Trip Not Expected To Erase All Difficulties

Pres. Nixon Begins 'Journey For Peace'

OFF FOR PEKING — President and Mrs. Nixon wave from the doorway of a presidential helicopter just before taking off for a flight to Andrews AFB to start their historic trip to mainland China. (AP Wirephoto)

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, his wife and a handful of top aides left today on a "journey for peace" to Communist China, saying he hopes it will reduce the possibility of a future war.

The presidential jet, the "Spirit of '76," took off from Andrews Air Force Base on the first leg of the trip at 10:30 a.m.

Before leaving the White House by helicopter for Andrews, Nixon briefed 19 Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress. Then he delivered brief remarks to a crowd including about 1,000 school children on the South Lawn.

Standing coatless in damp, 35-degree weather, he repeated a prediction he first made last July 15 when he stunned the world with his announcement that he would become the first American president ever to visit China. The China trip, he said, "would be a journey for peace."

He said again that he does not expect the trip to erase all difficulties between Washington and Peking, but hopes it will help to avoid any possible future war.

"We of course have no illusions that 20 years of hostility between the United States and China are going to be swept away by one week of talks," he said.

"As we look to the future we must realize that the government of the People's Republic of China and government of the United States have had great differences," he said. "They will continue to have differences. But what we must do is to find a way to see that we can have difference without being enemies in war."

The Nixons plan to remain there until late Saturday afternoon when they will fly to Guam for an overnight stop before landing on the Chinese mainland next Monday.

They plan to stay in China one week, the longest time any chief executive has devoted to a single country since Woodrow Wilson went to Europe at the end of World War I.

Nixon's remarks at the White House today echoed his earlier comments on the trip.

Flying to China with Nixon were Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Henry A. Kissinger, the President's assistant for national security affairs, who set the stage for the trip with a secret early-summer flight to Peking.

The official party was held to 13, in addition to the President and Mrs. Nixon—apparently in keeping with the reality that the Nixon trip marks the highest-level contact ever between the United States and Communist China.

While many Americans have expressed hope the unprecedented Nixon journey will hasten an end to the Vietnam war, Kissinger has said the conflict must be resolved elsewhere—not in Peking.

The Chinese Communists, on the other hand, would welcome a Nixon disavowal of the Nationalist Chinese stronghold on Taiwan. Kissinger has said this is something to be resolved by officials in Peking and Taipei.

What seems in prospect, therefore, is a get-acquainted meeting between old enemies, probably resulting in increased communication between mainland China and the rest of the world and, quite possibly, an expansion of trade between China and the United States.

Dollar Sinks To New Low

LONDON (AP) — The U.S. dollar hit record lows in France, West Germany and Switzerland today, but improved slightly in Britain.

The dollar's general weakness resulted from a selling wave that began Wednesday with reports of a record U.S. balance-of-payments deficit last year. It intensified when U.S. Treasury Secretary John B. Connally ruled out the dollar's convertibility into gold this year.

Connally's announcement confirmed an expected U.S. policy, but still touched off a wave of dollar sales on European foreign exchanges.

The only major exception was London where threats of a nationwide industrial shutdown from electric power cuts weakened the pound sterling against the dollar.

Dealers have attributed the weakness to doubts that the December agreement in Washington and other currency realignments may not be enough to resolve the Western world's trade and monetary difficulties or put America's balance of payments in the black.

Despite the fall, the dollar is still well above the danger point that would threaten another devaluation. Since December it has been allowed to float 2.25 per cent above or below a parity or central exchange rate against major currencies. In most cases the dollar is now slightly under the central rate having fallen from 2 per cent or more above.

He cited the words on the plaque left on the moon by America's astronauts to underline the purpose of his journey. The words are:

"We came in peace for all mankind."

Then the President kissed his two daughters, Julie Eisenhower and Tricia Cox, stepped past a special military honor guard and into the presidential helicopter. He and Mrs. Nixon lifted off for Andrews at 10:18 a.m.

A sizable crowd lined the fence encircling the White House on the south side and some were holding up large signs. One of them read: "Nixon's war is escalating."

A crowd of several hundred well-wishers, mostly Air Force personnel and families, saw the presidential party off from Andrews.

A bit of snow began to fall as the presidential jet took off for a 10-hour nonstop flight to Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station on the northern shore of the Hawaiian island of Oahu.

Howard Hughes Leaves Bahamas
NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — Billionaire recluse Howard Hughes has returned in secrecy to the United States after nearly 15 months in seclusion in the Bahamas, a government official indicated today.

The report could not immediately be confirmed, but it came from a ranking official of the Bahamian government who declined to be identified.

Hughes' whereabouts were unknown.

Everything Goes Wrong For Prime Minister Heath At Crucial Time

LONDON (AP) — The flash economic crisis resulting from the British coal strike today threatened Prime Minister Edward Heath's plans to lead Britain into the European Common Market.

It also provided a somber prelude for the British leader's talks this weekend with President Georges Pompidou of France on the future hape of allied Europe.

A three-day debate in the House of Commons ends tonight with a vote on the European Communities bill, key legislation to accomplish Britain's entry into the Common Market next year. The Conservative government expects to win, but the circumstances in which Britain now can link up with Europe have worsened dangerously.

It had been Heath's aim to lead a strong, buoyant, thriving Britain into the Common Market.

Until last month the prospects seemed bright.

The pound sterling was riding high.

British exports were humming, easily outstripping imports.

It seemed as if Heath's unyielding resistance to inflationary wage claims was working, opening the way to an export-led boom that would soak up the one million British unemployed.

But last month things began going wrong.

First, exports started sliding, leaving January's trade in the red.

Unemployment kept rising.

Output over the past four months slumped while industrial investment remained stagnant.

Then came the coal strike leading into the staggering electric power crisis that has shattered hopes of any early economic expansion.

Snowfall In West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Snow fell over wide areas of western North Carolina today with hazardous driving conditions reported in the foothills and eastern slopes.

The highway patrol reported heavy snow was falling about midmorning from Black Mountain west. The patrol said chains or snow tires were required west of Asheville.

To the east, snow was reported in Hickory and Taylorsville with about one inch on the ground in Taylorsville by mid-morning.

Reports from Surry and Yadkin counties said snow had begun to accumulate in those areas during the morning.

The precipitation that began early today was to end this afternoon and be followed by slowly decreasing cloudiness. It was the result of a low-pressure system that later moved over the Atlantic.

Steinbeck Seeks N.C. House Seat

Greenville veteran Republican candidate Frank Steinbeck, has again announced his candidacy for State Representative from Greenville.

In announcing his third consecutive bid for the state office, Steinbeck said "I am running, as before, on the proven record of my activities as a civic leader, as a dedicated Christian and a successful businessman."

Basing his campaign on the theme "A Positive Program for Progress," the native of Weston, West Virginia, now a resident of Greenville for over 22 years, is emphasizing "economically sound and sensible judgment at all levels of government."

Steinbeck, whose daughter Jensina today also announced her candidacy for a member of the Pitt County Commissioners, is the father of two other daughters and a son — Mrs. Joe Sturz of Whittier, California and Miss Loraine Steinbeck, a teacher in Roanoke Rapids; and Frank Jr., associated with him in Greenville in his two clothing establishments — one downtown and the other at Pitt Plaza.

Chairman of the Pitt County Republican Committee, he is also a current director of the Pitt County Red Cross Board, a charter member of St. James United Methodist Church, is on the Executive Board of the East Carolina Boy Scouts of America; and will represent the Pitt County Merchants at the Spring Conference to be held in London in April.

Steinbeck says he feels "that now is the time when the people of Greenville need a successful businessman representing them in Raleigh."

Seeks Post Of Commissioner

A note of feminine Republican youth enters the local campaign picture with the announcement today by Miss Jensina Steinbeck that she is seeking office as Pitt County Commissioner from Greenville Township Number 1.

Miss Steinbeck, 20, a sophomore majoring in art at East Carolina University, has the blessing of her father, veteran Republican official who says he is delighted to see her make this choice.

A graduate of Rose High School, class of 1970, this is Miss Steinbeck's first venture into politics, other than her role as a home room representative of the Student Government Association.

"My main point in entering the race," she noted, "is to create some interest. I felt that since I am a girl and am young, this might bring people out to vote, and that, after all, is the important thing about elections, getting out to vote. I also feel I'll have considerable support from campus where young voters are aware and interested in political campaigns."

The young candidate, who attended Governor's School in 1969 as a winner in voice auditions, stated she has not formed a definite campaign platform, but is now shaping up plans. "It seems to me there are many things that need to be done by County Commissioners, and I feel that since I am young, I might be able to help out in some new ways."

Even though she's a full time student, Miss Steinbeck said she plans "to be available for any group, club or whoever would like to have me make an appearance and give my ideas."

Humphrey Keeping His Old Union Support

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer
Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, who suffered some recent setbacks in efforts to hold on to his traditional support from organized labor, is running ahead of other presidential hopefuls in three polls of key AFL-CIO local leaders and has won endorsement from a union leaders' meeting in Minnesota, his home state.

The AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education (COPE) revealed results Wednesday of polls it took among conference delegates in Atlanta, Dallas, Cincinnati and Florida. Humphrey led but received less than a majority in the three cities, with Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine running from less than 2 to 13 percentage points behind and Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington third.

Jackson led in the Florida poll, followed by Humphrey, Muskie and Gov. George Wallace of Alabama. All are running as Democrats.

President Nixon received less than 1 per cent in the three city polls and no delegate votes in Florida.

In Minneapolis, where Humphrey told a meeting of 300 union business agents from Minneapolis-St. Paul that "I am your champion," the officers endorsed him by acclamation.

AFL-CIO President George Meany said only a day earlier that Humphrey had "not a chance" of getting the labor federation's endorsement before the Democratic National Convention in July.

In another development Wednesday, the Michigan Senate passed and sent to the governor a House-approved bill to hold a state presidential primary May 16. The measure has the endorsement of Gov. William G. Milliken, who is expected to sign it soon.

When the Michigan bill becomes law, the state will be the 24th in the nation with a presidential primary, and Texas will be the only one of the 10 largest states that does not hold a primary test of presidential hopes.

A California Poll released Wednesday said Muskie was leading other announced candidates for the Democratic nomination with 28 per cent of the votes of those polled. Humphrey got 23 per cent, and the other candidates received less than 10 per cent each.

Asked which candidate, if nominated, would be most difficult to vote for, 56 per cent said Wallace and 51 per cent said Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles.

When the polling agency added Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, a sworn noncandidate, to the field, he outran Muskie 24 per cent to 23.

RALEIGH (AP) — Col. E. C. Guy, commander of the North Carolina Highway Patrol, says his men put in $2,247,535 worth of overtime last year without pay.

Guy said that amount of overtime by the 847 troopers was the equivalent of having an extra 131 men in the field at no cost to the state.

He said Wednesday that the figures reflect the troopers' "dedication and determination" to do their job.

The patrol also has started keeping records on the number of patrolmen assaulted in the line of duty, Guy said. In the last half of 1971 there were 83 assaults.

Guy said that weapons used on patrolmen included bottles, knives, revolvers, shotguns, black jacks, a radio microphone and a chair.

No trooper was killed, but some were hurt seriously enough to be hospitalized, he said.

Guy said patrolmen brought more than 359,000 charges for traffic violations during the year, including 41,203 arrests for drunken driving.

The drunken driving arrests represented an increase of 5,855 over 1970, he said, and compared with less than 10,000 arrests made by the New York Highway Patrol in a year.

He said the increase in arrests does not mean there has been an increase in drunken driving.

"What it does mean is that we are removing more of them from the highways," he said. "We are getting them before they are involved in accidents in many cases, and I think unquestionably we have saved many lives."

Guy added, "Some people think we don't charge truck drivers, but 43,691 of those charged last year were truck drivers and 476 were bus drivers."

Jenkins Entertained At Reception Tuesday Night

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Jenkins and Mrs. Douglas Jones received approximately 180 guests from the East Carolina School of Education at the Jenkins home Tuesday evening. Floral decorations of white gladioli and red carnations were used in the living room. Garlands of magnolia leaves were used throughout the house. The dining table was adorned with an arrangement of pink and white snapdragons and carnations flanked by candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Hard Working Women In China Have Equality With Their Men

By CAROLINE BENN
Chinese women enjoy a good deal of equality with their men, and for it they work equally hard. Sisters work in fields, on factory floors and floodwalls right alongside brothers. Standard dress is loose pants suits worn over blouses. Although this dress is much like the men's, and although women in China wear no makeup at all (except for performing in the theater), they are still highly feminine—perhaps because they are so soft-spoken when you meet them, and often shy. Some of the girls, particularly in the south around Canton, are extraordinarily beautiful. In the cities there are none of our Western distinctions between slum and suburb, rich and poor. The girl who works as a doctor looks and dresses like the girl who operates a machine tool. Only in the countryside is there any life-style distinction. Here you often see old women in the traditional no-button high-collared jacket and pants, sometimes hobbling on feet that had been "bound" in pre-liberation days. Girls today

Psychiatrist's Wife Needs Some Advice

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a psychiatrist who is a wonderful husband and father. We have two preschool children.

I suppose I shouldn't have any problems, but I find that I become very anxious and jealous when I hear of his women patients who are attractive, talented, and lead such glamorous lives. I do a little volunteer work but really enjoy being a housewife and mother.

How do I keep from feeling insecure and jealous, Abby? Should I seek the counsel of my husband's partner? Or should I confess my feelings straight to my husband who seems to help everyone else?

DEAR NEEDS: You say, "I suppose I shouldn't have any problems." EVERYBODY has problems. And that includes psychiatrists and their wives. Why should you be immune? I don't recommend talking to your husband's partner. It may create the appearance of impropriety where none exists, which would be embarrassing to your husband. Instead, tell your husband exactly how you feel, and if he loves you [and I think he does], he will give you the assurance you need.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this guy for over a year and we have become quite serious. In fact he wants to marry me.

The problem is, before I knew him I was in an accident and four of my front teeth were knocked out and I had to have false ones put in.

I think my false teeth look natural, and several people have remarked on my "beautiful smile."

I really think I should tell my boy friend about my false teeth, but I don't know how. Would you please help me?

NO PHONY

DEAR NO PHONY: Say, "I have a confession to make. Part of me is false. I have four false teeth. Do you still want to marry me?" [I think he'll be relieved. Twenty-eight REAL teeth out of 32 isn't bad.]

DEAR ABBY: In our office your column is often a subject of our lunch hour discussions. One in particular from the lady who spent Thanksgiving alone because she had six sons but no daughters. We all wondered what kind of relationships she must have had with her daughters in law! We all have a mother in law, and will probably be one some day ourselves, and thus we have come up with a suggested Mother in Law's prayer:

"Lord, help me to be glad when my son [or daughter] picks a mate. If he brings home a girl with two heads, help me to love both of them equally. And when my son says, 'Mom, I want to get married,' forbid that I should blurt out, 'How far along is she?'"

"And please, Lord, help me to get thru the wedding preparations without a squabble with the 'other side.' And drive from my mind the belief that had my child waited a while, she could have done better."

"Dear Lord, remind me daily that when I become a grandmother, that my children don't want any advice on how to raise their children any more than I did when I was raising mine."

"If you will help me to do these things, perhaps my children will find me a joy to be around, and maybe I won't have to write to Dear Abby about my children neglecting me."

Birthday Dinner Held Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor were honored at a surprise birthday dinner Saturday night. Host and hostesses were their daughters, Marjorie and Joyce, of Washington, D. C., and their son, June, of Norwalk, Conn. Approximately 75 guests were present for the event.

The honorees were remembered with gifts from the guests.

Pancake Supper Plans Announced

The Hospital Committee of the Women of the Moose Chapter 1308 will sponsor a pancake and sausage supper Wednesday night, Feb. 23, at the Greenville Moose Lodge.

The hours of the supper are 5:30 until 8 p.m. The prices are $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Jones, of Rt. 6, Greenville, have returned home from a week's stay in Bad Hersfeld, Germany. They visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Robert James. The couple also visited in France and Lexington.

In some homes and apartments hot water comes gushing out of the faucet steaming hot—175 degrees F. Too hot for children and older persons around especially, according to the National Safety Council. Such hot water frequently leads to painful burns—and has caused deaths from accidental scalding.

Persuasion also is used for couples who petition for divorce. Every attempt is made to help them regain harmony. If, after all efforts, there is no reconciliation, divorce is possible and granted by the area's local Revolutionary Committee. But I was told it was rare. One reason given was that "nowadays, Chinese girls choose husbands for themselves."

Until the Communist regime, a girl's family often arranged her marriage for her.

Persuasion is also used to get attendance at school, since education is not compulsory, and local communities provide their own schools, pay their own teachers, set their own curricula. Children are not taught only in the schools, for formal teaching also takes place inside the homes, teachers coming in and working together with parents. They say this is especially helpful for the child

Their Last Sin Was Confessed

ASSY, France (WNS) — Genevieve de Vent, 31, was a stranger in town but headed straight for the church to confess her sins. The priest listened to one sin after another after another, but became suspicious when he heard strange noises outside the confessional booth. He looked out and saw the lady's fiancé, Serge Bordier, 27, stealing everything in the contribution boxes. The couple confessed to police that they had been working the trick successfully throughout southeastern France.

Nixon Taking Team Of 13 Persons On China Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are thumbnail sketches of the 13 persons who, with President and Mrs. Nixon, make up the official party for Nixon's visit to China:

William P. Rogers—Secretary of State since Nixon took office, he has long been a close personal adviser ... served as deputy attorney general and then attorney general in the Eisenhower administration ... A native of Norfolk, N.Y., was a member of a New York Washington-Paris law firm in 1961-69 ... Age 59, married, father of four children.

Henry A. Kissinger—Assistant to the President for national security affairs since 1969, he made the secret trip to Peking last summer to arrange Nixon's visit and carried on secret peace talks with the North Vietnamese ... Harvard faculty member 1954-69, author of six books on foreign affairs ... A native of Germany, he is 48, divorced, father of two children.

H.R. Haldeman—Assistant to the President since 1969, called chief of staff ... Recently stirred red debate with remarks about Vietnam war critics ... Was vice president of J. Walter Thompson advertising firm in Los Angeles in 1960-68 ... A native of Los Angeles, he is 46, married, father of four.

Ronald L. Ziegler—White House press secretary since 1969, he formerly worked with Haldeman as account executive ... Handsome and dark-haired, at 32 he is one of Nixon's youngest key aides ... Married and the father of two daughters.

Brig. Gen. Bren Scowcroft—Military assistant to the President since Feb. 1, coming from the Joint Chiefs of Staff ... A 1947 West Point graduate who served in the Air Force, he holds a doctorate from Columbia University ... Age 46, married, father of a daughter.

Marshall Green—Assistant secretary of state for East Asian and Pacific affairs since May 1969, he was deputy assistant secretary in 1963-65, then ambassador to Indonesia ... Joined Foreign Service in 1945 ... A native of Holyoke, Mass., 56, a Yale graduate, married and father of three sons.

Dwight Chapin—Charter member of Nixon's White House staff as deputy assistant in charge of appointments ... Is also an alumnus of J. Walter Thompson Co. ... A native of Wichita, Kan., he is 31, married and the father of two daughters.

John A. Scali—Special consultant to the President since April 1971 after serving as chief diplomatic correspondent for ABC News and before that as reporter for The Associated Press for 17 years ... Served as unofficial U.S.-Soviet go-between in Cuban missile crisis ... A native of Canton, Ohio, he is 52 and the father of three daughters.

Patrick J. Buchanan—Special assistant to the President ... Among other duties, he prepares a daily news summary ... A former reporter, financial writer and editorial writer for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat ... A 33-year-old native of Washington, D.C., he is married.

Rose Mary Woods—Personal secretary to Nixon since 1961, in public office and law practice. A quiet woman with blonde hair, she is 54 and a native of Sebring, Ohio.

Alfred S. Jenkins—director of Asian Communist affairs in the State Department since 1970, he made an advance trip to China with Kissinger ... A staff member of the National Security Council in 1966-69 ... A member of the Foreign Service since 1946, he is a native of Manchester, Ga., age 55, married, father of two.

John E. Holdridge—Senior staff member of the National Security Council in the area of East Asian affairs since 1969 ... Speaks Chinese and is considered one of government's top experts on mainland China ... A native of New York, he is 47, a 1945 West Point graduate, married and has three children.

Winston Lord—Special assistant to Kissinger, he is a former policy planner in the Pentagon's Office of International Security Affairs following service in the State Department in 1962-67 ... A native of New York, he is a graduate of Yale, married, father of two.

No Arrests In Sniping, Bombs

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — Authorities continued their investigation today into a brief outbreak of sniper fire and fire bombings here Wednesday night.

There had been no arrests by late Wednesday night.

Authorities said no one was injured in the sudden violence that erupted in the predominantly black southside section of the city.

Officials said three police cruisers were struck by gunfire and a fire truck pulling out of a station to answer an alarm was fired upon and had to retreat into the station.

Several stores and an automotive and appliance service shop were reportedly fire-bombed, but fire officials said none of the blazes was serious.

One shift of off-duty policemen was called in Wednesday night as a "precautionary measure" and patrol units were doubled.

In an evidently unrelated incident earlier Wednesday, apparent disagreement on observance of Black History Week at troubled I. C. Norcom High School resulted in another student walkout and a rock throwing clash with police.

At least two policemen, including deputy police chief Robert E. Joyner, were struck by rocks Wednesday after some 350 students walked out of school. The school has an enrollment of 1,633.

State police units were called in to back up about 35 city policemen who stood in front of the school and refused to allow the crowd to re-enter the building.

School officials said the students walked out after school

The governor's greatest skill lies in his sheer aggressiveness. He always carries the attack. Wherever he goes, he flourishes a sheath of notes on the voting records of Humphrey, Jackson, McGovern and Muskie. All of them, at one time or another, have publicly failed to oppose the busing of children for purposes of racial balance; Wallace never lets the crowds forget it.

The Alabamian hasn't a prayer of winning the nomination in July. After the Florida primary, he faces much less friendly country in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Wisconsin. But in a brown-out field, Wallace comes on with full voltage. The certified luminaries may be irked by his neon flare, but they will ignore him at their peril.

Monarchist Foe Assails Income

LONDON (AP) — A member of the House of Commons called Prince Charles a "twerp" Wednesday, withdrew the remark when Tory members objected, then said the heir to the throne ought to "go and spend the next three months in the coal mines."

William Hamilton, a Labor member with a reputation for attacks on the monarchy, was attempting to introduce a bill to nationalize crown lands and the duchies of Lancaster and Cornwall, a principality which gives Charles an income of $286,000 a year.

It was indefensible, he declared, that two mine workers would have to toil underground for 50 years to earn "as much as we give this young twerp in a year."

By a vote of 233 to 104, the House refused to admit his bill.

Warplanes End 2 Days Of North Vietnam Raids

HELD IN BOMBING — Kathryn A. Holt, 22, who has given police addresses in Boston, Portsmouth, and Salem, N.H., is escorted by police in Manchester (N.H.) to an arraignment on charges stemming from the bombing Wednesday morning of the Manchester Police Headquarters and the new Central Fire Station. Police are holding Karl A. Laaman, 23, of Buffalo, N.Y., on similar charges. (AP Wirephoto)

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes ended two days of heavy bombing inside North Vietnam today after about 150 strikes against newly installed long-range artillery guns and anti-aircraft defenses.

Scores more raids were flown against enemy positions in Laos and South Vietnam, but the heavy attack against North Vietnam forced the U.S. Command to cut back the aerial campaign in South Vietnam.

The command reported its bombers destroyed five artillery guns inside North Vietnam, two surface-to-air missile launchers and other equipment in southern Laos and five trucks in the northwest corner of South Vietnam. Pilots also reported triggering a dozen secondary explosions and two fires in raids south of the DMZ, indicating hits on ammunition stores.

The strikes into North Vietnam a few hours before President Nixon's departure for Communist China were the heaviest since more than 1,000 raids were flown against the North Dec. 26-30.

The U.S. Command announced that pilots ran into multiple barrages of surface-to-air missiles and anti-aircraft artillery fire, and one Air Force F4 was shot down. It was the first loss over the North since December. The two crewmen were listed as missing.

Radio Hanoi claimed that North Vietnamese forces shot down two planes, "killing and capturing" a number of airmen.

The raids were concentrated in the northeastern quarter of the demilitarized zone and inside North Vietnam. Some were just north of the buffer strip.

The U.S. Command said initial reports indicate that five artillery guns were destroyed or damaged.

A spokesman said the guns were Soviet 130mm artillery pieces with a range of more than 16 miles, the most powerful North Vietnam has.

"These strikes were necessary to counter a threat to the security of remaining U.S. forces posed by the introduction of these new offensive weapons into the area," said a statement from the headquarters of Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, the U.S. commander.

Spokesmen acknowledged that there are only a handful of American advisers and technicians at South Vietnamese bases along the DMZ within the range of the enemy artillery. But "you have to look at the threat in a broad context," said one U.S. military source. "They could use these guns to help overrun Quang Tri which would be a threat to U.S. personnel."

Informants disclosed that 15 fighter-bomber reinforcements have been brought from other points to air bases in South Vietnam and Thailand to further bolster the U.S. air armada. The Navy announced in San Diego that the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk with 90 planes is sailing for Vietnam waters a month ahead of schedule to beef up the 7th Fleet to four carriers.

The U.S. Command reported that fighter-bombers flew 61 strikes in South Vietnam during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today. Informants said the number of raids fell off sharply because many planes were diverted to targets in North Vietnam. U.S. planes had been averaging more than 100 strikes a day in South Vietnam during the past nine days.

On the ground in South Vietnam's northernmost provinces, enemy gunners fired 150 mortar shells at government forces defending a base camp 15 miles southeast of Hue, then followed up with a ground assault.

The South Vietnamese command said the attack was beaten back, four of the enemy were killed and one was captured along with 60 blocks of TNT, indicating the assaulting troops were sappers. Eight South Vietnamese were reported wounded.

Brownies Visit The Court House

The members of Brownie Troop 246 were given a tour of the Pitt County Court House Wednesday.

Mrs. Sellers L. Crisp, who explained the process of law, was the tour guide.

The Brownies attending were: Robin Chandler, Beth Congleton, Marjorie Crane, Mary Louise Crisp, Paula Daughtry, Lori Jo Edwards, Teresa Little, Deborah Lowder, Debbie Narron, Becky Sullivan and Julia Yongue. Troop leaders are Mrs. Gerald Crane and Mrs. Hoyt Narron.

Smaller Family Trend Indicated

WASHINGTON (AP) — American wives of child-bearing age expect smaller families than did their counterparts five years ago, according to a new Census Bureau survey.

The report may have special significance for scientists worried that the earth is becoming so overpopulated that its ecology is endangered.

"People who are concerned about the population explosion need to read this very closely," said Census Director George Hay Brown who announced the findings Wednesday.

But Brown pointed out that the survey covers only 6 per cent of the world's population. Regarded as a key indicator of the national birth rate, the survey showed that:

- Wives from 18 to 39 expect to have an average of 2.8 children, a decline from the 3.1 average reported in 1967.
- Wives from 18 to 24 expect 2.4 children, compared with 2.9 five years ago.
- 64 per cent of those 18 to 24 expect no more than two children, up from 44 per cent reporting those expectations in the previous survey.

Jones County Schools Idle

TRENTON, N. C. (AP) — All public schools in Jones County were closed today after three days of unrest at Jones Senior High School caused by the suspension of a black teacher.

The superintendent of schools in the eastern North Carolina county, J. S. Collins, said the teacher, Lewis C. Fleming, was suspended last week because of "inadequacies," and would be given an open hearing next Wednesday.

Classes at Jones Senior were dismissed early after authorities said that 100 black students who refused to go to class or leave the grounds broke windows Wednesday, demolished equipment in the teachers lounge, and destroyed a $1,400 valve grinder in the auto mechanics class. Policemen cleared the school grounds and the rest of the school's 650 pupils were dismissed.

Because all drivers of school buses in the county attend the high school, all the schools were ordered closed today along with Jones. Collins said they probably would remain closed Friday.

Meetings of school officials with several advisory groups were planned today.

The closing affects 2,600 pupils in the high school, a junior high and six elementary schools.

The new study coincides with earlier findings that the nation's birth rate fell last year to one of the lowest levels in history.

The findings take on added significance because there are more women of prime child-bearing age now than in previous years, which usually would mean a rising birth rate.

Demographers say the number of births per woman of child-bearing age must be trimmed to 2.11 per cent if a stable population that neither increases nor decreases is to be achieved. The most recent survey put the figure at about 2.5 births per family.

Japan has a deftly guided economy that is fine-tuned by the government without formal controls.

One man was killed and three men wounded in the shootout in St. Louis. Tinnell, one of the officers in the gun battle, escaped serious injury, but police said two bullets grazed his jacket. (AP Wirephoto)

One Injured In Collisions

One person was reported injured and an estimated $6,850 property damage caused in two collisions investigated here yesterday by Police.

Officers said heaviest damage resulted when cars driven by William M. Reynolds, 46, of Route 3, Waxhaw and Miss Lillie M. Schmidt of Elyria, Ohio collided about 1:20 p. m. at the intersection on N. C. 43 and Forrest Hills Drive.

Damage to the Reynolds auto was set at $550 while damage to the Schmidt car was placed at $4,000.

Police, who charged Miss Schmidt with failing to see her intended movement could be made in safety, reported she was injured in the collision.

Vehicles driven by Nattie Whitchard Warren, 1011 East Tenth St. and Timothy Lamar McFarland, 17, of 1509 East Fifth St. collided about 3:05 p. m. at the intersection of Sixth Street and Forrest Hill Circle.

Damage to the Warren car was estimated at $800, while damage to the McFarland vehicle was placed at $1,500.

Mrs. Warren was charged with failing to stop for a stop sign following investigation of the collision.

Deadline For Contestants

GRIFTON — Anyone wishing to sponsor a candidate in the Shad Queen Contest must contact Ken Carter by Feb. 29.

According to Carter, a number of merchants and civic groups have already submitted names of young ladies they plan to sponsor in the contest on April 8.

The candidates will ride in the Shad Festival Parade, which will begin at 10 a. m. April 8, and will compete in the contest at 6 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Carter said judging will be based on beauty, poise, personality and cleverness. Contestants must live within five miles of Grifton or be students at the Ayden-Grifton High School if they live beyond that distance.

All contestants must be sponsored by Grifton businesses, civic, church or social groups.

A nominal fee will be charged for each contestant.

CHOMP! CHOMP! CHOMP! — This machine survives on a steady diet of old washing machines, old refrigerators and old stoves. Workers of the St. Regis Paper Company's Environmental Systems Division, demonstrate the machine to officials of the city of Greenville. The machine is capable of digesting almost any article discarded from the home including TV sets, mattresses, upholstered furniture, bed springs, stoves, tires, and even the kitchen sink. Its purpose is to help communities level off the spiraling cost of refuse removal caused by increased maintenance and costs sustained by private and municipal haulers. The machine cost approximately $20,000, and is manufactured in West Germany. (Reflector Staff Photo)

Candidates Urges Early Here Friday Tax-Filing

First District chairman Bill Dansey reminded interested persons of all political parties that a "Meet The Candidate" reception for the major North Carolina Republican candidates is set for Friday night at the Moose Lodge.

Dansey reminded that the reception will begin at 8 p. m. and will afford each person attending an opportunity to speak with the candidates on a personal basis.

Among the candidates expected are gubernatorial pursuants Jim Gardner and Jim Holshouser, lieutenant governor candidates Johnny Walker and Norman Joyner, U.S. Senatorial hopefuls Jimmy Johnson and Bill Booe, and First Congressional District candidate Maek Howard.

The reception will be sponsored by the Pitt County Republicans, the Young Republicans Club of Pitt County, and the College Republicans of East Carolina University. Dansey said that there will be no admission charges.

Pirates Host Southern Mat Tournament

Sectional High School Wrestling Set At Rose

Rose High School will play host to the Northeastern High School Sectional Wrestling Tournament, to be held Friday and Saturday.

Eleven schools from throughout the northeastern part of the state will participate in the tournament, which will select representatives for the state tournament, to be held next week in Winston-Salem.

Friday's schedule has preliminaries set for 2 p.m. with quarter final matches at 6 p.m.

Then, on Saturday, the semifinals will be held at 2:30 p.m. Consolations will get underway at 6:30 p.m., with the finals slated for 7:30 p.m.

Seedings in the tournament were based on season records, and the top five were automatically seeded into the quarterfinals.

The winner and runner-up in each of the classes will advance to the state tournament.

Ribbons will be presented to the first, second and third place finishers in each weight class, and at the conclusion of the meet, the Outstanding Wrestler will be chosen. Buck's Supply Co. will present the medal with a former Rose High School state champion, Mike Buck, making the presentation.

A team championship trophy will also be awarded to the team with the highest total number of points.

The 11 teams involved in the tournament include the hosting Rampants of Rose High School, plus Ahsoskie, Ayden-Grifton, D.H. Conley, Farmville Central, Wilson, Edenton, North Pitt, Northeastern, Northern Nash, and Rocky Mount.

Not all schools will be represented in all classes however. Only nine will compete in the 98 pound class, while seven will take part in the 105. Eight will participate in the 119 and nine at 126. Ten will wrestle at 132 and nine at 138.

There will be nine at 167, at 185, and seven at 198. Only six will take part in the unlimited class. All 11 are slated to take part in the 112-pound class, the 145, and the 155.

David Brown of North Pitt is the top seed in the 98-pound class. He comes into the meet with a 14-2 record. Following him are Kenny Williams (10-3) of Northern Nash and Ricky Bundy (12-4) of Farmville Central.

At 105, Melvin Tyson (13-1) of Conley is the top seed. Dennis Womble of Northern Nash (11-1-1) is second, followed by Linwood Brown (14-3) of North Pitt.

Andrew Daniels of North Pitt at 16-1, is the leading contender at 112. He's challenged by Mike Whitley (11-1) of Fike and Russell Harper (11-2) of Rocky Mount.

The top seed in the 119 class goes to Herman Little (11-0) of Northeastern. Angelo Daniels (12-1) of North Pitt and Ray Brinn of Rocky Mount (6-2-1) are next in the seeds.

Ricky Johnson (11-1) of Fike has the top place in the 126-pound class. Grey Muir of Northeastern (10-2-1) and Richard Johnson (10-3-1) on Conley are next.

At 132, Cleveland Harris of Rocky Mount heads the list with an 11-2-1 record. Wayne Maness of Conley, 11-3, and Gary Walton of Rose (8-3-2) are next in line.

Ken Perkins of Rose heads the 138 group, with James Swinson of Conley (9-3) and Robert Lewis of Northeastern (7-6) behind him. Perkins had a 12-2 record.

Marc Richardson of Fike heads the 145-pound class with an 11-1 record. Following him are Alton Nicholson of Conley (12-1-1) and Alvin Sessoms of Northern Nash (11-2).

In the 155-pound class, Randy Price of Northern Nash has drawn top seeding. He comes into the meet with a 12-0 record. Billy Justice of Conley, 13-1, and Wilbur Edwards of North Pitt, 13-3, follow him.

The 167-pound bracket has William Cooper, another Northern Nash grappler in the top seed. He has a 12-1 mark. Carlos Moore of Farmville Central (13-2-1) and Glenn Little of North Pitt (6-2) rank second and third.

Demitrius Edwards of Ayden-Grifton is top ranked in the 185-pound class. He has a 9-0-1 record. Willie Kearns of Northern Nash (10-1) and Robert Bullock of Farmville Central (10-3-1) are the top challengers.

Stacey Evans of Conley at 11-3-1 heads the 198-pound class with James Harrell of Northeastern (6-2) behind him. Mike Driver of Wilson is next with a 7-5-1 record.

Farmville Central's Roger Eason tops the class in the unlimited group. He has a 16-0 record. Terry Leonard of Rocky Mount (14-0) and Edward McGowan of Conley (7-7) are the next in line.

East Carolina University will play host to the Southern Conference Wrestling Tournament Friday and Saturday and the Pirates hope to be able to walk away with the team trophy during the activity.

Coach John Welborn's Pirates come into the meet having lost only one match during the year. They also beat their nearest rival in the tournament, William & Mary, in a dual meet.

"But you can throw that all out the window," Welborn said. "The tournament is an entirely different thing. We beat them two years ago in a dual meet and they still won the tournament. There are too many other things that can happen in tournament action."

The primary thing is that you can get upset by one of the other teams, or a favorite and winner might come from one of these other schools. Furman, VMI and The Citadel each have wrestlers capable of winning individual championships.

Besides these five schools, Davidson and Richmond will also participate. Richmond, however, is in a wrestling program for the first time this year, and will have no token representation in the meet.

There are 10 weight classes to the meet, and the winners in each, automatically qualify for the NCAA National Tournament, to be held in March at College Park, Maryland. A total of 36 will qualify from across the nation in each class.

Bucs Host Monarchs

East Carolina's Pirates close out their 1971-72 home basketball season tonight at 8 p.m. when the play host to Old Dominion University.

The Monarchs bring in another outstanding guard in Dave Twardzik, who is averaging over 25 points per game.

The Bucs, who go into the game with an 11-10 mark, will be seeking their fourth straight victory, and their ninth out of the past 12 games.

A freshman contest between the two schools opens the activity at 5:45 p.m.

Trophies will be presented to the winners in each class, with medals going to the second, third and fourth place finishers.

In addition, the team championship trophy will go to the winning team, and an Outstanding Wrestler will be chosen and honored.

Friday's action opens at 7 p.m. in Minges Coliseum with the quarterfinals, with the semifinals following.

Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., the consolation semifinals will be held, with the finals at 7:30. The championship finals will be held at 8:30.

Prior to the championship finals, two mats will be in use at the time. Only one match at a time will be run during the finals, however.

"East Carolina and William & Mary should battle it out for first place," Welborn said. "VMI and The Citadel will be fighting for third." The Indians come into the tournament with a four-year winning streak on the line. For the Pirates, they are still going for their first victory after being the runners-up for the past four years.

Welborn gave a rundown of the top contenders in each class. "There could be some other people who'll make it to the finals, but these should be the favorites," he said.

At 118, ECU's Glenn Baker should be among the top seeds, if now on top. Dan Rosenkrans of William & Mary should be the top contender.

Dan Monroe of East Carolina is the defending champion at 126, and should be top seeded here. Another Indian, Mark Belknap will be his top competition.

Jim McCloe of East Carolina is another good bet for top seeding at 134. Brad Smallwood, who is the defending 142 champion, probably will be seeded second.

William & Mary John Kaila, who was second last year at 134, will be tops in the 142. Either Roger Lunday of East Carolina of Stu Stevens of The Citadel will take the second seed.

At 150, Bruce Hall of East Carolina or John Riding of VMI could be the top seed. Stevens, should he move up from 142, could be a strong challenge here, too.

The 158-pound class appears to be between Roger Ingalls of East Carolina, Phil Smith of VMI or Bill Hogan of William & Mary. Hogan is the defending 150-pound champ.

Scott Moyer of William & Mary, who won two years ago at 177, probably will be top seeded at 167. Smith, if he goes up a class, could be second seeded, with East Carolina's Dick O'Lena next.

Bill Hill of East Carolina is the defending champ of 177 and should be the top seed. Bill Huggins of The Citadel and Mike Furness of William & Mary are his top competitors.

At 190, Jim Bailey of VMI is the defending champion. Huggins could move up to challenge him with Tim Gay of East Carolina next.

Greg Freaney of William &

Mary is the defending heavyweight champ, and will be top seeded. Number two should be either Furman's Dan Bench or East Carolina's John Huber. Seedings will be established at 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Chargers, Vikings Advance In Tourney

By WOODY PEELE
Reflector Sports Editor

HOLLYWOOD — The Conley Vikings and Ayden-Grifton Chargers both picked up expected victories last night, but third-place Ayden-Grifton's girls suffered an upset at the hands of Eastern Wayne in an overtime.

Conley opened the evening with a 71-60 thrashing of C. B. Aycock and the Chargers closed it with a 64-45 romp over Southern Nash. But in the lone girls game, sixth-place Eastern Wayne came back from four points behind late in the game to tie it up at the end of regulation, 41-41. They then went on to take a 44-41 win and gain the semi-finals.

Ayden-Grifton's boys, by winning, moved into Friday night's finals. They will face the winner of the Conley-Greene Central game.

Tonight's slate sends the Conley and Eastern Wayne girls against each other at 6 p.m., with the Greene Central and Conley boys meeting at 7:30. The North Pitt and Southern Wayne lassies meet in the final game of the evening, at about 9 p.m.

Neither of the boys teams had a great deal of trouble in claiming their victories, although Conley's wide margin didn't appear until early in the final period.

Not that there was ever any danger of Aycock pulling off the upset. They just didn't have the horses. With David Pugh controlling the backboards, Aycock got off fewer shots, and hit with a lesser degree of accuracy.

Conley got the opening lead on a rebounding shot by Dwight Hawkins after 1:15, but Aycock tied it up on a couple of free throws by Robbie Wooten. Free throws actually were all that kept Aycock close during the game. They made only three field goals during the first period and five in the second.

Aycock tied Conley again at 4-4, and then took the lead for the only time, 5-4, on a free throw by Arthur Stafford.

Conley got it back at 6-5, and never fell behind again. Bernard Wilkes hit on a running hook to return the lead to the Vikings, and then moved out by three on a jumper by Pugh. It stayed right there until late in the period when a free throw by Kervin Hawkins inched it to four at 13-9 with 2:45 left. Conley got only one field goal the rest of the way, however, and Aycock stormed back to tie it up on a fast-break basket by Wooten with just five seconds left, 15-15.

Conley moved out again, 17-15, on two free throws by Dwight Hawkins as the second period opened, but again Aycock tied it up. Then, with 5:06 left, James Fleming hit from underneath by the Vikings, and that was the last time Conley had to shake off the Falcons.

They put through two more baskets before Aycock hit again, moving out by six, 23-17, and held a four-point edge most of the rest of the way, leading 31-27 at halftime.

In the second half, the Vikings began to move away for good. They got the first two baskets on the second half on shots by Tommy Roach and Pugh to move out by eight. They slowly pulled away from there, moving out by 11 by the time the period ended, 50-39.

In the final period, it was just a question of margin. The Vikings led by as much as 19 with 5:57 left, and held off the Aycock press the rest of the way, as the subs began to filter into the game.

Hawkins led the Conley scoring with 24 points, while Wilkes added 18.

Stafford paced all scorers with 27 for Aycock, with Thurmond Hobbs adding 10.

The girls game proved to be the most exciting of all. It was nip and tuck all the way, with neither team ever leading by more than four.

Neither seemed to be able to take control in the first period. The lead was swapped several times and tied up on three occasions. Finally, however, with three seconds left, Deborah Harris hit from the baseline to give Ayden-Grifton an 8-7 lead as the period ended.

The second period continued along the same lines. The lead changed hands six times and it was tied five times. Neither team led by more than two as it bounced back and fourth. Again, Ayden-Grifton held the advantage as the period ended, with another late shot. This time Decia Little hit with seven seconds left for a 20-18 margin.

In the third period, however, Ayden-Grifton got the first two baskets and moved out into a six-point lead. Terry Wooten got the first, and Miss Harris added the second for a 24-18 lead. Eastern Wayne fought back, however, cutting it to two at 24-22, but the Chargerettes were able to hold on, despite a basket by Patricia Smith that cut the lead to one, 28-27 as the final minute began. Ayden-Grifton got a basket from Miss Little and a free throw from Kelly Reeves, however, for a 31-27 cushion as the period ended.

In the final period, Eastern fought back and tied it up twice midway through the period.

Ayden-Grifton went back out by four, however, as Nancy Sugg and Miss Little both hit for a 40-36 lead with 2:09 left.

A free throw by Cathy Lancaster and a basket by Miss Smith cut it back to one, and after Miss Sugg got a free throw for the Chargerettes, a basket by Marcileta Best with just two seconds left tied it at 41-41, forcing the overtime.

Eastern Wayne got the tip-off and just decided to play control until late in the period. They were successful for nearly two minutes, but then a jump was called. The Squaws controlled it, however, and with 35 seconds left, Miss Smith was fouled. She made the first for a 42-41 Eastern Wayne lead.

Ayden-Grifton then had two chances at the line with 18 and 16 seconds left, but missed all four. Then, with seven seconds left, Miss Best was fouled, and made both, sewing it up for the Squaws.

Miss Smith led Eastern with 20 points, while Miss Little led Ayden-Grifton with 12 and Miss Harris had 10.

The final game was over almost before it had begun. Southern Nash stayed close for most of the first period, but after that, the Chargers were in complete command.

The A-G defense was too much for the Firebirds, who were forced to take poor outside shots most of the time. And when they missed, the Chargers usually swept the boards.

Southern did get the opening lead on a basket by Larry Burgess, but Ayden-Grifton tied it at 2-2 and 4-4 before taking a 6-4 lead on a shot by Willie Stewart from underneath.

Southern tied it one more time at 6-6 on a shot by Caludius Elmore, but from there on out, it was Ayden-Grifton's game. A jumper by Danny Garris put Ayden-Grifton ahead to stay at 8-6, and then moved out to a six-

Bear Grass In Martin Upset

WILLIAMSTON — Bear Grass High School went through the entire regular season without a victory, but last night they got the biggest one of the year, regardless of what happens from now on out.

The lowly Bears upset regular season Martin County Conference champ Oak City, 52-51, in the first round of the league tournament.

In the other game, the top-seeded Robersonville girls downed Jamesville, 47-19.

The contest between Bear Grass and Oak City was tight all the way with neither team able to build any advantage over the counter. It was all tied up at 17-17 after the first period of play. Bear Grass then out hit Oak City, 13-12, in the second frame, holding a slim 30-29 lead at intermission.

In the third period, the Bears again out hit the Trojans, 13-9, and upped their lead to 43-38. But the Trojans fought back in the final period, finally gaining the lead, 51-50 in the closing minute of play.

Then, with seven seconds left, Bear Grass got a free throw opportunity, but missed it. Vann Rogerson scooped his teammates' miss up, however, and tossed it through, giving the Bears the big upset win.

Rogerson finished the game with 20 points, while teammate Bryant Bowen had 12. For Oak City, Edward Briley, Howard Peele and Whit Whitfield each has 12 points.

In the girls game, it was no contest from the start. Robersonville shot away to an 8-1 lead after one period. They out hit the Lady Bullets, 14-6, in the second frame for a 22-7 lead at halftime.

Robersonville continued to pull away in the third period with a 16-9 advantage that made it 38-16. Once more the Eaglettes did it, 9-3, to wrap it up.

Jennie James, Peggy James and Elaine Forrest each had 10 for Robersonville.

Tonight, the Oak City and Bear Grass girls meet in the 7 p.m. game, with Jamesville and Robersonville colliding in the boys game at 8:30 p.m. The finals will be held Friday night.

Highwaymen Ice Industrial Tie

State Highway clinched at least a tie for the Industrial League championship last night with a 114-88 romp over Greenville Utilities. Wachovia Bank, the only team with a chance to catch them, beat Carolina Telephone, 72-44, while Empire Brush beat Vermont American, 69-55, in the other games.

State Highway is now 13-1, while Wachovia is 12-2. They are followed by Carolina Telephone, 8-6, Empire Brush, 6-8, Greenville Utilities, 2-12, and Vermont American, 1-13.

State Highway and Wachovia will meet in the final regular season league game on Monday.

In the opening contest, Wachovia moved out to a 32-21 lead in the first period. They then outthit the Phoneme, 40-23, in the second half to wrap it up.

Travis Russ led Wachovia with 22 points, while Bill Baggett had 18, Jerry Smith had 16 and Terry Sparrow had 13. For Carolina Telephone, Bob Worthington had 13.

In the second game, Empire Brush and Vermont American were deadlocked, 24-24, at halftime. But in the second half, Empire Brush outthit their opponents, 45-31, to wrap it up.

Curtis Barrett led Empire Brush with 19, while James Parker had 13 and Bobby Parker had 12. For Vermont American, Ronnie Foster had 19, Moses Teel had 17 and John James had 12.

In the final contest, the highwaymen rolled up a 55-33 advantage by halftime. In the second half, they pushed in 59 more while GUCo hit 55.

Fred Mills led the Highwaymen with 29, while Bob Edwards and Dan Edwards each had 22, Smith Worthington had 17 and Phil Page had 10. James Gorham had 37 for GUCo, while Danny English had 21 and James Ward had 20.

Coke Rolls On In City League

Coca-Cola was the only favored team to chalk up a victory in last night's City Basketball League action. The regular season champs dumped last place Stewart's Sandwiches, 62-53. Big Value Discount of Farmville surprised College View, 74-59, while Book Exchange won by forfeit over Hallow's Distributing.

Coke is now 13-1 on the year, while Hallow's is 8-6. They are followed by Big Value, and Exchange with a 6-8 mark, and Stewart's, 1-13. The regular season play ends on Monday.

In the opening game, Coke eased out into a 27-19 lead in the first period of play. They continued to just stay in front with a 35-34 margin in scoring in the second half as they downed Stewart's.

Jim Modlin led Coke with 22 points, while Bob Cargill and John Turner each had 13. For Stewart's, Horace Lawrence had 18, Stuart Rhodes had 13 and Charles Meeks had 10.

Covers engine, transmission, rear axle, brake system and electrical system for 30 days or 2000 miles. And you get special savings on all parts and labor for the first 24 months.

USED VEHICLE DEALER WARRANTY

No. _____

This Warranty is issued by the undersigned, an authorized Chevrolet Dealer (hereinafter called the Selling Dealer) to:

Name _____ Address _____
City _____ State _____

(hereinafter called the Purchaser) in consideration of the purchase of a used motor vehicle (hereinafter called the Vehicle) described as follows:

Year _____ Make _____ Type _____
Motor No. _____ Serial No. _____ Stock No. _____
Mileage shown on odometer at delivery _____

STATEMENT OF WARRANTY
Subject to the provisions and conditions stated below, in the event of mechanical failure of the Vehicle, the Selling Dealer agrees as follows:
(1) For a period of 30 days, beginning _____, 19____, or 2000 miles after delivery (whichever occurs first), the Selling Dealer agrees to repair or replace the engine, transmission, rear axle, brake system, or electrical system—without charge—to the extent necessary to keep the Vehicle in serviceable condition under normal use.
PROVISIONS
(a) Mechanical failures resulting from collision, accident, abuse or lack of maintenance, are expressly excluded from the above coverage.
(b) Repairs are to be made in the Selling Dealer's Service facilities.
(c) Such repairs do not qualify under any new vehicle warranty still applicable to the Vehicle.
(2) Upon the expiration of the warranty period specified in (1) above and for a period ending 24 months from the date the warranty period specified in (1) above commenced, the Selling Dealer will allow a discount of _____ off the normal retail charges for parts and labor repair necessary to keep the Vehicle in serviceable condition under normal use.

PROVISIONS
(a) Repairs are to be made in the Service facilities of the Selling Dealer or other participating, franchised Chevrolet Dealer at such Chevrolet Dealer's regular retail price.
(b) Expressly excluded from Warranty coverage are damage from collision, accident or abuse, or normal maintenance services such as lubrication, oil changes, tune-up, etc.
GENERAL CONDITIONS
This Warranty is issued by the Selling Dealer only, and not by the manufacturer of the Vehicle.
This Warranty is expressly in lieu of any other warranties, expressed or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, and any other obligations or liabilities on the Selling Dealer's part, and Selling Dealer neither assumes nor authorizes any other person to assume for it any other liability in connection with the sale of the Vehicle.
This Warranty may be available with the Vehicle at the time of application for any repairs or adjustments, and is not transferable or assignable. (*Not effective as to consumer goods in California or Massachusetts.)

This Warranty is not valid unless signed by the Selling Dealer's authorized department head and by the Purchaser, who is to retain a copy.

City _____ State _____ Signature of Purchaser _____

In witness of all the above conditions, we have attached our signatures this _____ day of _____, 19____.

Many Chevrolet dealers are announcing the most complete warranty ever put on a used car. Count your blessings. First, you're protected where it counts most: on the major mechanical parts of the car you buy. And that lasts a healthy 30 days or 2000 miles, whichever comes first. Second, you get special savings on any parts or labor you need. From the day you buy for 24 months. Third, the special savings are good all across the country at most Chevrolet dealers. Say you're on a vacation trip and find you need service. You just get in touch with a participating Chevrolet dealership. All you do is show an OK warranty identification card you receive when you buy your used car.

Your Chevrolet dealers' new OK warranty. It takes the guesswork out of used car buying.

This week marks Occupational Education week across the U.S. At Rose High School, although no special observances are planned for the occasion, nearly 270 boys and girls will be engaged in their usual studies and work courses that go to make up the average schoolday for students in several departments of occupational studies.

Claude West is Chairman of the Department of Occupational Education, which now includes a total of seven divisions and departments. The divisions, teacher or instructor in charge, and the number of students enrolled are:

- Office occupations, Mrs. Clara Carr, 25 girls.
- Food Services and Home Occupations, Mrs. Erna Carr, 26 girls.
- Masonry class, Jesse Dawkins, 21 boys.
- Cabinet making class, Jack Moye, 25 boys.
- Carpentry, John Mallow, 23 boys.
- Distributive Education, J. T. Perry, 34 boys and 30 girls; and
- ICT Program, Cecil Heath

and Claude West, 44 girls and 40 boys.

In the ICT program, a variety of subjects are taught. This program covers particular skills, such as plumbing, dental assistant, electronics or any single trade or skill not specifically covered in the other categories of classes.

The Occupational Education program at Rose began seven years ago with the Distributive Education classes. Nearly every passing school year has seen the addition of another phase. Food Services and Home Occupations, for example, was added in the 70-71 school year.

The arrangement for all the classes is one in which students combine practical work with regular academic training. For some of the students this means working in the morning and going to school in the afternoons. For others, it is a matter of going to school in the morning and working in the afternoons.

West said that the success of the entire program is possible because of the continuing cooperation and enthusiasm shown for the program by a number of Greenville businesses and firms, both downtown and in the shopping centers. These are the firms who have year-by-year provided employment opportunities for the more than 200 boys and girls training and going to school under this program.

The separate divisions work together as an entity of many occasions. For example, in March, they will join forces in sponsoring a special program for the PTA.

The carpentry and masonry classes, working jointly, are now in the process of constructing a home on Hooker Road which will be put on the market when completed.

Another big annual joint affair is the employee-employer banquet, at which all the employers providing jobs for the boys and girls are treated to a dinner by the students.

In sizing up the effectiveness of the existing programs, West noted each is filling a very specific and needed role in preparing boys and girls for practical, realistic job procurement.

"But we still need to expand the program," West said. "There's a pressing need just now for a graphic arts program and one for auto mechanics."

Asked about the possibility of opening new classes, West said the main problem was that of funding. "There's no lack of student interest, and teachers could easily be found for new classes. What is needed now is more local funding for such programs. This would open the door to matching funds to support an expanded program."

West feels that eventually an entire range of vocational education classes to fit the needs of a large students body will be available at Rose. For now, it is a vigorous program, one representing a fairly large segment of the total student body.

Tribal No-No In New Hebrides

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tradition forbids women of the Big Namba tribe on Malekula island in the New Hebrides from being seen by their husband's brothers.

If a married woman happens to be walking along a trail when a brother-in-law wanders by she sits beside the path and covers her face with a large purple-dyed wig fashioned from pandanus leaves, says the National Geographic.

Represented ECU At Indoor Tourneys

Twenty-four students represented East Carolina University at the Association of College Unions International Intercollegiate Tournaments in Blacksburg, Va. last week. They competed against students from colleges and universities in the Carolinas, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee in five indoor games: bridge, chess, billiards, table tennis and bowling.

The ECU participants were previously winners of indoor sports tournaments.

Names, parents' names and hometown addresses of the ECU participants, with their game areas, follow:

MARTIN COUNTY, Williamston — Shirley Katherine Griffin, bowling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Griffin, Route 1.

PITT COUNTY, Ayden — Richard Alan Rados, table tennis, 309 Lee St., Greenville — Satoru Tanabe, bridge, ward of Dr. Takeru Ito, 2006 Pinecrest Drive; Richard W. Anderson, bridge, 821 College View Apts.;

Grimesland — Margaret Theresa Brown, table tennis, daughter of Robert M. Borwn. Winterville — Sherrill C. Phelps, chess, daughter of Robert D. Phelps, Route 1.

Tennessee expects more than 850,000 boating people to use its waterways in 1972.

A revolutionary since his youth, Mao, 78, is Communist China's oracle, the man absorbed by the larger aspects of Chinese policy. He dreams of higher things: the remodeling of the Chinese individual into an ideal human, adept at war and peace, dedicated to the objectives of communism.

Though his mind soars in flights of imagination, Mao has his feet planted firmly in the Chinese earth; he lays down the broad lines of Chinese domestic and foreign policy. Subordinates, led by Chou, carry them out. If they falter or fail, he steps in to advise, counsel and correct.

Son of a peasant in Hunan Province, Mao became interested in revolution when the rebels led by the American-educated Sun Yat-sen swept the Manchus off the Chinese throne in 1912 and established a republic.

Movie Audience More Selective

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The movie industry is beginning to see some daylight through the dark clouds that have caused gloom for the last five years. "This year will be better." That's the cautious optimism of most leaders of the film business. Their caution is natural; 1971 was not a good year. But certain indications point to improvement in 1972 of the long-ailing industry.

Says Robert Evans, production chief of Paramount: "Less and less people are going to 'the movies,' but more and more people are going to 'a movie.' If you can find that movie that people urgently want to see, you can prosper."

Veteran producer Michael Frankovich agrees: "Pictures will definitely feel more losses than ever before as audiences become more selective. But as audiences become more selective, the big pictures will be bigger than ever."

Adolph Zukor, 99-year-old founding father of the film industry, expressed the same thought in a recent interview: "A company only needs only one or two (blockbuster) pictures each year, and it can pay for all the other pictures that lose money."

This represents the superhit survival philosophy that dominates industry thinking today. It started with "The Sound of Music," which astounded everyone by amassing $100 million in film rentals. Its success led 20th Century-Fox and other companies to invest many millions in trying to duplicate it, with near-bankruptcy results. Fox's "Hello, Dolly!" and "Tora Tora Tora" cost $50 million and returned $41 million.

Now the film companies are operating on the theory that blockbusters can be produced without huge production costs. Example: "The French Connection," which cost $3.2 million and will bring back more than either "Dolly" or "Tora."

"The more efficient production becomes, the more production we'll have," predicts John Gavin, president of the Screen Actors Guild. "Every company is cutting costs and making economies that were advised 15 years ago. That can only bring about a healthier industry."

Gavin foresees a real upturn by the third quarter of 1972. The basis for his prediction: streamlining of company operations; revival in the country's economy; legislative help in curing the industry's ills.

All companies have abandoned the "shoot-it-at-any-cost" philosophy.

A $3-million film budget is becoming more of a rarity as producers seek to cut expense at every level.

"It's got to be done all the way down the line," says Paramount's Evans. "That means

PTI Embroidery Workshop Set

Pitt Technical Institute will offer a workshop featuring the stitches and designs of Florentine Canvas Embroidery (Bargello) beginning Monday. There will be four sessions conducted on Monday nights from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in room 140. Those attending the workshop should bring with them a pair of scissors and a notebook. Interested persons should attend the first meeting.

Thus Chou will do most of the talking with Nixon. But he will be in close consultation with China's No.1 man, the Communist party chief, popular demigod and father of Chinese communism.

That is Mao.

Any Nixon-Mao meeting may be little more than social. Mao does not involve himself in the nuts and bolts of Chinese policy.

A revolutionary since his youth, Mao, 78, is Communist China's oracle, the man absorbed by the larger aspects of Chinese policy. He dreams of higher things: the remodeling of the Chinese individual into an ideal human, adept at war and peace, dedicated to the objectives of communism.

Though his mind soars in flights of imagination, Mao has his feet planted firmly in the Chinese earth; he lays down the broad lines of Chinese domestic and foreign policy. Subordinates, led by Chou, carry them out. If they falter or fail, he steps in to advise, counsel and correct.

Son of a peasant in Hunan Province, Mao became interested in revolution when the rebels led by the American-educated Sun Yat-sen swept the Manchus off the Chinese throne in 1912 and established a republic.

A stern father and a disciplinarian teacher encouraged him to youthful revolt. Witnessing the execution of rebellious peasants seared opposition to the establishment into his soul. In 1921 he joined 11 other Chinese, most of them young, in forming the Chinese Communist party.

Joseph Stalin and the Soviet Communists dominated the fledgling Chinese Reds. Their advice—cooperate with the Nationalists headed by Chiang Kai-shek—proved disastrous. In 1927, eager for aid from the Shanghai bankers and industrialists, Chiang turned on his Red Chinese allies, decimating them in a bloodbath savage even by Chinese standards.

In the years which followed, Mao hewed out his own path independently of Moscow; he defied Marxist doctrine and put the Chinese peasant, rather than the proletariat, in the vanguard of the Chinese revolution. His view prevailed in 1935, during the Long March retreat to northwest China, when he became unchallenged leader of the party. Despite ups and downs, he continues to dominate the Chinese comrades, 36 years later.

Despite his 78 years, Mao appears in reasonably robust health.

Reports of Mao's death or illness—most of them wishful thinking—circulate from time to time. Despite stories that he suffers from cancer of the throat or Parkinson's disease he makes periodic public appearances, smoking his ever-present cigarillo.

He knows that his passing from the scene will create a Chinese crisis. He wants to consolidate his hold on the thinking of the next generation of China leaders.

The Greenville Recreation Department is offering a four week workshop in String Picture making. String pictures are currently enjoying much popularity.

The Recreation Department is offering four different patterns to choose from: Wise Old Owl, Spring Flowers, Sail Ship, and a Gossamer Web Abstract.

Cost of these large 18 x 24 inch pictures runs from $3.00 to $5.50. Each hobbyist should bring one yard of velvet, felt, or burlap in their choice of color to use as a backing color, and a small hammer. Preregistration is required so that the department can have enough wood cut for this class.

Craft hours at Elm Street Center are: Tuesday 9-12, 1-4, and 7:30-10:00; and Wednesday 2-4, and 7:30-10:00.

The Worry Clinic

A 'Needle' Is Used As Spur

Editors and columnists often relish emotional retorts. Indeed, we may purposely attack "Sacred Cows" to arouse the stodgy people who are coasting on "tenure." But it is fun to psychoanalyze such critics as this instructor at Bowling Green University. Is he merely seeking notoriety?

North literally propelled his partnership into a slam contract after South kept the bidding open by responding with one spade. The jump to four no trump followed by the final bid of six spades was unwarranted, for unless partner has second round control of diamonds, there may be no play for slam. Suppose, for example, that South's hand is:

♠ K J 10 7 6
♥ Q 10 7
♦ 4 3
♣ K 9 8

If the defense cashes the ace of hearts at the opening gun, there is no way for declarer to avoid losing a diamond trick subsequently.

North would have been better advised to jump directly to four spades, which is a big bid inasmuch as it indicates a desire to be in game as soon as the responding hand shows 6 points and a four card suit. If South has a couple of key controls, he may be counted on to take further action himself.

East's double of six spades was ill advised even though he expected to defeat the slam because it may misdirect partner. The double of a slam bid is conventional and in the present case calls for the lead of dummy's first bid suit. Since East desires to have a heart opened, he should do nothing which might deter West from making a natural selection.

Paying heed to his partner's instructions, West led the king of diamonds which was taken by North's ace. Inasmuch as East was surely marked with a trump trick, it became essential for South to take immediate measures to eliminate his heart loser.

The ace of clubs was cashed and a diamond was ruffed in the closed hand so that South could cash the king of clubs to discard the king of hearts from dummy.

Declarer proceeded to cross-ruff the next five tricks, trumping two hearts and one club in dummy and two diamonds in the closed hand to produce the following position with four cards to go:

NORTH

SOUTH
♥ 10 7

A diamond was led and East was unable to prevent declarer from scoring three of the last four tricks. If East discards the queen of hearts, South ruffs with the jack of clubs and then discards a diamond from dummy. East is obliged to ruff in and then lead away from the king of spades—presenting the last two tricks to North's ace-queen of trumps.

If East ruffs with a small spade when the diamond is led from dummy, South over-trumps, leads a heart and ruffs with the queen of spades. The ace of spades scores his twelfth trick. Finally—if East ruffs in with the king of trumps, declarer takes the remaining tricks whether East returns a heart or a trump.

But once in a blue moon, I find it interesting to quote a letter from a reader.

"Dear Mr. Crane," such a missive began, "you are, without a doubt, a charlatan."

The letter was then signed by a man who listed himself as an Instructor in the English Department at Bowling Green State University, in Ohio.

This young instructor merits a double compliment, however, for he had a lucid masculine script.

And he boldly signed his name, instead of remaining anonymous.

Why do you readers think this college teacher sent me that one-sentence missive?

Is he just immature and naive?

For example, to make a charge in writing that a bona fide American physician and surgeon is a quack (charlatan) is a libelous statement!

But I feel sure he neither realized I am a medical doctor or even appreciated the legal terms "slander" and "libel."

For young people tend to blurt out their emotional ire with little thought of the future implications.

They often are just as thoughtless with reference to their teen-age marriages, 50 percent of which also end in divorce before the 5th wedding anniversary.

Could this man be an irate bachelor who resents my telling you girls to be wary of such suitors who have passed the age of 30 to 35?

Maybe he isn't very successful as a classroom English teacher and thus objects to my saying that 75 percent of professors, as well as 75 percent of clergymen are second-raters.

For it is a truism in business (as well as in the professions) that the upper 25 per cent of salesmen dispose of about 75 percent of the merchandise while the other 75 percent sell only about 25 percent of the gross volume.

Analyze your faculty members, especially those on "tenure," and see how many of them would still have jobs if our "free enterprise" competitive system applied to campus teachers.

Remember, a full teaching load for college faculty members involves but 12 lecture hours (really 50 minute periods) per week!

same jokes and stodgy oratory. "Dr. Crane, we must grade papers and attend faculty meetings," argue some of the smug "tenure" professors, as they shed crocodile tears amid their faked groaning.

But most colleges now have so many graduate students on fellowships that the professors pass along the grading to these younger assistants.

And just imagine the tremendous strain of sitting on your fanny at a meeting where you merely answer "Aye" or "Nay" a few times, amid jokes and golf stories!

Obviously, I need the 75 per cent of the second-rate faculty members, plus the same stodgy 75 percent of our clergy, to arouse them! (It works!)

But I gratefully salute the 25 per cent of professors who don't need "tenure" but fill their classrooms by their enthusiastic "human interest" lectures.

Send for my "Test for Teachers" enclosing a long stamped, return envelope plus 25 cents.

"Tenure" profs are usually scared of test! (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Car-Removal

If you've got an old car around the house — an old pile of junk you would like to have moved — and you live inside the city limits, just call the Greenville police Department. They might be able to help you.

According to Chief Glenn Cannon, Police Sgt. D. H. Ross is currently supervising the removal of junked cars from the Meadowbrook area north of the Tar River. More than 60 old cars were removed from the area last week.

Chief Cannon noted that when work north of the river is completed, the car-removal program will move South of the river.

He said persons living inside the city limits who have old cars they would like to have removed — at no cost to themselves — should call the Police Department and make arrangements with Sgt. Ross.

More than 1,500 old cars have been hauled away under the free removal program since 1968.

Big Potential In Cable TV

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI)—Cable television has the potential of becoming a two-way educational system in every home, a means of conducting nationwide polling and voting, a replacement for local postal delivery or a way to carry out 24-hour surveillance of entire cities.

That's the view of Dr. Norman Balabanian, professor of electrical and computer engineering at Syracuse University. These and other ways in which cable television can have a wide impact on future society is the subject of a new three-credit course Balabanian has prepared for the spring semester.

Last year, Capri was "Import Car of the Year."

This year, Mercury Montego is "Car of the Year."

When you're hot, you're hot!

Not one, but two winners of Road Test Magazine's awards are now in our showroom.

Mercury Montego, the new personal-size car with big-car ride, was selected "Car of the Year" for 1972 by Road Test magazine. Its editors considered more than 40 models to determine the winner.

Last year Capri, the sexy European at a shamefully low price, won the "Import Car of the Year" award over all contenders.

Impressive? We think so... and we're sure you'll agree when you see and drive these outstanding cars. Visit us soon! Discover for yourself why Capri sold more cars in its first year than any other import
