

Vacation Timetable Still Vague

Congress Wrestles With Bulky Docket

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott has reinforced President Nixon's threat to veto a budget-boosting appropriation for education and health spending, despite compromise reductions drafted as Congress pressed toward Christmas recess.

The vacation timetable was vague after a stormy Saturday session, but congressional leaders hoped to clear the docket and quit well before Christmas

Eve. Today's major item: The massive tax reform bill, with its provision for a gradual increase to $750 in the personal income tax exemption.

Senate Republicans and Democrats already had staged a political custody dispute over the bill. The taxpaying voters, said Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., can thank Democrats for the reductions offered by the measure.

"They cannot thank the Republican leadership which is attempting to steal away from the lowly senior senator from Tennessee credit which he does not claim," Gore told the Senate over the weekend in a bit of circular oratory.

Another key to a recess up before Congress today was a $267-million catch-all appropriation bill. This became the vehicle for a crucial resolution to keep unfunded government agencies in funds until Congress takes its vacation and returns to act on their appropriations.

As matters stand, that is likely to be the situation for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Department of Labor, and the Agency for International Development.

The resolution continues spending authority through Jan. 30.

But another factor, the so-called Philadelphia plan for obtaining more construction job opportunities for black workers, had made the future of the supplemental appropriations bill uncertain.

The Senate had attached a rider to the supplemental measure prohibiting the plan, which establishes quotas for blacks and other minority members to be hired on federally financed construction projects.

Nixon has threatened to veto the supplemental appropriations, although he said Sunday a final decision had not been made.

Congress is planning a recess until Jan. 19—unless Nixon should invoke another of his warnings and summon House and Senate back to work immediately after Christmas.

The President had said he would call a special session unless appropriations measures for the current fiscal year—which began nearly six months ago—were passed before adjournment.

But Scott indicated the White House was satisfied with an arrangement under which the $19.9 billion appropriation including the contested health and education money would remain in congressional custody during the recess.

Nixon threatened to veto the bill after the Senate passed it at $21.4 billion, saying it was too costly for an inflation troubled economy.

Scott said in his judgment, the veto warning was not altered when House-Senate negotiators worked out the $19.9 billion compromise terms.

Actually, $1.1 billion of the reduction was in appropriations which were not to have been spent this year anyway.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., the majority leader, said there would be no Senate action on the embattled measure until after the recess, and Scott said he had agreed to that plan.

Some House Democrats, Speaker John W. McCormack among them, would just as soon send the bill to Nixon and let him veto the money—seeing in that a political campaign issue for 1970.

A foreign aid dispute between Senate and House flared Saturday night, dooming that appropriation until after the holidays.

The Senate rejected a $1.8 billion foreign aid appropriation, primarily because of House insistence on a $54.5 million outlay to buy jet fighter planes for Nationalist China.

Set Full-Scale Negotiations In Two Capitals

HELSINKI (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union agreed today to begin full-scale strategic arms limitation talks in Vienna April 16 and continue them in Helsinki later.

The United States had wanted Vienna as the site for the substantive negotiations, while the Soviet Union had been holding out for Helsinki. The compromise choice of both capitals ended a deadlock and enabled the two countries to move ahead with their efforts to stop the arms race in nuclear missiles.

A joint communique said, in part:

"An understanding was reached on the general range of questions which will be the subject of further U.S.-Soviet exchanges."

The communique was intaled at a ceremonial closing of the preliminary phase of SALT by chief delegates Vladimir S. Semenov of the Soviet Union and Gerard C. Smith of the United States.

The talks here beginning Nov. 17, were held in secrecy. Their purpose was simply to prepare for the second and main phase of SALT, expected to last months, if not years.

Smith said at the final ceremony in Smolna Palace:

"We profoundly hope that in the course of the forthcoming negotiations the United States and the Soviet Union will be able to agree upon limitations on their respective strategic arsenals. Both of our countries, and the world at large, have much to gain from such an agreement."

Semenov expressed similar sentiments.

"We have been aware that curbing the strategic arms race would serve the vital interests of the Soviet and American peoples and all peoples of our planet. On this basis we shall strive at the subsequent negotiations towards a mutually acceptable agreement on the problem under discussion."

BUSY SEASON

SANTA CLAUS, Ind. (AP) — Postmaster Elbert Reinke estimates that about three million pieces of mail will be handled here by the end of the Christmas season.

High Goals By Truckers

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's 450,000 truck drivers have set a $5 per hour wage increase and additional contributions to their health and welfare funds as goals for contract negotiations, an officer of a local union says.

Edward Fenner, executive director of the independent Chicago Truck Drivers Union, said Sunday the International Brotherhood of Teamsters will present the demands to the trucking industry Jan. 7 in Washington. The current contract expires March 31.

If the wage demands are won, the total compensation of the drivers will rise in three years from about $4.75 to $9.75 an hour or an annual salary of $14,872 by 1972.

"Our demands will not be inflationary provided the employers maintain a normal level of profits instead of tripling their prices and using labor as the scapegoat," Fenner declared.

ECU Hopes Get State Funds Next Year To Plan Program

By JERRY RAYNOR

East Carolina University hopes to obtain funds from the state next year to begin planning a degree-granting program for correction and law enforcement personnel.

Dr. John R. Ball, chairman of the Department of Social Welfare at ECU, revealed some of the figures which have been compiled as a projected basis to support the beginning phases of the program.

In a statement contained in a letter last week to James Van Camp, director of the law and order committee, Dr. Ball noted, "We are advising the governor's office about our budget needs . . . according to our estimates, we would anticipate that for the first 12 months we would need in excess of $60,000."

Dr. Ball stated, "The law and order committee is being asked to consider providing funds also for the second year of planning efforts and anticipated operational program requirements."

"If we begin our planning efforts immediately, as we propose to do," Dr. Ball stated in his letter to Van Camp, "this means that at the end of the fiscal year 1971, we would be entering into the second year of operation. In order to do so, we would need some additional money to carry us into either hard money from the state or from the Governor's Committee on Law and Order."

He further noted that the second year operation costs "would probably be increased by at least from $17,000 to $20,000."

The budget proposal being prepared for the next General Assembly calls for hiring "a well-qualified person to direct our study and to become the primary administrator of the program when it is established."

"We anticipate recruiting a person from one of the established correctional programs in the country and, in fact, we are already in contact with such a person."

Dr. Ball also wrote in the letter to Van Camp, "We would anticipate adding an additional assistant professor as well as infusing some additional funds into the established programs in psychology, sociology, political science and social welfare."

In reply to a question as to whether this program envisages a person training in this field receiving a degree equivalent to a law degree, Dr. Ball commented, "This is not part of our thinking at this time."

He stated, "We hope to have a reply from the law and order committee sometime in January. The committee accepts requests at one meeting, and discuss and vote on them at the next meeting."

Since the proposal was submitted to Van Camp in the December meeting, it is likely that discussion on the ECU request will be taken up at the January meeting.

Fear Hundreds Died In Hong Kong Flu Toll

PORT MORESBY, New Guinea (AP) — The worst epidemic in Australian New Guinea's history is over, after the death of hundreds of village men, women and children.

The epidemic of Hong Kong virus A2 flu cut a swath through the central highlands, the home of nearly one million people.

Pneumonia developed in many cases.

Nobody will ever know the actual death toll. New Guinea is rugged and the village people are scattered.

The director of public health, Dr. Ray F.R. Scragg, says the known toll is "something more than 2,000."

The epidemic apparently began in September.

cleaning station reactivated for the first time since an underwater oil blowout last winter in the same Santa Barbara Channel area spread a slick over 800 miles of the Pacific.

Geologists say the new slick was touched off after pumps at offshore oil drilling platforms were shut down from Tuesday to Saturday while workmen repaired a broken pipeline. Pressure apparently built up in the oil pools below the ocean floor, they said, causing oil to seep out of sea-bottom fissures considerably faster than the usual 250-gallon-a-day rate geologists estimate. Because of foggy weather there was no estimate of the size of the slick.

Union Oil Co. officials said Sunday that reactivation of their pumps Saturday apparently relieved the pressure and halted the heavy seepage.

President Plans Set Space Goals

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon plans to address the nation Tuesday with a message outlining American space goals in the decade ahead.

No time was set for the address.

The President has not indicated what the message may contain, although a special panel headed by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has recommended three alternatives—including two that would put Americans on Mars in the 1980's.

Vietnam DC6. Police at the scene said of the 30 known dead, 21 had been on the ground and nine were aboard the aircraft. Twelve of the dead were believed to be schoolchildren.

A passenger list drawn up in Nha Trang indicated that there were no Americans aboard. The list showed two or three Indians, and all the rest were Vietnamese.

Skyjacking Plot Foiled

ATHENS (AP) — A Trans World Airlines clerk opened a passenger's handbag in a routine check at the Athens airport Sunday and found a hand grenade inside.

"I couldn't believe it," said Fritos Svortopoulos, who was credited with foiling a plot by three Lebanese Arabs to hijack the plane during a flight to Rome.

The flight had originated in Tel Aviv and was destined for New York.

Police arrested Issam Doumudi, 18; Sami Aboud, 20, and a woman, Amoul Khalil, 22. Each was carrying a pistol and one of their identical pieces of hand luggage contained explosives, police said.

Police said the three told them they planned to force the plane to Damascus and blow the nose up after landing.

After the arrests, police searched all the luggage and checked the 28 other passengers again. The Boeing 707 arrived at New York's Kennedy Airport three hours late.

Under a new system of air passenger control in Athens, a check of luggage is made at the airline terminal in downtown Athens and another at the airport.

The three Arabs were charged with possessing explosives, which could mean a death sentence in Greece.

including two American soldiers who were in a Jeep that was hit by the plane as it slid across a road at the northwest end of the runway.

Two other soldiers in the Jeep escaped by leaping out. The vehicle was smashed over and turned into a charred wreck by the fire that followed.

The plane carried 63 passengers and a crew of seven, according to the steward. He said all of the crew members survived although the pilot was seriously injured, first by a mysterious explosion that occurred aboard the plane and possibly again in the crash.

He said the explosion apparently occurred in one of the left-side engines as the aircraft, bound from Saigon to Da Nang via Nha Trang, was flying near Cam Ranh Bay, about 28 miles south of Nha Trang.

He said the pilot and a woman passenger were injured, apparently by flying metal from the engine, but the pilot managed to keep the plane airborne. The plane made a seemingly normal landing, but as it hit the runway, the brakes failed and it hurtled off the end of the strip, across the road and into the populated area.

The steward said he could offer no further explanation of the explosion. Officials also were puzzled by it. The DC6 was flying off the coast when it occurred, and this made it unlikely it had been hit by Viet Cong fire.

It was the third Air Vietnam flight to crash in the country this year. One of the airline's DC6s collided with a U.S. Air Force Phantom jet on approaching Da Nang Air Base last Sept. 20 and crashed, killing 77 persons. On April 2, a DC6 crashed on landing at Phu Bai airport, injuring five of the 81 persons aboard.

which both sides could live with in Israel's pre-1967 borders.

Sources in Arafat's delegation said the Palestinians are not interested in forming a provisional government because this could cause "political complications" for the guerrilla movement.

Arafat himself was treated almost like a chief of state by the Arab leaders, and was seated on the same level as the kings and presidents of Arab states.

Conference sources said Arafat asked the other Arab leaders to "strengthen the Palestine revolution" by giving his movement more money and arms and by granting the guerrillas complete freedom of action on territory adjoining Israel and the occupied territories.

Delegation members said there is general agreement on support for the guerrilla struggle against Israel, but differences remain over whether to concentrate first on recovering territory lost in the 1967 war, or to give immediate and unconditional backing to Arafat's call for total liberation of Palestine.

One result of the first day's talks was the announcement that Syria and Morocco have decided to restore diplomatic relations after a four-year break caused when the Syrian radio insulted King Hassan.

Another inter-Arab dispute, the recent border fighting between Saudi Arabia and South Yemen, has been shifted to the sidelines of the conference, sources reported. The two countries agreed to accept an offer by Nasser to mediate.

Replace Thumb With Big Toe

LONDON (AP) — A team of British doctors replaced a man's thumb with his big toe, and he is now earning a living as a woodworker, the Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery reported this weekend.

The man's left thumb was cut off by a circular saw. Doctors at Queen Victoria Hospital in East Grinstead grafted the top joint of the left big toe onto the hand, using a special microscope to join the blood vessels and nerve fibers.

Sugar Crop Is No Joke

MIAMI (AP) — Fidel Castro strode into a cane field Sunday and warned that anyone who joked about the sugar crop harvest wouldn't get a chance to tell the joke twice.

Castro, who called off Christmas in Cuba because he wanted everyone in the fields working for a record sugar crop harvest, had five North Vietnamese, five Viet Cong soldiers, and a rash of Cuban officials in tow when he threatened to assassinate anyone who tried to sabotage the reaping. Radio Havana reported.

Castro has staked the reputation of his revolution on a promise that the Communist island this year will harvest 10 million tons of sugar, the nation's principal money crop. The current record of 7.2 million was set in 1952, before Castro came to power.

Miss Deborah Conway Weds Sunday Volpe-Hadley Vows Exchanged Sunday

The marriage of Miss Deborah La-Von Conway and Louis Mitchell Jones Jr. was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Hooker Memorial Christian Church.

Groomsmen were Jerry Jones, brother of the bridegroom, John Allen Conway III, brother of the bride, and Bill Wilkerson, Ross Pease, Larry Roberts of Athens, Ga., John Adams, Johnny Sutton, Bill Wilkerson and Kenneth Williams.

Couple Speaks Vows On Sunday

People's Bible Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sandra Marlene Sutton and William Francis Dorey on Sunday at 3:30 p.m.
The Rev. John T. Woodley officiated at the ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Bob Karl, organist, and Lorenza Stox, soloist, who sang "Each For The Other," "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer" as benediction.

The church was decorated with floor candelabra holding lighted tapers with a background of bridal palms. Stading baskets of white mums and gladioli were placed on each side of the altar. The couple knelt for their vows on a gold and satin prie-dieu under a bridal arch.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sutton of Rt. 1, Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Dorey of Greenville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Victorian gown of English net covered with scallop bands of Guipure lace over an empire shirt of peau de soie. The bodice was fashioned with high neck bordered with stand-up collar of lace centered with satin accented with petite bow and Bishop sleeves ending in wide fitted cuff. The A-silhouette flowed into a bouffant built-in train topped with a satin bow and enhanced with bands of lace which extended into a full chapel length.

Her bouffant veil of English silk illusion was caught to clustered stand-up back loops of peau de soie which held a demicap of scallop lace petals and medallions encrusted with pearls highlighted with pearl leaves and stems. She carried a cascade bouquet of snow drift carnations centered with a hybrid orchid tied with white velvet streamers.

Miss Dianna Bunch of Greenville was maid of honor. She wore a gown designed with a green velvet bodice empire style with a white party brocade skirt with long sleeves. Her headpiece was a green velvet bow with green tulle.

Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Lewis, Miss Elaine McLawhon, cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Juanita Simpkins, Miss Carla Phillips and Mrs. Carolyn Hudson, all of Greenville and Miss Elsie Marsh of Fayetteville.

Their formal gowns were fashioned the same at the honor attendant with red velvet bodices and white party brocade skirts with long sleeves. Their headpieces were red velvet bows with tulle.

Their bouquets were cascade style of red pixie carnations and variegated holly tied with streamers of red and white velvet.

Junior bridesmaids were Maxine and Gayle Stancill of Greenville, cousins of the bride. Their gowns were identical to the honor attendant with short puff sleeves.

Flower girls were Kathy and Tracey Dorey of Fayetteville, cousins of the bridegroom. They wore dresses of empire styled velvet with short puff sleeves, one wore red velvet and the other wore green velvet and matching headpieces. They carried miniature baskets of red pixie carnations.

Miss Betsy Daughtridge and Miss Janice House were honorary bridesmaids. They wore street length princess styled dresses of red velvet with white beaded trim. They carried a long-stemmed white carnation.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Ronnie Braxton of Vanceboro.

Phil McLawhon of Greenville, Stanley Dorey of Fayetteville and Eugene McLawhon of Bethel, all cousins of the bridegroom, Tom Moore of Kinston, and Joshua Potter of Falkland. Keith Stocks, ring bearer, carried a heart-shaped white sation pillow.

The bride's mother selected a coat and dress of shell pink brocade, matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheath dress of blue lace with a matching coat and accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Mamie Stancill of Greenville, maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a two-piece ensemble of white and light blue knit and a red carnation corsage. Mrs. Ray Sutton of Greenville, paternal grandmother of the bride, was attired in a dress of light blue crepe and wore a red carnation corsage.

For a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va., the bride changed into a two-piece suit of navy, brown and white wool, brown accessories and wore the orchids lifted from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Belvoir-Falkland High School, attended East Carolina University and is employed by Carolina Sales.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Rose High School and East Carolina University. He teaches in Ayden.

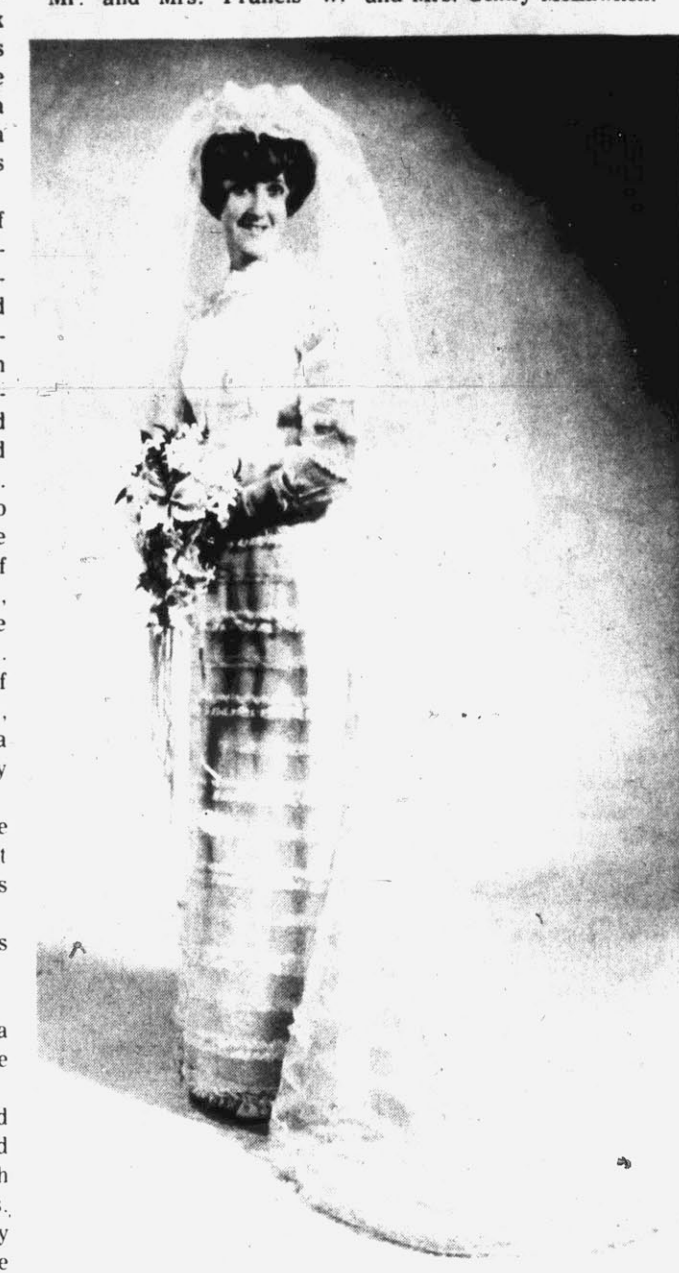

Presiding at the registry was Carolyn Allen.

Reception
Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Holiday Inn.

The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of red carnations and white mums with clusters of holly and candles. The table had accents of holly and velvet streamers at the corners.

Assisting were Mrs. Joyce Sutton and Mrs. Lillian Harris, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Hazel Ward of Rocky Mount served cake and Mrs. Grace Sutton of Greenville, both aunts of the bride, poured punch.
Good-byes were said to Rena Cobb of Greenville.
Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Dorey, parents of the bridegroom, entertained at an after-rehearsal party at their home on Saturday for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Hog Cholera Calls For Action

Hopefully a quarantine of swine in the county will not last long or be too severe; however it must be recognized that strong action is required when hog cholera is found in an area.

Federal and state veterinary officials last week announced the quarantine because of hog cholera being diagnosed in the county.

As long as the quarantine is in effect no feeder or breeder swine can be moved from the county. Slaughter swine can be moved, only under strict inspection and identification regulations, direct to slaughter.

Swine will be inspected by vocational agricultural teachers in the county.

Needless to say the quarantine in the county will impose some hardship on feeder pig producers and purebred breeders, and that can mean considerable effect on farmers in the county.

Extension Service Chairman Ed Yancey said he is hoping that the quarantine area can be reduced to a size smaller than the county soon and this should alleviate some of the hardship caused for Pitt County hog producers.

Hog production is important part of Pitt County farming and it is regrettable that a quarantine is necessary at this time. However, it is important that hog cholera be stopped before it spreads and swine producers would do well to follow recommendations of the federal, state and county farm officials in dealing with this problem.

Coming Decade Just Could Be One Of Talk

The 1970s may begin on a somewhat hopeful note, since long-time enemies are at least talking to one another.

The United States and the Soviet Union are carrying on arms control talks and the Soviets have also been negotiating with Red China about their border difficulties. Now Walter Ulbricht president of East Germany has sent a message to President Gustav Heinemann of West Germany, which apparently opens the way for dialogue between the two governments of that split country.

If this trend keeps up, Israel and the Arab nations will be talking; and so will the North Vietnamese and the South Vietnamese. Perhaps even Red China and Nationalist China will open talks. Who knows? The 1970s may be the decade when we eliminate the need for war. Talking has been known to lead to peace.

Nixon Bid To Soothe Arabs

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — On his recent trip to the NATO meeting in Brussels, Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird was besieged by Western European defense ministers pleading for the U.S. to pressure Israel out of its occupied Arab territories.

Laird was told that every day Israel remains in the lands it captured during the 1967 six-day war, Soviet influence rises throughout the Middle East. From his own Navy commanders in the Mediterranean Sea, Laird was also informed that Soviet steaming days—one "steaming day" equals one Soviet naval vessel at sea for one day—have soared from 750 in 1963 to 16,000 so far this year.

This burgeoning Soviet influence in the area has caused the long-awaited switch in President Nixon's Middle East policy from quiet pressure to public demands that Israel evacuate most of the conquered lands as its concession to a settlement.

Mr. Nixon is worried. He is now far more fearful than when he took office that continuation of the mini-war along Israel's expanded borders will solidify Soviet influence, increase the hatred of 100 million Arabs for the U.S., and drive a wedge between the U.S. and Europe (which depends on Arab oil for its economic existence).

Some of the President's top advisers even go so far as to say privately that time has run out and, no matter what public pressure the U.S. brings against Israel, the Arab states are irretrievably estranged from Washington.

But that opinion is still in the minority. Thus, Mr. Nixon finally gave approval last week for Secretary of State William P. Rogers to make his speech—in preparation for weeks—setting forth a policy dramatically less pro-Israeli so that Arab leaders could get the message before their summit meeting in Rabat, Morocco.

The hope is that the few anti-Soviet royalist govern-

Optimist Over N.C.'s Future

By WILLIAM A. SHIRES

RALEIGH — State Treasurer Edwin Gill, who has watched the economic wealth of North Carolina grow substantially over the past two decades, confesses to being an optimist insofar as the long-term economic future of the state is concerned.

But at the same time Gill is dismayed by the "current uncertainties with which we are faced."

He points to "ridiculously high interest rates, and the chaotic condition of the securities market." While he is convinced of a bright economic future he expresses concern about the direction it will take.

Point—The point Gill was making and calling attention to was the matter of planning wisely for future needs.

"The time is late, but it is not too late," he said. "North Carolina is still a state of many small towns and rural areas untouched by errors that have generally been made in urban development.

"North Carolina should profit by the mistakes made in the great cities and go about the business of planning and developing our small towns and our larger cities in harmony with the natural beauty of our land.

Insurance — Insurance industry officials insist that any further reduction in profits of the property and liability insurance business will adversely affect the industry's capacity to meet future insurance needs.

This point has been expounded and had its effect in recent hearings before State Insurance Commissioner Edwin S. Lanier.

Lanier has now granted increases in automobile collision insurance rates and is involved in requests for other insurance rate increases.

A spokesman for the insurance industry, quoting an internationally known research and management consultant organization, cited "growing evidence" of a capital outflow in the insurance business. This, he said, may result in diminishing resources to the point that less insurance will be available in the future, not only for large single risks but also for automobiles and homes.

Indianapolis Racing Sets

WASHINGTON — In a highly developed society where advertising has such great impact, it is not unusual during Christmas for someone to get duplicate gifts. Grownups can cope with this sort of thing, but it's a little harder to explain to children.

I was with my 8-year-old nephew, Michael Kahme, last year as he dashed to open his presents which were piled high to the ceiling from aunts, uncles, friends and acquaintances.

He ripped open the first package and exclaimed: "Oh boy, an Indianapolis 500 auto racing set! Just what I wanted."

He grabbed the second package and tore it open. "Oh boy," he said excitedly, "another Indianapolis 500 racing set. Now I have two of them."

The third package seemed about the same size and he opened a little bit slower. "Gee," he said, "it's another Indianapolis 500 racing set. Now I have one for the living room, one for the dining room and one for my bedroom."

He shook the fourth package before he opened it and looked at his mother quizzically. "It's from your Aunt Edith and Uncle Harold," she said. Michael cut the tissue paper listlessly. "Four Indianapolis 500 racing sets?" he said. "You can put one in the attic," his mother said. "Open your other packages."

Other Editors Say Curbing Tantrums

(Jacksonville Daily News)

The Weatherman faction of Students for a Democratic Society asked permission of Cuyahoga Community College to use the school's attractive new Metropolitan Campus in downtown Cleveland for a 1,000-member convention over the Christmas holidays.

The dean of students told representatives that the request would probably be denied but that he would discuss it with the president. Not willing to wait, a group of the students confronted President Charles Pappas in his office.

The latter explained that gymnasium facilities were not yet completed and expressed the fear that, in view of the Weatherman's commitment to violent tactics, the school did not have the security force to handle such a large convention.

Whereupon the students broke a window, pushed material off desks and knocked over a flag as they walked out of the administration building.

"That's exactly why we said no," commented Dr. Pappas.

Another doctor, a medical doctor much admired by young people, has written extensively on the subject of temper tantrums. Although

Dr. Spock is speaking of babies 1 to 3 years of old, his words aptly describe the behavior of those children in grown-up bodies at Cuyahoga Community College.

"When the feeling of fury boils up in him (the frustrated child), he can't think of anything better to do than take it out on the floor and himself. He flops down, yelling, and pounds with his hands and feet and maybe his head.

Further on he writes: "You can't dodge all temper tantrums. A mother (read college president?) would be unnatural if she had that much patience and tact. When the storm breaks, you try to take it casually and help to get it over. You certainly don't give in and meekly let the child have his way; otherwise he'd be throwing tantrums all the time. You don't argue with him, because he's in no mood to see the error of his ways. Getting angry yourself only forces him to keep up his end of the row. Give him a graceful way out."

Unfortunately, the doctor's advice breaks down here. "Graceful" seems to be alien word to those infantile adults who barge in and out of college presidents' offices—along with "manners," courtesy" and, most sadly of all, "common sense."

Strength For Today

THAT DREAMER

Joseph was hated by his brethren. He was sent by his father, Jacob, to seek out his brethren who were tending flocks and bring word back to the father as to how they were faring. And when the envious brothers saw Joseph afar off they said one to another "Behold this dreamer cometh."

It was meant to be a nasty jab at a brother who was unpopular and had made himself so by a series of unwise incidents. A dreamer! What worse could they say about him. Of what use are dreamers in the world? Well, practically all the world's great men have been dreamers. Joseph is a dim figure of antiquity who rose from shepherd boy to ruler. When finally the enslaved Israelites left Egypt they carried the bones of Joseph with them, a sign and seal of true greatness.

The inventors of the world are dreamers. The discoverers have been the same. Christopher Columbus was a dreamer. Yet this dreamer stands with a dozen of the greatest figures that have ever appeared in human history.

Parents of dreamy children sometimes tear their hair and shriek and declare that this is the worst generation ever to have appeared on the planet.

But they are wrong. This generation (including ourselves) is nothing to boast about. But don't blame it all on the kids.

Dreamers have their place in life, a very important place. They make discoveries. They turn up new truths. A new continent. Walking on the moon. Exploring Mars next. Listen attentively.

On New Year's Day, Argentina will start issuing its new peso, each worth 100 of the current peso, or about 28 cents.

ELMER ROESSNER

Comment: The time may come when the United States may issue a new dollar, like Argentina issues the new peso and France issued the new franc a few years ago. The dollar is now worth about 25 cents in comparison with the dollar of 1939. At the rate of inflation since 1939, it will be worth about 6 cents in 1999, and sooner if inflation is speeded, which is likely. Then the President, perhaps John Murray tells Brigit Murphy over the back fence. Crackdown On Mafia able to buy a hot dog for a time.

Free Cable TV

The Senate Judiciary Committee has proposed a bill that would free CATV from the bureaucratic hand of the Federal Communications Commission.

Comment: This makes sense. The air belongs to all of the people, so it is right that the federal government license certain able persons and corporations to use it for radio and television broadcasts, and to determine how those licenses may be used. But if a person or corporation, able or not, buys the use of a cable, it is none of the government's business what he does with it unless he crosses state lines, or unless he violates some federal law, any more than the federal government has any right to interfere in what Jenny Murray tells Brigit Murphy over the back fence. Crackdown On Mafia

Federal and state governments have joined in a crack-down on the Mafia, which is apparently running the tight little state of New Jersey.

Comment: There would be more resentment and more support for public officials if consumers were aware of how much the Mafia was costing them. Those luxurious homes the Mafia leaders live in just didn't happen, nor are they only the results of profits from gambling, prostitution and dope. They, and those Swiss bank accounts, are the result of rackets that have increased the price of everything from hashish to hamburger.

The Mafia, by laying a surcharge on every item of commerce, legal or illegal, is one of the biggest causes of inflation. Somebody please tell Richard Nixon.

Deteriorating Railroads

An Erie Lackawanna freight train jumped the track at Hancock, N.Y., the road's second derailment in three days and the fourth in the month.

Comment: This fulfills predictions here that there would be more rail mishaps because of the disappearance of "hunkies," the name applied to Hungarians and other immigrants who, working for scanty wages, kept American rails in repair for more than a century. One of the reasons people have abandoned trains for buses and planes is that roadbeds shake them until bone separates from bone.

Even If You Have Credit Card—

The Wall Street Journal reports that fewer people are eating in restaurants because of the rising prices.

Comment: I have noticed that more young girls are bringing sandwiches and soft drinks to my office lately. At prices for a sandwich and a drink, this can save a girl $1.25 a day; it can save her $4.95 and tip over lunch in the next block.

Dixie Slant Denied

DIXIE REPORT

By ED ROGERS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The White House, denying it has a "Southern strategy," said today the Nixon administration has an "eastern strategy" and things are booming.

This is the word of President Nixon's top political liaison man, Deputy Counsel Harry Dent, whom Nixon chats with daily about political soundings around the country.

The White House is sensitive about having a "southern strategy" because it implies it is willing to scuttle support elsewhere to pay its political debt for crucial Dixie support in 1968.

"We are not writing off any section of the country," Dent told UPI. "Richard Nixon is a middle roader. He wants to represent every section."

Dent is a former aide of Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., who helped engineer the Nixon nomination and became a key southern campaigner.

Reaping Benefits

Dent said the GOP could scarcely improve its position in the Midwest and West and is reaping benefits from the rise of a two-party system in the South.

So it is only logical, Dent said in effect, that the administration, hoping to even things up around the country, would busy itself in the east, where the party lost ground several years ago.

In the South, Dent said, the job is one of "shoring up" GOP gains in popularity, while "we have got to work to restore the northeast," where there have been losses in recent years.

As proof this does not mean writing off one section in favor of the other, Dent cites the gubernatorial victories of William T. Cahill in New Jersey and Linwood Holton in Virginia.

Nixon campaigned for both Republican candidates. Holton said this tipped the scales for his historic upset.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, the President's lightning rod, draws sparks with equal ease from the "silent majority" in the East as well as in the South or any other geographic region.

Agnew has denied vehemently that there ever was a "Southern strategy." In an interview about one month ago, he said the "illusion that the people who live in the South are different from the rest of Americans...just isn't true."

Equal Treatment

Dent said the administration's concern in the South has been to show it intends to treat all regions equally.

"The reason for the rise in the South is that people feel this administration is fair and wants to treat the South like any other section of the country," Dent said.

When Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell outlined the administration's school desegregation last summer, he began "pointing his finger all over the country and this gives a great feeling of relief to the South," Dent said.

Dent did not mention it but this also touched off a cry in the East, especially among Republican liberals, that Nixon was writing off their section to curry favor in Dixie.

There also has been similar backlash directed at the White

Miss Brenda Thigpen Weds Lewis S. Redd

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Brenda Lynn Thigpen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Edward Thigpen, and Lewis Stephen Redd, son of Mrs. Paul Livingston Jewett and the late William Ellington Redd of Greenville, Sunday at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. Lawrence P. Houston Jr. officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar vases were filled with white mums. The family pews were marked with white bows and greenery.

Nuptial music was presented by Dr. E. Robert Irwin, organist, and Barry M. Shank, trumpeter. Trumpet Tune in D Major was used as the processional march and Trumpet Voluntary in D Major was used as the recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silk faced peau de soie and peau de ange lace. The gown, fashioned with an empire waist, featured a sabrina neckline, long call point sleeves with the traditional bridal buttons on sleeves and down the back. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thigpen chose a coat and dress ensemble in mint green desiree silk with a scalloped neckline and matching accessories.

Mrs. Jewett chose an azure blue costume suit with matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

For traveling, the bride changed into a blue costume suit with white accessories. She wore white orchids lifted from her prayer book.

Reception

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Parish Hall immediately following the ceremony.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Waldrop. The refreshment table was covered with a white lace cloth with an arrangement of holly and red berries.

Mrs. Thelma G. Stokes poured punch and Mrs. Earline Coghill, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Mrs. J.C. Waldrop presided at the guest register.

Parker-James Vows Spoken Sunday Afternoon

The wedding of Miss Lois Elaine James and Larry Dwight Parker was solemnized in the Greenville Church of God on Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. R. W. Feddler, pastor of the couple, officiated the double ring candlelight ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Obbie Godley, organist, Mrs. James Riggs Jr., soloist, sang "Whither Thou Goest," "Because," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Traditional bridal palms, ferns, and garlands of greenery were used throughout the church. White pyramidal candelabra with burning tapers and baskets of white mums and gladioli upon white columns were interspersed among the greenery. A three branch candelabra was used by the bride and bridegroom during the ceremony, which was placed at the far end of the white satin profile prie-dieu where the couple knelt for their wedding prayer and benediction. The prie-dieu was entwined with greenery and white bridal flowers. The pews were marked with white satin bows and ribbon.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. James of Rt. 1, Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey H. Parker of Rt. 1, Tarboro.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of satin peau de soie overlaid with English net. over the hand with appliques of chantilly lace, sequins and simulated pearls.

Her veil was of candlelight three tiered illusion which was attached to a rosette of satin peau de soie and chantilly lace edged in seed pearls accented by sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchids with white velvet streamers centered on a lace covered prayerbook.

Orderly March By Protestors

Although their number varied from place to place, at times more than 50 Negroes took part in a peaceful and orderly parade here yesterday afternoon designed to demonstrate their opposition to the death sentence handed an 18-year-old Rocky Mount Negro for killing a storekeeper there last year.

Marie Hill was originally slated for execution December 26 but appeals to higher courts have caused a postponement. No date has been set, pending the outcome of the appeal.

The protesters, led by a permit issued by the police department, marched from Albemarle Avenue to the Moyewood public housing project, then to the Kerney Park project before returning to Albemarle Avenue some two hours later.

Some of those who participated in yesterday's demonstration were among 30 persons arrested here December 12 for parading without a permit in another protest march centered around Miss Hill.

At both housing projects, the marching column stopped, formed a large circle and listened to various speakers who, among other things, encouraged the black community to have a "black Christmas."

Donovan Phillips Jr., who led the discussion at Moyewood, told those listening, that the group was "not marching for fun" but demonstrating to call attention to the "injustices" practiced against Negroes.

He called for a "black

Christmas", Phillips said, for three reasons.
"It's symbolic..." the speaker said, and "We're not satisfied with the way we are being treated..."
"And it will help you eat better in the new year," Phillips quipped, because of lower utilities bills.
"We ask you to have a "black Christmas... don't burn any lights."

"I'd rather have breakfast," Michael said.

"Now don't be ungrateful. Here's one from Grandpa. He's coming over later and he'll be very upset if you haven't opened his package."

Michael went through the motions of opening the package.

"What is it?"

"You knew what it was!" Michael yelled accusingly.

"Isn't that wonderful?" his mother said. "Now you have one for the kitchen, too."

"Well, so much for Christmas," Michael said. "I think I'll go out and play football."

"No you won't. You'll sit here and open every one of those packages. You don't know how lucky you are. There are some children that don't even have one Indianapolis 500 racing set."

By this time, Michael was starting to lose his cool, and, as he pulled each racing set from its carton, more and more tears rolled down his face.

The living room, with all the toy cars lined up, looked like the Shea Stadium parking lot during a Jet football game.

Michael was taking it harder than I thought he would and pretty soon he started flinging the tracks and electric transformers across the room.

"What did you get me, Uncle Arthur?" he asked.

I didn't have the heart to give him my package which contained an Indianapolis you-know-what, so I said quickly, "Ten dollars. You don't think I'd get you a stupid auto racing set, do you?"

But there was a happy ending to Michael's Christmas last year. When he had to write thank-you notes a week later, he didn't have to ask his mother what each relative had given him.

House over its voting rights bill, which would shift the enforcement thrust from the South to the nation.

The President, it was charged, steered the Republican Party into a course of reactionary provincialism because of his fear of the voter appeal of George C. Wallace, the conservative third party contender.

Mixture of Programs

But Dent pointed out that the President also has made moves that were not calculated to win Southern popularity. He said the programs have been a mixture, "some left, some to the right."

What, then, is the President trying to do?

"Go in both directions to broaden the center," Dent answered.

Dent points to polls showing the President's rising nationwide popularity as proof that his strategy is a nationwide one that is succeeding.

Some moves that the liberal East considered to be aimed at placating the South have drawn strong support from other sections, Dent said.

He cited the Supreme Court nomination of Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. of South Carolina, which the Senate defeated after a bitter fight in which liberals and moderate Republicans did not support the president.

At Least 17 Die In N.C. Wrecks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
At least 17 persons were killed over the weekend in traffic accidents in North Carolina—a grisly prelude to the Christmas traffic rush later this week. The weekend traffic deaths brought the state's highway death toll for the year to 1,721. This is 99 fewer traffic fatalities than occurred during the corresponding period of last year. The North Carolina State Motor Club has predicted 30 persons will die on the state's roads during the long Christmas holiday period from 6 p.m. Wednesday until midnight Sunday. Four of the weekend traffic victims died in two separate double-fatality accidents. Bobby Willis, 41, of Rt. 3, Bakersville, and Carl D. Buchanan, 26, of Spruce Pine, were killed in a three-vehicle wreck in McDowell County near Marion. The other double-fatality victims were John Sidney Mims, 39, and his wife, Tommie Lee Mims, 35, of Rt. 2, Raleigh.

More Are Cited For Littering

RALEIGH (AP)—During the first six months of 1969, some 533 persons were given citations for littering in the Tar Heel state. The highway patrol reported Saturday that 991 persons were cited for littering in all of 1968.

If the Shoe Fits...

BY LARRY AVERETTE

Consider giving a good pair of shoes to friends and relatives as a Christmas gift. Many who cannot afford truly good quality footwear would then be assured of at least one good pair. This is particularly important for children with growing feet.

How can this be done without knowing the correct foot size? You can secure a Gift Certificate from our store. The person receiving the Certificate can then stop in for a careful fitting of a quality pair of shoes in the style that he or she selects. This will certainly be a most appreciated Christmas gift.

While you are in the store, you may also find slippers for relaxation at home, winter boots, and other items which make handsome gifts. All such items can be brought in by the recipient for a more precise fit if you haven't guessed right. We think you will be pleasantly surprised at the variety of gifts you can select right in our store to fill your Christmas list.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 10 lady members of the House say its high time a woman is named to the Supreme Court, and they think the first female justice could very well come from their own ranks. "I think it would be great. There's no more reason not to nominate a woman than not to nominate a man," said Rep. Julia Butler Hansen, D-Wash. "It's not an outlandish idea. Women are the one minority group that it is still considered fashionable to discriminate against," said Rep. Margaret M. Heckler, R-Mass. Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., agreed. "I hope the day is not far off when the American people will resent the discrimination against women as they rightfully resent the discrimination against other minorities. There is a Negro on the court but no woman," she said. There is one vacancy on the nine-member court. At least three women are reported to be among the many persons being considered. All congresswomen agreed with Rep. Catherine May, R-Wash., that a woman should be selected only if she was the best qualified person the President could find and not just because she was a woman. Mrs. May said President Nixon has said he hoped a woman could be selected sometime while he is in office. "It would be good to have a woman's viewpoint on the bench and to give further recognition to the fact that we realize women have ability," said Rep. Shirley Chisholm, D-N.Y., the only Negro congresswoman. "Many of us women are focusing on one woman whom we know well and think is extremely well qualified, Mrs. Martha Griffiths," said Rep. Leonor K. Sullivan, D-Mo. "She has judgment, knowledge, integrity and lots of good common sense as well as judicial background." Mrs. Griffiths is a Democratic congresswoman from Michigan. The Women's Bar Association of the District of Columbia, the National Association of Women Lawyers, and the National Business and Professional Women's Club have all recommended Mrs. Griffiths to the President. "I think it would be wonderful to have a woman on the court and its very nice of those groups to recommend me. But I don't think I have a chance," Mrs. Griffiths said. "Is that because you're a Democrat?" a reporter asked. "I would think so," she replied. Others said she is also too liberal. "She would be a great choice," said Mrs. Green of Mrs. Griffiths. "I'd be proud as a woman to have her on the Supreme Court bench," said Rep. Patsy Mink, D-Hawaii. Another congresswoman, Rep. Charlotte Reid, R-Ill., was also recommended in a House speech by Rep. James Fulton, R-Pa. "I'm extremely honored to be mentioned but I'm not a lawyer and I think legal and judicial background would be needed. I feel there's no reason why a woman couldn't be nominated," Mrs. Reid said. "If the President can find a qualified woman for the court, I think it would be great. I'd be all for it," said Rep. Florence Dwyer, R-N.J.

Farm Scene

Hog Cholera Quarantine

By EDWIN L. YANCEY
County Extension Chairman

As of December 16 Pitt County was placed under State and Federal Hog Cholera Quarantine orders because of an outbreak of the disease on a farm in the Belvoir Community. In effect this action restricts the movement of slaughter hogs to those which are inspected by an authorized representative of the State Veterinarian. It forbids any movement of feeder and breeder swine from within the quarantine area. (Producers in Pitt County may purchase pigs or breeding stock from a non-quarantined area and bring them into their herds.)

Inspection: Vocational Agriculture teachers are performing the inspection service. This is being done in addition to their teaching and student supervisory load. It is important, therefore, that producers who plan to sell slaughter animals contact the Voc Ag teacher or County Extension Office well ahead of time to file application for inspection. To wait until a day or so before the planned sale may mean that an inspector cannot get to the farm soon enough. It should be emphasized that market hogs must be marked with a specified paint brand and accompanied by a valid permit, or markets will not accept them.

Cholera Prevention: There are several steps a producer can take to guard against bringing cholera to his farm. Most important — don't bring any new stock to the farm and mix it with other animals. New boars, gilts, or feeder pigs should be isolated for at least 30 days. Visitors should be restricted. Don't allow other hog farmers to go in swine buildings or lots. Change clothes and shoes after visits to markets or other hog facilities. DO NOT feed garbage which contains pork scraps.

Sick hogs should be reported to a veterinarian, County Extension Agent, or Vocational Agriculture teacher. Most of the above steps are necessary for the herd to qualify for indemnity in the event cholera is diagnosed. All are good practices in the prevention of the disease.

A Word To Consumers: Consumers who become alarmed about pork when they hear or read about Hog Cholera should be reminded that the disease affects no animal other than the hog. Additionally, the state and federal meat inspection programs assure the consumer that only healthy clean animals are processed for food. Finally, the hog cholera eradication program has spotlighted outbreaks of the disease and, to many, made it seem that it is worse than ever. In reality there is less hog cholera in North Carolina hogs today than at any time in the past three to five years.

Most Face Price Boost

RALEIGH (AP)—Most North Carolinians will have to pay an increase for their auto license plates which go on sale throughout the state Jan. 2.

The North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles has mailed some 3.3 million application cards needed to obtain 1970 state motor vehicle license tags. The deadline for displaying the new red and white, reflectorized plates is Feb. 16.

Regardless of the weight of the vehicle, the price of all tags will be $14, including the $1 special fee for the driver education program.

This represents a $3 increase for the small and standard size cars, a $1 boost for the medium-heavy cars, but a $3 decrease for such heavy vehicles as the Cadillac, Lincoln and Rolls Royce.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gaylord Nelson introduced today a bill calling for mandatory replacement by 1978 of the internal combustion engine with a "low-emission engine" which would appreciably reduce air pollution.

The measure authorizes expenditure of $50 million a year to develop a prototype and $300 million to assist the automobile industry produce the engine.

The Wisconsin Democrat said internal combustion engines which now power American cars and trucks cause 60 to 90 per cent of air pollution.

"More and more control devices on internal combustion engines are not the answer," Nelson said. "What is needed is an alternative such as a gas turbine, steam engine or electric motor."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank Shakespeare, director of the U.S. Information Agency, says public affairs officers of overseas missions are given discretion in selecting books for USIA libraries in other countries.

"You can't sit here in Washington and tell the man in Afghanistan what is best," Shakespeare said Sunday.

He denied the USIA has a blacklist of "liberal" books which cannot be placed in the libraries.

The books are selected by the particular mission's public affairs officer, Shakespeare said, and "a library in Ghana would contain a considerably different selection than one in Paris."

Shakespeare, a former network television executive, was interviewed on the NBC radio-television program "Meet the Press."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The appropriate federal agencies are not receiving information about household accidents and injuries needed to improve programs aimed at protecting the public, a congressional subcommittee reports.

MEMORIAL DRIVE & FARMVILLE Hgwy. — GREENVILLE

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1969 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: We have a 30-year-old son who has never been married. He is very good looking, has personality plus and everybody likes him. He's a hard worker and has always been wonderful to his father and me.

About two years ago he started to date this divorced woman who had two small children. Her husband left her, and we heard that he had good reason to.

Now our son is living openly with this woman as man and wife. He still comes home often and is good to us, but we are so ashamed of the way he is living. We have lied to cover up for him, but so many people know the truth. How can we face them? What can we say to our son? Please help me. I can't sleep nights.

HIS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: There is nothing you can say to your son! Don't lie to cover up for him. If he's living "openly" with this woman, he doesn't care what people think or say. YOU are not responsible for the actions of a 30-year-old offspring. He's a big boy now. So, open your windows and close your mind, and get some sleep.

DEAR ABBY: Since our honeymoon [four years ago] we have had a lousy marriage. Different backgrounds, different temperaments, money problems, booze, and sex problems. But because of two wonderful kiddies, my wife and I have remained in the same house. We have had some good times, and some bad times. But mostly bad.

We made—and broke two appointments with a marriage counselor. Embarrassment! However, we did keep the third one, which seemed to be the turning point in our lives.

Nothing has happened over night, but in the last few weeks, with the help of our counselor, my wife and I have established a new attitude toward each other. We aren't out of the woods yet, but we have certainly made a beginning. The new thoughtfulness and consideration we have begun to show each other has inspired affection and has brought a joy to both of us that is exciting.

Abby, so many people read you. Why don't you tell married couples who are unhappy with each other that they need to learn how to communicate their needs in an uninhibited manner, and an impartial and competent counselor may be able to help them?

MAKING PROGRESS IN L. A.

DEAR MAKING: Where have you been? I have recommended marriage counselors so often in this column that I have actually been accused of getting a rake-off!

DEAR ABBY: Please tell that lonely 65-year-old spinster who bought herself a big doll to talk to after her sister's death to:

1. Take a picnic lunch to a second-rate nursing home and share it with a little doll who can smile back.
2. Don't read the morning paper before you bathe, dress and have walked to the nearest hospital. Then go to the poorest ward and find someone whose eyes are bad, or maybe someone who is paralyzed or in a cast, and read the paper to HIM. And keep thinking every minute, "I can bathe myself, I can walk, and I can read!"
3. Go to the animal shelter and adopt some doomed little creature. Spend days and nights replacing its fears and neglect with love and care. The joy you will receive by its response will be well worth the trouble.
4. Study up on our feathered friends, then get a bird feeder. Most birds are hungry.
5. Take an outpatient for a day.

I think you get the message. The worst disease in the world is self-pity.

BEEN THERE

CONFIDENTIAL TO "TIME ON MY HANDS": It's admirable that you want to share your husband's professional interests and make him "proud" of you. But examine your motives honestly. If you're trying to compete with him [and I think you are], you'd be wise to choose another field.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Couple Wed In Hot Air Balloon

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—As the hot air balloon ascended, the bride, wearing a blue jump suit, shouted "I do." So did the bridegroom.

Then, from the ground 200 feet below, the Rev. Philip Gehlaher of St. John's Lutheran church pronounced—through a bullhorn—Dr. George Elmstrom, 44, and Lois Mercer, 37, man and wife.

Elmstrom met his bride while parachuting 18 months ago.

Some 200 guests chased the balloon to a landing spot in a nearby canyon, where the wedding Sunday was celebrated with traditional champagne.

Elmstrom is an optometrist. His bride is a hotel publicist.

Lay Teachers OK Strike Step

NEW YORK (AP) — Lay teachers at schools run by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York have authorized their union leaders to call a strike if contract negotiations fail.

About 350 members of the Catholic Lay Teachers Group unanimously approved strike authorization Sunday.

About 485,000 students would be affected.

The union seeks a one-year pact with annual salaries ranging from $6,800 to $12,800 for primary and secondary school teachers.

A BIG SMILE FOR SANTA — St. Nick visited children of the Greenville Moose Sunday evening, and in addition to a willing ear for details had a Christmas stocking for the several hundred youngsters who interviewed him.

Clowns and refreshments also played a prominent part in the annual party, but it was Santa who got the most attention. (Photo by James Harris Sr.)

Arrest 3 In 2 Break-Ins

Sunday was a bad day for would-be looters in Greenville. Three persons were arrested yesterday afternoon after being caught in two separate break-ins here.

According to Police Chief T.E. Gladson, two Negro juveniles, brothers 9 and 10-years-old, were caught by A.D. James after they allegedly broke into Respass-James Barbecue at West End Circle about 3:20 p.m.

James, who was inside his restaurant when the break-in occurred, held the two youngsters at knife-point until police arrived at the scene, investigators reported.

Chief Gladson said the third person was arrested after police officers found him in the lunchroom at Eppes Junior High School.

Officers on routine patrol saw 17-year-old Rudolph Moore of 1302 Fairfax Ave. inside the building and charged him with breaking and entering.

That incident occurred about 4:21 p.m.

Entrance to both buildings was gained by breaking windows.

Hopes Deliver Tons Of Gifts To War Prisoners

By ROBERT T. KERR
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Texas billionaire left by chartered jet today on the second leg of a trip he hopes will end with the delivery of 180,000 pounds of Christmas presents to 1,400 Americans held by North Vietnam.

"Allowing private American citizens to bring Christmas directly to these men would be a major step toward improving relations between our people," H. Ross Perot said before the plane—with "Peace on Earth" painted on it—left Dallas Sunday.

Most of the cargo — bedding, clothes, canned food, medicine and personal packages from prisoners' families — was loaded aboard the Boeing 707 during a stop in Los Angeles before it took off for Honolulu.

A second plane, named "Goodwill Toward Men," waited in Dallas for word to proceed.

Perot told newsmen he planned to arrive in Bangkok Tuesday and take another plane to Hanoi to try to persuade officials to allow the cargo planes to enter.

"That will give us most of the 24th to unload and bring Christmas to those guys on Christmas Day," Perot said.

"Of course, we could have Christmas in January,"

He said Hanoi had discouraged the trip in a cabled message, advising Perot to send packages through normal postal channels via Moscow.

HELICOPTER LOST
SAIGON (AP)—A U. S. helicopter was shot down Sunday and U. S. paratroopers ambushed a North Vietnamese force in the third day of action in South Vietnam's northernmost province.

Maritime Tie-Up Ends

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A tentative settlement has been reached in a month-old West Coast maritime strike which has idled 40 freighters in Pacific ports.

J. Curtis Counts, national director of the Federal Mediation Service, announced the settlement Sunday.

Counts said details were being withheld pending ratification by the three AFL-CIO groups affected—the Firemen and Oilers' Union, Marine Cooks and Stewards, and Sailors' Union of the Pacific.

The dispute centered on the number of firemen required for two new containerized cargo ships being built in Baltimore, Md. for Matson Navigation Co.

During the strike about 50,000 Christmas trees were airlifted to the Hawaiian Islands and shortages of rice and other staple commodities in Hawaii and Guam, led to some hoarding.

Charged With Fatal Shooting

WILLARD, N. C. (AP) — A poultry supervisor at the state's test farm at Willard has been charged with second degree murder in the shooting of a 21-year-old Rocky Point man Sunday.

Sheriff K. S. Powers of Pender County identified the victim as Danny Corbett and the state employee as Ernest W. English, 38.

The law enforcement official said English told him that he had ordered Corbett away from his home and that when he did not leave they got into a scuffle. The sheriff said the shooting occurred after the scuffle.

English was held at the county jail in Burgaw.

Oakland Goes Into Champ. Game

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Six touchdown passes by Daryle Lamonica led the explosive Oakland Raiders to a 56-7 rout of the Houston Oilers Sunday and into the American Football League's championship game against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Kansas City won the other playoff game Saturday, a hard-fought 13-6 conquest of the defending world champion New York Jets. The Raiders and Chiefs will meet in Oakland on

Jan. 4 for the right to represent the AFL in the Super Bowl at New Orleans one week later.

Meanwhile, the National Football League tuned up for its own playoffs with a full eight-game schedule. The four division winners were already decided and three of them—Minnesota, Los Angeles and Cleveland—went down to defeat while the fourth, Dallas, turned back the Washington Redskins 20-10.

The Atlanta Falcons ended the Vikings' near-record 12-game winning streak 10-3, the Baltimore Colts avenged an opening game setback with a 13-7 triumph over the Rams and the New York Giants beat Cleveland 27-14 on two fourth-period touchdowns.

Elsewhere, the Chicago Bears lost to Detroit 20-3 and concluded their worst season ever at 1-13, Green Bay battered St. Louis 45-28 as Don Horn passed for five scores, New Orleans edged Pittsburgh 27-24 on a touchdown in the final minute and San Francisco scored in the late going to nip Philadelphia 14-13.

Oakland ripped off four touchdowns in a space of four minutes and 22 seconds of the first period and went on to hand the Oilers the worst defeat in their history.

Lamonica, who completed 13
of 17 passes for 276 yards, opened the scoring with a 13-
yarder to Fred Biletnikoff, George Atkinson raced 57 yards with an interception and Lamonica passed 24 yards to Rod Sherman and 31 to Biletnikoff as the Raiders, surged to a 28-0 lead in the first eight minutes.

A 60-yard bomb from Lamonica to Charlie Smith in the second period made it 35-0 and the AFL's all-star quarterback concluded his day's work by firing 23 yards to Sherman and three to Billy Cannon for third-period touchdowns before giving way to George Blanda.

Trailing 49-0, Houston finally scored on an eight-yard toss from Pete Beathard to Alvin Reed but Oakland's Marv Hubbard got that back with a four-yard run.

Minnesota, trying to match the NFL's one-season winning streak of 13 set by the 1934
Bears, led Atlanta 3-0 on a 19-yard field goal by Fred Cox. But with 25 seconds left in the first half, John Zook shook quarterback Gary Cuozzo loose from the ball and the other defensive end, Claude Humphrey, lugged it 24 yards for the game's only touchdown.

The Vikings finished 12-2 and the Falcons 6-8, best record in their three-year history.

Despite their victory over Los Angeles, the Colts finished with an 8-5-1 mark, their worst since 1963. But Johnny Unitas looked like his old self, completing 19
of 33 passes for 260 yards.

The Rams, who lost their last three games after winning 11 in a row, face the Vikings for the NFL's Western Conference crown next Saturday in Minnesota.

Joe Morrison caught a one-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton and then plunged over from the two for both late New York touchdowns as the Giants stopped Cleveland. Tarkenton also passed a yard to Ernie Koy for a score and Pete Gogolak kicked two field goals.

Calvin Hill carried 18 times for 73 yards, including a six-yard touchdown, in the Cowboys' triumph over Washington.
The first-year man from Yale finished the regular season with 942 yards.

The Skins' 7-5-2 mark was their first winning season since 1955 and reminiscent of the 7-5 record turned in by Vince Lom-bardi's first Green Bay team.

Horn, the apparent successor to Bart Starr, completed 22 of 31 passes for 410 yards, a Packer record, against the Cardinals.
His five scoring passes tied another team record. Horn connected with Boyd Dowler on TD losses of seven and 43 yards, hit Travis Williams for 12 and fired 34 and 10 yards to Carroll Dale.

Larry Wilson scampered 88 yards with a fumble for one St.
Louis score and John Gilliam returned a kickoff 100 yards for another.

The Lions turned two interceptions into touchdowns and Errol Mann kicked two field goals to finish 9-4-1, their best record since 1962 and good for third place over-all in the Western Conference. The Bears' only bright spot was Gale Sayers, who wound up with 1,032 yards rushing.

Andy Livingston's three-yard touchdown run with 56 seconds left saddled Pittsburgh with its 13th consecutive defeat and enabled the Saints to push past Philadelphia into third place in the Capitol Division. Earl Gross scored three times for the Steelers.

San Francisco trailed the Eagles 13-0 before John Brodie replaced the ineffective Steve Spurrier in the third period and led the comeback. After Doug Cunningham's one-yard plunge made it 13-7, Brodie passed 22 yards to Bob Windsor with 3½ minutes left and Momcilo Gav-ric booted the decisive extra point.

Wildcats In 'Must' Win Situation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Davidson's Wildcats, their reputation and perfect record tarnished by last Friday night's defeat at St. John's, start back tonight on the road toward a high national basketball ranking.

The Wildcats seem certain to slip several notches from their
No. 4 spot as a result of the St.
John's loss, so a victory over Georgia of the Southeastern Conference is a "must" tonight.
The game will be played at the Charlotte Coliseum, Davidson's home away from home.

Just one other conference team sees action tonight, with The Citadel's Bulldogs playing host to Long Island U. In their last start, the Bulldogs were handed a 107-67 drubbing by Roanoke College.

Tonight's two nonconference encounters wind up action for league teams until after Christmas. Richmond's Spiders go to East Tennessee Saturday night for the only other game this week involving a conference quintet.

A sparse Saturday night schedule saw just four league teams playing, and only one was a winner. Richmond's Spiders whipped fellow league member Virginia Military 69-61

for third place in the Virginia
Big Five tournament.

The championship was won by Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 92-72 romp over William and Mary's Indians of the Southern as Chip Case scored 22 points, Bill Gerry 18 and Scott McCandlish 17.

George Washington's Colonials went without a field goal for the first 10 minutes and saw their two-game win streak snapped in a 73-50 defeat by Army. The Colonials were down by 29-16 at the half and shot only 27.9 per cent from the floor for the game. Mike Tallent led GW with 21 points.

A similar famine did in William and Mary. The Indians led Virginia 36-35 at intermission but went the first 9:38 of the second half with just one field goal. Virginia outscored them 23-6 to move out of sight. Bob Sherwood had 20 points and Steve Dodge 14 for W&M.

Richmond led VMI by just 49-48 with 8:13 left when Kenny Foster hit six straight baskets as the Spiders went on a 14-3 surge in the next 2:50. Foster finished with 19 points to 21 for Jim Hewitt and 13 for Picot Frazier for Richmond. John Thomas had 20 and Jerry Renfro 18 for VMI.

It marked the first time the

Yarbrough became the first

Miami Goes By Cougars

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Washington Caps had the right Card, the Miami Floridians had an ace in the hole, the Kentucky Colonels had two of a kind and they all paid off with American Basketball Association victories Sunday night.

Frank Card's 24 points led Washington past Los Angeles 120-108 and enabled the Caps to take a one-game lead over the Stars in the race for second place in the ABA's Western Division.

Mike Barrett's three-point play at the start of the fourth quarter broke an 85-all tie and the Caps never trailed thereafter.

Elsewhere, Don Freeman, Miami's ace in the hole, set a team scoring record with 46 points in a 122-115 triumph over Carolina while Lou Dampier's two of a kind free throws with 26 seconds left gave Kentucky a 107-105 win over the New York Nets.

Freeman hit on 16 of 30 shots and added 14 points at the foul line to erase the Miami single-game record of 45 points he set a week ago. Teammate Erv Staggs had his best night as a pro with 29 points. Bob Verga paced the losers with 40.

The Nets had just scored five consecutive points to pull into a tie with the Colonels when Dam-pier, who scored a game high 33 points, sank his two winning free throws. With four seconds left, Walt Simon missed a pair for the Nets.

In Saturday night's action, it was Kentucky 134, New York 125; Indiana 137, Pittsburgh 115 and Denver 123, Miami 114.

Lew Is Held To Pro Low

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Connie Hawkins won the battle but Lew Alcindor won the war.

The Big A, held to a pro career low of 13 points, controlled the boards with 21 rebounds as the Milwaukee Bucks downed Phoenix 118-111 Sunday night, matching the club record of six consecutive victories set last season, the Bucks' first in the National Basketball Association.

Hawkins was high point man with 28, but it wasn't enough to match the board work of Alcindor and the shooting of Flynn
Robinson and Len Chappell, who scored 25 and 24 respectively for the Bucks.

In other NBA games, Atlanta beat Chicago 118-111, Los Angeles defeated Philadelphia 133-117 and Seattle whipped San Diego 112-96.

Lou Hudson scored 31 points and Bill Bridges 27 as Atlanta opened a 5½-game lead over Chicago in the NBA's Western Division. Jim Davis added 18 points and a career high 22 rebounds. Chet Walker paced the Bulls with 24 points.

Los Angeles used good foul shooting—39 of 44—and a fine second-period performance by Mel Counts to beat Philadelphia and stop a five-game losing streak.

Counts scored 13 points in the second quarter as the Lakers took a 62-50 halftime lead. They wrapped it up by scoring the first seven points of the third

ACC Action Is Heavy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Basketball action will be stopped on Christmas eve and Christmas day in the Atlantic Coast Conference this week, but ACC teams will be battling the rest of the week.

Tonight's three game schedule will be the heaviest of the week. Clemson will play in the Sun Bowl Classic at El Paso, Tex., tonight and again Tuesday in the second round. The Tigers will be carrying a 1-2 record into the non-conference affair.

In other games tonight, nationally ranked North Carolina will be at Rice and North Carolina State will be at Vanderbilt.

In action this weekend in the ACC, Pete Maravich downed Clemson, Charlie Scott whipped Tulane but Randy Denton couldn't handle Kentucky.

"Pistol Pete" pumped in 49 points, hitting 22 of his 30 from the floor, as Louisiana State outscored Clemson 111-103 Saturday in the Charlotte.

Scott's 36 points Saturday pushed North Carolina over Tulane's Green Wave in a 96-87 fashion in New Orleans.

Denton tried but he and his Duke teammates weren't able to hold on the last three minutes as Saturday night No. 1 Kentucky broke it open and scored seven consecutive points to post a 98-76 victory. The loss was the first for the Blue Devils in seven starts.

LSU led Clemson by only one point at the half, 52-51, and by just 98-94 with three minutes remaining, but were able to pull away from the Tigers as the game neared its end.

Ronnie Yates and Dave

Thomas alternated in guarding Maravich and ended up as Clemson's top scorer. Yates had 28 and Thomas 26.

UNC's Scott collected 22 points in the first half as the Tar Heels built a 45-38 lead. Carolina led by as much as 64-51 in the final half before Tulane closed to 81-77 with 3:47 to go.

Then, Scott fed Lee Dedmon for a layup which was turned into a three-point play and then Scott added two more on free throws.

Jim Delaney and Bill Chamberlain had 12 points each for the Tar Heels while Dale Gippie had 11 and Dennis Wuycik 10.

Kentucky outscored Duke 22-8 after having only a 59-58 lead early in the last half to expand its margin to 81-66. The large lead was too much for the cold shooting Blue Devils to overcome.

Virginia showed its strength Saturday night in defeating William and Mary of the Southern Conference, 92-72, in the championship round of the Virginia Big Five basketball Tournament.

The Cavaliers trailed 36-35 at the end of the half and then roared back in the second half.

Chip Case of Virginia, who was voted the event's outstanding player, scored 22 points in the winning effort. Bill Gerry hit 18 in the game and Scott McCandlish added 17 for Virginia.

Maryland snapped a four-game losing streak with a 94-71 win over Fordham. Rod Horst and Will Hatzel starred for the Terps in their first home court win of the year.

Kansas Ends Jets Super Bowl Hopes

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Not even a half hour had elapsed after Kansas City's playoff victory ended the New York Jets' hopes of returning to the Super Bowl when the first bit of psychological warfare certain to surround the American Football League championship game began.

It began in the Chiefs' dressing room after their 13-6 triumph over the Jets Saturday when Coach Hank Stram was asked about the strategy he might employ against the Oakland Raiders in the AFL title game Jan. 4—still two weeks away.

The questioner asked pointedly if Stram might again disdain the pass as he did just a week earlier in a 10-6 loss to the Raiders.

"It's hard to tell," Stram said simply.

And so the questioner tried a different approach, asking if Stram might not open up with a more diversified attack.

"It's hard to tell," Stram said once more.

But it's really not. It's only that Stram is not about to divulge his plan. At the same time, he's not about to admit that the earlier loss to the Raiders, the Chiefs' fourth in five games over two seasons has had any psychological effect on his troops.

"What's happened in the past is history," Stram said sharply. "Pro football is a game of now."

Now is time for beginning preparations for the game against the Raiders, who qualified for the title game by defeating Houston 56-7 in the other half of the AFL playoffs, some 24 hours after the defending champion Jets were dethroned.

In that game, on a cold, raw day in windswept Shea Stadium, the Chiefs battered and bruised Jets quarterback Joe Namath, kept him from putting across a touchdown and left him feeling "like I was in a gang fight all by myself."

The gang he was fighting was the Chiefs, who made the two big plays that counted in the fourth quarter—diagnosing a Jets play to keep them from scoring a go-ahead touchdown and diagramming on the sidelines the play that led to the winning touchdown.

The diagnoser was Bobby Bell, the Chiefs' all-league linebacker, who prevented a possible Jets touchdown. The Chiefs had a 6-3 edge at the time, with Jan Stenerud leading Jim Turner two field goals to one.

But an interference call on a Namath pass for George Sauer put the ball at the one yard line. Two plays gained just inches, so Namath called a play the Jets had worked on during the week—a fake handoff to Bill Mathis that was supposed to make Bell

Kentucky Wins 12th Tourney

By TOM SALADINO

Associated Press Sports Writer
Kentucky might be the No. 1 college basketball team in the country but the Wildcats fall short as far as being a top-ranked host.

The Wildcats treated their guests rudely for the 12th time in 17 years, winning the Kentucky Invitational Saturday night with a 98-76 victory over Duke in the final.

It was also the fifth straight time Adolph Rupp's cagers had taken their own tournament in the friendly confines of Memorial Coliseum which is nestled on the Kentucky campus among the bluegrass of Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky, with six straight victories, had beaten Navy, 73-59 in Friday's first round.

In the biggest upset of the night, Baylor knocked No. 3 New Mexico State from the ranks of the unbeaten, 87-73. The Aggies had won eight straight. Villanova, No. 9, also lost, dropping a 59-55 decision to Pennsylvania.

UCLA, No. 2, fourth-ranked Davidson and No. 5 South Carolina were idle while Notre Dame, No. 6, got by Indiana 89-88. No. 7 North Carolina pasted Tulane 96-87, Tennessee, No. 8, trimmed LaSalle 55-47 and undefeated Ohio U., beat Ball State 92-81, for six in a row.

As for scoring, Pistol Pete Maravich of Louisiana State is making it no contest. Maravich tossed in 49 points in leading his mates to an 111-103 victory over Clemson and has scored 292 points in six games.

Saturday night Pete sparked LSU, leading only 52-51 at the half, to its fifth victory in six starts and at one point Maravich either scored or assisted on 24 straight points.

Dan Issel dropped in a basket, breaking a 47-47 tie which sent Kentucky to its rout of Duke. Issel finished with 20 points while the tourney's most valuable player Wildcat Bob McGowan chipped in with 25.

Baylor, which lost to New Mexico State earlier in the year 102-83 at Las Cruces, turned the tables in what Coach Bill Menefee called "Our greatest victory" and said his Bear players were "still on Cloud 9."

"We beat them with a switching man-to-man and zone defense and by hitting 55 per cent of our shots to their 37 per cent," Menefee said. Bill Chatmon led the 5-2 Bears with 26 points on 12 of 18 from the field.

A free throw by Steve Bilskey gave Penn a 53-52 lead and the Quakers held on for their victory. Notre Dame got 30 points each from Collis Jones and Austin Carr with Jones' basket with 26 seconds left providing the clincher.

Charlie Scott poured in 36 points to lead North Carolina and Tennessee made it four straight as Bobby Croft hit for 23 points as the unbeaten Vols won the Volunteer Classic.

In other tourney action, Kansas whipped Western Kentucky 104-81 for the title in the Jayhawk Classic and Auburn won the Vanderbilt Classic, stopping Dartmouth 85-76. New Mexico hosted the Lobo Classic and won for the fifth time running, 85-76.

Utah also won its own classic, routing Michigan State 105-85.

Sherman Marches

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — William Sherman marched his team through Georgia more than 100 years ago and then said, "War is hell."

Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney watched his Cornhuskers march through Georgia 45-6 in the Sun Bowl Saturday, and remarked, "We jumped on them early."

Devaney's quote might not go down in history, but it did sum up the 1969 Sun Bowl game.

BASTOGNE, Belgium (AP) — The four-letter word that stopped a German army has added immensely to the tourist delights of this lovely little town.

The "Nuts" Museum and the Nuts Fair and the Nuts Garage are as much a part of the local scene as the trout streams babbling through the surrounding Ardennes Forest and the hams hanging in shop windows.

Place MacAuliffe, Bastogne's main square, is named, although misspelled, for Brig. Gen. Anthony MacAuliffe, the artillery officer who 25 years ago today wrote the one-word reply, "Nuts," to the Germans' invitation to surrender.

Ex-GIs and other visitors are led down to the cellar, beneath what is now a Belgian artillery unit barracks, to see the bare wooden table, still decorated with a field telephone, where the doughty defender of Bastogne scribbled himself into immortality.

On the third floor of the Nuts Museum the whole scene is done up in wax effigy, with the German surrender team clad in their white snowsuits and MacAuliffe, in crisp fatigues, smiling a waxy smile, as if the sly line had just come to him.

"Nuts" is inscribed on the rusting tanks and gun turrets that protrude from the snow everywhere in town, in a way as fitting a memorial to the great siege as the impressive star-shaped monument to the Battle of the Bulge on the outskirts of town.

The shop windows of Bastogne are bright with Christmas decorations, but along with the tinsel and the trees and the figures of Father Christmas are huge blown-up photographs of bodies scattered in the snow, wrecked

Jeeps, bombed-out buildings, block after block of them.

This is the 25th anniversary of the Battle of the Bulge, and Bastogne has not forgotten.

Here the legend of "the battered bastards of the bastion of Bastogne" lives as vividly as the day four German soldiers carrying a white flag came across the snowy fields bearing the note from Gen. Heinrich von Luttwitz.

Despite many problems, things were going so well that the Americans thought it was the Germans who wanted to surrender. As word of the white-flag team spread down the line, GIs began emerging from their foxholes, building fires to get warm and dry their clothes, shaving and visiting neighbors.

"We are parliamentaries," said the German captain in dictionary English to Sgt. Oswald Butler of the 327th Glider Regiment, who first saw them coming across the fields. Butler tore off a portion of the white flag, blindfolded "the four Krauts," as he called them in his field phone report, and had them taken to headquarters.

McAuliffe had his acting chief of staff, Lt. Col. Ned Moore, read the note.

"What's it say, Ned?"

"They want us to surrender."

"Aw, nuts."

The word later was made the formal reply to the Germans. McAuliffe-Moore dialogue is reproduced in several languages on the walls of the Nuts

Museum, and even today German tourists can't quite dig what is so funny about a general saying "Nuesse."

The big memorial outside Bastogne gives the statistics for the entire Battle of the Bulge along the whole 88-mile-long front:

Allied: 76,890 killed, wounded or missing.
Germans: 220,000 killed, wounded, missing, captured.
Rebuilt now and thriving, Bastogne remembers.

Fire Claims 3 Children

ROWLAND, N. C. (AP) — Three children were killed and an 18-year-old youth was badly burned in a fire that destroyed their home five miles southeast of Rowland Saturday.

"I doubt if we will ever know what caused the fire," said J. W. McPhail, chief of the Rowland Volunteer Fire Department. "The house was too far gone when we got there."

He identified the dead as Betty Gray Oxendine, 16, Sarah Glenn Oxendine, 13, and James Carson Oxendine, 6.

Their brother Jimmy Carson Oxendine was burned about the upper body and face when he made a desperate attempt to rescue the younger children. He was taken to St. Eugene's Hospital in Dillon, S.C., and remained hospitalized in satisfactory condition today.

McPhail said eight children and one adult were in the house when the fire broke out about 1:15 a.m. The other children were taken out of the house by Jimmy Oxendine and May Oxendine, an adult who was living with the children.

The woman was slightly burned and was released from the hospital after treatment.

McPhail said the children's father, Carson Oxendine, was at work in Greensboro. He added the bodies of the dead children were found in the same bed of a back bedroom of the five-room frame house.

The Robeson County coroner, Chalmers Biggs, ruled the deaths accidental.

Predict 30 Holiday Dead

CHARLOTTE (AP) — The North Carolina State Motor Club predicted today that 30 persons would be killed in traffic accidents in the state during the extended Christmas holiday weekend.

Motor club officials also said they expect 900 persons to be injured and more than 1,500 traffic accidents to occur on North Carolina's streets and highways during the period.

The state will officially count its Christmas highway toll from 6 p.m. Wednesday through midnight Sunday, a period of 102 hours. During a 30-hour period last year, when Christmas fell in the middle of the week, the tally showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 accidents.

"The six holiday periods so far this year have killed 115 persons in traffic accidents, compared to 171 the year before," said Thomas B. Watkins, motor club president.

"Traffic deaths for the whole year are still running behind 1968, and we have a good chance to show a decrease," he said.

Good Deed Will Mean $100 Gift

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The good deed of a woman at the Los Angeles International Airport is going to result in a $100 Christmas gift to the Central Institute for the Deaf in St. Louis.

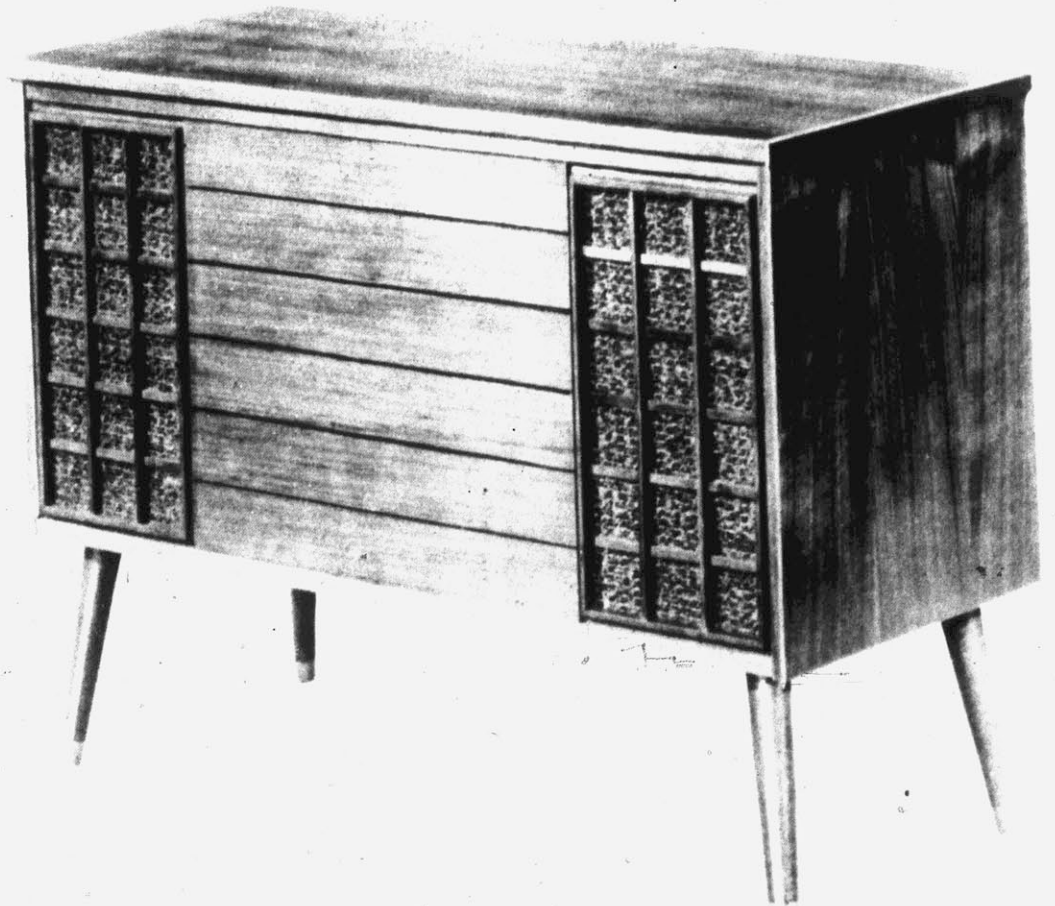

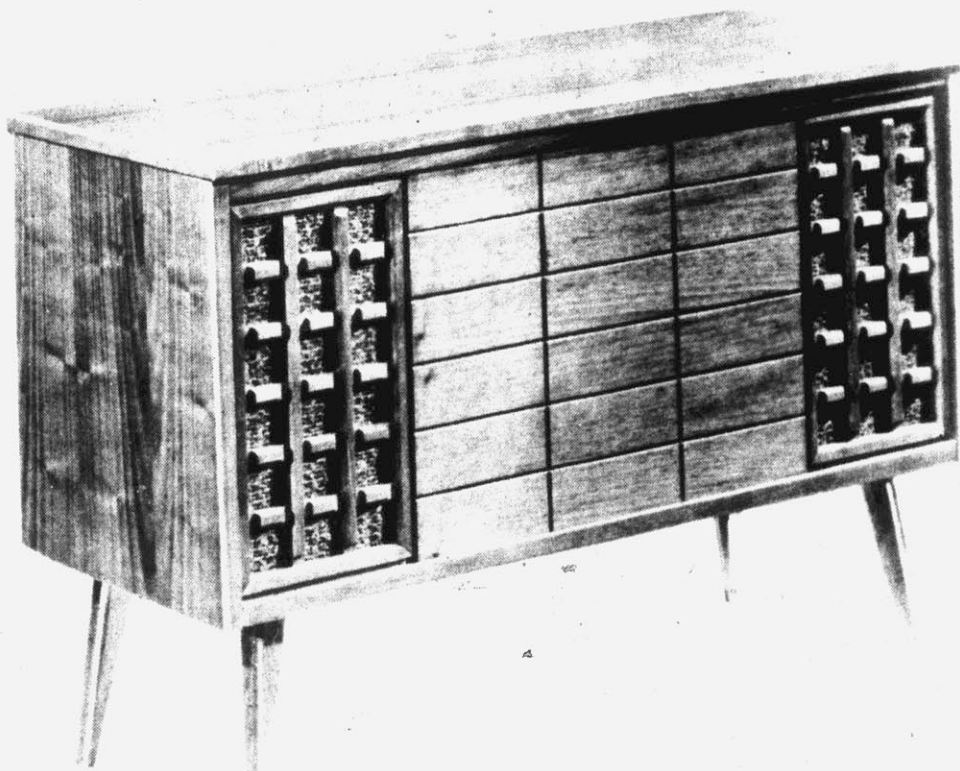

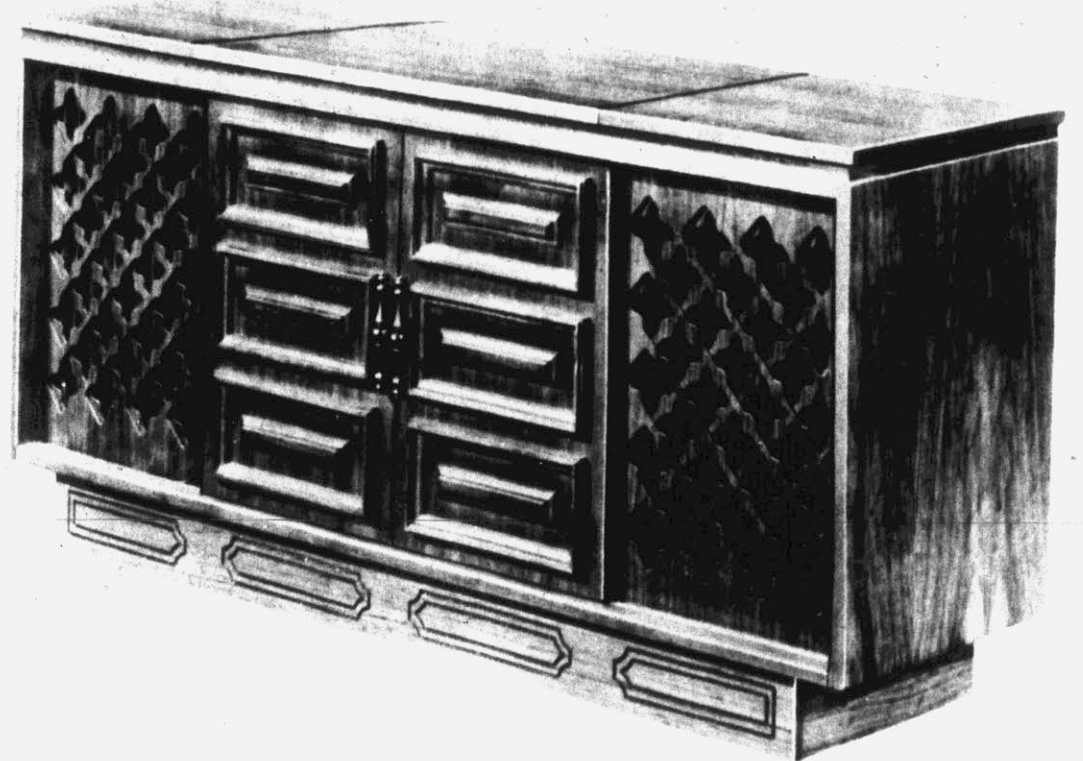

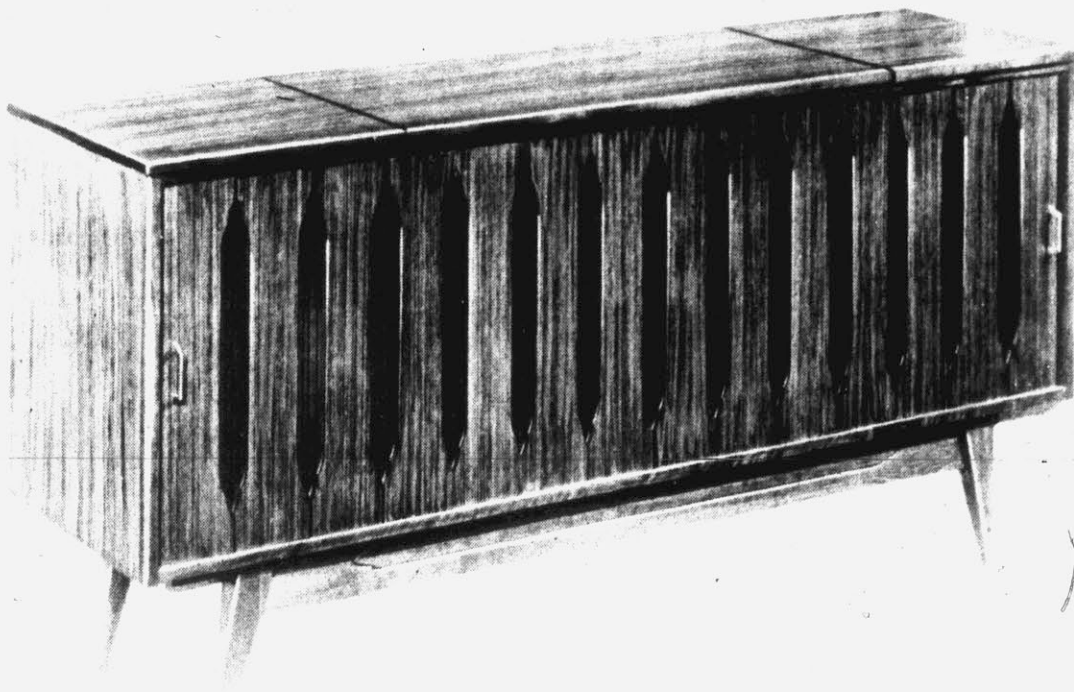

Marine Lance Cpl. Patrick A. Fogerty, 19, of St. Louis, said he was $12 short of airfare home from Camp Pendleton, Calif., last Thursday when a woman stepped forward and offered the money.

Fogerty asked the woman for her name and address so he could repay her but was given only the name of the institute.

He said he will send $100 from his savings account to the school.

REJECTED ROMEOS
YEOVIL, England (AP) — Local Romeos flocked here when they heard 72 attractive teen-age girls were spending their vacation in a nearby country house. But they found their path barred by Somerset police guarding the girls for their influential fathers—they are all daughters of senior French police officers.

Neapolitan Nativity

Traveler from the Orient.

A Christmas tree is one of the most universally popular of Christmas decorations. And there can be few lovelier than the one which yearly since 1964 has graced the Metropolitan Museum in New York during the festive season.

The tree, a simulated blue spruce, glows richly with a collection of 140 baroque Neapolitan crib figures, given to the Museum in 1964 by Mrs. Howell H. Howard, who installs the display each year (the collection was previously lent for display in 1957-1958 and 1958-1959 over the Christmas season).

The crib collection is made up of figures of the Holy Family, shepherds with their flocks, the magnificent procession of the Magi with their exotic retinues, a heavenly host of angels, colorful crowds at the inn—and a delightful variety of animals.

The decorative figures of the crib or presepio, as it is named in Italy, were produced in the workshops of Naples during the second half of the eighteenth century. They average from 12 to 18 inches in height. Their bodies of woven twine and wire are pliable, and are fixed in differing attitudes to match their animated facial expressions. Their eighteenth century costumes, for the most part original, are enriched with jewels, accessories and embroideries.

The heads and shoulders of the figures, exquisitely modeled in terra cotta and painted in flesh tones, are credited to some of the best eighteenth century Neapolitan sculptors.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN [c 1969: by The Chicago Tribune] ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ Q. 1—Neither vulnerable. As South you hold:

♠53 ♥J7652 ♦AK74 ♣52 The bidding has proceeded: South West North East Pass Pass 1♥ 5♣

What do you bid now? A.—Even tho you may never take a heart trick, your advice is to double, for there should be three other defensive tricks at least. The temptation to bid five hearts should be resisted. There is no reason for you to believe that you have a good chance to take 11 tricks.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold: ♠AQ10632 ♦AJ4 ♣AK63 The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1♣ 2♥ Dbie. Pass

What do you bid now? A.—While ordinarily the possession of a six-card major suit combined with a void in the suit doubled is sufficient ground for overruling partner's penalty double, in this particular case, South should stand for the double because he has such a wealth of defensive strength that the penalty should be highly gratifying. Furthermore it is likely that partner is short in spades, so that you may find it difficult to reach a convenient spot for game.

Q. 3—Neither vulnerable. As South you hold: ♠A54 ♥Q2 ♦K1043 ♣A1092 The bidding has proceeded: East South 3♥ ?

What do you bid now? A.—There is no reason for you to feel that anyone is putting his hand in your pocket. You should pass. You have barely an opening bid and the fact that East has confessed to weakness should not induce you to look at your hand thru rose colored glasses.

Q. 4—As South vulnerable, you hold: ♠Q6 ♥K76 ♦AQJ75 ♣QJ7 The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1♦ 1♥ 1♠ Pass

What do you bid now? A.—You have somewhat more than an opening bid, but not enough to wax enthusiastic. You zoomed their output when "free enterprise" was launched by Gov. Bradford. Human nature will never permit Communism to last very long, unless it is supported by "iron curtains" and bayonets, for it violates innate psychology.

By GEORGE W. CRANE Ph. D., M.D.

CASE L-570: Nora G., aged 19, is a college coed.

"Dr. Crane," she asked, "what's wrong with Communism?"

"It seems to me that people should share alike in the wealth of their country."

"So why do you keep lauding 'free enterprise' and the American capitalist system?"

Communism favors the weak and hampers the strong.

But Darwin pointed out that the survival of the fit (strong) is the basic law of nature.

The early Christians also tried Communism. It failed!

For when wealthy Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, were asked to toss all their wealth into the common "kitty," they reneged on some of it.

And that destroyed the early communistic experiment, even though it was headed by the Apostle Peter.

For Ananias and Sapphira showed the natural distaste of human beings to share their hard earned possessions with lesser producers!

And in every communistic setup, a group of clever rascals soon will refuse to work properly, yet demand their equal share.

Capt. John Smith thus had to declare "No workee; no eattee!" Governor Bradford tells us that the early Plymouth colonists started out as a Communist cell. Everybody was to work hard and then share equally in the results.

But many of the young, unmarried men resented having to give up the fruits of their labors to married men with wives and children.

For example, the married man might contribute the same day's work as the bachelor, yet he could extract 10 or 12 portions of grain whereas the bachelor rated only a single portion.

Grumbling arose and the standard of work deteriorated till the colonists faced famine.

Then "free enterprise" replaced the former communistic pact.

Each man was given his own plot of ground and was entitled to retain all that he produced thereon.

The former grumbling, diffident workers now changed into diligent farmers and such an abundance was produced that the first real Thanksgiving was celebrated.

And Gov. Bradford disdainfully condemned the former communistic system, pointing out the remarkable improvement under the "free enterprise" system.

Communists nowadays are very glib about demanding that the wealthy be looted and their property spread around among the poor.

But I have yet heard or seen an avowed Communist with $20 in his pocket who was willing to split it with his poorer comrades who might not have even a thin dime to their name!

Communism is thus a one-way street, where the greedy always look upward to the thrifty and industrious, hoping to loot their lifelong earnings!

Woodrow Wilson ably described our superb "free enterprise" system in these words:

"All any American should desire is a free field and no favors!"

Alas, far too many people lazily want favors and try to blackmail honest legislators by threat of withholding their votes unless they are given more and more handouts.

So send for my booklet "How to Save Our Republic," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Pick Up 50,000 Abandoned Cars

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 50,000 cars were abandoned in New York City during 1969 and the Citizens Budget Commission has called it a "new growth industry."

The commission said Sunday that more efficient methods of removing the eyesores were needed. The Sanitation Department said it had already towed or carried off 55,926 cars this year and was doing the best it could.

The department defines an abandoned car as one that has no license plates, has been stripped of parts and "has all the earmarks of not being owned."

Town Sending Him On Trip To Japan

BAY, Ark. (AP) — Thanks to the Christmas spirit it looks as though Verlin Lamberson is going to make it to Japan.

Residents of this town of about 800 are raising money so Lamberson can visit his only son during the holidays at an Army hospital in Yokohama.

Lamberson learned about two weeks ago that his son, Army

Pfc. Thomas M. Lamberson, 20, had been seriously wounded in Vietnam when he detonated a booby trap while leading his platoon on a reconnaissance mission.

Despite having been on strike for the past eight weeks as an employee of the General Electric plant at Jonesboro, Lamberson decided he should fly to Yokohama during the holidays.

Mayor Ben Swanner of Bay learned of Lamberson's hopes last week and organized a fund-raising drive.

Swanner said Sunday that more than $550 had been donated, mostly in contributions of 50 cents to $15.

Then Local 747 of the striking International Electrical Workers chipped in an additional $200, bringing the pot to $750.

Swanner said a round-trip ticket would cost $988 and that he hoped there would be enough money for Lamberson and his wife to make the trip.

"My wife and I feel it is great how the people have expressed their concern for Tommy," Lamberson said. "We will never be able to repay them. We are so very thankful. It was a big surprise to us."

Lamberson said he had talked with his son and that the youth's left foot was to be removed early this week.

Young Lamberson was drafted May 14.

"He didn't want to go," Lamberson said. "That makes it hurt even more, because he didn't want to go."
