

[To: ELIAS CARR, Esq., NEAR SPARTA, Edgecombe Co., N.C.]

Chapel Hill, 22. Oct. 1844.

My dear young friend,

Your kind note of the 13th was received by this morning mail and I avail myself of the earliest opportunity to reply. I had a good memory, and I know your father before you will not let my silence to forget you, and the invitation to visit you when I next have occasion to make a jaunt to your parts of the country. your most respectful regards are very cheerfully accepted.

Mr. Thomas B. Dupont who lives within half a mile of my place is authorized to send it out for me, and to bid you may refer the gentleman of whom you speak for terms.

letter from them since their departure.

Examine the paper on which I wrote. The difficulties of the times and the scarcity of the articles, necessitates economy in its use.

Yours very sincerely,
A. L. Swanwick.
