

Early Showdown On Carter's Promised Veto

By LEE BYRD
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter, risking congressional wrath, vetoed a $10.2-billion energy and water development bill today he said was wasteful and inflationary.
House and Senate leaders pressed for quick attempts to override.
"The question is one of fiscal responsibility," Carter said moments before signing the veto message in the Oval Office.
"This has not been an easy decision for me to make," he said. "It's something I do not enjoy."

He urged members of Congress to work with the administration to develop a "responsible bill" for water projects, one that "we actually need at a cost we can afford."
It was the sixth time Carter has used his veto authority.
The showdown followed a day of furious lobbying Wednesday by administration officials and emotional arguing by both sides in the quest for public support.

Senate Majority Leader Robert Byrd, D-W.Va., told the Senate on Wednesday that he expected override attempts from both houses within hours of Carter's veto.
He said he believed the Senate would succeed in its attempt, but House Majority Leader Jim Wright, D-Texas, said he wasn't sure the two-thirds vote could be mustered among House members.
"I think we had them today," he said Wednesday night. "but the White House is really putting on a full-court press."

He said House members told him Vice President Walter Mondale and cabinet members were pressing them to support the veto.
Both Byrd and House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., took issue with the veto, which Carter promised Tuesday, and warned it could lead to a backlash against the president's top priority energy package.
"I don't like to see this brewing," said O'Neill, who predicted the House would override the veto. "There's going to be some rancor."
The bill contains $6.1 billion for the Department of Energy, but that's not at issue. Most of the rest would go for dams and other water-resource projects, and Carter has complained that the 53 starts on water projects — 27 more than he wanted — are "pork-barrel" goodies that are "inflationary...wasteful...and absolutely unacceptable."

He was unhappy, too, that Congress restored six water projects he thought had been scuttled last year in a compromise on similar legislation.

White House press secretary Jody Powell declared that even if Carter loses a veto fight, "The people will believe the president has done the right thing."

Wholesale Prices Continue To Rise

By MICHAEL DOAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale food prices turned upward again last month, signaling a possible new round of increases at the grocery store, government figures indicated today.
The Labor Department said wholesale food prices jumped 1.7 percent in September after two months of declines. It was the largest monthly increase since the 1.8 percent gain in April, when food prices were spiraling.
Over-all wholesale prices of finished goods rose 0.9 percent, also the biggest gain since April. Non-food items rose 0.6 percent.
The biggest increases were in wholesale prices for beef and veal. The higher costs of producing food are usually passed on to grocery shoppers eventually.

So far this year, prices have been rising at a rate of about 10 percent, but the Carter administration has expected inflation to slow to 8 percent for the entire year.
The administration has been counting on lower food prices to help slow the inflation rate, which was 6.8 percent in 1977.
Only Wednesday, the administration's Council on Wage and Price Stability said in a report that "pressures on food prices have eased in recent weeks, bringing some relief to consumers."
"However," it added, "the inflation rate for the year as a whole will show a clear acceleration from the rate of the past two years."
It takes more than one month to establish a trend, but prices were rising rapidly at all stages of food production.

Grocery store prices had remained steady in July and August, but the new report indicated more pressure on grocers to raise prices.
Prices turned up after decreasing in August for processed poultry, vegetable oil and black pepper. Prices also went up, but less than in August, for pork, fish, dairy products, processed fruit and vegetables and flour-basemixes.
Wholesale prices declined for fresh and dried fruits and vegetables, eggs and milled rice. Roasted coffee prices were unchanged.
Among other items:
—Wholesale prices turned upward for rubber shoes, home heating oil, home furnishings, soft drinks and prescription drugs.
—Larger increases for gasoline, over-the-counter drugs and paper plates were reported than in August.
—Prices dropped for motor oil and tires.
—Prices rose 0.4 percent, a smaller increase than in August, for long-lasting consumer goods, called durable goods. Prices declined for luggage, household appliances. Furniture rose slightly, but prices for home electronic equipment, cars and lawnmowers rose sharply.

Given Eight Life Terms

By STUART SAVAGE
Reflector Staff Writer
A 21-year-old Greenville man, Linwood Earl Tyson of 507 Church St., was sentenced to eight life terms and 60 years in prison this morning in connection with a series of rapes and burglaries, a murder and kidnapping, and an assault here last spring.
Superior Court Judge David Reid handed down the sentences today after Tyson pled guilty to the charges in Pitt County Superior Court yesterday.
Tyson pled guilty to the April 8 murder of Marvin Earl Stepps of 1406 Mills St., the kidnapping and rape of Stepps' wife, and with burglary in connection with the incident.
He received life sentences on the burglary, and murder charges and 10 years on the rape count.
Tyson also pled guilty to burglary charges in connection with the theft of a .410 gauge shot gun, a coin collection and bicycle, valued at $175, from 1208 Myrtle Ave. on March 23. It was that shotgun Tyson allegedly used in the Stepps slaying.

He received a life sentence for the burglary charge and 10 years for the larceny of the items from the home.
Tyson pled guilty to burglary and rape charges in connection with incidents in North Greenville on May 8 and March 29, for which Reid sentenced him to life in connection with each of the two burglary charges and 10 years each in connection with the rape charges.
Tyson, who allegedly took a .22 caliber rifle and tape player from a Church Street home on May 6, was sentenced to life in connection with the burglary charge and 10 years for larceny of the $60 worth of merchandise from the home.
Charged with burglary in connection with an incident at 1410 Dickinson Ave. on May 8, Tyson was given a life term, as well as 10 years for assaulting Stewart Timothy Hoyle inside the home.
Tyson was taken into custody in connection with the cases in May, following an intensive investigation by the Greenville Police Department and the State Bureau of Investigation.

Claim Plot To Steal Nuke Sub

ST LOUIS (AP) — It reads like the script for a best-selling spy thriller: Board a U.S. nuclear submarine, kill the crew, head for the high seas after firing a nuclear-tipped missile at an East Coast city and then turn the sub over to a buyer.
But the FBI says the plot was real. It arrested two men Wednesday in St. Louis and a third early today in New York State.
Edward J. Mendenhall, 24, of Rochester, N.Y., and Kurtis J. Schmidt, 22, of Kansas City, Mo., were to be arraigned this morning before a federal magistrate in St. Louis on charges of conspiring to steal the U.S.S. Trepang, based in New London, Conn. They were being held in lieu of $50,000 bond each.

The FBI said James W. Cosgrove, 26, of Ovid, N.Y., was arrested in upstate New York and will also be arraigned today on similar charges.
The FBI described Mendenhall as a married insurance company employee and Schmidt as an unmarried carpet cleaner. There was no background on Cosgrove.
Roy B. Klager Jr., special agent in charge of the FBI's St. Louis office, said the alleged plot came to light last month when Mendenhall and Cosgrove attempted to recruit an undercover agent into a 12-man crew that was to take the Trepang into the Atlantic Ocean, where they could rendezvous with an unidentified buyer.

Expect Senate Extend Life Of ERA In Final Vote Scheduled Friday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both supporters and opponents predict the Senate is about to extend the life of the Equal Rights Amendment, signaling nearly four more years of lobbying about equality for women.
A final vote is set for Friday on a measure extending until 1982 the time period for ratification of the ERA.
An amendment that would have permitted states that have already ratified to rescind their action went down by a 54-44 vote on Wednesday. Thirteen Republicans joined 41 Democrats to defeat it. Twenty Democrats and 24 Republicans supported it.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., principal Senate sponsor of the ERA extension, said the amendment "would have effectively killed any chance for final ratification."
Bayh said he expects the extension to be approved by a healthy margin.
Sen. Jake Garn, R-Utah, who led the fight to permit states to reverse themselves, said, "It is quite clear to me the opponents have the votes to pass the extension."

FISH IN FARM PONDS
We have a farm pond with fish in it and would like to know if it is wise to eat the fish? Do we need to have them tested? A.T.
Hotline talked to Roy Beck, local agent of the N.C. Soil Conservation Service, who told us that he had never heard of healthy fish in a farm pond being unfit to eat. However, Beck said, to have fish tested for mineral content and other contamination is a costly undertaking.
"Unless there has been a fish kill", Beck said, "I can't imagine the fish being unsafe to eat."

FLY BAIT, KILLER
I saw a very interesting ad for some fly bait called Lureen and some fly killer called Kill'em you use in conjunction with each other. It's supposed to be safe for humans and pets. I wrote to the company, Agricultural Supply Company in Omaha, Nebr., but got back only a pamphlet saying it should be available in this area. I have called every farm supply store I can think of and can't find anyone who carries it. If there is any store, maybe Hotline can find it. Mrs. W.B.

According to the list of stores you gave us that you had checked with, you were very thorough, so we'll open it up to our readers. Does anyone know of a source of this fly bait and killer? If so, please call Hotline at 752-1336 and leave a message.

Abducted, Says Tammy Wynette

ABDUCTED — Country singer Tammy Wynette was released in a rural area of Tennessee last night by a man she said had beaten her and choked her after abducting her at gunpoint earlier in Nashville. (AP Laserphoto)

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Bruised, battered and choking from pantyhose tied tightly around her neck, country music singer Tammy Wynette was found staggering up a rural driveway after her release by a masked gunman she says tried to kill her.
State investigators said the blonde, 36-year-old singer told them she was abducted at gunpoint from a Nashville shopping center Wednesday night and driven about 80 miles in her yellow Cadillac before being set free.
Miss Wynette said the gunman made no threats or demands for money and, after leaving her with her car, walked away and fled in another vehicle, officials said.
She was released in Giles County near the home of Junette Young, who said she cut a pair of pantyhose from around Miss Wynette's neck.
"She couldn't breathe. It was real tight, in fact I had to cut it off," said Mrs. Young. "She just said, 'He had tried to kill me. He tried to kill me. He tried to kill me.'"
Mrs. Young said the entertainer's neck was swollen but not cut.
"Her neck hurt real bad and her mouth hurt her where he had slapped her in the mouth," Mrs. Young said.
State Safety Commissioner Joel Plummer said Miss Wynette's condition did not appear serious and that she was treated at Giles County Hospital in Pulaski, Tenn.
"Apparently she was just slapped around some," Plummer said. "She just had bruises on her cheek and had scratches and bruises on her face and neck."
Miss Wynette, whose hits include "Stand By Your Man," "D-I-V-O-R-C-E" and, most recently, "Womanhood," was voted top female vocalist by the Country Music Association in 1968, 1969, 1970 and 1972.
Authorities were first alerted to the abduction by Miss Wynette's fifth husband, record producer George Richey, who called Gov. Ray Blanton at the executive mansion to ask for help after his wife had called him from the Young home, according to Trooper Jerry Ferrell.
Ferrell, assigned to the mansion, said that at Blanton's orders, state investigative agents and troopers were pressed into service.
The singer's ordeal began Wednesday afternoon when she got into her car at Nashville's Green Hills Shopping Center and discovered a masked gunman in the back seat, Plummer said.
"He had already positioned himself in the back seat where she didn't see him until she was already in the car," Plummer said. "He was either wearing a mask or a sack over his head and had a pistol, which she described as a blue steel gun."

Touring Facilities
ADVISORY BUDGET COMMISSION TOUR — Edward Knox of Charlotte, chairman of the State's Advisory Budget Commission and East Carolina University Chancellor Thomas Brewer at Brewer's home last night where the ABC and other state officials were entertained at a reception and dinner. The ABC arrived in Greenville yesterday for a tour of the Walter B. Jones Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center and the affair at Brewer's home. The group toured the university campus and the Eastern Area Health Education Center this morning. The visit to Greenville area facilities was made as part of the commission's duties prior to making recommendations for the State's 1979-1981 biennium budget.

Must She Act As Shill For Husband?

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband loves to sing. He has had a few voice lessons and is quite good for an amateur. He has a large repertoire of songs and even has the piano accompaniment on tape to take with him when he goes where there will be no piano accompanist.

Sometimes he sings beautifully, but he usually sings too long and he frequently forgets the lyrics. He is 74.

The problem is that he wants me to ask him to sing when we have guests, or when we go elsewhere as guests. Our friends have been very patient with him so far, but no one else has ever asked him to sing, and when I ask him, it's like asking little Johnny to recite before a captive audience.

For years I have urged him to join a choral group, but he prefers to sing solo. This is partly because he can't read music, and partly because he can't hold a part if someone is singing a different note next to him.

Am I wrong in refusing to ask him to sing? He gets very upset with me, and says if I loved him I'd cooperate. Is there a solution?

DEAR WIFE: Yes. Suggest that he give recitals, invite his friends, and sing to his heart's content.

DEAR ABBY: This letter is one more comment in the debate on the mother-daughter trust that has been raging in your column.

It seems that a great many mothers have among their daily chores the cleaning up of their children's rooms. During that cleaning, mothers invariably discover things that their children prefer to keep secret.

Fortunately, I have never had that problem. My mother has always believed that I should clean up my own room—or not clean it up, as I choose. Besides, she has enough other things to do without doing for me that which I am perfectly capable of doing for myself.

N.L. IN W.H.

DEAR N.L.: You sound like a very together daughter. Congratulate your mother for me. She taught you responsibility.

DEAR ABBY: Let me tell you about a handicapped person I know. He's paralyzed from the waist down. Now some folks think that the disabled are also retarded. That's not so! My friend attended college, and now works for a large insurance company as an underwriter.

And as for getting around—yes, it takes a few minutes more for him to get into his car, but he gets there. His car is equipped with hand controls of course, but you should see this guy dance! When he does the "bump" his whole body and chair swings with him.

He also lifts weights—up to 300 pounds. He's even won medals for it. Some of you able-bodied men should try lifting a 300-pound weight. This guy has won scores of medals for racing, shot-put and discus in wheelchair sports.

And as for love—well, he knows more about love than a lot of people.

How come I know so much about him? He's my husband. And he's not nearly as "handicapped" as most people think. (Sign me...)

Final Goodbyes To Bearded Lady

SHELBY, N.C. (AP) — A host of carnival people gathered here Tuesday to say goodbye to Lola, the Bearded Lady, who died last week at the Cleveland County Fair.

Lola — who surprised many here by turning out to be a man — lay in an open coffin in the carnival tent where she died, her head wrapped in a blue turban and her 12-inch beard gleaming white. Her fingers rested on a Bible open to the

23rd Psalm. Brigit the Jungle Girl, Tattoo Tony, Karl the Magician and other carnival folk listened as the Rev. Dan Wallace of Calvary Baptist Church in Shelby said, "Life is just a blade of grass, withered by the sun and swept away by the wind." The son of itinerant carnival workers, Lola was born around the turn of the century in Hawaii and christened Leiu Conklin. She joined her mother's line of high-stepping chorus girls when she was 11, and from then on, saw herself as a woman, said Lee

Cullison, wife of the sideshow manager who hired the bearded lady last June.

This was Lola's first year back on the carnival circuit after suffering a heart attack and stroke in 1972.

"I won't be around much longer, and I just can't stand to think that I have to leave this business and all these wonderful people," Lola recently told a friend.

Lola's stories enchanted even the most hard-bitten, said John Meach, a carnival worker. "She never gave shows. She held court," Meach said.

New Plant Is Welcome Here

Another of the nation's top corporate names has announced that it will locate a plant facility in Pitt County.

McGraw-Edison Co., a firm with sales of $1.04 billion, has acquired the Boise-Cascade building on Industrial Boulevard to be used as a facility for the manufacture of nickel-cadmium storage batteries.

Production is expected to be phased in during 1979 with employment of 50 persons by the end of the year, and further increases anticipated.

The major market for the batteries which the local plant will make is the transportation industry. The batteries are used for standby power on electric transit cars.

McGraw-Edison makes a variety of electrical products and appliances. It employs 24,000 people around the world and had profits of $57.3 million in 1977.

Local officials have expressed pleasure in the plant's location here. Bruce Beasley, chairman of the Pitt Development Commission said, "McGraw-Edison is a pollution free, high wage industry which complements the target companies our commission is continuing to attract to our area."

McGraw-Edison is certainly an outstanding United States corporation and we are pleased that the firm is locating a facility here.

Campus Needs Should Be Very Obvious

The State Advisory Budget Commission visited the campus of East Carolina University today.

It should be clear to the commission that the ECU main campus is one badly in need of capital expansion.

Granted that there is a major building program underway for the Medical School, there nevertheless has been little new construction on the main campus for several years. With a growing student body the capital improvement needs are quite obvious.

Financing of new facilities is going to be essential to the undergraduate and graduate programs at ECU during the coming biennium.

DA Selection Unchanged

By BILL NOBLITT
RALEIGH — While Gov. Jim Hunt promises to push in the 1979 General Assembly for merit selection of judges, he sees no need to change the system by which the public prosecutors are chosen.

The popular election of district attorneys in the various judicial districts works well and needs no adjustment, says the governor.

Yet he sees something wrong in popular election of the judges, and proposes a nominating commission which will present a slate of names to the governor who will then pick the person to take the bench.

Gov. Hunt has not yet made up his mind on which follow-up election method might be recommended: one alternative is a periodical election in which the people either endorse or reject the sitting judge. If rejected, a new appointee would be picked by the merit system. He sees the need for some public involvement in retention of the judges over the long run, at any rate.

The Team
But for the other half of the courtroom team (the judge and the prosecutor) no change is in sight despite clear warning signs that something is amiss.

For while judges must answer to the Judicial Standards Commission if complaint is brought against them, the district attorneys in reality answer to no one — except the voters, and when it is considered that the prosecutor must depend upon his colleagues at the bar for financial and political support to win election, this puts the job in a highly vulnerable situation when prosecutor and defense attorney square off in the courtroom.

Just such potential political explosiveness — the desire to remove judges from having to campaign for office — is one of the compelling reasons behind merit selection of judges.

Who can you complain to if a district attorney—or one of the assistants whom the prosecutor can hire with complete autonomy — needs investigation or disciplinary action?

BILL NOBLITT

Nobody, Gov. Hunt admits that he personally gets reports from time to time complaining of some problem with a district attorney. His only recourse is to let the prosecutor know of the complaint and suggest correction. The district attorney is free to toss the governor's letter in the nearest trash bin.

Yet in the courtroom it is the district attorney, more often than not, who reduces charges in order to get guilty pleas and clear overcrowded dockets; who engages in plea bargaining; who wheels and deals with the defense to come up with proposals which are later presented to the judge only for his concurrence.

Inexperienced
Court observers in several cases around the state have called attention to the relative inexperience of the prosecution staff, and the ability of high-powered defense attorneys to bring the inexperienced assistant district attorney to heel.

The prosecutors also are responsible for the orderly and timely calling of cases as the court proceedings move along, and so are much involved in the costly and troublesome delays which cause witnesses such inconvenience and often continue trials to the point that effective prosecution is impossible and convictions are lost.

So while the judges hold center stage in the courtroom dramas played out daily across North Carolina, the district attorneys are the producers, directors, and stage managers — in truth, more responsible for the conduct of justice even than the judges. Yet they answer to nobody.

WE THOUGHT WE'D HAD BAD ONES BEFORE, BUT

UNLIKE FORD MOTOR CO.

Selecting An Executive

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP Special Correspondent
VATICAN CITY (AP) — At the Vatican this coming week, they get down to the solemn business of finding the right man to carry on what the Encyclopedia Britannica calls the world's oldest continuing institution: the papacy.

The job description calls for an administrator, a communicator, a linguist, a motivator, a theologian (preferably a canon lawyer), a financier, a teacher, a discreet politician and an able public relations practitioner.

Some of the qualifications would be needed in any top executive job, but this is not anything like finding a new chairman for the Ford Motor Co.

Ford, a younger institution by nearly two millennia, doesn't worry about tradition as much as the Roman Catholic Church, whose goals are eternal and whose prospective clients embrace all civilization, making them difficult to program into a computer.

Ford could get executive recruiters — headhunters, they're called — to do the looking, instead of cardinals.

Even before the conclave begins Saturday, Oct. 14, the cardinal recruiters will be looking among themselves for a man of learning, of wit, eloquence, tact, charm and — something not usually sought in industry — piety.

In principle, any male — even a married one willing to put his wife in a convent — is eligible for the post first held by St. Peter 263 popes ago and most recently by John Paul I, who died in his bed only 34 days after his surprise election as the church's top executive.

Other Editors Say The Town Drunk

(Greensboro Daily News)

In movies, books and television, the "town drunk" is the old geezer who ties one on with uncommon regularity and usually spends a spell drying out in the local pokey. The fictional picture is one of humor rather than opprobrium.

But in real life, habitual drunkenness is no giggling matter. Alcoholism is a tragic illness that affects millions of Americans, leaving in its wake shattered lives, broken marriages and ruined careers.

In recent years, states have recognized alcoholism for what it is — a sickness. They have also recognized the need to remove public drunkenness — a victimless crime — from the police blotter, so to speak. There are currently 34 states which have decriminalized it. Now North Carolina has joined their ranks.

Basically, the new public drunkenness law allows a police officer to drive a drunk home, or take him or her to a friend's house or to a treatment center. Barring these options, the officer can take the drunk to jail where he will be allowed to "dry out" for 24 hours — but will not be criminally charged, unless drunken driving or disorderly conduct is involved.

In addition, if a drunk is brought before a judge and the judge determines that the defendant is an habitual alcoholic, the judge can then order the person to undergo detoxification and rehabilitation at an alcoholic treatment center.

This, unfortunately, is the glaring weakness in the new law. There simply aren't many treatment centers for alcoholism in North Carolina. Currently, the state has about 200 detoxification beds plus a few extra ones it can muster at mental hospitals equipped to treat alcoholism.

Overall, the rehabilitation aspects of the new law are stronger on paper than in reality. Aware of this shortcoming, the N.C. Department of Human Resources will be asking the upcoming General Assembly for $3 million to build community treatment centers.

This money must be appropriated if the new public drunkenness law is to fulfill the twofold intent of its framers — decriminalization and rehabilitation.

THE INSIDE REPORT

'Small Steps' Woo Arabs

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK
WASHINGTON — The first break for President Carter's new "small steps" policy in wooing anti-Sadat Arabs to his Mideast peace plan came Sept. 29 when the way was finally cleared for Congress to give Syria, leading the Arab resistance to the Camp David accords, $90 million in non-military aid.

The entire aid package for Syria had been thoughtlessly dumped from the House version of the aid bill months ago. The extraordinary reversal by the House conferees after Camp David resulted from hours of telephone calls to House members by Mr. Carter's aides, led by national security adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski. Here was the first success for the "small steps" policy.

With Mr. Carter's plan for peace in the Arab-populated, Israeli-controlled West Bank and Gaza hanging on Arab willingness to cooperate, such small steps mark the limit of presidential room for maneuver to keep the non-Egyptian part of his peace deal from collapsing. But it may be enough.

Syria's President Hafez Assad is chief architect of an anti-Egyptian front to isolate President Anwar Sadat for making a separate peace. Giving him the full U.S. aid will not change Assad's mind overnight. But it is Mr. Carter's way of sending this message to skeptical Arab leaders: the U.S. did not convene the Camp David summit to underwrite a separate peace; the U.S. will not permit Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin to sabotage the West Bank and Gaza agreements.

Similar stroking, mixed with U.S. muscle, is being applied backstage to Jordan's King Hussein and, most important, to Saudi Arabia. Carter aides are really more concerned about Saudi reactions than they admit. "The Saudis are absolutely crucial," one top adviser told us, "and they haven't given us the slightest signal of coming aboard."

The heart of Jimmy Carter's difficulty in winning the trust of the angry Arab world lies in Israeli politics. Begin barely squeezed out a one-vote majority in his own hard-line Herut party when the Israeli parliament overwhelmingly approved the Israeli-Egyptian peace agreement.

To achieve even that razor-edge margin, Begin angrily disavowed a public pledge by Mr. Carter that no new Jewish settlement would be constructed on the West Bank during negotiations for a West Bank-Gaza settlement. After that vote, Israeli supporters in Congress insisted that if Begin had not been able to win the support of the Herut party, he would have resigned as prime minister, throwing Israel into political crisis.

Both the U.S. and Israel now agree to disagree on the explosive settlements issue, which is the Arab litmus test of U.S. intentions on the West Bank. Mr. Carter does not yet dare to force the issue over settlements with Begin for fear of undermining the prime minister at home. But until the Arab world is certain that Israel will be forced to stop colonizing the West Bank, the cooperation of Jordan and West Bank Arab PROOFS OF RELIGIOUS TRUTH?

Can we prove religious truth?
Not in the way we can prove propositions in geometry or in the operation of physical laws. The things having to do with religious faith cannot be reduced to mathematical formulae. Neither can they be observed under a microscope or in a test tube.

But religious truth can be demonstrated by experience, like many other truths not susceptible to scientific proof. For example we find the proof of friendship only in the experience of friendship. The love of a man and a woman is its own proof, usually demonstrated by a happy marriage.

Just as we accept these truths on faith, so we must accept religious truth on faith. In the case of religious truth, we find its demonstration not in learned theological treatises, nor in analogies from the operation of cosmic laws, but in the conviction that comes from living Christian lives and learning from experience.

Free Advice Isn't So Reliable

BY JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Who are the financial "experts" who so freely give of their advice?
One is the financial counselor who tells readers this month in a national publication to exchange their Series E Savings Bonds for Series H, in order to obtain 7.5 percent interest instead of 6.

Series H bonds pay 6 percent, not 7.5. It's been that way for years.

Another is the stock market analyst who offers of the telephone an erudite explanation of why the price of gold has suddenly risen — only to realize that he has misread the ticker. The price had barely moved.

The expert is also the advisory firm that tells subscribers that if both husband and wife are eligible for Social Security benefits they will receive whichever is largest, the husband's or the wife's.

In fact, the benefits could be the total of the two.

The expert is the stock advisory service that forgets its poor selections but reminds you of the one in 10 that came out ahead, and even chides you for not having had faith enough to buy the stock.

And then insults you by attaching a cautionary warning to his report, advising that past results should not be taken as an indication of future profits.

The expert is the mutual fund that plugs its superiority — "Let us show you how our professional management and skilled research might enhance your estate" — and then produces a 10-year, no-gain record.

It is the popular economic analyst with the penchant for beginning his current reports with the words, "As I told you six months ago," knowing that few people will look through the record.

The expert is his cousin (figuratively speaking) who tosses names as easily as he gives advice, knowing that the important personalities he expatriates for his own uses aren't likely to squeal on him.

Are there really any experts at all?
An educator, Nicholas M. Butler, once said experts know more and more about less and less. But, weaving cosmic theories, financial experts sometimes claim to know more and more about more and more.

In personal finance there are authorities. But "expert" may have acquired a special meaning, at least to the many innocents who believe such people are endowed with superior intellectual powers.

Cheap Rental Agency

PAUL STEVENS
Associated Press Writer
EL DORADO, Kan. (AP) — El Dorado's only car rental agency features an 11-year-old Rambler, two 1966 pickup trucks and a 1954 Ford dump truck that have carried rabbits to the State Fair and little old ladies to doctor's appointments.

"Rent-A-Dent" has been in business for a month, and most of its rolling stock is on the streets of this oil town of 12,500 every day.

"People don't seem to mind the rust and the dents — the price is $9 a day, with the first 50 miles free.

"What's the difference if a car is seven or eight years old, as long as it will get you where you want to go?" asks Dennis Cooke, an auto salvage yard owner and Rent-A-Dent partner.

El Dorado attorney Gene White enlisted Cooke and Darryl Traylor, a building supply firm owner, after reading of a similar agency in California.

"I first got the idea when I had to rent a car," the 34-year-old White said. "I was shocked. Something like $16 a day and 15 cents a mile. I thought then that something could be done to beat that."

The partners borrowed $3,000, buying the Rambler, a 1970 Chevelle station wagon, a 1972 Buick and the pickups.

Until then, the only cars for rent in El Dorado were from new car dealers, who offered fancy cars at higher prices.

Their first customer was a Chanute, Kan., man on his way to the State Fair in Hutchinson with a rabbits ready for competition. His car broke down in El Dorado, so a Rent-A-Dent pickup took the rabbits the rest of the way.

Another early customer was not so pleased. She rented a Buick and drove it to Wichita, returning to complain of a foul odor in the car. Inspection

The idea of marriage for a meal ticket is out so far as the modern girl is concerned, says Dr. Laird T. Hites, professor of psychology at the Central Y.M.C.A. College in Chicago.

"Modern newweds consider marriage a partnership," Dr. Hites said. "The clinging type of girl is gone. Women recognize themselves as equals in every respect with men."

Dr. Hites asked students how many children they would like to have. The average desired three.

The American League New York Yankees reached Bill Lee, ace Chicago Cubs right-hander, for eight hits this afternoon and won the first game in the World's Series championship, 3-1.

The Yanks scored two runs in the second inning and added another in the sixth. The lone National League entry's score came in the third frame.

A crowd of more than 43,000 gathered at Wrigley Field in Chicago to witness the contest.

eligible to vote is just a bit over 66.

Pope Paul VI, who died Aug. 6 after a 15-year reign, revised the 1,000-year-old papal election process to exclude cardinals who have passed their 80th birthday from entering the conclave.

"Health is always a consideration," New York's Cardinal Terence Cooke admitted as he arrived for his second conclave in two months, echoing a now current theme that was not even discussed with reporters the last time.

Yet, unlike other big organizations, this most pervasive of all multinationals, dealing with 700 million members in 146 countries, does not insist on a thorough physical for its top management prospects or require an annual checkup after their selection.

In this unique high-rise world of steeples and campanile, there is room at the top for both a traditionalist and an innovator.

However, he must not come on too strong (in the beginning, anyway) as a radical reformer or a hidebound reactionary, since the Catholic Church in the past 15 years has been heavily buffeted by the cyclonic winds of change emanating from the reforms of Vatican Council II, which John XXIII inaugurated and Paul VI had to carry out.

Ford's River Rouge plant could easily swallow up the 108-acre Vatican City State and its 1,000 resident population. Yet the man the recruiters seek must have a wide knowledge of the world, without appearing worldly.

In a job where the pope is considered infallible in matters of doctrine, his credibility in temporal affairs must go beyond the image Madison Avenue seeks to create for other corporate heads.

Pope John Paul I served only 34 days in office, two days longer than the man who had the briefest American presidency, the almost forgotten William Henry Harrison who died April 4, 1841, from a chill he caught riding a horse in his inaugural parade.

Yet John Paul's influence on the conclave beginning Oct. 14 will be, in Cardinal Cooke's word, "pervasive."

The last time the cardinals met, the pre-election favorites were all cardinals with long management experience in the Curia, the church's central bureaucracy. But the electors passed these in favor of Albino Luciani, the patriarch of Venice, who had no Curia experience and none in the papal diplomatic corps when he became John Paul I.

Now, because of his brief influence, the names most often mentioned are pastoral types, bishops in their dioceses: Salvatore Pappalardo of Palermo, Sicily; Corrado Ursi of Naples; Giovanni Colombo of Milan; Giovanni Benelli of Florence and Giuseppe Siri of Genoa. But as the long history of the papacy shows, the only certain thing is the uncertainty that will grip the crowds when white smoke rises from the little stack atop the Sistine Chapel and the senior cardinal deacon makes his way out on the center balcony of St. Peter's Basilica to announce the 264th occupant of the chair of Peter.

To him will go the keys of the kingdom, the traditional fisherman's ring and, for a world headquarters, instead of a glass and steel high-rise, the largest cathedral in Christendom, the combined masterpiece of Michelangelo and all the great artists of the Renaissance.

Pitt GOP Will Meet Monday

The Pitt County Republican Party will have its monthly meeting on Monday, Oct. 9 at 8 p.m. at Home Savings and Loan on Arlington Boulevard.

Items scheduled for discussion during the session include plans for the "get out the vote" campaign, registration drive, and re-election of Jesse Helms to the U.S. Senate.

Mac Howard will preside at the meeting.

leaders remains doubtful. Accordingly, Mr. Carter's switch from the grand stage of Camp David to an undramatic policy of "small steps" is the only way open to him for now. But as the Israeli-Egyptian peace process moves along, there inevitably will be a showdown over new settlements. In that showdown, the president will have powerful cards to play.

Chief of these is the transformed mood in Congress, particularly within the potent Israeli bloc. Begin has never been popular with the American-Jewish community, and the Camp David agreements did not change that. Rather, a surprising sentiment has emerged that is in total conflict with Begin's Biblical claims to the West Bank.

Israel's supporters in Congress have carefully avoided taking public sides in the bitter Carter-Begin dispute over who said what at Camp David about new settlements. But the word has been passed privately to the president that when the settlements showdown comes, he will have full political backing on Capitol Hill — the protector of Israel's interests whenever a president applied pressure on the Israeli government.

The showdown will be delayed until Israel and Egypt are well along the road to their separate peace and the rest of the Arab world faces the reality of that sweeping transformation of Middle East politics. Soothing the Arab world with small steps until he can safely come to terms on new settlements is Mr. Carter's only course, but so far it seems to be working well.

revealed a dead mouse under the back seat.

"The lady was understanding but she had a right to be hollering," Cooke said.

Many customers are elderly persons who don't trust their cars for trips out of town, or who don't own a car but have a driver's license.

"Most of our customers have been average, good people who want to save a dollar," White said. "A need existed, and nobody just took the effort to fulfill a need in the community. Obviously, we couldn't put out $5,000 or $7,000 cars and get people to rent them at the price we're charging."

Doctors Learn N.C. Siamese Twins Share Defects

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Doctors at Duke Medical Center confirmed Thursday morning that Siamese twins born to a Fuquay-Varina couple Tuesday are joined at the heart and share serious heart defects.

A statement issued by the Duke public relations office said "a bridge of tissue joins the two hearts" of the twin girls. Doctors said in the statement that the twins have other serious heart defects, including faulty heart valves.

The twins are receiving additional medical therapy, and doctors will not make any immediate decision on separating them, the statement said.

Geraldine Bain, 36, had the Siamese twins Tuesday at Wake Memorial Hospital in Raleigh. They were transferred to Duke Tuesday night.

Dr. Howard C. Filsten, chief of pediatric surgery at Duke, said at a news conference Wednesday that X-rays showed the twins may share part of the same intestinal tract and their livers may be fused. He said additional tests would be made to determine what organs the babies share.

The father of the girls, David A. Bain, in an exclusive interview with the Raleigh News and Observer, said, "All I could say was, 'Why?'"

"That's all. Why me? Why them?" Bain said. "I feel bad about it. I hate it. I wish it had been an ordinary delivery."

Bain said he and his wife, the parents of seven other children, expected twins. They had even picked out names for the boys they hoped for — Ryan and Bryan.

A technician in the state agricultural department's diagnostic lab in Raleigh, Bain said there was no indication of anything unusual until the last minutes before the caesarean delivery. And it was not until the middle of the operation that the doctor, R.S. Gaither of Raleigh, knew that the girls were Siamese twins.

The twins were being kept in a high-oxygen environment in Duke's intensive care nursery. The oxygen level in their blood is low, but not critical, said Dr. Gerald A. Serwer, a pediatric cardiologist at Duke.

No separation of Siamese twins has ever been performed at Duke, the doctors said.

Died In Car Accident

BOONE — Greenville resident, Cindy Phillips Joyner, 30, was killed instantly yesterday morning in an automobile accident near here.

CINDY P. JOYNER

Trooper George Baker, investigating officer, said Ms. Joyner was riding alone about one and a half miles east of Boone when her car was struck by a Department of Transportation truck which crossed the center line and hit her car. The driver, identified as Lancey Augustus Pittman of Huntersville, told the officer he lost control of the vehicle when it ran off the right edge of the road.

Ms. Joyner apparently died instantly and her car was totally destroyed. Trooper Baker said, Pittman received no injuries and the DOT truck had about $1,000 damage done to it.

No charges have been filed, pending further investigation, the highway patrolman said.

Ms. Joyner was a representative for the Levi Corporation and was on the job at the time of the accident, according to a friend.

LIFE SENTENCES

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Ung Pang, a Chinese drug trafficker from Hong Kong, was executed Wednesday night and three accomplices were sentenced to life imprisonment by Prime Minister Kriengsak Chomanan, the government announced.

Today's Cryptquip clue: K equals S
The Cryptquip is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Single letters, short words, and words using an apostrophe can give you clues to locating vowels. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Horse Management Course Considered

The possibilities of offering a horse management course in the area will be discussed at the monthly meeting of the Greenville Saddle Club on Friday at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at Planters Bank.

The course will be offered by the N. C. State Extension Service under the leadership of Dr. T. M. Leonard, Extension Animal Husbandry Specialist.

An indication of the number of persons planning to enroll is necessary before further planning. Classes will be held in evening hours beginning in January. They will be free of charge and open to all ages.

Other items to be discussed include a Gymkhana to be held on Oct. 29 by the Pitt County 4-H Horse Fanciers Club under the sponsorship of the Greenville Saddle Club. Also, an afternoon trail ride and supper are planned for November.

Persons interested in attending these events, or the Horse Management course, should contact a club member or phone Pauline Hudson at 756-7266.

Absentee Vote?

Absentee voting may be accomplished for the Nov. 7 general election by voters who will be out of the county on election day, according to Margaret Register, Pitt Elections Board supervisor.

Miss Register said that requests for absentee ballots may be made by voters or by near relatives until Nov. 1 at 5 p.m.

Persons who will not be able to attend the polling place due to illness or disability may also vote by absentee ballot, she noted.

All requests for absentee ballots should be made at the main office of the Pitt Board of Elections, 201 E. Second Street here, she reported.

Jenkins Speaks At Association Meet

FAYETTEVILLE — Dr. Leo Jenkins spoke to the North Carolina Association for Retarded Citizens Saturday here, urging them to continue to sponsor and promote for enlightened legislation for facilities, programs and adequate funding for state institutions and community support programs.

Jenkins also told members to monitor state and federal legislation affecting the lives of retarded persons. He commended them for fighting for the expansion of educational services to provide effective mainstreaming of educable mentally retarded children into regular classrooms.

Later Opening For Library

Due to a quarterly conference being held on Friday at Shepard Memorial Library, the opening hour on Friday, Oct. 6 will be later than the regular opening hour.

On Friday, the library will open at noon, according to Miss Elizabeth Copeland, librarian.

tally retarded in North Carolina, located in Kinston, Durham, Morganton, and Goldsboro. The Mental Retardation Division of Mental Health and Mental Retardation Services in the Department of Human Resources, the Division of Exceptional Children in the State Department of Public Instruction and the Division of Rehabilitation Services in the Department of Human Resources are the state agencies responsible for developing and delivering services.

Farmville Mart Prices Steady

FARMVILLE — Grade for grade, prices remained steady on the Farmville Tobacco Market Wednesday, according to Louis N. Williams, sales supervisor, Farmville Tobacco Board of Trade.

Several grades of quality leaf brought prices of $1.65 to $1.85 a pound and all were company purchases, Williams said. Top practical price was $1.60, with leaf grades accounting for 80 percent of total sales. Stabilization receipts totaled .51 percent of sales yesterday, compared to 23 percent a year ago.

The Farmville market sold 613,650 pounds Wednesday for $901,835, an average of $146.96 per hundredweight. To date, the Farmville market has sold 23,260,521 pounds for $32,361,018, an average of $139.12, compared with $118.02 a year ago.

Police List 2 Accidents

An estimated $950 property damage resulted from two traffic collisions investigated by Greenville Police yesterday.

Harry Hagerty, vice president; Dixie McGlohon, secretary-treasurer; and Charles Allen, Phil Burks, Charles Hardee and Doug Starr, members of the board of directors.

Other board members are DeRoche Vincent, Bud Wheless, Orman Whichard, and Doug Williams. John McConney is the immediate past president.

The Kiwanis major emphasis program for 1978-79 is "Rightstart—The Formative Years." The primary goal of the program is to involve children in activities designed to reinforce the family's vital role in society by instilling attitudes of honesty, industry, cooperation, responsibility, respect for the rights of others and a desire for excellence.

Heaviest damage, according to investigators, resulted from a 3:50 p.m. collision on Memorial Drive, 80 feet North of the Greenville Boulevard intersection.

Officers said cars driven by Annie Garris Chappell of Ayden, and Marion Benjamin Parker of Route 1, Winterville, collided, causing an estimated $50 damage to the Chappell car and $600 damage to the Parker vehicle.

SATELLITE PROJECT

Rose, Gryphons Open League Wars

By WOODY PEELE
Reflector Sports Editor
 Rose High School's Rampants start into their second season Friday night, as they open Division I conference play against the Rocky Mount Gryphons.

The contest will be held on the Rocky Mount home field, starting at 8 p.m.

The Rampants, who have played outstanding defense and so-so offense, will be trying to put something together against one of the Division I favorites in the contest, Rocky Mount, in its five previous outings, has won four and lost one. The lone loss came at the hands of top-ranked 3-A power Tarboro.

Rose comes in with a 2-2-1 record, having beaten West Craven, 14-0, last week in a game that was lack-luster most of the way. Rose had only four yards in total offense in the half, and although they recovered in the second half, they still lacked a display of any killer instinct.

"West Craven was one of those games when you're not mentally ready to play," Coach Dave Bumgarner said in retrospect. "Also in the first half, we had three lost fumbles and two interceptions. That took away a lot of our offense. We just didn't have the ball that much against them in that half.

"We played a lot better in the second half, but we still didn't play like we're capable of doing. The only time we played with intensity was on our first touchdown drive. We should have scored at least one more time, and won 21-0."

Bumgarner said the Rampants have to quit putting so much pressure on the defense to win the games. Rose's defense has done the job for the most part, giving up only three touchdowns against the rush, and allowing only around 60 yards a game on the ground. But the big pass has hurt them. Four more touchdowns have been scored on the aerial route, most of them on bombs, or from long yardage situations when the Rampants had the foes in a hole.

"If our offense ever gets worked up, we can do some things. Of course, people are defending against the wishbone better now, so we have to come up with some things that will open our offense up more. We have to pass better for one thing," Bumgarner said.

The coach plans a few changes this week that he hopes will help out. "For one thing (Mark) Shank will start at quarterback this week. And we're going to have a few more people going both ways." He listed Ron Butler as playing both offensive end and linebacker; David Holley playing at center and defensive end; and Robert Morehead playing halfback, both offensively and defensively.

The Gryphons will present a lot of problems for the Rampants. They are a big team, and have played aggressive ball.

After bowing to Tarboro, 28-18 in their opener, they've ripped off four straight wins by good scores. They downed Goldsboro, 12-6, then beat Eastern Wayne, 20-12.

The Gryphons followed that up with a 33-6 win over Durham Hillsdale, then beat Garner, 25-0, this past Friday.

"I think we can play with them if our youngsters will be determined," Bumgarner said. "We don't have the size Rocky Mount has, nor the skilled people. But we do have quickness, and if we have the intensity, we can win."

Rocky Mount is in somewhat of a mystery position, having several top regulars hurt. Flanker Dudley Whitley is listed as questionable due to a sprained ankle. Quarterback Bill Merrifield is also questionable due to a wrist injury.

That may see wide receiver Mike Lewis move inside to take over the quarterback slot. Against Garner last week, he ran 88 yards from the quarterback position for a touchdown his first play there. He's caught 17 passes for 250 yards and two touchdowns from the split end spot. He also plays defensive safety.

Rodney Birth, the tailback in the I-formation has run for 385 yards, while fullback Sylvester Cooper has run for 275. Both are averaging about six yards a carry.

"Their defense is big and strong too. They have a lot of people over 200 pounds, some of them going both ways," Bumgarner said.

"It is a big game for both teams, since it starts the season, and we have only five conference games," he added.

Gura Says It Wasn't Revenge

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Larry Gura, who wasn't supposed to be good enough for the New York Yankees, proved too good for them in the hour of Kansas City's greatest need.

"The revenge factor's not there anymore," Gura said after hurling six strong innings in a 10-4 Royals triumph that squared the best-of-five American League championship playoff series 1-1 Wednesday. "I just wanted to settle us down and help us win because we knew we had to win this one. It was a must for us."

Traded by the Yankees to the Royals two years ago for now retired catcher Fran Healy, Gura gave up eight hits and two runs.

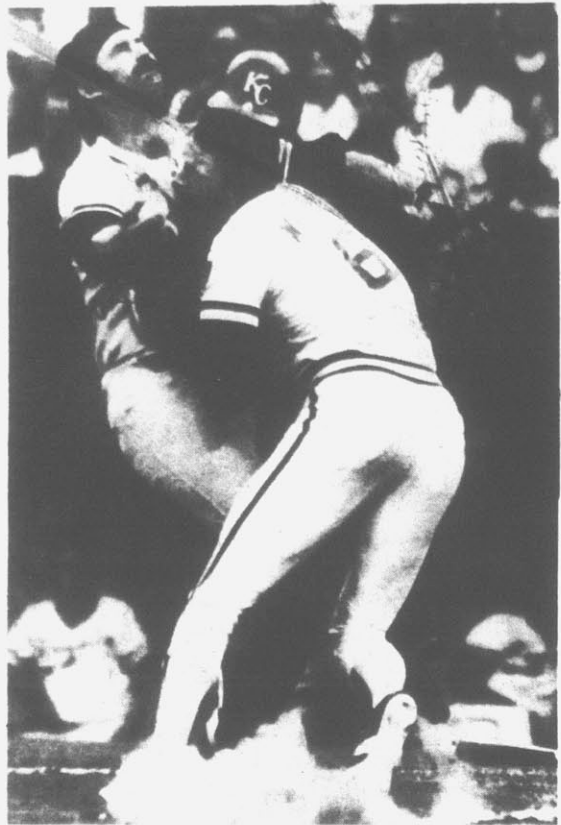

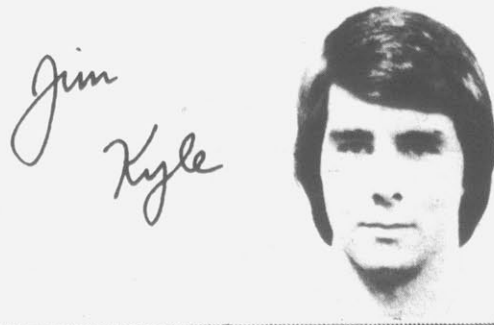

The Royals got started in the same sloppy, mistake-prone fashion that dogged them in the opener Tuesday night when the Yankees breezed to a 7-1 triumph. With one out, Fred Patek made a throwing error on Wednesday. "I just wanted to settle us down and help us win because we knew we had to win time in postseason action, walked.

But Gura got Graig Nettles to ground out, ending the threat and leadoff batter George Brett quickly smacked what was to be the first of 16 Royals' hits.

Amos Otis singled Brett to third, then Darrell Porter hit a long sacrifice fly, putting the Royals ahead 1-0.

The Yankees threatened in the second on the first of Chris Chambliss' four singles. Roy White's fielder's choice and a single by Mickey Stanley. Then Patek made a backhanded stop of Bucky Dent's grounder behind second and started a deceptively easy double play.

Collision At Home

Willie Wilson of Kansas City collides with New York Yankee catcher Thurman Munson and is out at home during the seventh inning Wednesday in the Royals' 10-4 win over the Yankees in the American League playoffs second game. (AP Laserphoto)

The Royals chased starter Ed Figueroa with a four-run burst in the second that started with consecutive singles by Clint Hurdle and Al Cowens and kept rolling when shortstop Dent made a bad throw to Nettles at third on Patek's grounder.

A run scored on the play and the runners wound up at second and third, then Frank White hit a chopper through the middle for two more runs.

A one-out double by Pete LaCock and Hurdle's triple off the right field fence gave the Royals a 6-2 lead and rookie Willie Wilson, possibly the fastest man in the major leagues, ran for Hurdle. Cowens grounded to Nettles at third and Wilson broke toward the plate, where he collided violently with Thurman Munson on the tag.

Both men went sprawling, but Munson was up like a cat and charging toward Wilson. Players from both benches stood tentatively on the periphery of the action while umpires pacified the angry Yankee catcher, who later had several stitches for a cut on his chin.

Order restored, Patek leaned his 150 pounds into a high fastball and popped it into the left field bleachers for a two-run homer.

Sparky Lyle then came in and retired White on a ground ball, but in all the confusion nobody remembered that was the third out. The Yankee fielders held their position and Brett, the next hitter, came to the plate.

But before a pitch could be thrown plate umpire Rich Garcia, raising his hands as if to say, "Nobody's perfect," signaled the end of the inning.

other than Pearson.

It was Pearson's 11th straight pole win in races at Charlotte, and his seventh consecutive in the National 500.

"I ran four perfect laps this time," Pearson said. "We're won this thing so many times it's a challenge to me and the crew to see how many times we can win it."

Pearson, who collected $10,000 for winning the pole, added, "As long as they put up the money, we'll keep going for it."

Nearly 50 drivers tried to qualify Wednesday for 15 spots in the 40-car field. Another 15 will be filled today, with the remaining 10 spots going Friday.

Cale Yarborough came out closest to knocking Pearson out of the inside, front-row spot, pushing his Oldsmobile to 160.989 mph for the second-fastest qualifying speed. The Timmonsville, S.C. ace said he ran into trouble on the first turn of the third lap.

"I got sideways and just had to back off, that's all there was to it," he said.

Boy's Club Football

The Cowboys gained a 6-0 victory over the 49ers yesterday in Boys' Club Football.

Roswell Streeter threw a 50-yard pass to Reggie Hines for the lone score.

The Cowboys and 49ers are tied for the league lead with 3-1 records. The Colts are 1-2-2, and the Lions, 1-4-0.

The playoffs start on Monday.

ALL THE EXCITEMENT, glory and frustration of a 162-game season boiled down to just one game in the American League's Eastern Division Monday as the New York Yankees met the Boston Red Sox in a one-game playoff.

The two teams had come through the long season with identical 99-63 records as the Red Sox caught the Yankees on the final day of the regular season when they beat Toronto and the Yanks lost to Cleveland Sunday.

The game was a classic with the Yankees winning 5-4. The unlikely hero was shortstop Bucky Dent, a .243 singles hitter who whacked a three-run homer in the seventh to erase a 2-0 Red Sox lead. He got the hit after fouling a ball off his ankle and then changing bats.

New York got another run in the seventh and then Reggie Jackson, who is always at his best in the games that really count, provided the winning margin with another Yankee homer in the eighth.

The game was only the second time a playoff game has ever been held in the American League and it sent the Yankees into the league's championship series against the Kansas City Royals. The statistics from the ballgame count in the regular season totals and Yankee hurler Ron Guidry's victory gives him a 25-3 record for the year, by far the best in either league.

THE GAME WAS the clincher of a wild finish in the Eastern Division. The Red Sox led for much of the year and were ahead of the Yankees by a whopping 14 games on July 19.

The Yankees were at their worst at about that time with the clubhouse wrapped in controversy under fiery manager Billy Martin. Martin was replaced on July 25 by Bob Lemon, who brought a quiescence to the team and quickly turned things around.

While the Red Sox faltered, losing 14 of their next 17 outings, the Yankees streaked and finally tied Boston after sweeping a four-game series in Boston early in September. The Yankees won two games of a three-game rematch in New York several days later and stretched out to a 31-2 game lead.

But the Red Sox battled back, keeping the pressure on New York. The lead shrunk to one and stayed there for the final week of the season as both teams kept winning, until the Yanks' loss on the final day.

WITH THE YANKEES' win Monday, Bob Lemon became the first manager in the league to take over a team in midseason and direct it to a championship. His calming effect on the turmoil-ridden Yankee clubhouse seemed to be just the tonic the team needed. Players who were hardly speaking under Martin now joke with each other in the dugout.

But, surprisingly, Lemon's name was seldom mentioned when the Yankees were turning things around. Little credit was given to the man who finally seemed to unify the team. Perhaps the New York press strike is the reason for that, just as it could be partially responsible for the new team unity.

Garvey Paces Dodgers To 9-5 Win Over Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia Phillies' third baseman Mike Schmidt predicted an "offensive explosion" and Manager Danny Ozark foretold a three-game sweep.

Yet it was Los Angeles that did the exploding, led by Steve Garvey, and it's the Dodgers who may do the sweeping after their 9-5 victory Wednesday night in the first game of the National League championship playoffs.

"I hit a curveball up, a fastball and a screwball down," said Garvey, who rapped two homers and a triple in a Dodger assault that set a NL playoff record with 30 total bases.

"We are extremely high and we are going to be extremely difficult to beat," said Dodger sparkplug Dave Lopes, who along with Steve Yeager also homered for Los Angeles to hush 63,460 Phillies Phanatics.

Yet the Dodger romp,

National League Playoffs

Los Angeles 9

In the fifth, Garvey chased Christenson with a triple, then scored on a single by Ron Cey.

The Phillies made their prime push in the bottom of the fifth, knocking Burt Hooton out of the game with three runs on five singles, including a two-run line by Garry Maddox.

But that's when Lasorda called the 21-year-old Welch from the bullpen.

Welch yielded two hits, including a solo homer to Jerry Martin, and no walks over the final 41-3 innings. The Dodgers added insurance runs on Yeager's homer off Rawley Eastwick and Garvey's solo homer off Tug McGraw.

The second game was set for today, with Dick Ruthven to pitch for the Phils against Tommy John.

"We're going to bounce back and beat the Dodgers," said Ozark. "We should. We will."

secured by the poised relief pitching of baby-faced rookie Bob Welch, left Ozark outwardly undaunted.

Going into the best-of-five set, Ozark flatly forecast his NL East champs would win in three games.

Dodger Manager Tom Lasorda, whose team took three of four games to oust Philadelphia in the same postseason series a year ago, maintained a reserved stance.

The score was 1-1 in the third when Garvey dug in against Larry Christenson with two runners on base. Before the homer, Christenson had a conference on the mound with catcher Bob Boone.

Lopes made it 6-1 with his two-run homer in the fourth, and he circled the bases with more than playoff pressure on his mind.

Lopes revealed that the Dodgers dedicated their play to coach Jim Gilliam, hospitalized in a coma since sustaining a brain hemorrhage.

Red Star Is Dead

MOSCOW (AP) — Alexander Belov, one of the standout basketball players in Soviet history, died Tuesday after a prolonged illness. He was 26.

Soviet officials refused to disclose the nature of Belov's illness, but sources said he had cancer.

Belov, a 6-foot-7 center, was the hero of the Soviet Union's controversial gold medal victory over the United States in the 1972 Olympics in Munich. He scored the winning basket as the final buzzer sounded in a 51-50 Russian triumph.

The Americans appeared to have won the game 50-49, but the Soviets were awarded two replays of the final three seconds of the game. The second time, Belov took a full-court pass and laid the ball in as two Americans fell to the floor attempting to guard him.

Pearson Grabs National Pole

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The only person who can beat David Pearson at qualifying on the Charlotte Motor Speedway is David Pearson.

The Mercury pilot from Spartanburg, S.C., beat himself Wednesday in winning the pole position for Sunday's National 500 stock car race. His four-lap average on the 1.5-mile banked speedway was 161.335 mph, which beat the old qualifying record of 160.551 — set by none

Dye Wasn't Surprised By Strength Of UTA

By WOODY PEELE
Reflector Sports Editor

Pat Dye wasn't surprised by what happened Saturday night against Texas-Arlington. At least not by the way the game went.

He was only surprised when Leander Green got hurt. "Texas did just what I expected them to do. I knew they were a good football team, despite their record." He later said that UTA would rank third among the five teams the Pirates have played this year. "Their offense is not that far behind that of State or Carolina," he said. "And their defense played better than I expected."

"But when you figure that we're not going to put the ball in the air with Leander on the bench, they can come right on up to the line," he added.

Dye said that if the Pirates had been able to go to the air after Green's injury, things might have been a little different. As it was, he was happy with the 23-17 victory over the Movin' Mavs.

"Leander did a good job passing while he was in there. He hit (Eddie) Hicks and (Billy Ray) Washington on key passes during our (second) touchdown drive, and he came back with another good pass on the first field goal drive in the second period." He had a hand in 17 of our points in the first half.

Defensively, Dye praised

D.T. Joyner in the line for a fine game, saying he had regained a starting position. "Oliver Felton had another real good game at nose guard. Mike Brewington and Tommy Summer had outstanding games at linebacker, and Zack Valentine played real well at defensive end, along with Fred Chavis. They had a lot to do with holding down (Roy) Dewalt (UTA quarterback). He's been running for something like 100 yards a game, and got only 20."

Dewalt currently stands 21st in the nation in total offense, averaging 171.8 yards a game running and passing.

Dye also praised the defensive secondary play of Willie Holley and Charlie Carter, but noted that although Carter intercepted two passes, he was beaten when Texas got its lone touchdown on a 56-yard pass.

"Still, the defense had seven turnovers, and that's pretty good, when you consider we only gave them one turnover."

The coach added praise to lineman Wayne Inman, saying he was one of the most consistent linemen for the Pirates. "Mitchell Johnston also came in at offensive tackle and played very well. We were thinking of playing him at guard until Mitchell Smith got hurt and we had to move him out there."

In the backfield, Dye singled out Hicks, Theodore Sutton and Sam Harrell, saying that the blocking of the backs has improved over the past two weeks.

"Our kicking game was real good too. We covered kickoffs and punts well, and we got good runbacks when we received."

"Our offensive team has been struggling; anyone can see that," Dye said. "That is most noticeable when Leander is hurt. But we've got a lot of people who are hurt and playing, too."

"Matt Mulholland and Joe Godette are both playing hurt. Mitchell Smith missed last week's game and will probably miss this week's too. Tootie Robbins will miss his third straight this week. Then, we've got a lot of others who are playing injured."

"I think if we could get everyone healthy, we've had a real good football team on offense. But on the bright side, the people who are playing behind the injured are getting better and better every week just from the exposure and experience."

Hawks Top Nuggets

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—The Atlanta Hawks beat the Denver Nuggets 118-112 Wednesday night, led by three players who scored 20 or more points in the NBA exhibition game.

Guard Charlie Criss led the way with 23 points, while Dan Roundfield and rookie Jack Givens of Kentucky added 20 each.

George McGinnis had 20 points and 20 rebounds to lead the Nuggets, while Bobby Wilkerson added 15 points.

Denver led 67-56 at the half, but Atlanta outscored the Nuggets 62-45 in the second half to insure victory. Criss scored all his points in the final periods after missing all five shots in the half.

Denver guard David Thompson played just five minutes because of a groin injury. He scored four points.

Until 1913, the New York Yankees were known as the Highlanders.

Ayden-Grifton 2, Greene Central 1

SNOW HILL — Ayden-Grifton gained a 2-1 victory over Greene Central Wednesday in an Eastern Carolina Conference volleyball match.

Ayden-Grifton won the first game, 15-6, then fell to the Lady Rams, 15-12, in the second game. The Chargerettes came back to win the final game, 15-7.

Sandy Fulford served up six straight points for A-G in the first game, while Pam Fulford had nine in a row in the third.

Ayden-Grifton, now 9-1 overall and 7-1 in the league, plays host to Southern Nash today. Greene Central will entertain North Pitt.

Farmville Central 2, Southern Nash 1

FARMVILLE — Farmville Central gained a 2-1 victory over Southern Nash in an Eastern Carolina Conference volleyball match yesterday.

Farmville won the first game, 15-11, but Southern came back to win the second, 15-7. The Lady Jaguars won the match-game, 15-10.

Peggy Dwyer led Farmville in the first game with seven straight serves. Jackie Simms had six in a row and Dora Harrison had seven for the Lady Firebirds in the second. Gladys Ellis had nine straight for Farmville in the third.

Farmville is now 5-3 in the conference and 7-3 overall. They travel to Southwest Edgecombe today.

Conley 2, SW Edgecombe 0

HOLLYWOOD — D.H. Conley gained an easy 2-0 victory over Southwest Edgecombe yesterday in volleyball.

Conley won the first match 15-7, then came back to win the second in a 15-0 shutout.

Pam Manning served up four in a row and Annie Hardee had five in a row in the second game.

Conley also won a "B" team match, 15-3, 15-2.

The Valkyries, now 10-0 overall and 9-0 in the conference, travel to Belhaven today.

CONFIDENT COOPER
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Cecil Cooper, first baseman and designated hitter of the Milwaukee Brewers, believes he should never strike out. Cooper says he knows too much about the opposing pitchers in the American League to take the "K".

"The way I've studied the strike zone, the way I protect the plate, the way I know most opposing pitchers, I should never strike out," Cooper said. "I'm an ideal hitter because with me it's all instinct."

he'd rather face a power hitter in a clutch situation than a punch-and-judy batter who just makes contact.

"It's always easier to fool a free swinger," he said. "The reason for that is he gives up part of his bat control for power and that has to work in my favor. It's the guy who goes with the pitch or the .220 hitter who gets lucky and bloop one over the infield who worries the relief pitchers the most."

By DANIEL Q. HANEY
Associated Press Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Doctors fear that two newly discovered strains of pneumonia-causing bacteria — which can resist almost all commonly used antibiotics — will spread throughout the world.

The bacteria, found in South Africa, cannot be destroyed by penicillin, the most frequently prescribed medicine for pneumonia. Only highly toxic drugs usually avoided by doctors will wipe them out.

The researchers say widespread administration of a newly approved vaccine may be the only practical way to fight the pneumonia caused by these germs, which was frequently a fatal disease before use of penicillin became common in the 1940s.

The bacteria were isolated in July 1977 at two hospitals in Johannesburg and have spread throughout South Africa.

"It may spread, or the same thing may be seen elsewhere," said Dr. Robert Austrian, one of the researchers. "Historically, at least, when this sort of thing has been recognized in one place, it's likely sooner or later to turn up somewhere else."

A study of the new germs was conducted by the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta and the University of Pennsylvania medical school, as well as by South African researchers. Their report was published in today's issue of the New England Journal of Medicine.

Doctors are concerned by the emergence of new strains of bacteria that are immune to penicillin. Researchers recently found that a new variety of the bacteria that causes gonorrhea is also resistant to penicillin.

Predict Normal Oyster Harvest

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — A normal oyster harvest is expected this year, despite two severe winters that caused moderate damage.

The state Division of Marine Fisheries found that some oysters were killed by weather-related stress, but not enough to significantly affect the harvest.

FORECAST for Oct. 6, 1978

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGHTER INSTITUTE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: There are delays and obstacles in your path today, but if you persevere you will be successful in overcoming your problems. Persistence is the keyword for success in your projects.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You can get an early start on a trip that is important to your welfare, but don't let some delay bother you later. Have the meetings that can be most helpful, worthwhile. Think, be active, interesting.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Start handling responsibilities early and accomplish much. Don't be hesitant about asking advice from loved ones. Feel more secure.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Any revisions in arrangements with associates can be done successfully today. Express yourself clearly, precisely. Calm the ruffled feathers of one who does not agree with you.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Schedule your work intelligently otherwise you will be frustrated and not accomplish much. Improve health via exercise, etc.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Make recreational plans early and you find they work out beautifully later. Show true devotion for a loved one and get fine response.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) The situation at home is both good and bad, so concentrate on the good and all works out fine. A project you start could meet with stumbling blocks, but keep at it and you succeed.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Contact a good friend and gain the cooperation you need for some fine plan you have in mind. Get out reports and pay bills on time.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Be sure you analyze your property and possessions correctly so that you know where you really stand. Find new outlet for success, if necessary. Make needed repairs.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be persistent if you want to gain personal aims today. After a busy day at business, you can enjoy the social side of life. Make sure that you budget your money carefully.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You stand a better chance of gaining your objectives if you do some careful planning. Work out differences with one you confide in.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Get in touch with friends early and make plans for a gettogether later in the day. You may have an argument with someone, but don't let it bother you.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have to handle a bigwig with kid gloves if you are to gain your objectives. Make bigwigs aware of your talents. Settle credit affairs.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will get ahead fast in life provided your child is taught early to be more direct and honest in dealing with others. Add foreign languages to the school curriculum since there is bound to be much traveling during the lifetime.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Open House Set Friday

FARMVILLE — An open house to show the complete remodeling of the FCX Feed Mill here will be held Friday.

Jim Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, will head the list of speakers.

Tours of the mill and grain marketing facilities will start at 10 a.m. and the rededication program will be held at noon.

Marvin McClam of Raleigh, president and general manager of FCX Inc., a two-state farmer cooperative, said the modernization program will cost about $1,500,000. A new feed batching system has been installed, along with a new pellet mill, additional load-out bins with updated load-out system and an automated bagging line.

The improvements are expected to double the present capacity of the mill, McClam said.

A computerized control system has been installed. It is identical to the system at the new $4 million feed mill which FCX formally opened in Rowan County last week.

He said production capabilities should reach 100,000 tons annually once the new equipment begins full operation.

UNICEF Drive Here Oct. 29

The annual UNICEF (United Nations Children's Fund) Drive will be held Sunday, Oct. 29, to benefit children in developing countries of the world, according to Mrs. Herb (Dot) Paschal and Mrs. A. H. (Nan) Cheek Jr., co-chairpersons for Greenville's UNICEF Day activities.

The activities will be coordinated under the supervision of Church Women United. Children from Greenville churches will "trick or treat" for UNICEF on that day from 2-5 p.m. The community churches of Greenville, the Greenville Boys' Club, the Greenville Junior Women's Club, and the East Carolina University chapters of the Student Nurses Association, the AROTC and Gamma Sigma Sigma service sorority will all participate in the drive.

The Children's Relief Fund is a branch of the United Nations and has been in existence since 1946.

If any community group or organization is interested in participating in the fund drive, persons should contact Mrs. Paschal at 756-2669 or Mrs. Cheek at 752-2500.

Moderator Re-Elected

The 113th annual session of the Old Eastern Missionary Baptist Association re-elected Rev. J. R. Person as moderator of the association for the eighth consecutive year. Person was elected during the business session held Saturday at Macedonia Baptist Church, Farmville.

Others elected were: Rev. N. K. Dunn, vice-moderator; Rev. J. B. Crandol, secretary; Rev. R. A. Morris, assistant secretary; Rev. J. H. Hyman, treasurer; and Rev. J. H. Taylor, auditor.

Person reported on his recent trip to Africa where he was able to observe work that is being done with support given by the association. He also stressed the need for increased support for home and foreign missions.

In his address, he also praised churches for support of the General Baptist State Convention's objectives — Shaw University, the Central Orphanage, and missions.

Homecoming At Church Sunday

SALTER PATH — The Salter Path United Methodist Church will observe homecoming Sunday.

Revival services will be held the following week and will be conducted by the Rev. Harold T. Anderson Sr. of Middlesex.

Meet Held By Home Builders

Approximately 60 builders and associates attended the Greenville Home Builders Association's October meeting Tuesday night with president, Mark Tipton, presiding.

It was announced during the meeting that Tipton was elected as one of eight regional vice presidents of the North Carolina Home Builders Association recently.

In addition, Kurt Fickling of Greenville was elected to the state organization's Insurance Trust, it was reported, while Jesse Childers, who serves as the Greenville organization's executive officer, was named to the Executive Officers Council of the NCHBA.

The program night included a report by Greenville Utilities Commission energy coordinator Reese Helms on the E-300 Energy Efficient Home Award Program. Information was distributed on the program and the costs of adding effective energy features to home construction were discussed.

Larkin Little, executive vice president of Home Savings and Loan Association here, discussed the current money market and financing situation and offered predictions on interest rates and what the market will do in the next six to eight months.

A membership drive is planned for Oct. 1-12, it was announced.

Adoption Agencies Competing

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Some social workers and frustrated prospective parents say public and private adoption agencies have become competitors in the baby market.

And the situation is acute, they say, because of increasing use of birth control, abortions and increasing public acceptance of unwed mothers.

Some believe that the state's largest private adoption agency, the Children's Home Society of North Carolina, has an overwhelming advantage in infant adoptions.

Complaints have arisen that the society waged an aggressive recruitment campaign to obtain infants, paid hospital expenses for pregnant women who agreed to give their babies up and favored well-to-do couples. The complaints also say that the society accepts tax money at a time when public welfare departments are scrambling for funds.

But, said society officials, there are some misunderstandings, although they acknowledge some criticism may be justified.

"We're hearing a lot of stories, some of them absolutely not true," said Ruth McCracken, executive director of the society. "As for competition, I would not like to think that we are competing. There might be some, but I would like to think that among us we've all got good services."

Miss McCracken said the society is handling fewer adoptions than in past years, that wealthy couples get no special consideration and that the tax money it gets is often used to help public agencies place older children.

One social worker who asked not to be named said, however, that she thinks the situation is getting worse.

"I've stalked with other workers who have had contact with them and they felt it was actually one-sided," she said. "I think it's definitely a matter of competition."

One problem that all agree on is the lack of healthy babies, compared to the demand.

According to estimates given by state officials and others, at least 10 times as many couples want to adopt babies as there are available infants.

In 1977, Children's Home Society received more than 2,000 requests from couples wanting to adopt babies. It placed 149 infants. In 1977, public agencies placed 162 infants under 3 months old.

"We're saying no to some nice young couples," Miss

McCracken said.

The stories that have circulated about the society have prompted it to set up meetings with social workers across the state to answer complaints.

Young Republican Group Will Gather

Members of the North Carolina Federation of Young Republicans (NCFYR) will meet here Friday and Saturday to put together their annual political platform.

M. Stanton Evans, syndicated columnist for the Los Angeles Times and commentator for the CBS radio network, is scheduled to speak to the convention delegates at a banquet on Saturday.

NCFYR chairman Linda Anderson of Statesville said that the platform adopted will spell out the federation's policy regarding a number of political issues, including the controversial proposed Equal Rights Amendment.

Other platform issues that will be considered, according to Robert E. Morey of Greenville, platform committee chairman, include: government and bureaucracy, education, conservation, law enforcement, minority rights, foreign policy, state and national economic policy, and additional state-related issues.

STANTON EVANS

The convention will begin at 7 p.m. Friday with member registration at the Ramada Inn. Delegates will attend seminars on Saturday morning, followed by the platform session and a banquet.

Will Present Research Work

ECU News Bureau

An East Carolina University professor of history will present a research paper this week at a meeting of the Western Association for German Studies at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dr. Bodo Nischan, a specialist in Reformation history, is to present certain findings of research into unity efforts among German Protestants during the Thirty Years War, part of a larger study on intellectual history of the late Reformation period.

During the past two summers Nischan has conducted research in Germany. This year his research in Wolfenbuttel was financed by grants from the Herzog August Bibliothek and the ECU Research Council.

INTRODUCING ALL-AMERICAN SAVINGS. FINALLY, HIGH INTEREST FOR EVEN ONE DOLLAR.

Having to save up $500 or $1000 just to open a savings account is crazy. It's unfair. It's practically un-American.

So at Planters we're introducing a concept that could revolutionize American savings.

All-American Savings. With the minimum deposit at a real, honest-to-goodness minimum $1, it makes high interest truly affordable to all Americans. What's more, it lets you add any amount. Anytime.

It's what you'd expect from Planters. After all, we're the bank that still knows the value of a dollar.

Annual Interest Rate	Maturity	Minimum Deposit	Additional Deposit
5 1/2%	3 months	$1	Anytime
6%	12 months	$1	Anytime
6 1/2%	30 months	$1	Anytime

WE STILL KNOW THE VALUE OF YOUR DOLLAR.

PLANTERS NATIONAL BANK

"Just because other places demand big deposits doesn't mean Planters does. They think All Americans deserve interest as high as 5 1/2%, even 6 1/2% for as little as one dollar."
