Four Asking Runoffs For Seats On City Council

By TOM BAINES
Reflector Staff Writer
All four City Council candidates who were eligible to seek a runoff election in November by virtue of their vote totals in Tuesday's municipal balloting filed their written requests this morning with the Pitt Board of Elections.

Incumbent John Howard, former city manager Harry Hagerty, political newcomer John Bizzell, and Mrs. Della Dayson, the third woman in the 18-candidate field, all formally entered the Nov. 8 runoff activities.

Howard, Hagerty, Bizzell and Mrs. Dayson ran seventh through tenth, respectively, in the voting for the six Council seats and qualified to seek a runoff when the third through sixth place finishers failed to receive the necessary majority totals.

The four candidates will challenge Midred McGrath, Clarence Gray, Judy Greene and William Hadden, in the runoff. Mrs. McGrath, Gray and Hadden are incumbents while Mrs. Greene is making her first political appearance as a Council candidate.

Incumbent Councilman Joe Taft Jr. and freshman hopeful Charles Vincent were the only two candidates to receive clear majorities and were elected to two of the board seats.

In seeking the runoff opportunity, Howard pointed out, "Since the election, I have been urged by many of the citizens of Greenville to file for reelection, in as much as I have had considerable experience as a councilman."

Howard added, "I was unable during the first election to do much campaigning due to the nature of the tobacco business and the pressing day to day duties there during the selling season. The tobacco markets are almost finished now and I will be able to devote more time to seeing the citizens and seeking their support in the runoff." The incumbent is vice president of Greenville Tobacco Co.

Hagerty, who indicated that he planned no changes in his campaign platform, observed that he is "mighty interested in being able to make available to the citizens of Greenville my knowledge of the subject and the time I have to devote" to the Council position. He added that his supporters had urged him to seek the runoff. Bizzell pointed to the overall closeness of the election and said that "so many people urged me to run again that I decided to seek the runoff."

Mrs. Dayson also noted that her supporters played a role in her decision to enter the runoff and she explained that she "just made up" her mind to file a few minutes before today's 12 noon deadline. She said, "I'm running on the same platform as in the first election."

Probe Claim Joan Little Stole $200

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Raleigh police said Sunday they were investigating another inmate's claims that Joan Little took $200 from her and Miss Little's attorney said the police had been probing other allegations against her since last month.

Miss Little disappeared Saturday from the North Carolina Correction Center for Women, a minimum security complex in a residential area southeast of downtown Raleigh. She was still at large early today.

Acquitted in 1975 in a murder trial that drew national attention, Miss Little was serving seven to 10 years for a burglary conviction.

She was charged with the fatal stabbing of a jailer while she was in the Beaufort County Jail awaiting a decision on appeal of her case. Backed by feminists and civil rights activists, Miss Little, who is black, convinced the jury she stabbed the jailer in self defense after he assaulted her sexually.

Her attorney in that trial, Jerry Paul of Durham, said she had been under a great deal of pressure ever since the murder trial, both from prison officials and from outside groups that wanted to exploit her notoriety.

Paul said those pressures might have had something to do with her decision to leave the correction center.

He also said Raleigh police had been investigating her on the strength of several possible offenses, both in and out of prison. He declined to say what they were, but he said Miss Little had told him in a brief meeting Friday that she had to talk with him soon.

Raleigh police said Sunday they were investigating another inmate's charge that she gave Miss Little a $200 money order to cash but never got the money.

Miss Little had been in the prison's work release program with a job as an assistant to a Raleigh dentist and what appeared to be a good chance to win parole next month.

But she was suspended from her job privileges and confined briefly last week after prison officials said she did not go to work at least one day when she was out of the prison, returned to the prison late and broke other rules.

Miss Little and her Raleigh attorney, David Best, have denied the charges and appealed the work release suspension, but it was believed the allegations would hurt her chances of parole.

Prison officials said Miss Little had freedom of movement around prison grounds Saturday and could have scaled the high chain link fence that surrounds the correction complex or slipped through one of the guarded gates with someone else.

Ordered To Pay Mouse Damage

METZ, France (AP) — An insurance company has been ordered to pay a $1,200 claim for damage to a car caused by a mouse trapped in the car's engine.

According to testimony, mice nesting under the car's hood became trapped by the fanbelt and damaged the auto's cooling system. The award covered the cost of repair work.

The court said the award was justified because of a clause in the policy that said the company would cover "damage caused by impact with a fixed or moving body."

Carter Cold To Compromise On Deregulated Gas

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter is unwilling to accept any compromise energy bill that contains any form of natural gas deregulation, the chairman of the Senate energy committee said today.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson D-Wash., said that as a result, there may be no natural gas legislation enacted this year.

"The administration is going to be very tough and I'm pleased," Jackson said in an interview.

House and Senate conferees begin work on Tuesday on hammering out a compromise energy bill. Jackson is the head of the Senate's team of conferees.

Although the House has passed Carter's plan to lift the price lid on natural gas from $1.46 to $1.75 per thousand cubic feet and to extend controls to gas produced and used in the same state, the Senate has voted to lift controls on gas after two years.

"The administration holds all the cards," Jackson said. "Either there is no bill and the price remains at $1.46 or if there's a bill with deregulation, the President will veto it."

And Jackson said the administration has indicated it would prefer no bill at all to the Senate-passed measure.

Jackson had offered a "compromise" on the Senate floor during the natural gas debate that would deregulate gas prices after nine years. It was reluctantly supported by the administration at the time as preferable to the industry-backed deregulation bill that the Senate went on to pass.

Jackson's proposed compromise had been viewed as a possible middle ground for the House-Senate conferees to adopt. But Jackson said today that even this phased form of deregulation would probably be vetoed by the President.

He said he doesn't intend to even bring it up again.

The natural gas issue will be the last item the conferees consider so that if they remain deadlocked, it won't jeopardize other parts of the President's energy program, Jackson said.

Jackson said that he will work to get the conferees to approve natural gas legislation that the President will sign.

But he said at this point, no breakthrough appears in the making. The entire natural gas portion of the President's energy program may have to be bypassed this year, he added.

The conference committee will begin its work with the non-tax portions of the energy program.

Pilot Killed; Another Hijackers' Deadline Is Ignored In Somalia

By BRIAN JEFFRIES
Associated Press Writer

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — With one pilot dead and 86 hostages still aboard, the hijackers of a West German airliner landed in Somalia today and let two ransom deadlines pass without carrying out a threat to blow up the plane.

A West German government spokesman said in Bonn the pilot was apparently shot dead before the Lufthansa Boeing 737 jet took off late Sunday from South Yemen. His body was dumped onto the runway shortly after it landed without permission in Mogadishu, the Somali capital.

The four hijackers have demanded the release of 13 terrorists imprisoned in West Germany and Turkey and (Continued on page 8)

Supreme Court Clears Landings By Concorde

By RICHARD CARELLI
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court cleared the way today for landings of the Concorde supersonic jetliner to begin immediately at New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport.

The justices turned down, without comment, a request by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey that they order a delay to all Concorde operations at JFK until a formal appeal could be filed with the court.

Today's action does not prevent the port authority from filing such an appeal. In the interim, however, it appears that commercial flights of the British-French airliner New York officials have fought against for nearly two years will begin serving the airport.

British Airways and Air France are the only airlines offering Concorde flights. To date, the only regularly scheduled Concorde flights to the United States have been landing at Dulles International Airport near Washington.

On Sept. 29, the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New York rejected two requests by the port authority to overturn a federal trial court's ruling that Concorde operations at JFK could begin Oct. 20.

In its ruling, however, the appeals court said landings could begin "forthwith," and spokesmen for both airlines had said they intended to touch down the first of a series of test flights sometime in mid-October.

But after being asked by the port authority to temporarily postpone the effect of the appeals court ruling, the Supreme Court on Oct. 7 ordered that the landings be delayed while it considered the request.

In that request, port authority lawyer Patrick Falvey said the appeals court's ruling would cause irreparable harm because it would permit Concorde operations "before the authority has determined that such flights will not result in successful noise suits."

Falvey described JFK, situated in the New York borough of Queens, as "one of the busiest international airports in the world situated in a noise-sensitive community of almost 500,000 homeowners."

While Falvey argued that British Airways and Air France would not suffer any irreparable harm by a delay in the start of Concorde flights to Kennedy, attorneys for the two air carriers disagreed.

They told the justices that the losses to both airlines in more than 16 months of delay can be "measured in tens of thousands of dollars a day."

Booze Powder

WASHINGTON (AP) — The ultimate in the dry martini may be headed for the American market — powdered booze.

The Treasury Department's Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms is studying powdered alcohol, developed by a Japanese firm and being considered for sale in pre-mixed cocktails.

The actual alcohol, still in liquid form, is in tiny particles suspended in a powder that looks like a gelatin desert mix.

And, in fact, the first sales of the product in Japan have been as a rose wine gelatin.

But cocktails in small cans or foil packets are being studied for the American market. Global Marketing of Seattle, said distribution in this country depends on how the Treasury Department decides to tax the product.

A Treasury Department spokesman, who said the product's safety will be checked, noted that officials were having some problems deciding how to apply tax laws written for liquid alcohol to a powder.

Mike Hill of Global Marketing said initial plans, if the government approves, call for cocktails that could be made by simply adding water to the product.

He noted that there are pre-mixed cocktails on the market, as well as powdered mixes to which the drinker adds his own alcohol to make a cocktail, but said this powder would be less bulky and easier to use.

With the powdered product, for example, a customer could tear open an envelope, add water and have a whiskey sour, daiquiri, Bloody Mary or other cocktail, Hill said.

A government spokesman said the product could have a substantial effect on alcohol use, notably by campers and others carrying food into the wilds.

HEW Ponders Smoking Curbs

By ROBERT PARRY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A list of suggestions aimed at luring cigarette smokers away from their habit is being reviewed at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, officials say.

The recommendations, contained in an internal memo to HEW Secretary Joseph A. Califano Jr., range from declaring a "National Don't Smoke Day" to ending price supports for tobacco farmers, officials said Sunday.

The memo was prepared by an HEW task force on anti-smoking initiatives that includes U.S. Surgeon General Julius Richmond. The group began work on the list several months ago, the officials said.

TEMPORARY BOX

I ordered a record called 72 Hits that I had seen advertised on Channel 9 TV from a post office box address here in Greenville. I sent a $9.95 money order. The order went off Aug. 3 and I still haven't received the record. I wrote to the same address, but have heard nothing. P. J.

Hotline called the WNCT television station and learned that your mistake was sending your inquiry to the same post office box. It was a box only temporarily rented by the company to receive orders. Anyone having a problem with the delivery of an item ordered through Channel 9 should call or write the station, General Sales Manager John G. Clark said. He asked that you call him right away so he can contact the New York company and get your order straight. He said there have been few, if any, previous complaints concerning this particular special offer, so your problem is probably a clerical one that can be quickly corrected.

FOUND OBITUARY, STEPSISTER

I left Greenville in 1948 leaving everything that had belonged to my mother, who died in 1943 with my stepfather. I have recently established very pleasant contacts with some of my mother's relatives and have begun to wonder if any pictures of my mother or any of her belongings might exist. I understand my stepfather died five or six years ago. I know I'm asking a lot, but could you find his obituary and send me a copy? I was very fond of the man, but just failed to maintain contact after he remarried. W. T.

We gave the Pitt County Register of Deeds your stepfather's full name and they found his death certificate. Using the date, we were able to find his obituary on microfilmed copies of The Daily Reflector and we are sending you a copy. We also found in the obit the name of a daughter of Mr. T's second wife and we called her. She said her mother is now dead, also, and that she knows of no pictures or other belongings of your mother. She was very cordial and asked that we give you her address and phone number so you may contact her for further information about Mr. T, if you wish.

Rose Bowl Game Never On Sunday

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Thanks for letting your readers know that next year the Rose Bowl game will be played on January 2. Since your column appeared, we've received countless calls asking for verification.

The "Never On Sunday" tradition in Pasadena dates back to 1883, when tournament officials were first faced with the problem of disrupting church services with a parade. Next year will mark the 13th time our festival has been held on January 2 instead of on New Year's Day.

Perhaps your readers would like to know that the Rose Bowl game will be played on January 2 again in 1984, 1989, and 1995.

DEAR FOREST: Thanks. The information will be helpful to those who wish to plan ahead.

DEAR ABBY: A woman wrote to say that her girlfriend never shaved her armpits or used a deodorant, and you suggested that the girl be told (nicely) that she offended. Why?

A simple anonymous note would solve the problem, and at the same time avoid embarrassment. We used this system in the government office where I worked, and it was very effective.

DEAR L.: Effective perhaps, but I wouldn't advise anyone to do something I wouldn't do. Any anonymous notes smack of tackiness.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the woman asking if she could wear a white wedding dress though she had been raped prompts this letter.

I am a rape-crisis counselor. Please make your readers aware that there are rape-crisis centers across the country now. For those in small communities without such centers, there is probably a center in the nearest large city. If there is a crisis phone line in the victim's area, they will know where the nearest rape-crisis center is.

These centers are staffed with professional counselors as well as volunteers who have had special training in rape-victim counseling. They can offer emotional support and often can accompany the women to seek medical and legal help. Any rape-crisis center I have been in contact with has the highest code of confidentiality and counseling ethics.

After a woman has been humiliated, degraded, overpowered and even beaten, she is often made to believe that it is her fault that the incident occurred. Some carry the scars of their experience for years.

It is important for victims of sexual assault to know that such services are available. Also, it might inspire people in communities without such service to try to get one started.

Claims Better Quality Army

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army Secretary Clifford L. Alexander Jr. today claimed "significant improvement" in the Army and challenged critics who have questioned the motivation and quality of its soldiers.

"It is unfair, demeaning, and inaccurate to depict our Army today as a group of people with questionable motivations, insufficient desire, and not enough capability," Alexander said.

In a speech keynoting the opening of the Army Association convention, Alexander said "our soldiers do well" and that senior commanders agree "that today's soldiers are the best they have seen."

Alexander cited various factors to demonstrate that "the signs are clearly in the right direction."

He reported that the desertion and absent without leave rates dropped by about half between 1974 and 1976 and disputed critics who say the Army is made up heavily of blacks and poor people.

"There are now as many new recruits from middle-and high-income areas as there were during the lottery draft, which was presumably socially representative," Alexander said in his prepared remarks.

Alexander is the first black ever to serve as the Army's civilian head.

As for the attitudes of those in the ranks, Alexander said there has been a change for the better and noted that, for the last five years, reenlistments have more than doubled.

"Good ones are staying," Alexander said. "...The young people who stay in the Army are finding satisfaction."

Air Discord In NAACP

KINSTON, N.C. (AP) — A rift between eastern and western chapters of the state NAACP surfaced here Sunday at the conclusion of the organization's annual convention.

The delegates had voted to hold next year's convention in Charlotte, despite a plea from state public relations director Alexander Barnes that it be held in Durham.

Delegates from eastern counties protested that the organization is dominated by members from Charlotte and other western points, despite the fact that eastern North Carolina chapters are more vigorous fund raisers and more effective on membership drives.

"There should be a fairer distribution of power around the state," Barnes said. "And there is a move in this organization to do just that."

Barnes would say no more, but said the issue would probably come up at the next meeting of the state NAACP board of directors.

Kelly Alexander Sr. of Charlotte, 61, has been president of the state organization since 1948. Most other top-ranking officers are also from western North Carolina, and eastern delegates say holding next year's meeting in Charlotte will stifle attempts next year to get

End New Orleans Docks Tie-Up

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Longshoremen went back to work Sunday loading and unloading conventional ships after a two-week general strike that virtually shut down the nation's second largest port.

Officials reported that about 150 workers were hired Sunday morning and 200 more were taken on later to begin loading and unloading conventional ships. Some of the longshoremen who appeared for work had to be turned away.

The end of the strike against conventional ships allows the Port of New Orleans to resume about 75 per cent of its shipping. It also allows the resumption of exporting recently harvested grains and the shipping up the Mississippi River of steel and other products to the Midwest.

The longshoremen still are striking against container vessels, as are their colleagues along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

They unloaded two large freighters and put a grain elevator back into full operation in their early activities along the 26 miles of wharves on the Mississippi River.

The longshoremen began returning to work following orders from their local of the International Longshoremen's Association to end their two-week strike against all shipping. The national office of the ILA had been opposed to the local extension of the strike against container ships to all vessels.

Wilfred Daliet, president of the ILA Local 1419, ordered the workers back to the conventional ships on Saturday and threatened to discipline any who continued the strike. A few carried picket signs Sunday morning, but there were no incidents between them and the lines of dockworkers at the hiring halls.

Officials at the Waterfront Employment Center said they filled all positions Sunday and had to turn away some longshoremen. They said more jobs would open up today, as more ships are brought to the wharves.

Hundreds of loaded grain barges are tied up along the Mississippi river, and more reportedly are one their way down from grain-producing states. New Orleans handles about half of the nation's grain exports.

Longshoremen began striking against container vessels Oct. 1, when their contracts expired, because the vessels require fewer dock hands to service them. New Orleans was the only port in which the strike was extended to other vessels.

Members of the rank and file here have complained throughout the strike that they don't trust their local union leaders. And the defiant strikers shouted Sunday that they had been "sold out" once again.

The rank and file forced a formal strike vote on Oct. 8 and decided then to continue the general strike. But Daliet now says that vote was illegal according to the ILA's international constitution.

He said the ILA threatened to put the local in trusteeship if the general strike was allowed to continue. Such a move would put the national union in complete control of the local, he said.

Cites $1 Billion Waste In Medicaid Payments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal and state governments are wasting $1 billion in tax money a year in ineligible Medicaid payments, says the secretary of health, education and welfare.

Secretary Joseph A. Califano

Jr. said Sunday that 4.7 million ineligible claims totaling $229 million were paid between April and September 1976.

"Now, if you project that for a year — that is just federal dollars — that is almost half a billion dollars, and the states are matching those payments; that is another half billion dollars," Califano said. "So just in terms of ineligible payments, we are throwing $1 billion a year away in this country."

The figures, taken from HEW's computerized review of Medicaid transactions, include payments to health care providers, such as doctors, and to recipients.

Califano commented on ABC-TV's "Issues and Answers."

The review was instituted in April because the program for the needy has "grown like Topsy," but has received "inadequate attention" for several years, Califano said.

Called Project Integrity, the computer review already has looked at 250 million transactions involving pharmacists and physicians. It found 47,000 were questionable or improper.

HEW has sent the 2,500 most serious cases to the states, which are beginning probes of doctors and pharmacists in their jurisdictions. More cases will be referred to states in the future, Califano said.

The department previously announced some of its specific findings. For instance, a doctor said he performed three tonsillectomies on the same patient last year. A pharmacist filed a claim for 120 pills a day for 204 consecutive days for one person.

Califano also predicted the U.S. Supreme Court will uphold special school admissions programs for minority students.

He called it "perfectly legitimate" for schools to seek minority candidates and added, "I find it inconceivable that the court will rule in favor of Bakke."

Allan Bakke, a white male, claimed he was denied admission to medical school in California while less qualified minority candidates were accepted under a special admissions program.

The California Supreme Court ruled Bakke was a victim of reverse discrimination, and the University of California at Davis appealed. The U.S. Supreme Court heard oral arguments last week and is due to rule before the end of its term next summer.

Baha'i Marks Anniversary October 19

The Baha'i community of Greenville will celebrate the anniversary of the Birth of the Bab on Wednesday, Oct. 19.

Baha'is believe that Bab was the first of two Prophets sent by God to educate mankind in this age. The public celebration will be held at 8 p.m. at 300 Contentnea Street and will include prayer, meditation, and readings.

The Baha'i faith is an independent, worldwide religion founded by Baha'u'llah, who they believe taught the unity of God, the unity of religion, and the unity of mankind.

At each stage of human evolution, he explained, God has sent a Divine Educator with teachings suited to the needs of the particular age to guide mankind's further growth.

In addition to calling upon mankind to worship God, the Baha'i teachings stress the oneness of mankind, the equality of men and women, the agreement between science and religion, the need for a federated world government, the elimination of extremes of wealth and poverty, and the need to give up all forms of prejudice.

WHAT A CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS.....

A Chamber of Commerce is a voluntary organization that unites the business and professional people in an effort to solve the problem of a growing area.

It must be understood that a Chamber of Commerce is PEOPLE. There is a place in the Chamber of Commerce for members to get involved and accomplish collectively what no one of them could do individually. Its strength lies in attracting the greatest number of individuals and firms into membership, thereby creating a pool of resources from which to draw ideas, energies and finances.

TODAY, Chambers of Commerce have become community-type organizations which recognize all the factors that affect the community and adjust its programs accordingly.

WHAT IT IS NOT.....

A Chamber of Commerce is not a department of the city, county or state government; a social, service or charitable institution; a private advertising, publicity or public relations agency.

HOW DOES IT FUNCTION.....

The GREENVILLE AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is recognized as the action agency that gets things done. The results are the productivity from concerned involvement of the area's business and professional leaderships.

WE'RE ORGANIZED TO MAKE MAXIMUM USE OF YOUR TIME. Under the Chamber's organization structure only essential standing committees have been appointed. These have been found to be the most effective.

Couple Weds Sunday In Double Ring Ceremony

AYDEN — Ms. Sandra Lynn McLawhorn and Danny Lester Stancill were united in holy matrimony Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Stancill Jr. The Rev. T. R. Bradshaw, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gentry McLawhorn of Rt. 2, Ayden. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Stancill Jr. of Rt. 2, Ayden.

The bride entered from the stairway which was draped in jade greenery with satin bow accents to the arched dining area. Two seven branched candelabra filled with bronze and gold chrysanthemums were used on each side of a white prie-dieu where the couple knelt for the benediction.

Miss Sue Cassidy, organist, provided a program of nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal length gown of candlelight organza over peau de soie. The princess styled gown was fashioned with an open neck and bishop sleeves. The bodice was appliqued with imported Venise lace flowerettes adorned with pearl motifs. The sheer sleeves featured matching lace flowerettes with the cuffs trimmed in lace. The full skirt extended into an attached chapel train which was bordered with Venise lace scallops.

She wore a double tiered imported illusion lace edged veil held in place by a Camelot cap of Venise lace flowerettes. The bride carried a bouquet of gold, butterscotch and bronze pom poms set in a frame of natural chenille with eggshell satin ribbons.

The bridegroom's father served as best man.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of mint green polyester. The mother of the bridegroom wore a formal gown of apricot polyester. Both mothers wore corsages of miniature carnations.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bridal couple entertained at a reception in the dining area.

The bride's table was decorated with an autumn candelabra arrangement of gold and bronze pom poms. Mrs. Glenn Loftin cut and served the cake after the traditional first slice was cut by the bridal couple. Mrs. Tony Buck poured punch.

The couple will reside at Rt. 2, Ayden.

Bass-Moore Vows Solemnized On Sunday

Connie Joan Moore and Jerome Lee Bass were united in holy matrimony Sunday in the Farmville United Methodist Church at 3 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond Shiver of Farmville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Alvin Bass of Wilson and the late Mrs. Betty Bass.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Clyde Dunn. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Nuptial music was provided by Mark Gourley, organist, of Greenville. Soloist was Laura Bea Shiver of Farmville, sister of the bride.

The bride wore a formal length gown of white silk organza designed with an open neckline edged in Venise lace threaded with white satin ribbon which extended to the waistline. The empire bodice was overlaid with appliques of re-embroidered alencon lace beaded with bridal pearls. The cuffs of the bishop sleeves were designed with rows of the beribboned lace. An inset band at the waistline repeated the beribboned lace, from which flowed the full gathered chiffon skirt that extended to the sweep train. She wore a tiered illusion veil enhanced by a white satin Dior bow with long streamers accented with clusters of silk flowers. Her bouquet consisted of yellow rosebuds, carnations and baby's breath.

Honor attendants were Gail McLawhorn, cousin of the bride, and Loretta Smith, both of Greenville. They each wore a maize knit floor length gown with a chiffon cape. The fitted sleeveless bodice featured a U-neck and diamond insert at the Scottie Bass of Wilson, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The reception followed the wedding at the National Guard Armory. The main table was accented with a floral centerpiece and three-tier cake.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding to the mountains. The couple will reside in Wilson.

The bridegroom graduated from Fike High school, Wilson, and is employed by the Wilson City Police Department. The bride graduated from Farmville Central High school and attended Pitt Technical Institute.

Financing Another Absurdity

We never cease to be astounded at what we taxpayers have to finance in official Washington.

The latest is a series of options prepared by a Department of Health, Education and Welfare tax force. It lists as a possibility for reducing smoking elimination of the price support program for tobacco. If this option were carried out tobacco farmers would be offered such assistance as Medicaid and food stamps as incentive to switch to other crops.

The reaction among those knowledgeable about the tobacco industry was that this whole plan is absurd.

The government is already requiring warnings on cigarette packs and in advertising about the health hazards of smoking. Beyond that it should be up to the individual to decide the smoking question.

We wonder if the task force really believes that ending price supports will dry up the tobacco supply. Apparently this group doesn't even know that the crop is grown around the world. If we cease growing it in this country, other nations will furnish the world's supply of tobacco and we will lose dollars from our economy.

That's not to mention the incredible economic loss which farmers and workers will suffer in tobacco producing areas of our nation.

Elimination of the tobacco price support program would do nothing to cut down on cigarette smoking. It would, however, have a great adverse economic effect on the nation's farm economy.

The farm programs are really none of HEW's concern, and this task force's recommendation clearly shows that HEW has no understanding of the program or the economics it involves.

Time For Energy Program To Shape Up

President Carter last week blasted the oil companies in an effort to save his energy program in Congress.

He said the oil industry is intent on staging "the biggest ripoff in history" and that "the oil companies apparently want it all."

The president's stern words may signal an all-out blitz to bring about changes which will get our energy problems under control.

If so, it is none too soon. The energy crisis is critical both in the way it will affect us individually and in its effect on the nation's economy.

THIS AFTERNOON

Maybe Too Busy Living

By BILL NOBLITT
RALEIGH—Real people and the so-called experts often find themselves going in different directions.

Thus the apparent contradictions between all sorts of statistical measurements and governmental indicators trying to tell us what constitutes a "good life," and the hearty response of Tar Heels who consistently say North Carolina is the world's greatest place to live despite this state's low ranking.

Now comes an expert who thinks the quality of life surveys and statistical studies may be missing a most important point: people don't really get all exercised over state government, politics, and remote economic arguments—they're too busy living.

Good Life

And living in North Carolina is good, says John Shelton Reed, a professor in the department of sociology at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Reed, whose specialty is the sociology of the South, explains his subject with a combination of expertise and humor.

And after all considerations have been explored, he finds that "obviously, people like safe, warm places." Reed's whimsical quality of life index does a "fantastically good job of predicting which states are lovable and which aren't."

The two components are mean winter temperature, and robberies per 100,000 population.

A colleague who teaches political science at Chapel Hill, Merle Black, examined data from citizens of 13 states including five in the South. Everyone was asked, "All things considered, would you say that your state is the best state in which to live?"

The best of all states by that measure was North Carolina where 90 per cent of the natives felt this is the best state—whether they be white or black, rich or poor Alabama was second, followed by Texas, Louisiana, and Florida.

Why don't Southerners realize how bad off they are, Reed wonders. A regular outpouring of data depicts the region as economically deprived, underfed, overworked, ill-educated, uncultured, and lagging tremendously behind our Yankee cousins.

On crime, Reed notes: "... what people are scared of is being robbed, mugged, raped, or burgled by a stranger. And North Carolina's robbery rate is only one-tenth of New York's." The effects are indirect, but important, Reed reports in current issue of Popular Government published by the Institute of Government.

In a high-crime area there is suspicion and distrust. In the South, people are open, friendly and polite producing a "texture of day-to-day life (that) is more pleasant... particularly in fleeting, secondary interactions like those with salesclerks and secretaries and cabdrivers and policemen..."

NOBLITT

Go North

On the other hand, Reed wonders why Northerners fail to appreciate how well off they supposedly are. Have you ever heard of anybody retiring to the North?

Reed says that "without fear and without research... I want to press on to argue that there are things that everybody wants (or almost everybody) and that Southerners have more of."

He finds in talking to fellow Tar Heels that the best thing about the state (and the Sun Belt) is natural conditions: "the benign climate, the clean air, the forests and

THE INSIDE REPORT

The Backfire Of SALT

WASHINGTON — The tentative SALT agreement virtually pinned down when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko visited the White House does not classify the Russian Backfire bomber as a strategic weapon despite a new U.S. intelligence report showing it able to reach North America with ease.

A top secret study puts the Backfire's range at over 10,000 kilometers (about 6,200 miles), nearly double some previous estimates. Yet, the strategic arms limitation (SALT) agreement relies on a Kremlin pledge — clearly unverifiable — not to use its impressive new bomber as a strategic weapon.

That alone would guarantee significant opposition to Senate ratification of the SALT II treaty. But briefings within the national security bureaucracy on the tentative agreement point to the all-too-familiar pattern of U.S.-Soviet negotiations: steady U.S. retreats with no significant Russian concessions.

Senior U.S. officials claim a major "concession" by the Soviets in agreeing to lower the overall limit of 2,400 strategic launchers (including long-range bombers) fixed at Vladivostok in 1975. But since the limit applies to each side, calling it a concession can be challenged.

More significantly, the new agreement abandons President Carter's demand of last Spring that Moscow effectively limit the number of its fearsome heavy missiles. Without that limitation and in the absence of U.S. heavy missiles, the Russians gave up nothing by reducing the overall limit on strategic launchers.

Similarly, there is a familiar taste to the way the tentative SALT II agreement handles two weapons systems left in limbo at Vladivostok: the U.S. cruise missile and the Soviet TU-26 bomber — the Backfire. The U.S. will severely limit cruise missile ranges for three years. But, according to secret briefings, the Backfire will be limited only by "unilateral" Soviet declarations promising not to use it strategically and promising not to increase production.

Reliance on the Kremlin's word collides with highly classified Air Force briefings, featuring a chart showing the Backfire with longer range than the other bombers listed. That chart in turn reflects a recent study sponsored by the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) and carried out by the Air Force's foreign technology division at Wright-Patterson Air Base.

It reveals that, thanks to important aerodynamic modifications, the Backfire's "B" model — now in serial production — has substantially lengthened its range. If refueled once, in midair, the Backfire range is 8 per cent greater than the most advanced B-52s and 17 per cent

FACING ALL THE FACTS

Many years ago a symposium of world figures was held in London, and the question for discussion was, "Who will dominate the future?"

The celebrated Professor Thomas Huxley, an outstanding scientist of the period, insisted that the future would be dominated by the people who stuck most closely to the facts.

But a member of Parliament arose and said, "I agree with Professor Huxley; the people who will dominate the future are those

Remedial College Help

WASHINGTON—The Timkens sent their child Laura off to college with a check for $7,000 in tuition and thought that was the end of it. But soon after they received a letter from the Dean of Studies.

"We are happy to announce that we have instituted a remedial reading class for college freshmen and strongly advise that your daughter Laura participate in it. If she doesn't, it is our opinion that Laura will not be able to keep up with her studies. The cost will be $250."

Timken read the letter. "I thought Laura could read," he said to his wife.

"So did I. I think the problem is she can read, but she has no comprehension of what she reads."

"What did they teach her in public school and high?"

"I have no idea, but if the college says she needs remedial reading we better see that she gets it or $7,000 will go down the drain."

A few days later they got another letter from the dean.

"The English Department has brought to our attention the fact that your daughter Laura cannot write. They have recommended that she enroll in the remedial writing class which we started two years ago when we discovered this was a common problem for most college students. If you agree that Laura should get this special help, please send a check for $250."

Timken was now very angry.

"How did she get in college if she can't write?"

Mrs. Timken was much more sanguine about it. "Laura can write. She just can't write complete sentences."

"She went to school for 12 years and she can't write a sentence?"

"Don't you remember? They were much more interested in Laura's thoughts than they were in how she put them down. The teacher's main concern was with expanding her consciousness."

"That's hogwash," Timken said. "They made an illiterate out of my daughter."

"I believe that's a bit strong. Laura graduated with honors in analytical consciousness-raising."

"But she can't write."

"I'm sure the college can help her learn to write. After all, it is an institution of higher learning."

"So now we have to pay $250 for something they should have taught her in grammar school?"

"Don't you remember when we went to the PTA meeting years ago, and the principal said it was the school's responsibility to make good citizens out of the students, and the parents' responsibility to teach the children how to read and write? Carlon, we're the ones who failed."

Timken sent in the check, and was not surprised to find another letter waiting for him a week later.

It read: "It has come to our attention that no one in the freshman class can add, multiply, subtract or divide simple sums. We feel it is urgent that this deficiency be corrected early in a student's college career. Therefore, we are setting up a special remedial arithmetic course. The fee will be $250. If you do not want your daughter to take this course we cannot guarantee she will graduate."

Once again Timken went through the ceiling. "I thought Laura got A's in math in high school."

Mrs. Timken said, "That was conceptual math. Her courses had to do with the advanced integration of numbers. She never could add or subtract them. Don't you recall when you complained once about it and Laura's teacher told you, 'She can always learn to add and subtract when she gets to college.'?"

Green Avoids 'Heat'

By DAVID R. NELSEN
Associated Press Writer
RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Jimmy Green has successfully done something Gov. Jim Hunt wishes he could do — Green has kept a low profile on the gubernatorial succession issue.

When succession was debated in the General Assembly last spring, Green tried to avoid commenting beyond noting that he had opposed the concept during his 16-year legislative history and saw no reason to change his views. Finally, when it was close to passing the Senate, Green held a news conference and read a statement that he spent several days preparing.

In essence, Green reiterated his opposition to succession and pledged to stay out of the succession battle. He also said he will abide by the majority will.

About the same time, Gov. Jim Hunt was pushing succession through the legislature by twisting lawmakers' arms. His effort was as quiet as he could make it and one-on-one. Though Hunt was trying to keep himself out of it publicly, he found it difficult because of the enormous task at hand. Getting succession through the legislature was a remarkable feat because it had never even won tentative approval in either house before.

"I said I wouldn't get out and campaign (against succession), and I haven't and I don't intend to," Green said in an interview last week.

Hunt has also promised to stay out of a succession campaign. But, he has found it more difficult. For one thing he is personally identified with it, partly because it would apply to him if it passed and he is credited with the legislative approval.

Also, as the Nov. 8 public referendum approaches, he is coming under greater pressure from some of his friends as well as critics to drop the cloak of neutrality and join the fight for succession.

"I'm honored by all this," he said at a news conference last week, adding, "but I don't know quite what to make of it." He reiterated his decision to

Public Forum

Letters submitted for Public Forum must be limited to 300 words.

To the editor:

Thank you for your coverage of our fight to retain our elementary school. The majority of parents in Grifton believes that we have an excellent school here in our community, and we want our children to stay here.

We believe that our children will receive better discipline, be more relaxed, and, therefore learn more, and develop more wholesome attitudes about themselves and others in the present school situation. Our children are individuals, with individual needs that vary widely at the tender ages of 11-13. These needs can best be filled here in our community.

We have presented these facts to the Board of Education:

1. Population experts project growth in southern Pitt County.
2. Education experts find no improvement in the quality of students' work when school size is increased.
3. Community spirit and support for public schools diminish when schools are removed from their respective communities.
4. Grifton students outscore all others in the county on standardized tests.

We have begged and pleaded with emotional testimonies at eight separate meetings with the authorities.

Yet all this falls on deaf ears. The School Board refuses even to tell us why.

Gross Revenues, Net Incomes

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — In one momentous day President Carter got the steel companies off his back, and then stepped on the toes of that other symbol of industrial might, the nation's oil producers.

And in doing so he sent a shiver through all private enterprise, which has been campaigning for its very life against the mistaken notion that everything it takes in somehow swells the bank accounts of a favored few.

Some $50 billion, he said, would "go into the pockets of the oil companies themselves" if Congress rejected his program to continue regulating oil and gas prices.

But later the President's figures were shown to be quite literally in gross exaggeration. The President, difficult to dispel. It is one thing to counter general misimpressions, even though much of the business community feels it is failing to do so, but another to take on a president.

The Business Roundtable, made up of the nation's top corporate chief executives, can advertise in the Reader's Digest for an entire year about the role of profits in creating jobs, and still achieve only limited success.

A few phrases from a president, particularly when the words used are "ripoff" and "profiteering" and "into the pockets" tends to undo all those efforts.

In fact, judging from the advertisements prepared by the Advertising Council and the Business Roundtable, the President was very aware of his choice of words. They are the very ones the ads seek to defuse.

Snow Falls On Western N.C. Mountaintops

SNOW TIME — It's just October but winter has already arrived for some folks in North Carolina. Robert Hartley, manager of Grandfather Mountain, stands in two-inches of snow that fell on the mountain Sunday. (AP Laserphoto)

By The Associated Press
The season's first real snow frosted western North Carolina's mountaintops Sunday, shutting down at least one resort area and closing portions of the Blue Ridge Parkway.

The snow came with a cold front that also brought temperatures in the 20s to areas that had hoped the only jingle bells they would be hearing would be cash registers ringing up purchases by tourists in the area to watch the leaves change color.

Grandfather Mountain, near Linville, got more than two inches of snow, and owner

Hugh Morton had to close the resort on what would have been one of his biggest weekends.

"Looking out my window, I can see the colors and the snow falling," Morton said. "That doesn't happen too often."

But Grandfather Mountain didn't get as much snow as other mountain areas which got up to six inches, most of it in the northwest mountains above 4,000 feet. Craggy Gardens north of Asheville got a six-inch blanket. Mount Mitchell had five inches.

About an inch of snow fell in Boone.

Slippery road surfaces and blowing snow that reduced visibility forced the shutdown of the Blue Ridge Parkway between Mount Mitchell and N.C. 80 in McDowell County and between Beech Gap and the end of the parkway in Cherokee.

"It's the first widespread, significant snow of the season," said Jim Jenkins of the National Weather Service in Asheville. "But it doesn't set any records. It's unusual to have snow this early, and it's unseasonably cold, but we've had snow earlier."

Spitter Had Advantage

YADKINVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Stanley Allen of Tobaccoville says he doesn't care if people say spitting tobacco juice is unsightly.

Allen doesn't have to care; he's a champion. His 20-foot, 5½-inch shot Saturday at the Harvest Festival was farther than anyone else could make the juice fly (without touching it with their hands.) He won a spittoon.

"They say it doesn't look nice," Allen said of his habit. "But if I scattered it out, they'd never know it with all the oil around."

Allen had some unexpected competition for his title.

There was Mabel Binkley, 55, of East Bend, who got off a 15-foot shot.

"Most women dip snuff," Mrs. Binkley said. "But chewing tobacco doesn't make a mess the way dipping snuff does. You don't get it on your mouth."

And there was 13-year-old Dawn Hemingway, who came in third at 18 feet, 5½ inches. Of course, Dawn has had seven years of practice under the tutelage of her father. Her mother, however, doesn't approve.

Allen confided after the contest that he had a secret advantage in the contest — a crack between his two front teeth.

Expects Independent Consumer Agency

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Esther Peterson says she is convinced that the drive for an independent consumer protection agency will succeed, despite recent setbacks. "I'm not going to say when," she adds, "but I certainly think in this Congress that decisions will be made."

Mrs. Peterson is President Carter's special assistant for consumer affairs. Her mission, she explained in a recent interview, "is ... to help get this bill (establishing a consumer agency) through Congress."

That job is proving more difficult than most people expected earlier in the year. Both houses of Congress passed similar bills last year, but, in the face of a threatened veto by President Ford, failed to produce compromise legislation.

With Carter's support, backers of the concept predicted victory in 1977. They now concede they would lose if the issue came to a vote today. Mrs. Peterson said the reason for the problem is twofold.

"Number one, it was a very safe vote for people in the other administration because many people who voted for it knew that the president would veto it ... and a lot of those people changed when it became a reality." They changed, she said, "because of the second reason, which is the extremely strong opposition that has come from (part of) the business community..."

She believes the trend will turn around before the end of 1978. She said there is a growing realization in government that the consumer's voice is important and a growing realization in business that consumerism can be profitable.

Comparing the consumer movement to the drives for organized labor, civil rights and women, Mrs. Peterson said, "My feeling now is the consumer movement is the next of the popular movements ... People who say that the consumer movement is on its way down, I think, are missing the signs on the wall. I think it's quite the opposite. I think we're just beginning to surface ... Change takes time. You have to have patience."

Mrs. Peterson, 70, has plenty of experience in change and time. A native of Provo, Utah, she has been in Washington since the late 1930s. She was assistant director of education for the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, served as the union's lobbyist, was an assistant secretary of labor under President Kennedy and was vice chairman of the President's Commission on the Status of Women.

When, in 1964, President Johnson created the post of special adviser for consumer affairs, he named Mrs. Peterson to the job. She held the post for three years, later served for seven years as a vice president for consumer affairs of Giant Foods in Washington and, in April, was back in her old job at the appointment of Carter.

Leaning back in a chair in her office in the Old Executive Office Building next to the White House, Mrs. Peterson reflected on the changes that have come in the past 13 years.

Acceptance of consumerism did not come "until we began bringing industry in and showing that there was a commonality of problems and it could be helpful for them to understand."

Patient With Chimp's Heart Lived 82 Hours

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Benjamin Fortes died today 82 hours after Dr. Christiaan Barnard and his surgical team put a chimpanzee's heart in the man's body to bolster his own ailing heart.

Fortes, a 59-year-old accountant, was the second man to receive a chimpanzee heart transplant and the first to get one as an auxiliary or "piggy-back" pump. In 1964, Dr. James Hardy of the University of Mississippi replaced a 68-year-old man's heart with a chimpanzee heart, but the patient died two hours later.

A spokesman for Groote Schuur hospital announced that Fortes died this morning but gave no details.

Barnard was not available for comment, but a statement from the hospital was expected later in the day.

Fortes had been reported in satisfactory condition Sunday. But a spokesman for the hospital said it might take two weeks to determine if his body would reject the animal heart.

In the past three years, Barnard and his cardiac team have performed 17 successful piggy-back transplants, but in each case used a second human heart.

In his first attempt with an animal heart, Barnard last June grafted a baboon heart to the heart of a 26-year-old Italian woman, but she lived only four hours.

But when needed, the Russian can reach into his pocket and up the ante — by calling on the long-range Backfire bomber, not included in the overall limit on strategic launchers.

How can the U.S. negotiators countenance this? Senior officials say various U.S. intelligence agencies disagree on the Backfire's range. Yet, a 1976 study performed for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) putting the Backfire range at 6,000 kilometers (about 3,700 miles) has been discredited as based on faulty premises. In secret congressional testimony July 28, CIA director Stansfield Turner himself conceded his agency's study was out of date.

U.S. negotiators are putting aside their own intelligence study and accepting Russian promises because they believe that the nation's need for an overall arms limitation treaty outweighs inequitable provisions it may contain. That was the philosophy espoused by chief SALT negotiator Paul Warnke and his lieutenants in private life, though certainly not by candidate Jimmy Carter or a good many U.S. Senators. This contrast promises an historic Senate debate with profound consequences.

Green can also stay out of the issue easier because his office is not as visible or prominent in the public eye as that of governor.

Both men base their non-combative commitments on a desire to keep personalities out of the issue. Each man believes the arguments support his side.

Each man believes the majority of North Carolina citizens agrees with him. If the turnout is in the 300,000-500,000 range, no one will know who is right because too few citizens will have voted.

Green and Hunt also agree in a lament that if too few citizens vote, a minority will decide North Carolina's future. There is no doubt the question will have a dramatic impact.

The South is the fastest-growing area in the country. And Southern Railway is growing right along with it.

Everybody knows the South is the fastest-growing area in the U.S. But what you might not know is it's one of the seven fastest-growing areas in the world. One of the biggest reasons is that industry is flocking to the South.

And each time the South grows, we at the Southern Railway grow too.

After all, who do you think carries the raw materials to these new plants? The finished goods to market? In large measure, we do.

And, as the South's population grows, who do you think brings the things these people need? The cars, the carpets, the appliances, the clothing, the sporting goods and the food? Largely, we do.

But we're not growing just to keep up with the ever-increasing population. We're growing to be prepared for an even bigger South in the future.

According to the federal government, the railroads will get an increase in freight volume of 143% by 1990.

And the railroads' share of market will go up by a big 24%.

Will we get the lion's share of these increases when they come? Maybe. But whatever happens, we're getting ready for them by expanding right now. We're putting in a new $40 million computerized freight classification yard in North Carolina. We're adding to our microwave communications system, which is already the largest in the South. And we're laying two tracks where one used to be enough to handle all the traffic in the area.

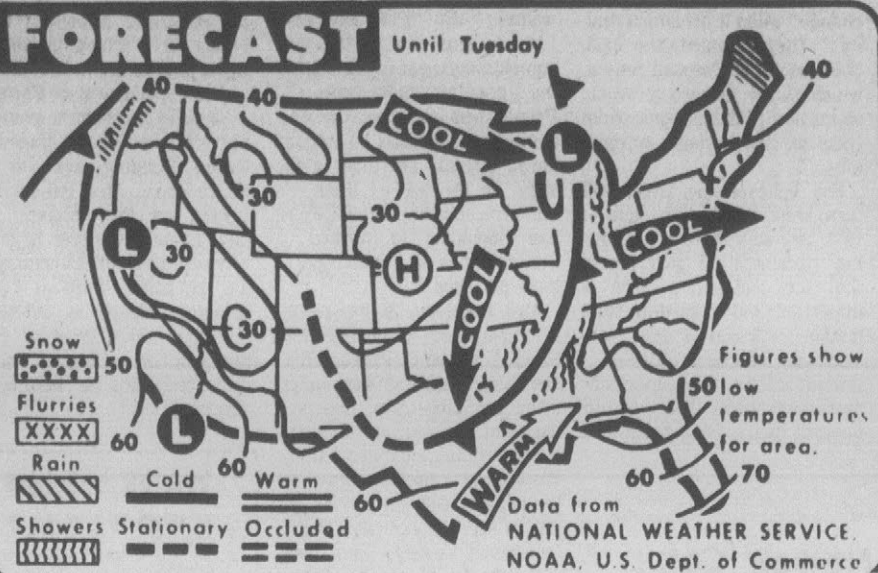

So, even though we're growing right along with you, we're also growing ahead of you.

Because when the demand is there, we want to be there, ready to serve.

SOUTHERN
THE RAILWAY SYSTEM THAT GIVES A GREEN LIGHT TO INNOVATIONS

The Southern Railway is one more good reason for living in the South.

How's The Weather?

WEATHER FORECAST — rain is forecast today for northern Maine as well as the Pacific Northwest. Showers are also expected from the Great Lakes region south to the Gulf Coast. Mild temperatures are due for the central Plains through west Texas, but unseasonably cool elsewhere. (AP Laserphoto Map)

By The Associated Press
It was sunny and cool over North Carolina today under the influence of a high pressure system moving eastward from the Gulf coast area. Another cold front also is on its way bringing with it a chance of showers in the mountains late Tuesday and across the state Wednesday.

A similar front frosted higher elevations of the western mountains with snow Sunday while spilling rain over much of the rest of the state. Mount Mitchell, the state's highest peak, reported five inches of snow. Temperatures around the state this morning ranged generally in the 30s, with Raleigh reporting the lowest reading at 33 degrees. Other lows included Greensboro 35, Fayetteville 36, Charlotte 37, Asheville 38, and

Wilmington 40. High temperatures today were expected to be in the middle to upper 40s in the northwest mountains and range up to the low 60s along the south coast. Lows tonight will range from the 30s inland to around 40 on the coast. It is expected to be a little warmer Tuesday with highs in the 60s.

Carters Called To Testify At Trial

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — President Carter's mother and his brother are among those called to testify at the trial of a 30-year-old truck mechanic accused of driving a sports car into a crowd at a Ku Klux Klan rally in nearby Plains last July. Buddy Cochran, 30, of Americus, faced eight charges of aggravated assault in the trial, which was to open today in Superior Court here.

Among defense witnesses who have been subpoenaed are President Carter's mother, "Miss Lillian," who was watching the rally at a distance, and Billy Carter, the president's brother. Also subpoenaed were reporters who covered the KKK rally in the President's home town. Superior Court Judge William Blanks, who said he expects the trial to last about a week, has refused a defense request to remove himself from the trial after he was questioned about his racial attitudes.

Attorneys for Cochran, who has pleaded innocent, have not denied that he was driving the car which plunged into the crowd and injured at least 31 persons, none of them Klansmen. He was accused of driving the car at 50 or 60 miles an hour at the time. Sumter County Sheriff Randy Howard said Cochran told him he attacked the rally because he didn't like what Klan members were saying about blacks. "He said he had a lot of black friends and he was going to get even," the sheriff said. Howard said Cochran was legally drunk when he was arrested. "He had good control of his faculties," said Robert Bryan, one of Cochran's lawyers. "He did not intend to injure the innocent bystander; he did intend to break up the Ku Klux Klan rally."

Bing's Family Will Hold Quiet Funeral

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A simple, low-key funeral is planned for Bing Crosby on Tuesday, a family spokesman says.

Crosby's body was to arrive in Los Angeles tonight, accompanied by his son Harry, 19, on a flight from Spain. Crosby died of a heart attack on Friday in Madrid, after playing a round of golf. He had listed his age as 73, although baptismal records list the crooner as 74.

The Roman Catholic service will be held at St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church in Brentwood. Crosby, a devout Catholic, will be buried in a family plot at Holy Cross Cemetery near his parents and first wife, Dixie Lee, who died of cancer in 1952. Crosby's second wife, Kathryn, told newsmen outside their home in the San Francisco suburb of Hillsborough that the service would be a low Mass. "He wanted only the children and myself," she said, "but I think there are those who worshiped him for 40 years who have a right to be there."

Maury Foadare, Crosby's press agent, said several of Crosby's office employees would be invited, in addition to his four sons from his first marriage, his brother and his sister.

TO ALL CAROLINA TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY SUBSCRIBERS

DOCKET NO. P-100, SUB 45
BEFORE THE NORTH CAROLINA UTILITIES COMMISSION

In the Matter of
Investigation of Intrastate Long Distance, WATS and Interexchange Private Line Rates of All Telephone Companies Under the Jurisdiction of the North Carolina Utilities Commission

NOTICE OF HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the North Carolina Utilities Commission has instituted an investigation into the rates, charges, and regulations applicable within North Carolina for long distance, WATS and interexchange private line service. This action is made necessary as a result of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company application (which could affect the rates on long distance calls for customers of all North Carolina telephone companies) for a rate adjustment as filed in Docket No. P-55, Sub 788, wherein Southern Bell proposes changes in rates, charges and regulations which, if approved in whole or in part for Southern Bell alone, would result in non-uniform rates for these services in North Carolina.

The Commission is of the opinion that it is in the public interest that uniform intrastate long distance, WATS and interexchange private line rates be maintained for all telephone companies under its jurisdiction. Accordingly, the Commission has established a separate docket, P-100, Sub 45, and instituted an investigation into said intrastate long distance, WATS and interexchange private line rates, made all telephone companies under its jurisdiction parties to the investigation and set the matter for hearing. The Commission's investigation is for the purpose of determining if changes should be made in the present intrastate rates for these services, and, if so, if the charges should be made applicable to all telephone companies under the Commission's jurisdiction. The Commission will also consider in its investigation whether or not to continue the concurrence provisions which are now applicable for Enterprise service and the uniform rates which are now applicable for foreign exchange services.

The primary changes in long distance rates herein under consideration include general increases in all categories of intrastate toll calls, changes in the mileage bands, and the establishment of two new discount time periods during weekdays of 8:00 A.M. to 9:00 A.M. and 12 Noon to 2:00 P.M. Buc Offense In UR Game Pleases Dye

Pat Dye was pleased and displeased with what he saw Saturday night in Ficklen Stadium as the East Carolina Pirates gained a 35-14 win over Richmond.

Dye had wanted to hold the Spiders scoreless, but that went down the drain the first time the Spiders got the ball, moving 94 yards on the kickoff for a score.

"I'm tickled to death with what we did offensively," he said after the game. "In the second half, we got sloppy, but we had some big, big plays."

Dye referred to one play especially—that 60-yard touchdown run by Leander Green, who appeared to be trying to option off the ball, had it knocked from his hands, and saw it roll back from the ECU 40 to the 20. But Green kept his cool, went back, scooped up the ball, got a couple of key blocks, and was off—all the way for a touchdown.

"No other player in America could have made the play that Leander made," Dye said.

"Jimmy Sutherland's play early and our passing had to hurt Richmond. I have to think our offensive line came off the football well the way our fullbacks got yardage in the middle."

Dye called Gerald Hall's touchdown run of 80 yards a "super individual play. It was the result of another great athlete with a big heart. We're seeing the old Gerald Hall of last year now."

The coach was unhappy with the penalties in the game. The Pirates were hit with over 100 yards in penalties, and late in the game, Richmond got several, one of which cost them a touchdown.

"I thought our defense came back and played exceptionally well later in the game," the coach said. "I would like for us to have played better defense in the first half, however."

Turning back to the offense, Dye commented that the touchdown pass that Terry Gallaher scored on was a new play. In it, Sutherland went down the line as if on a run, then threw long to Gallaher down the sideline. "I'm proud for Terry, being a senior. He's a great, great player and just has got to be the finest blocking split end in America."

Despite the over 500 yards in total offense, Dye feels that the Pirates still haven't put it all together. "If we do, we will compete against some sure enough good football teams. But if this team keeps going like they are going, they are gonna be something special."

"Someone ought to look at them!" he said.

Victory Handshake

LA Returns To NY

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dusty Baker says he wouldn't care if he was in Vietnam if the World Series was there but some of his Dodgers teammates remain a little leery of the fans in New York.

Los Angeles goes back East for Tuesday's Game 6 trailing the Yankees 3 games to 2, having avoided elimination with a 10-4 victory Sunday behind right-hander Don Sutton.

"Actually, I've never been in Vietnam," admitted Baker, who had three hits and scored two runs Sunday. "It just doesn't matter to me where we play. It's better than going home for the winter."

Second baseman Davey Lopes, however, said: "I can't speak for the other guys, but speaking for myself, I'm going to wear a hard hat out there."

Reggie Smith, the Dodger who was hurt when hit on the head by a hard rubber ball thrown by a fan in the final inning of Game 2 which the Dodgers won, was reluctant to comment.

"I'm just going to play a game, that's all ... that's my feeling," said the veteran who had muscle spasms in his back following the New York incident last week.

Shortstop Bill Russell said he believes the problem of controlling fans in Yankee Stadium is serious.

"They do not have enough security there to control it," Russell said. "Fans like that don't deserve a ball club."

Tom Lasorda, who has his club in the World Series in his first year of managing, tempered the feelings when he said, "I'm glad we're going back to New York. The Yankee fans are good fans. You can't judge all by a few kooks."

The happiest Dodgers were catcher Steve Yeager and pitcher Sutton.

Yeager's three-run homer in the fourth provided a 5-0 margin for Sutton.

Of the Don Gullett pitch he belted over the left field wall, Yeager said, "He was throwing off-speed stuff, fork-balls or palm-balls or whatever. This time he got the ball up."

"We had our backs to the wall, do or die," Yeager said. "My home run took the pressure off the other guys. I think they might have said, 'Yeag's having fun. Why don't the rest of us?'"

Last-Minute Decision Made Torrez Starter

LOS ANGELES (AP) — They don't call the New York Yankees the Bronx Zoo for nothing. At 4 p.m. PDT Sunday, Manager Billy Martin was asked to name his starting pitcher for the sixth game of the World Series Tuesday night in New York.

"Ed Figueroa," he said. Why not Mike Torrez? "Because I said Ed Figueroa."

But an hour later, just as the Yankees were about to head for Los Angeles International Airport following a 10-4, fifth-game trouncing at the hands of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Martin was singing a different tune.

"Torrez will pitch the sixth game," he said.

What happened? Figueroa has been troubled by a nerve in the index finger of his pitching hand since leaving the fourth game of the American League playoffs in the fourth inning, more than a week ago.

"Figueroa threw twice over the weekend and he feels good," was Martin's first response. "We're just going to go six games. We're saving Torrez for spring training."

But after talking to the team trainer, Martin changed his mind.

"Figueroa said he feels almost 100 per cent but not quite 100 per cent," the manager said, "and I don't want to pitch a pitcher who isn't 100 per cent."

Martin might have been thinking back to Saturday's game, when the Dodgers started Doug Rau at something less than 100 per cent only to see him kayoed in the second inning.

Dodger Hitting Slaps Yankees

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An old fashioned revival meeting, called by their very own faith healer, Tom Lasorda, was credited with transforming the Dodger blues back into the Dodger Blue.

"This was the real 1977 Dodger team," said Steve Garvey after Lasorda preached fire and brimstone and the Dodger bats spoke firepower and base hits. The combination was pure salvation for the National League champions, who rapped out 13 hits, four for extra bases, to blast the New York Yankees 10-4 Sunday.

The World Series now hops back to the East Coast with the Yankees ahead 3 games to 2 and still lacking one victory before they can claim their 21st world title.

Yankees Manager Billy Martin originally named Ed Figueroa, troubled by a sore finger the past few weeks, to be his starting pitcher for Game 6 Tuesday night. But Figueroa, not as ready to pitch as Martin said he was, balked, forcing Martin to switch to Mike Torrez, the third-game winner.

Lasorda will be going with a proven winner of his own, Burt Hooton, who stifled the New York bats on five hits in the second game at Yankee Stadium last Wednesday night.

On the verge of extinction Sunday, Lasorda turned preacher, telling his players in a pregame meeting that, win or lose, "I wouldn't trade this baseball team for any other team in the world."

Ron Cey, the Dodgers third baseman and the only regular without a hit or a run scored Sunday, was skeptical about the importance of the team meeting, but decided: "The results were there."

Those results included Steve Yeager's three-run homer in the fourth inning, Reggie Smith's two-run blast in the sixth and the sound, nine-hit pitching by Don Sutton.

"I normally don't believe in rah-rah pep meetings," said Yeager, who also contributed a fifth-inning sacrifice fly before leaving the game with strained ligaments in his knee. "But it evidently worked for some guys."

Yeager said he had two games left in his ailing knee. "I'll see you Wednesday night (after Game 7) in our clubhouse," Yeager told newsmen.

Garvey also expects to be in the winning clubhouse Wednesday night, but said it wouldn't be a bad idea to have another pregame revival meeting.

"At one point we were 7-0 after team meetings," said Garvey, who had a double and a single and scored a pair of runs. "I guess this make us 8-0."

"We're human beings and human beings get tired mentally and depressed mentally. What Tom Lasorda did was he got everybody together and, again, told us of his feelings of warmth and affection for us. As human beings we can benefit from this."

"It got our feelings moving in the right direction."

That direction was evident immediately in Game 5. Dodger leadoff batter Davey Lopes socked a triple off the top of the left-field wall against Yankees starter Don Gullett, who started on Opening Day but did not figure in the decision. No. 2 batter Bill Russell smacked a single to left for a 1-0 lead.

Garvey stroked a double to right center in the fourth and came home on Dusty Baker's single to left, which Lou Piniella misplayed, allowing Baker to take second. That was New York's first error of the Series and it took just one batter for error No. 2, as third baseman Graig Nettles dropped Lee Lacy's ground ball. Yeager then followed with his second Series homer for a 5-0 lead.

Russell got the Dodgers believers in the dugout and the faithful of 55,955 in the stands up and clapping again with a single to right-center in the sixth. Smith, a victim of a rubber ball beaming from the stands at Yankee Stadium last Wednesday, sent a hard ball back into the stands for his second Series homer.

"If today's clubhouse atmosphere was any indication, then I feel our chances are good," Smith said. "I'm happy to be going back to Yankee Stadium. It's a big ballpark with big gaps and we're a gap-hitting team."

"The fans? They're gonna be there. The less said about them the better."

The Yankees scored twice off Sutton in the seventh and got consecutive solo homers from Thurman Munson and Reggie Jackson in the eighth.

"We still have the advantage," said Jackson, one of the centers of the storms that have the Yankees calling team meetings not to bring people together — like the Dodgers — but to keep them from going for each other's throats.

"They have to play 1,000 ball and we only have to play 500 ball," Jackson said.

As Garvey pointed out the Dodgers have played 1,000 ball immediately after one of Lasorda's revival meetings. Hallalujah.

Running Wild

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates and Philadelphia Phillies set a National League record of 83 total bases in one game on July 23, 1930. There were 8 home runs, 9 doubles and 33 singles. The Pirates won 16-15 in 13 innings.

Pirate Golfers In Tie For Fourth

DURHAM — The East Carolina golf team dropped a couple of places, but still remained among the leaders in the Duke Intercollegiate Invitational here.

The Pirates dropped from a tie for second after the first round to a tie for fourth through two rounds of play. The Bucs came in with a second-day total of 384, following a first round of 374. That gave them a two-day total of 758, eight strokes behind leading Ohio State.

The Duke "Blue" team is in second place at 756 and the UNC "Blue" team follows at 757. The Pirates are tied with the UNC "White" team.

"This is the best we've played in two years," said East Carolina coach Mac McLendon. "I'm real proud of these guys, especially when they are with such tough competition."

The Pirates are led by Mike Buckmaster with a 149 for two rounds. Keith Hiller has posted a 150, John Abraham a 151, Donnie Owens a 152 and Phil Bell a 156.

The final round of the tournament was scheduled for today.

Hale Irwin Aids Young Tour Pro

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Hale Irwin won $30,000, a golf tournament and a ton of respect from a fellow golfer pro after his closing-round three-under-par 67 in the $150,000 Texas Open.

Irwin, battling Texan Miller Barber for the first place prize, paused on the 18th tee Sunday to offer encouragement to Carlton "Sluggo" White, a second-year pro fighting for his PGA player's card.

White entered the Texas Open with $924.50 in earnings this year and needed to bring his winnings up to $7,000 or forfeit his card. Fifth place in the tournament would breathe life into his golf career, but a poorly hit wedge shot on the 17th hole resulted in a double bogey six that plummeted White from third to a fourth place tie with George Archer.

"I can't describe how bad I felt after making that double bogey," said an emotional White. "But Hale came over and patted me on the back and told me to forget it, that I still had a chance."

White then placed his tee shot at the treacherous 175-yard 18th hole about 10 feet below the pin. He two-putted for a par three and collected $6,600, thus assuring himself of at least another year on the tour.

"I was really pulling for him," said Irwin, whose Texas Open title was his third tour win of the year and raised his season money-winning total to $221,455.

"We have a lot of Carlton Whites on the tour. Good players and gentlemen who face a this-week-or-no-week situation. It's one thing to play well for first and another to play for your career," Irwin said.

Barber bogeyed the final hole to finish with a 66-66 for second place. Last year Barber was the runnerup in this event, the oldest PGA tournament in Texas, losing to Butch Baird in a sudden death playoff.

Bradshaw: Team Needs Win Tonight

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers, coming off a black Sunday, look for a little light tonight against the Cincinnati Bengals.

"It's important for us to win. We've got some tough competition in our division," said Terry Bradshaw, who may start at quarterback for the Steelers with a plastic cast on the left wrist he fractured in a punishing loss last Sunday in Houston.

Bradshaw cracked the small bone in his wrist when he fell on it after being run out of bounds, but he returned to practice last week with the aid of the cast.

"Terry's an amazingly rapid healer," Steeler team physician Dr. Paul Steele said last week. "I'm going back to medical school and take a class on Bradshaw."

If Bradshaw can't play in tonight's nationally televised game, his loss will be nothing new to the Steelers. He was sidelined with a serious neck sprain when Pittsburgh earned a pivotal 23-6 victory here last season over the Bengals.

However, the man who quarterbacked Pittsburgh in that 1976 game, Mike Kruczek, is out for the season with a shoulder separation also sustained in Houston.

That means the Steeler starter will be Bradshaw or four-year veteran Neil Graft, who rejoined the team this week

Heels, Terps Were Ready

The death of Bing Crosby Friday is as much a sports story as anything else.

Crosby was a patron saint of golfers around the world. Probably no other golf tournament, except for the "Big Four" commanded the attention that the Crosby Open has over the years.

For many years, it was the mecca for professionals and amateurs alike. Bing's presence made it the first of the celebrity tournament that are so much a part of the pro tour today. But none ever gained the stature of Crosby's. His stood alone.

The charities supported by the tournament saw many dollars raised over the years.

Recently, there were hard words between Crosby and the PGA, but when it came to push and shove, the PGA quickly looked for compromise. Crosby's tournament was too much a part of the American scene to be shouted down.

Hopefully, the tournament will continue as a memorial to this man who left a mark on so many facets of our lives. But it will never be the same without him.

The Need Is Shown

For the second straight time, Rose High School has seen a Friday pass without playing a football game. Neither time was the skipping of the day something that the school wanted.

But as long as Rose High continues to be a guest in Ficklen Stadium, such problems will continue to arise.

Rose is not now allowed to play in Ficklen on Friday nights prior to an afternoon East Carolina game. And when it rains hard, as it did this past weekend, East Carolina has the right to move the Rose game if an ECU home game follows the next day. This is to protect the turf from taking too hard of a beating.

We do not blame East Carolina for its action. It is East Carolina's stadium; after all. The school has the right to operate it as it sees fit.

The problem lies in Rose not having a stadium of its own. There will be many who argue against this, principally because of money once raised when the stadium was first built.

But that money now represents a very small percentage of the money invested in the stadium now, and will be an even smaller percentage a year from now when Ficklen has been enlarged once again.

Rose needs a home of its own. A home where it can decide when it will or will not play—on its own terms.

Productive Game

Saturday night's 35-14 victory by East Carolina over Richmond was a productive one for the Pirates.

East Carolina had its best night moving the ball, picking up 558 yards in total offense.

Several school records went by the board in the game.

Gerald Hall's 80-yard punt return for a touchdown as the longest for the Bucs. The old record of 77 was set in 1965 by Robert Ellis against Lenoir Rhyne.

The Pirates averaged 9.3 yards in total offense per play, snapping a 1964 mark, also against Lenoir Rhyne of 8.5 yards per play.

Quarterback Jimmy Southerland, picking up 223 yards in 15 plays, averaged 14.8 yards per play, snapping a mark only set this fall by Leander Green against State, who picked up 11.4 per play.

Willie Hawkins, with his 49 yards in kickoff returns, snapped the season record of 447 set by Jerry Tolley in 1962. Hawkins now has 448 on the year, with four games left to play. He is just two short of Reggie Pinkney's 1973 season record of 20 returns, and has already broken the career record for career yards returned on kickoffs. He also has passed Ken Strayhorn's mark of 42 career returns, moving to 43 Saturday.

Terry Gallaher has become the eighth place pass receiver with 40 career catches, tying Jimmy Anderson and Carl Gordon. His 1,004 yards puts him in third place in yardage, just 19 yards behind number two Dave Bumgarner.

All in all, a pretty good night for the Bucs.

Ole Miss Defense Whips Gamecocks

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — The Mississippi defense, which had tried vainly to stave off Rebel defeats in each of the past three weeks, saw its efforts rewarded Saturday in a 17-10 football victory over South Carolina.

"Their defensive line just whipped us," said Gamecock coach Jim Carlen. "They picked up my offensive line and threw it out of there."

In particular, the Rebel defenders harried South Carolina quarterback Ron Bass, giving him little time to set up and limiting him to six completions in 10 attempts. Bass did hook up with freshman fullback George Rogers for a 70-yard pass play in the third quarter, but the Gamecocks' only other long drive — in the same period — ended with a field goal after the Rebels held at their own 4.

If preparation is important, North Carolina's Bill Dooley and Maryland's Jerry Claiborne won this week's coaching prizes.

Destroying arch-rival North Carolina State 27-14 in a game not nearly as close as the score, North Carolina threw in new offensive and defensive arrangements, dusted off the old faked field goal trick and started a freshman tailback sensation for the first time.

"Our assistant coaches had the players well prepared, and the players followed the game plan beautifully," said Dooley, still excited after his 11th battle with State. "It was a total team victory for us."

Maryland, 3-3 and back in the winning groove, handed Wake Forest its fifth straight setback to a 35-7 tune and crushed the Deacons' comeback tries by picking off five interceptions.

"We felt like they were going to throw the football on us," said Claiborne. "The key to our success was coming up with some interceptions. We used a little different type of coverage, played a little tighter on the receivers."

Clemson's first-year Coach Charley Pell didn't do poorly either, as his Tigers beat Duke after being cut late in pre-season.

Both the Steelers and Bengals take 2-2 records into the game, and Cincinnati will be bidding for its first victory ever at Three Rivers Stadium, where it has lost seven in a row.

The Bengals are coming off a 17-7 victory over the Green Bay Packers, and the Cincinnati running game may be bolstered by the return of running back Archie Griffin, who's been nursing a rib injury.

The winner of the game will gain a share of first place in the tightly-bunched AFC Central Division with the Cleveland Browns and the Houston Oilers, both 3-2 after the Browns 24-23 victory Sunday over the Oilers.

"We know them. They know us," said Bengals quarterback Ken Anderson. "There are no secrets."

17-11 for their fifth straight win. In the only other game involving an ACC team, Virginia avoided its first win of the season by giving up a late touchdown and two-point conversion for a 14-14 tie with cross-state rival Virginia Tech.

North Carolina, 4-2, is now atop the ACC standings with a 2-0 record, followed by N.C. State, Maryland, Clemson and Duke, all with one conference loss. Wake and Virginia are 0-3.

"The ACC picture still hasn't formed yet. But we're definitely within shootin' distance," Pell said.

Things won't stay so even in the ACC race for long. This Saturday N.C. State meets Clemson at Death Valley and Duke takes on Maryland in games that for the losers, will just about spell the end of any title hopes. Though without a league loss, UNC still must face Maryland, Clemson and Duke with only the Tigers at home.

UNC 27, NC State 14
Freshman Amos Lawrence twisted and spun for 216 yards, apparently settling the tailback question at UNC. "Lawrence was just super. He is one heck of a back," said Dooley, who also spread the praise to his offensive line and to his defensive line, which repeatedly sacked Wolfpack quarterback Johnny Evans and held State to 61 yards rushing.

The game was supposed to have been a match between State's league-leading offense and UNC's defense, the conference's toughest. It turned out to be a mismatch.

"There was a great offense on the field and there was a great defense also," noted N.C. State's Rein. "Unfortunately, Carolina had both of them."

To its credit, State played well for about six minutes, scoring two fourth-quarter touchdowns with Evans' passing and prayer.

MARYLAND 35, WAKE FOREST 7

Maryland, now 2-1 in the ACC, got two touchdowns out of tailback Steve Atkins, who rushed for 142 yards. Quarterback Larry Dick, who has taken over for the injured Mark Manges, passed for 114 yards and another touchdown.

"We thought when we were coming down here that we'd have to win to stay in the conference race," said Terp quarterback Larry Dick, who threw for 114 yards and a touchdown. "If Clemson keeps knocking these people off, we have a chance to win it outright, providing somebody beats them."

Forest quarterback Mike McGlamry jammed his thumb during the game and could be out a couple weeks, and tailback James McDougald gained only 62 yards playing with a sprained left ankle. Wake is now 1-5 and 0-3.

CLEMSON 17, DUKE 11
Duke's Earl Cook, hero of last week's game with an interception and touchdown, became the goat by fumbling away Duke's final possession with just over two minutes left.

"I have faith in our defense, but I was glad to see that fumble," said Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller.

"It looked like both teams were waiting for something to happen in the first half," he said. "But in the second half, we had confidence we could move the ball—mostly we'd just been stopping ourselves."

After trailing 3-0 at the half, Fuller responded with a touchdown of his own and finished with a 7 of 12 passing mark for 128 yards as the Tigers increased their record to 5-1 and 2-1 in the ACC.

Duke Coach Mike McGee, his team now 3-3 and 1-1 in the league, said it was "a very frustrating day and game." Quarterback Mike Dunn, who led Duke 81 yards for a fourth quarter touchdown, said, "It was a disaster."

UVA, 14, VPI 14

Virginia is still winless after coming so close. "I'm proud of the way we came back but we started too late," Coach Dick Bestwick said. "It's been the same story every week — mistakes, mistakes, mistakes."

Virginia, now 0-5-1, appeared to be on its way to a victory until Virginia Tech scored with 4:13 remaining and added a 2-point conversion.

Junior Chip Mark, who watched the first five losses from the bench, replaced took over at quarterback, a decision Bestwick said he didn't make until Saturday morning.

NEXT WEEK
North Carolina meets its last non-conference opponent when it hosts South Carolina Saturday. In conference games, Duke is at Maryland, Clemson is at N.C. State and Virginia is at Wake Forest.

Denver Higher Than Mile After Romp

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
AP Sports Writer

Jim Turner has to be higher than Denver, which is a mile high to begin with. The 36-year-old placekicker caught a touchdown pass in the Broncos' surprise rout of the Oakland Raiders.

Denver was leading Oakland 14-7 in the second quarter Sunday when Turner trotted on for a field-goal attempt. But it was a fake. Holder Norris Weese, a reserve quarterback, took the snap and rolled right to pass.

"I looked first for Riley Odums (a tight end)," said Weese. "But you can't waste time on the play and I saw Turner wide open ... and couldn't believe it."

Turner had drifted to his left and was standing alone in the end zone where he caught the 25-yard pass that gave the Broncos a 21-7 halftime lead en route to a 30-7 victory. It boosted Denver to a 5-0 record and a one-game lead over Oakland in the American Conference West.

"I ran into the end zone out of fear," said Turner. "Speed wasn't involved."

While Turner's first touchdown in 14 National Football League seasons was certainly a highlight, it was the Denver defense that did in Oakland, intercepting seven Ken Stabler passes, three by linebacker Joe Rizzo, and recovering a fumble.

"We stunk up the place," said Stabler, who gave Oakland a 7-0 lead with a nine-yard scoring pass to tight end Dave Casper in the first quarter. But Denver tied it before the period ended on Craig Morton's 10-yard touchdown pass to Odums and went ahead in the second quarter on Lonnie Perrien's 16-yard touchdown run.

The loss stopped Oakland's winning streak at 17 regular season and playoff games, one short of the record held by the Chicago Bears of 1933-34 and 1941-42 and the Miami Dolphins of 1972-73.

A successful fake field goal at Bloomington, Minn., resulted in a 21-16 victory for the Minnesota Vikings over the Chicago Bears in overtime.

"It seemed like the thing to do," said Bud Grant, who ordered the fake attempt on first down on the Chicago 11-yard line 6:45 into overtime. It worked as holder Paul Krause, a defensive back who played quarterback at Iowa, passed to Stu Voight near the goal and Voight took it in for the winner.

Chicago, which got 122 yards rushing from Walter Payton, had gone ahead 16-13 in the third quarter on Bob Avellini's two-yard pass to Greg Latta. Fred Cox then tied it at 16 with his third field goal, a 21-yarder, with 12:24 left in regulation time. Matt Blair, Minnesota's 6-foot-5 linebacker, played a key role by blocking a conversion attempt in the second quarter and a field-goal attempt with 1:41 left in regulation play.

Dallas and Baltimore remained the only unbeaten NFL teams, each 5-0 — Dallas whipping Washington 34-16 and Baltimore downing Kansas City 17-6. Elsewhere, Cleveland edged Houston 24-23, Buffalo downed Atlanta 3-0, Miami stopped the New York Jets 21-17. New England nipped San Diego 24-20, Detroit edged Green Bay 10-6, Los Angeles beat New Orleans 14-7, St. Louis topped Philadelphia 21-17, the New York Giants handled San Francisco 20-17 and Seattle outlasted Tampa Bay 30-23.

Cowboys 34, Redskins 16
Efren Herrera kicked field goals of 44 and 52 yards, Roger Staubach threw a 59-yard touchdown pass to Drew Pearson and Robert Newhouse scored a six-yard TD in the Cowboys' second-half explosion at Dallas. Washington had one net yard passing as Billy Kilmer was sacked five times.

Colts 17, Chiefs 6

"It wasn't pretty, but it was successful," said Baltimore quarter Bert Jones of the Colts' struggle against winless Kansas City. Baltimore wrapped up the game in the first quarter on short touchdowns runs by Ron Lee and Don McCauley.

Browns 24, Oilers 23
Houston's Billy Johnson returned a punt 87 yards for a touchdown before Cleveland took a 21-20 halftime lead on the strength of Brian Sipe's short TD toss. Houston went head 23-21 on Tony Fritch's third field goal of the game in the fourth quarter, but Don Cockroft won it for the Browns on the final play of the game with a 36-yard three-pointer.

Bills 3, Falcons 0
O.J. Simpson's seven-yard run on third down to the Atlanta 13-yard line set up Neil O'Donoghue's 30-yard field goal in the second quarter as the Bills snapped a 14-game losing streak before only 27,348 fans, the smallest crowd in the five-year history of Buffalo's Rich Stadium.

Simpson's 138 yards rushing also pushed him to 10,062, making him only the second man to break the 10,000-yard mark in NFL history. The other is Jim Brown, who retired with 12,312 yards.

Dolphins 21, Jets 17
The Dolphins raced to a 21-3 halftime lead on two Bob Griese scoring passes and a five-yard touchdown run by Benny Malone, who had 105 yards in the game, then held off the Jets who got two scores on one-yard runs by Clark Gaines.

Patriots 24, Chargers 20
Steve Grogan hit Don Hassel-beck with a one-yard pass for a 7-0 New England lead and then clinched the victory with a four-yard toss to Hasselbeck with 3:09 left in the game. Sam Cunningham rushed for 141 yards for the Patriots.

Lions 10, Packers 6
"You silence the boos by winning," said Greg Landry after his nine-yard touchdown pass to Ray Jarvis with 3:01 remaining gave the Lions their victory. Green Bay had gone ahead 6-3 on Cester Marcol's second field of the game in the third quarter.

Rams 14, Saints 7
"I did things to win. But I did not give a sterling performance," said Pat Haden, who played quarterback in place of Joe Namath and guided Los Angeles to a 14-7 win that tied the Rams with Atlanta at 3-2 for the NFC West lead. Lawrence McCutcheon's one-yard run and Wendell Tyler's 16-yard dash accounted for the Los Angeles touchdowns.

Cardinals 21, Eagles 17
Jim Hart, playing with a neck injury, threw a 38-yard touchdown pass and Terry Metcalf ran 10 yards for one touchdown and Jerry Lattin two yards for another as the Cardinals built up a 21-3 lead at Philadelphia, then withstood two fourth-quarter scoring passes by Ron Jaworski.

Giants 20, 49ers 17
The Giants kept San Francisco winless by withstanding two late 49er touchdowns after building a 20-3 lead on two field goals, a 37-yard touchdown pass by Joe Pisarcik and Willie Spencer's one-yard scoring run.

Crosby Event Should Stay

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — It is almost a certainty that the golf tournament which bears his name will continue despite the death of Bing Crosby, according to a tournament official.

Dan Searle, chairman of the Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Championship, had said repeatedly since the 73-year-old entertainer died on Friday that any decision would be up to the family.

"Kathryn would like the tournament to continue and it's my feeling that we will go along with whatever her wishes are," Searle said Sunday after talking to Crosby's widow.

"Unless there is something in Bing's will to prevent it, the tournament will continue just like it has," he said.

Pipe Smoking Is Dangerous Too

I smoke a pipe. I do not inhale any smoke, or at least very little as compared to cigarette smoking which I used to do. I would like to know if cancer is caused by pipe smoking. It makes my tongue irritated in the late afternoon or evening. I don't know if this is because of the heat of the burning tobacco or the tobacco juices themselves. — Mr. F.W.A., Ore.

Dear Mr. A.:

Unlike many people who have shifted from cigarette smoking to pipe smoking, you wisely question the ultimate possibility of trouble. Far too many people who are delighted with the fact that they have given up cigarettes completely overlook the very real hazard of pipe smoking.

Irritation caused by hot smoke is known to produce little white patches, or "leukoplakia," in the delicate lining of the mouth. Sometimes these can degenerate and develop malignant characteristics.

Even those people who think they do not inhale their pipe or cigar smoke do, in reality, inhale a surprising amount of smoke into their lungs.

Remember that when you keep puffing that pipe you are surrounding yourself on the outside with a layer of thick smoke which ultimately will, at least in part, find its way back into your lungs. Incidentally, smokers must not forget that the pall of smoke that surrounds them also surrounds the innocent non-smokers near them who must pay a penalty for someone else's habit.

The irritation of your tongue in the evening is simply due to the fact that you have been burning your tongue all day with hot smoke. The heat of burning tobacco, tobacco juices, nicotine and tars all have with the delicate un-protected linings of the mouth and the lungs.

Undoubtedly, cigarette smoking is the chief offender. But don't overlook the fact that neither pipe nor cigar smoking can be exonerated as a possible cause of trouble in the bronchial tubes, the lung and the circulatory system.

My mother-in-law has a cancer of the liver and is being treated with experimental drugs. Is there any way that a liver transplant can help a cancer patient? — Mrs. J.N., Ind.

Dear Mrs. N.:

Transplants of the liver are being done but are still in an early phase. Reports in the scientific journals show evidence of the fact that this is an accepted possibility. At the present time, however, such operations are still comparatively rare.

The surgeons and doctors who are treating your mother-in-law with chemotherapy undoubtedly have given consideration to a liver transplant. If they felt this would be advantageous to her they would have suggested it.

There was a time when it was impossible to believe that kidneys and hearts could be transplanted. Yet this dream became a practical reality. So it is with our hopes for the eventual transplantation of the liver, for cancer and cirrhosis. Such amazing accomplishments are the end results of the dedication and brilliance of research scientists, physicians and surgeons.

WASHINGTON (AP) — In order to wage the moral equivalent of war, you need the moral equivalent of an enemy. Without villains, there's no way to keep score.

So President Carter has fixed his sights for the new phase of his energy campaign, zeroing in on the oil industry he accuses of plotting history's biggest ripoff.

The issue may not be quite that simple, and the tactic may not gain congressional approval of the legislation he wants. But at least it will be more colorful now that he's settled on somebody to campaign against.

"... As is the case in time of war, there is potential war profiteering in the impending energy crisis," Carter said last Thursday. "This could develop with the passing months as the biggest ripoff in history."

He went on to suggest that only the enactment of his energy program will insure the American consumer against robbery by the oil and gas companies. He read them out of the free enterprise system "because prices are not free," but instead influenced by OPEC oil rates and by industry control over the rate of production.

And that was just for openers in a campaign Carter said will take most of his time during the next few weeks. He'll be pushing his energy plan during a five-state swing later this month. Vice President Walter F. Mondale and Cabinet members are to be deployed to push the administration's energy cause.

The White House plans to summon political and business leaders to a series of energy conferences, hoping that kind of persuasion will put pressure on members of Congress — especially the balky Senate — to vote for the Carter package.

One White House aide said there are more than a few people in policy and image-making positions who would like nothing better than to take on the oil industry with tough talk and tougher programs.

They've been cautious so far, lest they get ahead of the President on the issue. Now Carter is ahead of them, speaking more harshly than his speechwriters would have dared propose.

Carter's real problem is in the Senate, which has stripped away the key elements of the energy program the House approved. His energy price and tax proposals are in grave trouble.

Carter used to blame the Senate, suggesting at one point that it was too responsive to lobbyists, and warning that it should look after its own reputation. Then he blamed lobbyists for all the trouble.

But none of that had the political punch of his slap at the industry itself. Furthermore, his challenges to Congress tended to make congressmen angry, which was counterproductive.

So in the new campaign, he speaks kindly of the people who will be voting on his energy bills. According to Carter, even his Senate opponents are working long and hard to come up with an acceptable energy package.

He'll take part of the blame for past failures, and the American people will have to share it because they waste too much energy.

Nor is the whole problem the fault of the oil companies. Just enough of it to make them the prime administration target. It's all there in the campaign textbook.

Franklin D. Roosevelt denounced the "economic royalists" as he accepted his second presidential nomination. Theodore Roosevelt said that "malefactors of great wealth" were partially responsible for panic on Wall Street 70 years ago.

The candidate who declares in the springtime that he campaigns for his own programs, not against anybody else, often winds up denouncing his opponent in the fall.

When the crunch comes, it helps to have a target. And for Carter the crunch is approaching on energy, the crucial program of his first year and perhaps his first term in the White House.

More Women In Producer Roles

By WILLIAM GLOVER
AP Drama Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Women producers are busy on Broadway in record number this season.

"With any luck," says one, "the old macho supremacy could eventually become a 50-50 proposition."

Although they still are a minority in the League of New York Theaters and Producers—22 of 160 members—their current activity drastically revises that abstract ratio.

A producer's main tasks are three: Finding a likely property, raising the essential money and hanging tough as a decision maker about everything all the way to opening night. The sort of chores that used to be regarded, with an occasional exception, as needing masculine clout.

The busiest woman boss of this season is Burry Fredrik with "Night of the Tribades," a drama about lesbians that opens Oct. 13 at the Helen Hayes Theater; "An Almost Perfect Person," described as political comedy, due Oct. 27 at the Belasco and "The Dream Watcher," warming up next month in Seattle for January arrival here, the story of a boy's friendship with an 80-year-old woman to be played by Eva Le Gallienne—who, incidentally, produced plays 30 years ago.

Two productions are on the agenda of Doris Cole Abrahams, who notched impressive triumphs previously as a coproducer of "Equus" and "Travesties," both award-winners. In solo venture she now lists a revival of Peter Shaffer's "Black Comedy" and "One on One," a career vs. marriage drama.

Frankie Hewitt, like Mrs. Abrahams already represented on the hit parade with "Your Arms Too Short to Box With God," is ready to enter the lists anew with "And Still I Rise," an Afro-American musical.

The other three women currently represented on the Rialto haven't announced subsequent plans while tending their present treasures. They are Terry Allen Kramer, who found a sleeper in the musical "I Love My Wife"; Ruth Mitchell, Hal Prince's long time partner, with "Side By Side By Sondheim" and Maxine Fox, wrapped up with her husband Kenneth Weissman since 1972 in the spectacular success of "Grease." The pair has just sent a fifth company on national tour, leaving scant time for hunting new jackpots.

Back in action are two of the distaff squad's best-known doers. Cyma Rubin, instrumental in igniting the nostalgia fad with "No, No, Nanette," is readying reprise of another oldie, George Gershwin's "Oh, Kay."

Adela Holzer, who has farflung business interests outside theater, lists a brace of musical prospects, "Jam" which has to do with New Orleans jazz, and "Sarava," set in South America.

RURITAN CONVENTION

The district convention of the Greenville-Goldsboro district of Ruritans will be held at D.H. Conley High School on Nov. 19, instead of Nov. 21 as listed in an earlier article.

Q.1—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠J6 ♠J92 ♠A102 ♠AJ1053
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass
2 ♠ Pass 2NT Pass
3 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. Partner has shown a minimum opening bid with six spades and four hearts—if he had a stronger hand, his first rebid would have been two hearts rather than two spades. You have already made a move toward game; now all you can do is take a preference to partner's first suit.

Q.2—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠J6 ♠AK982 ♠AK106 ♠73
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
2 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass

What action do you take?
A.—You cannot tell how good partner's hand is. However, since he did not take preference to either of your suits, he almost surely has a six-card suit. You have a better than minimum opening bid with good controls, and your spade support is adequate in the light of partner's bidding. A raise to three spades is indicated.

Q.3—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠8 ♠KQ872 ♠AQ983 ♠Q6
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ 2 ♠ ?

What action do you take?
A.—Even though you have a minimum opening bid and East's overall has made your queen of clubs a doubtful asset, you may never get another chance to safely introduce your diamond suit. Bid two diamonds. Odds are that partner has a fit for one of your suits, or a long, decent spade suit of his own, so the danger of competing on such scant values is not too great.

Q.4—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠QJ4 ♠KQ1065 ♠6 ♠A832
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass
3 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Because of the double fit and your controls in both minor suits, your hand has become very powerful and slam is a distinct possibility. You should alert partner to this fact by cue-bidding four clubs.

Q.5—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠5 ♠KJ9643 ♠K1072 ♠83
Partner opens the bidding with one no trump. What do you respond?
A.—With your hand, you want to play in a heart game. Therefore, you should simply go ahead and bid four hearts. Don't make the mistake of bidding three hearts. That would show a hand that is slam-oriented or which would accept the alternative contract of three no trump. You are not interested in either of these possibilities.

Q.6—Both vulnerable, as South with 60 on score you hold:
♠AK73 ♠KQJ105 ♠AQ82
Your right-hand opponent opens the bidding with one heart. What action do you take?
A.—It might seem strange, looking at a hand with 22 points, but we suggest a simple overall of two diamonds. Obviously, we would not consider this action without the 60 partial. Here, however, we would rule out a double or a cue-bid for two reasons. Because of our spade void, we would not like partner to insist on a contract in that strain, and in view of East's opening bid, it is unlikely that partner has enough to give us reasonable play for slam. Also, we might get a second chance to show our strength if either opponent elects to compete.

Q.7—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AK104 ♠KQ7 ♠K5 ♠KQ84
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Your hand is too strong for a mere one spade rebid. However, a jump to two spades would suggest a more unbalanced hand. Therefore, we recommend the descriptive rebid of two no trump. Partner can always check to see whether we have a spade suit en route to three no trump if he so desires.

Q.8—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AKQJ85 ♠954 ♠7 ♠K83
The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
1 ♠ 1 ♠ Pass 2NT Pass ?

What action do you take?
A.—Bid three no trump. You are giving partner at least six tricks and he has promised a fair hand with his jump to two no trump. Despite the fact that you are unbalanced, we think that nine tricks might be easier to make than ten. In addition, with partner as declarer, his tenaces will be protected from a possibly damaging lead through.

FORECAST FOR TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1977

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGHTER INSTITUTE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You want to get your affairs on a firm foundation but find it difficult because of uncooperative associates whose views are different from yours. Avoid discussions, go about your career work calmly.

ARIES (March 21 to Apr. 19) Not a good time to have that talk with a bigwig, so wait for a better time for such. Study credit affairs and make improvements. Take no chances where reputation is concerned.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Set up a better set of conditions around you by your own efforts and be happier. Don't get involved with an unknown whose ideas are radically different from your own.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Consider your obligation to others and improve your monetary status. Show loved one you do understand views and come to a better understanding. Be careful in the handling of money.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Know what is expected of you by partners and try to please them instead of forcing things your way. Ignore a public annoyance and show you are an A-1 citizen.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You have much work to do so avoid situations that could be foolish and expensive. Plan time wisely or you could overdo.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) A good time to go out for pleasure, but don't overspend. A problem requires your finest skill to solve properly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Do what is necessary to create more harmony at home. Not a good day to start new projects.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Consider more the wishes and views of partners and gain their cooperation. Use care in driving.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be concerned with money matters and find some way to add to present assets. Plan to repair any property you have. Get estimates from several.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have cause to be disgruntled, but take it easy and maintain poise. Don't be too critical of others. Do not attend a social affair where there could be trouble.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You may think the situation around you is beyond control, but cleverness on your part will prove differently. Avoid arguing with mate, loved one, or it could turn into something serious.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Study the situation with friends and be the peacemaker. Get busy at business matters and relegate the social and personal to a better time and day.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be immersed in business matters and should have the finest education possible slanted along such lines in order to achieve the big success possible here. There could also be a quirk in this nature that will be a blessing in disguise to bring about more success in dealing with others than most.

Dispensed By Staffers

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—People without medical training are dispensing drugs to patients in community mental health centers at their own discretion, a North Carolina Mental Health Association report says.

The report was presented at the association's annual meeting. It said psychiatrists sometimes signed prescriptions and left the drugs to be distributed by nonclinical staff when the staff felt the patients needed the medication.

The report also criticized the community mental health centers for allowing social workers or nurses in some cases to assume total responsibility for patients without adequate guidance from psychiatrists.

The association planned to make recommendations for changes to the state Board of Medical Examiners and state mental health officials.

The study was conducted by a professional advisory committee of the association and was endorsed by the 200 who attended the annual meeting over the weekend.

It also said quality of patient care was extremely uneven across the state in community mental health centers, which one of the authors of the study described as a "quiltwork, ranging from very good to lacking."

Left Sweden For Surgery

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—A Swedish girl, whose family says her country's socialized medical system would not help her, came to Greensboro for an operation to keep her eyes from crossing when she focuses them.

Carol Andersson, 11, entered Moses Cone Hospital Oct. 13 for cosmetic surgery to straighten her eyes.

She was staying with her American uncle, Arne Andersson, and his wife, Dorothy.

"Over there, where they have socialized medicine, they are not accustomed to a choice of doctors," Mrs. Andersson said. Since Carol's doctor declined to do anything about Carol's problem, she said, there was nothing to be done about it in Sweden.

So her family sent her to Greensboro, where she will spend the next five weeks recovering from her surgery, doing homework assigned her before she left home and visiting an American school.

Now—$1 enrolls you in this Physicians Hospital Plan that pays you cash benefits from the very first day you're in the hospital, $900⁰⁰ a month ($30⁰⁰ a day).

50% Increase in Cash Benefits for Cancer and Heart Attack

We guarantee to issue you this insurance—regardless of your age, health or family size. Then you can renew for as little as $7⁵⁵ a month—depending on your age.

- Pays cash benefits from the very first day of hospitalization.
- No limit to the number of days you can collect cash benefits—even for life.
- Pays cash benefits directly to you—to spend as you wish—unless you tell us otherwise.
- Guaranteed renewable for life.
- No waiting period. Accidents and new sicknesses are covered immediately.
- Pays you over and above any other insurance you may have—including Medicare.

DO YOU KNOW that the cost of a day in the hospital now averages $175.00? That's right! And that's only for room, board and routine nursing care. Then come the other charges for the services and supplies needed to treat an illness or injury. And these costs have been going up, too. All of this on top of your regular expenses—food, rent, utilities, telephone, loan payments.

If your basic protection is like most hospitalization policies, it won't pay all of your hospital bills. Not by a long shot. You have to come up with the difference between what your present policy will pay and the total amount of your hospital bill. And what happens if your paycheck stops while you're in the hospital—and you don't have any cash coming in? In no time you could find your savings gone. You could even find yourself going deeper and deeper into debt!

This is why Physicians Mutual created this extra protection hospital plan. So that—instead of your money all going out—you can have money coming in. Money to help you pay the hospital bills your other insurance doesn't cover. Money to help you pay your phone, electric and food bills. Money to help safeguard your income and your savings.

$900.00 a month—$30.00 a day—cash!

Hospital rates are usually the same for everybody. That's why this policy pays the same $30 a day cash benefit when you, your wife or any of your children are hospitalized for any covered sickness or accident. Compare these benefits with other policies that pay reduced benefits for dependents.

50% increase in cash benefits for cancer and heart attack: $1350.00 a month, $45.00 a day.

No one likes to think about getting cancer or having a heart attack. But it happens all the time. About 53 million Americans now living will eventually have cancer. That's 1 in 4 persons.* And it's estimated that nearly 4 million people have a history of heart attack. We sincerely hope you never have to collect. But if you should, daily benefits are increased 50% if you or any covered member of your family is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease) or heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion).

Double benefits for you and your wife!

When your wife is covered and both of you are hospitalized at the same time due to accidents, your daily benefits are increased. That's right, you get twice the regular cash benefit—$3,600 a month ($120 a day) to help you through this emergency. By the way, hospitalization doesn't have to be due to the same accident: you and your wife could be injured in unrelated accidents.

*American Hospital Association American Cancer Society
 American Heart Association

Pays maternity benefits, too!

You'll collect full benefits—$30 a day—for hospitalization due to pregnancy or any pregnancy complication, if your policy has been in force for 10 months. There's no added cost to you!

No waiting period for accidents or new sicknesses.

You're covered the very minute your policy is issued and put in force for new sicknesses—and accidents. That means you could be rushed to the hospital a few minutes after you get your policy—and be able to start collecting your $30 a day benefits immediately, starting that very day!

You get lifetime coverage and benefits.

There's no limit on the number of days for which you can collect cash benefits. You can be hospitalized as often as necessary and stay as long as you have to—knowing that your $30 a day benefits cannot run out. Our policy will pay you benefits for as long as you're hospitalized—even for life!

Pays cash benefits in addition to any other insurance you have.

Remember, this is extra, supplemental protection. Your benefits are paid over and above any other insurance you may carry—including Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Major Medical and Medicare. This policy is designed to help you make up the difference between your total hospital bill and what your other insurance will pay.

Your benefits are not taxable.

Your benefits from your Physicians Mutual Policy are not taxable by any level of government. They are not subject to state or Federal income tax.

Your policy is guaranteed renewable.

Don't forget, this extra protection is yours as long as you want to have it and pay your premiums when due. We cannot drop you or cancel your coverage because your health changes, or because you're a few years older, or because you've submitted a number of claims. On the other hand, you can drop your policy on any renewal date. Also, your premium can never be increased unless premiums are raised on all policies like yours in your entire state.

These are the exclusions.

Pre-existing conditions (health problems that became evident or were medically treated before the effective date of the policy) are not covered for one year from the date the policy is issued. Half-benefits ($15 a day) are paid for up to 4 weeks confinement due to mental disorder. Not covered is hospitalization for alcoholism, drug addiction or any condition covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers' Liability Law benefits. Confinement in nursing homes, Federal hospitals, or the self-care, extended-care or convalescent units of hospitals is not covered. Pregnancy or any consequence is covered after your policy is 10 months old.

Physicians Mutual—the insurance company run by doctors since 1902.

You don't have to think twice about enrolling in this plan. You're doing business with a solid, reputable company with a 75-year history of steady growth and of outstanding service.

From 1902 until 1962, Physicians Mutual offered health insurance only to physicians, surgeons and dentists. Then, recognizing the rising need for supplemental health insurance, the company began offering this extra protection to the general public.

Today our policies protect more than 1,000,000 Americans in 49 states and the District of Columbia. And Physicians Mutual has grown to become the 10th largest individual health insurer in the country!

That's not all. Last year, for instance, we paid over $50,000,000.00 in cash benefits on all policies—to folks like yourself.

More—Physicians Mutual is truly a company "run by doctors." Our Board of Directors continues to be made up almost entirely of doctors. Men who know the cost of hospital care and want to put your mind at ease. Men who take our obligation to our policyowners seriously, and have a personal pride in the company's reputation for integrity, reliability and service.

And we're proud to say that Physicians Mutual has been awarded an A (Excellent) Rating by the A.M. Best Company, the insurance industry's authority on a company's financial stability and operating performance.

Money-back guarantee.

First, we guarantee to issue you a policy regardless of your age or your health. As soon as we receive your Application and $1, we will issue your policy (P350 Series), put it in force, and mail it to you. You are protected right from that minute!

Naturally, we can issue only one policy to you on a guaranteed issue basis. If you are already a Physicians Mutual policyowner, please write for details of the additional coverage we have for you.

When you get your policy, you will have 30 days to make up your mind—to completely satisfy yourself this policy is all we say it is. Should you change your mind about your need for this important supplemental coverage, simply return your policy. We will promptly refund your $1 in full—with no questions asked. What could be fairer?

Enroll right away. Now.

You can enroll in this extra protection plan right now—right from this page. All you do is fill out the short Application at the bottom of the page and mail it together with $1 which pays for your first month—no matter how many family members you want covered. Do it right away. Fill out and mail your Application now. You never know what can happen!

People over 65 are also protected.

When you are 65, you'll find help for hospital care in many forms—Medicare, Social Security, special agencies, and perhaps a pension plan. But because people in this age group go to the hospital more often, this extra help is frequently not enough.

In addition to Medicare, you'll be receiving cash benefits from Physicians Mutual... to fill the financial void created by your illness. During the first 60 days of hospitalization—when Medicare coverage is highest—you collect half benefits, $15.00 a day.

After 60 days of hospital care—when Medicare coverage reduces and you need help the most—your cash benefits go up to $30.00 a day. And stay there no matter how long the hospital visit.

We've found that most folks over 65 prefer this approach—because your monthly premiums do not increase after you turn 65.

Another feature many senior citizens appreciate is that you will be covered for cancer, heart attack, stroke, hernia, disease or disorder of the prostate, tuberculosis, cataracts, emphysema, cirrhosis or diabetes if your hospital confinement commences more than six months after the effective date of your policy.

YOUR POLICY COMES IN THIS HANDSOME VINYL WALLET.

Your policy is made out in your name and comes to you in this rugged, handsome vinyl document holder. It's yours to keep even if you decide you don't want to continue this coverage. It's a convenient and easy way to file your important personal papers in one safe place.

YOUR OWN I.D. CARD. Along with your policy and wallet, you will receive a Physicians Mutual Policyowner Identification Card. It is your assurance of hospital cash protection and fast, personal claim service.

If you have any questions about this policy call 800-228-9100 toll-free from anywhere in the Continental United States. (Nebraska residents, call 402-558-8900 collect). Our Customer Service staff is ready to serve you from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Central Time, Monday thru Friday.

Husband-Wife Plan
 Designed for the married couple without children or whose children are grown and no longer dependent. Pays $900 a month cash—$30 a day—when either of you is in the hospital for a covered sickness or accident. Maternity included at no extra cost. And benefits double when both husband and wife are hospitalized at the same time due to accidents.

All-Family Plan
 Offers protection for the growing young family. Covers father, mother and all eligible dependent children—including future additions. 2 Choose the Daily Cash Benefit and Monthly Renewal Rate that fits your budget best.

Choose $900.00 a month—$30.00 a day—benefits!

Remember, $1.00 is all you pay for your first month. Then you can continue this extra protection against today's cost of hospital care for the monthly renewal rate shown for your age.
