Dear Sir

yours of 27th Ult. to hand the copy to which you allude will be attended to.

We regretted as much as you to be obliged to sell your cotton at 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, but it was all the market afforded & if we had held longer could not have done as well, & we fear by holding your remaining Cotton you will not realize as much as for the last. There is a constant downward tendency & the indications are that it will go below 40¢. — We have not yet rec<sup>d</sup>. a Bill of Lading for your last cotton — when it arrives your wishes will be complied with

Yrs Very Respectfully

Dancy Hyman & Co.
