

A. T. BRUCE CO.,
COTTON FACTORS AND GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS, NO. 166 PEARL STREET,

New York, April 15th 1867

Chas Carr Esq,

Dear Sir, Cotton in consequence of the war cloud in Europe is still lower as you will perceive by Circular enclosed, we are selling little or none, believing that a more favourable turn will come, Exporters cant take hold just now, as some failures have been reported which makes the Bankers very shy in buying Bills drawn against Cotton, Hay is selling quite high consequently have not filled your order, as you give a limit of two months time, we thank your interest, will be promoted untill a larger stock comes to market,

Yours truly
A T Bruce & Co

our Bro John will likely call on you soon after you receive this,

P.M. Dispatch says $\frac{1}{8}$ advance in Liverpool hope it will go on,
