other new first graders Thursday.

It was a day David's parents thought he might never see.

Three times David went through heart surgery. As recent as 18 months ago there were fears for his life. Surgeons employed heart massage in the three operations to keep David alive.

The youngster was born with a defective heart—the major vessels leading from the ventricles were reversed. His first heart surgery came when he was 27 days old. In all David has undergone seven operations.

In surgery at Duke Hospital in Durham in June 1967, doctors reversed the positions of the major vessels entering David's heart, thus giving him a heart which works in reverse—but does work.

The middle child in a family of five David was given a life expectancy of six to eight years at birth. Now, he is expected to live a full, normal life.

Tax Share Said Not Sufficient

RALEIGH (AP) — George Pickett, director of the state Department of Water and Air Resources, says the 1969 General Assembly will be asked to remove the ceiling on the amount of taxes that can be levied on property in coastal counties to pay the local share of beach protection projects.

Pickett said the present maximum tax of 10 cents on the $100 valuation "is simply not sufficient to pay the local interest share of the projects." Each county is required to pay about 8 per cent of the costs with state and federal money paying the remainder.

An echo of yesterday passes overhead.

They come from all points across the land: the Wacos, Stearmans, Ryans; the P-51 fighters of another era and the home-made models reflecting individual ideas. There might even be the big Ford Tri-Motor, available for flights lasting 15 minutes and providing a sky-high view of the 16th Annual "Fly-In" coming to Rockford, Ill.

The event, held the first week of August, is sponsored by the Experimental Aircraft Association, an organization founded in 1953 by Paul Poberezny, Milwaukee, Wis., and now boasting a membership near 40,000 representing all 50 states and 43 foreign countries.

The EAA, a non-profit organization, also sponsors an air-education museum and headquarters at Franklin, Wis., but one week per year it conducts the international convention of its members, regulating some 27,000 landings and take-offs of their unique aircraft.

Currently, some 2,000 amateur-built planes have been completed by members, while roughly 6,000 other members are currently busy constructing or refurbishing their own planes.

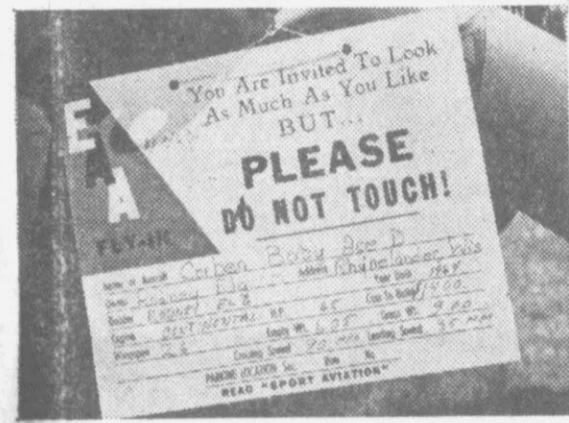

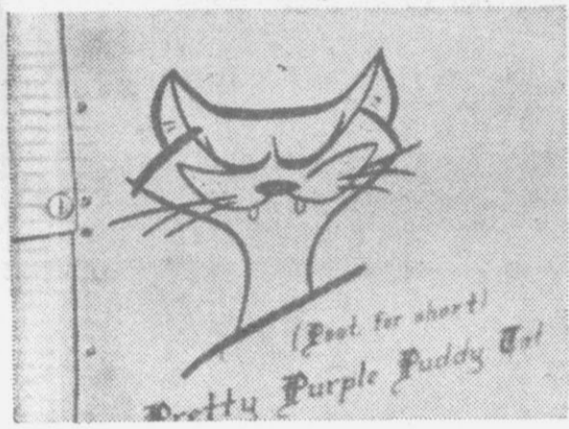

For the visitor and organizational members who come to the small town 90 miles northwest of Chicago, Ill., the EAA provides free parking space, food tents and viewing access to the over 160 airplanes lined in patterned rows across the field.

Each evening at 7:00 p.m., when wind turbulence is at a minimum, an air show provides spectators with upside-down flying, wing-walking, parachute jumping, precision flying and airplane acrobatics.

Scattered between tents and campers of those remaining more than one day are larger tents featuring the latest in factory planes and parts for the interested flying buff.

This year's event, with its brightly colored aircraft and the strange shape of things to come, perhaps, will bring more than 400,000 people to the Greater Rockford Airport, south of the city on U.S. Highway 51, to take part in the Experimental Aircraft Association's biggest, and best, "Fly-In."

Russians Resort To Long Vodka Weekends

By MICHAEL JOHNSON Associated Press Writer MOSCOW (AP) — Vodka, the joy and curse of Russia for centuries, is getting a boost this year as Russian workers face new challenges—how to use their new long weekends.

The five-day work week, introduced last winter in most Soviet factories, appears to be driving the workers to drink. Other unforeseen problems also have arisen, but drunkenness draws the harshest scoldings in the official press.

The humor magazine Krokodil summed it up in a cover cartoon recently: "Now I have two days off," the reeling husband tells his wife as he comes home brandishing two empties.

To the Russian reader, it was instantly clear that he had emptied two quarts of vodka by the end of his two days off, probably because he could find nothing better to do.

The cartoon was painfully close to reality.

Vodka sales jumped more than 24 per cent when workers were given two consecutive days off. Industrial production, which was expected to benefit from the new schedule, dropped in many plants because people often were in no shape to work Monday morning.

The Russian laborer seemed to be making up for years of long hours and hard work.

The wartime 66-hour week was cut to 48 hours in the mid-1940s, then to 41 hours in 1960 under Nikita S. Khrushchev. But the 41-hour week was spread over six days, giving most people only Sundays free.

After years of promises, the last of 77 million factory and office workers finally got the extended weekend at the beginning of 1968. Their working hours were redistributed so that they still work 41 hours a week.

'closed and ruffed' in the closed hand.

On the surface it appears that declarer can win a maximum of 10 tricks—five diamonds, two hearts and, at most, three clubs no matter how favorably that suit divides. Declarer observed a way to develop an additional trick in the diamond suit, by ruffing out all of dummy's spades and then using North's diamonds to draw trumps.

A diamond was led to the nine and a third spade was ruffed with declarer's ten. The jack of diamonds was overtaken by North's king and a fourth spade was trumped with the queen of diamonds. A heart was led over to the ace and the ace of diamonds drew the last trump as South discarded a heart.

A small club was led and, when East followed with the nine, declarer played the queen which held the trick. The ace of clubs was cashed and, when East obligingly dropped the king, North's jack of clubs became established for the game fulfilling trick.

Despite the favorable lie of the cards, East could have prevented declarer's execution of a dummy reversal—by shifting to a trump at trick two. The spade continuation provided South with a ruff that he could not obtain under his own power, due to the shortage of entries to the North hand. If declarer is left entirely to his own devices, he must end up one trick short.

weekend. The typical Russian might indulge his passion for hunting mushrooms, camping out, or just hiking in the woods. Except for the mobs of people, there is now nothing to prevent families from traveling to nearby lakes on Saturday, returning home Sunday evening.

All this is new and luxurious for the Soviet population.

The Komsomol, the Communist party organization responsible for young people, has welcomed the two-day weekend as a method of giving the masses "more time to develop their world outlook."

A recent poll showed that most working women have noticed no improvement in their lives since the new schedule was introduced. Their housework has merely expanded to fill the time, they said. Others told pollsters that the extra free time is leading to hooliganism and drunkenness.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market made a good advance with trading moderately active this afternoon.

Although caution reigned because of the upcoming three-day Labor Day weekend, selective buying among blue chips and more volatile issues pushed the list ahead definitely.

Gains outnumbered losses by more than 200 issues on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.42 at 897.75.

Motors were mixed, despite the fact that auto production for September was scheduled at a record number of units. Steels also were ragged as orders for steel remained at a low level, although an upturn was expected. Rubbers were mostly higher.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.1 at 333.3, with industrials up 1.3, rails up .7, and utilities up .7.

The news background was encouraging for the market, but the pace of trading was somewhat slack, as expected before a long weekend. Exchanges will be closed Monday.

Prices advanced in moderately active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Wallace Wants Simple Answers

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —George C. Wallace says, "One thing wrong with our country is we have complicated solutions to simple problems."

The American Independent party candidate for president spoke to about 7,000 persons at a rally Thursday night and, according to campaign aides, to 400 at a $25-a-plate dinner in a downtown hotel.

Wallace takes his campaign to Louisville, Ky., today.

Applause at the Knoxville rally interrupted him 38 times as he continued criticism of the Republican and Democratic parties.

"It is those like you and millions like you that are causing the national parties to be concerned, not me as an individual," said Wallace.

The former Alabama governor said "For the first time in your life you're hearing a national candidate say what you want to hear," and he predicted it would carry him to the White House.

"I'm going to turn back to you in East Tennessee and Knoxville the right to control your own schools... unions... and other 'institutions,'" he said. "I'm going to tell those guideline writers there are more of us than there are of you."

HAD TO DO IT

SEATTLE (AP) —A gunman took $20 from a Western Union office Thursday and told clerk James McAleer: "I don't normally do this type of thing, and if I saw you on the street tomorrow, I would explain why I had to do it."

Four-Day Weeks Through Month

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock exchanges will continue their four-day trading weeks through September, the governing boards of the New York and American exchanges decided Thursday.

The exchanges and the over-the-counter market have been closing one day a week, mostly on Wednesdays, since June 12 to give brokers' clerical staffs more time to handle paperwork that accumulated during very heavy trading.

The exchanges will be closed next Monday, Labor Day, as usual. They also will close Sept. 11, 18 and 25, all Wednesdays.

Correction

In a story on the business district street pattern plans carried in Thursday's "The Daily Reflector," it was stated that the motion for major changes on three Greenville streets included four-twelve foot travel lanes "on Evans Street from a point 150 feet south of Fifth Street through Tenth Street."

City Manager Harry Hagerly reports that the modification "a point 150 feet south of Fifth Street" was not carried in the motion. The actual motion, as approved by the board is: "On Evans Street from Fifth Street through Tenth Street."

At the height of the colonial wars, Barbados had 26 forts along a 21-mile coastline.
