Headway By McGovern In 2 Groups

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 5 — Sen. George McGovern's success in reducing President Nixon's lead nationally is accounted for in large measure by his success in winning back Democratic defectors. In the latest survey, 32 per cent of Democrats prefer Nixon, while in the earlier survey the figure was 40 per cent.

McGovern's headway in winning back Democratic defectors is reflected in his improved standing among two groups which are traditionally Democratic in their presidential preferences but have been in Nixon's camp since the Democratic Convention — Catholics and labor union voters.

In the latest survey, Nixon leads McGovern among Catholics by 52 to 40 per cent. In the previous survey (late August), Nixon's margin was considerably wider, 62 to 29 per cent.

An upturn in McGovern's fortunes has also been recorded among labor union families. In the latest survey members of labor union families give Nixon a 52 to 42 per cent lead over his rival, while in the previous survey, Nixon held a 61 to 30 per cent lead.

Also Winning Back Youth

Senator McGovern also appears to be winning back young voters, 18 to 29, who were solidly in his camp during the spring and early summer, but who began to slide away after the Eagleton disclosures and then went over to Nixon's side following the GOP convention.

The race today among this group of young voters is close, with 52 per cent favoring Nixon and 46 per cent McGovern. The previous survey showed Nixon with a 62 to 35 per cent lead.

Nixon Leads With All Groups But Two

Despite McGovern's gains in recent weeks, President Nixon continues to hold leads in all major regions of the nation and with all major groups in the population, with the exception of Blacks and Jews.

As reported Sunday, Nixon leads McGovern among registered voters nationwide by the vote of 61 to 33 per cent with one per cent for other candidates and five per cent undecided. The previous survey showed Nixon leading 64 to 30 per cent with six per cent for other candidates or undecided.

The following table shows the vote by groups in the latest survey, based on the choices of registered voters:

	Nixon	McG.	Other	Un- dec.
NATIONAL	61	33	1	5
Republicans	95	4	*	1
Democrats	32	61	1	6

Today's results are based upon personal interviews conducted in more than 300 scientifically selected communities with a total sample of 1,505 respondents, of whom 1,168 were registered. Interviewing was conducted September 22-25.

This question was asked:

If the presidential election were being held TODAY, which candidate would you vote for — McGovern, the Democrat, or Nixon the Republican?

N.C. Award For Five Tar Heels

RALEIGH (AP) — Gov. Bob Scott presented North Carolina Awards, the highest honor the state bestows, to five Tar Heels Friday night.

The five awards for "notable accomplishments" went to actor Sidney Blackmer, a Salisbury native; communications scientist Edward E. David Jr., a Wilmington native; novelist John Ehle, an Asheville native; Chairman Dallas Herring of the state Board of Education, a Rose Hill native, and Harold Hotelling, a statistical analyst at the University of North Carolina.

Fifty Acres Rezoned

By JERRY RAYNOR
Reflector Staff Writer
Rezoning of 50 acres for a future shopping center north of Greenville Boulevard was approved by City Council members Thursday night.

Greenville City Council unanimously approved rezoning of the Blount-Crisp property directly across from Pitt Plaza from RA-20 residential to shopping center.

Approval also was given at a public hearing for William Dansey's request to rezone from RA-20 to shopping center a strip 800 feet long and 400 feet deep on U.S. 264 business just outside the western city limits of Greenville. This request, previously a matter of a public hearing with the original request asking for rezoning to highway commercial, had been changed by Dansey to a request for shopping center rezoning.

Robert Kittrell, a resident living across U.S. 264 from the site, asked that the minutes show Dansey's earlier agreement that the strip be beautified by appropriate landscaping. This stipulation was included in the motion and made a matter of record.

Planned discussion of a proposed ordinance regulating the sale and handling of exotic animals in Greenville was tabled until further details can be gathered as background on which to base such an ordinance.

An application for a mobile home permit made by D.W. Chandler was approved for a one year period. Chandler is job foreman for the River Bluff Apartment construction project.

The council again this year as in past years granted waiver of privilege license to the Greenville Jaycees for boxing matches to be held in Greenville for the benefit of the Pitt County Greenville Boys' Club.

Two rezoning requests were slated for public hearings on November 9. The first is for David T. Greer to rezone property on the north side of State Road 1529 from unoffensive industry to RA-20 residential. The second request is that of J.T. Manning, Jr., who is seeking to have a parcel of land on the north side of U.S. 264 bypass rezoned from AR-20 to neighborhood commercial.

Although the Planning and Zoning Commission turned this request down on September 27 by a vote of five to four, public hearings by the Planning and Zoning constitute courtesy hearings.

Public hearings were also set for November 9 on street assessment rolls for curb, gutter and paving on a number of city streets. Petitions for curb, gutter and paving on Powell Street and also for curb and gutter for Westwood Drive were accepted and placed on numerical order.

In other actions taken in the briefest session of City Council in well over a year, approval was given to the repurchase of two cemetery lots in Greenwood Cemetery; to two tax refunds; and to payment of $574 to policemen for off-duty hours spent in court.

An amendment to the ordinance prohibiting parking on both sides of Tenth Street was approved. In effect, the amendment takes in a small section not covered in the

Massive Social Security Bill Cleared

Senate OKs Larger Benefits

By JOE HALL

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A

momentous $18.5-billion Social Security-welfare bill has emerged from the Senate carrying dozens of new benefits and higher taxes. But it stalls reform of the welfare-families program indefinitely.

Capping a 17-hour session in which 40 separate amendments were considered, the Senate passed the bill 68 to 5 early today.

The 989-page bill would:

—Provide or increase Social Security benefits for widows; chronically ill old persons who need maintenance drugs; persons who want to retire at age 60; others who want to work beyond age 65; all male retirees who now get lower benefits than women with the same earnings records; disabled persons; elderly men and women who need glasses, hearing aids and dentures, and other groups.

—Substantially increase benefits and set a national income standard for aged, blind or disabled persons receiving welfare.

—Continue the program of Aid to Families with Dependent Children while three reform plans are tested.

—Aim to hold down the steadily rising costs of the two big government health programs: Medicare for the elderly and Medicaid for the poor.

On the other hand, the 90 million persons whose paychecks are tapped to finance Social Security would pay more into the program, as would their employers.

A worker now pays a maximum of $486 a year into the fund; the figure would go to $648 in 1973.

A large portion of the tax increase is due to a 20-per-cent hike in Social Security benefits approved by Congress last June. The fatter checks became effective this week.

Senate passage sent the bill, with its landmark changes in Social Security and welfare laws, to conference with the House, which last year passed a smaller, $8.2-billion version.

A conference on the measure is expected to be held next week, and sponsors say they are sure a compromise version can be worked out and sent to President Nixon before the 1972 session ends. That probably will be Oct. 14.

However, Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., floor manager for the bill, noting that the Senate added more than $5 billion in benefits in the floor debate, cautioned that the conferees would have to make many cuts in the Senate bill.

"Otherwise I am afraid it will be vetoed by the President," he said.

Originally it had been expected the Senate might devote a month or more to the bill.

The Bearded Lady Says Freaks Of Nature Need Show Business Careers

By CAROL TYER
Reflector Staff Writer

"I wrote a letter to the governor of Michigan recently and I let him know exactly how I feel about his state's move to outlaw freak shows," said Mrs. Lola Conklin, the bearded lady at the Pitt County Fair. "Freaks are people, too, and most of them are very proud people who do not want to be dependent on anyone else."

making a living all these years if I could not have been a circus fair exhibit. I know because I tried other things."

Although the 65-year-old Lola claims to have been in show business off and on for 52 years, she says she obtained undergraduate and Master's degrees from the University of Washington (state) and the University of the Islands (in Hawaii). "During my school years and while I was teaching, also, I'd have to do what my mother did for me as an infant and small child—shave my body every morning and again at luncheon and again at night I were going out. With this routine plus the generous use of makeup, I got along well enough, but I finally was drummed out of teaching. The children loved me, but their parents didn't like a freak teaching their kids. I tried other jobs, like clerking, that didn't pay nearly so much, but they didn't last long either. There were always excuses, but I knew the reason I was fired," she said.

Lola was born in 1908 in her mother's dressing room near Hilo, Hawaii, she said. She grew up in show business and remembers Vaudeville and masters like "my beloved Al Jolson" very well.

An interlude of fulfillment came she said during her brief married life. "I had the most wonderful husband there has ever been," she said. "Tommy assured me constantly that he loved me for myself and that my physical appearance meant nothing. He left me with twin sons, Ronnie and Donnie, to go

Unemployment Count Shrinks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment edged down last month and the total number of Americans at work increased, the government reported today.

The total out-of-work declined 200,000 to 4.7 million, for a rate of 5.5 per cent of the labor force, said the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

This was down from a rate of 5.6 per cent in August it said. The total number of employed actually dropped 1.5 million to 82 million, but since it normally drops more than that for the month, the bureau figured it as an increase of 250,000.

The bureau also reported that average earnings of some 50 million rank-and-file workers rose six cents per hour to $3.71 and $1.51 per week to $138.75.

A large part of the hourly pay increase was technical, caused by the many school youngsters leaving lower paying summer jobs to return to their classes, and thus raising average pay.

On a seasonally adjusted basis, the bureau said, the earnings increase was only two cents per hour.

Helms Conceals Anti-Nixon Position: Galifianakis

By TOM BAINES
Reflector Staff Writer

Nick Galifianakis, candidate for the U.S. Senate, said yesterday that his GOP opponent is camouflaging his anti-Nixon positions in order to "portray himself as an admirer and supporter" of the president.

"That he should want to do so is not surprising," the Democratic hopeful said during a brief stop at the airport. "That he should actually try to do so, however, in the light of his record of hostility to both the president and many of his programs, is almost unbelievable."

Galifianakis continued, "In fact, my opponent's efforts to camouflage his anti-Nixon positions and suddenly assume a pro-Nixon stance constitute political expediency and raise serious questions about his credibility."

Producing copies of Jesse Helms editorials that Galifianakis said "documents my opponent's anti-Nixon statements," the candidate questioned "How can a man who less than a year ago accused President Nixon of 'appeasement' for opening relations with China and other countries now say he will support the President in the Senate?"

"How can a man who has accused the Nixon Administration of 'selling out again to communism' and 'complete surrender to communist demands' and who has labeled agricultural exports to Russia as 'trading with the enemy,' how can this man suddenly start claiming he will support the president?"

Galifianakis said, "I would suggest that my opponent consider his own awkward campaign postures in the light of these statements before he accuses the president or anyone else of political expediency again."

The congressman, replying to a charge by Helms that he is conducting a "whisper" campaign concerning Helms' positions on the REA, denied the use of such tactics and contended that he is openly bringing his positions to view before the public.

DEAR ABBY: Please keep my name off this. If my mother knew I wrote it she would kill me.

First, my mom has been in the nut ward four times. [She used to take all kinds of pills.] She can't get along with anybody. She knows everything and is never wrong. Everybody else is. She doesn't talk—she hollers! She is always picking on me, and when I complain to my father, he says, "You know your mother is off her rocker, so don't expect her to act normal."

When I ask him why we don't just send her away somewhere, he says, "Because she will get well faster at home, and if you don't try to get along with her, we will send YOU away!" Is that fair? I am 15 and have some rights, too.

My mom's been going to a psychiatrist three times a week for five months now and I can't see one bit of improvement. It's costing my father a fortune. That's why he can't buy me a car.

I guess maybe I just need someone to talk to. Maybe if I acted goofy enough they'd send ME to a shrink. It would sure be neat to pay someone to listen to me complain. Thanks, Abby, for letting me get this off my chest.

DOWN IN THE DUMPS

DEAR DOWN: Many a truth is spoken in jest. Maybe you do need someone to listen to you. If there's a counseling service at school, take advantage of it. Or inquire about seeing someone at Family Service or your local Mental Health Clinic. Living with a disturbed person isn't easy, but if you learn more about your mother's illness you will be more compassionate and less hostile, which would help her, and you, too.

DEAR ABBY: We live in an apartment, and the people next door have taken their stereo out on the patio and the racket is driving me up a wall. They have one of those twin speaker setups, and I hear rock and roll blasting away until I think the top of my head will fly off! I simply cannot understand how they can tolerate the sound level. They have GOT to be deaf!

I didn't have the courage to go over there and tell them personally to turn the music down, so I telephoned them, and would you believe the phone rang a full ten minutes before they heard it! They did turn it down a bit, but the next evening it was blaring away again.

Don't tell me to report them to the manager. The people on the other side did that and got nowhere. And in case you think I'm an old fogey, I am 33 years old! Please help me.

LOSING MY MIND IN L.A.

DEAR LOSING: Go over there and TELL them they are disturbing your peace. And since the other neighbors are equally annoyed, how about getting up a petition? Present it to the manager. If that doesn't get results, call the gendarmes.

DEAR ABBY: The Admiral of this installation was leaving for another assignment. His last day he came to each person to bid farewell. [I am a woman, employed here.] When the Admiral approached my desk I stood up to shake his hand.

Another woman employee loudly criticized me for standing up for a man. Some employees took her side. Some took mine. I am interested in your opinion.

DEAR B.: It is proper for a woman to stand in greeting a man for whom she wishes to show respect for his age or position.

Rules For Absentee Ballot Are Outlined

The procedure for voting by absentee ballot was outlined today by Mrs. Earl Trevathan, Voter Service chairman of the Greenville-Pitt County League of Women Voters.

Most voters must obtain their ballot in person at the office of the Board of Elections on the third floor of the Pitt County Court House. The spouse may get a ballot in person for his wife or her husband. In the event the voter is ill or physically disabled, another member of the family may pick up the ballot.

Persons requesting absentee ballots by mail must state their reasons for being absent. These letters should be mailed to the Board of Elections, Box 305, Greenville, North Carolina, 27834. These must be turned to the Board of Elections by Wednesday, November 1 at 6:00 p.m.

The envelope containing the ballot must be notarized and must be in the hands of the chairman of the Board of Elections not later than Saturday, November 4 at noon.

Operation Santa Meeting Oct. 10

The name Operation Sunshine was inadvertently used in an article yesterday about Operation Santa Claus, the Pitt County Mental Health Association's project to collect gifts for persons in Caswell Center and Cherry Hospital.

A meeting of Community chairmen for Operation Santa Claus, not Operation Sunshine, will be held Thursday Oct. 10 at 10 a.m.

Scout Auction Sale Saturday

AYDEN — The Ayden Boy Scout auction sale will be held Saturday beginning at 1 p.m. at the platform of the Seaboard Coastline Railroad building in Ayden.

Ray Oglesby, a tobacco auctioneer, will be the auctioneer for the sale.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase equipment and supplies for Scout Troop 34.

Opening lead: King of ♣
A delicately conceived and executed campaign enabled South, the declarer at four hearts, to throw an opponent in at the crucial moment in today's hand and force a favorable return to present him with a 10th trick.

West opened the king of clubs and the ace was played from dummy. South would have welcomed the appearance of another heart in the North hand, for three trumps would have assured him of obtaining two diamond ruffs—thereby virtually guaranteeing success on the deal.

His only recourse was to lead a diamond at trick two and hope for the best. East's five was covered by the jack which lost to West's king. The latter made the expected trump shift which restricted South to only one diamond ruff.

Declarer can count nine tricks—six hearts, the ace of diamonds, a ruff in that suit, and the ace of clubs. It appears that he must find the ace of spades with West, so that a trick can be scored in that suit by leading toward North's king. South was not optimistic on this score, for West's opening lead of the suit originally bid by dummy apparently marked the former with at least the king-queen of clubs and probably the jack as well. He had shown up with the king of diamonds and if he also held the ace of spades, an opening bid might have been expected from West in second seat.

Declarer reasoned that his only chance was to find East with four diamonds and to put the latter on lead at a time when he had only spades left and would thereby be obliged to make a favorable lead for South. After winning West's heart shift at trick three with North's queen, a club was ruffed in the closed hand as a preliminary measure to strip East of that suit. The ace of diamonds was cashed next followed by a diamond ruff with the king of hearts as both opponents followed suit.

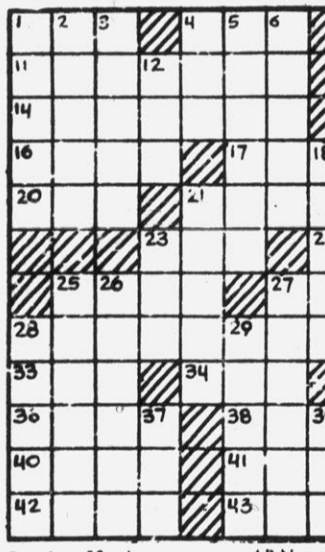

A third club was trumped in the closed hand and South was pleased when East showed out—discarding a spade. The ace and jack of hearts drew the outstanding trumps and at trick 10 declarer exited with the eight of diamonds. When East turned up with the queen, South's efforts were duly rewarded for his opponent was down to the A-J-9 of spades. After cashing his ace, East was obliged to present dummy's king with the fulfilling trick on the deal.

In all, declarer lost two diamond tricks and one spade.

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1972

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day when employing the use of tact and diplomacy brings difficulties are bound to arise to test your patience. Any surprise setbacks will be temporary and no threat to overall progress. A good sense of humor is important.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Resorting to temper where an associate is concerned would only make matters worse. Also, make sure you are not the one who is at fault. Express more confidence in what others are doing.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) An excellent day to express your views with friends, but be sure to avoid any arguments. Taking health treatments at this time can give you more vitality. Show that you have poise.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are tempted to dash out for recreation instead of carrying through with promises you have made. Avoid those individuals who are unreliable. Home is your best bet tonight. Relax.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Do nothing that will spoil the harmonious manner in which your home is running. Be sure to keep quiet if provoked. Take care of artistic and cultural matters early.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Don't be careless in motion today and you safeguard money and physical well being. You can run those errands but don't take any risks. Be sure to count your money when shopping.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You feel that by spending money lavishly you can alleviate another's feelings, but an honest admission of guilt would be better. Discuss with an expert how to add to present abundance.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Plan how to make yourself more attractive and healthy. Forget the faults of those persons you like and think only of their good qualities. Buy the right clothing for your wardrobe.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You may feel hemmed in today, so get out and go places, meet people who are interesting and have a good time. A little encouragement to a friend now can go a long way. Relax tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Being blunt with friends could lead to arguments now, so use tact instead. You need to build goodwill, not lessen it. Personal goals are best worked out alone at this time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You know what your duties are of public or personal nature, so attend to them instead of going off on some tangent. Show that you are efficient. Avoid a higher-up who is irate.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Find a new method of handling the tasks ahead of you and get better results. Don't be pressured by a newcomer into doing something that would embarrass you. Use your willpower.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) With all the tasks ahead of you, get busy and handle them instead of procrastinating any longer. Take good care of your health and make yourself more charming. Express happiness.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who is constantly motivated to challenge others, even the closest ties. Teach early to have more faith in others and give the right religious training that will accomplish this. Any profession that has to do with music, art and culture is fine here. Sports are also important. Don't neglect ethical training.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

'DWI Phoenix' Film Shown At ARC Wednesday

Approximately 45 clients at Walter B. Jones Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center viewed the film DWI Phoenix Wednesday night at the center. The program was presented by the Safety Committee of the Pilot Club of Greenville, Inc.

A documentary film, it shows how Phoenix, Ariz. found a way to protect the city against the largest single cause of fatal traffic accidents—driving while intoxicated. Produced by the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety, DWI is about real people, men and woman convicted of drunken driving and revealing experiences they undergo in a unique "class" for offenders.

A lively discussion involving the clients followed the film showing.

Mrs. Joseph N. LeConte, chairman, Pilot Club Safety Committee and executive director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association, and Mrs. Robert Smith, Pilot Club District Safety Committee chairman, presented the program.

During a social hour, Mrs. Dennis Johnson, Pilot Club chairman of the Community Service Committee and committee member Mrs. Helen Snyder served refreshments.

Birthday Party Held Monday

GRIFTON—Richard Sugg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Sugg, celebrated his eighth birthday at a party Monday afternoon.

Refreshments were served from auxiliary tables decorated in Halloween colors. Guests were given decorated candy cups as favors.

Mrs. Sugg was assisted by Miss Nancy Sugg and Miss Kelly Reeves in serving.

MISS BETTIE PEARL WHITE... is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leatha White of Greenville, who announced her engagement to S.Sgt. George Seymour Washington, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Washington of Kinston. The wedding will take place Oct. 28.

Engagements Announced

MISS LENA LUANN WILLOUGHBY... is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skinner Willoughby of Farmville, who announce her engagement to James Alton Blalock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Atlar Blalock of Farmville. The wedding will take place Nov. 5.

Mrs. Howell Gives Program

GRIFTON—Mrs. Vickie Howell presented the program at the meeting of the Griffon Extension Homemakers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F. W. Davenport.

Mrs. Howell, who is associated with Caswell Center, Kinston, talked on needs at the center and told of projects clubs could sponsor for the center.

Mrs. Devenport gave food tips and Mrs. Margaret Moore spoke on family life.

A workshop was planned for Oct. 24 at the Catholic Church to dress Christmas dolls for the Salvation Army.

Mrs. John Condon conducted the business session and Mrs. Percy Boyd gave the devotional.

SHP Recruiting Has Paid Off

Some time back the State Highway Patrol was coming in for criticism for not hiring minorities. A recent report from Reese Hart of the Associated Press shows that the N.C. Highway Patrol is making a serious effort to recruit blacks and other minorities.

After being all-white for 41 years the Highway Patrol now has 11 blacks and three Indians among its 1,037 man force. While this is not a large percentage of the total force it does show us that the Highway Patrol is making progress in employing qualified minorities.

Col. Edwin Guy pointed out that on a percentage basis North Carolina has three times more blacks than the New York State Patrol. This progress has come in only five years since the first black was hired in 1967.

It is apparent, too, that the black patrolmen take pride in their new positions. "Our best means of recruiting blacks are through our black troopers," Col. Guy stated. "They are proud and envious of their position."

The colonel also said he anticipated that the number of blacks will increase to about 20 in the next 18 months, since new black patrolmen are being chosen and trained.

All the patrolmen are chosen after meeting rigid standards and they then take 700 hours of training at the Institute of Government in Chapel Hill. Co. Guy said no usual problems have been encountered with black troopers. "On the contrary, we've gotten numerous compliments from motorists on their work." "We measure a trooper by his job performance and not his color."

The Highway Patrol's program of bringing blacks and other minorities into its ranks has obviously been effective. It is an accomplishment that our state can take pride in.

Fat Life Style For Americans

By BRYAN HAISLIP
RALEIGH — A fat life style keeps on the pounds for an estimated 40 million over-weights Americans.

If you're one of them and you really want to lose weight, you must make a commitment to change the way you live, advised Dr. Isa Grant.

obesity is reached when the excess gets to 30 pounds or more.

Weight Levels Vary
There are tables based on sex, height and body structure (slim, medium, heavy) as guides to proper weight, Dr. Grant said. The level varies with build, and is higher for men than women. For example, at 5 feet, 8 inches, the range for males is 140 to 154 pounds, and for females 124 to 140 pounds.

Dr. Grant, a mere slip of a woman, said she's never had a personal problem with weight, she admitted.

For those who do have a problem, it may have started in the cradle. Recent studies indicate that overfed babies develop obese cells that plague them in later life.

"That's pretty hard to prove. All of us have known overweight children who became adults of normal size," Dr. Grant remarked. Still, early diet can fix habits such as a "sweet tooth" that are a pattern for overweight, she added.

Calories Do Count

At any weight gain or loss is directly related to in-take and out-put — the amount of calories consumed and the energy expended. Other factors may be involved, but that's basic, said Dr. Grant. In other words, weight reduction boils down to eating less and exercising more. It also means a choice of foods with more attention to nutrition than taste, avoiding "empty calories" of desserts and snacks and keeping a balance of carbohydrates and protein.

Persons with a substantial number of pounds to lose find it easier said than done. Dr. Grant agreed. "They are speaking the truth when they say they can't do it. They can't, by themselves. They need outside help," she said. Going it alone on a fad diet or crash starvation can be harmful to health as well as an end in frustration, she said. Often, even though weight reduction is quickly realized, it is followed by gains greater than before.

Some find the group process, such as weight watchers, helpful in sticking to a regime, she noted.

A physician can best advise on how much weight you should lose and the kind of diet and exercise program to follow in reaching your goal, Dr. Grant observed.

The necessary first step is the real desire to attain proper weight level. "Once that personal commitment is made, you must change your way of life to achieve the shape you want," she said.

It's worth it. "After all, the body is the house in which your spirit lives," Dr. Grant reminded.

Connally Role Rankles Texans

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK
AUSTIN, Tex. — The startling new possibility that he may emerge from this campaign with the blood of Sen. John Tower on his hands would make still more difficult any conversion of John B. Connally from Texas Democrat to national Republican.

When Tower seemed assured of a third term, Texas Republican leaders tolerated pro forma endorsement for the state Democratic ticket by Connally, national chairman of Democrats for Nixon. But Tower is no longer safe against Democrat Barefoot Sanders, chief White House lobbyist in the last days of the Johnson administration. Top Republicans concede that Sanders, underfinanced and disregarded until lately, is gaining ground fast against Tower (5 percentage points behind on Sept. 6, according to Dallas pollster Alex Louis).

Besides dooming chances for a Republican-controlled Senate, Tower's defeat would cripple the halting rise of Texas Republicanism. This, the party's leaders privately vow to remember 1972 if and when Connally moves for the 1976 Republican Presidential nomination.

Certainly, Connally's present role in the Texas Senate race extends beyond pro forma endorsement. The word is passed around Texas that Connally will vote for Sanders and wants him to win. That word is validated by the identity of Sanders' campaign manager: conservative Austin lawyer Joe Kilgore — former Congressman, present University of Texas regent, longtime friend of John Connally.

What truly rankles Tower forces, however, is open support for Sanders from Larry Temple, an ex-Connally and ex-LBJ aid who is state chairman of Democrats for Nixon. Temple has contributed $1,450 to Sanders (a major contribution in that money-starved campaign). To many regular Republicans, Connally should either have restrained Temple or not named him state chairman.

To counteract this, the Tower campaign seeks an impression of Tower-Connally cordiality. Tower's rotogravure section, sent to 2 million Sunday newspaper readers, features a photograph of the two men and a fulsome Connally-to-

Tower quote ("We seem to come to you, John, with the tough assignments, but you always carry through to a successful completion").

The assumption is that Connally remains popular in Texas. State agriculture commissioner John White, co-chairman of Sen. George McGovern's Texas campaign, privately cautioned McGovern to pull his punches against Connally recently in Houston. Sargent Shriver, receiving no such advice, travelled across the state lambasting Connally, to the anguish of many loyalist Democrats.

Moreover, the blessing of conservation Connally undercuts Tower's tactics. Charging that Sanders "has embraced McGovern radicalism," Tower reminds voters that Sanders is an old friend and law partner of former Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, political anathema in Texas. Clark's $2,000 campaign contribution to Sanders, well publicized by Tower, has been costly indeed.

While endorsing McGovern, Sanders somehow has been unable to appear with McGovern or Shriver on any of their combined eight post-convention trips to Texas. At a fourth press conference last week, Sanders disagreed with McGovern on national defense, Vietnam, welfare, the oil depletion allowance, amnesty for draft dodgers and troop levels in Europe. As for Ramsey Clark, Sanders quickly recited a stock reply: "I do not approve of his trip to Hanoi."

Such non-liberal professions by liberal Sanders are credible only because of Connally's endorsement. But Tower's Connally problem has yet another dimension. Tower's argument that the Texas establishment desperately needs his influence in Washington becomes unconvincing when Connally, not Tower, is indisputably Mr. Texas in the heart of Richard M. Nixon.

To help counteract this, Tower wanted at least benevolent neutrality from Connally. That Connally refused this is regarded by some friends as evidence he remains a Tory Texas Democrat with no intention of becoming a Republican and, therefore, no intention of running for President.

But other veteran Connally-watchers disagree. They

Strength For Today

TRUE TOLERATION
We read in the 103rd Psalm that God knows our frame and remembers that we are dust.

Do you ever lose patience with the world about you and wonder how God suffers the infamy of man to continue? This upsurge of resentment is natural. All of us have it at times. We have it, but very decidedly God does not have it. With his infinite love, with his full understanding and with His mercy that is wide as the sea "He knoweth our frame; He remembereth that we are dust."

And since this is true it should, when we think about it, fill us with a deep sense of gratitude to God for His mercy. Also it should make us tolerant of others and kinder and more understanding in our dealings with them. Since God remembers that we are dust, let us remember that those about us are weak and frail also. Let us not demand our pound of flesh. Let us not cry for vengeance on them since God in His mercy so often refrains from taking vengeance on us.

Tolerance does not mean toleration of evil. Toleration at its best means an understanding of human weakness, a kindly attitude toward those who have fallen as we so often have fallen. God in His mercy remembers us all in our low estate.

The Kissinger Market

WASHINGTON — As everyone knows, Henry Kissinger has an overwhelming effect on America's foreign policy. But what wasn't recognized until recently is that he also seems to be responsible for the health of the stock market.

A broker friend on Wall Street named Jeckel told me. "It's now a Kissinger Market. The prices of stocks go up and down depending on how Wall Street reads Kissinger."

"How is that?"
"Remember last week the market was down. The Kissinger flew off to Paris to meet with the North Vietnamese. The market went up. He was supposed to stay for 24 hours. When he extended the stay, the market went up again. When he came back, he was smiling at the airport; the market went up."

"Then he was photographed a day later walking out of the White House frowning. Immediately the market went down."

"You mean the brokers are now buying and selling depending on Kissinger's mood?"

"Right. We no longer watch the ticker tape. We all stay glued to the TV hoping to get a glimpse of Henry."

One of Jeckel's partners came over to the desk. He was carrying a newspaper. "What do you make of this?" Jeckel looked at a photograph on the front page. It was a picture of Henry with a beautiful blonde attending a concert.

"He looks pretty happy," Jeckel said. "I think we ought to advise our clients to buy."
"But wait a minute," the partner said. "Is he happy because he's with the blonde, or is he happy because he's got a peace deal cooking with Hanoi?"

Jeckel picked up the magnifying glass and studied the photograph. "It's the same grin he used when he got off the plane from Paris. I think it's a peace grin."

The partner turned to me. "You know Kissinger. Does he look like he got something out of his Paris trip, or does he look like he's just looking forward to a nice evening?"

I borrowed the magnifying glass. "It's hard to say. I've seen Kissinger grinning like that when he came back from Paris empty-handed. Sometimes he hates to show his feelings."

At the same time he may have made some progress with the North Vietnamese and none with the blonde."

Jeckel said, "I think we should put in an order for IBM, Eastman Kodak and American Airlines, just in case."

The partner said, "It's pretty risky on the basis of a newspaper photograph. If we could see him on TV we could get a better idea of his mood."

One of the security analysts came rushing in. "Have you seen the afternoon editions? Here's a picture of Kissinger with President Nixon!"

The two brokers grabbed the paper. "Oh, my God. Henry's frowning," Jeckel said.

"But Nixon is grinning," the partner said. "How do you read that?"

I studied the picture. "The way I read it, Kissinger didn't get a deal in Paris and he had no luck with the blonde, either. Nixon probably thinks the second part of that is very funny."

Jeckel picked up his phone and shouted into it "SELL! SELL! SELL!"

Opinion In Brief

"The satisfaction that comes from work well performed is likewise one of the basic motivations and pleasures of human conduct." — Green Forest (Ark.) Tribune.

Double Talk Lesson

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — We haven't had any drills in double-talk lately, have we? Well, we might as well have one now, just to be sure we're in shape for the fall and winter social season.

Your ability to double-talk, of course, can make or break your social career. Double-talk is the act of saying one thing while thinking just the opposite, and it is the basis of all polite conversation. For if we only opened our mouths to speak the truth, we'd all quickly lose our teeth, and life would be a jungle of resentment. Perhaps the best way to proceed is to give a few examples of commonplace double-talk in real life situations. The speaker's actual remarks are in quotes, followed, in each case, by what he was actually thinking:

"Why, I could have had John as a husband if I had wanted to. He used to come running every time I snapped my fingers." — I guess I must have snapped them once too often.

"What kind of girl do you think I am?" — Anyway, you guessed right the first time.

"Harry, you know I hate to be asking you for money all the time." — But I'd rather ask than go without it.

"You know I just love to go to a football game, Reginald. But please don't keep apologizing for the seats. They're just fine." — I guess those tiny little figures running around on the field way down there must be the players.

"What if you did make a mistake and take the wrong turnoff, dear? It'll just give us a chance to enjoy this splendid scenery that much longer." — Wake me up when we get there, stupid.

"Well, Mr. Throggshead, as my potential financial adviser, would you suggest right now that I put any extra money I had in apartment houses, stocks, bonds, or undeveloped real estate?" — I hope this joker has enough cash on him to pick up the lunch check. Otherwise, both of us will be embarrassed.

"Cross my heart and hope to die, Mama, I didn't steal the nickel from your purse." Sister took the nickel — I took a

Forty Years Ago Today

By GWYN COGHILL
October 6, 1972
A cyclone which devastated everything in its path spared human lives as it swept over a farming community seven miles west of Farmville early today. The storm struck the Dock Thorne, Smith and Fields farms about midnight. Dwellings, barns and packhouses containing cured tobacco were totally or partially demolished.

A war on rats, conducted on a state-wide basis through farmers, has been declared for North Carolina. With a very short corn crop this season the war on the rodent will have as its major objective the preservation of as much of the corn as possible.

Investors Eye Interest Rates

By JOHN DORFMAN
AP Business Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Interest rates are on the rise, but most economists remain confident there will be no repetition of the credit crunch which pinched the economy in 1969 and 1970.

Investors, apparently less confident, have sent the stock market reeling at every announced hike. News of prime rate hikes by major banks sent the Dow-Jones industrial average into a 12-point tailspin Aug. 24, and snapped a budding rally on Sept. 29.

With the adoption Tuesday of a 5 1/2 per cent prime rate by San Francisco's Bank of America, the nation's largest commercial bank, the 5 1/2 per cent prime became virtually universal — for the time being.

Why are investors so concerned about interest rates? For an answer, one need only go back to 1969.

Prime rates — the interest charged by banks on loans to their most creditworthy customers — were then at 8 1/2 per cent, the highest in the nation's history.

"Companies like the Bell Telephone system had to pay 9 1/2 per cent," recalled Tilford Gaines, an economist with Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. "Other companies with less credit had to pay 12 to 13 per cent — if they were lucky enough to be able to get money at all."

With no money available for expansion, many companies had to stagnate or cut back their operations. This in turn affected employment. Housing starts were at a low ebb as mortgage money cost around 10 per cent interest. The stock market sagged.

The crunch, Gaines said, was a function of a deliberate contraction in money supply engineered by the Federal Reserve Board. "The policy was aimed at stopping inflation. It helped to do that, but it also created a business recession."

Gaines, and many other economists, are convinced that the Fed has "learned its lesson" and would not attempt such a drastic contraction of money supply again.

"The rise in interest rates we're experiencing now," said William Nelson of Moody's Investors Service, "is a natural reflection of increased demand for money in an expanding economy. But it still makes people nervous because they remember the crunch."

SPIN OF THE WHEEL

Life is a gamble, you say? Each day is a spin of the wheel of chance, and your destiny goes along with the spot where the ball lands or the place where the cards fall.

Is this true? Are we all really helpless victims of circumstance? If you think so, reconsider!

We make our own decisions! Sometimes they are right, sometimes they are wrong, but they belong to us—not to chance. Perhaps that is why we all need help, inspiration and self-dignity. We need to know that as God's children, our faith comes only as a gift from Him.

Where do we find all this? Well, we start to find it in the Church. Shown the way, the rest is up to us. Why not go to church next Sunday?

2 Accidents Yesterday

Claude Council Kirkman of Rt. 1, Box 22, Pantego was charged with failing to stop for a stop sign yesterday following investigation of a 5:15 p.m. accident that heavily damaged two vehicles.

Investigating officers reported that the wreck, at the intersection of Pitt and Third Streets, involved cars driven by Kirkman and James Milton Smith of Rt. 1, Box 373, Greenville.

Police said that Kirkman's vehicle was considered a total loss and estimated damages to the car operated by Smith at $600.

No injuries were reported. A car driven by Robert Lee Crandall of Rt. 1, Ayden sustained damages estimated at $175 in a mishap on Skinner Street north of its intersection with Norris Street.

Crandall told officers he was forced off the road by an oncoming vehicle around 9 p.m. The car, he reported, did not stop after the accident.

schedule comes up Saturday—at least in the eyes of the East Carolina University Pirates. That's the day they travel into Virginia to meet the University of Richmond Spiders, pre-season favorites in the Southern Conference. Many observers say this is the game that will decide the championship. There might be some who will disagree with those, but for Sonny Randle of ECU and Frank Jones of Richmond, it ranks as very important. Richmond comes into the 1:30 p.m. Saturday game in City Stadium with a 2-2 record. The Spiders lost their first two outings, 28-18 to North Carolina, and 28-7 to West Virginia. They then beat Northeast Louisiana, 17-0 and VMI, 34-15, evening their record. Both of the wins have come in their stadium:

both losses were on the road. Against West Virginia, they went into the third quarter with an 0-0 deadlock, only to bow to a fine third period effort by the Mountaineers. And they gave Carolina a scare in defeat for the second straight year. The Bucs come in with a perfect 3-0 record. They beat VMI, 30-3 in the season opener, then socked Southern Illinois, 16-0, and Appalachian, 35-7. Last week was an open date for the Bucs, and this could have a bearing on the game.

Randle went into the two-week break looking forward to getting injured personnel back and polishing up some rough edges in the Pirate game, but yesterday afternoon, his tone had changed. "I think the week off has hurt us," he said. "We've lost our edge. We don't seem motivated. There's no enthusiasm of fire. It's just been too long. We were ready to play and didn't have anything to do last week. I just hope we pop back in time. But when you get into a normal routine and then break it..."

And the layoff didn't heal the team completely. There are still some walking wounded around, but Randle expects all to be ready to go this weekend.

The Spiders field a typical Frank Jones team according to Randle. "They are big, strong, physical, and they try to outsmart you. It's definitely a big game for us. Some people are looking too far ahead and talking about a bowl game. Well, this is our bowl game. And that's no understatement."

Randle had praises for Richmond's two fine running backs, Billy Meyers and Barty Smith. Smith, who was injured early in the season is back now, picking up over 100 yards against VMI. Meyers is the leading rusher so far, picking up 200 yards on 60 carries, including four touchdowns. Smith had 42 carries for 160 yards. Quarterback Dave Yount had run 18 times for 80 yards, showing he can get out of the pocket when necessary.

Yount is also a fine passer, hitting on 16 of 30 for 192 yards and four touchdowns. He's only been caught twice behind the line for losses. Backing him up is another fine thrower, Harry Knight, who has hit on 20 of 51 passes for 306 yards and two touchdowns.

Their chief targets are Billy Harris (10 for 106 yards and 2 touchdowns); Mike Mahoney (8-107-1) and Joe Sgroi (4-35-0).

"There are no weaknesses in either their offense or their defense," Randle said. "They just come at you hard. They run more than they pass, but they are highly capable in the air. Their receivers are not great one like they've had in the past, but they are still very good."

Despite the fact that Richmond gave up over 200 yards to VMI's Tom Schultz through the air last week, Randle feels that Richmond has a strong pass defense. "They are quite sound," he said. "They're not fancy, and they just whip you good."

The coach feels that the Pirates must play their best game of the year if they are to get past the Spiders, who have won the last four meetings of the two. "We must eliminate silly mistakes," Randle said. "I believe we can run and pass against them, but we can't let our mistakes beat us."

Randle pointed out that Richmond's success has been based on controlling the ball. "They keep it most of the game, so we've got to be able to score when we get the ball."

Richmond also has an excellent kicking game. Their punter, Jay Jones is one of the top booters in the country, averaging 42.4 yards per kick.

Twice, however, his protection has broken down allowing blocks. Of the 30 kicks, only 12 have been returned, however. The also have field goal potential from Keith Clark, who has kicked three of five so far this year.

Overall, Richmond holds a 9-4 lead in the series with the Bucs, going back to 1956. East Carolina last won in 1967 by a 23-7 score. Since then, the Spiders have posted 31-7, 24-7, 38-12 and 14-7 victories over the Bucs. "They are beginning to believe that they can beat us no matter who we bring up there," Randle said. Comparing the two teams offensively, East Carolina would appear to have the edge except in passing. The Bucs are averaging 356 yards a game, 243.7 on the ground and 112.3 in the air. Richmond is picking up 247.3 per game, 122.8 on the ground and 124.5 through the air.

Defensively, the Pirates are allowing 128.3 yards per game as compared to 305.00 for the Spiders. The Bucs are giving up 46.3 on the ground and 82.0 through the air. Richmond has allowed 174.8 on the ground and 130.3 in the air.

Richmond has scored 19 points per game as compared to 27 for the Bucs. East Carolina has allowed 3.3 points per game.

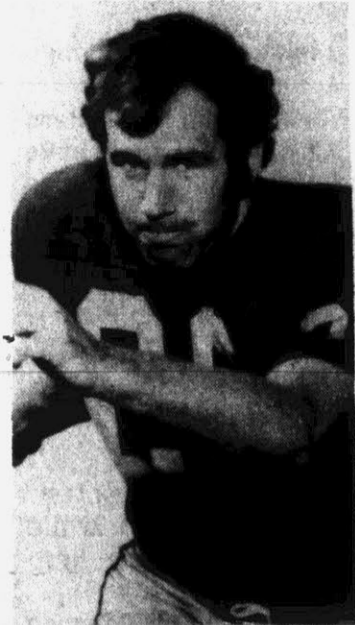

while opponents have scored 17.8 against the Spiders.

The Bucs left today at noon for Richmond, planning an afternoon working in City Stadium. They will return following the game.

Rose Hosts Wildcats

Rose High School's Rampants will entertain Wilmington's New Hanover High School tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Ficklen Stadium.

Both teams come into the non-conference game with 3-2 records. Both have faced two common opponents, Jacksonville and Rocky Mount. Both beat Jacksonville, Rose by 28-21, and Wilmington by 28-18, while both lost to Rocky Mount. Rose by 14-0 last week, and Wilmington by 7-6 earlier in the year.

Rampant Cubs Rip W. Craven

VANCEBORO — Rose High School's junior varsity rolled to a 34-0 victory over West Craven High School yesterday.

The victory was the second against one loss and a tie for the Rampant Cubs this season.

The Cubs put two touchdowns on the scoreboard in the first period. Mike Baker got the ball rolling early as he blocked a punt which Tommy Payne picked up and carried 42 yards for the touchdown. Mike Ball then passed to Curt Creech for the two-point conversions and an 8-0 lead.

Payne then got an assist on the next score as he intercepted a pass to set up a 12-yard reverse by Lindberg Morris for the touchdown.

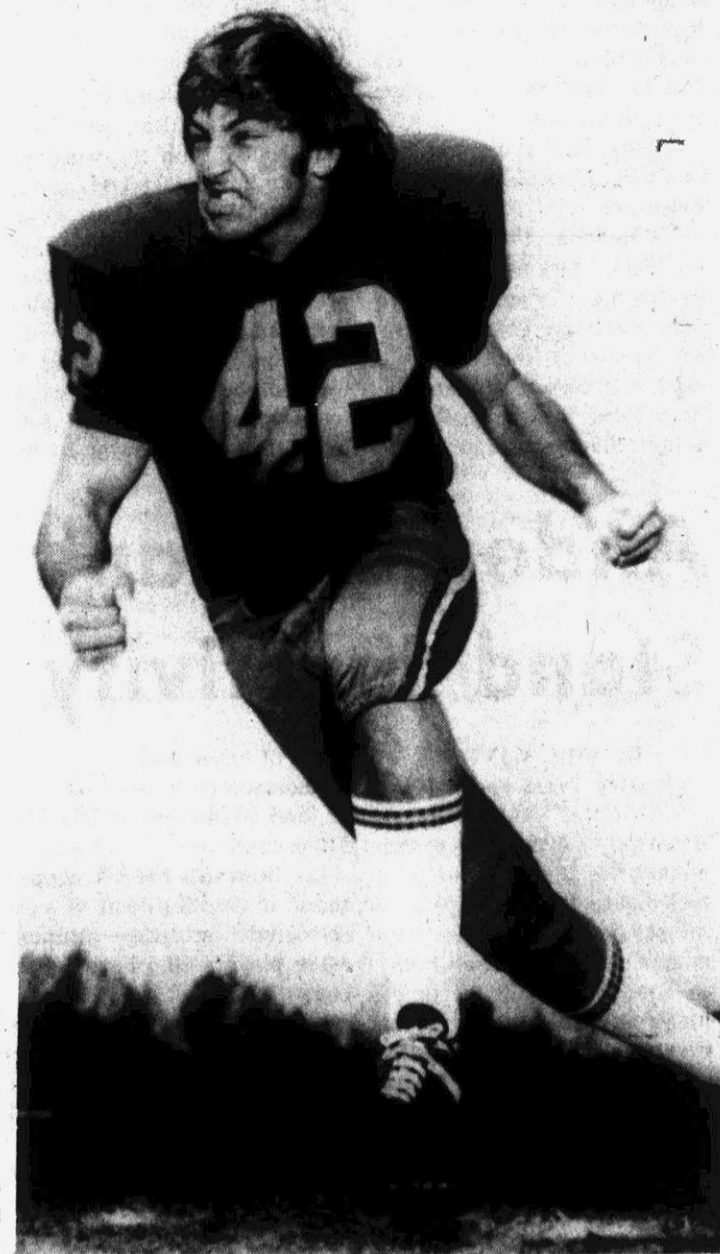

The Cubs then got one more before halftime to extend their lead to 22-0 at intermission.

Morris also scored that one with a six yard carry. Ball again hit Creech for the PAT.

Two more third period touchdowns finished up the scoring. Both were scored by Tyrone Taft, who went in from two and nine yards out.

Taft led the Greenville rushing, picking up 141 yards in 33 carries. Rose finished with 242 yards on the ground and 117 through the air.

The Rampant Cubs travel to Kinston next Wednesday. Rose 14 8 12 0-34 West Craven 0 0 0 0-0

Stas Is Improving

Clarence Stasavich, East Carolina University Athletic Director, continues to show improvement in Pitt Memorial Hospital where he is undergoing treatment.

Mrs. Stasavich said this morning that the former head football coach continued to be in high spirits after being admitted to the hospital with chest pains on Wednesday morning.

"The doctors told me that his electrocardiogram did not show up as they had expected it to, but they are treating him as if he had had a heart attack," Mrs. Stasavich said. "Apparently it is not as involved as it was when he had his first attack."

That attack took place in 1963 during a football trip to South Carolina and sidelined the coach for most of the remaining season.

Mrs. Stasavich said that Stas would remain in the intensive care unit for several more days, but that doctors expected him to move out into the general hospital shortly after the weekend. He will then be hospitalized for about another week before returning home for several more weeks of rest.

Isaac May Be Man To Beat

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The word is being passed through the Charlotte Motor Speedway garage area: Don't discount Bobby Isaac's chances in Sunday's National 500 stock car race.

One of those who agrees is Isaac himself.

"We are really flying," the 37-year-old Isaac said Thursday. "I can't say whether it's me or the car, but the car is going faster here than any I've ever driven."

Isaac, who won a fifth-place starting berth in Wednesday's first round of qualifying, is driving a new Chevrolet built by Banjo Mathews, an ex-driver. Mathews has a reputation for fielding cars that handle well but aren't necessarily the fastest around.

"We can run as fast as any other driver here," said Isaac, whose qualifying speed was 156.589 miles per hour—about two miles off pole winner David Pearson's 158.539 m.p.h.

But Isaac, a 38-year-old Grand National tour veteran, was turning laps in practice Thursday faster than Pearson's pole speed. The garage area witnesses moved him into the role of a short odds favorite along with Pearson, Bobby Allison, Buddy Baker and A. J. Foyt.

Meantime, the starting list for the $123,000 fall classic was expanded to 24 drivers Thursday, with a dozen more to be added today and the final four Saturday.

Clifton "Coo Coo" Marlin, a cattle rancher from Columbia, Tenn., recorded the fastest speed of the second day of trials, 155.431 m.p.h. in a Chevrolet. Dave Marcis was second fastest in a Matador at 154.462 m.p.h.

The list of qualified starters includes three drivers from the rival United States Auto Club. Foyt won a second row berth in the first day of trials. On Wednesday, Roger McCluskey claimed the 19th spot in a Dodge and Gordon Johncock barely made it into 24th position in a Plymouth.

Isaac, the 1970 Grand National champion, had earned $83,485 in 23 races this year until he suddenly quit a Dodge owned by Indiana insurance executive Nord Krauskopf a month ago. Baker took over the car and qualified it in the front row beside Pearson at 158.450 m.p.h.

Men's Heads Are Hung In Shame

If you walk around The Daily Reflector offices these days, you find five male heads hanging low and a lot of mumbling going on.

For Sandra Spivey, our lone girl picker has pushed out into the lead in our weekly standings. She's put together a 38-10 record on the season, and gained the lead on all of us.

The head hanging lowest of all however is this one, which has sunk to the bottom of the totem pole with a lowly 34-14 mark on the season. Thank goodness for the high school games, which we haven't missed in a couple of weeks. That's the only thing that keeps us going.

Jack Whichard fell from first into second place in the standings with a 37-11 mark, while a three-way tie has gathered for third between Tom Baines, John Trotman and George Holland. All three have 35-13 marks.

To begin the week, let's take a look at the high school slate.

Greene Central visits North Pitt in an Eastern Carolina Conference game. The Rams seem to have put it all together now, and are rolling along since losing their first conference start to Southern Nash. The Panthers are still looking for their first win, and this is a bad place to try and pick it up. Greene Central will be the winner.

Ayden-Grifton visits Charles B. Aycocock. The Falcons haven't had any luck since their opener, while the Chargers are still unbeaten. They'll still be unbeaten after this weekend.

Conley visits North Lenoir in a tough contest. Conley will be seeking its second league win, while the Hawks go after their third. I'll go out on a limb and pick Conley to win.

Belt Conference game. The Eagles are flying high, and might be ripe for a plucking, but you can't knock a winner. Robersonville to remain unbeaten. Southern Wayne visits Farmville Central in another Eastern Carolina league game. The Jaguars finally got their first win last week, while Southern appears to be starting to put things together. It's a tough choice, but I'll go with the Jags to win.

Williamston visits Gates County seeking to remain unbeaten in the Albermarle Conference. It might be a tough one for the Tigers, but like the others, they should maintain their unblemished league mark.

Leading off the poll, Rose High School plays host to New Hanover. The two are similar in many ways, but the Rampants may not have Al Hunter, injured with a broken hand. That might be fatal. While not knowing for sure his status, the panel votes a deadlock. Three pick Rose, and three, including me again, pick New Hanover.

East Carolina and Richmond meet in a key Southern Conference game in the Virginia capital city Saturday afternoon. The Bucs go in unbeaten, while Richmond is 2-2, winning all of their home games. The Spiders are the conference favorites, and the Bucs now appear as the dark horse. A victory for either team will mean a lot in the eventual outcome. Hopefully, it's not the kiss of death, but the panel is in accord: East Carolina will be the winner.

ECU-Richmond Meeting Could Break Logjam—Or Increase It

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coach Frank Jones of Richmond's defending Southern Conference football champion Spiders says "we hate to play a game this big so early in the season."

Jones is referring to the Spiders' Saturday afternoon home engagement with East Carolina's Pirates, the league's last unbeaten team with three straight victories over-all.

The Pirates and William and Mary's Indians are tied for the league lead with 2-0 records, followed by Richmond and Davidson's Wildcats at 1-0. The other four league teams have lost at least once inside the conference.

Should Richmond defeat East Carolina, Davidson could make it a three-way tie for the lead with a victory in its Charlotte, N. C., encounter Saturday afternoon with Appalachian State's Mountaineers, who have lost their three conference starts so far.

A Saturday night conference scrap has The Citadel's Bulldogs, 1-1, playing host to Virginia Military's Keydets, 0-3. VMI has lost its last 14 games in a row over-all.

William and Mary and Furman's Paladins play outside the league.

The Indians, 2-2 over-all, go to West Virginia, a team they've never beaten in 15 previous meetings. This will be the last game of the series, in which the closest William and Mary came to a victory was a 16-16 tie five years ago.

Furman, also 2-2 against all opposition, has a night date at Western Carolina, which already holds a 10-0 decision over The Citadel.

"This game will have a lot to do with the outcome of the Southern Conference race," says Jones of Richmond's tussle with East Carolina, which has the league's best defensive record.

The Spiders will send running backs Barty Smith and Billy Meyers and quarterbacks Dave Yount and Harry Knight out in an effort to crack that defense. The Pirates will counter with quarterback Carl Summerell, running back Carlester Crumpler and flanker Tim Dameron.

East Carolina Coach Sonny Randle calls Meyers and Smith two of the finest running backs in the South and says Richmond "is very strong and very physical."

The Spiders, Randle says, "are not going to make any mistakes that beat themselves. That defense of theirs will come after you and if we are not careful, they could very easily outmuscle us."

"Ever since I have been head coach at Davidson, we have had trouble with the wishbone attack Jim Brakefield uses," says the Wildcats' Dave Fagg. "It is a difficult offense to defend, especially when you have good personnel. Appalachian has good personnel."

For his part, Brakefield is worried about how his pass defense—sharp so far—will hold up against the throwing of the Wildcats' Scotty Shipp and David Harper and receiving of Andy Davis and Walt Walker.

Coaches Red Parker of The Citadel and Bob Thalman of VMI are wary of each other's offenses. Despite their four defeats over-all, the Keydets have the league leader in total offense and passing in sophomore quarterback Tom Schultze.

Recalling last season when West Virginia overcame a 21-7 deficit after three periods to win 28-23, Mountaineer Coach Bobby Bowden says William and Mary "had a fine team last year, and they've got a lot of the same personnel back, so I'm anticipating a real good game."

Indian Coach Jim Root says "we can't let them make the big plays. They're an impatient team. They'd rather go for the 70-yard bomb than the five-yard run."

Top ACC Offense, Defense Collide

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It will be the leading offensive football team in the Atlantic Coast Conference, the North Carolina State Wolfpack, against the leading defensive team, the Duke Blue Devils, at N. C. State's Carter Stadium in Raleigh Saturday.

The Wolfpack, which has averaged over 30 points in its first four games, may be without star running back Willie Burden, who has a shoulder injury.

The Duke defense was outstanding in losses by eight points to Washington and four points to Stanford, both nationally ranked.

Duke Coach Mike McGee says the game will be decided by three factors: the punting game, the general kicking game, and fumbles and interceptions.

The Duke defense spent extra time Thursday on special plays which the Wolfpack has used over the last few years. The squad was reported in good shape. Only fullback Mike Borgardner, who has a leg injury, is likely to miss the game.

Duke has limited opponents to an average of 290.3 yards a game. N. C. State has been averaging 423.3 yards.

Before Virginia departed for Saturday night's game Vanderbilt, scout Paul Fram described the Commodores as a solid, fast club which does things well on both offense and defense. And at Nashville, Tenn., Vanderbilt Coach Bill Pace said, "We realize that Virginia whipped us last year in Charlottesville (27-23). And we know they have a better team this year."

Wake Forest has had a week of rest before meeting Maryland. The biggest trouble area for the Deacons has been fumbles. In their first three games they have fumbled 16 times, losing the ball seven times. In addition, they have had two punts blocked, both resulting in easy touchdowns.

North Carolina is the ACC team which has an open date this week.

The Maryland Terps hold a 12-7-1 edge in the Wake Forest series, but the Deacons have won three of the last four. Maryland will have the home-field advantage. It will be the third conference game for Maryland, which has tied N. C. State and lost to Maryland, and the first conference start for Wake Forest.

Clemson will play its fourth straight nonconference game, at Georgia Tech, and the Tigers will have to win to have a chance at better than an even break against outsiders. But they are not favored to win against a Yellow Jacket team described by Clemson assistant coach Gordon Norwood as improving with each game.

Clemson was beaten 52-3 by Oklahoma last week, while Georgia Tech played a 36-36 tie with Rice.

Vida Blue May Find Himself In Bullpen For American Playoffs

By ERIC PREWITT

Associated Press Sports Writer OAKLAND (AP) — Vida Blue owes the Detroit Tigers a thank you.

By reaching the American League playoffs, which open here Saturday, they saved him from a certain one-week demotion to the Oakland A's bullpen. As it stands, Blue is only a tentative starter for the A's in the best-of-five series.

"I'd like to start," says Blue. "But, you know, it's been that type of year. When you're hot, you're hot. When you're not, you're not." The 23-year-old left-hander was the hottest pitcher in baseball last year, finishing 24-8 in his first full big league season. This season, he pitched hot and cold after a late start caused by his contract holdout against A's Owner Charles O. Finley.

Blue's 6-10 record this year was the worst among A's starters. So was his 2.80 earned run average.

Manager Dick Williams plans to start Blue in the fourth game of the playoff, if necessary, in Detroit. But if the A's trail two games to one at that point, first-game starter Jim "Catfish" Hunter 21-7 may be used instead.

Williams had planned to use only three starters—leaving Blue in the bullpen—if the Boston Red Sox had beaten Detroit in the East.

Boston's Fenway Park, with its close left field fence, is a horror chamber for left-handed pitchers, as Williams knows from managing the Red Sox three seasons.

Mickey Lolich, 22-14, edged by Blue in the American League's Cy Young Award voting last year, will be the Tigers' starter in Saturday's 4 p.m. EDT playoff opener.

The Tigers arrived here Thursday afternoon. Both teams had the day off from practice and had workouts scheduled today.

"We've got all the material we need to win," said Tigers Manager Billy Martin, who has had scout Charlie Metro following the A's for several weeks. The Tigers may have All-Star catcher Bill Freehan available for the playoffs. He broke a thumb Sept. 23 but has been returned to the roster for the postseason games.

The A's bullpen was hurt by the loss of southpaw reliever Darold Knowles also with a broken thumb, in the final week of the season, says Williams. Knowles was 5-1, with a 1.18 ERA.

The Detroit lineup Saturday will include many veterans of the 1968 world championship team. Lolich won three games in the World Series that year, and right fielder Al Kaline, the 37-year-old hitting star of the Tigers' late-season title drive, batted .379 in the Series.

Oakland is getting another playoff chance, after being swept by the Baltimore Orioles in three straight games last year.

HURLING IS THIN

BOSTON (AP) — Baseball experts figured the August Drive of the Boston Red Sox would become stalled because of their pitching. Boston's hurling ranked last in the American League through late August, but the Sox pitchers had eight shutouts to their credit.

Anderson Can't Stand Inactivity

By BILL WINTER

Associated Press Sports Writer CINCINNATI (AP) — Sparky Anderson is a man in constant motion, seeking problems to attack and soothing his ulcer with the satisfaction he draws from managing the Cincinnati Reds.

"I never stop all the time," Anderson told a visitor to his Riverfront Stadium office as the Reds prepared for Saturday's opening of the National League baseball playoffs in Pittsburgh.

"If I don't have a problem," Anderson said, "I'll invent one. I couldn't live, I think, if there weren't any problems."

Sparky Anderson does not strike the casual visitor as a problem-seeking world-beater. Rather, his easy manner and frank talk lend an air of "countryboyism," of a man at peace with himself and his surroundings.

Johnny Bench, the Reds' all-star catcher, says the impression is deceptive. "Sparky is the smartest manager in baseball," Bench says. "Managing-wise, he's second to none ... the moves ... the small things he does are from years of experience. Anderson is 39 but looks older, and is smallest at 5-foot-10, 170 pounds.

His brownish hair is clipped short, a manifestation of conservative attitudes—attitudes some players find hard to accept.

"I've got many guys on this club now who hate me," Anderson says. "But my guys out there know what I'm doing. I am doing, not anybody else."

Anderson's dislike for the long hair and mustaches sported by some athletes showed through in blunt conversation.

"In baseball today," he says, waving his hand to add emphasis, "anything goes. The easiest thing for any manager to do today is to join them—the players—to let anything go."

"Just look at some of these clubs," he spatters. "The players, like kids today, still crave discipline, but with honesty and fairness."

Anderson's beckoning for the old virtues draws a sympathetic note from Bench, the maturing young catcher who is the team's field leader.

Erving Unsure Of His Plans

NEW YORK (AP) — Julius Erving doesn't know what he will do about playing pro basketball.

"I haven't made a decision as to what I'll do," commented the former University of Massachusetts star after he learned the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday had upheld a district court ruling that he could play only for the Virginia Squires of the American Basketball Association, pending a hearing next week.

The hearing was set for Friday, Oct. 13, one week from today.

Erving, who left college a year ago after his junior year, was a star rookie with the Squires last season. He jumped to the Atlanta Hawks of the National Basketball Association after the season about the same time that he was picked in the NBA draft by the Milwaukee Bucks.

"I don't really have any comment," said Bill Putnam, president of the Hawks, when told of the Court of Appeals ruling. "It's just another one of those battles."

The NBA Board of Governors ruled Erving belonged to Milwaukee and the Hawks were directed not to play him in any exhibition games.

Erving did play in several exhibitions for which NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy fined the Atlanta club a total of $50,000. The Hawks have refused to pay and instead filed a $2 million antitrust suit against the NBA.

City Council
original ordinance.
A proposed amendment to Ordinance No. 373, covering the policy for purchase, maintenance and repainting of large garbage containers was tabled for further discussion.
Three new vehicles for the city, two outright purchases and one a lease-purchase agreement, were approved.
Those on bid basis were a 1973 two-ton cab and chassis for the Public Works Department. Low bidder for this item was Hastings Ford at $3,360.13. For a 1973 one-half ton pick-up truck for the Recreation Department, low bidder was Phelps Chevrolet at $2,700 for an eight cylinder vehicle. A stipulation was made that Councilman Percy Cox look into the possibility of dealing with the successful bidder in an effort to get at a lower price a six-cylinder pick-up which would be expected to be lower than the accepted bid for the eight-cylinder truck.
On the lease-purchase agreement with Truck Equipment Corporation for a 1972 truck equipped with an 18-cubic yard refuse body, at an agreement price of $7,120 on a lease-purchase plan. Councilwoman Mrs. Mildred McGrath cast a negative vote.
She noted it bothered her that procurement was being made by agreement rather than by bid. Mayor West explained that this was a legitimate route as the item was being procured at the cheaper price this way, and that the city had been getting this particular type of equipment in this manner for ten years. Cox noted it was either a matter of "sticking to this or getting completely new equipment" through a bid system which could make it a more expensive proposition for the city.

Obituaries
Crandall ROBERSONVILLE — Mrs. Bettie Crandall died at her home on Rt. 2, Robersonville Wednesday after a brief illness.
Funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 2 p.m. at Union Grove F.W.B. Church by the Rev. A. C. Roundtree. Burial will be in the Crandall Cemetery.
Mrs. Crandall, daughter of the late Redmond and Temp Leggett, was born in Beaufort County but spent most of her life in the Robersonville community. She was a member of Union Grove F.W.B. Church and served on the mothers board, and was secretary.
Surviving her are four daughters, Mrs. Lucy C. Joyner of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Estella C. Jackson of Robersonville, Mrs. Helen C. Williams of East Orange, N. J., and Mrs. Margie C. Daniles of Williamston. Four sons, Joe Frank, George Thomas, and Rev. Elijah Crandall of Robersonville and Booker T. Crandall of Brooklyn, N. Y.; three sisters, Mrs. Augusta Crandall of Grimesland, Mrs. Eva Godley of Stokes, and Mrs. Beulah Davis of Washington; a brother Mr. Lewis Leggett of Robersonville; 34 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.
The body will be at Flanagan & Parker Funeral Home until it is taken to the church one hour prior to the service. Family visitation will be Saturday from 8 to 9 p.m.

Nicholson
Funeral services for Mr. Jack Cornelius Nicholson will be conducted Saturday, 2 p.m. at Joe's Branch Church with the Rev. Randolph and the Rev. J. Swinson officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.
Born in Pitt County, he was the son of Dennis Nicholson Sr. and the late Mrs. Lottie M. Nicholson. He spent his early life in this area, later moving to New Jersey where he made his home.
Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mamie Doris Nicholson of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Annie N. Turnage of Bell Arthur and Miss Jacqueline Nicholson of the home; three sons, Dalton Nicholson, a student at East Carolina University, and Alson and Ronald Nicholson of the home; his father, Dennis Nicholson Sr. of Newark, N. J.; one brother, Dennis Nicholson Jr. of the U.S. Navy in Norfolk, Va.; and one grandchild.
Visitation will be at Phillips Brothers Mortuary tonight from 8-9 p.m.

The twins, now 36 years old, both live in Washington State and have given her five grandchildren between them. "I hear I'm to be a grandmother again soon," she said, "and I couldn't be happier. I just hate I can't see the boys and their families as often as I'd like to."
"I think I may retire this year," she said. "I'm retirement age and my health is not good. If I do, I'll stay in Florida. I want to make my yard into a lovely flower garden and I'll continue my sewing, which is beautiful work if I do say so myself."

She came back to the controversy over whether freak shows are a good thing. "Yes, they're good," she said. "You will never change human nature and cause people not to want to gawk at any oddity, and these shows give 'freaks of nature' a chance to make an honest living and sometimes a very good one. I'll give you an example. I have a friend named William Durks who has three eyes and two noses. He and his wife worked in sideshows for years, she as the 'Alligator Skin Girl'. Now what office or factory would have hired William? What would he have spent his life doing if he hadn't been a midway attraction?"
"God makes freaks. We want very much to be accepted for ourselves. I am accepted once a person gets to know me and can see my personality and character rather than the hair on my face. Home in Immokalee, Fla. and among the fair people, I have some very good friends and am often called to babysit. But then I'm not different from anyone else. Everyone wants to be accepted for himself only. I'm a Christian and I try to make my midway show a thing of decency that can actually give anyone who comes an insight about God's love for each of us regardless of our outward appearance."

You've got a lot to live

Pepsi's got a lot to give

What we mean is this: living isn't always easy, but it never has to be dull. There's too much to see, to do, to enjoy. Put yourself behind a Pepsi-Cola and get started. You've got a lot to live.
