Greenville CWI Receives International Award

LOCAL PRESIDENT. . . of Credit Women's-International, Mrs. Pearl Hartsell, left, and Mrs. Carol Hardee display the club's International Award.

Mrs. Lorna Collins of Winston Salem, president of the North Carolina Credit Women-International, was a special guest at the annual summer picnic of the Greenville CWI held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jeannette Cox.

The highlight of Mrs. Collins visit was to present the Greenville club with an International trophy. Mrs. Collins accepted the Achievement Award Trophy on behalf of the Greenville club at the 35th Annual Conference of Credit Women-International, which was held recently in Washington, D.C.

This is the highest award given by International and is based on the highest percentage of combined membership, extension and education certificates for the year.

This was the first time in the history of the local club, that such a distinguished International Award has been presented to them. In accepting the trophy, Mrs. Pearl Hartsell, president of the local club, expressed her appreciation to each member for making this honor possible.

The club members, their families, sponsors and bosses held a covered-dish supper in an outdoor setting at Mrs. Cox's home.

Attending the affair with Mrs. Collins was her three year old grandson, Bobby. Also in attendance were 11 CWI members from the Kinston Club, including one of their sponsors, Ernie Paronto. Approximately 50 people attended the picnic.

Reception Honors Couple On Golden Anniversary

WASHINGTON — Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith Haddock of Greenville were honored on Sunday, July 9, at a golden wedding reception. The couple was married on July 2.

The event was given by their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kirk, Kenneth Haddock, Jimmy and Suzanne Walker, Robert and Allen Kirk, at the Honey Pod home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker.

Mrs. Haddock wore an afternoon dress of green lace and crepe complimented by a corsage of yellow roses.

Topiary trees with miniature golden rice bags were used on each side of the porch doorway. Mr. and Mrs. Haddock and children greeted guests in the entrance hall. An arrangement of snapdragons decorated the entrance hall.

The guest book, placed on the secretary with twin hurricane lamps, was surrounded by gold and white mums and gypsophelia. Robert and Allen Kirk invited guests to register.

In the living area, the mantel was banked with magnolia with white buds flanked by triple brass candelabra holding lighted gold tapers. A candelabra arrangement with gold and green grapes adorned the piano.

Mrs. Atlas Burrough, sister of James Haddock, directed guests to the refreshment table which was covered in an imported embroidered linen and lace cloth. The centerpiece was of white mums and Marguerite daisies in a candelabrum holding lighted gold tapers. Mrs. Jimmy Walker poured punch and Miss Suzanne Walker served wedding cake.

Marriage Is For Mature People Only

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: For three years I lived with a chick and we had the greatest love affair imaginable going for us. Do you know what killed it? MARRIAGE!

We're not kids. I am 33 and she is 30. So you see, Dear Abby, marriage isn't for everybody. We tried it and we didn't like it. LEGAL IS LOUSY

DEAR LOUSY: True. Marriage is not for everybody. It's only for mature people who are prepared to accept all the legal responsibilities of marriage. You just wanted to play house.

DEAR ABBY: How does one discourage "dropper-imers"? I hate to be rude but these people are running me crazy.

You see, my husband came home from the hospital after a stroke and everybody wants to see him. I know he will make a quicker recovery here at home, but if people don't leave him alone, I'll have to take him back to the hospital. I had a coronary myself last year and all this company is wearing me out, too.

No amount of explaining seems to penetrate. People call and I tell them my husband isn't up to having any company just yet, but they come anyway, ring the bell and say, "I'll stay only a minute." Then they stay for hours. Please help me. EXHAUSTED

DEAR EXHAUSTED: If they call first, say, "Sorry, absolutely no visitors yet." And if they ring your bell anyway, let the dingalings ring.

DEAR ABBY: I am curious to know what the law is regarding an unauthorized person opening another person's mail.

Our boss opens all the mail that comes to the office before passing it on to the person to whom it is addressed. Several of us are very put out about this.

While we have nothing to hide, we consider this an invasion of privacy and are considering reporting him to the postal authorities.

He has even removed complimentary tickets enclosed in the letters. WANTS ACTION

DEAR WANTS: Surely you are aware (as your boss must be) that opening mail addressed to another is a federal offense! And removing tickets is theft. I cannot imagine why you haven't already reported him, and quit your job.

DEAR ABBY: When one must (or prefers to) decline an invitation, is it necessary to state the reason? It seems so cold and aloof to simply decline without offering some kind of explanation. CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: If one genuinely regrets that he must decline, he usually offers an explanation, and adds, "But please try me again."

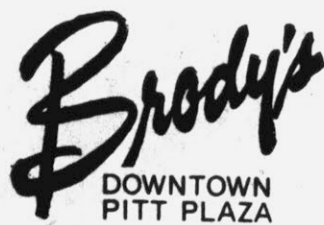

Problems? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 68700, L. A., CALIF. 90080 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Free Of Restraint And Support

It is another one of those moves which startle the world from time-to-time.

It seems that the Russian military advisers are leaving Egypt apparently at the Egyptian's requests.

Even the experts disagree on what the Soviet withdrawal will mean. It could mean that the Egyptians feel that their own people are well trained now and can replace the Soviet technicians who have been manning sophisticated weaponry. Or it could mean that there has been some kind of disagreement between Egypt and the Soviet Union which led to the unprecedented break.

Despite the fact that the Soviets have been supplying arms to Egypt and technology, Egypt had never come fully under the Soviet influence as have some Eastern European countries. Thus the Egyptian government was free to request that Soviet advisors be withdrawn.

At this point no one knows what effect the move will have on Middle East peace. It is certain that Egypt could not launch an attack against Israel without full Soviet military support. Still Egypt is now free of Soviet restraint, as well as Soviet support, and some rightists generals might think that they could launch a full scale attack.

It is another situation where the world will have to watch and wait. Hopefully, without Soviet military support for Egypt, the danger of another all-out war in the area will be lessened.

There is no guarantee that further fighting will not break out, however. One miscalculation could bring open hostilities once again.

Making Up With Daley

WASHINGTON — The toughest job Sen. Tom Eagleton, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, had after his nomination, was to try to persuade Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago to work for McGovern this year.

The meeting between the two men took place late Saturday night in Mayor Daley's office. Eagleton spoke first:

"Dick, we sure missed you last week in Miami. Everyone said it just didn't seem like a Democratic National Convention without Richard Daley."

"I didn't come because I didn't have a seat."

"We suddenly realized that midway in the convention and I want you to know it was a terrible oversight. As a matter of fact, we had a box seat set aside for you next to the podium."

"I didn't have a seat with the Illinois delegation." "The Illinois delegation had lousy seats. You wouldn't have seen anything from there."

"I was elected as a delegate and they wouldn't seat me."

"Yes, that was brought to our attention. There was some question about the new reform rules, Dick. We wanted to seat you in the worst way, but we had no control over it. It was an open convention, and the delegates were tired and hot. They probably didn't even know what they were voting on."

"They knew what they were voting on. They were voting to take away my seat."

"I want to assure you Dick, that Sen. George McGovern wanted you seated. I'll never forget the final morning of the convention at 3:30 a.m. when all of us stood holding our hands high to show that the party was united. George said to me, 'My cup would runneth over if Dick Daley was here to share this moment with me.'"

"You should have thought about that when you took away my seat."

"It was hot and muggy and rained a lot in Miami. You would have hated it. Frankly you were much better off watching the convention on television."

"I know one thing: If they had held the convention in Chicago like I wanted them to, no one would have taken away my seat."

"That's exactly what I told George. I said, 'If the Democratic convention had been held in Chicago, we wouldn't have had a Dick Daley problem.'"

"I know how to take care of people who take away other people's seats."

"We know you do, Dick, and that's why we need you in November."

"Anyone who sat in my chair would have got his head cracked open."

"Now this is what we plan to do. We'd like to make you chairman of the McGovern drive in Illinois. You run it any way you want to."

"If they had tried to take my seat away from me in Chicago, they would have gotten a snootful of tear gas."

"Dick, forget the past. We have to think ahead. We need a Democrat in the White House. George isn't asking, he's begging."

Pride In The 'Worst'

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Most people who ride an urban bus every day probably have a sneaking suspicion that they are patrons of the world's worst bus line.

Patrons of the Second Avenue bus line in Manhattan have no such doubts. They take as a certainty—and with a kind of hardy pride—that theirs is the worst bus line the world has seen since the invention of the wheel.

The riders of the Second Avenue bus line don't call themselves passengers. After the second successful ride, they are known as survivors.

They say that the schedule of the Second Avenue bus line is like that of a century plant during the day, and at night like that of a space rocket.

They say that the pace is so

creeping on the day buses that a passenger can send away a correspondence school lesson and get the answer back between stops. They say that at night a journey on the Second Avenue bus line is so breath-takingly hectic that many teenagers now take it instead of going to an amusement park for a trip on the roller coaster.

Patrons say the buses are cowering individually and so afraid of muggers that they never go out singly. During the day they crawl along in a two-block-long file like circus elephants; or at night, they roam the streets in packs, like herds of flaming-eyed movie monsters.

Patrons say that when you get on a Second Avenue bus you never know where you'll wind up and that, except for the intervention of a body of water known as the Atlantic Ocean, it will be in Marrakech in French Morocco.

Some patrons claim the wait between buses can be so unnerving that it'll turn your hair white. Others simply say the wait is so long you simply turn naturally bald.

Patrons claim that the Second Avenue bus line pays a

40 Years Ago Today

By GWYN COGHILL

James Webb Gardner, 24 year-old son of the governor of North Carolina, and Miss Iris Rollins, 21 year-old Mooresboro society girl, wound up a whirlwind courtship by eloping to York, South Carolina and marrying last night.

Although its backbone was temporarily smashed by rainfall Saturday and Sunday, the heat wave continued its assault on this part of the state today. At 11 o'clock this morning, B. T. Clark, local weather observer, said the mercury registered 97 degrees and he expected it to reach 100 degrees during the afternoon.

Playing at the State Theater this week is Joan Blondell in "Make Me a Star."

Conservative Requests By East Carolina Univ.

East Carolina University has presented conservative requests for capital improvements to the state Advisory Budget Commission.

The $10.2 million request included funds for completing the art school building, renovating Wahl-Coates, addition to the heating plant, land acquisition and renovation of the older part of Joyner Library.

For the most part these funds would make present facilities, or partially funded facilities, more usable on the ECU campus and thus they represent an excellent investment of state money.

Fat Cats Are Really Needed

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — Having alienated the Democratic party's traditional big money raisers and givers on the way to his nomination, Sen. George McGovern is now seeking a whopping $16 million from such fat cats to run against President Nixon.

Even though McGovern will rely on the small contributions more than any previous Presidential nominee, that will not be enough. The widely publicized goal of one million people contributing $25 each, making McGovern independent of the fat cats, is privately regarded as unattainable by McGovern insiders. Instead, nearly half his campaign contributions.

But McGovern's radical tax and welfare programs have alienated Democratic money men—including multi-millionaire Californian Max Palevsky, an early and most generous McGovern supporter. To win over fat cats, McGovern may have to dilute policies that energized his militant following.

The myth of McGovern's campaign fueled by an endless cornucopia of small contributions was exploded July 10, opening day for the Democratic convention in Miami Beach. In a secret meeting of McGovern money men at the Doral Hotel, the hard truth qnce chairman Henry Kimelman (Virgin Islands real estate tycoon) and vice chairman Stewart Mott (General Motors heir and philanthropist): the campaign is flat broke.

Specifically, McGovern's pre-convention campaign went in the red between $500,000 to $1 million ($200,000 from the costly California primary). Moreover, $8.5 million in expenditures (2.5 million in California) is nothing compared to what is needed against Mr. Nixon. The goal: $36 million.

Despite stories leaked to the press of $25 million raised in $25 contributions, the July 10 Doral meeting talked in more conventional terms. Most immediately needed was to borrow $4.5 million from fat cats for seed money to finance direct mail fundraising and voter-registration campaigns.

The full budget listed $16 million in "special gifts" (a McGovernesque euphemism for contributions of $1,000 or more)—$8 million of it in contributions of $10,000 or more. Direct response (direct mail and media appeals) was budgeted for $10 million.

Los Angeles industrialist Miles Rubin, running McGovern's "special gifts" operation did not minimize the task. He told the July 10 meeting that up to one week earlier McGovern had not realized the importance of big money contributors. With fat cats complaining they cannot get appointments with McGovern, there was talk of a fat cat liaison traveling with him to arrange such meetings on the road.

But merely getting fat cats together with McGovern may not be enough. Many are distraught over his economic positions. That includes Palevsky, the fabulously rich computer magnate who has contributed and loaned McGovern around a half-million dollars. Unhappy with Kimelman's dominance over fund-raising, Palevsky was not present at Miami Beach. Some ardent wooing will be necessary to further tap the Palevsky fortune.

Nor can much more be expected from Mott, an aggressive young social activist who scoots about Manhattan on a motorbike. He is as happy with McGovern as ever but says he cannot afford any more than the $377,500 he has already given or pledged.

If the Palevsky and Mott Wells have dried up, McGovern must turn more to traditional Democratic sources. But two important traditional fund-raisers, Eugene Wyman of Los Angeles and Robert Strauss of Dallas (dumped by McGovern as the party's national treasurer), will not be around to help.

Wyman, who has a long memory, was personally attacked (and never

Strength For Today

WE SHOULD NOT LOSE HOPE

The incongruities and injustices in human life are sufficient to drive us almost to despair. There has been a war every four years in the past two centuries. One half of the world's population never has food enough to satisfy hunger. Hundreds of millions of people the world over can neither read nor write. Slaves are still captured in certain parts of the world and bought and sold like livestock. The powerful impose upon the weak. The rich rob the poor. The poor, in turn, often rob the rich by refusing to give an honest day's work for the wages paid.

Sometimes we wonder what this thing called human life is all about anyway. The pages of history are red with blood. The cry in the world today who are probably as evil as men have been in any age.

And yet this thing called human life is not only good, but divine. God has a stake in it, not only because He has made man in his own image but because with all the world's evils, injustice and folly there are still millions who press toward the divine ideal of righteousness and justice.

We solve our problems slowly, but we get a surprising number solved with the passing of time. It's not all discouraging.

An $8 Billion Impact Is Planned

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The trials of economic planners has been a recurring episode in the drama of government. Like playwrights, they try to move their characters about the stage purposefully, but often what ensues is meaningless.

What happened to Treasury Department planners this year, however, is by no means without significance; it is loaded with consequences for individual pocketbooks and government finances—in the amount of $8 billion.

That is the Treasury's estimate of income taxes likely to be withheld from paychecks as a result of changes in the law that were meant, ironically, to make withholding more responsive to reality.

The intention was to correlate withholdings and the actual tax likely to be owed by making adjustments in the deduction formula.

As millions had learned, the old formula often left the taxpayer with either a bill to pay or a bill to receive when the time of reckoning came. Those who wished to avoid a payment on the following April 15 often compensated by raising their deductions.

And so when the forms were adjusted it was found the taxpayers didn't. Many filed the same W4 forms with their employers.

Many people, it seems, view withholding as a method of forced savings. This year $13.579 billion was sent back, and next year, it is feared, the total might be $24 billion.

Even for a nation big as the United States, that's a powerful lot of money. Powerful enough, that is, to probably send the economy off in a direction other than that desired by the planners.

To some extent, something of the sort has already occurred. The plan for early this year was to get consumers back to the market place and thus spur the economy. Instead, consumers stored their money with the Treasury.

How much vigor this took out of the recovery is difficult to estimate, but you may be sure it had some economists in private industry and government very concerned.

Next year the impact might be easier to measure. Early in the year, it is now widely believed, the government will be seeking to keep spending down because inflation might be reignited as the economy nears capacity.

And that is the very time, you will note, when all those billions of overwithheld taxes will be flowing back into the consumer economy. While some consumers might look forward to this, most planners consider it a diabolical script.

But planners do not give up. The most widely discussed remedy is that offered by Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, who suggested to Congress that refunds be in bonds instead of cash.

The idea of this plan is to discourage immediate use of the money by consumers.

Now 43 Years Serving State

By BRYAN HAISLIP
RALEIGH, N.C. — Edwin Maurice Gill has spent 43 years in government service.

Perhaps he could have made more money in his chosen profession of the law. He did, the brief time he spent in private practice.

He came back to government because he has a sense of history, an aptitude for the science of politics, and an abiding devotion to North Carolina and its people.

"We have a great state. Its government reflects our people and their aspirations," Gill asserted.

BRYAN HAISLIP

"Since the days of Aycock at the turn of the century, the thread of integrity has run unbroken through the conduct of the affairs of the state."

Gill observed his 73rd birthday on Thursday, July 20. The same day marked his 19th anniversary as state treasurer.

Senior Elective Official

He is the state's senior elective official, by a scant four months over Secretary of State Thad Eure. The two men came to Raleigh together, Gill from Scotland, County and Eure from Hertford, to serve in the 1929 General Assembly.

Both are on the November ballot as Democratic nominees for new four-year terms.

It isn't easy to capsule the Gill career. He was a legislator, a governor's private secretary, paroles commissioner, revenue commissioner, and a federal internal revenue collector before he became state treasurer.

As a confidante to governors, he has influenced the course of events beyond his own office. An astute operator in Democratic politics, he's been behind the scenes in more than one election.

A man of taste in art, he is an eager promoter for Tar Heel culture. He helped pick the first paintings for the collection of the state art museum, and remains on its board of trustees. He served on the commission which built the State Legislative Building.

Large Fiscal Responsibilities
Money is his milieu. As treasurer, he oversees the investment of state funds which last year returned some $45 million interest. He has a hand in the investment of retirement funds exceeding $1 billion.

Except for the governor, the treasurer sits in ex-officio capacity on more boards and commissions than any other official. They include the board of education, the banking commission, the local government commission, and others.

Preserving the fiscal integrity of North Carolina is the goal Gill keeps before him.

"When I came to this office in 1953, my great ambition was to raise the rating of our bonds from AA to AAA, the highest any state can receive. That was accomplished in 1960," he recalled.

Favorable interest rates result, but the rating has significance beyond the dollar sign. Sound finances and service to the people are inseparable, Gill maintained.

Honesty, economy and efficiency are the ingredients for a good credit rating, he explained. Without them, a state cannot provide services which merit the confidence and meet the needs of citizens, he said.

Served 11 Governors

Eleven governors have come to office during Gill's tenure in state government. The first, O. Max Gardner of Shelby, remains his favorite. "Gardner looms larger for me for many reasons," Gill reflected. "He encouraged me to try for a career in government. I absorbed a great deal of his philosophy of government."

After serving in the 1929 and 1931 legislatures, Gill moved into the governor's office as Gardner's private secretary.

"At the end of the day, we'd shoot the breeze. He gave me ideas on many subjects. Even today, when I am faced with a major decision, I can hear something Max had to say which helps resolve the issue."

Leaders are those who preserve a youthful outlook, unbiased to change, Gill said. "It's silly not to recognize the value of the rising generation," he added. He helped organize the state's Young Democratic Clubs in 1928. He advocated the vote for 18-year-olds as early as 1954.

History, a favorite area of reading, keeps Gill confident for the future. "We can take pride in our accomplishments," he said. "We can all have a part in assuring that good government as a habit in North Carolina is continued."

Job-Loser Kills 2 Supervisors

CHERRY POINT, N.C. (AP) — A worker about to be discharged walked into a military airplane repair and overhaul facility with a rifle and a shotgun Thursday and shot two of his supervisors to death, the FBI says.

All three were civilians at the Naval Air Rework Facility at the Cherry Point Marine Air Station.

The FBI, which has jurisdiction in cases involving jurisdiction at the base, said that Alphonsa Morris, 41, of New Bern fatally shot the supervisors in separate shop areas.

They were identified as Kilby Hasket of Newport and Lloyd Leslie Bass, whose home address was not available.

One of the bullets ricocheted and hit a third man in the leg. He was Duguid E. Lawrence of New Bern, who was treated at the air station hospital and released.

The Marine office said Morris was taken into custody without incident by a security guard. The office said that Morris was still listed as an employee of the repair facility, but was in the process of being discharged. The office did not give a reason for the pending discharge.

The FBI said that Morris was given a hearing before a U.S. magistrate, who ordered that he be held without privilege of bond on a murder charge.

Morris was held overnight at the Beaufort County Jail in Washington, N.C., which said he would be transferred to a federally approved jail, probably at Wilson, N.C.

Harris Named ABC Supervisor

During the July meeting of the Pitt County A.B.C. Board, John G. Harris Jr. of Greenville was appointed supervisor of the A.B.C. system.

Following the death of George Clinton Elks last October, Harris was appointed temporarily to fill the job of supervisor for the remainder of the 1971-72 fiscal year.

Harris has worked with the A.B.C. Board since March 1, 1943. He is married to the former Doris Mizell and they have one daughter.

YDC Meeting Slated Monday

The Pitt County chapter of the Young Democrats Club will meet Monday evening, 7:45 at the Baptist Student Center, 511 E. Tenth Street.

Carl Darden, membership chairman, said the main topic of discussion at the session will be the YDC membership drive. Also, members will discuss politics in the Pitt County area, he said, as well as on the state and national level.

The agenda includes a discussion on the consensus of the YDC convention coming up in September. Preliminary plans will be made for a social event in the near future, Darden added.

(Continued from page 4) apologized to) by McGovern during the California primary. Strauss is bitter that McGovern did not restrain Mott from sniping at Strauss's recent telethon raising money for the bankrupt national committee. Nevertheless, Strauss telephoned McGovern last Thursday to offer help. He was told abruptly by Kimelman that McGovern was too busy to talk to him.

Realizing the need for non-McGovern money, Mott in Miami Beach was contacting erstwhile contributors to Sens. Hubert Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie. He got some promises of help, few pledges and a rebuff or two. Asking one key Muskie operative for help and information, Mott was turned down flat. The reason: newspaper advertisements attacking Muskie placed by Mott early this year. Thus does McGovern's record of anti-establishment militancy interfere with his pressing need now for help from the establishment fat cats.

Day Camp For Girl Scouts To Be July 24-28

The Greenville Area Day Camp for Girl Scouts in the Greenville, Ayden and Grimesland area will be held July 24-28 at Camp Hardee.

The bus will leave St. Gabriel's Church at 8:30 a.m. and Rose High School at 9 a.m. each day. The bus will return to Rose at 4:45 p.m. and at St. Gabriel's at 5 p.m. each day.

A total of 94 Girl Scouts have registered to attend the camp session. Also, 25 adults and senior aides will be conducting the day activities which include crafts, nature study, hiking, first aid instructions, outdoor cooking and waterfront activities.

Mrs. James F. Davenport Jr. of Greenville is the camp director.

small reward to any of its drivers who can go along his entire route and avoid picking up any passengers, and that on a typical day between 30 and 40 drivers earn the rewards. Patrons of the Second Avenue bus line say they get together only one day a year—the first day of Spring—which is known as "Bone Collection Day."

The surviving passengers are each given a large basket and then walk along the bus route picking up the bones of would-be passengers who perished during the winter while waiting for a bus to come along. Anyone who fills his basket is entitled to keep the skull of his choice as a souvenir or use it as a free bus token for his ride home.

If you doubt the words of these raffish patrons, come to Manhattan and go for a ride on the Second Avenue bus line. Or take two in a row—and you'll become a legend in your own lifetime.

Red Measles In State Reduced

—RALEIGH (AP) — Only 28 cases of red measles were reported in North Carolina during the first six months of this year compared to 1,900 during the same period last year.

John Irvin, coordinator of the state Board of Health's immunization program, said Thursday the tremendous drop was due to a massive immunization program.

He said 462,613 children were immunized against red measles during the past fiscal year in 79 of the state's 100 counties. A total of 486,328 were immunized against Rubella (German measles). Irvin said he did not sufficient figures on the number of rubella cases reported to make a comparison.

The vaccination campaign against rubella, he explained, is aimed at preventing an epidemic and protecting pregnant women. Possible birth defects could result, Irvin said, if a woman became ill with German measles in early pregnancy.

A vaccination campaign was launched last fall in compliance with legislation requiring that all children be immunized against red measles by age two or prior to school entrance.

A vaccination program will begin in a number of the remaining 21 counties in early September, Irvin said.

Will Take Exam Lying Face Down

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Thomas Hendricks, paralyzed from the waist down, will take his Florida Bar examination next Tuesday—lying face down on a stretcher.

The 27-year-old Hendricks, who fractured his spine in a fall from a tree four years ago, was graduated cum laude from the University of Miami Law School this spring, ranking 11th in a class of 118.

He recently entered a hospital for treatment of pressure sores on his back. He must lie face down for the next four weeks.

Major damage resulted from a late evening traffic accident, and substantial damage was done to a downtown department store.

Stagnant Air

In the Pittsburgh area, a first stage pollution alert forced industry to cut back operations. Eye irritation and shortness of breath were common complaints, especially in the downtown section.

An emergency air pollution alert was in effect for four Ohio counties in the Ohio River valley steel-making region. State attorneys filed precautionary injunctions to bar industries from violating the order.

A pollution alert was extended through today in Washington, D.C.

Rain showers brought relief to the New York metropolitan area during Thursday evening, washing the air of many pollutants and dropping temperatures to the low 70s. The respite was expected to be brief.

A spokesman for the New York Power Pool said it borrowed from Ontario, Canada, again Thursday to provide a potential supply of 20 million kilowatts.

Consolidated Edison Co. cut back voltage 5 per cent in New York City and Westchester County for two hours in midafternoon to prevent a massive blackout after a major power link tripped out 70 miles north of the city.

The Philadelphia Electric Co. said that city's electrical demands set a record Thursday, but no breakdowns or difficulties were reported.

In the Washington area, the Potomac Electric Power Co. reported record output with electricity use up 10 per cent from last summer's peaks.

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1972

CARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A complicated day and one when most everyone wants to state his or her views to others irrespective of whether they please or annoy, so certain tact is necessary where controversial subjects are concerned, or those that could hurt the feeling of others. Stop, look and think twice before making snide, sarcastic comments.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You are anxious to get out to new places and people, but you have promises to keep to others first, so do just that. Not a good day to make any radical changes. Study the matter well first.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Study liabilities and assets well now that you have the time and know what to do in the future instead of arguing with those at home. Mate may be in a grumpy mood. Refuse to get angry.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Situations arise that make you understand the motives others have, which has not been possible before. Civic noise could get on your nerves if you permit. Take the matter philosophically.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You have many duties to perform now, so schedule your hours wisely, or you could really get confused. Plan to take exercise that add to vigor. Avoid that associate who is in the mood for a fight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Although you want to have a good time, do not insist on others accompanying you if they are busy, or you lose a good friendship. Try some new system with that hobby and get good results. Don't go off on any tangents.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Concentrating on whatever has to be done at home keeps you out of trouble now and improves conditions greatly. Entertaining is best done tomorrow. Study new outlets that can help you get ahead faster.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You can get away from it all now for awhile, but make sure you do not add to present anxieties and debts, or you make things worse for yourself. Much care in motion of all kind is important. Think.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You think you can buy your way into anything, or out of it today, but you had better save your money. That plan you have for adding to income needs more work on it. Study it well in p.m.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You want to force others to do the things you want them to do, but this would only alienate them and could lead to severance of connections with one vital to your welfare. Show kindness and courtesy to all.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have anxieties to get rid of, but do this quietly instead of attracting attention to yourself. Plan some time helping others and you lessen your own worries. Do not blame others for what you yourself do wrong.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You like people almost more than any other sign, but don't bother those who are very busy today, or you lose them as friends. Get more work done and secure the information that has long escaped you. Have fun tonight at theater, or whatever.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Make sure you do not take any chances in the world of activity now, in the public forum and especially where following regulations is concerned. Support bigwigs instead of trying to criticize them.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those fascinating young people who thinks he or she can do far more than is really possible. This could irk others, even though the motives and intentions are sincere. Teach early to help others only when asked to do so, or their efforts could cause resentment and friends could be lost. Teach to cooperate more with others, since the nature here is entirely too independent. Give good academic training.

SJAFB Slides Past Roanoke

Seymore Johnson held on to beat Roanoke Rapids yesterday 9-6 to move up in the Area II playoffs to meet Greenville's Tar Heel League All-Stars.

Seymore Johnson went to work in the first getting three runs on the boards. Michael Walsh walked and went to second on a passed ball. Todd Sloan reached on a fielder's choice moving Walsh to third. James Chevious smashed a homer to account for the three tallies.

Roanoke Rapids came roaring back in the bottom of the frame to forge ahead. Chris Casey walked and Booten Goodall was hit by a pitch. Jodey Yarbough also walked loading the bases. Benny Hannack doubled to drive in Caysey and Goodall and move Yarbough to third. Clark Goodall hit into a fielder's choice getting Haddack at second but scoring Yarbough. Earl King was struck by a pitch advancing Clark Goodall and a hit by Johnny Evans drove him in.

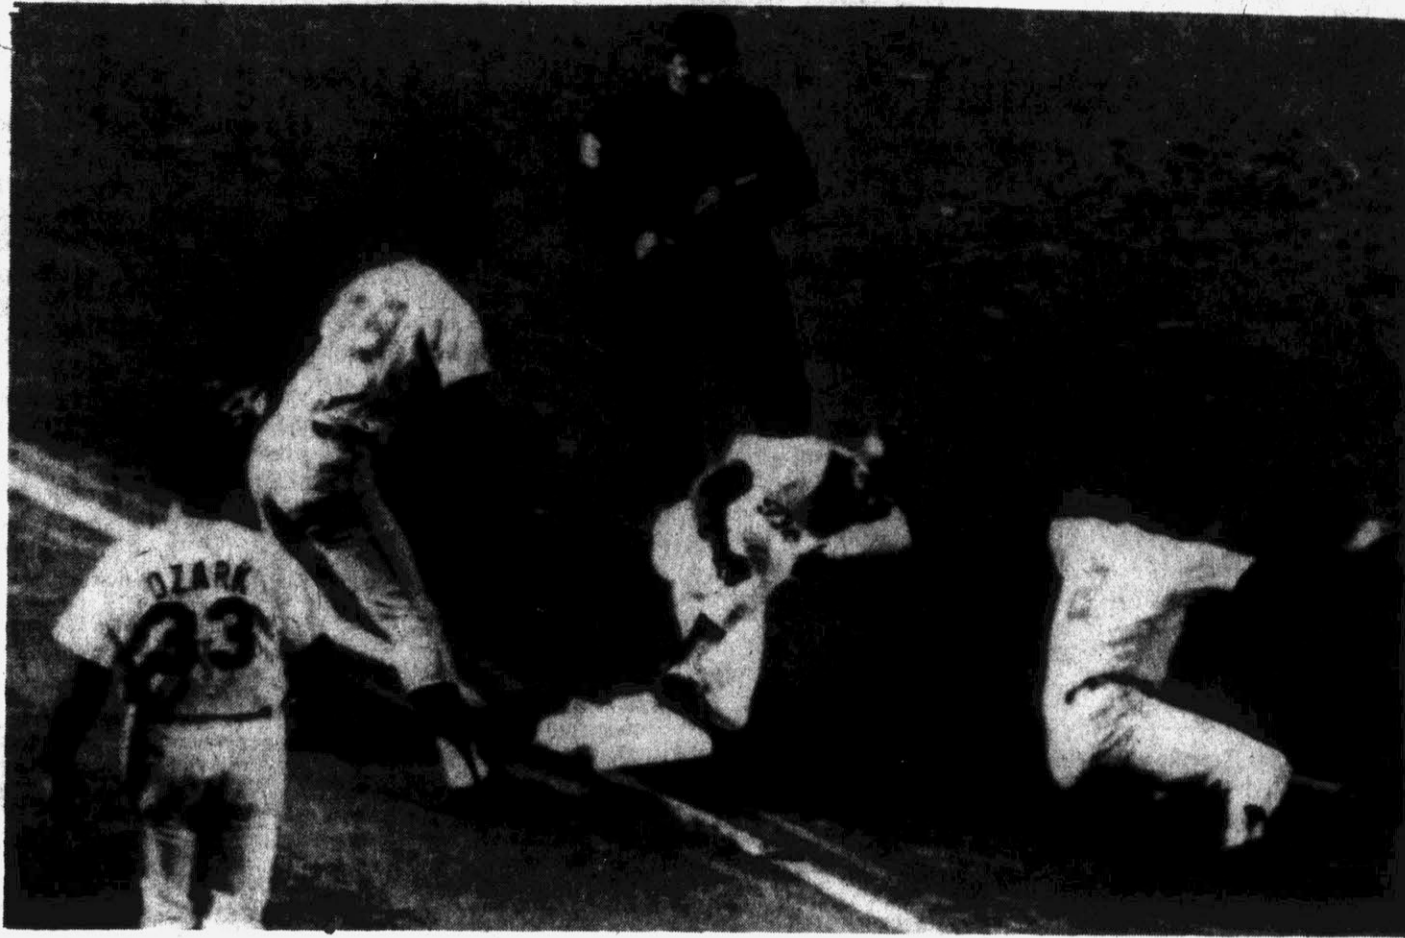

Seymore Johnson got the lead back in the second as they rallied for four runs. Douglas Criswell led off with a hit and Terry Craig was safe on an error. Michael Walsh got a hit. Sloan reached on a fielder's choice that nailed Criswell as he tried to score. John Wells bashed a grand slam home run to put them out by 7-3.

That proved to be the blow that finished Roanoke Rapids as they could only get two more runs during the rest of the game. One came over in the third as Robert Squire homered. Caysey reached on a fielder's choice in the fourth and scored on a hit by Hannack.

The last two SJAFB runs came in the fourth. Craig singled but was thrown out at second on Sloan's ground ball. Sloan moved up on a hit by Wells and both scored as Chevious reached on an error.

Walsh had two hits for SJAFB. Wells had two, also. Hannack and Squire each had two for Roanoke Rapids.

Ball Goes By Two Mets

Los Angeles Dodgers' Lee Lacy slides safely into third base as the ball (left) goes through New York Mets Jim Fregosi (2) and pitcher Gary Gentry (39) during the first inning of the game at Dodger Stadium last night. Lacy advanced from second when Fregosi fielded a grounder by Manny Mota and threw him out at first. Umpire is Bruce Froemming and third base coach is Danny Ozark. The Mets won, 2-1. (AP Wirephoto)

No-Hitter Stops Robersonville

By CHIP LAMBETH
Reflector Sports Writer

Reggis Spain hurled the Tar Heel League All-Stars to a no-hit, 8-1 victory over Robersonville yesterday to send them flying into today's Area II Little League Championship with Seymore Johnson who beat Roanoke Rapids 9-6 (see story elsewhere).

Spain's one bad inning came in the third. Tar Heel team committed a pair of errors and Spain walked and hit two batters resulting in Robersonville's only run of the game.

An error in the first inning also put a man on but Spain struck out two batters to get out of the inning. One had gone down on a fielder's choice.

Greenville, meanwhile, had been held hitless for two innings but managed to put a man on in the first. MacDonald Avery was safe when his grounder was thrown away at first. He moved to second and Spain walked. Both moved up on William Brewington's ground out but did not score.

Both teams went down 1-2-3 in the second. Then Robersonville took an early, and short owned lead when they came to bat in the third.

Al Leggett's hard hit ball to second was errored and Henry Roberson was walked. Then it began to look as if the Greenville team were going to hold as the next batter flied out and Spain recorded another strike-out. But Johnny James hit a ball of the third baseman's glove to load the bases and after being brushed back by a Spain pitch Durwood Leggett was hit on the next toss and that forced in the only Robersonville score.

Greenville took possession of the lead in the bottom of the frame and never trailed again. With one out, Avery singled to left and stole second. A wild pitch put him on third and Chris Moye grounded out scoring Avery. Spain aided his own cause doubling up against the wall in left. The next pitch got by the Robersonville catcher and Spain headed for third. Spain saw the catcher had not gotten to the ball by the time he reached third and so he took off for home. He slid in under the pitcher's tag to put Greenville out in front.

In the fourth Greenville added four to their total. Steve McClanahan reached on an error and moved up on a wild pitch. Kevin Haut's slow roller was not playing giving him a hit and putting McClanahan on third. John Coffman hit one the third baseman couldn't handle driving in McClanahan. Haut, who had stolen second also scored on the play while Coffman was pulling up at second. Avery slapped a double to scoring Coffman and an RBI single by Chris Moye brought Avery in.

Spain fanned the first two batters for Robersonville and got the third to ground out giving the Tar Heels another chance to put more runs on the boards. That they did as they put the icing on the cake getting a pair. Spain led off with his second double of the day and came around to score on a pair of wild pitches. John Cleetwood singled and went to second on a third wild pitch. A hit by Michael Shank drove him in.

Spain, in getting the no-hitter, fanned eight and walked one. Avery had a pair of hits as did Spain. Moye knocked in two of the Greenville runs.

Hatcher Leads Loop Hitters

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — With leftfielder Donnie Hatcher still leading the way, Louisburg

College batters rank one-two-three in latest hitting statistics for the North Carolina Collegiate Summer Baseball League.

Hatcher picked up three percentage points during a one-week period and upped his league leading average to .415. He had 34 hits in 82 times at bat through games of July 14.

Teammates Wayne Pyrtle and Lindsey Etheridge are not far behind. Pyrtle ranks second at .382 and Etheridge is third at .376 in a tie with Mike Ramsey of Appalachian.

North Carolina righthander Mike Meritt boasts the most pitching victories with a 6-2 record, but Louisburg's Mike Edwards had the lowest earned run average, 1.02. Edwards was a 2-0 record.

Steve Anspaugh of Appalachian is second in ERA at 1.02 and Jim Chamberlain, the lefthanded whiz of the Carolina Tar Heels is third at 1.81.

Behind the top four in batting come Tom Kennedy of North Carolina at .370, Dave Sandlin of UNC-Wilmington at .364. Mickey Hickerson of North Carolina at .338, Wayne Ellington of Louisburg at .333, Larry Walters of East Carolina at .330, and Ralph Lamm of East Carolina at .324.

Louisburg has a total of six players in the top 20. Only last-place Campbell failed to place a man in the top 20 hitters.

Bruce Cavanaugh, the slugging UNC-Wilmington catcher, leads Pyrtle 26 to 25 in a hot runs batted in race. Cavanaugh also tops the league in home runs with eight. Walters has the most runs scored, 26, while Hatcher, Pyrtle and Kennedy are tied for the most hits with 34 each.

Jack Leachman of North Carolina leads in doubles with eight.

The Three Steer's runs came in the fifth.

Beltone took the lead against Little Mint in the second with a run. Little Mint came back in the bottom of the frame to go ahead 2-1. The lead changed hands again in the third as Beltone pushed over two. No one could seem to grab the lead and hold on to it as Little Mint got it back in the third with four runs.

Beltone, aided by a homer by Vickie Davenport tied it up at 6-6 in the fourth. Beltone finally got the winner in the seventh. Cynthia Averette singled as did Davenport. A hit by Debra Pfiel scored Averette and a single by Cathy Anthony brought in Davenport. Flash Flanagan davenport. Pfiel.

Little Mint moved back in front in the fourth with a pair of scores.

Huey's Wins

Huey's whipped Burger King, 8-1, to advance into the championship bracket of the City League Softball Tournament.

Huey's scored all the runs they needed in the first inning. Woodard reached on a walk, Hicks singled, and Williams walked to load the bases. Two singles, one by Grimsley and one by Saylor brought across the first two runs.

They scored once more in the second inning, and scored five more to put the game out of reach in the seventh.

Burger King managed their only tally in the second inning when Gatlin singled and scored on a RBI-double by Stevenson.

Burger King will now meet either Parker's, Harbin, or Four Seasons depending on the outcome of that playoff.

Ladies Move Up

Piggly-Wiggly and Beltone took wins in the Ladies League double elimination tournament last night.

Piggly-Wiggly edged Three Steers 4-3 and Beltone inched past Little Mint 9-8.

Piggly-Wiggly got on the boards in the first with a lone score. They pushed over the winner in the second scoring three. Marie Mayo got a hit as did Faye Nichols. Betty Jones reached on an error and all three scored on a triple by Sherry Francis.

The Three Steer's runs came in the fifth.

Beltone took the lead against Little Mint in the second with a run. Little Mint came back in the bottom of the frame to go ahead 2-1. The lead changed hands again in the third as Beltone pushed over two. No one could seem to grab the lead and hold on to it as Little Mint got it back in the third with four runs.

Beltone, aided by a homer by Vickie Davenport tied it up at 6-6 in the fourth. Beltone finally got the winner in the seventh. Cynthia Averette singled as did Davenport. A hit by Debra Pfiel scored Averette and a single by Cathy Anthony brought in Davenport. Flash Flanagan davenport. Pfiel.

Slayback Rounds Rangers Up On 5-1 Five-Hitter

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bill Slayback felt right at home on the range ... while making the Texas Rangers feel downright uncomfortable at home.

"He pitched another great game, didn't he?" exclaimed Detroit Tiger Manager Billy Martin after the 24-year-old rookie mastered the Rangers 5-1 with a five-hitter Thursday night.

Slayback, who only a couple of weeks ago was in the minor leagues, struck out 13 Rangers with an assortment of sliders and fastballs.

"Why did I strike out so many?" Slayback said. "It was just a matter of throwing a lot of good, two-strike pitches. I mixed my pitches pretty well tonight."

Included in his performance were four strikeouts of Texas slugger Frank Howard, a giant who inspires awe in most veteran pitchers, no less rookies.

In Thursday's other American League games, the Boston Red Sox took a doubleheader from the Oakland A's 2-1 and 4-3 in 11 innings; the Milwaukee Brewers edged the Minnesota Twins 2-1 and the Baltimore Orioles downed the Kansas City Royals 8-5 in 10 innings. Rain washed out California at New York.

In the National League, the Atlanta Braves defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 6-3 and the New York Mets turned back the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1.

Slayback, who won his fourth game in seven decisions and lowered his earned run average to 1.70, struck out the side in the first and the fifth innings and was in serious trouble only once when the Rangers scored their only run.

Marty Pattin pitched a four-hitter as Boston beat Oakland in the first game and Carl Yastrzemski forced in the winning run with a two-out, bases-loaded walk in the 11th inning to give the Red Sox the second game.

Joe Lahoud collected three hits, including a run-scoring double in the fourth inning, and rookie Gary Ryerson scattered nine hits as Milwaukee edged Minnesota. Merv Rettenmund delivered a bases-loaded pinch single in the 10th inning to help Baltimore trim Kansas City.

Willie Mays slugged a tie-breaking double in the fifth inning, carrying New York over Los Angeles.

Two More Teams Out

St. Gabriel and Oakmont Baptist gained victories in the Church League American Division and National Division tournaments last night. St. Gabriel defeated Presbyterian 8-4, while Oakmont nicked Trinity in extra innings, 5-4. Both losers were eliminated from further play.

St. Gabriel scored the clinching runs in the fifth inning, when Moore and Lopez singled, and scored on two more singled by Dilday and Ward. They scored, in addition to the two runs in the fifth, one in the second, two runs in the third, two in the sixth, and a one-spot in the seventh.

Presbyterian scored three of their four runs in the fifth, and one more in the seventh.

Trinity Ousted

Oakmont and Trinity met in the next game, an eight-inning affair which was decided in Oakmont's half of the eighth inning. With the score tied, 4-4, Berry led off with a single. Singleton followed with another base hit. Parrott walked to load the bases, and a hit by the cleanup batter Hall brought Berry home with the winning tally.

Oakmont will face Mt. Pleasant, while St. Gabriel will meet a team soon to be determined.

Ferguson On Staff

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pitcher Ferguson Jenkins of the Chicago Cubs has been named to replace ailing Gary Nolan of Cincinnati on the 1972 National League All Star team. League President Charles S. Feeney said Thursday Nolan has a stiff neck and shoulder and will be forced to miss his regular turn Sunday against Pittsburgh.

Both Jenkins and Nolan are right-handers.

Jenkins, making his third appearance with the All-Stars, has a 12-8 record so far this season. In 186 innings he has fanned 119, walked 37 and allowed 154 hits and has an earned run average of 2.85.

Game Changed

East Carolina University Athletic Director Clarence Stasavich announced today the Summer League game set for July 25 between the Pirates and Louisburg has been moved up a day, to July 24, to avoid any conflict with the Major Leagues' All-Star game on the 25th.

The Pirates are currently tied with Carolina for first place in the loop.

Bucs To Host 'Hawks

East Carolina's Pirates will be trying to move back on top of Summer Collegiate Baseball League tonight as they play host to the Seahawks of UNC-Wilmington at Harrington Field at 7:30.

Hole-In-One

A hole-in-one was recently carded at Greenville Golf and Country Club.

Jean Creech got the ace on the 15th hole. She was playing with Irene Bircher at the time.

Cerrudo Considers Himself 'Very Lucky, . . . Pleased'

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — "Very Lucky. Very fortunate. Very pleased." Courageous Ron Cerrudo, once one of golf's brightest young stars until sidelined with severe back trouble, kept repeating the three phrases after establishing the first round lead in the $150,000 American Golf Classic Thursday.

Cerrudo, knocked out of action for eight months because of a back operation in 1970, had just come within one stroke of matching the course record on the vast stretches of the demanding Firestone Country Club course.

His five-under-par 65, including a bogey on his last hole, on the 7,188-yard par-70 layout gave him a one-stroke margin over veteran Kermit Zarley and former PGA champion Ray Floyd.

They tied at 66 in the wilting, muggy heat that featured temperatures in the mid-90's with humidity to match.

Next at 68 was a quartet headed by threatening Arnold Palmer. Also at that figure were Mike Reaser, who caddied for Palmer in the 1966 U.S. Open, veteran R. H. Sikes and tour rookie Martin Bohlen, a one time Las Vegas croupier.

Defending champion Jerry Heard could manage only a 74 and host pro Bobby Nichols was two over par at 72.

Lee Trevino, who won the British Open last week, Jack Nicklaus, Doug Sanders, Billy Casper, Tony Jacklin of England and Gary Player of South Africa are not competing.

"That's the first time in a year I've played like me," said the obviously delighted Palmer who hasn't won this season.

Palmer made an eagle three on the 500-yard second hole, hitting a three-wood second shot to about 10 feet.

Cerrudo, a husky 27-year-old from Napa, Calif. won the Cajun Classic in 1968, his rookie year.

Pearson Qualifies For Dixie 500 In 156 MPH

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Sports Writer
HAMPTON, Ga. (AP) — "I really don't know what the speed would have been if it had been cooler," said David Pearson Thursday after wheeling the powerful Wood Brothers Mercury to a qualifying speed record at Atlanta International Raceway.

"We might have broken the all-time track record of 161 miles per hour," he said after grabbing the pole position under a blistering Georgia sun for Sunday's Dixie 500 stock car race. Pearson, winner of four of six events he has entered in the Wood machine, rounded the 1.5-mile asphalt oval at 158.353 miles per hour, eclipsing the qualifying record for cars equipped with carburetor restrictors. The old mark was set last March when Bobby Allison of Hueytown, Ala., turned in a 156.245 m.p.h. clocking in a Chevrolet.

Buddy Baker, who isn't entered this week, holds the qualifying standard without restrictors at 161.052 m.p.h. Pearson said, "Just before I made my run a cloud covered the third and fourth turns, cooling the track just enough to give me the extra speed."

Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., stock car racing's only million dollar winner, took a friendly poke at Pearson's cloud claim.

"That cloud had nothing to do with his speech," Petty said, "he just ran a perfect lap. I don't care if the track had been covered with clouds for 10 minutes, it wouldn't have cooled the track enough to help him."

Bobby Isaac of Catawba, N. C., grabbed the other front row spot beside Pearson when he recorded 157.439 m.p.h. in his Dodge.

The second row berths went to Allison in the Junior Johnson Chevrolet at 156.549 m.p.h. and Coo Coo Marlin of Columbia, Tenn., at 156.418 in a Chevrolet.

Petty, who won the 1970 and 1971 Dixie 500s in a Plymouth, had the fifth fastest trial time Thursday, pushing his Dodge around the track at 156.267 m.p.h.

Joining Petty in the third row will be popular veteran Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Ill., who had gone 154.740 m.p.h. in a Chevrolet.

Eight others qualified Thursday. They were — in order — Donnie Allison of Hueytown, Ala., Ford; Larry Smith, Le-noir, N.C., Ford; Dave Marcis, Wausau, Wis., Dodge; Buddy Arrington, Martinsville, Va., Dodge; Cecil Gordon, Horse Shoe, N.C., Mercury; Darrell Waltrip, Franklin, Tenn., Ford; Ben Arnold, Fairfield, Ala., Ford; Walter Ballard, Houston, Tex., Ford and Dean Dalton, Asheville, N. C. Ford.

Fifteen more drivers will be qualified this afternoon and the final 10 for Sunday's starting field of 40 will be decided Saturday.

Ford Pinto is a lot of car for less. Like an engine made for American expressways . . . brakes that self-adjust . . . a lower/wider stance for good stability even in a crosswind . . . precise rack-and-pinion steering for easy handling . . . ball-joint front suspension for a smooth ride. And plenty of shoulder/hip room for comfort.

The Worry Clinic

A Conscience Is Deterrent

Martha's Sarasota tragedy is duplicated in other cities all over America. For the best deterrent to crime is a well developed conscience in the brain of every child! Morality needs evangelistic sermonizing instead of the do-gooders sociological piffle!

By GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph.D., M.D.
Case U-540: Martha T., aged 43, lives in Sarasota, Florida.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I recently saw a truck stop in front of my neighbor's house. The men carried out her color TV set, so I hurried outside and asked them if they were TV repair men. They said they were, so I inquired if they'd mind taking my set into their shop, too, for it needed attention."

"And I asked them if they could also fix my radio, which they promised to do. 'But when my neighbor got home, she called the police. 'For those men were thieves! 'So they not only stole her color TV but they took mine, as well as my radio, too! 'What's the world coming to, anyway, Dr. Crane?'"

Erosion Of Soul
For the last generation we have heard agriculture experts bemoan the erosion of our rich topsoil.

But a far worse erosion has occurred, namely, erosion of the soul!

For it threatens our Republic and entire moral fabric.

On Chicago's South Shore Drive, just a city block behind our home, a 30-story high rise apartment house was recently erected.

New tenants flocked in by the dozen, with moving vans bringing their furniture from near and far.

But one richly furnished apartment was looted of all its costly furniture and in broad daylight.

Some of the neighbors looked on, without realizing they were witnessing a robbery.

For they thought the tenants were just moving elsewhere.

The neighbors never dreamed that such a bold crime could take place in bright daylight.

Another similar example recently occurred here in Chicago.

Two window washers arrived at an office building of a friend of mine.

While one man sponged the windows, his "boss" walked around each office, ostensibly watching to make sure each window was spotlessly clean.

But that night, all the expensive electric typewriters and other computer machines were looted!

It was found that this racket had been going on for some time at other office buildings but nobody had thought to alert the police to the phony window washers.

In fact, when somebody did notify the police, it was learned that no such window-washing firm even existed!

That window washing stunt was merely a simple way for one of the pair to "case" each office and take note of any merchandise that could readily be "fenced" via illicit dealers. My friend said he was covered

The Daily Reflector, Greenville, N.C.—Friday, July 21, 1972—9

GOLFERS' DELIGHT
TORONTO (UPI)—Golfers visiting Toronto have a choice of 112 courses within the metropolitan area and over a radius of some 35 miles. Most are open to visitors on payment of greens fees.

"But, Dr. Crane," he added mournfully, "my insurance was put into force when I bought the electric typewriters at approximately $450 apiece. 'Now inflation has zoomed their price to almost $850, so I shall recover only about 50 percent of my actual financial loss. 'So alert your millions of readers to the need to bring their insurance up-to-date, whether on office equipment or household buildings and furniture!'"

Since the churches are the chief custodians of morality, the valiant FBI and policemen need far more cooperation via evangelistic sermonizing from pulpits and less of the do-gooder, sociological piffle!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

The bidding:
West North East South
1 ♠ 1 ♥ Pass 1 ♠
2 ♠ 2 ♣ Pass 4 ♠
Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: King of ♠
Altho South was somewhat, admittedly the victim of bad luck in not winning 10 tricks in today's four spade contract—he could have improved his prospects significantly by paying closer attention to the distribution which confronted him on the deal.

When North overcalled West's opening one diamond bid with one heart, South had to content himself with a mere call of one spade inasmuch as he was void in partner's suit. When North raised spades, confirming a fit, it enhanced South's holding—particularly since partner rated to be relatively short in the minor suits. South accordingly proceeded directly to game.

West opened the king of diamonds on which his partner dropped the eight. The ace was continued and East completed his echo by playing the deuce. The queen of diamonds was led next, which North ruffed with the ten of spades, however East overruffed with the jack to complete the defensive book and then he exited with a trump. South was in with the king of spades, but with one trump left in dummy and two club losers in his hand, he found that he could ruff out only one club and was obliged at the end to concede the setting trick in that suit to East.

Inasmuch as West's bid and rebid of diamonds presumably marks him with a six card suit, which becomes confirmed by East's high-low when the suit is led—South should have considered the possibility of an overruff on the third round which will probably prove fatal to his chances for success.

Inasmuch as East is short in diamonds, the odds favor him being long in spades and clubs and, in any event, proceeding on this assumption offers declarer a better chance to score 10 tricks. It is suggested that he merely discard a heart from dummy, allowing West to hold the third trick with the queen of diamonds. East cannot discard a club without giving up part of his protection in that suit, so he will presumably shed a heart.

If West shifts to a club, South cashes the king and ace, enters his hand with a spade and then proceeds to ruff a club with the six of spades. The closed hand is reentered by trumping a heart and a fourth club can be safely ruffed with the ten of spades, inasmuch as West has no trumps left.

While the recommended line of play will fail if West has the jack and one spade, percentages favor the assumption that when he shows up with six diamonds and his partner with only two, West is more apt to be short in spades for, for that matter, in any of the other suits.

Dayson, Carraway Appointed To Bds.

Ernest R. (Pete) Carraway and Patrick J. Dayson were appointed to the Planning and Zoning Board and the Board of Adjustments, respectively, by City Council last week.

Presently a member of the North Carolina State Employees Association for Area Five, Carraway has served one term as president of the Greenville City Council PTA, president of the Greenville Babe Ruth League for two years, coached Little League Baseball for 10 years, and served as a member of the Little League Board of Advisors. He is presently coaching Babe Ruth Baseball.

Carraway has also been a three-time chairman of the NCSEA, a delegate to their convention, and is presently serving as vice-president of the association.

He joined with 38 other people to form the Oakmont Baptist Church in 1964. In the church, Carraway was active in the capacity of chairman of the Board of Deacons and a Sunday School Superintendent in the first year of operation. He served two more terms as a deacon in 1967 and 1968.

In city-related service, Carraway served in a dual capacity as a member of the Jaycees, and an active member of the Optimists Club of Greenville. He is a life membership chairman of the North Carolina District of Optimist International, and was voted Optimist of the Year in 1968. He is a native of Greene County, a graduate of the University of North Carolina with a major in personnel management, a former professional baseball player, and a veteran of World War II in the Navy. He is married to the former Grace Humbles, also of Greene County. They have three children, Ernest, Jr., 20, Robert, 17, and Sylvia, 16.

Dayson served in the United States Marine Corps for 22 years as an aviator. He graduated from the University of Maryland in 1958 with a degree in military science. Dayson also attended the school of planning and serves as a community planner in North Carolina.

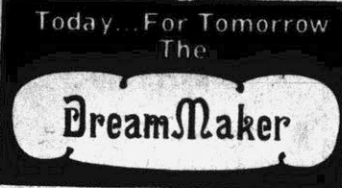

Born in Fritchton, Ind., he is married to the former Della Frances Perry of Greenville. They have two children, Debra C. Nisbet, a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and Patrick Michael, a rising senior at Rose High School.

citizen has a complaint, I will be some consideration to it," very happy to listen and give Dayson stated.

LOSE 20 POUNDS IN TWO WEEKS!

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way. It's a diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is honestly a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $2.00 ($2.25 for Rush Service)—Cash is O.K.—to: Ski Team Diet, P.O. Box 15493, San Diego, California 92115. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do!

Largest Second Session At ECU

The largest second session summer school enrollment in the history of ECU has been recorded this year.

With nine more workshops, ECU officials estimated a total of 3,475 students enrolled for the second session which ends Aug. 18.

There are 3,254 full-time students on campus for the session.

Last year's second session enrollment was 3,302.

Reading List Is Now Completed

Miss Elizabeth Copeland, Librarian for the Greenville Library system, has announced that the annotated list of suggested reading for book club members of Greenville has now been completed.

"These are ready for the book clubs," Miss Copeland stated. The annotation is an annual service performed by the library for book clubs in Greenville.

GENERATION ON

They hit the road early, these youngsters of today. They cover a lot of miles. At a pretty fast pace. And what they need most are the moral and spiritual values that do not change in a fast-moving age.

The role of the Church and the family is becoming more crucial every day. Wise parents realize their children should have the advantage of religious training. They sense the importance of their own example in encouraging positive Christian principles.

We need not worry about our youngsters growing up so rapidly... as long as they grow up well.
