Dear Pam,

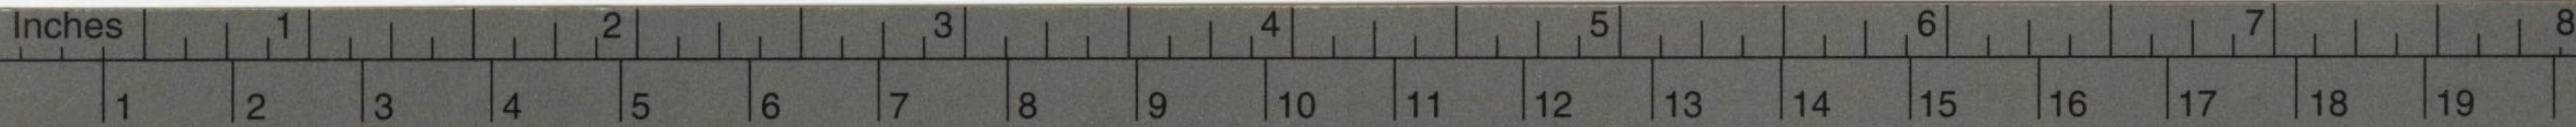

On behalf of the University we extend to you our sincere appreciation for the University Club's continued support of Campus Beautification. Your most recent gift of $1,800 is very generous and certainly will be of great assistance to us in our many ongoing beautification projects.

As you are aware, the University Club's gift for the 1987-88 year allowed us to completely landscape the new General Classroom Building. While we have not designated a specific project for your most recent donation, we will do so soon and of course would welcome any suggestions you may have.

At a convenient time later this summer we would like for you and other representatives of the Club to make a formal presentation of this gift to Chancellor Eakin. Please contact me regarding a suitable time so that arrangements may be made with the Chancellor and our photography staff.

Once again, we sincerely thank the University Club for its generosity and interest in campus beautification. With best

Second, the East Carolina University (E.C.U.) Club donated $1800 to the Chancellor's Beautification Program for the 1988-89 school year. The club's annual fund-raiser, the Spring Fashion Show and Luncheon coordinated this past year by Diana Dansey, was responsible for the $1800 donation. This was the club's most successful fashion show and used fashions and accessories from ten area stores. During the 1987-88 school year, the club conducted two fund-raisers, the Spring Fashion Show and a Wine Tasting Gala. The result was a $4500 donation to the Beautification Program. The majority of BEAUTIFICATION PROJECT — Physical Plant director Robert Webb (R) explains plans for beautifying the campus with benches to Diana Dansey of the University Club and Chancellor Eakin. The University Club's fund-raisers last year helped pay the cost of this bench project near Rawl Building.

University Club Plans Year's Activities

The East Carolina University Club opens this year's activities September 17 with a fall tea, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the great room of the new Mendenhall Student Center addition, according to club president Pam Hart.

All faculty, staff and spouses are invited to attend, join the club and sign up to participate in the club's activities, Hart said. The year's activities include a gourmet club, bridge club, the annual fashion show, a newcomer's group, wine gala and the holiday tea.

The newcomers group under the direction of Penny Laing and Martha Ferrell plans a tour of the campus on September 27.

Fund-Raising Events

The spring fashion show and a wine tasting gala, both scheduled in spring semester, will again be fund-raising events for the Chancellor's Beautification program.

Last year, the spring fashion show and luncheon under the direction of Diana Dansey raised $1,800. During the previous year, the club raised $4,500 in two fund-raisers and the proceeds were used for landscaping and, with a donation by the 1989 senior class, for a brick park area in front of the Student Store.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This year is passing by quickly. The fall is over and the new year is approaching rapidly. With that we look forward to the upcoming events and look back on the activities that occurred this fall.

The Fall Tea was Sunday, September 17th. The results of Pia Leahy's hard work was a classy affair. The afternoon's activities started with socializing, heavy hors-d'oeuvre and entertainment by Charles Bath. Later a program introduced this year's officers, events and committee chairs. During the event, many people enjoyed the club's scrap book which was displayed and is a collection of events and memories beginning with the first year the club was organized up to the present. The scrap book will also be displayed at the Holiday Tea for all to enjoy. Thank you again, Pia, for your efforts in making this event a success.

The Newcomer's Campus Tour was held September 27th. The tour was a smashing success. Penny Laing and Martha Ferrell were responsible for initiating this new event and were very pleased with the interest and more importantly the favorable feedback received by newcomers who attended the tour. Recently, Penny met with Sophann Schleifer, a newcomer, who has volunteered to organize the newcomers we have as members this year and expand newcomer activities next year. I applaud Penny and Martha for their devotion to this event and wish Sophann luck in bringing together our new people on campus.

Gourmet Club has started another year of fun by successfully completing their first dinner...a Caribbean feast. Betty Grossnickle always produces a first class affair and we know gourmet members appreciate her continued hard work.

Mark your calendars for the following upcoming events.

UNIVERSITY CLUB SPONSORS
ANNUAL WINE & CHEESE GALA

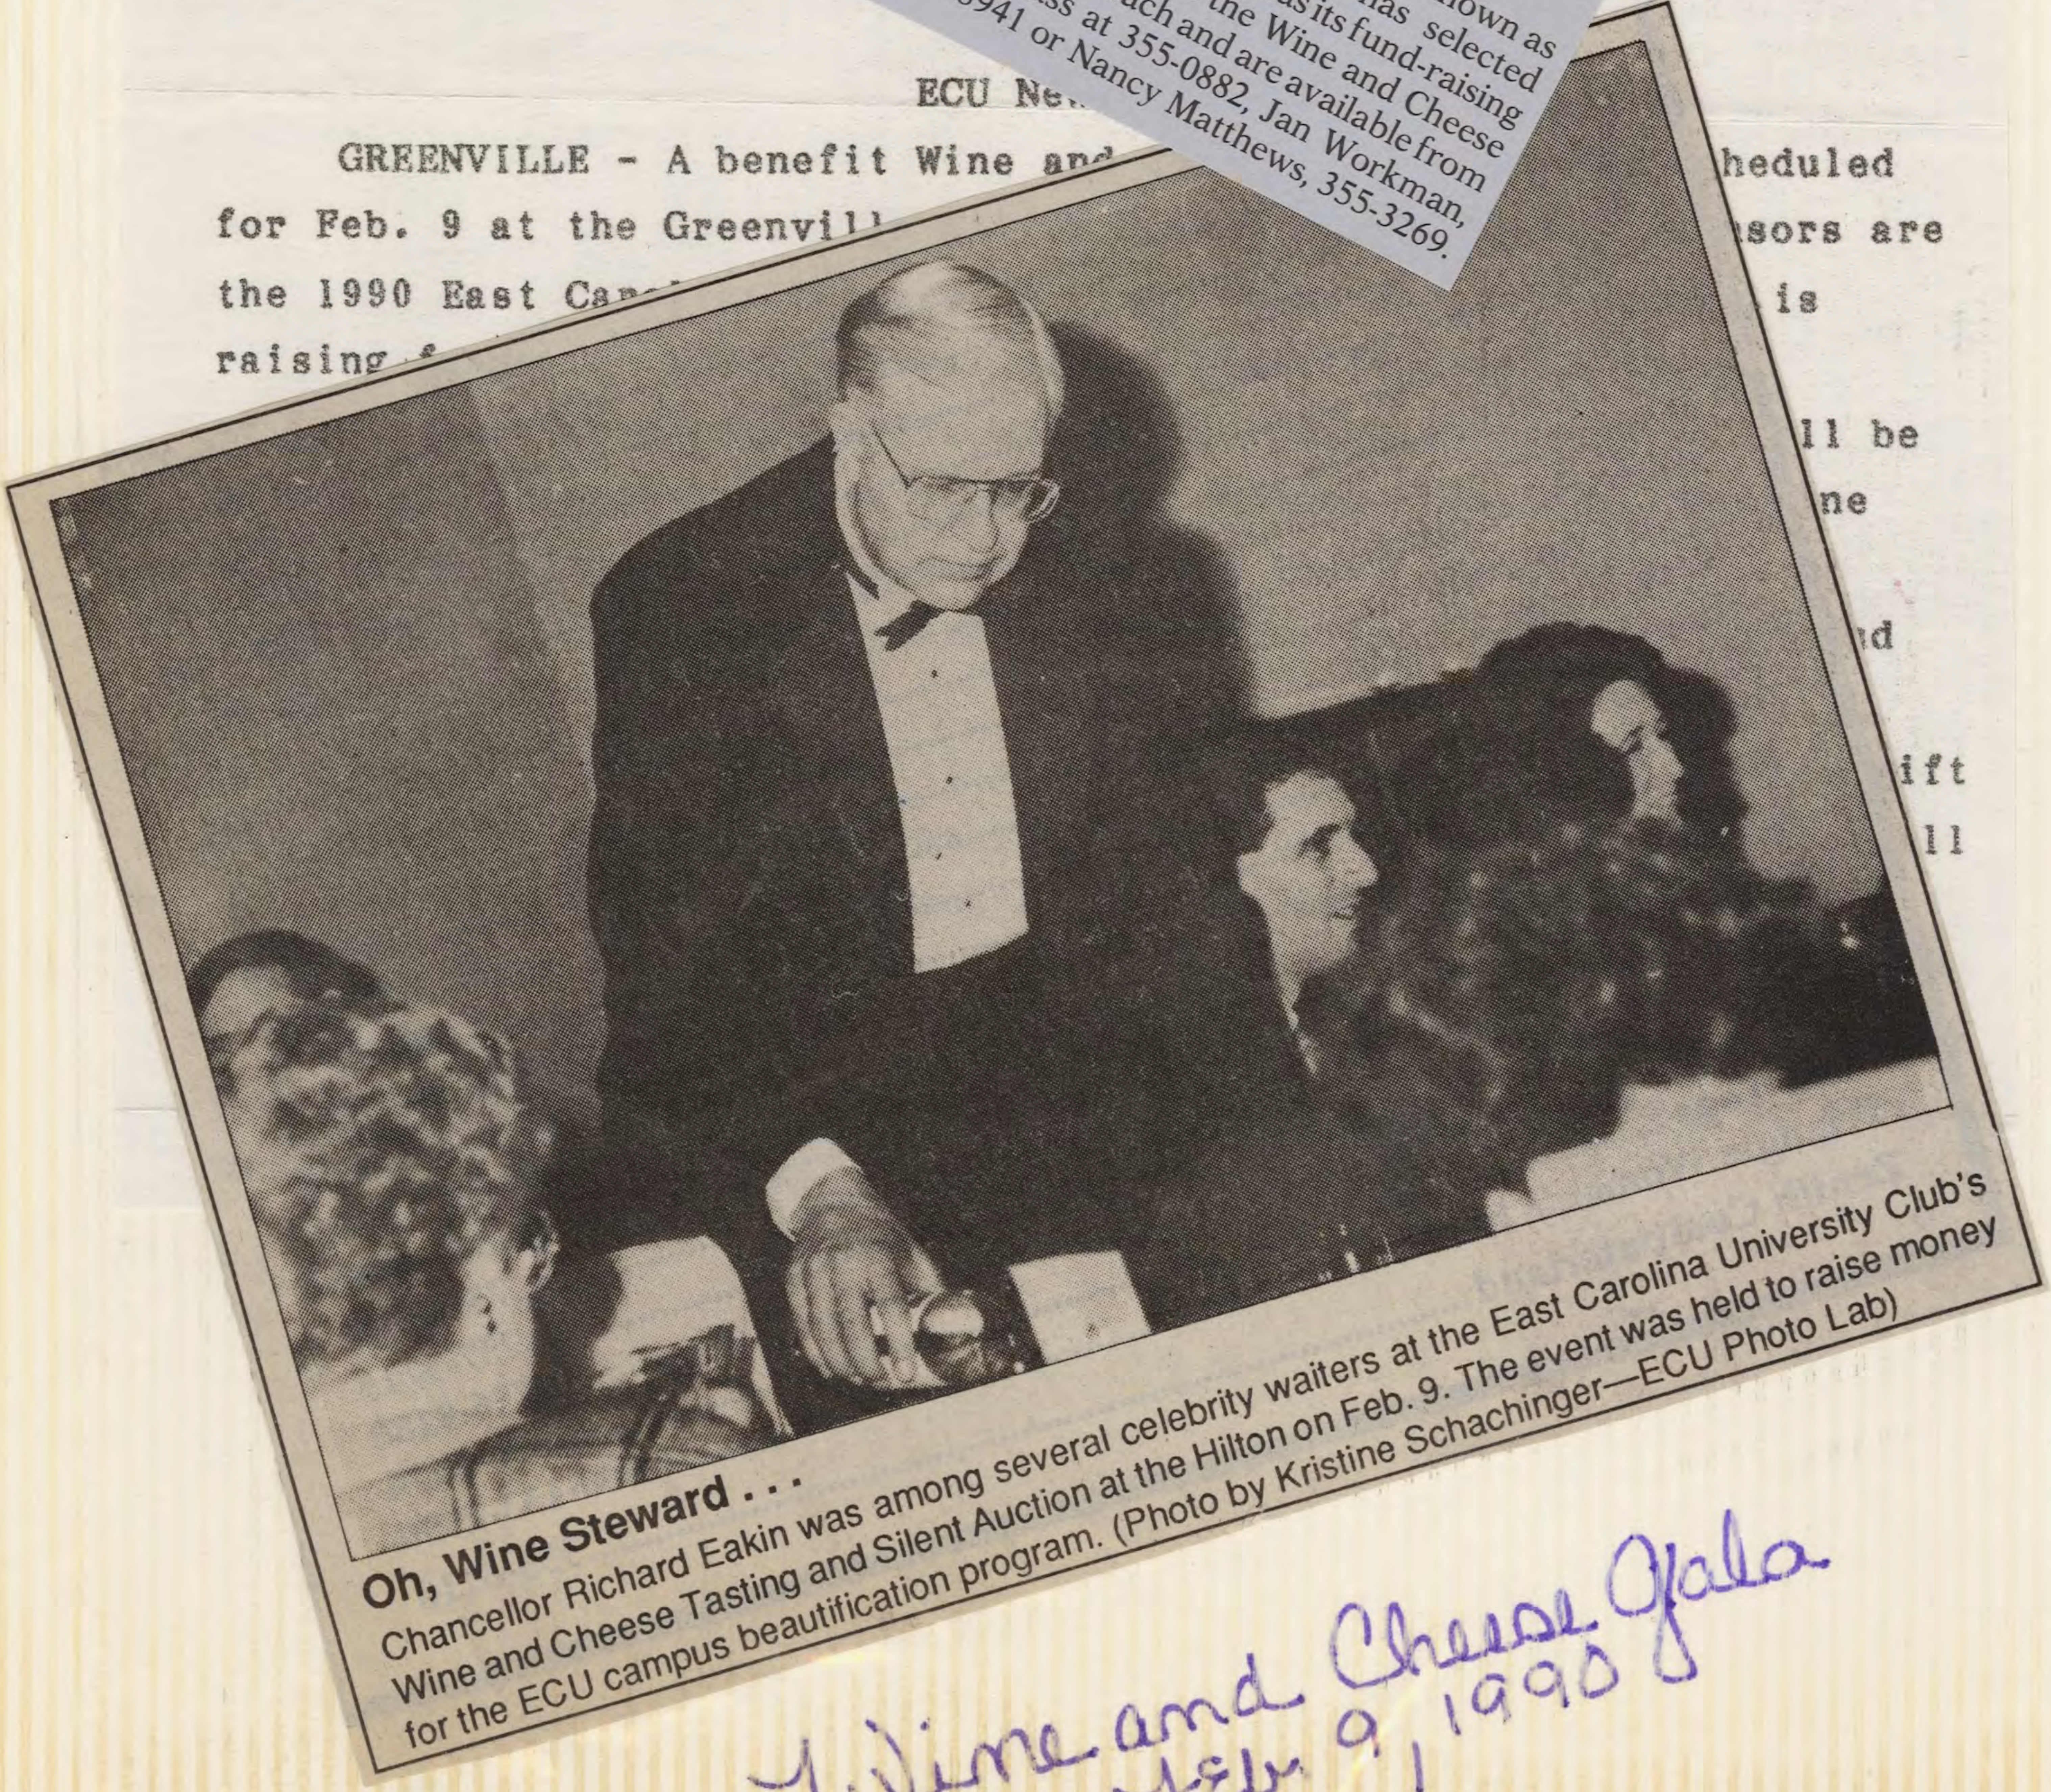

Wine and Cheese Gala
A benefit Wine and Cheese Gala will be sponsored by the East Carolina University Club February 9 at the Greenville Hilton, beginning at 8 p.m.
A selection of California wines, including a champagne, will be presented, accompanied by a variety of cheeses. Serving each wine will be formally-attired campus and community leaders. The evening's events will feature a "Silent Auction" of donated gift items and art works. Wines for the gala were contributed by the New East Bank of Greenville and Hannah and Dunn, Inc.
The University Club, formerly known as the ECU Women's Club, has selected campus beautification as its fund-raising project. Tickets to the Wine and Cheese Gala are $15 each and are available from Sarah Bass at 355-0882, Jan Workman, 756-8941 or Nancy Matthews, 355-3269.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Pam Hart

This year is quickly coming to a close. February and March have flown by leaving us with only a month to conclude this year's activities and business PLUS make plans for next year.

The WINE and CHEESE GALA and the FASHION SHOW were memorable events. Their successes have provided us with the funds to make another significant contribution to the Chancellor's Beautification Program. Thank you, Dee Carr and your Wine Gala Committee members for a fun-filled and classy affair. Also, special thanks to Susan Olson, the Fashion Show Committee members and dedicated models for presenting a memorable show to a sell out crowd.

Here is what is planned for April!

First, a NOMINATING COMMITTEE has been formed to develop a slate of officers for next year. This committee will be recruiting new board members for next year. The offices to be filled are: President-Elect, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer. If anyone is interested in filling one of these offices for next year, please call Judy Simon, Penny Laing or Diana Dansey as soon as possible.

Second, our SPRING BUSINESS MEETING will be held Wednesday, April 25th at 7:00 p.m. at my house (203 Summrell Street). The agenda for this meeting will be to:

- 1) Vote on officers for next year.
- 2) Determine what fundraising efforts will be earmarked for 1990-91.
- 3) Discuss the overall success of this year's social events, activities and fundraisers.

ECU Club Plans Wine Gala

The ECU Club will host a benefit International Wine Gala Friday, February 8, at the Hilton Inn, beginning at 8 p.m.

The gala theme, Around the World with Wines, will be carried out in the serving of wines from various nations and a program of international music and dance, featuring Stephanie and Philip Evancho and Otto Dykstra.

"Celebrity" wine servers include Chancellor Richard Eakin, various ECU officials, local and state political figures, and community leaders. Complementing the wine will be a selection of cheeses, fruits and bread.

Other events of the evening will be a raffle of two round trip tickets to Paris and a silent auction of a dozen select items—including a "dessert of the month" for a year.

Wines were provided by Harris Teeter and by Carolina, East Carolina, Empire, Pamlico and Tankard Distributors. Other items are courtesy of American Eagle/American Airlines, ITG Travel.

Proceeds from the event will go for a scholarship for a single parent who is completing an undergraduate degree at ECU, according to Club spokesman Ellen McDonald.

Tickets are $17.50 per person and are available from McDonald at 756-7763 or from Elizabeth Hecker at 757-6685 (day) or 756-3068 (evening).

To: Elizabeth Hecker and the ECU Club Wine Gala
Committee

From: James L. Lanier

Date: February 18, 1991

Re: ECU Club Wine Gala

Thanks for a terrific evening. The Wine Gala seems to get bigger and better each year. This year's party was certainly the best so far. Your thoughtful planning and attention to every detail was obvious. The entertainment added a happy, festive flavor that carried through the entire evening.

The ECU Club is a vital support and involvement mechanism for the university. Your gifts to our scholarship and beautification programs are tangible evidence of your commitment to the mission of the university. Probably more important and less tangible is the spirit and fellowship developed through your associations with each other during the year.

On behalf of all of us at the university, thank you for everything you do to make it a warmer and more caring environment in which to work. I am looking forward already to next year's event.

Fashions Of 'City' Featured

By Rosalie Trotman
THE DAILY REFLECTOR

Termed fast paced and upbeat, "A Breeze Through New York" fashion show will be held by the East Carolina University Club Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Ramada Inn.

Happenings

Spring and summer fashions for all ages — men, women and children — will be presented in six scenes including scene 1, traveling to the Big Apple; scene 2, street clothes for the city; scene 3, a day in Central Park including casual wear; scene 4, an evening on Broadway — which will feature characters from some of the Broadway favorites like Cats and Phantom of the Opera; scene 5, winding down, and scene 6, nightlife.

The backdrop for the fashion show will be the New York skyline. Models from Belk are LUCRETIA WEST; ANGELA DAVIS; BETTY LEVEY; HELEN POSEY; TONY HIGH; RICK FAUCETT; STEPHANIE MARTIN; KERRI MYERS; TAMMY GOODMAN and JONI PHILLIPS.

Individual tables will be decorated with black top hats filled with silver and red foil sprinkled with iridescent dots and large red apples. Special desserts — amaretta cheese cake, carrot cake, chocolate pecan pie and seasonal fruit — will be served guests along with beverages.

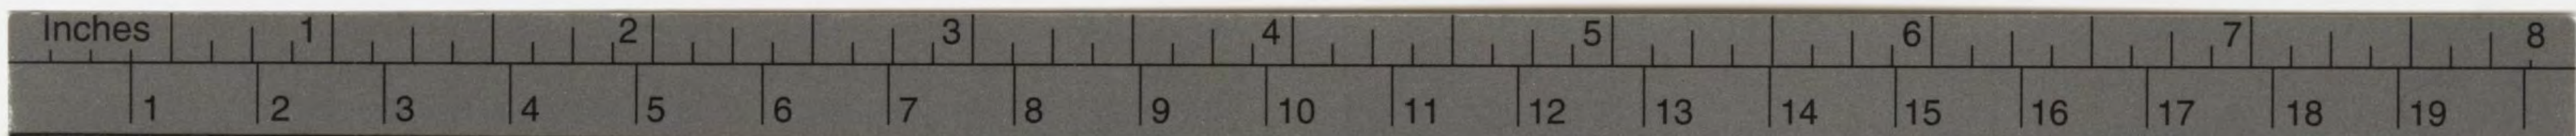

SUSANNA HUDSON is overall chairman for the benefit. She is assisted by SHEILA CHURCH and KATHERINE VINSON, tickets; DIANA DANSEY; PAM HART and AUDREY STRICKLAND, decorations; SCOTT WELLS, special projects; SUE MCCARTHY and ELLEN McDONALD, publicity; and SUE JOHNSON.

Fashion coordinators from Belk are KAREN MILLS HIGH and MARY NORRIS. BETTY BAILEY, of the Greenville Service League, is assisting with decorations.

Another highlight of the evening will be a make-up makeover.

"This will be our 29th fashion show which was started by the original group, the Faculty Wives Club," said Miss Hudson. "The purpose of the benefit is to raise funds for university needs."

"During the past several years the funds were used for campus beautification," she said. "This year we voted to change the project and raise money to help at least one student, a single parent to attend ECU."

The East Carolina University Club Twenty-Ninth Annual FASHION SHOW

"A Breeze Through New York"

Wednesday, the seventeenth of April
seven-thirty in the evening
The Ramada Inn Ballroom

Join your friends for "A Breeze Through New York" at this year's ECU Club Fashion Show. Belk's will present its spring and summer fashions in exciting choreographed routines for all ages to enjoy. An Estee Lauder makeover and a creative accessories demonstration will complete the fashion showcase. Three scrumptious desserts accompanied with fruit of the season will be served.

We have an extra special raffle item for this year's event. In harmony with the theme, someone in attendance will literally "Breeze Through New York" with a companion. Two round-trip airline tickets to New York will be raffled during the evening. Come prepared to buy several chances; at $2.00 each or 6 for $10.00, it could be your lucky evening. Several door prizes will be given away, also. You must be present to win!

Plan to bring your family and friends to this occasion. Non-ECU Club members are welcomed, as well as spouses and children. Proceeds from the event will go for a scholarship for a single parent who has come to East Carolina University to complete an undergraduate degree.

Tickets are $15.00 each. To receive your tickets, complete the form at the bottom of this page and mail to the address indicated by April 3rd. Tables seat eight guests each and will be reserved in order of monies received by Sheila Church.

For more information, contact Susanna Hudson at 757-6685 (day) or Ellen McDonald at 756-7763.

Single Parent Scholarship

The club raised $7,200 during the last year from the Wine Gala and Fashion Show, and put $1,200 of this amount toward the first scholarship. The remaining $6,000 went to the E.C.U. Foundation in an endowed account to begin building toward a permanent scholarship for single parents. A minimum of $10,000 is needed to endow a scholarship and we hope to eventually reach $20,000. Beginning with 1992-93, the interest on this account will be awarded annually.

A recent graduate of North Pitt High School, Natasha Marie Johnson, was chosen from seven applicants to receive the $1,200 scholarship. Applicants must be enrolled in at least nine hours a semester and also have a projected grade point average of 2.5

E. C. U. GOURMET CLUB DINNERS
1991-1992

PLACE: Mendenhall Student Center 7:00 P.M.
Cost: $4.50 per person, $9.00 per couple (this covers table settings, paper goods, wine, printing menus, etc.)
You may bring guests if you notify us in advance

DATES: September 28	Brazil	Clean-up
October 26	India	A - E
January 18, 1992	Mid-Winter Fete	F - J
February 15	French	K - O
April 11	Oriental	P - U
		V - Z

The Gourmet Club is open only to dues paying members of the E.C.U. Club. Payment for each dinner is made in advance and the recipes may be picked up at the Kitchen Cupboard. The staff at the store will NOT take your dues and are not prepared to offer help on your recipe. If you have questions or problems, call Betty Grossnickle (756-0706) or Rosalie Baker (752-3652).

Please pay your fee and pick up your recipes no later than Wednesday before the dinner. If you must cancel, please do so no later than Wednesday. If you wait later than that date, YOU WILL BE EXPECTED TO SEND THE DISH YOU AGREED TO DO. Otherwise, it upsets the balance of the menu and the quantities required. If you do not come by for your recipes by Wednesday, then someone will have to call you to make sure that you are coming. This is a real hassle. If you absolutely cannot get by the store by Wednesday, at least owe Rosalie or Betty the courtesy of calling us and telling up you are running late but are coming. We have, at times, had too much or not enough wine ordered, and at times we have run short of certain dishes. It may seem that we have set up a good many rules and regulations, but the larger the group, the more we have to count on you to do your part.

Please bring what you told your caller you would bring. If you forgot, call your caller - she will know. If you cooperate, you should be required to bring only one main dish per year.

PLEASE DO NOT SUBSTITUTE OR LEAVE OUT INGREDIENTS! Too many members have complained that others do not follow the recipe. We try to chose menus whose ingredients are readily available. If not, we'll tell you where to find them.

KITCHEN FACILITIES are limited at Mendenhall. If you have a hot tray, bring it. If not, wrap your dish in several layers of newspapers and a bath towel to keep it hot. There is sufficient refrigerator space for cold dishes.

* A Special note: if you could not attend any of the dinners last year, or called to cancel more than once, chances are your name has been removed from the mailing and calling list. If you wish to be reinstated, pay your dues and call Betty. We currently have over 65 names to call and our callers have permission to stop calling those who rarely come, or cancel.

This is the 25th year for the Gourmet Club - help to make it a great one!

Betty Grossnickle
