My Darling Wife

I found the crop had grown almost out of my recollection during absence and that Andrew had managed very well, tho' he and Phil, I think, were a little afraid to trouble the crops until my return - will commence about them this evening -

I think of my late visit with a great deal of satisfaction - my every moment with you was a delightful one and I long to repeat the same -

You must excuse my not writing a long letter to day - The bell has just rung and I must go to give some orders - Will write at length next time - Love and kisses for you all
Yours aff
Husband.
