Dear Sir

I am from of the 26 inst is at hand this morning & contents noticed - If Mr Case consents upon it I will discuss the interest with him which would be about 10ft but the last Bank I have now sent him & you cut me 300 dollars more than the one usually sent with that exp. by me - which should compensate for the difference & delay still I am not disposed to be critical or close & will leave the matter to you & Mr Case to do as you think right - only forward me the note at your earliest convenience payable as I have requested at my office 70 Maiden Lane The Packing order was sent on the 24 inst by Express as you requested & I hope you have received & upon this - Hoping to hear from you soon with the note I am

Yours truly
 Jacob B Schenck
