

Washington D. C

August 19th 1839

My Dear Sir,

Allow me to make you acquainted with my friend Mr J. Johnston Carr, one of my constituents who is visiting the Springs for pleasure and health. You will find him an agreeable gentleman, of good morals and sound political sentiments.

I regret exceedingly that I shall be deprived of the pleasure of your Company during the next Congress; but I regret it not only on this account, but for the sake of an whole country.

With high respect

Yours &

Hon: John Robertson
of Va:

Edw. Parley
