Farm Exports Rising

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farm exports will rise to a record $10 billion this fiscal year, up 25 per cent from the previous high set in 1971-72. Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz predicted Thursday.

A main reason, Butz said, is a $1.2 billion deal with the Soviet Union for wheat, feed grain and soybeans. That will help push farm exports up from $8.1 billion last year.

Further, Butz said, the Soviet Union — which bought about one-fourth of this year's wheat crop — is expected to keep buying foreign grain at least through 1975.

"We expect the USSR to remain a major importer of grain for possibly the next 3-5 years," Butz said. But other customers also are important for American farmers.

Japan, historically the biggest buyer, will continue as leader with an estimated $1.5 billion in purchases during the year ending next June 30 Butz said.

The projection of $10 billion — a goal set by President Nixon early in his administration — also will mean a substantial contribution to the U.S. trade balance.

Butz said the farm sales will mean a $3.5 billion surplus in U.S. farm exchange with foreign countries.

Cease-Fire When Agreement Right, Declares Nixon

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon says the United States will sign a Vietnam settlement "when the agreement is right—not one day before."

The President, who jets to Illinois, Oklahoma, and Rhode Island today to start a six-state campaign spurt, told a nationwide television audience that ambiguities in a draft peace accord with the North Vietnamese "must be clarified."

"We are not going to allow an election deadline or any other kind of deadline to force us into an agreement which would be only a temporary truce and not a lasting peace," he said.

Today's trip halfway across the continent and back is intended to bolster Republican chances of capturing closely contested Senate seats now held by Democrats.

"We have reached substantial agreement on most of the terms of a settlement," Nixon said as he reported that the settlement "we are ready to conclude" would accomplish his basic objectives—including return of all war prisoners and "a cease-fire throughout Indochina."

The nine-point accord disclosed by Hanoi a week ago—and not disputed by the United States—makes no reference to an Indochina-wide ceasefire. Rather, it says a cease-fire in South Vietnam would begin 24 hours after the agreement is signed.

'Skeptical' As To Peace

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Sen. George McGovern says President Nixon's nationally televised address Thursday night made him "highly skeptical about whether the Nixon administration will ever bring peace."

The Democratic nominee hurriedly booked 30 minutes of his own television time tonight in Chicago to give a fuller response to the President. The broadcast is scheduled for 10:30 p.m. EST on CBS-TV.

But Nixon has refused to meet him face to face, said McGovern, "because he remembers what John Kennedy did to him in 1960."

McGovern's Michigan telethon Thursday night culminated a day which began with a similar broadcast in Illinois and included a roaring reception by more than 8,000 students who packed into the University of Cincinnati fieldhouse in Ohio.

In the meantime, McGovern told viewers over a statewide hookup in Michigan that Nixon's claim that certain details need working out apparently means that the Vietnam negotiations "are not going well at all."

At the same time, McGovern took issue with the President's assertion that the Democratic nominee's domestic proposals would require "a 50-per-cent increase in federal taxes."

That, said McGovern, "is totally false. Mr. Nixon would not have dared to make that statement if I had been in the studio with him."

McGovern's plans today began with visits with labor and church leaders in Grand Rapids, followed by rallies at Michigan State University and with black leaders in Gary, Ind., and then a return to Chicago for the second time in three days.

The senator continued to be troubled by worn vocal chords, despite his trying an array of would-be remedies ranging from honeyed tea to a nip of Kentucky bourbon.

"But I'm going to keep talking, even if it's just a whisper, every hour until the election," he said.

Total Employment Continues To Rise

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's total employment continued to rise last month while the jobless rate remained unchanged at 5.5 per cent of the work force, the Labor Department reported today.

The number of Americans at work rose nearly 700,000 to 82.7 million, the report said. Since employment normally rises in October, the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics figured it as a rise of 260,000 on a seasonally adjusted basis.

at $3.73 an hour and $139.13 a week.

It said the average weekly paycheck was up $9.63 or 7.4 per cent over the past year, more than double the 3.3 per cent inflation in living costs over the same period.

Unemployment among men rose slightly from 3.8 to 3.9 per cent for a total of 1.6 million; the rate for women edged up from 5.4 to 5.5 per cent with a total of 1.7 million. The jobless rate for teenagers declined from 16.5 to 15.3 per cent with a total of 1.1 million.

Unemployment among white workers remained unchanged at 5 per cent, while the rate for non-whites—mostly Negroes—increased from 10.2 to 10.1 per cent, the bureau said.

The bureau said the rise in employment continued a steady climb that began in 1971 and was 2.7 million higher than a year ago.

Topped Blood Quota

East Carolina University students on Wednesday and Thursday once more proved in tangible terms their concern for others.

By giving 380 units of blood in the two day American Red Cross Pitt County Bloodmobile drive, they went over the top, surpassing by 60 units the 320 unit quota for the drive.

Had it not been for the large number of rejects, a total of 75 (due mostly to donors being unacceptable because of having colds), the over-the-goal tally would have been much greater.

"Those kids did a beautiful job in turning out," Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Executive Director of the Pitt County Chapter of the American Red Cross commented.

"And I want to say how much we appreciate the truly fine job accomplished by those promoting and taking the drive on as a project," Mrs. Taylor added. She said that Greg Garland and Al Day, both of the AFROTC, were co-chairmen of the drive.

Others she cited for providing valuable assistance were members of Angel Flight; Phi Sigma Pi, a national honor fraternity whose efforts were headed by Tom House, student nurses from the university; and members of the Greenville Service League.

Channelization Views

RALEIGH (AP) — The North Carolina Wildlife Federation has called on candidates for governor to state their positions on the continuation of stream channelization and drainage programs in the state.

The federation is vigorously opposed to such projects and is a party to a lawsuit in which several environmental groups are seeking to block channelization of 66 miles of Chicod Creek in Pitt and Beaufort counties by the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

Turner Battle, executive director of the federation, said today in a statement the Chicod Creek project along with other similar projects planned or completed "will destroy many vital recreation resource areas for the citizens of our state."

"In the Chicod Creek project, habitat for duck, otter, deer, mink and muskrat and numerous species of fish will be lost," he said.

Extend PTI Project

RALEIGH — The State Board of Education has approved an additional allocation and an extension of time for an occupational research project at Pitt Technical Institute.

The approval of an additional $7,300 and a 15-month extension came at a board meeting Thursday.

The project is called "Summer Institute for High School Students: A Research Project in Pre-Vocational Education."

In June, 1971, the board had allocated $14,150 for the project which will now end in September, 1974.

Also approved at the board meeting Tuesday were new curriculums for four technical institutes and one community college.

The new course approval for Pitt Technical Institute was General Office Technology.

Burley Leaf Sales

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The Burley Sales Committee has announced that auction sales for the 1972 Burley tobacco crop throughout the eight-state tobacco belt will begin Nov. 20.

The committee also estimated that 80 per cent of this year's estimated 567 million-pound crop will be sold before the Christmas holiday recess starting Dec. 14 and ending Jan. 4, 1973.

In another development Thursday, the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association announced support prices for the 1972 crop averaging $74.90 per hundred pounds — an increase of $3.40 over last year. Overall grade prices reflect increases ranging from $2 to $7 per hundredweight.

The Sales Committee said sales will be held the first four days of each week, except the first week when sales will be held Friday to make up for a one-day Thanksgiving holiday. Another Friday sale will be Jan. 5.

Warehouses will conduct sales for a maximum of 3 1/2 hours a day.

The opening date is two days earlier this year than last and is the earliest in recent years. Last year 81.5 per cent of the 472 million crop was sold before the holiday recess.

The committee, representing growers, buyers and warehousemen, set the date unanimously after defeating a resolution that pre-Christmas sales run from Nov. 20 to Dec. 20 with warehouses operating for only three hours a day.

Extend Bonus

WASHINGTON (AP) — Young men now have until June to enlist in the combat branches of the Army or Marine Corps and get a $1,500 enlistment bonus.

The Pentagon announced Thursday that the enlistment bonus, which was to have ended Oct. 31, is being extended to June 30.

With volunteers for the combat branches lagging, the Pentagon in June offered the $1,500 bonus as an added incentive to raise enlistments as part of the over-all effort to shift to an all-volunteer army by July 1.

To receive the bonus, a man must volunteer for four years instead of the normal three years.

The Pentagon said that between June and September about 10,000 men signed up for the program in the Army and another 3,200 in the Marines.

Held By Indians

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 300 Indian demonstrators continued to control the Bureau of Indian Affairs building today but there were indications they would leave later in the day.

The White House apparently overruled plans Thursday night to evict the protestors forcibly and negotiated an agreement whereby they would leave voluntarily today for the Interior Department auditorium.

Glenda Tyler, a Ute Indian from Salt Lake City, said "I believe we are planning to go over to the auditorium" after the protestors held a meeting.

Ms. Tyler, who prefers the title, is a member of the American Indian Movement which spearheaded the building takeover at dusk Thursday.

"We felt it was necessary to take over the building ... This was the only way to make people to listen to us ...," she said.

Cancer Society's Award Presented Moose Lodge

THANKS AND CONGRATULATIONS ... were extended to the Greenville Moose Lodge No. 885 on behalf of the American Cancer Society by Dr. Pickney Young (left), outgoing Pitt Chapter president. Moose Lodge Secretary-Manager Ed Baldree (right) accepted the silver bowl, token of the award for significant contribution to this year's Cancer Drive.

The Pitt County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, holding its annual meeting last night, gave its highest award to Greenville Moose Lodge No. 885 for the organization's outstanding effort in this year's campaign for funds.

"The Moose Lodge accepted this year's drive as its own project and did a marvelous job of recruiting volunteers and soliciting contributions," Dr. John Winstead said during the presentation of the award.

Other recognition went to Bill Cozart, who served the Society as treasurer for several years before being transferred to Raleigh this year, to Mrs. Ellen Bradford, Mrs. Ed Baldree, Mrs. Bonnie Singleton, Mrs. Betty Deal, Gaylord Beddard, W. Craig Gardner, John Bizzell, J. W. Graved, Delta Theta Chi Sorority, and Sigma Tau Sigma Fraternity for each of their significant contributions to the campaign.

New treasurer Bugg Chalk reported that $12,145 was raised in the year's campaign, 87 per cent of the $14,000 goal set by the Pitt County Chapter. Two gifts were made to East Carolina University, he said, a $500 grant to the ECU School of Medicine for cancer research and $200 to the ECU School of Nursing for audio-visuals concerned with cancer. The chapter has an operating balance of $649.08, he said.

Mrs. Mary Higgenbotham of Kinston, area director of the Cancer Society, was recognized as a special guest. The Rev. Charles Smith, associate pastor of Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church spoke. He said curing and caring are closely connected and that only when those who do care greatly about the conquering of cancer convince the masses that it should be given priority, will it be conquered. "No one thought when John Kennedy said we could be on the moon in nine years that we'd do it, he said, but we did. Shortly before the Salk breakthrough, no one would have believed polio would be so nearly eradicated as it has been. Ending death by cancer is possible, but we've got to put our treasure where our hearts are and our hearts have got to truly be in it in order to succeed," he said.

Dr. Young recognized Mrs. Phyllis Martin as the incoming president of the chapter and she in turn gave Dr. Young a plaque in recognition of "his outstanding service in the fight against cancer." Other new officers are Jack C. Wynn III, first vice president; Dr. John Winstead Jr., second vice president; Mrs. Cherry Easley, secretary; William B. Chalk, treasurer; Dr. Steven Bartlett, medical and scientific chairman; Christopher B. Hargett and John Biggs, service chairman and committee; Mrs. Carol Tyler, publicity chairman; Dr. Paul N. Erickman, educational chairman; and Mrs. Mavis Lupton, memorial chairman.

Bigger Sales On Farmville Mart

FARMVILLE — The Farmville tobacco market sold approximately 320,000 pounds more tobacco this season than last season and sales were approximately $2 million higher than last year.

According to Louis Williams, sales supervisor for the Farmville market, the market operated for 48 selling days as compared with 39 days last year. The 1972 season began on August 8 and ended Nov. 2.

This year the market sold 20,832,515 pounds of tobacco as compared with 20,512,122 last

Skipper Bowles Here Saturday

Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate Skipper Bowles will meet the public Saturday morning on the steps of the Pitt County Courthouse at 10 a.m.

The meeting will precede a news conference to be held at the courthouse.

Bowles and his wife will go to a luncheon at the Greenville Country Club at noon and then attend the East Carolina University Homecoming game against Chattanooga at 1:30 p.m.

The Greenville stop is the candidate's last before his final day of campaigning Monday in Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, and Raleigh.

Poppy Day

Saturday has been designated as Buddy Poppy Day by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

According to local VFW officials, the sale of Buddy Poppies, an annual effort undertaken by the VFW, will be conducted throughout the city during the day.

In urging "the citizens of this community to recognize the merits of this cause by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of Buddy Poppies," Mayor Eugene West noted that proceeds of the campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans.

West said that the annual sale offers area citizens "an opportunity ... to express their solicitude for those unfortunate persons who have paid more than their share of the cost of freedom."

"I urge all patriotic citizens to wear a Buddy Poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men of this country who have risked their lives in fulfilling their obligations as American citizens," he added.

Woman Should Consider Leaving Parents' Home

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I am a 28-year-old woman with a problem. I have a six-year-old son and have been divorced for four years. I have lived with my parents since my divorce and pay room and board.

Three months ago I started dating a very nice 33-year-old man who has never been married. I've known him for three years.

This man has his own apartment, and altho he comes here to pick me up when we go on a date, he also has me and my son over to dinner at his place. I have also gone there for dinner alone during the week.

Abby, I have never gone to bed with him, or any other man but my ex-husband and I know right from wrong. If I wanted to I could go to a motel as well as to his apartment.

My parents think it is a disgrace that I am seen coming and going from his apartment. I never stay later than 11 p. m. and never go there before 8 p. m.

He is a wonderful man who likes to cook for himself and me, and I think it could develop into something serious.

How can I make my parents understand I am doing nothing wrong? They are on me all the time about it.

HAD IT AT HOME

DEAR HAD IT: If you are telling it like it is [and I think you are], perhaps you should consider moving from your parents' home. With your present setup, your chances for remarriage are greatly reduced.

DEAR ABBY: Twelve years ago my lover and I came to the United States from Italy. We married one year later, and now have three children, all born in this country.

Without meaning to boast, I should tell you I am considered a very beautiful woman. My husband is a typical Italian—jealous and suspicious. He is also a fool as I want only him.

My husband became an American citizen four years ago, but he never applied for citizenship for me. Now each time we have a fight he jumps on me like a tiger and says I should not give him any trouble or he will send me back to Italy. I am sick of hearing that.

Can he actually send me back? If I divorce this tiger, will I have to return to Italy? Please answer in your column only as my husband always gets the mail before me.

TIGER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: This information may well defang and declaw your tiger. As an alien who has lived in the U. S. for five years, you may apply for citizenship yourself.

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago my brother in law started making indecent advances to two of my married sisters. He'd come around when he knew their husbands were at work.

Things got so bad they couldn't handle him, so they finally told their husbands, who put the fear of the Lord in George. Now that problem is taken care of, but here's another. George's wife cannot understand why she and George are now excluded from family get-togethers, and she is beginning to ask questions. What should be done?

ONE OF THE FAMILY

DEAR ONE—George's wife should be told that the excluded brother in law had a "little falling out" with those families. And if she insists upon further details, tell her to ask George. In other words, "Let George do it."

Problems? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 69700, L. A., CALIF. 90069 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Household Hints

Pendants are plentiful and "in" for fall and winter. They come in both long and short lengths.

If you want something that swings in the way of jewelry, try super-length tassels, matinees and adjustable slide necklaces. Or for double-duty, try a lariat that can be worn as necklace or belt.

Bracelets, say designers at Monet, have more fashion stature than ever. The more sleeve, the more bracelets seems to be one rule.

Bracelets for fall include those with new bold links, those with domed effects, those in sculptured shapes, those with glistening chains, and those with stunning hinges.

Pins are back to be worn all over the place—on the shoulder, peeping beneath a lapel, glaming on a pocket, teamed with a rope necklace. They add the touch of individuality.

Hair Styles For Comedians

Women To Be Honored

SENECA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — This Finger Lakes village, site of the first Women's Rights Convention in 1848, will soon be home to a national women's hall of fame.

A National Honors Committee of 25 women and men has been mulling over a list of 30 prominent American women of the past and present who have been nominated for enshrinement.

Mrs. George M. Bantuvanis, president of the Hall of Fame corporation, said plans are to keep the identities of the honored women a secret until the Hall of Fame is opened officially.

Initially, the hall will be housed in a campus building at Eisenhower College, a liberal arts school in Seneca Falls.

The corporation hopes eventually to construct its own building on land the college already has agreed to donate. Mrs. Bantuvanis said, and aid from foundations and individuals is being sought.

Seneca Falls gained prominence 124 years ago when pioneer suffragettes Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott convened the Women's Rights Convention here. Mrs. Stanton and Amelia Bloomer, another early activist, resided in the village.

Bowles Remains Unencumbered

Hargrove (Skipper) Bowles is nearing the end of the long campaign for governor of North Carolina.

So far as we know he has not made any promises during the entire time he has been campaigning for any specific projects to be financed out of state funds.

Instead he has consistently said he would not increase taxes if he is elected governor and he has discussed the general policies he would adhere to if elected.

Skipper Bowles strikes us as a man who means it when he says that he will be fair with all regions of North Carolina as governor of the state. We believe he has come through the primary campaigning and the general election campaign as unencumbered as a man can be in seeking the top office of the state.

We feel that we here in the East will benefit from Bowles' pledge to be fair. We think he will study the particular needs of the East and do what should be done here, as he will also do in the Piedmont and the West.

That, we feel, is what North Carolina really needs — a governor who will have the sincere interest at heart of all people of the state and all regions. Skipper Bowles is a man who will do this, and we feel he deserves the support of the voters on election day.

Judges Oppose 2 Amendments

By BRYAN HAISLIP
RALEIGH — Two constitutional amendments on the Nov. 7 ballot have stirred North Carolina Judges to a

BRYAN HAISLIP

Those opposing the proposals interpret them as an attack upon the independence of the judiciary and the separation of powers doctrine, fundamental concepts to democratic government. They argue that approval of the changes would cost the state the services of able occupants of the bench, and create the potential for judicial harassment and intimidation.

How well they have made the case with the electorate — the citizens who will troop to the polls next Tuesday — will determine the outcome.

In competition with campaigns for office, the issues raised by the constitutional amendments have received less public attention and debate.

Chief Justice William H. Bobbitt of the State Supreme Court; Senator J. Ervin Jr., former judge and justice; and Superior Court Judge Frank Armstrong of Troy, senior trial division jurist, are three leading spokesmen for the defeat of the amendments.

Two of Five on Ballot

The judicial article amendments are numbered two and three in the list of five to be decided in the general election. What they would do, if ratified by voters, is: 1, fix a mandatory retirement age for judges; and 2, establish procedure, through a commission, for the censure and removal of judges.

Judge Armstrong who has presided in superior court since 1939, described the amendments and enabling legislation already enacted as "the most undemocratic and dangerous proposal ever submitted to the people of North Carolina."

The election results will determine in large measure, he asserted, "whether or not the rule of law is to be strengthened or weakened — whether or not we are to continue in our state to live under a government of laws, and not of men — and most importantly, whether or not we are going to abandon the constitutional principle of separation of powers existing in this nation and state for nearly 200 years, providing us with an independent judiciary for the protection of our personal liberties and property rights."

Courts Commission Origin The amendments originated with the North Carolina Courts Commission, growing out of its continuing study of the state's system for the administration of justice.

By required three-fifths majorities, the 1971 General Assembly endorsed the proposals for a place on the ballot. The state bar association has supported the amendments, which are similar to provisions currently in force in many other states.

The mandatory retirement age to be fixed under the appropriate amendment would be 72 for the appeals court, and 70 for the trial court.

Senator Ervin, a superior court judge and supreme court justice before he moved to the legislative branch, said judicial capacity increases with experience.

"To rob the bench of its best qualified men on an arbitrary basis and thus have the people deprived of the services of some of its most competent judges merely because occasionally a judge holds on to his office after he comes physically and mentally disabled is about as wise as using an atom bomb to get rid of a few mice," Ervin declared.

Taxpayers Cost Cited

Judge Armstrong urged a look at the matter from another angle, the extra cost to taxpayers. To retire a judge able to perform his duties, paying retirement benefits while filling the place with another would result, he said, in "doubling the cost of each judicial office and the cost could be tripled if a justice or judge lives to a ripe old age."

At present, authority to remove judges for physical or mental incapacity or misconduct in office is vested in the General Assembly. Proponents of the commission approach, provided under the proposed amendment, content that impeachment is cumbersome and politically involved.

It would be dangerous, Judge Armstrong countered, to put removal powers in the hands of "some commission of lawyers and political henchmen, lest they be under the temptation of political or other reasons of creating vacancies in order to fill them."

The courts are the keystone for good government, and an independent judiciary is essential for the safeguarding of individual rights, Judge Armstrong insisted.

"When judges are not free, no man can be said to have right, for the forms of justice, the administration of the courts, and all the other incidents of trial can be twisted or made to serve the tyranny or the ends of the numerous, the wealthy, the powerful, or the demagogues and schemers who are enabled to govern in their names," he said.

Yes, Virginia—There Is A Monster In Loch

The Loch Ness Monster story has been around for years and has often been regarded as a fable.

Gradually, however, scientific evidence is being developed which tends to prove that the monster does, indeed, exist.

There have been photos from highly reliable sources, and only this week scientists have said sonar and other data tend to substantiate the creature.

Yes, Virginia, there really is a Loch Ness monster... there really is.

Must Pick Up The Undecided

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK
LOS ANGELES — To have any chance to carry vital California, Sen. George McGovern must pick up all the undecided Democrats—the improbability of any such breakthrough underlining the desperate condition of his campaign, here and nationally.

This conclusion is drawn from answers to a questionnaire prepared by pollster Oliver Quayle for voters in the polyglot, middle-class San Fernando Valley. Although the Watergate affair is beginning to hurt President Nixon and he suffers on economic questions, not nearly enough defecting Democrats are returning to McGovern.

The three San Fernando Valley precincts selected for us by elections analyst Richard Scammon have proved barometers of the whole state (narrowly carried by Mr. Nixon in 1968), and the 118 voters we interviewed (with Beryl Winn, Quayle's expert supervisor here) were 3-to-2 Democratic in registration. The results suggest a landslide: Nixon, 69 votes; McGovern 31; other candidates, 2; undecided, 16.

To tighten the race, McGovern must capture the undecided—11 of them registered Democrats. Indeed, McGovern's California managers believe he must win at least 70 per cent of Democrats in "switcher" precincts such as these, but he had only 45 per cent of the Democrats we interviewed.

We did find some Democratic movement back to McGovern. The elderly wife of a tobacco shop owner decided to vote for him last week "because of the Watergate mess" and "Nixon trying to settle the war at the last minute" despite her feeling that "some of McGovern's ideas are nuts—like helping the poor."

The 35-year-old wife of a hospital technician, who voted for Hubert Humphrey in 1968, had been for Mr. Nixon "because McGovern gives me the impression of a radical." But McGovern canvassers, only hours before we questioned her, had planted disturbing charges about corruption and skulduggery. "I really don't like Nixon when you come right down to it," she said.

She is now one of the 11 registered Democrats interviewed who are both genuinely undecided and desperately needed by McGovern. But a 25-year-old television repairman, charging that the President "favors the rich and big oil companies" and that McGovern "can't seem to make up his mind," has reached a decision: he won't vote for President. Others, expressing identical views, may also end up abstaining.

This prospect underscores the folly of McGovern's campaign stress on Vietnam and moral issues. With the announced Vietnam settlement, Democrats here feel the economy is the principal issue. "People are getting fed up with Nixon's inflation," said a 56-year-old restaurant waiter who approves of Mr. Nixon's Vietnam policy. Instead of being pro-McGovern, he, too, is undecided.

But 24 registered Democrats interviewed have definitely decided for Mr. Nixon. Apart from habitual

Strength For Today

INSIDE AND OUT

Have you ever walked into a beautiful house, admired the decorations and furnishings, looked at the beautiful pictures on the walls and beneath these pictures the gorgeous wall paper, and then asked yourself what was behind all that? Well, there is a pretty sad-looking mess after you get through the plaster. There is insulation and rough wood uprights and sheathing. On one side of a wall beauty as great as the art of man can devise. On the other side a material which has to do only with structure and protection from the elements.

All this can be likened to the structure of every human life. On the outside we are smooth, cultivated and just as appealing as diligence and care can make us and keep us. But the inside of our lives—that is another matter. If you stripped off the wall paper and plaster of any house and looked at the material behind you would discover nothing of beauty. When the outside of some lives is drawn aside there may be very little on the inside to call forth our admiration.

The inside of life and the outside! The hard basic facts of what we really are and the smooth appearance of things which we present to other people! God searches our hearts, and we may well be thankful that much of our lives is left only to His merciful scrutiny. One of the most appalling assurance of Scripture is that the time will come when "nothing will be hid."

Communists For Nixon

WASHINGTON — If Richard Nixon wins the election next week, most of the credit will go to Lu Doc Toy who heads the "Communists for Nixon Committee" in Hanoi.

Lu Doc Toy who, until the election, always voted straight Communist Party ticket, decided to support Nixon, this year because, he said, "I'm sick and tired of having my kids bused along the Ho Chi Minh Trail."

Having made the decision, Lu Doc Toy contacted the Committee for the Re-Election of the President in Washington which sent one of their top CIA men to Hanoi to help him in the campaign.

Lu Doc Toy told the CIA man, "I need bumper stickers, buttons, posters and a secret fund to get the Communists for Nixon off the ground."

The CIA man said, "We've written off North Vietnam as far as electoral votes go, but you could help us tremendously in getting the President re-elected with a small favor."

"What can I do?" Lu Doc asked.

"Arrange a peace treaty with the United States a week before the elections."

"It's done," Lu Doc Toy said. "My cousin is a member of the Politburo and he owes me a favor."

Lu Doc Toy went to see his cousin Ton Son Not in his 'bomb shelter' the next day. During a 15-minute break in the bombing he said, "Ton Son Not, as you know I am the head of the Communists for Nixon and I have a small favor to ask of you."

"You have dishonored your ancestors, Lu Doc Toy," Ton Son Not said. "How can you support a man whose party would bug the Watergate?"

"It was a prank," Lu Doc Toy said. "Everyone does it during an election year. Besides Nixon knew nothing about it."

"That's what all the Communists for Nixon say. But we know differently. Besides, how could you work for a man who said he would stop the war in 1968?"

"Exactly," Lu Doc Toy said. "That's what I came to speak to you about. Nixon wants to stop the war again, only this time before the election."

"It's a trick," Ton Son Not said. "What does he want in exchange for it?"

"Nothing we wouldn't have given him in 1968. It's the same deal that was offered to him then."

"But why now? I thought the U.S. bombing was working."

"Who knows what goes on with those cockamamie Americans. But I'm giving it to you straight. If you people say okay, Nixon will send what's-his-name to Paris to sign the deal."

"Wait a minute," Ton Son Not said. "If we agree to a peace settlement, that means we'll have four years of Nixon."

"Look, Ton Son Not," Lu Doc Toy said, "we hold the key to the American presidential election in our hands. We have to decide whether we want Nixon for President and a generation of peace, or whether we want the misguided, badly thought out socialist programs of George McGovern."

The bombing started again. "WHAT ABOUT THIEU? WILL HE GO ALONG WITH IT?" Ton Son Not yelled.

"DON'T WORRY ABOUT THIEU," Lu Doc Toy yelled back. "HE'LL DO ANYTHING NIXON ASKS HIM TO!"

Other Editors Say Celebrating Phase 2

(The Wilson Times)

There will be a big celebration on Nov. 14, the anniversary of Phase II of President Nixon's economic stabilization program in Washington at the Mayflower Hotel.

It is planned as a one-time event, but it could become an annual affair. Although the basic decision about the future of the program won't be made until after next week's election, most signs point to continued controls over wages and prices — with refinements — through most of 1973 and possibly thereafter.

Wage and price controls depend upon the public's acceptance. A Gallup poll published in September found that only nine per cent of Americans surveyed want controls ended; 45 per cent thought regulations should be tougher. It is certain that controls have held down prices.

Labor and management, while dissatisfied with the controls for different reasons, are not anxious to end them. Union leaders argue that the controls should not be abolished, but extended to cover all areas of the economy.

Another factor that might prolong the controls is the heavy schedule of labor contracts up for renewal in 1973. Pay Board Chairman George H. Boldt recently estimated that 11 million workers are covered by agreements to be negotiated next year, including 4,500,000 members of the electrical, rail, teamsters, longshoremen, meat-cutters and auto-workers unions.

There is no doubt but abolishing the wage controls at a time we're coming into could blow the lid off our anti-inflation program. The danger of inflation remains the chief argument for continuing controls in the opinion of many economists.

In announcing Phase II last November, President Nixon said his goal was to bring inflation down to a yearly level of 2 to 3 percent by the end of 1972 and to restore reasonable price stability to prevent its recurrence.

Adviser Group To Stay

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. government has drafted secret plans for a military advisory group of American civilians to remain in South Vietnam after all U.S. troops are withdrawn, similar to the situation that now exists in Laos.

U.S. military sources said the advisers would be employed by civilian firms that would be under contract to the U.S. Defense or State Departments. They would be on the order of Air America, the charter airline that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency finances in Laos.

The draft peace agreement negotiated by Henry A. Kissinger and the North Vietnamese in Paris calls for the withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Vietnam within 60 days of a cease-fire, but nothing has been said publicly about U.S. civilian advisers.

The agreement also stipulates that the United States can send military equipment to the Saigon government only as replacements on a one-to-one basis, with the replacement weapons to be of the same or similar characteristics and properties.

In anticipation that an agreement may be signed soon, the Nixon administration is rushing millions of dollars worth of military equipment into South Vietnam to beat any cease-fire cutoff, including 30 of the first four-engine transport planes to be given to the South Vietnamese air force. The C130s began arriving at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Air Base Thursday and the delivery is expected to be completed early next week, even though pilots and mechanics have not been trained for them.

The training of the C130 crews will be handled by civilian firms under contract, working with the U.S. Air Force advisory group for the time being, sources said. If the cease-fire agreement is signed while the training is still under way, the civilian firms will take over the entire program, the sources said.

Informed sources said the Vietnamization program originally did not call for the South Vietnamese to get C130s but this was changed recently so they could move more troops and cargo.

One mechanic at Tan Son Nhut said the South Vietnamese didn't know the C130s were arriving until Thursday. The only

Muggers Wreck London Image

By DONALD FORBES
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) —

Muggers, including gangs of teen-age girls armed with switchblade knives, are undermining London's reputation as a city with safe streets. Police are trying to keep the crime from taking firm root in Britain.

Two years ago an American resident reported to police the mugging of his 12-year-old son in fashionable Kensington Gardens. The embarrassed police told the father, "Oh, this doesn't happen here."

It is happening, with sufficient frequency to prompt John Hill, taking over soon as Britain's top policeman, to promise highest priority for a campaign against street violence.

"We don't want a New York type situation in this country," said Hill, currently a deputy commissioner at Scotland Yard.

Cases in the past few weeks which have aroused public concern include: a 79-year-old church verger battered to death for the equivalent of a quarter; a young woman raped and her date beaten; a teacher in her 20s attacked and robbed by three teen-age girls.

Judges have reacted by imposing sentences on defendants who might ordinarily have expected to escape with a fine or a period of probation. Three youths who beat up a man for $1.20 were given three-year terms.

The danger areas are slum districts during the school lunch hour or just after classes finish for the day, or the subway when the late-night crowds have begun to thin.

Figures show that 80 per cent of London muggings are carried out by nonwhite youths, usually the English-born sons of West Indian immigrants.

Police calculate that several dozen gangs of girl muggers are operating. They specialize in attacks on elderly women.

A Jamaica social worker in Lambeth said this is a pattern: "The boy, even as young as 14, is shown the door by his family and, literally, he is on the streets with nobody to look after him and no money. He drifts, and in no time at all, he sleeps out on the floor of rooms crowded with boys in the same plight. Going mugging becomes their accepted way of life."

Active Month For Boys Club

For November, a full program of daily activities for members of the Greenville-Pitt County Boys' Club of America has been announced.

The program is divided into four major groupings according to ages of the boys involved. At the youngest level is the cadets, boys seven and eight years old. The next stage is preps, for nine and ten year old boys. Juniors include those in the 11 and 13 year age bracket; and the highest level is that of intermediates, including boys of 14 through 16.

Graham Gutting, executive director of the club, has scheduled a wide range of activities for all age groups.

Included are times allocated for ecology groups, arts and crafts, adventure activities, music, rap sessions and aerospace studies.

Sports, as usual, comprise an important part of the activities planned for the Boys Club. Swimming is included, with the two young groups alternating with the two older groups in using the ECU facilities at Memorial Gym.

Each boy is also provided in the schedule with free time he can use for reading, playing games or receiving assistance with homework in his school studies.

Currently, the Boys' Club hours of operation are from 3:00 to 8:00 p.m. Monday through Friday; and 8:00 a.m. til noon on Saturdays. Exceptions to these hours during November is November 10 (a student holiday in schools) when the club will be open from 1:00 to 8:00 p.m., and again on November 24 when the club will also operate for the seven hour schedule. The Boys' Club will be closed on November 23.

Complaints about McGovern's inconsistency, the basic reason is ideological. While all voters interviewed felt 2-to-1 that the President favors big business over the workingman, they opposed—also 2-to-1—McGovern's defense, welfare and taxation policies.

Thus, McGovern's problems boil down to the views of a 60-year-old printer, a lifelong loyal Democrat. The Watergate revelations, he told us, make him think Mr. Nixon is "the kind of fellow who would do anything to win an election," but he will still vote for him because "I just can't go along with that hippie outfit that McGovern's got."

Despite his lack of enthusiasm, this vote cannot be peeled away, nor can more than a very few of our voters, even though our interviews gave the President a so-so job approval rating of 53 per cent. While some saw political opportunism in the Vietnam settlement, most commended his handling of Vietnam and international affairs. Less than one-third agreed with McGovern that Mr. Nixon broke his promise on Vietnam.

In these barometer precincts, then, the tide predicted by McGovern simply does not exist. Rather, his last remaining hopes here hang by the slender thread of winning back Democrats who would support any other Democratic candidate against Mr. Nixon but at this late hour cannot quite bring themselves to vote for George McGovern.

Angela Davis No Nixon Fan

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The re-election of President Nixon will mean four more years of oppression and repression for black people, Angela Davis, the black Communist from California, declared Thursday night.

"I will have to say that Sammy Davis Jr., James Brown and Jim Brown are all traitors," she told an overflow crowd of about 4,000 at Fisk University. "Every black person in support of Nixon is obviously totally committed to the genocide of his people."

Miss Davis, who was fired from her post as a philosophy teacher at the University of California at Los Angeles for her Communist views, spoke during Fisk's homecoming convocation.

"George Wallace didn't need to run for president of the United States," she said. "I think Nixon has not only demonstrated that he is Wallace's bed-fellow but he has outwalled Wallace."

She spoke of recent demonstrations by white parents in New York.

"Richard Nixon should be indicted for what is going on in Brooklyn...with white parents throwing eggs and other things at black school children attempting to get their education," she said.

'Young Adult Librarian' For Sheppard

By JERRY RAYNOR
Reflector Staff Writer

Public services by Sheppard Memorial Library have taken on a new dimension with the announcement by Miss Edith Copeland, Librarian, of the appointment of the library's first Young Adult Librarian.

Mrs. Cynthia Timm, who has been employed at Sheppard

Memorial Library since June, has been named to the new position of Young Adult Librarian.

"Mrs. Timm is also doubling as Assistant Reference Librarian," Miss Copeland commented. "Having a Young Adult Librarian will make it possible for us to get into specialized programs for this age group," Miss Copeland said.

Mrs. Timm, a native of Winter Haven, Florida, is a 1972 graduate of the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where she received a master's degree in Library Science. She completed undergraduate work at Wake Forest University. Her husband, Roger Timm, a native of Fayetteville, is a graduate student in Business Administration at East Carolina University.

"For our young adult program," Mrs. Timm stated, "we will be working in areas throughout the library. Right now I'm in the stages of planning programs. I hope to have some of these going before Christmas."

As a starter, Mrs. Timm observed that "activities in the young adult field will be concentrated on people of senior high school age. We've had one committee meeting and plan to have another soon. I'm looking for interested young people to become an active part of this committee."

One of the first things Mrs. Timm has accomplished is setting up a browsing collection. "The primary purpose of this collection," she said, "is to serve as a guideline for reading in this age group. I tried to select a representative range of reading material of particular interest to readers of senior high school age."

Another interest catcher is a revolving bulletin stand featuring three display surfaces. "This is good for use as a brief information center, where we can feature new books, local personalities in the news or information on new events and activities," Mrs. Timm remarked.

A collection of colorful posters, mounted on durable board is being assembled by Mrs. Timm. "These will be signed out the same as the reproductions of paintings," she pointed out. "I'm striving to get a diverse group that will have appeal to young people. I believe this will be a very popular service."

Mrs. Timm says she will soon announce the meeting place and time for a second committee meeting. "I hope to get a good response from young people,"

she remarked. "Anyone interested in taking part should get in touch with me at the library."

More Endorsements In Final Days Of Campaigning

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More editorial endorsements today, a charge of "ultra-liberal" editors and the President's visit Saturday continue to dominate North Carolina politics.

The Asheville Citizen picked Democrat Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles in the governor's race and Democrat Nick Galifianakis for the U.S. Senate in this morning's edition.

The Raleigh News and Observer added its support to Democratic Presidential candidate George McGovern. Meanwhile, Republican senate nominee Jesse Helms stepped up his attack on "ultra-liberal" newspaper editors Thursday night at a Greensboro rally. Helms told about 140 supporters the unnamed editors "are even refusing to print a Democratic poll that shows us leading by 11 points."

Earlier Thursday, Helms said his opponent was about to "loose his cool" as well as the election. The Raleigh broadcaster was responding to a statement made by Galifianakis at a news conference in Winston-Salem.

Galifianakis said he doubted if President Nixon's visit will enhance the Helms' campaign. "The issue in this campaign is who the people of North Carolina need and not who the President needs."

The Democratic congressman questioned whether Nixon knew Helms, adding Nixon might think twice about endorsing him if he did.

Helms, in a statement released from his Raleigh headquarters, reminded Galifianakis that his office was next to Nixon's when the President was a senator and he was an aide to the late Sen. Willis Smith. The GOP nominee said he wondered why the Democratic Presidential candidate had not come to North Carolina to campaign for his opponent.

In a campaign stop in Greensboro, Galifianakis attacked Helms' again in what he said was his final formal speech before election day. He characterized Helms as a reactionary who is afraid to test the soundness of new ideas.

Presidential politics also spilled over into the governor's race Thursday. Republican Jim Holshouser said in Winston-Salem he was gratified the President was coming to Greensboro. He said Nixon only stops where the last-minute effort can make the difference.

Democrat Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles said the visit won't hurt his campaign. Later, Bowles traveled to Eastern North Carolina, urging Republicans to vote for the man and not the party in the governor's race.

In another development, Holshouser met behind closed doors Thursday with Roy Epps, director of the North Carolina Drug Authority. The candidate emerged from the meeting and told reporters he was disappointed over budget requests by various agencies involved in fighting drugs.

American Party gubernatorial candidate Arlis Pettyjohn said Thursday all statewide candidates "ought to go on open-mike radio and television prgrams." He told students at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte that air time should be offered at no charge to candidates and the public should be allowed to call in questions toll free.

Find Aftercare Most Helpful
NEW YORK (UPI)—Patients are getting out of mental hospitals after weeks rather than years on the ground that aftercare in the community is more beneficial than confinement in the institutions.

The NAMH Reporter, official publication of the National Association for Mental Health, reports that in areas with good aftercare programs there is a dramatic drop in readmission rates.

Mosquitoes Are Tough Insect

CHICAGO (UPI)—Years of fighting them on their home grounds still has not eliminated the mosquito problem, and with good reason: they're born tough.

The habitats of the world's 2,500 species of mosquitoes, according to Encyclopaedia

Britannica, range from small holes in trees to huge swamps. Many species can withstand severely contaminated water, including the hot, highly alkaline volcanic pools of Uganda.

Others can tolerate the digestive enzymes of carnivorous plants and some are bred in saline and brackish pools. One species was found in India breeding in a tank of hydrochloric acid.

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Stress occurs when a person is out of balance with the demands surrounding him.

Georgia Skinner, extension family economics and management specialist at the University

Among her tips for survival: "Develop your own pace of living and don't worry about keeping up with somebody else's standards."

ECU Self-Study To Undergo Scrutiny By SACS

Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, Chancellor of East Carolina University, announced today at the Academic Council of the University that plans are complete for the long anticipated visit by representatives of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

been involved for more than a year in an intensive Self-Study program which was a University-wide project which encouraged the participation and contribution of all faculty members and students in the schools and individual departments on campus. This Self-Study is required every 10 years to reaffirm accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS).

To climax the comprehensive study which the entire university has been undergoing, a 24-member team comprised of distinguished faculty and administrators in an area extending from Texas to Virginia and headed by Chancellor Archie Dykes from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, will visit the ECU campus on November 5 through 8.

The team will evaluate the total operation of the University. This will be done through examination of records, interviews with faculty, students and administrators, and through observations. Of greatest value, however, will be the Self-Study Report prepared by the East Carolina University faculty and students.

The team will file a written report of their findings which will embody recommendations and/or suggestions designed to improve the overall operation and effectiveness of the University.

The purpose of the Institutional Self-Study Program for universities according to the SACS, is "the improving of educational effectiveness in institutions of higher learning." The SACS further states that the procedures of the program were "designed to help institutions reassess their objectives, measure success in attaining objectives, and explore ways and means by which educational efficiency may be improved."

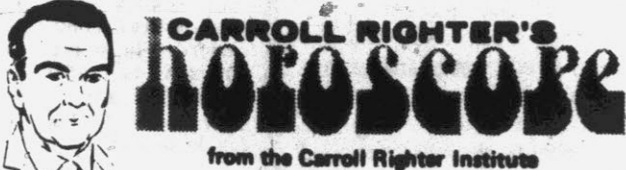

In June the end product of the months of Self-Study was completed in a two-volume report prepared by the Steering Committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. Charles Collop, which developed the report from the data of extensive studies made by the schools and departments on campus. The input for the final report was then compiled by eleven standards committees, and included areas such as organization and administration, educational programs, faculty, library, graduate programs, financial resources and student programs.

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1972

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Until mid-afternoon it seems difficult to get the full cooperation of others since most everyone is thinking of personal achievements that will bring more success. The rest of the afternoon and evening are splendid for taking time to build up a new assurance of your abilities.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Use tact in trying to find out what is expected of you by associates. Then, make sure you do more than your share of the duties. Don't argue over petty things. Be sensible.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Impress associates with your efficiency, then discuss with them ways for increased production in the future. If you work at a measured pace, you get fine results and improve your health.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) The morning is fine for pleasurable hobbies. Later attend to that pile of work that is awaiting you. You are highly talented and can accomplish a great deal now. Be efficient.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A good day to catch up on your work at home, although it's tiresome, but it has to be done. Get the kinks out of that special talent you have and put it in operation.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can get errands done early and take care of odds and ends in the home. Handle important correspondence before stepping out for recreation. Don't keep others waiting on you.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You must not take any risks where money matters are concerned. Evening is fine for visiting with relatives you enjoy. Operate on a sound budget so you are not too extravagant.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Handle personal problems well in the morning. Later you can engage in the practical affairs that are important. Improve your appearance so you make a more favorable impression.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Study whatever is puzzling you and come up with the right answers. The evening is best for the social side of life. Be in the company of congenials you really like.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Take care of those problems that have come up with good friends. They will appreciate your thoughtfulness. Listen carefully to what others are saying. Be logical.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have to take action where your career is concerned, so do that early and then you can be with good friends later. Don't forget to pay important bills and be free of worry.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Take those new ideas you have to an influential person and get the backing you need for them. A careless remark by a newcomer needs studying. You can profit by it. Be wise.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Handle your obligations early and then you can take a little trip to obtain information for a good reason. Forget the past and think more about the future. Avoid arguments.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY he or she will be one of those energetic people who likes to do favors for others and should be given a fine education so that your youngster will become a force for the good in the world. Teach to control temper early in life. Upon maturity your progeny will be anxious to go to work to gain the success and prominence that is possible in this chart.

Ask Boards Stay On Job

RALEIGH (AP) — North Carolina Republican party officials have asked the state Board of Elections and all county boards to stay in session on election day Tuesday and during the evening when the votes are being counted.

The request came in a letter to the state board from Kinston attorney Fitzhugh E. Wallace. State Republican Chairman Frank Rouse announced Thursday that Wallace has been named as the party's ballot security officer for the election.

Wallace noted that local boards each have two Democratic and one Republican member and the state board has three Democrats and two Republicans.

If the boards aren't in session, Wallace stated, election day decisions will be left up to the executive secretaries, "all of whom are Democrats."

The chorus held an election of officers at its second rehearsal, Monday night, in Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church. Dr. Emmet J. Walsh Jr., was elected president, Jim Baxter, vice-president, and Mrs. Ann Bryd, secretary-treasurer.

The director, Mr. Rausch, extends an invitation to all former members of the group and all other interested singers, to attend the next rehearsal to be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, November 6, in Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

Members are requested to bring their own music, however, a few copies are available for those who do not have access to their own music.

No Trash In City Streets

Greenville Police Chief Glenn Cannon reminded local residents that it is a violation of a city ordinance to place trash of any description, including tree limbs and cuttings, in the streets for pickup.

The chief reported that the placing of trash in the streets creates a hazardous situation when city collection trucks are forced to stop in the middle of the street to make trash pickups.

He recommended that residents place the trash on the edge of their yards so that trucks will be able to pull over as far as possible to the edge of the street.

The ordinance stipulates that tree limbs, cuttings and shrubbery will be hauled, when trucks are available, provided that the material is cut in four-foot lengths and tied in bundles weighing not more than 50 pounds and placed on the front corner of the owner or tenant's property. Lawn trimmings and leaves, the ordinance states, shall not be placed in gutters.

Chief Cannon said that the Police Department will be enforcing the ordinance and urged Greenville citizens to comply with the regulations.

Arrested On Drug Count

An East Carolina University sophomore is in Pitt County Jail today following her arrest early this morning on a narcotics possession charge.

Pitt Sheriff Ralph Tyson said that Susan Margaret Vogeley of 210 Yorkview Road, Yorktown, Va., was arrested around 2:45 a.m. in her room at Clement Dorm on the ECU campus.

Sheriff Tyson said that Miss Vogeley was charged with possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute and jailed under $2,500 bond.

The sheriff noted that a hearing has been scheduled for Nov. 27 in District Court here. Participating in the early morning arrest were members of the Sheriff's Department, ECU Campus Police, and Greenville Police.

More than 21 billion personal checks will be written in 1972 in the United States, says the American Bankers Association.

Trudeau Won't Quit In Tight Canadian Voting

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau said Thursday night he won't quit despite the tie vote in Canada's general election, and the leader of the New Democratic party pledged the support Trudeau needs for a majority in the House of Commons.

Trudeau told a televised news conference he would ask Gov.-Gen. Roland Michener to call Parliament into session as soon as possible so his Liberal government could determine its fate with a vote of confidence in Commons.

The prime minister said the House cannot meet before the end of the first week in December. Some political observers said it may not convene until January because of recounts scheduled in at least six districts.

If Trudeau lost the vote of confidence, he would have to resign, and Conservative party leader Robert Stanfield would be asked to form a government. But David Lewis, the leader of the New Democrats, assured Trudeau's survival when he pledged his support to the Liberals so long as they do not introduce legislation his mildly socialist party can't accept.

With the 30 New Democrats and his own party's 109 members, Trudeau would have a safe, 14-vote majority in the 264-member Commons.

Lewis, in announcing his support for Trudeau, called for legislation to deal effectively with unemployment and the high cost of living and for "much more effective legislation to limit foreign ownership" of Canadian business and industry.

The lineup in the House of Commons so far is Liberals and Conservatives, 109 each; New Democrats, 30; Social Credit Party, 14, and independents, 2.

Until Thursday afternoon, three days after the election, the Liberals had one seat less than the Conservatives, but an official recount in a Quebec district took a seat away from the Social Credit party and gave it to Trade Minister Jean-Luc Pepin by five votes.

Stanfield sharply criticized Trudeau's decision, saying it showed "the arrogant desire of his government to hang on to power. He is treating the election result as simply another opinion poll in the hope he can somehow get away with it."

Trudeau acknowledged that

Bucs Hosting Moccasins At Homecoming

Mike Jones

Robin Hogue

It's Homecoming for the East Carolina University Pirates this Saturday afternoon.

And the Bucs are hoping that they won't find themselves snake-bit.

The Bucs will be entertaining the Moccasins of the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga at 1:30 p.m. in Ficklen Stadium, and for the 6-1 Pirates, it could be a long afternoon.

Not that the Bucs aren't the favorites in the game, they are. But Coach Sonny Randle warns that Chattanooga is one of the better teams that the Bucs have faced this year.

"They are the best 1-6 team in the nation," he declared.

"Anyone who doesn't believe that just has to look at their score with Auburn."

The Moccasins have had little success this year, their only victory coming over Arkansas State. But that victory probably isn't remembered nearly as much as their near-victory over powerful Auburn. They carried Auburn to the wire before finally bowing 14-7.

"That tells you just how strong they are," Randle said. "They've had some problems in getting things together, and I just hope they don't explode on us Saturday afternoon."

Following East Carolina's first loss to N. C. State two weeks ago, the Bucs seems to be in the dumps. They were flat, in Randle's opinion, for the next game, against Southern Conference foe Furman, just pulling out a 27-21 victory in the final minute of play.

This week, however, things seem to be better. "We've had a lot better practices than we had last week," the coach said. One member of the defense, out with an injury, is back this week, co-captain linebacker Jim Post. Two others, however, are still out, halfback Billy Hibbs and safety Mike Myrick.

"Wash Edwards has come down and done a good job in one of those spots," Randle said. Winston Mayhew will be handling the other slot this weekend.

The coach felt that the six turnovers, three fumbles and three interceptions, were the key factor in East Carolina's slim win over Furman. The Bucs moved the ball at will against the Paladins, holding them to only three drives in the game and just 11 yards on the ground.

"But every time we tried to do something, we turned the ball over," Randle said. "We weren't sharp and we just couldn't put it in. These things happen when you're not at your best. We were flat, and they were sky-high."

Furman was celebrating its Homecoming and was ready for the game. Randle is hoping that East Carolina's Homecoming will have the same effect on the Pirates. "It always helps to improve the frame of mind," he said. "But we have a tough opponent. They have a wealth of talent, and I just hope they don't find themselves against us, or it'll be a long afternoon."

Chattanooga comes at their opponents from a pro-type I formation, and Randle warns that they have two strong running backs, both freshmen, Mike Hogan and David Semmons. They also have a strong quarterback in Mickey Brokas, who last year broke nearly every Chattanooga passing record.

"They're strong on defense," Randle said. "While mistakes have hurt them from time to time, no one has been able to move the ball on them."

"I hope we can regain our spark," Randle said. "We may have peaked too early. We're going to have to peak twice, and this is possible. We need to get back on the right track against a real fine team, and this is our chance. They gave Vanderbilt a fine game too, so we've really got to be ready."

Chattanooga comes into the game after a 24-8 loss to Tennessee Tech last week, when a lot on nagging type injuries occurred. The team is expected to be at full strength, but there is some question about Brokas, who received an ankle injury in the game. If he can't go, Mike Lee, a junior, or sophomore Johnny Hall would step in.

Hogan is the leading rusher on the team with 257 yards, while Semmons has 184 yards. Brokas has picked up only 45 yards rushing, but he has gone to the air 186 times, hitting on 78 for 887 yards.

Adding to the problem of containing the Moccasins is the fact that Brokas also handles the punting, as does his back-up man, Lee, leaving the fake-punt threat open.

The Pirate rushing game is led by Carlester Crumpler with 751 yards, while Les Strayhorn, doing much of the blocking, has just 386 this year. Quarterback Carl Summerell has rushed for 287 yards.

Summerell has hit on 52 of 122 passes for 801 yards, giving him 1,089 yards for the season. He's passed for 10 touchdowns, just two short of the season record for the Pirates, 12.

Following this week's game, the Pirates hit the road again, heading for Williamsburg, Va., next weekend, for the Southern Conference title showdown with William & Mary.

Co-Captain Got What He Wanted

Jimmy Creech is the type of football player the fans seldom hear about or even notice.

His name never makes the headlines because he's not a running back or a quarterback or even a wide receiver. He's not even your everyday, run-of-the-mill campus hero.

Jimmy Creech is a center and he's very good at it. The 20-year old Wilmington native has been the starting center for East Carolina for the past two seasons and has been a leader both on and off the field.

But, he has not gone completely unnoticed. He got all the recognition he ever wanted out of college football last spring when his teammates elected him co-captain.

Being elected co-captain was a personal goal Creech set for himself when he arrived in Greenville four years ago. He was a co-captain at New Hanover High School his senior year and then he was elected co-captain here as a freshman. It was then he set a goal to strive to become a co-captain in his senior year.

"I think every senior thought about being elected co-captain," said Creech. "With me it was personal goal. It was something I really wanted and I worked for it."

Creech is a young man with many goals. And, with his attitude and initiative he will have little or no trouble in achieving his goals.

One of his most important objectives is to go into college coaching following his graduation this spring. A physical education major, Creech wants to continue his studies here next fall and work with the Pirates as a graduate assistant.

"I used to be a business major," said Creech. "But I knew a physical education major would have a better shot at coaching so I changed majors. I really love football and would like nothing more than coaching the rest of my life."

Reflecting back on his play during the season as a coach, Creech has been displeased with himself. He hasn't liked the way he executed and he has made far too many mental mistakes. But, he would never come right out and say he played a good game because Creech is a perfectionist.

Last season against N. C. State, Creech played almost a perfect game against All-American middle guard George Smith. It was Creech's play against Smith that was instrumental in the Pirates' 31-15 win over the Wolfpack.

The Pirates center prepares for each game with the same intricate detail, and that preparation begins each Monday. "First I prepare myself physically by being in the best shape possible," explained Creech. "Then I study each man individually to prepare mentally. Thirdly, I prepare myself spiritually to give myself that little extra strength I'll need when I go on the field."

Though he seldom gets noticed on the field, Creech is probably as well prepared as anyone today in Ficklen Stadium. He doesn't need the newspaper headlines or the hero treatment. He's already received all the recognition he wanted.

Root Claims William & Mary Can't Take Davidson Lightly

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coach Jim Root, whose William and Mary's Indians may have the best shot at heading off East Carolina's front-running Pirates in the Southern Conference football race, says "we certainly won't be taking Davidson lightly" when the two meet in a key game Saturday.

The Indians, 3-0 in league play behind East Carolina at 5-0, could be in for a letdown after last week's 17-16 upset victory over Virginia Tech, but Root's players don't think so.

Besides, says Root of the Wildcats, "they're unbeaten in the conference and still have a shot at the title." Davidson, 2-0-1 in league play, must win to remain in the running.

The game matching the Indians, 4-4 over-all, and Wildcats, 3-4-1, at Davidson is one of two conference scraps in the afternoon. The other has Furman's Paladins, 1-4 in the league and 2-6 over-all, at Virginia Military, 0-5 and 0-8, to meet the Keydets.

Richmond's defending champion Spiders, 2-1 and 3-4, have a night date at The Citadel against the Bulldogs, 2-2 and 3-5. Victory is a "must" for the Spiders, who can get no better than a tie for the title if they win their last three games.

A pair of nonconference afternoon encounters have East Carolina, 6-1 over-all, playing host to Tennessee-Chattanooga and Appalachian State's Mountaineers, 3-4-1, playing host to Florence State.

William and Mary, which will be at home Nov. 11 to East Carolina in the Pirates' last league game, must stop the passing of Davidson's Scotty Shipp, 103 of 182 for 1,279 yards, and the receiving of Walt Walker, 35 catches, and Andy Davis, 26—the two league leaders.

The Wildcats must stop a William and Mary ground attack averaging 273.4 yards per game with Todd Bushnell, Doug Gerhart and Bill Deery all over the 400-yard mark rushing. W&M receiver David Knight has 29 receptions and is averaging 18.4 yards per catch.

VMI led Dayton last week until the Flyers hit on a long pass play with five minutes left for a 14-10 victory that extended the Keydets' losing streak to 18, longest of the nation's major colleges.

"However," says Furman Coach Bob King, "they have come close so many times that you know one week they are going to get somebody. If we are not prepared, it could be us."

The Paladins are coming off a 27-21 defeat to East Carolina in which the Pirates scored the winning touchdown with just 32 seconds left. It was an emotional game "which ended disappointingly for us," says King, who notes VMI will be up for "Hall of Fame" week. Many of the VMI athletic stars of the past will be present for the game.

Richmond Coach Frank Jones says the Spiders will have "their hands full" against The Citadel. The Bulldogs seem to have their offense finally clicking, but the defense still is suspect, and the Spiders have a good ground game led by Billy Meyers and Barty Smith.

"Their hopes for the conference championship are still alive," says Coach Red Parker of The Citadel about the Spiders, "and they have talent and depth—that is a hard combination to beat."

East Carolina had its best offensive day against Furman with 492 yards, but Coach Sonny Randle is wary of Tennessee-Chattanooga.

"Despite the 1-6 record, Chattanooga will be tough," he says. "They played Auburn a 14-7 game earlier in the season, so we can't forget that."

Left fielder Pete Rose of the Cincinnati Reds has hit above .300 the last eight years.

Loy Emerges To Take Lead

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — He tried, unsuccessfully, seven years ago to make a go of it in the tough world of professional golf. He's so obscure he isn't listed in the PGA's tour book, a compilation of biographies of some 250 pros.

He's won only $115 in 20 starts on the $7 million tour this year.

But Bobby Loy emerged—at least briefly—from out of obscurity with a blazing putter that helped him shoot a seven-under-par 65 for the first round lead Thursday in the $125,000 Texas Open Golf Tournament.

"I just seemed to have it all together," the stocky, 32-year-old long-time club pro said. "It seemed that when I needed a good shot I could pull it off, and that's what you've got to do in this game of golf."

His brilliant effort, built on a putter that he used only 25 times, left such world class players as Lee Trevino, Billy Casper and Gene Littler floundering in his wake.

Dan Sikes, a 41-year-old veteran trying to fight out of a lengthy slump, was one stroke back with a 66, while a group at 67 included former U.S.

Open champion Orville Moody, Mike Hill and rookies Tom Watson and Larry White.

Firing 68's on the 7,011 yard Woodlake Golf Club course were Ryder Cup star J.C. Sneed, veteran Charles Sifford, George Johnson, Australian Bob Shaw, Dale Douglass, Ron Weber, Labron Harris and Gary Groh.

Casper was in another large group at 69. Trevino, the British Open titleholder and the pre-tourney favorite here, had to rally to salvage a 71. Littler, attempting a comeback after a cancer operation, had a 75.

Late Switch Made Him Mad

Tom Baines is mad at me. Last week, just before writing this column, when all the panel had turned in their predictions, I went back over mine and decided that I'd made one wrong choice. I had picked The Citadel over Colgate.

But an examination of the NCAA stats showed that Colgate had a fine offense, one as explosive as The Citadel's. I had first gone with The Citadel since they were the home team, but it was not a "firm" decision. I wavered for some time, and finally switched to Colgate in time for writing it up.

As it turned out, Colgate won, I won, and everyone else lost, including Baines, and he's fussing at me all week about it.

The results last week helped me to climb out of the cellar and into fourth place. I'm just three behind Baines now, and hopefully by the end of the weekend, we'll be tied.

Jack Whichard, Sandra Spivey and I each turned in 9-3 weeks last time out, while Baines was 7-5, and George Holland and John Trotman were both 6-6. It's the first time this year, there has been a bad week for so many.

Whichard still leads with a 77-18 record, while Spivey is second at 75-20. Baines is next, 72-23, followed by me, 69-26, Trotman at 68-27, and Holland, 66-29.

It's the final week of high school football (except for the playoffs; so let's take a look at how things will go).

North Pitt travels to Southern Wayne. The Panthers will be after their third win as the season ends, while Southern Wayne won its first in several weeks last time out. It could be quite a game, but I'll have to stick with the home team.

Edenton visits Williamston in the game that will decide the Albermarle Conference. Williamston is unbeaten in the league, while Edenton has lost once. It will also be a thriller, but I'll go with Williamston.

Greene Central, its title hopes frustrated, plays Eastern Wayne. The Rams might be let down, and that may give Eastern Wayne a chance, despite the fact their injuries have killed their chances too. Greene Central must be the choice, however.

Woody's Ramblin's

By WOODY PEELE

Ayden-Grifton goes to North Lenoir also with nothing but a good record to look forward to. The Hawks have not been outstanding this year, and the Chargers should finish up with a victory.

Conley plays Southern Nash, the conference champion, in the final game. The firebirds might be looking ahead and ripe for an upset, but knowing that it could mean their first unbeaten season, they'll probably be ready. Southern Nash to win this one.

Pantego visits Robersonville in the Tobacco Belt closeout. The Eagles have already wrapped up the title, and this game means nothing except the 22nd straight win for them. They'll get it.

Finally, C.B. Aycock travels to Farmville Central as the Jaguars try to close out the year with a 5-5 record. Aycock hasn't won in the league and this is their last chance. They'll finish without a win, since this one belongs to the Jags.

Turning to the poll, Rose travels to Goldsboro in a game that means the conference championship to the Cougars. Rose can only play the spoiler and would love to do so.

The panel, however, feels that the Cougars will be too strong. They go, 6-0, in favor of Goldsboro.

East Carolina, looking for their seventh win, plays host to the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga this weekend for Homecoming. The Bucs had their hands full with Furman last week, and if the Chattanooga passing game is right, they may have more troubles this time out. The Pirates also can't be looking ahead to William & Mary.

The panel believes in keeping the faith, however, and goes 6-0 for the Bucs.

Herzog Named Texas Manager In Surprise Move; Replaces Williams

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Whitey Herzog, named in a surprise move Thursday as the new Texas Rangers' baseball manager, says he took the job "because I want to see if I can do at the major league level what I did in the minors." Herzog, who was picked by Ranger owner Bob Short although strong speculation this week had pointed to New York Yankee third-base coach Dick Howser, replaces Hall of Famer Ted Williams, who resigned last month.

Herzog was director of player development for the New York Mets.

Short called the appointment of Herzog, who has a reputation for making things happen, "an historic announcement which bodes well for the future of the Rangers" and said he'll have "complete authority just as Williams did."

Herzog had no illusions about the present caliber of the team he will lead.

Kepley Enjoys Defensive Play

Two years ago when Danny Kepley arrived in Greenville with his signature still fresh on an East Carolina University football grant-in-aid, he had dreams of hearing his name come across the public address system in Ficklen Stadium sounding something like "Kepley goes in for the touch-down."

That's all changed now and Kepley is a proud member of the Pirates' famed "Wild Dogs" — the defense which is first in the nation in rushing and third in total yardage allowed.

Kepley came to East Carolina from Goldsboro where he had starred in high school as a fullback and was recruited here as a running back. But, two weeks after he had reported as a freshman he found himself playing linebacker on the freshman team.

"I didn't like the move at first," said Kepley. "I was an offensive player all through high school and I wanted to play offense in college. But, now I wouldn't switch back to offense for anything."

Most people would think Kepley would have needed a transition period after switching from offense to defense but if he needed one or better yet, even had one, the people around East Carolina football never saw it.

"He came right in and played linebacker like he had been there all his life," said Carl Reese, the Pirates' defensive coordinator, who couldn't help but smile every time he watched 6-0, 195-pounder play as a freshman. "He always seemed to know where the ball was or where it was going."

As a freshman, Kepley intercepted six passes and pounced on every loose fumble he could find. And, he made nearly or was in on nearly every tackle the Baby Pirates made last season.

During the spring, an eager-Kepley entered spring drills with one goal in mind. That was to earn a starting position. And, it didn't take him very long to accomplish that goal.

Early in the spring he had established himself as a starter and he has yet relinquished that position despite suffering a severe ankle injury in the Pirates' opener this season against VMI.

Last weekend against Furman, Kepley played with his usual reckless abandon — only this time he added a little flare. He was credited with nine individual tackles, three assists, broke up two passes and late in the fourth quarter he intercepted a pass and returned all the way for the winning touchdown to only have a pass interference penalty on a teammate nullify the play.

"I had a feeling before the play even started I was going to intercept a pass, said Kepley. "Then when I saw the ball I went for it and then the guys threw some really great blocks. No one ever touched me and then when I got in the end zone I saw the flags."

It didn't take Kepley long to establish himself as one of the premier linebackers in the Southern Conference in only his sophomore year.

Now instead of hearing his name on the public address system for scoring touchdowns, he hears it for making the tackle, recovering the fumble or intercepting the pass.

And, Kepley would rather fight than offense — now that is.

Bowl Fever At Wolfpack Camp

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bowl fever has struck North Carolina State.

"I'd be lying if I wasn't thinking about a bowl bid for us," said Wolfpack coach Lou Holtz.

Holtz said at the Peach Bowl had a representative at last week's game with South Carolina and "I am told they will have one at Charlottesville Saturday for the Virginia game."

State, 2-2-1 in Atlantic Coast Conference play, would find itself in the race for the top spot if the Wolfpack beats Virginia, 0-3, and Clemson, 2-1, upsets North Carolina, 3-0.

State is 5-2-1 in overall games and Holtz figures his bowl chances are good if he can win the next three games with Virginia, Penn State and Clemson.

In the only other conference game Saturday, Clemson entertains league-leading North Carolina. The Tigers need the win to stay alive in the title race with the Tar Heels, N.C. State and Duke, 3-1. Meanwhile, Duke will entertain long-time foe Georgia Tech Saturday while Maryland invades Penn State and faltering Wake Forest visits South Carolina.

South Carolina coach Paul Dietzel isn't over confident going into the game with Wake Forest, but he wants the win badly. "When you are 2-5 overall, every game is big," according to Dietzel. The Deamon Deacons have lost six straight and a total of eight players have quit since the season began. But the Gamecock coach doesn't think that means an easy victory.

Dietzel said Wake Forest probably figures they have a better chance of beating us as any of the other teams left on their schedule. "There isn't any doubt about them being up for the game," he said.

Dietzel undoubtedly will be concentrating hard on winning too. At Thursday's Touchdown Club meeting in Columbia, he told one sports writer "I'm a little bit in that boat this year at 2-5. The natives have become fidgety."

Nebraska Defense To Get Tough Challenge From Colorado Runners

By KEN RAPPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer Nebraska's "Black Shirt" defense attempts to pull the wool over another opponent as the third-ranked Cornhuskers meet the 15th-ranked Colorado Buffaloes in college football Saturday.

But the Cornhuskers may have a tough time pinning a fifth straight shutout on the opposition because of Colorado's strong running attack.

"Colorado will be the first team that will run right at us," said Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney. "With Charlie Davis and Bo Matthews, they've got two powerful backs who can hurt you by running at you."

Nobody has hurt Nebraska since UCLA upset the Cornhuskers in the first game of the season. Since then, the defending national champions have won six games.

The defense has been greatly responsible for the winning string. The players have been dubbed the "Black Shirt" defense because of the color of the shirts they wear during practice.

During a game, of course, it's red-and-white like everyone else on the Cornhuskers—and black-and-blue for the opposition.

While the Huskers try and take a step toward another Big Eight title, top-ranked Southern California attempts to zero in on the Pacific-8 Conference championship, meeting Washington State in another important match Saturday.

In other games involving Top Ten teams, No. 2 Alabama hosts Mississippi State; No. 4 Michigan travels to Indiana; Ohio State, No. 5, entertains Minnesota; sixth-rated Louisiana State plays at home against Mississippi at night; seventh-ranked Oklahoma meets No. 14 Iowa State; No. 8 UCLA entertains Stanford; SMU meets No. 9 Texas and No. 10 Penn State faces Maryland at home.

Elsewhere, it's No. 11 Auburn at Florida; No. 12 Notre Dame against Navy in their annual game in Philadelphia; No. 13 Tennessee at Georgia; No. 16 Missouri at Kansas State; No. 17 Louisville hosting Tulsa in a night game; Rice entertaining No. 18 Texas Tech; No. 19 Air Force at Army and Arkansas, the 20th-ranked club, at Texas A&M.

Southern Cal is heavily favored to whip Washington State for its ninth straight triumph this year. The Trojans have a 5-0 record in the Pac-8 and appear headed for the conference title and the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day.

Alabama, moving toward the Southeastern Conference title, is a three-touchdown choice to beat Mississippi State. The Crimson Tide lead the SEC in rushing with 277.9 yards per game and in total offense with 591 yards per game. Mississippi State has one of the best passing offenses in the conference with an average of 161.5 yards.

LSU, riding the nation's longest major college winning streak at 10 games, is a 17-point favorite in the game at Baton Rouge Iowa State, coming off a 34-8 victory over Kansas State, has spent the last week trying to find ways to slow down Oklahoma's wishbone offense.

Homecoming Students Carrying Set Sunday Brunt Of Fee Hike

Homecoming precedes a week of revival services at the First Wesleyan Church. Sunday is homecoming with a pot luck dinner being served following the morning service. An afternoon sing-in is planned at 1:30.

The Rev. V. G. Story of Colorado Springs, Col., is the engaged speaker for the day and the nightly services during the coming week.

The Rev. Story, present pastor of the Nob Hill Wesleyan Church, has also pastored in California, Oregon and Washington, over the last 40 years.

He will show pictures of the Holy Land following one of the night services. He and his wife plan a trip back to Palestine this Christmas season.

The pastor, Rev. H.A. Lewis, invites the public to the services which begin each evening at 7:30. The church is located on the New Bern highway in the Bell Fork community.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) reports tuition and fees at Southern colleges and universities continued to increase this year with resident students bearing the brunt of the hike.

In a report issued Thursday, the board said resident students at public senior institutions had to pay an average hike of 8 per cent for the 1972-73 academic year.

Nonresident fees, which soared 13 per cent during the 1971-72 year, jumped another 3 per cent this year, SREB said.

Three states also had heavy increases in fees for nonresidents. They were North Carolina, 35 per cent; Georgia, 22 per cent, and Tennessee, 15 per cent. Increases of 10 per cent in Maryland and Virginia were noted.

Major state universities in Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia increased the bill for in-state students.

According to SREB, the statistics were obtained through surveys conducted by the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges and the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

SREB is an interstate compact seeking to improve the social and economic advancement of the South by assisting states to improve higher education. It encompasses the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Two Chapters For Textbook By McGovern

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Democratic presidential nominee George McGovern has written two chapters for upcoming psychology textbooks edited by Temple University professor James F. Adams.

Adams said he asked the South Dakota senator to write the chapters early in 1971 "because I admire the man and how he has been able to turn on the kids of this era."

McGovern has a history Ph.D.

One chapter, "The Need for Involved Youth" has been added to a revised edition of Adams' book "Understanding Adolescence." Another book entitled "Human Behavior in a Changing Society" will contain a McGovern chapter entitled "Youth Involvement in Adjusting Our National Priorities." Both textbooks are due off the presses next March.

A NEW BEGINNING

Our daughter came in from the florist the other afternoon and laid a spray of lilies across the pages of the family Bible. I couldn't believe my eyes—for it was harvest time, not Easter.

I put them in a vase on the dining room table, and at dinner that night we exclaimed over their sweet fragrance. But, to me, it was vaguely disturbing—Easter lilies in New England in November—the leaves drifting to the ground in the yard outside, and a symbol of the Resurrection blooming, all at the same time.

And why not? What is the Resurrection but rebirth... a new beginning? Even in the fall of the year, even in the autumn of our lives, is it ever too late to begin again? Even if one has not been going to church, is it too late to start again? These were the questions I asked myself. I found the answers when I went back to church last Sunday.

The Worry Clinic Those Libbers Have Old Scars

Celia is irate about sex! But it's her own kind that infuriate her! So analyze the symptoms of females who join the "Women's Lib." They need psychiatric counseling to relieve the scars from earlier emotional trauma! Torrid romances would also help!

By GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph.D., M.D.

Case V-535: Celia J., aged 28, is very irate on the sex problem. "But, Dr. Crane," she burst out, "it is against my own sex that I am most angry."

"For what do those Women's Lib advocates expect by trying to give away our feminine privileges?"

"It has taken civilization at least 10,000 years, hasn't it, to evolve the present dignity and respect, plus the legal protection and medical care, which modern women enjoy?"

"So what can we gain by further 'liberation' via rioting mobs and street parades?"

"Where do those Women's Libbers think women are enslaved, at least in America?"

"And if they try to get us drafted as cannon fodder or permitted to bathe a la nude at mixed beach parties, what is to be gained thereby?"

"Personally, I don't care to share men's clubrooms or enter their washrooms!"

"I may thus be 'unliberated' but I prefer my present luxurious status quo!"

"Dr. Crane, what's wrong with those Women's Libbers, anyway? Are they freaks or in need of psychiatric help?"

Celia is correct in her diagnosis that many of the Women's Libbers need psychiatric analysis.

But a good romance with a dominant male would quickly make them prefer their "unliberated" role!

For women prefer to be in chains—if the latter are forged by Cupid!

The normal female, if she is both physically and emotionally healthy, prefers a 2-sex world, with distinctive differences in the privileges of each.

True enough, many belligerent advocates of Women's Lib, have suffered some type of psychiatric trauma in the past.

It may even go back into their early childhood.

Thus a drunker father who routinely would beat his wife and children, may have produced a momentary recoil on the part of his young daughters.

This now shows up, possibly 20 years later, as a mania to "liberate" all modern women!

Even a teen-age sexual assault by some brutal attacker, may likewise make such women wish to obtain belated revenge on the entire male sex via the current Women's Lib Movement.

And lesbians, who prefer homosexual union with their own female kind, likewise strike back at the hates opposite sex via Women's Lib.

Some others, however, jump on the Women's Lib bandwagon just to gain notoriety and get their pictures in newspapers or on TV.

A sizeable number, too, contracted venereal disease via their high school promiscuous parties, and now blame the entire male sex for their sterility of divorces, so they strike back at all males by

Develop A Method For Proclaimed For Retarded Child Producing X-Ray Laser

Two East Carolina University physics professors believe they have discovered the method to produce the highly acclaimed but as yet undeveloped X-Ray Laser, a device capable of emitting light rays from the ultrashort wavelengths in the X-Ray spectrum.

Dr. Richard A. McCorkle, assistant professor of physics at ECU, in collaboration with Dr. James M. Joyce, also of the ECU physics department, described the method in his (McCorkle's) article "Practicable X-Ray Amplifier" published in the Oct. 9, 1972 issue of "Physical Review Letters."

The article relates in detail the formulas and data that the ECU physicists believe would permit the development of a workable X-Ray Laser. Their research has prompted widespread reaction and inquiry from other scientists and technologists.

The X-Ray Laser, according to Dr. McCorkle, offers tremendous potential to many fields of science and the impact on society would be enormous. For example: The development of the X-Ray Laser would give medical technology a diagnostic tool that would permit tumor therapy with a minimum of damage to surrounding tissue and organs.

Although past efforts to develop the X-Ray Laser have failed, the ECU physicists are convinced that their method will work.

November has been proclaimed National Retarded Children's Month by Pres. Nixon.

There are more than six and one-half million retarded children in the United States; more than 150,000 in North Carolina; and more than 2,400 in Pitt County.

Historically many have been sent to the state institutions for the retarded because no facilities have been available for them in the home communities. In recent years in Pitt County, the local communities have begun to assume the responsibility for services for the retarded and have been providing services for them at home.

The Department of Social Services, the Community Health Department, the schools and physicians are identifying persons in need of special services. The Developmental Evaluation Clinic, the Remedial Education Activities Program, and private psychologists are evaluating the specific needs of each, and the public schools through educable and trainable classes are providing education for some, while others are enrolled in REAP and day care programs such as that of the Farmville Child Development Center. Vocational training is being done largely by East Carolina Sheltered Workshop, the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, vocational programs in junior and senior high schools, and as on-the-job training.

The Pitt County Association for Retarded Children, a member of the Pitt County United Fund, is making every effort to educate the public this month about retarded persons and their needs and potential.

Postal Service Expects Record Holiday Mailing

GREENSBORO — Although the suggested mail deadlines for 1972 Christmas packages and cards for both domestic and foreign delivery have been set one week later than previous years, the District Manager of the District in Greensboro has announced that the Postal Service anticipates a record-breaking 9 billion pieces of Holiday mail.

John J. Wise, District Manager, said here today that he urged the public to check with their respective post offices and determine the latest date that parcels and Christmas mail should be posted in order to be delivered on time.

Wise especially urged that parcels going throughout the world to servicemen and others be posted as soon as possible. He also urged that the parcels be securely wrapped and packed.

The new concept in careful handling of parcels to eliminate damage is now in effect but he also noted that "improperly packed and wrapped parcels destined for world-wide distribution to servicemen should be double-checked for durability." "After the Postal Service delivers these packages to the armed forces for distribution, then they may get a little rough treatment," Wise said.

The District Manager further assured postal customers that a sufficient work-force would be on duty to see to it that all Christmas mail, both at home and abroad, would be handled on all levels with dispatch.

"Your local Post Office stands ready to give you any information and personal assistance in advising you how to best use the United States Postal Service during the Christmas mailing season," and he further said that, "all employees have been instructed to give out information and otherwise help the postal customer with his or her mailing problems during the rush mailing season."

Opening lead: King of ♠
When North made a jump raise in hearts which shows from 13 to 16 points in support and at least four trumps, South resolved to reach at least a small slam. His own hand was worth 22 points including an extra point for all four aces. If North had the right values, a grand slam might be in the offing. To set the stage for a full investigation, South made a cue bid in the opponent's suit. When his partner merely returned to four hearts however, South gave up on seven and settled for a small slam.

West opened the king of spades and declarer played the ace. He cashed the king and ace of trumps. Had hearts divided evenly, South could concede one spade, ruff two in dummy and discard the six of diamonds on North's third club.

When West showed out on the second heart, declarer could not safely trump spades without subjecting himself to an overruff by East. He therefore drew the last trump with the jack of hearts.

A small diamond was led to the ace, followed by three rounds of clubs on the last of which South discarded the six of diamonds. This left him in position to lead the queen of diamonds thru East for a ruffing finesse, if he decided to play the latter for the king. The jack of diamonds would serve as a subsequent parking place for one of his spades.

The fall of the eight and ten of clubs from West's hand, however, suggested that the latter had only two spades and diamonds left. This suggested a scheme to declarer that might succeed regardless of the location of the king of diamonds. A spade was led and South played the nine, losing to West's ten.

West could not avoid giving South a trick on the return. If he leads back the queen of spades, North ruffs and declarer's jack is established. The lead of a small spade presents South with a free finesse. Finally a diamond shift must establish at least one discard in that suit no matter which defender has the king.

West tabled his cards in a graceful concession to his opponent.
