Kissinger, Le Duc Tho Expect To Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Henry A. Kissinger and Hanoi's Le Duc Tho are expected to meet in Paris in mid-May to discuss implementation of the Paris peace accords, White House sources said today.

This was disclosed after press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler made a formal announcement that Asst. Secretary of State William L. Sullivan and a North Vietnamese official will meet in Paris on Friday "to prepare a review of the implementation of the Paris agreements and appropriate measures to bring about the strict implementation of the agreements."

Sullivan, assistant secretary for East Asian affairs, will meet at 10 a.m. Paris time, with Hanoi's vice minister of foreign affairs, Nguyen Co Thach.

Just Tuesday the United States, in a formal note, accused North Vietnam of direct and inexcusable violations of the January Paris agreements on ending the war in Vietnam.

Sources said Sullivan and Thach would prepare a review as a prelude to a meeting between Kissinger, President Nixon's top foreign policy adviser, and Tho, a member of the North Vietnamese Politburo in Paris, around the middle of May.

Ziegler said the Sullivan-Thach session was to seek full adherence by all parties to the peace accord and an end to the fighting throughout Indochina.

The United States, he said, "was doing everything possible" to achieve these ends. But he noted that Washington has complained "on many occasions" about violations attributed to Hanoi.

Friday's meeting was announced simultaneously by the White House and North Vietnam. In response to a question, Ziegler said the two parties had not adopted identical language for the announcement but that he anticipated Hanoi would say much the same thing in substance.

Time Working Against No-Fault Insurance Bill Says House Chairman

RALEIGH (AP) — The chairman of the House Insurance Committee says time is working against the enactment of a no-fault auto insurance program in North Carolina this year.

Rep. Sneed High, D-Cumberland, made the statement Tuesday after the Senate reconsidered a no-fault bill, made three major changes and passed it by 35-13.

The measure was sent by special messenger to the House. But the urgency of this was questioned by High. He indicated his committee is not going to be quick to act on the bill.

He said the Senate made significant changes in the bill, "so it's a new ball game now."

"The Senate changes are going to require much more than average scrutiny by our committee," High said in an interview. "We've got 35 members to satisfy whereas the Senate committee has 20 and it took them weeks to get the bill out of committee."

He noted that the 1973 session is due to end sometime next month and there is a possibility no-fault may not be acted upon before the lawmakers leave town.

Legislation to provide a modified no-fault plan was approved by the Senate Monday night, but confusion arose over an amendment tacked on to it.

Under the bill finally approved Tuesday, a policyholder could collect up to $750 medical expenses and $5,000 for bodily injury and economic losses without bringing a lawsuit regardless of who was at fault in an accident.

Under the original bill, the threshold for medical expenses without the right to sue was $1,000.

In Tuesday's action, the Senate removed the words "significant," "serious" and "substantial" from a provision describing injuries under no-fault.

In approving the bill Monday night, the Senate voted for an amendment by Sen. Phil Godwin, D-Gates, that replaced the $1,000 threshold with a threshold of $500 for bodily injury and $500 for property damages.

Some senators thought the amendment changed the threshold to $500 for bodily injury or $500 for property damage.

The Pitt County Board of Education met last night to review proposed budget items for the 1973-74 fiscal year budget, but no action was taken.

After the board completes its list of requests—expected to come in the next several weeks—the proposals will be forwarded to the Pitt County Commissioners for their approval and inclusion in the county's overall budget for funding.

In other business, the board members refused to approve a 15 cent special district capital outlay levy for the Greenville school district.

In a resolution adopted by the board, it was stated, "the

Greenville City Board of Education over the past 20 years has not presented a special district capital outlay budget to the county board of education for consideration. . . and the county board is not in a position to know the needs of the Greenville City Schools, be it resolved that the Pitt County Board of Education take no action on the Greenville special district capital outlay budget request, and further, that the matter be referred back to the Greenville City Board of Education."

According to the resolution, the 1973 General Assembly has been requested by the County Board of Education and County Commissioners to abolish in the Pitt County administrative unit all special capital outlay and current expense tax districts and the capital outlay funding is provided for as a general rule from the county-wide school budget.

If approved, the 15 cents supplemental tax would have provided the city schools with a total of $192,500.

The money would have been spent on such improvements as: beginning a phased program for providing storage and dressing facilities at E. B. Aycock Athletic field ($25,000); construction of tennis courts on the Elmhurst site ($18,000) beginning carpeting program in primary classrooms ($50,000); initial engineering planning and construction phases leading to air conditioning of the city schools ($75,000); Bleachers at E. B. Aycock athletic field ($6,500); and replacement of two activity buses ($18,000).

All scouts in the county schools will be allowed to leave school early Friday because of a camporee scheduled for Friday through Sunday. The scouts will not be dismissed before noon on Friday.

The board has petitioned the State Board of Education for the suspension of as many as five days lost due to snow and not made up as of April 1.

The Pitt County unit, which lost seven days due to snow, petitioned the state board to suspend for teachers and students the five days that are allowed. Therefore, students would attend school for 175 days and teachers would have 187 days of planning, teaching and related work.

The local board felt the days should be suspended since school employees who work less than 12 months annually receive no paid vacation as do all other state employees. Also, certain school employees receive no sick leave days while others receive only half of that received by other state employees.

The State Board of Education will act on the matter at its May meeting.

Tenure was approved for the following teachers: Reather J. Williams, Mary Jackson Albritton, Donna K. Moore, Gladys Avery, Horace Gordon, Ruth Walston, Nannie Jordan, Loraine H. Rogerson and Maggie Dudley.

School board members will again review the budget for the next fiscal year at their regular board meeting Tuesday. If necessary, a special meeting will be held on May 15 for final approval before the budget is turned over to the county commissioners.

Report 'No Decision' Yet On Firing Nixon Aides

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says President Nixon has made "no decision at all" on whether to fire top-level aides as a result of the Watergate affair.

Nixon spokesmen deny reports that Secretary of State William P. Rogers has been asked to head a post-Watergate shakeup of the White House staff and that the President was in any way involved in a reported offer of executive clemency to conspirators already convicted.

The chief spokesman for the Nixon re-election drive, DeVan L. Shumway, said he was not told the whole truth at the time he was issuing blanket denials of high-level knowledge of political-espionage plans.

And Sen. Robert Dole, R-Kan., past chairman of the Republican National Committee, said that, from his observation of "the players involved," it is entirely conceivable the Watergate plot could have been hatched without Nixon's knowledge.

The Washington Post reported, meanwhile, that the Nixon campaign committee spent $8,400—mostly in $100 bills—on a publicity drive aimed at fabricating bipartisan support for the President's decision last spring to mine Haiphong harbor.

It said $4,400 was spent on a "deceptive, apparently illegal" advertisement in The New York Times rebutting that paper's editorial position. The Post said that, although the half-page ad appeared to have been prepared and purchased by a nonpolitical citizens' group, it actually was paid for with Nixon campaign funds.

Stating the expenditures never were reported to the General Accounting Office as required by law.

Saigon Offers Election Plan

PARIS (AP) — The South Vietnamese government today proposed to the Viet Cong a 10-point plan for a final political settlement in South Vietnam including internationally supervised general elections within four months.

Deputy Premier Nguyen Luu Vien submitted the plan at the eighth session of the deadlocked political negotiations between the Saigon government and the South Vietnamese Communists at the Chateau de la Celle St. Cloud west of Paris.

The draft reiterated Saigon's demands for withdrawal of all North Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam but for the first time offered to demobilize an equivalent number of South Vietnamese troops.

The plan specified that the withdrawal of North Vietnamese forces and the corresponding South Vietnamese demobilization would be concluded before the elections.

The proposal made no reference to the present South Vietnamese constitution. It thus appeared to allow Saigon's previous insist that the constitution must remain in force. Vien suggested that the two sides should meet the 90-day deadline set by the Jan. 27 peace agreement by signing a preliminary accord on Friday, April 27. He said the general elections should be held Sunday, Aug. 26, which he said would provide "a reasonable delay permitting the South Vietnamese people to exercise their right to self-determination."

Fisherman Is Found Dead

The Pitt County Coroner has ruled that a Grimesland man, whose body was found in his boat on the Tar River yesterday morning, died of natural causes.

Coroner E.W. Harvey Jr. said that Louis H. Elks, 65, apparently suffered a heart attack while fishing. Elks was discovered around 11:30 a.m. by another fisherman approximately one mile from the scene beach landing near Grimesland.

Break-In Charged

A 33-year-old Greenville man has been charged with breaking, entering and larceny following investigation of a weekend incident at the Sunnyside Eggs farm near Winterville.

Pitt Sheriff Ralph Tyson said that Langdon Nathaniel Ray, of 429 W. Third Street, was charged with breaking into the main accounting office at the farm. The break-in, discovered around 9 a.m. Sunday, was reported at 11 a.m.

The farm manager told deputies that approximately $67 in cash was found missing from the main office, as well as two cash boxes. The sheriff noted that a pad lock on the office door had been forced open.

Sheriff Tyson said that Ray is being held under $1,000 bond with a hearing scheduled for May 10 in District Court here.

Adjustments Bd. Hearings Salted

Only one item is on the City-County Board of Adjustments for the April meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. in City Hall. The joint body will conduct a public hearing on a request for special use permit by Kenneth M. Lloyd to place a mobile home on the east end of Church Street outside the city limits.

Six items have been placed on the agenda for the Greenville Board of Adjustments, which will meet immediately following the adjournment of the joint board.

All six are public hearings. These are: Under special use permit requests—A.B. Stalworth to utilize a building located 2721 Memorial Drive as a fraternity; Perkins Oil Company to install more storage tanks on property at 11 West Fourteenth Street; the Stop-N-Go to install self-service gasoline pumps at 810 East Tenth Street; and ABC Mobile Homes to use a mobile home as a residence on the back of the sales lot on U.S. 264 bypass.

Under request for variance, the two public hearings will be on the Greenville Church of Christ altering the church located on Greenville Boulevard S.E. and Emerson Road; and Moore-King-Sullivan Oil Company to construct a convenience store at the intersection of U.S. 264 bypass and N.C. 43.

'Frank Answers' By Mitchell

NEW YORK (AP) — "I answered all the questions fully, freely and frankly," former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said after testifying before a federal grand jury that is investigating financier Robert L. Vesco's $200,000 cash contribution to President Nixon's reelection campaign.

That was all that Mitchell, who managed the 1972 campaign for a time, would tell newsmen about his testimony Tuesday.

The grand jury is believed to be studying whether the unreported $200,000 donation was an attempt to influence a federal investigation of Vesco, now accused in a civil suit of looting $224 million in mutual funds.

Vesco, 37, gave the donation to Nixon's chief fund raiser, former Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans, three days after the April 7, 1972, deadline requiring disclosure of contributions in federal elections.

The following November, the Securities and Exchange Commission filed suit against Vesco and 40 other individuals and corporations, charging them with swindling $24 million from four mutual funds controlled by Investors Overseas Services Ltd.

And on Jan. 31, the Nixon campaign committee returned the $200,000 plus another $50,000 contribution that Vesco had given by check.

The larger contribution was first made public in a 371-page pretrial affidavit in the SEC suit by Harry L. Sears, Vesco's lawyer. Stans claimed the gift was not reported because it had been pledged before the deadline.

White House Is Termed 'Secure'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Security at the White House is described as adequate by the two top U.S. Secret Service officials. They said it didn't seem likely President Nixon would have to use an available tunnel to escape if a mob attempted to storm his official residence.

James J. Rowley, the Secret Service Director, and Thomas J. Kelley, assistant director, testified Tuesday in U.S. District Court. The American Civil Liberties Union is challenging the legality of a regulation limiting the number of demonstrators in front of the White House.

"If the president was in the White House, they (a violent crowd) probably couldn't get to him," Kelley said. Preventing harm to the president would require "stringent and possibly violent action" by police, he added.

"I don't believe the tunnel would have to be used at all today," said Rowley, "because we (have) adequate protection."

The Secret Service has the assignment of protecting the U.S. president.

ACLU attorneys contended that there is no history of radical demonstrators attempting to storm the White House and that, even if it happened, there are adequate safeguards to protect the president.

Wife Is Not Impressed With Weekend Outings

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1973 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Neil and I have been married for three years. It's the second time around for both of us and I am determined to make a go of this marriage. Neil is 53 and I'm 50.

My problem: Every weekend Neil wants to entertain another couple on our boat. The other couple always turns out to be a cute young female employe and her husband.

Now, I can see that the purpose of these weekend outings is to impress the new employe. But last weekend was the last straw. The girl [about 22] wore skintight pants and a sheer blouse, to show off her figure, which was beautiful. [I am not bad for my age, but I can't compete with that.] My husband kept calling her "Honey," "Doll," and "Babe." The young husband sat like a bump on a log and tried to make small talk with me.

Should I go along with entertaining such couples? We have plenty of friends our own age, but my husband prefers these kids. Please advise me. JEALOUS IN NEWPORT

DEAR JEALOUS: Tell your husband that if he wants to entertain his employes, you will go along with an annual Christmas party, but weekends on a boat with that kind of foursome is bore some.

DEAR ABBY: I cannot tolerate smoke, but it seems the world is geared for smokers. In waiting rooms, and in almost all public places, if the nonsmoker wants to escape the pollution of smokers, he has to find a smoke-free corner where he can breathe some fresh air.

Why don't they post NO SMOKING signs in all places where people gather, and provide the smokers with a dinky, little, airtight room off to the side somewhere where they can all crowd in together, smoke to their hearts' content, and inhale each other's smoke? Then, the fresh air will be left for those of us who are more deserving of it.

SICK OF SMOKERS

DEAR SICK: I'm with you. And to the next smoker who asks me if I "mind" if he smokes, I shall say: "Why don't you do us both a favor and refrain?"

DEAR ABBY: My first letter to any kind of newspaper, but I feel so strongly on the question raised by "Dad in Hackensack," I must express myself. Believe me, the money loaned to anyone in a family [or a friend for that matter] should be accompanied by a cold hard note. It may seem unfriendly, but once it is an established fact, it is the most friendly way to handle a loan, and avoids a lot of problems in the future.

When my husband and I borrowed from our parents, it was a businesslike procedure. True, we paid only 3 per cent interest, and the note was renewed, but it was all on paper in case something happened to any of us.

I know elderly people who have only their Social Security to live on because they foolishly "loaned" their own children money, never dreaming they needed a note, and of course they never got one penny back.

Please print this, Abby. Some people are much too trusting. PASADENA PARENTS

TASTE TEST
STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — An organic crunchy cereal, peanut butter and cherry gelatin passed the student taste test this year at Stanford University's dormitories.

Mrs. Lois Ohms, dietician for the campus food service, said a group of students comes into her kitchen once a month to pass on new food products which may be served to 3,000 Stanford dorm dwellers.

Among those rejected in recent months were frozen pizza muffins and pre-fabricated lemon pudding.

Mrs. Ohms also has a back-up checking technique, which involves walking through the eating areas at the six dorms occasionally.

Epicurean Delights Are Low Cholesterol

By TOM HOGGE
AP Newsfeatures Writer
I was surprised to learn that in the past two decades, America's total outlay for medicines, doctors and hospitals, has soared from $12 billion a year to $75 billion, a startling increase even figuring in the rise in population and the drop of the dollar.

One cause of our troubles, the report tells us, is cholesterol that waxlike fat present in animal tissues which becomes dangerous if it clogs your blood vessels. Since egg yolks, cream and animal fats are high in cholesterol, this would seem to rule out many culinary delights including most desserts.

But now we have an intriguing cookbook by a foreign correspondent's wife which supplies an enticement: assortment of gourmet dishes all containing little, if any, cholesterol.

The book, "Haute Cuisine For Your Heart's Delight," was written by Carol Cutler, who studied for 12 years at the Cordon Bleu Institute while her writer husband was stationed in Paris. During that time, she learned the trick of transforming wickedly rich classic dishes into equally tasty but healthy reproductions.

Published by Charles N. Potter Inc., and distributed by Crown Publishers, Carol Cut-ler's book has cheering news for those who have been warned to eliminate egg yolks, cream and butter from their diet.

The alternative, she says, does not have to be a monotonous regimen of lean meats and bland boiled vegetables. In fact one can enjoy with impunity a succulent pate, a classic coq au vin or even a butterscotch pie.

Mrs. Cutler makes clear that the recipes she offers are not meant for heart attack victims whose diet must be regulated by doctors and dieticians. It deals with low cholesterol foods that might help prevent heart disease and tickle the palate as well.

For housewives, Mrs. Cutler advises a careful reading of food labels which are required by law to list ingredients in descending order of amount contained in the product. Check, she says, to see that polyunsaturated fats are at the top of the list and ingredients like coconut oil are at the bottom.

For lovers of cheese, Mrs. Cutler cites a low-fat parmesan and a tasty Swiss made from skimmed milk and herbs.

Surprisingly, mayonnaise is used in Mrs. Cutler's recipes. The author says it is acceptable for low cholesterol diets. In making mayonnaise, she notes, one egg yolk is forced to absorb almost a cup of polyunsaturated oil, which means that you are getting more of the beneficial oil than the yolk.

For cake lovers, Mrs. Cutler has a word of caution. Avoid chocolate mixes and lean toward angel food, which is low in fat.

Mrs. Cutler alters the popular image of dessert from the multicolored concoction loaded down with whipped cream. In its place she offers such fanciful creations as pears poached in red wine, light sherbets and even cookies filled with a meringue, nuts and sesame seed.

Here is a recipe for Viennese crescents which has a No. 1 rating; meaning No Cholesterol. The taste secret here, she says, is the fresh chopped almonds, since packaged almond powder or bits would rob the flavor.

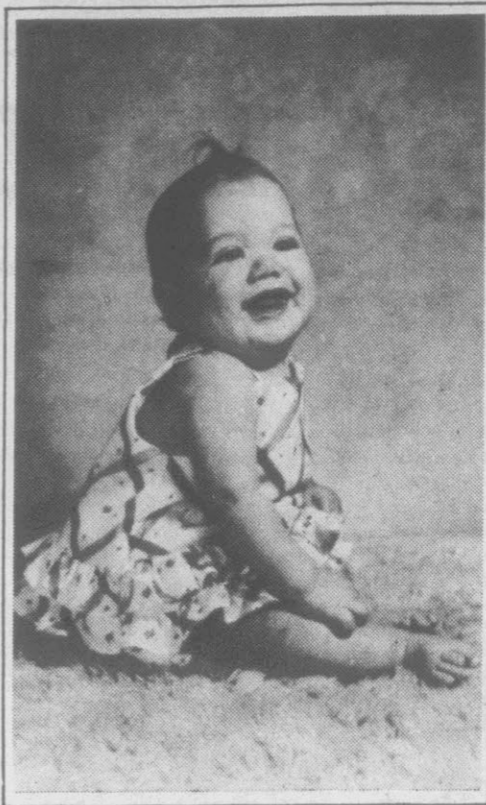

Using a wooden spoon, work margarine and ½ cup of sugar together till mixture is light and fluffy; add vanilla and beat some more. Resift flour and work into the creamed mixture. If you find it too hard to work with, increase the flour to 2½ cups. Chop almonds till very fine and work into the dough with a spoon then knead for several minutes till thoroughly blended and smooth. Chill at least 30 minutes. Take 1 teaspoon chilled dough and work into a long shape with your fingers, then fold into a crescent on an ungreased baking pan. Repeat with rest of dough. Bake in a 325 degree oven for 15 minutes or till cookies have turned a sandy color. Remove cookies from oven and sprinkle with vanilla-flavored powdered sugar. Makes about 90 cookies.

Senior Citizen Leads Battle In Texas's Big Thicket Area

"MA THICKET" is the affectionate nickname Mrs. Ethel Osborne Hill of Port Arthur, Tex., garnered in her fight to save the Big Thicket region from additional development.

By DIANA RINEHART
Leader staff Writer ...
ORANGE, Tex. (AP) — If you've ever used the term "over-the-hill gang" in reference to our nation's senior citizens, you better change your tune quick!

Especially if you are going to meet 94-year-old Mrs. Ethel Osborne Hill of Port Arthur.

She's a conservationist, naturalist, author, lecturer, educator and member of the governor's committee on aging. The only hills this extraordinary woman is going over are those which lead to her next lecture, committee meeting or her beloved cabin in the Big Thicket area.

Widely known from the Sabine River through the piney woods all the way to Austin, Mama Hill, as she's affectionately known, has been the guiding light, constant energizer and perpetual motion of the "save the Big Thicket" program in Texas and the nation. In fact, she is also known as "Ma Thicket."

She is the only living member of the original 10-member Big Thicket Association formed in 1930. Each summer she returns to her log cabin home deep in the Thicket, a half mile from the highway, southeast of Woodville.

There she is close to the trees, leaves, animals, flowers and land she loves. It includes her friends, the Alabama-Coushatta Indians, whose tribal village is only 16 miles away.

From her summer base she gathers materials from the land. All are to be used during the winter months, back in her Port Arthur home, to make her nature handicrafts.

As Mama Hill says, "There's nothing that is nothing. Everything is something."

From all these somethings like a fallen twig, armadillo bones, leaves, shells, stones, feathers, petals, pine cones, she will create a picture, bookmark, paper weight, pencil holder, anything!

Sharing her creative talents and keen imagination with others, Mama Hill has taught handicrafts each summer for the past 14 years to young people at the United Methodist District Encampment near Palestine.

She also spends three weeks each summer at scout camps in Tyler County, teaching crafts as well as her own Cub Scout troop in Woodville.

Mama Hill's love affair with nature started when she was 6 years old, a time she vividly remembers.

Born in Ames, Iowa, she remembers Dr. Seaman A. Knapp, a friend of her father and president of A&M College at Ames, who first taught her the beauty of all God's creatures.

"We would go for long walks in the orchard or down by the streams," recalled Mama Hill, "Dr. Knapp would show me the veins in the leaves and tell me how each one was special."

"No two were alike. Just like your hands, he said, there are no two hands alike. All hands are special," she remembers.

Mama Hill brought her love of trees, animals and flowers along when the family moved to Texas in 1887. As she says, "I never was a Yankee; always a Texan."

And as a Texan she has implanted her mark of love and concern on everything she's touched.

Her journalistic endeavors for preservation of the Big Thicket began in 1926 when she wrote a series of articles for an area newspaper.

She continued writing for a number of area newspapers and still writes a weekly column for the Tyler County Booster and Piney Wood Press.

She has captured her thoughts and memories in three books of poetry, all of which have been published. Last year she completed a book of stories on early years in the Thicket titled, "God's Children, All — Red, White and Black."

"I'm still waiting to have it published," related Mama Hill, "actually, I guess you'd say I'm waiting to get the money together to have it published."

A friend to the young, old, well-known and unknown, Mama Hill was named "Woman of the Year" in Texas in 1970. Her most recent honor was bestowed when she was named a life member of the Tyler County Chamber of Commerce and honored for her outstanding civic work.

A new variety of dogwood tree, planted last Arbor Day, stands in the courthouse square in Woodville — named in her honor.

With 94 years of living behind her, Mama Hill has never had a headache, nor an earache. In fact, she doesn't even wear glasses.

"I tell my young students," said Mama Hill, "life is like going from one grade to another. You wouldn't want to stay in the second grade all your life."

"Old age is the pinnacle of life. You have so many things to remember. So much to share with others. I wouldn't want to be young again."

"The only thing," concluded Mama Hill, "I wish I could live for 94 more years. There are so many things I still want to do."

Expert Says Women Need Budget Study

NEW YORK (AP) — Women have mastered the task of juggling home and office but one thing escapes them, according to an investments expert.

"Most have not yet mastered the art of balancing their budgets," says Julius Jensen III, chief executive officer of the Continental Investment Corp. of Boston.

Jensen adds that women work in every conceivable segment of business and industry and maintain superb control over all facets of their lives. But he feels that too many women have not paid attention to everyday problems of handling their own financial affairs.

"They should devote as much time to their money as they do to their looks," Jensen says. "Too often, they save for a cloudy day, a new coat or a miracle morning at the beauty salon, overlooking that nebulous world of the future."

The financial expert adds that women have not been adequately prepared to tackle the fine points of making ends meet. He advises a program to correct this oversight.

First, schedule a certain time for financial scrutiny. Make an appointment with yourself once or twice a month, and keep it. Select a time of day or evening when you are reasonably certain you will not be interrupted.

Train yourself to regard this financial period as a constructive session to benefit the checkbook and you.

Then, says Jensen, you can take your time and go over finances carefully. Plan ahead. Financial good health, he says, follows close attention to checkbook duties.

CUTTING THE CAKE

NEW YORK (UPI)—When you order a wedding cake, ask the baker or caterer for directions for cutting it. He can tell you the size, shape and number of servings to expect from cakes in various designs. Bakers and caterers sometimes suggest that you order extra cakes that can be sliced in the kitchen while the bride and bridegroom cut the ceremonial cake in front of their guests. This permits all guests at a large reception to be served promptly.

Sisters, 92 and 84, Cause Of Noise

LEICHESTER, England (WNS) — Police cars rushed to the site of "a noisy street disturbance" and found two spinster sisters, 92 and 84, battling each other. Sidney Machin, a former boxing referee, broke it up and gallantly refused to give the names of the women.

"They are neighbors of mine who have lived together for 50 years and are entitled to a fight," he explained. "Really, they are delightful old dears." Later the elder sister announced, "It's a poor do if two sisters can't have a good argument now and then. After all, there is no such thing as legal divorce for sisters."

The fashion in contemporary crystal for the bride include hefty shapes, the jewel colors of ruby, amethyst, peridot, the earth tones of plum and cocoa, the bi-colored design featuring white stems with another-colored bowl.

Complimenting and harmonizing with her silver flatware pattern is the bride's silver holloware, making her table a masterpiece of perfection and shining in bright, decorative splendor throughout her home.

The Jewelry Industry Council says the fashion in traditional silver place settings calls for—in each setting—six pieces: knife, fork, salad fork, soup spoon, teaspoon, butter spreader. However, if economics dictate, the initial silver service can consist of four three-piece place settings consisting of average sized knife, fork and teaspoon.

SHORT AND SWEET
NEW YORK (UPI)—In this era of a trend to couples writing their own wedding vows, it's a sure bet none will come up with the super-simple marriage ceremony practiced by an oldtimer at a municipal marriage license bureau.

The man performing the ceremony asked the bridegroom: "You want to marry her?" The answer: "Yes." He asked the bride: "You want to marry him?" The bride answered "Yes." The man vested with the powers of uniting a couple in wedlock then said: "You're married." And that was that.

A pate is a highly seasoned meat or fish paste, usually served as an appetizer.

No Windfall, But Replacement

A new program of shared revenues has been proposed by President Nixon which would send $2.3 billion to cities, urban counties and the states to finance community-aid programs.

According to the announcement the funds would be based on a formula reflecting community needs; funding would be provided for smaller communities; recipients would show only they were complying with the law on the way revenue-sharing funds were spent and the shred funds would not have to be matched by local funds.

HUD Sec. James T. Lynn said, "This aid will have no strings attached as long as it is used for community development.

"Your local leaders can go on spending it the way Washington was spending it if they like. But they would also be free to work out better plans without having to get Washington's approval."

It is expected that the proposed program, which must be approved by Congress, would replace such programs as Model Cities, urban renewal and grants for water and sewer projects, demolitions, neighborhood facilities and rehabilitation work.

Such a program as this can be a good one, if local leaders bear in mind that the funds will not be a windfall to help stretch their budgets. When and if these community aid funds come, it must be remembered that they will replace other funds which had been received through grants.

Many of these programs, such as urban renewal and water and sewer projects, were worthwhile and no doubt many cities will want to continue them with these new community aid funds.

When revenue sharing started this year too many state and local governments looked on it as an additional sum of money. They soon learned, however that many federal programs would be ended and the revenue sharing funds would be needed to pick up the slack.

The community aid program will give local authorities more freedom to spend federal grant money. It is not likely that it will be additional money, however, only a shifting of funds from one program to another.

Struggle By A Uganda Refugee

By MARTHA RAINEY
(The Charlotte News)

CHARLOTTE—Dolly Nasser is a woman without a country.

She can smile, but her dark eyes hold the memory of tears and separation from family and friends, and the struggle to make a way in a strange, new land.

Miss Nasser is one of 50,000 Asians forced to leave Uganda last fall by order of Gen. Idi Amin, president of the African nation. As far as she knows, she is the only Ugandan refugee in North Carolina.

She came to the state last November, brought here by a Wilson Christian Church. She is in Charlotte to follow the one sure thing in her unsettled life—the determination to become a nurse.

Her family is scattered across three continents: parents and a brother in India, three brothers and two sisters in London, England, and one brother in Canada.

Dolly Nasser is alone in the United States, trying to put her life back together after leaving family, friends and possessions on military command. She is one of 1,000 homeless Asians taken in by the United States after Amin's decision to rid the country of Asian influence.

Departure In Haste
She had to get out of Uganda in a hurry, arriving in this country with one suitcase and no money. She now has $80 to last her until June.

The British government which gave up political control of Uganda in 1962 vowed to look out for her brothers and sisters in London because they are all under 21.

Miss Nasser, 23, had to look out for herself. For a few weeks she wandered from New York to Pennsylvania, seeking out other Ugandans.

After she came to North Carolina, she got a job at Chatham Hospital in Siler City and began to use skills she practiced as a nurse in Kampala, Uganda's capital city.

She had to do so as a nurse's aide. Miss Nasser's Ugandan skills did not qualify her to be a nurse in the United States.

Chatham officials contacted Central Piedmont Community College a few weeks ago, and now Miss Nasser is enrolled in its two-year nursing program to prepare her to work as a nurse here.

Funds Are Low

She has only her $80 left from the five months of work in Siler City. She has paid her first quarter tuition and bought one uniform which she has to wash out each night.

There was no money left for books. She borrows them from other nursing students.

"I have to buy shoes," said the soft-spoken, dark-haired young woman, dropping her forehead into her hand for a brief moment.

Miss Nasser is living in nursing quarters at Charlotte Memorial Hospital, but that may not be permanent. The residence is slated to hold relocated hospital beds with some student housing within the next few years.

It is the day-to-day expenses that nag her now, the restaurant meals, soap and toothpaste that eat into her dwindling savings. Come June, she will have to pay tuition again.

One Day At A Time

"I don't even think that far. I just let it go. I find it difficult living for today," she

Skylab Series Should Advance Space Work

Very soon Skylab—the United States manned space laboratory—will be launched into orbit around the earth.

A crew of astronauts will live and work in space.

This will be a new phase of space work. After our voyages to the moon, the astronauts will begin studying ways that men in space can be of practical use to the world.

Most scientists believe that space travel and living will eventually be of great benefit to mankind. Some of these benefits will be developed in the Skylab series.

War Reaching Mekong Delta

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

TAN CHAU DISTRICT TOWN, Chau Doc Province, South Vietnam—Death and near desolation visited upon this charming little river town brings home a grim reality: the 7 million people of South Vietnam's Mekong River delta are suffering more during the bloody "ceasefire" than they did before it was signed.

Strangely immune from the endless Indochina war until now, Tan Chau got in the way of Hanoi's April offensive. The result: murderous artillery shelling which created a temporary ghost town.

This is a bitter time for the Delta, the lush, densely populated rice bowl of Indochina. Usually escaping the war's heaviest fighting, the region even missed the full force of Hanoi's 1972 invasion. But since the ceasefire Jan. 27, the Delta has become a target of Communist military operations—to control more land, to capture ports-of-entry into South Vietnam, to secure the Cambodian sanctuary for North Vietnamese troops.

Indeed, the Delta's experience deepens disillusionment growing among South Vietnamese as well as some U. S. officials that the Paris agreement was no more than cynical masking of U.S. disengagement without workable enforcement procedures to prevent Communist violations. The victim is not only the Saigon government but, particularly in the Delta, the South Vietnamese people.

The major Delta battle since the ceasefire has been an attempt by three North Vietnamese regiments to capture Hang Nu on the Mekong near the Cambodian border as a Communist port-of-entry under the Parris agreement. The 9th South Vietnamese (ARVN) Division prevented that in a battle largely of artillery duelling, which lasted for days.

But Tan Chau, a few miles to the west, suffered. Populated by the rigidly anti-Communist Hoa Hao sect, the town always has been free of Vietcong, subversion and terror. Its prosperous citizens never heard a shot fired in anger. But during the battle of Hang Nu, the 9th ARVN stationed an artillery battery a mile outside Tan Chau.

That subjected Tan Chau to over two weeks of continuous pounding from North Viet-

Strength For Today

IN PRAISE OF DREAMERS
People often speak in depreciation of dreamers. To say that a man is a dreamer generally means that he is impractical, lazy, and perhaps shiftless.

But it is well to remember that somebody has to dream before anyone can act. Most of the great creative people of the world have been dreamers. Joseph was a dreamer, as was Isaiah and the apostle Paul. Columbus dreamed of reaching the East by sailing west. George Stephenson dreamed of the locomotive; Edison of the incandescent light; Robert Fulton of the steamboat.

A dreamer, however, must meet two requirements in order to be effective. First, he must dream about the right things; and second, he must point his dreams in the direction of achievement. The impractical folk who day dream about things wholly within the realm of fancy and who never will exert themselves to make these dreams come true are the people who lead society as a whole to scoff at dreamers.

Forfeit The Election?

WASHINGTON—Has the President done all he can do in regards to the watgate bugging scandal? Some people think he hasn't. One, a Democrat friend of mine named Osgood Timishoe, announced:

"The University of Oklahoma last week forfeited nine football games plus the Sugar Bowl because someone cheated on their players' grades."

"What has that got to do with the Watergate?" I asked.

"I believe Nixon should forfeit the election."

"Have you gone mad, Osgood?" I said in horror. "The President's been in office for four months. He can't just up and forfeit at this late date."

"Why not? Oklahoma played their games last fall and they just forfeited now. The President's the No. 1 football fan in the country and he should take the lead from the No. 2 college football team."

"But why would he do it?" I asked.

"Because everyone in this country knows that Nixon would never want to win a contest if cheating were involved. He has too much principle for that. The Presidency of the United States isn't worth the price if you have to gain it by deceit. The only honorable thing to do would be for the President to go on national television this week and say, 'Because of startling new information that I have just received concerning the Watergate, I am forfeiting the election to my worthy opponent, Sen. George McGovern.'"

"But, Osgood, if the President forfeits the election now, what happens to everything that has taken place in the last four months such as Peace with Honor in Vietnam, the dollar devaluation, meat prices, the impounding of funds?"

"They would all be inoperative. The President's forfeiture would all be inoperative. President McGovern would have to start from scratch, which he's used to doing anyway."

"There must be another solution," I protested. "Perhaps rather than forfeit, the President could ask for a new election with an entirely new team of players on the Committee for the Re-Election of the President."

How It Used To Be

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — You can't go home again — with one exception.

The exception is memory. In memory you can go home again anytime by a thought.

In fact, you are at home there all the time. Memory is man's chief home actually. He dwells there longer than he does in any hut of wood or mansion of marble or brick.

HAL BOYLE

And your own memory house has a lot of rooms in it if you can look back and remember when —

Nothing was longer or lovelier than a nice summer day.

You could get to work quicker on a 1920 streetcar than you can drive through traffic and find a place to park now.

When you saw someone walking fast, you figured he must have a real emergency. The normal pace of life was slower.

A policeman could spend his whole career on the force and retire without ever having given out a traffic ticket.

No matter how big your family was, you were expected to know who all your cousins were — and keep track of what happened to them. Blood was a lot thicker than water and kinkfolk felt more responsible for each other.

A gang of boys felt cheated if they caught and killed some innocent snake and found it had no rattles at the end of its tail. But they still thought they had done the world a favor. There was to them no such thing as a guiltless snake.

But children themselves never felt entirely guiltless either. There were so many precepts to guide them that they always were in violation of some. Even when they had to go to the dentist they felt it must be because they had unconsciously done something wrong.

You could tell a grandmother by the way she looked and dressed.

In view of a prospective successful season it was announced today from Atlantic Beach that toll rates across Bogue Sound bridge and causeway to the beach will be reduced to 30 cents round trip for car and driver and 10 cents for each passenger. Bathhouse rates have also been reduced to 25 cents when the bather furnishes a bath suit and 35 cents when a suit is rented from the beach bathhouse. There will be no charge for bathers who wear bath suits across the beach bridge.

To the Editor:

It was gratifying to learn of the apprehension of a person charged with the many break-ins and other crimes in Greenville recently. A shocking angle to the crimes was the fact that the break-ins were performed while the homes were occupied. Obviously certain safety features were lacking in these homes and one in particular is the housing of dogs. I do not mean yard dogs. They too often bark at all night sounds until the owners get used to it and no attention is paid, or else some older dogs just sleep right through all noises. However, I do recommend that consideration be given to owning the little "yapper" — those small, short-haired terrier-type dogs who keep the house alerted to all unnecessary sounds during the night. There are some larger type short-haired animals who might prove good indoor watch-dogs and this should be looked into for future safety of the home. The Pitt County Humane Society handles adoptions of dogs and a postal card to P.O. Box 1155 should bring contact so that you may find just the type of dog you need. This protective measure is one to think about.

In Anticipation Of Inflation

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Based on recent consumer surveys, millions of Americans are undergoing even more painful money crises — not only in their pocketbooks but in their outlook on the economy — than had been apparent.

The developing situation could mean even more problems for the Nixon administration, which seeks to achieve economic equilibrium by subtle, long-range and fundamental changes than through the expedient of price controls.

A "precipitous decline" has been recorded in the consumer outlook by the Survey Research Center, University of Michigan, which notes that optimism which grew during the first three quarters of 1972 has now been erased.

"Because of the increase in living costs," the latest SEC study found, "the proportion of families saying that they were worse off than before and expecting to be worse off, increased substantially."

The same survey found fears growing that inflation will accelerate and that unemployment will rise.

The confidence decline, a direct feedback from the soaring prices at retail outlets, comes at a time when many families are enjoying relatively substantial incomes and are equipped with strong buying power.

Thus, the various surveys are discovering, some families are building their savings accounts in anticipation of a recession while others are spending heavily in expectation of a continuation of inflation.

Albert Sindlinger, head of Sindlinger & Co., reports that he is hearing "greed amplified" on the seven-day-a-week surveys his researchers conduct by telephone from Swathmore, Pa.

Convinced that the economy is out of control, says Sindlinger, and fearing that the administration won't directly intervene in the market place, many consumers are devising their own defenses, some quite bizarre.

Some, he relates, are buying television sets and other heavy appliances and then leaving them in the packing cases until the time when they're needed.

The tremendous surge in automobile buying, which is setting records almost every week, is believed to be partially in anticipation of higher prices and costly pollution-control devices expected to be placed on cars in future years.

Already, Sindlinger said, such buying has taken one million sales from next year's outlook.

The SRC also has found "a greatly increased proportion" of consumers who, despite financial doubts, believe it is a good time to buy cars, large household name artillery, including 122-mm. rockets — powerful but not very accurate—never seen before in this area. On April 6 at high noon, 122-mm. rockets hit the crowded fish market—demolishing 42 buildings and killing 15 people. The toll of total shelling: 85 killed (all but three of them civilians), 276 (thirds of Tan Chau) inhabitants fled, leaving its streets and stores deserted. When we visited the town, a few fearful refugees were drifting back.

Nor is this wholly the fortunes of war. Even after ARVN artillery was removed from Tan Chau, Communist shelling continued — suggesting the attack was designed to terrorize the townspeople, convincing them by force that this is now Communist territory.

That, in fact, seems a major goal in Hanoi's Delta campaign. With Vietcong activity steadily declining in this region since its 1968 peak, the Communists could claim little territory and even less population. Thus, since Jan. 27, they have been pressing to stake out some part of the Delta for the "provisional revolutionary government."

Consequently, Bac Lieu province on the southern coast has experienced its heaviest fighting ever. Additional North Vietnamese troops have infiltrated into the province, partly to seek control of its easternmost district but also in quest of two possible points-of-entry on the Bac Lieu seacoast.

Some traditional Delta trouble spots are worse than ever. Chuong Thien province, long a scene of Saigon government corruption and considerable Vietcong sympathy, is now a full-fledged battle-ground. Whereas one understrength Communist regiment was prowling around the province when the ceasefire began, four regiments—two North Vietnamese, two Vietcong heavily reinforced by Northerners—have entered Chuong Thien in search of land and population control.

The plan is to set up a Communist district government in the province's eastern end. To stop that, three regiments of the 21st ARVN Division—still battle-scarred after last year's defense in the famous siege of An Loc—have arrived in Chuong Thien.

At his provincial command post, Brig. Gen. Quay, commander of the 21st ARVN, asked us a grimly pointed question: Having signed the Paris agreement, would the United States guarantee the Communist will obey it? Not really expecting any such help, Quay has developed his own response to Communist military operations in Chuong Thien by quietly ordering the 21st on offensive search-and-destroy missions. The escalation of the war in the Delta may be only beginning.

durables and houses "before prices go up."

Sindlinger's daily surveys are showing that, "people are even hoarding gasoline," he says, citing the case of a man who described how he had placed a 500-gallon tank of fuel at the rear of his garage.

The instance isn't isolated, Sindlinger claims, adding: "Fire departments all over the country should be alerted."

The hoarding, he believes, is an activity mainly of a one-third segment of the population that is enjoying unparalleled prosperity. Some of them, he finds, are headed by union members with escalator clauses in their contracts.

In addition, many Americans are enjoying bonuses this year, especially from the multibillion tax refunds that are being mailed to million of taxpayers and some families are creating their own bonuses through the use of credit.

However, he continues, two-thirds of the families he has interviewed lately are suffering from declining purchasing power. For them, the crisis isn't something perceived to lie in the future, but exists at the moment.

Buchwald Col. . Rainey . . .

"Did the University of Oklahoma ask to replay Penn State in the Sugar Bowl?" Osgood asked.

"But that's different," I replied.

"It may be to some people, but I'm not sure it is to Richard M. Nixon. How can the public for the next four years knowing he won the election by unfair methods? How can the U. S. Marine band play 'Hail to the Chief' when the Chief's own people in the White House fixed the election so Nixon would be a sure thing?"

"But surely Nixon knows in his heart that he would have won the election with or without the tampering of the Watergate."

"There will always be that question," Osgood said. "It isn't good for the country to have a President who will never be certain that he had a real mandate from the people."

"Even if you're right, are you sure George McGovern still wants to be President?"

"I believe so. He's having a lot of trouble in South Dakota running for senator so I think he'd accept Nixon's offer."

"Wait a minute," I said. "If Nixon forfeits the Presidency, what does he do for the next four years?"

"He could become the president of the University of Oklahoma."

Boyle Col. . .

If the head of a family could afford to buy a new suit every two years, he was doing pretty well.

When a man died, his clothing wasn't sent to the Salvation Army. It was passed on to his son or divided among his "poor relations."

A man with $100,000 was a kind of magnate, and he could live well off the income from it the rest of his life without working. And raise a family on it, too.

Women weren't formally liberated, but they were more admired, respected and deferred to than perhaps they are now.

Those were the days — remember?

Questions about her family bring pain to her delicate face. "It is too difficult," she said. "We hope someday to see each other regularly."

Her parents are moving from country to country on a tourist visa, and Miss Nasser does not know where their wanderings will end. Her brother in Canada also is rootless, moving from city to city.

"Nobody is settled down. That's what gives you so much stress," she said.

Charlotte, she said, "reminds me of my home (Kampala) which is not my home."

On one thing she is determined. "I want to be a nurse, that's for sure," she said. Little else is certain. "I'm not sure what I'm doing from one day to the next," she said.

Possibly Ally Against Fumes

DURHAM, N.C. (UPI) — Urban dwellers choking on smog and auto exhaust fumes may have found an ally to help fortify their lungs—vitamin E.

A Duke University Medical Center researcher has turned up evidence that a vitamin E-rich diet can help protect the lungs from the effects of noxious air pollutants such as ozone and nitrogen dioxide. Dr. Daniel B. Menzel found that rats deprived of vitamin E in their diets for four weeks survived only eight days when placed in an atmosphere with a concentration of one part per million of ozone or nitrogen dioxide. Rats given a vitamin E-supplemented diet for four weeks lived twice as long, 18 days, in the same concentration of pollutants.

KENTUCKY HAS FIRST PUBLIC DEFENDER
FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Anthony Wilhoit, a lawyer from nearby Versailles, has become Kentucky's first public defender under a new law. Eventually the public defender system is expected to handle 6,000 cases yearly.

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices took another battering today under the one-two punch of economic problems and the possibility of tax measures to counteract them. The 11:30 a.m. Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was off 6.02 to 934.75, on the heels of a better than 22-point drop in the week's first two trading days. Losers outpaced gainers 890 to 217—more than 4 to 1—on the New York Stock Exchange. Big Board volume was running well ahead of the relatively slow pace set Monday and Tuesday. Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel was the Big Board's most-active stock, sliding 3/4 to 14 1/2, after a 4 1/2-point plunge on Tuesday. The company reported this week lower earnings for the first quarter.

Leasco preferred was second on the active list, off 3/4 to 27 1/2, after a 100,000-share block changed hands at 27 1/4. The so-called glamour growth stocks were among the weakest performers today. IBM was down 6 1/2 to 408 1/2, after a delayed opening; Honeywell was down 3 1/2 to 110 1/2, after an official told the annual meeting he did not expect earnings for the year to maintain the first quarter's 48 per cent increase; Avon Products was off 1 1/2 at 132 1/2; and Xerox dipped 1 to 152 1/4.

Steels, automotive, and electronic issues also showed broad declines. Circle K Corp. was the volume leader on the American Stock Exchange, down 1 at 12 1/2. The Amex's 11 a.m. price-change index was off .05 to 23.81.

The Big Board's 11 a.m. index of more than 1,400 common stocks was 0.47 lower at 57.95.

Some 1,176 persons were assisted by the Salvation Army in Pitt County during the past month, according to a report given to members of the Salvation Army Advisory Board here yesterday.

In addition to the more-than-1,100 local residents aided, 51 transients were assisted, the report indicated.

Included in the aid given local residents by the Salvation Army were 14 food orders, nine fuel orders, two families helped with rent, two burned-out families aided; 54 pieces of furniture given, 438 pairs of shoes distributed, and 5,483 garments given.

Twenty of the transients assisted were provided lodging, and 47 meals were provided to individuals.

Farm Bureau Board Hears N.C. Speaker

Ken Smith, Raleigh public relations coordinator with the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation, was the keynote speaker at the meeting of the Pitt County Board of Directors Tuesday night.

According to Smith, agriculture is the biggest industry in the United States. Smith said the American farmers have reached a point of unexcelled efficiency, as they are the greatest producers in the history of mankind.

"Since only four and one-half percent of the population in this country are farmers, we must be publicity experts in order to make the other 85 1/2 percent of the American public understand the problems and importance of this great industry," Smith emphasized. "Thirty percent of all jobs in the United States are connected to farming."

President David H. Smith of Ayden presided at the meeting. During the business session, the following publicity committee was named: Mrs. Wilbur L. Worthington, Ayden, chairman; Milton May, Winterville; Eric Wichard, Greenville; Ervin Mills, Chicod; and George King, Ayden.

Mrs. Worthington reported on the "Clean Sweep, 73" meeting she attended in Greenville last week.

The R. Flake Shaw Memorial scholarship committee selected the outstanding Pitt County student who applied for the scholarship. The application will be submitted to the state committee and the winners will be notified by May 15.

You have a lot going for you with today's electricity.

And you decide how much.

Because until you flip the switch or push in the plug, the washer doesn't wash, the dryer doesn't dry, the toaster doesn't toast—and the meter doesn't turn.

But sometimes that can be hard to remember. Because today's appliances are so convenient that it's easy to forget them once you put them away—which makes it just as easy to forget the electricity you used to put them to work.

And at Veeco we think that's only natural. Because all our thousands of trained people and the billions of dollars in equipment and technology are here for just one reason: to make sure you always have the economical electricity you need—whenever you decide to use it. And all you have to do is flip a switch or push in a plug.

But if you ever do think about electricity—and especially if you only think about it when the bill comes—we hope you'll remember that you decide how much you're going to use.

We're here to see that you get all you require.

Veeco
We make what it takes to make it all work.

Bucs Gain 14-Inning Win Over Pembroke

PEMBROKE—East Carolina University's Pirates did a little snapping yesterday.

For one thing, they snapped back and snapped a two-game losing streak by downing Pembroke State University, 8-2. It took 14 innings to do it however, as they nearly saw their chances disappear in the ninth inning for the third straight time.

But they snapped the Pembroke rally in the bud, and held them to only a tie and went on to win.

Along the way, they snapped a seven-game scoreless streak by Pembroke ace Ron Norman, who hadn't allowed a run in 78 innings before the snap of the wrist by Larry Walters sent a two-run shot out of the ball park in the fourth inning, snapping a one-run Pembroke lead.

But they didn't touch Norman often. The speedy fireballer went 13 innings before moving out for relief. And this was after having gone nine innings on Saturday.

During his time on the mound, he fanned a record 21 batters to set a new Pembroke mark.

East Carolina, however, used a fine defense to keep themselves in the game until they forced Norman from the contest, then went to work on his successors to gain the victory.

Dave Larussa, who tossed the first 11 innings for the Bucs, scattered five hits, and struck out six, although he did walk another six. Joe Heavner got the win after coming in to work the last two innings. Tommy Toms worked one, in the 12th.

Pehaps the fielding hero of the game was Mike Hogan, who made two fine catches to safe runs. The first time came after Mike Johnson had reached on an error and been sacrificed up. Pete Preston then hit a line shot to right center that Hogan reeled in with a fine diving catch. Then, later in the game, with Wayne Pyrtle on second via a walk and a sacrifice, Dave Callahan hit one to deep center that Hogan backhanded on a dead run going back.

Jimmy Paige added two fine catches on long drives in the 11th and 13th, while catcher Rick McMahon threw out four runners trying to steal.

Pembroke pushed into the lead in the third. With two away, Paul Dunlap singled and stole second. Jerry Suggs then doubled to left, scoring him.

East Carolina got into the action in the fourth, moving into a 2-1 lead. Ron Staggs singled, and Walters picked off a hanging curve ball to line it out of the park still some 30 feet in the air as it went over the 360-foot sign.

Pembroke tied it up in the ninth, sending shades of worry through the Bucs. Pyrtle walked and Rich Whitman came on to run for him, getting moved up to second on a sacrifice. Preston singled to drive him in, making it 2-2.

East Carolina had an opportunity in the eighth, when Hogan doubled to open the inning, but never got to third. In the 13th, Ron Staggs walked and Walters singled, and Ron Leggett walked to load them up, but again Pembroke got the out to retire the side.

Finally, in the 14th, the Bucs struck for the victory. Jeff Beaton walked and was sacrificed up by Heavner. Mike Bradshaw walked and moved up on a passed ball. Hogan then singled to score Beaton. Staggs' infield hopper was played to home, but not in time to get Bradshaw, and Walters doubled to drive in Hogan. Leggett singled, and when the ball got through the outfielder, both Staggs and Walters came in and Leggett cruised on into third. After McMahon walked, Beaton singled to score Leggett with the final run.

Walters led the Pirate hitting with three, while Hogan, Leggett and Beaton each had a pair.

The victory raised the Pirate record to 12-5 for the year, while Pembroke fell off to 17-6.

East Carolina returns to Southern Conference action on Thursday, traveling to Williamsburg, Va., to meet William & Mary. The Bucs dropped out of first place yesterday as Appalachian moved past them with a 7-1 record, downing Furman University. The Bucs are 6-1 in the league and could move back into first with a victory over the Indians.

They return home on Saturday to face The Citadel in another league game.

Kentucky Leads All The Way To Down Carolina; Claim East Title

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—The Kentucky Colonels made it decisive, leading all the way as they finished off the Carolina Cougars, 107-96, to join Indiana in the American Basketball Association's championship finals.

Dan Issel paced the victory with a game high 31 points and he added 17 rebounds to his scoring harrage Tuesday night as the Colonels won the best of seven East Division playoff series four games to three.

Kentucky and Indiana will meet in a nationally televised game at Louisville Saturday to open their series for the ABA championship. Indiana won the West title over Utah by a 4-2 margin.

Meanwhile, only one game stands in the way of settling both the Eastern and the Western playoff series in the National Basketball Association.

The New York Knickerbockers lead 3-1 going into tonight's Eastern Division game with the Boston Celtics at Boston Garden, and the Los Angeles Lakers lead by the same margin as they play host to the Golden State Warriors at the Forum.

Whether Celts captain John Havlicek will be able to play awaits a final decision by the team physician, Dr. Thomas Silva. Havlicek suffered a painful shoulder bruise last Friday.

In the west, the defending champion Lakers also have injuries to surmount for tonight's game, with two key players hobbling.

Starting forward Jim McMillian has a knee injury and No. 1 reserve Keith Erickson has a bad ankle.

The ABA game at the Charlotte Coliseum left Kentucky and Carolina tied with nine games each in their 18 meetings since the start of the season, and the Colonels lead in points by the margin of Tuesday night's victory — 11 points.

The Carolina Cougars were the regular season leaders and had a 6-5 margin over the Colonels during that span.

Kentucky Coach Joe Mullaney said, "I was delighted with the win — it was a tough game against a good team away from home and I'm very proud of our guys."

Carl Scheer, president and general manager of the Cougars, said it was "a great season abruptly ended." But he added, "I suppose on reflection it was an outstanding season," one in which Carolina jumped to a division lead right at the start and never relinquished it.

Scheer had high praise for Cougar Coach Larry Brown and his assistant, Doug Moe, both former stars at the University of North Carolina. And on the ABA finals, he observed, "Kentucky will represent the East in good fashion."

individual championship.

Dean Sigmon of Appalachian and Jim Brown of the Pirates were tied for second at 73, while John McIntyre of William & Mary, Tom Posey of Furman and Rusty Boyd of Davidson were tied for third another stroke back.

Furman put together a score of 386 to take the lead in the event, while Davidson had 389. Following the Pirates were The Citadel at 396, Richmond 398, Appalachian 399; William & Mary 409 and Virginia Military Institute 418.

Other East Carolina individual scores included Bebo Batts, 75; and Eddie Pinnix 82.

The tournament continued through Thursday.

UCLA Says Won't Go

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The UCLA basketball team says it is sorry but must decline an invitation to visit the Republic of China because scheduled times for the visit make it impossible.

"Naturally I'm disappointed," said Coach John Wooden whose team won the national collegiate championship for a seventh straight year.

"It seemed like a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. But things didn't work out."

The 62-year-old coach said, "So many of our boys would not have been able to go in June."

Starting forward Jim McMillian has a knee injury and No. 1 reserve Keith Erickson has a bad ankle.

Pirates Trail After 1st Day

FLORENCE, S. C. — East Carolina's defending Southern Conference golf champions found themselves in an unaccustomed position after the first round of this year's championship tournament, in third place.

The Bucs shot a team score of 390 to trail upstart Furman by four strokes and Davidson by one.

The Citadel's Blake Dennis shot an ever par 72 to take the lead in the tournament's individual championship.

Rampants Rip Kinston By 11-2 Score

By WOODY PEELE
Reflector Sports Editor
KINSTON — Rose High School's Rampants took advantage of every mistake made by the Kinston Vikings yesterday, rolling to an 11-2 victory.

The Rampants got a fine effort out of sophomore pitcher Wesley Deal, who tossed a shaky one-hitter at the Vikings.

That hit came in the final inning, and resulted in a double for the hitter, Duncan Charlton. Deal struck out four during the afternoon, while walking nine. Lee Cherry came on in relief after Charlton's hit to retire the side, although a run did score later.

Rose had little trouble in running away with it. They banged out eight hits and took advantage of four Kinston errors, a pair of wild pitches, and a balk.

They started the scoring in the first inning, pushing over an unearned run. With two away, John Barwick reached when his grounder to third was thrown away, allowing him to move on to second. A passed ball allowed him to take third. Stanley Cobb walked and broke for second on a steal. The Kinston catcher bluffed a throw to second, then threw high to third, and the error let Barwick come home with the run.

Deal got in trouble in the bottom of the inning, but got out untouched. He walked the first two, but one was cut down stealing. An error and another walk loaded them up before a strike out and a fielder's choice ended it.

Rose struck back for three more in the second, upping their lead to 4-0. Jerry Griffin led off with a single and Fred Lemmond came on as a courtesy runner for him. John Causey singled and Mike Wallace grounded back to short, but the ball was thrown away at second, letting Lemmond score. With two away, Robert Brinkley singled to right, scoring both Causey and Wallace.

The Rampants added four more in the fifth frame. Brinkley led off with a walk and with one down, Cobb also walked. They moved up on a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly by Greg Chapman brought in Brinkley. Griffin walked and was replaced by Dickie Johnson on first. Causey singled again, scoring Cobb. Wallace then got a hit to drive in Johnson, moving Causey to third. Wallace stole second, and when the ball was overthrown on the attempt to get him, Causey came home, running the lead to 8-1. The final three came over in the sixth. Al Heath was hit by a pitch and with one down, Barwick tripled to right, scoring Heath. Cobb was hit by a pitch, and Lemmond replaced him, stealing second. A balk scored Barwick, and a wild pitch brought Lemmond home with the final Rampant run.

Kinston's first run came in the second. Karren Rhem led off the frame with a walk, and was wild pitched around to third. Bruce Reese hit a sacrifice fly to right, scoring Rhem. Kinston kept the pressure on, putting a man on third in the third and one on second in the fourth and sixth. But they didn't score again until the seventh.

Carl Edwards led off the frame with a walk, and Charlton then got his double to right, the only hit of the day for the Vikings. Greg Novicki grounded to short, with Fisher scoring on the play.

The Rampants, now 3-2 in the league, play host to Rocky Mount Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Guy Smith Stadium.

Appalachian Is In First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Appalachian State did what Richmond's defending champion Spiders couldn't do—avenge their only league defeat—and the Mountaineers as a result have taken over the Southern Conference baseball lead.

The Mountaineers came from behind Tuesday with two runs in the bottom of the ninth inning and edged Furman's Paladins 4-3 to boost their league record to 7-1. East Carolina's Pirates are 6-1 and Richmond third at 6-2.

Appalachian had dropped an earlier 5-4 decision to Furman, which fell to sixth place with a 4-6 record in the defeat. Richmond fell from the top spot Monday when the Spiders lost for the second time this season to William and Mary's Indians.

The Spiders posted a 5-2 victory Tuesday over Virginia's Cavaliers of the Atlantic Coast Conference and The Citadel's Bulldogs edged Campbell 2-1 in a pair of nonleague encounters.

The league race is quiet today, but East Carolina has a Thursday date at William and Mary, and there's a big showdown Friday when Richmond invades Appalachian for a doubleheader.

Richmond was scheduled to play host today to Old Dominion in a nonleague doubleheader. Single nonleague scraps had Appalachian at South Carolina. Davidson's Wildcats at home against North Carolina Methodist and Furman entertaining Charleston Baptist. Steve Anspaugh not only went all the way on the mound for Appalachian in Tuesday's victory and pitched a seven-hitter, but he won his own game with a bases-loaded double in the ninth with the Mountaineers trailing 3-2.

Two walks and a single loaded the bases for Anspaugh's game-winning hit off Furman ace Todd Brenizer, who had come on in relief when the Mountaineers scored twice in the seventh with Furman leading 2-0.

The Paladins scored twice in the first on a walk and two singles and added a run in the top of the seventh. Appalachian is now 10-4 over-all, Furman 11-13-1.

Bill Daly hit a two-run homer in Richmond's three-run second inning and Jeff Boteler pitched an eight-hitter in the Spiders' victory over Virginia, which blew a chance to break the game open in the first by scoring only one run on three hits, two walks and a wild pitch.

Duval White, who singled to open the inning, scored on a wild pitch after Dan Bernstein's double and a walk loaded the bases. Another walk reloaded the bases, but after a popup, Gene Palotta's shot between first and second hit the baserunner. The runner was out, the bases remained loaded and the next batter struck out.

Gillette had three hits as the Spiders upped their over-all record to 14-5 and dropped Virginia to 13-11-2.

Williamston Claws Edenton

EDENTON — Williamston High School remained unbeaten in the Albermarle Conference yesterday, rolling to an 18-2 victory over Edenton.

The win boosted the Tigers record to 8-0 within the league and 10-3 overall.

Williamston struck first with a run in the first. Mike Bundy doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice. Berwyn Barn hill then singled him in.

Edenton came back in the bottom of the inning to score twice and take the lead. Leonard Small was hit by a pitch and Garrett walked. Cross reached on a fielder's choice and Shack Small singled to score Leonard Small and Garrett for a 2-1 lead.

It stayed that way until the fifth, when Williamston came up with a pair to push into a 3-2 lead. Bundy singled and stole second. Dwight Ange singled and also stole second. Joe Roberson then doubled in both of them.

In the sixth, three more Tigers crossed the plate, raising the lead to 6-2. Hubert Smith singled and Vann Andrews got a hit. A passed ball scored Smith, and Mike Bryant singled in Andrews. Ange then doubled in the final run and Bryant scored.

Williamston added insult to injury by scoring 12 runs in the top of the seventh.

Keith Brown led the hitting with three, while Ange, Roberson and Smith each had two.

Williamston plays host to Northampton on Friday.

Cardinals Snap Seven-Game Skid Oakland Hands Perry Second With 2-0 Victory Over Dodgers Loss; Rangers Use Key Hits

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON Associated Press Sports Writer
As fits a team with a 2-12 record, the St. Louis Cardinals are such a modest bunch that no one wants to take the credit when they score one of their rare victories.
Manager Red Schoendienst shook things up Tuesday night by putting Tim McCarver behind the plate and catcher Ted Simmons in right field and the Redbirds ended their seven-game losing streak with a 2-0 triumph over the Los Angeles Dodgers as Rick Wise pitched a six-hitter. But Schoendienst disclaimed any managerial genius.
"I don't think the shuffling of our line-up made much difference. McCarver was only 1-for-4, Simmons failed to hit in three chances and Bernie Carbo was a defensive replacement for him in the eighth inning."

Ted Sizemore, who doubled the second run in the fifth inning, wasn't having any of the hero's role, either.
"I'm not the hero," he said. "Give the credit to Wise and Jose Cruz. He drove in the first run."
Joe Torre scored the first run in the second inning when loser Claude Osteen walked him and Simmons and Cruz singled, but Torre also didn't think much of his night's work.
"I'm not a hero," he said. "All I did was score the first run of the game and after that I didn't break out in a sweat."
The Cardinals pretty much forced the hero's mantle on Wise, who has pitched both their victories.
Elsewhere in the National League, San Diego overtook Pittsburgh 7-5, Montreal trimmed Cincinnati 7-2, San Francisco shaded the Chicago

Cubs 4-2 in 10 innings, Houston downed the New York Mets 4-2 and Atlanta lathered Philadelphia 11-2.
American League scores: California 6, Baltimore 5 in 10 innings; Milwaukee 8, Kansas City 1; Texas 2, Detroit 1; Minnesota 6, Boston 4; Chicago 8, New York 4; Texas 2, Detroit 1; Oakland 4, Cleveland 0.
San Diego had lost four in a row and had a headstart on No. 5 when Pittsburgh erupted for four runs in the first inning. The Padres pulled to within 5-3, including Leron Lee's solo homer, as they came to bat in the eighth and tagged Bob Moose and Dave Giusti for four runs.
Montreal and Cincinnati were locked in a scoreless battle for 7½ innings before Johnny Bench belted a two-run single for the Reds. The Expos came back with all seven of their runs in the ninth.

Gary Thomasson's tie-breaking single in the 10th inning sparked San Francisco past Chicago after Ron Santo of the Cubs hit his second home run of the game in the ninth inning to send it into overtime.
Houston rocked New York's Jon Matlack for three runs in the first inning on Cesar Ceno's run-scoring single and successive RBI doubles by Bob Watson and Jim Wynn and held on to beat the Mets. Watson, who doubled again in the third and scored on Roger Metzger's single, stretched his hitting streak to 16 games, four short of the club record.
Pitcher Carl Morton snapped a 1-1 tie with a two-run double in the second inning and drove in another run with a grounder in the third as Atlanta swamped Philadelphia.

By HAL BOCK Associated Press Sports Writer
It's not how many hits you get, a baseball observer once observed. It's what you do with them.
The Texas Rangers did lots more with their meager four hits than Detroit did with its seven Tuesday night and that's why that Tigers came out on the short end of a 2-1 American League decision.
That, and Steve Foucault, Foucault, a 23-year-old rookie, handled a pressure-packed ninth inning like a veteran to save the victory for the Rangers. He got power-hitting Willie Horton to rap into a rally-killing double play and then stranded the tying run on third base by retiring Aurelio Rodriguez on a grounder.
Thank you, Mr. Foucault.
Elsewhere in the American League Tuesday, Chicago trimmed the New York Yankees 8-4, Minnesota beat Boston 6-4, Milwaukee defeated Kansas City 9-1, Oakland shut out Cleveland 4-0 and California topped Baltimore 6-5 in 10 innings with ex-Oriole Frank Robinson smashing a key three-run homer against his old team.

In the National League, San Francisco beat Chicago 4-2 in 10 innings, Atlanta whipped Philadelphia 11-2, Montreal defeated Cincinnati 7-2, San Diego downed Pittsburgh 7-5, St. Louis shut out Los Angeles 2-0 and Houston beat the New York Mets 4-2.
The Rangers, accustomed to only a few hits per game, made them count against the Tigers. Dave Nelson singled, stole second, was sacrificed to third and scored on Rico Carty's high bouncer in the first inning against Mickey Lolich. One hit, one run

In the seventh, Carty reached on a fielder's choice, moved up on a wild pitch and scored on Rich Billings. Another hit, another run.
Robinson supplied a touch of drama to his first meeting with his old Baltimore teammates. He slugged a three-run homer that helped California wipe out an early five-run Baltimore lead.
The Angels tied the score in the bottom of the ninth on Bob Oliver's pinch single and then won it in the 10th when Jim Spencer delivered his third hit of the game, a bases-loaded single.
Kansas City proved that getting less hits than the other guys doesn't necessarily mean you're going to win the ball game. The Royals managed just three against Milwaukee's Jerry Bell and came up losers against the Brewers.

Chicago rocked the Yankees with a five-run fourth inning ignited by Bill Melton's fifth homer of the year. Eddie Leon and Carlos May also homered for the White Sox, which goes to prove that Dick Allen isn't the only home run threat on that club.
Ken Holtzman and Horacio Pina combined for Oakland's shut out against Cleveland, limiting the Indians to six hits. Ted Kubiak homered for the A's, who beat Gaylord Perry for the fifth straight time over two seasons.

Tales Make Nova Iguacu 'Tough Town'

By BRUCE HANDLER
Associated Press Writer
NOVA IGUACU, Brazil (AP)
—This suburb of Rio de Janeiro is fast gaining a reputation as one of the toughest towns in South America.

Stories of crime and violence in Nova Iguacu appear almost daily in newspapers throughout Brazil.

Some recent highlights:
—Two armed men tried to hold up the fare collector on a city bus. Eighteen of the 20 passengers pulled out guns, shot one of the robbers dead and wounded the other.

—A truck driver called for help after a daylight stickup. Passersby converged on the fleeing gunman and beat him to death.

—A local resident strangled a prostitute he had been living with and stuffed her body into a septic tank, following an argument. A jury acquitted him, on grounds he was "defending his honor."

—The Nova Iguacu "death squad," a vigilante group said to be made up of off-duty policemen, killed 250 local underworld figures in a single year in an attempt to "clean up" the town.

—A delivery man was held up at gunpoint by a man riding a horse.

"Nova Iguacu has been the victim of a campaign of sensationalism," says Police Chief Luiz Gonzaga. "Of course we have crime. But our rate is lower than that of Rio or New York."

He did not, however, have the rate figure for Nova Iguacu. A notice outside the chief's door asks civic-minded citizens to blow the whistle on "disorderly persons, bums, drug addicts, people walking around armed, robbers wanted by the authorities, numbers racket headquarters and bordellos."

Located 15 miles from downtown Rio, Nova Iguacu grew in population from 33,000 in 1920 to 146,000 in 1950 to 750,000 today. People from all over Brazil streamed into the city to find work in the prosperous Rio area. Public services could not keep pace with the uncontrolled and unexpected growth.

As a result, Nova Iguacu today lacks paved streets, piped-in drinking water, telephones, schools, hospitals and police protection.

"Nova Iguacu is an El Dorado," said Gonzaga, 47, a thin, soft-spoken father of eight who has devoted nearly half his life to police work. "Where there is progress, there is crime. Criminals are attracted to Nova Iguacu like moths to light."

"You'd need the entire Brazilian army to get rid of all the crooks here," the chief said. Gonzaga's force is made up of about 100 inspectors and patrolmen and seven police vehicles. Most of the latter are usually in the repair shop.

By contrast, Washington, D.C., which is about equal to Nova Iguacu in population, has some 4,800 uniformed policemen.

When citizens come to Nova Iguacu police headquarters to file a complaint, sometimes the only way they get an officer to investigate is to take him to the scene of the crime in a taxi. The complainant must pay the cab fare.

The police station in one district of the city, called Queimados, population 200,000, has no telephone. "If something important happens in Queimados, the assistant chief there comes over here and tells me," Gonzaga said. End Adv Tues PMs April 24. Sent April 21.

500-Pound Clam No 'Man-Eater'

GREENVILLE, Del. (AP) — Giant clams like the 500-pound specimen on exhibit at the Delaware Museum of Natural History here can make enough clam chowder to feed 150 people.

Scientists at the museum say the large mollusk, known as the Tridacna gigas, is the largest species of clam in the world. It is found on the Great Barrier Reef in the southwest Pacific near Australia.

The specimen is a major attraction in the Delaware Museum's hall of shells where it stands four feet tall next to a section of the Great Barrier Reef recreated under a glass floor.

The clam, once reputed to be a "man-eater," is in reality a placid vegetarian, according to museum scientists.

Says Home Best Recovery Place
 NEW YORK (UPI) — The best place for a child to recover after minor surgery is in a hospital—right? Wrong, according to Dr. A. Frederick North Jr., at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine.
 He thinks kids should be sent home the day of the minor surgery, noting: "Hospitals are dangerous places. The kids are in high, uncomfortable beds from which they're likely to fall. They're always threatened by medication errors. In most cases the parents would be better off spending $20 to get a housekeeper to help out the next day rather than spending $100 to keep the child in a hospital after surgery."

Still Victims of Lead Poisoning
 NEW YORK (UPI) — In 1972 one child died of lead poisoning every 36 hours. The victims of lead-based paint poisoning—if they survive—often are left mentally retarded or suffer from cerebral palsy, convulsive disorders, blindness, learning defects, kidney diseases and other handicaps.

Saturday Review Pleads Bankrupt

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The publishers of the four Saturday Review magazines have filed bankruptcy petitions here and say they plan to merge the publications with World magazine to form a new biweekly.

The merged publication would be run by Norman Cousins, now World's editor and for 30 years editor of the Saturday Review until he withdrew from it in a dispute with the publishers in 1971.

Saturday Review's publishers said the four monthly magazines would suspend publication until completion of the reorganization under the federal Bankruptcy Act.

In New York, Cousins called the merger "a natural one" and tentatively set the first issue for early summer.

At the magazine's offices here after the announcement Tuesday, about 100 employees—sipping warm bourbon from paper cups—milled about unhappily. Some sobbed. Cousins subsequently confirmed fears that the new magazine could not afford to continue many of them on the payroll.

Cousins said the biweekly will be called "World-Saturday Review." "Saturday Review of the World" or something similar.

Frederick S. Wyle, chairman of the Saturday Review's executive committee, said the merger between the 48-year-old publication and World magazine will incorporate "the best features of both."

A group headed by John J. Veronis and Nicolas H. Charney took over Saturday Review in December 1971. They later moved the magazine from New

Cherry Hospital Now Accredited

RALEIGH (AP)—Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro has become the third of the state's four hospitals for mental patients to be accredited.

The other, Broughton Hospital in Morganton, is awaiting word on its request.

The acting state commissioner of mental health, N.P. Zarzer, announced Tuesday that Cherry Hospital had been accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, a national organization. John Umstead Hospital at Butler near Durham and Dorothea Dix Hospital in Raleigh had previously won accreditation.

FORECAST FOR THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1973

CARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Righter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The long-range plans you make now have a good chance of success. Get in touch with friends and acquaintances and discuss with them exactly where they can fit into these plans that are vital to your own advancement. Show others you are aware of their wishes and their needs and keep cheerful.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Plan how to gain those personal aims that mean a great deal to you and use more up-to-date system for best results. Fine day for the social side of life. Meet the persons who can be of help to you in the future.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Explain your ideas to associates and other key persons who can help you make mutually profitable plans. Some public affairs can be handled with relative ease. Enjoy the cultural.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get out of that dull routine which is so comfortable and into new outlets that are more interesting and very profitable as well. Show you can make changes with ease. Get the data you need from a new associate.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Handle your affairs in such a way that you gain the goodwill of business people with whom you deal, and more respect as well. Mate is more willing to go along with your modern ideas.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You now see clearly what is wrong in your business operations and can do much to change them. Civic work handled now can improve your image greatly. Use caution in all things, especially in driving.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You are able to handle all that work ahead of you with such efficiency you will make a fine impression on bigwigs and coworkers as well. Continue with the modernization of wardrobe you started yesterday.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You are now able to get good friends to cooperate more so you gain your finest aims by way of the social ladder. Do enough in a business way so you feel secure, but otherwise the social is best during day and p.m.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Pay more attention to what kin desire of you and try to please them. Begin a new project that can prove to be most profitable in the future. Keep busy and you keep happy and out of trouble.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Think out how to make your life easier and more profitable at the same time via new interests. Speak out honestly but tactfully for best results with others. Take it easy tonight.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Consult with experts so you know how to improve your financial status now. Use intuition and rise above limitations. Make your routines more efficient and easier at the same time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) The right time to get your personal affairs better organized for the future, combining the best of the past with the best of the new. Strive for more harmony with old friends. Contact them early.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) If you study yourself and your interests well, you know where to make the right improvements that are necessary. Listen to what an expert has to suggest, also. Avoid the social in p.m.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who sees the world through rose-colored glasses and his fellowman in the finest light, so slant the education along lines that will place your fine youngster in the public eye where much success is possible. Anything from the field of diplomacy to acting is excellent. Religion will be a natural, although sports will hold little interest for your son or daughter.

Pepsi-Cola explodes a shopping myth.

Pepsi-Cola in this 6-pack of returnable quarts with reseal caps costs just about the same, ounce for ounce, as most of the brands that claim to be bargains.

It's true. Ounce for ounce you spend just about the same for Pepsi-Cola in this 6-pack of returnable quarts as you do for those brands you thought were bargains. And when you add in Pepsi-Cola quality, we think you'll agree that Pepsi is a real bargain. Next time you shop, compare.

Pepsi. A real bargain.

Must Decide OEO Future

WASHINGTON (AP) — A judge's refusal to reverse his order halting the dismantling of the federal antipoverty agency temporarily puts the future of the Office of Economic Opportunity in the hands of Congress. Congress must appropriate additional funds if the agency is to survive beyond June 30. Judge William B. Jones Tuesday denied a government motion to stay his April 11 order blocking OEO's dismantling or permitting the administration to proceed with the scheduled April 28 closing of 10 regional offices and the shifting of some programs to other agencies. An OEO spokesman said Judge Jones' decision was taken under advisement. The Justice Department, which is defending the suit on behalf of the OEO, has 60 days in which to appeal the decision. A department spokesman said no final decision has been made on whether to appeal the original order or Tuesday's decision. Howard Phillips, acting OEO director, told agency employees March 12 that regional offices should be prepared to close by next Saturday. A five-day notice of reduction in force is necessary before an employe is dismissed. No such order has been given.

Service Van To Visit Thursday

The Community Service Van of the Seventh-day Adventist Church will be in the Pitt Plaza Shopping Center on Thursday April 26 from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. Free blood pressure checks are available and a urinalysis test for diabetes for those who bring a urine specimen with them. On display will be the Carolina Community Services Van, which has been used to bring emergency services to victims in time of disaster. The van went to Mississippi after Hurricane Camille and also after the tornadoes that hit the Mississippi delta area. It took relief to West Virginia after the floods there in 1972.
