CANTATA NO. 61: Come, Redeemer of our Race J. S. Bach
(1685-1750)

Come Redeemer of our race,
Virgin-born by holy grace,
Hailed by all the wond'ring earth,
God of old ordained His birth.

The saviour now appeareth, and our poor human form of flesh and blood
He weareth, that we may all be one with Him indeed. Oh! Thou most perfect joy, what wondrous things hast thou not done. What dost Thou not each day, Thy love expressing?

Thou cometh down in light to crown Thine own with blessing.

Come, Jesus, come. Thy church awaits Thee, and deign to bless the newborn year. Help us in all to seek Thy glory, to hold in truth the sacred story, and grow in love and holy fear.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to Him and will sup with him and he with me.

Open wide, my heart, thy portals,
Jesus enters in to thee.
Though my dust to dust returneth,
He is a home in me hath sought
Who the soul that He hath bought
Never from His presence spurneth.
O how blessed shall I be!

Amen!

Come, Thou crown of all rejoicing, no more linger. All my soul for Thee is longing.

REJOICE, BELOVED CHRISTIANS—
"Twilight Music"

Dietrich Buxtehude
(1637-1707)

Beloved Christians, now rejoice,
Sing joyously with heart and voice,
For soon the Son of God will come,
And take us to His heavenly home,

Hear ye! Hear ye! The Lord cometh with many thousands of angels.
Pronouncing His judgment upon all nations.

Behold, I Come! I come quickly and my reward with me; I soon shall come, and my reward with me.

O come, Lord Jesus quickly come,
Through cloven skies descending.
O come, thou of our hearts the strength and stay,
Of evil make swift ending.
O come, Jesus, come, and tarry not,
That we in realms of heavenly day,
That bring Thee praise unending.

Amen.

O Lord, our God, vouchafe Thy grace,
May we behold Thee face to face,
And praise the glorious Trinity
Throughout a glad eternity. Amen.
