

all three papers together, i.e. with Karel's and Otto's names. I have to await some results of measurements from Dachstein made by Gamsjager who is the director, like Tunal, over there.

The first volume of Billroth is not available at Boyles, the biggest British bookshop in London. They said to me, it was published by Coronado Press but said it was sold out. I have to wait for the 2nd edition as I would be delighted to have him in my library.

Milá paní profesorová! thank you for your letter of 7/3/80, and for the list of your own published papers. What a laborious writer you are, my congratulations and admiration. I would very much like to get a copy of your paper on Expeditions of your dear late husband. What are you going to do with his collection of letters with all those prominent personalities he was in touch. What happened to the Collembola? Did you make up your mind together with Dr Jane M. Wilson of Oxford who was keen in bringing them up to date and whom I referred to you in 1977.

I wish you a good stay in Washington in Huntover Drive. We are looking forward to meet you at Heathrow or better in our house if you ~~stay~~ would like to stay for a couple of days with us while returning back to Všetíčková 31. Let us know, please. We won't be in the last week in July and in August. Best regards to Alinka.

Dear Mary, I hope that you are pleased with Karel's decision concerning his new job. I also hope you are not too busy with all the rest of your family. What a sensational and pretty daughter you have got. We had a most delightful time with her. Hopefully she will come soon again. Give her our best regards, please. Let us know when you will be over here. Helen's doctorate in psychology has <sup>been</sup> recognized and now she is busy in one of the largest psychological departments in this city. She is adding her regards to you.

Moji draží I wish you all the best, a good stay, and help Jimmy to win his elections! We like him.

Hoping to hear from you soon again,
Yours sincerely,

with best regards,
Emil, Helen
