

Terrorists Fly To Cairo With Hostages

By C.C. MINICLIER
Associated Press Writer
CAIRO (AP) — Determined to avoid another Munich, Thai officials argued four Black September members into leaving the Israeli Embassy in Bangkok today, freeing their hostages and then flying to Cairo.

When the Thai plane touched down after a 4,800-mile flight, the four commandos emerged smiling. They were taken to a police car that drove off. They were not handcuffed.

Accompanying them on the flight, broken only by a refueling stop in Pakistan, were 10 Thai officials and the Egyptian ambassador to Thailand, Mustafa el Essawy. They came along to guarantee the four terrorists' safety.

"Munich was terrible so we tried our best to avoid another one," said Dawee Chutlasappa, the Thai air chief marshal. He was the highest-ranking official aboard the plane.

The Arabs had threatened Thursday to kill six Israeli hostages and blow up the embassy unless Israel freed 36 Palestinians held in prison.

The embassy siege lasted 19 hours.

"I had Munich in mind as I negotiated with them," Chutsappa told reporters. "So I decided not to use violence."

He was referring to the Black September massacre of 11 Israeli sportsmen at the Olympics in Munich.

Chutlasappa had negotiated with the Arabs Thursday and early today before the commandos agreed to free their hostages and leave of Cairo.

The Thais will fly back to Bangkok Saturday.

The Thai air chief marshal recalled that at one point during the negotiations, he told the guerrillas "that Israel would never give in to your demands and I tried to explain that the day was sacred in Thailand because our prince was being crowned."

King Bhumipol, he added, "asked me not to do anything harmful if possible" for this reason.

"Finally we reached an agreement," he said. "I told them to be my guests. I will fly out to Cairo. I selected Cairo because it is a big Arab city and a very important center."

The Egyptian government agreed to receive the commandos.

A group of Egyptian officials and officers stood around the passenger ramp. A representative of the Palestine Liberation Organization said he did not know if Egyptian authorities would turn over the four commandos to him.

Egyptian newspapers hailed the Arabs' action. One columnist said their act proved their spirit "to fight has not faded away despite all attempts to liquidate the Palestinian movement."

The commandos began their attempt Thursday when they walked into the Israeli Embassy, some in formal attire.

The Arabs gave up after negotiating all night with the Egyptian ambassador to Thailand, high-ranking Thai officials and leaders of the million-strong Moslem community in Thailand.

Ruth Hadass, a hostage along with her husband, Nitzan, the embassy's first secretary, clutched a wine glass and danced as she shouted in Hebrew. "I didn't know it was so good to be alive."

Premier Golda Meir and the Israeli government expressed "deep admiration and gratitude to the government of Thailand" for its handling of the matter. A Cabinet statement praised the Thai government for "active vigilance and supreme responsibility."

The four Arabs and the 36 terrorists whose release they

(Continued on page 6)

Derailment Here This Morning

By STUART SAVAGE
Reflector Staff Writer
Eleven cars of a 56-car Norfolk Southern Railroad freight train were involved in a derailment just East of the Memorial Drive crossing at West End Circle here this morning.

Railroad officials said a broken rail may have caused the wreck.

The train was headed from Chocowinity to Raleigh when the accident occurred, just after 7 a.m. Members of the train crew said the train was traveling from 15 to 18 miles per hour at the time of the mishap.

The derailling cars played havoc with 150 feet of road-bed and some 200 feet of rails.

The nearest wrecking crews were at Raleigh and Norfolk. Railroad officials said a derrick left Raleigh about 9 o'clock enroute to Greenville. That trip was expected to take from four to four and one-half hours. They said the cars would be righted and the tracks repaired, hopefully by Saturday morning.

Included among the cars derailed were two hopper cars carrying phosphate from Texas Gulf's mine in Beaufort County, and three box cars loaded with paper pulp from New Bern.

The box cars carried about 80 tons of pulp each while the hopper weighing 30 tons each, cars, contained about 100 tons of bulk phosphate each. The hopper cars were expected to cause some problem to crews clearing up the wreckage because of their weight.

Train crew members said they felt only a light jerk when the derailment occurred.

DERAILMENT CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE... An early morning derailment today caused heavy damage to nine cars of a Norfolk Southern railroad freight train. The cars jumped the track approximately 150 yards east of the Memorial Drive crossing. (Reflector Photo by Tommy Forrest)

Begin Study Of Rebuilding

By KERNAN TURNER
Associated Press Writer
MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Experts from the United States began a study today of the feasibility of rebuilding earthquake-shattered Managua on its present site.

Teams of geologists and seismologists arrived from the United States Thursday as specialists from Mexico and Venezuela announced preliminary findings.

Demolition crews were still dynamiting and bulldozing in the downtown area next to Lake Managua, clearing it of damaged structures and the rubble of buildings and homes that were flattened in seconds by the severe quake early Saturday. An estimated 2,000-5,000 persons were killed and 20,000 seriously injured.

Although Managua has been hit twice in 40 years by murderous earthquakes, a group of Mexican experts led by Dr. Cinna Lomnitz reported to Nicaraguan authorities that there was no need to relocate their capital city.

"Most of the city is located on hard volcanic tuff—solid stuff," said Lomnitz, director of the Department of Seismology at the University of Mexico. "Its subsoil is sounder than that of Mexico City, for instance."

He said the damage was so great because the epicenter of the quake was right underneath the city.

"It was like a direct hit by a bomb," he explained.

The Mexican experts suggested that the damaged area be turned into a park or "green zone."

An estimated 15,000 persons were still roaming the city center despite its designation as an "emergency" or "contaminated" area and orders to evacuate it. Shooting was heard Thursday as national guard patrols tried to drive off looters, but it appeared that mostly they were shooting over their heads. Unofficial reports said only 32 persons had been treated for bullet wounds since Saturday. There were rumors of looters being killed, but no confirmed reports.

In an attempt to drive all survivors from the city to facilitate the clearing operation, Gen. Anastasio Somoza, the country's ruler, ordered that food be given out only at distribution points outside the city.

A fire department official estimated that a third of Managua's 300,000 population still disregarded the orders to get out.

The others have moved on to towns and villages in a radius of 75 miles around Managua. Many were given temporary refuge in schools and stadiums, but the distribution of food and medicine over the large area was slow because of a shortage of trucks.

Four More U.S. Planes Shot Down

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced the loss of four more planes, including another B52, and 12 more fliers as the air blitz against the Hanoi-Haiphong area continued.

The Command's announcement raised acknowledged American losses in the air attack to 27 aircraft and 93 air- men missing, killed or captured in less than two weeks. Fifteen of the downed planes were eight-jet B52s, America's largest warplane.

Hanoi claims to have downed 76 aircraft, including 33 of the $8 million B52s, since President Nixon on Dec. 18 unleashed the Vietnam war's heaviest air attack in a so-far-futile attempt to force acceptance of his peace terms.

Radio Hanoi claimed two B52 were shot down shortly after a large flight of Stratofortresses began a mass bombing attack on Hanoi at 10 p.m. Thursday.

Radio Hanoi today identified 10 more captured American fliers and said they were shown to the press in Hanoi Thursday. It said six were B52 crewmen and the other four flew F4 Phantom fighter-bombers.

The U.S. Command said the 15th B52 lost was shot down near Hanoi Thursday, a Navy

RA5 reconnaissance plane was lost to unknown causes in an unspecified area Thursday, and two Air Force F4 Phantoms were downed Wednesday, one of them in the Hanoi areas.

None of the 12 crewmen were rescued.

The Command maintained its blackout on other information concerning the raids and also refused to say whether there would be a repetition for New Year's of the 36-hour Christmas halt in air operations against North Vietnam.

The Viet Cong has declared a 24-hour cease-fire in South Vietnam beginning Sunday, but there has been no such announcement from the U.S. or South Vietnamese commands.

The Command issued a special communique Wednesday giving its version of targets hit and damage caused during the first week of the aerial campaign, but it has given no details on the raids this week. More than 1,400 strikes were flown by fighter-bombers and B52 heavy bombers during the first week, the command said.

As usual, the Command admitted no damage to residential areas or civilian casualties. Hanoi claims extensive residential areas have been devastated and thousands of civilians have been killed or wounded by the saturation bombing of the B52s.

Demo House Group Urges National Campaign In Opposition To Raids

WASHINGTON (AP) — A national campaign to mobilize public opposition to the bombing of Vietnam was urged today by 18 House Democrats.

They sent a letter to party Chairman Robert Strauss asking him to convene a special session of the Democratic National Committee to organize the campaign.

The group also wants the House Democratic caucus to go on record against the bombing and in favor of a peace treaty between the United States and North Vietnam at its meeting Tuesday before the opening of the new Congress.

In another letter, to Speaker Carl Albert, the House members urged him to support their effort in the caucus.

Albert told a newsman Wednesday he favored postponing any antiwar action by Congress until it has had a chance to hear administration leaders explain the reasons for the breakdown of peace negotiations and the renewed heavy bombing of North Vietnam.

Albert's comment has stirred strong opposition among antiwar Democrats. Some of them are threatening to vote against him when he seeks renomination as speaker at the Jan. 2 caucus. Albert is being opposed by Rep. John Conyers Jr., D-Mich.

A number of antiwar resolutions are being prepared for presentation to the caucus, ranging from expressions of disapproval of President Nixon's policies to demands that Congress cut off U.S. funds for the war.

However, sponsors of the resolutions face a parliamentary snag in trying to bring them up at Tuesday's meeting. The caucus is being held for the primary purpose of electing party officers and adopting rules for the 93d Congress, which starts Wednesday.

Several proposed rules changes and a controversy over a plan to make the office of Democratic whip elective, rather than appointive, could cause time-consuming debate and prevent action on any other matters.

Only one day has been set aside for the opening caucus, but plans are being made for another meeting, probably in about two weeks, to deal with the war and reform issues.

In their letter to Strauss, the 18 House Democrats also asked him to support the end-the-war fight in the caucus. They noted that the Democratic platform calls for enlarging the role of Congress in setting the war policy.

Bombing Will Affect Relations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chinese Premier Chou En-lai has asked that the American people be told U.S. bombing of North Vietnam would have an adverse effect on Sino-American relations, The Washington Post reported today.

The premier made the request to Post reporter Marilyn Berger on Thursday night in Peking before a banquet given for Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, the Viet Cong's chief negotiator at the Paris peace talks.

The Post report said that Chou's statement marks the first time a Chinese official has said U.S. bombing of North Vietnam would affect the recent detente between the United States and Communist China.

While receiving guests before the banquet, Chou was asked if the bombing would affect Sino-American relations, the Post said. His reply: "Certainly. Surely."

Asked how the breach could be healed, Chou said, "Stop." Then he added "The United States government should stop the bombing. I hope you will convey my answer to the American people," the Post reported.

Closed

All city, county, state, and federal offices in Greenville will be closed Monday, New Year's Day.

The U.S. Post Office will be closed and there will be no delivery of mail.

Mrs. Truman, Daughter Express Thanks For Sympathy Of Country

By CHET CURRIER
Associated Press Writer
INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Harry S. Truman's widow and daughter, "touched by the outpouring of sympathy and affection from citizens everywhere," have expressed their appreciation to those who joined them in mourning for the 33rd president.

In a statement made public after Truman was buried late Thursday in the courtyard of his presidential library, Bess Truman and her daughter, Margaret Daniel, said they were "impressed by both the dignity of the ceremonies and the warmth of the tribute paid to Mr. Truman."

The ceremonies of Wednesday and Thursday were solemn and simple. Thousands viewed Truman's casket as he lay in state before the funeral attended mostly by family and hometown friends.

The tributes will continue. A memorial service will be held Jan. 5 in Washington's National Cathedral for the Man from Independence who died Tuesday at 88. And the nation's flags, by President Nixon's order, will continue to fly at half staff for another 26 days.

Randall Jesse, the long-time friend who acted as the family spokesman through the days of Truman's final illness and burial, said the 87-year-old widow expects to continue making her home in the white frame house where the Trumans spent most of the 53 years of their marriage. The home is about a half mile from Truman's gravesite.

Mrs. Truman's widowed sister-in-law, May Wallace, lives nearby.

Jesse told newsmen he was deeply moved by Mrs. Truman's composure as she sat before her husband's casket during Thursday's final rites.

"Anyone who watched her face couldn't help but admire her," he said.

Seated beside Margaret, hatless and in a simple black coat, Bess watched almost motionless as the final honors were performed over the brown mahogany casket.

At one point she reached for a handkerchief and her daughter helped remove it from a pocket. But Jesse, standing not far away, said he had seen no tears.

Margaret, too, put a hand to her face once or twice, but she maintained a composure that matched her mother's. And she leaned over frequently during the interment service to speak briefly with Bess.

With them in the center of the spacious courtyard were Margaret's husband, Clifton Daniel, associate editor of The New York Times; the four Daniel children, and May Wallace.

The two older Daniel boys sat quietly through the ceremony, but Thomas, 6, and Harrison, 9, frequently looked around in apparent wonder at the gathering.

Skies were clear and temperatures were comfortable during the burial service attended by about 250 persons. But within an hour after the funeral ended, a few drops of rain began to fall.

GRAVESIDE — Former President Harry Truman's casket is covered by the American flag during interment services in the courtyard of the Truman Library at Independence, Mo., Thursday. The family is at right center with Mrs. Truman at extreme right, with daughter Margaret, her husband, Clifton Daniel, and their four sons, with Mr. Truman's sister-in-law, Mrs. George Wallace. (AP Wirephoto)

Tax Listing Time Is Here

By STUART SAVAGE
Reflector Staff Writer

Pitt County Property owners are facing a new tax listing period as the last days of December roll by.

County tax supervisor R.S. Moye said list takers will begin listing property for taxes beginning January 2. For those who list by mail, according to the tax official, some 10,000 regular forms will be mailed this week. Also begin mailed will be between 2,500 and 3,000 business forms to business firms throughout the county.

In all, about 25,000 regular tax listings will be made during the listing period which ends January 31.

Moye said persons listing their property after January 31 will face a penalty of ten per cent for late listing. And he emphasized, that the January 31 deadline would not be extended for individual cases. The only way the deadline can be changed is for the Board of County Commissioners to grant an extension for all tax payers.

Persons, he said, should list their property for taxes in the town ship in which the property is located. Tax listers will be operating in each of the county's 15 townships and Moye said individuals may contact the Tax Supervisor's office for the location and schedule of the listers in their township.

According to Moye, in addition to listing their taxes this year, property owners will be given notice of the value established for their property during the revaluation which has been carried out in the county over the past several months.

Urging property owners not to wait until the last of January to list their real and personal property for taxes, Moye reminded senior citizens—those over 65 years old—that they may be entitled to some relief under a law passed by the 1971 General Assembly.

According to Moye, senior citizens are entitled to an exemption on the first $5,000 in appraised value of their real property held and used as their principal place of residence, provided the owner is retired and the combined disposable income of the owner and spouse is not more than $2,500 per year.

HOISING DOWN THE RUINS — Firemen play water on the smoldering ruins of buildings along a debris-littered street in the capital of Nicaragua, Managua. Demolition crews were still dynamiting and bulldozing in the downtown area Thursday. (AP Wirephoto)

Big Contributor To Nixon, Humphrey Sued

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The National Bank of Washington is suing Walter T. Duncan, one of 1972's biggest political campaign contributors, for non-payment of a $200,000 loan he took out two days before donating an identical amount to Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

Duncan, a land developer from San Antonio and Bryan, Tex., donated a total of $300,000 to Humphrey's bid for the Democratic presidential nomination, then gave $306,000 to President Nixon's campaign. At the time of his contributions, Duncan faced an array of legal, financial and governmental difficulties.

The bank filed suit Dec. 21 in Bexar County, Texas, District Court three weeks after the due date on the six-month note had passed with, the complaint said, no payment from Duncan.

Duncan could not be reached for comment and his answer to the complaint is not yet due in court.

A copy of the note submitted in the court suit showed that 10,000 shares of common stock in the Archer Daniels Midland Co. was put up as security for the loan.

Bank representatives would not say whether the stock was registered in Duncan's name or in some other name. The bank, through its attorney, also refused to say if it knew why Duncan took out the loan.

The chief executive officer of Archer Daniels Midland is soybean magnate Wayne O. Andreas, a major Humphrey contributor and fund-raiser who later switched to Nixon.

Andreas made a once-secret $25,000 contribution to Nixon last April. It later came to light during the investigation of the Watergate bugging case.

Duncan got his $200,000 interest loan at 5 1/2 per cent interest from the National Bank of Washington on May 31. Two days later he wrote a $200,000 check to the Humphrey campaign which a fund-raiser picked up personally at Duncan's residence at that time at Bryan.

Duncan gave $305,000 to the Nixon campaign in August in the form of a note which the Committee for the Re-election of the President sold to another Washington bank at a slight discount. The bank has not said whether it has collected on the loan yet.

Duncan was the largest contributor listed for Humphrey and the third largest listed for Nixon.

At about the time of the Nixon contribution, Duncan was being sued for $2.27 million in State Court at Dallas. That suit grew out of his failure to make payments on a land mortgage which was involved in a major Texas financial scandal of 1971—the collapse of the Sharpstown State Bank and National Bankers Life Insurance Co.

More than $1.1 million of the amount sought from Duncan is owed ultimately to depositors of the defunct bank whose interests are represented by the government's Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

The land involved in the deal was sold in foreclosure proceedings at virtually the same time Duncan was obtaining his $200,000 bank loan in Washington and giving a like amount to Humphrey.

Jury trial in the $2.27-million suit is set for July 16. Duncan denies the allegations of the suit in his formal answer.

His attorney in that case would not say whether any out-of-court settlement is being discussed.

Oil Deliveries Suffer Cutbacks

HOUSTON (AP) — A 30 per cent across-the-board reduction in heating-oil deliveries to jobbers in its northeast, Atlantic Coast and southeast marketing areas has been announced by Tenneco, Inc.

The Houston-based firm also said that jobbers in about 20 states in the same areas have been notified that the firm will be unable to make any kerosene deliveries during the first quarter of 1973.

A spokesman said Thursday the cutback is effective until further notice.

The spokesman said the curtailments result from a shortage of crude oil supplies for Tenneco's only refinery at Chalmette, La. He said the refinery has a capacity of 90,000 barrels a day and the January crude-oil runs are expected to be about 70,000.

"We have had offers out everywhere for crude but have been unable to find additional supplies that are compatible with the refinery's facilities," he said.

"We have notified heating oil jobbers we are cutting them back 70 per cent of their normal take. We don't know how long the needed crude oil will be in short supply, so the cutback is effective until further notice."

Several factors in addition to the crude-oil shortage were involved in the halting of kerosene deliveries, he said.

"Most jobbers have more than one source of supply, and it appears some suppliers must have made cutbacks at an earlier date, thereby causing Tenneco's jobber customers to lean more heavily on us and deplete our stocks," the spokesman said.

He said Tenneco's October kerosene sales were about 40 per cent above what had been projected and November sales were 10 per cent above.

"What kerosene we can produce at this time is needed for blending into heating-oil output to meet the low pollution standards now required for such fuel oils," he said.

Efforts have been made without success to find other sources of supply for the jobbers, the spokesman said.

Michigan held the nation's first Republican Party State Convention at Jackson in 1854.

FILM DEVELOPED

COLOR FILM

Kodacolor 17 Exp. $2.99
Kodacolor Reprints 18c ea
20 Exp. 135 K $1.49
Super 8 mm or Reg. $1.49

BISSETT'S

DISCOUNT CENTER
116 F VANS ST.

High Was 61 Degrees

The high temperature for the Greenville area within the 24-hour period ending today at 8 a.m. was reported as 61 degrees.

According to the Greenville Utilities Commission weather station, the low temperature for that same period was 32 degrees. The temperature today at 8 a.m. was 35 degrees.

The Tar River level stood at 9.5 feet this morning at 8 a.m. A Utilities spokesman said the river level is falling.

Charged In City Wreck

Herman Lee Garris, 69, of Rt. 2, Greenville was charged with failing to reduce his speed enough to avoid an accident following investigation of a 2:45 p.m. mishap here yesterday at the intersection of Fifth and Cotanche Streets.

Police said the Garris vehicle collided with a car driven by Katherine Joyner Withers of 202 Kirikand Dr.

Damage was set at $200 to the Garris auto and $250 to the Withers car.

Pianos-Organs by

YAMAHA - WURLITZER - CONN

The Music SHOP

207 E. FIFTH ST.
752-5110
FAST FREE DELIVERY

USSR Celebrates Date; Tries To Forget Another

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — Soviet leaders, marking today the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, are targets of another anniversary observance they hadn't looked for.

Today is also the 30th birthday of Vladimir Bukovsky, a writer dangerously ill in Vladimir Prison, where he is serving the first phase of a 12-year sentence for circulating material "aimed at undermining and weakening Soviet power." He is one of many intellectuals subjected to a harsh official crackdown.

Sympathizers outside the Soviet Union organized a campaign to send birthday greetings to Bukovsky at the prison. Hundreds of cards have been sent from Amsterdam, where the campaign originated, and the idea has spread to other countries, including the United States.

Bukovsky's friends also have disclosed that the University of Leyden in the Netherlands has just offered him the opportunity to study there free of financial obligation—if he can get out of prison. A copy of the invitation has been sent to Leonid I. Brezhnev, head of the Soviet Communist party, and President Nikolai Podgorny.

"The University Council took their decision in the firm belief that you should be afforded this opportunity on humanitarian grounds," said the invitation to Bukovsky. "The financial implications as well as the necessary formalities of your entry into this country should in no way be the cause of worry on your part. Certain financial guarantees and a permit of stay are now being arranged."

But Bukovsky's chances of accepting are slim. Soviet officialdom is particularly angry with him for having used underground resources to circulate and publicize the Soviet practice of sending political dissenters to lunatic asylums. That happened to Bukovsky himself.

Bukovsky was 19 when he first ran afoul of the regime. He was denounced by the Young Communist League and its press for what he had been writing. His first arrest came in 1965, when he was sent to an asylum. Two years later he was arrested again for circulating a typewritten journal called Phoenix to which many young writers contributed. He drew three years in prison that time. He was arrested again in March 1971, and last January he was tried and drew the maximum sentence: seven years in prison and five more in exile to a remote area.

Bukovsky's mother has just told a friend in the United States by telephone that he is suffering from rheumatism in all his joints and she fears the effect on his heart, since he has a history of heart ailment. He is scheduled to be transferred from Vladimir Prison in March to a concentration camp, where he is to remain another five years.

Two Killed By Irish Bombings

BELFAST (AP) — Bombs exploded on both sides of the border between Northern Ireland and the Irish Republic Thursday night, killing two teen-agers and shattering the center of two small towns in the republic.

Police said a 100-pound bomb hidden in a car with Northern Ireland license plates exploded on the main street of Belthurbet, about 75 miles northwest of Dublin and two miles from the border.

It killed Geraldine Reilly, 15, an apprentice hairdresser waiting at a cafe to buy fish and chips for her family, and Patrick Stanley, 16, making a call in a phone booth. At least 14 cars were wrecked and 30 buildings damaged.

Another explosion occurred about 10 miles east at Clones, which Protestant terrorists claim is a base for Irish Republican Army raids across the border into Northern Ireland. The blast knocked down telephone poles and blew in doors and windows within 100 yards, but nobody was hurt.

These two bombings were blamed on Protestant terrorists from the northern side of the border.

In Northern Ireland, meanwhile, five explosions wrecked bars, a shed and an employment bureau. No casualties were reported from these blasts either, but the body of a part-time militiaman, a Protestant, was found in the cab of a digging machine, raising the death toll in Northern Ireland to at least 680 in more than three years of communal warfare.

A British army spokesman said a large bomb factory, containing nearly a half ton of chemicals and other explosive materials, was discovered in a Protestant sector of Belfast and a smaller one was found at Armagh.

Remaining To Lobby

CHARLOTTE (AP)—The Charlotte Observer says that Rep. John L. McMillan, 75-year-old South Carolina Democrat defeated this year after 33 years in Congress, reportedly will remain in the capital as a lobbyist for Washington business interests.

The Observer, in a dispatch from Washington published in today's editions, quotes unidentified associates of McMillan to this effect.

McMillan couldn't be reached at his home in Washington. He wife said he had gone off to do a little fishing for a few days. She was quoted as saying she didn't know what his plans were, but was hoping he would find work in Washington.

McMillan was chairman of the House District of Columbia Committee for 24 years. The dispatch said that as such he often championed the caused of Washington businessmen.

Can't Verify If Nixon Sold Land

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — A Miami attorney representing President Nixon said today he "couldn't verify one way or the other" a report that Nixon made $100,000 profit on the sale of two canal-front lots near his Florida home.

Thomas H. Wakefield, a lawyer who has represented Nixon in previous land dealings on the booming tropical island, said the sale price was $150,000.

Park. Nixon's closely guarded villa is about 12 blocks to the northwest.

Griffin said he was undecided what to do with the property, adding, "We may build a permanent residence there."

Wakefield and Nixon's close friend, C. G. "Bebe" Rebozo, witnessed sale papers Wakefield said were signed by the President "sometime last week."

The attorney filed the sales document in Dade County Circuit Court Thursday making the transaction final.

Nixon bought the two parcels of land from a company headed by Donald Berg, a developer who built homes in the Cape Florida section of the island, the Herald reported.

Wakefield said he represented Nixon when the President several years ago bought the bayfront compound which he often visits. Records show Nixon bought the home Dec. 19, 1968, for $100,000 on a 25-year mortgage.

The island has undergone a building boom in recent years with a number of large condominiums and new homes being constructed.

The Miami Herald reported in today's editions that Nixon bought the property in 1967 and 1971, paying $30,000 for one piece and $23,100 for a second.

Wakefield said he had "no way of knowing" if the Herald figures, based on calculations of documentary tax stamps, was accurate.

In Washington, there was no immediate comment from the White House.

Wakefield said the property was sold to Yonkers, N.Y., attorney William E. Griffin Jr., a personal acquaintance of the President's.

Griffin reportedly has been considering building a home on the land located near the entrance to Cape Florida State

Doesn't Like Hughes Company

LONDON (AP) — Howard Hughes' only neighbor on the top floor of London's Inn on the Park checked out today saying he was fed up with all the security and having his pheasants filched.

Bernard Cowan, a Canadian businessman and his wife Hilda flew to Toronto after a short stay in the suite next to Hughes' $2,500-a-day quarters.

Cowan said living with a rich recluse wasn't easy. A brace of pheasants he shot and hung from the balcony of his suite mysteriously disappeared; he and his wife were escorted by security men every time they used the elevator. And there was constant banging as television cameras and other equipment to guard Hughes' privacy were installed.

About the birds, Cowan said he "suggested to the hotel manager they might have been cut down by security men who feared they were bombs or bugging devices. He didn't deny it."

The pheasants, shot during a weekend hunting trip, were eventually returned and Cowan had them stuffed as a memento.

Cowan said he and his wife refused the management's offer of another room after Hughes arrived Wednesday. He said of the security arrangements: "They were a bloody nuisance."

Burlington Sales Up

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Burlington Industries, a major textile firm, has reported that sales were up 5.2 per cent and per-share earnings increased 22.4 per cent over last year.

Burlington attributed the upswing to an expanding economy, shifts in product mix, further growth in home furnishings, and a resurgence of markets for certain types of apparel fabrics.

The company reported total sales of $1.8 billion and per-share earnings of $1.86.

Winter temperatures in Antarctica can drop as low as 127 degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

Have You Missed Your Daily Reflector?

First Call Your Independent Carrier. If You Are Unable To Reach Him Call The Daily Reflector, 752-6166 Between 6:00 And 6:30 P.M. Weekdays And 8 'Til 9 A.M. On Sundays.

WORLD FAMOUS ICE CREAM BARS

eskimopie

eskimodo-nut

eskimothinMints

Overton's Supermarket Piggy-Wiggly Stores
Harris Supermarkets And Most Maola Ice-Cream Dealers

ZALES SPECTACULAR SALE

SAVE 10% TO 20%

off regular prices on select groups of DIAMONDS

A FEW EXAMPLES OF SAVINGS LISTED BELOW

There's money to be saved—tremendous price reductions awaiting you right now! Save on diamonds and a lot more. Hurry, shop now. Take advantage of a world of savings!

	Regular	Now
White Gold 1-diamond Bridal Set	$120.00	$96
Yellow Gold 6-diamond Bridal Set	$225.00	$180
Ladies Yellow Gold Genuine Sapphire & 6-diamond Cluster	$150.00	$120
Ladies White Gold 14-diamond Dinner Ring	$450.00	$360
Mans White Gold 1-diamond Ring	$125.00	$100
Mans White Gold 1-diamond Ring	$225.00	$180

Five convenient ways to buy:
Zales Revolving Charge • Zales Custom Charge • BankAmericard • Master Charge • Layaway

ZALES JEWELERS

Pitt Plaza (Open Monday thru Saturday, 10 A.M. to 9:30 P.M.) 756-0141

Professional Man Really Loves His Career

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: My home is on the verge of breaking up and there seems little I can do about it. If I leave my husband, there will be three teen-aged children without a father, but I see no other solution.

My husband is a professional man with a valuable career. He has admitted to having had sexual relations with a young woman patient 10 years his junior and now he says he's in love with her, but he claims he is also still in love with me. Can this be?

We were married when we were both in college 23 years ago and I still love him. Our sex life has been tremendous, yet he tells me that "in the line of duty" he helped this woman to find her "ego identity" by teaching her how to love.

I can't stay married to a man who would have relations with other women in the line of duty or for any other reason.

Is this something new in psychotherapy? I can't believe psychologists really believe this will help their patients. What of their own emotional involvements and that of their families? HEARTBROKEN

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: No professional man in his right mind would have sexual relations with a patient. Your husband needs treatment himself and should not be allowed to continue practicing until he has been rehabilitated.

If you love him, don't leave him, but DO insist he see a psychiatrist about his problem. If he continues as he is, he will not only lose his family but his practice as well.

DEAR ABBY: I finally found one answer to the age old "I never received a 'thank you' for my gift" problem.

A few months ago, the son of a very close relative was married. Prior to the wedding, the bride-to-be had more showers, lunches, and dinners than most young girls. The gifts she received were very lovely — more like wedding gifts.

Many people were invited to the showers and, of course, to the wedding, so many, many gifts were given to this young couple. To date, not one person has received a "thank you" note.

Rather than bother the bride's mother (or mother-in-law) I called the bride. I figure that if she's old enough to get married, she is old enough to explain why she didn't bother to thank people for their gifts. Also, I wanted to know if mine was received.

Her answer was, "Oh, yes, I got everything, but if I only thank some of the people, the others will get mad."

How would you have responded to that? E. K.

DEAR E. K.: I'd have told her that since she thanked nobody, EVERYBODY was mad!

DEAR ABBY: We are wondering how many married couples are suffering from a social status game people play when two or three couples get together. It goes something like this:

"We have three cars, two boats, and now HE is talking about buying another snowmobile! How do we get all that in a two-car garage?"

Or, "We spent the weekend at the lake cabin with [your favorite friends] and drove over to this place for dinner. Although the tab was $83 for four of us, we weren't impressed with the salad."

Abby, are we out of it? Why do people try to outrag each other? Is this something new in our affluent society? MIFFED IN ST. LOUIS PARK

DEAR MIFFED: No. There have always been people who talk about what they have, where they've been, and who they know. The really worthwhile people talk about ideas and issues.

DEAR ABBY: You once gave a definition for "MATURITY" before a high school audience in St. Louis six years ago. What was it? LOREN D.

DEAR LOREN: To be able to stick with a job until it's finished, to do one's job without being supervised, to be able to carry money without spending it, and be able to bear an injustice without wanting to get even.

Problems? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 69700, L. A., CALIF. 90060 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90060, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Personal

Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Norris and Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Norris of Beulahville, Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Whitehurst, their daughter, Ann, and son, David, of Raleigh were dinner guests Christmas Eve of Mrs. D. C. Whitehurst, of 704 Willow St.

Jackie Carson, J. R. Bunting, Beverly, Mary Lou and John Royal Bunting of Bethel.

Margaret Sugg left Tuesday for Washington, D.C., after a holiday weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sugg

Take Style To Slopes

SKI BOLD — Fashion for winter sports for the woman who wants to be brassy and chic is made of moisture and wind resistant woven nylon and lined with a quilted orlon fleece. The pants are high waisted, trim and suspended. Woven turtle neck and cuffs are elasticized, left. A one-piece suit, center, keeps skiers warm and dry in water-proofed nylon lined with orlon fleece. The shoulder stripe reflects at night. A two-piece jumper suit lends a fashion note to winter out-of-door activity. Fashions are from Ski-Doo Sports Ltd.

Couple Exchanges Vows In High Noon Ceremony

RICHMOND, Va. — The Seventh Street Christian Church here was the scene of the high noon wedding ceremony of Mrs. Hannah Jane Pass Wages and the Rev. Churchill Goodwin Moore Jr. Thursday.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lewis Winston Wright Jr.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Vernelle Pass of Buford, Ga., and Mrs. Churchill Goodwin Moore Sr. of Ayden, N.C.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. She was wearing a long ivory dress of crepe and chiffon with a bodice featuring heavy ivory lace trimmed with pink ribbon. She wore a matching head-piece with veil and carried pink sweetheart roses.

A program of organ music was presented by Mrs. Ralph Raymond Chesson Sr. of Richmond, Va.

Acolyte for the ceremony was Peter Kendler Wilson of Richmond, Va.

William Daniel McNeill of Ayden, N.C., and the Rev.

Samuel Orlando Jones Jr. of Virginia Beach, Va., were ushers for the ceremony.

The couple will reside in Richmond, Va.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Georgia, Athens, Ga. She is a teacher at the Reception and Diagnostic Center, the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The bridegroom attended East Carolina University and is a graduate of Atlantic Christian College. He graduated from Lexington Theological Seminary and is now minister at the Seventh Street Christian Church, Richmond, Va.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor.

The refreshment table was decorated with a five branch candelabra with a silver punch bowl.

An after-rehearsal dinner was held in the Presidential Room of the Executive Motor Hotel.

Hosts and hostesses were Mrs. Churchill Goodwin Moore Sr., mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Charles Thomas Davis Sr. of Eureka, N.C., and Mr. and Mrs. James Ray Pittman Sr. of Wilson, N.C. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Pittman are sisters of the bridegroom.

Gifts were presented to members of the wedding party by the bridal couple.

Ayden News

Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Tripp of Wilson spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tripp.

Miss Ann Tripp is spending the holidays with Burt Tripp family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards family of Raleigh were Christmas visitors of Dr. and Mrs. S.M. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ridgeway of Virginia spent the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. H.W. Gooding.

Dwayne Gwyn of Gastonia spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gwyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Jacobson spent part of the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Gooding.

Miss Terry Gwyn of New York has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gwyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tripp of Kinston spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tripp.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sugg and family spent part of the holidays in Tabor City.

Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Kinlaw, Jr., were recent visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Tripp of Mississippi were local visitors over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Burney and family spent part of the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burney.

Mrs. Vito Abene has been a surgical patient in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Stroud, Jr. and Rachel of Weaverville returned home after visiting here.

Miss Gertrude Coward of Charlotte spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Blanche Coward.

Mr. and Mrs. James Steed and family of Clinton spent Christmas with the Gaylor family.

Mrs. Allan Johnson is visiting in Greensboro and Eden.

Miss Cathy Booth spent the holidays with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Callie Stocks spent part of the holidays with relative.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Brown, Jr. of Virginia Beach, Va., were visitors of Mrs. Bonnie McCormick over the holidays.

Grifton News

Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn have returned from Alexandria, Va., where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Glenn's daughter, Mrs. Craven Hughes, Mr. Hughes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Oglesby spent Christmas in Washington, D. C., with her brother, Leon Patrick, Mrs. Patrick and family. They were joined there by their son Patrick Oglesby, who has been studying in Germany for several months, who returned home with them and will be teaching in Durham after the holidays.

Guests here Saturday for a dessert party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Carson were his mother, Mrs. Lill Carson, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Carson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Carson, Miss HOMEMADE HEALTH CEREAL — A variety of nutritious ingredients are skillfully combined to use at breakfast and snack time.

Health Food Cereal Features Quick-Cooking Oats, Prunes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor

DEAR CECILY: A while back there was a recipe in the paper for making one's own natural-food cereal. Unfortunately the paper was thrown out before I had a chance to clip it. Some of the ingredients were quick-cooking oats, prunes and dried apricots, but I don't recall the rest or the amounts. I hope you can give a similar recipe because it sounded very healthy and good.—BREAKFAST FAN.

DEAR BREAKFAST FAN: It's interesting to see homemade health cereals come back into vogue. Recipes for these first appeared, to my knowledge, about 40 years ago in a cookbook of Swiss-German origin and were called Muesli or fruit porridges. Nowadays the recipes have been expanded to include a wider variety of ingredients and often go under the name of "granola." Hope the following recipe pleases you.—C. B.

HOMEMADE HEALTH CEREAL

1 cup finely chopped pitted prunes
1 cup finely chopped dried apricots
1 cup finely chopped dried apples
1 can (4 ounces) slivered almonds or 1 cup raw shelled peanuts
1 cup wheat germ
1 jar (2 3/4 ounces) sesame seeds
3 cups uncooked quick-cooking oats or rolled whole-wheat cereal
1-3rd cup safflower oil
1-3rd cup honey

Into a large mixing bowl turn all the ingredients; stir until all particles are well-coated. Turn mixture into a jelly-roll pan (15 by 10 by 1 inch) or onto a large cookie sheet and spread evenly.

Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven for 15 minutes, stirring mixture once after it has baked for seven minutes. Cool thoroughly and then spoon into jars and cover tightly. Store in the refrigerator or in another cool dry place.

Use 1/2 cup of the mixture for each serving, adding milk and—if a sweeter cereal is desired—brown sugar. Makes 2 quarts.

Note: The rolled whole-wheat cereal comes in a 14-ounce package.

Christmas Eve Party Held

GRIFTON — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Talton entertained at a party Christmas Eve at their home here.

They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Steve Adkins of Charlotte, Miss Karen Talton, Miss Kathy Talton, John Arthur and Andy Talton.

The house was decorated with a holiday motif. The dining room table was centered with an arrangement of pink carnations with red candles in silver holders.

Approximately 100 guests called during the evening.

Party Given Miss Johnson

GRIFTON — Miss Patricia Johnson, bride-elect of Bryan Stevenson of Kinston, was honored Thursday morning at an informal party at the home of Mrs. N. I. Baldree.

Mrs. J. G. Chauncey, Mrs. Mac Chauncey and Mrs. Gib Chauncey were assisting hostesses.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Baldree and presented to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Roger Johnson, and Mrs. F. E. Stevenson, mother of the bridegroom-elect, and sister, Miss Emerette Stevenson, of Kinston.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of red carnations, berries and greenery. Mrs. J. D. Parker of Greenville, aunt of the bride, assisted in serving.

Miss Johnson was remembered with a white carnation corsage.

Floyd G. Robinson, Jeweler

Main Street, Ayden, 746-4202

Rings Remounted, Watch and Old Clock Repair.

Wyler & Seiko Watches.

START YOUR WINTER HOBBY

TRAINS
CARS BOATS
CANDLE MAKING NEEDLE POINT KITS
STRING ART

RADIO CONTROL
MACRAME
DECUPAGE KITS
PUZZLES & GAMES
PAINT BY NUMBER KITS

HUNGATE'S INC.

HOBBIES & CRAFTS

Pitt Plaza

OPEN 10-9 756-0121 MON.-SAT.

Births

Page

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Page, Rt. 1, Ayden, a daughter, Melody Lyn, on Dec. 21, 1972, in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Moore

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Moore, Rt. 1, Grifton, a son, Joseph Randolph Jr., on Dec. 22, 1972, in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Britton

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Britton, 1200 Chestnut St., a daughter, Tasha Nicole, on Dec. 22, 1972, in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Bundrum

Born to Mr. and Mrs. David W. Bundrum, 700 Church St., a son, David Wayne Jr., on Dec. 25, 1972, in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Thompson

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Tammie Lee Thompson, 401 Martinborough Rd., a son, Tammie Lee Jr., on Dec. 25, 1972, in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Stokes

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stokes, Ayden, a son, William Corey II, on Dec. 25, 1972, in Pitt Memorial Hospital.

Shoemasters

421 Evans Street
In The Heart Of Greenville

SHOP
TONIGHT
UNTIL 9

Your Headquarters for Hush Puppies®

ZALES
SPECTACULAR SALE
SAVE 10% TO 33 1/2%
off regular prices on select groups of Holloware • Appliances
Electronics • Giftware
And More!

Entire stock not included in this sale.
All items subject to prior sale. Original price tag shown on every item.
Items illustrated are not necessarily those on sale.
Revolving Charge • Custom Charge • BankAmericard
• Master Charge • Layaway

ZALES
GREENVILLE

Pitt Plaza (Open Mon.-Sat. 10 A.M. to 9 P.M.) Phone 754-6141

SHOE SALE!

One Group Of Ladies

SHOES
$9⁸⁸ up

Values To $23.00

Ladies Stretch

BOOTS
$12⁸⁸

Values To $25.00

One Group Of Men's

SHOES
$10⁰⁰
up

Values To $30.00

Shoemasters

7 DOWNTOWN
GREENVILLE

See Ruth and Wayne West Playing the Organ and Piano, Friday Night, Dec. 29, at JCPenneys from 7 PM til 9 PM.

Fantastic Bargains throughout the Store. Shop and Save during Our after Christmas Sale.

JCPenney

We know what you're looking for.

Charge it at JCPenneys, Pitt Plaza, Greenville. Open Monday thru Saturday from 10 AM til 9 PM

Gift Is Of Great Importance

The gift by the Brody brothers of $100,000 to the ECU Foundation for Health Affairs will be one of tremendous importance in the development of the Medical School.

The funds contributed by Morris Brody of Greenville, Leo Brody of Kinston, and J. S. Brody of Columbia, S.C. will be used to establish the Brody Brothers Professorship, Medical School Dean Wallace Woolees announced.

Chancellor Leo Jenkins termed the gift a "historic event in the brief history of our School of Medicine."

Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs, Dr. Edwin Monroe, described the Brodys as "pioneers in our beginning efforts to solicit this kind of aid and support."

Dean Woolees said, "The Brody gift will assist us greatly in attracting and retaining the highly qualified faculty so necessary for our sound future development. Actions such as this one are tremendously encouraging to all of us who have been responsible for planning and beginning our present Medical School program."

The Brodys have been deeply involved in the affairs of Eastern North Carolina as merchants and civic leaders. It is highly gratifying that they have recognized the great need for development of the ECU Medical School and responded with this generous gift.

The building of a full Medical School at ECU will benefit the entire east and the state as a whole. As the school develops it will make use of most of the hospitals in this area, thus strengthening them.

It should bring new medical specialists to eastern communities and, most important, the physicians who train and graduate here will be more inclined to practice in the east.

Development of the ECU Medical School is the most vital and exciting project that the state has taken on in a long time. We in the east must show state officials that we fully expect development of the school to move along as rapidly as possible. Certainly the Brody gift is a firm indication of how easterners feel about the ECU School of Medicine.

The White House Is The Finest Prison

Harry Truman once called the White House "the finest prison in the world."

He also said, "No man, if he knows what it is all about, would want to be president. It is the most terrible job in the world as well as the most honorable."

It is also the most sought after job, however, and despite warnings from past presidents about the crushing duties of the position, we expect no drop in the numbers of politicians seeking to be president.

Should Governor Be Pensioned?

By MELVIN LANG
Associated Press Writer
RALEIGH (AP) —
Outgoing Administration Secretary William Turner says North Carolina's governors should be provided a pension. Gov. Bob Scott, who has two decades to go before reaching retirement age, agrees.

Turner, in a recent interview, pointed out that the governor is the only employee of state government not covered by a retirement plan. He called it unfair.

"When you take four years out of a man's middle years, it leaves a gap," Turner said. "The governor is the only one left without a pension and it isn't quite right."

Gov. Scott, asked about Turner's suggestion, said: "Dr. Turner's comment states the facts. I concur in his statement."

Scott, who leaves office Jan. 5, will join three other men as former governors Luther Hodges, Duke University President Terry Sanford and Dan Moore, now an associate justice of the state Supreme Court.

The widows of former governors do qualify for state pensions currently fixed at $3,000 a year, and have been doing so for about a half-century. Three gubernatorial widows—Mrs. J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Edenton, Mrs. J. Melville Broughton of Raleigh and Mrs. William B. Umstead of Durham—are receiving the pensions.

State employees below the gubernatorial rank qualify for retirement benefits under a pension plan involving matching contributions by the employe and the state.

North Carolina's judges who retire qualify for annual benefits equal to two-thirds of their salaries, which range from $24,000 for Superior Court judges to more than $30,000 for associate justice of the Supreme Court.

Legislators have a retirement plan that was expanded in 1971. The plan also was made retroactive to cover former legislators.

Under the plan retired legislators with at least four terms can make contributions of 5 per cent of their annual salaries and receive pension payments of $25 per year per term, served for life.

The plan has come under fire from several quarters, including the legislature itself. A special transfer of $34,000 was required last spring to keep the program going.

A Senate Democratic caucus called Wednesday for more study of the legislative retirement program to determine whether it was actuarially sound.

Turner, who is leaving the Scott administration to return to his job as a vice chancellor at North Carolina State University, said more than half of the 50 states have a gubernatorial pension plan. In New Jersey, he said, for-

(Continued on page 5)

Strength For Today

DIRECTION
As we come to the end of another year we need to look back as well as to look forward.

What has the past year meant for us? There have been sorrows in every life. Death may have claimed loved ones and if so there is nothing to do but make the best of it with the aid of religious faith and the calling-up of everything we have in the way of self-control.

But a review of the past year should not be a matter of endless gloom and dissatisfaction. There are certainly bright spots along the way. We have made mistakes. Who hasn't? We have said certain things to people and about people that we wish had never uttered. The weather has not always suited us but what can we do about that? If we compare the last day of the year with the first day of the year there ought to be a dramatic pageant of success and failure, achievement and disappointment, things to be glad about and other things that we sorrow over.

The code word of this period should be "progress." How far have we gone forward? How far have we gone backward? Where were we wise? Where were we stupid? Where were we just plain silly? All these factors enter into every normal life. Have we gone forward in the last twelve months or backward?

Check on that. It's important.

"Although you're in perfect health, you must resolve to get more exercise in Phase '73'."

By J.J. KILPATRICK

Don't Note Footnotes

WASHINGTON—Roger L. MacBride, of Charlottesville, Va., won himself a footnote in history the other day. There his name will stand forever, down in the fine type with Samuel Miles, William Plumer, Preston Parks, W.F. Turner, Henry P. Irwin, and Dr. Lloyd W. Bailey. Never heard of them?

These are the maverick presidential electors of American political history. In their own eyes, they put principle above party. In another view, they dishonored a public trust. Having been placed on the ballot in the clear understanding that, if elected, they would vote for Candidate

A, they voted instead for Candidate B. MacBride, a Republican elector, cast his vote not for Republican Richard Nixon, but for Libertarian John Hospers.

It is a wonder, considering our wide-open constitutional situation, that so few mavericks have leaped the fences of understanding and expectation. Miles, a Pennsylvania Federalist, refused to vote in 1796, for Adams; he voted for Jefferson. Plumer, a New Hampshire elector, refused in 1820 to vote for Monroe; he voted for John Quincy Adams instead.

Then a long time elapsed. It wasn't until 1948 that the problem arose anew when Parks, a Tennessee Democrat, cast his vote for Thurmond instead of Truman. In 1956, Turner could not stomach Adlai Stevenson; he cast his Alabama electoral vote for Judge Walter E. Jones. In 1960, an Oklahoma elector, Henry P. Irwin, chosen as a Republican, tried to get an anti-Kennedy revolution going in the electoral college; his effort failed, but he stubbornly cast one vote from Oklahoma for Harry F. Byrd. Dr. Bailey, a North Carolina Republican, in 1968 abandoned his implied commitment, and wrote in the name of Wallace.

The list is not long, in terms of the thousands of electors who have served. None of the mavericks ever cast a decisive vote. All the same, it is sobering to observe that in five of the past seven presidential elections, individual electors have played a potentially dangerous game.

The mavericks cannot be criticized in one respect: They have played by the rules. If they have been morally wrong, they have been constitutionally right. Neal R. Peirce, whose "The People's President" remains (Continued on page 5)

Other Editors Say Highway Politics

(Wilson Daily Times)

The more you see and read about the N.C. Highway Commission, the more you realize that changes are in order. It is time this department of government, one of the most important, be taken out of politics if this is possible, for the growth of the state depends on good roads.

We had the idea that highways were built on need, road count and defensible reasons. This should be the guide, with judgment from professionals on the subject.

More has been coming out on special privilege road-building than the public had any idea was going on. We are certain the General Assembly will do away with the governor's road-building slush fund. At any rate Alamance County is well taken care of, thanks to Governor Scott.

Now you are reading the State Highway Commission has invested $6 million in road projects in Clinton and Sampson County. Clinton is the hometown of the chairman of the Highway Commission, Lauch Faircloth.

The chairman of the Highway Commission may not deserve the insinuations but they have been made and this is another reason the decisions should be based on proven facts as to need.

Membership on the State Highway Commission is an honor and it is also hard work. For those in your district are pulling at you all the time. We know this is true for W. G. Clark III, our representative, and W. S. (Bill) Williams, JR. OF Middlesex work well together for Wilson and the four-laning of 264 and 64. And you have read that the project will be completed. There has not been a whisper against our commissioners and they are giving the people their time and attention and doing a splendid job for their districts.

It is interesting to note that only the highest officials are accused of getting special favors the governor and the chairman of the Highway Commission. We assume they are the only two who have the authority.

Two members have been replaced because of conflict of interest dealings but the most serious offense of all is influence highway-building and it seems some of this has been going on. It is all allowable, but it should not be possible.

Therefore one of the first duties of the new governor and the General Assembly should be an overhaul of the Highway Commission. The appointing of the members is up to the governor. Positions on the Highway Commission are choice political plums.

Fuqua Company Breaks Tradition

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — On this, the final business day of the year, many shareholders of Fuqua Industries already have in hand the company's preliminary annual report, together with a forecast of sales and earnings for 1973.

Both sets of figures represent breaks with tradition. Annual reports usually aren't available for weeks or months after the year's end. And public dissemination of forecasts is viewed as a practice whose product is trouble.

But J. B. Fuqua, chairman of the Atlanta-based leisure products company, is either fearless or wise or realistic — maybe even foolish. Last February he attracted comment for his attempts to do away with annual meetings. Now this. Why, J.B.?

First, the reasons for such prompt release of the annual report, which incidentally will be finalized, made more attractive and permanent and given the imprimatur of the public auditors in a later edition.

The data, said J.B., is available to company officials, so why hold it up until the auditors pore over the books.

"In a well managed company the auditors don't make the figures. They have nothing to do with producing them. They only verify them."

While many corporate officials will agree with this view, considerably fewer will join J.B. in his attitude toward casting what shareholders might expect in the year to come.

"It won't make me any friends in the corporate world," he agreed. "In older companies this scares the hell out of them." At companies dependent upon volatile raw material prices, he said his moved will be cussed.

Even J.B. is not totally convinced of the merits in forecasting but, being realistic, he foresees the day coming shortly when the Securities and Exchange Commission will require them.

"If this is the kind of music we will have to march to, we are willing to lead the band," he said in a letter to stockholders.

The SEC is indeed considering the merits of requiring Paper Clogs Works

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Paper ... paper ... paper!
One fears we may be strangled by paper.

HAL BOYLE

Napoleon Bonaparte said an army marches on its stomach. But the modern U.S. business world marches on paper. The American economy produces an estimated one million pages of new documents every minute, of which some 250 billion pages a year must be stored, temporarily at least.

Business firms alone — leaving out the work of government paper shufflers — now store and maintain more than a trillion pieces of paper in 200 million file drawers. Each year they are adding 175 billion new pieces of paper to this enormous trove. Storage costs alone now run into billions of dollars annually.

The problem of handling all this material has given rise to a new profession — records management — says Dr. Maxwell Pollack, president of Van Dyk Research Corp., of Whippany, N.J., a firm active in communications technology.

Dr. Pollack predicts that in the future this paper blizzard will intensify rather than lessen and have far-reaching effects on the economy.

"More paperwork is inevitable in a fast-paced and increasingly computerized world," he said. "The profusion of electronic machines in offices will not cut employe levels but add to them, thus creating a need

(Continued on page 5)

40 Years Ago Today

By GWYN COGHILL
December 29, 1932

Christmas has come and gone for another year and Old Saint Nick, with his empty sled that was once piled high with gifts, has ended his journey for this year. His annual trip on Christmas Eve took him across the land to bring joy and happiness to the hearts of small children and all mankind. This city, along with many others across the nation, observed the holiday season in a quiet and peaceful way. Colored lights reached a climax in the residential areas of Greenville on Christmas Eve as gifts were being placed under the decorated trees for loved ones. The business district was prepared for the holiday rush and Greenville merchants lived up to the city's slogan "The principal shopping center of eastern North Carolina" through excellent service and merchandise.

The Salvation Army wishes to thank those who contributed to the kettles that were placed downtown Greenville for contributions to the needy during the holidays.

The Daily Reflector

INCORPORATED

209 Cotanche Street, Greenville, N.C. 27834

Established 1882

Published Monday Through Friday Afternoon and Sunday Morning

DAVID JULIAN WHICHARD, Chairman of the Board
JOHN S. WHICHARD—DAVID J. WHICHARD

Publishers

Second Class Postage Paid at Greenville, N.C.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Payable in Advance

Home Delivery By Carrier

Motor Route Monthly $2.25

By Mail.

One Year $27.00

Six Months 13.50

Three Months 6.75

(Prices Include Tax By Mail except in Pitt Co. Add 1 percent)

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of publications of special dispatches here are also reserved.

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Advertising rates and deadlines available upon request Member Audit Bureau of Circulation.

Religious Breakdown Of The New Congress

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Methodists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians make up the lion's share of the new Congress which convenes Jan. 3, the proportion of them exceeding their part of the population. Roman Catholics and Baptists in Congress just about match their percentage of the citizenry. But Lutherans fall short of doing so.

These are among factors apparent in a breakdown of religious affiliations of new members of the Senate and House. Another aspect that shows up is that while most Protestants in Congress tend to be closely divided between Democrats and Republicans, most Lutheran representatives are Republicans and most Baptists are Democrats. So are most Jews and Roman Catholic.

The statistics were compiled by the interdenominational fortnightly, Christianity Today. They show that 115 Roman Catholics in the two houses make up the biggest contingent of any one denomination. But Protestants of various denominations collectively hold far more seats — about 400. More than half of them — 228 — are Methodists, Presbyterians or Episcopalians.

Although the country's 3.4 million Episcopalians are only a tiny segment of the population — less than 2 per cent — 66 of them hold about 13 per cent of the seats in the House and Senate. Similarly, the 84 Methodists and 78 Presbyterians in the two houses occupy a somewhat larger proportion of Congress than their part of the population, although less strikingly so than for the Epis-

SEARCHING FOR TRASH . . . Grifton Utilities supervisor Gene Coley sifts through trash recently dumped at Gaskins' Landing for evidence to be used in prosecuting the litterers.

Landing May Be Closed

GRIFTON — Though a sanitary landfill has been opened near the town of Grifton, people have continued to litter a landing. Wiley Gaskins, owner of the property plans to close the landing to the public if such Kilpatrick . . .

(Continued from page 4) the most readable book in this field, has made it clear that "under the Constitution, the elector remains a free agent and, if he chooses, can vote in any way he likes." Thomas Hart Benton, the great Missourian, warned of these evils a century ago. An elector, he said, "may give or sell his vote to the adverse candidate, in violation of all the pledges that have been taken of him. The crime is easily committed, for he votes by ballot; detection difficult, because he does not sign it; prevention is impossible, for he cannot be coerced; the injury irreparable, for the vote cannot be vacated; legal punishment is unknown, and would be inadequate." It is immaterial that MacBride's wild-card vote a few days ago had no effect on Nixon's landslide. In so vital an area as a presidential election, our law ought to be made secure. The archaic machinery of the electoral college should be junked and these mischievous footnotes be banished hereafter. In my own view, three amendments are needed: (1) The electors, as such, should be abolished. (2) The contingent arrangement also should be scrapped by which the choice of a President can be thrown into the House, with each State casting a single vote. (3) We should revise the present scheme of winner-take-all. The third point is the main one. The direct national election of a President, by popular vote, is a bad idea: It would violate our whole federal scheme. A wise alternative to direct election can be found in a plan that would award a State's electoral vote according to the vote for each candidate. Thus in Virginia, which went 70-30 for Nixon, the 12 electoral votes might have been divided 8.4 for Nixon, 3.6 for McGovern. Thanks to the rebel MacBride, Virginia's vote officially was cast as Nixon, 11; Hospers, 1. It was a mockery of our democratic process. But thanks to the rebel MacBride, interest may yet be revived in changing our basic law.

dumping is continued. "I certainly would not like to have to take such a drastic step," Gaskins said, "But I have had to send bulldozers in there at least once a week to clean up the trash." Gaskins built the landing to be used by fishermen and picnickers free of charge. The landing becomes especially popular during shad fishing season in the spring. But soon the landing may become unavailable to the public if persons continue to dump litter on it. To reach the new landfill, turn right just beyond the Ayden-Grifton High School and follow the Littlefield signs.

GOOD TRAVELERS
WASHINGTON (UPI) —Pet animals, particularly cats and dogs, make good air travelers, says the Air Transport Association (ATA). ATA suggests consulting airlines well in advance of a planned trip with domesticated animals for advice about suitable containers.

District Meeting

The Roanoke District Convention, sponsored by the Area Churches of Christ, will be held Saturday, at the Beaver Dam Church of Christ, Highway 264 East of Washington. The theme will be "Christ and Me in '73."

The morning service will begin at 10:30 a.m. Rupert Wallace, minister of the Lebanon Church of Christ, Newport News, Va., will bring the message entitled, "What Christ Can Do For Me." Preceding the afternoon session, lunch will be served by the host church. The afternoon speaker, Jim Coyle, minister of the Williamston Church of Christ, Williamston, will deliver a message entitled, "What I Can Do For Christ."

Special music will be provided for each service. A business meeting will follow the afternoon session. The public is invited to attend the convention and the district singspiration, which will be held Sunday, at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Christian Church, Highway 125, North of Williamston.

Totals of seats held by members of the various denominations include:

Roman Catholic, 115; Methodist, 84; Presbyterian, 78; Episcopal, 66; Baptist, 55; United Church, 27; Lutheran, 16; Jewish, 14; Latter-day Saints, 10; Christian Church (Disciples), 9; Unitarian-Universalist, 9; Churches of Christ, 7; Christian Science, 5; Eastern Orthodox, 4; Society of Friends, 4; Evangelical Free Church, 2, and eight other small denominations, one each.

Nineteen members of Congress listed themselves simply as "Protestant" without specifying any denomination. Four others simply listed "none" regarding religious affiliation.

Dining Room To Be Closed

A spokesman for the Brook Valley Country Club said today that the club's dining room will be closed Saturday night. The dining room will remain closed on Saturday nights throughout January.

Lang Col. . .

(Continued from page 4) mer governors reaching the specified retirement age are paid half of their normal salary. The pay for North Carolina's governor moves to $38,500 annually Jan. 1. Governors now make regular contributions to the state retirement program but are barred from receiving pensions because they do not meet the mandatory requirement for five years' service. Turner, who said he was "impartial in this matter," theorized that a pension plan would be beneficial for "young governors" such as Scott, 42, Gov.-Elect Jim Holshouser, 38, and Sanford. Turner, a Scott appointee, volunteered: "This wasn't designed for Gov. Scott. I'm impartial in this matter."

A scattered sampling of legislators showed little support for the gubernatorial pension proposal. Sen. Herman Moore, D-Moore, answered a newsman's query with, "If the outgoing governor had appointed me to the same job he did Dr. Bill Turner, then I would have made the same statement."

"I've never heard of anybody working four years and getting a pension," said Sen. Marshall Rauch, D-Gaston. "At the moment I'm opposed to it," said Sen. I.C. Crawford, D-Buncomb.

Garrett To Preach

Revival services will begin at Holy Trinity United Holy Church on Monday evening at 8 p.m. The Rev. D.D. Garrett Jr., will be the guest speaker for the week.

THE REV. D. D. GARRETT JR.
Rev. Garrett is a graduate of C.M. Eppes High School in Greenville, Clinton Junior College, and Livingston College in Salisbury. He and his wife, the former Thelma Bowden of Mt. Gilead have recently moved to Greenville.

Rev. Leamon Dudley, pastor of the Holy Trinity United Holy Church, invites the public to attend the services.

Huddled In Their Car

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — A professor and two students from the University of North Carolina-Wilmington remained safe from last Saturday's earthquake while huddled in a car in Managua. They were in Nicaragua on scientific research projects.

The three then went to Honduras, from where on Wednesday they were able to assure anxious relatives and university officials that they were safe.

Then the students, William Mansfield, 25, of Wilmington, and Frederick VomLehn, 19, of Cullowhee, flew to Miami, from where on Thursday Mansfield telephoned details of their escape.

Dr. Ralph Brauer, chairman of the university's Department of Marine Bio-medicine, is remaining in Central America a while longer, but the students are returning home.

Mansfield told UNC-Wilmington authorities that the three were in their hotel in Managua when they felt the first rumblings of the earthquake. They fled to their rented car in the hotel parking lot, and remained there throughout the quake. Williamson said the hotel was constructed of reinforced concrete, and was one of the few buildings left standing.

FLYING SAINT
NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — New Orleans football Saints' Vice President Richard W. Gordon, Jr., has logged 315 hours, 53 minutes flying time in space as a member of the Gemini and Apollo programs.

Boyle Col. . . .

(Continued from page 4) for new legions of Girl Fridays.

"The clerical work force is growing five times faster than the general population, and now receives about $80 billion a year in salaries."

"The 10 million clerical employees now on the job is almost double the 1940 total."

Dr. Pollack noted that despite the current recession there is still a shortage of stenographers and trained secretaries. Other studies have shown that business managements often are more reluctant to cut their office clerical staffs than their factory employees.

The job future is also brighter today for office workers. The government has predicted there will be a need for at least 200,000 new secretaries a year for some time to come.

The paper storm is heightened by the increasing output of educational institutions. It is estimated that more than a majority of all the scientists ever born on earth are still alive. They are producing fresh paper mountains of documents, graphs, research reports and learned journals. One of the biggest problems of science is how to digest its own output.

It won't be long, some experts figure, before America will be using 500 pounds of paper a year for each man, woman, and child in the population.

So what can we do about all this? I don't know about you, but I know what I'm going to do. I'm going to clean out a couple of file drawers — and I'm also going to plant a few trees in my back yard. I don't want my descendants to run out of paper.

In one form or another, the manta is found in the tropical and subtropical parts of all the oceans and of the Mediterranean Sea.

Come to Church

UNIVERSITY CHURCH OF CHRIST
U. S. 263 By-Pass-Belvedere
10:00 a.m. — Sunday School
11:00 a.m. — Sunday Service
7:45 p.m. — Evening Meeting
10:00 to 4:00 p.m. — Mon. through Fri., except legal holiday. Reading Room, 313 Evans Street

JARVIS MEMORIAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
510 S. Washington Street
Troy J. Barrett, Minister
Charles M. Smith, Associate Minister
Adrian E. Brown, Minister for Visitation
9:00 — Student Recognition Service — "Resolutions of Christian Love" — Ann Fleming, Don McLane, Mr. Barrett; Ed Lewis, presiding.
9:45 a.m. — Church School for all ages (Nursery provided)
11:00 a.m. — Student Recognition Service — "Resolutions of Christian Love" — Ann Fleming, Don McLane, Mr. Barrett; Ed Lewis, presiding.

11 a.m. — January 7 — ONLY ONE SERVICE on this 1st Sunday in the New Year, with everyone in attendance. Bishop Robert Blackburn will deliver the morning message.
2:00-4:00 p.m. — Greenville District Reception (Jarvis Church) for the Blackburns with Laymen and Pastors of the Greenville District attending.

Bus To Go To Union Service

A bus will leave Selvia Chapel F.W.B. Church this evening at 7 p.m. to go to Joe's Branch F.W.B. Church to participate in the Union meeting.

The Rev. J.B. Taylor, his choir and ushers and congregation will render services beginning at 8 p.m.

Gospel Sing

A gospel sing will be held this Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Greenville Church of God. Featured groups will include the Clark Sisters and the Youth Choir of the Broad Creek Church of God. The public is invited to attend.

FRESH DAILY ROLLS
Diener's Bakery
815 Dickinson Ave.

Memorial Baptist Church
Corner Of 4th and Greene Streets
REV. C. NORMAN BENNETT, JR.
PASTOR
Sunday School 9:45 a.m.
Morning Worship 11:00 a.m.
(Nursery Available)

Was friendship born in Scotland?

Not But it took the Scots to remind the world how friendship reaches across the passing years. As the ball of light falls over Times Square once again millions of hearts will stir to the familiar strains of Auld Lang Syne.

Other precious values reach across the passing years. One of them is faith. At its simplest it is man's awareness of friendship with God. At its noblest it is man's confidence that time will unfold new experiences of God's affection for us.

Something else reaches across the passing years. It is worship. Its moods and forms may gradually change . . . from the cathedral chant of the middle ages, to the simplicity of the cottage prayer-meeting—even to the rhythmic beat of so-called contemporary services. But worship itself does not change. In whatever mood or form, man expresses his devotion to his Lord.

And whatever may have been your spiritual tempo, the New Year in the churches of our community offers new incentives, deepening opportunities, in faith and worship.

Copyright 1972 Keister Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Virginia. Scriptures selected by the American Bible Society.

Sunday	Revelation 11:15-19
Monday	Revelation 22:16-21
Tuesday	I Peter 2:4-10
Wednesday	I John 4:1-11
Thursday	James 1:2-18
Friday	Hebrews 3:1-6
Saturday	II Corinthians 5:1-10

MANY BUSINESSMEN ARE CAUGHT in a "profit squeeze" these days. The cost of operating a business is going up. Credit and collection problems may actually mean a loss in earnings.

ONE LOCAL BUSINESSMAN who operates his (or her) own business in your neighborhood is affected by the profit squeeze. The young carrier-salesman who delivers your newspaper every day can have collection problems too.

IT'S IMPORTANT TO your carrier to collect in full from every customer. When a customer is slow in paying, or asks the carrier to come back time after time, there's that much less profit for the carrier.

YOU CAN HELP these young businessmen avoid the "profit squeeze" by having your payment ready for your carrier on the very first call.

THANKS FOR HELPING.

The Daily Reflector
209 Cotanche Street

This series of ads is being published each week in The Reflector and is being sponsored by the following individuals and business establishments:

Pitt FCX Service
Farmer's Headquarters
Corner Line and Chestnut Street

Home Savings and Loan Ass'n
Deposits Insured up to $20,000
543 Evans Street — Phone 758-3421

Home Furniture Store, Inc.
Phone 752-2879
Free Parking Behind Store
Corner of 8th St. and Dickinson Ave.

Biggs Drug Store
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded
300 Evans Street — Phone 752-2136

Stock And Market Reports

RALEIGH (AP) (NCDA)—North Carolina hog markets today are mostly .50 lower. 30.00-30.50 Rocky Mount; 29.25-30.25 Wilson; 28.50-29.75 Tarboro; 28.50-29.50 Bethel; 31.00 Mount Olive; 30.00 Salisbury

RALEIGH (AP) (NCDA)—North Carolina f.o.b. dock brokers today: Prices steady. Supplies adequate. Demand good. Weights desirable. North Carolina hens today: Prices steady on heavy types. Supplies fully adequate. Demand fair. Light type, too few. Heavy hens, at farm, 16 cents.

NEW YORK (AP)—In a sudden, unexpected spurt, the stock market today forcefully resumed the climb which it had interrupted after the rupture of peace talks in Vietnam.

The 11:30 a.m. Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was up 10.83 to 1018.51. Advances raced ahead of declines 848 to 441 on the New York Stock Exchange, with 1,656 issues changing hands in heavy trading.

AT&T warrants were the Big Board's most active issue, up 1/4 to 9. AT&T common stock was active traded, but down 1/4 to 52 1/2.

Auto stocks continued their recent strength, based on booming car sales. General Motors was up 1 1/4 to 81 1/4; Chrysler was ahead 3/4 to 40 1/2; and Ford was up 3/4 to 79 1/2.

Ordered To Marry

TORONTO (AP)—Robert Parkinson says he will appeal a judge's ruling that he must marry a woman he has been living with if he wants to see his children from his previous marriage.

Parkinson said Thursday he and Aurora Mellie, named in his divorce in September from his wife, have been intending to marry, "but now the judge's insisting on it has ruined that."

"Miss Mellie thinks the only reason I want to marry her now is just so that I can see my children," said Parkinson. "The judge's order has put me in a position where I can't marry Bob," said Miss Mellie. "He's condemned me to marry... whether I want to or not. It's the first step to another divorce."

Justice Peter Wright ruled Dec. 13 that Parkinson could see the two children of his previous 17-year marriage every third weekend only if he and Miss Mellie married. She also has a daughter by him.

Obituary

Joyner
Lt. Col. Donald Ellington Joyner, 41, died Wednesday when his damaged plane crashed at Utapao Air Force Base in Thailand following a bombing mission over Vietnam.

A veteran of almost 20 years' service he had been stationed at the Thai base since April.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Jean Journigan Joyner of Westover Air Force Base, Mass.; three daughters, Misses Jacqueline A., Kimberly Carol, and Patricia J. Joyner, all of the home, and a son, Darryl Elbert Joyner, also of the home; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert A. Joyner of Rt. 1, Henderson, formerly of Farmville.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending the arrival of the body at Davis Funeral Home in Henderson.

Correction
Mrs. Thelma Roberson of Greenville, mother of John W. Roberson, was inadvertently left out of the list of Mr. Roberson's survivors in an obituary run in Thursday's Daily Reflector.

The Meeting Place

FRIDAY
7:30 p.m.—Redmen meet
SATURDAY
1:30 p.m.—Saturday Afternoon Duplicate Bridge at Elks Club

Getty, Onassis Are Also In London Now

By LEONARD KIRSCHEN
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP)—While Howard Hughes stayed locked in his London hotel fortress today, two fellow members of the Billionaire Brigade were pouring champagne to greet the New Year.

"I believe in living as full a life as anybody else," said J. Paul Getty, reputedly richer than Hughes the recluse.

With Getty at Sutton Place south of London was another tycoon who leads the good life, shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis, husband of the former Jacqueline Kennedy.

Onassis arrived unannounced Thursday from Paris and went straight to Getty's mansion in Surrey. His visit, following quickly on Hughes' sudden arrival from Nicaragua, brought speculation that big deals might be in the making.

But aides insisted it was strictly a social call. Getty and Onassis are personal friends from way back.

Getty broke away from his house party to talk about his philosophy of living with riches at the age of 80.

"I'd have liked you to come down and see me here but the house is full of guests and I haven't a minute to spare," he said. "So let's talk on the telephone."

Getty said his one big dislike is being photographed. Most of his pictures come out long-faced, giving rise to the widespread belief in London that despite his wealth he isn't really happy.

"I'm always told to pose," he said. "The result is that I come out looking sad on pictures."

"I'm not sad." Another thing he doesn't like is being thought of as a big walking bundle of greenbacks. "I've other interests," he said.

"Collecting works of art is one of my main hobbies. And I love going to the theater. As for television, I watch it like anyone else if the program is good."

Asked whether he was afraid in this violent age of anything happening to him, Getty replied:

"I take my chance like anyone else. I don't like to lock myself up and I like meeting people."

Getty conceded he was missing the open beaches and the sea of his native California.

"I love walking in the sand and swimming. I have a swimming pool right here," he said.

His parting words were: "I wish you a happy New Year."

Over at the Inn on the Park, Hughes stayed inside his ninth-floor hideout locked off behind bodyguards, three sets of locked doors and closed-circuit security television.

Cartoon Characters Help Relieve Boredom

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An airline passenger, sitting blank-faced and bored between flights, turns suddenly to stare into the smiling face of a tall carrot chomping rabbit towering above him.

"Eh, what's up, doc?" the rabbit asked.

"Look, there's Bugs Bunny!" a little boy nearby yells.

Bugs Bunny, Daffy Duck and Yosemite Sam have just deplaned from a Pacific Southwest Airlines flight. Instantly, the boarding lounge is merry bedlam.

Yosemite Sam holds up a grinning grandmother with his mock cannon. Another youngster tugs at Bugs Bunny's cotton tail.

This is the kind of scene that can be found at San Francisco

International Airport almost any day—and which an enterprising young man hopes will soon be a common sight at airports everywhere.

The characters, hired by PSA to entertain its passengers, are the brainchildren of Bob Claus, president of Cartoon Characters, Inc., of San Jose, Calif. He rents his cast of 13 Warner Brothers cartoon characters to airlines, claiming they relieve boredom and nervousness of airport waits and "unwrap people from all their problems."

"Isn't it beautiful?" Claus asked, surveying the pandemonium in the lounge. "Happiness is dying at a very rapid pace. We want to get people smiling again."

Claus, 26, also said he is happy with the in-flight antics of the cartoon characters.

He said he struck upon the idea while sitting depressed one day at the San Jose Airport, wondering why nobody smiled. Since their first PSA flight Dec. 15, Claus said the comic figures have logged more than 20,000 miles.

The characters are played by unemployed actors, actresses, drama students and just plain hams.

"We're all crazy," said Cathy McIntosh, 22, an ex-television model who plays Daffy Duck. "It's so much fun to light up grumpy faces."

Claus, a former airport baggage handler, said he sold the idea to PSA by sending a man dressed as Bugs Bunny to the airline's executive offices.

PSA President J. Boyd Andrews "didn't believe it at first," Claus said, "but he signed a one-month contract with an option to renew."

Dwayne Wittmayer, PSA vice president of sales, said the cartoon characters are in keeping with the airline's motto of "putting the fun back into flying." PSA also dressed its stewardesses in miniskirts and has conducted various inflight contests for passengers, awarding free dinners and vacations as prizes.

Get New Job Offer

BUCHANNON, W.Va. (AP)—John D. Rockefeller IV, the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in the November election, has been offered the job as president of West Virginia Wesleyan.

The announcement was made Thursday by Dr. J. Roy Price, the president of the school's board of trustees. If he accepts, the 35-year-old Rockefeller would assume the post March 1, 1973.

A source at the college said Rockefeller's decision on whether to accept would be forthcoming by Jan. 3.

Wesleyan is an 82-year-old four-year liberal arts institution affiliated with the United Methodist Church.

Rockefeller is the outgoing secretary of state of West Virginia. He was defeated for governor in the general election by incumbent Republican Gov. Arch A. Moore Jr. by 73,000 votes.

Terrorists . . .

(Continued from page 1)
sought were all members of Black September, the Palestinian organization responsible for the slaying of 11 Israeli athletes at the Munich Olympics and the massacre at Israel's international airport last May. It is financed by the oil-rich Libyan government.

The four Arabs invaded the Israeli embassy Thursday while the King of Thailand's only son, Prince Vajiralongkorn, was being invested as crown prince at a ceremony in Parliament House. Two of the terrorists posed as diplomats returning from the ceremony in white tie and tails to get past the Thai guard at the embassy gate. The other two scaled the wall.

Armed with submachine guns and grenades, the four entered the embassy, building and took the six Israelis inside as hostages. They included the visiting Israeli ambassador to Cambodia, Shimon Avimor, and two women, but Ambassador Amir was attending the royal investiture. The Thai guard called the police; hundreds of troops and police surrounded the building, and the Arabs threw out a note containing their demands.

The Arabs were negotiating with Air Marshal Dawee Chullasapya of the ruling Thai junta, Egyptian Ambassador Moustafa el Essawy and others. During the night the terrorists agreed to release the hostages in exchange for safe conduct out of the country and everybody sat down to a chicken curry inside the embassy—the Arabs, the hostages, the Thai officials and the ambassador.

Later the terrorists apparently balked, but finally they emerged from the building with the six hostages bound by ropes. They boarded a bus along with Air Marshal Dawee, seven other Thai officials and the Egyptian ambassador, and the party was taken to the airport.

The terrorists freed the hostages at the airport, handed their weapons to a Thai officer and boarded the plane with the eight Thais for the flight to Cairo.

Obituaries

Collins
Mr. Charlie Collins, formerly of Ayden, died Thursday at Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro. Funeral arrangements are incomplete at Norcott and Co. Funeral Home in Ayden.

Cobb
Mr. Peter Cobb died last night at his home near Greenville. He was the father of Mrs. Elsie Jones of Tyson Street, Greenville. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Hawkins
Funeral services for Mr. John W. Hawkins will be conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. at the White Oak Baptist Church by the Rev. W. S. Wilson. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Born in Pitt County, he was the son of the late Otis and Nora Wilson Hawkins. He spent most of his life in the Grimesland area.

Surviving him are a daughter, Mrs. Dena B. Davis of Rt. 2, Greenville; a son, James Floyd of Newark, N. J.; three sisters, Mrs. Ethel Pritchard, Mrs. Sara Ruffin and Miss Doletha Hawkins; six brothers, Norman, Willie, Milton, Wilton, and Otis Hawkins, Jr., and Elmond Hardy, all of Grimesland.

The family will receive friends at Phillips Brothers Mortuary Friday from 8 to 9 p.m. They will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hawkins on Rt. 1, Grimesland.

Gorham
Mr. Cecil Green Gorham of Washington, D. C., formerly of Farmville, died Tuesday night enroute to District of Columbia General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. at Moyer's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church on Rt. 1, Farmville by the Rev. Denmark Suggs. Burial will be in Saints' Delight Cemetery.

Born in Pitt County, the son of Mrs. Bertha Green Gorham and the late Samuel Gorham, he graduated from H. B. Sugg High School in Farmville in 1960. He then went to school in Connecticut and was involved in research at the National Institute of Health at Bethesda, Md. when he died.

Surviving him are a son, Lawrence Gorham; two daughters, Misses Andrea and Tora Gorham, all of New Haven, Conn.; his mother of Farmville; a brother, William Dixon of Washington, D. C.; and a sister, Mrs. Joyce Neal of Greensboro.

Cox
HOOKERTON — Charlie H. Cox, 56, died Thursday. Funeral services will be held Saturday at Edwards Funeral Chapel, Snow Hill, with the Rev. Frank Smith officiating. Burial will follow in the Snow Hill Cemetery.

He was a policeman. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Willie Mae Moore Cox; a daughter, Mary E. Cox of the home; two sons, Charles D. of Mt. Vernon, Ind., and Steven Cox of Atlanta, Ga.; three sisters, Mrs. Nannie J. Mazing and Mrs. Richard Garris, both of Greenville, and Mrs. Lloyd Tyndall of Maury; four brothers, Waylon L. of New Bern, Raymond H. of Winterville, Linwood R. of Farmville, and Leonard G. Cox of Maury; two grandchildren.

Peterson
Mrs. Addie Peterson, a citizen of the Ormondville Community of Greene County, died Thursday at Wilson County Memorial Hospital in Wilson after a lingering illness. Funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Norcott & Co. Downtown Chapel in Ayden with the Elder W. L. Harris, officiating. Interment will follow in the Red Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Peterson was the daughter of the late Mr. Henry and Mrs. Nancy McCarter. She was born in Wayne County but lived most of her life in Greene County and was a member of Little Creek F. W. B. Church.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Nannie J. Suggs and Mrs. Rosetta J. Johnson both of the home; one son, Mr. Freddie West of New York; six grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and other relatives and friends.

The body will be at the Norcott & Co. Downtown Chapel from 5 p.m. Saturday until one hour of the funeral. The family visitation at the Chapel will be from 8 to 9 p.m. Saturday.

U.S. bird cage sales in 1971 totalled $10 million.

Prayer for Peace

It is our fervent prayer that love, hope and peace fill your hearts and minds as the New Year unfolds. May peace be with you always.

BANK OF WINTERVILLE
"Owned & Operated By The Community It Serves"

Main Office, Winterville, N.C.
Branch Office, Trade St., Greenville, N.C.
Member FDIC

We:
Rebuild, Refinish, Repair, Tune, Buy, Sell & Trade the finest Musical Instruments.

Beacon
PIANO COMPANY

Call us today for complete service on all instruments. Free price & delivery. CALL 758-1601 Day or Night.

HEIL
equipment, plus our prompt expert service, can solve any heating or cooling problems you might have. Give us a call.

Quality Heating & Air Conditioning Co.
2001 Greenville Blvd.
PHONE 752-3042

"Cowar-Dex"
COMPLETE PEST-CONTROL SERVICE
752-5175
IVEY COWARD CO.

Pirates Beat Hosts, 83-75, Move To Finals

Rough Going

ALONE IN A CROWD — North Carolina's Darrell Elston found himself alone in a crowd of Utah players last night in Rainbow Classic action, but he outreached everyone for two points. The Utah players, from left, are Charles Whiting, Scot Jones, Luther Burden and Jim Sorensen. (AP Wirephoto)

MONROE, La. — Earl Quash guided East Carolina University into a 14-point first half lead, and the Bucs withstood a Northeast Louisiana comeback to take an 83-75 victory over the Indians and gain the finals of the Pacemaker Classic here last night.

The Bucs will meet Mississippi State in the finals of the tournament tonight, while hosting Northeast takes on North Texas State in the consolation.

Quash dumped in 27 points, 16 of them in the first half as he led the pirates to their fourth victory in seven starts. And his 11 second half points all came at the right time, when the Bucs need them to pull away from the tenacious Indians.

Mississippi State gained the finals of the tournament with 66-65 victory over North Texas State in the tournament's opening game. The victory actually came after time had run out, when a foul shot opportunity enabled the Bulldogs to break the 65-65 tie and win it.

The Pirates, to win, had to fight off several attempts by Northeast to come back from their 14-point first half deficit. They had cut the lead to 10 at halftime, then hit their first eight points of the second to pull within two of East Carolina. They were never able to take the lead from the Bucs despite getting them into serious foul trouble. Three Bucs, Dave Franklin, Nicky White and Jerome Owens all picked up three fouls in the first half, and both Franklin and Owens got their fourth before the middle of the second, when the going was especially tough for the Bucs. But none of the Pirates fouled out.

Tom Marsh, who originally wasn't scheduled to join the team did so, and it may have turned out to be a mistake. After not playing since the opener against Baltimore, when he injured a knee, the sophomore reentered himself in the game. The extend was not immediately known.

The Bucs blistered the nets throughout the game, hitting 33 of 52 shots for a fine 63.5 percentage. Northeast, forced by the Bucs defense to go outside, hit only 45.9 percent.

East Carolina also dominated the backboards, grabbing off 52 rebounds to 29 for Northeast. Al Faber had 11 and White had 10. Besides Quash's 27 points, Franklin finished with 17 and Faber had 13.

Northeast took the opening lead on a jumper by Jerry Jingles after just a few seconds, then got two free throws from Tommy Grubb when Franklin was called for an intentional foul on an inbound play by the Bucs under the Pirate backboard. Quash put the Pirates on the board, and then slowly cut away at the lead, getting a three-pointer from Franklin. They finally took the lead after a steal by Owens and a rebound by Faber at 9-8.

Mike Rose put the Indians back ahead, but Franklin returned it to the Pirates. Bob Carson hit a jumper to make it 12-11 for Northeast, but that was their last lead.

Quash scored on a fast break just seconds afterwards for a 13-12 ECU lead, and the Bucs were off. Franklin and Quash each hit to run the lead to five, and after an Indian free throw, two baskers by Quash upped it to eight, 21-13 with 12:50 left.

The two teams exchanged shots, and then Franklin and Faber each scored, making it 31-17, and a 14-point spread, the biggest the Bucs were to hold.

Northeast fought back, however, sparked by a three-point play by Mike Fletcher, a jumper by graylin Davis and a steal by Rose that cut it to 34-28 with 5:42 remaining. They trimmed it by one more to five, 35-30 before Quash hit five straight points, and Roger Atkinson and Franklin each hit baskets to run it back to 44-30 just before it ended at 46-36.

Carson opened the second half with a basket, and he hit again with Jingles hitting two more to trim the lead to just two, 46-44.

But the Bucs never let them take the lead, although they did have the opportunity. The two continually swapped baskets until the score reached 64-62.

Then, with about seven minutes left, Quash hit two baskets and Atkinson scored on a driving layup to run the Bucs back to an eight-point spread, 70-62. It hovered there until Jingles fouled out at the 3:20 mark and Quash hit a free throw to up the lead to 10, 78-68. Quash finally wrapped it up with 1:16 left when he hit two free throws to make it 80-69, a lead the Indians couldn't overcome. For Northeast, Carson was high with 14, while Grubb had 13, Rose and Jingles each had 12 and Fletcher had 10.

Following tonight's finals, the Bucs are off until January 4 when they meet the University of Richmond on the home court of the Spiders.

Player	Points	Rebounds	Assists	Steals	Blocks	Fouls
ECU	9	1	1	1	1	1
Owens	3	0	6	Burnette	4	1
White	2	0	4	Rose	6	0
Quash	9	27	Jingles	5	2	12
Franklin	8	1	17	Grubb	4	5
Faber	6	1	13	Carson	5	4
Pope	1	4	Burch	0	2	2
Atkinson	3	2	8	Davis	1	3
Marsh	1	0	2	Rayle	0	0
McNeill	0	0	0	Fletcher	3	4
Edwards	0	0	0	Farrell	0	0
TOTALS	33	17	83	TOTALS	28	19

Scores

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NBA

Eastern Conference

Atlantic Division

W. L. Pct. G.B.

Boston 28 5 .848 —

New York 29 10 .744 2

Buffalo 9 26 .257 20

Philadelphia 3 34 .081 17

Central Division

Baltimore 21 14 .600 —

Atlanta 21 17 .553 1½

Houston 16 18 .471 4½

Cleveland 10 27 .270 12

Western Conference

Midwest Division

W. L. Pct. G.B.

Milwaukee 27 10 .730 —

Chicago 22 13 .629 4

K.C.-Omaha 20 20 .500 8½

Detroit 16 20 .444 10½

Pacific Division

Los Angeles 28 7 .800 —

Golden State 22 12 .647 5½

Phoenix 17 19 .472 11½

Seattle 11 29 .275 19½

Portland 9 28 .243 20

Thursday's Games

New York 107, Buffalo 86

Baltimore 112, Atlanta 111

Milwaukee 115, Detroit 91

Golden State 118, Cleveland 105

Only games scheduled

Friday's Games

Chicago at Boston, afternoon

Buffalo at Baltimore

New York at Detroit

Milwaukee at Houston

Portland at Phoenix

Kansas City-Omaha at Los Angeles

Cleveland at Seattle

Only games scheduled

ABA

East

W. L. Pct. G.B.

Carolina 26 14 .650 —

Kentucky 23 13 .639 ½

Virginia 21 21 .500 6

Memphis 14 24 .368 12

New York 13 24 .351 11½

West

Utah 24 15 .615 —

Indiana 20 17 .541 3½

Denver 20 17 .541 3

Dallas 15 21 .417 7½

San Diego 16 26 .381 9½

Thursday's Games

Utah 128, New York 90

Virginia 124, Dallas 117

Carolina 120, Indiana 106

Only games scheduled

Friday's Games

New York at San Diego

Dallas at Kentucky

Only games scheduled

Carolina Blasts Utah By 73-61

HONOLULU (AP) — North Carolina parlayed balanced scoring with a swarming defense to whip Utah, 73-61, on Thursday and gain a semifinal spot in the ninth annual Rainbow Classic Basketball Tournament.

Reggie Ball, Ray Price and Louis Nelson sparked a second half comeback as Washington turned back Subpac, 86-77, in the other half of the double-header.

In tonight's semifinals, 11th-ranked North Carolina meets Washington and Louisville takes on unbeaten Hawaii.

All five North Carolina starters scored in double figures,

Bobby Jones and George Karl leading the way with 12 points apiece, as the Tar Heels hustled to their eighth victory against one loss.

Donn Johnston and Ed Stahl each put in all points Darrell Elston had 10.

The Tar Heels built a 46-36 halftime lead and were up by eight points with 11 minutes to play in the second half. They then blanked the Redskins for three minutes while scoring five baskets for an insurmountable 64-46 margin.

Scot Jones and Jim Sorensen were high for Utah, 2-8, with 10 points each.

Baltimore Squeezes Out 112-111 Win Over Hawks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Baltimore's first place position in the National Basketball Association's Central Division balanced precariously on the rim of the basket twice in the final moments of the Bullets' game against second place Atlanta Thursday night.

Both times, the ball fell without going through the hoop and Baltimore hung on for a 112-111 victory over the second place Hawks to move 1½ games ahead of Atlanta.

Elsewhere in the NBA Thursday, New York walloped

Buffalo 107-86, Milwaukee slugged Detroit 115-91 and Golden State ripped Cleveland 118-105.

In the American Basketball Association, Virginia whipped Dallas 124-117, Carolina defeated Indiana 120-106 and Utah belted the New York Nets 128-90.

The Hawks pulled to within one point of the Bullets at 110-109 with 18 seconds left on a basket by Lou Hudson, who had 26 points. Then Pete Maravich stole the ball for Atlanta.

First Maravich and then Hudson both missed short jump shots that would have put Atlanta ahead. Baltimore finally grabbed a rebound and Phil Chenier dropped in a layup with four seconds left for the deciding points.

Mike Riordan led the Bullets with 26 points while Chenier, Wes Unseld and Flynn Robinson added 20 apiece. Herm Gilliam had 23 and Maravich 19 for the Hawks.

New York hit on 17 of 25 first period shots and rolled to a 37-13 bulge over Buffalo. It was the 20th home court victory in 21 starts for the Knicks.

Sports Briefs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

GENERAL

SOUTHAMPTON, England — Hugh "Jumbo" Edwards, double Olympic gold medalist and internationally renowned rowing coach, died at the age of 66.

FOOTBALL

EVANSTON, Ill. — John Pont, head coach at Indiana University, was named to succeed Alex Agase at Northwestern.

HOCKEY

BALTIMORE — General Manager Terry Reardon of the American Hockey League Baltimore Clippers stepped aside as coach of the club, announcing that defenseman Jim Morrison would replace him, becoming player-coach.

Tide Table

Tides for the twenty-four period beginning at midnight at Topsail Island:
Lows: 10:10 a.m., 10:15 p.m.
Highs: 4:00 a.m., 4:07 p.m.

Staubach Gets Call; Allen Not Worried

By BRUCE LOWITT

Associated Press Sports Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — "If you do the right things on defense, anybody can be playing quarterback and it won't matter," Washington coach George Allen said.

Allen said Thursday he believed his Redskins would be facing Craig Morton Sunday in the game to decide the National Conference's entry into Super Bowl VII—but he figured wrong.

A few hours after the Redskins finished their closed workout, the Dallas Cowboys announced they would go with quarterback Roger Staubach in the game at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium.

The fact that Staubach, more of a threat to run, would start in place of Morton, prone to stay in the pocket, didn't concern the Redskins' coach.

"We are not preparing differently for either of them," Allen said.

Allen, who sprung a five-man front line on Green Bay to negate the Packer's running game, also said he didn't expect any surprises from the Dallas defense.

"We've played them twice this year and we pretty much know what they've got," he said. "It's just a matter of dealing with it."

Washington defensive tackle Bill Brundige didn't share his coach's lack of concern over Staubach's selection.

"I'd rather be facing Morton, Brundige said. "Staubach's more of a scrambler and I just don't like to run too much. We have to play more spread out to try and contain him. And we really can't use that five-man line as effectively against him."

Morton, who took over Dallas' signal calling when Staubach suffered a preseason injury, directed the Cowboys to a 10-4 record, one game back of Washington in the East Division, and into the playoffs with the NFC's wildcard berth.

But it was Staubach who got Dallas past San Francisco and into Sunday's game. He replaced Morton in the fourth quarter last Saturday and, trailing by 16 points, brought the Cowboys within range of a Toni Fritsch field goal, then passed for two touchdowns to beat the 49ers, 30-28.

"You can't go into a game thinking 'we've got to prevent the pass' or 'we've got to stop the run,'" Allen said, "or you're going to get burned."

"It's like a batter who goes up to the plate worrying about the knuckle ball. He watches three fast balls go by for strikes and goes back to the dugout still waiting for the knuckler."

S. Edgecombe Blasts Jamesville

TARBORO — South Edgecombe whipped Jamesville last night in three games to completely humiliate the Bullets.

The South Edgecombe J.V.'s started the rout with a 53-20 blasting of the Jamesville J.V.'s. Then the South Edgecombe girls smashed the Lady Bullets, 77-21. To finish out the night, the boys raked the Bullets, 81-66.

In the girls' game, South Edgecombe jumped out to a 20-4 lead in the opening frame and the Jamesville girls could never overcome it. South Edgecombe added 16 more to their total as Jamesville got 11.

The Lady Bullets were shut out in the third period as South Edgecombe girls continued to breeze along as they took the last quarter, 19-6, for the final 51-point spread.

Jamesville's boys started to avenge their girls' loss as they inched out to a 17-14 lead in the first period of their game. South Edgecombe came back to take the second quarter, 22-14 and the lead which they never lost. At the half, it was 36-31.

South Edgecombe continued to move away as they added 18 in the third quarter. Jamesville put 15 through. Two of Jamesville's starters fouled out in the least

Buc Grapplers Trail In Tourney

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — Wilkes College took an early lead Thursday night for team championship honors in the 40th annual Wilkes Open Wrestling Tournament here.

Semifinals are slated for 1 p.m. Friday and the finals follow at 7 p.m.

Upon completion of quarter-final action, the host Colonels had 21½ points. Following were Clarion State, 17; defending champion New York Athletic Club, 14½; Ashland, 14; University of Buffalo, 14 and East Carolina University, 13½.

Three of four returning champions were still in competition going into the semifinals. Losing out in the quarter-finals was Art Trovei, 134, Wilkes, who was pinned by Rich Green of Toledo University.

Returning defenders still active are Jack Spates, Slippery Rock, 118; Dave Pruzansky, New York Athletic Club, 142; and Bill Sweet, Indiana State University, 177.

Relief pitcher Pedro Borbon of the Cincinnati Reds made 1972 his first full year in the majors.

oil heat

- Budget Terms
- Burner Service
- Computer Printed Invoices

W.L. Allen Oil Co.
120 E. Skinner St. Greenville, N.C.
Phone 752-2345

THE BIG BOURBON

$10.45
HALF GALLON WITH BUILT-IN POURER

HERE IN NORTH CAROLINA
THIS ONE HAS BEEN AMONG THE TOP THREE FAVORITES FOR THE PAST FIVE YEARS.

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY, 86 PROOF, BOTTLED BY CANADA DRY DISTILLERS CO., NICHOLASVILLE, KY.

DID YOU KNOW THAT YOUR HOME HAS BORROWING POWER

If you have a need for a loan, our home loan plan may be the answer. Your house will help you get the money you need without disturbing your present mortgage.

LOANS FROM $900.00 TO $7,500.00
PUT YOUR HOME BORROWING POWER TO WORK NOW.

JUST DIAL 752-2499

PROVIDENT MORTGAGE CO., INC.

511 DICKINSON AVE. GREENVILLE, N.C.

SAAD'S SHOE SHOP

Work Guaranteed
Located College View
Cleaners Main Plant,
Grande Avenue

DANCE

EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

WHICHARD'S BEACH PAVILION

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

Eastern Carolina's Largest Saturday Night Round-Up!

Heels, Raiders Getting Set For Bowl Kickoff

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Texas Tech had only one player on the All-Southwest Conference offensive first team, yet led the league in offense. The reason: Junior quarterback Joe Barnes.

Barnes and Tar Heel quarterback Nick Vidnovic both can run and throw. Vidnovic also is an excellent punter. Kickoff is 11 a.m. MST in the nationally televised game, with the ninth-ranked Tar Heels rating a three-point favorite over the unranked Red Raiders.

The Sun Bowl represents something of a jinx to the Red Raiders, who have lost six out of seven times in the post-season classic. "That's not going to bother me," said Barnes of the Tech Sun Bowl record. "I didn't play in any of them."

"Joe made our offense tick," said Coach Jim Carlen of the Red Raiders, who meet North Carolina's Tar Heels Saturday in the Sun Bowl Classic.

Barnes is quick to pass off the praise to "great senior leadership, over-all attitude and Tom Wilson."

Wilson is a former Texas Tech quarterback now on the Tech coaching staff who called all the plays from the pressbox as the Raiders compiled an 8-3 season record and a tie for second place in the SWC.

"Tom knows offensive football so well he can really pluck a defense," Barnes says. "He made some calls I disagreed with that turned into touchdowns plays."

"Take the SMU game, for example. It was third and two and we had a 10-3 lead. Calvin Jones came into the huddle and called a bomb to himself. I said, 'Are you sure?' Calvin caught the pass for a touchdown with something like a minute left and we were in."

Athletic Director J. T. King, who was the Tech coach during Wilson's playing days, said, "Wilson was always like a coach out there. We certainly didn't have to call any plays from the sidelines."

Barnes was at the controls of Red Raider offense that averaged 368.5 yards per game. After looking at films of the Atlantic Coast Champion Tar Heels, Barnes says: "They have a big, strong defense like Texas. They seem very run-conscious. I think we can pass on them."

Cougars Net Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It's tough going for the champion Indiana Pacers in the American Basketball Association these nights.

They suffered their fifth straight loss Thursday night as they fell before the Carolina Cougars 120-106 and dropped three games behind the first place Utah Stars in the ABA West.

The Stars enjoyed a 128-90 romp over the New York Nets as Glen Combs and Willie Wise combined for 50 points. The Virginia Squires beat the Dallas Chaparrals 124-117 in the other ABA game scheduled.

Milwaukee whipped Detroit 115-91, Baltimore edged Atlanta 112-111, the New York Knicks trampled Buffalo 107-86 and Golden State took Cleveland 118-105 in the National Basketball Association.

The Cougars, on top in the ABA East, were led by Billy Cunningham's 32 points as they overcame the Pacers for their fifth in a row. George McGinnis was high for the Pacers with 24.

Combs tossed in 26 points and Wise 24 as they led the Stars over the Nets. George Carter, the Nets' leading scorer, was ejected in the first quarter after two technical fouls were called against him. "They obviously missed Carter," said LaDell Andersen coach of the Stars. Brian Taylor topped the Nets with 20.

Julius Erving scored 32 points, 17 of them in the third period, to lead the Squires over the Chaps. Rich Jones and Joe Hamilton each scored 21 to pace the Chaps who cut Virginia's 20-point lead to seven in the last five minutes.

ONE-TWO AND TWO-ONE YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) —

When Yonkers Raceway opens its winter harness race meeting Jan. 3, quinella wagering will be introduced to New York. In quinella wagering the bettor picks two horses. For him to collect, the horses must finish first and second or second and first.

Quinellas will be held on the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh races. This is different from the exacta in which a winning bettor must pick his two horses in their correct order of finish.

What it means is that more people will go to the cashier windows. It's a betting-handle stimulant because of the old racetrack adage: "The more people win the more they bet."

SC May Take Three Crowns

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Holiday tournament championships once were rare items for Southern Conference basketball teams, but William and Mary's Indians already have brought home one and two other league teams have shots at playoff titles tonight.

Not only that, but Davidson's Wildcats open play in the Charlotte, N. C., Invitational with a chance of gaining the final round. The Wildcats, 4-3, take on St. Bonaventure and Cincinnati goes against Bradley in tonight's opening round.

William and Mary annexed the crown in the Scranton Invitational with a 69-53 victory Thursday night over City College of New York after Lehigh had beaten host Scranton 71-67 for third place.

Also gaining championship berths tonight were Furman's Paladins in their own Poinsettia Classic with a 101-95 victory over Texas and East Carolina's defending league champion Pirates with an 83-75 triumph over host Northeast Louisiana in the Pacemaker Classic.

Furman will go against Clemson's Tigers, who sidelined Pepperdine 85-65 in the other Poinsettia Classic semifinal. East Carolina's foe in the Pacemaker Classic finals will be Mississippi State, which edged North Texas State 66-65.

Two other league teams were beaten Thursday night in the semifinal round of holiday tournaments and will play tonight for third place.

Appalachian State's Mountaineers, 98-84 victims of American University's Eagles, will take on Delaware, which dropped a 98-85 decision to Roanoke's NCAA College Division champion Maroons in the Roanoke, Va., Invitational. Roanoke meets American U. for the title.

And The Citadel's Bulldogs will have to settle for no better than third in their own Palmetto Classic after losing to Brown 67-60 in the semifinals. Brown will meet Wake Forest, 95-66 victor over Tulane for the title.

The Citadel shot only 37.6 per cent from the floor and that was far from good enough to beat Brown, which hit 58.5 per cent with Eddie Morris scoring 18 points and Vaughn Clarke 14. Steve Fishel had a game-high 20 points for the Bulldogs.

A 52 per cent shooting performance by Appalachian wasn't enough to beat American U., which shot only 48.6 per cent but hit 26 of 32 free throws while the Mountaineers hit six of 12. Wilbur Thomas and Johnny Lloyd had 25 points each for American, while Stan Davis led Appalachian with 23.

Jay Piccola had 29 points and Denton Willard 25 as Roanoke pulled away from Delaware after the Blue Hens tied it at 61-61 midway the second half. Allen Jones had 18 points and 13 rebounds for Roanoke. Ken Lukhard's 19 points topped Delaware.

"I'll be ready by game time, you can bet on it," he said. "I'll rest and get stronger here in the hospital and will have a lot of time to think about Miami."

The Dolphins, champions of the Eastern Division, meet Central Division king Pittsburgh Sunday for the American Football Conference title at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami's squad flies into town today for final preparations before the two National Football League powers fight it out for a spot in Super Bowl VII.

"I'll tell you about Miami's defense," said Bradshaw, adjusting his huge eyeglasses. "They're terribly quick. But, I'm sure we can move the ball ... and put some points on the board."

Pretty, brown-haired Melissa Bradshaw was again beginning to share her quarterback husband's confidence. It had been something of a jinx to the Red Raiders, who have lost six out of seven times in the post-season classic. "That's not going to bother me," said Barnes of the Tech Sun Bowl record. "I didn't play in any of them."

Freshman Mike Arizin, son of former Villanova and National Basketball Association star Paul Arizin, scored 28 points for William and Mary and was voted the most valuable player in the Scranton tourney as the Indians upped their record to 4-7.

After CCNY scored first, the Indians went on a spree that gave them a lead they never lost. It was 39-29 at the half, and the Indians never were headed as freshman Matt Courage added 12 points and sophomore Tom Pfingst 10.

Fessor "Moose" Leonard, Furman's 7-foot-1 sophomore star, scored 30 points and grabbed 13 rebounds as the Paladins rolled to a 53-39 half-time lead on 61.5 per cent shooting accuracy and held off a Texas comeback. Larry Robinson had 26 points for Texas.

Northeast Louisiana pulled to within two points of East Carolina nine times but couldn't overcome the Pirates' torrid 63.5 per cent shooting. Earl Quash had 27 points for East Carolina, while Dave Franklin chipped in with 17 and Al Faber with 13.

The Citadel shot only 37.6 per cent from the floor and that was far from good enough to beat Brown, which hit 58.5 per cent with Eddie Morris scoring 18 points and Vaughn Clarke 14. Steve Fishel had a game-high 20 points for the Bulldogs.

A 52 per cent shooting performance by Appalachian wasn't enough to beat American U., which shot only 48.6 per cent but hit 26 of 32 free throws while the Mountaineers hit six of 12. Wilbur Thomas and Johnny Lloyd had 25 points each for American, while Stan Davis led Appalachian with 23.

Jay Piccola had 29 points and Denton Willard 25 as Roanoke pulled away from Delaware after the Blue Hens tied it at 61-61 midway the second half. Allen Jones had 18 points and 13 rebounds for Roanoke. Ken Lukhard's 19 points topped Delaware.

"I'll be ready by game time, you can bet on it," he said. "I'll rest and get stronger here in the hospital and will have a lot of time to think about Miami."

The Dolphins, champions of the Eastern Division, meet Central Division king Pittsburgh Sunday for the American Football Conference title at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami's squad flies into town today for final preparations before the two National Football League powers fight it out for a spot in Super Bowl VII.

"I'll tell you about Miami's defense," said Bradshaw, adjusting his huge eyeglasses. "They're terribly quick. But, I'm sure we can move the ball ... and put some points on the board."

Pretty, brown-haired Melissa Bradshaw was again beginning to share her quarterback husband's confidence. It had been something of a jinx to the Red Raiders, who have lost six out of seven times in the post-season classic. "That's not going to bother me," said Barnes of the Tech Sun Bowl record. "I didn't play in any of them."

something of a jinx to the Red Raiders, who have lost six out of seven times in the post-season classic. "That's not going to bother me," said Barnes of the Tech Sun Bowl record. "I didn't play in any of them."

something of a jinx to the Red Raiders, who have lost six out of seven times in the post-season classic. "That's not going to bother me," said Barnes of the Tech Sun Bowl record. "I didn't play in any of them."

something of a jinx to the Red Raiders, who have lost six out of seven times in the post-season classic. "That's not going to bother me," said Barnes of the Tech Sun Bowl record. "I didn't play in any of them."

something of a jinx to the Red Raiders, who have lost six out of seven times in the post-season classic. "That's not going to bother me," said Barnes of the Tech Sun Bowl record. "I didn't play in any of them."

It's A Bird, It's A Plane, It's—Skyman?

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Skyman is the latest colorful personality to gain national prominence in college basketball.

The Skyman is the nickname for Jim Crawford, 6-foot-5 senior co-captain for the LaSalle College Explorers of Philadelphia.

Crawford, who gained his nickname because of extraordinary leaping ability, was LaSalle's most valuable player last season but his prowess was little noted because of LaSalle's dismal 6-19 won-lost record.

That picture was changed Thursday night as Crawford threw in a career high of 30 points to lead LaSalle to a 76-70 victory over New Mexico State in the semifinals of the Quaker City Classic. The victory, on the heels of LaSalle's 77-72 first round victory over Southern California Wednesday, was the Explorers' seventh against two defeats.

"That's as well as I've ever played," commented the usually taciturn Crawford who grabbed 10 rebounds and made 11 straight shots in getting his 30 points.

LaSalle now goes against its city rival, St. Joseph's, in the Quaker City final Saturday. The Hawks advanced by beating Duquesne 76-71.

St. John's of New York and South Carolina, on the comeback trail like LaSalle, gained the Saturday afternoon final of the Holiday Festival in New York. St. John's upset Michigan 85-83 on Bill Schaeffer's last second jump shot and the Gamecocks whipped Manhattan 79-69 as 7-foot Danny Traylor put on an awesome first half show of 21 points, 11 rebounds and five blocked shots.

None of the Top Ten in the Associated Press rankings saw action but No. 15 Indiana edged No. 13 Houston 75-72 in the Sun Bowl, No. 12 Florida State tripped Penn State 70-60 and No. 14 Brigham Young shaded Texas A&M 83-81 in the All-College.

In the Big Eight, No. 16 Kansas State tripped Kansas 91-70 and No. 19 Oklahoma went overtime to down Oklahoma State 69-62.

Oklahoma State threw a scare into unbeaten Oklahoma, but went down as Tom Holland scored seven points in the overtime that erased a four-point lead by the Aggies.

"I think the 30-second clock definitely influenced the game," said Sooner Coach John MacLeod. "Otherwise I'm sure they would have gone to a delay game after they got the lead in the OT."

Buckey Draws Starting Nod From Coach Holtz

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA (AP) — North Carolina State freshman quarterback Dave Buckey has been thrust into the starting lineup for tonight's fifth annual Peach Bowl against West Virginia in a contest which features two of college football's most prolific scoring machines.

Buckey, whose twin brother Don is a flanker on the Wolfpack squad, was placed in the limelight when regular quarterback Bruce Shaw broke a bone in his left arm Dec. 20.

Although Shaw is right-handed, the injury will probably keep the All-Atlantic Coast Conference player from seeing too much action against the 8-3 Mountaineers for the 8 p.m. EST scheduled kickoff before an anticipated crowd of 58,000 in Atlanta Stadium.

"Taking the snap from center is the problem," Shaw who passed for 1,763 yards and nine touchdowns in helping North Carolina State to a 7-3-1 record under first year Coach Lou Holtz, said Thursday.

"We thought about changing the snap style," said Holtz. "But that won't work. Right now I'd say Bruce won't play. As of now Dave Buckey is the starter."

Buckey, a 6-foot-1 155 pounder from Akron, Ohio, has seen action in 10 games and was ACC Player of the Week after guiding the Wolfpack to a 43-20 victory over Syracuse. He had a 60 per cent passing average on 36 of 60 attempts for 532 yards and ran for another 128 yards.

"I don't see how the team can have as much confidence in me as they do Bruce," said Buckey. "I've played quite a bit, but over 90 per cent of my playing time was with the second unit."

"I'm not nervous yet," said Buckey. "But I'll sure be nervous when game time gets here."

Brother Don, also a freshman, is State's second leading pass receiver with 18 catches for 293 yards.

Another injury, this one to leading rusher Stan Fritts' leg, has placed the sophomore, who has battled for 17 touchdowns on 689 rushing yards, on the questionable list.

If Fritts can't make it, Charley Young, a bruiser who crunched for 611 yards, will take over.

Pat Kenney is the top pass catcher with 38 receptions for 832 yards and five touchdowns in helping State roll to an average of 32.7 points and 432 yards a game.

Meanwhile, the Mountaineers of Bobby Bowden have averaged 36.5 points and 411 yards per contest behind the passing of Bernie Galiffa and the catching and running of Danny Buggs.

In addition, Kerry Marbury, West Virginia's leading rusher with 706 yards, is healthy after missing the final game of the season with a knee injury.

VOA Mixed League
Greene Giants 38 22
Damn Yankees 32 28
Yankees 32 28
Outsiders 31 29
Hang Ten 29 31
Wonders 27 33
Caboose 26 34
Fancy Four 25 35
Men's high game and series
Harold Greene, 223, 568;
women's high game Flo Greene
161; women's high series Faye
Ewell, 468.

City League
W L
Comedy of Errors 43 21
Applied Systems 41 23
Chatham Hot Dogs 39 25
Piggly Wiggly 35 29
Ray's Barber Shop 34 30
Team Ten 29½ 34½
Challengers' 28½ 35½
Thorpe Music 28 36
Nelson's Realtors 24 40
Seacraft Marine 18 46
High Ray Doughtridge, 235; high series Fanks Moye, 611.

Pat Kenney is the top pass catcher with 38 receptions for 832 yards and five touchdowns in helping State roll to an average of 32.7 points and 432 yards a game.

Meanwhile, the Mountaineers of Bobby Bowden have averaged 36.5 points and 411 yards per contest behind the passing of Bernie Galiffa and the catching and running of Danny Buggs.

In addition, Kerry Marbury, West Virginia's leading rusher with 706 yards, is healthy after missing the final game of the season with a knee injury.

VOA Mixed League
Greene Giants 38 22
Damn Yankees 32 28
Yankees 32 28
Outsiders 31 29
Hang Ten 29 31
Wonders 27 33
Caboose 26 34
Fancy Four 25 35
Men's high game and series
Harold Greene, 223, 568;
women's high game Flo Greene
161; women's high series Faye
Ewell, 468.

VOA Mixed League
Greene Giants 38 22
Damn Yankees 32 28
Yankees 32 28
Outsiders 31 29
Hang Ten 29 31
Wonders 27 33
Caboose 26 34
Fancy Four 25 35
Men's high game and series
Harold Greene, 223, 568;
women's high game Flo Greene
161; women's high series Faye
Ewell, 468.

VOA Mixed League
Greene Giants 38 22
Damn Yankees 32 28
Yankees 32 28
Outsiders 31 29
Hang Ten 29 31
Wonders 27 33
Caboose 26 34
Fancy Four 25 35
Men's high game and series
Harold Greene, 223, 568;
women's high game Flo Greene
161; women's high series Faye
Ewell, 468.

VOA Mixed League
Greene Giants 38 22
Damn Yankees 32 28
Yankees 32 28
Outsiders 31 29
Hang Ten 29 31
Wonders 27 33
Caboose 26 34
Fancy Four 25 35
Men's high game and series
Harold Greene, 223, 568;
women's high game Flo Greene
161; women's high series Faye
Ewell, 468.

VOA Mixed League
Greene Giants 38 22
Damn Yankees 32 28
Yankees 32 28
Outsiders 31 29
Hang Ten 29 31
Wonders 27 33
Caboose 26 34
Fancy Four 25 35
Men's high game and series
Harold Greene, 223, 568;
women's high game Flo Greene
161; women's high series Faye
Ewell, 468.

A hamper full of sandwiches and a cooler full of Pepsi. With that combination, any outing turns into a picnic. Ice-cold Pepsi-Cola turns off thirsts, turns on grins and helps deliver the kind of go the Pepsi generation's gone on... for generations. Grab a cooler full of Pepsi, a car full of friends, and turn your tomorrow into a picnic.

Pepsi's got a lot to give.

BOTTLED BY PEPSI-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY OF GREENVILLE, INC., 1809 DICKINSON AVENUE, GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, UNDER APPOINTMENT FROM PEPSICO, INC., NEW YORK, N.Y.

The Worry Clinic

Ways To Keep That Resolution

John Wayne found he could quit cigarettes when it meant life-or-death! And so can all of us, but we usually fail to make our resolutions 100 percent. If you REALLY want to quit, you've done so already! For it's all in your mind! Follow the rules below!

By GEORGE W. CRANE Ph.D., M.D.
CASE V-582: Harry D., aged 44, is a cigarette addict.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "is it wise to make New Year's Resolutions?"

"For most people fail to live up to them, don't they?"

"So their repeated backsliding merely deflates their ego all the worse, doesn't it?"

"But my physician says I MUST quit tobacco or I'll have a coronary attack one of these days."

"So how can I stick by my nonsmoking resolution?"

Heed Dr. James
Dr. William James, Harvard's pioneer Applied Psychologist, urged us to make resolutions. For he argued it takes an idea to be father of the deed. True enough, most of us fail to live up to all of our good resolutions.

George Washington was once asked about lowering the high standards so more people would be free from their sense of failure at living up to those lofty expectations.

George Washington vetoed

"For most people fail to live up to them, don't they?"

"So their repeated backsliding merely deflates their ego all the worse, doesn't it?"

"But my physician says I MUST quit tobacco or I'll have a coronary attack one of these days."

"So how can I stick by my this easy compromise regarding idealism.

"Let us raise a standard," he said, "to which the wise and just can aspire!"

He didn't recommend compromising with bad habits or immorality and Satan.

If you wish to break your slavery to bad habits, like smoking, drinking, obesity, etc., then follow these salient rules:

(1) Make a clean break, and in public, where your comrades will hear your personal "Declaration of Independence."

Thus, your sense of pride will help you live up to that publicly stated vow.

(2) Strip the deck for action! This means, don't keep tobacco or liquor or dozens of enticing food nicknacks in your refrigerator or cupboard.

For subconsciously they will revive your past habit of reaching out to sample the cigarette, bottle or foodstuff.

Just as you subconsciously pick up a pencil while at the phone and then doodle, so the visible food or tobacco item will also subconsciously revive the bad habit you are trying to break.

(3) Substitute a similar action that was a part of your former slave pattern.

For example, carry candy coated gum; then shake out a Chiclet and chew lustily, for this will involve the hand, arm and mouth that you employed as cigarette slave.

If you crave the burn of liquor, shift to a soft drink whose carbonation gives you that similar "bite."

And if you are trying to diet, resort to low calorie beverages.

(4) Don't keep talking about food or liquor or tobacco or gossip with your associates about new "diets" or their many ideas about breaking slavery to liquor and cigarettes.

For the more you talk about these things, the more you agitate the old appetites!

(5) Make you new resolution 100 percent; don't figuratively keep your fingers crossed as you subconsciously think, "I'll TRY but maybe, if some unusual event intrudes, I may backslide!"

If death faced you tomorrow if you did NOT quit, you could quit 100 percent NOW!

Send for my booklet "How to Break the Tobacco and Liquor Habits," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25 cents.

Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.

Balm is a fragrant herb of the mint family. Balm tea, which is used to reduce fever, and balm wine and food flavoring are made from the leaves.

Free Ride For Drunks

DEARBORN, Mich. (AP) — New Year's Eve revelers who get too drunk to drive will be offered a free ride home by Dearborn police and firemen.

"Since we're limited to geography and jurisdiction, we can only provide this service in Dearborn," said Mayor Orville L. Hubbard. "But we think it would be a good idea if other communities would join us in this program in an all-out effort to reduce the large number of accidents that traditionally occur on this holiday."

It is the second year the city is offering the service.

Miss Buck In Hospital

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP) — Author Pearl Buck has been admitted to Rutland Hospital for a checkup following gall-bladder surgery.

A hospital spokesman said after the Nobel and Pulitzer prize-winner was admitted Wednesday that she was in stable condition.

TV Log

WNCT — Ch. 9

FRIDAY
7:00 Truth or Fiction
7:30 M.A.S.H.
8:00 Impostor
9:00 Movie
11:00 News
11:30 Late Movie
SATURDAY
7:00 Tobacco
7:30 M.A.S.H.
8:00 Impostor
9:00 Movie
11:00 News
11:30 Late Movie

WITN — Ch. 7

FRIDAY
7:00 Nashville
7:30 Adam 12
8:00 Sanford
9:00 Little People
9:30 Ghost Story
10:00 Banyon
11:00 News
11:30 Tonight Show
SATURDAY
7:00 The Fencer
7:30 Treehouse
8:00 Houndcats
8:30 Rom a n
9:00 Jeopardy
9:30 Pink Panther
10:00 Underdog
10:30 The Barkleys

WCTI-TV — Ch. 12

FRIDAY
7:30 Rollin'
8:00 Brady Bunch
8:30 Partridge Family
9:00 Room 222
9:30 Good Couple
10:00 Love Amer
11:00 News
11:30 Scoreboard
SATURDAY
7:00 Yogi and Huck
7:15 Teletory
7:30 Batman
8:00 Puff N Stuff
8:25 Multiplication
8:30 Jackson Five
9:00 The Osmonds
9:25 Multiplication
10:00 The Men
10:30 Superstar
11:00 ABC News
11:30 Wrestling
12:00 Bewitched

WUNK-Ch. 25

FRIDAY
7:30 You the Deal
8:30 N.C. People
9:30 N.C. This
10:00 Theatre
8:00 Apart From

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS
1. Bully tree
7. Palatable
12. Strange
13. Profession
14. vex
15. Moses' brother
16. Tinge
17. Title
18. Arab's coat
20. Repudiates
23. Rocky hill
25. Toke to court
27. Threesome

DOWN
1. London's clock
2. Hatchet
3. Libertine
4. Aleutian island
5. Masonic doorkeepers
6. Tops
7. Step
8. Biblical mountain
9. Good golf score
10. International language
11. Haunt
17. Place
18. Sweetsop
19. Industrial diamond
21. Antiseptic
22. Wild hyacinth
23. Be bore
24. Chesterfield
29. Reredos
31. Upper House
34. Newsstand
38. Now in Greece
39. French pronoun
40. Everything
41. 1,000
42. Simple sugar
43. Boy's nickname

For time 28 min. AP Newsfeatures 12-29

EMBER STRODE REATA ORATOR STRAIN AGATE TAT LOAFER PEG RAF YIP SHRUB LIE NO RO MEO CRUDE ORC AIS ART HORNET AGO AGAMI CORNEA RESENT POINT CLERSY SWATH

SOLUTION OF YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE
DOWN
1. London's clock
2. Hatchet
3. Libertine
4. Aleutian island
5. Masonic doorkeepers
6. Tops
7. Step
8. Biblical mountain
9. Good golf score
10. International language
11. Haunt
17. Place
18. Sweetsop
19. Industrial diamond
21. Antiseptic
22. Wild hyacinth
23. Be bore
24. Chesterfield
29. Reredos
31. Upper House
34. Newsstand
38. Now in Greece
39. French pronoun
40. Everything
41. 1,000
42. Simple sugar
43. Boy's nickname

MEADOWBROOK

ENDS TONIGHT
the CROSS and the SWITCHBLADE
Starring PAT BOONE as David Wilkinson with ERIK ESTRADA - JACKIE GIRDUX DINO DEFILIPPI - JO-ANN ROBINSON

ONLY "DEAD MEN DON'T COUNT" SATURDAY "FANTASTIC VOYAGE"

TICE DRIVE-IN THEATRE

FRI.-SAT.
COLUMBIA PICTURES Present
CLIFF ROBERTSON
AN OTTO PREMINGER FILM
J.W. COOP

ALSO

SUCH GOOD FRIENDS
AN OTTO PREMINGER FILM
Color by MOVIELAB - A PARAMOUNT Release

PLAZA CINEMA
756-0088 • PITT-PLAZA SHOPPING CENTER
NOW THRU TUES.!

WALT DISNEY PRODUCTIONS
NOW YOU SEE HIM, NOW YOU DON'T

TECHNICOLOR®
SHOWS DAILY 1:30-3:10-4:50-6:30-8:10
DOORS OPEN 1:00 P.M.

ACRES OF FREE PARKING
NEXT! "SKYJACKED" & "KANSAS CITY BOMBER"

PARK NOW SHOWING!

DIANA ROSS & BILLIE HOLIDAY
LADY SINGS THE BLUES

Shows Daily at 2:00-4:30-7:00-9:30
DOORS OPEN 1:30 P.M.

752-7649 • DOWNTOWN GREENVILLE

LATE FLICK Tonight & Sat. FOR ADULTS 12:15 A.M.

"MIDNIGHT PLOWBOY" (x)
NEXT! DOUBLE FEATURE THRILLS!

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN
(1972: By The Chicago Tribune)
Both vulnerable. South deals.

NORTH
♠ K Q 3 2
♥ 7 6 5
♦ K J 9 2
♣ A 2

EAST
♠ A 6 4
♥ 2
♦ Q 8 7 3
♣ Q 10 7 5 4

SOUTH
♠ 7
♥ K J 10 9 4 3
♦ A 6 5
♣ K 9 8

The bidding:
South West North East
1♥ Pass 1♠ Pass
2♥ Pass 4♥ Pass
Pass Pass

Opening lead: Jack of ♠ South could have salvaged his four heart contract by employing an unorthodox, yet nevertheless simple safety play in today's hand.

West opened the jack of spades, the queen was played from dummy and East won the trick with the ace. The latter shifted to a trump thru the declarer and West proceeded to play three rounds of hearts, cashing the queen and ace and then exiting with the eight. The defensive book was in.

South was able to discard his losing club on the king of spades, however, in the end he was obliged to rely on the diamond finesse to make his contract, and when it failed—he went down to defeat.

Declarer overlooked the play that would have assured him of 10 tricks. By ducking the opening lead, he can prevent East from getting in to make the heart shift. Observe that West cannot lead hearts profitably himself, and declarer, therefore, has time to ruff off his losing club. A diamond discard on dummy's spades can be developed at declarer's own choosing.

Suppose that after winning the first trick with the jack of spades, West shifts to a club. North puts up the ace and leads the king of spades. East covers with the ace and South ruffs. The king of clubs is cashed and the nine is ruffed with the five of hearts. A trump is led and West is given his two heart tricks. When trumps are finally drawn, declarer crosses over to the king of diamonds and discards his diamond loser on the queen of spades.

His losses on the deal consist of one spade trick and two hearts. Observe that it does not avail East to overtake the jack of spades at trick one if South does not cover from dummy, for by so doing East will establish two discards in that suit for his opponent.

Exciting Holiday Entertainment From Your abc THEATRE

PITT Now Playing Shows 2:00-7:00

GONE WITH THE WIND

In new screen splendor... The most magnificent picture ever!

STARRING CLARK GABLE VIVIEN LEIGH LESLIE HOWARD OLIVIA deHAVILLAND

Starts Sunday

WINNER OF 10 ACADEMY AWARDS! DAVID LEAN'S FILM OF THE YEAR! DOCTOR ZHIVAGO

HOW COME? EVERY TIME YOU HAVE YOUR PICK OF ASSORTED CANDY -

YOU ALWAYS END UP WITH THE ONE KIND YOU HATE ...!

PEANUTS

B.C.

BLONDIE

NUBBIN

Middlemen Keep Beef Prices From Real Drop

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Retail beef prices declined in November for the fourth straight month, but increased markups by middlemen kept prices from falling even more, the Agriculture Department reported today.

One analyst warned that beef prices could start increasing again because prices for live cattle jumped sharply late in the month.

The Agriculture Department's monthly "market basket" report showed that the average retail price for all beef was $1.12-1.10 per pound in November, a decline of one-half cent from October and five cents below the record high prices of July.

The "farm value" of beef declined 11.9 cents since July to its lowest point in nearly two years and 5.1 per cent below the farm value a year earlier.

But the department said the middleman charges in the same period rose 5.9 cents and were up by 26.6 per cent from a year earlier.

According to the analysis, if middlemen had passed along the entire decline in the farm value of beef, the price decline to the consumer would have more than doubled.

The department said total middleman charges in November averaged a record 45.7 cents per pound, which was the difference between the amount the consumer paid and the farmer's share of the super-market price.

The so-called farm value last month was 66.6 cents, the lowest since January, 1971, when it was 60.4 cents. That is not the price farmers get for live cattle because it takes nearly 2.3 pounds of steer on the hoof to make one pound of super-market beef. It is, however, the cattle producer's share of what housewives spend on a pound of beef.

The USDA report supplemented one issued last week by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, which said retail beef prices for "selected cuts" rose slightly in November.

But the USDA statistics are gathered over the entire month while the BLS uses retail information collected during the first week of each month.

Neither report, however, took into consideration the increases in live cattle prices since mid-November because it takes several weeks before changes in the animal market are fully felt in the consumer pipeline.

At one time last month, according to USDA, live cattle prices at the important Midwest markets were averaging about $32 per 100 pounds live-weight.

Since the brief downturn, markets have climbed steadily. Choice-grade steers at Omaha, Neb., recently were bringing close to the $40 peaks of last summer.

A big question now is whether middlemen will use their record-wide margins to absorb the higher costs of cattle and carcass beef or increase their charges to maintain the spreads, according to one analyst.

"One thing certain," he said, "if the cattle market holds the way it is we'll be seeing beef go up in the next report."

AH VANITY, GULL BE THY NAME — The weather was settling back to normal along the Corpus Christi bay front after several days of wind, rain and cold. It was just right for sea gulls like this one to strut around and get their ruffled feathers back into place, and soak up a little warmth. And at last the waters had calmed enough for a gull to get a decent look at herself. (AP Wirephoto)

Hodges To Quit Achilles If Gov. Requests Sore Heel

RALEIGH (AP) — Luther Hodges Jr., chairman of the fledgling North Carolina Manpower Council, says he has handed in a resignation to Gov.-elect Jim Holshouser which Holshouser can accept "when he sees fit."

Hodges disclosed the resignation at a news conference Thursday in which he also released the first annual report of the Council, which was created by the General Assembly in 1971.

Hodges said there would be benefits to the state if Holshouser permitted him to stay on as chairman until a manpower plan currently being developed by the Council is completed.

But whoever heads the agency, Hodges said its most important task would be to "bring some order out of the chaos of narrowly conceived federal programs that have developed over the years."

He said some $45 million in federal manpower training programs is spent in the state each year, but much of it is wasted because the programs lack coordination and do not address themselves to the specific problems of North Carolina.

He said it was up to the state to develop the planning and administrative capability to handle the money itself and up to its representatives in Washington to try to decentralize some or all of the federal programs now in existence so they can be tailored to the state's needs.

Hodges, in the Council report, said that capability was beginning to develop after one year's effort, but he said the Council was being hampered by its own inexperience and by administrative regulations at the state and federal level.

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — What do you do when your name is Achilles and you report to sick bay with a sore heel?

If you're a Marine recruit, like Daniel L. Achilles of Ithaca, your first problem is to convince the sergeant at the dispensary that it's no joke.

Then—like the Grecian hero—you bow out of the military scene.

Pvt. Achilles enlisted in the Marine Corps in October and recently had to report to the dispensary at Parris Island, where he was in training.

Luckier than his Grecian namesake, whose vulnerable heel removed him from the ranks of mortals forever, Pvt. Achilles is recuperating at home from a case of stress fracture, involving minor injuries of the heel.

Pvt. Achilles is visiting with his buddies in Ithaca, as the Greek Achilles used to do in Ithaca, Greece.

CBS Technicians Return To Work

NEW YORK (AP) — Television and radio technicians were returning to work at the Columbia Broadcasting System today after voting narrowly to accept a new contract and end their eight-week-old strike.

Picket lines set up by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers at CBS facilities here and in six other cities were taken down within an hour after the 561-509 vote was announced Thursday.

Details of the pact were not announced, but the union reportedly made concessions on several key negotiating issues involving jurisdiction over operation of new electronic devices and automation.

Arthur Korff, a spokesman for the union, said, "I'm unhappy with the company's in-road in this agreement into work that heretofore had been performed by IBEW technicians." He declined to elaborate.

Frank Stanton, CBS vice chairman, said in a statement that the agreement provides "a fair solution of the issues and makes possible the return of the good relationship with CBS and the union have had for many years."

Korff, who is business manager for IBEW's Local 1212 here, said the contract was for three years and provided a 5.5 per cent wage increase in each of the three years.

The strike, which began Nov. 3 when about 1,200 cameramen, technicians and engineers walked off the job, was fundamentally over the jurisdictional and automation issues.

Stanton said in his statement that the pact "provides for practical solutions to the issues which caused the strike, namely those dealing with new technologies and electronic news gathering for television."

The union reportedly agreed that under certain conditions personnel other than technicians may feed instructions and information to a computer involved in the operation of a broadcast facility.

In return, CBS agreed to disclose its automation plans at the earliest possible date and increased benefits for technicians who voluntarily retire or are laid off due to future automation.

Modern Life Not For Them

LUDINGTON, Mich. (AP) — A huge hydroelectric power plant is rising near this Western Michigan community, but when it begins operation in a few days one couple will have no use for it.

"You don't need electricity," said 75-year-old Charles Peterson in telling why his home is not wired for electricity. "No-body does."

Peterson and his wife, Eva, 77, live in a neat, cozy two-story house with much of the simplicity that characterized homes around the turn of the century.

They used to farm the land that had been in Mrs. Peterson's family since 1864, but they sold it several years ago. Now they keep busy with the daily chores their simple life demands.

Four kerosene lamps provide light for reading and two wood-burning stoves—one large and the other small—warm the small home.

"We just light the little one when it's not too cold," Mrs. Peterson said. "It's called a bachelor's stove."

The Petersons have yielded to the modern era, however, placing a new bathtub in what appears to be a small hall off the kitchen.

"Sure we've got a bathtub. You think we run dirty?" Peterson said laughing.

"We just pump water from our well, put it on the stove in three large kettles and in no time the water is nice and hot."

Out past the old hand pump by the back door is a small, well-built square structure.

"Nothing fancy," Peterson said. "Frills ain't no good for an old man. It's good and tight; no snow can get in."

"But it's up to date," the former farmer said. "That's the way an outhouse ought to be."

The kitchen is dominated by a large wood-burning Atlanta stove and a long table. The small room is filled with steam from the three kettles bubbling briskly on the stove.

Off the kitchen is the woodshed, filled with neatly stacked split wood.

"I like to get my exercise," he noted. "I pump water outside and bring it in. When I need wood, I cut it by hand."

The Petersons pay scant attention to their famous neighbor—the Consumers Power-Detroit Edison plant perched above Lake Michigan south of Ludington.

The $340 million plant sprawling across 1,400 acres, including its 840-acre man-made lake, is scheduled to open within a week. Officials say it is the world's largest facility which uses a turbine to both pump water to a lake and then generate electricity when the water is run back through.

But, Peterson said, electricity is expensive and he and his wife would not be able to stretch their budget on the money they got from selling their farm.

"I like to pay my bills, you know," he said. "And that's just one bill I don't have to pay."

But the Petersons haven't always shunned modern conveniences.

"I used to drive," he said, "but things started getting fuzzy once in a while, so I figured it was time to get off the road."

And there is their battery-powered radio.

"Sure that's modern stuff," Peterson said.

"We listen to country music and read our newspapers. We like it."

Louise Cox Hudson
Executrix of the Estate of Amos Earl Hudson, deceased
R. B. Lee, Attorney, Greenville, N.C.
Dec. 8, 15, 22, 29 1972.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
Having this day qualified as Administrator of the Estate of Alexander Wilson, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate to file them with the undersigned at the address given within six (6) months from this date or this notice will be filed in bar of recovery. All persons indebted to the estate will please make immediate settlement.

This the 30th day of November, 1972.

S. O. WORTHINGTON
Administrator of the Estate of Alexander Wilson
Box 691,
Greenville, N.C.
S. O. Worthington
Attorney
Dec. 8, 15, 22, 29, 1972

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING APPLICATION OF MR. LARRY J. EARLY OF RADIO CAB COMPANY FOR THE ISSUANCE OF A CERTIFICATE OF CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY TO OPERATE A TAXI CAB FRANCHISE WITHIN THE CITY OF GREENVILLE

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to Section 15-11 of the Code of the City of Greenville that the City Council of the City of Greenville, North Carolina, will on Thursday, January 11, 1973, conduct a public hearing in the Council Room at 8:00 p.m. on the application of Mr. Larry J. Early of Radio Cab Company for the granting of a certificate of convenience and necessity to secure a franchise from the City of Greenville for the operation of a taxi cab within the City of Greenville.

All persons interested are requested to be present at the aforesaid hearing at which time they will be afforded an opportunity to be heard.

BY ORDER OF THE CITY COUNCIL
This the 15th day of December, 1972.
David E. Reid, Jr.
City Attorney
Dec. 29, 1972

CLASSIFIED ADS

Card of Thanks

I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to all those who were so thoughtful and kind to me and my family during my sickness in the hospital and while I'm convalescing at home. Every card, flower, visit, food, prayer and everything else was greatly appreciated. A very special thanks to my doctors and nurses at Pitt Memorial Hospital. May God richly bless each of you. J. B. Purvic.

AUTOMOTIVE

Autos For Sale

AUSTIN HEALY, 1947, new top and interior. Call 756-6472 after 4 p.m.

BONNEVILLE STATION WAGON, 1968, blue, automatic, vinyl roof, loaded. $2395. Phone 758-0619.

BUICK ELECTRA 225 1968 4 door, vinyl top, air condition, loaded. $1895. Pitt Motor Sales. 756-2547.

BUICK SKYLARK 1969, low mileage, clean. $1500. 752-4375.

IMPALA CHEVROLET CONVERTIBLE 1965, Good condition. Must sell immediately. $300. Call 758-3260 after 5 p.m.

WE WILL BUY YOUR used car or truck. Calico Used Cars, 264 By Pass, Greenville. Call 756-4204.

CHEVROLET MALIBU 1967, air, automatic transmission, bucket seats, wire wheel cover. $995 or Best offer. Call 746-6173, after 6 p.m.

CHEVROLET TRUCK 1968 1/2 ton Custom, long body, automatic transmission, Clean. $1595. Holt Oldsmobile, 756-3115.

HASTINGS FORD has daily rentals at reasonable prices. Call 758-0114.

CHEVY SUPER SPORT, 1965. Excellent condition, bucket seats, console, new rear tires, deluxe interior, in No. 1 condition. Call 758-0073 after 6 p.m.

COUGAR XR7, 1971, 22,000 miles, air, power steering, automatic, new tires and battery. $2800 or assume low payment of $107, with bank approval. Day 756-3175, night 756-0995.

FORD 1970 GALAXIE 500, two door, hardtop, vinyl roof, fully equipped, excellent condition. Sale or trade 527-3987, Kinston, N.C.

FORD FALCON WAGON, 1963 six-cylinder, 1969, straight shift, Excellent condition. 758-0247 after 5 p.m.

GREMLIN X, 1971 fully equipped. Must sell immediately. If interested call 746-3112 after 5 p.m.

MUSTANG V-8 1966 straight gear, air. $625. 758-0551.

FOR THE BEST IN new and used cars and trucks see Wynne's Chevrolet Inc., in Bethel, N.C. or call 855-4231.

MUSTANG 1967 new paint job, good condition. Call 758-0160 or after 6, 756-4963.

Land For Art Museum Okayed

RALEIGH (AP) — The State Corrections Commission has agreed to transfer 112 acres of land in western Raleigh to the State Art Museum Building Commission as a site for its new museum.

The land, on the current site of Camp Polk, a center for youthful offenders, was transferred after former State Sen. Thomas White of Kinston told the Corrections Commission that the governor and the council of state had already tentatively approved the site, in a rural-suburban area between Raleigh and Durham.

The land transfer appeared also to have ended hopes by Raleigh city officials that the new museum would be built near the site of the present one, in downtown Raleigh.

The Corrections Commission did, however, hold on to 45 acres of the total 157-acre parcel requested by the museum commission and said it would not relinquish them until the General Assembly provided funds for a replacement for Camp Polk.

Corrections Commissioner Lee Bounds has said he wants to replace Camp Polk with a modern, high-rise youth offenders center to be built at a different site in Wake County at an estimated cost of $8 million.

White told the corrections commission that the 45 acres which now hold Camp Polk, and which the museum wants, would be a good lever to influence the General Assembly to allocate the money for the new youth prison.

The General Assembly has already made an initial appropriation of $4 million for the new museum. A consultant hired by the commission recommended the Camp Polk site, saying it would give the museum room to grow.

But Raleigh officials protested, saying that their downtown redevelopment plan, which calls for making the area a cultural center, would be gutted if the museum were lost.

PUBLIC NOTICES

State of North Carolina,
County of Pitt
Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust executed by GERALD G. MANNING and wife EDNA CATES MANNING, dated the 9th day of December, 1969, and recorded in Book X-38, page 697, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, North Carolina, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured and said deed of trust being by the terms thereof subject to foreclosure, the undersigned Trustee will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at the Courthouse door in Greenville, North Carolina at noon, on the 22nd day of January, 1973, the property conveyed in said deed of trust, the same lying and being in the County of Pitt, State of North Carolina, in Greenville Township, and more particularly described as follows:

Being all of Lots Nos. 5, 6, 7, and 8, Block "B" of Fidal Park Sub-division, as shown on a plat or survey made by Ernest L. Culbreth, C. E., dated January 14, 1953, and recorded in Map Book 5 at Page 178 of the Pitt County Registry, to which reference is hereby made for a more particular description.

But this sale will be made subject to all outstanding and unpaid taxes and assessments.

This 28th day of December, 1972.
H. Horton Rountree, Trustee
Dec. 29, 1972; Jan. 5, 12, 19, 1973.

Wallace Has Help

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace is using an experimental device to block pain impulses from the spinal-cord injury he received during an assassination attempt in Maryland last spring.

The Alabama governor, on a holiday trip to Miami, said Wednesday he had experienced some discomfort from the injury and called the Veterans Administration to see if some relief could be provided.

VA doctors recommended a cutaneous stimulator, which sends a tingling electric shock through the nervous system, blocking pain impulses from the brain.

The device, connected to Wallace's skin by electrode strips and powered by flashlight batteries, "is supposed to fool my spinal cord," said Wallace, who was partially paralyzed by a gunshot wound.

Dr. Ross Davis of the VA said the device provided Wallace has proved successful in blocking pain in six out of 10 patients, but he emphasized that it was still in experimental use.

Berrigan Returns

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The Rev. Philip Berrigan has returned to the Baltimore headquarters of the Josephite Order, but there is no word from the Catholic order on when he will resume his duties.

The 51-year-old antiwar priest was paroled from the federal correctional facility at Danbury, Conn., on Dec. 19 after serving 2 1/2 years of concurrent six-year sentences for destroying draft records at Baltimore and Catonsville, Md.

He was also serving a two-year sentence for smuggling letters in and out of the Lewisburg (Pa.) Federal Penitentiary while confined there.

INSTANT INFORMATION FROM AMERICA'S LEADING NEWS AGENCY

The official ASSOCIATED PRESS ALMANAC is more than 900 pages containing tens of thousands of facts—complete election returns, sports statistics, geographic information, guide to colleges, births, deaths... infinity. It's all contained in this one, large volume that you can obtain through this newspaper for a special low price of only $1.50 plus 25 cents for postage and handling. Clip the attached coupon and send for your copy today.

AP ALMANAC
Greenville Daily Reflector
P.O. Box G22
Teaneck, New Jersey 07666

Enclosed is $ _____ Send me _____ copies of AP Almanac

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____

$1.75 per book includes postage and handling. Make checks payable to The Associated Press

CLASSIFIEDS

Trucks For Sale

(1) FORD RANCHERO 1971 automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, air condition, F & D Motors, Bethel, 825-8061.

(2) F-100 PICK-UP TRUCKS 1967 F & D Motors, Bethel, 825-8061.

(1) F-100 PICK-UP TRUCK 1966 F & D Motors Bethel, 825-8061.

(1) INTERNATIONAL 1200 SERIES 1970 F & D Motors, Bethel, 825-8061.

(1) INTERNATIONAL 1400 SERIES 1970 F & D Motors, Bethel, 825-8061.

(1) F-400 16' 1967 dump body and grain side, F & D Motors, Bethel 825-8061.

(1) WT 1000 TRACTOR FORD 1967 F & D Motors, Bethel, 825-8061.

Cycles For Sale

After all the SMOKE has cleared about "The Better Machine" and "12,000 mile or 1 year warranty"...

Then Buy the BEST Machine

HONDA

"World's Largest Seller"

Stan's Sports Center

1025 S. Evans Street Greenville, NC 758-3613

BOATS & EQUIPMENT

14' DEEP V FIBERGLASS boat, 65 hp Mercury motor, trailer and extras. $1295. Call 756-5623 after 6 p.m.

DOGS & PETS

AKC WEIMARANERS, one male, one female, 8 weeks old. 756-7062.

AKC ST. BERNARD PUPPIES, 6 Champion bloodline, male and female. Call 752-3241.

GERMAN SHEPHERD PUPPIES, $35 each. Has shots, dewormed. Call 746-3971.

REGISTERED IRISH SETTER puppies, 12 weeks old, championship bloodlines, $40 for males, $35 for females. Call 758-2080.

GIVE YOUR LOVE ONE AKC Registered Apricot poodle for Christmas, 7 weeks old, $50. 752-7225.

NEED A WATCH DOG? German Shepherd puppies for sale. Call 758-2344.

DOG BOARDING! Plittco Kennels 752-7407.

EMPLOYMENT

Female Help Wanted

CAKE DECORATOR, FULL time. Apply West End Bakery, 1808 Dickinson Ave., Greenville.

CLEANING LADY NEEDED. Apply in person at Capital Mobile Homes (next to Bowling Alley).

BRODY'S HAS TWO GOOD OPENINGS FOR SALES LADIES. One in lingerie department, and one in better dress department. If you like people, like fashion, above average salary, congenial associates, Prefer age 28-45, will train. Apply in person to Brody's Downtown.

BEAUTICIAN WANTED FOR NEW SHOP, located in Robersonville. Will consider recent graduate. 795-3496.

SECRETARY: Great company needs individual with good secretarial skills and ability to work with figures. Top pay. Mon.-Fri. Call Allied Personnel, 756-3147.

GENERAL OFFICE: Local office needs attractive individual with good personality. Type 50 wpm. Nice Office. Great Benefits and Salary. Call Allied Personnel, 756-3147.

NEED SOMEONE TO KEEP 3 month old baby in my home. Full time for approximately 3 months. Prefer own transportation. Must have references. 756-7386.

CASHIER TO WORK 4 hours through lunch, 4 hours through supper. Good starting salary, meals furnished. Experience helpful but not necessary. No Sunday work. Apply in person, Balentines, Pitt Plaza, Shopping Center.

MOTHERLY HOMEMAKER needed by three children and their father in exchange for room, board and small salary. References from minister or former employer required. Call 753-4502.

Male Help Wanted

EXPERIENCED BACKHOE operator. Contact J.H. Hudson, Inc., 1309 W. 14th, 758-2138. An Equal Opportunity Employer.

SHEET ROCK HANGER and finishers wanted. Pay $3.50 to $4 per hour. Call 756-0053.

PAINTERS, BRUSH, ROLL, SPRAY. Work available Greensboro, Ashboro and Washington, N.C. work either first or second shift. Full or part time employment, starting December 20. Crawford Paint Co., Greensboro, 274-5402 or 292-6159.

WANTED MOBILE HOME SALESMAN

Must be Mature Adult Willing to Make $15,000 to $20,000 per year. Call: Dan Singleton at 756-6244 for appointment only.

NEED TWO GOOD painters, full time, pay according to abilities. L.F. House Painting Co., 756-4738.

CAREER OPPORTUNITY in sales. Veterans or college graduates, will train, the 7th largest life insurance company. See B.L. Hunt, CLU 752-4080.

ELECTRICIANS AND ELECTRICIAN'S HELPERS

Yeagan Construction Co. G.E. Project Wilmington, NC Phone: 675-0321 Mr. Mike Wallsmith 10 hours a week 4 days a week An Equal Opportunity Employer

Male Help Wanted

WANTED MILK ROUTE SALESMAN. Requirements high school education, must be bonded, over 21 years of age, knowledge of accounting, good driving record. No phone calls, apply in person, Macla Milk & Ice Cream Co., 109 Greenville Blvd. An Equal Opportunity Employer. We also need someone that would relocate.

MARRIED MAN, 23-35 for field sales. Must be honest, ambitious, have self discipline, integrity, with desire to progress. Rewarding career. Permanent. Sales experience helpful but not necessary. For confidential interview. Call Bellone 758-5121.

Start The New Year Out Right

SMITH WALDROP MOTORS

Texas Topper Country Is Looking For:

(1) Service Manager

Good Fringe Benefits For Personal Interview

Contact: Cliff Frelke 756-4267

INSURANCE DEBIT MAN wanted. Must be 21 and married. Preferably with experience. Starting pay $160 per week, excellent fringe benefits. Make application at Southern Life Insurance Co., 209 Evans St., Greenville, N.C.

MORTGAGE LOAN REPRESENTATIVE with some business experience. College degree desired. Employer is top rated N.C. Mortgage Corporation. Excellent fringe benefits. Local travel necessary. Opportunity for advancement. Write: "Mortgage", P.O. Box 1967, Greenville, N.C.

$1,500 CASH

In today's Army you can start the new year with a $1,500 cash bonus, guaranteed in writing before you enlist. You can also choose your duty location, and in addition to top pay, your meals, housing, clothing, and health care are all furnished—plus you receive 30 days paid vacation each year. For more information see or call your local Army Representative:

752-4826

Today's Army wants to join you.

McCULLOCH Chain Saws

MINI MACAS $99.95

Clark & Company Memorial Drive 756-2557

Nation's Largest Manufacturer of Automotive Tools & Equipment

Would you like to become affiliated with a company that has world-wide acceptance selling quality tools and equipment? We have over 1700 dealers selling the most complete line to the billion dollar automotive after market.

Here is an opportunity to receive full training and financial assistance. Earnings from $14,000 to $40,000 a year.

Sales experience an asset, but not absolutely necessary. You must have a solid business background or be capable of development.

Modest investment required secured by inventory.

Call or Write: SNAP-ON TOOLS CORPORATION P.O. Box 15216 Charlotte, NC 28210 (704) 525-0060

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

Are you presently employed in retail food store sales? Satisfied? Secure future? Been passed over for promotion?

I have a proposal you can't refuse, if you are an aggressive person who wants to progress rapidly with a fast growing food chain. Must be 21 or over. Write: W. W. Marlin, Jr., with a brief resume. I'll contact you for an immediate confidential interview.

Immediate Openings—We Cover Most of Eastern North Carolina P.O. Box 1598 New Bern, N.C. 28560

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe, South America, Australia, etc. 2,000 openings. Construction, Office, Engineers, Sales, ETC $700 to $300 month. Expenses paid. Free information write Overseas Jobs, International Airport, Box 536-A, Miami, Fla.

Farm Equipment

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

Tuesday, January 2, 1973 10:00 AM

150 Farm Tractors 500 Implements

WAYNE IMPLEMENT AUCTION CORP.

Goldsboro, NC South on Highway 117 Phone: 734-4234

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

January 1, 1973 10:00 AM

100 Tractors, 200 Implements

Goldsboro Auction, Inc. N. George Street Ext. Goldsboro, NC Phone 734-6316 Willie Strickland 735-9778 Dick Smith 734-1191

FOR SALE

Miscellaneous For Sale

3 1/2 x 7 SLATE TOP pool table, complete with sticks and balls, Like new. $350. Call 758-3218.

RAW PEANUTS FOR sale, shelled or unshelled. KEEL PEANUT COM PANY.

USED COLOR TV RCA's Zeniths and other models. New picture tubes, one year warranty. Cannon's TV 756-2555, 8:30 — 10 p.m.

ANTIQUE HIGHBACK Pine Settle. Call 758-2288 after 6 p.m.

NOTICE: Church pews for sale, in good condition with minor repairs for $10 each. Call 752-3839.

NOW IS THE time to select your carpet for Christmas from Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

MONORAG TOWELS & sheets, soap dishes, place mats, towel racks, all available for Christmas at the Linen Closet, 3008 E. 10th Street, Greenville.

FIREPLACE WOOD FOR sale $20 a pickupload or $35 a cord. Call Farmville, 753-5714.

CRISP AUTO SALVAGE

Phone 752-2572 N. Green St. Back of Respass Barbecue

THREE PIECE Spanish living room set. Used 1 week. Original $465. Sale $350. Must sell. 756-4062.

FIREPLACE WOOD, all kinds or mixed. Call 758-1222.

TOP SOIL, FIELD DIRT and sand, any amount. Call 758-1222.

RENT A STEAMEX carpet cleaner. Deep clean your carpet with steam. Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

ROOFING STORM WINDOWS DOORS & AWNINGS C. L. LUPTON CO. 752-6116

HOMELITE CHAIN SAWS $119.00 and Up SALES & SERVICE Hendrix-Barnhill Co. Memorial Dr.

TAFF OFFICE EQUIPMENT 569 S. Evans St. 752-2175

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

"SAVE BIG MONEY NOW"

On All 1972 Model Mazdas at

MAZDA (The Rotary Engine People) of GREENVILLE, N.C. S. Evans Street

For These Savings See: Al Jones or Steve Shuping

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

ROOFING STORM WINDOWS DOORS & AWNINGS C. L. LUPTON CO. 752-6116

HOMELITE CHAIN SAWS $119.00 and Up SALES & SERVICE Hendrix-Barnhill Co. Memorial Dr.

TAFF OFFICE EQUIPMENT 569 S. Evans St. 752-2175

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

"SAVE BIG MONEY NOW"

On All 1972 Model Mazdas at

MAZDA (The Rotary Engine People) of GREENVILLE, N.C. S. Evans Street

For These Savings See: Al Jones or Steve Shuping

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

Are you presently employed in retail food store sales? Satisfied? Secure future? Been passed over for promotion?

I have a proposal you can't refuse, if you are an aggressive person who wants to progress rapidly with a fast growing food chain. Must be 21 or over. Write: W. W. Marlin, Jr., with a brief resume. I'll contact you for an immediate confidential interview.

Immediate Openings—We Cover Most of Eastern North Carolina P.O. Box 1598 New Bern, N.C. 28560

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe, South America, Australia, etc. 2,000 openings. Construction, Office, Engineers, Sales, ETC $700 to $300 month. Expenses paid. Free information write Overseas Jobs, International Airport, Box 536-A, Miami, Fla.

Farm Equipment

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

Tuesday, January 2, 1973 10:00 AM

150 Farm Tractors 500 Implements

WAYNE IMPLEMENT AUCTION CORP.

Goldsboro, NC South on Highway 117 Phone: 734-4234

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

January 1, 1973 10:00 AM

100 Tractors, 200 Implements

Goldsboro Auction, Inc. N. George Street Ext. Goldsboro, NC Phone 734-6316 Willie Strickland 735-9778 Dick Smith 734-1191

FOR SALE

Miscellaneous For Sale

3 1/2 x 7 SLATE TOP pool table, complete with sticks and balls, Like new. $350. Call 758-3218.

RAW PEANUTS FOR sale, shelled or unshelled. KEEL PEANUT COM PANY.

USED COLOR TV RCA's Zeniths and other models. New picture tubes, one year warranty. Cannon's TV 756-2555, 8:30 — 10 p.m.

ANTIQUE HIGHBACK Pine Settle. Call 758-2288 after 6 p.m.

NOTICE: Church pews for sale, in good condition with minor repairs for $10 each. Call 752-3839.

NOW IS THE time to select your carpet for Christmas from Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

MONORAG TOWELS & sheets, soap dishes, place mats, towel racks, all available for Christmas at the Linen Closet, 3008 E. 10th Street, Greenville.

FIREPLACE WOOD FOR sale $20 a pickupload or $35 a cord. Call Farmville, 753-5714.

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

Are you presently employed in retail food store sales? Satisfied? Secure future? Been passed over for promotion?

I have a proposal you can't refuse, if you are an aggressive person who wants to progress rapidly with a fast growing food chain. Must be 21 or over. Write: W. W. Marlin, Jr., with a brief resume. I'll contact you for an immediate confidential interview.

Immediate Openings—We Cover Most of Eastern North Carolina P.O. Box 1598 New Bern, N.C. 28560

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe, South America, Australia, etc. 2,000 openings. Construction, Office, Engineers, Sales, ETC $700 to $300 month. Expenses paid. Free information write Overseas Jobs, International Airport, Box 536-A, Miami, Fla.

Farm Equipment

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

Tuesday, January 2, 1973 10:00 AM

150 Farm Tractors 500 Implements

WAYNE IMPLEMENT AUCTION CORP.

Goldsboro, NC South on Highway 117 Phone: 734-4234

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

January 1, 1973 10:00 AM

100 Tractors, 200 Implements

Goldsboro Auction, Inc. N. George Street Ext. Goldsboro, NC Phone 734-6316 Willie Strickland 735-9778 Dick Smith 734-1191

FOR SALE

Miscellaneous For Sale

3 1/2 x 7 SLATE TOP pool table, complete with sticks and balls, Like new. $350. Call 758-3218.

RAW PEANUTS FOR sale, shelled or unshelled. KEEL PEANUT COM PANY.

USED COLOR TV RCA's Zeniths and other models. New picture tubes, one year warranty. Cannon's TV 756-2555, 8:30 — 10 p.m.

ANTIQUE HIGHBACK Pine Settle. Call 758-2288 after 6 p.m.

NOTICE: Church pews for sale, in good condition with minor repairs for $10 each. Call 752-3839.

NOW IS THE time to select your carpet for Christmas from Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

MONORAG TOWELS & sheets, soap dishes, place mats, towel racks, all available for Christmas at the Linen Closet, 3008 E. 10th Street, Greenville.

FIREPLACE WOOD FOR sale $20 a pickupload or $35 a cord. Call Farmville, 753-5714.

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe, South America, Australia, etc. 2,000 openings. Construction, Office, Engineers, Sales, ETC $700 to $300 month. Expenses paid. Free information write Overseas Jobs, International Airport, Box 536-A, Miami, Fla.

Farm Equipment

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

Tuesday, January 2, 1973 10:00 AM

150 Farm Tractors 500 Implements

WAYNE IMPLEMENT AUCTION CORP.

Goldsboro, NC South on Highway 117 Phone: 734-4234

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

January 1, 1973 10:00 AM

100 Tractors, 200 Implements

Goldsboro Auction, Inc. N. George Street Ext. Goldsboro, NC Phone 734-6316 Willie Strickland 735-9778 Dick Smith 734-1191

FOR SALE

Miscellaneous For Sale

3 1/2 x 7 SLATE TOP pool table, complete with sticks and balls, Like new. $350. Call 758-3218.

RAW PEANUTS FOR sale, shelled or unshelled. KEEL PEANUT COM PANY.

USED COLOR TV RCA's Zeniths and other models. New picture tubes, one year warranty. Cannon's TV 756-2555, 8:30 — 10 p.m.

ANTIQUE HIGHBACK Pine Settle. Call 758-2288 after 6 p.m.

NOTICE: Church pews for sale, in good condition with minor repairs for $10 each. Call 752-3839.

NOW IS THE time to select your carpet for Christmas from Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

MONORAG TOWELS & sheets, soap dishes, place mats, towel racks, all available for Christmas at the Linen Closet, 3008 E. 10th Street, Greenville.

FIREPLACE WOOD FOR sale $20 a pickupload or $35 a cord. Call Farmville, 753-5714.

Start The New Year Out Right

SMITH WALDROP MOTORS

Texas Topper Country Is Looking For:

(1) Service Manager

Good Fringe Benefits For Personal Interview

Contact: Cliff Frelke 756-4267

INSURANCE DEBIT MAN wanted. Must be 21 and married. Preferably with experience. Starting pay $160 per week, excellent fringe benefits. Make application at Southern Life Insurance Co., 209 Evans St., Greenville, N.C.

MORTGAGE LOAN REPRESENTATIVE with some business experience. College degree desired. Employer is top rated N.C. Mortgage Corporation. Excellent fringe benefits. Local travel necessary. Opportunity for advancement. Write: "Mortgage", P.O. Box 1967, Greenville, N.C.

$1,500 CASH

In today's Army you can start the new year with a $1,500 cash bonus, guaranteed in writing before you enlist. You can also choose your duty location, and in addition to top pay, your meals, housing, clothing, and health care are all furnished—plus you receive 30 days paid vacation each year. For more information see or call your local Army Representative:

752-4826

Today's Army wants to join you.

McCULLOCH Chain Saws

MINI MACAS $99.95

Clark & Company Memorial Drive 756-2557

Nation's Largest Manufacturer of Automotive Tools & Equipment

Would you like to become affiliated with a company that has world-wide acceptance selling quality tools and equipment? We have over 1700 dealers selling the most complete line to the billion dollar automotive after market.

Here is an opportunity to receive full training and financial assistance. Earnings from $14,000 to $40,000 a year.

Sales experience an asset, but not absolutely necessary. You must have a solid business background or be capable of development.

Modest investment required secured by inventory.

Call or Write: SNAP-ON TOOLS CORPORATION P.O. Box 15216 Charlotte, NC 28210 (704) 525-0060

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

Are you presently employed in retail food store sales? Satisfied? Secure future? Been passed over for promotion?

I have a proposal you can't refuse, if you are an aggressive person who wants to progress rapidly with a fast growing food chain. Must be 21 or over. Write: W. W. Marlin, Jr., with a brief resume. I'll contact you for an immediate confidential interview.

Immediate Openings—We Cover Most of Eastern North Carolina P.O. Box 1598 New Bern, N.C. 28560

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe, South America, Australia, etc. 2,000 openings. Construction, Office, Engineers, Sales, ETC $700 to $300 month. Expenses paid. Free information write Overseas Jobs, International Airport, Box 536-A, Miami, Fla.

Farm Equipment

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

Tuesday, January 2, 1973 10:00 AM

150 Farm Tractors 500 Implements

WAYNE IMPLEMENT AUCTION CORP.

Goldsboro, NC South on Highway 117 Phone: 734-4234

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

January 1, 1973 10:00 AM

100 Tractors, 200 Implements

Goldsboro Auction, Inc. N. George Street Ext. Goldsboro, NC Phone 734-6316 Willie Strickland 735-9778 Dick Smith 734-1191

FOR SALE

Miscellaneous For Sale

3 1/2 x 7 SLATE TOP pool table, complete with sticks and balls, Like new. $350. Call 758-3218.

RAW PEANUTS FOR sale, shelled or unshelled. KEEL PEANUT COM PANY.

USED COLOR TV RCA's Zeniths and other models. New picture tubes, one year warranty. Cannon's TV 756-2555, 8:30 — 10 p.m.

ANTIQUE HIGHBACK Pine Settle. Call 758-2288 after 6 p.m.

NOTICE: Church pews for sale, in good condition with minor repairs for $10 each. Call 752-3839.

NOW IS THE time to select your carpet for Christmas from Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

MONORAG TOWELS & sheets, soap dishes, place mats, towel racks, all available for Christmas at the Linen Closet, 3008 E. 10th Street, Greenville.

FIREPLACE WOOD FOR sale $20 a pickupload or $35 a cord. Call Farmville, 753-5714.

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

Are you presently employed in retail food store sales? Satisfied? Secure future? Been passed over for promotion?

I have a proposal you can't refuse, if you are an aggressive person who wants to progress rapidly with a fast growing food chain. Must be 21 or over. Write: W. W. Marlin, Jr., with a brief resume. I'll contact you for an immediate confidential interview.

Immediate Openings—We Cover Most of Eastern North Carolina P.O. Box 1598 New Bern, N.C. 28560

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe, South America, Australia, etc. 2,000 openings. Construction, Office, Engineers, Sales, ETC $700 to $300 month. Expenses paid. Free information write Overseas Jobs, International Airport, Box 536-A, Miami, Fla.

Farm Equipment

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

Tuesday, January 2, 1973 10:00 AM

150 Farm Tractors 500 Implements

WAYNE IMPLEMENT AUCTION CORP.

Goldsboro, NC South on Highway 117 Phone: 734-4234

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

January 1, 1973 10:00 AM

100 Tractors, 200 Implements

Goldsboro Auction, Inc. N. George Street Ext. Goldsboro, NC Phone 734-6316 Willie Strickland 735-9778 Dick Smith 734-1191

FOR SALE

Miscellaneous For Sale

3 1/2 x 7 SLATE TOP pool table, complete with sticks and balls, Like new. $350. Call 758-3218.

RAW PEANUTS FOR sale, shelled or unshelled. KEEL PEANUT COM PANY.

USED COLOR TV RCA's Zeniths and other models. New picture tubes, one year warranty. Cannon's TV 756-2555, 8:30 — 10 p.m.

ANTIQUE HIGHBACK Pine Settle. Call 758-2288 after 6 p.m.

NOTICE: Church pews for sale, in good condition with minor repairs for $10 each. Call 752-3839.

NOW IS THE time to select your carpet for Christmas from Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

MONORAG TOWELS & sheets, soap dishes, place mats, towel racks, all available for Christmas at the Linen Closet, 3008 E. 10th Street, Greenville.

FIREPLACE WOOD FOR sale $20 a pickupload or $35 a cord. Call Farmville, 753-5714.

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

Are you presently employed in retail food store sales? Satisfied? Secure future? Been passed over for promotion?

I have a proposal you can't refuse, if you are an aggressive person who wants to progress rapidly with a fast growing food chain. Must be 21 or over. Write: W. W. Marlin, Jr., with a brief resume. I'll contact you for an immediate confidential interview.

Immediate Openings—We Cover Most of Eastern North Carolina P.O. Box 1598 New Bern, N.C. 28560

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe, South America, Australia, etc. 2,000 openings. Construction, Office, Engineers, Sales, ETC $700 to $300 month. Expenses paid. Free information write Overseas Jobs, International Airport, Box 536-A, Miami, Fla.

Farm Equipment

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

Tuesday, January 2, 1973 10:00 AM

150 Farm Tractors 500 Implements

WAYNE IMPLEMENT AUCTION CORP.

Goldsboro, NC South on Highway 117 Phone: 734-4234

Farm Machinery Auction Sale

January 1, 1973 10:00 AM

100 Tractors, 200 Implements

Goldsboro Auction, Inc. N. George Street Ext. Goldsboro, NC Phone 734-6316 Willie Strickland 735-9778 Dick Smith 734-1191

FOR SALE

Miscellaneous For Sale

3 1/2 x 7 SLATE TOP pool table, complete with sticks and balls, Like new. $350. Call 758-3218.

RAW PEANUTS FOR sale, shelled or unshelled. KEEL PEANUT COM PANY.

USED COLOR TV RCA's Zeniths and other models. New picture tubes, one year warranty. Cannon's TV 756-2555, 8:30 — 10 p.m.

ANTIQUE HIGHBACK Pine Settle. Call 758-2288 after 6 p.m.

NOTICE: Church pews for sale, in good condition with minor repairs for $10 each. Call 752-3839.

NOW IS THE time to select your carpet for Christmas from Larry's Carpetland, 3010 E. 10th St., Greenville.

MONORAG TOWELS & sheets, soap dishes, place mats, towel racks, all available for Christmas at the Linen Closet, 3008 E. 10th Street, Greenville.

FIREPLACE WOOD FOR sale $20 a pickupload or $35 a cord. Call Farmville, 753-5714.

Male-Female Help

3-Pc. home desk centers custom designed for the home owner. Styled to go in any room.

Male-Female Help

SNELLING & SNELLING World's largest Employment System, 219 Cotanche St. Call 758-4195, Greenville, N.C.

UNLIMITED EARNINGS FOR right salesman or sales woman, opening new accounts, commission, all expenses plus full company benefits, car required, guaranteed salary while training. Contact Stewart Sandwiches, Inc. 752-7602.

DUNHILL PERSONNEL. PROFESSIONAL placement in sales, technical, administrative and clerical. Open 9-5, daily, evenings by appointment. 758-2107.

Male-Female Help

Are you presently employed in retail food store sales? Satisfied? Secure future? Been passed over for promotion?

I have a proposal you can't refuse, if you are an aggressive person who wants to progress rapidly with a fast growing food chain. Must be 21 or over. Write: W. W. Marlin, Jr., with a brief resume. I'll contact you for an immediate confidential interview.

Immediate Openings—We Cover Most of Eastern North Carolina P.O. Box 1598 New Bern, N.C. 28560

Male-Female Help

OVERSEAS JOBS Europe

City Recreation Lists Winter Programs

The Greenville Recreation Department has announced its winter program with classes beginning during the month of January. Details on the program are:

Playschool for children ages four through six will be held every Friday morning from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., beginning Friday, January 12th, at the Elm Street Center. A fee of $2.00 per child will be charged for the twelve week program. A wide range of activities such as crafts, music, free play, and storytelling will be offered each week.

Beginner's Bride will be offered during the day and at night. A night class will be taught, starting Monday, January 22nd from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m., and the day class will begin Wednesday, January 24th from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Both day and evening classes will run for ten consecutive weeks. Classes will meet at the Elm Street Center.

Ladies Slimnastics is now being offered each Monday.

Wednesday and Friday from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. in the Elm Street Gym. Interested women are asked to bring a terry towel to class and wear comfortable, loose fitting clothes and soft soled shoes.

The Men's Pot Belly Club meet from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at Elm Street Gym. An exercise and weight room is available and recreational basketball will be played. There is no charge.

Arts and Crafts for adults will begin on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 9th and 10th at the Elm Street Center. Classes in copper tooling will start off the season and will run for eight weeks. Craft hours are: Tuesday 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon; 1:00 to 4:30 p.m. and 7:30 to 10:00 p.m.; Wednesday 2:00 to 4:30 p.m. and 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Arts and Crafts at South Greenville Center are held each Thursday from 2:30 to 5:00 p.m. and 7:30 to 10:00 p.m.

Senior Citizens of Greenville are invited to attend the bi-monthly meeting at the Elm Street Center on the first and third Thursday of the month from 4:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon. The meetings for the month of January will be held Thursday, January 4th and 18th. The South Greenville Senior Citizens meet the first Wednesday of each month at 3:00 p.m. in the Social Room at the South Greenville Center.

Advanced Gymnastics are now being held for girls through twelfth graders, who have completed beginner's gymnastics. Classes are being taught on Tuesday afternoon from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the Elm Street Gym. Also, Karate lessons are now being offered and new classes will be formed in January, Tuesday mornings from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m.

The Greenville Recreation Department, in co-operation with Pitt Technical Institute, is offering rug hooking classes beginning January 4th, in the Elm Street Gymnasium from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Ladies Volleyball will be taught on Monday and Wednesday mornings from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m., beginning January 8th at the Elm Street Gym.

Basketball is now being formed for both boys and girls of all ages. Fourth, fifth and sixth grade boys meet each Tuesday from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. at the Elm Street Gym, South Greenville and Eppes Police Club Gym. Seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys play each Wednesday from 3:45 to 5:15 p.m. at the Eppes Police Club, Elm Street Gym and South Greenville Gym. Tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade boys meet at the Elm Street Gym, South Greenville Gym and Police Club each Monday from 3:45 to 5:15 p.m. Girls basketball classes are now being formed for all fourth through ninth grade girls, which will meet on Thursday at the Elm Street Gym and Eppes Police Club Gym.

Basketball, for adults. Adult basketball leagues are being formed which include Church, City, Industrial, and Ladies Leagues.

In addition to these activities, South Greenville Recreation Center announces the following special programs:

The Athletic Club for Junior and Senior High age boys will meet each Friday night in the gymnasium.

Teen Age Clubs are a popular activity at South Greenville. The Junior Teen Club meets Friday nights, and the Senior Teen Club meets Saturday nights at the Center.

The Gourmet Club for teenage girls meets each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the South Greenville kitchen.

Art Classes, under Mr. James Adams, meet each Tuesday and Friday afternoon beginning at 4:30 p.m.

The Men's Exercise Group for adults meets each Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. in the South Greenville Gymnasium.

For further information on any classes, call the Greenville Recreation Department at 752-2355.

Somoza: Quake 'Shook' Hughes

By JOHN PLATERO
Associated Press Writer
MANAGUA (AP) — The earthquake that devastated Nicaragua's capital early last Saturday morning caught Howard Hughes in his tightly guarded half of the seventh floor of the Intercontinental Hotel, where the billionaire recluse had been holed up since August.

The pyramid-shaped hotel cracked, and the ninth floor moved to one side and tilted. The power went out throughout the city and Hughes, who reportedly has a fear of death by natural disaster, had to descend a darkened stairway to leave the building.

His aides put him in a rented car and drove him about a mile to the home of Gen. Anastasio Somoza, Nicaragua's strong man and a close friend.

Somoza said Hughes' prime concern was to leave the country; that he offered no assistance in the earthquake emergency.

"He was fairly disturbed," said the general. "He's used to living in places where they don't have earthquakes."

Somoza checked with the airport and was told the runway appeared undamaged. So Hughes left and apparently was driven directly to his Lear jet parked there, but the plane did not leave immediately.

The speculation is that Hughes waited until he saw other aircraft take off safely.

About 9:30 a.m., Maurice Parga, the rental car agent, drove to his office near the Intercontinental to check on his vehicles. He went on to the hotel and offered to take guests standing outside to his home.

When Parga said he was a ham radio operator and had a station, one of Hughes' men asked to accompany him in order to send a radio message to the United States.

Parga said he tried to broadcast, but his equipment broke down. He mentioned that another ham operator, William Criswell, lived three blocks away.

Tar Heels Get Medals

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission has awarded bronze medals to two teen-aged North Carolina boys who drowned last year trying to save another who couldn't swim. The current carried the other lad to a rock, and he was rescued.

The heroes are Charles Stephen Davis, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. David of Rt. 3, Laurel Springs, and James Stanley Osborne, 15, son of Mrs. Katy F. Higgins of Sparta.

The citation said that on July 6, 1971, the other youth, C. Alton Darnell, waded into the New River at Piney Creek to free his fishing line, and lost his footing. The current carried him into deep water.

Davis and Osborne took off their boots and entered the chilly water. They both went under before they could overtake Darnell, who was carried to a rock at midstream.

A rescue squad got to Darnell, and later recovered the bodies of the other two boys.

It was 10:30 a.m. when Hughes' employe went to Criswell's home and asked if he could send a message to the States. Criswell already had been on the air making appeals for help.

"I don't recall his name," said Criswell, "and I just couldn't keep a log, but I remember a cryptic message I sent to a Florida Ham."

"The message more or less went like this:

"We're okay, leaving on Lear jet. Destroy all records and X-ray. Proceed immediately to Miami. When arrive in Miami, call 31 Los Angeles for ultimate destination."

No one knew Hughes' destination, but it was said his jet left early Saturday afternoon. The Miami Herald reported he landed at Fort Lauderdale, and early Wednesday he arrived in London.

"Hughes still hasn't sent a damn thing here," said one friend of Somoza who asked not to be identified. "I doubt if he will ever come back, and besides I don't think Somoza will let him back in now."

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1972

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Whatever is worldly in its nature can be handled well today. The evening finds you able to investigate and to uncover answers for which you have been searching. Plan to have a greater amount of the things that are vital to your interests.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Talk with bigwigs on how you can improve your position in life. Many situations arise during the weekend that can help to make your future much brighter. Don't argue over trifles. Be wise.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Find out just what it is that associates expect of you during the day, and then do whatever will improve your image with the public in the evening. Make sure contractual deals are effective.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get busy with end-of-the-year duties that are important so you have a clear slate for the new year. Plan for greater success and happiness. Strive for the confidence of co-workers.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Plan to get your home in finer condition now so that the New Year starts on the right note. Buy a nice gift for your mate. Attending a social affair together can prove enjoyable.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Compromise may be necessary if you are to gain your aims at home which means a great deal to you. Improve the whole fundamental structure of your life. Get rid of a feeling of bitterness.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You can attend to those duties that require clever handling and get good results. Buy whatever will make you more comfortable in the place where you reside. Settle any pending problems.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) You know how to handle a monetary matter very intelligently now, so attend to this as early as possible and add much to present assets. Attend a social affair tonight that pleases you and mate.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Getting together with good friends and planning mutual affairs in right directions is wise today. Make the months ahead very productive. Accept invitation to attend the social tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A good day to analyze just how far you have progressed toward your finest aims and what to do in the New Year for greater advancement. Find the right means through which to be more efficient.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) A different approach at personal aims is important and your good friends can be very helpful in this. Attend the right social gatherings and make big headway. Show more devotion to mate.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Be sure you go through with promises you have made to others, particularly those who are influential. Add to your image by getting involved in civic work. Make a bigger name for yourself.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You can now get out of that dull routine that is comfortable but not getting you very far. Make new contacts and look into new outlets. Do some studying that can prepare you for bigger things.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY he or she will be one of those delightful young people who is very magnetic. Teach the finest philosophy of life so that your progeny will achieve a great deal along right lines and not go off on tangents that would bring an unhappy life instead of a successful one. Help your youngster adopt a give-and-take attitude toward others. Sports are a must here.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Carroll Righter's Individual Forecast for your sign for January is now ready. For your copy send your birthdate and $1 to Carroll Righter Forecast (name of newspaper), P.O. Box 629, Hollywood, Calif. 90028.

(c) 1972, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

SUPER NEW YEARS EVE SPECIALS!!

PRICES EFFECTIVE DEC. 29 AND DEC. 30

A DIVISION OF COOK UNITED, INC.

Lik' Em Dry Roasted PEANUTS

49¢
Our reg. 63¢

•8 oz. size for snacks and parties.
•No oil, fats or sugar used in processing.

Thermal MUG OR BOWL

•Clown face design
•Get one for your youngster's breakfast cereal!

29¢
OUR REG. 39¢

Polaroid 108 COLOR FILM

348
Our reg. 3.89

•Eight big 3 1/4" x 4 1/4" inch color exposures. Enjoy pictures as they happen.

LIMIT 1 PLEASE

Special savings on party needs!

Anchor Hocking 26 Piece PUNCH BOWL SET

238
Our reg. 4.87

•6 qt. bowl, ladle, 12 cups and 12 hooks. #600/12.

Pkg. of 51 FOAM CUPS

29¢
Our reg. 39¢

•7 oz. size. Great for parties.

8 Oz. Liquid PEPTO BISMOL

66¢
Our reg. 79¢

•Protective coating action for upset stomach, indigestion.

SAFETY VEST

•Style number 6150
•Bright flame-orange color for hunter's use
•Draw string

97¢

Cornwall HOT TRAY

399
Our reg. 4.93

•Perfect for serving at your parties. Keeps food hot off stove. #148.

Libby Pkg. of 4 STEMWARE

137
Our reg. 1.97

•Choose 8 oz. wine glass or 6 oz. wine glass, whiskey sour glass, cocktail glass or champagne glass.

WEST END SHOPPING CENTER

Open Monday Thru Saturday 9:30 A.M. Until 9:30 P.M.

WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES