Big Pay Safety Awards To Hike By 11 Firms In Pitt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Almost tripling the figure asked by President Nixon, the Senate has voted servicemen a $2.7-billion raise, including a 125-percent pay hike for recruits.

By a vote of 51 to 27, the Senate Tuesday reversed an earlier endorsement of the Nixon administration's $1-billion pay boost and approved an amendment by Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., adding another $1.7 billion.

The Senate acted two weeks after rejecting a proposal containing about the same amount of money but dividing it as the House had, between extra pay and allowances.

A recruit would get $301.50 in basic monthly pay under the Senate bill, compared with $268.50 in the House version, $201.90 under the administration plan and $134.40 under the existing pay scale.

The Senate bill raises the minimum pay for the lowest ranking officer from the current $450.60 a month to $612.30.

The Allott amendment uses pay scales drawn up by the Gates Commission, which was appointed by President Nixon and came out in favor of an all-volunteer force. The administration says it hopes to switch to such a force by mid-1973 but Armed Service Committee chairman Sen. John C. Stennis says he doubts that will be possible.

Several hours before passing the pay raise, the Senate agreed to vote next Wednesday on the McGovern-Hatfield amendment to cut off funds for U.S. operations in Indochina Dec. 31, and to vote June 23 on a move to limit debate on the rest of the draft bill.

Following approval of the Allott amendment, the Senate rejected 63 to 15 a proposal by Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, to keep the statute of limitations for prosecuting draft evaders at five years from the youth's 18th birthday. The bill makes a registrant liable for prosecution up to age 31 instead of 23.

The North Carolina Department of Labor has awarded 11 Pitt County establishments a "certificate of safety achievement" in recognition of their work in preventing industrial accidents during 1970.

Receiving awards this week were The Daily Reflector and Union Carbide, for the sixth consecutive year; Phelps Chevrolet and Blount Fertilizer Co., fifth year; Chapin Construction Co., fourth year; Collins & Alkman Corp., second year; Vermont American Corp., Unichem Inc., N.C. Equipment Co., Coca Cola Bottling Co., and Carolina Dairy Products, first year.

The awards were presented by S.L. Blaylock of Rocky Mount, the Labor Department's area supervising inspector, in behalf of State Labor Commissioner Frank Crane.

Blaylock said that the safety awards program is based upon several standards. Industrial plants, he said, which operate for an entire year without a disabling injury are eligible on the basis of their perfect safety records.

In addition, plants which achieve a 40 per cent reduction in their rate of disabling injuries during a year also have made a significant safety accomplishment, the representative pointed out, and are eligible for an award.

Blaylock added that plants which operate 50 per cent or more below the statewide disabling injury frequency rate for their industry likewise are making a safety accomplishment which qualifies them for an award.

Senate Reapportioning Plan Trims Districts

By MELVIN LANG
Associated Press Writer

RALEIGH (AP) — A legislative subcommittee unveiled a "preliminary draft" of its Senate reapportionment plan today, showing a list that cuts from 33 to 28 the number of districts across the state.

The plan discussed by Sen. F. O'Neil Jones, D-Anson, marks a shifting of representation inland from the mountains and the coast, following the flow of population as reflected by the 1970 census.

Jones, chairman of a Senate General Assembly Redistricting subcommittee, said the proposal was picked by his six-man group as the best of more than 100 plans considered during the last six weeks.

"This is something we're putting on the blackboard for people to come in and talk to us about," he said.

Jones said the subcommittee would start hearings on the Senate realignment July 15, continuing until it was satisfied all pertinent testimony had been heard.

The draft sets a population norm of 101,641 persons per senator. The greatest deviation from that would be in the proposed 11th District — Person, Granville and Durham counties — with 95,679 for each of two senators, or 5.87 per cent below the norm, and in the proposed 22nd District — Cabarrus and Mecklenburg, with 107,321 persons for each of four senators, or 5.59 per cent above the norm.

"We've tried to come up with a plan that has no partisan or gerrymandering overtones," Jones said.

He said the subcommittee approved the proposal earlier this week to get a working plan before it, doing so with the presumption it would have to survive a possible court test.

The plan is the first offered for the Senate. The House already has approved its redistricting plan for the 1973 session.

Help For Ex-Prisoners

GREENSBORO (AP) — Gov. Bob Scott today announced two new projects to help ex-convicts from North Carolina prisons find jobs.

Scott said 15 youthful offenders at the Davie County correctional facility have begun classes in general carpentry under a job training program funded by the National Association of Home Builders. After the eight-week training program, the state's Jobs for Ex-Offenders Program will help find the youths jobs with Tar Heel home builders.

And, he said, "Within a month, a 'Concentrated Employment Program' will be launched in this area of the state under a grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the U.S. Department of Justice."

He said the program would stress motivation development, help locate suitable jobs for ex-offenders and provide post-release counseling.

"Teaching a man how to live in prison does not teach him how to live in a free community where he must make his own decisions," Scott said. "He needs help in solving personal problems which can make it difficult for him to adjust to his new environment."

The federally-funded program will be carried out in the 12 prison units in Alamance, Caswell, Davidson, Davie, Forsyth, Guilford, Rockingham, Randolph, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin counties.

Scott, in a speech prepared for a luncheon of the Piedmont Associated Industries, said that currently some 1,000 prisoners are released into Tar Heel communities each month.

Sutton was also reelected to the chairmanship last month but his appointed term of office expired during the month.

The new chairman joined the authority in 1962 and was reappointed at the end of his first five-year term to another tenure on the commission. Currently in his ninth year on the board, his second term is scheduled to expire in 1972.

Sutton had been on the board since 1961 and completed two five-year terms in May. Former Mayor Frank Wooten named Dallas McPherson, local attorney, to the board in May to fill the position vacated by Sutton. The attorney attended his first session of the authority Monday night.

Other officers remain in their positions following annual elections last month. Col. AE Dubber is secretary-treasurer and serves both the Housing Authority and Redevelopment Commission as executive director. J. C. Lamm is assistant director.

According to the tenant occupancy report, submitted to the authority by the director of tenant affairs, Mrs. Sallye C. Streeter, all 65 units in N.C. 22-1 (Meadowbrook) were rented as of the first of the month. Residents in Meadowbrook paid an average of $37.95 in rent.

Mrs. Streeter reported that residents in N.C. 22-2 (Kearney Park) paid an average rent of $43.35 during the month. All 180 units in the area were occupied at the first of the month.

In N.C. 22-3 (Moyewood), the 188 available units were rented and families living in the area paid $43.71 rent. Average rent in N.C. 22-4 (Moyewood) was $43.50, the director reported, with all 40 units in occupancy.

Mrs. Streeter said in her report that the various neighborhood organizations have begun their annual clean-up campaigns and work is underway in most of the areas.

Dubber told commissioners that more information is expected concerning the state's acceptance of the federal government's uniform holiday system. He said it could effect some changes in legal holiday dates for the commission but noted that the authority would observe dates adopted by the city.

On one other item on the short agenda, the executive director said that representatives of the city, utilities commission, telephone company, and an urban renewal planner met with authority personnel May 19 for a pre-engineering conference on the Newtown project.

Warren Calls For 'Restructuring'

By NOEL YANCEY
Associated Press Writer

RALEIGH (AP) — Former State Sen. Lindsay Warren urged the General Assembly today to restructure higher education in North Carolina as proposed by the majority of the Warren Committee and to "do it now."

Warren told the legislature's joint committee on higher education that the plan calling for placing the 16 higher education institutions under a single board of regents with separate boards of trustees for each institution "is sound."

In urging action immediately, Warren indicated he would not like to see higher education restructuring become an issue in the next political campaign.

But he urged that whatever plan is adopted should be made part of the state constitution "to protect the system from improper executive or legislative interference."

Warren's appearance before the legislative committees marked the beginning of hearings on the Warren Committee recommendations which were strongly supported by Gov. Bob Scott in an appearance before the General Assembly two weeks ago.

Warren also indicated he feels that to put the plan into effect next Oct. 1 as proposed by the governor would be too soon.

He said he was "concerned over transitional problems and 'it is doubtful whether early implementation will be conducive to an orderly transition.'"

The former senator also expressed the opinion that a 100-member board of regents for the new higher education structure as recommended by the Warren Committee majority would be too large.

"For an operating board, I think it should be smaller," he said, "even smaller" than the 47-member board recommended by the governor.

Warren expressed great disappointment that the Warren Committee which he headed had divided in its recommendations with 13 members supporting the majority report and 8 voting for the minority.

The majority report would place the 16 institutions under the board of regents for coordination of budgets and allocation of programs but would leave the governance of the institutions to their individual boards of trustees. This would demand breaking up the consolidated University of North Carolina and abolishing the state board of higher education.

The Warren Committee minority would simply strengthen powers of the state Board of Higher Education.

Warren told the legislators that all the members of his committee "are in agreement that increased power and authority must be given to the state-level coordinating body, whatever structure is agreed upon."

Warren recalled that during the deliberations of his committee he had recommended a compromise plan to continue the present structure of higher education and give the Board of Higher Education "powers and duties substantially similar to those now proposed for the board of regents."

He said he felt it would not solve all the state's higher education problems because it would continue the dual structure setup of the consolidated university and the Board of Higher Education.

But, he said such a mandate to the Board of Higher Education "would give it renewed vigor and strength to deal effectively with the graduate degree problem and to plan and coordinate institutional budgets. In my opinion, the powers proposed in the minority report will not do this."

So, Warren suggested to the legislators that if they become "deadlocked between the two positions now being urged upon you, you may wish to turn to this alternative, yet realizing that the structural problem will still remain."

Warren said his committee seemed to agree that in any plan to restructure higher education "we've got to find some way to protect the crown jewels."

He said "crown jewels" meant the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina State University and to some extent the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

"They are the crown jewels," Warren said. "Make no mistake about that."

"They are the best we've got. Many think they are the best in the South," he said.

"I did not chair the committee to destroy anything," Warren said, certainly not the University of North Carolina.

Mecklenburg Bill To Floor

RALEIGH (AP) — Legislation to authorize a referendum on Mecklenburg on the sale of liquor by the drink cleared a House committee by an 11-1 vote today and headed for a showdown on the House floor.

There was little discussion as the House Alcoholic Beverage Control Committee approved the Senate-passed bill in less than five minutes.

"I imagine the train is running," said Rep. Joe Hege, R-Davidson, who voted against the bill. "I think it is more than just a local bill."

The measure, sponsored by Sens. Herman Moore, Jack Baugh and Eddie Knox, all of Mecklenburg, would authorize a referendum on petition signed by 15 per cent of the voters in Mecklenburg.

The Senate amended the bill to permit the sale of liquor by the drink in restaurants seating 50 persons or more instead of 36.

Two issues would be submitted to Mecklenburg voters. On the first issue, they would vote for or against mixed drinks. Then on the second issue they would vote for or against brown bagging if the mixed drink question is approved.

"I haven't heard from any organization opposed to this," Rep. Hugh Campbell, D-Mecklenburg, told the committee members.

The committee action came so quick that Hege just arrived before the vote was taken. After Hege registered his opposition, Rep. Howard Penton, D-New Hanover, said "The people ought to have the right to vote on this."

Earlier this session, the General Assembly approved a bill to permit a referendum in Moore County on the sale of liquor by the drink.

Moore includes the resort towns of Pinehurst and Southern Pines. The bill including Moore County would permit the sale of mixed beverages in restaurants seating 36 or more persons.

The Mecklenburg measure passed the Senate by 27-14.

Larger Budget Is Presented To Winterville

WINTERVILLE — The Winterville Town Board Monday night accepted a tentative budget of $243,100 for the 1971-72 fiscal year to be approved at the July board meeting.

The budget, if adopted, represents an increase of $32,195 over last year's budget of $210,905.

No tax rate changes will go into effect for the coming year, according to Town Clerk Elwood Nobles. The present tax rate of $1.25 per $100 will remain the same.

McDavid Associates of Farmville was employed to prepare the Powell Bill maps and the firm of Worsley, Farley and Prescott was employed to audit the 1971-72 books.

Board members agreed to have the vacant lots and ditches within the town limits mowed and charge the owner for the work.

A contract for one year was signed with Matthew Best Jr. for the collection of the garbage in Winterville, beginning July 1. Mayor Walter Dail appointed Calvin Anderson to be the local government representative and E. C. Hines as the local police representative to the Policy Committee of the Mid-East Law Enforcement Planning Division of the Mid-East Economic Development Committee.

Town Clerk Nobles was appointed to membership to the Mid-East District of the North Carolina State Planning Region Q.

The Board agreed to put the rescue truck in the name and jurisdiction of the Winterville Rescue Squad to make the unit eligible for a state grant.

The board accepted a petition from a group of Winterville citizens residing in the Cooper Street-Laurel Lane section asking not to be annexed into the Winterville town limits.

The petition, presented to the board by Gene Manning, showed 100 percent participation of the citizens living in the area to be annexed.

The board accepted the petition but no action was taken by the board.

Board members changed the water tap fee from $75 to $90 and the sewer fee from $60 to $75 inside the town limits. The price outside the town is double.

James Cheatham III, representing the owners of the W.S. Moye property located near Pitt Technical Institute, appeared before the board to inquire whether or not water and sewer lines could be extended to the property for the establishment of a trailer court.

The new trailer court would have 130 lots. No action was taken.

Mayor Dail was authorized to sign a contract with the Seaboard Coastline Railroad for the installation of eight inch sewer lines under the railroad tracks located near the Gaylord property in North Winterville. The project is scheduled to begin in the near future.

Dr. John Wooten Elected Chairman Of Housing Authority

By TOM BAINES

Dr. John L. Wooten, Greenville physician, was elected chairman of the Housing Authority Monday night, succeeding James E. Sutton who left the commission in May.

An orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Wooten served several years as vice chairman under Sutton and was reelected at the May meeting for another one year term in that seat.

Sutton was also reelected to the chairmanship last month but his appointed term of office expired during the month.

The new chairman joined the authority in 1962 and was reappointed at the end of his first five-year term to another tenure on the commission. Currently in his ninth year on the board, his second term is scheduled to expire in 1972.

She's Proud Of 'The Grandson'

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have six daughters. Never had any boys, but all the girls are nice. My wife gets along fine with everybody. She has never said a mean word about anybody, and she won't listen to gossip. I have a pretty good job, and our home is paid for. So what's my problem? Our eldest daughter got married and she had a baby boy. When our son in law called and told us we had a GRAND-SON I had to help my wife sit down.

The baby can't even sit up yet and my wife has bought him shirts with "I love grandma" on the front. She also went to the jewelry store and had them put her grandson's picture on some earrings and a pin. [Have you ever seen earrings and a pin with a fat boy's picture on them?] This may seem petty to you, but I wonder if she hasn't lost her mind?

GRANDPA

DEAR GRANDPA: After six girls, I don't blame her.

DEAR ABBY: What can you say to a 25-year-old daughter who has decided to live with her boy friend?

We brought Maria up as a moral Catholic. Her boy friend is of the same faith. He and his wife are legally separated. They have three children.

I have tried to tell Maria that if her friend really loved her he would get a divorce and marry her. We have other children, but Maria is the oldest and the apple of her father's eye. This affair is just about killing us. Until this happened Maria never gave us any trouble. We were so proud of her. She graduated from college with honors. Now she teaches retarded children.

We are so ashamed to face family and friends, we refuse all social events. I know Maria reads your column. Maybe there is something you can say to her. I've tried everything I know. Thank you.

MARIA'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I have nothing to say to Maria because she didn't ask me for any advice, but I have something to say to you, Mother: You reared your daughter to the best of your ability, and from your letter I would say you did a commendable job. Maria is an adult now, and you are not responsible for her decisions. Those who know you and love you will not think less of you because of your daughter's actions. Hold your head high, and if anyone attempts to needle you, say: "She is our daughter and we love her, even tho we disagree on many things."

DEAR ABBY: I have seen several letters in your column lately about an operation called the "vasectomy" which is done on a man in order to prevent him from getting a woman pregnant.

As a male, I object! If a woman doesn't want to get pregnant, let HER have an operation.

We men sacrifice enough, fighting wars and supporting kids and females, without submitting to castration. Very truly yours,

ALL MAN [FOREVER]

DEAR ALL MAN: It takes more of a "man" to submit to surgery than to ask his wife to do it.

DEAR ABBY: I am a domestic employe for a very prominent family and I realize that I must keep myself clean and tidy at all times, which I most certainly do.

I am a member of a church club and every Christmas the women swap gifts. Last Christmas I got a bottle of deodorant! The lady who gave it to me is a very nice person and I can't imagine why she would give me such a gift. I would never give a gift like that to anybody.

Will you please tell me what to do with the deodorant?

Flavored with a spice popular in Scandinavia.

¾ cup snipped pitted dates, not packed down

1 cup unsifted flour, stir to aerate before measuring

¼ teaspoon baking soda

1-16th teaspoon salt

¼ teaspoon ground cardamom

6 tablespoons butter or margarine

½ cup firmly packed light brown sugar

1 large egg

½ cup coarsely chopped walnuts

Mix dates with ¼ cup flour separating date pieces. Thoroughly stir together the remaining ¾ cup flour, baking soda, salt and cardamom. Cream butter and sugar; beat in egg; gradually stir in flour mixture, date mixture and walnuts. Drop rounded teaspoonsful of dough, 2 inches apart, on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until golden brown—about 12 minutes. Cool on wire rack. Makes about 3 dozen.

Doctor Gives Unpopular Recipe

VITTEL, France (WNS) — Dr. Michel Pequignot, the women's health specialist, told ladies attending the Food and Work convention here that the 45-year-old working women who remains thin will accomplish more than most 21-year-old men. He recommended a light, 20-minute lunch in order to raise the afternoon level of work. In addition, he suggested snack "pauses" in mid-morning and mid-afternoon, plus more milk to go with the traditional coffee-and-croissants French breakfast. And no alcoholic drinks until evening. The Frenchwomen, who are accustomed to two-hour lunch periods, were not enthusiastic.

Miss Nancy Owens Weds Vernon L. Sutphin Jr.

PLYMOUTH — The marriage of Miss Nancy Leigh Owens of Greenville to Vernon Leroy Sutphin Jr. of West End took place on Sunday at 4:15 p.m. at the First Christian Church here.

The church was decorated with lighted candelabras and basket of white gladioli, snapdragons and white daisies. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Paul G. Wiesner, organist, and Miss Julie Harris of Kinston who sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The Rev. Charles P. Brooks officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parent of the bride is Mrs. Joyce Harris Owens of Greenville, formerly of Plymouth. The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Leroy Sutphin Sr. of West End.

Given in marriage by her brother, Steven Lee Owens of Atlanta, Ga., the bride wore a formal length white dotted swiss gown styled with an empire bodice and demi-bell A-line skirt. Venise lace formed the high neckline and accentuated the bib design in the front. Tiny satin buttons centered the bib effect. Matching Venise lace trimmed the cuffs of the long sleeves and edge the hemline and attached chapel train.

She wore a formal length mantilla edged in matching Venise lace. She carried a nosegay of miniature white carnations, baby's breath and stephanotis with her prayer-book. Maid of honor was Miss Deborah Joyce Owens of Greenville, sister of the bride. She wore a Juliet styled gown of navy blue voile with empire bodice and long sheer sleeves with a white lace veskit. She wore a white wide brim garden hat with navy streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Stephen Lee Owens of Atlanta, Ga., sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Chris Sutphin of West End, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Ann Tharrington of Fayetteville, cousin of the bride. Their attire was identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried long-stemmed daisies with mid-length streamers.

Miss Renee Deloach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jo Deloach of Greenville, was flower girl also dressed identical to the other attendants and carried a basket of rose petals.

Jackie Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cox of Greenville, was ring bearer.

The father of the bridegroom served as best man. Ushers were Jad Mahaley of Wilson, Bill Wilson of Greenville, Richard Sutphin of Eagle Springs, Neil Sutphin, brother of the bridegroom, of West End.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua dress fashioned with long, full sleeves and a sleeveless coat with matching accessories and a white orchid. The bridegroom's mother selected a pale yellow dress with matching accessories. She wore a purple orchid.

The bride's grandmother wore a dress of beige designed with lace panels in front and used matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. C. L. Brown of Plymouth. She wore a turquoise dress trimmed in white cut beads with matching accessories.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride wore an ensemble of a gray and white dress with matching sleeveless coat and white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride has been associated with the Inhalation Therapy Department of Pitt Memorial Hospital, Greenville. The bridegroom is a graduate of East Carolina University and is now serving with the U.S. Army stationed at Fort Hood, Tex.

The couple will make their home in Killen, Tex.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by Mrs. Joyce H. Owens, mother of the bride, in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth with a lace border and centered with an arrangement of white and yellow flowers flanked by a silver candelabra holding lighted candles.

Mrs. Thomas R. Harris served the three tier wedding cake after the bride and bridegroom cut the first slice. Mrs. Jack Horton of Raleigh poured punch.

Miss Kelly Joseph of Benson presided at the bride's book. Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. James Boyce of Plymouth.

An after-rehearsal dinner was held Saturday night at the Beef Barn in Greenville given by the parents of the bridegroom. Guests were members of the wedding party.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ashby Martin of Chesapeake, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Lee, to Joseph Lynn Hatch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt L. Hatch of Norfolk and Virginia Beach, Va., and grandson of Mrs. Sadie Hatch of Ayden. The wedding will take place June 20.

Before leaving for vacation, store all valuable papers in a safe place.

Long-Range Planning Helpful

A preliminary capital improvements budget compiled for the city by the Community Planning office in Washington, N.C. appears to be a sound and conservative approach to municipal expansion for the next six years.

The preliminary budget calls for expenditures of $2,160,860 for such things as public recreation and parks, fire protection, police protection, public works, recreation and city hall remodeling.

Included are plans for two new fire stations, $140,000 for remodeling of city hall, a police substation, parks acquisitions and improvements, a swimming pool and various equipment for municipal departments.

The plans, of course, are not final and carrying out the projected budget will depend on the availability of funds each year as the City Council determines the budget. However, the City Council should find the long range budget planning helpful as they draw up the budgets.

It appears to us that most of the needs outlined for the police, public works and fire departments are those which will have to be met, if the city has the growth that is expected during the years between now and 1976.

We would be particularly happy to see the program outlined for recreation and parks carried out during the period. The projected budget would give early priority to continued development of the Evans Park on Hooker Road and the Town Commons park area. Early development of the Hardee property and purchase of the Eppes gym for recreation use would also get early attention.

Since the properties are already acquired or available we agree that they should be developed as rapidly as possible.

Greenville is expected to develop rapidly over the next five years and this preliminary capital improvements budget can serve as a guide to the City Council and city planners in seeing that municipal services keep up with the growth.

Unemployment Rate Is Cause For Concern

The 6.2 percent unemployment rate reported by the government last week should be a cause for concern for the nation.

The figures showed that Negroes were particularly hit with the rate for this group at 10.5 percent, highest in eight years.

With the unemployment rate running at such heights it seems likely that many people who sincerely want work are not able to find it.

Reducing the level of unemployment should be a top priority item for the government.

Retaliation By White House

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — The White House is planning subtle but painful retaliation against Southern Democratic Congressmen who deserted President Nixon and Special revenue-sharing: easing its pressure against a pending civil rights bill.

This connotes a new hardness by President Nixon's tacticians in dealing with their covert Southern comrades. Their clear message: the old Republican-Southern Democratic coalition must be a two-way street.

Mr. Nixon got precious little Southern help last Wednesday when the House rejected, 202 to 183, his special revenue-sharing scheme (pushed hard by Republican Rep. Marvin Esh of Michigan) to give the states a $1.75 billion package of manpower retraining money and then passed the Democratic leadership's $5 billion for public service jobs. Fifteen Southern Democratic Congressmen, who supported the Nixon proposal in a procedural vote two weeks earlier, flipped.

The reason for the flip-flops, aside from ingrained Southern Bred and butter liberalism, was personal lobbying by the new House Democratic leadership team: Speaker Carl Albert of Oklahoma and Majority Leader Hale Boggs of Louisiana. After a succession of defeats, they went all out, Albert alone making no fewer than 30 personal visits to Southern pals and switching such Dixie stalwarts as Mississippi's Jamie Whitten and Florida's Robert Sikes.

But the cost to the Southerners may be high: a bill giving the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) tough powers it has long sought to obtain court enforcement of job desegregation.

Until Wednesday's vote on the job bill, the White House had been counted on to battle arm-in-arm with Southerners for a milder Republican substitute. Now, however, while still giving lip service to the substitute, Presidential operatives will pass up the EEOC fight, enhancing prospects for the tough bill—an object lesson to the Southerners.

A footnote: Second only to the 15 Southern Congressmen on the present White House blacklist are Washington-based lobbyists for national municipal organizations who collaborated with Speaker Albert in pushing the Democratic jobs bill. Presidential aides informed the municipal lobbyists, in some heat, that passage of the special revenue-sharing bill would have pushed forward their major project: the $5 billion general revenue-sharing proposal.

Dobrynin's Save A potentially harmful split between Washington and Moscow over wording of the new strategic arms limitation agreement was neatly finessed on the day of the announcement when Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin backed the White House version over Radio Moscow's.

During their first briefing in the White House on what President Nixon called "significant development" breaking the SALT deadlock, skeptical reporters noted a

Strength For Today

HE WANTS TO SET US RIGHT

Let any group in the nation get too much power and we are in for trouble. No matter how just their cause, it must be advocated in a loving and lawful spirit. Sometimes people with the best of intentions fall into evil and violent methods, bringing some good cause to the attention of their contemporaries.

This is a mistake. The way to show our love of country is by supporting everything good and standing with determination against everything evil. Good causes can never be supported and advanced with violence, turmoil and disorder. The way to advance the cause of goodness is by practicing goodness in every aspect of life. We cannot support good causes with a spirit of evil in our minds, emotions and the programs we cherish for world betterment.

"The world is too much with us, Getting and spending we lay waste our powers."

Let us change that a bit. The world is too much with us,

Intolerance and violence Jealousy and anger Agree with me or get ready for a fight.

You're ignorant and stupid. Your ideas are nonsense. I'll set you right if you stop talking and listen.

You're a drop-out. Don't shout. I can hear you. Give me just sixty seconds and I'll show you how wrong your ideas can be.

Now listen . . .

Wedding Cake Expert

WASHINGTON — The one thing you can say about CBS News is that it always goes with the experts. When Neil Armstrong and his crew took off for the moon, they hired Wally Schirra to sit next to Walter Cronkite and provide an astronaut's knowledge of what was happening.

Last week CBS announced it had hired Lynda Bird Johnson Robb to handle the color commentary for Tricia Nixon's wedding. At the same time the broadcasting company also signed up Miss Betty Crocker to do the commentary on the wedding cake.

The decision was made after the controversy over the baking of the cake became the major issue of the wedding and dwarfed the actual marriage ceremony.

Miss Crocker will be seated next to Walter Cronkite during the nuptials. "Good evening. This is Walter Cronkite and seated next to me at Mission Control is Betty Crocker. We are now waiting word if Tricia Nixon and Eddie Cox completed the first part of their mission, which was to get married. As you know, the couple has been blacked out on the dark side of the White House, and all we can do is sit here and hope and pray everything will turn out all right. Betty, after the couple completes the marriage vows, what will be the next step?"

"Walter, the next step is when they come out of the camera blackout; Tricia and Eddie will have to cut the wedding cake. This could be a very dangerous moment, although the couple has practiced it many times."

"Betty, we have in our studio a 7-foot replica of the wedding cake. Would you explain to the audience what problems Tricia and Eddie will have to contend with?"

"Well, Walter, as you can see, the wedding cake is very high, weighs 350 pounds and has four tiers of pound cake and two dummy tiers of cardboard. The trick here is for Tricia and Eddie to cut into the pound cake without disturbing the dummy tiers. If Tricia were to miscalculate by a quarter of an inch and cut into the dummy tiers, the whole cake could fall down, and people would have to eat it off the floor."

"That's something I imagine Tricia and Eddie don't even want to think about, Betty. What are the other hazards they face in this crucial moment of the wedding?"

"Walter, the wedding cake has obviously been tested in rehearsal, but no one is quite sure what will happen when the couple actually cuts into the real one. Some experts predict that the inside will ooze out as soon as the crust is penetrated."

"Could this oozing be fatal, Betty?"

Public Forum

(Letters submitted for public forum must be limited to 300 words)

To The Editor:

I recently attended the Commencement Exercises of the J.H. Rose High School Graduation class. I was very impressed with both student speakers Rhonda Banks and Alex Allen. Their speeches held the interest of the audience and showed a great deal of preparation. This made one realize that at least some of our students are graduating from public schools with qualifications to be leaders.

I was not aware until Dr. Cleetwood and Mr. Alligood began to read the names of the graduating class that there was a complete difference in attitude now as opposed to a few years ago. I was very embarrassed and concerned with the remarks that were shouted by other students and adults in the audience. At times the remarks laughter and applause prevented us from hearing the names of the seniors as they were being announced. If these people had no respect for Dr. Cleetwood and Mr. Alligood who were awarding the degrees they would at least have respect for all the students that were graduating. I got the direct impression that this exercise could easily turn into a popularity contest in which we would see which student would get the most support from the audience.

It might be wise for the administration to issue a limited amount of invitations to the commencement exercise in future years. This may help retain the dignity of the graduation exercises that I think the most graduating students deserve and expect.

Yours truly
W.C. Taylor Jr.

Perhaps Ethnic Jokes Needed

By ELMER ROESSNER

It might be good for America to restore the ethnic joke. The ethnic joke, now a national taboo, was one of the fires under the melting pot that made America cohesive and great.

And today the United States is splattering into a divided mess. Once there was an effort to split the nation into a United States and a Confederate States. Today there are those demanding a Black State, a Spanish State, an Independent Indian Nation and, possibly, a women's lib matriarchy called Amazonia.

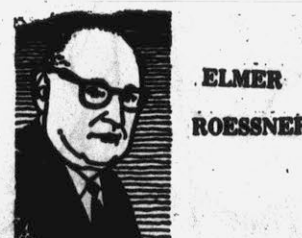

The force and the effect of the ethnic joke cannot be over-estimated.

It had a tremendous effect upon the immigrant. It made him conform; it made him want to be a Yankee Doodle Dandy and, thank God, it did.

It was not a cruel prod. Some, perhaps many, resented it. But generally those who were poked fun at enjoyed the jape, laughed at themselves and moved toward the center of the great stream that was becoming America.

Everybody In It No one was immune in the age of the ethnic joke. Before television replaced vaudeville, every circuit had its ethnic acts, divided among the racial groups in its audience.

There were the German comics — Kolb and Dill were perhaps the most famous — and the most responsive audiences were Germans. There were Jewish comics, and some survive, but they have to be Jewish themselves. An Irish comic telling Jewish jokes might find himself in trouble if he could get a booking.

There were Mexican, Polish, British, French, Italian comics. And, even some efforts toward Japanese and Chinese comics.

There were black face minstrels, too, but most of them were white, and while they traded on the Negro's lack of education and his simplicity, they rarely reflected the warmth and charm of the Negro, as some of the black comics today.

The Backlash Then the theory was advanced that ethnic jokes were demeaning. Associations were formed to prevent the telling of jokes about Hot-tentots, Senecas, Sudanese and whomever. Threats of boycotts frightened most comics and most cartoonists. Today the rules are: a Negro can tell a black joke but a white can't; a Jew can tell a Jewish joke but a Christian small but important variation between the White House text and the English version made available by Tass, the Soviet news agency.

Fearful that the highly-publicized announcement of the agreement by the President would be fatally undermined by this discrepancy, a high U.S. official was ordered by Mr. Nixon to telephone Dobrynin and ask for an immediate fix of the Soviet version.

The normally glib Dobrynin was momentarily speechless. How could he, sitting in Washington, possibly correct Radio Moscow? The high official said the matter was regarded as extremely urgent by Mr. Nixon. Dobrynin asked for five minutes to ponder.

Promptly five minutes later, Dobrynin called back and said that, on his own authority, he would underwrite the Nixon administration's version. One hour later, he called again to say that he had authorized the embassy to issue a press release matching the White House wording.

Whether or not Dobrynin's fast action (at considerable personal risk) was the reason, the official Tass version was later changed to conform exactly to the White House version. The SALT agreement had weathered the first of many storms.

The Mardian Memo

The Conventional wisdom permeating the Nixon administration that another campaign for President by Gov. George Wallace of Alabama will hurt President Nixon is refuted by a secret memorandum drafted by a rising political figure in Washington: Assistant Atty. Gen. Robert Mardian.

The Mardian memo sharply contradicts the thesis of his boss and Mr. Nixon's closest political adviser, Atty. Gen. Mitchell, that the Nixon and Wallace votes of 1968 can be combined into a new national majority. Rather, Mardian suggests that Wallace's votes, North and South, are essentially Democratic and may vote Democratic if Wallace is not around. Hence, Mardian's suggestion: a Wallace candidacy in 1972 could help, not hurt, the Nixon campaign.

"No Walter, because there is a backup system for just such an eventuality. If the cake started to ooze, the White House staff would go on red alert, and the guests would be handed soup plates instead of flat plates for the serving of the cake."

"Betty, we have heard so much lately about the instability of the wedding cake. Do you think these reports have been exaggerated?"

"Yes, I do, Walter. Many different recipes were tried before the National Cake Agency arrived at this particular model.

"Now, when you are dealing with something as unknown as a wedding cake, you're bound to have different opinions as to what is the best type. You may have to sacrifice egg yolks for weight or butter for budgetary reasons. But the important thing is: Does the cake work? Will it serve the function for which it was constructed? If it does, this may be a big breakthrough in the baking industry and one that every American can be proud of."

"And what if for some unforeseeable reason it doesn't work, Betty?"

"Then I think for the safety of the guests they would have to abort the wedding."

Bottler Tax Test Delayed

RALEIGH (AP) — A move to repeal North Carolina's penny-a-bottle soft drink tax has halted just short of death, only a sip away from the floor of the House of Representatives.

The House Finance Committee voted 24-23 Tuesday to postpone its report on the repeal measure until June 24—one day after the state's record budget for 1971-73 is expected to be reported out of an appropriations subcommittee.

Rep. Perry Martin, D-Northampton led the committee fight to prevent a rollback of the tax levied in 1969. Martin earlier in the session introduced a bill that would have doubled the levy.

As soft drink bottlers looked on Tuesday, Martin said "the fair, logical, honest and reasonable thing to do is to wait" on the repeal sought by Rep. Sneed High, D-Cumberland.

"If this bill should pass, where are we going to replace this money?" Martin asked. He added: "North Carolina has the tightest budget since 1931."

Continuing, Martin said "the appeal of the bottlers has been effective. They want to get the bill out of committee and let us act on it on the floor of the House. You know how steam-rollers can work."

High, defending the bill, said he wanted the tax removed because it "does not fit into the basic principle of taxation." A rollback, he said, would be "best for the consumers of North Carolina."

"I care not one cent for the soft drink industry," High said. "If you were to take this tax off," Martin said, "do you believe the price would go down to where the public would be affected...Soft drinks are luxuries."

Rep. Herschel Harkins, D-Buncombe, supporting High's stand, accused Martin of trying a "catfish approach" to kill the measure.

"To catfish this bill is not what I had in mind," Martin said.

High also argued that delaying the bill would mean its death.

"Of course, we could wait until June 24," High told the committee, "but you know that when the appropriations bill comes out it's Katie bar the door and no stopping it."

matter how idiotic they may seem. Even wearing a bow tie or the wrong color socks has cost many an able man promotion because they offended the esthetic sense of the head of the firm. Usually he never finds out why he missed out.

There has been long argument about what is the essential difference between talent and genius. But it is easy to point out. It takes talent to make money, genius to inherit it.

IT'S SLACK MAIL

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — The post office polled its 15,000 women workers and found that 99 per cent of them favored wearing slack suits during working hours. Permission was duly granted.

More than 600 minerals are found in California.

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — A rare World War II seaplane, rebuilt in Dallas, Tex., has arrived in Wilmington for display aboard the USS North Carolina.

The battleship, also of World War II memory, is permanently berthed across the Cape Fear River from this port city as a state shrine.

The plane, a Kingfisher carried by battleships of an earlier day for scouting, observation and sea rescue, will take its place aboard the USS North Carolina.

The plane, which arrived by truck Tuesday, was rebuilt from one that crashed in Canada in 1942. Mac J. Roebuck of Sunnyvale, Calif., pilot at the time, and Stalney S. Goddard of Fremont, Calif., his crewman, survived the crash and were rescued.

They will be in Wilmington on June 25 for dedication ceremonies for the plane.

Conferees Map Developing Of Black Churches

ELON COLLEGE, N.C. (AP) — The Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ has adopted a program for development of its black churches and their leaders.

The conference, which represents 70,000 church members in North Carolina and southeastern Virginia, has 393 churches, 145 of them all-black or predominantly black.

It appointed a committee at its annual meeting Tuesday to draw up programs "to enable black people to authentically develop their leadership in the awareness of blackness as individuals, Christians and leaders."

Funding will come from a $30,000 increase in the conference's appropriations for church extension programs. It was decided that a minimum of $12,500 from this fund must go to the black church development program, and that another $37,500 will be sought from the denomination's national headquarters. If the additional money isn't granted, the conference was directed to appropriate another $12,500.

The Rev. Leon White, an official of the denomination's Commission on Racial and Social Justice, said during debate that failure to enact the program would leave black churches without leadership, and "do away with much of the Christian leadership needed in the struggle for civil rights and black liberation."

He said that without such a program, black militants could rightfully call the United Church of Christ "a lily-white church."

Synod To Seek Realignments

RALEIGH (AP) — A new commission will be appointed by the North Carolina Synod of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to decide how to realign the boundaries of the presbyteries of Concord, Kings Mountain and Winston-Salem.

The synod, which opened its 158th annual meeting Tuesday, also decided to approve the legality of the actions of a realignment commission appointed by the 1970 session.

The commission, in a report presented to the synod Tuesday night, recommended that the three presbyteries — Winston-Salem, Concord and Kings Mountain be merged into a single presbytery.

The 1970 session has recommended that the Concord Presbytery be divided and part of it joined to the Kings Mountain Presbytery and the other part to the Winston-Salem Presbytery.

One of several overtures forwarded to the synod concerning the realignment asked that the actions of the commission be declared "to be out of order and unconstitutional so far as they pertain to the presbyteries of Concord, Kings Mountain and Winston-Salem."

But the synod, after much debate, adopted the recommendations of its committee on bills and overtures that the commission's actions be okayed and that a new commission be appointed by the moderator to realign the boundaries of the three presbyteries to form not more than two presbyteries by Jan. 1, 1972.

Earlier in the session, the Rev. E. Lee Stoffel, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, was elected moderator. He succeeded the Rev. Joseph M. Garrison, pastor emeritus of the Covenant Presbyterian Church of Greensboro.

The Rev. John Mack Walker of the First Presbyterian Church of Roanoke Rapids was elected moderator-nominee. Dr. I. M. Bagnal of Raleigh, executive secretary of the Granville Presbytery, was elected assistant clerk. The Rev. C. Linwood Cheshire, executive secretary of Orange Presbytery, was elected permanent clerk.

During today's session, Vernon Robert Jensen, of Mobile, Ala., was expected to succeed the Rev. Harold J. Dudley as general secretary of the synod.

Church To Hold Talent Program

An old-fashioned talent program is scheduled for Saturday, June 12, at 7:00 p.m. at Reids Chapel Baptist Church in Fountain.

The program, sponsored by the Senior Choir members of the church, will be open to anyone wanting to take part by playing an instrument, singing, or presenting a skit.

Rev. George Smith, pastor of the church, welcomes the public to this program.

Singers Gather On June 12, 13

The 31st Eastern Carolina Singing Convention, which first began in Wilson, and in recent years has been held in Zebulon, is scheduled this year for two days, Saturday June 12 at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, June 13, at 1:00 p.m.

This year, 14 groups, including trios and quartets from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia will be on hand for the two day program.

Events both days are being held in the Zebulon School Auditorium. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

Jordan Voted With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. B. Everett Jordan voted with the majority as the Senate approved 51-24 Tuesday an amendment to raise military pay by about $2.7 billion a year. The other senator from North Carolina, Sam J. Ervin Jr., also a Democrat, voted against.

Singapore originally was a trading post for the British East India Company.

Chapter Is Rated Among Tops In U.S.

The East Carolina University chapter of Pi Omega Pi national honorary business education society has again been ranked among the top ten chapters in the nation.

ECU's Beta Kappa chapter, one of 128 across the U.S., has ranked in the top ten chapters every year since the National Chapter Award program was initiated in 1951-52.

It has four times been first among the most outstanding ten, selected on the basis of contribution and service to the business education community.

Dr. Frances Daniels of the School of Business faculty is sponsor for the ECU chapter. She is assisted by Dr. Audrey V. Dempsey, chairman of the Department of Office Administration and Business Education at ECU.

Student officers are: Dorothy Tolson, president; Judith Mulhern, vice president; Ella Rodwell, secretary; Susan Ellis, treasurer; and Nancy Cannady, Rebecca Worrell and Ruth Elmore, historians.

'Opryland' Complex Will Stand Alone

By NANCY SHIPLEY
Associated Press Writer
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —
The general manager of Opryland USA, the future site of the Grand Ole Opry, says it "will be the best family entertainment park in the nation."

And, Mike Downs adds, "there will be no other like it." The $25 million recreation-entertainment complex now under construction on a 369-acre tract just northeast of Nashville, is a development of the National Life and Accident Insurance Co., of Nashville.

Target date for the entertainment park is April 1972, while completion date for the new 4,340-seat Opry House is April 1973.

Opryland, according to Downs, will portray the fundamentals of American Music in eight distinct entertainment "villages," with emphasis on live musical shows.

Downs said the role of American country music as a boiling pot into which all American music has gradually filtered requires an appropriate memorial concerned with being as real as possible.

The general manager said that in the summertime, "Opryland will have a work force of 1,200 persons — it will be composed only of real people doing real things."

"We're going to do our best to see that a hamburger—or anything else—you get at Opryland is the best you ever had," he said.

The major themed villages in Opryland, according to Downs, will include:

—Opry Plaza, containing the Opry House and other attractions devoted to country music.

—Hill Country-American Folk Music, depicting folk music's heritage.

—River Jazz and Blues-New Orleans, highlighting the history and spirit of American jazz and blues.

—Music of the American West, portraying the western musical heritage.

One-Night Revival Set

Elder E. E. Dixon of Kansas City, Missouri, is scheduled to conduct a revival service at Wells Chapel Church on Saturday night, at 8:00 p.m.

The evangelist and singer, who held a revival at Wells Chapel in February, will appear on "Carolina Today" over TV Station WNCT on Thursday morning, at 8:00 a.m.

To assist Elder Dixon for the one night service, members of The Crusaders, a group of young singers, will help provide special music. Miss Sandra Moore will be pianist, and Johnny Wooten, organist. Elder Dixon will be guest soloist in addition to being guest speaker.

At 7:30 p.m., prior to the regular service, testifying services will be conducted by members of Youth Departments of various churches of the city. The public is invited to attend.

Woody's Ramblin's

By WOODY PEELE

Chips and putts from area golf courses:

Ayden

The Club Championship Tournament is underway at the Ayden Golf and Country Club. Some of the key matches so far have produced some exciting results. For instance, Pete Beaman defeated Boyce Barwick, the defending champ, in the first round of play.

Other first round matches included Richard Hunsucker over Thomas Heath, Hugh Wallace over Dick Cherry, Joe Brown over Bill Loftin, Tom Boyd over Brownie Tripp, Sidney Roberson over Bobby Congleton, and Brooks Barwick over Robbie Pinner.

Brooks Barwick recently recorded one of his better scores, a 68. Two other golfers have also turned in their best rounds. Gwynn Merritt had a 76, and Ray Joyner had an 84.

Brook Valley

The Club Championship Tournament also continues at Brook Valley with the second round of play.

Championship flight match results are as follows: Dick Evans over Austin Britt, Bo Farley over Earl Brinkley, Mac McKenzie over Melvin Moore, Don Conley over Steve Hinshaw, Jay Collie over Willard Wilson, Jimmy Hillard over W. L. Allen Jr., Ercell Webb over Lee Alcorn, and Hodges Hackney over Ronnie Pinner.

In the first flight, Gene Ward defeated Jim Ward by forfeit; Rick Sauve beat Pinkney Young, Jack Frost downed Marion Gardner, Steve Jones beat W. L. Allen Jr., Critz Hillard beat Topsy Smoot, Tom McMahon downed Troy Riddle and Mack Bach defeated Al Ward.

Elwood Goodson turned in his best round with a 78 while playing with Si Moye, Ben Harrison, Harold Thomas and Boyd Huff.

John King just missed his first hole-in-one when his tee shot on 18 rolled to within one inch of the cup. He settled for a birdie.

Greenville

A Captain's Choice Tournament will be held Sunday afternoon at the Greenville Golf and Country Club.

Grifton

Bill Weir took top honors in the President's Cup Tournament held at Grifton Country Club. He won the men's division. The Women's Division winner was Shelton Mahoney.

George Saleeby picked up an eagle on the first hole, a 373-yard par four. He was playing with Frank Harris, Tommy Reiley and Bill Williams at the time.

Williams and Harris also witnessed another eagle, as Milton Garriss picked up one on the par four, 340-yard sixth hole. Cecil Lilly and Wes Barwick were also with the group.

Robersonville

The Robersonville Golf and Country Club team defeated Windsor this past Sunday in a Roanoke League golf match. Robersonville won, 68½ to 38½.

Robersonville will host the league playoffs, to be held this Sunday.

Injured Photog Is Given Chance

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Dr. Vicente Alvarez, critically injured in the pace car crash at the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, is now given a chance to recover.

Although Dr. Alvarez faces at the least a long, difficult recovery period, his physician Tuesday, said "there is every hope now he will make it."

He is, however, still listed in critical condition. Alvarez was standing on a special photographer's trailer at the end of the pits on May 29 when the red convertible Dodge pace car failed to stop and slammed into the trailer.

Alvarez, who had been shooting pictures for a Latin American magazine, was flown by helicopter to Methodist Hospital, suffering grave head and other injuries, including a basal skull fracture.

After undergoing brain surgery to remove a blood clot on the left side, Alvarez remained unconscious nine days until Monday.

Dr. T. A. Hanna, Speedway medical director, said after Alvarez regained consciousness there was renewed hope. "But, it's too uncertain to say what the future holds. How much residual effect there will be is un-

Hole-In-One Is Not Easiest Sport Feat

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — The dream of every golfer is to score a hole-in-one and it's a dream that will come true this year for 13,000 Americans, duffers and pros alike.

These figures are furnished through the courtesy of James and George Stodart, Ltd., of Dumbarton, Scotland, distillers of spiritus, who run a game called Hole-In-One Sweepstakes.

At the end of the year the names of all the players who have scored aces are placed into a big drum. The one drawn gets $1,000 in cash, a trip for two to Scotland and a chance to play famous Scottish courses such as St. Andrews and Carnoustie.

Richard M. Nixon qualified for the contest in 1961—the year after he was beaten by John F. Kennedy for the presidency. He known."

Alvarez, one-time head of the Kaiser Industries medical program in South America, is a Buenos Aires nose and throat specialist. He has been coming to the 500-mile race since 1958.

sank a tee shot at the Bel Air Country Club in Los Angeles. After receiving a special tag for his golf bag, Nixon wrote Tom Scott, director and general manager of the distilling firm:

"I thought you might like to know that despite the hole-in-one, I ended up with a 91 and lost three dollars. But, I must admit, it was worth it!"

The late Dwight D. Eisenhower, an avid golfer, once holed out a tee shot on a short par three course in Palm Springs, Calif., but it didn't count. Edmund Muskie, Jackie Gleason, Joe DiMaggio and Fred MacMurray are a few celebrities who have had aces.

The Stodarts, using computers, figure the odds against a hole-in-one are about 85,000 to 1. Less sophisticated efforts to fix such odds have proved unavailing.

In 1932, 213 professional and amateur golfers who at one time had scored a hole-in-one each took five shots—a total of 1,085—on a 129-yard hole at the Salisbury Club in New York. The closest shot landed 10½ inches away.

In a similar effort in New York in 1951, 1,409 golfers, each of whom had scored an ace in his career, took five shots apiece—aggregating 7,045—at various par three holes. The closest missed by 3½ inches.

In 1940, an American professional named Harry Gonder stood for 16 hours and 25 minutes trying to ace a 180-yard hole. His efforts produced 1,817 shots and blistered hands, but no ace. The famed Turnesa brothers, on a $1,000 wager, once tried from sun-up to sundown and never got a hole-in-one.

Yet Art Wall, a veteran of the pro golf tour, has scored 37 aces in his career, a record.

A Bakersfield, Calif., physician, Dr. Joseph O. Boydstone, collected 11 in one year, 1962, according to Golf Digest.

The longest hole-in-one on record is 444 yards by Robert Mittera of Omaha, Neb., on the 10th hole at Miracle Hills in 1965. T.S. South, 91, an Englishman, is the oldest to get an ace and Tommy Moore, 9, of Hagerstown, Md., is the youngest.

Norman Manley of Saugus, Calif., produced what may be the greatest feat when he holed out tee shots on consecutive par four holes in 1964.

Lunching With Gomer Is Good For McDowell

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's not quite the same perhaps as the breakfast of champions, but lunching with Gomer Hodge has its advantages as far as Sam McDowell is concerned.

McDowell, Cleveland's fireballing left-hander, had his ceremonial pre-game victory meal with teammate Hodge Tuesday and then feasted on the Chicago White Sox to the tune of 5-3 with 11 strikeouts.

"Give the credit to Gomer," insisted McDowell, who has had either breakfast or lunch with Hodge before each of his five previous triumphs this season.

Elsewhere in the American League, Boston snapped Oakland's five-game winning streak 5-1, Baltimore made it six in a row with a 8-2 rout of Minnesota, Detroit trimmed Milwaukee 8-3, Kansas City beat Washington 4-2 and the New York Yankees blanked California 3-0.

National League scores: Montreal 10, San Francisco 3; Los Angeles 4, Philadelphia 2; Atlanta 8, St. Louis 7 in 10 innings; New York Mets 6, San Diego 4; Chicago Cubs 1, Pittsburgh 0 in 12 innings and Houston 2, Cincinnati 0.

McDowell checked the White Sox on six hits and three walks and raised his record over .500 for the first time this season at 6-5. The 11 strikeouts marked the 72nd time he has been in double figures, increasing his AL record. Sandy Koufax of the Brooklyn-Los Angeles Dodgers did it 97 times, the major league mark.

Both McDowell and batterymate Ray Fosse were satisfied with the southpaw's performance.

"Tonight I was a pitcher," said McDowell. "Before I was only a thrower. I had more confidence in everything I threw, more confidence than I've had all season. And, for a change, I didn't have to rely on only one pitch."

Roy Foster's three-run homer in the second inning was the big blow for the Indians.

McDowell allowed a two-run bloop single to Rick Reichardt in the third and Tom Egan homered in the ninth.

Ray Culp's three-hitter—he also struck out 11—helped Boston keep pace with Baltimore in the AL East. Duane Josephson socked a two-run homer for the Red Sox, who trail the Orioles by 1½ games.

Culp didn't allow a baserunner until Mike Epstein singled to lead off the fifth. Dave Duncan's eighth-inning homer spoiled his shutout bid. The Red Sox had lost seven of their nine previous games.

The Orioles shelled Minnesota's Bert Blyleven with five runs in the second inning, two on Mark Belanger's double and two more on Don Buford's eighth home run. Belanger and Dave Johnson each had three hits in support of Pat Dobson's strong pitching.

Mickey Stanley's bases-loaded triple was the key blow as the Tigers whipped the Brewers for Mickey Lolich's ninth victory. Dalton Jones hit a two-run homer in the eighth. Lolich was bothered mostly by rookie Ron Theobald, who belted his first major league homer as the game's first batter and later drove in a run with a sacrifice fly.

Optimists Win, Widen The Lead

The Optimists widened its first place lead yesterday with a 10-3 victory over the Kiwanis in the North State Little League. The win also started the countdown toward the title for the Optimists.

They currently hold an 8-1 record, while the Kiwanis are two games back with a 6-3 mark. They are followed by Coca-Cola, 4-4, the Jaycees, 4-5, R. C. Cola, 3-5, and the Lions, 1-8. The Lions were eliminated from the title race by the Optimist win.

The Optimists pushed over a run in the first inning. Greg Lee reached on an error and moved up on a passed ball. Gary Allen doubled to score him.

The Kiwanis came back in the bottom of the frame to tie it up. Danny Hester doubled and moved to third on an out. He scored on a passed ball.

In the second, however, the Optimists put it away, scoring six runs. Gary Porter reached on an error and Mac Stokes singled. Both advanced on a passed ball and Bubber Rowlette singled to score both runners. Eric McCormick reached on a fielder's choice and Lee singled, scoring Rowlette. Allen reached on a fielder's choice, scoring McCormick, and a double by Jeff Aldridge scored both Lee and Allen.

Two more crossed in the fifth. Aldridge reached on an error and advanced on Porter's hit. Stokes reached on a fielder's choice, scoring Aldridge, but getting Porter. Ricky Robinson singled and Rowlette reached on a fielder's choice, scoring Stokes.

The Kiwanis also added two in the fifth. Greg Dail walked and Hester was hit by a pitch. Both moved up on a passed ball and Sid Ashby walked. David Middleton singled to score both runners.

The final Optimist run came in the sixth. Allen doubled, took third on a passed ball and scored when Bob Peoples reached on an error.

Aaron Leads Atlanta Over Cards

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Atlanta Braves are up to their old hanky panky with Hank Aaron supplying the spark and Chief Noc-homa the spark.

Hot Hand Hank drilled his 18th home run and a single for his eighth straight hit and Atlanta's No. 1 cheerleader sent up his usual smoke signals during Tuesday night's 8-7, 10-inning triumph over St. Louis.

"I knew I had been hitting well, but I don't keep up with records ... you don't have time to remember things like that on a club this exciting," said Aaron, whose eight safeties in three games were two shy of the National League mark.

Aaron moved over the .300 level for the first time this season with a four-hit night Monday and padded his mark to .313 with Tuesday night's work.

Not bad, considering Hammerin' Hank is playing on one leg. The right knee has fluid in it and is painful, says Aaron.

In the other National League games, Chicago nipped Pittsburgh 1-0 in 12 innings; Los Angeles stopped Philadelphia 4-2; Montreal whacked San Francisco 10-3; New York turned back San Diego 6-4 and Houston whipped Cincinnati 2-0.

American League: Cleveland 5, Chicago 3; Baltimore 8, Minnesota 2; Kansas City 4, Washington 2; Detroit 8, Milwaukee 3; Boston 5, Oakland 1 and New York 3, California 0.

Aaron's hitting string included a single and home run on Sunday and two doubles and two singles Monday prior to his two-run homer in the first inning and third-inning single in Tuesday night's affair.

Aaron's hitting helped Atlanta build a 7-3 lead as slug-mate Orlando Cepeda delivered a three-run homer, his 14th. But the Braves wasted the advantage by giving the Cardinals four runs in the eighth, three on two infield errors.

After St. Louis scored on Ted Simmons' single, Joe Torre bounced a single off the third base bag that eventually led to three runs. Third baseman Earl Williams fielded the ball as Matty Alou headed toward third, but elected to throw to first and threw wildly, allowing Alou to score. Simmons and Torre kept running and each scored as Cepeda's throw went into the Cardinal dugout.

Pinch-hitter Darrell Evans delivered the winning run with a sacrifice fly in the 10th.

Joe Pepitone belted his seventh home run in the 12th inning to give Ken Holtzman and Chicago a 1-0 triumph over Pittsburgh. Pepitone's two-out shot came on an offering from Jim "Mudcat" Grant, who entered the contest in the eighth inning in relief of Jim Nelson.

Holtzman, in his first start since pitching a no-hitter last Thursday against Cincinnati, struck out 12 and spaced nine hits in going the distance.

Jim Lefebvre cracked a two-run homer in the sixth inning to help Los Angeles beat Philadelphia. Lefebvre's fifth circuit shot gave the Dodgers a 3-0 lead before Willie Montanez unloaded a two-run homer for the Phillies in their half of the inning.

Bullet Bill Singer had the Phillies blanked on five hits until the sixth. Jim Brewer pitched the last two innings to preserve Singer's fourth victory in 13 decisions this year.

Montreal raked San Francisco ace Juan Marichal for five runs in the first four innings and rode Bill Stoneman's 13-strikeout pitching to a triumph over the spinning Giants, who lost their sixth of seven games.

After Stoneman struck out the side in the first, the Expos pounced on Marichal for three runs in their half of the inning. Mack Jones, who singled in the opening-inning burst, also hit a home run in the second. John Bateman delivered a four-bagger in the fourth to highlight Montreal's 13-hit offense.

Art Shamsky hit a homer and Jerry Grote broke out of an 0-for-14 slump with three hits and a run batted in as New York topped San Diego.

Starter Gary Gentry drove in the decisive fifth run in the New York fifth, but needed late-inning relief help from Danny Frisella to notch his fifth victory.

Don Wilson pitched a five-hitter to outduel Gary Nolan in Houston's triumph over Cincinnati. Wilson struck out eight and walked one in gaining his fifth victory in eight decisions. Nolan surrendered only six hits in seven innings.

Cesar Cedeno knocked in a fourth-inning run for Houston with a force-out roller and the Astros added another tally in the fifth on Doug Rader's run-scoring triple.

Integon Rolls Past Exchange

Integon rolled to a 9-3 victory over the Exchange yesterday, pulling out of sole possession of the cellar in the Tar Heel Little League.

The Graniteers lead the league with an 8-1 record, while Pepsi-Cola occupies second with a 5-4 mark. They are followed by the Elks, 4-4, the Moose, 3-5, and Integon and Exchange, both 3-6.

Integon moved into the lead in the first inning with a pair of runs. Jimmy Miles walked, as did Greg Pittman. Sandy Abbott reached on an error, scoring Miles. Buddy Boyd walked to load the bases and a walk to Worth Albea scored Pittman.

In the second, Integon scored again. Tim Lancaster reached on a fielder's choice and two passed balls moved him to third. Pittman walked and John Miles doubled to score Lancaster.

The Exchange came up with a run in the top of the third. Craig Cherry walked and Thil Hurley did too. Tom Bunch was hit by a pitch and Alston Daniel walked, scoring Cherry.

In the fourth, Integon scored one more for a 4-1 lead. Lancaster reached on an error and advanced on Pittman's fielder's choice. A passed ball moved both up, and John Miles walked to load the bases. An error scored Lancaster.

Then, in the fifth, Integon came up with five more. Albea reached on a fielder's choice and stole second. He took third on an out and Mert Sutton walked. The two runners executed the double steal with Albea scoring. Jimmy Miles walked and Lancaster reached on a fielder's choice, loading the bases. Pittman then slammed a homer to clear the bases.

The final two Exchange runs came in the sixth. Bunch singled and Daniel homered.

Ladies Leaders Post Victories

Wachovia Bank became the first team to fall by the wayside last night in the Ladies Softball League. First place Little Mint bounced them from the title race with a 31-2 victory. Foodland kept right on Little Mint's heels with a 12-5 victory over Coca-Cola.

The Little Mint is now 6-0, followed by Foodland, 5-1. They are trailed by Piggly-Wiggly, 3-3, Coke, 2-5, and Wachovia, 0-7.

In the opener, Foodland pushed into the lead with two runs in the first inning. Joyce Sawyer singled and Diane Harley got a hit. Carolyn Hardy reached on an error, scoring both for the 2-0 lead.

From there, Foodland added six in the third inning and three in the fourth for an 11-0 lead before Coke finally pushed over two runs in the fifth. Foodland added its final run in the sixth, while Coke came up with three more in the seventh.

The Little Mint pushed over nine runs in the top of the first inning to put the game out of reach for Wachovia. Pat Kilpatrick and Darlene Briley both singled and Bobbie Jones reached on an error. Linda Tripp singled and Carol Manuel walked. Nancy Taylor doubled and Viola Harris cleared the bases with a home run. Sandra Kelly singled and Doris Garrish reached on an error, scoring the ninth run on Briley's hit.

The Little Mint added three in the second, five in the third, and 12 in the fourth for its total.

Wachovia got one in the first and one in the third.

PERRY WAS STINGY
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—While winning 23 games for the 1970 San Francisco Giants, Gaylord Perry gave up only 117 earned runs in 329 total innings pitched. Perry hurled 23 complete games while compiling his 23-13 record.

Presbyterian, Christian Win

Both American Division teams claimed victories in the Church Softball League last night as inter-divisional play moved toward an end. Presbyterian nipped Black Jack, 11-9, and First Christian ripped Maranatha, 18-7. Only one game remains before the league returns to full divisional play.

Immanuel leads the National Division with an 8-4 record, followed by Piney Grove and Mt. Pleasant, both 7-5. Black Jack and Oakmont are 7-6, trailed by Grace, 6-7 and Maranatha, 2-10.

Meadowbrook and St. James continue to pace the American Division with 10-2 marks with Presbyterian right behind at 9-3. They are followed by Belvoir, 7-6, Christian, 4-9, St. Gabriel, 2-10, and Trinity, 1-12.

Black Jack grabbed the early lead in the game last night, pushing over two in the first. Presbyterian came back with one run in the second as George Fuller homered. Black Jack scored three more in the third to run its lead to 5-1, but Presbyterian came up with three in the fourth to close the gap to one. That was knocked out of the way in the fifth when another Presbyterian run tied it at 5-5.

Black Jack went back out with three runs in the bottom of the fifth, but Presbyterian came up with two in the sixth. Black Jack again went ahead with a run in the bottom of the frame, 9-8.

Presbyterian, however, scored three runs in the seventh to charge ahead and take the win. Don Owens singled and Doug Wilson doubled. John Jackson then homered to wind it up.

In the second game, Christian took the lead with two in the first, and never fell behind after that. Billy West singled and Glenn Roper got a hit. Jerry Jones brought over both with a hit.

From there, Christian added eight in the second, three in the fourth, two in the fifth and three in the sixth. Maranatha got one in the second, one in the fourth, and five in the sixth for its total.

Thousands More Face N.C. School Busing Orders

By EDWARD CODY
Associated Press Writer

Thousands of North Carolina children in neighborhood schools face the possibility of busing to new schools next fall because of stricter desegregation guidelines.

The new pressure comes from an April decision of the U.S. Supreme Court which said the busing of children out of their neighborhoods was a legitimate tool for ending all-black or all-white schools.

School officials expect swift repercussions in North Carolina school systems from two directions:

Several large school districts, including Greensboro, Raleigh and the combined Winston-Salem-Forsyth County schools, are fighting court suits calling for increased desegregation.

—The Department of Health, Education and Welfare has indicated in several recent rulings that for next fall it will ask more of Southern school districts than last year.

Both HEW and the courts are expected to follow the path signaled by the Supreme Court in its April 29 ruling on Charlotte-Mecklenburg County schools.

That ruling upheld a district judge's order that sent thousands of children riding across town in buses to neighborhoods where the other race predominated. It made Charlotte-Mecklenburg County schools one of the most thoroughly integrated systems in the country.

Despite a year of operation under the court-imposed plan, Charlotte schools still face new changes next fall. School board members are redrawing the plan in hopes of reducing the number of bused children and the distance they ride.

The Charlotte case and its Supreme Court approval set ominous precedent for schools in Winston-Salem, Raleigh, Greensboro, Rocky Mount and Edgecombe County.

All are locked in court battles with civil rights lawyers demanding that the federal court order them to use busing if necessary to get rid of all-Negro and predominantly Negro schools.

Behind the suits is the Charlotte law firm headed by Julius L. Chambers, the civil rights lawyer who won the Charlotte-Supreme Court case with the backing of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc.

Chambers and his partners have called on judges in the cases to follow the lead of the Charlotte case, ordering massive transportation where necessary to overcome the segregating effects of all-Negro or all-white neighborhoods. Traditionally, federal judges hew closely to the line laid down by Supreme Court justices.

Other school districts face change under order from HEW bureaucrats, who have indicated they, too, will follow the Supreme Court standards.

The intention was dramatically illustrated when HEW and the Department of Justice ordered desegregation plans recently in Austin, Tex., and Nashville, Tenn., requiring extensive busing of the kind denounced last year by the Nixon administration as "extreme."

North Carolina officials, judging by the precedent set in Texas and Tennessee, expect HEW to reopen negotiation with several Tar Heel systems operating under plans approved last year.

"We anticipate that they in all probability will," said Gene Causby of the human relations staff in the Department of Public Instruction.

"Every time we've had a significant court decision, several school districts with approved plans get a letter saying they'll have to change."

At least three school systems are known to be operating under HEW-approved plans with an all-Negro school. The Supreme Court precedent presumably would lead HEW to demand changes in these plans.

Other districts with schools with heavy Negro majorities also face the possibility of modifications in their HEW-approved plans. However, neither state or local officials have received word as yet from HEW watchdogs.

'Campaigns' By Going To Paris

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Rep. Samuel Stratton, D-N.Y., has explained his recent visit to the Paris International Air Show as sort of a campaign trip.

Stratton, who has had his congressional district scrambled twice by reapportionment, told the graduating class at Siena College, "with another redistricting coming up, I figured I hadn't better take any chances on what my new district will include—so I went to Paris."

Monroe, Staton Are Appointed

Edwin W. Monroe, M.D., Dean, School of Allied Health Professions, East Carolina University, and R. Harold Staton, Wachovia Bank and Trust Co., Greenville, have been named to the new 48-member Regional Advisory Group of the North Carolina Regional Medical Program, it was announced today by the NCRMP executive director, F. M. Simmons Patterson, M.D.

In addition, Dr. Monroe will serve on its executive committee.

The Regional Advisory Group combines into one governing body the former Advisory Council and the Board of Director of the federally-funded organization, supported through the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and headquartered at Teer House, Durham. Its membership represents major health interests and all sections of North Carolina.

E. Harvey Estes, M.D., Chairman of the Department of Community Health Sciences, Duke Medical Center, is Chairman of the Regional Advisory Group. Robert Smith, M.D., Department of Family Medicine, UNC School of Medicine, is Vice-Chairman, and Joseph G. Gordon, M.C., Winston-Salem, has assumed the office of secretary.

In their new posts, Dr. Monroe will represent North Carolina academic institutions and Staton will serve as a member-at-large representing Eastern North Carolina.

Charles A. Lindbergh made the first nonstop trans-Atlantic flight, New York-Paris May 20, 1927.

Students On Dean's List

RALEIGH — Five Pitt County students are among the 345 students at Meredith College who were named to the Dean's List at Meredith, she must have a grade average of higher than B and must have completed a minimum of 12 semester hours and passed all courses taken at Meredith.

Local students were: Miss Marjorie Jane Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. T. Harris Jr. of 124 Hialeah Rd., Greenville; Miss Mary Blanche Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Regan Jones of Rt. 7, Greenville; Miss Judy Brenda Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Little of Rt. 2, Greenville; Miss Andrea Diane Meyer, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Edward Karl Meyer of 215 Cherry Wood Dr., Greenville; and Mrs. Debra Virginia Suggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart W. Suggs of 801 W. Sixth St., Ayden.

Received MD AtBowmanGray Forest Fire Was Near Beneficial

WINSTON-SALEM — Allen H. Van Dyke Jr. of Greenville has received the Doctor of Medicine degree from the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University.

He was one of 58 members of the Bowman Gray senior class who were graduated June 7 in commencement exercises on the Wake Forest University campus.

Van Dyke, who holds the B.A. degree from Duke University, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H.

Van Dyke, 1101 West Rock Spring Rd. He is married to the former Perry Grimes of Lexington.

He will begin internship training in surgery at the University of Kentucky Medical Center, Lexington, Ky., July 1.

added.

Federal foresters had been burning in the area some 25 miles northwest of Ely prepare it for seeding when the fire raged out of control April 26.

Towing Day

Greenville police, who normally have illegally parked cars towed away (at the owner's expense) when they are obstructing traffic, had a busier-than-usual day yesterday.

According to records on file at police headquarters, 16 cars were towed away from their parking places along Meade and Harding Streets where they improperly parked in "No Parking" zones.

Collecting Now For JFK Library

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — The acting director of the John F. Kennedy Library, says 10,000 museum pieces already have been gathered for the library to be built in Cambridge, Mass., starting next year.

John F. Stewart, attending a library directors' conference at the Harry S. Truman Library, said the archives section will include 65,000 photographs, 2.2 million feet of movie film and video tape, 1,500 audio reels, and 15 million pages of documents and manuscripts.

More than 300 ethnic and cultural groups live on the island of Java, says National Geographic.

Local Moose To Convention

Three members of the Greenville Moose Lodge, accompanied by their wives, will be attending the 83rd annual international convention of the Loyal Order of Moose, to be held at Detroit, on June 14-17. They are E.M. Baldree, Ed Moore and Douglas Ross.

More than 8,000 men and women will be attending the convention and the conference of the Women of the Moose.

The official opening of the convention will take place at 9:30 a.m., Monday at Cobo Hall. Convention business sessions will be held there each morning through Thursday. The Women of the Moose will hold daily conference sessions in the Ballroom of the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel. Panel sessions for Moose delegates will be held the first three afternoons of the convention in the ballroom of the Detroit Hilton.

Pre-convention ceremonies are scheduled at Mooseheart (Ill.) on Saturday. They include the conferring of the Pilgrim and College of Regents degrees and commencement exercises for the Class of 1971 of Mooseheart High School. Fifteen states and two provinces of Canada are represented in the 34-member Class of 1971.

At Mooseheart, too, delegates will be able to see results of the modernization program that is still being carried out. The Baby Village wading pool has been completely rebuilt, the Nursery School and four residence halls renovated, and new playground equipment for the Baby Village and Elementary campuses.

Renovation including plumbing, wiring, drain tiles, new furniture, basement recreation rooms, painting, etc. has been completed in a large number of residence halls. Automatic fire alarms, fire escapes, have been installed on two-story buildings. The power plant has been converted, and sidewalks, drain tiles windows, have been replaced at a number of halls, as replacement of hospital windows, purchase of new lawn and porch furniture, the installation of new roofs on the high school and other buildings.

The Greenville lodge, meeting Monday night for the first time at its new hour, added seventeen members to its rolls.

They were: David Bumgarner, Randolph Murphy, George Bunday, Charles L. Clark, Gilbert Davis Jr., J. D. Gargia, Elmer Harris, J. Patrick Higgins, G. Harley Jackson, J.C. Jones, James T. Mills, Jasper T. Perry, W. J. Sawyer, David D. Shields, Jack T. Whaley, George Williams Jr., and James Withers Jr.

Motorcyclist Hurt In Mishap

No charges were made in a 2:56 p.m. collision at the intersection of Memorial and Sylvan Drives which resulted in a motorcycle driver being injured.

Police reported a car driven by Jennie Jones Heath, 25 of Route 4, Greenville and a motorcycle operated by Roger Lawrence Kearney, 23, of 212 North Elm St. collided causing an estimated $35 damage to the car and about $10 damage to the motorcycle.

Safety Records To Be Honored

CHARLOTTE (AP)—Twenty-two North Carolina cities and towns which didn't have a fatal accident last year will be honored.

They will get the North Carolina State Motor Club's Traffic Safety Award.

Winners in the over-10,000 population group are Roanoke Rapids, Shelby and Albermarle, no traffic deaths for two consecutive years; and Asheboro and Concord, one year. In the 5,000-to-10,000 population group, winners are Cherryville, eight years, Mount Airy, Roxboro and Canton, four years; Ahoskie and Oxford, three years; Mount Holly and Waynesville, two years; Tarboro, Kings Mountain, Graham, Southern Pines, Belmont, Forest City, Newton, Hendersonville and Lincolnton, one year.

Compile Record Of Tar Heels In Civil War

By H. G. JONES, Director
N. C. Department of Archives and History
Written for the Associated Press

RALEIGH (AP) — An estimated 180,000 North Carolinians served in the Civil War, and a long-range project is under way to document their individual contributions to that conflict.

Begin in 1961 as the most ambitious project of the Civil War Centennial Commission, the Civil War Roster Project was transferred to the state Department of Archives and History in 1965 when the Centennial Commission ceased to exist.

Editor since last year is W. T. Jordan Jr., a native of Tallahassee, Fla., whose background includes bachelor and masters degrees in history from Florida State University, doctorate work at the University of Virginia, intelligence duties with the Air Force in Europe and a year of teaching at Auburn University.

Objectives of the project include compilation of all available data on each North Carolinian who served and publication of a multivolume roster based on that information.

As most people interested in the Civil War know, one roster of North Carolina troops in this conflict already exists. It was published in 1882 by Maj. John W. Moore, a former officer in the Confederate Army.

Moore's Toster, however, is known to have thousands of omissions and errors. Also, it gives only the name and rank of each individual listed.

The new roster, includes each soldier's "service record," which indicates — when known — his county of birth, residence, and enlistment; his age and occupation at the time; and additional information relating to promotions, demotions, wounds, transfers, and the circumstances of his service termination.

This information is being drawn from the Confederate War Department records captured at the end of the Civil War and kept in the National Archives at Washington.

They include company, muster rolls, prisoner of war records, medical records and a great mass of miscellaneous material. The records were indexed about 60 years ago and since were microfilmed.

Noumea, capital of New Caledonia, is called the "paris of the Pacific."

Other sources are Confederate pension records, records of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and newspapers from Civil War years.

Material in the published volumes is arranged numerically by regiment, then alphabetically by company and surname.

For example, the 1st Regiment of North Carolina Troops is broken down into ten companies, A through K. Names of the men who served in each company are listed alphabetically.

Fresh view of the conflict is gained from dealing with the Civil War on the basis of individuals rather than battles.

Unlike most historians and Civil War buffs who take their views from a consideration of political motivations and battle strategies, Jordan likens his perspective of the war to that of a surgeon or possibly of a mortician.

Breaking the monotony of the usual entries are many colorful notations that were recorded seriously but that have taken on a note of humor with the passing of a century.

One entry says soldier's service was terminated "when he accidentally shot himself while mounting his horse."

Another takes note of an individual who was "distinguished for robbing hen roosts," and another mentions that a soldier's release from duty was requested by a certain young lady so that "he (could) come home and marry her as he had promised."

On the more serious side, the roster will be of great value to professional geneologists and to present and future North Carolinians who are interested in the Civil War service of their ancestors.

For amateur and professional historians alike the published volumes will provide a great mass of readily accessible information concerning North Carolina's participation in the Civil War.

Volumes I and II, covering the artillery and cavalry, already are available. Volume III, covering the first four infantry regiments and five miscellaneous infantry units, will be published this summer.

WOOD ON THE WATER — Thousands of cords of pulpwood surround island in Schoomook Lake (Maine) where wood collects after being driven down the Penobscot River. It was the final thundering drive of thousands and thousands of uncut logs down the river, a practice that had begun over 100 years ago. Starting next year, trucks will haul the wood from the forest. (AP Wirephoto)

Given A Better Chance In 'Exclusive' Schools

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH

AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — What happens when a high school student is taken from a lower income situation and placed in an exclusive private boarding school?

Sponsors of a 6-year-old modest, little-publicized experiment called A Better Chance-ABC—give this answer:

—Five of every six students in the program graduate.

—Ninety seven per cent of ABC graduates go on to colleges, including Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, Columbia, Cornell, Chicago and the University of Pennsylvania.

—At least 70 per cent finish college, and sizeable numbers enroll in graduate schools.

Originally organized by 23 Northeast private schools, the program is nonprofit and 75 per cent financed by the 100 participating schools that include Phillips Exeter Academy, Miss Hall's School, Deerfield Academy, The Choate School, Brooks School and St. Paul's School.

National in scope, the ABC program is aimed at ninth and 10th grade students in situations that seem to rule out academic success.

Although 76 per cent of the participating students are black, the program also includes whites and such minority groups as American Indians, Puerto Ricans, Mexican-Americans and others. The students come from rural as well as urban areas.

In 1970, 44 per cent of the incoming class were from families receiving welfare and 52 per cent from broken homes.

ABC President William D. Berkeley says the schools also benefit from the experiment.

"Two leadership groups are being educated together," Berkeley said. "One from a social sector seeking power and control over its own destiny and the other from a sector which traditionally has held influence. Each group ... brings understanding and mutual respect to the decision-making process."

Since the first 63 students were admitted to the program, said Garvey Clarke, black New York lawyer and ABC director of development, "the trend has been to poorer and poorer youngsters who do not come from a tradition of education."

Slightly more than 300 students are recruited each year. ABC estimates it costs approximately $10,000 to educate one student for three years plus an additional $1,000 for expenses to cover a summer transitional program.

ABC raises about $1 million annually through foundations, corporations and individual donations, Clarke said. Contributions have amounted to more than $4 million since the program started. Participating schools have spent nearly $9 million.

Berkeley said ABC receives about 1,000 applications each year. Some 300 to 350 prospects with the highest potential are chosen and offered to the participating schools. Each school has the right of rejection.

Students are accepted in the spring on the condition they do satisfactory work at a summer transitional program held at such colleges as Dartmouth, Holyoke, Duke, Amherst, Carleton and Williams.

In the summer program, nominees are given intensive work in English, math and reading and trained to improve study habits and use of the library, Berkeley said.

"We try to prepare them psychologically for a new experience," he said.

The program is unlike most other programs aimed at the disadvantaged, Berkeley said, because "it seeks to alter the entire life pattern of its students."

Berkeley believes the program is more effective than the remedial training given students admitted to college without the qualifications demanded of other applicants.

"It is difficult to compensate an ill-prepared student for his poor high school education," he said. "ABC students are fully qualified academically and socially to attend and compete equally at the best colleges and universities."

In 1966, a separate ABC program for public schools was formed and today has spread to 20 school districts throughout the nation, Berkeley said.

The ABC Public School program involves 200 to 300 students and operates under the same concept as ABC in removing the student from surroundings of poverty and places him in what Berkeley called "a good public school."

Each participating district establishes dorms for eight to 12 students who attend its public schools, Berkeley said. Public programs are operating in New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Connecticut and California.

Schools Prepare Aviation Course

Students from D. H. Conley and Farmville Central High Schools in Pitt County will be eligible next fall for a one-semester course in aviation science. Selected schools within a 100-mile radius of Raleigh have been given the opportunity to offer flying instruction to their students through a cooperative pilot project with the Raleigh Flying Service.

Teachers from the students' own schools will be given 35 hours of in-service training in August, which will qualify them to teach the course. The aviation science institute for teachers will be conducted free by Herbert Hilliard, general manager of the Raleigh Flying Service, Inc., and will take place at a centrally located school and at the Raleigh Airport, where a flying simulator is available.

Once the elective course is opened in the fall, students will be introduced to basic aeronautical topics such as aerodynamics, aircraft components, meteorology, navigation, radio navigation and rules that control the airways. Much of the course can be taught in regular classrooms. The students will also take a 40-mile flight, which they will be called on to navigate.

Upon completion of the pilot program, any student wanting to take further flight training will be eligible to take a written test, which is prerequisite to further flight training.

ECU Senior Wins Award

A senior Home Economics major at East Carolina University, Linda Ruth Crawford, is the recipient of the annual award presented by the Delta chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary teachers' society.

The award is presented each year to an ECU woman student in teacher training who has distinguished herself in scholarship, leadership and character.

Miss Crawford holds membership in Phi Kappa Phi honor society and Phi Upsilon Omicron home economics honor society. Her grade point average is 3.66 (of possible 4.0) and she was commended for scoring 1500 out of a possible 1600 on the National Teachers' Examination.

Math Frat Initiates 15

Fifteen East Carolina University students were inducted into Pi Mu Epsilon, national honorary mathematics fraternity, at ceremonies recently held.

Dr. Tullio J. Pignani, chairman of the ECU mathematics department gave the major address.

Robert Woodside of the mathematics faculty is advisor to the local chapter which was organized at East Carolina in 1968.

Names of students inducted and their hometown addresses include:

GREENE COUNTY, Walstonburg — Jane Craft, Rt. 1.

MARTIN COUNTY, Robertsonville — Brenda F. James, Rt. 2.

PITT COUNTY, Greenville — Bobby Beckom, 1809 E. 5th St.; Brenda Y. Bone, The Carriage House, Apt. 33; Ruby Fields Dinkins, Apt. 8, Riverfront Apts.; Mitzi C. Woodside, 1206 Drexel Land.

Bus Trip Will Be On July 18

Two buses will leave Mt. Shiloh Baptist Church for a bus trip to Oceanview Beach on July 18.

The deadline for purchasing tickets is June 26. Interested persons may call Mrs. Mildred Ward for tickets or information.

Graduation Set At Day Center

The annual graduation of Meadowbrook Day Care Center will be held Sunday, at 5:00 p.m. Parents are asked to have their children at the center by 4:30 p.m.

TO BE SLAUGHTERED

Mrs. Ruel W. Tyson of Greenville will be saluted on WNCN-TV as "Today's Outstanding North Carolina Citizen" on Saturday. Mrs. Tyson was recently elected President of the N.C. Council of Women's State Organizations.
