Dear David

I would not count on Walt. Just let it sit, look for something else and if you should have anything attractive see whether you can get him committed. He is quite straight forward when it is of benefit to him. People over here are interested to fund the research lab a transplantation program, thus I am between various temptations. I may have scared Kantrowitz off with certain demands.

Lots of luck!

Sincerely

Karel B. Absolon, M.D.
