Pitt Commissioners OK Tract For Hospital Site

Occupants Unscathed

IT'S A BYE-PLANE—Two light planes, each carrying an instructor and student pilot, collided and locked together about 20 feet above the runway at Dallas, Tex. as both planes were about to land. The top plane, a Piper, has wings below the cockpit; the bottom plane, a Cessna, has wings above the cockpit. The Piper sat down on the top of the Cessna with the landing gear lodged in the Cessna cockpit. The planes hit the ground and came to a halt, nose down, still hooked together. Instructors and students climbed out unscathed. (AP Wirephoto)

A 100 acre tract of land near the present hospital was chosen this morning as the site for a new 300 bed medical facility planned for Pitt County.

County Commissioners, acting on a recommendation by a joint site selection committee and the Board of Trustees of Pitt Memorial Hospital, approved purchase of the site pending soil borings. An option on the property, located across from the Greenville Nursing and Convalescent Center, was filed before noon today.

Pitt voters last year approved issuing $9 million in bonds with which to fund construction of a new medical facility to replace the present crowded Pitt Memorial building.

The 100 acre site, one of 16 sites considered by the site committee, is owned by Joseph S. Moye, Novella Moye Williams, Jesse Roundtree Moye and Emily Moye Hadley, and includes about 85 cleared acres.

Prices of the farm-land, including crop allotments, is $4,000 per acre.

Crop allotments, which commissioners plan to transfer to the 122 acre County Home farm (75-80 acres cleared), include; 23.31 acres of tobacco (44,918 lbs.), 14.3 acres of peanuts, 2.5 acres of cotton, 1.7 acres of wheat, and 59 acres of corn.

Officials, over the past few weeks, had narrowed the possible sites for the new facility from the original 16 to two around which most of the conversation centered. They included the Moye site and a 210 acre farm about one-half mile west of the city limits on the Farmville Highway.

The 210 acre farm, owned by the W. Z. Morton heirs, included a 25 acre pond near the center of the property, a quantity of woodland, and some low land considered unsuitable for use in the hospital complex. Price per acre for that property, including pond and low-land but no crop allotment was $2,500.

Woodrow Wooten, chairman of the hospital's Board of Trustees, said that in light of current rent being paid for crop allotments, allotments on the farm could be rented by the county for an annual income of about $10,000.

Commissioners met March 25 with members of the hospital board's executive committee to discuss the proposed sites. The Hospital's full board met this morning prior to the Commissioners meeting to give their final and unanimous approval to the recommendation.

In addition to hearing reports from various departments and agencies this morning, commissioners made a number of appointments to the Pitt County Good Neighbor Council.

Good Neighbor Council chairman Sammy Carson recommended the appointments to replace inactive members of the council and to give each high school in the county representation on the body.

Today's appointments included: Farmville Central High School, Roger Easton and Sammy Gorham; North Pitt High School, Ray Sharp and Ray Harrell; D. H. Conley School, Wilene Stancill and Denise Louise Rountree; Ayden-Grifton High School, Kent Lofton and Johnny Mack Willis, Rose High School, Mike Van Dyke and Miss Eugenia Parker; Greenville, Charles Dickens; Grimesland, T. B. Nichols and Grifton, Bruce Garris.

Supreme Court Unanimous In Housing Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court rejected today an attempt by city officials in Lackawanna, N.Y., to block construction of a Negro housing subdivision in an almost exclusively white neighborhood.

The unanimous action indicates local governments everywhere will have legal difficulty if they try to zone out Negroes from white areas.

The test case involved Kennedy Park Homes, a project sponsored by Lackawanna Negroes, and rulings by two federal courts that ordered local officials not to stand in its way.

The city claimed sewage facilities were inadequate in the area and the land was needed for a park.

The appeal sought at least a Supreme Court hearing on two points: whether city officials were violating the Negroes' rights and whether the federal judge overseeing the case exceeded his power.

The appeal was rejected without comment. This means Lackawanna officials must prepare adequate sewage service to the area designated for the Negroes' homes and that the city cannot turn the area into a park.

Board To Meet

The Greenville Board of Adjustments is meeting in the City Hall at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night for a special call meeting. Two items are slated for the agenda.

One is a request for variance by D. G. Nichols on space requirements to construct an office building at 212 West Third Street in an area zoned for Office and Institutional usage.

The second, Ollie Harrington's request for variance, is for the minimum lot size requirement to construct a duplex apartment in the 600 block of Elm Street. The property is zoned R-9 residential usage, with 9,100 square feet for a building under city ordinance requires 13,500 square feet.

Both items on the agenda are public hearing ones, in which persons either for or against the two projects will have an opportunity to express their views.

Not Resigning

Superintendent of Greenville City Schools Dr. Cleet C. Cleetwood, in response to a query about widespread speculation in Greenville concerning his resignation, today said "I'm standing for reelection as superintendent. This matter, along with election of teachers comes up, as required by law, at the April school board meeting." The meeting is scheduled for April 19.

Cleetwood noted "I have been approached with an overture regarding my resignation, and my answer to that overture was I'd stand for reelection at the board meeting."

He noted, "There is apparently some opposition among the school board on my reelection."

Dr. E. B. Aycock, chairman of the Greenville Board of Education, commented, "The matter of election of a superintendent is an official action which will come before the regular meeting on April 19. Any decision taken will be made and announced at that time."

Seed Company Wins Right To Continue Sales

By MELVIN LANG

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) —

Green Brothers Seed Co. won court approval today to continue its operations in North Carolina pending a formal hearing on a state order revoking its license to sell seed.

Superior Court Judge A. Pilston Godwin Jr. also ordered the company, which is based in Nashville, Tenn., to post a $10,000 appeal bond and to transfer its state manager, W. L. Jones of Raleigh, out of North Carolina.

Godwin's verbal order came after a brief hearing in his chambers. A formal order is expected later this week.

No date was set for the case to be heard on its merits.

State Agriculture Commissioner Jim Graham ruled March 29 that Green Brothers' facility in Fuquay-Varina had misrepresented seed corn sold for 1971 planting and ordered the agency closed as of that date.

Graham's order was stayed temporarily the next day by Superior Court Judge Edward B. Clark.

There was no comment from company officials today on Judge Godwin's order. Green Brothers has until April 29—or 30 days from Graham's order—to file a formal appeal.

Graham, in his revocation order, said he found that Jones and salesman Jerry N. Watson, also of Raleigh, had "knowingly and repeatedly made false oral representations" about seed corn sold in North Carolina.

Testimony at a hearing before Graham in early March indicated that corn makes up less than 5 per cent of the company's over-all sales output in North Carolina.

Jones and Watson, in their testimony said Graham, denied any misrepresentation had occurred. They also contended that the late Dock Graham of Goldsboro, identified by most of the witnesses as the man from whom they had purchased seed, was not an employee of Green Brothers.

The dispute centers on purchases of hybrid and second-generation corn. Farmers and retailers told Graham they had ordered hybrid, or high-yielding, F-1 seed but were delivered second-generation F-2 seed. One Wayne County farmer produced bags marked "hybrid corn" which contained seed identified by the Agriculture Department as second-generation corn.

Jumped Jailer, 3 Men Escape

LEXINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Three bearded men jumped a jailer at the Davidson County Jail at Lexington this morning and escaped.

A deputy said one of the three whipped out a homemade knife and made the jailer lie on the floor while the three fled.

All three were in jail on charges of armed robbery. The three, all of whom were white and had beards, were identified as Albert Gerald Brown, 24, and Jimmy Maddox, 24, both said to have escaped from a jail in Florida, and William R. Phillips, 26, of rural Lexington.

The jailbreak came at 7:15 a.m.

Commission Says 21 States Fail Higher Education Standards

NEW YORK (AP) — The Carnegie Commission on Higher Education said today that 21 states are failing to provide what it considers adequate support for higher education.

The privately financed commission said that based on the latest available statistics, four states—Connecticut, Georgia, New Jersey and Virginia—failed to meet three of the four tests used to determine adequate support.

Nine states—Alaska, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Hampshire, Ohio, Pennsylvania and South Carolina—did not meet two of the tests.

Alabama, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, New York and North Carolina failed one of the tests.

The commission said "emergency" efforts to increase the support were needed where: —Less than 70 per cent of high school students graduate from high school. Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, and North Carolina failed that test, using 1969 figures.

—Less than 6 per cent of per capita income is spent through state and local taxes for higher education. Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia failed by 1967-68 figures.

—Fewer than 30 places are provided by public and private higher education for every 100 people of college age. Alaska, Georgia, Nevada, South Carolina and Virginia failed that test in 1968 figures.

—A state's net export of students is greater than 15,000. Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey and New York exceeded that figure in the fall of 1968, according to the commission.

The commission said the first test indicates how many young people will have a chance for higher education. The second shows the potential quality and quantity of college opportunities. The third and fourth tests indicate whether a state is carrying its minimum share of the burden.

In 1962 and 1963 the court prohibited official prayer programs including saying of The Lord's Prayer and Bible reading in the public schools.

The New Jersey Supreme Court said the Netcong program was essentially the same as those disapproved then.

School Prayers 'Lose'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A New Jersey school board failed 7 to 2 today in the Supreme Court in a bid to resume prayer reading in public school.

The Netcong, N.J., board had contended the daily reading in its local high school was constitutional because students and teachers attended on a voluntary basis and the state did not select the prayer to be said.

The prayers were chosen from the Congressional Record and said a few minutes before the start of classes. The reader was permitted to add his own "thought for the day." About two-thirds of the students in the Netcong High School attended.

The high court rejected the appeal over a dissent by Justices Potter Stewart and Byron R. White, who favored a hearing.

In 1962 and 1963 the court prohibited official prayer programs including saying of The Lord's Prayer and Bible reading in the public schools.

The New Jersey Supreme Court said the Netcong program was essentially the same as those disapproved then.

Congressman Wants A Day For President Hanson

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Clarence D. Long thinks the memory of John Hanson should have its own day on the calendar—like that of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

Hanson, of course, was the "first president" of the United States, after a fashion.

Long, a Maryland Democrat and author of seven books on economics, says not enough people know about Hanson and he wants Congress to remedy that by declaring April 14 as John Hanson Day.

The reference books disagree on the date of the famous Marylander's birthday. The encyclopedia Britannica, for instance, says the Revolutionary War-era leader was born April 3, 1715. Long and other history books say it was 1721.

The claim that Hanson was first president of the United States is based on his position as president of the Continental Congress under the government established by the Articles of Confederation.

The Articles, the nation's first constitution, made no provision for an executive branch or head of state, leaving the weak one-house

Congress as only source of federal authority. Hanson, a long-time member of the Maryland House of Delegates, was elected by the members of the Continental Congress to be its president Nov. 5, 1781. He served for one year.

Long, who enjoys referring to Hanson as first President of the United States, said last week he "was an outstanding leader in the fight for independence. As president, he established the U.S. diplomatic service and organized the first cabinet."

Hanson, as the closest thing to chief of state at the time, also formally thanked Gen. George Washington for his victory at Yorktown.

Officially the presiding officer of the Continental Congress, Hanson had virtually none of the powers of the President under the new Constitution. After his one year service he retired to a life of rest and seclusion and died in 1783 near Oxon Hill, Md., now a Washington, D.C., suburb.

Unless Long's bill passes into law and the entire nation pays homage to Hanson on April 14, the colonial leader's memory will have to live on in its few current monuments, including a statue in the Capitol and U.S. route 50 between Washington and Annapolis, Md.

Couple Speaks Vows On Sunday

On Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m., Miss Jewell De Lana Perkins and William Harvey Whitehurst were united in marriage at the First Christian Church in Greenville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Jerome Perkins of Stokes. Parents of the bride groom are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey O. Whitehurst, also of Stokes.

The Rev. Larry Woodley of Portsmouth, Va., officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Prenuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Ronald Crisp of Stokes, organist, and Ted Walton, soloist, who sang "Because," "Walk Hand In Hand With Me," "I'll Never Stop Loving You" and "The Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

The church was enhanced with traditional green and white decorations. Preceding to the altar were coronet candelabra with massive bouquets of white snapdragons, daisies, and baby's breath and tall standards of emerald greenery.

In the background on either side of the Communion table candlelight glowed from tall brass candelabra with overflowing bouquets, nylon tulle, and bridal greenery. The altar was centered with a profile prie-dieu on which the couple knelt for the benediction. Pews were marked with bridal satin bows and greenery.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silken organza over peau de soie. The gown was fashioned with an empire waist, beaded neckline and lantern sleeves of sheer organza. The gown featured appliques of re-embroidered alencon lace with pearl motifs which enhanced the bodice, sleeves and skirt. The appliques of re-embroidered alencon lace also enhanced the chapel length train which fell from the waist. Her veil of imported silk illusion fell from a headpiece of rosettes and petals of English net.

The bride carried a classic formal half moon bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis with cascades of English daisies tied with narrow white satin.

Honor attendants were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Thomas G. Mirdough Jr. of Aurora, Ohio, and Miss Marsha Perkins of Stokes. They wore formal gowns of avocado chiffon and Venice lace. The gowns were fashioned with bishop sleeves, empire waists and colonial necklines. The bodice of the gowns and the wristlets were of lace and featured tiny satin buttons. The skirts were gathered at the sides and back and flowed to the floor.

They wore matching veils of imported silk illusion which were attached to flowers. The matron of honor and maid of honor carried semi-colonial bouquets with a medley of spring blossoms in a rainbow of colors of miniature carnations, purple statice, sweetheart roses, daisies and baby's breath tied with rainbow satin with hem length streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ray Lomax of Greensboro, Miss Jan Cantrell of Atlanta, Ga., Miss Marilyn Hardison of Raleigh and Mrs. William Welborn of Winston-Salem. Miss Kathy Dailey of Raleigh and Mrs. William Welborn of Winston-Salem. Miss Kathy Dailey of Greensboro was junior bridesmaid. Their dresses and bouquets were similar in color and design to those of the honor attendants.

Miss Annis Barbee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Barbee, was flower girl. She was attired in a full length white chiffon dress with avocado ribbon encircling the empire waist and matching headpiece. She carried a white basket filled with daisy petals and miniature blossoms.

The bride groom's father served as best man and ushers were Lanie Whitehurst, Danny Whitehurst and Tim Whitehurst, brothers of the bridegroom, all of Stokes, Ray Lomax of Greensboro, Thomas Mirdough Jr. of Aurora, Ohio, Roger Page of Greenville, and David Harrison of Raleigh.

Mrs. Perkins chose for her daughter's wedding, an Alfred Webber original ensemble of mint green worsted silk. The dress featured bishop sleeves of chiffon and both the dress and sleeveless coat were trimmed with appliques of Venice lace. She wore matching accessories and a cymbidium corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore an imported yellow organza creation by Leichir of New York. The dress was embroidered in white and featured long full sleeves and was topped by a sleeveless coat. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. George B. Roebuck, maternal grandmother of the bride, was attired in a costume dress of purple silk and wool with matching whimsey and lavender orchid corsage.

Mrs. James L. Perkins, paternal grandmother of the bride wore a black crepe dress with embroidered pearl neckline and white orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated Cum Laude from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a B.A. degree in mathematics. She is a member of Pi Mu Epsilon honorary mathematics society and is presently on the faculty of North Pitt High School.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Atlantic Christian College with a B.S. degree in mathematics and is a member of the Robersonville High School faculty.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride chose a pearl white ensemble featuring empire waist and checked skirt. With this she wore the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Stokes.

Golden Anniversary Of Club Celebrated At Spring Dinner-Dance

By BLANCHE HARDEE
Reflector Staff Writer

The 50th anniversary of the Greenville Golf and Country Club was celebrated Saturday night at the club's annual spring dance.

Special guests for the occasion were life members of the club including: J. H. Blount Sr., Miss Bessie Brown, Mrs. F. W. Brown, Dr. W. M. B. Brown, J. G. Clark Sr., Mrs. J. S. Ficklen, Graham Flanagan, Mrs. R. M.

Garrett, Mrs. C. W. Howard Sr., J. T. Little Sr., Mrs. A. M. Mosley, B. B. Sugg Sr., Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, Mrs. J. J. White Sr. and Mrs. W. I. Wooten Sr.

A gold and white theme was used in decorating throughout the country club. The head table was covered with a white cloth and centered with two arrangements of yellow snapdragons, yellow and white Dutch irises. Individual tables were centered with arrangements of jonquils and yellow tapers. The serpentine table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a gold compote filled with yellow mums and Dutch irises flanked by gold candlesticks.

A large garden basket filled with spring flowers was placed in the foyer. Fifty year gold medallions were used in all the floral arrangements.

Music for after dinner dancing was presented by The Highlighters.

According to J.T. Little Sr. of Greenville, H. A. White, J.S. Ficklen Sr. and R. M. Garret were the principal organizers of the first Greenville Country Club in April, 1921.

The first officers of the club were H. A. White, president; A. M. Mosley, vice president; and J. S. Ficklen, secretary-treasurer.

The first clubhouse was located on Green Mill Pond. Members swam in the pond and a round pavilion located on the property was used for dancing and refreshments.

A nine-hole golf course with sand greens was started after the club had been in operation a few years. Now, the Greenville Golf and Country Club offers a full 18-hole course with grass greens.

"Between the years of 1925-28, the board of governors of the club appointed a building committee which was headed by R. M. Garrett," Little explained. "This committee raised $20,000 through life memberships. Those who gave money received life memberships without further dues and the membership was extended to the wives during their lifetime."

"With the proceeds from these 20 life members, a new club house was built which is at present the golf pro shop," Little stated. "Part of the money was used for the improvement of the golf course."

The present club house was occupied in February, 1964. The building was completed at an approximate cost of $180,000, including the building itself, the architects fees and new water and sewage lines.

The facility, designed in traditional style, is nearly twice the size of the former club house, and totals about 12,000 square feet. The ballroom is about 3,600 square feet and can feed about 450 people comfortably. The building is centrally heated and completely air conditioned. It boasts $10,000 worth of kitchen facilities which will serve the ballroom and two other dining rooms. The club offers golf and swimming to its 400 members as well as individual ladies' and mens' card rooms. John C. Bircher is the current president of the club.

President Of Toy Company: 'Industry Should Police Itself'

By AP Newsfeatures

The toy industry is trying to police itself, but some manufacturers ignore danger signs that might lead to more stringent controls, says Richey Smith, youthful president of a family-founded company that manufactures toys. He was in New York to attend the toy market.

"If you make a bad refrigerator, you may not hear much about it, but toys involve children, and when many toys are proved unsafe, it is a blow to the entire industry."

Certain regulations have been established by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, but in Smith's opinion, there are a lot of unfair-to-children practices not covered by such regulations. "One thing that bugs me is the use of slow-motion techniques on television to appeal to children. For example, a 4-year-old child sees something difficult being done slowly, and he thinks he can do it. He presses his parents to buy the toy that really is beyond his capabilities. A tiny child cannot understand degrees of speed so, in addition to being unable to cope with the toy, the child may think of himself as a failure at play."

There are puzzle-type games also portrayed in slow motion on television. These make a game look easier to do than it is, and the game may seem to do more than it really does. This proves disillusioning to a youngster who cannot accomplish the same results, Smith explains.

Unsafe toys that have been removed from toy shelves include dolls, rubber squeeze toys and toy ovens. The bulbs on some ovens would get as hot as 400 degrees.

Smith would like to see all raw materials tested for color fastness, non-toxic qualities that do not irritate the skin or affect the eye sight. Edges should be rolled on steel toys to avoid cuts. Paints should be tested.

His criticism of some manufacturers is not motivated to boost sales of his own products which include basketballs and decorated rubber balls. Three toys made by his company, Sun Products, are among the top 10 toys on a "hit parade of toys"—a sales barometer used by many members of the industry.

He has been associated with the company 10 years, he says, and because he is new in the toy industry, he doesn't want to make enemies, but he "doesn't want to see the toy industry go down the drain because some individuals have no regard for the facts."

"The average layman cannot tell whether some toys are safe merely by their appearance. Too many factors enter into the manufacture of a toy. The consumer must rely on the manufacturer to make toys that are fun and safe."

Chicora Club Meets Tuesday

Mrs. George Coffman and Mrs. Carmen Albea were hostesses to the Chicora Book Club on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Coffman.

A short business meeting was held and members were urged to help the Greenville Art Center in soliciting ads for the Sidewalk Art Show and to work at the show. Members were told that the Sunshine Center needs volunteer and financial aid.

Following a luncheon of Chinese foods, the librarian, Mrs. Clarence Tugwell, presented some new books giving a synopsis of each one. After the meeting, members attended the Standard Flower Show held at the Greenville Art Center.

Dr. Jenkins Is Club Speaker

Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, president of East Carolina University, spoke on current issues of the university when the Seirra Book Club met with Mrs. Jenkins on Tuesday.

A Boost Where Most Needed

The increase in North Carolina's minimum wage law enacted in recent days by the General Assembly will bring an economic boost where it is needed most... to many of the lowest paid workers in the state.

There are exemptions to the minimum wage law, just as there have always been. It does not apply to farm workers, domestic help, educational, charitable and non-profit organization workers. Even so, some 50,000 gainfully employed citizens of the state are expected to benefit by the minimum wage increase which will move in two steps to $1.60 an hour by July 1972.

Perhaps the most surprising thing about this latest increase in the state minimum wage is the ease with which it was passed by the legislature. On earlier occasions where proposals for increasing the state's minimum wage law were offered, there was well-organized and vocal opposition. This year the opposition, while it was there, appeared to be minimum itself.

By increasing its minimum wage law, North Carolina takes an additional step to move its people closer to the per capita income of many other states. It moves the minimum wage to a more realistic level in today's economy and it does so, in our judgment, without placing in jeopardy the future of many small businesses which are covered only by state wage and hour regulations.

The change is not likely to cause any appreciable change in the number of people employed in this state. It is not likely to be the deciding factor to determine whether a small business remains open or has to close. It will, however, assure more income for many working people in the state who are now at the bottom of the economic ladder.

War Has Always Been A Threat To Ecology

War is certainly one of the great ecology threats and even wars of many years ago contribute to the problem.

Thus a sunken German submarine is now reported to be a threat to the Florida coast. The submarine has drifted under water for nearly 30 years and 400 miles and it carries a deadly cargo of mercury and munitions.

The mercury was carried as ballast on the sub and the substance is now recognized as a danger to sea life.

For North Carolinians, World War II carries recollections of oil washing up on the beaches from sunken tankers. Now, 30 years later, there is still a threat to the U.S. coast from a mercury laden sub.

Suez Option Is Being Talked

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK WASHINGTON — Highly secret informal talks have now started on reopening the Suez Canal as an essential first step to dislodge the Egyptian-Israeli peace talks from their dangerous impasse.

The Suez option has always been a fall-back position for the United States. With President Nixon still unable to budge Israel toward the broader settlement he wants (Israeli withdrawal from the Sinai Peninsula, including the strategic heights of Sharm El Sheikh), he is looking hard for some interim agreement to end the deadlock.

That search now centers on an Israeli pullback from the east bank of the canal, with the canal to be reopened as soon as possible. As an interim arrangement, and one that would ease U. S. pressure on Israel for withdrawals, the Israeli government is moving toward just such a canal plan.

However, the Israelis insist upon conditions requiring Egypt to give up sovereignty on the west side of the canal — totally unacceptable in Cairo but a starting point for negotiations.

As a concession for its own withdrawal to a line roughly 25 kilometers east of the canal, Israel would demand — in the Israeli phrase — a "thin-out" of Egyptian forces and armaments on the west side of the canal. That would mean Egyptian agreement to pull out some of the late-model Soviet-built surface-to-air missiles (SAM-3s) deployed last August in violation of the cease-fire standstill agreement of Aug. 7. In addition, Egypt would have to thin out its heavy artillery, silent since the Aug. 7 agreement, and reduce its front-line troops.

Finally, the tentative Israeli plan — still in the discussion stage within the Israeli cabinet — would give Israel some sort of inspection rights over the Egyptian side of the canal, but only from the air (with details not yet clear).

If Egypt accepted these conditions, Israel would insist on the legal right to use the reopened waterway itself. But it might agree not to exercise that right, on the theory that Egypt would not permit Israeli passage so long as Israel occupies the Sinai.

Although this tentative Israeli plan makes good sense as an opening for bargaining with Egypt, it is inconceivable that Egypt, with one-tenth of its country under Israeli occupation, would ever agree to limit its sovereignty along the west side of the Suez Canal. Nor would Egypt be likely to give Israel an inspection role west of the canal.

Thus if the Suez Canal is to be reopened, it will be on terms more generous to Egypt than this tentative Israeli plan.

Moreover, Israel would have to make a long-term arrangement, (whether hard commitment or general understanding) that reopening the canal is only the first step toward a final settlement. The Egyptians would not buy any plan that opened the canal, with the Israelis sitting 25 kilometers away in the Sinai, if it was an obvious cover for long-term Israeli occupation of most of the Sinai and Sharm El Sheikh.

As of now, although Nixon administration interest in the Suez option is intense, U. S. diplomats are careful not to

Strength For Today

ACCLAIMED AND REJECTED

The week preceding Easter is one of the most significant and holy weeks in the entire year. It is amazing the way public acclaim will work up to a feverish point of enthusiasm and then die amidst scoffs and jeers, not in just a few hours but in a few minutes. That Man whom millions about the world hail as Lord, King and Saviour was about to go through events of indescribable importance. Many (probably not all) had acclaimed him as he rode into the city on what we have come to call Palm Sunday. Jesus, in a majestic fashion, took hold of the situation. He began a week of such intensity and excitement that the Christian world since that excited week has stood in wonder at the power of this Man.

Everything was heading toward that day when Christ would be rejected by most of his own followers—not rejected in the sense that they turned against him in disbelief and anger, but in the fact they realized they would have to make a choice between him and his opponents. He recalled to their mind that on an ancient day centuries before his birth the builders of the Temple had rejected a stone which upon examination was found to be "the head of the corner"—or, as we would say today, "the cornerstone."

This Holy Week reminds us that we cannot get along without Christ. He is the head of the corner upon which the superstructure of our lives must be built.

Trial Lawyers Crank Up

WASHINGTON — One of the things we're going to be hearing more about as time goes on is "no-fault insurance." Everyone has his own idea of what no-fault automobile insurance should be, but basically it boils down to the idea that when someone has an accident, his own insurance company would settle the claim instead of seeking damages from the other party or his insurance company.

The advantages of no-fault automobile insurance are that you would eliminate a lot of phony claims from people who say they had suffered grievous injury. Litigants would not have to wait years to be paid off for an accident, the nation's courts would be free to deal with other matters of much higher priority, and, hopefully, automobile insurance premiums could be reduced.

The disadvantage is that no-fault insurance could put a lot of lawyers out of work.

It therefore comes as no surprise that the trial lawyers are cranking up a

Other Editors Say Unclogging Courts

(Rocky Mount Telegram)

The contention of North Carolina Attorney General Robert Morgan and other state officials that public drunkenness should be eliminated as a criminal offense raises some very interesting questions.

Dr. John Ewing of Chapel Hill, director of the Alcoholic Studies Center at UNC, says the proposal to eliminate public drunkenness as an offense is "basically humanitarian" and a "step in the right direction."

Humanitarian it may be, but it could also play havoc with the state's traffic regulations. Let's assume, for a moment, that North Carolina eliminated all laws that say public drunkenness is a crime. What happens when a patrolman apprehends a driver on the highway, a driver so drunk he can't stand up, although he hasn't driven in a manner to indicate recklessness? Does the patrolman let him go?

He would have to, since public drunkenness is no crime, and since the driver hasn't displayed any reckless driving, or broken any laws... yet. So the patrolman lets him go and a mile down the road he plows into a car and kills six members of one family, on the way home from church. That's humanitarian?

But Atty. Gen. Morgan says that by eliminating public drunkenness as a criminal offense, we could "unclog our courts" and free them to handle "more important matters." He says 40 per cent of non-traffic cases in the courts are for public drunkenness. And Lee Bounds, prisons chief, says elimination of public drunkenness as a criminal offense would help clear out the prisons.

It would, for a fact. And if other types of non-capital crime offenses were removed from the statute books, then the courts would be even less clogged, the prisons even less crowded.

There's another matter: what to do with all the money saved in handling public drunkenness cases in the courts, the jails and prisons? Dr. Ewing has the answer:

Build more local treatment facilities for alcoholics. The way the liquor forces in Raleigh are trying to push through open saloons in North Carolina, the way some of the administration officials are trying to make it so that public drunkenness is just peachy, we will need more alcoholic treatment facilities than we have public schools.

fierce lobbying campaign to prevent no-fault insurance from becoming the law of the land.

My friend Briefless, who deals in nothing but automobile accident cases, becomes very emotional when you mention no-fault insurance to him.

"They're trying to take the bread out of our mouths," he said tearfully. "If we can't sue, we'll die."

"Oh, come now, Briefless," I said. "It can't be that serious."

"You can say that. But do you know suing insurance companies is the second largest industry in the United States? If they institute no-fault insurance, you'll have headlines from Baltimore to San Diego. I'm not just talking about lawyers. I'm talking about all the other people it will affect—private investigators, legal secretaries and paid witnesses, not to mention the yellow legal pad paper

One out of every 11 American homes now has a swimming pool. One in every three has two or more cars and also a color television set.

It isn't just the old who are affected by the tensions of the time. A Harvard medical researcher has found that a tendency toward hypertension can be detected as early as the age of two in children of parents who suffer from high blood pressure.

What is the most valuable single patent in history? It probably is Alexander Graham Bell's patent for the telephone,

Are you as strong and healthy as you were 10 years ago? Well, the U.S. dollar isn't. It is worth only 65 per cent of the value it had at the start of the last decade.

Scientists have good reason for concern at the rate mankind is using up its energy reserves. In the last 30 years alone the human race has consumed more coal, oil and gas than it did in all its previous history.

Some victims of a heart attack are depressed by the fear that it will end their working career. In most cases this fear is unfounded. A study by Dr. Stanley Fisher, a University of Connecticut psychologist, found that the chances are better than four to one that the survivor of a heart attack will be back on the job within a year.

A matter of size: We may not be getting better as a people, but we are getting bigger. Men entering U.S. military service today average two inches taller and 10 pounds heavier than those inducted at the start of World War I.

A matter of age: As a nation we are getting older, but as a population we are getting younger. The present median age in the United States is 29, but by 1978 it is expected to drop to 27.

Worth remembering: "Money is funny. You have to be dead to get your face on it, but very much alive to get your hands on it."

No Remedy In Constraint Plan

By ELMER ROESSNER

There is considerable doubt that the wage-price "constraints" in the building industry will do much if anything to check inflation. Reasons:

1. The "equity adjustment" part of President Nixon's order is a loophole big enough to drive a bulldozer through. This permits a union to get more than the 6 per cent rise this year if needed to bring a union's wages up to other unions' in the same craft.

Last year the construction trades unions contracts provided for an increase of 15 per cent. Where this was spread over two years, other unions will claim that a 7½ per cent rise is equitable; where the rise was spread over three years, those unions getting a raise of only 5 per cent this year and next will want contracts reopened to give them "equity." How Noninflationary?

2. The 6 per cent rise is certainly inflationary. It will mean doubling of construction wages over the next 15 years and if that rate affects all other wages and prices, the value of the dollar will be cut in half again.

3. Teeth in the Nixon order are rubbery. About the only penalty provided is the suspension of the Davis-Bacon Act again.

4. The plan will not prevent wildcat strikes. 5. The plan will fail, as Labor Secretary Hodgson said, if "labor and management regard it as a barrier to be circumvented." There will be many contractors and many unions that will so regard it.

6. The Nixon order may not be constitutional, since it permits other unions to get more than a 6 per cent increase. It might have been legal if it applied to all unions that got more than a certain percentage increase in 1970. And unions are threatening to challenge the legality of the plan.

While Mr. Nixon has called the plan a step to control inflation, the Federal Reserve has been increasing the money supply, which is inflationary. The President said that if the inflationary trend in the construction industry is not countered, "disaster lies ahead." He may be right.

Other Look-Aheads

Banks may soon ease promotions of credit cards. Andrew F. Brimmer, member of the Federal Reserve Board, has pointed out that the average loss rose from 2.38 per cent in 1969 to 3.39 per cent at the end of 1970. Banks' losses on consumer installment credit, he said, ranged from 0.25 to 0.50 per cent. And, as banks know better than anyone else, all debt collections have slowed and personal bankruptcies have been increasing.

Copper prices may go still higher. Predicted increases were announced last week, but they may not be the end. Other nonferrous metals may also move upward. Agitation for a four-day, 40-hour week is rising, but labor itself may block it. Many unions already have 35- and 36-hour weeks already. Furthermore, the 10-hour day would cut overtime. Many states have laws limiting labor by women to eight hours a day, but these can probably be knocked out as unconstitutional.

Marxist Gains In Chilean Vote

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON
Associated Press Writer
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Marxist President Salvador Allende's leftist coalition appeared early today to have won an important victory in nationwide municipal elections.

With nearly half the ballots from Sunday's voting counted, candidates of Allende's Popular Unity coalition for council seats in 280 municipalities had received 871,724 votes, or 48.45 per cent of the total.

That was a substantial increase over the 36.3 per cent won by the coalition, which is dominated by Socialists and Communists, in the September presidential election.

The two main opposition parties, the Christian Democrats and the Nationalists, and the smaller Democratic Radical party, had 846,778 votes.

The rest of the votes were blank, void or cast for splinter party candidates.

The elections gave Chilean voters their first opportunity to express what they thought of Allende's government after five months in power.

The Popular Unity coalition conducted a vigorous election campaign, aiming for 50 per cent of the vote which it said would give Allende a firmer mandate to transform Chile into a socialist state.

Allende's Socialist party also gained strength within the coalition. Its candidates won 385,257 votes to 292,670 for the Communists.

In the three southernmost provinces, Adonis Sepulveda, a

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—An unprecedented connection of 18 television stations and 125 radio stations was employed to allow more Texans than ever to witness the inauguration of Gov. Preston Smith and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes this year. State officials said the swearing-in ceremonies would be available to 85 per cent of the state's population through mass media.

Socialist, was leading in a special election to fill the senate seat vacated by Allende when he became president.

One death was reported during the voting, a 17-year-old Christian Democrat who was shot near Socialist party headquarters in Puerto Aysen, 900 miles south of Santiago. Interior Undersecretary Daniel Vergara, a Communist, said nine Socialists were arrested and two revolvers were confiscated.

Since taking office in November, Allende has frozen prices and raised wages, begun a free milk program for children under 15 and given thousands of pairs of shoes to the needy.

Unemployment has risen from 6.8 per cent to 9 per cent, and agricultural production has been disrupted by government expropriation of some large farms and the seizure of others by groups of landless peasants. But Allende has promised to complete nationalization of the American-operated copper industry, the banks and credit, communications industries and all "national monopolies."

get deeply involved. They feel the President is now exerting quiet pressure on Israel, through diplomatic and other channels, sufficient to compel the Israelis to surface their own plan.

But once that happens, the U. S. will bring all its weight down on the side of the Suez option as the first step toward a settlement. Mr. Nixon's worry today is that the longer the present impasse lasts, the greater the risk for shooting to break out again across the canal. That could bring Soviet involvement and also raise the ominous specter of the U. S. being sucked in.

Accordingly, the Suez option is now not only desirable but may be absolutely essential for preserving the fragile ceasefire.

companies. There is more at stake here than two cars getting into a lousy accident."

"But Briefless, surely there is other law work that you can find?" I said.

"Nothing that pays as well. Sometimes, if it's a difficult case, we get 50 percent of the settlement. The very least we'll get is a third. If we lose we get nothing. But it's the only thing we know how to do. You can't say to a man who has been trained in 'whiplash' and 'pain and suffering suits' to go out and learn a new trade. Do you know what has made America the great country it is today?"

"I'm not sure," I admitted. "The right of one person to sue another person for an automobile crash."

"No kidding?" "And also the right to select counsel to sue the other person, plus the right of the other party to select counsel to defend the suit. If you take these rights away from Americans, what have they left?"

"No-fault automobile insurance?"

"Exactly. The American dream in this country is to be hit by a cola truck or a Greyhound bus that was in the wrong."

"I never thought of it that way."

"Are you going to take this American dream away from the people? What fun is it to have your own insurance company settle with you, when in your heart of hearts you know that with a sympathetic jury you'll get $100,000 from the other guy's insurance company?"

"You make a strong case against no-fault insurance," I told Briefless.

"The legislators think no-fault insurance is a great idea," he said, slamming a law book on his desk. "But when they find 2 million lawyers collecting unemployment insurance, they're going to be sorry they didn't leave automobile insurance alone."

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: My husband never empties his pockets when he changes, and as a result of his negligence, I have ruined two of his watches and destroyed important papers that were in his wallet and ended up in my washer.

He says I should always look thru the pockets before putting anything in the machine. I say, he should have enough common sense to take care of his personal belongings, and if he is so careless and stupid as to leave things in his pockets, it's not my fault. Who is correct?

—JUST WONDERING

DEAR JUST: Not you, Lady.

DEAR ABBY: Five months ago, when we got married I was already pregnant, but we were in love and the term "have to" never entered our minds. We are both 20. My parents have never let us live it down. We had a beautiful church wedding, but my parents would not let us send out formal invitations or wedding announcements because they didn't want the date of our wedding advertised knowing a baby would be born before nine months had passed.

I am only two months from delivery now, and my mother has decided that we shouldn't send out any birth announcements either.

Abby, my husband and I are very happy over the birth of our first child and don't see why we can't proudly tell the world about our baby when it comes. All my mother cares about is saving her face. She thinks it will reflect on her and Dad if the world knows their daughter was pregnant when she got married. I would like your opinion.

—PROUD AND HAPPY

DEAR PROUD: While I can understand your pride and happiness, I can also understand your mother's reluctance to "advertise" the fact that you were with child when you were married.

However, the baby is yours to advertise as you wish, and the sending of birth announcements is your decision—not your mother's.

DEAR ABBY: I am a freshman at college and this is my first experience at being away from home.

I wonder if parents realize how much their children look forward to mail from home? I am lucky because my parents write to me faithfully. Some parents haven't even written their children once since September! I only wish I could send parents a picture of their child's face when he sees an empty mailbox.

I know most parents are busy, but if they would just sit down and write a letter every few weeks, or even a postcard, it would give the away-from-home college student the lift he needs.

—KAREN

DEAR KAREN: Are you putting me on? I hear from parents constantly complaining that their away-from-home kids never write, the parents finally have to call long distance to find out if the kids are sick or well. I'll print your letter, Karen; perhaps it will provide the stimulus both parents and kids need to keep each other happy.

DEAR ABBY: These days any couple who celebrates fifty years of marriage deserve a medal with a combat ribbon!

My parents recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, and they received one of the cleverest gifts imaginable. It was a gold-plated 1921 silver dollar, suspended on a W. W. I medal, attached to a combat ribbon. It was ceremoniously presented to them in a velvet-lined box by their daughter, who was a three-time loser.

Reorganization Of HEW At Heart Of Nixon Plans

By G. C. THELEN JR.
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Part of President Nixon's sweeping government reorganization plan calls for melding large chunks of three existing departments and one other agency to produce a lean, well-oiled unit serving the needs of individuals and families.

To be called the Department of Human Resources, the proposed agency would combine the 103,000-man Department of Health, Education and Welfare with parts of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Departments of Labor and Agriculture.

The stumbling block, sceptics say, is that past HEW unmanageable thicket of warring bureaucracies and special interest groups.

How then can the President expand HEW and expect it to work?

No problem, administration spokesman answer. HEW is a morass because it is poorly organized not because it is large, they say, and the President's management scheme would fix this.

For example, the secretary now has 24 HEW officials reporting directly to him. Under the reorganization plan, the number would be nine.

Here are some details of the human resources proposal in question and answer format. The answers are compiled from various statements of administration officials.

Q. What major programs from other agencies would be added to HEW?

A. Alcoholism, family planning, drug rehabilitation, migrants and nutrition programs from the Office of Economic Opportunity; manpower training and unemployment insurance from the Labor Department; nutrition services and meat and poultry inspection from the Agriculture Department.

Q. What would this accomplish?

A. Unification of all government programs "directed at the development and well-being of individuals and families," cut down the fragmentation and overlapping of various federal programs.

Q. What are examples of how this unification will cut waste?

A. Transfer of manpower programs will prevent repetition of the recent construction of two federal job training centers three blocks apart in the same city, one funded by the Labor Department and the other by HEW.

Unification of food programs will end the practice of separate inspectors from the Food and Drug Administration and the Agriculture Department checking the same plants for different possible violations.

Q. What are some other advantages of the new department?

A. Programs would be grouped by their intended function, not by the interest group served. For example, there would just be health programs, not health programs for migrant workers, welfare recipients and the like. Various programs designed to ready welfare recipients for work, such as training, child care, and health, could be better focused.

Q. What would be the broad groupings of programs in the new department?

A. Income security, health, and human development.

Q. Take them one at a time and explain what would be in each?

A. The Health Administration would have research programs such as the national institutes, service programs such as Indian health and mental health grants, and protection programs grouped in the Food and Drug Administration.

The Income Security Administration would handle payments for all government social insurance programs, such as Social Security, Medicare, unemployment benefits, and for all assistance programs such as welfare, food stamps, Medicaid and commodity distribution.

The Human Development Administration would include education programs, work training, and social services.

Q. Last question, about how big would this monster be?

A. Some 119,000 employees with a projected budget next year of $90.7 billion.

Looked On As 3 Slain

ERWIN, N. C. (AP) — An invalid man looked on from his wheelchair as his wife and daughters were shot to death one by one.

On Sunday, Harnett County sheriff's deputies charged Kenneth Hamilton, 48, the husband of one of the daughters, with the Saturday slayings.

The deputies said the husband of 75-year-old Mrs. Bessie Cannady saw a man shoot down Mrs. Cannady; Mrs. Kenneth Hamilton, 34, and Mrs. Doris Lockamy, 33.

Cannady was not injured. A posse of about 40 men, including deputies from Harnett County and Cumberland County and Highway Patrolmen, combed a wooded area of northern Cumberland County looking for Hamilton.

A deputy said Hamilton gave himself up at a brother's home after the brother told authorities that the man was ready to give himself up.

Hamilton was jailed without bond in the Harnett County jail at Lillington.

Deputies said Hamilton and his wife had been separated about two years. The slayings were at the white-frame home owned by the Cannadys.

Erwin is in Harnett County, about 20 miles north of Fayetteville.

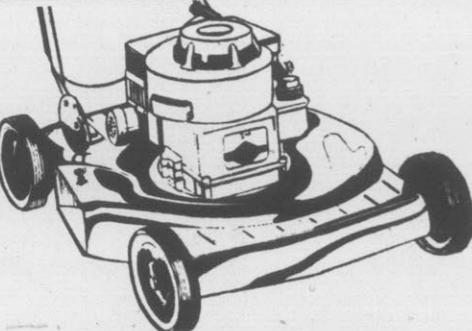

Ripon Society Honors Hickel

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Walter J. Hickel, fired as secretary of interior last November by President Nixon, has been named by the Ripon Society as Man of the Year.

The liberal Republican group said Sunday that the award was based on a poll of readers of its magazine, Forum.

Ripon President Josiah L. Auspitz said: "The award is in part a recognition of the Nixon administration's achievement in the environmental field. In part it is also a tribute to Secretary Hickel's dedication to national reconciliation at a time when polarization was the prevailing wind."

Hickel wrote a letter to the President last May during student protests of the U.S. drive into Cambodia suggesting that the administration had failed to demonstrate enough concern for the attitudes of young people.

State Acted On Complaint

RALEIGH (AP) — A complaint from a tourist has brought state action against a Robeson County man who operates cut-rate cigarette stores along Interstate 95.

Atty. Gen. Robert Morgan's office said Saturday that the man—Charles F. Atkinson—has signed a consent agreement stipulating that he will not engage in deceptive advertising. Under the terms of the agreement, the state will not bring suit against Atkinson unless he violates the agreement.

Atkinson is the operator of Charlie's Cigarette House, Charlie's Cigarette House No. 2 and Charlie's Company. Morgan's office said Atkinson had been advertising—but not always delivering—a free pack of cigarettes to customers who purchased 10 gallons of gas. The office also said he advertised cigarettes at $1.86 a carton but did not state that the figure didn't include state tax, which raised the price to $2.12.

NEW YORK (AP) — After flattening out last week, the stock market rose slowly today. Trading was active.

The 11 a.m. Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 1.19 at 904.23. Advances on the New York Stock Exchange led declines by a small margin.

Stocks and building materials were higher. All other groups were mixed.

Among individual issues, Occidental Petroleum was up 1 at 20½. The company is a major producer in Libya, where the government last Friday negotiated a five-year agreement calling for higher oil prices. The length of the agreement was a major victory for the companies, according to industry sources.

Memorex, which reported 1970 earnings over the weekend, was off 7¼ at 68½. In reorienting results, it gave no comparisons with 1969 figures because of what it said was the changing nature of its business.

Prices on the Big Board's most-active list included University Computing, up 1¼ at 31½; Itek, up 1¼ at 50½; Woolworth, up 1½ at 54½; and Natomax up 5¼ at 74½.

Quits Role In 'The Godfather'

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Vic Damone, whose real name is Vito Farinola, has quite the movie production "The Godfather," saying the proposed picture of a crime "family" doesn't help the image of Italian-Americans.

Damone, cast in the role of singer Johnny Fontane, said in a weekend statement that after reading part of the script and hearing reports about it he concluded: "As an American of Italian descent I could not in good conscience play the role."

S. Viets Left Ammo In Retreat

By NEAL ULEVICH
Associated Press Writer
QUANG TRI, Vietnam (AP) — South Vietnamese forces pulling back after their retreat from Laos were leaving thousands of unused artillery shells and other ammunition at bases in the northwest corner of South Vietnam until U.S. military officials complained, informed sources said today.

The sources said that if the ammunition had been abandoned at the numerous allied support bases, the enemy might have collected it and used it.

No estimate of the amount of ammunition was available but

Bomb Threat Proved False

ROBERSONVILLE — A bomb threat in the Robersonville High School was received today. Police evacuated the school, searched the building and students returned to their classes when nothing was found.

Principal R. B. Lee said that there had been no disturbances at the school today. Last week some Robersonville high school students had protested the choice of a firm for the placement of orders for high school rings. This issue had resulted in 150 black students marching in the halls refusing to return to classes, with school being dismissed early that day.

Lee said the bomb threat today was the only disturbance at the school.

U.S. officers in the field said it included "thousands" of 105mm and 155mm howitzer shells, mortars and small arms ammunition.

The ammunition was left at several positions vacated by South Vietnamese Army and Marine units. Some U.S. officers told of artillery shells left neatly stacked in the gun pits.

"If you can imagine a gun position all set up to fire and pull out the guns and leave everything else behind—rounds, fuses and the like—that is what it looked like," said one.

At a Marine command post in the Khe Sanh area, another officer said, the Vietnamese opened hundreds of boxes of artillery shells, discarded the shells and used the wooden boxes filled with sand in building bunkers and fighting positions. Then they left it all behind as they pulled out, he said.

"We looked the area over and told them it was a disgrace," said one U.S. officer at Khe Sanh.

"The Vietnamese have been so careless with ammunition that we have had to clean it up before we leave."

The complaint by U.S. officers in the field was relayed through top American commanders in Quang Tri to the Vietnamese, and orders went out that the ammunition was to be collected. Several U.S. officers expressed the belief that most of it would have been abandoned to the elements and the enemy if no complaint had been made.

Baird And Hastings Pitch ECU Wins Over VMI

LEXINGTON, Va. — East Carolina University's hurlers Hal Baird and Ron Hastings tossed circles around VMI, while their third baseman gave them something to squeal about.

Bryan "Squeely" McNeely batted in six of the 16 runs the Pirates go in sweeping a doubleheader from the Keydets yesterday. They took the first 8-2 on Baird's three-hitter, and won the second 8-1 on a one-hitter by Hastings.

McNeely banged out two hits in the opener, accounting for three of the eight runs. They got a bases-loaded triple in the second to drive in three more.

The wins opened the Southern Conference season for the Pirates in fine style, giving them a 2-0 mark in the loop, and tying them with The Citadel for the lead. It also snapped a four-game losing streak and boosted the Buc overall mark to 4-5.

The first game was a scoreless deadlock until the fourth inning when the Pirates exploded for five big runs. Larry Walters reached on a walk and Mike Aldridge hit a double to left, the first of three two-baggers he was to get during the day. Troy Eason also walked, loading the bases.

Stan Sneed dropped a single into left, driving in both Walters and Aldridge. McNeely followed with a double to center, scoring Eason. Baird grounded into the infield, but the throw to the plate to get Sneed was too late. Mike Bradshaw finished things off with a sacrifice fly to center, scoring McNeely.

The Buc added two more in the fifth inning, running their lead to 7-0. Aldridge got his second double into left center and Eason walked again. Sneed also walked, loading the bases for McNeely. Squeely dropped a single into center, scoring both Aldridge and Eason for his three-rbi total for the game.

VMI, which hadn't put a man on base during the first four innings, finally got to Baird in the fifth. Louis Dowdy singled into right field to become the first Keydet to reach. He stole second and Rich Stegermerten followed with a single to center. The ball was errored on the return and Dowdy came in to score. Ned Mikula doubled to right, scoring Stegermerten with the second Keydet run. Baird then closed the door again and didn't allow another baserunner.

In the sixth, the Buc picked up one more run. Dick Corrada reached on an error and Walters singled into right. An error on the play let Corrada come in to score.

Baird, in tossing his three-hitter, didn't allow a single walk and struck out 12 during the afternoon. Neither of the runs scored off him were earned.

The Buc moved into the lead in the second game in the second inning. Aldridge hit his third double to reach. He moved on to third on an infield out, and came home on a wild pitch for a 1-0 lead.

The Buc liked their five-run outburst in the fourth inning of the first game and gave it a repeat performance in the second. Aldridge reached on an error and Eason singled to center. Sneed walked, loading the bases for — who else? — McNeely.

He slammed a triple into centerfield, driving in three runs, but the inning wasn't over yet. Hastings reached on an error as he tried to sacrifice, scoring McNeely. The miscue sent the ball into right field, and Hastings raced all the way to third, scoring from there on Bradshaw's sacrifice fly.

VMI also got to Hastings in the fifth inning, as they had Baird. Field Selby doubled to center and he advanced on an out. A wild pitch let him come in with the lone Keydet run.

The Buc came back with two more in the sixth to close it out. Bradshaw walked and moved around to third on a passed ball and an infield out. Corrada reached on an error on the third baseman, and he stole second. Walters then singled to right center, scoring both Bradshaw and Corrada.

Hastings, in tossing his two-hitter, walked two and struck out seven. The lone run off him was earned.

The Pirates play their lone home game for the month of April on Thursday, entertaining The Citadel's Bulldogs. The game will be played in Guy Smith Stadium. The Pirate home field on the university campus is unavailable because of the installation of lights currently going on.

Buddy Allin Wins GGO In Sudden-Death

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Buddy Allin is a frail-looking little 130-pounder, sandy-haired and boyish appearing, looking for all the world like the drug-store delivery boy.

But the ex-artillery officer, decorated four times in 16 months of Vietnam combat duty, again proved his mettle when he banged in a birdie putt on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff and won the $38,000 first prize in the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

"I really didn't feel that nervous," the 26-year-old tour rookie said Sunday after besting 38-year-old veteran Rod Funseth and four-year tour regular Dave Eichelberger in the playoff.

"I've been more nervous in other tournaments," said Allin, competing in only his 14th professional event.

"I told myself the night before, 'you're going to win the tournament.' I slept on it and got up thinking the same thing. I felt the same way when I got to the course, the same way when I teed off and the same way in the playoff."

Allin, who had won only $5,954 prior to his victory, had a final-round 69, two-under-par on the 7,034-yard Sedgefield Country Club Course, and finished with a 275.

Funseth, the third-round leader, had a 71 and Eichelberger had a 69.

Eichelberger and Funseth each collected $17,575 from the total purse of $190,000.

Peter Brown was alone in third with a 69 for 276. Veterans Terry Dill, 68, and Miller Barber, 72, followed at 277. U.S. Open king Tony Jacklin of England had a 67 and was one of three at 278.

Lee Trevino had a final 69 for 279. Masters champ Billy Casper took a 70 for 283 and South African Gary Player, winner of the last two tour events, was far back with a 71 for 285.

The 27-year-old Eichelberger had the lead alone going to the final hole—Allin had finished almost a half hour earlier—and set up the playoff when he bogeyed after hitting his drive deep into the woods.

That sent the three of them to the first tee for the fourth playoff of the season. All drove the fairway. And all put their second shots into the fringe around the green.

Funseth putted first and missed.

"I kind of went to school on that one a little," Allin said. "I had a little hill to go over, then a valley. It was about 30 feet. I just stepped up and hit it."

And he holed it, giving him a spot in the Tournament of Champions and the match play championship with a guarantee of at least 3,200 more from those two events. But he won't be in the Masters, which starts Thursday at Augusta, Ga.

Eichelberger missed on his birdie try and finished tied for second. But the Waco, Tex., native, through his high finish, vaulted past two other players and won his way into the Masters.

"I wasn't thinking about finishing second," said Allin, a Brigham Young University graduate from Santa Barbara, Calif.

"I was thinking about winning. I just went out there to get my pars and the birdies when they were convenient."

He birdied the sixth hole from six feet and parred the rest.

Then the freckle-faced guy chipped in from 100 feet for a bird on the 15th, bogeyed the tough 16th when he missed the green and wedged to four feet for a bird on the next hole.

Then it was just a matter of waiting for Eichelberger and Funseth to finish.

Petraglia was top-seeded in the final after emerging on top of an original field of 48 champions.

Jury Resumes NFL Inquiry

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A federal grand jury resumed its investigation today into operations of the National Football League.

The jury, which recessed indefinitely March 10 after hearing testimony from former St. Louis Cardinals' head coach Charley Winner, has been probing for possible antitrust violations in the NFL.

Cleveland Browns' owner Arthur Modell, who testified two hours before the jury on March 8, was subpoenaed to appear again today.

Modell said after his appearance March 8 that he still did not know why the investigation was being conducted.

The probe began last November under the direction of the Cleveland district office of the antitrust division of the U.S. Department of Justice. It followed complaints of some former NFL players that they had been blacklisted from the league.

Modell said after his initial jury appearance that there "definitely is no blacklisting in pro football or the Cleveland organization." The former NFL president said he would know if there was.

Modell said at that time the jury had promised him that when he was recalled he would be given "ample opportunity to make comments on my own."

$1,222 Shy Of Bowling Mark

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Johnny Petraglia, the whiz kid of professional bowling, is just $1,222 shy of cracking the one-season tournament winnings mark.

The 24-year-old Brooklyn southpaw, nicknamed "Rags" because of his rags to riches story, boosted his 1971 winnings to $66,152 with the $25,000 check that accompanied the Firestone Tournament of Champions title Saturday.

The Firestone was Petraglia's third PBA tournament victory in three weeks. With more than 20 tournaments remaining on the 1971 calendar, he is almost certain to top the $67,374 season winnings record set by Jim Stefanich of Joliet, Ill., in 1968.

The three wins in a row tied a record set a decade ago by Dick Weber of St. Louis.

Petraglia copped the prestigious Firestone by whipping defending champion Don Johnson 245-169. Johnson began the final match poorly, leaving two

Costliest Bonus Baby Opines ABA And NBA Must Merge

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Jim McDaniels, pro basketball's most expensive bonus baby, thinks the two warring leagues will merge soon.

"They're going to have to get together in another year anyway," said the 7-foot Western Kentucky All-America who has signed a multiyear contract rumored at $3 million with the American Basketball Association's Carolina Cougars.

With 7-foot-2 Jacksonville All-America Artis Gilmore at center, McDaniels felt right at home at forward in the Coaches' East-West All-Star Game Saturday in the University of Dayton Arena.

He walked off with the Star of Stars Trophy, symbolic of the game's outstanding player, after hitting 12 of 17 floor shots for 29 points and gathering 10 rebounds. His performance sparked the East to a 106-104 overtime verdict over the West.

McDaniels will be a key figure in the war between the older National Basketball Association and the ABA.

He was drafted by the ABA's Utah Stars, but signed with the Cougars. Seattle waited until the second round of the NBA draft to pick the gifted outside shooter.

scoring 24 points, seizing 20 game-high rebounds and blocking three shots, McDaniels was forced to play forward. That didn't upset him.

"I don't care whether I play forward or center in the pros," he said, "as long as we win."

"It wasn't too hard to adjust. I kind of like it at forward, especially with a guy like Artis underneath. It feels funny throwing it underneath to a big man," said McDaniels.

league.

Modell said after his initial jury appearance that there "definitely is no blacklisting in pro football or the Cleveland organization." The former NFL president said he would know if there was.

Modell said at that time the jury had promised him that when he was recalled he would be given "ample opportunity to make comments on my own."

Exhibition Will Have Net Stars

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Two of the world's top tennis stars, Australian John Newcombe and Tony Roche, will be featured in an exhibition at Trinity University Tuesday night.

"I'm in. I don't care. It's the underclassmen that have to worry," McDaniels said.

He said he wasn't concerned about the fact ABA Commissioner Jack Dolph would not honor the Cougars contract.

"That's a matter for the league to settle," he said.

With the awesome Gilmore night.

Foyt Passed Petty To Win Atlanta 500

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA (AP) — "When you've beaten Richard Petty and the other NASCAR drivers, you've beaten the best," says Texan A. J. Foyt, who is finding the Grant National late model stock car racing circuit financially rewarding.

Foyt, a three-time Indianapolis winner, steered his 1969 Mercury by Petty on the back straight-away 12 laps from the finish Sunday and claimed the $19,200 first prize in the Atlanta 500.

"He'll run wheel-to-wheel with you," Foyt said of Petty. "He got into the corners better than I, but I beat him out of the corners and that's how I got the lead. Things got a little hairy running that fast and I almost lost it twice."

Foyt had controlled the race most of the way, holding the lap lead for 205 of the 328 trips around the 1.5-mile saucer-shaped oval. But Petty closed a 26-second advantage under a caution flag and then zipped into the lead when Foyt stopped for fuel on the 305th lap.

"I needed about a fruit jar of gas," said Petty, who went to the pits for the final time seven laps later. "I couldn't have finished the race if I hadn't stopped the last time for gas and because I stopped, I couldn't win."

Petty retained his slim lead, but Foyt stayed right on his bumper and made his move 26 miles from the end. Foyt extended his advantage to 1.8 seconds when he took the checkered flag.

Tourney Ball Is For Boys' Club

boast of playing with a ball used by champions, because of the gift of a basketball used in the Southern Conference Tournament.

Williamston Takes Two

WILLIAMSTON — The Williamston Tigers captured two games played over the weekend, one a conference affair.

The Tigers downed Plymouth on Friday, 3-2, in an Albemarle Conference contest. Plymouth took the lead with a run in the second, and regained it with one in the top of the fourth after Williamston scored in the third.

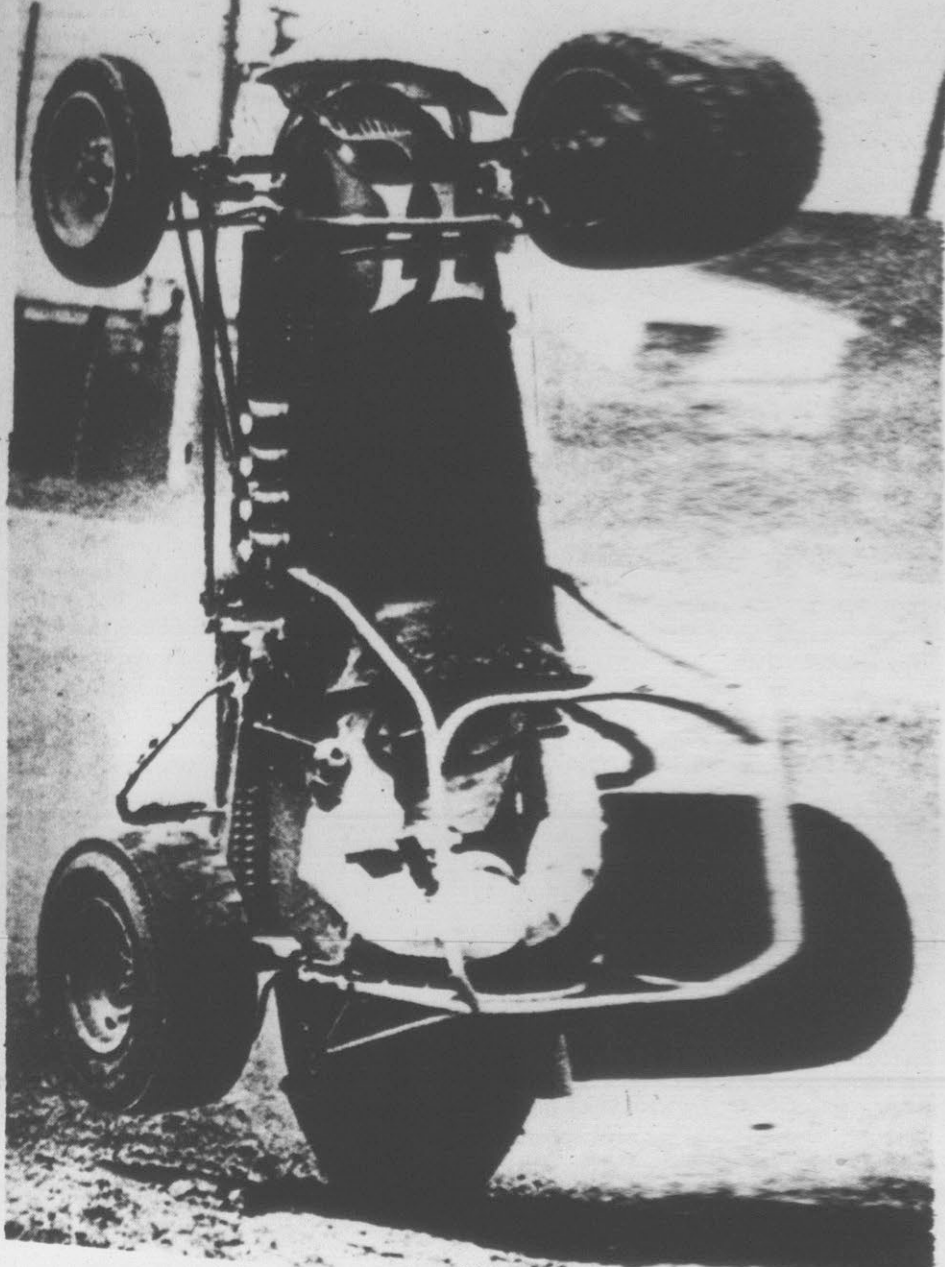

In the fourth, Williamston pushed over two runs. Jimmy Rayford doubled and was replaced by Laurence Lilly, who took third on a wild pitch. Sammy Roberson walked and stole second. Lilly scored on an out and Dwight Ange singled in Roberson.

Saturday night, the Tigers downed Roanoke Rapids, 12-7. Rock Cherry led the Tiger hitting with three hits, while Ange and Rayford had two each.

Williamston is now 3-1 overall and 1-1 in the conference.

On Friday, East Carolina University Athletic Director Clarence Stasavich presented to Boys' Club Executive Director J. Richard Ullom one of the basketballs used in the recent tournament games.

Lloyd P. Jordan, commissioner of the Southern Conference, noted he was delighted to send the ball, which had been requested by Stasavich and ECU basketball coach Tom Quinn for presentation to the club. "We sincerely hope that they all will derive much pleasure from the gift," commissioner Jordan stated in a letter to Ullom.

Bruins Shatter Team Records

BOSTON (AP) — The 1970-71 Boston Bruins broke 16 National Hockey League team records and 21 individual marks in their regular season which concluded with Sunday's 7-2 victory over the Montreal Canadiens.

The East Division champions finished with a 54-14-7 record, setting highs for victories and for points in the standings, 121. Their 399 goals and 1,093 scoring points also established records, as did their 25 short handed goals—a figure nearly twice as high as the old mark of 14.

Highlighted among the individual records were Phil Esposito's 76 goals and 152 points, and Bobby Orr's 102 assists.

Playoff Site Is Moved By Strike

HALIFAX, N.S. (AP) — American Hockey League playoff games involving the Montreal Voyageurs, originally scheduled to be played here, have been shifted to Montreal because of the strike by Halifax civic workers.

Seventeen civic workers are employed at the Forum, which was the site of some Montreal games during the regular season.

The Voyageurs will open the quarter-finals Friday night against Springfield Kings or Quebec Aces.

During the event Sunday seven elapsed time and ten miles per hour records were set.

Setting the most significant record, the pro stop, was Ronnie Sox, of Burlington, N. C. driving a 1971 Barracuda, he achieved an elapsed time of 9.72 seconds at 142.63 m.p.h.

The next event in the series is scheduled on April 24-25 at Suffolk, Va.

Warm Acclaim For N.C. Poets

It may sound far fetched in this era of packaged entertainment to state that no form of entertainment is ultimately more satisfying than the human voice speaking the printed word.

The four North Carolina poets reading their poetry, and in one instance, a prose selection, were refreshingly revealing, not only from new insights gained from the works themselves, but from the rediscovery that the human voice is an instrument that can arouse, amuse, provoke and stimulate.

The approximately 75 or 80 people on hand at East Carolina University Friday night accorded a warm acclaim to the three men and one woman reading their own works. The four are among the finest writers in North Carolina today.

The youngest of the group, Douglas McReynolds, and the only one based in Greenville (an ECU faculty member), led the field of readers. Possibly because of his youth, McReynolds seems to be a poet still involved in a search for the best way to express himself. Some lines came through with impact . . . "what to do, what to do, it's the waiting that's intolerable," a refrain in a poem based on his father in law's war experiences, gained effectiveness by its repetition.

The one woman poet, Campbell Reeves (Mrs. Ralph Reeves) of Raleigh, spun a web of words rich in imagery, reflecting nature — fogs and gem stones, flowers and animals. Hers is polished work, with provocative thought embedded in the clear flow of words . . . "the finality in dried bouquets;" "If birds are flying, how far did your eyes follow?" "birds are autumn's sacrifice;" . . . these are but brief samples of the unexpected turn of thought. Mrs. Reeves imparts in her poetry. Such is the mark of a good poet, one who can rend the veil and reveal a fresh beauty not before suspected. Few lines in contemporary poetry can match "an old shell with a new song inside it."

A native of Auckland, New Zealand, Mrs. Reeves warned her listeners that "the Pacific is my home. I've written a lot about the Pacific." Though the images she presents strongly convey the flavor of her distant native land, the message of her poetry is universal.

Guy Owen, author of the successful movie, "The Flim Flam Man," and a collected volume of poetry "The White Stallion and Other Poems," read only a couple of poems and then turned to prose, reading the opening pages of "Journal for Joedel," his new novel.

Owen observed the book was written as "my protest of what has been done to Indians in North Carolina." He said an impression had remained with him from his boyhood when he "first learned that a movie theater in Red Springs had at that time three sections, one for whites, one for blacks, and one for Indians."

The novel centers around Joedel, a half Indian boy, with the action taking place on a single day, August 15, 1933. The setting is one that will stir memories for many North Carolina readers, a tobacco farm in the depression years of the 30s.

In the few pages Owen read, he creates a marvelous evocation of sights, sounds, and smells associated with a tobacco barn in the curing season — pre-dawn stars, a dimly lit lantern, sleeping on a patchwork quilt, the pungent fragrance of burning resinous wood, and the careful watch on the golden leaf being cured.

Sam Ragan, the final poet appearing on the Friday night program, is today best known as editor and publisher of The Southern Pines Pilot newspaper. North Carolinians recall his writings as Literary Editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, where he was also book editor.

The author of a prize-winning volume of poetry, "The Tree In The Far Pasture," Ragan said "my feeling about poetry is that it is made up of bits, pieces, fragments, of sights and sounds and feelings."

Ragan read a number of short poems which afforded proof of this theory, poems that included lines such as "in the eyes of owls the darkness is kind;" "finding words for April mornings and winter nights;" and in the most moving of the poems he read, one entitled "Flannery O'Connor." Ragan remembers a remark made in a conversation when the late author was his house guest. Her comment about pet peacocks becomes in his poem a haunting plea . . . "they cry all night long, 'help me, help me.'"

ECU Poet in Residence Vernon Ward is to be commended for making arrangements to have this gifted quartet of poets on this program. It is to be hoped this can become a regular habit on campus. — Jerry Raynor

We pay to keep you out of the hospital.

There was a time when the only way you could have anything paid for by Blue Cross was to have it done in the hospital. You checked in for tests, you stayed there for days while they were being evaluated, and then maybe they'd discover that you didn't need hospital treatment after all. Or you might spend three weeks in a hospital recuperating, simply because you needed nursing care or therapy. Or an older member of your family might have to spend months in a hospital when care in a nursing home would be far less costly and much easier for all concerned.

Well, we've changed all that. With a new program that lets you have diagnostic tests and X-rays done in a doctor's office, or in the outpatient department of your hospital. We also have a home care program that lets you recuperate at home, and pays for a nurse to visit you. And a nursing home program that provides less expensive convalescent care.

What does it all mean? It means fewer hospital bills for everyone. It means more hospital beds for the people who really need them most. And best of all, it means you spend as little time as possible in the hospital. At Blue Cross and Blue Shield, we believe there's more to good health than just paying bills.

Ride To N.Y. For Protest

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — A busload of Negroes is on the way to New York City where the blacks plan to protest the business community's alleged lack of support for Negroes' causes.

Golden Frinks, field secretary for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the 40 blacks pulled out of Wilmington Sunday afternoon.

They were to take part in a march on Wall Street and the United Nations today, part of a national effort by the SCLC.

Hosea Williams, the SCLC program director, said Sunday the marches were part of a month-long effort to rally public opinion against "repression." Frinks said other targets of the campaign were hunger and the war in Southeast Asia.

A spokesman for the SCLC said the week-long New York phase of the campaign would include demonstrations against 300 companies that have business interests in South Africa, the white dominated country with an official segregation policy.

Meetings were planned with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Mayor John V. Lindsay, the spokesman said.

The campaign began last week with separate marches across the Southern states of Georgia, North Carolina, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and Virginia.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN
(© 1971, By The Chicago Tribune)
ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ
Q. 1—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠KQ6 ♥Q854 ♦K93 ♣732
Your partner opens with one heart. What is your response?
A.—Two hearts. Counting the one-point promotion for the queen of hearts, this hand appears to exceed the limits of a single raise which is 10 points. However, one point must be subtracted for the even distribution. Unless partner is able to act voluntarily, you need have no fears of missing a game.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠K965 ♥QJ3 ♦862 ♣K102
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1 ♦ 2 ♥ 2 ♣ ?
What do you bid?
A.—Pass. Partner's jump overcall is preemptive, and he should not be given any inducement to take a game subsequently. Your values are primarily of a defensive nature and may be sufficient to stop an adverse game.

Q. 3—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♥KJ93 ♦AKJ43 ♣K1086
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♦ 1 ♣ 1 NT Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Two hearts. This is not a reverse in the true sense of the word for the bidding has made it somewhat awkward to probe for a heart fit. Partner's free bid of one no trump may readily include a four-card heart suit. If not, and he returns to no trump, you may try clubs next.

Q. 4—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠Q82 ♥KQ98 ♦K52 ♣A106
Your partner has opened with one diamond. What is your response?
A.—One heart. Although an evenly balanced hand with 14 high card points normally calls for a direct bid of two no trump, this response should be avoided with a four-card major suit. A superior contract in hearts may be available and the suit prospects should be investigated first.

Q. 5—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠J ♥KJ3 ♦982 ♣Q96432
The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
1 ♥ Pass Pass Dble.
Pass ? Pass 3 ♣
What do you bid now?
A.—Three no trump. You've told your partner you have practically nothing and you bid two clubs. With your double stopper in hearts and the knowledge that your partner must have values in spades and diamonds in order to double, you must contract for a nine-trick game rather than a game in clubs.

Q. 6—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠7652 ♥Q10876 ♦109 ♣A3
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1 ♦ Dble. 2 ♦ ?
What do you bid?
A.—Two hearts. The hand is worth eight points—six points in high cards and two points for the two doubletons—which renders it a fairly good hand facing a takeout double.

Q. 7—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠7 ♥AK1097 ♦64 ♣QJ1074
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♥ Pass 1 ♥ Pass 2 ♥ Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Three clubs. Despite the fact that your hand is not rich in high card points, it has a very attractive distribution and contains the proper singleton. If partner happens to have the top clubs, there may be a chance for a slam. If partner does nothing drastic over your three-club bid, a return to four hearts will be made on the next round.

Q. 8—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠97 ♥96 ♦Q9753 ♣AKQ10
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♣ Pass 2 ♦ Pass 4 ♣ Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Five clubs. You have very close to an opening bid. Partner has opened the bidding and jumped, which should suggest slam. The recommended call is to show the club suit. If partner merely returns to five diamonds, you may retire, but he should be given some information as to where your chief values lie.

Worry Clinic Simple Tip For Dateless Girls

Doris was humiliated because she was a one-date coed! Despite the fact she was a Phi Beta Kappa brilliant scholar, she had missed the simple strategy called "romantic horn tooting." It works quickly, even if you are not a beauty queen. But you must learn to use the magician's strategy, too, when on a date!

By GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph. D., M.D.
Case Q-519: Doris M., aged 20, came to me in tears.
"Dr. Crane," she began, "I am what you call a one-date girl."
"Because I dress well and was runner-up in our campus beauty contest, I have had many dates with different boys."
"But they don't come back for a second date with me!"
"So what is wrong?"
"Is my technique at fault?"

Dating Strategy
Yes, Doris used the wrong strategy.
Like many other girls, she subconsciously evolved the old adage that we like to number important people among our friends.
So, on her first date, she'd tell her new boy friend all about her trip to Europe and her dad's Cadillac, plus the exotic places she had visited.
Alas, in so doing, she puffed her own ego but failed to inflate the pride of her escort.
"I WANT TO FEEL IMPORTANT" is engraved on every human chest at birth.
Doris was bluntly tooting her own horn and thereby inflating her own ego.
But she failed to toot the boy's horn!

Instead, a smart coed will tactfully toot the boy's horn by paying compliments and asking for his advice.
He then begins to think the girl is smart, so he will soon toot her horn by a reciprocal compliment.
Thus, both of them get their horns tooted!
And the music is always doubly sweet when somebody else is puffing on your horn for you.
Remember, all a wedding consists of is the union of two reciprocal horn-tooters who thus developed a tremendous attraction for each other, due to their desire to have the other member of the duo continue that delightful horn-tooting.

This technique is so simple that many smart college girls miss it, for the trend nowadays is to look for complicated, intricate strategy.
Many Phi Beta Kappa girls are thus without boy friends, while, the supposedly brainless girls are swamped with dates.
But the latter toot the boy's horn while many Phi Beta Kappa coeds fail to do so.
It is O. K., moreover, to toot your own horn occasionally on a date if you are deft and employ the magician's strategy.

The magician thus keeps your attention on one hand while he neatly performs his trick with the other.
In Chapter VI of my college textbook, "Psychology Applied," you can find how to use this magician's technique on dates, so borrow a copy of that book from your local library.
"Wasn't it sweet of Janet," Doris can casually ask, "to give me this hand-painted recipe box for my birthday?"
And Bill, her new escort, is kept focussing on that hand-painted box while subconsciously Doris has slipped this thought into his mind:
"I can cook or I wouldn't need a recipe box, would I?"
Later, when Bill's dad urges him to choose a girl who can cook, Bill can rise to the defense of Doris and say Doris is a good cook. Why?
Because Doris used the magician's strategy and implanted that sales point so deftly.

Teacher Pay Goal Not In Reach: Scott

RALEIGH (AP) — North Carolina Gov. Bob Scott says raising teacher pay is important, but it's not the main thrust of his administration's efforts to improve education.

Scott said over the years, most administrations have made increasing teacher salaries their top priority in improving the public schools.
"We are, in this administration, putting a little more emphasis on programs for children—not neglecting salaries by any means, knowing you've got to have good teachers," he said.

Scott's comments came Saturday in an interview with The that he didn't realize she was tooting her own horn meanwhile.

So send for my "Compliment Club" booklet, enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents, for it offers you the 5 surefire laws for tooting the other person's horn.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Raleigh News and Observer. They came the day after the governor received a slap from the North Carolina Education Association for his education budget.

Scott has recommended a 10 per cent salary hike for teachers in the 1971-73 biennium instead of the 30 per cent hike the NCAE is pushing for. At its convention in Charlotte Friday, the NCAE killed a resolution that expressed thanks to Scott "for his years of interest in public education."

Scott said the goal of raising teacher pay to the national average "is one to be desired and to keep working toward."

He said, "We need a goal, and that's a worthy one. It's one that, unfortunately, we

Arrest Two In Jetliner Scuffle

LONDON (AP) — Two Americans scuffled with antihijack marshals aboard a jetliner from Boston to London today and were arrested when the Boeing 707 landed safely in London.

Some of the 48 passengers aboard said they thought the men were trying to hijack the plane. But a spokesman for the airline, Pan American, said there had been no attempt to commandeer the aircraft.

The spokesman said one passenger, about 50 years old, began acting in an unseemly manner, shouting that he had a gun. He did not leave his seat.

MELTING POT
HONOLULU (UPI)—Hawaii employers have again been declared exempt from filing an annual federal report on minority employment which is required of businesses in the 49 other states.
The reason, says the Hawaii Employers Council, is that there are so many varied racial groups in Hawaii that no one in the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has been able to devise a form to include all of them.

GROW HOLE-FREE TOBACCO

One 2 lb. can of Lannate stops insect damage on up to 8 acres of tobacco

Insects hit directly by the spray begin falling minutes after spraying. Some LANNATE is absorbed into the plant, where it continues to kill insects as they feed. Yet LANNATE doesn't linger. It does its job and then breaks down into materials commonly found in nature.

LANNATE performs at low rates, and that means more for your money when you're buying insecticides. This unique formulation of water-soluble powder dissolves easily and contains no solvents to "burn" foliage. Remember—it's the worm that costs you money, not the insecticide. Start early and get a jump on the bugs.

As LANNATE is a highly toxic chemical and protective equipment is recommended, read and follow label instructions and warnings carefully.

The old idea that soybeans don't need fertilizer has turned out just like it sounded — too good to be true! As a matter of fact, soybeans are one of the heaviest feeders of all the commonly grown crops.

Of course, if you're content with yields of 20 to 30 bushels per acre or even less, it may take several years to use the plant nutrients that have accumulated in the soil from previous crop fertilization.

The chances are, if this is the case, you can add fertilizer and still get no yield increase.

Correct these limiting conditions though, and its going to take more fertilizer than you suspected to reach and maintain yields in the 50 to 60 bushel per acre range. Profit minded soybean producers are doing this now.

It's probable that the idea of soybeans not responding to fertilizer had its origin in the leguminous nature of this plant. Being a legume, it can supply its own nitrogen needs if it's properly nodulated, but that's where this amazing ability stops.

It can't supply its needs for lime, phosphorus, potassium or any of the trace elements. In fact, if these are not present in large enough amounts it can't even supply its own nitrogen needs.

What should be the growers rule for soybean fertilization for maximum profits? First, keep the soil PH at a level of at least 6.0 by a good liming program. Second, phosphorus and potassium in the soil should be maintained at a medium or preferable high level. You might expect a little more response than corn to phosphorus and a little less to potassium.

Research in North Carolina has shown that when the soil phosphorus is allowed to fall from a high to a medium level, yield of soybeans can drop four bushels per acre. When soil potassium falls from a high to a medium level, yield can drop off by five bushels per acre. A further reduction to a low soil level cut yields by eight bushels per acre.

Tobacco TIPS

By SAM J. WEEKS
Fertilizer injury to tobacco plant roots affects yield, value, stand, uniformity, earliness of growth, and cost of replanting. It is one of the most troublesome problems encountered in obtaining a stand of uniform plants in the field.

Nitrogen, potash and chlorine salts frequently "burn" the roots of the young tobacco plants when they are set too near the fertilizer. As a result of this, irregular growth and maturity results causing cultivating, harvesting, and curing to be more difficult.

To avoid fertilizer injury at transplanting time, be sure the roots of the tobacco plants are placed three to five inches from the fertilizer in the prepared bed.

Experiments and on-the-farm tests have shown that best stands of tobacco can be obtained by using band placement in two bands seven to eight inches apart about two inches below the roots of the plants, or by applying the fertilizer in one band deep. When the deep application is used, the fertilizer should be applied three to five inches below the plant roots.

If you desire to use a split application of mixed fertilizer, be sure to apply the second application as soon as possible after transplanting. At the latest, the second application should be applied within two weeks after transplanting.

Male Help Wanted
SALESMAN
We're Not Miracle Workers

We cannot take a man whose abilities are limited to $10,000, and train him to make twice that amount — but we can help a man who has a $20-$30,000 potential in achieving this financial level in a relatively short period of time (1-3 years).

The reason we can do so, is because the recession-proof quality products manufactured by Certified Laboratories are rapidly consumed and repeatedly used in all areas of industrial, institutional, municipal and commercial operations.

We look for the individual who has a record of success; an individual who is capable of directing his own activities; and individual who wants to be rewarded in direct proportion to his effort, but for reasons beyond his control, has limited possibilities in his present position.

If three is a similarity between you & what we are looking for, Certified Laboratories offers an outstanding opportunity, not miracles.

To arrange local interview: write for details including area code & phone number to:
David Miller

From National Home: This offer brings you $500.00-A-MONTH TAX-FREE CASH WHENEVER YOU GO TO THE HOSPITAL Examine policy in your own home at no risk—money refunded if not 100% satisfied!

- ★ Pays you cash at the rate of $500.00 a month for each hospital stay... even for life, if necessary.
- ★ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare.
- ★ Pays all cash direct to you (not to doctor or hospital).

- ★ Guaranteed Renewable for Life. National Home guarantees never to cancel your protection no matter how old you become or how many claims you have. In addition, your rates can never be changed unless there is a general rate adjustment on all policies of this type in your entire state.

No salesman will call—No medical examination required—No age limit

ACT NOW—YOUR APPLICATION FORM MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT, THURS., APRIL 22, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? Many have learned the hard way that public and private insurance pays only 40% of the nation's total medical care bill. What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in our National Home plan that...

Pays you $500.00-a-month tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have $500.00 cash coming in every month when you go to the hospital. You get your $500.00-a-month cash—tax-free—as long as you are confined in the hospital. You are covered from the very first day for accidents and from the sixth day for sickness—even for life, if necessary! Most everyone has some insurance or savings to take care of a one to five-day hospital stay. Since we provide lifetime benefits, this "deductible" feature enables us to give you broad coverage at a lower cost than would otherwise be possible.

Now, this low-cost plan from National Home enables you to enjoy this protection at once. Your special low rate is shown below; it is the same low premium you will continue to pay no matter how old you become or how many claims you have, unless there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this $500.00-a-month plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage or rent payments, to replace savings—or any necessary, but costly, expenses not covered by other hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why National Home developed this low-cost plan that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses.

- PAYS $500.00-A-MONTH CASH for each accident or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day in the hospital.
- PAYS $250.00-A-MONTH CASH FOR THE FIRST THREE MONTHS, AFTER YOU HAVE REACHED AGE 65. And a full $500.00-A-MONTH CASH thereafter—even for life. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day in the hospital.
- PAYS $300.00-A-MONTH CASH if a covered child is hospitalized for injury or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day in the hospital. And the benefits continue for as long as necessary.
- PAYS $2,000.00-A-MONTH CASH when both husband and wife (under age 65) are hospitalized at the same time for accidental injury for as long as both remain in the hospital—even for life, if necessary.
- PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for a registered nurse at home if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more. And your benefits continue for the same number of days that you were hospitalized—up to 12 full months.

We can never cancel your policy!

You can count on this wonderful protection no matter how old you become or how many times you collect from us. Your policy guarantees that we can never cancel your protection for any reason whatsoever. It is Guaranteed Renewable for Life! And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family—this policy (NH10-669)...

Pays you $300.00-a-month cash whenever any dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, all your unmarried dependent children from age one month through 18 years are covered, too! What's more, any newborn children you have in the future are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost to you. And whenever any of your children go to the hospital, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $300.00-a-month cash, for as long as necessary. Children are covered for accidents from the first day and for sickness from the sixth day.

Pays you tax-free cash Maternity Benefits, too.

With this plan, you can also collect cash at the rate of $500.00 a month for every day you are confined to the hospital for pregnancy, childbirth, or even miscarriage. You get this cash, which is yours to use as you see fit, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan. Of course, both parents must be enrolled in this plan for the entire period of pregnancy.

Pays you $400.00-a-month cash for a Registered Nurse at Home.

Here's a wonderful "get well" benefit of this National Home plan: You collect cash benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month when your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within five days after you come home, following a stay in the hospital of five days or more for which benefits were payable. You are paid for the same number of covered days that you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months!

Double Cash Accident Benefit!

When you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Home plan pays you an extraordinary double cash benefit. You receive not $500.00 but $1,000.00 a month. Your spouse receives not $500.00 but $1,000.00 a month. That's $2,000.00 in all, in cash payments to you every month (when under age 65) starting the day you enter the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

Pays you up to $2,000.00 cash for these accidental losses . . .

The accidental loss of limbs or eyesight can be terrible. But if such loss occurs any time within 90 days of the accident, you collect $1,000.00 for the complete loss of a hand or a foot or the sight of an eye—and $2,000.00 for loss of two limbs or the sight of both eyes.

Waiver of premium benefit.

Should you—the policyowner—be hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this National Home plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself. Then, if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, we will again pay any premiums while you are in the hospital—for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force.

THESE ARE THE ONLY EXCLUSIONS!

Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of outstanding protection you may have seen in Reader's Digest, Parents', National Geographic and other leading publications. The special plans offered by the National Liberty Corporation group of companies are today helping policyowners in all 50 states—and many foreign countries—paying benefits at the rate of more than $1,500,000.00 a month. In addition, our Company has a RECOMMENDED rating from Best's Insurance Reports, one of the foremost insurance authorities in the nation.

Fast, reliable claim service when needed most.

You never really know how good a policy is until you have to make a claim. That's why we think you'll be interested in what some of our National Home members have to say. Their comments—quoted below—are typical of the hundreds of expressions of appreciation we receive from policyowners every week . . .

"Received your checks totaling $585.68 for injury. I appreciated your kindness and promptness in the claim. It certainly came in handy and I had less worries knowing I had this protection. You certainly paid all the benefits stated in the policy without question."

MRS. ANGELA B. HARDY, Abbeville, Louisiana
"You folks were very prompt in sending the money when my wife went to the hospital for surgery. Thank you so much."

HAROLD DOVENBORG, Zanesville, Ohio
"I was more than satisfied with the way my claim was handled. One couldn't ask for better service and the 'get well soon' message was one of the nicest thoughts on your part. I thank you sincerely."

MARGUERITE LINDAU, Duluth, Minnesota

Why you must act before the date shown on your Application Form—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to enroll in this plan—only a few days? Because this is a mass Enrollment Plan, enrolling thousands of policyowners at one time. ALTHOUGH EVERY POLICY IS ISSUED THROUGH A LICENSED AGENT, ALL BUSINESS IS CONDUCTED DIRECTLY BETWEEN YOU AND THE COMPANY. No salesman will call. This highly efficient "mass enrollment" method enables us to give you the broadest coverage at the lowest cost.

As soon as we receive your Application Form we will rush your policy to you by First Class Mail. When your policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. It is a very short document and you'll be pleasantly surprised to see there is no fine print. Show it, if you wish, to your doctor, lawyer, insurance agent, or some other trusted advisor.

Here are your low rates.

The following rate chart shows how little it costs to cover yourself, your spouse and any adult dependent. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue you only one policy of this type. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Self	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	$2.95	$2.95
45-54	$3.40	$3.40
50-54	$3.75	$3.75
55-64	$4.35	$4.35

All dependent children ages 0-18: $1.55
Maternity Benefit: $1.15

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

Act NOW—"Later" May Be Too Late!

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.) Get your Application Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT THIS NATIONAL HOME PLAN

- 1. How much will I be paid when I go to the hospital?
You will receive cash at the rate of $500.00 a month ($16.67 a day). Once you have reached 65 years of age, you collect (in addition to any Medicare benefits) $250.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $500.00 monthly while you remain continuously hospitalized thereafter. And you collect cash for an accident even if you're in the hospital for only one day. Coverage for illness begins the sixth day—and benefits are paid in full for as long as you're hospitalized... even for life, if necessary.
- 2. Do you pay me cash when my children go to the hospital?
You collect cash at the rate of $300.00 a month whenever any of your children (age 1 month through 18 years) go to the hospital—if Coverage for Children is added to the basic plan. Coverage for accidents begins on the first day—sickness on the sixth day. And if you have a growing family—as soon as any newborn child is one month old, he, too, is covered—automatically... at no additional cost.
- 3. When do I start to collect hospital benefits?
This new plan (NH10-669) covers you from the very first day for accidents and from the sixth day for sickness—even for life, if necessary! Most everyone has some insurance or savings to take care of one to five-day hospital stay. Since we provide lifetime benefits, this "deductible" feature enables us to give you broad coverage at a lower cost than would otherwise be possible.
- 4. Will you pay me cash benefits for pregnancy?
Yes, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan. You collect cash at the rate of $500.00 a month for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay. (Both parents have to be enrolled in this plan for entire pregnancy period.)
- 5. Suppose I'm hospitalized for a long time and can't meet my premium payments?
If you—the policyowner—are hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this National Home plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. You aren't expected to pay us back, either.
- 6. Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover?
Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers everything except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; confinements within a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.
- 7. What are the requirements to enroll in this National Home plan?
You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and to qualify during this Enrollment Period—you must enroll before midnight of the date shown on the Application Form.
- 8. Besides saving money—are there any other advantages to joining this plan during this Enrollment Period?
Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a lengthy, detailed questionnaire—just the brief Application Form in the corner of this page. Also, during this Enrollment Period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
- 9. How do I join?
Fill out the brief Application Form and mail it with your first month's protection for your entire family. Mail to our licensed North Carolina resident agent: Mr. Ernest E. Tucker, Jr., National Home, 1301 East Morehead St., Charlotte, North Carolina 28200.

MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

We will send your National Home policy by mail. Examine it carefully in the privacy of your own home. Show it, if you wish, to your own insurance agent, doctor, lawyer or other trusted advisor. If you decide, for any reason, that you don't want to continue as a member of this plan, return the policy within 15 days of the date you receive it, and we will promptly refund your money. Meanwhile, you will be fully protected while making your decision!
