ACCEPTS CEASE-FIRE — Pakistani President Yahya Khan ordered a cease-fire Friday for his forces on the western front, ending the 14-day war with India. (AP Wirephoto)

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The war between India and Pakistan ended today, with the new nation of Bangladesh established in East Pakistan. In 14 days of fighting more than 2,000 Indian soldiers died, at least that many Pakistanis and uncounted civilians.

President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan of Pakistan accepted India's proposal for a cease-fire on the western front. "I am accepting the Indian proposal for a cease-fire in the interest of peace and stability on the subcontinent," he said.

Yahya ordered Pakistani forces in West Pakistan to halt the fighting at 9:30 a.m. EST, the time set by India in a unilateral cease-fire. Only 24 hours earlier he had vowed to fight "until all occupied areas are taken back."

India announced the cease-fire Thursday after Pakistan's army had surrendered in East Pakistan, 1,000 miles from the western front.

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi

greeted Yahya's acceptance by saying: "I must be careful because I don't know yet whether it will be a full peace."

Official sources in New Delhi said India suffered more than 10,000 casualties in the war on both fronts—2,307 killed, 6,163 wounded, and 2,163 missing. Of these 1,021 were killed in the east and 1,286 in the west, they added.

There have been no figures on Pakistan losses, but the Indian Defense Ministry says Pakistan's losses are much higher than India's—and few doubt this.

The future of Yahya Khan's military government is in doubt. He had moved recently to transfer control to civilians, and this trend will gain impetus under such men as Zulfikar Ali Bhutto. As deputy prime minister and foreign minister, he says Pakistan should have democratic government soon.

Lt. Gen. J. S. Aurora, who accepted Pakistan's surrender in Dacca, said his troops will remain in East Pakistan for a time to help repatriate war prisoners, re-establish law and order and communications, and help with the return of Bengali refugees from India. He expected most Indian forces to withdraw within weeks.

The general said the defeated soldiers from West Pakistan were being allowed to keep their weapons until they arrived in POW camps because of fear that vengeful Bengalis "would butcher them" in reprisal for the Pakistani Army's war on the Bengali independence forces since last March.

"The bitterness in Dacca—you have to see it to believe it," he told reporters.

Aurora said he expected all Pakistani troops to be disarmed within two days and movement of the prisoners of war to India to begin "as soon as it can."

In a short speech to her Parliament, Mrs. Gandhi said India wants to build its relations with Pakistan on a "basis of friendship."

India had Soviet backing in the war while China supported Pakistan, but there has been no evidence of direct intervention by either power.

A Bangla Desh civil administration, led by four senior civil servants, was going to Dacca to take over general administrative responsibilities.

Gen. Aurora will exercise over-all supervision.

Mrs. Gandhi expressed hope that Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the East Pakistani political leader held prisoner by Yahya Khan, "will take his rightful place and lead the Bangla Desh people to peace, progress and prosperity."

Sheikh Mujib was arrested in March when the West Pakistani army cracked down on the East Pakistani secessionist movement.

Lt. Gen. K. P. Candeth, commanding general of Indian forces on the western front, told reporters he thought West Pakistan's military power had been destroyed "to a very great extent indeed."

In other developments: —Indians celebrating the victory over Pakistan in the East stoned the U.S. Information Service offices in Calcutta but did no damage. They burned effigies of Presidents Nixon and Yahya Khan.

The Pentagon indicated that a U.S. naval task force will remain in the Bay of Bengal until it becomes clear to Washington that the India-Pakistan war is over and Americans in Pakistan are no longer in danger. About 1,400 Americans are estimated to be in Pakistan, most of them in the West, well away from the combat area.

Communist China declared it will continue material assistance to Pakistan. Peking charged that the war "is precisely a repetition on the South Asian subcontinent of the 1968 Soviet invasion and occupation of Czechoslovakia."

Franks Retiring

RALEIGH — Roy D. Franks, 66, assistant division engineer in the Second Highway Division, will retire after more than 47 years of service with the State Highway Commission on Dec. 31.

Franks, who lives in Kinston but whose office is at division headquarters in Greenville, is ending a professional career that saw him rise through the Highway Commission ranks since his first day on the job in 1923.

A native of Winterville, Franks attended elementary and high school in that area and studied at Duke University.

His professional activities include membership in the North Carolina Society of Engineers. He is a member of the Gordon Street Christian Church in Kinston and has served there as both a member and chairman of the board of deacons. He is also a Mason and a Shriner.

His highway career has been spent in Eastern North Carolina and he has served in many capacities, including that of resident engineer, before being appointed assistant division engineer, the post he is leaving.

Thaw Causes Income Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — National personal income showed a moderate increase in November as the thaw from President Nixon's wage-price freeze began to take effect, a government report said today.

The Commerce Department said personal income increased by $3.5 billion compared with a $1-billion advance in October.

The wage-price freeze expired Nov. 13.

Most of the November rise was in wage and salary payments, with a $1.5-billion gain in government wages and salaries a main feature of the increase. About two-thirds of the government pay step-up was attributed to the military pay raise approved by the Pay Board just as Nixon's Phase 2 program went into effect.

In the private sector, there was little evidence that the Phase 2 wage policies were contributing to a dramatic rise in payrolls after the freeze.

Manufacturing payrolls climbed by $500 million, dropping in half from the October rate.

But the manufacturing increase was attributed mainly to greater employment and a longer work week. Average hourly earnings were little changed from October, the department said.

The annual tobacco meeting of Pitt County Farmers was held last night with Dr. W. K. Collins, extension tobacco specialist, and F. A. Todd, extension plant pathologist with the North Carolina State University, as guest speakers.

Sam Weeks, Pitt County extension agent, opened the meeting. He explained that the two main areas to be discussed were disease control and cultural practices.

Dr. Collins used slides to illustrate his lecture on cultural practices. He explained how the dollar was returned to the farmers as compared in 1950.

"The farmer received 16 cents out of every dollar in 1950," Dr. Collins said, "but in 1970 he received only eight cents out of every dollar."

Dr. Collins pointed out that tobacco companies are producing more cigarettes with (Continued on page 8)

Rountree Is Chairman

Pitt County Representative Horton Rountree yesterday was named chairman of the House Committee on Higher Education.

Phil Godwin, speaker of the House of Representatives made the appointment to fill a vacancy created last month when the former chairman of the committee, Perry Martin of Rich Square, was appointed a Superior Court judge.

Rountree served as vice-chairman of the Committee on Higher Education during the 1971 General Assembly.

As chairman of the House committee, Rountree will serve as ex-officio member of the Board of Higher Education until July 1, 1972. At that time, the Board of Higher Education will give way to the newly created Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina which will assume the duty as head of all 16 state-supported institutions of higher education, including the six campuses of UNC, the nine regional universities and the School of the Arts.

Rountree, a practicing attorney in Greenville, was named to the Board of Trustees of East Carolina University November 15 by Gov. Bob Scott.

The Farmville native attended the University of North Carolina and has served as a representative in the General Assembly in 1967, 1969 and 1971.

After First Year, Her Captivity Not So Bad

By LEE LINDER
Associated Press Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mary Ann Harbert, the pert, 25-year-old secretary held by the Communist Chinese for 3½ years, says life in China's countryside was not too unpleasant after the first year of captivity.

Miss Harbert said Thursday that she lived in a small farmhouse in a rural commune, raised pets and had a vegetable garden.

To pass the time Miss Harbert played badminton, Ping Pong, cards and chess with Chinese who brought her food and who could speak some English.

She said she was never held in a prison. "There was usually a guard with a sub-machine gun and bayonet, ready at any time, but it wasn't necessary," said the 97-pound woman. "I could hardly overpower him."

Wearing a blue and white miniskirt dress and her brown hair hung loosely around her neck, Miss Harbert related her story at a news conference.

Taken at gunpoint from a friend's sailboat off the China coast in mid-1968, Miss Harbert was freed Monday along with 44-year-old Richard G.

Fecteau of Lynn, Mass. She and Fecteau, an Army civilian employee who was a prisoner of the Chinese for more than 19 years, crossed the border into Hong Kong.

Miss Harbert said she was captured while sailing from Hong Kong to Manila with Gerald Ross McLaughlin, formerly of Palo Alto. The Chinese said McLaughlin committed suicide in 1969 while in detention.

"We had no intention of trespassing into Chinese waters," Miss Harbert said. "We thought we were sailing a legal course. The Chinese who captured us said we had intruded. We were outnumbered, so we agreed it was possible we were in. It was also possible we were not. We didn't know."

Miss Harbert said she and McLaughlin were held in the same house—she upstairs and he downstairs—for the first nine months. She said she never saw him after that.

She also said she was never charged with a crime or brought to trial and denied spying for the United States.

Once, she said, she was threatened with jail unless she made anti-American statements.

"I refused," Miss Harbert said. "I said I was not going to. They finally accepted this."

Redevelopment Commissioners Okay House-Use For ECU Dept.

By TOM BAINES
Reflector Staff Writer

Redevelopment Commissioners Thursday night approved a resolution authorizing a rent-free lease agreement with the Interior Design Department of the School of Art at East Carolina University for the use of a house on Greene Street for testing purposes.

CBD project manager Lawrence Holt read a letter from Melvin Stanforth, a professor in the department, requesting such an agreement with the commission.

In his letter, Stanforth pointed out that the interior design students would use the house as a means of putting their design studies to practical use, utilizing the structure as a testing facility.

Commissioners voted to give the department a six-month rent-free lease on the house, which is located behind the service station on the corner of Fifth and Greene Streets. It was pointed out that the house would not be needed by the commission and would eventually be removed as part of the CBD project.

In other business, real estate officer Kirby Boyd reported that bid openings for demolition on two parcels in the CBD project and one in Newtown were held on Dec. 6.

Boyd said that Jefferson Florist of Greenville was low bidder for the parcel in Newtown located on Boyd Avenue and also for two in the CBD area, located south of the library on Evans Street. Shore Drive project manager Bryan McClure told commissioners that Wheel and Moore had begun their building in Shore Drive and the commission has closed with the firm on the sale of the land.

In N. C. R-61 (Newtown), it was reported that one parcel was acquired last month and six buildings were removed.

Boyd, in the absence of project manager T. I. Wagner, said that four tenants still remain in houses owned by the commission and three more tenants remain in houses that have not been purchased.

The CBD project advisory committee met on Nov. 30. Holt reported, and officers were elected during the session. Re-elected to another one-year term were E. Hoover Taft Jr., chairman; Howard Moye, vice chair-

Couple Exchanges Vows In Ceremony On Saturday

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—Miss JoNette Miller of Sacramento, Calif. and Lt. Cecil Lynn Eason Jr. of Farmville, N.C. were united in marriage Saturday at one o'clock in the McClellan Air Force Base Chapel in Sacramento.

Father Leo Sweeney performed the double ring ceremony before a background of altar adornments and baskets of white flower arrangements.

Organ selections were presented by the chapel organist, Thomas Sanderson.

Parents of the bride and bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Miller of Sacramento and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lynn Eason of Farmville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of plaid de soie fashioned in an empire style with alencon lace gracing the bodice skirt and long veronese sleeves. Lace appliques accented the A-line skirt and subtle crystal beading enhanced the neck and waist.

She wore a cathedral length mantilla edged with matching lace. Her bridal bouquet featured cattleya orchid with white daisy mums, stephanotis and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Linda Feldman was matron of honor with Miss Kathleen Miller as junior bridesmaid. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gail Butcher and Miss Sue Teethman, all of Sacramento, and Miss Vivian Lu Dixon of Farmville.

The matron of honor was attired in a gold high waisted dress with lace in the outline of bodice and long full sleeves finished with a bias band and a bow as was the neckline. The bridesmaids wore the same style in moss green. They wore daisy mums in their hair and carried nosegays of daisies.

John Charles Miller Jr. served as ring bearer.

Lt. William Butcher was best man. Groomsmen were Lt. Paul Feldman and Lt. Frank Cummings, all of Sacramento, Calif.

Mrs. Miller chose for her daughter's wedding, a dress of moss green silk with ruffle at the neckline and long sleeves. The mother of the bridegroom selected a tangerine dress and coat ensemble with white trim. Both outfits were complemented with matching accessories and rose corsages.

For a wedding trip to Sahara Tahoe, South Lake Tahoe, Nev., the bride donned a blue crushed velvet double breasted pantsuit. They will make their home in Rancho Cordova, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were host and hostess at a reception and buffet in the Fireside Room of the Officers Club after the ceremony. After guests served themselves from the buffet, they were seated at long tables placed in front of the fireplace. A table spread with gathered net organza covers and satin daisy streamers held a three tiered decorated wedding cake.

After the couple had cut the first slice in the traditional manner, others were served. Mrs. William Wick presided at the guest register table.

Following the rehearsal of the wedding Friday night, the bridegroom's parents entertained at a dinner party at McClellan Air Force Base Officers Club.

Is Her Doctor Kind Or Interested?

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I am strongly attracted to my doctor. He is divorced and I am a widow. I have a hunch he feels something for me. He is very kind and gentle. He is also very ethical. He hasn't expressed any special interest in me, but he frequently brushes lint, or what have you off my clothes. Could this mean anything?

He seems concerned about my welfare in a professional way. He touches me a lot. Friendly gestures. On the arm, shoulder and hands. He listens to me attentively, however trivial my conversation.

Am I just lonely, or do you think this could develop into something more than just a doctor-patient relationship? And if so, how?

DEAR PATIENT: Since he is, as you say, "very ethical," you will have to find out outside his office. The next time you need an escort, invite him to do the honors. If your hunch is right, and he "feels something for you," the next move will be his. If your hunch is wrong, you haven't lost anything, and you've saved a lot of time.

DEAR ABBY: I am the secretary to an executive in a large and important firm, and as such, I telephone other businessmen in like positions. The purpose of this letter is to express amazement at the stupidity of some of the secretaries with whom I have spoken on the telephone.

Example: When I telephone and say, "Is Mr. Jones available? Mr. Smith of X. Y. Z. Corp. is calling." I have been told, "One moment, please, I don't think he's come in yet." [And this is at 11:15 a. m.]

Or: "Would you care to hold? He's on the other telephone with Mr. Schwartz." [It's nobody's business who he's on the phone with.]

Or: "He hasn't come back from lunch yet, but he won't be gone long. Nobody took him."

Or would you believe, "Just a minute. I think he's in the john."

Girls can be taught how to type and take shorthand, but I honestly believe they should be given a course in common sense.

DEAR ABBY: Please put this in the paper with your answer. Our next door neighbor gave us a Christmas gift a whole MONTH in advance. [She did the same thing last year.] Here we are, living right next door to her and she could have waited until at least two weeks before Christmas.

I have a theory about people who give gifts that far ahead of time. They want to give the recipients plenty of time in which to buy a gift for THEM. And of course, after they GET a gift, they are obligated to give one in return. Your comments, please.

DEAR IRRITATED: Your letter falls into the "You Can't Win" category. Your "theory" could be correct. It could also be incorrect. Many prefer to avoid the hassle of Christmas giving by sending gifts well in advance of the rush.

DEAR ABBY: Is it normal for a boy who is in the 8th grade to kiss his mother goodbye every morning before he goes to school, and then wave a couple of times as he goes down the street?

I have two grown sons, and they stopped kissing me goodby in about the 2d grade. Sign me . . . WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: The boy's behavior in this one instance could suggest that he has a rather strong attachment to his mother. But that doesn't necessarily mean there is anything abnormal about it.

Add Color For Holiday Meal, Serve Sprouts And Carrots

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor When roast turkey graces the holiday table, what vegetables will accompany it?

Here we have a suggestion: Holiday Sprouts and Carrots. The green of the sprouts and the orange of the carrots make this dish attractive and the flavors combine well. To add a festive addition, brandy or sherry goes into the glaze that coats the vegetables.

HOLIDAY SPROUTS AND CARROTS

8 medium or large carrots Water Salt

2 packages (each 10 ounces) frozen Brussels sprouts

1 tablespoon cornstarch

1 chicken bouillon cube

¼ cup butter

4 teaspoons sugar

¼ cup brandy or dry sherry

White pepper to taste

Pare carrots; cut in half lengthwise; cut lengthwise into strips about ¼-inch thick; cut strips into short pieces about 2 inches long.

Into a large saucepan or saucepot pour 2 cups water; add 1 teaspoon salt; bring to a boil. Add carrots and boil for 5 minutes. Add Brussels sprouts and boil gently until sprouts are tender. Drain, reserving ¼ cup cooking liquid. Return vegetables to saucepan and cover to keep warm.

Into a small saucepan turn the cornstarch; gradually stir in ¼ cup cold water, keeping smooth; add the ¼ cup reserved cooking liquid. Add bouillon cube, butter, sugar and brandy. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Reduce heat and simmer about 3 minutes longer.

Pour glaze over carrots and sprouts, adding salt if needed and pepper. Heat, spooning glaze over vegetables. Makes 8 servings.

Budget Grip Is Tightened

RALEIGH (AP) — Tough new budget preparation orders significantly tightening the governor's grip on state spending have gone out to state agencies.

The new budget process was developed by the Budget Division of the State Department of Administration. Gov. Bob Scott gave it his approval this week along with the Advisory Budget Commission.

Under the new setup, state agencies preparing their 1973-75 spending requests will present two lists:

1—A "base budget" seeking money to continue programs at current levels for current numbers of clients (students, patients, visitors, etc.).

2—A "growth budget" containing requests for new programs, expanded client populations, new buildings, and enrichment of existing programs.

Before presenting their detailed requests, agencies would be required to submit to the governor a narrative of problems in their areas, and a list of goals to meet the problems. Costs of the goals would be listed.

After studying the narratives early next year, the governor will "match agency proposals against his assessment of the needs of the people and the probably tax availability and ... advise the agencies of those proposals to which he will lend his support," said a budget division memorandum on the new budget process.

"This is a simple process, but it is a radical change in the way agencies have been requesting ... It will strengthen the hand of the governor," said Andrew Jones, state budget officer.

Schools Begin 2-Week Holiday

At the end of the school day today, students and teachers of the Greenville City Schools can look forward to a long two week holiday.

Ex-Airline Executive Sees Railroad Frontier

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Harold Graham is a former commercial pilot and airline executive who believes that the business of carrying passengers over railroads is a fascinating concept with unlimited possibilities.

Soft-spoken, low-keyed, Graham becomes enthusiastic about the future. "There are few new industries in this world," he says. Rail travel, he claims, can be a brand new way of life.

Holt on Mr. Graham. A new way of life? Railroad a new business?

In 1929 about 20,000 passenger trains rolled the rails. They carried 77 per cent of all passenger traffic between cities. In 1970 only 450 trains remained and they carried only 7.2 per cent of intercity traffic.

Whether they were driven off by poor service or whether the passengers deserted the rails for the car, bus and plane is a moot question. But what the figures seem to say is that this is not a new industry but a dying one.

Well, Graham explains, new in the sense of the possibilities.

Plan Christmas Party Sunday

The Senior Ladies Auxiliary of Sycamore Hill Baptist Church will have its annual Christmas party Sunday at 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wilma T. Dupree, 411 Greenfield Boulevard.

Mrs. L. R. Taylor will be the hostess. The members are asked to bring a Christmas exchange gift for the party.

new in the way it fits into a new life style. To Graham, railroads can be the answer to ecologists' prayers, the solution to businessmen's fatigue, the opportunity for family vacations.

Speaking in this manner, Graham could only work for the National Railroad Passenger Corp. AMTRAK, the new corporation responsible for running most of the nation's intercity passenger trains. He is vice president-marketing.

He begins with the assumption that the American public really wants trains if they are clean, efficient, gracious.

"There has long been a love-hate relationship between the railroads and the people," he says. "They love the railroads but they hate the people who run them."

There is, he says, a mystique about the rails. They pushed back the frontier, opened the West. They belonged as much to the farmer who set his clock by the train whistle as to the financiers who owned them. They are Americana.

The plane never meant so much to the people, Graham believes. It flies over, often unseen. It is an impersonal object. It belongs to somebody else.

But the airlines flourished and the trains deteriorated.

Swearing In New Report Stealing Justices Jan. 7

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court's two new justices, Lewis F. Powell of Virginia and William H. Rehnquist of Arizona, will be sworn in Jan. 7.

The new justices will go right to work after a swearing-in ceremony, the court said Thursday.

Powell, succeeding the late Hugo L. Black, becomes the 99th justice and Rehnquist, succeeding retired John N. Harlan, becomes the 100th.

More than 650 barbiturate tablets were taken from Biggs Drug Store on Evans Street in a break in there about 7:30 this morning, according to Greenville police.

Chief Glenn Cannon said entrance to the building was gained by breaking a glass door on the Third Street side of the building.

Missing were more than 500 Seconal tablets and 150 Nembutal tabs, valued at about $10 to $15 wholesale.

Student Task Force Is Asked In County Schools

The presidents of the Student Government Associations and other representatives of the five schools in Pitt County attended a meeting at the Pitt County Schools central office Tuesday to discuss the organization of a Pitt County Student Task Force.

Mike Dixon of Farmville Central was elected temporary chairman and Jean Council of North Pitt was named temporary recorder.

Attending the meeting in addition of Dixon and Miss Council were: Margie Barnette, Farmville Central; Lyle Barlow, Mike Van Dyke, Elaine Hawkins, Eugenia Parker, Rosalind Britt, Charles Francis and David Barnhill, all of Rose High School; Carlton McCarter and Chuck Babington, Ayden-Grifton High School; Laura Richardson, and Christie Speir, North Pitt High School; Bryant Hines and Sonny McLawhorn, D.H. Conley High School; and Mrs. Kathryn Lewis, Pitt County Schools.

After a long discussion, the group decided to recommend to the Pitt County Board of Education that a Pitt County Student Task Force be organized and that students from Rose High discuss with their principal and superintendent the desirability of becoming a part of that task force.

It was also suggested that each school set up within the school a task force that would be representative of the entire student body with emphasis being placed on: Representation from each grade level; representation racially; and representation of different socioeconomic backgrounds.

Four students will be selected from each school to be on the Pitt County Task Force, making a total of 20 members if Rose High participates.

If the task force is approved by the county board of education, plans will be made so that the task force will be ready to go to work by Jan. 31.

"It really doesn't matter. Do you have any suggestions?"

"Let me look at my travel brochures a moment. Would you be interested in visiting Washington, D. C.?"

"What for?"

"It's the nation's capital. There are many things of interest there. There's the Lincoln Memorial, the National Gallery and they have a new tourist attraction called the Kennedy Center."

"I'd better check it out with my wife."

"Why don't we put you down for Washington between Peking and Moscow? If you change your mind, we can always write you out a new ticket."

Scrooge Spirit Is Frowned Upon

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The third-floor windows of the Public Safety Building today were scrubbed clean of a Christmas greeting that some citizens found offensive.

"Bah! Humbug" was the message emblazoned in six-foot letters Thursday on the office windows of Police Commissioner John A. Mastrella.

The commissioner said when staff members asked for permission to spray windows of the downtown building with the slogan he told them, "Why not! Scrooge is part of Christmas."

But, Mastrella noted sadly, people complained, so "in deference to their views—some of them narrow-minded—we'll take the letters off."

Dr. Grace Here In Candidacy 'Survey'

Dr. Gene Grace of Durham met with supporters in the Washington-Greenville area yesterday as part of his week-long swing around the state to check support for his running against Sen. B. Everett Jordan for the U.S. Senate.

Dr. Grace announced his candidacy early this year, then withdrew. Many have prevailed upon him to toss his hat into the ring again, he said, so he is reconsidering.

He toured the new medical facility at East Carolina University and spoke to faculty members about health care delivery, the subject of his latest book, "Rx For America."

Later he met with students, some of whom are his campus volunteers. He spoke about responsibilities of college graduates.

He said he calls for "progressive programs that benefit the people, for spending money necessary for good health, education, and well-being of all our citizens."

He deplores "extravagancies that break the back of working people," he said. "When this war in Indochina is done, the great wealth of this nation can be redirected to meet the needs of the American people. I want the Senate of the United States to see that these needs are met. The great social problems reflect illness, but I believe we are fully capable of recovery. We just need a doctor."

Found A 'Treasure' In Old N.C. House

By JAMES NOLTING
Durham Sun Writer

Written for Associated Press
HILLSBOROUGH, N.C. (AP) — An example of American post-Revolutionary man's skills, patience and strengths was uncovered recently by three Duke University clinical researchers.

The discovery, however, was not in medicine and not related to Duke University.

It was an interest in lumber that led to the find.

In late October, Dr. Lyle Griffith and Tom Adkinson, researchers in the Renal Division's Department of Nephrology, purchased an abandoned home four miles north of Hillsborough.

They purchased it for lumber. Each cited different reasons for wanting the wood. One wanted to build some furniture. The other wanted to construct a small shelter behind his Durham home.

What started out as a bothersome task of collecting lumber and hauling it home, turned into energetic involvement when they discovered the intricate design of the home.

"We were amazed at the detail and sound condition of the structure," said Adkinson. It was in better shape than a lot of fairly new houses, he said.

A fellow worker in the Renal lab, Bill Donelan, helped.

Through some quick research, the three established that the house was built in 1805 and took more than five years to complete.

The house was built by Hugh Woods, a carpenter from Pennsylvania. He was a relative of Thomas Reddin, the first owner. When Reddin died he left the home to a son, and it remained in the family for many decades.

The eight-room, two-story structure was of oak beams, some of them 40 feet long.

The house is a mortise and tenon combination. The boards were hewed out to permit insertion of other pieces to interlock.

Corner beams are L-shaped and run the height of the structure. T-piece beams were placed along the walls, and all are unusually straight.

Donelan pointed out the absence of knot holes in the pine boards on the outside of the house. Some of the wood is nine to ten inches wide. It was cut from center portions only of tall pine trees.

"We're taking the house apart piece-by-piece and numbering each just in case the urge to reassemble a duplicate ever arises," Donelan said.

Hand-cut square nails were used on most of the structure and gradual settling of the house bent many of them.

"Taking it apart has been a real chore," Donelan said.

Roman numerals were indentured on many of the pieces. "None was interchangeable and each was carefully designed before assembly," he said. "This was a real art—few could do it."

There is a full basement. The foundation is of "Hillsborough Stone" and has a wood vent.

A room, not nearly as well built, was added to the house about 1920.

The new owners spend much of their time off — weekends and nights — at the site, hidden by tall oaks off N.C. 86.

They must finish their work and have the lumber cleared by the first of the year. According to terms of the purchase, the house reverts back to the landowner then.

Asked if they thought they could finish it by the deadline, Donelan replied enthusiastically, "We'll make it."

End adv Fri, PMs Dec. 17. Moved Dec. 15.

Liberals To BeOrganized

RALEIGH (AP) — A new liberal political organization called the North Carolina Coalition will seek to rally labor, students, minorities and intellectuals to the causes it espouses.

In announcing the formation of the new group Thursday, state AFL-CIO President Wilbur Hobby said it would eventually endorse candidates in the 1972 elections and perhaps promote candidates of its own.

Hobby said the coalition will not take the form of a political party. Instead it will try to get candidates to endorse its goals, set out in a "statement of principles" adopted by a meeting of about 50 persons in Raleigh Saturday.

The goals called for environmental protection, "high quality education and a totally integrated public school system," pre-school care and vocational education, antipoverty programs, liberalized labor laws, court reform, prison improvement, and a strengthened United Nations.

Hobby said the new group would cooperate with three other new political action groups — a woman's political caucus, a black caucus, and the political arm of North Carolina school teachers, Political Action Committee for Education (PACE).

The new group's statement of principles were written by Prof. Dan Pollitt of the University of North Carolina Law School; the Rev. W.W. Finlator of Pullen Memorial Baptist Church in Raleigh; Miss Becky Hannah, a University of North Carolina student; and Ben Ragsdale of the AFL-CIO.

Congress Clears Way For Adjourning

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A foreign-aid compromise, following sudden House rejection of an end-of-the-war amendment, cleared the way for Congress to adjourn today.

The Senate planned to quit until Jan. 18 after passing the compromise $2.752-billion aid authorization and a temporary funding measure for foreign aid.

The latter probably will be about the same or a bit below the authorization level.

Seize 'Nixon Dollar' Bills

DETROIT (AP) — The Secret Service has confiscated thousands of inflated-in size "Nixon dollars" that Michigan Democrats had been circulating to spoof the President and his economic policy.

Amused Democrats declared after the seizure Thursday that they knew dollars had been in short supply under the Nixon administration but they didn't realize how short.

A spokesman for the Secret Service said the oversized bills were confiscated as contraband under a federal law forbidding the use of imitation U.S. currency for novelty or advertising purposes.

"Nixon dollars" are about one-third larger than regular dollar bills. On the front is an image of President Nixon flashing a victory sign with one hand while crossing the fingers of the other. On the back the bills say, "God Help Us."

Each "One Frozen Dollar" is signed by "M. Mitchell, Keeper of the Cookie Jar," and by "John Con Lee, Secretary of the Treasury."

Break-In And A Fight Reported At Rose High

Rose High principal Robert Alligood this morning reported two incidents at the school. The first involved a break-in during the night. Alligood noted that detectives were on hand investigating a break-in of the administrative suite, the guidance office and the library. He said an investigation was being made to determine the extent of damage.

At the beginning of school today, a fight occurred in the lobby area between a black and a white male student. Alligood said that several other students attempted to join in the affray, but that it was broken up and all students were held in their home rooms to allow conditions to calm down. Alligood noted no problems were apparent in a quiet orderly first change of classes.

Like Summer

Local temperatures reached a summery high of 85 degrees during November, the Greenville utilities monthly report shows.

The high was ten degrees above the 75 degree high for the same month in 1970.

There was a touch of winter during the month when the thermometer hit a low of 25.5 degrees. That was well above the 14 degree low for November, 1970, though.

Rainfall last month totalled 2.36 inches and the total for the fiscal year, which began July 1, is 28.64 inches.

The House, its legislative work completed, awaited Senate action on the foreign-aid funding measure but decided to put off a vote on the authorization measure until January.

The question of foreign-aid funds had threatened to tie up adjournment until Thursday's surprise action by Rep. William F. Ryan, D-N.Y., to force a new House vote on the amendment requiring total U.S. withdrawal from Indochina within six months.

Taking advantage of a House rule, Ryan moved to force the House conferees to accept the amendment, offered by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield. Rep. Thomas Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and of its foreign-aid conferees, moved to table and thus kill Ryan's motion, succeeding by the vote of 130 to 101.

As a result of the vote, Senate conferees suddenly dropped their demand that the House schedule a yes-or-no vote on the Mansfield amendment, and the foreign-aid conference met for the first time in 13 days.

Asked why the Senate conferees accepted the House vote as a conclusive one on the Mansfield amendment, Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., replied that Mansfield "said it was the closest we could get" to a direct vote.

The conferees promptly a pound of tobacco than they did in 1950. He also compared the different types of fertilizers used in producing a heavier yielding plant to combat this type of situation.

At the close of his talk, Dr. Collins said, "Do topping at an early stage in growth. Compare the machine topping method with the hand topping method."

Dr. Collins showed slides of equipment used in the harvesting of tobacco crops.

Todd discussed disease control. He stated that disease in 1971 cost the tobacco farmers $20,790,000.

Todd explained that a "system" has been devised so the farmer could pick a solution that meets his need for the control of disease.

Included in the system are seven practices the farmer can choose from to suit his particular situation.

The topics discussed at last night's meeting centered around a new booklet entitled "Tobacco Information for 1972" which was prepared by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service. The booklet may be obtained at the Pitt County Agricultural Extension office.

Arrest 5 On Theft Count

Five persons have been arrested by the Pitt County Sheriff's Department and charged with the larceny of a stereo tape player and five tapes from a car parked at D. H. Conley School.

Pitt Sheriff Ralph Tyson said that deputies arrested Sherrell Lee Clemons, 17 of Greenville; Kelly Hawkins, 16, Simpson; Henry Reese, 17, Simpson; Thomas Tyson, 18, Rt. 1, Greenville; and Henry Baker, 16 of Rt. 1, Greenville.

The five are charged with taking a tape player from a car belonging to Mike Gooden of Winterville while it was parked on the school grounds.

Sheriff Tyson said that all five are scheduled for a hearing in District Court on Jan. 10. Bond for each has been set at $100, he said.

The Sheriff, who said the arrests were made on Wednesday, reported that the tape player and tapes were recovered.

Pirates Seek Second League Victory

Big Four Tournament Opening Tonight On Greensboro Court

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Alan Shaw, Duke center, is not intimidated by the prospect of playing tonight against Tommy Burleson of North Carolina State, at 7-foot-4 the tallest college basketball player in the nation.

"Our scouting reports say Burleson is outstanding, but I think I have some advantages too," said Shaw, who is 6-10. "I should be quicker, and I hope to outthrust him, if that's possible."

They will meet in the second game of the North Carolina Big Four Tournament in the 15,000-seat Greensboro Coliseum.

North Carolina, ranked No. 4 nationally, will play Wake Forest in the night's opening game.

The winners will play for the championship Saturday night after a consolation game between the losers.

The games are holiday extras and will not count in conference standings, only in the all-games column. Burleson is averaging 24 points and 17 rebounds a game. North Carolina State, the defending champion in the tournament, is 3-1 this season. The Wolfpack has beaten Atlantic Christian, Georgia and Purdue, and lost to West Virginia.

Shaw, who is averaging 13.3 points and 10 rebounds, says, "I need to do more scoring, becoming more of an inside threat." Duke is 2-2, with victories over Richmond and East Carolina, and losses to Virginia and Pennsylvania.

The last time the teams met, in the opening round of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament, N.C. State upset Duke 68-61. Going into that game State had lost seven of its last eight games and Duke had won eight straight. South Carolina, now an independent, won the tournament 52-51 over North Carolina.

The North Carolina Tar

Heels, 3-1 this season, are favored in the Big Four Tournament, but in recent years they have been getting close battles from Wake Forest. Last year they split their two regular season games.

Robert McAdoo leads North Carolina in scoring with a 19.5 average. Dennis Wuycik is next at 17.7.

North Carolina has lost to Princeton and beaten Rice, Pitt and Virginia Tech.

Wake Forest, led by Sam Jackson, is 2-1, with victories over Rice and William and Mary after an opening loss to Canisius.

In last year's Big Four Tournament, also in the Greensboro Coliseum, N.C. State defeated North Carolina 82-70 and Wake Forest defeated Duke 83-77 in the first round. N.C. State won the title by defeating Wake Forest 73-70.

In other games for ACC teams, Maryland is home to Canisius tonight and Clemson is at Indiana State Saturday night.

After their first four games, playing The Citadel may seem like a breather for the East Carolina University Pirates. But Coach Tom Quinn warns that the Bucs had better not plan it that way.

The Pirates, 1-3, on the year against some of the top teams in the Southeast, travel to Charleston, S. C., to meet the Bulldogs of The Citadel on Saturday night. It is the last game for the Bucs before breaking for the holidays.

The Citadel comes into the game with a 1-4 record thus far, having won only against Wofford. They lost to Campbell in their opener, then fell to UCLA and Roce on the road before finally winning. Their last outing, on last Saturday, was against William & Mary in their only conference outing so far. They lost that one too.

"We've been working all week to get ready," Quinn said. "We've been reviewing some things that we haven't used, and trying to polish up some other things."

But only on Thursday did the Pirates take a look at The Citadel's scouting report. Then, they left this morning for Charleston and will work out there this afternoon.

"They are a very patterned team," Quinn said of The Citadel. The play of the team centers around 6-1 Steve Fischel and 6-5 Lou Meckstroth, two of their returning veterans. They have another veteran, John Sutor in the pivot, and Quinn remembers the 6-8 center as the man who wrecked the Pirates last year.

Jim Below, a 6-0 senior, is the playmaker for the team, and is another veteran. "He leads the conference in field goal percentage," Quinn pointed out. Joining him is the only newcomer to the team; junior college transfer Oscar Scott, 6-3.

"They play a 1-4 type offense," Quinn said. "They put Below on the point, use one wing man, a double high post and a low post. Defensively, they go to a lot of full and half-court zone presses. This is the trademark of George Hill (the new Citadel coach)."

Quinn said that the Pirates staff has scouted the Bulldogs a couple of times, and he feels that the Pirates must generate more offense than they have in the past couple of games. "We haven't had the fast break we want to have. We need more scoring."

The coach pointed out that the Bucs do have four people in double figures and two more hitting between nine and ten points per game, but he feels that averages are too low for this point of the season. "We're capable of scoring more. And out floor percentage should be higher, too."

Earl Quash is leading the team with a 13.5 average, with Jim Fairley right behind at 13.0. They are followed by Jerome Owens at 12.0 and Al Faber at 10.8. Dave Franklin has a 9.3 average, with Nicky White at 9.0.

Fairley leads the rebounding with 11.8 per game, while Faber has picked of 10.3 per contest. In the shooting, the Bucs are hitting 41 per cent from the floor and 68 per cent from the line.

"I'm not real happy with our free throws," Quinn said, "but it's ahead of our opponents. Our rebounding appears sound."

Quinn also noted that the Bucs have been able to cut their turnovers to about 10 to 12 per game and that this is helping. Still, he feels that the Bucs must be ready for The Citadel. Last year, the Pirates were heavily favored when they went to visit the Bulldogs, but were surprisingly whipped, 81-57.

"We expect The Citadel to be up for us. They said earlier that they would be pointing to their conference games. I'll admit that we have our work cut out for us, but I don't see any reason why we can't win," Quinn said.

The coach added that the team has worked hard during the week since last Saturday's game with Duke, and that there should be improvement in some areas of the Pirate attack.

Following the game, the Bucs break for the holidays, to reassemble to attend the Oral Roberts Tournament, to be held in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Beaufort Nips Pitt By 71-70

BETHEL — Beaufort Technical Institute rallied in the second half and gained 71-70 victory over Pitt Technical Institute last night.

It was the second loss for the Paladins in five starts, all within the Eastern Carolina Community College Conference.

Pitt Tech jumped into the opening lead, running out to a 6-0 advantage before Beaufort got on the scoreboard. But Beaufort came back, tying it up.

Pitt again pulled away, and for most of the first half, maintained an eight to ten point lead. Beaufort finally closed it to 39-32 at the half.

In the second half, Beaufort's offense began to penetrate the 2-1-2 zone by the Paladins, and they cut away at the lead, finally catching up about midway. Pitt then switched into a 3-1-1 zone that topped the penetration, but caused the Paladins to commit more fouls, and they became the difference in the game.

In the final 10 minutes of play, Beaufort hit on 12 of 14 from the line, with Clarence Keyes hitting on eight of eight. Throughout the entire game, Pitt Tech was unable to find the mark from the line, making only six of 24 shots.

Beaufort finally went out in front by three in the closing seconds, 71-68, but a basket by Wayne Brown cut it to the final one-point spread with 15 seconds left. Pitt was unable to get the ball back in the time remaining, however.

Rose actually won six matches to five for the Gryphons, with two ending in draws. But the Rocky Mount grapplers picked up one more point during the proceedings to win the match.

Lack Of Experience Hinders Bear Grass

By WOODY PEELE
Reflector Sports Editor
(24th in a series)

BEAR GRASS — Coach Clayton Mobley was hoping for good things when three starters returned for the Bear Grass High School basketball team this fall. But so far, things haven't been good for the Bears.

Going into tonight's game, the Bears haven't won this year. And one of their starters was on the sidelines, and will be there for most of the season.

Roger Gurganus suffered a broken bone and will miss six or seven weeks. "He may get back in time for the tournament," Mobley said.

And while Mobley was happy to have the three back, he knew there was a lot of work to be done since none of the other people on the team had lettered. All without experience.

The two other returning starters are Charles Mobley and Vann Rogerson. And now, with Gurganus out, three of the starting members of the team are without previous experience. "Overall, our experience is weak. We have no depth, and we're trying to go with about six people most of the time. We don't have a whole lot of bench," Mobley said.

But there may be a bright spot ahead. McKinley Dixon came off the bench and performed well in Tuesday's game, and Mobley hopes that he'll help the team a lot as he gains experience.

The team doesn't have a great deal of height. Rogerson and Dixon are both 6-1, but they are the tallest on the team. Another starter, Nathaniel Armstrong, at 5-10, is the leading rebounder, capturing over 10 per game. "He also leads us in field goal and free throw percentage," Mobley added. "But he doesn't take many shots per game."

GOOD STAFF

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Ralph Kiner, now a baseball broadcaster, slammed 23 home runs in his 1946 rookie season with the Pirates. During his 10-year career Kiner seven times either won outright or tied for the home run championship, a distinction that places him one ahead of Babe Ruth. Twice, Kiner enjoyed 50-or-more home run seasons, and averaged 37 round-trippers a season.

Despite the lack of height, Mobley feels that the Bears have been rebounding well, all things considered. "A lot of the teams we've played have been taller, but we've gone to the boards well."

The speed of the players is just average according to the coach. "We don't fast break much. Our guards, without experience, are having some ball-handling troubles, so we try to take our time and set things up," the coach said.

Mobley thought the Bear shooting was going to be good at the start of the season, but now is questioning it. "In our first three games, we shot better than 40 per cent," Mobley said. "But in the last three, we've done poorly. We should be good, and I think we'll get better."

Does the losing streak put any pressures on the players? "It's bad on me, and it's worse on the players," Mobley said. "But we have a good attitude, and I think with the hustle and hard work we're showing we're going to win soon."

Defense, as with any 0-8 team, must show improvement if the Bears are going to start winning. "We use a zone most of the time," the coach said, "but I don't know whether the defense is at all at fault. We are making a lot of ball-handling mistakes, and this has a lot to do with our troubles."

Currently, Mobley is starting Roberson, Armstrong, Mobley Bryan Bowen and either David Hodges or Dixon. James Harrison joins the sixth man as the top reserve.

As far as the Martin County Conference race is concerned, Mobley feels Robersonville is the team to beat. "Oak City could edge them out, but we'll probably battle Jamesville for third and fourth."

For the Bears to start winning, the team must get better ball-handling. "We've got to improve our shooting, too. But ball handling is the real problem. You can't win making 20-30 turnovers a game."

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Los Angeles Rams are in a familiar position as they prepare for Sunday's final National Football League regular season game against the Pittsburgh Steelers. They know they must win or tie to keep their playoff hopes alive. Only they don't know if winning or tying will be enough.

The Rams trail San Francisco by one-half game in the battle for the final NFL playoff berth. If LA wins or ties Pittsburgh, it can sneak into the playoffs should the 49ers lose to Detroit. But the San Francisco game is on the West Coast and will just be starting at about the time the Rams-Steelers contest is ending.

That means if the Rams get by the Steelers, they'll have to wait around and hope the Lions can trip up San Francisco.

It was the same story last year when the Rams were in New York for the final game and needed a victory over the Giants and some help from Oakland to create a tie for the division title. Los Angeles held up its end of the bargain but the Raiders bowed to the 49ers, allowing San Francisco to clinch.

If the Rams win this time and 49ers tie, it would leave both teams with identical 8-5 records but LA would get the division crown and the playoff berth by virtue of having beaten San Francisco twice.

The NFL's seven other playoff berths have all been wrapped up with Baltimore, Miami, Cleveland and Kansas City in the American Conference and Dallas, Washington and Minnesota in the NFC all bidding their time this week.

While the playoff teams—except in the NFC West—have been decided, the pairings have not and that's what will be determined this weekend. It all depends on which team winds up on top in the East Division of each conference.

The playoffs begin Saturday, Dec. 25 with the AFC East champion, Dallas or Washington, playing at Minnesota, the AFC Central champ, and the AFC East champ, Baltimore or Miami, playing against the AFC West champ, Kansas City.

On Sunday, Dec. 26, it will be the AFC's wild card qualifier, Baltimore or Miami, at the AFC Central champion, Cleveland, and the NFC wild card qualifier, Dallas or Washington, at the NFC West champion, San Francisco or Los Angeles.

Besides Los Angeles' game at Pittsburgh and Detroit's contest, games Sunday, people could at San Francisco, Sunday's schedule includes New England

NFL Games Get Many Protests

NEW YORK (AP) — Two National Football League playoff games will be played on Christmas Day but mounting protests against the scheduling may cause the NFL to change future plans about setting games for that holiday.

The Minnesota Vikings, hosts for one of the Christmas Day games, said they had received many complaints both by phone and letter and that 5,800 of between 8,000 and 9,000 tickets offered for sale last Sunday, remain unsold.

And in Kansas City, the other Christmas Day host site, state legislator Tim Ryan said he would introduce a bill to ban any repetition of such scheduling in the future.

"More people have raised hell about the Chiefs' playoff game on Christmas Day than I've ever heard before," said Rep. Ryan. "I've heard a lot of comments like, 'if I go, my wife will divorce me.'"

The legislator said that Christmas provides a special day for families to get together and should not have to compete with football.

Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL and chief aide to Commissioner Pete Rozelle, admitted that the league had received complaints about the schedule but said, "we didn't feel we had any alternative."

Welfare Rolls Rose; Spending Down

By JOHN STOWELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's welfare rolls swelled in August for the first time in four months but total expenditures declined, the government announced today.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare said about 14.4 million persons received cash payments, an increase of 138,000 persons—or 1 per cent—during August, the latest month for which statistics are available.

The rise nearly wipes out the cumulative 1.2-per-cent case-load decline during May, June and July, but represents a significant reversal of the average

2-per-cent monthly increase earlier in the year.
Spending for all public assistance including Medicaid totaled $1.5 billion for August, a $15-million decrease from July, attributed primarily to smaller demands for medical care.

HEW's Social and Rehabilitation Service said 95,000 persons were added to the Aid for Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program in 42 states, the District of Columbia, Guam and the Virgin Islands.
New Jersey, which had dropped 108,000 AFDC recipients in July under tighter rules governing unemployed and employed parents, added 25,300 in August. Michigan, Illinois, Florida, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas recorded increases of 5,000 to 9,500.

AFDC rolls shrank in eight states and Puerto Rico, including 3,900 in New York and 3,100 in California, which has reported a continuing decline since March, HEW said.
Another 4,000 persons were dropped nationwide from old-age relief because of Social Security raises first paid in June.
Increases were recorded in general assistance, up 35,000 or 3.6 per cent; aid to the disabled, up 12,000 or 1.1 per cent; and aid to the blind, up 200 or .2 per cent.

Await Spelling Out Of Limiting Medical Costs

RALEIGH (AP) — North Carolina hospital and medical associations are waiting to find out how they will be affected by new limitations on increases in hospital and doctor charges imposed by the federal Price Commission Wednesday.

"We're really just uncertain at this point about which hospital charges are covered by this and which are not," said John Marston, assistant director of the North Carolina Hospital Association.

"We're waiting for more specific guidelines to be handed down," he said. "Right now, it's all very, very general."

Dr. Charles Styron of Raleigh, president of the North Carolina Medical Society, said doctors of the state "generally dislike" such fee limitation, but "I guess we've got to follow these limits."

The Price Commission imposed a 2.5 per cent limit on hikes in doctors' fees and a 6 per cent ceiling on increases in hospital charges. According to the commission, the rate of inflation for medical services is now about 12.9 per cent.

Marston disagreed with the 12.9 per cent figure and said that not all of the increase has been caused by inflation. "A good part has been for new services. How does that figure in?"

He added that the effect of the limitation would vary from hospital to hospital across the state. "Each situation should be slightly different. For example, some hospitals may have just finished putting in expensive new equipment just before the limitations were announced."

Trucking Firm Will Pay For Oil Clean-Up

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — The Coast Guard says a Wilmington trucking firm, Black Motor Express, has accepted financial responsibility for cleaning up an oil spill which occurred last week in Greenfield Creek. Cost of the cleanup is estimated at $5,000.

Commander J. A. Howell, the Coast Guard Wilmington port captain, said the trucking company has not been named as the cause of the spill of approximately 2,000 gallons of heavy black oil. Howell said the Coast Guard would release its report on the incident next week.

Howell said damage from the spill was not significant since Greenfield Creek serves as a drainage creek for two major industries.

Describes His POW Christmas

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Air Force Col. Norris Overly, who spent Christmas 1967 as a prisoner of the North Vietnamese, described the experience Thursday:

"It was like any other day except that we were allowed to go into a darkened room and have a brief religious ceremony. Then when we were back in our cells they played Christmas carols over the public address system. ... It made me cry."

Overly spoke at a ceremony where the wife of Gov. Ronald Reagan dedicated the state's 30-foot Colorado blue spruce Christmas tree to missing and captured American servicemen in Southeast Asia.

The tree was first dedicated on Tuesday, but the second ceremony was held to coincide with ceremonies in Washington where Vice President Spiro T. Agnew lit the national Christmas tree in a similar tribute to missing and captured soldiers.

Purse-Snatching Pair Pursued, Loot Recovered

Two young white men were foiled in their attempt to get away with a woman's hand bag last night on Evans Street, South of Five Points, according to Greenville police officers.

Chief Glenn Cannon said two men, described as "hippie types" grabbed a purse from Mrs. Sandy Jennings of Greenville as Mrs. Jennings was getting into her car in a parking lot near Five Points.

The two men, running South along Evans Street, were pursued by onlookers and discarded the purse as they ran.

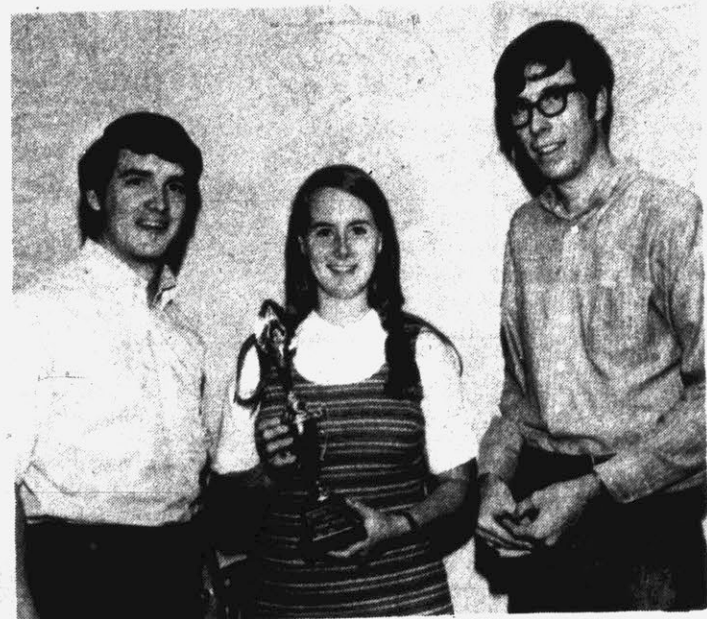

Chief Cannon said that although the hand bag and its contents were recovered intact, officers would still like to find the two men involved in the 9 p.m. incident.

"Pepsi-Cola's Value-Pak brings the nickel serving back!"

"How?"

Every serving that you pour costs a nickel... not a penny more.

Pepsi-Cola taste. Pepsi-Cola quality.
At a price you thought went out with the big-band sound. The reason for the value is simple. First, you're buying in quantity. Eight 16-ounce returnable bottles—an actual gallon of Pepsi. Enough so that you don't have to worry about running out when the gang runs in. Second, you're not buying the bottles. You merely leave a deposit. A deposit that's refunded when you return the bottles. And returning the bottles helps keep our country clean. So get Pepsi-Cola in the 16-ounce Value-Pak—and get a serving of at least five ounces for only a nickel. At participating stores.

Pepsi's got a lot to give.

Garagiola Will Apologize For Profanity Slip

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Garagiola, the baseball player turned television performer, planned to air an apology today for a burst of profanity accidentally heard by viewers.

"There was a technical error which resulted in my using language I'm not really proud of," Garagiola said. "It was done under pressure and unfortunately was heard on the air."

NBC explained that the first three lead-ins to the commercial being aired during its "Sale of the Century" program Thursday were bad. At the end of the third try Garagiola said to the technicians "Oh, Christ. I'm sorry, goddammit," and went on to do a fourth.

By error, the third version was the one aired. It was fed to network affiliates in all sections of the country except the West Coast, where the correct version appeared.

Ordered To Pay Spanish Taxes

MADRID (AP) — Anita Ekberg is among the 238 foreign film actors and actresses who have been ordered to pay a total of $177,560 in taxes for income while working in Spain.

The deadline for payments is Jan. 25, 1972.

Other top names on the list issued Thursday by Spanish authorities are John Ireland, Richard Harrison, Guy Madison, George Sanders, Jack Palance and Orson Welles. Miss Ekberg's bill, for $10,121, was the highest.

If those named fail to pay within the deadline, they will be given one more month to pay with a 10 per cent increase, upped to 20 per cent if unpaid after another month. Then payment would be sought through the courts.

Former Aide To LBJ Named Dean

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — George E. Reedy, veteran journalist and long-time assistant to former President Lyndon B. Johnson, has been named dean of the Marquette University College of Journalism.

Reedy, 54, will serve as Nieman professor of journalism in addition to being dean, the university announced Thursday. He will assume his post Sept. 1.

Charge Chavis Role In Killing

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Wilmington police have charged black activist Ben Chavis with being an accessory after the fact in the shotgun slaying last March of a black youth.

Police Chief H. E. Williamson confirmed Thursday a warrant had been issued for Chavis, a worker for the N.C. Virginia Council for Racial Justice and pastor of the First African Church of the Black Messiah at Wilmington.

Chavis is free under $10,000 bond to face charges brought by a federal grand jury last week. He is accused of conspiracy to smuggle two men out of the country to avoid trial in Oxford.

Danish Princess To Visit Soviet

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Princess Margrethe, heiress to the Danish throne, will become the first member of Denmark's royal house to visit the Soviet Union since the Bolshevik Revolution.

A spokesman for the court said Thursday the princess and Prince Henrik, her French-born husband, will fly to Moscow in the spring for a semiprivate visit as guests of the Soviet government.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin extended the invitation during his official visit to Denmark early this month, the spokesman added.

"We have been in touch with the Portsmouth police," said Williamson. "They will pick up Chavis on the authority of the telegram we sent pending arrival of the warrant."

Williamson said "in view of the seriousness of the charge."

we have requested the Portsmouth authorities to hold Chavis without bail until he is returned to a North Carolina court."

Also charged as an accessory after the fact of murder was Mrs. Mollie Jeanette Hicks, 41, another black civil rights worker. She is confined in the New Hanover County Jail.

Also confined to jail without bond is Don J. Nixon, 19, who is charged with murder in the slaying of Clifton Eugene Wright.

Others arrested last week following a 10-month investigation of the slaying were Jerome McLain, 19, and Leatrice Hicks, 18, daughter of Mrs. Hicks. They are also charged with being accessories after the fact of murder.

The slaying of the Wright youth touched off more racial disorders last March in Wilmington, where racial troubles in February resulted in two other shooting deaths and more than $750,000 property damage, mostly from firebombs.

However, we have an intellectual caste system in America that tends to downgrade ideas if they aren't couched in polysyllables and uttered by a man with many college degrees.

Prof. Lew Saret, former famous teacher at our Northwestern University School of Speech, coached us students on making a 30-minute address to audiences composed of ordinary Americans, plus snooty members of the "polysyllabic fraternity."

"For maximum effect," he began, "speak to the audience in simple language, straight from the shoulder, for your first 28 minutes."

"But the so-called upper crust may disdain your meaty remarks because you have made them understandable."

"So you should then add a 2-minute peroration in which you employ elegant style, polysyllables and grand gestures, which will duly impress the campus snobs."

"Thus you will have pleased everybody!"

When I was stationed at Smith College, a world famous British physicist was invited to address the coeds and faculty.

Parents Prove Disinterested

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — County school officials promoted on radio and television an adult education class in drug abuse and planned on enrolling 120 parents. Only one signed up.

"I'm just at wit's end trying to understand the people of this county," said Louis B. Scharon, school board president.

"Because of the hue and cry over the increase in drug abuse among our young in this county, I thought parents would flock to register for the course."

Holidays For Pitt Pupils

Christmas holidays began at the close of school today for students in the Pitt County School System.

The county schools will resume their normal schedule Jan. 3.

The central county schools office will be closed Dec. 22-27 for the holidays.

The transportation offices will be closed Dec. 22-29 and the maintenance department will observe Dec. 23-28 for the holidays.

According to Arthur Alford, superintendent of Pitt County Schools, the difference in the closing dates for the various offices is due to an attempt to keep the offices open when the services are most urgently needed.

The county students will take their mid-year examinations during the week of Jan. 17, Alford stated.

Safety First, North Western, Are Their Names

SEAL BEACH, Calif. (AP) — If you want to know what's in a name, ask Safety First or North Western.

They are the unusual names of two men who live in a retirement village here.

Safety First, whose family name was First, was actually given the name on his birth certificate by his parents, who liked the idea of safety.

First, 77, said he had problems over the years, such as the time he was cited before a Los Angeles judge for a defective windshield. Upon giving his name the jurist snapped, "I want your name, not your traffic slogan."

North Western explained that Western was his family name and his parents named him North after another old family name.

He said he had problems explaining the name when he used to commute in the Chicago area aboard the Northwestern Railroad.

North Pitt Notes

By ELLEN HEATH

This week has been full of activities and, of course, tests. The long awaited Christmas holidays begin Friday at 3:30 p.m. for North Pitt students.

Mrs. John Rook Jr. placed a symbolic poinsettia plant in the lunchroom this week for the enjoyment of the entire student body.

North Pitt's graphic art students have been very busy this week finishing up their project of making Christmas cards.

On Tuesday night, North Pitt's wrestling team had a match with Wilson. At the same time, the "Big Orange Machine" was rolling in another victory, 52-24, against the Robersonville Eagles. The Panther boys lost by three points in the second overtime. Fouling too much was their main handicap in this game. The Panthers play Eastern Wayne Friday night.

Wednesday night, North Pitt invited a group of guests from the Greenville Nursing Home to tour and to eat dinner at the school.

Club meetings were also held on Wednesday. The Student Government and the Student Involvement Committee are busy with homecoming. The Student Involvement Committee has the responsibility of choosing four students from North Pitt to represent views of the entire student in the Pitt County Student Task Force. The organization is being formed to discuss the different problems in the Pitt County Schools and the first meeting will be held in January.

Friday will be an exciting and busy day. The Juniors will finally get their class rings. All during the day, the speech and drama classes, along with the choral group, will present a cantata to the students during their study halls.

Homecoming Homecoming will climax the day. The theme for North Pitt's homecoming will be "Christmas." The princesses will enter as various Christmas songs are played.

The princesses and their escorts are as follows: Freshmen are Lillian Highsmith escorted by Mosses Cobb and Linda Payton escorted by Charles Tetterton, Vickie Coward escorted by Woody Andrews and Pam Edmondson escorted by David Perry;

Sophomores are Rosemary Brown with David Taylor as her escort, Delilah Perkins escorted by Wallace Ruffin, Patricia Everett escorted by David Morris and Bonita Manning escorted by Ronnie Briley;

Juniors include: Vera Bullock escorted by Steve Brown, Ann Murchison escorted by Kenneth Gilbert, Donna Chancey escorted by Linwood Brown, and Ellen Heath escorted by Charles Young;

Seniors are: Deborah Andrews escorted by Chauncey Gillian, Marsha Drake escorted by Glenn Brown, Bernadine Jordan escorted by Andrew Daniel, Vickie Clark escorted by Randy Clark and Susan James escorted by Glenn Manning and Gail Michaels escorted by Charles Weatherington.

Reality And Suffering Is Part Of Season Of Joy

EDITOR'S NOTE: Christmas is a time of joy, but it comes in the midst of realities that also include suffering, just as it did with Jesus, whose life from the first confronted hardship, exile, danger, eventually death and triumph over it. The following story involves the writer's family, which also faced distress but found an answer to it in the light of the life that came at Christmas.

By GORDON HANSON
Associated Press Writer
Pain was Billy's ever-present companion.
It delayed his falling asleep at night. It was with him through the long dark hours, and it was his first waking awareness every morning.

For the last two of Billy's 11 young years, the pain had shadowed him. He grew thinner. His cheeks were drawn and his eyes haunted.

Billy's pain was the terrible aftermath of a tobogganing accident. He had been flipped from the rear of one toboggan, and as he was sitting in the snow another toboggan came from behind and struck him in the back. A tumor developed on his spine, and though his parents were unaware, it was turning cancerous.

Desperately Billy's parents sought a cure. Billy was their only child. There could be no more.

They took the boy from doctor to doctor, hoping one would say "I think I can help him." But never was there any encouragement.

The search didn't end until the day a wizened, aging doctor in a small town far from Billy's home examined the boy.

Historic Clyde Saloon Fated To Be Torn Down

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — John L. Sullivan once put his foot on the onyx rail. So did "Gentleman Jim" Corbett and race driver Barney Oldfield.

It was known as the Clyde Saloon in the days when the two champion prize fighters visited the downtown Jacksonville night spot for a drink.

The two-story brick building in which the Clyde resides has been bought by Atlantic Ban corporation and will be torn down to clear the way for a downtown redevelopment project.

Bar stools, onyx rail and other fixtures will be sold to a California firm.

"My wife cried over having to sell it," said owner George Sedding. "But it's too late for us to move and start over again."

"Billy will soon be free of pain," he said. "Soon he'll know it no longer."

Billy's mother knew that soon Billy would die.

But his father refused that interpretation. In his grief he accepted only that Billy would live. He needed that belief—that faith—to keep going. He couldn't let the boy down. The lad needed his strength, and he needed his son's.

The week before Christmas, Billy's fever rose. His pain worsened and only constant medication brought token relief.

The father raged in his anguish. He wanted to the futility of it all—the cruelty of God and the pointlessness of taking a life so young. Everything was a lie.

He knew no solace.

Then came Christmas Eve. The father was awakened by the sounds of Billy tossing fitfully in his bed.

Walking into the darkened living room, the father looked at the presents under the tree.

There were so many unopened gifts there for Billy. They represented the plans so carefully made for the boy.

The father slumped into a chair. He put his hands to his face and he wept.

Then, when grief could no longer come, he sat still for long minutes. The clock on the mantle ticked silently. He searched into himself, painfully and with determination.

And he remembered.

Slowly, awkwardly, he got down on his knees. Clasp his hands until the knuckles whitened, he raised his head.

"God," he said in an anguished whisper, "something has happened. I ask that your hear me out."

"As I sat here, I remembered what a personal success I've been, and how you've responded when I asked you to give me a hand."

"But I know now that these were selfish prayers, for my own personal gain. And when I asked you to save Billy, that was personal too."

"I couldn't stand to lose him. I had such great plans for him and I wanted some day for him to carry on for me."

"You know what I remember now? I remember Your Son and Your great love when You have Him to the world. What sadness You must have known when He died. And so God, if you would do this great thing for all of us, then I must be comforted by Your sacrifice."

"It's long past the time, oh God, when I must put my trust in You. So I pray that You will welcome little Billy when he comes. I know he'll be in good hands. I know that it is thy will be done."

The father got to his feet and went into Billy's bedroom. It was time for a pill.

The boy lay still. It almost seemed he wasn't breathing. On his cheek was a dried tear brought by the pain of only minutes before.

Tenderly the father took Billy's limp hand. He looked upon the boy he loved. Suddenly the little hand tightened. Billy opened his eyes.

"Dad," he said simply, "I won't be needing that pill tonight."

Desperately, the father closed his eyes. Then he took a deep breath and asked the question he knew he must.

"Why not, Billy?"

"I've been dreaming, Dad. I've been dreaming about Jesus. He seemed very close. It might sound funny, but it's almost like He's here in the room with us right now."

Billy's fingers loosened in his father's grasp. The breath of life so silent it could barely be heard escaped his lips in a sigh. And his eyes closed.

The father bent over little Billy, and he took the tiny hands and folded them.

Straightening, he quietly spoke his final words to his son.

"That wasn't a dream, Billy. And what you said about it over you ... and me. He's probably sounding silly—it didn't."

"He's here and He's watching over you ... and me. He's watching over both of us. "Goodbye, son."
