

Committee Defeats Med School Referendum Bill

RALEIGH (AP) — The House Finance Committee voted 29-24 today to kill a bill that would have submitted the issue of a medical school at East Carolina University to a vote of the people of North Carolina. The vote came after an hour of debate on a bill by Rep. Larry Eagles, D-Edgecombe, calling for a referendum on the issuance of $50 million in bonds to create a four-year medical school at ECU.

The referendum bill was introduced in 1973 by Rep. Larry Eagles, D-Edgecombe, and quickly forgotten. It has been revived in the past few days by the House Speaker James E. Ramsey, D-Person, and other Democratic leaders, who see it as a possible means of disposing of the ECU issue and moving the legislature on to other bills.

Rep. Liston Ramsey, D-Madison, the Finance Committee chairman Wednesday predicted a "close vote" today on the referendum bill. Ramsey has a reputation, however, for insuring that he has the votes to pass a measure before he lets his committee vote on it.

They feel that the Board of Governors supporters will not be able to hold their majority on the Eagles bill, since it does not directly rebut the board.

Tentative OK By Truckers On Deal To Solve Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government negotiators reached tentative agreement with representatives of striking independent truckers on a proposal to give the truckers quick financial relief and get them back on the road.

The six negotiators for the truckers claimed to represent about 18 independent truckers' associations nationwide. They estimated that there are anywhere from 150,000 to 300,000 independent owner-operators throughout the country.

Tuesday the truckers rejected the President's immediate freeze on diesel fuel prices as insufficient. They advised truckers across the country to continue their work stoppage. The truckers gave Usery their counterproposal Wednesday, asking assurances that the freeze would last until Congress passes legislation.

Barriers To Trade Cited By President

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon told Congress today the United States should work with other nations to reduce trade barriers so that individual countries are not tempted to go it alone.

Flanigan said the U.S. competitive position in the Japanese market has improved because of currency adjustments and because of the lowering of trade barriers which had long protected the Japanese market from foreign competition.

In the full House, supporters of the University of North Carolina Board of Governors—the opponents of ECU expansion—feel they have enough votes to kill any proposal to directly order the board to expand the ECU school.

One of their leaders, Rep. John Stevens, D-Buncombe, indicated Wednesday that their strategy will therefore be to fight the Eagles bill and try to force a vote on one of the measures that would directly order expansion.

But it would leave it up to the board to decide when expansion was practical. ECU supporters have been holding out for a legislative determination of the expansion timetable.

In the meantime, they urged the drivers to stay home and refrain from violence until they can explain the agreement and complete a ratification vote.

The program will provide facilities not only to serve new subscribers in this area, but also to permit higher grades of service for existing subscribers.

"Recently," Collier said, "the growth of Greenville has accelerated the demand for telephone service. As a result, the maximum capacity of present equipment has nearly been reached."

In his second annual international economic report, the President referred to the oil embargo and accompanying price increases as new problems of such enormity that there may be temptations to delay further progress toward trade and monetary reform.

Burney Seeking Sheriff's Post

Thomas D. Burney, Ayden Chief of Police, filed today as a candidate for Pitt County Sheriff in the May Democratic Primary.

A Pitt County native and a veteran of 10 years in law enforcement, he is seeking his first elective office.

Prior to becoming Chief of the 13-man Ayden Police Department two years ago, he was an Ayden Police officer from 1965-66 and a Pitt County Deputy Sheriff from 1967-71. He is a graduate of Grifton High School and a graduate of numerous police science courses. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Burney of the St. John's community, he is the husband of the former Montez Burrows of Greenville and the father of two-year-old Rebecca. He is a member of St. John's Episcopal Church, vice president of the Ayden Lions Club, vice president of the Mideast Regional Development Commission, and a member of the advisory board of Pitt Technical Institute's Law Enforcement Training Program.

In filing, Burney, 30, said, "I have no 'ax to grind' in seeking the position as Sheriff of Pitt County, but I do feel that the citizens of Pitt County are entitled to a better organized and more efficient department. I feel each complaint should be

Car Pool Plan Proves Failure

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A six-month experimental program designed to promote car pool travel has been written off as a failure by Mayor Joseph Doorley.

Effective Monday, the 337-car Pershing Square municipal parking lot will revert to a four-hour limit of metered parking at 10 cents an hour. During the experimental program, all-day parking was offered for 25 cents a day for cars carrying at least three passengers.

Doorley's office reported Wednesday that daily use under the experimental system averaged about 40 cars, compared with about 1,600 autos before the plan went into effect. Parking receipts during the last three months of 1973 totaled $415, compared with $8,582 in the same period of 1972.

Sheriff Running For Re-Election

RALPH TYSON

Pitt County Sheriff Ralph Tyson filed Wednesday as a candidate for reelection in the May Democratic primary.

Tyson, a native of Pitt County, was first employed as a Pitt deputy in 1956 and was reappointed in 1962 by the late Sheriff Duke Andrews. When Andrews died in 1965, Tyson was appointed by a unanimous consent of the County Commissioners to serve out the unexpired term.

Tyson, 41, is seeking his third full term in office.

In announcing his candidacy, he commented, "I plan to continue as the policy of the Pitt County Sheriff's Department to furnish the most efficient and effective service possible for the people of Pitt County."

He continued, "Modern law enforcement requires continued training of officers and dedication on their part to service to the public. I pledge to the people of Pitt County that all the staff of the Sheriff's Department will use every means available to furnish courteous, thorough and impartial enforcement of law in Pitt County."

The sheriff, son of W. R. Tyson, graduated from Belvoir-Falkland High School with honors and entered East Carolina College. His education was interrupted by military service from 1953 to 1955. Upon

New Hairstyles Recall The '30s

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
Every little movement will have a meaning all its own in spring hairstyles, ranging from undulating soft dips to springy finger waves and bouncy curls a la the '30s.

That forecast comes from Julius Caruso, style director of Intercoiffure America, a group that comprises hundreds of hairdressers in the United States, Canada and Mexico. They recently held their spring hair show in New York.

"The important trend is movement of the hair. The new look is 'no-length' — wear your hair any length but be sure it moves."

Long, straight hair did have movement in its swing, Caruso acknowledges, using the past tense, but it was a different kind of movement. "It was excellent, but hairdressers feel that long, straight hair has had it," he insists. "After all the American look is a straight, natural look. Now we are on to something new."

But, alas, girls with naturally curly hair will not have an advantage, he speculates. Having suffered through the straight-haired period, they will need to continue to use straighteners "because the new hairdos must be controlled as hair was in the '30s. One or two waves or dips will be fashionable. Four or five is too strong for the look.

"It means the return of fingers, irons, and rollers — hot or cold — in setting the hair," he explained. "In fact, my own hairdo (at the show) required six hands to set.

The waist-length, straight hair of the model was done with one large dip at each side and two puffs at the back for some movement "instead of a straight line with two puffs in back," he explained. While the model held her hands on the dips Caruso and his assistant worked on the puffs. It isn't easy to work with heavy, long hair to get dips, one reason very long hair will be shortened considerably, he forecasts.

"Another reason may be that the newer shorter hairdos look better with longer dresses. Twenty per cent of my own clients between 18 to 35 have gone back to dresses for daytime wear. There are always some holdouts and some areas that take longer to get with it."

Older women will wear their hair shorter and shorter — it is more flattering, he points out. Younger girls may work up to it, at first cutting their hair to the shoulders. Quite a number of girls, particularly models, have cut their hair to 2½ inches.

"But many are not sticking with it that short. So many models cut their hair that short you couldn't find one for a hairdo. But many attended European fashion collections, saw the new hairdos and dresses worn by models and they are now letting their hair grow to the chin.

In color there is a strong trend toward henna, also associated with the '30s. And there is a technique of highlighting the hairline around the face that is particularly striking worn by girls with brown hair or medium brown hair. Very dark brunettes might use henna highlights around the face.

New York women are pursuing the trend to henna. It has also blossomed in Chicago, drifted back east from there and now has gone west from Chicago, the Intercoiffure group's hairdressers have reported. The trend is moving slowly in the Midwest and may never catch on in the South, except with women who travel, he insists.

At Wit's End

By Erma Bombeck

My daughter said the other day, "Why couldn't you have a neat first name like Debbie's mother, 'Weezie' or Gigi's mother, 'Bunny'?"

The question touched on a rather sensitive area with me. I have always hated my first name. It has a comic strip ring to it that is third in mirth only to Iodine and Olive Oyl.

Maybe most people hate their first names, I don't know. But I have always had a theory that few people overcome them. The moment they are hit with a name, their future is predestined and they eventually become what they are labeled.

Think about it. Do you honestly think anyone would lay a name like Franklin Delano Roosevelt on a shoe salesman? He was destined to become President and poor old Al Smith didn't have a chance.

Can you imagine Frances Gumm being a star? Not until she changed her name to Judy Garland, she wasn't.

Personally, I have tried to buck the system. I know what people are the moment I hear their name. Whenever there was a Mary Alice in the class, I was licked. I never knew a Mary Alice in my whole life who didn't foul up the grading curve with her high marks, would loan you her comb, or who wasn't the one the teacher left in charge when she left the room with instructions to "take names." (Mary Alice always did.)

When I drew a Ginger for my roommate, I didn't have to be told that I would spend my days cleaning red hair out of the clogged plumbing, taking phone messages for her, and walking by the mirror and shouting, "So who asked you!"

My theory has been proved a thousand times. Did you ever hear of a Rockefeller named Tanya? A stripper named Sarah? Or a Leroy Sevareid?

As I told my daughter, "It was not God's plan for me to be a Weezie or a Bunny. I'm an Erma and we all know that Ermas can't cross their legs in hot weather without attracting attention. We never wear bathing suits without girdles or glasses that aren't held together with a paper clip. We leave the windows down in the car wash, play the organ by numbers, sleep wrong on our hair, have allergies for which there are no tests, have coat sweaters that we can't button and tennis rackets that are mildewed.

"Oh, child, know that the world belongs to the class Aristotle Onassis, the Anthony Armstrong Joneses, the Jonathan Livingston Seagulls, and you mark my work, Bebe Rebozo is slated for something big. You don't get the name Bebe for nothing." Copyright 1974 Field Enterprises, Inc.

Charity Ball Preview Given League Members

Greenville Service League members were given a preview of the annual Charity Ball which, will be held Friday, Feb. 15, at the Greenville Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. E. C. Smith Jr., ball chairman, introduced Committee Chairmen Mrs. Don White, Mrs. Gerald Crane, and Mrs. William Reading, who outlined their plans for the evening.

Mrs. Herbert Carter, Bloodmobile chairman, reviewed with members some of the facts concerning the Tidewater Red Cross Blood program. Information as to eligibility for giving and for receiving blood, processing, distribution, and need were covered. Members signed to assist when the Bloodmobile visits the Moose Lodge Tuesday, Feb. 12, from 12 noon to 6 p.m. Other committee reports followed. Emergency Charity answered eight call for food, food stamps, utilities, and fuel. Civil Defense will start a First Aid Course this month with an advanced course planned subsequently.

The Laughinghouse Hospital Fund received one memorial. The Lending Chest answered a call for one wheelchair and the chairman also thanked Mrs. E. W. Turcotte for contributing a pair of crutches.

Wife Adds Fuel To Family Feud

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: My father died three months ago after a long and difficult illness. I looked after his needs daily, while my brother and his wife looked out the window. After the funeral I let my brother have it, but good, and we haven't spoken since.

My husband, however, never did bear a grudge against my brother. He still plays golf with him, and they are the best of friends. This really hurts me, Abby. Don't you think that out of loyalty to me my husband should not be palling around with my brother?

DEAR REMEMBERS: Not necessarily. I think your husband is showing more maturity than you. I agree, you have good reason to be upset with your brother, but what's to be gained by perpetuating a family feud? It's already causing trouble between you and your husband. Try to forget the past and work toward improving your relationship with your brother. It may take a while, but if you start now, the happy ending will come sooner.

DEAR ABBY: My parents and I get along great except when it comes to their ideas on how I should dress.

I am not allowed to wear midriffs, halters, or anything that shows my lower back. Also, I can't show my stomach or belly button. [To them, if a girl shows her belly button, it's as bad as going naked.]

It's unbelievable how old fashioned they are in some ways, considering how modern they are in other ways.

Oh, I'm a 15-year-old girl. I really love my parents and realize they care about me, but do they have to restrict my clothing like they do?

DEAR SAINT: You should thank your lucky stars they do. There are a lot of weirdos running around who don't need anything more than an exposed belly button to set them off.

DEAR ABBY: I suppose I am about the 100,000th girl with the same problem. I've fallen in love with a married man. He's my boss.

He's 20 years older than I am, but we really are crazy about each other. His wife knew about us from the start and sort of accepted it, but he kept putting off leaving her, so I moved out of town and tried to forget him. He called and begged me to come back, promising to divorce his wife, so I came back. Well, he stalled some more.

It's been over a year now. I'm still seeing him, and I'm back where I started from. Recently I called his wife and she was just great. She said she knew how much her husband loved me and would give him a divorce in a minute, but HE didn't want one.

I talked to him and he said his wife was mentally unbalanced and not responsible for what she said, and I shouldn't pay any attention to it.

Who can I believe? And what should I do? IN A TRAP

DEAR IN: Get out of his life—and out of town, if necessary, and forget him. And if he calls you again, don't have any more dialog with him. He's bad news.

Throughout history clothing designers have depended upon embroidery to give fashion elegance and dimension. The Chinese used it extensively as long as 3,000 years ago. In more recent times, royalty, nobility and church hierarchy demanded embroidery to give costumes distinction and opulence.

Senate Again Takes Up Emergency Energy Measure

A GHOST SHIP? — The 86-foot fishing boat "John and Olaf" is shown as it was located by a Coast Guard helicopter in Jute Bay near Kodiak Island. The crab boat was abandoned by its four-man crew in heavy seas and high winds last month. The Coast Guard found only the crew's lifecraft. The four-man crew apparently was lost at sea. (AP Wirephoto)

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate once again is taking up the much-debated emergency energy bill, with this version containing an oil price rollback opposed by the administration. Prospects for quick action when the legislation comes to the Senate floor today appear slim. The floor manager for the bill, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said, "I'm anticipating trouble."

The bill approved Wednesday by a Senate-House conference committee also would give President Nixon authority to order gasoline rationing and other mandatory fuel-saving measures. Republicans and White House lobbyists stopped short of predicting a filibuster but clearly indicated they would move to prevent final action before Congress begins the Lincoln Day recess on Friday.

Opposition to the bill centers around the proposed oil price rollback. Jackson has estimated the rollback would cut the pump price of gasoline by four cents a gallon, but federal energy chief William E. Simon has called it "unworkable." The provision, which would affect roughly one-quarter of the oil produced in the United States, was adopted by the conferees. The Senate had sent the bill back to conference to remove language designed to limit oil company profits. Meanwhile, Amerasia Hess Corp., the nation's 18th largest oil company, reported its operating earnings in 1973 rose 278 per cent over their 1972 levels. Fourth-quarter profits were 578 per cent higher than last year, the company said. Maryland became the fourth state to turn to gasoline rationing in an attempt to ease gasoline shortages and long lines at service stations. The plan will follow the odd-even license plate rationing system already in effect in Oregon and Hawaii and due to go into effect Monday in Massachusetts. A spokesman for the Federal Energy Office said differences in gasoline supplies among the states this month may be only temporary.

Those depending most heavily on Arab oil have had their supplies cut by the Arab oil embargo, while those depending more on domestic oil have suffered mild shortages, he said.

The spokesmen said the differences should tend to disappear in March as government allocations of fuel among the states equalize things. The allocations begin this month.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said continuation of the Arab embargo would be "highly inappropriate" in view of the Mideast cease-fire agreement worked out by the United States.

If the Arab producers persist, he said, it "cannot but affect the attitude with which we would have to pursue our diplomacy."

The American Petroleum Institute reported new evidence that the embargo may have reached its full impact in January. The institute reported the third straight week of small increases in oil imports after two months of declines.

The Edison Electric Institute said nationwide electricity consumption during the week ended Feb. 2 was down 5.1 per cent from the same period last year.

Child Struck By A Stray Bullet

CHARLOTTE (AP)—Thirteen-year-old Linda Kay Smith was waiting for a bus to take her to Hawthorne Junior High School Wednesday when suddenly she felt a searing pain.

She had been shot in the right knee by a stray .22 caliber bullet.

Police have been unable to determine who fired it, or why. Linda was treated at a hospital. It will be at least a week before she can return to school.

Gunmen Release Four Hostages Detained In Japanese Embassy

By JOSEPH PANOSSIAN
Associated Press Writer
KUWAIT (AP) — Guerrilla gunmen freed four of their hostages from the Japanese Embassy today, and Interior and Defense Minister Sheik Saad el-Abdullah said it was possible the siege would end tonight. He said he had "been in touch with the leader of the gunmen and obtained a pledge that no harm will befall the hostages."

But the government still refused to let four pro-Arab terrorists from Singapore land on its territory. The terrorists who seized the embassy on Wednesday claimed they were holding "more than 20" Japanese and Arabs. They vowed to blow up the hostages and themselves unless the Singapore terrorists and their hostages were flown to Kuwait. A special Japan Air Lines plane arrived in Singapore early today to pick up the group, but the Kuwait government said it would not let the plane land "to avoid further complications." It also refused to send food into the embassy. The Japanese Foreign Ministry said it had tried "again and again" to get the Kuwaitis to change but they were adamant. Kuwaiti authorities estimated there were three to nine guerrillas in the embassy, including a woman. They were believed to be Arabs and Japanese. Police and troops surrounded the office building in which the embassy occupies two upper floors.

The Japanese Foreign Ministry said the hostages included Ambassador Ryoko Ishikawa, the embassy's first, second and third secretaries, an attache and a local Japanese employe.

The Singapore gunmen, two Japanese and two Arabs, have been holed up on a ferry boat in Singapore harbor for a week since they failed in an attempt to blow up a Shell oil refinery. They are holding three men of the ferry crew, all Singaporeans.

They had been demanding a plane to fly to an unspecified Arab country, but the Japanese government had said it could not find an Arab country that would accept them.

The terrorist squads in both Singapore and Kuwait said their members belonged to the Japanese Red Army and the Marxist Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine. The group in Kuwait said it also included members of the Sons of Palestine, another radical group.

Federal Land Bank Cites 1,050 Loans

"The Federal Land Bank Association of Washington, N.C. continues to serve the sound, long-term credit needs of farmers in this area," according to Joe Griffin, President of the association. "Implementation of new policies and innovations has enabled the Land Bank Association to more effectively serve farmers with new and improved services with greater flexibility," explained Griffin. "In completing another outstanding year in service to farmers, the Washington Association extended credit in the amount of $6,500,000 and had 1,050 loans to farmers, growers and ranchers in the amount of more than $25,000,000 at the end of the year," Griffin said.

The association is one of 46 farmer-owned Land Bank Associations which make the service Land Bank loans for the Federal-Land Bank of Columbia in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida—the four states served by the Bank. R. A. Darr, President of the Columbia Bank, reported that the Bank now has over 48,000 loans to farmers, growers, ranchers and rural homeowners in the four state district in the amount of more than $1.34 billion. Darr also pointed out that the Bank's gross loans through the 46 associations during 1973 amounted to over $523 million.

The Washington Association serves farmers in Pitt, Martin, Hyde, Tyrrell, and Washington counties. Officers and directors of the association include R. G. Coburn of Jamesville, N.C. Chairman of the Board; Douglas Davenport of Creswell, N.C., Vice Chairman of the Board; Sam Winchester of Greenville, N.C., director; B. G. Carowan of Pantego, N.C., director; and Minton Beech, Jr. of Oak City, N.C., director.

Concern For New School

WILLIAMSTON—In a short meeting, the Martin County School Board Tuesday discussed the status of construction progress in a number of new schools now being built in Martin County. Special concern was expressed over completion date for the new Williamston High School, originally scheduled to be ready for occupancy in September 1973. School board members feel that assurance must be given that the building, still under construction, must be ready for occupancy in September this year. A report to the school board revealed that only three classes in the county schools exceeded the statutory limitations of class sizes. In each instance it was by only one person per class that the limitation was exceeded. The school board is asking the State Department of Public Instruction to waive the limitation. The only agenda item acted on was approval of changes in personnel, including resignations, replacements and additions.

Hunt 2 Girls In Watch Theft

Police are seeking two girls who allegedly took a wrist watch from an 11-year-old girl yesterday afternoon near the intersection of Vance and Ward Streets.

Chief Glenn Cannon reported that the 11-year-old and her 13-year-old brother were accosted on the street by two older girls and were grabbed and struck about the head by the two accosters who then took a watch from the younger girl.

The two assailants ran from the scene when a man responded to calls for assistance from the young children.

Khmer Rouge Are Cleared From Area

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Government troops made gains on both banks of the Bassac river southeast of Phnom Penh, the Cambodian military command claimed today. The command said its troops cleared a three-mile section of Route 21 south of the industrial suburb of Takhmau, seven miles southeast of Phnom Penh on the west bank of the Bassac. On the east bank, about 50 rebels were killed in fighting at the village of Prek Pra, the command reported. About 1,000 Khmer Rouge rebels were reported concentrated in a bend of the Bassac southeast of Prek Pra. Government reinforcements are moving toward the area.

In South Vietnam, the Saigon command reported that a mine blew up a train en route from Da Nang to Hue on the northern coast, killing nine civilians and wounding 24 civilians and two soldiers.

Nationalist China announced a "strong protest" to South Vietnam today against its claim to the disputed Spratly islands in the South China Sea and its recent establishment of small garrisons on four or five of the uninhabited coral atolls.

Communist China and the Philippines also claim the Spratlys, which have become valuable because of the possibility that there is oil beneath the seabed around them.

The Nationalist statement said Chinese troops took over the islands from Japan at the end of World War II, and permanent Chinese garrisons have been stationed there since December 1946.

Destroy Still

PACTOLUS—Pitt County ABC officers yesterday afternoon destroyed a 100-gallon steam distillery east of here near the Sticks Road.

Officers said the 100-gallon still included a 100-gallon preheating unit, a 60-gallon cooler with copper coil condenser and 200-gallons of mash.

Seven gallons of non-tax-paid whiskey were found near the illegal gas-fired unit.

The still, the enforcement agents said, was not in operation and no arrests were made.

Officers destroyed the illegal operation with axes following the 2 p.m. raid.

Answers By President Needed

Vice President Gerald Ford suggested in an appearance on CBS "Face The Nation" Sunday that the House Judiciary Committee should have the power to subpoena President Nixon in its impeachment investigation.

However, the vice president, nominated by Nixon, himself, said that he was not sure that even the subpoena power would be enough to bring the president before the committee.

Ford saw no legal precedent "for an unlimited fishing expedition in the office of the President."

"It is the office of the Presidency on the one hand that I think has to have some reasonable protection."

He suggested that perhaps the president might furnish answers to the committee's questions, but not appear in person.

We think the White House should attempt to find some area of cooperation with investigating committee. The president has disclaimed any wrongdoing a number of times in public talks, but if any credibility is to be gained for these statements he must answer some of the questions about the presidency in a forum whose credibility is established.

Perhaps ground rules could be established for limiting the questioning to Watergate-related matters prior to a presidential appearance before the committee. Perhaps an advance list of questions could be agreed upon.

If the air is ever to be cleared, the president needs to furnish specific answers to matters which worry Congress and the public, and the best place to do it would be before the House Judiciary Committee.

No Answer To Ethics Problem

By BILL NOBLITT
RALEIGH—There is growing concern among members of the General Assembly over ethics—public trust and confidence.

But don't expect a stampede to adopt sweeping laws on disclosure of income and business connections by governmental officials.

"It will come in time, but the people here are not quite ready. We would probably never get a bill through right now, and it would have to be a bill to be effective."

"But there are a lot of individuals, and the number is growing, who are concerned about keeping standards high; that members of the assembly have got to be above conflicts of interest," says Rep. J. Guy Revelle, D-Northampton.

A retired salesman in agricultural chemicals, Revelle believes public concern over conflicts of interest has grown in the past 10 years, and intensified since the Watergate affair last year.

As a member of his county board for 19 years before coming to Raleigh, Revelle feels he has a close ear to concerns in the grassroots. "Washington has brought this out. There is more news... and more public concern."

Interest In Government
"There is more interest now in state government than I've seen before, too," he said.

What is conflict? That is when the representative of a district is supposed to do what is right for the people of his area, and the state, but finds his vote being influenced by a job, or by somebody paying him money or other favors, is Revelle's definition.

One activity that really cuts to the heart of the problem is any member of the General Assembly or local government who is in business or buys or sells goods or services to a governmental agency, he said.

Additionally, there are members of the General Assembly, usually attorneys, who upon election win jobs as attorneys on retainer fee from major corporations such as banks or utilities, he noted.

"Oh, I've heard talk about such. I notice such things, and I hear some people talk. But it's hard to know where the problems really start, and where they stop," Revelle said.

Lack Of Trust

"What worries me most is the lack of trust growing up from the people. A lack of trust in any governmental official. I didn't know the people back home really watched us as much as they do. People are really interested in what we do, how we do it."

There is growing sensitivity in the General Assembly to that distrust back home, and while talk now involves scattered individuals in the assembly who are concerned, Revelle thinks the mood for reform and ethics law is beginning to come together and will lead to action in the near future.

He said the problems in Washington are "really making it hard on us at the state level—but, you know, just maybe we are making it hard on the county officials at home."

Sensitivity to that growing public distrust was evidenced recently in the Senate as Lt. Gov. James B. Hunt Jr., D-Wilson presided.

Senator Jack I. Rhyne, D-Gaston, introduced a visitor from back home, and insisted that his occupation as a used-car salesman be noted since recent polls had shown that only used-car salesmen ranked as low in public esteem as politicians.

"The chair wonders," quipped Hunt, "if we might have one on hand every day."

A bill has been introduced in the House requiring financial disclosure by state officials earning more than $25,000 a year, and by legislators, but its chances appear iffy this year.

Big Turnover In Legislature

By JOHN KILGO
RALEIGH—Veteran political observers are predicting that the turnover in the North Carolina legislature this year will be the highest in memory.

It is generally assumed that one-third of the Legislature will not return after a general election. Some run and get defeated. Some decide not to run. But many politicians say they see the turnover for next year at close to 50 per cent.

Some of the leading names in the Legislature have indicated that they won't seek re-election next year. Among them are Gordon P. Allen, president pro tem of the Senate; Sen. Phil Godwin, who is a former House Speaker, H. Edward Knox, an influential Senator who is head of the Mecklenburg delegation; W. D. Mills, state Senator from Swansboro, and William W. Staton of Sanford.

Some in the House who have indicated they won't seek another term in Raleigh for various reasons are Sam

Johnson of Raleigh, Julian Fenner of Rocky Mount, Bob Wynne of Raleigh, Howard Twigg of Raleigh, and Gerald Arnold.

Marilyn Bissell of Charlotte, a Republican, is sounding her chances of running for the U.S. Senate. Many of the legislators stepping down are doing so because they say the service in the Assembly is too time consuming. The experiment to annual sessions no doubt influenced many of them.

Sen. W. D. Mills told me: "The interim committees that we had between sessions kept me hopping between my business and Raleigh, and to be quite frank about it I just don't have the time."

Sen. Godwin said: "I have a law practice and serving in the Senate this time was like having another full-time job. We had committee meetings every week, it seems."

Godwin, who is interested in running for attorney general, says he's afraid the move to annual sessions, even on an experimental basis, is causing many legislators to quit after this term.

40 Years Ago Today

By SUSAN PRICE
February 7, 1934

Goldborge has announced that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself as a judge of the Superior Court of the Fourth District.

He states that his own judgment had been for some time that he shouldn't run, because of his age and not the length of the term, six years. He said that several of his friends urged him to seek the nomination but that he would rather retire.

His term expires December 31 this year.

The Million Dollar Club, sponsored by the Home Building and Loan Association, is making wonderful progress. The club is now sponsoring a program to give each school child a chance to win a prize of $2.50 through a duplicate number program.

The "monkey fish" has made an appearance in Greenville. The freak inhabitant of the sea, a member of the skate family, was found in a shipment of fish at the local fish market. The freak skate has a head shaped like a monkey's.

Case Merits Your Time

"Fair is foul and foul is fair," cried the witches of Macbeth. The National Broadcasting Company is chanting the same litany these days in its appeal from a significant decision of the Federal Communications Commission. The case is important. It merits a few minutes of your time.

I am of two minds about the FCC decision. What happened was that in September, 1972, NBC aired a documentary dealing with the failure of certain private pension plans. The network's hour-long presentation gave no more than lip service to the concepts of "balance" or "fairness." The whole thrust of the program was to show what was wrong and not what was right, about the retirement plans of private industry.

Spokesmen for private industry naturally reacted in outrage. Legislation was then pending in the U.S. Senate to impose new regulations upon the pension funds. Critics denounced NBC's program as outright lobbying; they described the presentation as one-sided, distorted, and unfair; and in the context of the private pension system as a whole, their charges were undeniably true. Accuracy in Media, Inc., a Washington-based monitor of such things, filed a formal complaint with the FCC, accusing NBC of violating the "fairness doctrine." In December, the FCC upheld the complaint, 5-0, and ordered the network to run some balancing material. NBC has now appealed.

It is not easy to sort out the rights and wrongs. As a newsman, I side with NBC; as a TV viewer, I incline toward the FCC.

The network, claiming First Amendment freedoms, challenges the whole theory of a federally administered "fairness doctrine." Any governmental control over content or programming, in NBC's view, is an unconstitutional abridgment of freedom of the press. There is no denying that some workers have suffered gross hardships by reason of faulty pension plans; such hardships are news; the public interest is well served by exposing the evils. In this particular documentary, by analogy, NBC was following a classic principle of journalism: It is not news that on a given day, 10,000 airliners land safely; it is news when one crashes.

The FCC responds by saying that the great networks and their local licensees stand in a peculiar position under the First Amendment. So long as channels and frequencies are limited, and must therefore be allocated by governmental authority, some standards have to apply. One such standard, in a near monopoly situation, is that these powerful instruments of communication must be fair. Otherwise their influence over public opinion goes unchecked.

The impasse cannot be easily resolved. The elder Dumas once remarked that he knew of no greater insult than to praise a man for doing his duty. By the same token, NBC properly argues that its news directors have no obligation to praise pension funds that work well. Yet the FCC has an equally defensible position. If the typical TV viewer sees nothing but the bad side, how is he to keep a given social problem in perspective?

Suppose that NBC put together a documentary on racial-balance busing; and suppose that, like the pension program, the documentary dealt only with the bad side—the hardships, the tensions, the stultifying racism, the ill effects on children concerned. It is no great exercise of the imagination to suppose that pro-busing liberals would cry foul; they would demand that the fairness doctrine be invoked in order to compel presentation of the other side. And they would have a good point.

The business community has an equally good point in complaining against such programs as "Pensions: The Broken Promise." If viewers are treated to little but the messianic exhortations of a Ralph Nader, the concept of "news" may be served, but the concept of "truth" will suffer.

Symbol Swept Aside

By VICTOR L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The removal of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty from the Roman Catholic hierarchy in Hungary swept aside a major obstacle to the Vatican's drive for better relations with the Soviet bloc.

The cardinal's outspoken opposition to communism in any form put him in conflict with Pope Paul's quiet diplomacy with the regimes in Eastern Europe. He spoke as a man of another era, scarred by the Cold War and out of step with the Vatican's efforts.

The cardinal, who spent eight of his 81 years in Communist prisons and 15 years as a refugee in the United States legation in Budapest, said in a speech last year that summed up his views: "Each of the individuals should be forgiven but not the system. There is an important difference."

The Pope dismissed him Tuesday as primate of Hungary and archbishop of Esztergom, the archdiocese that includes Budapest. He had not carried out the duties of either post since the Communists arrested him in 1948. But he refused repeated Vatican requests to resign because he considered himself a symbol of militant anticommunism.

As Mindszenty's dismissal was announced, the Vatican's foreign minister, Archbishop Agostino Casaroli, was in Warsaw for talks that may lead to diplomatic relations between Poland and the Holy See. There is also talk that Pope Paul may visit Poland, 95 per cent of whose people are Catholics.

Pope Pius XII made Mindszenty a cardinal in 1946, when the Communists were taking over more and more of Eastern Europe and the watchword of the Church was resistance.

But the Vatican's anticommunist polemics came to end under Pius' successor, John XXIII. Pope Paul has continued the process with a flurry of diplomatic activity that has resulted in

Other Editors Say Inflation Feeders

(Wilson Times)

Citizens, you talk about inflation, now you can do something about it. Write and get your friends to write to our congressmen asking them to postpone the proposed March 1 pay raise to senators, representatives, Cabinet members, judges and other key federal officials. This is the time for Congress to set the example for this nation in the claws of inflationary pressures.

A salary boost at this time will be setting a bad example. Congress has the responsibility of setting the example of restraint by keeping congressional salaries at their present level and no higher.

Even though Congress could rationalize the question and accept the proposed 7 per cent raise for 1974, 1975 and 1976, millions of Americans will regard this as just what it is, rationalization based upon present self-interest as opposed to what would be best for the country.

The time has come for those who make the laws and who are responsible for the progress of this nation, to accept the responsibilities which go with their duties. The economic condition of this nation is not good and it can go either way. Certainly an increase in salaries, in view of their present salary and all the added benefits which go with it, is not in the best interests of the country.

Inflation must be stopped or the value of the dollar will not be worth taking to market. The law now is written so that no public action has to be taken but the increases are automatic, and this is not the democratic way. The salary of the members of the House is $42,500, of the Senate, $60,000, and so on for the upper crust in government.

It was in 1967 that legislation was passed to establish the commission procedure for setting major federal salaries. You also know that the 1969 raise was for 42 per cent and at the time when the President was attempting to hold raises to 3½ per cent.

Any raise now will aggravate the financial crises. The only way to stop the raise is to let the members of Congress know that raises at this time are not in the best interests of the nation.

Static Year In Trading Stamps

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Although it has always been quite adaptive to the changing times, the trading stamp industry has taken its lumps in the past five years.

In 1968, you may remember, fickle consumers who had been enthusiastic collectors and redeemers of stamps revolted against grocery store gimmicks and games and promotions and stamps.

Down went stamp sales, from more than $1 billion in that year, when 70 per cent of all major supermarkets offered them, to only $600 million last year. And don't forget, dollars in 1973 were worth a lot less than in 1968. But this year was supposed to be the turnaround, and it probably would have been too, except for the energy shortfall. Service stations had become big customers of stamps. But why give stamps when you can't even sell gasoline?

The industry lost 50 per cent of the service station business it had built up, and that loss can be measured in great big dollars rather than tiny-valued stamps. Service stations represented 15 per cent of total sales.

Therefore, said Lawrence Crane Jr., the new chairman of the Trading Stamp Institute of America, 1974 is likely to be a static rather than turnaround year. Crane, who heads the Quality Stamp Co., based in Memphis, Tenn., believes that stamps must be part of a positive promotion, part of a continuing and unified campaign to serve customers and to help a company maintain a service image.

When supermarket chains reduced their reliance on stamps they began promoting lower prices. But in Crane's view, that type of promotion has proven to be too costly.

Some large chains, until recently including the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., have operated in the red for months. Others have found their profit on sales dropping from 2 cents on the dollar to one-half cent.

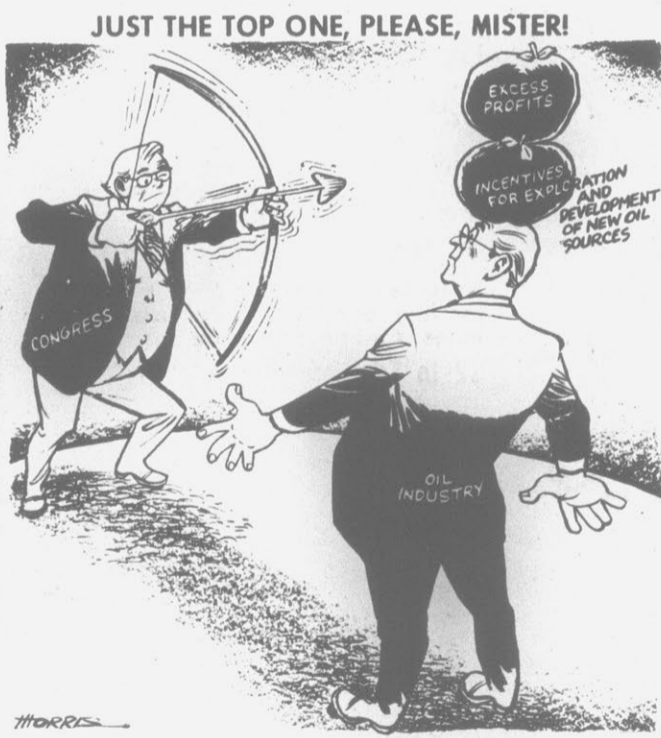

To be effective, Crane maintains, a discount operation has to go all the way toward producing a low-cost image. It must have huge outlets, capable of $250,000 sales a week. It must remain open odd hours and seven days a week.

Even so, he believes that price cutting has lost credibility. "How can you have low prices when everyone knows prices are rising?" he asked. That situation, he believes, could leave an opening for the return of stamps.

Many stamp companies have opened catalogue stores that permit them to sell in great volume. Some have opened travel agencies or otherwise diversified. But stamps remain the basic product, the hope of the future.

Do they really represent a bargain, Crane was asked? "I definitely think so," he said.

Strength For Today

SALVATION AND HEALTH
Lyman Beecher, a great evangelist who preached about one hundred and fifty years ago, was a man who in some ways was in advance of his time. He always maintained that there was a close relation between one's spiritual and physical state. When people talked to him about their desire for salvation and their realization of guilt, he sometimes scandalized them by inquiring about the state of their health. He would ask questions about what they were eating and drinking and how much sleep they were getting at night. Beecher believed, for example, that a deep sense of sin often came from indigestion.

Until a short time ago Beecher's ideas would have been considered childish naive, but today doctors know that there is a close relationship between physical and emotional states. Minute changes in body chemistry can have profound effects on the mind. So when we worry about our souls, it is a good idea to ask whether we are giving our bodies a square deal.

Nat'l Election In Britain Set Feb. 28

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Edward Heath today called a national election for Feb. 28, and asked the nation's coal miners to postpone their strike for the duration of the campaign. The walkout is due to begin Sunday.

Joe Gormley, head of the miners union, said it was his personal view "that we ought not to fight an election in the current climate and therefore a strike ought to be deferred. But that is for the Executive to decide." The Executive, the union's policy-making body, is scheduled to discuss the matter Friday.

Heath's announcement said Parliament will be dissolved Friday, and the newly elected Parliament will convene March 12. It said Queen Elizabeth II would cut short a visit to Australia and return home March 1. The queen must be here to appoint as prime minister the leader of the political party that controls a majority in the 630-seat House of Commons.

Berkeley Police In The Dark As To Kidnapped Girl's Whereabouts

By NANCY DAY
Associated Press Writer
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Authorities say they have few clues to the whereabouts of kidnapped newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst.

Neither the police nor the Hearst family has received any ransom demand or contact of any kind, Kelley said. Miss Hearst is the granddaughter of the late William Randolph Hearst, founder of the newspaper and magazine empire that bears his name.

Police said the owner of the convertible, Peter Benenson, 31, a radiation laboratory worker, had been kidnaped shortly before Miss Hearst and was bound and blindfolded in the car at the time. Police said he "didn't know what was happening."

Benenson told police the kidnapers stopped about seven blocks away from Miss Hearst's apartment and transferred her to the station wagon, described by witnesses as a white, early 1960's model Chevrolet. Benenson's convertible was abandoned and he was released unharmed.

But that was before the miners voted overwhelmingly last week to expand their slowdown into a strike to support their demand for pay raises in excess of Heath's anti-inflation ceilings.

With coal providing 70 percent of Britain's electricity, economists predict the walkout will put at least 4 million of the country's 25 million workers on the unemployed rolls by the end of this month, threaten thousands of firms with bankruptcy and bring periodic power blackouts to homes.

Possible Federal Funds Noted For Williamston

WILLIAMSTON—The possibility of future funds through a number of proposed federal programs was presented to members of Williamston's Town Board at its February meeting this week.

It was further explained that since Williamston had participated in the Governor's Award program and had received one of the awards, and has furthermore maintained a workable program in accordance with federal guidelines, Williamston meets the qualifications for rural funds under the Rural Community Development Act which has now reportedly cleared Congress.

The board appointed Chief of Police John Swain and Police Commissioner Wilbur Edwards as committee members. The two will be responsible for buying and installing equipment and for erection of an antenna.

A request by South Sea Pet Shop in Belo Shopping Center to see what could be done to permit the firm to open on Sundays was heard. The town attorney was asked to look into the request and to report to the next board meeting. Williamston has blue laws which prohibits conduct of certain business operations on Sunday.

The board also authorized the N. C. Department of Natural and Economic Resources to apply for Williamston for a federal grant planning assistance fund for fiscal year 1974-95. Some 80 towns in North Carolina are reportedly taking similar action.

In a final report, it was revealed that since July 1, 1973 a total of $403,986.36 had been collected in town taxes with a balance of $109,535.39 to be collected.

Winterville Hearing On Rezoning Set Mar. 4

WINTERVILLE—The Winterville Board of Aldermen Monday night set March 4 as the date for a public hearing to discuss the rezoning of two parcels of land.

The first request for rezoning, which came from Reynolds May, is to change three lots in the Shamrock Subdivision from residential to general business. That property is located at the intersection of Cooper Street and Secondary Road 1700. Also scheduled to be heard at the hearing is a request to change from general business to agriculture-residential the four corners in the intersection of Main Street and Secondary Road 1700.

Norman Worthington, representing the owners of Ragland Acres, requested the board to extend the town sewer lines to and include Ragland Acres, a subdivision located outside the town limits. The board agreed to extend the lines as soon as possible. The subdivision owner will purchase the materials and the town will furnish the labor to have the lines installed.

It was announced that Hilda Jones has been hired as a full time secretary to work in the Winterville Municipal Building. She will assist Town Clerk Elwood Nobles. It was stated that this is the first time the town has employed a full time secretary.

Frankie Cash, appearing before the board on behalf of Ron Braxton's science class at Conley High School, was given permission for the class to sponsor a car wash on town property on Feb. 16. The profits will be used to finance a trip the class is planning to take soon.

Winterville electrical rates have been increased five percent, effective with the March 1 bills. The increase is due to the fuel charge passed on by Greenville Utilities to the Winterville administrative unit.

Stock And Market Reports

RALEIGH (AP) (NCDA) — North Carolina egg markets continued steady Wednesday. Supplies fully adequate, demand fairly good. Weighted average prices for small lot sales of consumer grade eggs in cartons delivered nearby outlets: Grade A large whites 79.73, medium whites 77.72, small whites 72.82.

RALEIGH (AP) (NCDA) — Corn and soybean prices were weaker on the state's leading grain markets Wednesday. No. 2 yellow shelled corn was quoted at mostly 2.90-2.95 per bushel. No. 1 yellow soybeans were mostly 6.10-6.20 per bushel.

RALEIGH (AP) (NCDA) — North Carolina hogs were 75 to mostly $1.00 higher today. Tops of 42.50-43.50 at Kinston, Benson and Lumberton; 42.00-42.50 Rocky Mount; 40.00-42.00 Wilson and High Falls; 43.00 Clinton, Fayetteville, Dunn, Elizabethtown, Pink Hill, Pine Level, Chadbourne, Ayden and Laurinburg; 40.00 Salisbury.

RALEIGH (AP) (NCDA) — North Carolina f.o.b. dock broiler market unsettled to stronger today. Live supplies fully adequate and demand good. Weights desirable. F.O.B. dock weighted average price too unsettled to release. Estimates slaughter today 1,166,000 head. North Carolina hen market steady with firm undertone. Supplies of heavy type adequate and demand good. Heavies, at farm, 14 cents.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market drifted aimlessly today, clinging to a slim early rise.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at 11:30 a.m. was up 1.18 at 825.80, while advances led declines on the New York Stock Exchange by almost 2 to 1.

"The market continues to be on dead center," remarked Larry Wachtel, an analyst with Bache & Co.

"The volume is very lackluster," he added. "There's no big outpouring of demand here."

Brokers said investors were awaiting the outcome of meetings next week among the Arab oil producers on the fate of the oil embargo.

On the NYSE, Walt Disney Productions was up 3/8 to 43, Fannie Mae rose 1/8 to 20 3/4, and American Motors fell 1/8 to 11.

Eastman Kodak, which received unfavorable mention in a brokerage house report, fell 2 1/2 to 103 1/2.

Mountain Fuel Supply fell 1/4 to 63. Salt Lake County is investigating some of the transactions that occurred last month in the stock.

treated seriously and investigated thoroughly, and I feel that Deputies should be assigned distinct territories and become well acquainted with that territory for the better serving of civil and criminal processes. If elected, I commit myself to serving full time as Sheriff, regardless of the hours involved, and to make myself available to every citizen of Pitt County. I believe that Deputies and the Sheriff should be well-trained, and that compensation should be commensurate with the training and work done. Since law enforcement on all levels is becoming a highly technical profession, a regular training program is an absolute necessity. If elected, I will render to all of the people of Pitt County, the best and most efficient law enforcement that can be provided."

Eden Post For ECU Student

Gilbert D. Davis Jr., a graduate student in the East Carolina University Department of Health and Physical Education, has accepted the newly created position of parks and recreation director for Eden. Davis, 28, is a graduate of ECU and an Air Force veteran. He was formerly sports editor of the Washington, N.C., Daily News and has been a part-time employee of the Greenville Recreation Department since 1970.

DRAW ONE, WIN TWELVE — Soviet chess master Boris Spassky studies a move Wednesday during one of 13 simultaneous matches he was playing in an exhibition at the United Nations. The chess master won 12 of the games, forcing his opponents to resign, and played a 13th match to a draw. (AP Wirephoto)

New Home For Dog Avalanche Survivor

TERRACE, B.C. (AP) — Lady, a pet dog that survived a northern British Columbia avalanche that killed her owner and six other persons, has found a new home on a farm. The 2-year-old dog, a cross between a Husky and a Sa-moyed belonged to Denise Daumont, 18. Miss Daumont and her father were killed on Jan. 22, along with five others, when tons of snow crushed the family's service station and motel on Highway 16.

Denise's brother, David, 21, found the dog three days after the avalanche, sitting hungry but unharmed atop the debris. The dog apparently dug her way out from under more than six feet of ice and snow.

"She was Denise's dog and every time I look at Lady she reminds me of what happened... I can't stand to keep her," Mrs. Daumont said.

She turned the dog over to the local branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals where it had six weeks to be adopted or destroyed. But Tom McMillan of the southwestern province town of Burnaby heard of the dog's plight Wednesday night and offered Lady a home. He said the dog was to be flown to him today.

County Commissioners also agreed to act as purchasing agent for the Robersonville and Williamston Rescue Squads. Two rescue vehicles are due to be purchased, with assistance from the N. C. Department of Human Resources.

In other actions, the commissioners approved removing the Henry White Road, No. 1115, from the road program as all efforts to secure right of ways have been exhausted; and passed a resolution of support for the National Guard and the Reserve Forces of the U. S.

Investigators Given Mandate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee, with a solid mandate from the House, is preparing to go after any evidence it needs for its investigation of possible grounds for impeaching President Nixon.

Rodino said he intends to seek voluntary compliance with the committee's requests before turning to the subpoena power. The resolution approved by the House also gives the committee authority to compel answers to written questions it submits and to take depositions.

Rodino, repeating a pledge to do all he can to wind up the impeachment investigation by April 30, succeeded in heading off an effort by some Republicans to write the date into the subpoena resolution.

The committee's function is to make a recommendation to the House as to whether it should vote articles of impeachment against Nixon. If the House does vote for impeachment, it would require a two-thirds vote in the Senate to convict the President and remove him from office.

$200 Given By Key Club

"It's a part of Greenville. The people involved are friends of ours, people we go to school with, the future of Greenville," Randy Alford said Wednesday in presenting a check for $200 to the Pitt County Boys' Club.

Randy, president of the Rose High Key Club made the presentation to Boys' Club Board of Director's President Mrs. Etsil Gordon in the presence of Monte Williams, Boy of the Year for 1973 and Matthew Ward, Director of Activities for the Greenville Boys' Club.

The Rose High Key Club, sponsored by Kiwanis, raises funds through various projects to contribute to social agencies, groups of organizations. David Bumgarner is advisor to club members.

The $200 donated Wednesday to the Boys' Club was raised by selling Kiwanis peanuts, holding bottle drives, and through donations to the club.

Seize Heroin In Charlotte Raid

CHARLOTTE (AP)—Heroin worth about $25,000 wholesale was seized in a raid on a Charlotte house Wednesday, police said.

They added that two men and two women were arrested and charged with felonious possession.

The police said the 130 grams of Mexican heroin, most of it unadulterated, would be worth much more than $25,000 when cut for sale to users.

East Carolina Skins Buffalo, 89-61

Conley Captures Tourney Crown

BETHEL—D. H. Conley High School captured its third straight Eastern Carolina Conference wrestling tournament championship last night, easily outdistancing the rest of the league.

The Vikings finished the meet with 109½ points, while runner-up North Pitt, the host team, had 75 points. Farmville Central finished third with 64, while Ayden-Grifton was next with 50. Southern Wayne brought up the rear with 39½.

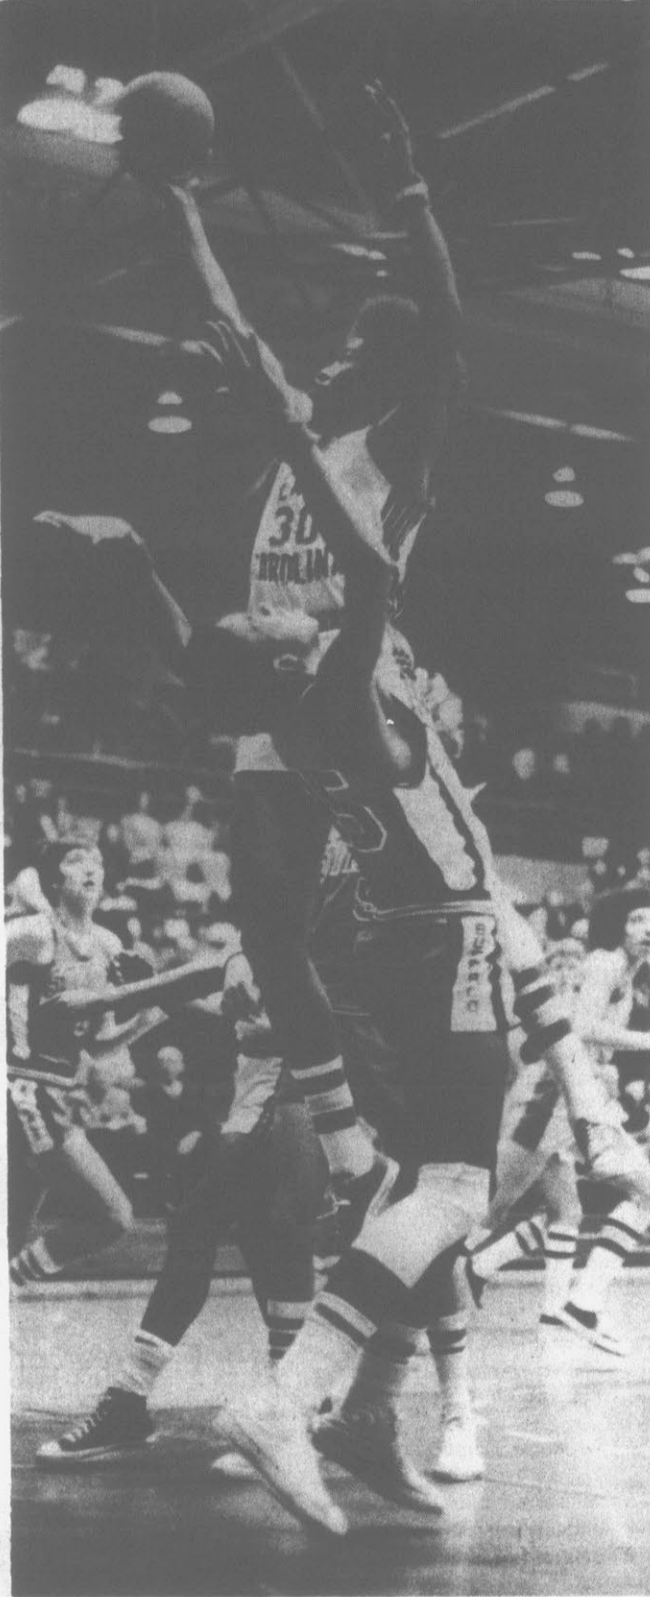

Conley won seven of the 13 individual championships, and sent men to the finals in two other weight classes. North Pitt and Farmville Central each won two classes, while Ayden-Grifton and Southern Wayne won one each.

North Pitt's Joey Nelson, who won the 101-pound class was voted the meet's Outstanding Wrestler. He won all three of his matches by pins to gain the title.

For Conley, the victory kept up its march started when the conference formed. The Vikings have won each of the regular season titles and conference titles since the league began three years ago.

Baby Pirates Win 1st Game

East Carolina University's junior varsity snapped its losing streak last night, downing the Postmen, 49-37, in the second.

Cleveland Taylor led V-A with 37 points, while Walter Hill hit 16, Eddie Chance had 12, Charlie Jenkins had 11 and Moses Joyner had 10. For the Post Office, Thomas Perkins had 18, Frank Ligon had 14 and Douglas Teel got 12.

Union Carbide held to its lead with a 69-61 win over Grady-White in the final game of the night. Union Carbide moved to a 32-26 lead in the first half. They outthrew the Boatmen, 37-35, in the final period to wrap it up.

Alphonso Mayo led the Battlermen with 26, while Garland Warren had 20 and Tommy Roach had 14. For Grady-White, Frank Brown had 27 and Marvin Hardy had 14.

Al Edwards sparked the victory, pouring in 28 points, 11 of them coming in the second half. He hit 12 of 18 shots from the floor, and made four of six free throws.

The Chowan Braves moved out into as much as an eight point lead in the first half of the game, 18-10, but the Baby Bucs fought back and finally tied it up at the end of the first half, 35-35.

In the second, the Bucs took the initial lead, but lost it back to Chowan, which built up a four-point lead on several occasions before losing it back to the Bucs. Their last four point edge came with 9:59 left when Greg Wilson hit two free throws for a 62-58 margin. East Carolina tied it at 62-62, and again at 64-64 before taking a 66-64 lead on Al McCrimmons' basket. Chowan tied it up again at 66-66, but the Bucs pushed ahead after that behind the scoring of Edwards, moving out to a 10-point lead, 84-74, with 3:48 left. From there, the Bucs continued to pull away, leading by as much as 15 at the end.

Besides Edwards' 28, Len Blackley had 19, McCrimmons had 12 and Larry Modlin had 11. Chowan was led by Keith McClearn with 23, Greg Wilson with 17, and Rick Weires and Barry Parker, each with 12.

The Bucs host the William & Mary Papooses Saturday at 5:45 p.m.

Chowan: McClearn 23, Wilson 17, Byrd 3, Weires 12, Ward 3, Parker 12, Stewart 3, Johnston 8, Barrett, Dance.
East Carolina: Flye, Durham 4, Pugh, To, Williams 6, Brogan, Ty, Williams, McCrimmons 12, Carraway 8, Harris 2, Modlin 11, Miller 6, Blackley 19, Edwards 28.

East Carolina University's Pirates warmed up for a final dash down the Southern Conference gauntlet last night with an 89-61 romp over Buffalo State University.

The Pirates didn't shoot well in the game, but their defense, their rebounding and aggressiveness more than made up for it. The Bucs hit only 40.6 per cent of their shots, but they took a total of 101, a school record. The old mark was 99 against Jacksonville in 1969-70.

They made just 41 of those, but that was 14 more than the Bengals were able to put in. The Bucs also had only 11 turnovers, one of their lows for the season, while they forced 26 by the Buffalo team.

On the boards, the Pirates were strong, pulling down 54 individual rebounds. Buffalo got only 35 loose balls, with Jay Hickey getting 12 of them.

The Bucs were led by Larry Hunt with 22 rebounds, while Nicky White had 10 and Gregg Ashorn had seven, and he didn't play at all in the second half.

In fact, only three of the Pirates played as much as half of the game, Roger Atkinson with 21 minutes, Donnie Owens with a team high of 32 and White with 25. The remaining nine all had less than 20 minutes each.

Perhaps the most spectacular performance was put on by Chuch Mohn who came in with less than eight minutes left in the

Crumpler Inks Buffalo Contract

East Carolina running back Carlester Crumpler has signed with the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League, it was announced yesterday afternoon.

Crumpler was the fourth round draft pick of the Bills, and went to visit their offices over the weekend. He agreed to terms with them at that meeting.

The Southern Conference Player of the Year as a junior, Crumpler was slowed by injuries during his senior year, but still managed to crack the 1,000-yard barrier for the second straight year. He missed out on the exclusive 3,000-yard club by just over 100 yards.

During his career at East Carolina, he set school and Southern Conference records in touchdowns made, total points scored, rushes, and yards rushing both for single seasons and for a career.

"I'm very happy about it," Crumpler said this morning, "I was pleased with what they offered me."

Terms of his contract were not disclosed, but it was believed to be a multi-year pact. Crumpler said he was to report in March for rookie orientation, and to receive off-season training instructions. "I really don't know what their schedule is right now beyond that," he said.

Crumpler said the Buffalo management said that he could play in either of the two running back positions, because he had the tools for the job. "They said that they really were lucky during the past year since O. J. Simpson didn't get hurt. They didn't have anybody to back him up, and I think that's what they're looking to me for."

The big back said that his wife and family are quite happy over the contract, and agreed with him that Buffalo was the place for him to go. Although he was drafted by both the Canadian League and the new World Football League, he didn't talk with their representatives. "I just felt that Buffalo was the place to be," he said. "They are a young team, they have a great offensive line, and they are winning. One of my long range goals is to play with a Super Bowl team, and I just have the feeling that this might be the year for them, and I want to be a part of it. The coaches and players are excited and have a lot of enthusiasm, and I feel that can go a long way this year."

Crumpler is the first of the two Pirates drafted this year to sign. Also drafted was teammate Carl Summerell, who was picked by the New York Giants of the NFL in the fourth round of their draft, and by the Washington-Baltimore franchise of the WFL in their eighth round.

game and hit on six of nine shots for 12 points.

Owens, who also scored 12 points, added 10 assists to his credit, constantly sparking the fast break.

For a while at the start of the game, it looked like the Pirates might run Buffalo right back to New York, as they blazed out to a 20-8 lead in the first six minutes of play.

But after that, they cooled off, as their shots started to miss, and they scored only 18 more points in the next 14 minutes, going the next five without a basket.

In the second half, the Buc attack warmed up again, and they streaked in 51 points, but still didn't shoot well.

The Bucs never trailed in the game. Roger Atkinson put them in front after nearly a minute after stealing the ball, and Owens hit a jumper with 18:33 left for a 4-0 lead. Buffalo finally got on the board with a shot by Greg Miller.

The two swapped baskets until Reggie Lee hit on a fast break to make it 12-6. Owens followed with another jumper, and after another exchange, Robert Geter hit a pair to up the lead to 20-8 with 14:29 to go.

But the Bucs cooled there, getting only two free throws from Nicky White in the next five minutes. Buffalo didn't do much better, however, cutting the lead by only four, to 22-14. The Bucs pulled away again after that, going out by as much

Coke Wins 11th Game

Coca-Cola kept rolling along in the City Basketball League last night, capturing its 11th straight victory without a loss.

In the opening contest of the three, Kentucky Fried Chicken rolled to a 93-64 victory over Carolina Dairy. By the end of the first half, KFC had built up a 40-30 lead. They continued to roll along in the second half, outshooting the Dairymen, 53-34, to win handily.

Al Faber led KFC with 31 points, while Kris Dominick and Bob Doubet each had 12, Richard Slach had 11 and Joe Gaddis had 10. For Carolina Dairy, Tommy Jordan had 16 and Lester Wells had 14.

Coke ripped the Eagles in the second game, 100-56. By the end of the first half, Coke had rolled up a 48-30 lead. They kept the pressure up in the second half, outscoring the Eagles, 52-26, to complete the romp.

Jim Modlin led Coke with 28 points, while Wayne Norris had 25, Dave Franklin had 20, and Gary Rabon had 12. The Eagles were led by Charles Meeks with 20 and Karl Hardee with 19.

In the final game, Edwards nipped the Book Exchange, 59-56. The Exchange pushed into a 32-24 lead after one half, but couldn't hold it. Edwards outthrew them, 35-26, in the second half, just enough to win it.

Wayne Brown led Edwards with 23, while Cleveland Johnson and Linwood Hyman each had 10. Dave Stephenson had 15 and Jack Hodge had 11 for the Exchange.

When a standardbred reaches the age of 15, U.S. Trotting Assn. regulations state that the horse must be retired.

Union Carbide Holds To Lead

Union Carbide held onto its lead in Division II of the Industrial Basketball League with a victory last night.

In the opening game, second place Empire Brush downed winless Prepsirt, 86-70. By the end of the half, Empire Brush had worked up a 46-25 lead. They were outthrew by Prepsirt, 45-40, but it made no difference, in the second half.

Edward Coburn led the Brushmen with 33 points, while Bobby Parker had 27 and James Parker had 17. For Prepsirt, Zeno Smith and Alton Ellis each had 20, Clifton Gray had 16 and William Johnson had 14.

Vermont-American downed the Post Office, 86-60, in the second game. Vermont-American built up a 37-23 lead in the first half of the game, then

Starless Hawks Top The Lakers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Give the Atlanta Hawks an E for effort.

That's what it took for the Pete Maravich-less, Lou Hudson-less Hawks to knock off the Jerry West-less Los Angeles Lakers 107-103 in a National Basketball Association game Wednesday night. Maravich is suspended and Hudson is injured.

"Effort was the keynote of this game," said Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons. "We had not shot well at the half, but I noticed that we had outrebanded them 30-14 so I figured we had a good shot at winning. Our shooting didn't get any better in the second half, but we kept up the effort."

Elsewhere in the NBA, the Boston Celtics nipped the Milwaukee Bucks 105-104, the Chicago Bulls cowed the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 112-95, the Capital Bullets downed the Phoenix Suns 109-101, the Buffalo Braves trounced the Philadelphia 76ers 114-98 and the Seattle SuperSonics beat the Portland Trail Blazers 107-94.

Colonels Rip Cougars To Win

By FRED ROTHENBERG
AP Sports Writer

If the basketball court is the Kentucky Colonels' office, don't expect any outside charity from them.

They all gave at the office. The Colonels registered a whopping 34 assists Wednesday night and showed Carolina no mercy, blasting the Cougars 125-111.

With the victory, second-place Kentucky still trails the New York Nets, 121-100 winners over the Indiana Pacers, by one game in the crowded section of the American Basketball Association's East Division. Carolina fell to two games off the pace.

Elsewhere in the ABA, the Utah Stars downed the San Antonio Spurs 88-81 and the San Diego Conquistadors pounded the Memphis Tams 136-120.

Newly acquired guard John Roche was the biggest contributor to Kentucky's cause.

"Roche is as sure a ball-handler as there is," said Kentucky Coach Babe McCarthy.

Roche, who had been wearing New York Nets letters on his uniform since being drafted out of South Carolina in 1971, was traded to the Colonels late last week for Wendell Ladner and Mike Gale.

"We hated to give up Wendell or Mike," said Kentucky owner

Ellie Brown. "But we wanted Roche in the worst way. We think he's potentially the best guard in basketball."

Some of that potential was realized against the Cougars as the 24-year-old sharpshooter was on target for 17 points.

Mack Calvin topped Carolina with 29 points and Tom Owens added 25.

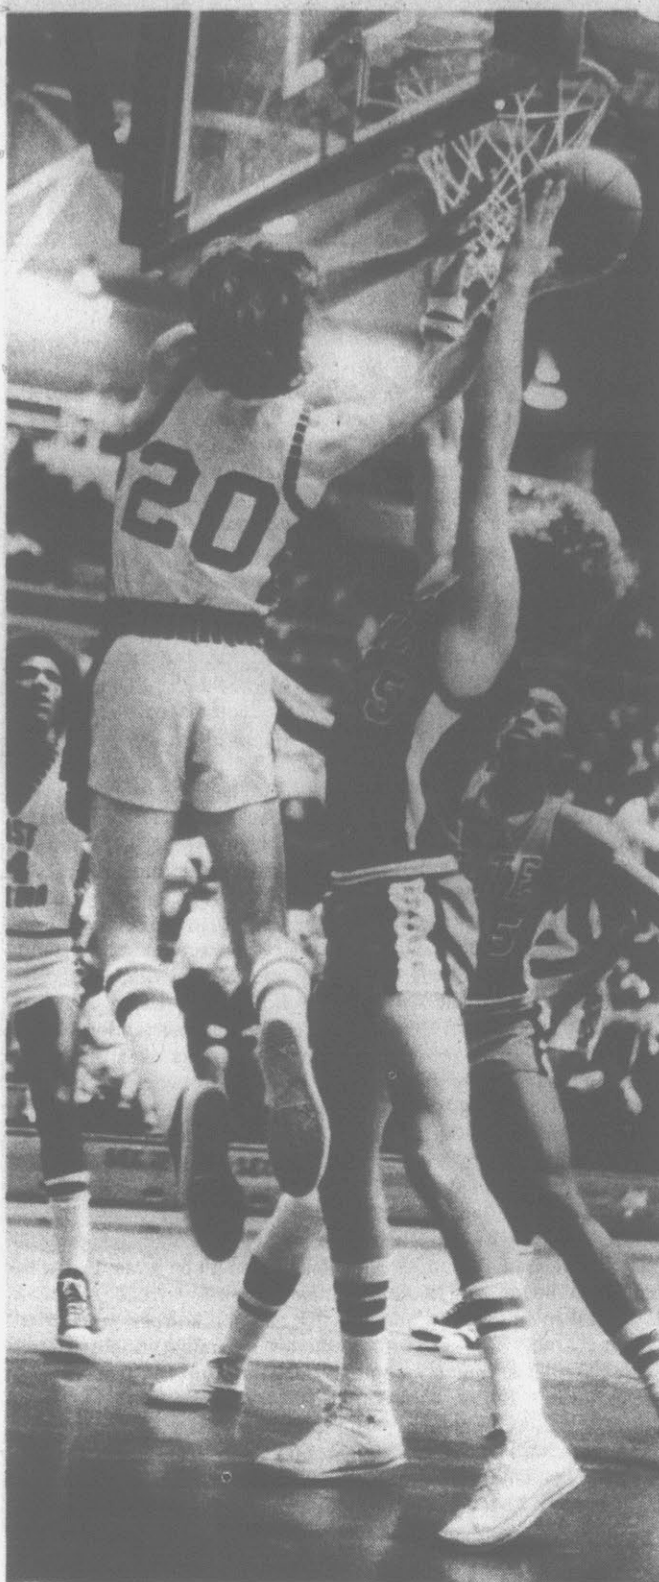

Nets 121, Pacers 100
Indiana was ABA champion the past two seasons, but it's the Nets who are making first-place noises. New York ran the Pacers off the court in the third period, snapping a 53-53 half-time deadlock with a 35-19 surge.

Stars 88, Spurs 81
Utah ran off the last six points of the game to get by San Antonio.

Conquistadors 136, Tams 120
Stew Johnson, Caldwell Jones and Bo Lamar each had 23 points and Travis Grant popped in 22 for the Q's, who never trailed.

George Thompson had 28 points and Randy Denton 21 for the Tams.

In the National Basketball Association it was: Buffalo 114, Philadelphia 98; Atlanta 107, Los Angeles 103; Boston 105, Milwaukee 104; Capital 109, Phoenix 101; Chicago 112, Kansas City-Omaha 95, and Seattle 107, Portland 94.

Elder Wants Goal: Victory

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — Mark Hayes had the lead, Lee Elder had the goal, and Arnold Palmer had an observation.

Hayes, a softly-drawing native of Oklahoma and an obscure rookie on the pro golf tour, managed a windblown, four-under-par 68 for the first-round lead in the five-day, 90-hole Bob Hope Desert Classic Wednesday.

"I'm kind of surprised to be leading," said Hayes, 24, who has been on the tour only since last fall. "I thought the scores would be lower."

A tricky, gusty, swirling, desert wind took care of that, however, and left Hayes, Elder and Mike McCullough the only players under 70 after the first of five 18-hole rounds.

Elder, one of the few blacks on the tour, and McCullough, a one-time schoolteacher in Monroe, Mich., tied for second at 69.

"I want to win and I want to get in the Masters," said Elder, a consistent money winner in his half-dozen years on the pro tour but never a winner. A black has not yet played in the Masters. To be eligible, Elder needs a victory.

Lebron Harris, Rick Acton and New Zealand's John Lister had 70s. Of those six leaders, only Harris has scored a regular tour victory. The game's big guns were swept back by the sandstorms kicked up by the gusty winds.

Palmer, however, refused to take refuge in excuse of weather after his fat, four-over-par 76. Palmer's victory in this tournament last year has been his only tour title since 1972. "The weather wasn't all that bad," he said. "I made some bad judgments and my chipping was just awful."

Pearson Enters Fewer Events

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — David Pearson says his role in auto racing this year will be that of "a gentleman driver out to win the big ones."

The greying, 39-year-old three-time stock car champ said Wednesday, "I'm going to drive as hard as ever in the races I do run, but I'm going to have more weekends with my family than I did last year."

"We're going to enter fewer races, only 15 big money events, and we're going to try to win them. But there won't be as much pressure as in past years. We definitely aren't looking for another championship."

The "we" means Pearson and the famed Woods Brothers crew of Stuart, Va., who together have banked almost $400,000 in prize money in two years.

Pearson, who joined Richard Petty last season as the only $1 million career winners in stock car racing, was the scourge of the Southern ovals in 1973 when he won 11 events, finished second in two others, third in still another and fifth in 18 outings.

The 1971 Mercury he drove in all of his starts last year has been retired, and the Spartanburg, S.C., ace will have a newly-built 1973 model for the Feb. 17 Daytona 500, highlight of the 16th edition of Daytona "Speed Weeks."

"The 1973 model is more aerodynamic than the 1974's," Pearson said, "and should make a better race car. If it's anything like as good as the old car, we very well could have another good season."

Pearson's take from the Winston Cup Grand National circuit totaled about $260,000 last year.

The 15-year veteran, named the national driver of the year in 1973, also proved last October that he's a pretty good sports car pilot. He was one of 12 drivers invited to compete in an International Race of Champions series, the first three heats of which were run at Riverside, Calif.

And he was one of six survivors of the original dozen who made it into the final race in the series, scheduled for Feb. 15 over Daytona International Speedway's 3.81-mile road course. The six finalists will drive identical Porsche Carrera coupes.

"I'm looking forward to the final race," Pearson said. "The little Porsches are fantastic race cars, real nimble and quick. And the other drivers are right off the top of the heap in ability. When you beat them, you've done a full day's work."

His competition will be Mark Donohue, A.J. Foyt, Peter Revson, George Follmer and Bobby Unser. The winner will collect upwards of $50,000.

Pearson says he has given no "real thought" to retiring. "I know it's around the corner somewhere, but I'm going to leave it there for awhile."

One Thousand Tough For Duke

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That 1,000th basketball victory is proving elusive for the Duke Blue Devils.

They have 999 since they started playing the game as Trinity College 68 years ago, but have lost their last three.

The latest loss was 74-67 to Wake Forest Wednesday night, the third time this season the Deacons have beaten the Blue Devils.

In another Atlantic Coast Conference game, Mo Howard scored five of his 9 points in a 20-second span to help seventh-ranked Maryland to a an 88-81 victory at Virginia.

And Jeff Resinger scored six unanswered points to give Clemson a lead it never lost in a 73-65 victory at home over East Tennessee State.

ACC teams are idle tonight. North Carolina State will play Georgia Tech and then North Carolina will play Furman in a doubleheader in the Charlotte, N.C., Coliseum Friday night.

Duke led 44-42 at halftime. But Bob Parrish sank a basket at 8:06 in the second half to give Wake Forest the lead at 58-57, and the Deacons never trailed thereafter.

Bobby Dwyer, a senior guard, came off the bench in the second half and settled down the Deacons with cool passing, ball handling and free throw shooting. He scored, 10 points.

The leading scorers with 20 apiece were Cal Stamp of Wake Forest and Bob Fleischer of Duke. Pete Kramer had 18 for Duke.

Wake Forest is 3-4 in the conference and 11-7 in all games. Duke is 1-6 and 8-10.

Virginia led most of the way in the first half, and went into intermission with a 42-41 edge, before losing its eighth straight game.

Maryland took the lead on a seven-point streak in the second half, but Virginia fought back to a 52-50 advantage.

The Maryland Terps outscored the Cavaliers 16-4 in a four-minute span to take the lead at 68-56. Virginia narrowed its disadvantage to 68-67 with eight minutes left.

From there it was nip and tuck until the last seconds, when Howard took over.

Wally Walker of Virginia was the game's high scorer with 31 points, hitting 15 of 20 from the floor. Virginia's scoring leader, Gus Gerard, was cold from the floor, making only six of 21. He ended with 16 points.

Lucas had 28 points. Marland hit 60.3 per cent from the floor, including 66.5 per cent in the second half.

Maryland is 4-3 in the league and 14-4 overall. Virginia is 2-5 and 5-12.

In winning its 11th game against 8 losses, Clemson led by as many as 19 points against East Tennessee State.

The Buccaneers cut the lead to three points with three minutes left, but the Tigers were eight points ahead at the end.

The top scorer with 27 points was Kenny Reynolds of East Tennessee State, which suffered its 12th loss against 7 victories.

The best Clemson scorers were Terrell Suit with 15 points and Resinger and Wayne Croft with 14 apiece.

Clemson hit 37 per cent from the floor, while the Bucs managed only 28 per cent.

Furman, Davidson, William & Mary Claim Southern Victories

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Conference basketball leader Furman made a comeback drive Wednesday night to defeat league doormat Appalachian State, but Richmond found the going a bit tougher at Davidson.

The two games were among three conference tilts Wednesday night. William & Mary squeezed by Virginia Military in the other game.

Davidson's 93-72 win over the visiting Spiders upped its conference record to 4-3, a bit of improvement the fourth-place Wildcats could use.

The Wildcats built a 41-35 halftime lead and increased the advantage to a 25-point margin, 71-46, before walking away with the victory.

Richmond's shooting from the floor was flat at 38.5 per cent while Davidson hit 61.3 per cent of its shots.

Furman had to muster a rally after trailing most of the first half. The Paladins took the lead late in the second half and went on to beat the Mountaineers 89-72.

Bud Bierly accounted for most of Furman's thrust with 21 points.

William & Mary and Virginia Military were evenly matched in their game at Lexington, with a bad bounce making the difference.

George Borojevich is probably still talking about "the one that didn't go in" and cost VMI a 67-65 loss at the hands of the Indians.

Borojevich, his VMI team trailing by only one point with less than a minute to play, shot what he hoped would be the game-winning goal.

But the ball hit the rim and bounced over the backboard and out of play.

W&M ran the clock down and made another point after VMI fouled in desperation.

The Indians' Mike Arizin, ranked fifth in the conference scoring race, scored 25 points to increase his total to 308, leaving him with a 17.1-point average after 18 games.

He moved a step closer to fourth-ranked Fessor Leonard of Furman, whose 288 points in 16 games gives him a 17.5-point average.

Another Furman player who holds third place in the conference scoring battle, Clyde Mayes, kept his average intact. After his 18 points Wednesday night, he has 331 points in 19 games for a 17.4-point average.

Aron Stewart, leading scorer in the conference, had 19 points against Davidson. That dropped his average per game from 27 to 26.4 points in 15 outings.

But Stewart's closest competitor in the scoring race, Stan Davis of Appalachian State, also had a poor night.

Davis managed 15 points against Furman, although his per-game average had been 24.9 points. His new total of 363 points in 15 games dropped him back to a 24.2-point average.

In the lone outside encounter Wednesday night, East Carolina defeated Buffalo State 89-61.

All conference teams are idle tonight.

Watergate Counsel To Speak At ECU Feb. 13

Rufus L. Edmisten, chief counsel and staff director of Sen. Sam J. Erwin's Subcommittee on Separation of Powers, and deputy counsel to the Senate Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities ("Watergate Committee"), will speak to East Carolina University students on press-government relationships Wednesday, Feb. 13.

RUFUS EDMISTEN

Edmisten is scheduled to speak to journalism students at 2 p.m. and at 3 p.m. will hold an informal question and answer session in 306 Austin Building. All interested persons may attend the 3 p.m. session. A former counsel for the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights where he specialized in the rights of American Indians, the separation of Church and state and civil rights legislation, Edmisten was named to his position on the Subcommittee on Separation of Powers by Sen. Erwin in 1969.

During his chief counselship of the Separation of Powers Subcommittee, Edmisten has made numerous addresses regarding such Subcommittee studies as impoundment of funds by the executive branch, Presidential abuses of the pocket veto power and the assertion of "executive privilege."

A native of Boone, Edmisten is a graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill and has the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree, with honors, from George Washington University.

In addition to his professional interests, Edmisten raises cattle and horses with his father in Boone. His wife, Jane Moretz Edmisten, is also a native of Boone. She is an alumna of UNC-Chapel Hill and holds the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree with honors from George Washington University.

Both Edmisten served on the George Washington "Law Review" as law students.

By BILL STOCKTON
AP Science Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sunshine is limitless and free. On a clear day, there is enough energy in the sunlight on a square foot of ground to keep a Christmas tree light burning.

But few Americans are likely to meet even a small portion of their daily energy needs with solar energy before 1985 or beyond, despite the immense promise its advocates claim.

The harsh economics of energy supply and demand are responsible.

The cost of building and operating machines to collect and transform sunshine into usable energy is expected to be quite high.

So great will be the expense that only as the cost of traditional energy sources continues to climb will solar energy compete with oil, coal, gas or nuclear power.

Solar energy enthusiasts are excited. They say harnessing the sun to supply a significant portion of America's energy needs will become increasingly economically attractive.

Nevertheless, they cautiously outline their grand schemes in terms of decades, not years.

"Solar energy is very much in its infancy. It's extremely optimistic to expect it to contribute one per cent of total energy demand in the country in 20 years," said Rep. Mike McCormack, D-Wash., chairman of the House subcommittee on energy.

Some energy experts anticipate that by 2020 solar energy might provide one-third of America's energy needs.

"We can't afford not to lay the solar energy groundwork now," said Dr. Paul Donovan, head of the National Science Foundation energy policy office.

Last spring President Nixon directed the National Science Foundation to coordinate the government's solar energy research effort.

Federal support jumped from about $100,000 a year in two prior decades to $1 million in fiscal year 1971. This year it is estimated at $13.2 million and is expected to swell in fiscal 1975 to $32 million. By 1979 the annual budget might approach $50 million.

Solar energy would touch Americans first in the heating and cooling of homes.

Engineers say there are no technical barriers in the way of house-size heating and cooling units. All that is needed is the industrial capability to mass produce units for about $3,000. They also must be easily operated by the homeowner and manufacturers must provide reliable service.

"We can lay out on paper right now a scheme to build 100,000 units at about $3,000 each that looks perfect. All we have to do is prove that we're right," said William Woodward, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's space propulsion and power division.

The space agency would have a major role in a solar heating and cooling demonstration project under a bill now before the House of Representatives. Introduced last fall by McCormack, it authorizes expenditure of $50 million over five years to install 4,000 solar heating and cooling units in homes around the country.

A central heating and air-conditioning unit in a new home now costs about $2,000. Solar energy advocates estimate that the added $1,000 to $2,000 investment for a solar unit could be recouped during several years use through an annual fuel saving of $200 to $300.

Such units would require a backup energy source such as gas or fuel oil for successive cloudy days.

Farther in the future are large central power stations which will convert sunshine into electricity, generating as much energy as large fossil fuel or nuclear plants.

The most technically feasible project in the next few years will be construction of solar energy farms in the desert Southwest that would heat water to drive generators.

Even farther in the future is a giant satellite orbiting the earth and converting sunlight into microwave radiation and beaming it to earth. The radiation would be converted into electricity to be fed into power lines.

Scout Earns Eagle Badge

ALEXANDER WILCOX

Alexander Wilcox, son of Grant Wilcox of Chicago, Ill. and Mrs. Faye Wilcox of Greenville, received the Eagle Scout award during court of honor ceremonies at Mt. Calvary Free Will Baptist Church recently.

Speaker for the event was Ray Parker, scout executive of the East Carolina Council. The award was presented by Bernard Hasselrig, chairman of the Sunrise District.

Mrs. Wilcox received a pendant during the ceremonies. Wilcox is a member of Troop 191, sponsored by Mt. Calvary FWB Church, and is a junior assistant scoutmaster.

Set Pickup Of Clothing

The clothing pickup conducted by Church World Service will be held Feb. 18 at St. James United Methodist Church.

Clothing should be taken to the church by Feb. 15 if possible.

All types of children's clothes are needed, both heavy and lightweight. Everything must be clean, mended and in good condition.

New clothing is preferred but used clothing is also accepted.

Contributors are also asked to give 10 cents per pound of clothing to help cover the cost of shipping.

The clothes, prior to being taken to the Greenville pickup point, should be packed in sturdy, easily-handled cardboard boxes, weighing no more than 40 pounds per box. The boxes should be tied securely and have the name and address of the church on each box. The number of pounds and contents of each box should also be indicated on the outside cover.

Dubious Over Controls' End

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Nixon administration has told Congress it plans to end most wage and price controls by April 30 and proposes to rely in large part on persuasion in helping to hold down prices.

To dubious senators who wondered if this would be enough, Director John T. Dunlop of the Cost of Living Council said: "We ought not to underestimate the power of persuasion compared with the power to order people."

Dunlop said the administration wants authority to expand the Cost of Living Council into an umbrella agency that would coordinate economic policies of other government agencies.

It also would have authority to monitor anti-inflation commitments made by industries, to hold public hearings and require reports from the private sector on wage and price activities.

Dunlop and Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz told a Senate Banking Committee subcommittee Wednesday that the administration wants to maintain mandatory controls only over the health and petroleum industries after April 30, the date the present controls program will expire.

Shultz said the administration may propose continuing controls over one or two additional industries. Dunlop indicated to newsmen that the construction industry could be one of these.

But for all intents and purposes, the administration is proposing to terminate the 2½-year-old experiment with mandatory wage and price controls that started with a price freeze in August of 1971.

Death of the controls program apparently will be unannounced in Congress as well as in the administration. Not a single voice was raised in the subcommittee in favor of continuing them.

One Day For Inventors

WASHINGTON (AP)—Everybody knows that Tom Edison invented the electric light bulb and the phonograph but...

How many know that Hedy Lamarr, the movie actress, holds a patent as coinventor of a complex communications system designed to direct torpedoes at moving ship targets?

Or that Mrs. Richard Rodgers, wife of the composer, invented the "Johnny Mop," a device for cleaning toilet bowls?

Or that actress Lillian Russell patented a dresser-trunk in 1912?

Well, the U.S. Patent Office can vouch for their credentials. And, if you want to tip your hat to them — and to earners of nearly 4 million other American patents since the birth of the Republic — you can do so on Feb. 11, the second annual National Inventors' Day.

Coincident with Thomas A. Edison's birthday, that's the date set aside by Congress last year to honor "the important role played by inventors in promoting progress in the useful arts and in recognition of the invaluable contribution of inventors to the welfare of our people."

Courts Lack Power, Says Nixon

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has given a federal judge very little new to ponder in response to the judge's request for an updated and more specific statement of why he is withholding White House tapes from the Senate Watergate committee.

In a five-paragraph letter delivered Wednesday to U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell, the President restated his argument that the court lacks the power to decide the dispute between the executive and legislative branches of government. He asserted executive privilege for all of the five tapes demanded by the committee in a subpoena issued last July.

The committee's intention to make the conversations public and the effect that might have on any future Watergate prosecutions were cited by the President as his primary reasons for withholding them.

Nixon noted that the tapes turned over to the special Watergate prosecution were for use in secret grand jury deliberations.

Last Jan. 25, Gesell issued an order saying the President's prior claims of executive privilege were "too general and not sufficiently contemporaneous." He asked Nixon for a signed statement "addressed to specific portions of the subpoenaed tape recordings" saying which parts he still wants to withhold and why he believes giving them to the committee would not be in the public interest.

Gesell has before him the committee's lawsuit seeking a judgment upholding its right to subpoena the tapes. Gesell threw out committee subpoenas demanding nearly 500 tapes.

In related developments: —The committee was scheduled to meet in closed session (2:30 p.m., EDT) to discuss what to do about special prosecutor Leon Jaworski's request that it delay issuance of any report that might prejudice forthcoming Watergate trials.

—Jaworski filed a memorandum with Gesell in which he urged the judge to limit the Watergate committee from using the tapes in any way which might prejudice trials. Jaworski expressed concern that the tapes, if given to the committee, might be played at open hearings.

—In Alexandria, Va., a three-judge panel revoked ousted White House counsel John W. Dean's license to practice law in Virginia.

AMC Reports Rare Dividend

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors has declared its first dividend in more than eight years.

With sales buoyed by the energy crisis which has increased demand for the small cars that are AMC's specialty, the company announced a 10-cent cash dividend to holders of its 21.1 million shares of stock.

It was the first cash payment to stockholders since August 1965.

AMC said its net sales for the last three months of 1973 were a record $479 million, almost 17 per cent ahead of the previous quarterly high of $411 million in the last three months of 1972.

Net quarterly earnings before extraordinary income tax credits were $8.7 million, or 28 cents a share. The figures for the comparable 1972 period were $7.1 million, or 23 cents a share.

AMC's recent boom may not last, however, according to one auto industry expert.

Analyst Arvid F. Joppi, senior vice president of Delafield Childs, Inc., a New York institution research house, says "it's only a matter of time . . . before the Big Three come down on American Motors."

"GM, Ford and Chrysler have what AMC is weak in — a strong dealer system. The great number of dealers means a lot more selling power than AMC has."

Joppi said Wednesday that AMC had better do something about its present dependency on outside companies for 80 per cent of its auto parts if it wants to hold on to its share of the small car market.

Boycotted Day Of Independence

By HAROLD J. LIDIN

Associated Press Writer

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada (AP) — The strife-torn little island of Grenada got its independence from Britain today, but other Caribbean leaders boycotted Prime Minister Eric Gairy and stayed away from the five-day celebration.

Only second-string foreign officials were on hand as the Union Jack came down at midnight Wednesday, and the red, green and gold flag of the 110,000 Grenadians was raised.

There were no representatives at all from Grenada's two major neighbors, Trinidad and Barbados. And the British government, because of the possibility of trouble, canceled plans for Prince Richard of Gloucester to represent Queen Elizabeth II at the ceremonies.

(CBS News reported in New York that a few hours before independence, troops and Gairy's secret police, known as the Mongoose Squad, arrested his chief opponent, Maurice Bishop of the leftist New Jewel Movement.)

Gairy's opponents have demonstrated for weeks against the prime minister, who they claim plans to set up a police state now that Grenada's 210 years of association with Britain have come to an end. Gairy, who is supported by the island's rural peasants, denies the charge, but his armed secret police have already been well in view.

Violent anti-Gairy demonstrations were predicted during the independence celebrations, which began Sunday and end today. But Eric Pierre, chief of the seamen's and waterfront workers' union, said the island's fuel shortage would keep people at home.

Strikes against Gairy by Pierre's union and other workers have left the island without electricity and telephones since Jan. 20 and without most shipping since Jan. 1.

PTI Class In Ceramics

Classes in ceramics will be offered at Pitt Technical Institute, beginning Monday at 7 p.m.

The classes will be available at four different times each week. A schedule of classes includes: Monday, 7 to 10 p.m., begins Feb. 11; Tuesday, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., begins Feb. 12; Wednesday, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., begins Feb. 13; and Thursday, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., begins Feb. 14.

Each beginning class will meet once a week for a total of 30 hours. Instruction offered the beginning student will include the fundamentals of pouring and decorating greenware pieces. Instruction for persons who are familiar with basic ceramics will also be offered.

The cost of the course is $2 registration and the cost of supplies and materials the students use. Adults interested in taking the course may call or visit the institute.

Pay Raise Fails To End Hussein's Army Mutiny

By ALY MAHMOUD

Associated Press Writer

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A pay raise by King Hussein failed today to end a four-day-old mutiny by units of the Jordanian army, the anti-Hussein Palestinian news agency Wafa reported today.

Wafa said the mutineers had surrounded an oil refinery in Zerqa, 15 miles north of Amman, a government radio station, the army staff headquarters and one of Hussein's palaces. Sources in Beirut suggested that these troops might be loyal units deployed to protect the buildings.

Neither confirmation nor contradiction of the Wafa report was obtainable, but the hostility of the Palestine guerrilla leadership to the Jordanian monarch made it suspect.

Censorship continued to hold up news reports of the crisis from Amman. Sources in the Jordanian capital, reached by telephone from Beirut, refused to comment.

Reliable reports from Amman Wednesday said the mutiny was not against the king's authority. Instead, the rebels charged the top leaders of the government and the army with corruption, demanded their replacement and also demanded more money to match raises given civil servants.

Reports from Amman Wednesday said the mutiny was confined to Zerqa, but Wafa claimed discontent was

Injured In Car, Bicycle Mishap

No charges were made following investigation of a car-bicycle collision here yesterday that injured a 10-year-old girl.

Officers said Sophie M. Skrobialowski of 102 North Oak St. was injured when the bicycle she was riding collided with a car driven by Mrs. Barbara Rogers of 110 North Warren St. about 4:15 p.m. at the intersection of First and Elm Streets.

Damage to the Rogers car was set at $25 while no damage was reported to the bicycle.

spreading to nearby army units and to the civilian population.

Hussein, on a private trip to Britain, postponed a trip to Washington and flew back to Amman. Travelers from Jordan said the 39-year-old monarch went to Zerqa Wednesday morning to meet with troops.

A terse announcement Wednesday night from the official Jordanian news agency said, "His Majesty signed a decree authorizing new pay scales for the officers and men of the armed forces and the internal security service." No amounts were disclosed.

Arrest Suspect In Kinston Case

Peter John Drenan, 19, of Kinston was taken into custody here by Greenville Police on charges of breaking, entering and larceny.

Drenan, according to Chief Glenn Cannon, was arrested for the Kinston Police Department in connection with a break-in in Kinston.

The Worry Clinic Commonsense Rules In Diets

By GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph.D., M.D.

CASE Z-546: Doleful Dora, aged 36, faces a sex dilemma. "Dr. Crane," she moaned, "my husband threatens to leave me!"

"He has even set an ultimatum of next Easter Sunday as the date when it will occur, UNLESS."

"And that means UNLESS I diet down to within 10 pounds of the weight I enjoyed as a new bride."

"For he claims he can't get romantic about me any longer. "At our wedding, I weighed 118."

"Now I tip the bathroom scales at 154. "So I simply MUST drop to 128 to save my marriage."

"But how?"

DIET PSYCHOLOGY
First of all, don't look for some "magical" diet that will lop off pounds for you!

Most of the publicized diets will reduce your weight if you follow them!

That's the crux of dieting, namely, how to stick to your limited menu!

So follow these medico-psychological rules:

(1) Ladle out your food in the Kitchen and keep all other tempting viands off the table where you eat!

(2) Include at least 400 calories worth of protein foods in your daily intake.

For there is no storage of protein!

So your heart and other muscles will grow weak tomorrow unless you eat protein tomorrow!

Besides protein loses 15 per cent of its calories in the process of digestion.

No other food does so!

(3) Don't talk about dieting or sit around discussing calories and menu items with a group of other dieters.

Your dieting pals may all weigh-in at the meeting, but then focus on other topics than food!

(4) Fat people have stretched stomachs, often secreting more gastric juice and thus gnawing abnormally.

So shrink your stomach fast, as by reducing your liquid intake during cool weather.

Then it will register "Full" on a smaller amount of food.

(5) Also, omit liquids with your meals for they reduce your act of chewing and merely flush larger bites down your esophagus.

Fatties (like pigs and geese or ducks) flush down their food but other animals eat without use of liquids meanwhile!

(6) Go low on caffeine drinks, for they produce more hunger.

(7) Try my dehydration, high protein diet, whereby you will shrink your stomach the first 3 days and also lose 10 pounds in 10 days.

This shrinking involves limiting your total liquid intake to one glass (8 oz.) the 1st day; then 2 glasses the 2nd, followed by 3 glasses the 3rd day through the 10th.

A cup (8 oz.) of cottage cheese costs about 200 calories, yet fills your shrunken stomach so you don't feel empty.

I prefer to eat the first half of that cup of cottage cheese and then add a teaspoon of jam or honey to the second half, for I don't enjoy meals without some dessert.

Moreover, a little sugar or candy is helpful in dieting, for sugar helps break down the fat molecules in your bloodstream.

For a mere 100 calories, you can also eat a small hot dog, or a banana, or half a cup of cottage cheese, etc.

So send for my diet booklet "How to Lose 10 Pounds in 10 Days" enclosing a long stamped return envelope, plus 25 cents, and join Dora in her quest for revived romance.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1974

CARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: After a dull start during which much confusion about details is apt to be in effect, you are able to engage in financial ventures that are important to you. A day to avoid wishful thinking. Be more materialistic and down-to-earth.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) With all that work ahead of you, it is wise to handle the important things first. Take time for exercise. Evening is fine for the social.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Make yourself more attractive by right treatments and then accept invitation that can bring more success and happiness in the future.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Take more time to add comfort and harmony at home. Show more devotion to kin. A plan to travel should be postponed at this time.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) The morning can be annoying but later you can make big headway and make up for lost time. Relaxing at home is fine for tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You have been too extravagant with money lately and should now learn to budget more carefully. Listen to what an expert has to suggest.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You arise in a foul mood but this soon changes and you can go after what you want most with vim and vigor. Think constructively.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Take steps that will make your life easier and free from anxieties. Also, do something to help another who is having a tough time now.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) An ideal day to make fascinating new associates. A personal aim has been vague, but is now clear in your mind. Take it easy tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Many tasks in the world of activity require you use more wisdom and determination to achieve desired results. Show cleverness.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have to use more modern methods to have more income in the future. Go to the right sources for the data you need at this time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Improve your financial status by making collections and payments that are necessary. Do those things that bring you more happiness.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Meet with allies and discuss your joint interests. Stick to the truth and get right response. Reconcile with one who opposes you.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will require proper rest early in life to gain the vitality that is lacking. There are fine ideas forming in this mind. Monetary matters will be in abundance during maturity. A good education is essential if real success is to be achieved. Give good spiritual training early in life.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Live Coverage Of Verbal Wars

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — On Feb. 20, a congressional committee will start hearings that eventually could lead to live radio and television coverage of those great debates everyone reads about but rarely sees or hears — the verbal wars in the House and Senate chambers.

It's an idea that's kicked around for years, yet in this era of the electronic journalist, neither the House nor the Senate is allowing live broadcast coverage of its floor debates.

The Joint Committee on Congressional Operations, which will hold the coming hearings, began studying the matter last year.

It recently gave Congress a report that, to no one's surprise, said when the President speaks, he readily gets national broadcast coverage; when Congress speaks, its impact is frittered away in the broadcast shuffle.

Despite the report's concern over the President's ready access to national broadcast time, this won't be the focus of the coming hearings, says Gene Peters, staff director of the committee involved.

"It's an incidental aspect of it, but it's not the prime purpose of the hearings," he said, noting they'll cover not only chamber debate but also committee

It said Congress should explore ways to get its views across more fully to the public and hopefully fix a media-access problem that "poses a serious threat to the balance of powers between the branches of the national government."

It noted that the President "can routinely present his views to the people, directly and in his own words," on the networks and other broadcast media but that congressional views filter out through network news organizations, usually in highly fragmented form.

Despite the report's concern over the President's ready access to national broadcast time, this won't be the focus of the coming hearings, says Gene Peters, staff director of the committee involved.

"It's an incidental aspect of it, but it's not the prime purpose of the hearings," he said, noting they'll cover not only chamber debate but also committee sessions.

"Basically, what we're looking into is how we (Congress) can get our message across and why we're not getting it across," he said.

"We also want to know what people in the broadcasting industry think about what we're doing and how we could improve it."

"It's really exploratory, to get the ideas together," he said, adding that any recommendations the committee makes after the hearings will go to the House and Senate Rules committees.

A spokesman for Sen. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., co-chairman of the committee, said the hearings will be held Feb. 20-21 and on March 7 and 12.

He said the heads of the CBS, NBC and ABC networks and the Mutual Broadcasting System have been invited to testify before the committee on Feb. 21 and public television executives on March 7.

Honored At Model UN

George M. "Mike" Parsons of Swansboro, a student at East Carolina University, was selected as "Best Delegate" in his council at a Model United Nations Conference held at Dequesne University of Pittsburgh Feb. 1-3.

The award was based on speaking ability, knowledge of the country position and performance as a representative of the country represented. Parsons and two other ECU students, Bob Lucas of Raleigh and Walter Mann of Cary, represented the position of Indonesia on behalf of the ECU Student Government Association.

"I was really surprised and pleased that the Duquesne organization thought so highly of our performance. I feel that ECU has definitely made a tremendous impression on the other schools represented in the

Protest Bar To Funding

RALEIGH (AP) — Spokesman for the political arms of North Carolina school teachers and labor unions protested Wednesday proposed legislation that would outlaw their political contributions.

The protests were heard as the Joint Election Laws Committee conducted a public hearing on legislation to tighten state law regulation campaign financing.

The teacher and labor union spokesmen said the definition of corporations which would be forbidden to make political contributions was so broad that it would include such organizations as the teachers' PACE and the labor unions' COPE.

"The legislation as now constituted would effectively put out Political Action Committee for Education (PACE) out of business," said E.B. Palmer, associated executive secretary of the North Carolina Association of Educators.

Wilbur Hobby, president of the state AFL-CIO, told the legislators that labor unions and COPE "are quite different in purpose" from corporations. Those speaking in favor of the bill included the Rev. W.W. Finlator, legislator chairman for the North Carolina Civil Liberties Union.

He said "it strikes a mortal blow at hidden funds, surreptitious contributions and secret conduits."

Representing ECU are Dr. J. William Byrd, department chairman; Dr. Carl G. Adler, Dr. Byron L. Coulter and Dr. James Joyce.

Dr. Adler, Byrd and Coulter are scheduled to present Papers at the meeting.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

HOUSE PLAN HA815R is designed for a very narrow lot. The front living-dining area is nearly 22 feet wide with two sliding glass doors toward the front porch. The porch serves as the entry to the home. To increase a feeling of spaciousness without appreciably increasing the construction cost, the ceiling in the living-dining room is nearly 12 feet high. The kitchen is handy to the dining area. There is a small screened porch between the kitchen and utility room and carport. The three bedrooms are accessible from the bedroom hall. Jan Reiner, 1000 52nd Street North, St. Petersburg, Fla. 33710 designed the 864-square-foot home. Anyone interested in learning the cost of the blueprint can write to Reiner, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply.

Civic Clubs To Assist Cleanup

FARMVILLE—Local civic clubs have agreed to actively participate in Farmville's "Cleanup-Fixup Campaign."

Co-chairmen Durwood Little and Jack Lewis and Farmville Economic Council Director Tom Thompson visited several clubs, explaining the purpose of the campaign and its importance in the town's aim of winning the Governor's Award. The Governor's Award hopefully would put Farmville in line for more consideration by industries seeking sites.

Each club was asked to take the responsibility for improving the appearance of one route into town. The assignments are as follows: US 258 South—Kiwanis Club; US 264 Bypass east—Lions Club; US 264 Business—Home and Lawn Garden Club and Farmville Garden Club; US 258 North—Masons; NC 121 North—Rotary Club; US 264 Business West—Junior Woman's Club; and US 264 Bypass West—Jaycees.

The clubs were encouraged to use their imagination and energy in designing and implementing plans for not only removing eyesores along a particular route, but also in erecting permanent visual sites which would create a good impression for anyone entering the town. These might include shrubs and trees, brick welcoming signs, and the like.

Club response will be reported on a weekly basis throughout the Cleanup Campaign.

Summer School Director Named

Dr. Susan J. McDaniel, assistant provost at East Carolina University, will direct the ECU summer sessions this year.

The summer session, operated as a separate and self-sufficient part of the ECU academic program, will include the two regular five and one-half week sessions for graduate and undergraduate students and four- and eight-week sessions provided for teachers on ten-month contracts who will attend ECU's summer school for further education and certificate renewal.

"We are very pleased that Dr. McDaniel is willing to assume this directorship," ECU Provost John Howell said.

"Coordination of the many facets of the summer program involves a wide range of different matters, such as those of the budget and staffing.

"Dr. McDaniel has both the skills and the experience to accomplish these tasks," he said.

The ECU summer program will begin June 6 and end August 20.

Accidents Rose As DST Invoked

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Police statistics show the number of Michigan schoolchildren injured in traffic accidents in early morning darkness has jumped sharply since Daylight Savings Time was imposed in January.

Forty-two young pedestrians were injured in accidents between Jan. 6 and 31 this year, compared with 23 during that period last year, State Police said Tuesday night in a report to the State Education Department.

The survey of 360 local police stations covered only accidents occurring between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. It showed that the jump in pedestrian accidents came primarily because of mishaps involving youths aged 13 through 16. Thirty-one youths in the age group were involved in pedestrian accidents during the period, compared with eight a year ago.

Says Marriage Is War Victim

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Verena Van Loan has petitioned Pima County Superior Court for a dissolution of her 17-year-long marriage to Air Force Col. Jack Van Loan, a former Vietnam prisoner of war.

"The separation was just too long for us to come back together again," she said.

"I think we're both victims of the Vietnam war — victims of circumstances. In a six-year period everyone grows, and we grew in our own separate ways. There have just been too many changes in our lives."
