

Weather

Possibly heavy rain to night, lows near 40; continued cool Tuesday with rain likely.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

INSIDE READING

Page 2 — Wreck fatality
Page 6 — Young hero
Page 7 — Compensation advice

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION

99th Year NO. 276 GREENVILLE, N.C. MONDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 17, 1980 16 PAGES TODAY PRICE 25 CENTS

High Court Rules, 5-4, Thou Shalt Not Post Ten Commandments In School

By RICHARD CARELLI
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Kentucky cannot post copies of the Ten Commandments in every public school classroom, the Supreme Court ruled today.

By a 5-4 vote, the nation's highest court said posting the commandments in public schools violates the Constitution's freedom-of-religion guarantees.

The court's decision, coming in an unsigned opinion, reversed a Kentucky Supreme Court ruling that the state's action was constitutional.

"The pre-eminent purpose for posting the Ten Commandments on schoolroom walls is plainly religious in nature," the court said.

"The Ten Commandments is undeniably a sacred text in the Jewish and Christian faiths, and no legislative recitation of a supposed secular purpose can blind us to that fact."

The court's majority included Justices William J. Brennan Jr., Thurgood Marshall, John Paul Stevens, Byron R. White and Lewis F. Powell Jr.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Harry A. Blackmun dissented, voting to review the case more fully before deciding it. Justices Potter Stewart and William H. Rehnquist said the Kentucky Supreme Court was right.

"At issue was a state law requiring the Ten Commandments to be posted in all schoolrooms."

The 1978 law was challenged by four Louisville residents — Anne Bowers, Patricia Bricking, Sydell Stone and Rabbi Martin Perley — represented by the Kentucky Civil Liberties Union.

Ms. Bowers was described by her lawyer as a non-believer in any form of organized religion. Ms. Bricking is a Roman Catholic, a school teacher and a mother with three children in public schools. Ms. Stone is a Unitarian.

Ruling on the 1978 lawsuit against the state's superintendent of schools, a state trial judge in Frankfort, Squire Williams, upheld the law. His March 20, 1979 opinion said, "Government involvement in this matter is limited to ensuring that a plaque is placed on each classroom wall, if outside funds are available."

The law does not allow tax money to be spent for the "durable copy" to be posted in each classroom, but instead calls for private donations.

The law also provides that each copy contain in small print below the last commandment this notation concerning the display's purpose:

"The secular application of the Ten Commandments is clearly seen in its adoption as the fundamental legal code of Western Civilization and the Common Law of the United States."

The Kentucky Supreme Court split 3-3 last April 22 in ruling on the law's constitutionality. By law, tie votes in the state Supreme Court automatically uphold a lower court's ruling.

The three judges who voted to strike down the law noted that the first four commandments "are undeniably religious injunctions, proclaiming the supremacy of the Lord God, commanding that no other gods or graven images be had, forbidding the use of the name God in vain and enjoining the Sabbath to be kept holy."

In seeking help from the nation's highest court, the four Louisville residents argued that the Kentucky law violates the First Amendment's guarantee of religious freedom in three ways:

— Its purpose is to advance religion.

— Its primary effect is the advancement of religion.

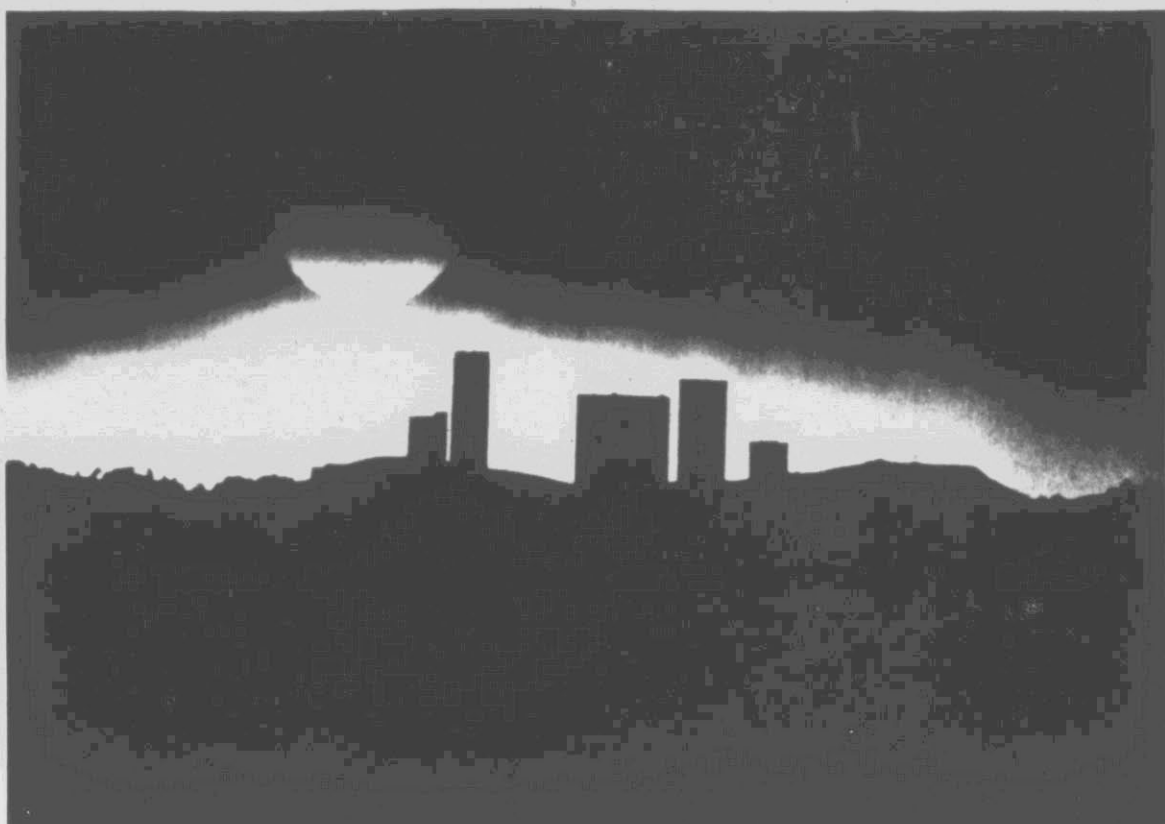

— It fosters an excessive government entanglement in

(Please turn to Page 8)

Emotional Moment

SMILES AND TEARS AS NEW TOBACCO QUEEN IS CROWNED — The 1981 Tobacco Festival Queen Debra G. Earley, left, expresses disbelief and happiness as the 1980 Tobacco Festival Queen Jeri Bullock, right, places the crown on Miss Earley's head at the conclusion of the 1981 Miss Southern Flue-Cured Tobacco Festival Pageant Saturday night. Miss Earley is from Jacksonville and is a junior at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. She will represent the five flue-cured tobacco producing states for the next year. (Reflector Photo)

SUNSET THROUGH SMOKE — Smoke fills the air over the Los Angeles skyline Sunday evening as the sun sets in the west. Major brush fires raged out of control over the weekend in and around the Los Angeles area destroying over 100 homes and causing thousands of Southern California residents to flee their homes. (AP Laserphoto)

California Firefighters Aided As Winds Diminish

By BRIAN R. BLAND
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) —

The capricious Santa Ana winds diminished today, helping firefighters in their battle against fires that have burned about 48,000 acres of parched Southern California brushland and damaged or destroyed almost 100 homes.

The hurricane-strength winds fed fires Sunday that led to the death of one man as they razed hillside homes valued at up to $1 million. Damage in Los Angeles County alone was estimated at $25 million.

But the winds abated during the early hours today, giving firefighters precious time to clear containment lines. The winds were expected to end altogether by late today.

Choking smoke and ash blown by the northeasterly winds, which ranged up to 80 mph, blanketed areas several miles from the nine fires that raged through the weekend.

While the fires spread, homeowners tried to salvage bits of their charred homes. One old man wept in the arms of his pregnant daughter as a forlorn dog sat near smoldering ruins in the posh Bradbury area.

The wind and fires interrupted electricity to some 50,000 homes, though power was restored to more than 90 percent of them by Sunday night.

A power failure to one pumping station cut water pressure, frustrating firefighters already having trouble pushing away the curious, officials said.

Two people were arrested on charges of looting ruined homes.

Fire authorities called a "red flag" alert throughout Southern California due to high fire danger, severely restricting activity in brushy areas. There has been no significant rain here since April.

Added together, the fires had consumed about 70 square miles of land.

In the Carbon Canyon blaze, about 30 miles southeast of Los Angeles in Orange County, several horses died and a number of homes were charred as flames raced across 8,000 acres, fire officials said.

The flames raced through an oil field so quickly they jumped the wells and roared on to threaten the small community of Olinda, burning up to the lawns of several evacuated homes before being stopped.

The 10,000-acre Sunland fire forced residents of suburban Glendale and Burbank out of their homes, said Burbank Fire Department spokesman Rich Kaufman. That blaze claimed 12 homes.

"The fire is almost on top of us. This is a terrifying experience," Burbank resident Jack Elwood said before dashing to hose down his roof.

As he watched flames move toward his Burbank condominium, Dr. Bernard Cook said: "It's just hell up here. There's fire all over the place."

Paramedics rescued a man trapped on a ledge in the fire's path. He was treated for foot burns.

"Our biggest problem is getting through the streets," said Burbank police officer Doug Harris, taking note of what another observer called "a ton of sightseers" in the area.

The Sunland fire started when tension wires blown together by 80-mph winds short-circuited, showering a nearby tree with sparks.

Twenty miles to the east, in the exclusive suburb of Bradbury, John Hervey, 47, suffered a fatal heart attack as he evacuated his home, a Santa Teresita Hospital official said.

The Bradbury blaze was the most destructive of Sunday's brushfires.

Klan-Nazi Trial Jurors In 7th Day Of Studying

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) —

Jurors in the murder trial of six Ku Klux Klansmen and American Nazis returned to court today for the seventh day of deliberation in the case stemming from the deaths of five communist sympathizers.

The defendants were charged with five counts each of murder and one count of felonious rioting in the Nov. 3, 1979, violence at a Communist Workers Party "Death to the Klan" rally.

Prosecutors contended during the trial that the Klansmen and Nazis went to the CWP rally intent on violence. Defense attorneys argued the defendants went only to heckle the demonstrators.

Both agreed the violence started with a stick fight that erupted into gunplay.

A key point in the jury deliberations was the intent displayed by the Klan-Nazi group when it drove to an assembly point for the CWP rally.

Under North Carolina law, a death resulting from the commission of a felony can be considered first-degree murder. Prosecutors attempted to show that the Klansmen and Nazis were intent on disrupting the rally by intentionally using force. According to the prosecution, that would constitute felonious rioting and would enable the jurors to find the defendants guilty of first-degree murder.

Four defendants testified they fired guns in self-defense. They were Nazis Jack Wilson Fowler Jr. and Roland Wayne Wood, and Klansmen David Wayne Matthews and Jerry Paul Smith.

Klansman Coleman Blair Pridmore testified that he ejected unspent shells from his shotgun and Lawrence Gene Morgan, another Klansman, testified he had a knife that he never used.

Sixteen other defendants, including six CWP supporters, are awaiting trial on charges stemming from the confrontation.

REFLECTOR HOTLINE

752-1336

Hotline gets things done for you. Call 752-1336 and tell your problem or your sound-off or mail it to Hotline, The Daily Reflector, Box 1967, Greenville, N.C. 27834.

Because of the large numbers received, Hotline can answer and publish only those items considered most pertinent to our readers. Names must be given, but only initials will be used.

MIDDLE NAME

What is Ronald Reagan's middle name. N. N.
A librarian at Sheppard Memorial Library told us: It's Wilson.

R. O. S. E.

I am an over-30-years-old East Carolina University student feeling very alone on a great big campus full of kids. I like most of my professors and many of the students, but feel there are at least some adult students around with whom I have a lot in common. Is there an office on campus or some other point of contact I've missed? C. S.

You need to know about R. O. S. E. — Returning Older Students in Education, Louetta Morgan says, and it's, according to her, such an informal organization that you could easily have missed hearing about it. Older adult ECU students meet once a month and keep in touch with one another in between via this support group of nontraditional students. The meeting schedule has to be kept flexible, because every semester changes everyone's schedule and all the participants are quite busy.

R. O. S. E. is not an administration- or faculty-created organization, but it is recognized and encouraged by the administration, Mrs. Morgan said. "We basically exist to support each other in our quest for higher education at this late date in our lives," she said. "We solve our own problems, we've found, and often help others, whether they've recently returned to school or are considering coming back, to do the same."

For more information, call Louetta Morgan, 752-7108, or Jane Silliman, 756-9737.

Contract 5 Containers

By STUART SAVAGE
Reflector Staff Writer

Pitt County commissioners this morning awarded a contract to Godwin Manufacturing Co. of Dunn, for the purchase of five solid waste containers at a cost of $13,240.

The contract was awarded after Godwin submitted the low bid of $2,648 per container. Other bids included Kabco, Inc. of Raleigh at $2,785 per container and Quality Equipment and Supply Co. of Charlotte at $2,820 per container.

The board postponed a discussion of action by the Pitt County Board of Education earlier this month rejecting a proposed merger of the county and Greenville City school systems.

Commissioners agreed to discuss the matter after receiving a formal report from the joint merger study committee.

In other action, the board agreed to have a representative attend a meeting November 20 between city officials, representatives of the hospital, and East Carolina University to discuss the city's comprehensive plan. They also agreed to meet with members of the city council for the regular joint meeting on November 25.

The board set a meeting for 11 a.m. Wednesday to review values set for residential property in the county under the revaluation now underway.

Marines Join Mock Assault

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — U.S. warships carrying about 5,000 Marines steamed out of Subic Bay naval base today to join Filipino troops in a mock assault on an island near Manila in the biggest American military exercise in the western Pacific in nearly two years.

Sixteen 7th Fleet vessels, including the multipurpose amphibious assault ship Tarawa, and six vertical takeoff and landing attack jet aircraft are taking part in the joint U.S.-Philippine maneuvers called "Valiant Blitz."

Floodway Ordinance Seen Positive Step By City

Second of two articles
City Engineer Ron Sewell feels that one of the most positive steps the city has taken in the last ten years to remedy the stormwater problem here is the floodway ordinance.

"Probably the best protection of property from damage resulting from stormwater flooding is the ordinance which the city adopted several years ago which prohibits any construction within areas designated as floodways," Sewell observed.

He explained that "these areas were designated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers on a series of topographic maps of the city. The maps also give us the 100-year flood elevations."

Sewell pointed out, "The basic concept behind this ordinance is to allow flood prone areas to flood and to prevent these areas from being developed and consequently having this development leading to the loss of life or property."

City Manager Ed Wyatt said that city officials are optimistic about another recent development in the city's effort to respond to citizens' concern about drainage and flooding problems.

He said a special advisory committee has been formed by the City Council to coordinate with the state and federal agencies in the development of a flood plan for the entire drainage area of the city. The 14-member committee, appointed by the Environmental Advisory Commission, will include members from a variety of backgrounds and will be representative of all governmental agencies involved in stormwater areas, Wyatt explained.

"According to Wyatt, the funding of stormwater projects is included in the charge of the new committee. Only one other city in North Carolina has organized such a group, he said, and "it is believed that a substantial number of ideas and projects will come forth from its deliberations."

The city manager pointed out that any flood plans or programs that are developed by the advisory committee are expected to become part of the comprehensive plan which the city hopes to develop in 1981.

City officials noted that despite their optimism regarding work that has been done and is planned relative to the city's flooding and (Please turn to Page 8)

Contest Results

Winners in the Tobacco Festival Decorating Contest were announced today by the sponsor of the contest, the Southern Flue-Cured Tobacco Festival. The winners are as follows:

Division I, first place, D.G. Nichols on Arlington Boulevard; second place, Virginia Crabtree; third place, Just Pants.

Division II, first place, Belk Tyler; second place, White's; third place, Brody's.

Division III, first place, Holiday Inn; Division IV, first place, NCNB, Greenville Boulevard Branch; second place, First State, Northwest; third place, NCNB, First Street Branch.

Festival's Calendar

Tuesday, November 18

9 a.m.-5 p.m. Tobacco Farmer Show — Farmers Warehouse

9 a.m.-10 p.m. Quilting seminars — Georgia Bonesteel, PBS Quilt Show Greenville City Recreation Department.

11 a.m. Tobacco Festival Golf Tournament — Brook Valley Country Club

11 a.m. Tobacco Tying Contest — On stage Farmers Warehouse

12 noon Tobacco Spitting Contest — On stage Farmers Warehouse

2 p.m. Jerry Clower — On stage Farmers Warehouse

Wednesday, November 19

9 a.m.-5 p.m. Tobacco Farmer Show — Farmers Warehouse

10 a.m.-9 p.m. Quilting Exhibit — Greenville City Recreation Department

1:30 p.m. Awards — Agricultural Art Contest, Powell Manufacturing Exhibit, Farmers Warehouse

2 p.m. Wendy Holcombe — On stage Farmers Warehouse

8 p.m. Clogging Contest — Green Grass Cloggers Appearing Carolina Opry House

Thursday, November 20

9 a.m.-5 p.m. Tobacco Farmer Show — Farmers Warehouse

10 a.m.-4 p.m. Quilting Exhibit — Greenville City Recreation Department

12:30 p.m. Commissioner's Luncheon — Ramada Inn, Awards: Most Perfect Bundle, Young Farmer of the Year, Farmer of the Year

1:30 p.m. Charly McClain — On stage Farmers Warehouse

Industry

To Be Topic For Meeting

What kind of industrial development do we want in the Greenville-Pitt County area?

The League of Women Voters will address this question at an open meeting to be held Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church here.

A panel will present the viewpoints of real estate developers, the Development Commission and environmentalists concerning industrial development. Speakers will be Reese Hart Jr., executive director of the Pitt County Development Commission; Bill Clark of Clark-Branch Realty, an official from Natural Resources and Community Development.

Patricia Daugherty, chairperson of the League's Land Use Committee, urges citizens to attend and inform themselves about the issues. "We need to examine such questions as: What sorts of industries should we seek in order to provide for orderly growth? How can we evaluate the desirability of a particular industry in terms of costs of environmental resources and providing services? and, What agencies are engaged in seeking new industries for our area?" she explained.

Siamese Twin's Condition

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Five-month-old Natalie Wackler, separated from her twin sister in emergency surgery last week, has been removed from her respirator but remains in critical but stable condition, doctors say.

Natalie was separated from her twin Friday when Valerie showed signs of brain death — a lack of electrical activity in the brain. The 5-month-old girls had been joined at the base of the spine.

The parents, Randy and Rebecca, will decide within the next few days whether to keep Valerie on a life support system, hospital officials said.

Cloggers Will Compete

Eastern North Carolina cloggers will get a chance to compete against each other for fun and trophies on November 19 at a clogging contest sponsored by the Southern Flue-Cured Tobacco Festival.

The Green Grass Cloggers of Greenville will host and judge the contest, which will be held at the Carolina Opry House on highway 264 West, beginning at 8 p.m. All cloggers in the area are invited to participate. First, second and third place trophies will be awarded in their ladies' men's and couples' categories. The Larry Franklin Band from Dallas, Tex. will provide the music before the contest and the Home Town Boys will play for the Green Grass Cloggers and the competi-

Many Athletes In Competition

The 1980 Greenville Special Olympics Fall Games sponsored by the Greenville Recreation and Parks Department were held Thursday and Saturday with 260 athletes from Greenville and Pitt County participating in two major events.

The opening ceremonies were held in the West Greenville Gymnasium at Tom Foreman Park Thursday prior to the Run, Dribble and Shoot competition. The D. H. Conley High Junior ROTC Colorguard led the Parade of Athletes into the gym for the ceremonies. Boyd Lee, director of the Greenville Recreation and Parks Department, welcomed the Special Olympians and Mrs. Dianne Pickett, executive director of the Association for Retarded Citizens in Pitt County, officially opened the games. Dale Anderson, assistant coordinator of the Greenville Special Olympics, led the athletes in reciting the Special Olympic Oath, concluding the ceremonies.

Some 210 Special Olympians participated in the Run, Dribble and Shoot event, a basketball skills contests. Seven-year-old-and-under winners were Bo Gorham, Erica Sheppard, Tany Crandall, Felinda Sherrod, and Patricia Pollard; eight- and nine-year-olds — Pamela Murphy, Glenda Ward, Mary Pettway, David Godley, Ivan Curmon and Larry Blow; 10- and 11-year-olds — Carolyn Anderson, Candy Joyner, Debbie Roach, Zeno Chavis, Donald Bush, Billy Moye, Greg Joyner, Tony Barnes, and Herman Moore; 12- and 13-year-olds — Veretta Smith, Dianne White, Tammy Hopkins, Carolyn Davis, Dennis Jones, Johnny Cotten, Bobby Mills, Greg Sutton, Charlie Joyner, Charles Heath, and Jasper Latham; 14- and 15-year-olds — Jimmy Pittman, Henry Johnson, Jimmy Davis, Calvin Joyner, Bonnie Worthington, and Tammy Howard; 16- and 17-year-olds — Henry Payton, David Wright, Brenda Person, Angela Hardy and Elaine Joyner; 18- and 19-year-olds — Brenda Barnes, Shelby Lee, Leah Everette, Tim Dixon, Joe Gillahan, Charles Satanski, Terry Bradley, James Adams, and Jim Warren.

Saturday the bowling competition was held at Hillcrest Lanes. Winners were Gerald Dunn, Debra Sermons, Donna Lynn Landing, Leah Everette, Joe Champ and Alice Quiggins.

Nine winning Special Olympians from these events will be chosen to attend the 1980 North Carolina Special Olympics Fall Games to be held in Asheville Dec. 5-7.

Educators Are Honored By Chamber

Educators of the Greenville-Pitt County schools and Pitt Community College will be recognized this week during American Education Week November 16-22 by member of the Greenville Area Chamber of Commerce.

The Education Committee of the chamber sponsored a reception for educators representing each school in Greenville, Pitt County and Pitt Community College November 17 at 4 p.m. at the Greenville Parks and Recreation Center.

According to John McConney, chairman of the Chamber's Education Committee, school representatives received awards of special recognition from the chamber's committee on education.

The education committee will also sponsor "Apple For the Teacher Day" on November 19. Members of the committee will deliver boxes of apples for teachers to each school in Greenville and Pitt County.

McConney said, "We want to recognize the many educators who strive for excellence in education for the students of Greenville and Pitt County. We really appreciate what they are doing and we would just like to thank them."

For further information about American Education Week activities, contact the Greenville Area Chamber of Commerce at 752-4101.

Association Changes Name

The nation's largest health charity, the National Association for Retarded Citizens, has changed its name to the Association for Retarded Citizens of the United States.

The local unit of the Association is known as the Association for Retarded Citizens/Pitt County and the state association, the Association for Retarded Citizens/North Carolina. The uniformity of name is part of a new communications program for the ARC.

This is the second name change. The word "Citizens" replaced "Children" in 1973 to reflect the association's efforts to serve retarded persons of all ages.

SHOP-EZE
West End Shopping Center

WOODLAND

Luncheon
Tuesday Deli Special

Roast
Pork
$2.19

Special Served With 2 Fresh Vegetables & Rolls.

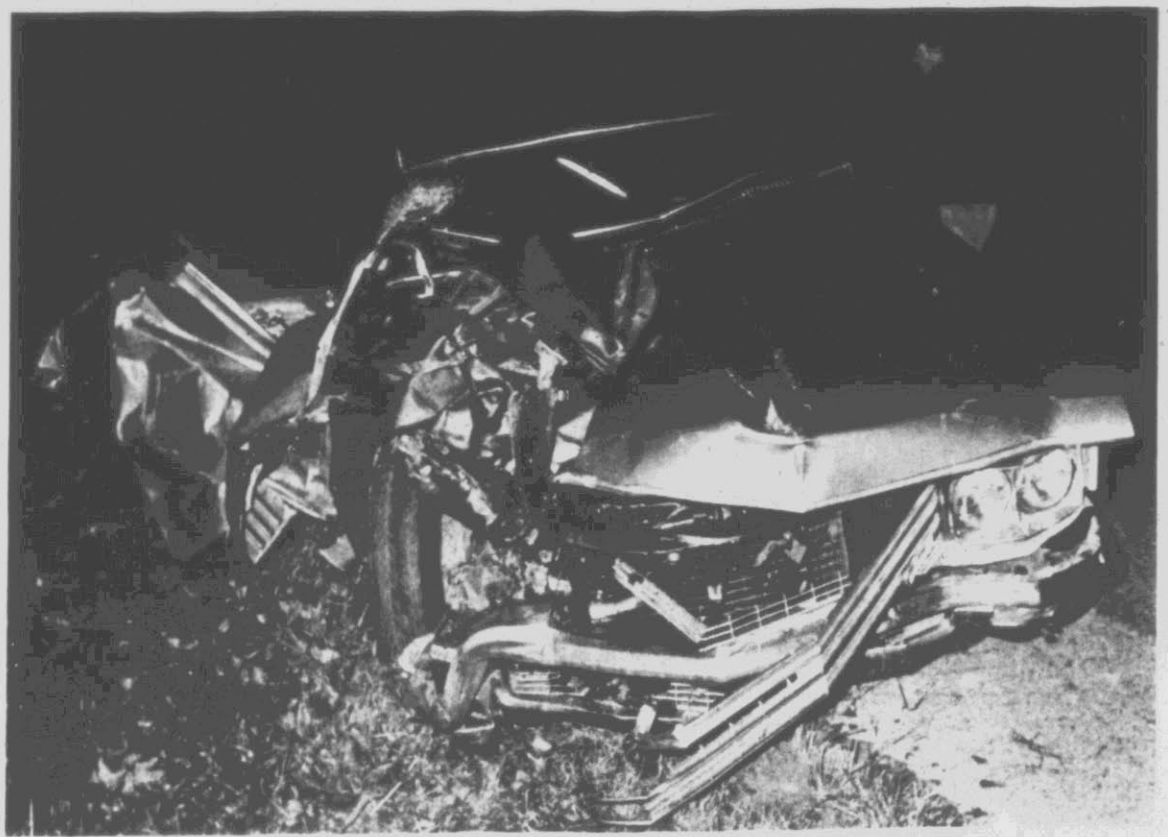

An Invitation To Lose Weight

United Figure Salon

87 Pounds Lost Last Week

Red Oak Plaza 756-2820

WOW MEETING
Unit 218 of the Woodmen of the World will have its monthly covered-dish dinner meeting Thursday, Nov. 21, in the fellowship hall of Mt. Pleasant Christian Church. The meeting will start at seven o'clock. Plans for a special Christmas meeting will be made. All members are asked to be present.

WRECK RESULTS IN FATALITY — A Sunday night accident near Ormondville, in Greene County, resulted in the death of an Ayden girl, identified as Wanda Kay Newton, 16, of Rt. 1, Ayden. According to reports, a car driven by Kelvin Keith Cox, of 708 East Avenue, Ayden was sighted behind the Ayden Elementary School. Ayden Police Chief Tommy Burney said officer Edward Allen Cox was in the process of checking the car when, upon turning on his blue light, the car left the scene. Burney said Cox gave chase and was assisted by Officer William G. Callicutt, both in marked police cruisers. Callicutt blocked an intersection in Ayden which the fleeing vehicle managed to elude. The chase led from Ayden on N C 102 west to Greene County where the officer said the car lost control and apparently ran off the right side of the road and then off the left side, down into a ditch, striking a tree. It was reported that Miss Newton was dead at the scene. Kelvin Keith Cox was admitted to Pitt Memorial Hospital for treatment of his injuries. Investigation into the accident is continuing. (Reflector Photo by Tommy Forrest)

Optical Topics
opticians association of america

by Beecher Kirkley

A common myth among some people who wear glasses is that eye exercises can eliminate the need for glasses. Although books have been published which advocate this idea, it has never been proven to be scientifically possible. If eye exercises ever did eliminate the need for glasses, it is likely that the glasses were never really needed to begin with. While exercise certainly strengthens muscles and improves circulation, only lens corrections can make an appreciable difference in vision.

If after such an exam corrective eyewear is required, bring your prescription to CLEAR VUE OPTICIANS, 1706 6th, Physicians Quadrangle Building A. We will professionally and promptly tend to your prescription requirements. Our staff will assist you in the selection of frames that best suits your facial configuration from a fitting as well as a fashionable viewpoint. CLEAR VUE OPTICIANS is a "fitting" place to come to select your eyewear. Tel. 752-1446.

OPTICAL TIP:
Contact lens wearers should be careful to use eye cosmetics sparingly. Oily build-up on the lens can and should be prevented.

Reports Voyager Found Howling Saturn Winds

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A wind that howls along at up to 1,100 mph, and that would stretch from Philadelphia to Buenos Aires, has been detected on Saturn by Voyager 1, scientists say.

Gary Hunt, a University College of London atmosphere physicist and member of the Voyager I photo interpretation team at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory here, said the wide band of wind had been predicted as long ago as the 1930s, but was not confirmed until Voyager.

Voyager 1, hurtling at more than 33,600 mph, was more than 3.1 million miles beyond Saturn on Sunday after its successful mission.

The wind it measured would flow fastest at Saturn's equator, reaching speeds 900 mph to 1,100 mph, Hunt said.

He noted such a wind was roughly four times faster than the strongest winds Voyager I saw on Jupiter.

Hunt theorized that the mechanism driving the wind is the cyclic rising and subsidence of huge, extremely cold clouds of ammonia that are thought to be the major substance of Saturn's atmosphere.

The clouds are so big they act like an enormous piston and pump huge quantities of energy into the atmosphere, Hunt said. The up and down motions of the clouds are converted into high speed, horizontal kinetic energy by Saturn's very rapid rotation, he added.

In another preliminary report, Jeffery Cuzzi, a member of the Voyager photographic team, told reporters that Saturn's rings provide a unique opportunity to study the behavior of broad, disc-shaped structures in orbit around a large body.

A disc similar to Saturn's rings was believed to circle the primordial sun during the formation of the solar system, Cuzzi noted.

He added that the way the moons of Saturn affect the ring structure may help scientists to refine their theories about how the disc that surrounded the sun more than 4.6 billion years behaved.

RULING MADE
The manner of death of William Franklin Cannon, 25, of Ayden Thursday was suicide, according to Medical Examiner Dr. Stan Harris.

Cannon died of a gunshot wound to the head, he said.

coupon

25% OFF

Custom
Picture Framing
Four Seasons

Paint & Decorating Center
2806 E. 10th St.
752-3881
(Coupon Good Thru Nov.)

For a limited time only

Water's Carpet Center, Inc.

BLUE RIBBON CARPET SALE

Bigelow Blue Ribbon CARPET SALE

These Bigelow fashion carpets are a great value at the regular price. But once a year Bigelow authorizes us to offer astonishing savings which make this sale event absolutely irresistible. Every single sale carpet has:

- Bigelow quality to assure you that your carpet will wear and wear.
- Bigelow's exclusive Mark of Performance rating to help you select the best carpet for each room in your home.

Unique Expression 4000 10-4
$14.50 installed sq. yd. $13.50 installed sq. yd. $12.50 installed sq. yd.

Prices good through Thanksgiving.

On sale for a limited time only, so hurry in for the best selection of styles and spectacular colors. Don't miss the BIGELOW BLUE RIBBON CARPET SALE at...

Waters Carpet Center Inc.
Winterville, N.C. 756-2541

FOR SALE PUBLIC AUCTION

COURTHOUSE DOOR, PITT COUNTY
GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

12:00 NOON
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1980
FRED EDWARDS FARM

Grimesland Township, Pitt County, N.C. on West side of Rural Road No. 1759 approximately 1/2 mile South of Simpson, N.C.

The above-described tract or parcel of land has a nine room frame residence, (5 bedrooms), contains 158 acres of which approximately 90 acres are crop lands, and the crop allotments for the year 1980 are as follows:

Tobacco - 12.35 acres and 24,231 pounds
73 acre corn base

Terms of Sale: Cash. High bidder required to deposit 10% of amount of bid to show good faith, and pending confirmation by the court.

For Further Information, contact:
Louis W. Gaylord, Jr.
Commissioner
Greenville, N.C.
Telephone: 758-3116

M.E. Cavendish
Commissioner
Greenville, N.C.
Telephone: 752-6000

Couple Weds Sunday In St. Paul's Church

Paula Frances Alsop and Charles Thomas Edwards were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at three o'clock in Saint Paul's Episcopal Church here. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lawrence P. Houston Jr.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Patricia Ann Joyner, organist.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Roy Alsop of Arden, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her maid of honor was Jennie Baird of Greenville. Bridesmaids included Angela Alsop of Charleston, S. C., sister of the bride, Lynn Tilley of Greenville, Mrs. Ann Compton of Herndon, Va., sister of the bridegroom, Vickie Payne of Arden and Mrs. Debbie Calvert of Asheville.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Guilford Vance Lewis of Pactolus and Senator

James Harrell Edwards of Hickory.

The father of the bridegroom served as best man while ushers included Johnny H. Edwards of Hickory and James Edwards of Claremont, brothers of the bridegroom. Robert Whitney of Seneca, S. C., Joseph Bryd of Drexel and Gary Thompson of Greenville.

The bride wore a formal gown of white chiffon and alencon lace. The bodice featured a sweetheart neckline, full bishop sleeves and an empire waist. The bodice was of alencon lace and matching appliques trimmed the sleeves. The flowing chiffon skirt featured a chapel length train with a matching veil in chapel length trimmed in alencon lace. She carried a cascade of white silk roses.

The attendants each wore a formal gown of dubonnet matte jersey designed with an open scoop neckline and empire bodice styled with a gathered overlay. The sleeveless gown was enhanced by a cowl drape extending to waist length in back. A self-tie rolled sash encircled the waistline from which fell the full flared skirt. They each carried a nosegay of silk burgundy roses, pink's baby's breath on white lace backing with a matching burgundy bow.

The couple will live in Greenville.

The bride is a graduate of East Carolina University and is trial court administrator of the Third Judicial District. The bridegroom is a graduate of Duke University and received his law degree from the University of South Carolina. He is a partner in the law firm of Byrd and Edwards, Morganton.

After the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Carolyn Wall served cake and Miss Josie Boyette assisted. Punch was poured by Mrs. Lib Morris, Mrs. Cherry Anne Haddock and Mrs. Shirley Martin. Mrs. Phyllis Alsop Arrington presided at the register.

Family and friends entertained out-of-town guests at a cocktail party at the Greenville Country Club Saturday evening following the wedding rehearsal.

MRS. CHARLES THOMAS EDWARDS

Plantation Open House Announced

WINDSOR — Step into the past when Hope Plantation decks its halls for a Christmas open house Sunday, Dec. 7, from 1:30-6 p.m.

The annual holiday event will include carols, tours and refreshments. The plantation is located on Highway 308, four miles south of here.

The Georgian to Federal styled house, built circa 1800, is the restored home of David Stone, governor of North Carolina from 1808-1810.

The house's Chinese Chippendale balustrade and keystone arch will be garland trimmed. Traditional fruit and greenery used in Christmas arrangements of former days will be featured.

The history of sour dough breads goes back almost 6,000 years to the Egyptians.

Visitors Entertained

ECU News Bureau A group of Japanese science educators who visited here last week were guests of the East Carolina University department of science education and several Greenville host families.

The Japanese visitors were participants in a study-visit sponsored by the Sony Foundation of Science Education. They visited local schools and industries as well as several area historical and cultural sites.

Participation in the annual conference of the N. C. Science Teachers Association culminated the Japanese educators' visit.

Host families in Greenville were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Brewer, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Matheis, Dr. and Mrs. Moses Sheppard, Dr. Gene Hamilton and Dr. Sumiko Ts'Kamura and Mr. and Mrs. S. Howard Shearin.

Carolina Christmas Village

Nov. 21—Raleigh Civic Centre

Features:

Christmas Show Interior Designers
Holiday Marketplace Old St. Nick

Motorcoach from Greenville, $11⁰⁰

A day of entertainment reminiscent of Christmases past

Call for details.

QUIXOTE TRAVELS, INC.

Phone 758-3456
319 Cotanche St. Greenville, N.C.

Should A Lady Accept Money?

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1980 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I have a gentleman friend I've been going with for three years. He is 58 and I am 53.

On his birthday I gave him a friendship ring, which he accepted with much pleasure.

When my birthday rolled around, he completely forgot it. Naturally I was hurt, but reminded him (in a kidding way) toward the end of the day. He quickly bought a birthday card (one of those humorous ones), stuck a $20 bill in the envelope and handed it to me that evening.

The following day, I returned the $20 with a letter telling him it was demeaning to my character to accept money from a man.

He feels that I was wrong in returning the money. He said, "If it had been a diamond bracelet, you wouldn't have returned it."

I said, "A diamond bracelet is a gift, but money, regardless of the amount, is more of a 'payment.'"

Who is correct? Is it proper for a lady to accept a gift of money from a gentleman today? Or does it still carry the same connotation as years ago?

NEW YORK

DEAR NEW YORK: I see nothing improper about a gift of money. Not everyone has the knack of selecting appropriate gifts, so rather than risk spending hard-earned money on some useless doodad that must be exchanged (or worse yet, shelved), cash may seem brash, but it's practical. It's always the right color, the right size, and it fits — into all wallets.

DEAR ABBY: Who am I to refute your medical authority concerning whether psoriasis can be cured by dog licking or not? (He said he wouldn't recommend it because a dog's saliva contains certain chemicals that could do more harm than good.)

All I know is this: Our dog had a nasty cut on his leg, and when I took him to the vet, he refused to bandage it, saying it would prevent the dog from licking the wound. The vet maintained that the dog's saliva contained certain healing properties that could do more for the dog than he could.

BARBARA IN WORCESTER

DEAR BARBARA: I have received a rash of letters attesting to the healing powers of the dog-licking treatment. The mail is running 20 to 1 against me, but I'm not licked yet.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl, but I am very mature for my age. I have a boyfriend who is 21.

I have to sneak around behind my mother's back to meet him because she found out I lied about his age. I told her he was 17, then she found out he was 21. She told me she didn't want me to go near him again. She says there is only one thing a 21-year-old guy wants from a 14-year-old girl.

I just hate all this lying and sneaking around, but that's the only way I can see this guy. I love my mother, but I love him, too. Please tell me what to do.

ALL TORN UP

DEAR TORN: Take your mother's advice. A man who would encourage a 14-year-old girl to lie and sneak behind her mother's back to see him is bad news.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to get together with STYMIED IN BUFFALO. Her description of the gentleman who sees her only on Wednesday and Saturday nights fits the description perfectly of the man I'm dating. He told me from the start that he could see me any nights of the week except Wednesday and Saturday.

BUFFALO'D IN BUFFALO

Pat's Pointers

By Pat Trexler

Openwork eyelet pattern stitchery adds pizzazz to a classic saddle shoulder cardigan — a Pat Trexler "Plain 'n' Fancy" Original. Those of you who enjoy working pattern stitches will find the eyelet design interesting but easy, with the panels designed so that there are no increases or decreases within the pattern stitch.

If you prefer a simple classic or if you are a begining knitter, a plain version done in all-over stockinette stitch is quite stunning. Directions are written without abbreviations with helpful tips for beginners. Sweater can be made in sizes 10 to 20 with four-ply knitting worsted weight yarn.

To obtain directions for making the "Plain 'n' Fancy" Cardigan, send your request for Leaflet No. 0-22 with $1.00 and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Pat Trexler, "The Daily Reflector," P.O. Box 810, North Myrtle Beach, S.C. 29582.

Or you may order Kit No. K-22, containing instruction leaflet plus top quality acrylic yarn, by sending check or money order to Pat Trexler at the same address. Send $13.50 for sizes 10 or 12 or send $15.50 for sizes 14 through 20. Price includes shipping charges. Please specify your choice of Cranberry, Banana, Copper, Camel, Wedgewood Blue, Pale Olive or Natural Flax.

Let's talk about knitted and crocheted trims today. The loop stitch, described below, when added to collars and cuffs adds an expensive-looking designer touch to basic sweaters, coats or jackets.

For the loop stitch, knit every stitch on the first row. On the second row, every stitch is knitted but, after inserting the tip of the right hand needle into a stitch, double the yarn to form a one to one-and-a-half inch loop. Wrap this doubled yarn around the needle and complete the stitch in the normal way. Repeat these two rows for the desired length.

A knitted bias strip makes a good band around unfinished edges of a jacket. Try it in a contrasting color or even in a yarn with a different texture.

To start your bias strip, cast on two stitches. Working in stockinette stitch, increase one stitch at each end of every knit row until there are 14 stitches on the needle. You may wish to have more stitches.

(Continued on page 5)

PLAIN AND FANCY... an original design by Pat Trexler is done in an eyelet pattern stitchery.

Cooking Is Fun

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

PICKUP LUNCH
Walnut Cheese Sandwiches
Morning Glories

MORNING GLORIES
A combination of a beverage and a dessert.

For 2 servings: In an electric blender whirl together 1/2 cup liquefied nonfat dry milk, 2 cups orange juice, 1 or 2 teaspoons honey, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla and 3 ice cubes. Pour into tall glasses and serve at once.

The Art of Carpeting & Decor

by Larry C. Whitlow

Looking for unique and inexpensive apartment decoration? Why not start with a modern scheme of black and white with accents of yellow and orange. The living room could then get a yellow cotton shag rug, white matchstick bamboo blinds and sofas or davenport arranged with a yellow painted end table in between. An inflatable chair and a cubed coffee table or two and the decoration is nearly complete. Folding chairs with white frames, black-painted shelves, white lamps, a yellow table top and the dining room is finished as well. For the bedroom consider yellow bedspreads and rugs and white walls for cheerful awakenings.

All your wallpaper and flooring needs can be met easily by coming to us at LARRY'S CARPETLAND INC., 3010 E. 10th St., 758-2300. There is a fine choice of carpeting by famous manufacturers and we work hard to see that you are completely satisfied. Don't forget to look over our stock of Oriental and area rugs. It is one of the nicest selections in east North Carolina. Open: 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Mon. thru Fri., 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Sat.

DECORATING TIP:
Wicker storage hampers provide great storage space and look handsome as well.

Belk Tyler

Carolina East Mall Greenville

THE GOLDEN GULL

610
Arlington Blvd.

Pre-Holiday
SALE

1/3 Off

Selected Fall Clothes: skirts • blouses • pants • dresses blazers • and more

You Are Cordially Invited To Attend "Holiday Glitter, A Cosmetic Party For Evening Wear"

On Tuesday Night, November 18, 1980 At 6:00 P.M. We'll Show You Colors And Techniques To Make A More Beautiful You For The Holidays Ahead.

Tuesday Night
November 18, 1980 6:00 P.M.
Free Make-Ups
Free Refreshments

Estee' Lauder • Germaine Monteil • Ultima II • Clinique • Elizabeth Arden • Charles of the Ritz • Revlon • Lancome • Flori Roberts

Leadership Search

To political scientists and the analysts of the political process the wide swings American voters are taking are baffling.

Ronald Reagan served as governor of California. Now he carries the state for the presidency, but the governor is Democrat Jerry Brown.

In North Carolina control of state government is still firmly in Democratic hands, but both U. S. senators are Republican.

So it goes from state-to-state. The electorate votes moderate, or even liberal, in one instance, and conservative in another.

What's it all about? Well maybe the voters are being more practical than the analysts perceive. We are a nation searching for real leadership.

Watergate with its presidential and vice presidential resignations was devastating to those who had entrusted their votes to the administration. In the next election the voters turned to a little known governor with no Washington experience. We didn't get the leadership the voters apparently wanted. Now we have voted in a former actor also with little Washington experience.

Whether the leadership will be satisfactory remains to be seen. If it isn't, however, we can expect still another swing in two and four years. Strong leadership is necessary for the nation. The voters know it and they are constantly searching for it.

Agreement Needs Nurturing

The meeting between President Carter and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin last week must have been a sad one.

One of the high points of the Carter administration was the working out of the Israel-Egypt agreement.

Begin is reportedly fond of the outgoing president, although he knows now his full attention must be turned to the president-elect, Ronald Reagan.

The fragile Camp David agreement should be nurtured by the new administration. It may be the only hope for eventual stability in that part of the world.

THIS AFTERNOON

Gut-Level Change? New Washington Style

By BILL NOBLITT
RALEIGH — Was it the faddish thing to do: a voters' flight of fancy? Or, did it signal a gut-level change in the way things will be done in this country?

That is the most provocative question remaining from the November house-cleaning by the electorate.

Already the pundits of the left on the tube and in big-city newspapers; defeated candidates; and disgruntled politicians who labor in the vineyards of the Democratic Party are sounding a common refrain:

It was disenchantment and frustration with specific personalities and actions, and does not mean that citizens want basic change in government programs and solutions.

Conservative winners see things differently: it is a demand for change, a 180-degree turn in the basics.

Only time will tell. But one of the more fascinating perspectives is afforded by leaders of the Evangelical, or Fundamentalist, Christian political movement which played a role — along with many other conservative groups and individuals — in the process.

Counter Revolt

It was neither a revolt of the right, nor a reactionary wish to return to another century. It was, rather, a counter-revolution directed at that which these leaders see as a generation-long revolution in America in which atheists, Humanists, Communists, Socialists, Marxists and assorted militant liberals have tried to rip the fabric of society through big-government spending, regulations, programs and education. This election, in that viewpoint, was war in defense of family, home, church, and the free enterprise system.

So with inflation, joblessness, national pride, high taxation, bureaucratic overkill and the array of "national malaise" placed at the feet of the Democratic Party rather than where President Carter tried to place it — in the hands of the American people — it is clear to a number of practiced political students that basic changes in philosophy and ideology are ahead.

BILL NOBLITT

U.S. Senator Jesse Helms sees it this way: "We (the conservatives) needed help ...and I think we've got it. Major change will depend on the will of members of Congress who do the work. And I feel good about that. I feel these people will roll up their sleeves and work." Helms is convinced that the conservative tide which gives Republicans control in the Senate, and the prospects of a working coalition in the House, is going to have significant impact on the country.

His newly elected colleague John East, in one sentence, signaled his conviction on the impact of the vote "...Guantanamo is safely ours."

Governor

Gov. Jim Hunt who withstood the Republican landslide obviously gaining tremendous prestige in that accomplishment, says he would not consider the turn to conservatism "faddish". There has been for some period of time a trend in a conservative direction, he pointed out, and this time "they voted for a change because things weren't going right. We have problems nationally that haven't been solved ...at least in time."

And with one eye obviously cocked toward 1984 when his second term in office expires, Gov. Hunt took note of the contrast between the present-day national scene and that in North Carolina:

"What the voters of North Carolina said is that we have about as strong a vote endorsing progress and moving forward as any state in the Union", he noted.

BY ART BUCHWALD

WASHINGTON — The first story that any feature writer worth his/her salt has to deal with when a new president is elected is how the style of Washington will change. As soon as President Carter made his concession speech the phone rang at home, and an out-of-town reporter from one of the leading newspapers asked, "How different will Washington be under a Reagan administration?"

I protested, "That's my story."

"It's everybody's story," he said. "Now are you going to level with me or do you want me to tell everyone you had 'no comment'?"

"What do you want to know?"

"Well, what do you believe the new president will do first to change the town?"

"For years we've been promised hitching posts and water troughs for our horses. They were in the original Pennsylvania Avenue Redevelopment Plan but were taken out because of budget restrictions. I believe Reagan will see that we get them."

ART BUCHWALD

"What do you think he'll do about the economy?"

"He'll get rid of those damn sheep farmers so our cattle will have something to graze on. We cattle ranchers are sick and tired of being pushed around by the sheep people."

"How do you see the social life changing under a Reagan Administration?"

"I think Reagan will be under pressure to close all the bawdyhouses in Georgetown. He'll probably shut down the faro and poker parlors, too. The good people in this town are sick and tired of our womenfolk and sons being accosted on the streets by drunken congressmen who don't have no respect for decent law-abiding citizens."

"What about parties?"

"We ain't going to have parties. We're going to have balls. The General Store has already ordered a whole new batch of gowns from Chicago for the ladies. The women are as excited as all get-out about the Reagans moving in and are already angling for invitations to their house. There's even talk of them bringing in big name bands from St. Louis to play for them. I tell you, socially, the Reagans are going to put our town on the map."

"How else do you think Reagan's going to change the town?"

(Continued on page 5)

Other Editors Say Quotas & Quality

(The Raleigh Times)

With only 53 blacks among the state highway patrol's 1,150 troopers — and with most of the 53 hired since 1974 — there is little doubt as to past deliberate discrimination in patrol hiring.

That is why, as a result of two lawsuits brought against the patrol, the otherwise highly regarded police organization is now faced with federally imposed quotas that could jeopardize the force's efficiency and prestige.

Under an agreement with the patrol and federal government, the patrol will reserve 50 percent of all future training class openings for blacks and 25 percent for women. That could mean that only one-fourth of the class would be white males.

The key to the patrol's composition and whether its performance will decline or improve lies in Secretary of Crime Control Burley Mitchell's proviso that "We'll hire 50 percent blacks and 25 percent women, if they're available, if they apply, and if they're qualified."

Those are big ifs.

For example, among the 219 completed applications on file Oct. 29, only seven were from females; and despite herculean recruiting efforts, only two of the four or five last women recruits have survived the patrol's tough training school.

Although black males have fared better, only 34 have completed applications on file for approximately 70 vacancies that occur each year.

Minority career interest in the patrol, which pays a non-promoted trooper between $17,820 and $19,470 a year, undoubtedly will increase under proposed new policies. The patrol has agreed to waive its 5'6" height requirement to accommodate women. And, as an incentive to blacks interested in supervisory jobs, it will reduce from seven to four years the time required to be a line sergeant.

Even these concessions' wisdom is questionable. But they are not as dubious or potentially harmful as the U.S. Justice Department's ill-conceived — and rejected — arguments that knowledge does not affect performance and consequently the passing grade on trooper tests should be lowered.

Mitchell and patrol officials, while striving to give blacks and women a fair chance in the patrol have just as great a responsibility to see that quotas do not seriously and permanently damage the organization's performance or morale. If there is any area where sacrificing quality to satisfy racial or sexual quotas could be dangerous, it is here.

Strength For Today

AMID THE STARS

Some time ago an astronomer died and left instructions that the following epitaph be engraved on his tombstone: "We have lived too long among the stars ever to fear the night."

The higher we rise into the spheres of God's influence, the less do we fear God in that morbid, devastating fashion which both religion and psychology utterly condemn. There is a fear of God which is legitimate and entirely wholesome. It is the fear which a dutiful child has lest in some way he offend or TAKE TIME TO DIG OUT OF THAT ONE!

MORRIS

Concern On Simon's Role

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK
WASHINGTON — Just before leaving the country Nov. 12 for London and a two-week stay abroad, William Simon passed friends a piece of news calculated to bring Treasury bureaucrats leaping from windows and Wall Street poobahs wailing in despair: He definitely will be Ronald Reagan's secretary of the treasury.

Simon has not been told that by the president-elect himself, who has been in seclusion since the election. But he is the choice for Treasury of Reagan's California-dominated kitchen cabinet. Over the past year, East Coast millionaire Simon has joined that select circle of West Coast millionaires. Among the final half-dozen men screening Reagan's Cabinet choices will be Bill Simon.

The prospect of Simon's return to the Treasury, where he was secretary under Presidents Nixon and Ford in 1974-77, builds passionate opposition. "It would be a grotesque mistake," one Reagan adviser told us, "to have Simon running the most daring, most innovative and most important economic program ever proposed by the Republican Party."

Yet, there are proponents of that program — radical tax and budget reform — who prefer Simon at Treasury to other names most prominently mentioned: fellow Nixon-Ford retreads Alan Greenspan and Charles Walker and Citibank Chairman Walter Wriston. Simon would be far less prone to establishment pressures.

Simon is indeed a retreat of a different color. Within the dingy-gray Nixon-Ford regime, he was a scarlet stirrer-up of strife — terrorizing aides, feuding with other Cabinet members defying the president. In 1976, his colleagues felt Simon was playing footsie with Reagan while supposedly supporting Ford for renomination.

He was an early rider on the 1980 Reagan bandwagon, revealing his desire to return to Washington as secretary of defense. But Reagan's national security advisers insisted that Simon's abrasiveness rubbing against Pentagon brass would yield disaster. By early October, the talk turned to Simon going back to the Treasury.

At one recent kitchen cabinet meeting, its unofficial chairman — California drug magnate Justin Dart — did not mince words. Dart made clear that Simon was his first, second and third choices for the Treasury portfolio and that there was no need for other names to reach Reagan. Whether the other kitchen cabinet members fully agreed, they did not dispute the 73-year-old, authoritarian Mr. Dart.

To Dart and other businessmen across the land, Simon is a folk hero for his unadorned free enterprise gospel preached in his best-selling "A Time for Truth." That 1978 book made Simon a national figure. When Reagan listed his economic advisers at campaign rallies this fall, Simon's name — and his alone — generated cheers.

To Wall Streeters, however, he is a former bond salesman they don't want doing a Treasury job. Some claim his new job running a firm which manages U.S. investments for Saudi Arabia's fabulously rich Sulaiman Saleh Olayan disqualifies him for the Treasury. Simon's response: "Nothing I do disqualifies me for anything."

Advocates of supply-side economics pressing for a Reaganite economic revolution are not disturbed by Simon's unpopularity among the barracudas of Wall Street, the gnomes of Zurich or even the bureaucrats of Washington. What bothers them is his Republican tendency toward inflicting maximum economic pain, through high interest rates, in hopes of achieving minimum inflation. That politically suicidal course was rejected by campaigner Reagan when

(Continued on page 5)

"THE IRANIAN PARLIAMENT, BEING COMPOSED OF JUST, HONORABLE, AND COMPASSIONATE SERVANTS OF HOLY ALLAH, DO HEREBY OPEN DEBATE ON THE FATE OF THE DIRTY AMERICAN SPIES AND DOGS HELD IN OUR CAPTIVITY..."

Chocolate Town Has Troubles

By JOHN DANISZEWSKI
Associated Press Writer
HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — The rich, sweet aroma of bubbling chocolate is no longer wafting through this community, where the street lights look like candy kisses and the main street is named for America's sweet obsession.

Chocolate Town, U.S.A., is on strike, proving that labor disagreements can reach into even the most cherished of institutions.

The Hershey Chocolate Co., a division of Hershey Foods Corp., is contending with its first walkout since 1953.

"This is not fantasyland," said company spokeswoman Susan Graham. "Whenever you have unions and management there's going to be some friction."

The violence-marred dispute has idled 3,000 workers at the plant that makes Hershey's Chocolate Bars and a host of other goodies to satisfy the sweet cravings of Americans east of the Rockies.

Pickets walk along Chocolate Avenue, the main street of this pleasant central Pennsylvania town where motels, hotels and schools bear the name of a candy bar and its originator.

Wholesalers now talk of running out of candy only weeks before the Christmas season, and the company that built the houses, built the community center, built the golf course, is accused of no longer caring.

Things have reached a point that "the favorite expression around here is, 'Oh, if Mr. Hershey knew...'" one official said.

Earl Light, business manager of Chocolate Workers Local 464, says workers felt betrayed in 1977 when the company refused to make a new contract retroactive after they had worked three months without a pact.

When that contract expired Nov. 1, the workers walked.

"The way we look at it, they're one of the few industries now that is making it. So give some of that back to the people that helped them," said Richard Colon, a 16-year employee.

The strikers are asking for a pay raise to $9.90 an hour and improved sickness and accident benefits. The average wage is now $7.85 an hour.

The strike entered its third week Sunday, amid signs that tensions were building. Talks had broken off and there were none scheduled.

Tempers flared last week after a picketer was hit by a truck outside the non-union, Hershey-owned H.B. Reese Co. plant, where Reese's Peanut Butter Cups originate.

The next day, hundreds of angry Hershey employees blocked the entrances to the Reese plant. One police officer was injured in the outburst, that saw Reese workers taunted for continuing to work. One woman's car window was smashed as she sat at the wheel.

Reese officials closed the plant for a day, reopening only after Gov. Dick Thornburgh pledged that state police would protect workers if necessary.

The company has changed since founder Milton S. Hershey died in 1945, leaving his legacy to the orphan boys — and now girls — of the Milton Hershey School.

The old Hershey Estates became Herc Inc. — which owns the popular Hersheyland amusement park, the Hotel Hershey, the Hershey Motor Lodge and much of the rest of the real estate in Hershey, which has no town government.

The chocolate operation which Milton Hershey began here in 1903 is a separate entity, Hershey Foods. In recent years, it has transformed itself into a more aggressive, diversified company.

Wildly swinging cocoa prices led to an earnings slump in 1977. The company since has tried to shift its business into products that use less chocolate. Hence, the acquisition of the profitable Friendly's ice cream chain and the introduction to the United States of popular European brands such as KitKat candy bars and Rolo chocolate caramels.

The candy world's longtime top dog also had to face up to competition from the Mars Candy Co., which has overtaken Hershey in sales in the United States.

Largely because of competition from Mars — makers of Milky Way, Three Musketeers and Snickers candy bars — Hershey launched its first full-scale advertising in 1970.

By 1979, the ad budget was $32 million, $10 million more than in the previous year.

The tactics are paying off. In October, the company announced record quarterly earnings and record earnings for the first nine months of 1980. Sales through September amounted to $959.7 million; profits amounted to $42.8 million.

The Daily Reflector
INCORPORATED
209 Cotanche Street, Greenville, N.C. 27834
Established 1882
Published Monday Through Friday Afternoon and Sunday Morning
DAVID JULIAN WHICHARD, Chairman of the Board
JOHN S. WHICHARD — DAVID J. WHICHARD
Publishers
Second Class Postage Paid at Greenville, N.C. (USPS 145-400)

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of publications of special dispatches here are also reserved.

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Advertising rates and deadlines available upon request. Member Audit Bureau of Circulation.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Payable in Advance
Home Delivery By Carrier or Motor Route Monthly $4.00
MAIL RATES
(Prices include tax where applicable)
Pitt And Adjoining Counties $4.00 Per Month
Elsewhere in North Carolina $4.35 Per Month
Outside North Carolina $5.50 Per Month

Farm Scene

By Michael Regans

Assoc. Agr. Ext. Agent
The level of reproduction efficiency in swine herds can mean the difference in operating at a profit or a loss. Reproduction efficiency means getting the maximum number of pigs per sow per year. This can be accomplished in two major ways. One is to keep the sows pregnant as many months as possible during the year and the other is to increase the number of pigs marketed per litter.

In North Carolina, most producers are not farrowing more than 1.7 litters per sow per year. With four week weaning and rebreeding the sow on the first heat cycle after weaning, it is possible to farrow 2.48 litters per sow per year. A more realistic figure and one which can be attained is 2.00 to 2.25 litters per sow per year. It should be noted that four-week weaning is dependent on adequate nursery facilities.

Pointers....

(Continued from page 3)

ches or less at this stage depending upon the desired width of the strip.

Continue working in stockinette stitch but, from this point on, increase one stitch at the beginning of every knit row and decrease one stitch at end of same row until band will fit around edge to be trimmed. Then decrease one stitch at each end of every knit row until two stitches remain. Bind off, fold strip in half and sew to garment.

Whenever you have a hem in a garment, you might want to use a knitted picot edging. At the point where the hem is to be turned under, work one row as follows: With the wrong side facing you (the purl side of your work), knit two stitches together and then yarnover. Repeat these two steps across the row. After working this turning row, work balance of piece according to directions.

There are many different ways to crochet a picot edging, but here is one which is quite simple and very pretty. First, work a row of single crochet around edge to be trimmed.

Then, work a single crochet in first three stitches of the previous row; chain three and work a slip stitch in top of the last single crochet worked. Keep repeating these steps around edge to be trimmed.

For a fancier edging, try the Crown Picot. After working a row of single crochet along edge, chain one and turn. Work a single crochet in each of next two stitches, chain eight, slip stitch in last single crochet made; single crochet in each of next two stitches, chain five, slip stitch in last single crochet made. Keep repeating these steps across row or edge to be trimmed.

Because of the large volume of mail she receives, Pat is unable to answer your letters personally. However, she welcomes all questions and hints and will use those of general interest in the column whenever possible.

Buchwald Col. ...

(Continued from page 4)

"He's going to get rid of all the bad guys. He's going to swear in a bunch of new deputies and clean out all the fat and waste that's been going on around here. Anyone who rides into town wearing a black hat with a welfare plan will be rode out on a rail. You're going to see some pretty good shootouts in the next four years."

"So you can see nothing but good coming of the Reagans moving to Washington?"

"You're darn tootin'. In time we might become as important as Tucson, Ariz. They're even thinking about making our town a stage coach stop, and the Union Pacific is talking about building a trunk line that will connect us with Omaha. This sleepy town is going to come alive in the next four years."

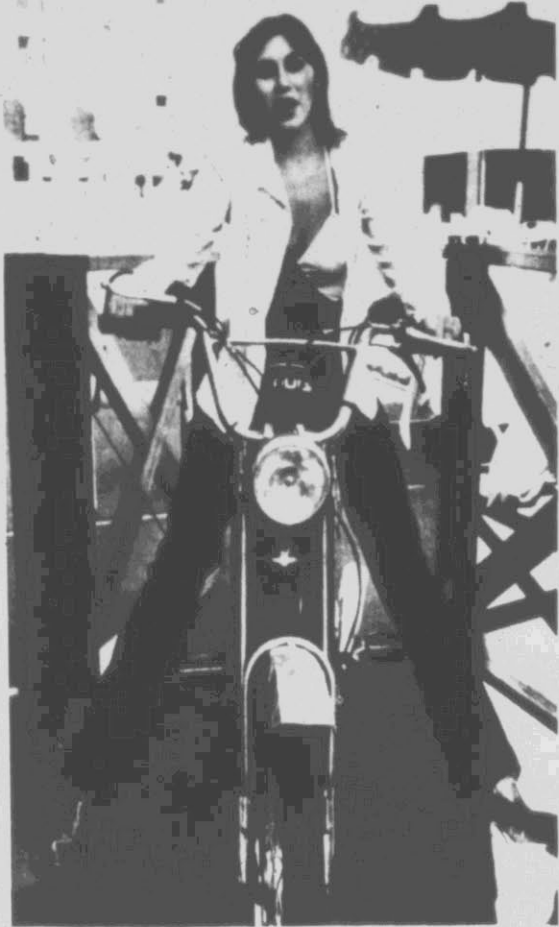

"What about Indians?"

"We ain't worried about them. Reagan's appointed Gen. Custer to take care of that problem."

(c) 1980, Los Angeles Times Syndicate

The North Carolina average for pigs marketed per litter is 7.2. This means the average producer is marketing 12.24 pigs per sow per year. In most cases the sows are farrowing more than 7.2 pigs per litter but 25 percent of pigs farrowed die before weaning. Sixty-five percent of all post-farrowing deaths occur by the time the litter is four days old. Therefore, it is clear that extra time and management spent on a newborn litter can really pay dividends.

To illustrate the importance of reproduction efficiency, a producer averaging 7.2 pigs marketed per litter and 1.7 litters per sow per year would need 147 sows to market 1800 pigs a year. If this producer averaged 9.0 pigs marketed per litter and 2.0 litters per sow per year, only 100 sows would be needed to market the same 1800 pigs. The savings in sow feed alone would be significant. The pork producer that takes advantage of the sow's capacity to produce pigs is the one who will be able to show a profit in times of high production costs.

OFF TO SEE THE SIGHTS — Kimberly Santos, a 19-year-old beauty from Guam, is off to see the sights of Los Angeles after learning she had been given the title of Miss World 1980. Miss Santos, the first runner-up in the Miss World competition in London, gained the title when Miss Germany turned down the title at the request of her fiance just hours after winning. (AP Laserphoto)

Jenrette Is Pondering Possible Resignation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. John Jenrette, convicted of bribery and conspiracy in the FBI's Abscam investigation, says he has no desire "to go down in history as the member that's been expelled from Congress."

The South Carolina Democrat planned to announce today his decision on whether to quit in the face of possible expulsion.

Jenrette was convicted Oct. 7 in the FBI's Abscam investigation and the House ethics committee voted last week to begin studying whether to recommend House punishment as well.

The committee could decide to take no action against Jenrette or recommend punishment ranging from expulsion to a restriction of House privileges.

Jenrette would have to relinquish his seat in January in any event — he was defeated in a re-election bid Nov. 4.

Rep. Michael Myers, D-Pa., also convicted of bribery in the Abscam probe, was expelled from the House Oct. 2, on the committee's recommendation. Jenrette said he does not want that to happen to him.

Hours after Thursday's committee vote, Jenrette told reporters: "I don't have any desire to go down in history as the member that's been expelled from Congress."

Evans-Novak Col. ...

(Continued from page 4)

he promised prosperity instead of pain.

Actually, Simon's record on taxation is mixed. At the Treasury, he toyed with a radical tax reduction but was staved off by the Ford White House. He has tended to tie tax cuts to rigid dollar-for-dollar budget reduction. While "A Time for Truth" ignores tax reduction, Simon's recent sequel — "A Time for Action" — trumpets tax cuts in supply-side language ("to restore incentives to work, invest and produce").

So, some supply-siders, while preferring a sophisticated ally such as New York City businessman Lewis Lehrman, think Simon at the Treasury would stand up to orthodox opinion. He is the retreat least congenial to the establishment and most acceptable to Republican politicians who deplore a Nixon-Ford restoration.

Though a veteran political infighter, Simon today may be in the wrong place at the wrong time. As Simon travelled east for London, Reagan's economic advisers were going west to California to discuss economics with the president-elect. His legion of enemies will not easily concede the post that Simon has confidently told friends is most assuredly his.

Copyright 1980 Field Enterprises, Inc.

Test Indicates Surgery Best Angina Treatment

By PAUL RAEBURN
Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A new computerized treadmill test developed at the University of California indicates that surgery is a better treatment for angina than a commonly used drug, a researcher says.

The new test provides the first objective measure of the health of angina patients, said Dr. Milton Hollenberg, who developed it and used it to compare patients who underwent coronary artery bypass surgery with those treated with the drug, propranolol.

Earlier studies indicated surgery improves the ability of angina victims to exercise without chest pain. But this is the first accurate measurement of how much more effective surgery is than the drug, Hollenberg said.

Hollenberg, who was presenting his results today to a meeting of the American Heart Association in Miami, said in a telephone interview Sunday the test will not resolve the controversy over whether bypass surgery prolongs life.

Angina, a condition in which blocked arteries prevent an adequate supply of blood from reaching the heart muscle, is routinely measured by asking patients to walk or run on a treadmill until they experience uncomfortable chest pains, Hollenberg said.

Electrocardiogram readings taken during and after the exercise give doctors a rough idea of the severity of the disease.

Hollenberg said his new system uses a computer to analyze the electrocardiogram, removing subjective factors such as the patient's will to exercise on a given day.

"It's a more objective test, not so critically dependent on the patient's effort," said Hollenberg. The computer generates a score for each patient, rating the severity of disease.

"With this treadmill exercise score, we can determine exactly where a patient fits, in a spectrum from no disease to very severe," Hollenberg said. "Until now, treadmill exercise tests were interpreted mainly as either negative or positive."

Hollenberg and colleagues at the University of California at San Francisco used the new test to study 60 patients at the San Francisco Veterans Administration Medical Center, some of whom had been treated with surgery and some of whom had received only the drug. Ninety percent of the surgical patients showed sharp improvement in the flow of blood to their hearts. Hollenberg said, while only 10 percent of the patients taking the drug showed similar improvement.

In coronary bypass surgery, clogged arteries near the heart are replaced with blood vessels taken from some other part of the body.

The principal alternative drug treatments, Hollenberg said, are propranolol and nitroglycerine. The problem with nitroglycerine, Hollenberg said, is that patients must take it every two hours, and "no patient will do that."

FOCUS

Historic Journey

When President Thomas Jefferson first suggested to Congress that our country should explore the vast territory west of the Mississippi River, that territory didn't even belong to the United States. But Congress approved Jefferson's request for $2,500 to look for a possible land-water trade route to the Pacific. To lead the expedition, Jefferson picked Meriwether Lewis, his personal secretary, and a retired army lieutenant named William Clark. On a journey that lasted more than two years, Lewis and Clark traveled 8,000 miles with boats, horses and on foot, from St. Louis to the coast of Oregon and back. Their expedition reached the Pacific Ocean 175 years ago today.

DO YOU KNOW — From what country did the United States make the Louisiana Purchase?

FRIDAY'S ANSWER — Paris is the capital of France.

11-17-80 VEC Inc. 1980

Workshop

On Energy Set

The fourth in a continuing series of Home Energy Workshops will be held Tuesday, Nov. 18 at 7 p.m. at the Recreation Center on Cedar Lane here.

Sponsored by the energy office of Greenville Utilities, the program will be presented by students from the School of Home Economics at East Carolina University.

Phil Morin, energy projects coordinator of the energy office, noted that the workshop is designed to provide information about actions that can be taken to save energy.

"With the winter season upon us and costs of heating so expensive, we are stressing that people can fix up their homes so they will save money by not wasting energy," Morin observed.

Morin said the public is encouraged to attend the free workshop, which lasts about 90 minutes and includes a question and answer session. All materials will be provided without charge, he said, adding that persons seeking additional information should call him at 752-7166, Ext. 252.

to introduce an immigration bill to allow them to live in the United States.

Videotapes show Jenrette discussed the introduction of such a bill with the agents and at one point said, "I have larceny in my blood."

The tapes also show Stowe receiving the $50,000 from the agents last Dec. 6 and Jenrette telling the agents in a telephone conversation later that "everything's fine."

But Jenrette denied ever getting the money and told the court he was referring in the telephone conversation to what he thought was Arab financing for a plant in his district to save jobs.

We can't make your crops grow, but we can make your farm grow.

After generations of helping farmers, we understand your needs. And because we never forget who's Boss at BB&T, we have loans that are tailored to meet them.

So if you need money for equipment, buildings or crop production, don't hesitate. Come on in to BB&T and talk it over with us. We'd like to do all we can to help.

Because, after all, you're the Boss at North Carolina's oldest bank.

YOUNG HERO — Jeff Jaschke, 4, poses in the cab of his father's tractor. Jeff's quick action in turning off the tractor is credited for saving his father Ernest's life. (AP Laserphoto)

Father Is Saved By Four-Year-Old Son

RANDALL, Minn. (AP) — When Jeff Jaschke's father caught his hand in a corn picker, Jeff brought the machine to a halt, turned off the power, ran for help, and brought the tools that were used to extract his father's hand.

Not bad for a 4-year-old. Jeff's quick action is credited with saving his father's life.

Ernest Jaschke, a rural Randall farmer, was unloading corn about two weeks ago while Jeff and Greg Jaschke, 2, watched from a wagon. Suddenly Jaschke screamed out and hollered to Jeff that his hand was caught in the corn picking machine.

Within minutes, Jeff had run to the tractor, climbed on and brought it to a halt, preventing his father from being pulled into the machine. He then ran to the house to tell his mother, Maurine, what had happened. "Dad said to come quick, his hand is in the roller of the corn picker," Jeff told his mother, who then ran out to her husband.

"I checked for severe bleeding and ran in and called our neighbors who were here like lightning," she said.

By the time the neighbors arrived, Jeff had brought out tools and wrenches needed to loosen the rollers. Within a half hour, Jaschke was in the emergency room of St. Gabriel's Hospital in Little Falls.

Jaschke is still hospitalized with injuries to the four fingers on his right hand. He underwent a second operation last Wednesday and it appears he may lose his middle finger, Mrs. Jaschke said.

"It really paid to have him (Jeff) out there," Mrs. Jaschke said. "I don't know how long it would have been otherwise."

Most of Jeff's knowledge about tractors and other farm machinery comes from watching his father work on the family's 240-acre farm, Mrs. Jaschke said, adding that she doesn't think Jeff had ever shut off the power before that day.

With his father hospitalized, Jeff is now doing his part to help his mother and 10 brothers and sisters run the farm.

The oldest son, Tom, 17, has taken over most of the morning chores and also returns to the farmwork after school. The rest of the children, plus a few neighbors, also have pitched in to help, Mrs. Jaschke said.

"I'd never done too much barn work. I was always too busy in the house," said Mrs. Jaschke.

"I didn't know where to turn off the fans the other day and Jeff had to show me," she said.

Yosemite Rock Slide Killed 3

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, Calif. (AP) — Boulders the size of pickup trucks crashed down on weekend hikers on the hairpin turns of a trail near Yosemite Falls, killing three and injuring seven, park officials said.

Two of the dead were believed to be Germans on their first day in California.

The rock slide, onto the 4.8-mile trail about a half-mile below the top of the famed 2,700-foot waterfall, left a "big blank space" on the face of the mountain, said Mary Niles, librarian at Yosemite National Park. Debris was scattered over a 600-yard section of the tortuous trail.

About two dozen hikers were on the trail when the slide rumbled down Sunday, said Linda Abbott, a National Parks Service spokeswoman.

Bob Williams, of Cupertino, Calif., said he scrambled to safety as the rocks tumbled down. His relief soon turned to horror.

"A guy came up to me and said in German that two of his friends were dead and another was hurt," Williams said. "I took a parka off one of the ones who was dead and covered up the one who was injured."

"The Germans told me they believed a boulder six feet in diameter rolled completely over him (the dead man). I saw the other one in a kind of hole, 30 feet below. His leg was wrapped around his shoulder."

Williams said he believed it was the Germans' first day in California.

Farther down the trail, Williams and a friend, Stuart Kagan of San Mateo, Calif., spotted two teen-age boys. "One was underneath a rock. The other boy ... was OK and was holding the hand of his friend" who was dead, Williams said.

Hiker John Weiss said he and a companion took refuge under an overhang and were protected from "rocks the size of RVs (recreational vehicles)."

"Big trees were broken right in half," said another hiker. "There's no more trail in that area."

Ms. Abbott said the slide stranded eight people at the top of the mountain for several hours. They and the injured were evacuated by helicopter, she said.

The body of one of the dead hikers was removed by nightfall Sunday, and the other two were to be removed today, park officials said.

Names of the victims were being withheld until relatives could be notified. Five of the injured were taken to hospitals in Modesto and Fresno, while two others were treated at Yosemite Hospital and released.

Mike Rover, a security officer for the park's concessionaire, said he heard a "big rumble" and rushed from his Yosemite Valley office.

"I looked over there and saw a boulder rolling down slowly. It seemed about the size of half a house," he said. "... There was all kinds of dust. The dust cloud extended from the lower falls to almost the top of the upper falls," a distance of about a half-mile.

Edna DeCaro, who was working in the concession security office, described the rock slide as "awesome."

"To see a tree that stands 80 to 100 feet tall being bent by a huge boulder is really something," she said.

Ms. Abbott said the slide virtually obliterated the trail.

The slide occurred shortly after noon along a series of switchbacks — hairpin turns — on the scenic trail, one of the park's most popular.

The park is located about 200 miles southeast of San Francisco.

'At A Loss' To Explain No Conviction Records

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Officials in the state Division of Motor Vehicles say they are at a loss to explain why traffic violations logged by two men with close ties to a state employee have not been recorded.

The News and Observer of Raleigh reported Sunday that James Daniel Wilson, 22, of Fayetteville pleaded guilty in Cumberland County District Court Feb. 26 to exceeding safe speed, and that Billy Ray Peacock, 42, pleaded guilty in Wake County District Court in 1978 to reckless driving after drinking.

The newspapers said neither plea has been recorded against their driver's licenses. Wilson is the son of Lewis P. Wilson, assistant commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles. Peacock's wife is the elder Wilson's secretary.

Failure to record a conviction could keep a driver's auto insurance premium from rising and could prevent the state from suspending a driver's license.

Lewis Wilson said he was not aware of the traffic violations and did not know the DMV had no record of the convictions.

Peacock also said he was not aware that his plea had never been recorded by the state. Peacock said he had not discussed the case with the elder Wilson.

DMV Commissioner Elbert L. Peters Jr. said the disappearance of the records "would not appear to be accidental even though it could be. There are numerous occasions in the chain ... where the record could be pulled out."

He said the driving records of Wilson and Peacock would be corrected.

Zeb V. Hocutt Jr., director of the DMV section responsible for recording traffic convictions, said he did not know why the violations were not recorded and was embarrassed by their absence.

"I want to know why," he said, but added: "I don't know that we'll ever know."

No Arrests Made At Marijuana 'Smoke-In'

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Marijuana smoke drifted through the air on the campus of the University of North Carolina Sunday at an organized — but sparsely attended — "smoke-in" featuring free pot for the asking.

There were no arrests. Chapel Hill police said they had an agreement with UNC officials to come on to the campus only if needed.

Chancellor Christopher C. Fordham III said authorities wanted to avoid giving publicity to the event, but he said campus police were ready to make arrests if there had been any disruptions "in which that would have been appropriate."

About 200 people attended the demonstration, some of whom were there as onlookers only. Organizers called the demonstration a success, although they had predicted 1,500 to 2,000 people would participate.

The event was sponsored by a group called Students Against Militarism in conjunction with the Youth International Party, or Yippies.

"This is an attempt to unify people against the system," said a man who identified himself as Chris Cuny, one of the organizers. "There are many who feel this way; they just haven't gotten together."

He and other organizers said the demonstration was intended to protest existing marijuana laws and that they called the increasing right-wing dominance in the United States.

Yippie John Ganga, a native of Asheville who said he was using a pseudonym based on a Jamaican word for marijuana, said he bought a pound of Colombian pot for the event. Ganga said 750 marijuana cigarettes had been prepared, although some brought their own.

Ganga said the Yippies wanted make Chapel Hill a center of its activity in the South.

The smokers roamed around The Pit, a mid-campus gathering place, during the demonstration. Some threw frisbees, and some played guitars in the quasi-festival atmosphere.

Missing Girl's Body Identified

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Durham County authorities said Sunday a body found in a wooded area near the Old Oxford Highway has been identified as that of Darleen Tilley, 13, who disappeared in mid-September.

Her body was found by three hunters.

An autopsy was performed Sunday, but the cause of death has not been announced.

Swine Meet In Wilson

A regional swine conference sponsored by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service will be held Tuesday at the Moose Lodge in Wilson. The conference will begin at 3:30 p.m. and end by 8:30 p.m. A sponsored meal will be served.

Topics on the program include using aflatoxin corn, feeding of alternative grains, ventilation and respiratory problems, hog pricing, remodeling ideas, feeding recommendations vs. requirements, and energy conservation and alternative fuels.

For more information contact Mike Regans, agricultural extension agent, at 758-1196.

A military spokesman said a dozen people were working overtime Sunday. Ten of the workers and a visiting army captain were killed in the blast, but two others who had gone out to get lunch for the crew survived.

"It is inevitable for an accident to occur if one is in a rush," a military source said, adding that the plant had been in operation only three months and was still in the experimental stage.

Police said the first explosion started a fire that detonated many of the rockets and other explosives stored at the plant. Firemen fought the blaze for 2½ hours before bringing it under control.

Explosions and fires caused extensive damages to houses surrounding the plant and a nearby apartment building used by the army. The area looked like it had been hit by a tornado.

Police said most of the dead and injured were within 3,000 feet of the plant.

The prime minister, who is also Thailand's army commander, said the army would assume full responsibility for damages and that families of the dead would be compensated. No estimate of damage has yet been made.

Munition Plant Blast Toll At Least 38 Dead

By AMPORN TANTUVANICH Associated Press Writer BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — An accident touched off the explosions and fires that shattered a Thai army munitions depot and the surrounding neighborhood, killed at least 38 people and injured more than 350, Prime Minister Prem Tinsulanonda said today.

Speaking to reporters, Prem said investigators ruled out sabotage in connection with the explosion Sunday morning.

Prapahn Chuenpakpume, a worker who survived the blast at the munitions plant and explosives warehouse, told reporters the initial explosion occurred when a workman made a wrong connection in the fuse of a 73mm rocket he was assembling.

The Thai military command said 29 people were killed in a four-block area, but Radio Thailand after a check of hospitals reported 38 dead. Search crews were still digging in the rubble today, and military sources said the death toll could reach 60.

No foreigners were reported among the casualties.

Informed sources said the deputy army commander, Gen. Sant Chitpatima, visited the plant a week before and ordered a speedup in production of 5,000 rockets for the troops along the tense border with Cambodia.

WEAPON CHARGE

Chief Glenn Cannon said this morning that Raymond Earl Warren, 19, of Farmville, was arrested by Greenville police Friday on carrying a concealed weapon charges following a 12:10 a.m. incident in the downtown area.

Cannon said Warren was charged after officers found a .22 caliber pistol under his shirt in a parking lot at the intersection of Fourth and Cotanche Streets.

Keep For Future Reference

Have Your Speedometer Checked For Accuracy... And Repair

BEFORE A Smokey Bear Checks You!

LESTER GASKINS AUTO SERVICE

2206 NEUSE BLVD.
NEW BERN • 919-637-4461

COUNCIL MEETS

The Parent Advisory Council at Eastern School will meet Tuesday from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the library. A "Make and Take" session will be held for the parents of Title I children to make games and teaching materials for their children. Refreshments will be served and all materials needed will be provided.

EXTENDED WEATHER OUTLOOK FOR N.C.

Fair Wednesday. Increasing cloudiness Thursday and chance of rain in the east Friday. Highs during period will be mostly in 50s and lows in 30s.

Even Santas sometimes need a little cash.

Along with plenty of good cheer, the holidays bring their share of expenses. And even smart Santas always seem to need a little extra cash. Atlantic Credit would like to help. With a Holiday Shopping Loan. It could put you in the proper spirit for the holidays.

Atlantic Credit
If money will help.
A Virginia National Bankshares Company.

5¢ OPEN 24 HRS.

DRIVE THRU

1011 Charles St. 752-1373
105 Airport Rd. 758-6160

NOVEMBER SPECIAL

Now at V.A. Merritt & Sons

GET ICE CUBES WITHOUT OPENING THE DOOR.

Big convenience in a narrow space.
Only 30½ inches wide.

Big 19.5 cu. ft. no-frost refrigerator with 6.68 cu. ft. of freezer space.

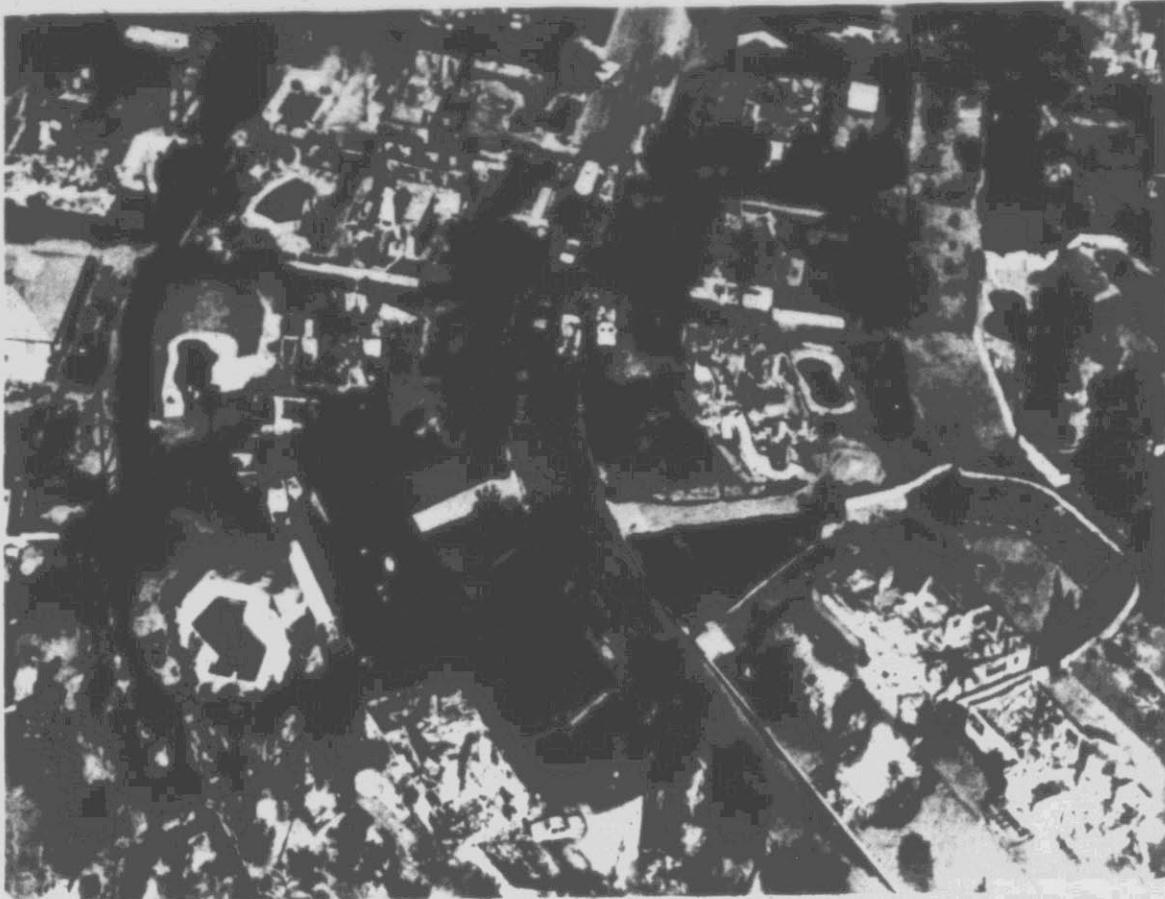

Big removable ice bin holds up to 8 lbs. of ice. 4 adjustable tempered glass shelves. Automatic Energy Saver system helps cut operating cost. Convertible meat keeper with adjustable temperature control; convert to fruit and vegetable storage. Rolls out on wheels for easy cleaning. Only 30½ inches wide, 66¼ inches high.

All this convenience for ONLY 949.00

Plus: Receive A $50 REBATE Direct from General Electric If You Buy Before November 30, 1980.

Get General Electric quality. At our low price!

V.A. Merritt & Sons
207 Evans Street, Downtown Greenville
Phone 752-3736
"Serving Pitt County For Over 50 Years!"

DISASTER — Aerial view of homes destroyed by fire Sunday when a major brush fire swept through the area destroying over 75 homes in the town of Bradbury northwest of Los Angeles. Several brush fires pushed by over 80 mph winds have swept the Southern California area causing thousands of residents to leave their homes. One Bradbury man lost his life by suffering a heart attack while fleeing the area. (AP Laserphoto)

Sam Ervin Concurs On Anti-Busing Amendment

MORGANTON, N.C. (AP) — Former Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. says he agrees with the philosophy expressed in an anti-busing amendment that was up for final approval today by the Senate.

The amendment to an appropriations bill was introduced by Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C.

"I agree with Helms," said Ervin, a Democrat who chaired the Senate Watergate investigation. "I think busing is the worst tyranny ever perpetrated on America."

The Helms amendment would prohibit the Justice Department from seeking court-ordered school desegregation plans that included provisions for busing of students to achieve racial balance.

Ervin, now 82, said in an interview he tried several times during his 20 years in the Senate to have legislation passed that would end forced busing.

"In those days you couldn't get out of the committee," Ervin said, a widely acknowledged authority on the U.S. Constitution.

"But I still say when a federal court orders busing it violates the equal protection clause of the Constitution in two ways. When you bus you have to divide children, and some can be sent to neighborhood schools. But the second group is denied that right. It's not equal protection because two groups are being treated differently.

"Also when busing is ordered, the school board must take the second group and transport them elsewhere, solely on the basis of race," Ervin said.

Ervin said he and Helms consulted on the bill before Helms introduced it in order to work out any possible constitutional snags.

Not Moving For Decertification

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — North Carolina union members have not joined a national move toward decertification of their unions, according to the National Labor Relations Board.

The NLRB said 19 decertification petitions have been received in North Carolina this year. Of those, the union has won three of eight elections held.

Other petitions are pending or have been withdrawn or dismissed.

NLRB spokesmen said the relatively low rate of unionization in North Carolina had kept down the number of decertification requests.

"I'm no lawyer, and before I got into this thing I consulted with Sam Ervin to check the constitutionality," Helms said in Washington.

Ervin said he "voted a straight Democratic ticket" in the Nov. 4 elections but acknowledged that he also has high hopes for the Reagan administration and the new conservative Republican majority in the Senate.

He noted that "four years ago Jimmy Carter ran to balance the budget, and wound up adding more to the federal deficit than Nixon."

Ervin, who has advocated a constitutional amendment required a balanced federal budget, said he would like to see the Republicans move toward that goal "since the Democrats didn't have the intelligence to do it."

FLAG STOLEN

Greenville police are continuing their investigation into the theft of a 20-by-30-foot American flag from the USA Gas Station at Greenville Square shopping center on Greenville Boulevard.

Chief Glenn Cannon said the flag was taken sometime between midnight Saturday and 5:55 a.m. yesterday, when the theft was reported.

Value of the flag was estimated at $400.

Chief Judge

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Chief Justice Joseph Branch of the North Carolina Supreme Court on Saturday announced appointment of District Court Judge Herbert O. Phillips III of Morehead City to the position of Chief District Court Judge of the Third Judicial District, effective December 1.

The Third Judicial District is composed of the counties of Carteret, Pamlico, Craven and Pitt.

Judge Phillips was awarded a BS degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1949 and was awarded his LLB degree in 1951. He has served as District Court Judge for 12 years.

Revival

Revival services will be held at Clemons Grove Church, Rt. 1, Stokes, November 17-21. Elder Harris from Rocky Mount will be the speaker for the week. The following choirs and churches will be guests throughout the week:

Monday, the Tint Tots Choir of Clemons; Tuesday, the junior choir of Clemons Grove; Wednesday, Brown Chapel Choir; Thursday, St. John Choir; Friday, Antioch Church of Bell Arthur.

Services will be held also on November 23. Elder Lacy Artis, the pastor, invites the public to attend all services.

Police Advising Victims Of Compensation Rights

CHICAGO (AP) — For years, Illinois police have carried cards informing suspects of their constitutional rights. Now police are adding another card — to let victims know that they may be entitled to compensation.

Patricia Goldman, director of the Illinois Crime Victims Compensation Program, said the cards have been sent to the 25,801 law enforcement officers in the state for use beginning this week.

"Most people don't know about this program," Ms. Goldman said. "But if you're unfortunate enough to be a crime victim, there is help."

To qualify for compensation, a person must be the victim of violent crime or the relative of a slain victim. The crime must have been reported within 72 hours after it occurred, and the victim must cooperate with authorities, according to Ms. Goldman.

"People are often reluctant to testify and we want to make sure the victims testify," she said.

The maximum compensation a victim may receive was increased this year from $10,000 to $15,000. The program covers medical expenses, lost earnings, funeral and burial costs and support to dependents of deceased victims.

Ms. Goldman said that since its start in 1973, the program has awarded nearly $8 million to crime victims.

She said 2,168 people received compensation during the last fiscal year.

The state Court of Claims makes the awards based on investigations by the program's staff. Ms. Goldman predicted that $2 million would be awarded in fiscal year 1980.

The crime victims program has a number of limitations, according to Ms. Goldman. The state will not provide compensation for money and personal property lost during a robbery, she said. And there is no compensation for "pain and suffering" as there is in some lawsuits, she added.

Hit-and-run victims are not eligible because the injury resulted from what is deemed to be an accident and the program does not cover accidents, Ms. Goldman said.

She said her office attempts to give special help to senior citizens because "it seems that the older the victim, the more brutal the assault."

Boston Transit System Kept Running By State

By JAMES SIMON

Associated Press Writer
BOSTON (AP) — While state officials pledged that Boston's subways and buses would keep running for their 300,000 daily riders, legislators were meeting in special session today to find the necessary money.

Gov. Edward J. King said he would declare a state of emergency if needed to keep the system moving. The $302 million in its 1980 budget runs out tonight.

The financial problems of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority — also known as the "T" — were complicated Sunday by the refusal of the authority's advisory board to authorize any additional spending.

Buses, subways and trains in 79 communities would have to stop rolling unless the Legislature supplies more money or King takes over the system under an emergency proclamation and authorizes additional spending.

Acting "T" director Barry M. Locke met with King early Sunday and later said the governor was standing behind his promise that service on the nation's fifth largest transit system would not be interrupted due to money problems.

King was forced to take over the system last December and authorize almost $12 million in additional spending.

"There is no chance the 'T' will shut down," Locke said.

The advisory board, which controls the MBTA budget, voted 139-25 against approving $10 million in spending to keep the transit system afloat for 10 to 14 more days.

However, due to a recent court ruling, funds for any bail-out by King or the Legislature apparently would have to come from

Big Cutback By Homebuilders

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — North Carolina homebuilders have cut back housing starts by 35 percent since the last round of interest rate hikes in mid-September.

A survey by the North Carolina Home Builders Association showed that mortgage interest rates for new home building now average about 14 percent.

"We've monitored a tremendous downturn in building activity and new loan applications since September," said Mark Tipton of Greenville, president of the homebuilders group.

"The higher interest rates have simply put thousands of potential home buyers, particularly young married couples, out of the market," he said.

general state funds, which could anger legislators from central and western Massachusetts whose residents do not directly benefit from the "T."

The budget battles between the MBTA management and the advisory board have raged for years. The board privately has admitted that the 1980 budget was unrealistically low, but officials said they needed to force a confrontation with authority officials over budget overruns, management reforms and the need to curb the power of the MBTA's 28 unions.

CHARGED

Ramona Mazingo Robinson, 45 of Conetoe, was arrested by Greenville Police about 1 p.m. Friday on shoplifting charges in connection with the theft of merchandise from Brody's at 422 Evans St.

Chief Glenn Cannon said Ms. Robinson allegedly attempted to take a dress and sweater valued at $79.

A FULL SERVICE DRUG STORE

...offering prescription pick-up & delivery

HARGETT'S DRUG STORE

OAKMONT PROFESSIONAL PLAZA

PHONE 756-3344

There's information and entertainment at Farmers Warehouse, Greenville, North Carolina

See the South's largest indoor display of farm equipment and supplies. Free country entertainment on all three days.

Jerry Clower, the country's #1 Country Music Humorist (back for his 5th straight year) 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 18

Wendy Holcombe, banjo player and her band 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 19

Charly McClain, popular country vocalist 1:30 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 20

You can see it all at the 5th annual

Tobacco Farmer Show

Sponsored by the Flue Cured Tobacco Farmer magazine
Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, Greenville

Doors open 9:00 a.m.—5:00 p.m., Door Prize! Taylor Hydraulic Loader

GOLD HARD CASH MADE EASY!

Impossible? Not at all. The trick is having the right connection. And you do—CLASSIFIED. Advertise your salable, but unneeded items in classified and see how easy it is to put extra cash in your pocket.

The Daily Reflector

Classified Ads
752-6166

Stock And Market Reports

Hogs
RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) (NCDA) - The trend on the North Carolina hog market today was steady. Wilson, 47.25; Kinston, 47.50; Clinton, Fayetteville, Dunn, Elizabethtown, Pink Hill, Pine Level, Chadbourn, Ayden, Laurinburg and Benson, 47.50; Rocky Mount 46.75; Salisbury 46.50. Sows: Spivey's Corner (300-600 pounds) 35.50-41.00; Fayetteville (450 pounds up) 41.00; Greenville (300-600 pounds) 33.00-42.00. Wilson (450 pounds up) 43.00.

Poultry
RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) (NCDA) - The North Carolina f.o.b. dock broiler market was steady. Supply moderate. Demand good. Weights light to desirable. The North Carolina dock weighted average price this week is 47.98 cents per pound for small purchases of plant-grade broilers picked up at processing plants. Estimated slaughter today was 1,613,000.

stock market

Following are selected 11 a.m. stock market quotations

Burroughs	49 1/2
United Telecommunications	17 1/2
Heublen	30
Jeff-Pilot	24
Tri-South	3 1/2
Wickes	17 1/2
Wachovia Realty	6
Eckerd's	17 1/2
Central Soya	26 1/2
Hardwoods	35
Integon	29 1/2
Fieldcrest	27 1/2
Halteras Income	13 1/2
Virginia Electric & Power	10 1/2
Easton	29 1/2
Deere	44 1/2
P & G	72 1/2
Piedmont Aviation	14 1/2
Conner Homes	10 1/2
Priza Int.	5
McGraw-Hill	35 1/2
NCNB	12 1/2
TRW Inc.	57 1/2
Low's Company	20 1/2
Carolina P&L	17 1/2

NEW YORK (AP) - Stock prices dropped in moderate trading today as major banks raised their prime lending rates three-quarters of a point to 16.25 percent, the highest level since May.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks dropped about 11 points in the first half hour of trading but partially recovered soon after that. By noon, the blue chip average was down 6.23 points at 980.12.

The retreat in stock prices included oil, defense and financial stocks. Overall losing issues outnumbered gainers by more than 2-to-1 on the NYSE.

Big Board volume came to 21.53 million shares by midday, down from 30.16 million in the previous session.

The NYSE composite index slipped 0.38 to 78.58. On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index dropped 1.21 to 351.00.

NEW YORK (AP) - Midday stocks

ABT Lab	40 1/2	40 1/2	40 1/2
Akzo	12 1/2	12 1/2	12 1/2
Allis-Chalmers	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2
Alcoa	68 1/2	68 1/2	68 1/2
Am. Airlin.	9 1/2	9 1/2	9 1/2
Am. Baker	16 1/2	16 1/2	16 1/2
Am. Brands	76 1/2	76 1/2	76 1/2
Amer. Can.	30 1/2	30 1/2	30 1/2
Am. Cyan.	30 1/2	30 1/2	30 1/2
Am. Family	7 1/2	7 1/2	7 1/2
Am. Motors	47 1/2	47 1/2	47 1/2
Am. Stand.	67 1/2	67 1/2	67 1/2
Amer. T&T	48 1/2	48 1/2	48 1/2
Beat Food	18 1/2	18 1/2	18 1/2
Beth. Steel	28 1/2	28 1/2	28 1/2
Boeing	39 1/2	39 1/2	39 1/2

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) - The Dominican ambassador to Colombia was shot to death early today in the apartment of the Dominican consul here, police said.

Police said Ambassador Eduardo Antonio Garcia Vasquez, 60, was hit by seven bullets at the home of Consul Rafael Augusto Sanchez.

The consul remained inside his apartment and his telephone was disconnected. Colombian police said they could not enter the consul's house because he has diplomatic immunity.

The consul sent word to a large group of newsmen gathered in the street that in the next few hours he would give an explanation of what happened. There were unofficial reports the ambassador reached the stairs and was taken to a clinic where he died.

Garcia Vasquez had presented his credentials to President Julio Cesar Turbay Ayala last Sept. 26. He replaced Diogenes Muyo who had been held hostage with other diplomats for two months at the Dominican Embassy by a leftist guerrilla group.

Garcia Vasquez had been previously ambassador in Peru and held various posts at the Dominican Foreign Ministry.

The Meeting Place

- MONDAY
- 6:00 p.m. - Greenville TOPS Club meets at Planters Bank
 - 6:30 p.m. - Rotary Club meets
 - 6:30 p.m. - Host Lions Club meets at Moose Temple
 - 6:45 p.m. - Optimist Club meets at Tom's Restaurant
 - 7:00 p.m. - Sweet Adelines singing group meets at the Memorial Baptist Church
 - 7:30 p.m. - Women of the World Simpson Lodge meets at community bldg.
 - 7:30 p.m. - Greenville Barber Shop Chorus meets at Jaycee Park Bldg.
 - 8:00 p.m. - Lodge No. 885 Loyal Order of the Moose
 - 8:00 p.m. - Grimesland AA meets at Grimesland Methodist Church

- TUESDAY
- 7:00 a.m. - Greenville Breakfast Lions Club meets at Three Steers
 - 7:30 a.m. - Progressive City Kiwanis Club meets at Ramada Inn
 - 9:00 a.m. - Lakewood Pines Garden Club meets at the home of Mrs. W.H. Woodard
 - 10:00 a.m. - Kiwanis Golden K Club meets at Moose Lodge
 - 1:00 p.m. - Round Table meets with Mrs. Henry Wanderman
 - 1:30 p.m. - Sierra Book Club meets with Mary Furr
 - 2:30 p.m. - Pitt County Senior Citizens meet at Senior Citizens Social Center
 - 6:30 p.m. - Greenville Claims Association meets at Three Steers
 - 7:00 p.m. - Parents Anonymous meets at Student Methodist Church
 - 7:00 p.m. - Post No. 38 of American Legion meets at Post Home
 - 7:30 p.m. - Greenville Choral Society rehearsal at Immanuel Baptist Church
 - 8:00 p.m. - Pitt County Alcoholics Anonymous at AA Bldg., Farmville Hwy.

Boise Cased	37 1/2	37 1/2	37 1/2
Borden	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Burlington Ind.	20 1/2	20 1/2	20 1/2
CSX Corp	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2
Carroll-Pf.	17 1/2	17 1/2	17 1/2
Celanese	54 1/2	53 1/2	53 1/2
Cent. Soya	17 1/2	17 1/2	17 1/2
Chambers Int.	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Chrysler	8 1/2	7 1/2	7 1/2
Coca-Cola	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2
Colg. Palm	14 1/2	13 1/2	14 1/2
Comer Edis	18 1/2	18 1/2	18 1/2
ConAgra	36 1/2	36 1/2	36 1/2
Con'l Group	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2
Delta Airl.	55 1/2	55 1/2	55 1/2
Dow Chem.	35 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2
duPont	42 1/2	41 1/2	42 1/2
Duke Pow.	16 1/2	16 1/2	16 1/2
EastArl.	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2
East Kodak	72 1/2	71 1/2	71 1/2
Eaton P.	30 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
Esmark	55 1/2	55 1/2	55 1/2
Exxon	82 1/2	82 1/2	82 1/2
Firestone	9 1/2	9 1/2	9 1/2
Fla. Pow. L.	26 1/2	26 1/2	26 1/2
Fla. Pow. S.	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
FordMot.	24 1/2	23 1/2	24 1/2
For. McKees	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
Fugua Ind.	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
Gen. Elec.	38 1/2	38 1/2	38 1/2
Gen. Foods	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
Gen. Mills	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Gen. Motors	48 1/2	48 1/2	48 1/2
Gen. Tel. & E.	28 1/2	28 1/2	28 1/2
Gen. Tire	22 1/2	22 1/2	22 1/2
GalPacif.	27 1/2	26 1/2	26 1/2
Grainech	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Goodyear	17 1/2	17 1/2	17 1/2
Grace Co.	59 1/2	54 1/2	55 1/2
Glor. Nek.	44 1/2	43 1/2	43 1/2
Greyhound	15 1/2	15 1/2	15 1/2
Gulf Oil	45 1/2	44 1/2	45 1/2
HerculesInc.	22 1/2	22 1/2	22 1/2
HewlettPack.	95 1/2	94 1/2	95 1/2
Ing. Hand	75 1/2	75 1/2	75 1/2
IBM	71 1/2	70 1/2	71 1/2
Int'l Harv.	30 1/2	30 1/2	30 1/2
Int'l Paper	41 1/2	41 1/2	41 1/2
Int'l Rectif.	20 1/2	20 1/2	20 1/2
Int'l T&T	32 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2
K. Mart	19 1/2	19 1/2	19 1/2
Kaiser-Alum.	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Kane Mill	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2
KrogerCo.	21 1/2	21 1/2	21 1/2
Lockheed	34 1/2	33 1/2	33 1/2
Lewis Corp.	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2
Masonite	28 1/2	27 1/2	28 1/2
McDermott	40 1/2	39 1/2	39 1/2
Mead Corp.	27 1/2	27 1/2	27 1/2
MarketMM	57 1/2	57 1/2	57 1/2
Mobil	79 1/2	78 1/2	79 1/2
Monsanto	61 1/2	61 1/2	61 1/2
NCNB Cp	13 1/2	12 1/2	12 1/2
Nabisco	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Nat. Distill.	30 1/2	29 1/2	30 1/2
OlinCo.	19 1/2	19 1/2	19 1/2
Owensill	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Penney JC	22 1/2	22 1/2	22 1/2
PeppiCo.	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Phelps Dod.	39 1/2	38 1/2	38 1/2
PhillipMorr.	45 1/2	44 1/2	45 1/2
PhillipsPet.	45 1/2	44 1/2	45 1/2
Polaroid	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Proct Gamb.	72 1/2	71 1/2	72 1/2
Quaker Inc.	29 1/2	28 1/2	29 1/2
RC	32 1/2	31 1/2	32 1/2
RalstonPur.	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
RepubAir	7 1/2	7 1/2	7 1/2
Republic SIl	25 1/2	25 1/2	25 1/2
Republic Revlon	48 1/2	48 1/2	48 1/2
Reynold	46 1/2	46 1/2	46 1/2
RockwellInt.	41 1/2	41 1/2	41 1/2
RoyCrown	12 1/2	12 1/2	12 1/2
SearsRoeb.	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2
SigGrip	19 1/2	18 1/2	19 1/2
Scott Paper	19 1/2	18 1/2	19 1/2
Sealed Air	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
SearsRoeb.	16 1/2	15 1/2	15 1/2
Skyline Cp	14 1/2	13 1/2	13 1/2
Sony Corp.	15 1/2	15 1/2	15 1/2
Southern Co.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
South Ry.	76 1/2	76 1/2	76 1/2
Sperry Cp	55 1/2	55 1/2	55 1/2
Sid Brands	26 1/2	26 1/2	26 1/2
Sidoli Cal	98 1/2	97 1/2	97 1/2
Sidoli Ind.	81 1/2	80 1/2	80 1/2
Sidoli Oh S.	80 1/2	79 1/2	79 1/2
Sidoli S.	80 1/2	79 1/2	79 1/2
Stevens JP	17 1/2	17 1/2	17 1/2
TRW Inc.	57 1/2	56 1/2	57 1/2
TRW Inc.	44 1/2	43 1/2	44 1/2
Texaco Inc.	84 1/2	83 1/2	83 1/2
TexEast	58 1/2	58 1/2	58 1/2
UAC Int.	12 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
U.S. Camp	50 1/2	50 1/2	50 1/2
Un Carbide	48 1/2	48 1/2	48 1/2
Unifocal S.	52 1/2	51 1/2	52 1/2
Unroyal	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2
US Steel	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
Wachov Cp	17 1/2	17 1/2	17 1/2
WestPac	43 1/2	43 1/2	43 1/2
Westing E.	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2
Weyerhae.	33 1/2	33 1/2	33 1/2
WinnDix.	28 1/2	28 1/2	28 1/2
Woolworth	24 1/2	24 1/2	24 1/2
Wrigley S.	34 1/2	33 1/2	33 1/2
Xerox Cp.	65 1/2	64 1/2	65 1/2

Catawba's Republicans Unsurprised By Sweep

HICKORY, N.C. (AP) - Republican leaders in Catawba County say they aren't surprised by the GOP sweep in the traditionally Democratic county two weeks ago.

Republicans won every local seat open for the state House and Senate, the board of county commissioners and the county register of deeds.

While Republican momentum continues to rise, GOP leaders say voting results have not always reflected registration numbers.

"I don't have any theories (of success) - all the theories are hard work," said Tom Dlugos, chairman of the Catawba County GOP for the past four years.

Dlugos said the party has lured Catawba County working people, young people and women into its fold by telling them they aren't well-represented by the Democrats.

At the base of this year's Republican landslide was voting by "people who are not registered Republicans but Republicans at heart," Dlugos said. Only a few counties in North Carolina - Wilkes, Yadkin, Avery and Mitchell - have a majority of registered Republicans, and none of these counties borders Catawba.

Voter registration in the county was about 3 to 1 in favor of Democrats when Republican Reid Poovey won a state Senate seat in 1966. Poovey, who has been in and out of both General Assembly chambers since then, calls that year a turning point for the GOP in the county.

"We had to cover the best we could and work like the devil to find candidates," said Poovey, 78, now in the House. "The thing was we'd proved that somebody could be elected in 1966. Republicans discovered their votes did count and it was not completely hopeless."

Near-parity has reigned since then.

In the 1976 elections, 58 percent of the county's 50,595 registered voters were Democrats and 36 percent were Republicans. This year, 55 percent of the 50,404 registered voters were Democrats, 37 percent Republicans. Unaffiliated voters went from 6 percent in 1976 to 8 percent in 1980.

State Republican chairman Jack Lee of Fayetteville said Democrats in Catawba "have done a real, real good job in increasing their registration and organization."

Lee, Poovey and other Republicans attribute GOP strength in Catawba to Dlugos, 59, a purchasing agent for Catawba Memorial Hospital and a retired Marine major.

Dlugos, who says he may seek the state GOP chairmanship next year, said the local party has developed a close-knit organization with precinct-by-precinct strength.

"We don't have any divisions in this county," he said. "We don't have Holshouser Republicans, Helms Republicans, Newton or Hickory Republicans - we're all Republicans. Rather than talk about personalities, we talk about the party philosophy."

Micronesians And U.S. In Accord On Autonomy

Dallas Police Arrest Man For Bethel PD

BETHEL - A 24-year-old Bethel man is being held by authorities in Dallas, Texas after his arrest there on charges stemming from the Nov. 8 rape of a Bethel woman.

Bethel Police Chief Walter Gray said that extradition proceedings are pending for George Lloyd Moore of Cherry Street, Bethel. The chief added that Moore is being held for Bethel police by the Dallas Police Department.

According to Chief Gray, Moore is wanted by Bethel police for first degree burglary and the rape of a 31-year-old woman. He said that the incident allegedly took place early in the morning on Saturday, Nov. 8 at the woman's residence here.

Chief Gray, who reported that Moore was arrested in Dallas this past weekend, said that Moore is being held without privilege of bond.

Moore is a former resident of Scotland Neck, the chief reported.

High Court....
 (Continued from Page 1)
 religion by leaving it to state officials to determine what version of the Ten Commandments will be used and by requiring state officials to oversee the posting.

In a 1971 decision, the Supreme Court fashioned a three-pronged test for determining whether a state law violates the First Amendment's "establishment of religion" prohibition.

Writing for the court in 1971, Chief Justice Warren E. Burger said, "First, the statute must have a secular legislative purpose; second, its principal or primary effect must be one that neither advances nor inhibits religion, and finally the statute must not foster an excessive government entanglement with religion."

The appeal acted on today argued, "Unless remedied by the court herein, legislatures of other states will undoubtedly follow suit by enacting similar or identical statutes requiring the school rooms of this nation to advance purely religious teachings at the expense of children and their parents."

Drainage....
 (Continued from Page 1)
 drainage problems, they admit that some minor property damage and inconvenience is to be expected when severe storms hit Greenville.

"Statistically, the most recent gullywasher of major consequence was on June 4, 1979," Wyatt recalled. "During this storm, some five inches of rainwater fell on the city within a 24-hour period. In some parts of the city, the volume was just too great for the drainage system."

Sewell related, "We can handle the five-year level storm and rainwater with little inconvenience, but the ten-year level threat will surely cause us some problems throughout the city, despite our best efforts in the future."

Wyatt and Sewell added that citizens who want to help reduce drainage problems in their areas can take some personal action which will aid the runoff control efforts. Appearances at any public hearings on the subject of stormwater and drainage problems will enable the citizen to voice opinions and concerns about the subject, they suggested.

Assistance is provided when the property owner refrains from putting yard clippings, mowings and leaves in the street, it was pointed out. If a severe rainstorm occurs before the debris is removed by city workers, the material will be washed down into the storm drainage system and may block the flow of water or increase pipe and ditch maintenance costs.

PRESS SECRETARY - Robin Orr, Society Editor and Columnist for the Oakland Tribune, has been selected as Press Secretary for Nancy Reagan. The appointment of Mrs. Orr, who said she has covered Mrs. Reagan since Ronald Reagan was inaugurated governor of California in January 1967, was confirmed Saturday and becomes effective December 1. (AP Laserphoto)

U.S. Trade Fair Opened In China

PEKING (AP) - U.S. Undersecretary of Commerce Robert E. Herzstein opened the first American trade exhibition in socialist China today with a tribute to the achievements and promise of private enterprise.

"The United States owes its prosperity to the thousands of private companies that make up its business sector," Herzstein told Chinese Foreign Trade Minister Li Qiang and other officials who attended the opening of the giant showcase of American technology and machinery.

"It is these companies, each making independent decisions as to how to conduct their activities most effectively, that have given us economical mass production and a brighter future for all mankind."

Herzstein said the displays by more than 250 exhibitors "emphasize those sectors in which China has chosen to move so boldly toward modernization" - oil exploration, agriculture, transportation, power generation and consumer goods production.

He added that he was confident the U.S. and Chinese governments would find "a framework of agreement which will make it possible for American businessmen to serve the needs of the people of China in a fashion that is consistent with efficient business practices and the values of the Chinese people."

About 200,000 Chinese customers, engineers and technicians are expected to visit the fair in the next two weeks. But the general public is not invited. The director of the exhibition, Stephen A. Sind explained that "it is primarily an industrial show. The people invited should be users."

More than 1,500 tons of machinery are being shown, making it the biggest such trade exhibition the U.S.

government has sponsored. The exhibits range from nuclear power generating systems to shoemaking equipment. The Ford Motor Co. is showing tractor parts made in China that Ford buys for use in tractors.

Trade between China and the United States is expected to total $4 billion this year, nearly double the 1979 figure. Sind said although China is in the midst of an economic retrenchment, exhibitors feel it is important to be here now to win contracts in the future.

Stolen Baby Is Found Unhurt

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) - A newborn infant who was snatched from her mother's arms two weeks ago was found in good condition in the front seat of an automobile, police said.

Police said they had filed child-stealing charges against Floretta Kerkulah, a former employee at St. Vincent's Hospital. Authorities said the woman was apprehended Saturday after going to a telephone booth she had used previously to call her husband during the two-week abduction.

Jo Juan Kyle, born Oct. 31, was found in good condition on the front seat of the woman's car. It was not known why the baby was abducted. She was taken from her mother's arms at the hospital on Nov. 1.

Eulogize Slain Ribicoff Niece

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) - The 23-year-old niece of Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., was eulogized as a woman "far beyond her years" as 600 people gathered at a synagogue to mourn her death in a holdup.

Sarah Ribicoff was shot to death Wednesday night when two robbers accosted her and a companion outside a restaurant in Venice, Calif.

Miss Ribicoff, who grew up in Hartford and graduated last year from Yale University, was remembered Sunday as "bright, perceptive" and a "promising journalist." She had been working as an editorial writer at the Los Angeles Herald Examiner.

Killer Of Pet Deer Is Hunted

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) - A $2,450 reward is being offered by a local humane society and a sportsmen's group for information leading to the arrest of a gunman who shot a pet deer at the city's children's zoo and then hunted it away.

Abner, an 11-point, 260-pound deer, probably was asleep when someone cut the chain of his compound last month, walked in, shot the deer and watched as it bled to death, said zookeeper Karl Enter.

The Athens-Clarke Humane Society and the Ethical Sportsmen Awareness Committee are offering the reward.

Terrorist Blow

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain (AP) - Basque guerrillas killed a member of the Guardia Civil and wounded two other national policemen early today in a hail of gunfire and hand grenades, police said.

Preservation Move

ROME (AP) - Communist Mayor Luigi Petroselli says Rome will close a wide traffic-clogged boulevard in the historic center of the city to cut vibrations and exhaust fumes that are damaging the famous monuments.

Two Utilities In Financial Strain

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) - Two utilities may need rate increases of almost 50 percent by 1984 to recover unexpected expenses in constructing a nuclear power plant, according to a confidential report obtained by The Associated Press.

The document, prepared by a Chicago consulting firm, said rising costs of the Wolf Creek nuclear plant near Burlington are placing a financial strain on Kansas Gas & Electric Co. and Kansas

Beat Deadline

WARSAW, Poland (AP) - A government commission signed wage agreements with health service workers, teachers and postal clerks today, just short of a threatened "strike readiness" deadline.

Obituaries

ROCKY MOUNT - Mrs. Irene Dozier Price, 79, died Sunday.</

Pittsburgh Nips Browns

Last-Second Happiness
Pittsburgh Steelers Lynn Swann (88) and Mike Webster (52) celebrate after Swann caught a three-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw with 17 seconds left to give the Steelers a 16-13 win over the Cleveland Browns Sunday. (AP Laserphoto)

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Steelers, led by the passing combination of Terry Bradshaw and Lynn Swann, borrowed the success formula of Cleveland's "Kardiac Kids" to beat the Browns and climb right back into the National Football League playoff chase.

"We won it when we had to. We didn't buckle under pressure. We played Steeler football again," said Bradshaw, whose 3-yard scoring pass to Swann with 11 seconds to play Sunday gave Pittsburgh a crucial 16-13 victory over Cleveland.

For most of this season it has been Cleveland which pulled out games in the closing minutes, but this time Pittsburgh turned the tables on the Browns and won a heart-stopper of its own.

Asked his reaction to the Bradshaw-Swann game-winner, Steelers Coach Chuck Noll heaved a sigh and said, "Aaaaahhh! And that was my emotion throughout the whole game, not just the end."

The victory lifted Pittsburgh, which had lost three in a row earlier this season, to a 7-4 record and a tie with Cleveland, one game behind first-place Houston in the American Conference's Central Division. The Oilers beat the Chicago Bears 10-6 behind a career-high 206 yards rushing by Earl Campbell.

"We've got a chance now. We're not out of it," said Bradshaw, who had limped to the sidelines after being hit by Cleveland's Lyle Alzado with 25 seconds left to play, but came back out to lead the Steelers to victory.

In other NFL games Sunday, the Philadelphia Eagles blanked the Washington Redskins 24-0, the Dallas Cowboys beat the St. Louis Cardinals 31-21, the Atlanta Falcons defeated the New Orleans Saints 31-13, the Buffalo Bills shut out the Cincinnati Bengals 14-0, the Los Angeles Rams edged the New England Patriots 17-14, the Minnesota Vikings outscored the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 38-30, the San Diego Chargers downed the Kansas City Chiefs 20-7, the Miami Dolphins nipped the San Francisco 49ers 17-13, the Denver Nuggets beat the New York Jets 31-24, the Baltimore Colts edged the Detroit Lions 10-9 and the New York Giants defeated the Green Bay Packers 27-21.

Oakland plays at Seattle Monday night.

Swann caught a career-high nine passes for 138 yards, but the big one was a short flip into the left side of the end zone to cap the comeback after Cleveland seemingly had the game won.

The Browns, leading 13-7, had stopped Pittsburgh on a goalline stand with less than three minutes to play. But they couldn't move the ball, so they took an intentional safety and then used a free kick to give it to the Steelers on their own 46 with 1:44 to play.

Completions of 24 yards to Theo Bell and 23 yards to Swann, plus a holding penalty against Cleveland safety Clarence Scott, moved the ball to the 3. Bradshaw then sprinted out to his left, spotted Swann one step ahead of Browns defensive back Ron Bolton and completed the short toss for the winning score.

"It was an illegal play all the way," charged Bolton, contending that Bell had set a pick to free Swann in the end zone.

"He couldn't beat me unless it was."

"I think they're just trying to find a reason to explain losing," responded Swann, who said he had been elbowed by Bolton throughout the game. "I wanted to spike the ball right in front of him (Bolton), but I couldn't find him."

Oilers 10, Bears 6
Campbell, who carried 31 times, raised his season totals to a league-leading 1,300 yards on 245 carries for the Oilers, who got the only touchdown of the game on an 8-yard pass from Gifford Neilsen to Tom Wilson on a fake field goal play just before halftime.

Toni Fritsch kicked a 29-yard field goal for Houston's other points.

Eagles 24, Redskins 0
Philadelphia won its seventh in a row and raised its record to 10-1, best in the NFL, by breezing past the struggling Redskins as Ron Jaworski threw a pair of scoring passes.

"I told this team before the season started that if we beat Dallas in Philadelphia and the Redskins in Washington, we'd win the division," said Coach Dick Vermeil. "Well, here we are."

Cowboys 31, Cardinals 21
Danny White threw three scoring passes and Drew Pearson became the Cowboys' all-time receiving leader with his 366th career catch as Dallas raised its record to 8-3 by beating St. Louis. Although Dallas trailed Philadelphia by two games in the NFC East, the Cowboys have the second-best record in the conference and are in prime position for a wild card playoff berth.

"I'm not concerned where we are in the standings or how we got there," said Cowboys Coach Tom Landry. "I just want to get into the playoffs. That's all I'm worried about."

Falcons 31, Saints 13
Atlanta won its fifth in a row to remain one game ahead of Los Angeles in the NFC West as Steve Bartkowski threw three touchdown passes and ran for another score.

"We're tired of losing around here," said Bartkowski. "Now that we've had a taste of winning, we know what it's like."

The Saints haven't had even a taste of winning this season. The loss dropped them to 0-11.

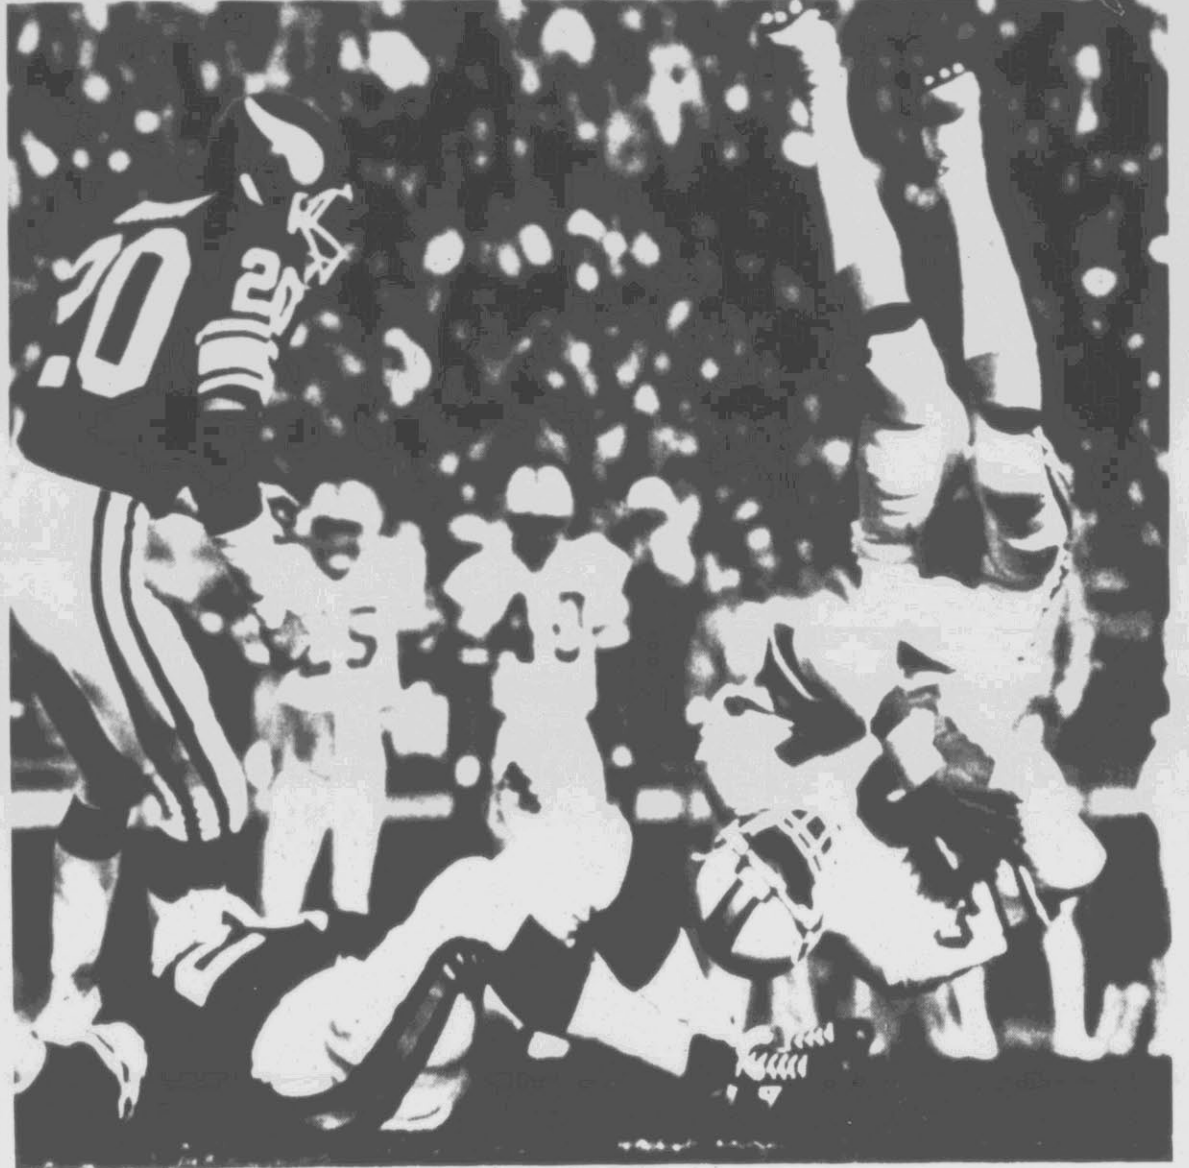

"There's not much to say after 11 straight losses," Coach Dick Nolan of the Saints said. "We played hard, we kept fighting but we kept beating ourselves."

Bills 14, Bengals 0
Buffalo took over sole possession of first place in the AFC East by posting its first shutout of the season. The Bills limited Cincinnati to just nine first downs and 213 net yards.

"We didn't do anything offensively at all," admitted Bengals Coach Forrest Gregg. "We were very, very poor. And that pretty well tells the story of the game."

Rams 17, Patriots 14
Los Angeles stayed one game back of Atlanta, and knocked New England one game behind Buffalo, thanks to Elvis

(Please turn to page 11)

Happy Landings

Tampa Bay wide receiver Gordon Jones goes airborne after taking a 13-yard pass from Doug Williams and being hit by Minnesota Viking safety Kurt Knoff, who lies flat on ground shaken up. Viking cornerback Bobby Bryant assists at left. (AP Laserphoto)

Williams and being hit by Minnesota Viking safety Kurt Knoff, who lies flat on ground shaken up. Viking cornerback Bobby Bryant assists at left. (AP Laserphoto)

Herd Fans Remember That Night

Marshall Crash—10 Years Later

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — The first people to arrive on the side of the Wayne County hill 10 years ago where the plane went down recall an almost eerie silence. It was surreal, they said, that something so bad could happen so quickly and then there could be so much silence afterwards.

No cries of pain, trauma or anguish. No sobbing. Just the crackling sound of a fire on the crisp autumn night as policemen, reporters and local residents tried to piece together what had happened.

Overhead that site, just minutes before the pilot of the Southern Airways DC-9 charter plane, Captain Frank Hall Abbott, probably realized in one sickening second what was happening as he leveled his plane for an approach to the radarless runway at Tri-State Airport. That he had brought the plane in too low, and it was going to crash into dense woods about 1,700 yards away from the runway.

The plane crashed seconds after its wings began shearing off the tops of trees on that hillside. And what had begun the day before as the final long road trip on Marshall University's 1970 football schedule ended in sudden abruptness as the worst disaster in American college sports history.

The accident occurred a decade ago last week, Nov. 17, 1970 as the team was returning from a game with East Carolina. The death toll was 75. Thirty-seven of the victims were members of Marshall's football team. The others were coaches, crew members and fans — four of them Huntington physicians who had helped the team and were on the trip as a "thank you" from the university.

Marshall University remembered the tragedy over the weekend memorial services before the team was beaten by Toledo 38-0.

Just before the loss to East Carolina before the tragic flight home, there had been talk that "we've begun to turn our program around." It was a turnaround that to this day has not been completed.

During the 1970s, Marshall — under four different coaches — posted a 22-84 record, a winning percentage of .207 that ranked as the worst among the 139 NCAA Division I-A programs. Even now, second-year coach Sonny Randle talks of that one big victory that will turn Marshall's program around. Since 1965, Marshall has never won more than four games in a season and has yet to win a Southern Conference game since joining the league in 1977.

Ten years after the tragedy, some things are different. Air charter rules have been strengthened. Tri-State, and other airports its size that handle jet traffic, have radar.

Other things are the same. Marshall struggles on the football field, a step slower than its opposition, always a few yards or a few points short of being competitive. Huntington residents still support the Herd, longing for the day the losing will end.

And they remember. They remember that night the plane went down. And some of them still cry.

SAAD'S SHOE REPAIR
QUALITY SHOE REPAIRING
Located at College View Cleaners
113 Grande Ave., Phone 758-1228
Opposite Sherwin Williams
"Parking in Front"

Custom Exhaust Systems, Tune-Ups, Brake Service
MALPASS MUFFLER
2616 East 10th Street
Greenville, N.C.
758-7676

CLIP & SAVE
Credit Card Hangover?
Homeowners try our "BUDGET ADJUSTER LOAN"!

We care that your monthly payments are too high to live within your budget. Let us try to lower your payments by paying off those credit card and department store charges.

We reduce your payments by allowing you a longer repayment term with our BUDGET ADJUSTER LOAN. Often there will be no increase in the rate of interest you pay. You can afford the things you want and need right now.

Check the chart below and compare to the rates charged by Visa, Mastercard and most department stores for extended terms.

Add up the balances and monthly payments on all your charge and credit card accounts. If you need extra cash now, add that amount to the total balance. Then call us at the number listed below. Ask the manager to quote you the BUDGET ADJUSTER LOAN monthly payment.

There is no obligation and if you prefer, you don't even have to give your name. Stop by or call us today!

Amount Financed	Monthly Payment	Term of Loan	Total of Payments	Annual Percentage Rate
$ 6,168	$150	60 Mo.	$ 9,000	16.00%
$15,009	$365	60 Mo.	$21,900	16.00%
$20,745	$450	72 Mo.	$32,400	16.00%
$24,166	$480	84 Mo.	$40,320	16.00%

Liberty Financial Planning
301 Evans Street • Greenville, N.C. 27834
752-6181

"Providing VIP Service to Working Americans"

CLIP & SAVE

Contest Scores

- Eastern Kentucky 28, East Carolina 16
- N. C. State 38, Duke 21
- Notre Dame 7, Alabama 0
- Georgia 31, Auburn 21
- Maryland 34, Clemson 7
- Florida 17, Kentucky 15
- Navy 19, Georgia Tech 8
- Mississippi State 55, Louisiana State 31
- Mississippi 20, Tennessee 9
- North Carolina 26, Virginia 3
- Miami, Fla. 24, Vanderbilt 17
- South Carolina 39, Wake Forest 38
- Kansas 42, Colorado 3
- Air Force 25, Wyoming 7
- Washington State 37, California 17
- Oregon 40, Oregon State 21
- Washington 20, Southern California 10
- Pittsburgh 45, Army 7
- Boston College 27, Syracuse 16
- Dartmouth 28, Brown 24
- Cornell 24, Columbia 0
- Villanova 45, Holy Cross 13
- Harvard 28, Pennsylvania 17
- West Virginia 24, Rutgers 15
- Penn State 50, Temple 7
- Yale 25, Princeton 13
- Indiana 26, Illinois 24
- Ohio State 41, Iowa 7
- Nebraska 35, Iowa State 0
- Oklahoma State 10, Kansas State 0
- Miami, Ohio, 49, Kent State 14
- Michigan 26, Purdue 0

Harlem Globetrotters

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 28 7:30 PM MINGES COLISEUM - E.C.U. - admission: $6.50, $5.50, $4.50

$2.00 discount 12 & under & E.C.U. students on sale: Coliseum Ticket Office mail order: Athletic Ticket Office
E.C.U. Minges Coliseum
Greenville, N.C. 27834
Please enclose 50¢ handling charge information: 757-6500

If you haven't looked at profit-sharing plans lately, look to someone who has.

Clarke Stokes W.M. Scales Waighto Scales
201 Commerce St., P.O. Box 3395
Phone 756-3738

The Listener. An insurance professional who knows with inflation up and productivity down, a sound profit-sharing plan is more important than ever. Who can guide your company to a tax-deductible profit-sharing plan that motivates, rewards and builds productivity.

Five Teams Have Shot At Being No. 1

Woody Peele

It now is certain that East Carolina's Pirates will finish the season with a losing record for the first time since 1971.

But it comes as no big surprise. At the start of the season, we assessed the year and felt that East Carolina had only a 50-50 chance of having a winning season. Our initial guess was that East Carolina would be favored against Southwestern Louisiana, Richmond, Western Carolina and William & Mary. We felt that the Bucs would be underdogs to Florida State, Southern Mississippi, North Carolina, Miami and N.C. State.

Duke and Eastern Kentucky would be toss-ups, we felt.

That left our pre-season estimate at four wins and five losses, with two swing games.

As it turned out, the Pirates' five third-quarter fumbles allowed Southwestern Louisiana to pull out a victory, costing one of the losses that the Bucs have taken. They managed to win only one of the swing games—against Duke.

Considering everything, however, it hasn't been all that bad.

East Carolina lost over 25 members of last year's team to graduation. Then, the tremendous amount of injuries have hurt the team even more.

They have, in a situation they really didn't want to get into, played a large number of people. These people have gained valuable experience.

They should be well-prepared for next year. The losses include 14 seniors off this year's team, but there are replacements for most of them already in the wings. Others will come from this fall's recruiting efforts.

That is where a great deal of the future lies—in recruiting. The Pirates must have a very successful recruiting year if they are to recover and begin a new winning streak.

While next year's schedule has not yet been announced, it is almost as tough as this year's. It is known that the Pirates play N.C. State, Duke and North Carolina again. Miami will make a return visit to Greenville. Those are going to be four tough games for the Pirates.

The next few months, when the recruiting wars really steam up is when the tale really will be told.

The bowl game race — the race to fill up the bowl cards as quickly as possible again could come up with some laughable situations. Both Houston and Arkansas are slated for bowls, and there is the possibility that both could end up with losing records.

Houston must still play Texas Tech (on the road) and Rice. Arkansas will be playing Southern Methodist (on the road) and Texas Tech. Tech really has a chance to be a bowl spoiler.

We would like to see it happen. It could finally be a cure to the devil-take-the-hindmost attitude of the bowl committees to line everything up before the picture has had a chance to fully develop.

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

The jinx is still intact. No team has ever won three consecutive national college football championships. Alabama became the eighth team to try and fail. The fifth-ranked Crimson Tide, hoping for a Sugar Bowl at undefeated, top-rated Georgia, suffered its second setback of the season Saturday, a 7-0 loss to sixth-ranked Notre Dame that left the unbeaten-but-tied Irish one of five teams with a realistic chance at No. 1 when the shooting ends on Jan. 1, 1981.

The others are Georgia, of course, along with third-ranked Florida State, which was idle Saturday, fourth-rated Nebraska, Notre Dame and seventh-ranked Ohio State. Like Florida State, Nebraska and Ohio State, five others have just one loss — eighth-ranked Pitt. No. 9 Penn State, No. 12 Baylor, No. 13 Brigham Young and No. 15 North Carolina — but are probably too low in the ratings to have a serious shot at the top rung in the final Associated Press poll.

Bear Bryant, the Alabama coach, had said during the week that a loss undoubtedly would drop the Crimson Tide out of the national picture and that seems to be the case. Alabama settled for a Cotton Bowl date with Baylor.

Bama's successor as national champion probably will come from either the Sugar Bowl (Georgia-Notre Dame) or Orange Bowl (if Nebraska, rather than Oklahoma, is Florida State's opponent). The rest of the post-season lineup goes like this:

- Rose Bowl — Ohio State-Michigan winner vs. Washington.
- Fiesta — Ohio State-Michigan loser vs. Penn State.
- Gator — Pitt vs. South Carolina.
- Liberty — Purdue vs. Missouri.
- Sun — Nebraska-Oklahoma loser vs. Mississippi State.
- Holiday — Brigham Young-Utah winner vs. Southern Methodist.
- Bluebonnet — North Carolina vs. Texas.
- Tangerine — Florida vs. Maryland.
- Hall of Fame — Tulane vs. Arkansas.

Garden State — Navy vs. Houston.
Peach — Virginia Tech vs. opponent to be named, probably Stanford or Indiana.

Independence — McNeese State-Southwestern Louisiana winner vs. opponent to be named, reportedly Southern Mississippi.

Alabama's demise did not eliminate the Southeastern Conference from another national king. Top-ranked Georgia boosted its record to 10-0 with a 31-21 triumph over Auburn, ending Alabama's three-year reign — and eight of nine — as SEC champs.

However, Georgia still has a regular season game left with Georgia Tech while Notre Dame must play Air Force and Southern California, which suffered its first defeat — to go with an earlier tie — in a 20-10 setback to Washington.

If Georgia and Notre Dame both stumble, the Orange Bowl would advertise a national championship pairing of its own between Florida State, which winds up the regular season against Florida on Dec. 6, and Nebraska, which trounced Iowa State 35-0, provided the Cornhuskers can win next weekend's annual Big Eight shootout with Oklahoma. The 10th-ranked Sooners kept pace with Nebraska by downing Missouri 17-7.

Alabama was done in when Notre Dame's Phil Carter ran 2 yards for a second-period touchdown two plays after Scott Zetek recovered a botched handoff from quarterback Don Jacobs to fullback Billy Jackson at the losers' 4-yard line.

Georgia trailed Auburn 7-0 after one period but the Bulldogs escaped the fate that befell the last two No. 1 teams — Alabama, which lost 6-3 to Mississippi State on Nov. 1, and Notre Dame, which was tied 3-3 by Georgia Tech a week later.

"It means we have a chance to be the national champion when we beat a team as good as Alabama," said Carter. Georgia is thinking along other lines.

"Auburn ruined it (the Sugar Bowl) for us the last two years; there was no way they were going to do it to us again," said quarterback Buck Belue, who tossed a controversial 1-yard scoring pass to Norris Brown on the final play of the first half and ran a yard for a third-period touchdown. "We're shooting for No. 1."

Washington is just happy to be in the Rose Bowl. The Huskies upset Southern Cal when Ray Horton's 73-yard punt return broke a 3-3 tie in the third period and Tom Flick added a 10-yard scoring pass to Paul Skanski.

Nebraska pounded Iowa State as Jeff Quinn passed for two touchdowns and scored one. Ohio State trimmed Iowa 41-7 as Art Schlichter completed 13 of 18 passes for 195 yards, including a 39-yard touchdown to Doug Donley and a 23-yarder to Calvin Murray.

In a game between nonbowl teams — both are on Pac-10 probation — No. 17 UCLA turned back Arizona State 23-14 as Jay Schroeder threw two touchdown passes in relief of Tom Ramsey.

Navy earned a bid to the Garden State Bowl by defeating Georgia Tech 19-8. Maryland received a Tangerine Bowl invite after trimming Clemson 34-7. Texas was picked for the Bluebonnet Bowl after routing Texas Christian 51-26. Virginia Tech downed VMI 21-6 to earn a Peach Bowl berth and Tulane defeated Memphis State 21-16 and made it to the Hall of Fame Bowl against Arkansas, a 27-24 winner over Texas A&M.

Elsewhere:
•Central Michigan captured its second straight Mid-American Conference championship by beating Western Michigan 22-10.

•Kevin Starkey's three touchdown passes in the final period rallied Long Beach State to a 28-27 victory over Utah State and the Pacific Coast Athletic Association title.

•Yale defeated Princeton 25-13 and clinched at least a tie for the Ivy League title.

•And Northwestern lost to Wisconsin 39-19, winding up an 0-11 campaign and stretching the nation's longest losing streak to 20 games.

Did ECU Look Past Colonels?

By The Associated Press
Eastern Kentucky is looking for a second consecutive NCAA Division I-AA national championship, and it used East Carolina to sharpen its sights last weekend in rolling up a 28-16 victory.

And, in a season in which East Carolina could little afford to think ahead to other games, Eastern coach Roy Kidd said the Pirates may have been looking ahead to the season-ending battle with North Carolina State.

"East Carolina could have been overlooking us a little," said Kidd. "But we're getting more experienced each week and playing better. In fact, I believe we're playing better now than we did last year when we won the national championship."

ECU coach Ed Emory, however, was openly disappointed with his team's showing before a paltry crowd of 10,021. But he was convinced the better team lost the game.

"Program-wise, talent-wise, commitment-wise and tradition-wise, we should have never lost the game," Emory said.

Hook Shot
Houston's Moses Malone (24) hooks a shot over the Seattle guard James Donaldson (40). (AP Laserphoto)

Phoenix Continues To Murder NBA Opponents

By The Associated Press
John MacLeod thinks his Phoenix Suns lack a "killer" instinct — but they've been murdering just about everyone in the National Basketball Association this season.

Along with the Philadelphia 76ers, the Suns have the best record in the league at 15-3 following Sunday night's 119-107 triumph over the Portland Trail Blazers.

"We get complacent sometimes when we get a comfortable lead," says MacLeod. "We seemed to come out flat for the second half."

The Pacific Division leaders got off to a big early lead and held a 12-point advantage at the half, 64-52. But the Trail Blazers eventually cut the Suns' lead to two points in the fourth quarter before Phoenix put the game away with a 10-2 spurt.

"They made a run at us in the third quarter," said MacLeod, but luckily Dennis Johnson and Rich Kelly came in and gave us the lift we needed."

In other NBA action, Los Angeles beat Dallas 110-102; Chicago stopped Milwaukee 114-108 and New Jersey trimmed Detroit 89-80.

Walter Davis led all Phoenix scorers with 25 points, and Johnson added 18 in his first game in three nights. It was the seventh straight victory at home for the Suns, while the Blazers lost their ninth straight on the road.

The Suns led 89-82 through three quarters, but Portland scored the first five points in the fourth and cut the lead to 89-87. The Suns then scored 10 of the next 12 points to stretch their lead to a game-breaking 99-89.

Calvin Natt led the Blazers with 21 points and Michael Thompson added 20 in the losing effort.

Lakers 110, Mavericks 102
Earvin "Magic" Johnson scored 24 points and chalked up eight assists to lead Los Angeles over Dallas. The Lakers took a 22-5 lead and led by as many as 24 points before the Mavericks rallied in the closing minutes. The eight-point final margin was as close as Dallas got in the final three quarters.

"I thought Dallas showed their character by coming back, especially their guards who kept on shooting," said Los Angeles Coach Paul Westhead. "I was especially impressed by (Jim) Spanarkel."

Spanarkel scored 28 points, as did Geoff Huston.

Bulls 114, Bucks 108

Artis Gilmore scored 24 points and Larry Kenon added 20, leading Chicago over Milwaukee as the Bulls broke a four-game losing streak. Bobby Wilkerson added 18 for the Bulls, including two free throws which gave Chicago a 110-101 lead with 1:15 to play.

Nets 89, Pistons 80
Mike Newlin scored 28 points to lead New Jersey over Detroit. Newlin, who shot 80 percent from the field, scored his final point on a technical foul against Detroit Coach Scotty Robertson in the final two minutes.

For a regular season game at the Los Angeles Coliseum against San Francisco in 1957, the Rams drew a crowd of 102,368 and turned 10,000 more away.

Maryland Picked To Repeat As ACC Champ

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Maryland won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season basketball title last year, and the Terps were picked to repeat that feat this year in a preseason poll of sportswriters Sunday.

The poll was taken during the ACC's Operation Basketball in Greensboro.

The Terrapins were picked to finish sixth last year in the

A PAINTED PASS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Rookie quarterback Mark Malone of the Pittsburgh Steelers has been fascinated by the way the star Steeler quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, throws a football.

"The rotation on the ball is unreal when Terry zips it," Malone said. "Most quarterbacks when they try to throw real hard wind up with a wobble. But not Bradshaw. The pass looks as though it was painted on a canvas."

same poll but they went on to post an 11-3 conference mark and easily win the title over North Carolina, which finished at 9-5.

But Maryland coach Lefty Driesell was hoping for a similar pick during his pre-season analysis of his team.

"You guys didn't think we were any good last year and you see what we did," he said. "This year you think we're good, so I don't know. It's always tougher to coach a team that is expected to be successful. Success is hard to cope with."

"But I think the players are smart enough to know what it took to win last year and that it will take the same things to win this year. What we did last year don't mean a thing this year," Driesell said.

The voting was based on eight points for a first-place vote, seven for second, etc. Maryland received 86 first-place votes and 872 total points.

Virginia was picked to finish second and received 21 first-place votes and 768 points. North Carolina was third with five first-place votes and 684 points.

The only other team to receive any first-place votes was Wake Forest. The Deacons picked up one vote for the top spot but was picked to finish fifth with 434 points.

Ahead of them was Clemson with 440 points. Duke, which won the ACC Tournament last season, was picked sixth with 427 votes. North Carolina State was seventh with 350 votes, and Georgia Tech was a unanimous choice for last with 113 points.

McEnroe & Trophy
John McEnroe displays his trophy after winning the Benson and Hedges Tennis Championship at London's Wembley Arena Sunday. (AP Laserphoto)

McEnroe Wins Crown

WEMBLEY, Engand (AP) — John McEnroe confesses he finds it hard work playing the pro tennis circuit, even when his winnings are running at half a million dollars a year.

After winning his latest title with a 6-4, 6-3, 6-3 victory over Gene Mayer in the final of the Benson and Hedges Championships at Wembley Sunday, McEnroe talked about the strain of life at the top.

"It's been a hard, hard year," McEnroe said.

"When you are the world's No. 2, everyone wants to beat you. When you are moving up, nobody expects you to win every tournament, but when you are the No. 2 they do expect it. It is a totally different feeling."

McEnroe defeated the world's No. 1, Bjorn Borg, in the final of the U.S. Open but lost to him in the Wimbledon final and again in the Swedish Open at Stockholm last Monday.

"The court in Stockholm was about four times as slow as this one," McEnroe said after his Wembley win. "My service in Stockholm was as good as my little brother's."

"I don't know if my tennis in this final was good enough to beat Borg, but I do know I would like to play him on this court."

McEnroe won the Benson and Hedges tournament for the third straight year, but the 8,500 fans who packed the Wembley Arena did not see him at his best.

He slammed eight aces past Mayer but double-faulted five times, and he mixed loose shots with winners.

"I guess I played well when I had to," McEnroe said.

Mayer had an early service break in each of the first two sets but failed to hold his lead. He saved some of his best tennis for the last two games, when he saved five match points, two in the eighth game, which he won, and three in the ninth.

McEnroe won $36,450 and Mayer won $18,225.

For all your insurance needs: Call once And for all HORACE TOPPING

756-2906
3106 S. Memorial Dr. Greenville

NATIONWIDE INSURANCE
NATIONWIDE is on your side
NATIONWIDE Mutual Insurance Company
NATIONWIDE Mutual Fire Insurance Company
NATIONWIDE Life Insurance Company
Home Office: Columbus, Ohio

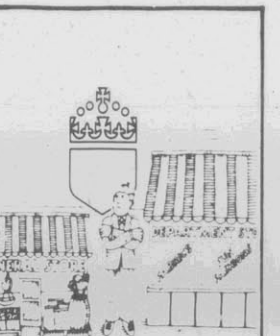

Happiness is What I sell!

James A. Manning
Bethel, N.C.
825-5631
Southwestern Life

WE RENT

- Wheel Chairs
- Walkers
- Crutches
- Commodes

Rental Tool Co.
Dial 758-0311
3014-A E. 10th St.

Do you mind your own business?

With The Royal, you can do just that. A Royal Insurance Businessowners Policy can be customized to meet virtually all your insurance needs. Whether you own an apartment building, lease or own a retail store or office. The Royal's property-liability program goes beyond the basics, covering loss of income, exterior signs, employee dishonesty, boiler and air conditioning units, to name a few.

For peace of mind, call us and learn about The Royal treatment for unnecessary businessman's anxiety. Contact:

See Jack Gilmore or Stuart Buchanan

PROFESSIONAL INSURANCE CONSULTANTS

1902 S. Charles St. Greenville, N.C. PHONE 756-3923

ELECTRONIC DIAGNOSTIC LANE

FREE Diagnosis or Emissions Check

Have your electrical and combustion systems diagnosed FREE by Fram/Autolite experts, using the latest electronic equipment.

Thursday, Nov. 20th, 1980
11 A.M. until 5:30 P.M.

PLEASE PRESENT AD COPY FOR FREE DIAGNOSIS

DOODLE'S auto parts

400 West Greenville Boulevard (Across From Moore's Building Supplies)

Scoreboard

NFL American Conference
East
W	L	T	Pct.	PF
Buffalo	3	0	.75	228
New England	3	4	.438	302
Baltimore	6	5	.545	231
Miami	5	5	.500	175
N.Y. Jets	2	9	.182	204
Central
Houston	8	3	.727	205
Cleveland	7	4	.636	242
Pittsburgh	7	4	.636	278
Cincinnati	3	8	.273	142
West
Oakland	7	4	.636	205
San Diego	6	5	.545	211
Denver	5	6	.455	222
Kansas City	5	6	.455	240
Seattle	4	6	.400	195
National Conference
East
Philadelphia	8	1	.889	292
Dallas	7	0	.727	216
N.Y. Giants	3	8	.273	185
St. Louis	3	8	.273	229
Washington	3	8	.273	158
Central
Detroit	6	5	.545	219
Minnesota	6	5	.545	216
Green Bay	4	6	.400	178
T.Pa. Bay	4	6	.400	204
Chicago	4	7	.364	175
West
Atlanta	8	0	.889	292
Los Angeles	7	4	.636	294
San Fran	3	8	.273	226
N. Orleans	0	11	.000	181
Sunday's Games
Baltimore at Detroit 9
Buffalo at Cincinnati 10
Pittsburgh at Cleveland 13
New York Giants at New York Jets 21
Los Angeles at New England 14
Atlanta at New Orleans 13
Philadelphia at Washington 0
Minnesota at Tampa Bay 30
Dallas at St. Louis 21
Houston at Chicago 6
San Diego at Kansas City 7
Denver at New York Jets 21
Miami at San Francisco 13
Monday's Game
Oakland at Seattle (n)
Thursday's Game
San Diego at Miami (n)
Sunday, Nov. 23
Baltimore at New England
Chicago at Atlanta
Cincinnati at Cleveland
Detroit at Tampa Bay
Houston at New York Jets
Oakland at Philadelphia
Pittsburgh at Buffalo
Green Bay at Minnesota
Kansas City at St. Louis
New York Giants at San Francisco
Seattle at Denver
Washington at Dallas
Monday, Nov. 24
Los Angeles at New Orleans (n)
NBA
Eastern Conference
Atlantic Division
W	L	Pct.	GB
Philadelphia	15	3	.833
New York	12	7	.632
Boston	10	5	.667	3 1/2
New Jersey	8	11	.421	7 1/2
Washington	7	11	.389	8
Central Division
Milwaukee	15	5	.750
Indiana	10	8	.556	4
Chicago	5	13	.278	9
Atlanta	5	15	.250	10
Cleveland	5	15	.250	10
Detroit	15	21	.417	10 1/2
Western Conference
Midwest Division
San Antonio	14	5	.737
Utah	12	7	.632
Kansas City	9	12	.429	6
Denver	7	10	.412	6
Houston	6	9	.400	6
Dallas	6	16	.273	11
Pacific Division
Phoenix	15	3	.833
Los Angeles	14	5	.737	1/2
Golden State	11	6	.647	3 1/2
Seattle	9	10	.474	6 1/2
San Diego	6	12	.333	9
Portland	5	13	.278	10
Saturday's Games
Washington 100, Atlanta 88
New York 100, Cleveland 95
Philadelphia 115, New Jersey 108
San Antonio 121, Utah 104
Denver 125, Portland 123
Kansas City 96, San Diego 94
Golden State 119, Phoenix 108
Seattle 143, Houston 128
Sunday's Games
New Jersey 89, Detroit 80
Chicago 114, Milwaukee 106
Phoenix 119, Portland 107
Los Angeles 110, Dallas 102
Monday's Games
No games scheduled
Tuesday's Games
Philadelphia at New York
San Diego at Cleveland
Golden State at Washington
San Antonio at Atlanta
Indiana at Detroit
Phoenix at Dallas
Boston at Chicago
Seattle at Houston
Milwaukee at Utah
Kansas City at Los Angeles
Denver at Portland
NHL
Campbell Conference
Patrick Division
W	L	T	GF	GA
Philadelphia	13	3	2	80	44
N.Y. Islanders	9	5	4	74	67
Calgary	8	6	4	69	68
Washington	5	5	5	60	57
N.Y. Rangers	4	12	3	65	89
Smythe Division
St. Louis	11	5	3	74	67
Vancouver	9	6	3	70	62
Colorado	8	6	4	66	69
Chicago	6	9	5	74	87
Edmonton	4	8	5	55	68
Winnipeg	1	10	5	58	82
Wales Conference
Norris Division
Los Angeles	12	7	2	79	62
Montreal	9	7	2	79	54
Hartford	5	9	4	59	84
Pittsburgh	5	10	3	67	83
Detroit	3	11	5	56	75
Adams Division
Minnesota	10	2	3	72	42
Buffalo	9	3	3	64	45
Toronto	9	5	2	71	63
Boston	5	9	3	55	59
Quebec	2	10	5	58	80
Saturday's Games
Philadelphia 5, Detroit 2
Washington 8, Hartford 4
N.Y. Islanders 4, Buffalo 1
Boston 7, Pittsburgh 4
Toronto 4, Edmonton 2
Minnesota 5, Chicago 2
St. Louis 5, Los Angeles 3
Sunday's Games
Boston 1, Philadelphia 0
Buffalo 6, Quebec 1
N.Y. Rangers 7, Hartford 3
Edmonton 5, Chicago 4
Montreal 5, Winnipeg 1
Colorado 4, Calgary 3
Los Angeles 3, Vancouver 2
Monday's Game
N.Y. Islanders at Minnesota
Tuesday's Games
Washington at Quebec
N.Y. Islanders at St. Louis
Winnipeg at Vancouver
College Bowl Games
Saturday, Dec. 13
Independence Bowl
At Shreveport, La.
McNeese State (9-1) or Southwestern Louisiana (7-3) vs. Southern Mississippi (8-2)
Sunday, Dec. 14
Garden State Bowl
At East Rutherford, N.J.
Navy (7-3) vs. Houston (5-4)
Friday, Dec. 19
Holiday Bowl
At San Diego
Southern Methodist (7-3) vs. Brigham Young (9-1) or Utah (5-3-1)
Saturday, Dec. 20
Tangerine Bowl
At Orlando, Fla.
Maryland (7-3) vs. Florida (7-2)
Friday, Dec. 26
Piesta Bowl
At Tempe, Ariz.
Penn State (9-1) vs. Michigan (8-2) or Ohio State (9-1)
Saturday, Dec. 27
Hall of Fame Bowl
At Birmingham, Ala.
Arkansas (5-4) vs. Tulane (7-3)
Liberty Bowl
At Memphis, Tenn.
Purdue (7-3) vs. Missouri (7-3)
Sun Bowl
At Paso, Texas
Mississippi State (8-2) vs. Oklahoma (7-2) or Nebraska (9-1)
Monday, Dec. 29
Gator Bowl
At Jacksonville, Fla.
Pittsburgh (9-1) vs. South Carolina (8-2)
Wednesday, Dec. 31
Bluebonnet Bowl
At Houston
North Carolina (9-1) vs. Texas (7-2)
Thursday, Jan. 1
Cotton Bowl
At Dallas
Alabama (8-2) vs. Baylor (9-1)
Orange Bowl
At Miami
Florida State (9-1) vs. Oklahoma (7-2) or Nebraska (9-1)
Rose Bowl
At Pasadena, Calif.
Washington (8-2) vs. Michigan (8-2) or Ohio State (9-1)

Dwight Morrison

He Helped Celtics Become First Team To Average Over 100 Pts.

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — This FBI agent was a D and a Vandal before turning pro. Dwight Morrison has been with the Federal Bureau of Investigation for 17 years. He's been based in Los Angeles, Seattle, and for the past two years, in Olympia.

He worked on the Patty Hearst case and set what may be an FBI record for the most arrests in a year — 205.

But some recall Morrison from the court rather than the field.

Remember Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman and Ed McCauley? They were all members of the 1955 Boston Celtic team — the first team in National Basketball Association history to average over 100 points per game for the season.

Morrison was the starting center for that Celtic team.

"Those were great days. We were the runners, we had a lot of high-scoring games and we were the team everybody wanted to see when we were on the road."

"We played a heavy schedule — 99 games the first year I was there. Many times we would play a game in New York, run to the station to catch a train, travel all night and all day and get out and play the next night. It was very tiring," Morrison said.

"I didn't score a lot of points on that team. Those three (Cousy, Sharman and McCauley) all averaged 20 points per game. I was a rebounder and defensive player."

"I played center on defense and big forward on offense. Most of the guys I guarded were a lot bigger than I was. But I had a couple of rebound records for the Celtics, which Bill Russell later obliterated," said the 6-foot-8 father of four.

As a high school junior, Morrison led the Walla Walla High School Blue Devils to a 22-7 season only to be upset in the first round of the state tournament. In 1950, as a senior, Morrison's Blue Devils were 18-1, but again, they were upset in the state tourney.

In his four years at the University of Idaho, the Vandals posted season records of 15-14, 19-13, 15-12 and 16-8. Morrison still holds the career rebounding record at Idaho, even though Gus Johnson averaged over 20 rebounds per game in one season for the Vandals.

Morrison was tabbed by Boston in the second round of the 1955 NBA draft.

"When I went to training camp, I knew I was in the big leagues because there were seven players taller than I was," he said.

"I started in about two-thirds of the games. And I got to play

Nowhere To Go But Down
Cincinnati Bengal runningback Charles Alexander finds himself atop a mountain of Buffalo Bills on a two-yard run Sunday. Bills players on the play are Mike Kadish (71), Ben Williams (77), Shane Nelson (59) and Steve Freeman (22). (AP Laserphoto)

Two Wrestlers Claim Crowns

NORFOLK, Va. — East Carolina's wrestling team finished eighth at the Monarch Tournament this past weekend, but two wrestlers — one wrestling unattached and the other a former ECU star — won individual championships at the two-day tournament.

Clemson won the meet, which had over 300 wrestlers, followed by Westchester.

ECU's Butch Revis and former ECU wrestler Paul Osman captured titles at 177 and 142 respectively. ECU's James Ellison finished fourth, losing in the semifinals.

Revis, who is ineligible this semester and wrestled unattached at Norfolk, defeated Corbin (first name unavailable), 5-3, to win the championship. Revis beat Costello, 10-2, in the semifinals.

Osman, also wrestling unattached, defeated Mike Fritz of Penn State by default for the 142-pound crown. Osman advanced to the finals after whipping Poff of UNC, 12-6.

Ellison, meanwhile, lost in the semifinals to NCSU's Cox on a second-period pin. In the wrestle-back, Ellison advanced to the semifinals before losing to Hanrahan, 8-6.

In other ECU results: Danny Keene finished fifth at 126 pounds. After losing the quarterfinals, Keene, who won five of seven matches in all, lost in the quarterfinals of the wrestle-back.

Scott Eaton, at 142, who lost in the opening round to Fritz, won three matches in the wrestle-back before bowing out.

John McGimsey, Andrew Heffner and Jeff Kidwell all lost in the first round of the wrestle-back.

The Pirates travel to Chapel Hill this weekend for the Carolina Tournament.

Pittsburgh Nips Cleveland....

(Continued from page 9)

Peacock's 1-yard scoring run late in the third quarter. The TD was set up by a 44-yard pass from Vince Ferragamo to Preston Dennard on a flea-flicker play.

The Rams' defense forced four turnovers by New England in Los Angeles territory.

"We had plenty of chances to win," said New England Coach Ron Erhardt. "But we didn't capitalize. We didn't score. If we didn't fumble...."

Vikings 38, Buccaneers 30

Tommy Kramer completed 24 of 37 passes for 324 yards and two touchdowns and Ted Brown rushed for two scores as Minnesota beat Tampa Bay despite a brilliant performance by Buc passer Doug Williams, who hit on 30 of 55 for 486 yards and four TDs.

"Now, is there any question about his being a top quarterback?" asked Minnesota Coach Bud Grant about the Buccaneers' oft-maligned Williams. "He put on quite a show out there."

"I don't get off on individual things," responded Williams. "I'd rather win."

Chargers 20, Chiefs 7

Mike Thomas, replacing the injured Chuck Muncie and John Cappelletti, ran for 109 yards and two touchdowns for San Diego. It was Thomas' first 100-yard game in nearly four years.

Dolphins 17, 49ers 13

Rookie David Woodley tossed two touchdown passes to send San Francisco to its eighth straight loss.

"We've been self-destructive," said 49ers quarterback Steve DeBerg, who completed 15 straight passes in one stretch of the first half and finished with 29 of 41 for 225 yards. "We moved the ball up and down the field on them all day long and came up with only 13 points. That's been the story of our streak."

Broncos 31, Jets 24

Denver rallied from a 17-3 deficit to win behind Craig Morton, who passed for 306 yards and two touchdowns. It was the first time Morton has surpassed 300 yards in his four seasons with the Broncos.

Morton completed nine passes in a row during the third half to help the Broncos score on three straight possessions.

Colts 10, Lions 9

Rookie Lynn Dickey scored the only touchdown of the game on a 1-yard run capping the opening drive, and Steve Mike-Mayer added a 43-yard field goal. Detroit's Eddie Murray kicked three field goals but missed on a 44-yard try with 29 seconds left.

Giants 27, Packers 21

Phil Simms hooked up with Earnest Gray on touchdown passes of 50, 20 and 4 yards to carry the Giants past Green

Ray's Brother Denies Spying On Foe's Camp

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The older brother of welterweight challenger Sugar Ray Leonard denies allegations of trying to spy on champion Roberto Duran's training camp.

"I'm not trying to agitate anybody, and I'm not spying on anybody," Roger Leonard said in a statement Sunday.

"In fact, my brother doesn't even want to hear anything about Duran or what's going on at his training camp."

Both fighters work out at the Superdome, preparing for their Nov. 25 rematch. But they train at different times during the day.

On Saturday, Duran stopped his training when he saw Roger Leonard, Sugar Ray's older brother, standing among the spectators.

Duran charged toward the challenger's brother but was restrained by trainers.

Roger Leonard said he just happened to be at the training center and stopped in to watch Duran workout.

Duran took the World Boxing Council title from Leonard in a 15-round decision in June.

DO-IT-YOURSELF AND SAVE 25% OR MORE ON INSULATION

Now You Can Do It Like The Professionals, Blow-It-In. We Will Supply You With A Trailer, Equipped With An Easy To Use Blowing Machine (As Simple To Operate As A Vacuum Cleaner). Plus All The Insulation You Will Need To Do The Job At Less Than 1¢ Per R-Value.

R-19 Price 18.56¢ Per Sq. Ft.
R-11 Price 10.24¢ Per Sq. Ft.

Instead Of Spending A Day In Your Attic, You'll Only Spend A Couple Of Hours, Plus You'll Do A Better Job. Fiberglass Batts Allow For Cracks, Gaps, And Excessive Air Infiltration While Blow-In Insulation Monolithically Seals Your Attic Against Heat Loss.

Call Today To Make Your Reservation For Our Home Blow Insulation Outfit. We Will Gladly Show You How Easy It Is To Do-It-Yourself.

WHITE'S INSULATION

THE COMBINATION COMPANY

"YOU PAY FOR IT WHETHER YOU HAVE IT OR NOT"

758-4881

tasteful professional reasonable

MORGAN PRINTERS, Inc.

211 West Ninth Street • Greenville, NC • 752-5151

MITCHELL

Tractor & Equipment Co.

Washington, N.C.

Your Local IH Dealer

10% OFF

We Have A Full Line Of IH Parts And A Certified Shop To Offer You Complete Service On Your IH Equipment.

Call Us At 946-7156 For All Your Equipment Or Repair Needs.

Present This Coupon For A 10% Discount At Our Parts Departments.

INTERNATIONAL AGRICULTURAL EQUIPMENT

DO-IT-YOURSELF AND SAVE 25% OR MORE ON INSULATION

Now You Can Do It Like The Professionals, Blow-It-In. We Will Supply You With A Trailer, Equipped With An Easy To Use Blowing Machine (As Simple To Operate As A Vacuum Cleaner). Plus All The Insulation You Will Need To Do The Job At Less Than 1¢ Per R-Value.

R-19 Price 18.56¢ Per Sq. Ft.
R-11 Price 10.24¢ Per Sq. Ft.

Instead Of Spending A Day In Your Attic, You'll Only Spend A Couple Of Hours, Plus You'll Do A Better Job. Fiberglass Batts Allow For Cracks, Gaps, And Excessive Air Infiltration While Blow-In Insulation Monolithically Seals Your Attic Against Heat Loss.

Call Today To Make Your Reservation For Our Home Blow Insulation Outfit. We Will Gladly Show You How Easy It Is To Do-It-Yourself.

WHITE'S INSULATION

THE COMBINATION COMPANY

"YOU PAY FOR IT WHETHER YOU HAVE IT OR NOT"

758-4881

LEMMON HONORED — Actor Jack Lemmon, left, poses with actress Shirley MacLaine and master of ceremony Monte Hall during a star-studded tribute to Lemmon by Variety Clubs International Sunday night in

Los Angeles. VCI supports a worldwide network of children's charities and has previously honored such notables as John Wayne, Elizabeth Taylor, James Stewart and Ingrid Bergman. (AP Laserphoto)

TV Log Rather Dull Revival Of 'The Philadelphia Story'

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP) — It's a night of semi-British accents, love, elegance and all that. It's the revival of "The Philadelphia Story," Philip Barry's 1939 comedy of upper-crust manners.

It was made into a pretty snappy film in 1940 and remade as a snappier film musical, "High Society," 16 years later. The 1980 edition, however, is sort of a Peggy Lee thing.

You sit through it and say, "Is that all there is?"

This version has lovely Blythe Danner in the starring role of Tracy Samantha Lord, the young Main Line heiress played to great effect by Katharine Hepburn in 1940 and Grace Kelly in 1956.

Once again, she's planning to wed an up-from-the-ranks lieutenant of industry (Richard Council). Once again her raffish Main Line ex-husband (Frank Converse) objects and secretly wants her back.

Once again the planned wedding is hindered by a pesky young reporter (Edward Herrmann) and a sardonic shuttlerbug (Mary Louise Wilson). They're assigned — although he's against it — to do a gossipy piece on fashionable Philadelphians.

Once again, Tracy's initially dismayed, then blithely goes along with the gag. And she still dislikes her philandering father (Douglass Watson), who's separated from her sweet, highly urbane mother (Meg Mundy) and whom she doesn't want at the wedding.

Also present again here are bustling butlers and maids; a meddling kid sister (Cynthia Nixon) who wants Tracy to re-wed Husband No. One; happy go-lucky Uncle Willie (George Ede) and Tracy's ceaselessly smiling grown brother (Michael Gross).

The proceedings, as those who've witnessed them before, are marked by ex-husbandly growls, assorted deceptions and heavy drinking that provokes a moonlight swim by the reporter and bride-to-be which in turn provokes a charge of unfaithfulness by the startled groom-to-be.

But it's all pretty dull. Yes, there are some pluses — John Conklin's spacious sun-room set, Miss Mundy's deft supporting work, and funny moments involving excessive boozing and the morning-after agony of hangover and embarrassment.

And Miss Danner displays first-rate acting and comic timing throughout. But despite her work and that of Miss Mundy, the show rarely catches fire. It generally seems an amiable gathering of twits, nothing more.

Judicious script cuts might have helped, likewise a much brisker pace from director Ellis Rabb, who lets "Story" unfold so leisurely you often get the feeling it'd be more fun to watch paint dry.

But other flaws — in the casting of two key roles — also contribute to making this once-witty tableau a sure cure for insomnia.

Herrmann, as a scribe who despises the idle rich but briefly loses his heart to Tracy, seems too mannered and stiff. He appears to be kind of an apprentice Rudy Vallee, one of the upper crust, not their enemy.

STREAMERS

EAST CAROLINA PLAYHOUSE
STUDIO THEATRE

November 17-22, 24-25 8:15 p.m.
General Admission $2.50
ECU Students $1.50
757-6390

STREAMERS IS A POWERFUL MILITARY DRAMA
INTENDED FOR MATURE AUDIENCES!

'Diary Of Anne Frank' Shines A Light Tonight

By PETER J. BOYER
AP Television Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — "The Diary of Anne Frank," that miracle of perception and young genius, shines its light again in a second television rendering tonight on NBC.

Melissa Gilbert of "Little House on the Prairie" plays Anne, the Jewish teenager who for two years hid with her family and four other Jews in an attic in Nazi-occupied Amsterdam. Miss Gilbert seems cast here as much for her sweet TV familiarity as for her capacity to handle this complex role, but she is aided by some heavy-duty company — Maximilian Schell, Joan Plowright and James Coco.

Anne Frank was a 13-year-old girl when she and her family climbed into the garret that was to be their refuge, the "Secret Annex," as she named it in her diary. This version of her remarkable little book, an amalgam of adolescent musing and deep human understanding, focuses on Anne's profound study of human relations conducted in that crowded sub-universe.

The eight inhabitants of that tiny world play out their abridged lives with remarkable human predictability. That's one of the triumphs of Anne's diary — human foibles are not glossed over, but painstakingly sketched.

The joyous fact of their being spared the Nazi "call-ups" is submerged beneath the daily business of being human. A nattering Mrs. Van Daan (Doris Roberts) screams bloody murder when Anne spills milk on her fur coat; her fat, greedy, ill-tempered husband (Coco) grumbles in want of cigarettes; another of their party, a dentist (Clive Revill) is just generally cranky.

Anne is aware of the ugliness inside and beyond the attic, yet remains thoroughly optimistic. "I still believe, in spite of everything, that people are really good at heart," she says near the inevitable end.

You believe her.

From the sublime to the ridiculous:

Suzanne Somers is going to entertain U.S. troops over Thanksgiving. Big deal, you say. Precisely.

One of the year's great press hoaxes was perpetrated last week when Miss Somers, sometime star of "Three's Company," called a press conference to announce her holiday plans. Ordinarily, such an event wouldn't draw a hungry free-lancer. But, as Miss Somers and her husband-manager Alan Hamel knew, entertainment reporters would take the promise of "an important career announcement" to mean an announcement relating to her frequent absence from the "Three's Company" set this season.

Indeed, she has appeared on only two of the five new episodes of the popular ABC comedy. There is talk that her co-stars are so angry they've threatened to leave the set if she finally shows up. It has been rumored that Miss Somers will star in a CBS sitcom.

So, half a dozen TV news crews showed up, along with two dozen or so print reporters and photographers. They found out all about her impending trip to Korea. A pal of mine was one of the unfortunates who took the bait.

"Are you aware, Miss Somers, that many of us thought you'd be discussing your status on 'Three's Company'?" asked one reporter.

Miss Somers smiled, according to my pal, and said, "Yes. You're here, aren't you?"

Ooh. Anyway, Mr. Hamel said he was seeking a weekly salary of $150,000 for his wife from the producers of "Three's Company."

I'm almost sorry I missed the big conference. You take your comedy where you can get it.

Roger Mudd On The Job At NBC

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Mudd, long a backup anchorman on CBS News, begins work tonight as chief Washington correspondent for NBC.

Mudd left CBS after it was announced in February that Dan Rather, and not Mudd, would become the anchorman of the "CBS Evening News" when Walter Cronkite retires early next year. Mudd had been with CBS for 20 years. NBC has said that Mudd, 52, will frequently fill in for John Chancellor, anchorman of the "NBC Nightly News." Chancellor has said for some time that he would like to give up the anchor spot in favor of reporting and commentary. Mudd has avoided comment on the possibility that he may succeed Chancellor.

Ex-Sex Symbol Is Found Dead

LONDON (AP) — Former movie sex symbol Imogen Hassall was found dead in bed with an empty bottle of sleeping pills in one hand and a telephone in the other, police reported today.

Friends found the body of the 38-year-old actress when they arrived at her cottage in Wimbledon Sunday to take her on a vacation. They said she had been "deeply depressed and unhappy" because of the breakup of her second marriage and her failure to shed the sex-symbol image and get work.

She was hospitalized last week after a suicide attempt, and friends said there had been a number of others.

The raven-haired actress, once dubbed the Queen of Cleavage by London tabloids, played in the movie "When Dinosaurs Ruled the Earth" and several others of that ilk and a television series. Her first marriage to actor-TV producer Kenneth Ives ended after eight months, and she described her second marriage to TV actor Andrew Knox last year as "a total farce."

WNCT-TV — Ch. 9

MONDAY	10:30 Alice
6:00 9/Alive News	11:00 Price Is Right
6:30 News	11:57 Newsbreak
7:00 M*A*S*H	12:00 9/Alive News
7:30 Joker's	12:30 Search For
8:00 Special Movie	1:00 Young &
10:00 Ladies Man	2:00 As The World
11:00 News	3:00 Guiding
11:30 Late Movie	4:00 Happy Days
	4:30 Gunsmoke
TUESDAY	5:30 M*A*S*H
5:00 PTL Club	6:00 9/Alive News
6:00 Carolina	6:30 News
6:25 News	7:00 M*A*S*H
7:25 News	7:30 Joker's Wild
8:00 Morning	8:00 Special
8:25 News	9:00 Tues. Movie
9:00 Cpl. Kangaroo	11:00 9/Alive News
10:00 Jeffersons	11:30 Late Movie

WITN-TV — Ch. 7

MONDAY	10:00 Letterman
6:00 News	11:00 Wheel Of Fortune
6:30 NBC News	11:30 Password
7:00 Tic Tac	12:00 News Noon
7:30 All In The	12:30 Doctors
8:00 Little House	1:00 Days Of Our
9:00 NBC Movie	2:00 Another Wild
11:00 News	3:00 Texas
11:30 Tonight	4:00 Munsters
12:30 Tomorrow	4:30 Beaver
2:00 News	5:00 Hogan's
	5:30 Bullseye
TUESDAY	6:00 News
5:30 Doris Day	6:30 NBC News
6:00 Almanac	7:00 Tic Tac
7:00 Today	7:30 All In The
7:25 News	8:00 Tone Boy
7:30 Today	10:00 B. Mandrell
8:25 News	11:00 News
9:00 M. Douglas	11:30 Tonight
	12:30 Tomorrow
	2:00 News

WCTI-TV — Ch. 12

MONDAY	12:00 Feud
6:00 Action News	12:30 Ryan's Hope
6:30 News	1:00 My Children
7:00 Sanford &	2:00 One Life
7:30 PM Mag	3:00 Gen. Hospital
8:00 Incredible	4:00 Tom & Jerry
9:00 Football	5:00 A. Griffith
11:45 Action News	5:30 Good Times
12:35 Football	6:00 News
1:05 Early Edition	6:30 ABC News
	7:00 Sanford &
TUESDAY	7:30 PM Mag
5:30 Nashville	8:00 Happy Days
6:00 Morning	8:30 Laverne &
7:00 America	9:00 2's Company
7:25 News	9:30 Top Close
8:25 News	10:00 Hart To Hart
9:00 Donahue	11:00 Action News
10:00 Davidson	11:30 Nightline
11:00 Love Boat	2:00 Med. Center
	3:00 Early Edition

WUNK-TV — Ch. 25

MONDAY	11:00 22.1 Contact
3:00 Hatha Yoga	11:30 Thinkabout
3:30 Mr. Rogers	11:45 Cover To
4:00 Sesame St.	12:00 Inside/Out
5:00 22.1 Contact	12:15 On The Level
5:30 Over Easy	12:30 E.C. Co.
6:00 D. Cavett	1:00 Readalong
6:30 Making It	1:15 Cover To
7:00 Report	1:30 Animals &
7:30 NC People	1:45 About Safety
8:00 Bill Moyers'	1:50 Readalong
9:00 Performances	2:00 Footsteps
10:00 1 Nughchi	2:30 Advocates
	3:00 Hatha Yoga
TUESDAY	3:30 Mr. Rogers
7:45 Weather	4:00 Sesame St.
8:05 Business	5:00 22.1 Contact
8:35 Music & Me	5:30 Over Easy
8:50 Readalong	6:00 D. Cavett
9:00 Sesame St.	6:30 Voices
10:00 Carousel	7:00 Report
10:20 Matter Of	7:30 Power Switch
10:40 About Safety	8:00 Nova
10:45 Self Inc.	9:00 Connections
	10:00 The Body

Buccaneer Movies 1-2-3
756-3307 Greenville Square Center All Seats $1.50 Before 5:30 P.M.

Loretta Lynn... The Story Of Her Life.
JACKIE CHAN Ends Thursday
THE BIG BRAWL
Sissy Spacek, Tommy Lee Jones
pg. 2:00 4:30 7:00 9:15

Ends Thursday
JILL CLAYBURGH
MICHAEL DOUGLAS
It's My Turn
1:15 3:15 5:15 7:15 9:15

More for Your Money at FOSDICK'S Country Style Buffet!

All You Can Eat for $2.99
Barbeque • Fried Chicken • Fish
Homemade Chicken Dumplings
Boiled Potatoes • Green Beans
Collard Greens • Corn on Cob
Rice and Gravy • Cole Slaw

Everyday for Lunch and Sun. thru Wed. nights

FOSDICK'S 1890 Seafood

2311 S. Evans St. Ext. • Greenville

STEWART & EVERETT THEATRES

NOW SHOWING!
GENA ROWLANDS is Gloria
PG
Shows Daily 2:45-5:00-7:15-9:30
Plaza 756-0088

NOW!
cinema 1-2-3
PITT-PLAZA SHOPPING CENTER ENDS THURSDAY!
THE PRIVATE EYES PG
SHOWS 3:30-5:20-7:10-9:00

COAST TO COAST PG
SHOWS 3:20-5:15-7:10-9:05

ENDS THURSDAY!
PARK UPTOWN GREENVILLE 752-7649
BRUCE LEE in the Dragon Dies Hard
PG
SHOWS 7:10 & 9:00 P.M.

STARTS FRI. CINEMA 3 - "SOUTH OF THE SOUTH"
STARTS FRI. - PARK - "MASTER OF KUNG FU"

TONIGHT!
2 FAVORITES
PREMIERE!

IT'S GAME TIME FOR THE 407TH!
A crazy game becomes a desperate gamble for life! Who will win?
Starring Alan Alda, Mike Farrell and Harry Morgan.
9PM
M-A-S-H

CHARLEY JAILED OVER A FRIEND'S SECRET!
He's in the jailhouse now — and he ain't singing — and now Ann wants to join him!
Starring Wayne Rogers, Lynn Redgrave, David Wayne and Raymond Buktenica
9:30PM
HOUSE CALLS

LOU'S BOSS TRAPPED BY CLEVER SCAM!
Videotapes could wreck a life — when Lou's crew uncovers a con game! Will the stakes be too high?
Starring Ed Asner.
10PM
LOU GRANT

WATCH 9 ALIVE NEWS WITH MIKE KELLERMAN 6 & 11PM

LOOKING GOOD TOGETHER

9 ALIVE
WNCT-TV
GREENVILLE

TOO WEAK TO WALK — A Haitian refugee, too weak to stand on his own, is carried on a stretcher by Haitian Red Cross workers from the Bahamian tender "Lady Moore" after the ship delivered 106 Haitians who had been marooned on tiny Cayo Lobos in the Bahamas for more than a month with little food or drink. At least nine Haitians had to be carried from the boat when it arrived in Port-Aut-Prince Sunday. (AP Laserphoto)

Marijuana Charges Are Placed

Greenville police arrested six people in five different incidents on marijuana possession charges in downtown Greenville in the past four days, according to Chief Glenn Cannon.

James Otis Cox, 20 of Route 1, Washington was arrested about 11:25 p.m. Thursday in a parking lot at the intersection of Fourth and Cotanche when officers allegedly found a quantity of marijuana in his possession, the chief said.

James Earl Pinkham, 23 of Route 3, Washington was charged about 11:15 p.m. Friday, when officers allegedly found a quantity of marijuana in his possession in a parking lot at the intersection of Fourth and Cotanche Streets. He was also charged with possession of alcoholic beverages in an unauthorized place.

Eugene Woodford Cowan, 22 of 302B Eastbrook Apts. was charged about 11:25 p.m. Friday after police allegedly found a quantity of marijuana in his possession in a parking lot at the intersection of Third and Cotanche Streets.

Edmund Varner Lee Jr., 21 of Route 6, Washington, and William Hamilton Stewart, 23 of Route 1, Washington, were charged after investigators allegedly found a quantity of marijuana in their possession about 12:25 a.m. Sunday, in a parking lot at the Fourth and Cotanche Streets intersection.

Chief Cannon noted that Darwin Allen Harrell, 22 of Kinston, was charged after police allegedly found a quantity of marijuana in his possession about 11:55 p.m. Saturday, in a parking lot at the intersection of Third and Cotanche Streets.

The chief said that Scott Tracy Lantowsky, 21 of Kinston, was charged with possession of alcoholic beverages in an unauthorized place in connection with the same Saturday incident.

Energy Meet Tuesday Night

A group of East Carolina University housing and management students will hold a public workshop on energy conservation Tuesday night at the Cedar Lane Recreation Center at 7 p.m. The workshop will be free and is open to anyone interested in energy conservation in their home.

Martha Thigpen will introduce the topic of energy conservation. Karen McLawhorn will tell how to read meters and interpret bills. Sylvia Stokes will discuss heating and cooling homes, and Suzette Simpson will discuss programs and services offered by Greenville Utilities Commission. Wanda Crosby will close the program with energy tips for the home.

Slides, pamphlets and demonstration and question and answer session will be included in the format.

The workshop is offered in cooperation with the Energy Conservation Office of Greenville Utilities. For further information, call 752-7166.

turned to London on Sunday. Charles celebrated his 32nd birthday Friday, and rumors flew an engagement would be announced that day.

"We'd rather hoped Friday would be a rather special day for you, sir," one reporter said when Charles went out for a weekend walk.

GOREN BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN AND OMAR SHARIF
1980 by Chicago Tribune

Q.1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠Q1094 ♥A863 ♦Q32 ♣83
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♦ 3 ♣ Pass Pass
Dble. Pass ?
What do you bid now?

A.—East's preempt made it difficult for you to act at your first turn. Now, however, some vigorous sign of life is called for, for you have an excellent hand facing a vulnerable partner who could reopen at the three-level. Nothing short of a cue-bid of four clubs will do your hand justice—you are prepared to play in at least game in any suit partner may mention.

Q.2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AJ10972 ♥7 ♦AK ♣AK93
Partner opens the bidding with one heart. What do you respond?

A.—Normally we don't like making a jump shift response unless we have either a fit for partner's suit or a self-sustaining suit of our own. Here, however, our outside values are so strong that we would be willing to make an exception on this hand. Despite the fact that we don't consider the spade suit self-sustaining, we would respond two spades.

Q.3—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠QJ106 ♥93 ♦AK ♣AK982
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♣ Pass 1 ♥ Pass ?
What do you bid now?

A.—Don't be tempted to do anything drastic. You have a fine hand, but it is not strong enough for a jump shift, so just go ahead and continue describing it. Bid one spade. You have a reasonable four-card major suit which you can show at the one-level, and there is no reason why you should not do so.

Q.4—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠QJ10962 ♥K8 ♦K762 ♣Q
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass 1 ♣ 1 ♥ Pass 1 ♣ Pass 1 NT Pass ?
What action do you take?

A.—Even though partner has denied any particular fit for your suit, we would make an effort to get to game. Your hand has great playing potential, and your trump suit is sound. We suggest a jump to three spades. Since you did no more than bid one spade on the previous round and you are a passed hand, this is not forcing—just invitational.

Q.5—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AKQJ10754 ♥5 ♦75 ♣83
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
3 ♣ 4 ♥ Pass 5 ♣ Pass 6 ♣ Pass ?
What do you bid now?

A.—What is the purpose of North's six club bid? He is saying: "Partner, I am forcing you to bid a slam. I have first-round club control, so you don't have to worry about the opponents' suit if you wish to consider a grand slam!" Since partner, in effect, is making a grand slam try without a single spade honor, he must surely have all three side aces. Therefore, we would trust his bidding and contract for seven spades.

Q.6—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠KJ63 ♥AQ1094 ♦8 ♣K62
What is your opening bid?

A.—There are hands with four spades and five hearts where we would open one spade to facilitate a rebid. However, this is not one of those hands. For that action to be considered, the spades would have to be considerably stronger and the hearts weaker. Open one heart, and worry about your rebid when you hear partner's response.

Tennis Group Has Banquet

The Greenville Tennis Association held its Third Annual Awards Banquet at the Bachelor Benedict Club here this weekend.

Dr. Andrew A. Best, local physician, was guest speaker. Along with the presentation of trophies to the champions and runners-up of the summer tournaments and the Third Annual GTA Tennis Classic, the group saw a fashion show of sportswear and tennis outfits by Linda Jackson Ltd., with outfits provided by H. L. Hodges.

WHITFIELD TO SPEAK

Carl E. Whitfield, field representative for the Governor's Highway Safety Program will be the guest speaker for the Golden-K Kiwanis Club at 10 a.m. Tuesday, at the Greenville Moose Lodge.

The topic of his talk will be the strategy of highway safety at railroad crossings.

Nine Die In N.C. Traffic

By The Associated Press

Traffic accidents killed nine people in North Carolina during the weekend. Those deaths, plus a delayed fatality reported Sunday, pushed the state's highway toll for the year to 1,287.

That compares with 1,326 deaths at the same time last year.

Ricky Greer, 16, of Lansing was killed Sunday when a car ran off N.C. 88 six miles east of Jefferson, tumbled down an embankment and overturned against a tree.

An accident in Perquimans County killed Mark Stephen Cummings, 22, of Hertford. Cummings' car ran off a rural paved road and overturned.

A pedestrian, Lawrence Crisp, 53, of Black Mountain, was killed when he stepped into the path of an oncoming car.

Wadus Reese Duncan Jr., 26, of Gatesville died when the car he was driving ran off a rural Gates County road and struck a driveway ditch.

Marcos David Kalb, 55, of Lincolnton and Mark Dion Lowman, 17, of Cherryville were killed in a head-on collision on N.C. 279 near Dallas.

Johnny Melody Britt, 20, of Raleigh, was killed when a car ran off a rural road near Rolesville and struck two trees.

Another collision in Charlotte took the life of Clarence Shumak, 76, of Charlotte.

Anthony Ray France, 27, of Winston-Salem was killed when his car ran off N.C. 8 in Forsyth County, hit a ditch and overturned.

Prince Fuels Speculation

LONDON (AP) — Prince Charles, heir to the British throne, spent the weekend at Queen Elizabeth II's country farmhouse with his girlfriend, 19-year-old Lady Diana Spencer, once again fueling speculation they plan to marry.

But both of them are keeping quiet if there are indeed plans afoot.

"I've had a lovely weekend," said Lady Diana, daughter of the eighth Earl of Spencer, when she re-

Is Your Daily Reflector Delivery Okay?

We take particular pride in the efficiency of our carriers who deliver the Daily Reflector to your home.

If the daily delivery of your Daily Reflector is less than satisfactory, please tell us about it. Call our Circulation Department and we will do our best to work out the problem.

752-3952

Between 8:30 A.M. and 6:30 P.M. Weekdays and 8 'til 9 A.M. on Sundays

PEANUTS

B.C.

NUBBIN

BLONDIE

BEETLE BAILY

PHANTOM

FRANK & ERNEST

PRIME TIME

FUNKY WINKERBEAN

PIPE LINE

CALL BOB SAUTER 752-2320

TRY OUR TUESDAY NIGHT BUFFET

Two Meats, Seafoods, Plenty Of Fresh Vegetables And Salads Dessert And Tea

$5.95

Children Under 12 $3.25

102 Commercial Property

COMMERCIAL corner lot with high traffic count. Over 1/2 of an acre, 330,000. Call Alice Moore at Aldridge and Southerland, 756-3500. evenings, 756-2944.

106 Farms For Sale

EIGHT ACRES with septic tank and water. Mostly wooded. Owner will finance part. $12,000. Call Hignite Realtors, 756-1306 anytime.

109 Houses For Sale

ACREAGE FOR SALE Excellent located for 244. Reasonably priced. Approximately 52 acres of land, some buildings and improvements in $89,000. Call Davis Realty, 752-3000, 756-1997, 756-2904.

113 Land For Sale

HORSES TO ROAM on 4 acres of beautiful wooded land west of Greenville. Darden Realty, 758-1983, weekdays 756-4041.

115 Lots For Sale

APPROXIMATELY 1/2 acre wooded lot. Priced to sell for only $4000. Near Greenville. Call Davis Realty, 752-3000, 756-1997, 756-2904.

121 Apartments For Rent

AZALEA GARDENS Greenville's newest and most uniquely furnished one bedroom apartments.

121 Apartments For Rent

CHERRY COURT Luxurious 2 bedroom townhouses and 1 bedroom apartments. Carpet, drapes, compactors, washer-dryer, club house, etc.

121 Apartments For Rent

TRIPLEX 2 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths, heat pump, thermopane windows, washer/dryer hookups. Ridge Place, $265, 756-7310.

122 Business Rentals

EXCELLENT LOCATION Office or retail. 308 Evans Street Mail. 758-2111.

127 Houses For Rent

ATTRACTIVE, 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Immediate occupancy. Hardee Acres, $325, 758-8441 (Mr. Quintard).

133 Mobile Homes For Rent

TWO BEDROOM, central air, washer, 165 months, 756-7815 day, 756-0212 after 7 p.m.

144 Wanted To Buy

BUYING AND SELLING gold and silver. Les Jewelers, 120 East 5th Street, 758-2127.

148 Wanted To Rent

COUPLE with no children wishes to rent 1-2 bedroom dwelling. Close to campus. Minimum of 2 years. Will take good care of your property. Goldboro, 1-778-8964.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

For Lease Commercial Space

Eastbrook Drive behind King & Queen Restaurant 752-1010

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rooms For Rent

FURNISHED or unfurnished 752-6583.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Roommate Wanted

FEMALE DESIRES professional person to share home in nice, quiet neighborhood. 756-7247 after 4:30.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

WE INSTALL ALUMINUM AND VINYL SIDING

Remodeling—Room Additions, C.L. Lupton, Co. 752-8116

EXECUTIVE POSITION

Position available, management trainee and financial planner, income to $18,000 with chance of large increase in 2nd year. Our associates know of this ad.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Stihl Chain Saws

Hendrix Barnhill 752-4122

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

We Buy Clean Used Cars

Any Size, Any Type Hastings Ford E. 10th St. 758-0114

109 Houses For Sale

REDUCED FROM $64,900 to $62,500 is this attractive, comfortable and cozy brick ranch. Den with economical Fisher stove. Excellent loan at 9% and owner will consider some financing. Low 60's. Call today. Call Davis Realty, 752-3000, 756-1997, 756-2904.

111 Investment Property

NEW DUPLEXES for sale. Watson Associates, 756-1377, 756-8285 after 7 p.m.

113 Land For Sale

HORSES TO ROAM on 4 acres of beautiful wooded land west of Greenville. Darden Realty, 758-1983, weekdays 756-4041.

115 Lots For Sale

APPROXIMATELY 1/2 acre wooded lot. Priced to sell for only $4000. Near Greenville. Call Davis Realty, 752-3000, 756-1997, 756-2904.

121 Apartments For Rent

AZALEA GARDENS Greenville's newest and most uniquely furnished one bedroom apartments.

121 Apartments For Rent

CHERRY COURT Luxurious 2 bedroom townhouses and 1 bedroom apartments. Carpet, drapes, compactors, washer-dryer, club house, etc.

121 Apartments For Rent

TRIPLEX 2 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths, heat pump, thermopane windows, washer/dryer hookups. Ridge Place, $265, 756-7310.

122 Business Rentals

EXCELLENT LOCATION Office or retail. 308 Evans Street Mail. 758-2111.

127 Houses For Rent

ATTRACTIVE, 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Immediate occupancy. Hardee Acres, $325, 758-8441 (Mr. Quintard).

133 Mobile Homes For Rent

TWO BEDROOM, central air, washer, 165 months, 756-7815 day, 756-0212 after 7 p.m.

144 Wanted To Buy

BUYING AND SELLING gold and silver. Les Jewelers, 120 East 5th Street, 758-2127.

148 Wanted To Rent

COUPLE with no children wishes to rent 1-2 bedroom dwelling. Close to campus. Minimum of 2 years. Will take good care of your property. Goldboro, 1-778-8964.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

For Lease Commercial Space

Eastbrook Drive behind King & Queen Restaurant 752-1010

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rooms For Rent

FURNISHED or unfurnished 752-6583.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Roommate Wanted

FEMALE DESIRES professional person to share home in nice, quiet neighborhood. 756-7247 after 4:30.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

WE INSTALL ALUMINUM AND VINYL SIDING

Remodeling—Room Additions, C.L. Lupton, Co. 752-8116

EXECUTIVE POSITION

Position available, management trainee and financial planner, income to $18,000 with chance of large increase in 2nd year. Our associates know of this ad.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Stihl Chain Saws

Hendrix Barnhill 752-4122

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

We Buy Clean Used Cars

Any Size, Any Type Hastings Ford E. 10th St. 758-0114

121 Apartments For Rent

CARRIAGE HOUSE Apartments, 2 bedroom townhouses. All electric, fully carpeted, cable TV, pool and laundry room. Call 756-3450.

122 Business Rentals

EXCELLENT LOCATION Office or retail. 308 Evans Street Mail. 758-2111.

127 Houses For Rent

ATTRACTIVE, 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Immediate occupancy. Hardee Acres, $325, 758-8441 (Mr. Quintard).

133 Mobile Homes For Rent

TWO BEDROOM, central air, washer, 165 months, 756-7815 day, 756-0212 after 7 p.m.

144 Wanted To Buy

BUYING AND SELLING gold and silver. Les Jewelers, 120 East 5th Street, 758-2127.

148 Wanted To Rent

COUPLE with no children wishes to rent 1-2 bedroom dwelling. Close to campus. Minimum of 2 years. Will take good care of your property. Goldboro, 1-778-8964.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

For Lease Commercial Space

Eastbrook Drive behind King & Queen Restaurant 752-1010

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rooms For Rent

FURNISHED or unfurnished 752-6583.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Roommate Wanted

FEMALE DESIRES professional person to share home in nice, quiet neighborhood. 756-7247 after 4:30.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

WE INSTALL ALUMINUM AND VINYL SIDING

Remodeling—Room Additions, C.L. Lupton, Co. 752-8116

EXECUTIVE POSITION

Position available, management trainee and financial planner, income to $18,000 with chance of large increase in 2nd year. Our associates know of this ad.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Stihl Chain Saws

Hendrix Barnhill 752-4122

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

We Buy Clean Used Cars

Any Size, Any Type Hastings Ford E. 10th St. 758-0114

121 Apartments For Rent

CARRIAGE HOUSE Apartments, 2 bedroom townhouses. All electric, fully carpeted, cable TV, pool and laundry room. Call 756-3450.

122 Business Rentals

EXCELLENT LOCATION Office or retail. 308 Evans Street Mail. 758-2111.

127 Houses For Rent

ATTRACTIVE, 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Immediate occupancy. Hardee Acres, $325, 758-8441 (Mr. Quintard).

133 Mobile Homes For Rent

TWO BEDROOM, central air, washer, 165 months, 756-7815 day, 756-0212 after 7 p.m.

144 Wanted To Buy

BUYING AND SELLING gold and silver. Les Jewelers, 120 East 5th Street, 758-2127.

148 Wanted To Rent

COUPLE with no children wishes to rent 1-2 bedroom dwelling. Close to campus. Minimum of 2 years. Will take good care of your property. Goldboro, 1-778-8964.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

For Lease Commercial Space

Eastbrook Drive behind King & Queen Restaurant 752-1010

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rooms For Rent

FURNISHED or unfurnished 752-6583.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Roommate Wanted

FEMALE DESIRES professional person to share home in nice, quiet neighborhood. 756-7247 after 4:30.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

WE INSTALL ALUMINUM AND VINYL SIDING

Remodeling—Room Additions, C.L. Lupton, Co. 752-8116

EXECUTIVE POSITION

Position available, management trainee and financial planner, income to $18,000 with chance of large increase in 2nd year. Our associates know of this ad.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Stihl Chain Saws

Hendrix Barnhill 752-4122

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

We Buy Clean Used Cars

Any Size, Any Type Hastings Ford E. 10th St. 758-0114

121 Apartments For Rent

CARRIAGE HOUSE Apartments, 2 bedroom townhouses. All electric, fully carpeted, cable TV, pool and laundry room. Call 756-3450.

122 Business Rentals

EXCELLENT LOCATION Office or retail. 308 Evans Street Mail. 758-2111.

127 Houses For Rent

ATTRACTIVE, 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Immediate occupancy. Hardee Acres, $325, 758-8441 (Mr. Quintard).

133 Mobile Homes For Rent

TWO BEDROOM, central air, washer, 165 months, 756-7815 day, 756-0212 after 7 p.m.

144 Wanted To Buy

BUYING AND SELLING gold and silver. Les Jewelers, 120 East 5th Street, 758-2127.

148 Wanted To Rent

COUPLE with no children wishes to rent 1-2 bedroom dwelling. Close to campus. Minimum of 2 years. Will take good care of your property. Goldboro, 1-778-8964.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

For Lease Commercial Space

Eastbrook Drive behind King & Queen Restaurant 752-1010

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rooms For Rent

FURNISHED or unfurnished 752-6583.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Roommate Wanted

FEMALE DESIRES professional person to share home in nice, quiet neighborhood. 756-7247 after 4:30.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

WE INSTALL ALUMINUM AND VINYL SIDING

Remodeling—Room Additions, C.L. Lupton, Co. 752-8116

EXECUTIVE POSITION

Position available, management trainee and financial planner, income to $18,000 with chance of large increase in 2nd year. Our associates know of this ad.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Stihl Chain Saws

Hendrix Barnhill 752-4122

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

We Buy Clean Used Cars

Any Size, Any Type Hastings Ford E. 10th St. 758-0114

121 Apartments For Rent

CARRIAGE HOUSE Apartments, 2 bedroom townhouses. All electric, fully carpeted, cable TV, pool and laundry room. Call 756-3450.

122 Business Rentals

EXCELLENT LOCATION Office or retail. 308 Evans Street Mail. 758-2111.

127 Houses For Rent

ATTRACTIVE, 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Immediate occupancy. Hardee Acres, $325, 758-8441 (Mr. Quintard).

133 Mobile Homes For Rent

TWO BEDROOM, central air, washer, 165 months, 756-7815 day, 756-0212 after 7 p.m.

144 Wanted To Buy

BUYING AND SELLING gold and silver. Les Jewelers, 120 East 5th Street, 758-2127.

148 Wanted To Rent

COUPLE with no children wishes to rent 1-2 bedroom dwelling. Close to campus. Minimum of 2 years. Will take good care of your property. Goldboro, 1-778-8964.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

For Lease Commercial Space

Eastbrook Drive behind King & Queen Restaurant 752-1010

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rooms For Rent

FURNISHED or unfurnished 752-6583.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Roommate Wanted

FEMALE DESIRES professional person to share home in nice, quiet neighborhood. 756-7247 after 4:30.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

WE INSTALL ALUMINUM AND VINYL SIDING

Remodeling—Room Additions, C.L. Lupton, Co. 752-8116

EXECUTIVE POSITION

Position available, management trainee and financial planner, income to $18,000 with chance of large increase in 2nd year. Our associates know of this ad.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Stihl Chain Saws

Hendrix Barnhill 752-4122

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

We Buy Clean Used Cars

Any Size, Any Type Hastings Ford E. 10th St. 758-0114

121 Apartments For Rent

CARRIAGE HOUSE Apartments, 2 bedroom townhouses. All electric, fully carpeted, cable TV, pool and laundry room. Call 756-3450.

122 Business Rentals

EXCELLENT LOCATION Office or retail. 308 Evans Street Mail. 758-2111.

127 Houses For Rent

ATTRACTIVE, 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Immediate occupancy. Hardee Acres, $325, 758-8441 (Mr. Quintard).

133 Mobile Homes For Rent

TWO BEDROOM, central air, washer, 165 months, 756-7815 day, 756-0212 after 7 p.m.

144 Wanted To Buy

BUYING AND SELLING gold and silver. Les Jewelers, 120 East 5th Street, 758-2127.

148 Wanted To Rent

COUPLE with no children wishes to rent 1-2 bedroom dwelling. Close to campus. Minimum of 2 years. Will take good care of your property. Goldboro, 1-778-8964.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

For Lease Commercial Space

Eastbrook Drive behind King & Queen Restaurant 752-1010

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Rooms For Rent

FURNISHED or unfurnished 752-6583.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Roommate Wanted

FEMALE DESIRES professional person to share home in nice, quiet neighborhood. 756-7247 after 4:30.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

WE INSTALL ALUMINUM AND VINYL SIDING

New Salem Ultra

The first Ultra low tar that stands for refreshment!

Above all it's a Salem.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

ULTRA: 5 mg. "tar", 0.4 mg. nicotine, ULTRA 100's: 6 mg. "tar", 0.4 mg. nicotine, av. per cigarette by FTC method.